

MILLION DOLLAR SUIT AGAINST COAL UNION FOR RIOT AND MURDER

The Estimated Property Damage and Cold Fact Brought to Light IN COAL MINE RIOT

ATTORNEYS FOR COAL COMPANY CHARGE SHERIFF WITH NEGLECTING DUTY

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 24.—Counsel for the Southern Illinois Coal Company today telegraphed Adjutant General Black at Springfield requesting troops be sent to Williamson county. Attorney's charged sheriff of the county still refusing to do his duty and there was danger of further outbreaks.

HERRIN, June 24.—The state military investigation of massacre begun today. Tour of area of fight made and expected numerous persons believed knew something of disorders would be called before the board.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Estimates of the amount of property damage and determination of cold figures to be fixed as legal value of human lives lost in the mine riots and massacre of Williamson county is being compiled today in preparation for a damage suit which the Southern Illinois Coal Company announced will be filed against the international union of the United Mine Workers and Williamson county. The suits will aggregate more than one million dollars, according to officials.

HERRIN, Ill., June 24.—The massacre of non-union miners in the woods near the strip mine of the Southern Illinois Coal Co., where they were employed, was the act of a mob which got beyond the control of the cooler element, which was attempting to escort the captives to Herrin, to "show them off to the boys," according to information gleaned today.

The leaders, it was said, finally were compelled to yield to the clamors of the mob that the prisoners "beat it." The fleeing men thereupon were shot down, beaten to death, and one was known to have been hanged.

Although a number of the miners shudder at the slaughter, all say "they got just what they deserved."

As soon as the 44 strip employees surrendered Thursday morning a cry went up for the lives of the captives, persons who were eye-witnesses say. The cooler element marched just behind the prisoners, who were at the head of the procession and the disorderly element flocked behind and beside them.

There were cries of "beat it," which grew into a chorus, but the leaders withstood the demand until they arrived at a wooded section about three miles from here. There the clamor increased and the mob pressed around the fear-stricken prisoners, some of whom mumbled, evidently in prayer.

Witnesses say the leaders, feeling unable longer to resist the crowd's clamor, said to the prisoners: "Yes, you'd better beat it."

Then followed the massacre. How many of the prisoners realized that it was to be a flight of death will never be known.

Between the road and the woods on the right side, there was a barbed wire fence. Most of the prisoners probably thinking vaguely that it would be something to have the fence between them and the mob, began climbing through the fence. They had difficulty with their suitcases. There were shouts of: "Drop your suitcases you won't need them," which appealed to the humor of the jeering mob. Most of the prisoners dropped their suitcases and scrambled through and hurried into the woods.

The shooting was under way and the killing was on throughout the woods. Men were running and dodging and crowds were following and shooting at them. When one fell, the crowd closed in and fired a volley into the prostrate form. The throats of two were cut.

As a man was shot down crowds gathered and watched him breathe his last, jeering and scoffing. One of the wounded men to whom the correspondent talked in the woods said he was a steam shovel worker.

This musical festival is being given under the combined auspices of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, the Sanford Rotary Club, the Sanford Kiwanis club and Womans club, and the money raised during the day will go toward supporting the band. It is hoped to receive enough money to enable the band to continue its weekly concerts during the remainder of the year.

Major Woodward, of the Carolina Military and Naval academy of Hendersonville, N. C., is in the city in the interest of his school.

The men who crowded about him said: "You ought to know better than to try to take the bread from a union man's mouth."

Investigations were conducted yesterday by several state representatives from Springfield and the coroner started his inquest by swearing in the jury. It then adjourned until Sunday. State's Attorney Duty said he probably would recommend a grand jury investigation but that this would depend primarily on what the inquest uncovered. All officials were of the opinion that no evidence would be obtainable. The casualty list was still indefinite last night.

Twenty-two bodies were in the morgues. Several others were reported still in the woods or in ponds. Estimates ran as high as forty but had no confirmation.

FEDERATION OF LABOR AGAIN REFUSES RECOGNITION SOVIET RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT

Action in Convention Today is the Third Successive Turndown

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, June 24.—For the third consecutive year the Federation of Labor placed on record by action of its convention here today against recognition of the Soviet Russian government.

CINCINNATI, June 24.—Led by Samuel Gompers, foes of the Russian Soviet government in the American Federation of Labor seemed certain last night to place the federation at its convention here on record against the recognition of the Soviets for the third successive year. A test vote, called for at Mr. Gompers' suggestion, virtually ended the debate, but a final show down went over until today.

Aside from the Russian question, the convention went on record against the federation affiliating with the international federation of trades unions, and re-elected the federation's present executive council of eleven officers, headed by Mr. Gompers as president. It was Mr. Gompers' forty-first election, and he was unopposed.

Other officers were re-elected as follows:

- First vice-president, James Duncan, Quincy, Mass.; second vice-president, Joseph Valentine, Cincinnati;
- third vice-president, Frank Duffy, Indianapolis, Ind.; fourth vice-president, William Green, Indianapolis;
- fifth vice-president, W. D. Mahlon, Detroit;
- sixth vice-president, T. A. Rickert, Chicago;
- seventh vice-president, Jacob Fischer, Indianapolis;
- eighth vice-president, Matthew Woll, Chicago;
- treasurer, Daniel J. Tobin, Indianapolis;
- secretary, Frank Morrison, of Washington.

WHAT A PUBLICITY TAX WILL DO FOR A COMMUNITY

The following editorials from Florida papers will be interesting to the people of Sanford. The question of a publicity tax is one of the most important in our community:

The Science of Publicity

Wide comment is being given the action of the Miami Chamber of Commerce in setting aside, through its publicity committee, a budget of $91,000 for the coming season. It is doubtful if any city in the South even dreams of using that much money to tell the outside world why all the rest of the people outside of Miami ought to visit the Magic City. Certainly no Florida town or city has a publicity budget anywhere near that contemplated by Miami. Consequently no other town or city in Florida can expect to reap anywhere near the benefit Miami expects to reap from the bringing in of new residents, some for the winter only, others to be permanent. Miami is strong for good band music, knowing that to keep people pleased and amused is to make them contented. Thousands of people who frequent Miami and other Florida cities every winter, are attracted there by the love of the very best band music. Miami is figuring on spending not less than $35,000 for a good band. The next item is that of booklets. To meet this need, $20,000 is to be set aside and a like amount is to be spent in newspapers throughout the North and West. Another means of getting the Miami message to the traveling public is through the agency of the bill boards. About $4,000 will be spent for this purpose in the North and about $2,000 in the territory surrounding Jacksonville, Waycross and Savannah. It is also proposed to put up direction signs over a wide territory east of the Mississippi river and north of the Ohio and more than $5,000 will be spent in this way. It will take another $5,000 to carry on the publicity work in the Miami headquarters so here we have an ambitious and extensive program that would make most communities gasp for breath. To those who have never visited the Magic City and are wondering just what sort of place it is do not have to bother to make the trip of inspection. All that is necessary is to realize that Miami is about to spend $91,000 for publicity. That tells the story of a progressive people who know full well the value of telling the other fellow. It is this same spirit of determination to excel, that will give Miami a population of more than one hundred thousand people within the next half dozen years. While it may not be possible for any other city to follow Miami's example as regards amount, the lesson is there just the same for all who care to read. Without publicity, without a determined effort to tell the outside world what a city has in the way of assets and attractions, there can be no advance, no gain in population, no great forward step.—Lakeland Telegram.

Liberal Publicity Brings Returns.

Proper publicity must be preached and must be practiced if any city or county is to forge ahead. This has been proven so many times that it should be needless to make it a weekly or a monthly text. The city or the county which builds an almost prohibitive wall about it from lack of publicity will fall behind its neighbor who is a believer in printer's ink. Florida has many advantages, possessed by no other state—yet if any section of the state decides to liberate for a season it will require large sums later to forge to the front. A dozen years ago there was no more flourishing town in the state than Kissimmee—and it was recognized as such a community by every city and all authorities spoke of it as the place where the future was close at hand. Then, suddenly, it commenced to stand still—at least it did not forge ahead; and people began to wonder why, with so fine a location—such a centralized position—there should be a cessation of growth where everywhere had been conducive for a city of much importance. There were a number of reasons—some of which will be spoken of later. One of these reasons—possibly the chief cause—still exists to a certain extent, but this article is intended for an argument for the city to take up a system of gaining publicity which will destroy that evil—even as the swift gliding water will, by erosion, wear down unsightly elevations. Miami has by its recently-published budget drawn attention from all portions of the United States—for the figures have been taken up by the Associated Press and widely scattered. The publicity budget of the Chamber of Commerce of that city has been filled out with five figures for the one year—$91,000; a sum stupendously large even for a city the size of Miami. Yet that entire sum will come back into the city—to a host of beneficiaries—before the year shall have been closed. Ninety-one thousand dollars—think of it! Yet think what will result! Of this $91,000 goes for employment of a band next winter, $20,000 for advertising booklets, $4,000 for billboards in the north, such as the "June in Miami" board on Broadway in New York City, $1,800 for billboards near Jacksonville, Waycross and Savannah, $5,200 for highway signs, and $5,000 for publicity work in the home office. The budget for publicity last year for all Osceola county was sliced in two—and some twelve hundred dollars was appropriated for "publicity." Yet even of that trifling sum not one cent was spent for publicity. The year prior to that there was but one thousand dollars used for "publicity." And what the harvest is to be for the coming year "for publicity" it is difficult to state. And that for the entire county! Compare the county of Osceola with Miami in a progressive way. Miami, with 29,000 population, raises $91,000 of which some $55,000 goes for publicity—the balance for music. That means about $3.17 per capita. Osceola county, with 7,000 population raises $1,000 for publicity—or about fifteen cents per capita—of which

REPUBLICANS WILL PLAN CLOTURE RULE

TO CURB DEBATE IN SENATE ON THE TARIFF BILL TODAY

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 24.—The senate Republican leaders today put into operation their plan to curb the debate on the long pending tariff bill. Petition to invoke the existing cloture rule was drafted by Senator Curtis, of Kansas, Republican vice-chairman and party whip and its circulation begun.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Slow progress in the senate of the tariff bill yesterday resulted in a new cloture movement. Republican leaders in private conferences planned to invoke the existing cloture rule, limiting debate by a two-thirds vote, and if unsuccessful they said they were considering the drastic step of laying aside the tariff bill to fight for their pending majority cloture rule.

Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, was said to have made the suggestion for an attempt to apply the two-thirds rule now in the rule book. He said he was planning within a day or two to begin circulating a petition requiring only 16 senators' signatures for presentation to the senate.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader, said he believed the cloture move would be made. If this effort to get an early vote on the bill should fail, Senator Lodge added, the Republican leadership was considering seriously the plan to lay aside the tariff bill and make a fight for the new rule to invoke cloture by majority vote and "fight it all summer if necessary."

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The republican members of the house from the territory east of Kansas now absent from Washington have been ordered back to the capital today by Mondell, the republican leader, owing to the one-man filibuster being conducted by Representative Voigt, republican, of Wisconsin. Prompt return will avoid the issuance of warrants, Mondell said in telegrams to the absentees. Voigt forced 14 roll calls yesterday and showed no disposition today to end the filibuster. He forced three roll calls, each requiring 25 minutes within the first hour and a half of the session today.

William Rockefeller Brother of John D., Died This Morning

Was Prominent in Business Circles and Well Known Oil Man

(By The Associated Press)

TAIRYTOWN, N. Y., June 24.—William Rockefeller, oil magnate and a brother of John D. died here today of pneumonia. He was ill at his home here since Sunday, but word of his condition was not made public. Five doctors in attendance when the end came. Practically all the members of the Rockefeller family at death bed. Rockefeller contracted heavy cold during the rains last week end. He had just completed a quarter of a million dollar Mausoleum in Sleepy Hollow cemetery. He was 81 years old.

less than $300 was used for publicity. If Osceola county had devoted the same pro rata as Miami there would have been more than $22,000 in the publicity fund; if Miami had made the same pro rata as Kissimmee there would have been but about $4,350 in its treasury.

No one would for a moment expect Osceola county to raise a sum anywhere near the amount of the city of the lowest east coast; that idea would be absurd. But it should by all means set aside a sum equal to perhaps one-sixth of that amount—say fifty cents per capita, which would give $3,500 some publicity work which would act as a nucleus with which to commence bring such good results that the people, of their own volition, would desire to increase it another year.—Kissimmee Gazette.

Glisson Attacked By Masked Men, Severely Beaten

And Shot in the Arm Near Palatka Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

PALATKA, June 24.—Percy Glisson, son of John Glisson former chairman of the Putnam county board of commissioners, was called from his father's home near Hotwick at 11 o'clock last night by masked men, shot in the arm and beaten over the head with a pistol when he resisted, carried some distance from the house and left by the roadside unconscious. The sheriff's office investigating developed only that the attackers came to Palatka after the assault, crossed the St. Johns river on the bridge here toward East Palatka. Glisson is not seriously injured and has no idea why he was attacked.

Another Theatre Will Be Built Here States I. W. Phillips

Rolls Reel, the Sanford representative of I. W. Phillips, authorized The Daily Herald this morning to say that Mr. Phillips expected to erect a fine modern theatre on the corner of Park avenue and Second street, the work to begin in a few weeks.

Mr. Phillips is the Dodge agent for Orange, Seminole and Lake counties and has the Sanford Motor company in this city and is one of the most progressive business men in Orlando, being president of the First National Bank and head of the I. W. Phillips company, and a large property owner in Orlando, Sanford and other cities.

Plans for the new theatre have not been drawn as yet, but it will be about 60x117 and will be up to date in every respect. Details of the new theatre will be given later, but Mr. Phillips assures the people of Sanford that it will be built at once.

TWO MEN KILLED IN NITRO EXPLOSION

(By The Associated Press)

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, June 24.—Two men were blown to pieces, three houses on outskirts of Wellsville were wrecked early today when nitroglycerine being transported in automobiles exploded.

FALSEHOOD--UNTRUTH

It is rumored I have sold the Star Theatre lot and that I am going to retire from the theatre and motion picture business. This is a gross falsehood as I have NOT sold the above lot up to the present and even if I did I have other available locations that I can build upon, and neither do I intend to retire from the business I am in. The main purpose of the notice is prompted through justice to myself and to protect people who have in mind investing in unassured and unreliable theatre projects.

Make them show you suitable theatre property paid for and in their own name. Make them show you an equal amount of real cash to invest along with yours. Don't let them buy the property and build a theatre with your money and then take all the profits for salaries. Find out who is going to handle the money, are they honest—can they be trusted with your earnings—how much experience have they had—has their past career in this or other lines been a success—would they see you through a losing crisis or close up and let you hold the bag?

Bear in mind that I will have a regular theatre here in a short time and that I hold long time contracts and franchises with the following stars, producers and authors and they cannot be shown at any other theatre besides mine:

United Artists including D. W. Griffith, Mary Pickford, Douglass Fairbanks, George Arliss, Rex Beach, etc.
Famous Players-Lasky including Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Cosmopolitan Productions, Betty Compson, Cecil B. DeMille, William de Mille, Elsie Ferguson, Thomas Meighan, George Mel-ford, George Fitzmaurice, Ethel Clayton, William S. Hart, Jack Holt, Rudolph Valentino, Agnes Ayres; special productions from a dozen companies; Clara Kimball Young, Earl Williams, Florence Reed, Lois Weber, Charles Dickens, Author, Marion Davies; Goldwyn Franchise with such authors as Rupert Hughes, LeRoy Scott, Katherine Newlin Burt, Victorian Sardou, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Gabriell D'Annunzio, Hall Cain, Albert Payson Terhune also Tom Moore and Will Rogers; Nazimova, Jackie Coogan, Weslie Barry; Eugene O'Brien, Owen Moore, Elaine Hammerstein, Conway Tearle, Dorothy Phillips, Harry Carey, William Farnum, Dustin Farnum and all Fox Pictures; A First National Franchise with Marshal Neilan, Anita Stewart, Constance Talmadge, Mildred Harris Chaplin, King Vidor, Norma Talmadge, Katherine McDonald, Allan Dwan, Mack Sennett, Annette Kellermann, Lionel Barrymore, Charles Ray, James Oliver Curwood, Poa Negri, Charles Chaplin, etc.; Bert Lytell, Viola Dana, Alice Lake, Tom Mix, Pearl White, Pauline Frederick and many others. In fact I have the entire out-put of all the first class concerns under contract.

Gun Club Shoot Well Attended—Good Scores Made

RAIN DID NOT DAMPEN POWDER NOR ARDOR OF THE SPORTS.

Despite the threatening weather and final downpour of rain, seventeen men were in the contest at the traps of the Sanford Rod and Gun club yesterday. Verily the rod and gun club is developing some crack shots. The highest individual score among the local boys for the day was made by John Purdon, who dropped all but three of his string of fifty. Next came R. H. Wight, the headliner of the club, who broke 46 and then came Ben Coleman, now second man in the line-up, who got 45. J. C. Hutchinson and L. U. May followed with 44 each, and Charley Whitner with 43. The sensation of the day was the shooting by Mr. Buck, a visitor from Lakeland, who just naturally walked up to the trap and broke 50 straight on the regular program. This record has few equals on the local trap. The new rules were posted for the first time yesterday and seemed satisfactory in every way to the shooters and visitors. They will lessen the probability of accidents and if strictly enforced will make accidents impossible. The new program was also put into effect yesterday, whereby only 50 shots are counted in the official score. This has been found more satisfactory with the older clubs and tends to equalize the opportunities for each contestant. After the regular program the boys are allowed to shoot as long as they like, but their scores are not recorded in the season's average. The score for yesterday is as follows:

SANFORD WINS FROM WINTER GARDEN

The showers that fell yesterday afternoon did not dampen the ardor of the fans and a good crowd turned out to see the game between the fast Winter Garden team and Sanford.

Amann, Sanford's "iron man" was on the mound for the locals and he pitched true to his usual form, giving up but four hits until the last inning after which he loosened up and allowed the visitors several extra bingles.

There were few brilliant plays but a fair sample of ball was produced and a glance at the following box score will tell you the story:

TONIGHT

GLORIA SWANSON and RO. DOLPH VALENTINO in Ethel Glyn's

"BEYOND THE ROCKS"

A flaming romance as only the author of "Three Weeks" could write it; as only Glorious Gloria, with dashing Rodolph Valentino playing the lover, could make it live in all its ardent splendor. The story of a passionate young heart. Of gay nights of revelry in Paris—of tingling adventure on the snow-clad crags of the Alps—of intrigue and coquetry in the gilded resorts of London high society. Never before have such lavish settings, such dramatic love-scenes, such spectacular adventure been seen upon the screen.

California is the country for the rich man says a contributor to the Tampa Times. We notice that none but the rich can go there.

It is time for the annual memberships to the Fernald-Laughton Hospital to be paid. Every man and woman in Seminole County should pay their dollar and keep up this institution that means so much to the community and every person in it. You never know what a wonderful institution the local hospital is until you or your family needs it.

Sanford is going to vote on municipal ownership of her water, light and gas plants. A good thing, if you can keep them out of politics. Name your commission in advance, and have it composed of your best business men who will not work the job for themselves or political cohorts, but for the interest of the people.—Reporter-Star.

Righto, old dear. Something on the plans you are following in the building of your school house, we presume.

St. Augustine is now fighting changing the route of the East Coast Canal to the St. Johns River, and will be strongly represented at the canal hearing at Daytona next Monday. While the new route up the St. Johns to Sanford, connecting with the Indian river by a 30-mile canal to Titusville, would provide deeper water for navigation between Jacksonville and Miami, the new route would sidetrack St. Augustine, Daytona and New Smyrna.—Titusville Advocate.

The Herald has always contended that a publicity tax was needed by a city and a county to take care of the many needs of the community not only in the matter of advertising but for every movement for the public welfare. There are two articles in this issue from state papers regarding the publicity tax levied by Miami that should be read and digested. Sanford and Seminole county should have a publicity tax sufficient to take care of all public matters in the way of hospitals, bands, community welfare work of all kinds and charity. The people are tired of digging for everything while the majority of the ones well able to give, refuse to give anything. All this money should come from the taxes which is the only equitable way. Think it over.

Those union miners who deliberately killed the non-union miners in cold blood, tied them together and threw them into ponds and otherwise acted like wild beasts, should get the full limit of the law and they should be made to suffer for this crime. The union miners and the non-union miners have suffered by the greed of the corporations who control the mines and this is admitted by all who know anything about coal mining. But if the miners are not satisfied with their wages they should quit and let it go at that. They have nothing to do with the working of the mines after they have given up their jobs and they have nothing to do with the men who want to work. And certainly they have no excuse for killing men in cold blood after they have surrendered.

Reports from Tampa say that the recent bond election for three millions for roads was illegitimate and will have to be done all over again. There was some mistake in the publishing of the notices that makes the election invalid or rather makes the bonds invalid if they ever come to a sale. This only goes to show that too much care cannot be exercised in arranging for the sale of bonds and the attorneys who arrange the matter for the city or county officials must know their business before they start an election for bonds. Seminole county and Sanford have been very fortunate in this respect and some people have thought there was much time lost over technical points in the law but it pays in the long run to be careful and look before you leap on bond matters. We hope that Hillsborough county will be able to adjust the matter satisfactorily and again put the bonds across.

GOVERNMENT AID IS COSTLY CONVENTION.

"No more expensive phrases have been invented in recent years than 'state aid' and 'federal tid,'" declared former Gov. Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, in a recent address to students of the University of California. He spoke rightly and wisely.

Citizens of every state in the Union "pay through their noses" every time they mention or invoke these phrases. Those who fondly deceive themselves into the belief that, because some project they are interested in is receiving either state or federal aid, they are getting something for nothing, are going to wake up some day with sore noses and empty pockets. As the Indianapolis News says:

It is their money which has been collected in taxes that the government is giving back to them, and they are getting only part of it back. From their payments in the form of taxes, a large deduction must be made for the cost of the government handling the money, probably the most expensive kind of money handling there is.

The increasing understanding by the taxpayers that the money spent by any government—national, state or municipal—is not the government's money, but the taxpayers' money, which has been turned over to the government to defray the cost of administration, should have a tendency to compel a stricter accounting for their trust by public officials. Furthermore, it should be borne in on public officials that they are not in office to spend the funds in the public treasury in such extravagant ways as foster their ambition or satisfy their desires, but in the manner that those to whom the money belongs—the taxpayers—wish. This wish is for efficient and economical administration, a wish that is not often granted, but which seems to be growing more insistent daily.

In his address to the Colorado graduates, Mr. Lowden also declared that "the prolific cause of rapidly increasing cost of government is to be found in the number of public agencies that have authority to levy taxes. There is the federal government, there is the state government, there is the local municipal government. In many states there is the school board. All of these have the power independently of one another to levy taxes." Indiana's recent experience tends toward an agreement with this. It has all these taxing authorities, and some of them have been exercising their powers pretty freely. No doubt there must be some separation of tax levies such as federal, state and municipal, but within a state something in the nature of co-ordination in the business of taxation is well worth the study of the law makers and administrators.

However imperfect our system of taxation may be, the thing that is taking money from the people in the most blatant ways is the multiplication of bureaus, commissions, and officials to enforce and to administer laws which are forced upon the states and communities under the pretense that they are beneficial to the public health, the public morals, or the public uplift, whether the people wish them or not. Here government aid is only a strong arm of the federal government in its intervention in local affairs.

Co-ordination in the various systems must come sooner or later. There is too much government and taxation are too many existing evils under present conditions.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. WILLIAM ZACHARY

She is not dead, but sleepeth. They told us she was asleep. Silence followed and we wept.

A life that meant so much to each of us has slipped away.

We shall see her face no more, but we can never cease to feel that inspiration which her life gave to us. An inheritance most precious.

She was one of the dependable mothers who make up the membership of the Wesleyan Truth Seekers class of the Methodist Sunday school. For many years she has been in the class and truly her life was a testimony to the class motto, "My Sister and I." Not only her sisters around her, of which she was ever mindful, but her sisters of other lands. How often in the class activities when call were made for different causes, she reminded us of the suffering world, of those beyond our personal touch, those to whom we could only administer through our prayers and by giving.

For three and one-half years she had served as centenary secretary, and always rendered her class pledge in full.

In the class sessions on Sunday morning she assisted in making the study of God's word clear and forceful and the teacher was ever looking for her when the class assembled.

We loved her; yes, more than we realized. We miss her everywhere, and while we are afflicted by her going, we know that she has gone to receive her reward in that heavenly home, and one day we shall see her again by following in the footsteps of our Master as she did.

To us she will ever live, though we see her not; the memory of her sweet life will speak to us, becoming us onward, upward to the land beyond the skies where parting is no more.

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS MARCH ON FAIRMONT—MAY MEAN TROUBLE

(By The Associated Press)
FAIRMONT, W. Va., June 21.—A crowd of men which the authorities estimated to number 400, marched through the streets here this morning and across the Monongahela river to the east side of the city. DR. RATHENEU, GERMAN MINISTER KILLED TODAY

PROMINENT LEADER IN GERMAN AFFAIRS SHOT BY ASSASSIN

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, June 24.—Dr. Walter Rathenau, German minister of foreign affairs, was assassinated today. Official announcement was made in the reichstag. The murdered driving in a motor car slowed up as he was near- ing Rathenau and shot twice at the minister, the shots taking immediate fatal effect. Putting on high speed the assassin escaped. No clue to the identity of the murderer was discovered up to noon today. Rathenau was a guest at dinner last night of American Ambassador Houghton. On receiving news of the assassination the American embassy promptly hoisted its flag at half mast. Rathenau was killed as he was leaving his residence.

The assassination followed hard upon an attack on Rathenau by Dr. Karl Helfferich in the reichstag yesterday. News of the assassination reached the reichstag at 11 o'clock. Pandemonium broke out at the announcement. Two Socialists jumped up shouting to Helfferich "You are an assassin." They threatened to attack him and he hastily left the room. The reichstag adjourned amid turmoil.

Soothing Sighs.
The commuting train was crowded and the woman felt fortunate at securing a seat. This feeling began to dissipate when she realized that a crying baby was in the seat ahead. His tired mother danced him up and down in a vain endeavor to quiet him. Then she stood him up so that his tiny red face peered over her shoulder at the people behind. His wailings subsided into sniffls as he looked around. He was particularly attracted by a young man sitting next to the woman, whom he gazed at intently. Encouraged by her baby's silence his mother patted him gently on the back and murmured in soothing but very audible tones:

"There, there! That's a good boy. Now look at all the funny faces."—Chicago Journal.

Lincoln Shrewd Lawyer.

It was in the old Metamora (Ill.) court house that Lincoln won a case for a man who was suing another for fraud in a horse trade. Lincoln's legal opponent had on a new and stylish shirt with a long pointed collar attached and, contrary to the usual custom, opening in the back. The worthy gentleman was wearing the shirt for the first time and had put it on wrong side foremost with the points of the collar sticking back. Lincoln in his defense had said that his opponent was wise and knew many things, but probably did not know all about a horse trade, as: "Gentlemen of the jury, there are some trifling things he does not know; you will perceive that he doesn't know when he has his shirt on right," and Lincoln won the case.

Whitman's Childishness.

The story of Whitman's romancing to Emerson concerning the rapid sale of his own first edition (possibly sincere, because a subconscious fulfillment of a deep desire) and his later flat contradiction of that romance and the (as many are disposed to believe) exaggerated story about his six children, to say nothing of the obvious deception in publishing anonymously reviews that he had written of his own poetry, or in republishing, over assumed initials as an original novel, a story that had been formally issued four years previously—all this can be more easily understood if we allow him to have retained a child's fondness for fabrication.—Emery Holloway, In the Dial.

CHANGE 'CLOTHES' IN WINTER

Animals and Birds Make Seasonal Shifts, Very Much as Does the Human Family.

Some animals and birds change their dress in winter just as we do. The ptarmigan, a bird belonging to the same family as the grouse, and who lives high up in the Scottish mountains, is one of the birds who wear a completely different dress in winter. In the summer he is a pretty yellow-lab-brown all over, with white wings, but in winter he is almost all white. This is because there is so much snow on the high hills that if he remained brown he would be easily seen against the snow.

A neighbor of the ptarmigan in the Scottish mountains is the blue or mountain hare. In summer he is grayish brown, but when winter comes he sheds his hair and grows a paw coat of pale gray and white fur. Ptarmigan even sleep on the snow when there is ground free of snow quite near, and one finds the little hollows made in the snow by their warm bodies. Some people say that white fur and white feathers are warmer than darker colors. So perhaps that is partly why some animals and birds in cold places have white winter clothes. Far north, in the arctic regions, where there is always snow and ice all the year round, most of the animals are white. For instance, the polar bear and the arctic fox.—Christian Science Monitor.

AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS ON A FIRMER BASIS SAYS BABSON

WELLSLEY HILLS, Mass., June 24.—In discussing the general situation for the week Roger W. Babson, the statistician, today made the following analysis of the automobile industry:

"Many persons have been surprised at the recent rebound in the automobile industry and in the price of automobile securities. Those, however, who have been carefully watching the situation are not surprised. The price cut in automobiles developed new buying; the extension of the good roads movement increased the point of saturation; and the reduction in the cost of tires and general supplies encouraged more people to use cars. The man who never had a car now drives one; and the man who was content with one car now has two or three. No, the saturation point has not been reached. Moreover, as our system of good roads is extended, this saturation point is pushed further and further away. The saturation point for automobiles will not be reached until our system of highways has been completed and perfected.

"The great factor, however, which is today making business for the automobile companies is the silent and insistent purchasing of 'parts' by the present users of cars. People have no idea of the tremendous business existing today in automobile parts. It is generally estimated that about ten billion dollars is invested in automobiles and their accessories. It is further estimated that a man spends about 5 per cent a year on repairs and that a large proportion of this is for new parts. This means that from three hundred to four hundred million dollars of automobile business per year exists in the manufacture and sale of new parts for cars already sold. Not only is this a large amount of money, but there is as much net profit in this business as in double or treble the same amount of automobile business. If you have any doubt of this take the 'parts' catalogue for any car and add up what it would cost to buy all of the parts of the car separately. Not only are the companies getting high prices for these parts, but there is practically no expense connected with the selling of these parts. When buying a complete car I may buy from any one of a hundred companies, but when buying a part to one of my present cars I must buy of the company which manufactures the car. Sale of these parts is bringing into the older companies a tremendous income.

"Investors will therefore see that the automobile business has graduated from the experimental stages and has become a great settled industry, at least so far as the older company is concerned. The good will asset of every business should increase as years go on, providing it manufactures honestly a useful product. The older automobile companies, however, possess the additional asset; of being able to sell parts for existing cars.

Many of these companies could pay their dividends, certainly they preferred dividends, from the profits from sale of parts. If Ford did not manufacture another, he could do a tremendous business for years to come in manufacturing parts for the cars already sold. If the saturation point is ever reached in the automobile business the profits from the replacements of machines and the sale of parts will still be tremendous.

"Of course, new automobile companies do not possess this asset. Hence, conservative men purchase only the stocks of the older and more staple concerns. Wise investors also look carefully to the capitalization. Before buying an automobile stock, divide the capitalization by the annual output both in cars and in dollars. Certain popular makes of cars are over capitalized, and certain companies with small outputs have ver yeonservative capitalization. Therefore, one should consider both the output and the capitalization. Neither factor by itself is sufficient in judging an automobile stock.

"I want to emphasize particularly," concluded Mr. Babson, "the fact that the automobile industry is today a permanent industry and that the securities of the standard automobile companies should rank with those of the steel companies. Moreover, in view of the foreign competition which the steel companies will soon have, I should even be inclined to sell certain steel securities and invest the proceeds in seasoned automobile stocks."

In spite of strikes, actual and threatened, general business is holding its own. The index of the Babsonchart shows activities at 17 per cent below normal. The same as last week.

"THE TIGER OF THE SEA."

The giant barracuda, sometimes called "The Tiger of the Sea," which attacked and killed Dorothy McClatchie while swimming in Tampa Bay, opposite St. Petersburg, Fla., on Sunday, is the most ferocious and hideous of all tropical fishes, Lewis I. Mowbray, well known authority on fish, told The World yesterday.

"It grows to eight feet in length," he said, "and is more wicked looking than a shark. This is the first time I have heard of one attacking a human being, but since the barracuda strikes only at bright, moving objects, it must have been attracted by the girl's bathing shoes or bare legs. They never touch still bait.

"Judging from the report, I believe the girl was killed by a barracuda and not by a shark, since the latter would doubtless have bitten her leg off."

About five years ago there was a barracuda at the New York aquarium but it died within a year.—New York World.

Let's Boost Our Town!

There is more ready money in the country around Lake Okeechobee than was ever there before. The people have money and the country is prosperous although these are some of the conditions and some of the things that have happened within the year: Lake fish didn't show up and the country lost the revenue that usually comes from that big industry; the country suffered a drouth, and there were losses because of lack of transportation facilities.

Plans for the extensive municipal improvements are now under consideration by the Palm Beach city council and will be submitted to the voters of the city when they return in the fall. Included among the improvements are extensions of water mains, additional fire plugs throughout the city and considerable paving. The plans are being carefully considered by every official of the municipality, who are working as a unit for the benefit of the town as a whole.

The Daytona News tells that great preparations are in the making for the celebration of the Fourth in the Triple Cities. Committees of the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary, Kiwanis and Peninsula civic clubs, the American Legion and other organizations are together arranging a series of events which will take in several days culminating in the grand general holiday festivities of July fourth.

The Daily Herald Delivered to your door six days a week for 15 cents—

EMPLOYMENT SITUATION IS IMPROVING GRADUALLY

NEW YORK, June 23.—Industrial and financial conditions in the last week presented a generally favorable aspect, notwithstanding the reactionary tendency in the securities market, which apparently was connected with the technical speculative position.

Steel production exceeded the beat rate previously attained this year. More coke plants were started and more blast furnaces blown in. Coal production was greater and some observers believe that plants were in preparation for re-opening union mines in the Pittsburg district.

Detroit employment figures showed another increase, thus confirming statements of automobile manufacturers as to the continuance of satisfactory business.

Railroad car loading figures continue good. Although the absolute number reported during the week ended June 3 was smaller than in the previous week, the rate was higher if allowance be made for the memorial day holiday.

A similar calculation showed that the gain in the absolute amount of cotton consumed by mills during May as compared with April was not accounted for merely by the greater number of working days in the latter month. May's takings corresponded almost exactly to the average, for the last ten months, which in turn, were 23 per cent greater than those in the corresponding period a year ago. If the present rate of consumption is continued during June and July the total for the crop year will amount to nearly 6,000,000 bales. Exports during the same interval will have drawn slightly more than another 6,000,000 bales from our supplies. As the actual yield of the last crop totaled 8,300,000 bales, it was believed that the carry over will have been reduced by approximately 4,000,000 bales. It will be, in fact, somewhat less than normal. Prospects for a full crop in the coming year meanwhile remained doubtful and operatives in the New Hampshire textile mills were reported to be showing a greater disposition to return to work.

The week which brought unusually treasury passed without creating any disturbances in the money market. These transactions which centered on June 15, included the collection of $300,000,000 in income taxes, the payment of $125,000,000 in interest of Liberty bonds at the paying off of $380,000,000 in maturing certificates of indebtedness, the redemption of $250,000,000 in Victory notes and the flotation of $250,000,000 in new certificates. The rates of call oney, the most sensitive index of the market's condition, ruled at close to 3 per cent throughout the week, and at 2 1/2% touched what was virtually a new low since October, 1917.

EMPLOYMENT SITUATION IS BETTER.

Encouraging indeed is the news which comes on the wires from the employment service of the labor department, telling us that employment in the various industries of the country increased 3.2 per cent during the last month. The report included statements of agents in 65 principal industrial centers, 49 recording increases in employment figures and 16 showing decreases.

The country as a whole, said Director-General Jones, is rapidly getting back to an employment basis, with the exception of the coal and cotton textile industries. The broadening out of industry in almost all lines of activity for May clearly emphasizes the fact that business depression is behind us. Confidence is restored. June is accentuating the upward movement. Industry is steadily expanding.

Building construction widened in May over April. A genuine building boom is on throughout the country. A shortage of carpenters, bricklayers, and plasterers exists in many of the 231 principal industrial centers. Wheat cutting has started in Texas and large numbers of men will be absorbed in the harvest fields.

The highest index of employment increase was at Memphis, Tenn., where the increase was 19.5 per cent. Lowell, Mass., showed the next best increase, 15.9 per cent. The industries showing increases included transportation, metal, lumber, textiles and chemicals.

Among the cities showing decreases in employment Cincinnati was highest, with 11 per cent. New Haven, Conn., reported 6.3 per cent decrease and Manchester, N. H., 6.2 per cent. The industries reporting decreases were leather, tobacco, liquor and beverages.

Altogether the situation is indicative of a healthy adjustment of business conditions. The prospects for Tampa and Hillsborough county, with two big bond issues for public improvement in sight, should inculcate a spirit of genuine optimism.—Tampa Times.

Plans for the formation of a permanent organization of the cattlemen of the east coast and the institution of a vigorous tick eradication campaign in the territory east of the Okeechobee branch of the Florida East Coast railway from New Smyrna on the north, to Palm Beach county on the south, were inaugurated at a meeting of prominent cattlemen from up and down the coast.

Keen interest is being shown in the proposed Palm Beach and Western railroad. Other railroad plans are discussed and according to the latest news, there may be a junction close to Okeelanta in the near future.

"Here Come the Elephants!"

Do you remember how you used to be on the job bright and early to see the circus parade? Remember how you thrilled as the lions, tigers, and the big, lumbering elephants passed in review?

You didn't realize it then, but you were getting a lot out of an attractive advertisement.

Perhaps you don't realize it now, but other advertisements, just as attractive, just as interesting and far more valuable to you, parade daily before you in the columns of this paper.

The merchants and makers of everything you want or need, here display before you their most attractive wares. It is truly "the greatest show on earth."

The whole purpose of any advertisement is to excite your curiosity, gain your interest, arouse your desire; to tell you something you don't know; to remind you of something you have forgotten; to convince you of something over which you have been hesitating.

In short, the purpose of an advertisement is, in one way or another, to make you happier.

Read the advertisements and see if that isn't so?
