Death rate down for white men

WASHINGTON - The lung cancer death rate for white men appears to have peaked, but the rates for women and black men are still increasing because they have been slower to quit smoking, federal health officials say.

The rate for white men is expected to begin a significant decline in the mid-1990s, but rates for women and black men are not expected to begin dropping until after the turn of the century, said Health and Human Services Secretary Louis Sullivan.

The new figures were released Wednesday along with a new National Cancer Institute report, "Strategies to Control Tobacco Use in the United States: A Blueprint for Public Health Action in the 1990s.

"Cigarette smoking is still an epidemic of self-inflicted death," Sullivan said in releasing the report. But the turnaround in the lung cancer death rate for white males "demonstrates that determined, persistent health edueation can work," he said.

About 27 percent of the U.S. population are smokers, compared with more than 50 percent in 1964, when the surgeon general released the first official government report on the health effects of smoking.

New jobless claims soar

WASHINGTON - Jobless claims surged a sharper-than-expected 79,000 during the first week of December as the number of Americans filing for first-time unemployment benefits nearly reached the half-million mark, the government said today.

There were a seasonally adjusted 493,000 people applying for benefits during the week ending Dec. 7, up from 414,000 the previous week, according to the Labor Department.

The rise, after last week's 61,000 decline. could portend a further deterioration in the nation's labor market, but economists wanted to see if the trend was sustained in succeeding Analysts had expected an increase, but only around half of what was reported. Claims during the previous week had been held down by Thanksgiving, which left laid off workers with only four days to apply for benefits instead of the usual five.

5 burglary suspects from Orlando caught

By J. MARK BARFIELD Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD - Police this morning captured red-handed the suspects who rammed the front door of the A and N Gun Shop with a car and stole between 15 and 20 handguns.

Sanford police believe some or all of the five Orlando men were involved with a similar break-in attempt at the gun store at 501 S. apprehended in the area, Harriett said. French Ave. on Dec. 5. In that incdent, the suspects got away without taking anything.

Sanford Police Chief Steven Harriett said the five men were being questioned this morning. Each suspect has been charged with burglary, he said. Other charges are pending. Their names were not available.

Harriett said police were investigating a burglary at nearby Scotty's when they received an A and N alarm at about 3 a.m.

Harriett sald they found an older model car had been used to push open the front door of the gunshop. The five suspects fled on foot and were See Captured, Page 5A

Police have recovered between 15 and 20 handguns, but won't know if all of the stolen guns have been found until an inventory is completed.

Harriett said investigators have contacted Orlando police and Orange County deputies to see if the five men may have been involved in similar auto "smash-and-grab" crimes.

"They're all from Orlando and there's a similarity in their m.o.s (method of operation)."

Harriett said.

Watkins wins top educator

By VICKI DeSORMIER Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY - Christine Watkins, an alternative education teacher at Lake Mary Elementary School, this morning was named the Seminole County Distinguished Black Educator of the Year.

Watkins will now enter the next phase of the competition at the state level in the Ida S. Baker Distinguished Black Educator Recognition Award which is sponsored by the Florida Department of Education and the Shearson Lehman Hutton Philanthropic Organization.

Watkins' students in the alternative education class at the school at 132 Country Club Rd. in Lake Mary, learn not only their academic lessons, but also learn the important lessons of having highself-esteem.

Watkins, a 1974 graduate of the University of Central Florida, said that she had once dropped out of school and wanted to prevent her students from suffering the same way she did.

In her nomination packet, she said. "As an individual, thoroughly disenchanted with the school process. I was fortunate in that an instructor convinced me (and others) to return to school after I dropped out of the system my senior year in high school...I strive to emulate his teaching philosophy-a consistent challenging of his students to be the best they can regardless of external restraints."

Watkins has put into place several programs for her students to help them see that they have unlimited potential. She calls her students the Dino-Mite Dolphins and continually challenges them to reach new goals.

The youngsters, under her direction, have adopted a kindergarten class and are "special buddles" to the visually impaired students at the school.

According to the school committee which nominated Watkins, the programs are proving to be "a marvelous way to enhance the self-confidence and self-esteem of the students while they learn to give of themselves."

Watkins has also introduced the students to the concept of goal thinking.

Students in her classes have been involved in an Adopt-a-Conege program in which they refine their writing and even their geography skills in a program in which the students write to colleges and universities around the country to learn about the school and its location.

Smith's accuser drops anonymity

MIAMI - William Kennedy Smith's accuser has withdrawn

MIAMI — William Kennedy Smith's accuser has withdrawn her battle to keep her identity private.

The woman, Patricia Bowman, will explain her decision in an ABC interview with Diane Sawyer, set for broadcast tonight on "PrimeTime Live." Many news organizations, including The Associated Press, that had previously shielded her identity went shead Wednesday and named her after her attorney confirmed she would voluntarily appear on camera tonight.

"It's too late to hide, I'm telling you," Ms. Bowman's stepfather, Michael "Gerry" O'Neil of Jupiter, told The Miami Herald for today's editions.

"Now's the time to let everybody know and get on with our lives," said O'Neil, director and former chairman of General Tire, now known as GenCorp.

Ms. Bowman, 30, accused Smith of raping her March 30 at his family's Palm Beach estate. A jury last week acquitted the 31-year-old nephew of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., after a trial that included nearly 10 hours of emotional testimony by

Hotel to come tumbling down

ST. PETERSBURG — An aging, boom-era hotel will come tumbling down, but not on the big screen.

Makers of the movie "Lethal Weapon III" have decided to skip a scene that would have involved stars Mel Gibson and Danny Glover fleeing from a fireball that destroys the 68-year-old Screno Hotel.

The movie, now in production in California, will open with an explosion of another Florida building, the old Orlando City Hall. Movie publicist Anne Reilly said Tuesday that producers decided it was too late to add another explosion scene.

Bay Plaza Cos. still plans to raze the Soreno by Feb. 1 to make way for a downtown redevelopment plan.

Preservationists had long sought to have the Mediterranean Revival structure restored. Last week, the city council voted 5-4 for it to come down — movie or not.

The drugs seized Wednesday, like the 12 tons of cocaine found last month at another Miami warehouse, were concealed inside metal tubes in the center of concrete fence posts shipped legally from Venezuela to the warehouses.

Eleven people were arrested in Texas and Venezuela on amuggling conspiracy charges. No one has been apprehended in Miami as a result of the acheme, which brought in a total of 32,300 pounds of Colombian cocaine worth well over $50 million at wholesale prices.

Students injured in collision

MIAMI - The driver of a car who failed to stop at an intersection collided with a van carrying students home from a nearby western Dade County high school, injuring 13 people. police said.

Three teen agers, all students at Holmes G. Braddock High School, were airlifted to Miami Children's Hospital. The 14-year-old girl and two 15-year-old boys were treated for minor cuts, bumps and lacerations and then released, said hospital spokesman Omar Montejo.

Four people were treated and released at the scene, and several others, including the driver of the van, were taken to local hospitals, police said.

TALLAHASSEE - Attorney General Bob Butterworth to organizing a petition drive to put an open records constitutional amendment on the November ballot following the Legislature's failure to do so.

Butterworth, in a letter this week to a member of the Tax and Budget Reform Commission, said he is taking the first steps to proposing such an amendment and plans to make the specifics public in a few

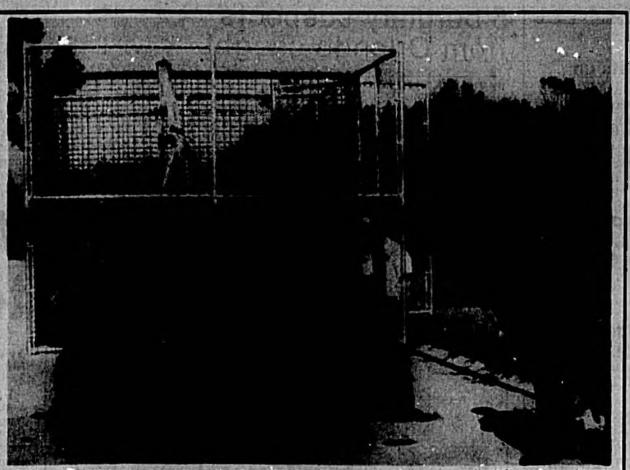

"Clearly, it is time that this important issue be taken directly to the people," Butterworth wrote Tuesday.

To place a proposed amendment on the ballot, Butterworth would need to gather 364,000 valid signatures by August.

The attorney general's letter comes after Senate President Gwen Margolis, D-North Miami Beach, failed to convince the Legislature last week to place such a proposed constitutional amendment on the November ballot. She withdrew the measure after the Senate tacked on a crippling amendment to exempt many legislative records.

Margolis' measure was an attempt to fix a state Supreme laws do not apply to the governor. Legislature, courts and Cab-inet because they are independent branches of government.

Steve Uhlfeider, a Tallahansee attorney who is a member of the tax reform panel, said Monday that the commission should look into using its authority to place an open records amendment on the ballot. The commission. itself created by voters in a 1988 amendment, was granted that

SANFORD - A new superintendent of schools will be in place in Seminole County by June 15, the school board decided yesterday.

For the first time in its history the district will be hiring a superintendent rather than having one elected by the public. They have employed a trio of consultants, led by Dr. Wayne Blanton of the Florida School Boards Association, to help them learn the process.

Blanton was on hand yesterday to help the board settle the issue of the timeline for the search. Nancy Warren, chairman of the school board, said that on Jan. 13, the committee of staff and community representatives will meet to kick off the search. They will receive instructions from Blanton and prepare to narrow a field of candidates, which could number in the thousands to 15 and then to five Applications will be accepted until mid-March and the final five candidates will be presented to the board on April 24.

According to board member Joe Williams, the board hopes to schedule interviews for the last

Businesses plan to boost investments

WASHINGTON - American businesses plan to boost new plant and equipment spending by 5.4 percent next year, a turnaround from investment cuts of recession-weakened 1991 that marked the first such drop in five years, the government said today. The projected 0.5 percent reduction in investment spending in 1991 would be the first since that type of spending tumbled 2.6 percent in 1986.

The Commerce Department sald a survey conducted in October and November found businesses planning to spend a record $558.6 billion for expansion and modernization in 1992. up from $530.0 billion projected for this year.

Cause sought in Amtrak derailment

PALATKA - Federal investigators say it may be months before they can determine what caused Amirah's Silver Meteor to fly off its trucks and send 63 people to hospitals. Eleven Sanford area residents were aboard the train, none of whom were seriously injured.

Right investigators from the attoned Transportation Safety oard are looking at everything on the speed and mechanical mulition of the train and tracks

Pederal investigators said Wednesday that an "apprentice" ingineer was at the controls when the train derailed Tuesday.

Mike Martino, chief investigator at the acene for the National Transportation Safety Board, said the apprentice was altting in the engineer's seat on the right side of the locomotive and the engineer was altting on the left.

The locomotive landed on its left side and skidded across the ground, "where so much dirt and debris built up in front of the windshield that it broke through the windshield and buried the engineer alive," Martino said.

"The apprentice engineer crawled to the left side of the cab, uncovered the engineer and basically saved his life," Martino told the St. Petersburg Times for a story in today's editions.

Clifford Black, Amtrak's director of public affairs, con-firmed that the train's engineer had turned control of the train over to a second person. But he said that person was an assistant engineer, not an "apprentice."

"Assistant engineers are fully qualified to operate an Amtrak esenger train, they're fully rained, so long as it's under the guidance of the engineer," Black

Although Amtrak refused to release the names of its crew members, Martino said the engineer on the train was also the engineer during a derailment

The train's "black box" was removed from the engine and sent to Washington for analysis and interviews were continuing with the 16 crew members and some of the 170 passengers.

The black box records the train's throttle and braking efforts and could be used to determine if it was going too fast as it rounded a slight curve heading toward a depot stop in Palatka, a community of about 10,000 people about 60 miles southwest of Jacksonville.

A huge step

Britain notwithstanding, members of the European Community have decided to proceed with plans to create a single currency.

It is a momentous decision for the 12 nations of Western Europe, as important as any they have taken since the European Community was founded 35 years ago. It will have far-reaching consequences for the United States as well.

Despite the British proving once again that they are neither at home in Europe nor outside of it, the Community has taken the decision that many thought was impossible creation of a single currency and central bank.

The new currency, to be in place by 1969, will replace pounds, francs, lire, pesetas, deutsche marks, escudos, etc., and will facilitate commerce when the Community creates a single market at the end of 1992. At that time. Western Europe will have created a single free-trade market of 340 million people. the world's largest - until the United States.

Canada and Mexico complete the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Though the new European currency, tem-porarily being called the ecu, will surely become a rival for the dollar in international finance and commerce, U.S. policy has long looked benignly on Europe's monetary union

In fact, creation of the ecu will be a blessing for the dollar, whose role in international transactions often has distorted exchange rates, and inhibited Federal Reserve and Treasury ability to influence domestic economic and monetary policy.

The European Community first raised the issue of monetary union in the '70s. For 20 years since. Europeans have been narrowing their economic differences by adopting common policies on growth, inflation and unemployment. Even Fritain teness forms prime minister, Margaret Thatcher, was forced to resign largely over the monetary union question) has signed on, though Prime Minister John Major insisted on an escape clause to quiet Tory fears of surrendering national sovereignty to Brussels.

Just as economic union and free trade are good for Europe, they are good for North America as well. U.S., Canadian and Mexican negotiators should press forward on settling the remaining differences in the creation of our own free-trade area.

Backward, Ho

Even as former Costa Rican President Oscar Arias, the 1987 Nobel Peace Prize winner, recently urged Fidel Castro to allow free speech and civil liberties, the Cuban dictator's neighborhood "defense" committees were acting against any dissent.

Organized early in Castro's regime to check on any anti-communist, pro-democratic activities, the network of 80,000 committees keeps tabs on the citizens. An out-of-town relative visiting a Havana family is asked who he is, his home town, his job and how long he plans

A committee regional coordinator, Ulberto Mojam, says they "intervene" when a neighbor acts "immorally," such as being drunk or beating his wife. That, by the way, was one of the self-appointed tasks of the original post-Civil War Ku Klux Klan.

Castro now drives Cuba backward. There are many other examples. When Moscow-Havana ties began loosening in 1988, shortages of oil forced him to import thousands of Chinese bicycles so people could get to work and to use oxen instead of farm tractors.

As the world looks forward to the 21st century nine years hence, Castro is turning back to the 19th.

ill, Smith, Hinckley and justice

"The tumult and the shouting dies, the captains and the king's depart." Another judicial orgy comes to an end, once again raising questions about the quality, the economics and the ethnicity of justice.

The year 1991 will be remembered for two of the most explosive back-to-back trials involving the moral credibility of two women — Anita F.

the moral credibility of two women — Anita F.
Hill and the Palm Beach woman who accused William Kennedy Smith of rape.

Make no mistake about it, although Anita Hill was a withesa at a hearing, Senate Republicans, particularly Orrin Hatch and Arien Specter, put her on trial and treated her as if she were a common criminal. What sine are committed in the name of petty particularly

But the trial of William Kennedy Smith also put the criminal justice system on trial. All of the participants — the alleged victim, the accused, the prosecutor, the defense attorney and the tudge — were forced to swim in a turbulent judge — were forced to swim in a turbulent ocean of media sharks.

Yet, despite all of the media's excesses in its coverage of both the Thomas-Hill hearings and the Kennedy Smith trial, democracy is always served best when its functions are held up to the widest public scrutiny. (You'll note that I referred to "Kennedy Smith." Had his name been

William Kropotkin Smith, media coverage of the trial would have been limited to two paragraphs on page eight of the local Paini Beach newspa-

My wife (a no-holds-barred womanist) and I had identical reactions to Thomas-Hill and Smith - Thomas Hed. Hill exaggerated and Smith was not guilty beyond a rea-sonable doubt.

But Smith was endowed with one advantage shared by John Hinckley, the would-be assessin of former President Reagan — a family of behemothian wealth Both families were able to employ the most skilled defense attorneys accompanied by a fortress of forensic and psychological experts.

Once again, we were tragically reminded of the extent to which justice in America is a function of economics, class and ethnicity.

In most of America's city jalls, at least 50 percent of the immates are there because they cannot make tail. This discrepancy between rich and poor results in uneven treatment at bail hearings. Except for a charge of murder, bail is usually automatically offered. But for many poor families (a disproportionate number of which are black or Hispanic), posting a security of 10 percent to secure a bond of $10,000 is an economic impossibility. For many poor defendants, that kind of money is excessive bail and in violation of the Eighth Amendment.

Many Americans mistakenly believe they have the right to a fair trial. They don't, unless they can be assured that fairness encompasses an impartial jury, an impartial judge, a competent defense attorney, the opportunity to make bail and the absence of residual racism and classism.

Juries, judges and prosecutors are human. in this a revelation? Of course not:

In the cases of Hinckley and Smith, money, economics and race made the crucial difference. And American justice is poorer for it.

Clinton, Kerrey are for real

Tattered but still intact, the old news clipping made its way out of Little Rock, Ark., escaped internment by bird cage, survived the hit-or-miss helifire of puppy training, and, all in all, held up rather well, physically.

But not prognostically.
"Clinton not in presidential queue, columnist says" - not only did that headline accurately reflect the story beneath it in the Oct. 8, 1990, edition of the Arkansas Democrat, but the news article quoted the radio interview comments made by the loquacious columnist entirely in context. "Nationally syndicated columnist Martin Schram ... interviewed on Little Rock radio station KARN-AM 930," had indeed said:

"I don't think anybody in the country thinks as highly, or certainly not as often, of Bill Clinton's presidential prospects as Bill Clinton and his people do. You don't hear Clinton talked about in terms of presidential cam-paigning these days outside of Arkansas."

You hear them talking about Clinton now. The Arkansas governor has made himself a most talked about front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination that a year ago seemed beyond his reach. The boyish-looking Clinton looks a bit like he is running for president of Boys' State — but make no mistake, he became a figure to be reckoned with even before Mario Cuomo went into his final days of deliberation.

Let's not be too hard on the above-mentioned punditeer. Schram did cover himself against the unformeen by adding that Clinton had "a chance if he wants to make the run." And, of course, at that time, in 1990, the Great Mentioners were talking about these Democratic prospects: Mario Cuomo, Lloyd Bentsen, Dick Gephardt, Sam Nunn, Bill Bradley and Jay Rockefeller. We recall that all but one quickly made up their minds - and just said no. The last of the Original Six-Pack, Cuomo quickly made up his mind to make up his mind, someday. A mere 14 months later, the Democratic faithful are talking about two hard-running hopefuls who weren't even blips on George Bush's radar in 1990: Bill Clinton and Bob Kerrey.

Kerrey has done it, mainly, by being Bob Kerrey - he's Nebraska's senator and former governor, a Medal of Honor hero of the Vietnam War whose resume and potential remain more impressive than his unfocused

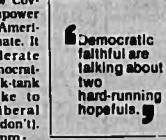

Clinton has done it, mainly, by overcoming the fact that he is Bill Clinton - the fellow most Americans saw only once in their lives, when he delivered that off-keynote address that wouldn't end at the 1988 Democratic convention. Clinton made himself impressive this year with a series of carefully crafted economic, social and foreign policy speeches, in party appearances in Chicago and Florida, and in a steady-but-not-memorable performance on NBC's mismanaged non-debate starring Tom Brokaw.

Clinton is not alone in fashioning conceptually cohesive positions on how to lead America out of the Reagan-Bush recession and how to reshape America's leadership role in a world without a Cold War. Paul Tsongas has done so, too. But Clinton has demonstrated flashes of leadership that the earnest Tsongas doesn't possess.

Clinton and Kerrey have discovered that in a new world that requires new ideas. old labels no longer stick. So it is that Clinton's call for an economic "New Covenant" to empower middle class Americans will resonate. It is both moderate (which his Democratic centrist think-tank supporters like to hear) and liberal (which they don't).

Kerrey has not pro pounded an economic plan. But his potential remains as impressive, in its own way — as was Cuomo's, before the New York governor became a regular feature in the monologues of Johnny Carson and Jay Leno.

Clinton never served in the military, but he backed the war in the Gulf: Kerrey served heroically in Vietnam yet opposed the War in the Gulf. These two very different Democrats have given the party waiting for Mario a sense of relief that a Great Wait has been lifted from its shoulders.

LaRouche points high behind bars

WASHINGTON — The only presidential candidate running his campaign from behind bars is political maverick Lyndon H. LaRouche Jr. And it looks like U.S. taxpayers may help him finance that campaign.

LaRouche is one of nine Democratic candidates who have applied for federal funds to match the campaign contributions they have raised. To qualify, a candidate must raise at least $100,000 in private money from contributors in at least 20 states. Thanks to his minions hustling money in airports across the country, LaRouche will easily meet those requirements. That means he could be taking money from the gov-ernment that he claims conspired to throw him in jail in LaRouche for Pres introduce evidence that he claims would have proved federal agents spied on him for political reasons. Jail time has not slowed LaRouche. In addition to running his campaign, he has written three books while in jail, spreading the gospel of his unorthodox political views. LaRouche, 69, spoke to us by phone from prison in Rochester, Minn. He told our associate Jim Lynch why he is running for president for the fifth time: "I don't think anyone else can handle the job. I'm afraid if I don't run, my policies won't be on the table."

He's right on that score. LaRouche is the only candidate who thinks the federal government should put itself into Chapter 11 bankruptcy and start again. He labels the last 28 years as "the years of the cover-up of the assessination of President John F. Kennedy." He calls George Bush "Insane, a new Emperor Caligula of sorts." He reads The Wall Street Journal in jail so he knows what the enemy is thinking. In fact, he calls the newspaper an "enemy publication," and philosophically "hilarious."

No big-name Democrats, or any mainstream politicians for that matter. embrace LaRouche publicly, although he claims some do in private. He says he is not an "extremist," the label most often used to explain his eclectic politics because the usual tags don't fit.

LaRouche calls his politics "old fashioned." He says Americans in the Camelot years were more inclined to think as he and his followers do today. For instance, he shares President Kennedy's bold ideals about space exploratibn. In fact, bolder. He once said that the United States could energize its economy by populating Mars. Does he really believe that?

"Oh sure. We need to do that." Since Mars is a long way off for a construction project, LaRouche proposes using the Moon as a way station where a city would be pre-fabricated in reduced gravity and shipped to Mars. "God gave us the Moon to get to Mars." LaRouche says.

As for his well-publicized quote accusing Queen Elizabeth of drug running, LaRouche says he was misquoted. He was only saying that the queen should do something about the laundering of drug money in offshore

How would President LaRouche have handled the Persian Gulf crists? "We didn't have a Gulf crists." he says. "We manufactured it. Bush wanted it. He got it. and the British backed us up." LaRouche firmly believes Bush wanted Iraq to invade

GM annouces huge culback

DETROIT — General Motors Corp., the world's largest automaker, has unveiled plans to turn itself into a "fean and responsive" corporate machine by closing 21 plants and eliminating 70,000 jobs.

In announcing the plan Wednesday, GM Chairman Robert Stempel promised the company would reverse staggering losses and return its car and truck manufacturing operations to profitability by 1996.

However, the announcement was short on specifies, such as which plants will be closed, leaving many workers wondering about their future.

The restructuring drew praise from Wall Street analysts, who have been clamoring to learn how the automaker would deal with falling stock prices and record losses projected at $6 billion to 00 billion h: North America this year.

Fed cautious on tex rebates

WASHINGTON — Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan and members of Congress are giving a cool reception to the Bush administration's consideration of a $300 tax rebate to spur the lagging economy.

President Bush is studying a host of options, including the one-time tax rebate and boosting the personal income tax exemption by up to $1,500, congressional sources said

The sources, who spoke only on condition of anonymity, said Bush has all but decided to give tax breaks to people who withdraw money from Individual Retirement Accounts for

But in testimony to the House Ways and Means Committee on Wednesday, Greenspan refused to endorse the rebate idea and advised against any tax cut plan that would drive up the already gargantuan federal deficit.

Adults, not kids, biggest drug problem

WASHINGTON - Stop blaming the kids. It's not the youngsters who are making the nation's drug abuse problem worse. It's the folks age 35 and above.

The new National Household Survey on Drug Abuse, being formally released today, indicates the number of current users of illicit drugs — people who used an illegal substance in the previous month — dropped to 12.6 million this year. That's down from 12.9 million last year and 14.5 million in 1968.

But the number of people 35 and older considered current users increased during that time. The 2.3 million in 1988 became 3.2 million last year. This year, they numbered 3.4 million.

The statistics were compiled from the 1991 household survey and from reports on the year's second quarter from the Drug Abuse Warning Network of hospital emergency rooms.

Health care changes proposed

WASHINGTON — A federal advisory panel, unable to agree on a comprehensive solution to the nation's health-care problems, is recommending a $6 billion package of incremental changes and study projects.

But four of the panel's 13 members dissented, saying the measures being announced today were inadequate and that the Advisory Council on Social Security had "failed in its major mission.

The council's final report said its program should serve as the foundation of future broad-scale change in the U.S. health higher taxes on alcohol and tobacco products.

The proposed plan includes creation of school-based medical clinics, insurance for children and the addition of 250 community health centers, at a total cost of $3 billion: small-business insurance reforms to ensure insurance protection when workers change jobs; and changes in medical malpractice laws.

'JFK' premieres in Dallas

DALLAS - About a thousand people will watch tonight as the limousine rounds the corner, shots are fired and a president is killed in Dallas. But unlike on Nov. 22, 1963, they will consider it a privilege.

"JFK," director Oliver Stone's look at the assassination of President Kennedy, premieres in Dalias amid hopes it will help ease the city's 28-year-old guilt complex. "JFK" opens nationally on Friday.

Stone's premise is that the military, CIA and defense contractors conspired to kill Kennedy because he planned to pull out of Vietnam and dismantle the CIA and was "soft" on

"I think this is going to alleviate those old attitudes of blaming Dallas." said Nancy Cunningham, production coordinator for the North Dallas Film Commission. "It will help to dispel the last vestiges of blame."

Gorbachev weighing destiny

By ALAH COOPERMAN Associated Press Writer

MOSCOW - Mikhail S. Gorbachev was quoted today as saying he will "decide his destiny" after a weekend meeting of republic leaders, and an aide denied a report the Soviet president he has already drawn up his resignation.

Russian President Boris N. Yeltain and before leaving for Rome today that "for all practical purposes" Gorbachev has no future role in the Soviet government, which is to be disbanded by the end of the Corbachev was quoted today by the Komsomolskaya Pravda as saying: "I shall decide my destiny after the Alma-Ata meeting."

Yeltain and other republic leaders are to meet in the capital of Kazakhstan to endorse and broaden the new commonwealth that is replacing the Soviet Union. It was forged by Ukraine. Russia and Byelorrussia on Dec. 8 and at least six republics are expected to join.

Gorbachev has not been invited to the meeting but is sending messages to all the republic leaders in attendance asking that they clarify their positions on the commonwealth and its new government structures.

Nezavisamaya Gazeta (the Independent Newspaper), quoting unidentified sources, reported today that Gorbachev has written a presidential decree on his resignation and left the date

The newspaper has frequently obtained internal government documents that proved legitimate. But Gorbachev's deputy press spokesman denied its re-

"No document of the kind exists," said Alexander Likhotal. But asked whether Gorbachev, 60, might resign after the Alma Ata meeting. Likhotal said, "Gorbachev will wait for the results of the Alma Ata meeting and depending on its results will decide what to do.

Yeltsin said Wednesday that he planned to sign decrees disbanding the Soviet Interior and foreign ministries. The Interior Ministry controls police and riot troops, while the Foreign Ministry runs embassics and foreign missions.

Most of their functions are expected to be taken over by Yeltsin's Russian Federation, which as the largest and richest of the 12 remaining republics saved the central government from bankruptcy in recent weeks.

But other republics also may establish their own diplomatic posts and police forces after the Soviet Union is transformed into the new Commonwealth of Independent States.

Amid concern over what's to become of the 27,000-warhead Soviet nuclear arsenal, Secretary of State James A. Baker III received further assurances that the weapons will remain under strict centralized control.

Baker ended a five-day tour of the disintegrating country today and flew to Brussels. Belgium. for a meeting of NATO foreign ministers.

IN BRIEF

AROUND THE NATION

UCF loses Sun Belt opener

BEAUMONT. Texas — Shawn Copes scored 22 points Wednesday night as the Lamar Cardinals (3-5) held off a late raily, opening Sun Belt Conference play with a 95-89 victory over Central Florida (3-4).

Ken Leeks paced Central Florida with 29 points and 16 rebounds.

Georgetown bullied St. Leo

LANDOVER, Md. — Alonzo Mourning scored 21 points, grabbed 12 rebounds and blocked six shots Wednesday night and No. 23 Georgetown drew away from an overmatched St. Leo for an 89-51 victory.

St. Leo (4-4), a Division II school which would have problems matching up with Georgetown in the best of circumstances, played at home in San Antonio against Goshen College on Tuesday, then traveled to Washington for Wednesday's game.

Georgetown (5-1) has played just two Division I games, winning one.

Joey Brauer led the Monarchs with 10 points.

AROUND THE STATE

Little steps down at B-CC

DAYTONA BEACH — Larry Little made it official Wednesday. He's leaving his alma mater. Bethune-Cookman College, after nine seasons as football coach.

Little informed school president Dr. Oswald P. Bronson of his decision on Tuesday and a statement issued Wednesday said the parting was "by mutual agreement."

Little, a former All-Pro with the Miami Dolphins, led the Wildcais to a 43-49-2 record and won Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championships in 1984 and 1988. Bethune-Cookman forfeited one victory this season and finished 4-6 overall and 3-3 in the MEAC.

Heat rebound from blowout

MIAMI — Gien Rice hit five 3-pointers and scored 22 points, and Grant Long scored six of his 20 points in overtime as the Miami Heat rebounded from a 68-point loss to defeat the Indiana Pacers 118-112 Wednesday night.

Steve Smith finished with 19 points and Keith Askins scored a career-high 18 for Miami, whose 148-80 loss to Cleveland on Tuesday was the most lopsided in NBA history.

Two years ago, the Lake Brantley
Patriots swept through the Burger
King field and didn't stop until they had secured the state championship trophy. Last year, the Lyman

Greyhounds followed the same path. During the 1984-85 season. Lyman was both Burger King and state champions.

Ironically, when the Lake Mary Rams won the state championship three years ago, they finished sceond in the Burger King Classic. And Bishop Moore, Class 3A state champions two of the last three years, habitually does not play well in the Burger King.

Other former state champions appearing in this year's tournament include Melbourne (Class 4A, 1987) and Fort Lauderdale-St. Thomas Aquinas (Class 3A, 1990).

An odd twist to the Burger King's history is that only two schools have ever won the tournament in its first eight years. Lyman ruled the tournament for four years. Lake Brantley won the next three Burger King titles, only to have its streak snapped by Lyman last year.

With six former state champions in the 16-team field this year, assuring girls' soccer fans of yet another intriguing Burger King Classic.

For the next two days, the tournament will be played at both Lake Mary and Lyman before moving over the Lake Mary's Don T. Reynolds Stadium on Saturday and Monday for the final rounds.

Today and tomorrow, each school will be the site of four games each.

At Lake Mary, Fort Lauderdale-St. Thomas Aquinas and Eau Gallie open the tournament at 3 p.m. At 4:45 p.m., Winter Park will take on Tampa-Berkley Preparatory. Lake Brantley plays West Orange at 6:30 p.m. before Lake Mary faces Tampa Preparatory in the nightcap at 8:30 p.m.

Edgewater and Melbourne will open kick off play at Lyman at 3 p.m. today. Tallahassee-Lincoln tackles Boone at 4:45 p.m. before Bishop Moore takes the field against Dr. Phillips. Lyman plays St. Augustine-Nease at 8:30 p.m.

The time schedule will be the same on Friday, games being played at 3, 4:45, 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. At both sites, the two early games will be consolation round contests while the two late games will be quarterfinal matches.

On Saturday, the whole tournament will move over to Lake Mary. Six games are scheduled for Saturday, beginning with first-round losers' bracket games at 10 a.m. and noon and ending with semifinals at 6 adn 8 p.m.

Four matches are scheduled for Monday, cluminating with the championship game at 8 p.m.

CENTRAL FLORIDA CLASSIC

Bulldogs nip Tribe at buzzer

By TONY DeSORMIER Herald Sports Editor

SANFORD — It didn't take long for the Seminole High School boys' basketball team to see all of its good work wasted Wednesday night. It didn't even take 10 seconds.

Trailing DeLand 62-52 with 2:46 left to play in their first-round game of the Central Florida Classic at Seminole Community College, the Seminoles scored 11 consecutive points to go up 63-62 with 48 seconds remaining.

In between timeouts and fouls by DeLand to try and get the ball back. 38 seconds were run off the clock. At the free throw line stood the Tribe's Shawn Washington, who had scored a game-high 31 points, including making two of three free throws.

But this one came down on the outside of the rim. Bill Cherry corralled the rebound for DeLand, hustled it down court almost unchecked and dished it to Willie Norwood, who laid it in as time expired for a 64-63 Bulldog victory.

In other first-round games at SCC's Health and Physical Education Center Wednesday evening. Lake Brantley hammered Canada's Pitt Meadow 70-27, Spruce Creek outscored Jacksonville-Englewood 60-47 and Wymore Tech dropped South Dade 54-44.

At Oviedo High School, Lake Mary, Auburndale, Titusville-Astronaut and Oviedo were all first-round winners.

Today's schedule at SCC has Seminole playing South Dade at 4 p.m., Pitt Meadow tangling with Englewood at 5:30 p.m., Lake Brantley challenging Spruce Creek at 7 p.m. and Wymore Tech tipping off against DeLand at 8:30 p.m.

In the bracket at Oviedo High School, University plays Lyman at 4 p.m., Winter Park faces Bishop Moore at 5:30 p.m., Lake Mary takes on Auburndale at 7 p.m. and Oviedo plays Astronaut at 8:50 p.m.

OVIEDO — Normally, observing traditions are a part of what makes the holiday season special. But Lake Mary High School boys' basketball coach Willie Richardson wouldn't mind it a bit if his team would ditch the annoying tradition of always playing from behind.

In their Central Florida Classic first-round game against University on Wednesday at Oviedo High School, the Rams did it again, watching the Cougars go out to a 19-12 lead in the first six minutes of the game.

Two minutes into the second quarter. University still led by seven, 26-19.

But the Rams scored 12 of the next 15 points to take the lead, then buried the young Congars with a 25-6 outburst in the third quarter on their way to a 77-55 outlasted Lyman 51-46. Titusville-Astronaught bumped off Winter Park 58-46 and Oviedo put down Bishop Moore 78-73.

Tribe, Patriots settle for tie; Rams shut out Hawks

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — Just because a game ends in a scoreless tie doesn't mean it wasn't an exciting contest. In fact, a well-played 0-0 standoff is probably more exciting (but less satisfying) than a blowout.

That's what the Samingle and Lake Branton.

That's what the Seminole and Lake Brantley high school boys' soccer teams turned in Wednesday night after their Seminole Athletic Conference contest at Seminole's Thomas E. Whigham Stadium, a thrilling match that had everything but a game-winning goal.

"It was a very exciting game," said Seminole coach Carlos Merlino after the 0-0 draw. "Both teams had good opportunities. I don't remember the last time there was a 0-0 tie in a game at Seminole High School."

Since both teams created several scoring opportunities and the game ended without a goal being scored, it would be safe to assume that the two goalkeepers — Seminole's Jon Williams and Lake Brantley's Chris Williams (no relation) — played outstanding matches.

"Jon played his usual solid game," said Merlino of his Williams 'keeper, "I was very pleased with the play of the whole team."

Jon Williams came up with nine saves on the 15 shots the Patriots attempted while Chris Williams recored seven stops on the 14 shots taked by Seminole, Lake Brantley had a 3-2 edge in corner kicks.

Seminole's share of the tic was salvaged in the final two minutes of the match when defender Randy Bowling cleared a Patriot shot off of the line with 1:10 left in the contest.

While Merlino was pleased with his team's effort and the tie, he had hoped that the Tribe might be able to extend its hex over the Patriots: the only three conference wins that Seminole has registered the last several years have all come over Lake Brantley, invariably following a hig win by the Patriots.

"It's a shame," said Merlino, "The pickings were ripe, They (Lake Brantley) had just upset Lyman. But we played real well. We had several scoring opportunities. Travis Groover played a real nice game at midfield for us."

Lake Brantley won the junior varsity contest.

Now 0-3-2 overall and 0-3-1 in the conference. Seminole will play again Friday night at Lake Howell. Lake Brantley is now 4-4-2 overall. 1-3-1 in the SAC.

Lake Mary blanks Lake Howell

LAKE MARY — Brian Coduto scored one goal and assisted on another while goalie Pat Reilly registered a shutout Wednesday night as Lake Mary defeated Lake Howell 3-0 in a Seminole Athletic Conference boys' soccer match played at Lake Mary's Don'T Reynolds Stadium.

It was the first home match of the season for Lake Mary, now 8-1 overall and 3-0 in the conference. Lake Howell drops to 1-6, 0-3 in the

"We had our moments," said Lake Mary coach Larry McCorkle. "We played a pretty solid defensiove game. Lake Howell did hit the post a couple times, but they weren't down in our end very often."

Jody DeBruin gave Lake Mary a 1-0 lead 10 minutes into the contest. Coduto created the opportunity when he got past Lake Howell goalle Manny Toro and played a crossing ball to DeBruin, who linished the sequence with a collect

John Hodak gave Lake Mary some breathing room when he converted a corner kick by Justin Walker into a goal in the match's 50th minute. Coduto iced the victory with a last-minute goal on an assist from Scott Feldmen.

Lake Mary finished with a 16-11 edge over take Howell in shots on goal as well as a 4-2 advantage in corner kicks. Reilly made four saves to preserve the shutout while Toro was credited with five stops, including one on a penalty kick by Keith Baranowski and another on a point-blank shot by Walker.

In the junior varsity contest. Aren Cook scored a pair of goals as Lake Mary clipped Lake Howell 3-0.

Lake Howell will host Seminole in an SAC contest on Friday night while Lake Mary will play again Saturday at Dr. Phillips.

Residents of Village on the Green reach out to youth

LONGWOOD - The Brede- of Village on the Green, the Wikins Scholership Poundation at Village on the Green, created three years ago as a businesstarian gesture by a brother and stater wanting to help young people better themselves, has surpassed the $600,000 mark.

Established in 1998 by residents Ellen H. Brede and Leonard O. Wiking and sup-program is open to all qualified applicants, adds Besudoin. The number of scholarship grants rose from 11 in 1989 to a high of 50 this year.

While some donors prefer anonymity in their giving, the fund provides for recognition of donors contributing $500 to $1,000 by including their names on an attractive scroll displayed in the clubhouse. Gifts of $10,000 or more are acknowledged by placing a bronze plaque on the door of a room in Village on the Green's 60-bed Health Center. There are currently seven such plaques.

"The real story here," says Beaudoin, "is not so much the ollers and cents but the determination of two caring family members who wanted very much to reach out to young men and women who sincerely wanted to better themselves. It was this dynamic spirit which ignited the scholarship fund concept and provided a sense of family throughout Village on the

Fighting over plano lessons is not music to mom's ears

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter. "Naomi." who is 8 years old. has been taking piano lessons for three years. In recent months she seems to have lost interest in the piano, and it's a struggle to get her to practice. I usually lose my temper, and she ends up in

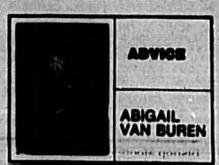

I finally gave up trying to force her to practice. My theory is that unless she is motivated by her own desire to learn, it's not worth the hassle - not to mention the money we're wasting on lessons.

My husband disagrees. He thinks we should make Naomi practice no matter how much she hates it. I should also mention that our son, "David," who is now 13, was allowed to quit taking violin lessons three months ago because of his many school obligations, plus making the football team — which his father wholeheartedly approved

Naomi is angry. She can't understand why we let her brother quit his music lessons, but we are not allowing her to

What do you think, Abby? If you have a solution my husband will listen to, perhaps we can have some peace in this house.

FIGHTING IN FLORIDA DEAR FIGHTING: Assuming that David started taking violin lessons when he was 5, he has had eight years of music lessons. In order to treat both children equally. Naomi should take music lessons for another five Don't give up so easily. Tell Naomi she may quit when she's 13, if she wants to.

For what it's worth, I have had numerous letters from readers saying they were forced to take music lessons and they hated it at the time, but later on, they were glad they weren't allowed to quit when they begged to. However, readers have never written to say they regretted getting a musical education even though they often practiced with tears in their eyes.

DEAR ABBY: I am hoping you can help with a research project we are doing at school. Almost all watch advertisements have their watches set at 10:10. (Digital as well as standard watches.)

I was told years ago that this was to commemorate the bombing of Hiroshims, as it was at this exact time. Well, that theory is false. Hiroshima was bombed at 8:15 a.m.

Can you or anyone elee answer this question for us? Thank you! G. TATLOR AND THE GRADE CLASS, TRAFTON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

DEAR G. TAYLOR AND THE POURTE-GRADE CLASSIACcording to the Association of Watch and Clock Collectors (Columbia, Pa.), the clock industry has been using that setting since the 1850s to illustrate sales catalogs. Their spokesperson said it is not true that the clocks are set to commemorate the bombing of Hiroshima — or the time that President Lincoln was supposed to have been shot, either. Watches and clocks are set at 10:10. and sometimes 1:50. because it looks good and presents a balanced face that is easy

Valvular disorder needs no therapy

BEAR DE. QOTT: I've been diagnosed as having a prolapsed mitral valve with a mild leak. What is the preferred treatment for my condition?

DEAR READER: Nothing.

Mitral valve prolapse is a common condition, of unknown cause, marked by weakness or floppiness of one of the valves in the heart. This may cause slight leakage that does not, in its mild form, require therapy. MVP is more common in women and is often associated with periodic bursts of rapid pulse (tachycardia).
Moderate/severe forms of MVP may require drugs (such as calcium channel blockers) to prevent these attacks of tachycardia - or surgery may be necessary to repair the valve.

Any patient with MVP — or any other valvular disease should have prophylactic antibi-otic treatment before and during dental work. This therapy will prevent endocarditis (infected heart valves), a dangerous complication in patients with weakened heart valves.

Although you may not require specific treatment for MVP, you should follow your physician's instructions about follow-up. This probably will include periodic ultrasound examinations. which will enable the doctor to determine if your MVP is worsening over the years.

DEAR DR. GOTT: It pains me to admit that our 56-year-old son has AIDS. We'd like him to visit for a short time, and his doctor says we are not in danger of catching it. As parents, what should we know that will help us cope with his condition?

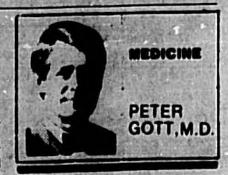

DEAR READER: AIDS is truly a catastrophe for patients and families alike. Each case must be personalized.

If your son is scheduled to visit you. I believe you can help him by being supportive and nonjudgmental. Show him you love him and that he remains important to you.

This is by necessity a very general answer. You should query your son's physician about specifics (such as diet, activity, hygienic measures and the severity of your son's infection and his general state of health.

Bridge in schools is commonplace everywhere except in North America. Perhaps it is time principals were persuaded that playing bridge is excellent is only 13. mental exercise. Today's East was Malgorzata Zalewska, playing in the 1991 Polish Schools Team Championship. If you wish to test yourself. cover the West and South cards. Against three no-trump, your partner leads the spade seven. How do you defend after winning trick one?

The contract seems to have nine guaranteed tricks: one heart, six diamonds and two clubs Zalewska won trick one with the spade king and led a flendish diamond at trick two. This destroyed declarer's communication. South rose with the lead up to dummy's weakness." diamond ace, unblocked the Out of the mouths ...

club king, played a diamond to dummy's 10 and cashed the club ace, discarding a heart. True, Zalewska should have unblocked the queen - but she

Now came a heart. Zalewska put up the ace and cashed the club queen. What could South discard? If the heart king, the defenders would run that suit. If a diamond, East would cash her second spade honor and exit with a red card, leaving declarer with only eight tricks. He would lose a spade at the end.

His only chance was that East had the A-K doubleton of spades. But when South pitched a spade. East led the spade queen. West overtook with the ace and ran the suit for three down.

.When asked how she had found this defense. Zalewska replied. "We have been taught to

52 New Deal

By Bernice Bede Osol YOUR BIRTHDAY Dec. 20, 1991

You could do rather well in ventures where you can operate in an independent manner in the year ahead. Partners might turn out to be liabilities rather than assets.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Even though your way of doing things might be the best. you could have an extremely difficult time convincing your mate to follow your lead today. Find a compromise so as to avoid a conflict. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences governing you in the year ahead. Send for Sagittarius' Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $1.25 plus a long. self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428. Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan.

19) You're likely to handle your personal duties and responsibilities rather well today. but you might not get a passing grade when it comes to doing things imposed on you by others.

PYRAMID, MR. AM?

ANNIE

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) If you are encouraged to do something you do not believe serves your best interests today. don't yield to peer pressure. Be your own individual, not one who is easily manipulated.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If at all possible, try not to bring outside problems into your household today, especially during dinner. If introduced. they could generate a disruption.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If you present yourself as an authority on a particular subject today, you'd better have the facts to back you up. Your claims may be challenged.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be generous within reasonable limits today, but be very careful about making a financial loan to someone who is a poor risk. You might have to write off this debt later.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Usually, you're effective when dealing with others on a one-to-one basis. However, these arrangements could be your greatest source of irritation today. Be patient and tolerant.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Someone you've recently helped might come to you for assistance again today. If your last efforts weren't properly acknowledged. chances are what you do now might not be either.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) In involvements with your peers today, just be one of the group instead of trying to dominate events. You may not think you're coming on too strong, by they could find your actions abrasive.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Success might elude you today - if you make your assignments more difficult than they actually are. Appraise your endeavors realistically, not emotionally.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Others can be swayed to your point of view today through a friendly discussion, but forcibly imposing your positions on them could produce very undestrable reactions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) A joint venture for a material purpose has both its advantages and disadvantages today. Unfortunately, however, the undesirable might outweigh any benefits.
