Wonder if "September Morn" is coming to Sanford and will the weather be any cooler then?

The Board of Trade of Jacksonville has resigned. That is to say H. H. RICHARDSON is a better job.

No matter how hot you may think it is there is some satisfaction in knowing that there is a place hotter than this.

Not satisfied with cutting Orlando's county in two, Sanford now wants to tell Orlando what kinds of sewerage systems she may use.—St. Petersburg Times.

There are two kinds of distinguished men in every community. Those the "man of the moment" and those who are so big that it takes him three months to pass a given point.

Senator Fletcher Ready For Rural Credit Plan

Commission Will Return From Europe Tomorrow

Other News On World Matters Of Interest To Busy Herald Readers

Preparations were being made today by Senator Fletcher of Florida, chairman of both the American commission on rural credits and the federal commission on rural credits and agricultural cooperation, to hold a meeting in New York Saturday of these two bodies upon their return from Europe. The senator will attempt to have the commissions submit their report to congress at the special session. The American commission consists of representatives from each state and from five provinces of Canada. The federal commission was appointed by President Wilson in accordance with an act of congress. Neither Senator Fletcher or Senator Gore, members of the federal commission, were able to study the subjects in Europe on account of the tariff bill. Both expect to attend the meeting Saturday.

The exact number of persons who perished in the fire in the factory of the Hingham Clothing Company yesterday is a matter to be known. The list of employees who were killed and the bodies recovered have been identified. A careful estimate today places the number of those in the building at the time the fire started at 111. Of these only fifty three are known to have been saved. The dead have been identified, relatives being started, and recognition is at the morgue. Several injured are in the hospital, several slightly injured are at their homes. Eleven have been reported by relatives as missing and believed to be dead.

Harry Williams, who was hospitalized during the fire, is recovering. He has been reported by relatives as missing and believed to be dead.

Canal to Sanford

Periodically there breaks out in Orlando an inland waterway scheme, a canal project that would join all the beautiful clear water lakes in and about the city in one continuous system connecting them with the St. Johns. The canal project is to be for both traffic and pleasure. It is contended that the scheme is feasible, and that at some future time it will be possible to travel by motor boat from Orlando to Jacksonville. In case this canalway should materialize, whether it was made a freight line or not, would lose none of its popularity as a pleasure source. With a system of such canals motoring parties would be formed, and travel to and from this city would become as popular as automobileing at the present time.

Claude Likes Washington

"I like that job when my friends ask me how long I am going to be in Washington I tell them all my life. I am going to leave for Hampton Springs in the morning and I hope to get in the best of physical shape there. Yes, you bet I am going to be in the running in the fourth district," said Claude L'Engle yesterday afternoon, according to the Jacksonville Times-Union.

So far no very definite battle has shaped up concerning who will be in the contest for congress from the new fourth district. Mr. L'Engle was elected congressman at large for the state of Florida owing to the fact that the population showed that another representative was due the peninsula state. The redistricting of the state, however, makes a new fourth district, and this is composed of a "shoe string," starting with Duval county and running all the way down the East Coast and taking in Monroe county.

During the last few weeks a number of men prominent in public life have been urged to make the race against Congressman L'Engle. No announcements have been made so far and his statement yesterday to the effect that he will reside in Washington in the future is certain proof that he will be a candidate in the new fourth district.

Unusually cheerful and genial when seen by his local admirers Congressman L'Engle outlined the physical odds he had to combat for the past year or more. His physical infirmities came close to putting him out of the battle in his strenuous campaigning for congressman at large. Although still using crutches and a little below his old time vigor, he is ready again for the political battle, he says.

Letter From Harry Ward

Many Sanford friends of Harry Ward are anxious to know how he is getting on. He is recovering from the fire in the factory of the Hingham Clothing Company yesterday. He is recovering from the fire in the factory of the Hingham Clothing Company yesterday.

The chief of police of Pensacola passed Coe's in the early afternoon. He was and stopped, and also admired, expressing comment only on the beauties, he departed.

About 3:30 p. m. Manager Keller was called upon by a policeman, who notified him with regret that the city codes governing display of obscene and scandalous pictures required the removal of the beautiful lady from view of the passers-by.

Manager Keller complied with the ordinance, incidentally pulling off one of the biggest advertising stunts seen here recently. All of the pictures put one were turned face to the wall, and upon the glass of that one was painted a bathing suit, effectually obscuring the figure. The picture now bears a placard reading, "Buy me, for $1.98, and you can throw away the bathing suit."

City Council In Receptive Mood On This Project And Work Will Be Started

For the past few weeks the Commercial Club and every booster in Sanford has been working for the new lake front. The Elks will soon erect a fine club house on the lake shore and several other buildings, among them the court house and hotel are talked of and the lake front is very much in the public eye. Every one realizes that in the present condition the lake front amounts to nothing. That bulkheaded the lake front would be the most valuable property in the city and consequently it has reached the aldermen and they will take up the matter at the next meeting.

There is much preliminary work attached to this great undertaking and City Attorney DeLoach is studying the matter from every angle and making all the arrangements from the time of Noah down to the present time. The city council will proceed carefully in the matter and avoid all useless litigation, but all are united in the thought that Sanford will never be great until this work is finished.

slums of London. Dr. Len G. Broughton, one of Dr. Brownlee's former associates in the ministry in Atlanta is pastor of a church in the poorer section of London, where 5,000 are gathered for Sunday school each Sabbath. This glimpse at the submerged half ought to furnish material for some interesting sermons this fall, for it is here that Christianity is put to a severe test. On a former visit Dr. Brownlee made a special study of the cathedrals, museums, art galleries and universities of Great Britain. And this will give him a view of the other side of British life.

If time can be found he will write The Herald now and then of some of the things that are interesting him over there.
