Jail Addition Plans Nearly Ready Will Cost $480,000

Revised schematic plans for the two-floor addition to the Seminole County jail are expected to be ready for presentation to County Commission Chairman John Alexander and Sheriff Peter Millot this week, John A. Burton IV, architect, told The Herald today.

The 16,000-square-foot addition, estimated to cost $480,000, will be constructed at the same time as the new courthouse.

Tentative plans are to have construction contracts ready for signature just after the first of next year. Construction time for both facilities has been estimated at 12 to 18 months thereafter.

Burton said some schematics were presented to Millot several days ago and reviewed. When the present jail was constructed in 1960, it was with the idea two additional floors would be added in the future.

Millot said emphasis will be on maximum security cells in the new addition and more adequate facilities for handling juveniles and incompetents.

He pointed out, however, the facilities will be easily convertible when other arrangements are made at perhaps the hospital for the temporary care of mental incompetents and at a juvenile detention center for youth offenders.

Circuit Court Judge Yolie Williams Jr. has given attorneys representing 11 Seminole and Orange County persons until Monday noon to file motions to dismiss charges ranging all the way from bribery and conspiracy to gambling, operating a gambling house and a lottery.

Involved are alleged Central Florida bolita kimpin Harlan Blackburn and five of his alleged confederates, plus former Seminole County Sheriff J. Luther Hobby and former Constable George Kelley.

All pleaded innocent before Judge Williams during Tuesday's arrangements, and there were indications that most would file motions to dismiss the charges. Hearings on motions are scheduled to start Tuesday, with trials beginning week of May 15.

Blackburn, along with his alleged associates, Clyde Lee and Jaxie Belch of S. A. in a do Springs; Eddy Bright and J. R. Carmichael of Orange County; and Lawrence Whitaker, of Eatonville, remained mute on violation of state gaming laws and conspiracy charges and the court entered innocent pleas on their behalf. All were arrested Thursday and remained at liberty on bonds.

Accepted the low bids of W. D. Bridges of Geneva at $3,000 for electrical work on motor vehicle inspection stations and of Harriet's Plumbing and Pneumatic Tube, Inc., for plumbing and tubes.

Placed the streets in Forest Brook subdivision in the county road system for maintenance subject to one-year maintenance bond.

Deferred action on the request of City of Longwood for joint participation on paving of the west city limits road from the Longwood-Markham Road south to SR 494 until city officials can be present to discuss the matter further.

Hired Virgil Nieders as motor vehicle inspection supervisor at a starting salary of $11,250 for a 45-hour week subject to approval by State Department of Safety. His employment is to begin today.

The new supervisor was authorized to handle interviews for hiring two clerks and eight inspectors for the stations.

Instructed the maintenance department to construct a portable polling place for precinct 20 at cost of $500 for materials.

$8,225 Salary Continued

By DONNA ESTER

County Commission Chairman John Alexander and Commissioner John Fitzpatrick lost their annual fight yesterday to curtail county expenditures for the office of the home extension agent.

The Board on a 3-2 vote decided to continue the county share of the agent's salary at $2,000. The position is also paid $5,225 annually from the state.

Alexander's move to give up the chair temporarily to second a motion by Fitzpatrick to defer action on county supplement for the salary went for naught, when this motion died on a 3-2 vote.

Commissioner W. Lawrence Swafford insisted county participation in the home extension program be limited to only $2,000 in a "heroin" and the county benefits from it by more than 2 1/2 times what it pays. He further emphasized that the county is the largest industry in the county and the extension program is valuable to this industry.

At the same time, Commissioner Robert Parker declared he is "an agricultural man and will back the agricultural program to the fullest."

Fitzpatrick stated he failed to see where the "county extension homemaker agent has anything to do with agriculture."

She acts as a women's club director. This job, its duties and responsibilities and the resulting good to her backyard.

Police Chief Gerald Pierce and Reserve Officer Sgt. Edward Sweat arrived on the scene shortly thereafter and gave chase.

The monkey, deciding not to give up his freedom without a struggle, ran into the Rose home where he attacked a young guest, Bonnie Meeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Meeks, of Sanlando Springs Drive. When Pierce freed the child from the monkey's grasp, he, too, was bitten for his effort.

Jaques soon joined the monkey effort but with all his powers of persuasion was unable to subdue the small animal into leaving the home.

This is the second such report made to local authorities in the past week. A Sanford man told city police he was forced off the road and beaten by four Negro males last night at approximately 10:45 p.m. in the second reported incident of this type in the past week.

According to statement made to Seminole Deputy T. E. Boyd by Doyle Crews, 612 Magnolia Avenue, he was driving along Longwood-Markham Road when a 1964 light blue Ford Tudor containing the men forced him to stop his car. He said he was struck several times about the face and body by the Negroes.

This is the second such report made to local authorities in the past week. A Sanford man told city police he was forced off the road by four Negroes, who cursed him and rocked his car back and forth after he refused to unlock the door when ordered to do so by the men. This incident happened at about the same hour as that reported by Crews.

One of the men involved in the first attack was wearing a turban and sported a goatee. County lawmen are investigating the report and looking for the vehicle described by Crews.

Public hearing will be conducted by the Altamonte Springs City Council at 7:30 p.m. today to consider resuming the north one-half or lots 12, 13 and 14 of Town and County estates from R-2 to R-3 to permit construction of a two-story duplex.

Longwood Yells: 'Monkey Business'

There was monkey business in Longwood yesterday.

Councilman Eugene Jaques, along with his city's men in brown, got involved in a dual of wits with a monkey and the monkey won, at least for a while.

The police department received a call for help from Mrs. James Brown, of 429 Wildmere Avenue, that an unbridled monkey was loose in her backyard.

Police Chief Gerald Pierce and Reserve Officer Sgt. Edward Sweat arrived on the scene shortly thereafter and gave chase.

The monkey, deciding not to give up his freedom without a struggle, ran into the Rose home where he attacked a young guest, Bonnie Meeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Meeks, of Sanlando Springs Drive. When Pierce freed the child from the monkey's grasp, he, too, was bitten for his effort.

AROUND THE CLOCK

Members of the Seminole-Orange legislative delegation are out for blood or revenge or whatever you want to call it. Some of them are, at least. Seems a newspaper editor (act to the south of us) is miffed that our legislators failed to have the state capital moved from Tallahassee to Orlando. And for this reason he has informed the lawmakers his newspaper will not support them in the current campaign. So, vow the senate, at the next session of the Legislature they will push through a law changing the name of the "Martin Andersen Beeline Highway" to the "Ed Gurney Beeline Highway."

A word to the wise . . . Police Chief Ben Butler said Officer Thomas A. Deppen has completed a six-week training course at Chicago's Keebler Polygraph Institute. Of the dozen who started the training only nine completed, with Deppen now one of the 24 persons in the country who is qualified to administer this type "lie detector." City has invested approximately $4,000 in acquiring polygraph and accessories needed to operate the device. Butler said the instrument would be used in cases involving felonies.

Mrs. Ann Houlihan, loyal supporter of Al Davis, County Commission candidate called today to say Davis did work with the March of Dimes some five years ago in 1963.

If you had a legal team composed of Mack N. Cleveland Jr., Gordon Frederick, Bill Hutchinson and Ed Kirkland of Orlando, you would no doubt call this the first string. These are but a few of the attorney State Attorney Dominick Selfi will face during the coming weeks while prosecuting ex-Sheriff J. L. Hobby, ex-Constable George Kelley, Barney Boston and Harlan Blackburn.

Apathetic is not a strong enough word to describe Longwood's citizens concerning the city's proposed new charter. Last night at the first public hearing on the law to be voted on by the people some time in the next month to six weeks, were special guests Rep. E. Pope Bassett, City Attorney Gene Stephenson, Councilman Eugene Jaques and James Brown, two members of the press and five citizens. Where were the other members of the city government and the other 1,250 registered voters?

James C. Adkins, candidate for the State Supreme Court, will visit Thursday in Orlando and Sanford in the interest of his campaign, and to visit old schoolmates.

Seminole Chamber of Commerce man John Krider will be at New Smyrna Beach today serving as VIP in stabilization of Ponce DeLeon Inlet ceremonies slated to begin at 3 p.m. The joint federal-local project cost $6.6 million and is being partially financed by a property tax in New Smyrna.

Truth in the old saying that "a rose by any other name smells as sweet" was proved yesterday at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners.

Involved are alleged Central Florida bolita kimpin Harlan Blackburn and five of his alleged confederates, plus former Seminole County Sheriff J. Luther Hobby and former Constable George Kelley.

All pleaded innocent before Judge Williams during Tuesday's arrangements, and there were indications that most would file motions to dismiss the charges. Hearings on motions are scheduled to start Tuesday, with trials beginning week of May 15.

Blackburn, along with his alleged associates, Clyde Lee and Jaxie Belch of S. A. in a do Springs; Eddy Bright and J. R. Carmichael of Orange County; and Lawrence Whitaker, of Eatonville, remained mute on violation of state gaming laws and conspiracy charges and the court entered innocent pleas on their behalf. All were arrested Thursday and remained at liberty on bonds.

Accepted the low bids of W. D. Bridges of Geneva at $3,000 for electrical work on motor vehicle inspection stations and of Harriet's Plumbing and Pneumatic Tube, Inc., for plumbing and tubes.

Placed the streets in Forest Brook subdivision in the county road system for maintenance subject to one-year maintenance bond.

GUSS WHAT'S MISSING?

Two eager youngsters were all set to "call the cops" cause someone stole the doors to the side entrance of the new Plaza Theater. It was learned that a last minute change in plans, after the steps and overhang had been set, eliminated any doors to be installed at this location.

Kelsey Requests Early Trial

Atorney Gordon Frederick today filed a motion with Circuit Court demanding a speedy trial for his client, George Kelsey, on four indictments charging conspiracy to operate a gambling house, operating a lottery and two counts of bribery.

Frederick is demanding a quick trial for Kelsey because the inactive Oviedo police chief is a candidate for sheriff in the May 7 Democratic primary.

Eddie McGee, of Sanford, is named with Kelsey in two of the indictments. It will be up to Circuit Judge Tom Waddell in Melbourne to fix an earlier date than May 15, to try Kelsey.

Kelsey pleaded innocent on all counts in Monday's arrangements.

Deltona Personals

Friends were surprised to hear of the fall of Jim Cole's mother, Mrs. Anna Jensen, in which she broke her hip. Mrs. Jensen is in West Volusia Hospital in DeLand, Room 212B. She was honored recently by the club members at a luncheon at the age of 70 years. Cards from friends would help to brighten the long days of inactivity ahead of her.

Mrs. Kay Hollister of Merritt Island was called home to Adrian, Mich., where her brother, Bob Hollister, is seriously ill. Mrs. Hollister has visited her home for sale and at present time does not plan to return to Deltona where she has been a well-known resident for many years. She will be missed by her many friends here.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Linda Berryman who wore a street length dress of purple tulle and carried a Colonial nosegay of yellow daisies.

Best man was Janet White who was dressed in turquoise. Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. David Russell Nicoll, III.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Steven David Henson. Ushers were Lou Whiting, Mr. Waldron, brother of the bride, and Dennis Nicoll, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Waldron chose a pink and white color scheme.

The bride wore a white tulle gown. The groom wore a white tulle suit. The ceremony was a simple one.

Luncheon Bids Farewell To Wives

Naval Air Station Officers Wives chose "Spring Flowers" as their theme for a recent luncheon at the House of Steaks, Hot Springs, June 10. Mrs. Albert and Ester Flapp presented each guest with a lovely yellow daffodil name tag. The long luncheon table was centered with an artistic arrangement of pink snapdragons in an alcy container of nylon net ruffles.

Following a delicious steak luncheon, the hostess surprised the group with a Spring Flower decorated birthday cake. Judy Oakley, president, presided at the business session. The group felt a little sad as the final party for Station and Wing plus other phasing out plans were discussed.

Joyce Taylor was presented a silver bowl and wished bon voyage as she departs for the West Coast. Betty Gregson was presented the luncheon arrangement as a door prize.

The final luncheon is scheduled for May 2 with Sally Julian and Irene Wiebe, serving as hostesses.

Shrimp-Stuffed Eggplant Good

SHRIMP-STUFFED eggplant from India—interesting seasonings help to make the stuffing savory.

Associated Press Food Editor Cecily Deary: There's a little point about eating eggplant I'm uncertain of. When you've served stuffed eggplant-in-the-shell, it is proper to eat every bit of it! In other words, when the stuffed-eggplant skin is tender and edible, do you eat it or leave it?

Or is stuffed eggplant like stuffed potatoes? Some people like the skin and eat it. Others don't and leave it. It is all right to do what you feel like doing?—Manners-minded.

Dear Manners-minded: If the stuffed eggplant is served at a buffet with only forks to accompany it, eat the stuffing and the eggplant around the shell, but don't struggle with the eggplant skin. Should a fork and knife accompany the eggplant, and you can't resist, go ahead and enjoy the skin—if the meal is an informal one. At a formal table, the eggplant skin should never be eaten.

I might add that when you are served fried or broiled eggplant-eggplant parmesan, where the eggplant is unpeeled and sliced, by all means eat the skin.

While we're on the topic here's a shrimp version of the dish. The recipe comes from India and it is seasoned in a most interesting way. Stuffed shrimp eggplant is fine to serve for a ladies' lunch.—C.B.

SHRIMP-STUFFED EGGPLANT KERALA

2 small eggplants (each 1/2 pound)
Juice of 1 lemon
2 tablespoons salad oil
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1 clove garlic, minced
1 cup chopped drained canned whole tomatoes

1. Cut eggplants lengthwise into 1/2-inch slices. Remove seeds and trim ends. Cut each slice into 4 equal parts.

2. With a small sharp knife make a deep cut that is about 1/4-inch from the edge of each eggplant half. With a sturdy spoon using the cut as a guide, scoop out the center from each half, leaving a shell about 1/4-inch thick.

3. Place eggplant shells, cut side down, in a baking dish. Add enough water to come up about half an inch. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven until shells are tender but still hold their shape—about 20 minutes.

Meanwhile chop the scooped-out eggplant and place in a bowl, sprinkle with lemon juice and toss.

4. In a large skillet over low heat, heat the oil. Add onion, green pepper and garlic. Cook until onion wilts. Stir in tomatoes, cayenne, turmeric, coriander, salt and pepper. Add

Look Who's Talking!

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—While actors clustered on the steps of the Municipal Theater here to protest federal censorship, a passerby stopped to admire a mini-skirted demonstrator sitting on the top step.

A male demonstrator stepped in front of the girl to obstruct the admirer's view. The man glared, shook his head and before walking away told the actor: "And you say you are protesting censorship!"

Home Service Director Have Your Next Cookout Indoors

CALL it a picnic, a barbecue, a cookout or a cook-in. The name doesn't matter, but the fun is the same. Enjoy outdoor flavor with indoor conveniences, everyone pitching in to help and lots to eat. And the best part is about a cook-in is potluck—broiling crisp barbecue chicken, without mess, fuss or smoke. Cooking indoors with outdoor flavor is just becoming a favorite form of partying.

To round up your indoor barbecue menu serve a scalloped potato casserole, and hot baked rolls. Then, complete with a minimum of effort.

OUR DIET TREATS MAKE IT FUN

Spring is a good time to "shape up" — when a half-hour of brisk walking is a pleasure. No need to "short-change" meals... just shorter portions. And your non-dieting family can have too.

Here's a satisfying ham-dandy, with just 290 calories per serving. Trim fat from thick slice of cooked ham; place in shallow baking dish. Drain and reserve syrup from a can of diet-pack peach halves and add four halves with cloves. Arrange peaches and a slice of diet-pack pineapple around ham. Stir a tablespoon of prepared mustard into peach syrup, pour over ham and bake. Bake at 350° until ham and fruits are lightly glazed. Weight-watcher's serving is 1/4 pound of ham, 1 slice of pineapple.

Other low-calorie secrets: Enjoy hot beetles in overall flavor at mid-morning, afternoon or late evening. Stay with low-calorie soft drinks. Spark watered-down hot sauce with fresh lemon. Try beetles and mixed salad herbs as seasoning for vegetables such as spinach. Raw cauliflower, carrots, celery, cucumber, green pepper, radishes and lettuce, fixed and handy in refrigerator, make fine nibbles. And all you want of one time you'll add up to more than 25 calories. Treat yourself to 1/2 cup of fresh strawberries, plain, for 28 calories... or dip in 1/2 cup of creamy yogurt for just 18 more. Then, you can eat your way to a healthier, trimmer you for the mid-winter season ahead.

When you really get away from you or you have guests on short notice, a well-stocked snack-foods pantry helps you ease the occasion with calmness. A easy trick is a heavy shoulder made by adding tuna to your favorite canned soup — vegetable, tomato, celery, onion, for example. Make diet: Shepherd's Pie. Dip. Spread. Cover the bottom of a baking dish with mashed potatoes (packaged instead of canned). Add a thick layer of canned hash — corned beef or roast beef — well seasoned and combined with cabbage, still sauteed, or steak sauce and onion juice or mixed raw onion. Top with more mashed potatoes and sprinkle generously with grated cheese. Bake at 425° until delicately brown, about 20 minutes. Serve with canned green beans in mushroom sauce — just heat beans in the juice, then drain and mix with undiluted concentrated canned cream of mushroom soup. A sliced peach or apricot completes the flavor combo and provides color accent to the serving.

Pick up a double quantity when you're shopping this week — one to try now, and one for the shelf. You'll know what a delicious meal you can whip up in nothing flat!

Solon Breaks Leg 4th Time
JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Charles Bennett has broken a leg for the fourth time and once again the longest record of uninterrupted roll call voting in the history of Congress is in jeopardy.
Since June 4, 1931, Rep. Bennett, D-Florida, has answered every roll call in the House of Representatives—about 2,800 of them. No other congressman has matched that since Congress first convened in 1789.
Two broken legs and the delayed birth of a daughter didn't keep him away. He has battled deep snow and made emergency transportation connections to keep the record going.
Bennett, a decorated Army veteran of World War II who contracted polio while leading guerrillas against the Japs in the Philippines, did make some roll calls shortly after beginning his first term in Congress in 1949.

Troop 507 Sets Supper

Donations for children and adult services will be accepted. Proceeds will be used to help with a trip to the coast camp in Tennessee during August.
Tickets for the dinner may be purchased from any member of the troop, from any of the adult leaders, or at the door, according to Russ Kilmer, scoutmaster.

Suspect Vanishes
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Deadend clues to a man who vanished without a trace apparently confronted FBI agents today in their investigation of the sniper slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
False leads multiplied in the hunt for Eric Starvo Galt, a mysterious quiet-talking man whose last known address was a Birmingham rooming house. His former landlord said Monday he had identified drawings shown by FBI agents as resembling Eric Galt.
"It's him," said Peter Chernes, 72, who runs a two-story Southside boarding house where Eric Galt lived for six months last fall.
Galt's abandoned white Mustang was impounded last Thursday by the FBI in Atlanta. It fit the description of a car seen leaving the scene after King was killed April 4 by a sniper firing from a rooming house in Memphis, Tenn.

Automobile Show - Holiday Isle - Today And Tomorrow

Opening crowds at the 1968 Sanford Auto Show Wednesday afternoon and evening proved that this year's event will be the most successful yet. Ed Hunt, president of the Sanford Automobile Dealers Association, told The Herald this morning.

The show continues from 2 until 9 p.m. through Friday and is the first to be staged at Sanford's multi-million dollar Holiday Isle on Lake Monroe. The more than 125 automobiles being shown represent better than three-quarters of a million dollars in value and there are dealers and sales representatives on hand at all times to answer and explain all questions regarding new safety features of the 1968 models.

Trade offers being made during the three days are rare and sales at the show so far have been very good, Hunt reports.

In addition to the exceptional bargain prices on the automobiles, five brand new prizes are awarded each evening during the show. Winners Wednesday were Robert A. Carr, 106 Azalia Lane, Sanford; T. N. Colegrove, 124 Upsala Road, Sanford; Mrs. L. B. Huntington, 1927 Carrington, Winter Park; Mrs. Marie Riner, 2420 Holly Avenue, Sanford, and J. W. Agee, P.O. Box 1041, Sanford.

Registration for the prizes are made each night and awards are made at 8:30 p.m. Winners must be present when names are drawn and must be 18 years old or older.

Concession stand is being manned by members of Sanford-Seminole Jaycees and continuous music and night lighting is provided through co-operation of Randall Electric of Sanford, Florida Power and Light Company and Sanford City Manager Warren E. Knowles.

Dealers participating in the show include Seminole County Motors, Jim Lash Chrysler-Plymouth, Strickland-Morrison Ford, Hemphill Buick-Pontiac, Hunt Lincoln-Mercury, Ellnor Volkswagens, Toyota Economy Cars, Holiday Ramblers, and Joe Creamons Chevrolet-Cadillac-Oldsmobile.

$6,000 Teacher Base Pay Eyed

By BILL SCOTT

Salary schedules for teachers are expected to be discussed by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction at a meeting set for 8 p.m. Friday.

Main item expected to draw interest is a proposal for a $6,000 base for first-year county system teachers. An alternative of $5,800 also has been advanced by at least one board member. Action on teacher pay schedules is expected after hearing recommendations from trustees.

A special meeting of the school board has been set for 8 p.m. April 23, when a special team of investigators from Atlanta regional office of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare will meet with board to discuss complaints of little or no faculty migration at Crooms High School. Inspection team is scheduled to arrive in Seminole County Tuesday and will be checking plans for faculty integration next year.

Federal Government has recently warned school system that funds would be cut off if 10 per cent staff desegregation or crossover in every school next year. Among other things the team is expected to check bus routes, school budgets, student integration and maintenance.

Active progress has been made in student desegregation. Bookertown School, an all Negro facility, will be phased out next year and some 200 Negro students are expected to be in Lakeview Junior High School. Lakeview is now under construction and will house seventh graders only.

Hobby Hearing Slated Tuesday

Circuit Judge Thomas R. Waddell Jr. will consider a motion to quash grand jury indictments against former Seminole County Sheriff J. Keith Blodgett at a hearing set for Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Sanford. Waddell set the hearing after a motion filed Wednesday after Blodgett's arrest.

Blodgett was indicted on charges of grand larceny, grand theft, and possession of stolen property. He was arrested on Wednesday at his home in Sanford.

A previous motion was also filed by Sanford attorney Albert Pitts on Hobby's behalf, stating the grand jury indictments did not allege any violation of state statutes or any law.

Blodgett's attorney, James K. Casey, also served as Waddell's counsel in the indictment. He was indicted on charges of grand larceny, grand theft, and possession of stolen property.

It was understood that Circuit Court schedule is crowded and at present no plans have been formulated that will give Hobby a speedy trial before Democratic primary scheduled for May 7. More information about the case is expected after Waddell hears Tuesday's motion.

Hobby is accused in grand jury indictments with accepting bribes of $13,000 over a period of eight years for services he and two county deputies are all charged with performing for Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club as private protectors.

Hobby and George Kelsey are Democratic candidates for Seminole County Sheriff and were Hobby in grand jury indictments presented a week ago.

Kelsey, inactive Oviedo Police Chief, also served as Waddell's counsel.

Hobby is alleged to have accepted $1,000 per year from 1960 to 1965 and $2,000 annually from 1966 to 1967 from Kennel club.

Hobby and Deputies W. R. Brown and James R. Moore were accused of furnishing dog protection for the dog track and taking receipts to a Sanford Bank.

Indictment charged Hobby with "willfully, intentionally, unlawfully solicited and accepted for himself and others funds to furnish guards for Kennel club."

Hobby resigned as sheriff in November after Gov. Claude Kirk gave him an option to either resign or be suspended. He has posted bond of $500.

City Union Discussed

Representatives of the six incorporated municipalities in Seminole County met Wednesday afternoon at the TradeWinds Cafeteria in Casselberry to discuss the formation of a Seminole County League of Municipalities.

Each mayor will present a resolution to his respective county so that his community can become a part of the league.

Attending the meeting were Mayor Curtis Blow, host to the group; Mayor Lawrence Swoford of Altamonte Springs; Mayor Al Lorman of Longwood; Mayor Clifford Jordan of North Orlando; Mayor C. D. Thompson of Oviedo, and representing Mayor Vincent Roberts of Sanford, who was out of town and could not attend.

And don't be upset about the "Planet of the Apes" flicker that was scheduled for the big initial showing. Manager Ed Boyd says he'll have something even more attractive than that—if he can just twist a few arms. And he's twisting!

Appeals

Appeal has been filed in Circuit Court by Mrs. Katherine Johnson of Casselberry asking the decision of Judge William Winds Cafeteria at Seminole Plaza, Macon, Georgia, and William Phillips are to stress the importance of education to Seminole County.

Many persons around the county are asking if either J. L. Hobby or George Kelsey were elected sheriff while under indictment, could they legally serve in the office. The answer is "yes." Folks are reminded that an indictment is only a charge and that in our fine country a man is innocent until proved guilty.

Longwood's monkey problem again points out the need in that South Seminole municipality for an animal control officer. The man who finally apprehended the creature serves as animal control officer for the City of Casselberry.

Dogs Give $200,000 To Charity

Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club has passed the $200,000 mark in contributions to charity and is a new mark for a single season.

Two Charity Nights and one Scholarship Night raised a total of $27,248 for this season, the largest amount ever for a single season according to track General Manager Jack Ledoux.

"Last year the three special nights raised a total of $23,136.86," said Ledoux. "We are delighted to announce that this is a new mark for a single season."

Many Seminole County groups shared in the funds this year. Among them were Seminole Junior College, United Fund, Child Welfare, Seminole Public Health Home Nursing Council, Seminole Mental Health Clinic, March of Dimes, American Cancer Society, Longwood Medical Center and various veterans and civic group welfare funds.

"We are very happy to play a part in aiding such worthy groups," said Ledoux. "Charity and Scholarship Nights always have been a major part of our program and will continue to be through the years."

Track Operator Jerry Collins, who was instrumental in initiating the special performance for charitable purposes, said when he was a member of the state Legislature in the 1950s, also was pleased with the season's new high.

"We hope that within the very near future," said Collins, "that charity and scholarship performances will be raising as much as $50,000 per year. We feel that the performances are a very important part of our program and we are always happy to be associated with the outstanding people who work so diligently to raise money for such worthy causes."

CONSTRUCTION has started on a Park and Shop Supermarket at Fourth and Cypress. This is in the rear of the existing Tip Top market at Fourth and Sanford Avenue. The Tip Top building will be torn down, and in its place, paved parking. Remodeling has also begun on the Tip Top on 13th Street in Goldsbrough, which also will be renamed Park and Shop. These markets are owned by Gazil, Inc.

'Phone Strike Expected Today

Communications Workers of America union members were expected to picket the Southern Bell Telephone plant at French Avenue and Ninth Street this afternoon as part of a nationwide telephone strike by the AFL-CIO affiliate.

Manager Robert Shelden said it is anticipated the strikers will picket only the Ninth-French plant and none of the other plants and offices in Seminole County. He explained they are union employees of Western Electric, which is a subsidiary of the Bell Telephone system.

Shelden said there should be no interruption in local telephone service but there may be some delay in long distance person-to-person calls, information, etc.

There is a possibility the strike could also affect some Southern Bell Telephone Company employees who are members of the Communications Workers of America, AFL-CIO.

A spokesman for the union said in Atlanta that striking Western Electric workers would set up picket lines, and fellow union members working for Southern Bell were not expected to cross them.

The spokesman said the pickets would be stationed only at buildings where Western Electric employees work, and Southern Bell workers at other plants likely would not be affected by the walkout.

Strike Set For 3 P.M.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - About 3,000 communications workers in five Southeastern states are to walk off their jobs at 3 p.m. today in conjunction with a strike deadline near.

Rinehart, S-520 Top '69 Work

By DONNA ESTES

State Road Department order of priority and entire work program scheduled for Seminole County to be done during the 1968-69 fiscal year beginning July 1 was received by the county today. The program is subject to a public hearing May 23 at Marco Island.

The program as set by the SRD is almost exactly as requested by the Board of County Commissioners in a resolution several weeks ago.

Top spots are given to Rinehart Road, to serve the new General Dynamics plant, and S-520, to provide better access to Florida Technological University from Oviedo.

Rinehart project will be two miles paving from Lake Mary Boulevard north to S-46A, at estimated cost of $105,000 for resurfacing and $135,000 for rights of way costs.

Widening and resurfacing of S-520 is set for 4.1 miles, at cost of $100,000. Some $6,000 is also allocated for county signs with this road.

Other projects included in order listed are SR 436 from the SCL railroad, 4 mile east to SR 434, signal $19,000; SR 436 at intersection with SR 434, traffic signal $8,000; SR 431 SCL railroad 2.3 mile south of SR 436, signals, $13,000; 17.02 intersection with SR 436, traffic signal, $5,000; SR 44, 5.8 miles from SR 436 to SR 427, resurfacing, $95,000; S-15, 1.1 miles from SR 46 to SCL railroad at Lake Monroe, preliminary engineering, $10,000; S-427, 3.4 miles, from 17-92 to SR 425 at Glendeville, grading, paving, resurfacing, $350,000.

A planned expenditure of $4,000 is set for grading, paving and surfacing at the Seminole Junior College as well as a rest area 3 mile north of SR 434 on I-1 at cost of $300,000.
