

Alice Gobel Best-Known, Least-Seen Wife Of TV

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The best-known, least-seen wife in television is Alice Gobel — George's wife.

She's also the most maligned. To listen to George on Tuesday nights you'd think Alice was a nagging battle-axe who locks the comedian in a closet the other six nights of the week. It gets laughs on the air — and at home, too.

WHERE YOU STOP WITH Confidence...

...in gasolines that are first in performance

From long experience, Southern motorists expect Standard Oil to be first with the best, and Standard Oil dealers to supply them with gasolines that are constantly improved. That Standard Oil gasolines fulfill these expectations is evidenced by the fact that they are bought by more motorists than any other brand in the area served by Standard Oil dealers.

Your confidence in us is reflected by our confidence in the future of the South. During 1957, our expenditures in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi, for additional real estate, buildings and facilities... enlargement, repair and maintenance of present plants and equipment... and all expenses of operation, including payroll, licenses and taxes (excluding Federal income taxes)—amounted to over $50,000,000.

To further justify this continued confidence, the quality of all three of our popular gasolines has again been improved, to assure you a new high in performance, whichever you use.

Our future is the future of the South. We never lose sight of this fact in making plans and expenditures.

Leaders Want Harmony, Hard Work

Plea Made To Members Of Committee Of 100

Through harmony and hard work, the newly-formed Committee of 100 can lead Seminole County to new heights of economic development. This was the opinion expressed last night by speakers at the organizational meeting of the committee.

Calls for united effort, hard and diligent work and "elimination of personal feelings and jealousies" were sounded by Mack Cleveland Jr., Douglas Stenstrom and John Krider.

U. S. To Continue Rocket Work Until Reds Change Tune

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)

—The United States told Russia today it will continue its rocket development program as long as the Soviet Union maintains its "aggressive imperialism."

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge told the United Nations Main Political Committee Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin suffered from "a malignant and tragic hallucination" in charging that the United States plans to use outer space for military purposes, including an attack on Russia.

Zorin told the 81-nation committee such reports should not be dismissed as "ill advised or fantasy." He demanded support for Russia's resolution calling for prohibition of military use of outer space and the dismantling of foreign military bases — from which most of the Soviet Union could be attacked by 1,800-mile-range U.S. rockets.

Zorin charged that the United States wanted to ban "the intercontinental ballistic missiles which are in the arsenal of the Soviet Union" while maintaining its own foreign bases for the launching of intermediate range missiles against Russia.

"We cannot take the Soviet remarks at face value," Lodge said. "They indicate either a true lack of understanding of the situation or a deliberate attempt to mislead this committee. These bases are not foreign at all, in the way the Soviet Union uses the word. They are mutual bases which are used mutually for common defense—and I stress defense—by common consent—and I stress consent..."

Stenstrom said the committee could provide "the united leadership which we have been lacking." He said in years past, Seminole continually faced one of three situations:

1. Lack of leadership; 2. Divided leadership; or 3. Leadership which didn't know how to get the job done.

"Most major achievements in Seminole County since the way has been distributed to citizens committees," Stenstrom said. "This report (economic survey by the Florida Development Commission) gives us the information we need to do the job ourselves, not as public officials, but as citizens."

Stenstrom pledged support of the local legislative delegation, but pointed out that the "government shouldn't do the job for us." He called the economic survey "the best example of the kind of government most of us believe in."

Reports on the Leeburg meeting were reissued, were made by Bob Crumley, Stenstrom and Marion Harman.

A nominating committee of George Touhy, Clifford McKibbin Jr., Merle Warner, Francis Boush, and others, was appointed. G. H. Hutchison, Tom McDonald, Herman Jacobson, Dr. D. H. Mathers and Earl Toney was appointed.

Stenstrom said the committee could provide "the united leadership which we have been lacking." He said in years past, Seminole continually faced one of three situations:

Farm-City Week Slated; Talks Planned For Clubs

Outstanding speakers will appear before local civic clubs to make the observance of Farm-City Week, Dec. 2.

Leading off here Tuesday night at the Seminole County Farm Bureau meeting will be William D. Gunter Jr., past national president of the Future Farmers of America, now a science teacher at Boone High School, Orlando.

Doyle Conner, speaker of the House of Representatives and also a past national FFA president, will address the weekly meeting of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce next week.

Cecil Tucker, county agricultural agent, will give Sanford Civitans a resume of Seminole's farming activities on Thursday night of next week.

On Nov. 24, Dr. Marshall O. Watkins, director of the Florida Agricultural Extension Service, Gainesville, will address the Rotary Club. Dr. Ralph Easterwood, agricultural economist for the Extension Service, will address the Lions Club and Kiwanis Clubs on Friday and Wednesday, Nov. 25.

This is the fourth annual observance of National Farm-City Week, observed in an effort to bring about better understanding between rural and urban dwellers. This is the second observance the week here.

Last year, the Seminole observance was kicked off by proclamations of the mayors of the five incorporated municipalities, Altamonte Springs, Casselberry, Longwood, Oviedo and Sanford.

The theme of talks to civic clubs during the observance will be the dependence of farm and city people on each other. Tucker's talk will show the effects of agriculture on the economy of Seminole County.

Reds Back Down On Blockade Threat

BERLIN (UPI) — East German Premier Otto Grotewohl and Foreign Minister Lothar Bolt backed down today on their threats to take over isolated West Berlin.

The two Communist officials, faced by Western determination to hold the city by force, made conciliatory statements today which contrasted sharply with earlier hard statements.

He said the main point of Khrushchev's speech was not Berlin but the demand that Germany be given a peace treaty.

Bolt even acknowledged an opportunity to assert that the East Germans will take over control of West Berlin's lifelines to West Germany through the Soviet zone.

Bolt was asked if the East German-Soviet agreement under which the Soviets retain the right to pass Western Allied traffic to Berlin would be revised or annulled if relief for "legions" was granted. He replied, "If changes are necessary they will be followed in a general settlement."

The schools have been kept closed this fall because of the integration controversy.

The board held a closed, two-hour meeting at a hotel room Tuesday, but all that Wayne Up-ton, president of the six-member board, would say was "we're going to have a public meeting at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow (Wednesday)."

Dr. Dale Alford, the only outspoken segregationist member of the board, left the meeting shortly before the others Tuesday and said he personally was not going to resign.

Commission Chairman J. Brailley Olham of Sanford said industry representatives have every right to object to the increase at the next legislative session. But he pointed out that the increase would provide better services by the commissary. Postmarking of the commission, plus a surplus of funds to take care of possible future litigation.

Bob Carter, Jacksonville, state board of health representative on the commission, indicated he intends to ask for only 17 of a cent increase. This would provide just enough revenue to finance the commission's activities without any surplus.

"You either want to get in business and you do, or you get out," countered Olham. "Without money on the books to do the job you've got nothing but a sham."

Administrator Howard D. Walton said the milk commission had kept no records of its operations until this summer.

"It was absolutely a mess," said Walton. "There was just a conglomeration of letters sitting there in Tallahassee."

With the surplus money provided in the tentative budget, the commission plans to hire a dairy marketing economist and keep existing commission records, including commission budget meeting, this is scheduled to last through Thursday.

Five Scouts Given Awards; Girls Get Badges For Merit

Five Lake Mary Boy Scouts were presented with Silver Beaver awards Monday night in a special program held at the First Presbyterian Church.

The boys are Ronnie Vineyard, David Willie, Don Coleman, Hobby Lankford and Richard Scott. The presentation was made by Scoutmaster Hank Demers.

The special program followed a Court of Honor held last week during the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce meeting. Forty-four awards made at that time brought to more than 300 the number won by the troop since its organization seven months ago.

For the first time in local history, five girls received merit badges for participating with Troop 248 in the Indian dance presented at the annual camporee. The girls are Dolores Kirsh, Myrna Williams, Jody Tomber, and Gail and Judi Taylor.

In a hushed moment, Judi Taylor was presented with a purple feather. Judi fell over a log at the camporee and sustained minor injuries.

Sanford City Commissioners have approved the use of a free parking sticker for out-of-town guests attending conventions here. The sticker will have a street map of Sanford on one side.

Lake Mary soon will have a parking area to serve churches, stores and the post office. Paving of the proposed area was recently approved by Seminole County Commissioners. Work will begin this month.

Chairmen for the annual Community Christmas party were appointed at a recent meeting of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce. Co-chairmen for the event will be Mrs. W. E. Gray, Mrs. Frank Evans and Mrs. Robert Martin.

A bazaar and bake sale will be held at the Altamonte Community Chapel Educational Bldg. Nov. 18 from 2:30 to 9 p. m.

The Ladies Service Circle, which is in charge of the affair, announces that there will be many articles on sale suitable for Christmas gift giving.

Mrs. Chester Seymour, Circle president, invites all women of this area to attend service circle meetings which are held each second and fourth Tuesday from 10:30 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. in the Educational Bldg.

GARDEN CLUB MEETING
Altamonte Springs Garden Club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening Nov. 19, at the Community House.

The meeting will start with a covered dish supper at 8:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hart, Sr. will serve as supper chairmen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hall, and Curtis J. Jones.

During the evening Mrs. W. W. Baker of Winter Park will speak on "Christmas Around The World." Her talk will be augmented by various floral arrangements which will illustrate how flowers are used in many parts of the world during the holiday season.

CIVIC CLUB OPENING
More than forty members and guests attended the opening meeting of the season of the Altamonte Civic Club last Wednesday afternoon at the Community House.

A standing vote of appreciation was given Mrs. R. F. Leady, by the audience, upon completion of her gay and humorous talk which covered several interesting highlights of her recent trip around the world by plane. Mrs. Leady carefully watched the time so as to take up only 30 minutes, but her audience, spell-bound by her enthusiastic delivery, urged her to continue indefinitely with her entertaining tales of her experiences.

During the brief time allotted to business it was reported by Mrs. Birks that 15 units of blood had been contributed during the recent donor day held by Old Glory Community Blood Bank, of which

If you don't know Mrs. George Stine personally, you probably have seen her at one time or another. She is always busy, appearing briefly in many places.
A tall, attractive woman, she dresses well with an individual style. She is one of few women who can wear large costume jewelry to advantage. It is one of her trade marks.
Mrs. Stine was born in Acme, W. Va. Her father was the foreman of a mine in the mountains there. Trips into town were a bi-annual event. Money was invested in good, sturdy articles. And, this, she confided, is the origin of her love for pretty things.
As soon as she was married and had her own home, her flair for decorating and the creative ability became apparent. Holidays were "done up right" in the Stine family. Even the kitchen received its share of decorations.
The Stines came to Sanford in 1940. Mr. Stine is the owner of Stine Machine and Supply Co. And his wife lends a hand by keeping the books. Mr. Stine has done much to further his wife's ideas. The Stine dining room is one example of this. It is furnished with handsome wrought iron pieces. There is a round table centered by a lazy susan. A large mirror, framed in wrought iron, hangs over the buffet. These pieces were obtained over the years, through the ability of Stine employees.
They make an excellent background for decorations. A party at the Stine home calls for intricate and artistic preparations. The lazy susan has held many unusual arrangements. Mrs. Stine approaches her art with great enthusiasm and has unlimited ideas. A warm, vital person, she delights in creating beauty. Her secret desire is to decorate professionally for parties and other functions.
The Stines have two children, Anne and Alfred. Al is a commercial artist; Anne, a mother of four. Both children are talented and accomplished. Mrs. Stine declares that the artistic ability comes from both sides of the family. She pointed out a lovely what-not in the dining room, made of wood carved with a pen knife by her father-in-law. Another treasure in that particular room is a leaf-shaped bowl, carved from monkey pod wood. It was sent to Mrs. Stine from Hawaii by her daughter. Two relish bowls and spoons complete the set.
Mrs. Stine is very proud of a crystal platter, with gold design, given to her by the young people of the First Presbyterian Church. She was the adult advisor for five years. She is active in her church circle and Sunday School class, of which she is a past president.
Mrs. Stine is also a past president of the Sanford Pilot Club. She is an active member of the Sanford Woman's Club and has been responsible for the decorations on numerous occasions. She is a kind person, always ready to serve in any civic project or other worthwhile cause.
One of her favorite hobbies is fishing. Salt water trout are the prized catch. Mrs. Stine has a great knowledge of the sport and recounts many amusing experiences.
The walls in the Stine house are painted a fresh Bermuda turquoise. The rooms are bright and warm, dotted with photographs of her children and grandchildren and hung with paintings done by her son. China figurines add interest to the rooms. The kitchen is a cheerful place. Mrs. Stine loves to putter there and has a collection of cook books. She is adept at preparing party delicacies.
Mrs. Stine writes poetry, finding inspiration in the middle of the night. She composed a toast for the Girl Scouts on the occasion of a mother-daughter banquet.
Among her possessions is a collection of costume jewelry that overflowed from a dresser drawer. The various pieces are kept in the compartments of plastic tackle boxes. A gold bracelet, presented to her by her daughter and daughter-in-law, is outstanding. The bracelet has a minute music box that plays the anniversary waltz. She has a ladies Rotary pin given to her by the district governor's wife.
Mrs. Stine declares that this Christmas the Stine home will not portray the splendor of past holidays. You can, however, take that with a grain of salt.

Plans Told For Show

Further plans for the annual flower show to be held by the Sanford Garden Club on Saturday and Sunday were revealed today by Mrs. L. E. Leeper, chairman.
In addition to the artistic flower arrangements and the plants, entered for competition, attractive aquariums containing unusual fish will be placed in the rooms. Organ music will be heard throughout the show. A coffee will be held in a separate room. There will be a sale of plants, sale of novelties, dried materials and leaves of sweetbread.
Those interested in entering arrangements are urged to contact Mrs. L. E. Batten at FA 2-4410.
The show will be staged in the San Francisco Giants' dormitory. Hours are: Saturday, 3-8 p. m.; Sunday, 1-6 p. m.

Take Care When Sewing Drip-Dry

NEW YORK—(UPI)— Wash-and-wear fabrics are a snap to sew—if you know how.
The educational department of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. advises selecting fabric carefully. Many natural fibers are given wash-and-wear finishes by means of special processes. Occasionally, the finish will throw the fabric off-grain, so that crosswise threads are not at right angles to lengthwise threads. The material will be easier to work with if the fabric is perfect.
Also choose a pattern with a little ease in styling, such as cut-in sleeve instead of a set-in type. It will be smoother. Simple, bulkless seams should be used, and will remain smooth after many washings.
Elaings should be of wash-and-wear fabric, as well as interfacing and findings.
Check the sewing machine for proper adjustment. Slight variations in tension and pressure show up more clearly on wash-and-wear materials. Test stitching on a scrap before starting the garment.

Circle Six Has Meet

Circle Six of the First Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. E. B. Harris, Brandt Lane, with Mrs. A. K. Shoemaker, co-hostess. Pie and coffee were served to the members upon arrival.
Mrs. W. B. Kirby gave the devotion, using a selection from the Upper Room. Miss Vera Woodcock, chairman, presided over the meeting. She welcomed all the members, and the two visitors, Mrs. Roy Tillis and Mrs. L. P. Duffey. Mrs. O. E. White presented a study of the Book of Isaiah.
Mrs. Kirby in the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. Nicholson, gave a report in the class.
Final plans for the bazaar to be held on Thursday at the cooked food tables, Miss Woodcock announced that money from the bazaar would be used to buy a refrigerator for the parsonage. She urged members to attend the Wednesday morning prayer services, one at the church and one with Mrs. Hunter.
Mrs. O. E. White invited the Circle to meet in her home in December.

CPO Wives Club Gives Party Friday

The CPO Wives Club held a cocktail party Friday night in the CPO Club. Members and their husbands met for an evening of dancing, conversation and refreshments.

Den Mothers To Attend Class

All den mothers in the St. Johns River District will be interested to learn of the cub scout training classes to be held Nov. 17-20 in DeLand at the School of Business Administration of Stetson University. Classes will commence at 7:30 p. m. and continue for a duration of two hours.
Training and information received from these courses will better enable the den mothers to carry out duties in the den.
Transportation may be arranged if needed. Contact cubmasters or Phillip Simpson (FA 2760) for information.

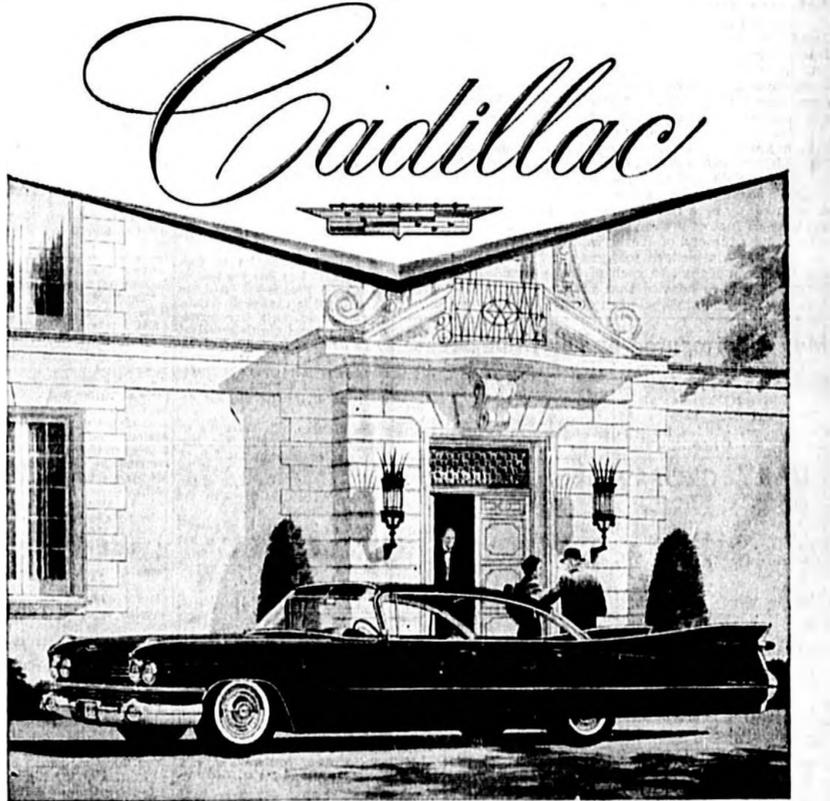

Committee members decorated the club with a cosmopolitan flair. Tables were covered with green cloths and set with candies in wine bottle containers of various hues. Roses and Hibiscus with fern completed the setting.
Chips and dip were served by the committee: Mrs. Betty Brian, Mrs. Edna Fogg, Mrs. Elizabeth Bellefeule and Mrs. Nora Williams.
Yam Healthful
BLACKSBURG, Va.—(UPI)— The sweet potato has a high energy value. It's full of proteins and carbohydrates, and a fair source of iron. Its potassium salts bring about a basic reaction in the body, balancing the acid effects of breadstuffs, meats and eggs.

Tempting

SAN FRANCISCO—(UPI)— The California Foods Research Institute suggests this dessert made with pears.
Cook together a cup each of sugar and water to a thin syrup. Add 4 or 5 peeled pears, and a cup of burgundy wine. A few whole cloves may be added, for a spicy flavor. Simmer gently until pears are tender. Chill in the syrup. Serve cold with slices of sponge cake.

Motorism's New Measurement of Greatness!
The American motorist has long since adopted his own technique for judging the year's automotive offerings. He simply looks to the new Cadillac car to discover motorism's fullest measure of all that is new and good and wonderful.
And never before has Cadillac placed such a high standard on the world's motor cars as it has for 1959. For the new "car of cars" has introduced a whole new concept of what an automobile can do and be . . . and how it should look and act.
To the eye alone, it is a revelation. Elegant, majestic, substantial, poised—it has brought a new magic and splendor to the world of motor.
Its Fleetwood interiors are miracles of advanced design.
Appointments are beautiful beyond imagination . . . and its fabrics and leathers are unbelievably luxurious.
The 1959 Cadillac is equally inspiring from behind the wheel. Its spectacular new engine, its advanced transmission and its new ease of ride and handling make every journey the most glorious distance between any two points.
These Cadillac advancements have been interpreted in thirteen body styles—including a new Eldorado Brougham.
So if you contemplate the purchase of any motor car in the coming year, you owe yourself an early visit with this newest of Cadillacs.
Sixty minutes in the showroom and on the highway will give you a full understanding of the new way to measure greatness in a motor car.
The majestic new Cadillac for 1959 is now on display—inspect and drive it today!

Committee Started; Seminole To Benefit

Seminole County last night organized a Committee of 100. This could be a big step toward correcting many of the county's deficiencies.

The aims and purposes of this committee will be many. It will work for Seminole County's development, industrial, business, agricultural and otherwise. This county has made rapid strides in the past five years. It is now experiencing one of its greatest eras of growth.

Much remains to be done, however, if Seminole is to assume its rightful place in the Florida of the future. Because of its climate, both actual and mental, this state is destined to gain population at an unprecedented rate for years to come.

Just how much of this growth Seminole County will get depends upon how much it wants. Many of the so-called friendly little towns in the state will become large cities. Some will experience great growth without actively attempting to gain new business, new population. But these towns will be the exception, not the rule.

Sanford, as Seminole's chief city, cannot remain as it is for long. No city, no state, no nation can stand still. It either must go forward, or start the decline toward the crossroads status.

Seminole County is attempting to influence senior citizens to move here. It needs jobs for an ever-increasing employment pool. Idle land in the county could be utilized to a greater degree. All of these things, and many others, will play an important role in the county's future.

The newly-organized Committee of 100 will seek ways and means to improve what is here, add what is needed. Had Sanford and Seminole County formed such an organization years ago, there is no doubt that such good could have been accomplished. Sanford and Seminole County now are starting to move. By comparison, this county got a late start. A unified effort, however, could correct problems created by the delay.

Reds 'Start Squeeze'

It appears that the "big squeeze" is on. Chinese Communists yesterday threatened to resume their daily shelling of off-shore Nationalist-held islands; Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev threatened a new, total blockade of Berlin; the Soviet Union threatened to transform the Geneva talks into another cold war battleground, and Communist Iraq and Syria are kicking over the traces.

Iraq has sentenced pro-Western former Premier Fathil Jamal and two army officers to death for "threatening Iraq's independence" by attempting to get that nation to join the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact. Syria attempted to force down a plane carrying Jordan King Hussein. Intelligence agents said Syria was attempting to kidnap Hussein and replace him with a pro-Nasser (Communist) ruler.

Too, Communist nations continue to oppose "free" elections in Korea. Each time this question is brought before the UN, it is destined to defeat by Russia and her satellites.

Communists appear to be putting on the pressure at all available points in its struggle against freedom. As pointed out recently by a U. S. senator, the Communists have not lost a single foot of ground since they began their big drive shortly after the end of World War II.

The U. S. is pledged to fight for Formosa, for Berlin and for South Korea. In each of these troubled areas, the Communists have boasted that they will never back down. Just how long the stalemate can exist is the big question.

Man Electrocuted By Television Set

MIAMI (UPI)— A 61-year-old Miami man was electrocuted by his television set Tuesday night. Police said Ralph Barrows and a neighbor were lifting his television set into a cabinet. Barrows put one hand on a metal sink to steady himself and was electrocuted. Officers said his other hand was on the metal base of the set, which must have been in contact with an exposed wire in the machine.

Fred Othman Says

WASHINGTON — Not the least of a thousand questions faced during World War II by Roosevelt and Churchill was that of dealing with the austere and profoundly difficult Charles de Gaulle.

De Gaulle was the heart of French resistance in the black old days of Nazi occupation. His own spirit of honor and patriotism and his immense usefulness against the Germans made it imperative for Washington and London to get along with him.

But his very good qualities also made him a stubborn, proud, highly sensitive associate who caused much wry headshaking among Roosevelt, Churchill and their colleagues. He was the rose, and he was the prickly thorn. And to grasp the one was, usually to be a bit stung by the other.

The allied experience of long ago is being repeated now all over the Western alliance, and markedly so here in Washington. A decade and a half later De Gaulle has again become a great hope and a great dilemma to the rest of the West.

France's capitulation to Germany thrust iron into the soul of every true Frenchman. And the trust of all is Charles de Gaulle. This columnist, as a war correspondent, entered the Cathedral of Notre Dame at the tail-end of De Gaulle's party when the general marched in there upon the liberation of Paris for the Te Deum, the mass of thanksgiving for deliverance.

The memory will never die of the general's stiff, still face, free of regret or triumph but full of an old suffering that even he could not hide, as he knelt at the consecration of the Host in the ancient cathedral.

Now, as the years have passed, he has washed away much, but not all, of what sensitive Frenchmen felt was a stain upon one of the world's oldest and proudest military traditions. At home, as a fabulously successful Prime Minister, he has already restored France's domestic strength and confidence.

At the moment, as the story comes up to date, he is attempting nothing less than to push France up to the very pinnacle of world power and prestige. He is asking that the 13-nation North Atlantic Treaty organization be overlaid with a super-directorate of only three the United States, Britain and France.

This would mean France would demand a voice equivalent to the voices of associates incomparably more powerful — the United States — and very much more powerful — Britain. Too, De Gaulle would presumably attempt to have a hand in decisions of a kind in which not all of NATO put together has thus far attempted to take any such role. It might even mean, for example, that he would claim the right to participate in what have been this country's own decisions about such matters as Formosa in the Far East.

Already, his proposal has brought an ill-repressed consternation among such other NATO partners as Italy and West Ger-

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
 WASHINGTON (UPI)— They were saying elections had dimmed if not extinguished any chance Adlai E. Stevenson might have had to be re-nominated for President.

"Too many Democrats hit the jackpot last week," said a political pundit, "and all of them will be in line ahead of Adlai for that nomination."

"Yeah, thass 'it," said a third, at three Democrats who hit the jackpot last week. They were, in the order of the magnitude of their victories: Sen. John F. Kennedy who polled nearly 25 per cent of the vote in Massachusetts against a political nobody. It was a great triumph, even so. Kennedy remains the leading prospect for his party's 1968 presidential nomination.

Meyner in Solid
 New Jersey's Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner stayed solidly in the winter books by getting his candidate for the U. S. Senate home in front. That was not to be, according to the pre-election pulse feelers. The Republicans honestly expected to win that contest. Meyner threw an unexpectedly effective block to top the GOP.

The third Democrat is Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, Gov.-elect of California. Brown, like Kennedy, is a Roman Catholic. Old times with vivid memories of the prohibition and Ku Klux Klan political wars of the middle and late 1920s would not have expected the Democrats to come up with two legitimate Catholic contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination mid-way in the 20th Century.

But there they are. And, moreover, there is evidence of an effort to get a Brown — for a president boom off the launching pad. Political writers in Washington and, doubtless nationwide, have re-read from Brown's Los Angeles political headquarters the opening blast of what looks like a bid for grass roots delegates.

There are three mimeographed pages in this document. Line by line, it is an appeal for support for a "man who is warm, human and pragmatic and at the same time a political realist." A poor, but honest, hard-working boy who had to make his own way. That's Pat Brown. Midway in the recital of Brown's difficult early years, the document takes aim at the man the Democrats, perhaps, must lick in 1968.

"Brown's humble beginnings," it says, "stand out in sharp contrast to those of another new figure on the national political scene, Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York."

That's all about Rocky. There's more about Brown, as for example: "He appointed the first Negro ever to be an assistant district attorney... the first Chinese-American in the district attorney's staff."

"When a hotel clerk in Arizona told him there was no room for his Negro aid, Attorney General Brown told him brusquely: 'Put another bed in my room!'"

Students Will Vie For 'Safe Driver' Title At School

A "safe driver of the month" will be selected from Seminole High School students as an incentive to careful and courteous driving, according to Mrs. Michael Carlo, juvenile protection chairman of the PTA.

The student driver will be chosen by Sigs. Ben Butler and Leo Bork of the Sanford Police Department. The policemen will observe student drivers as they perform their daily trips.

Driver training is offered at the High School when a student reaches 14. Full privileges of a license are issued at the age of 16. The course in driver training is taught by Bill Fleming.

There are more than 25,000 high school drama groups in the country and 2,800 community and civic theaters.

Statistics: Seminoles Tough

By Jerry Covington

Here is a complete look at the Seminoles on paper as they head down the home stretch of the 1958 grid season.

Although the Seminoles had a shaky start, they have roared back and now lead their opponents in every department by the yardstick. The passing of the Seminoles has been outstanding all year, and they hold the best record in Central Florida in this department.

The Seminole defense has held opponents to a total of 1,013 yards in offense while the locals have piled up a total of 1,282 against the competition.

Cecil Dandridge has been thrown for several long losses attempting to get off passes, but the statistics reveal that he leads in total rushing yards, has done all the punting with a 29.9 average, has accounted for 356 yards passing, and has thrown for three touchdowns.

Besides these talents, he has managed to find time to call all the signals for his squad. The 135-pounder has lived up to all pre-season predictions and should finish his final year as one of the best quarterbacks in the history of the school.

He also is an All-Conference baseball player and was selected as the outstanding baseball player last season.

While on the subject of quarterbacks, the performance of Sophomore Mike Roberts has been outstanding. He has seen limited action due to the performance of Dandridge. While he has been in action, he has thrown five passes good for 110 yards and one TD. He shows great promise and should be ready to take over next season.

In the pass-receiving department, big Gerald Jones has a commanding lead in yards. He has raked in Dandridge passes for a total of 172 yards and one important TD against Fort Myers. His friendly competitor, Allan Swaim, has received 12 passes and has crossed the stripe for two scores. In this department, the most outstanding performance has been by Cliff McKibbin. The speedy half-back has received three passes and has traveled for 117 yards and one 60-yard TD.

Junior half-back Ray Lundquist, who was made a regular three weeks ago, now has the best per-carry average with 43. He has carried the ball only 18 times and has picked up 81 yards. Big Harold Stone is the only member of the squad who has carried every time without a loss of yardage. He sports a neat 41 per carry average.

Top Teams Picked To Win In Breeze

NEW YORK (UPI)—Louisiana State, Iowa and Army—the leading candidates for the national college football championships—are favored to breeze past their weekend opponents with points to spare.

LSU, which took over the No. 1 spot in the United Press International ratings this week, was picked to defeat Mississippi State by at least 15 points while second-ranked Iowa was an eight-point pick over Ohio State.

The odds-maker listed Army as the most lopsided favorite in this week's "line," tabling the third-ranked cadets as a 32-point choice over twice-beaten Villanova.

Sixth-ranked Oklahoma also was a "healthy" favorite for its Big Eight conference showdown against Missouri that will decide the league championship and the Orange Bowl representative. The Sooners were listed as a 16-point pick.

The point spreads on other major Saturday games:

East: Penn State 6 over Holy Cross; Boston College 14 over Boston University; Pennsylvania 21 over Columbia; Navy 27 over George Washington; Syracuse 27 over Colgate.

Midwest: Kansas State 3 over Iowa State; Michigan 6 over Indiana; Oklahoma State 8 over Kansas; Michigan State 8 over Minnesota; Notre Dame 6 over North Carolina.

South: Duke 3 over Wake Forest; Georgia Tech 7 over Alabama; Vanderbilt 7 over Tulane; West Virginia 14 over William and Mary; Clemson 7 over North Carolina State.

Southwest: Texas Christian 8 over Texas; Southern Methodist 10 over Arkansas; Rice 18 over Texas A&M.

FAR WEST: California 6 over Washington; Oregon 6 over UCLA; Oregon State 7 over Stanford.

Sutherland Named Week's Top Coach

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI)—They said Jim Sutherland's Washington State football team was a one-man gang which would fold if an injury should sideline passing wizard Bob Newman.

But Newman, the nation's total offense leader last season and a top All-America quarterback candidate this year, was benched early in the season with a knee injury and has played only briefly since. Yet Washington State has won four of five games since his injury.

The victories are a tribute to Sutherland's emergency surgery on the Cougar grid machine. His 70 upset of Oregon State last week kept him in the race for a Rose Bowl bid and earned him the nod today as United Press International Coach of the Week.

Sutherland, after a stint of prep coaching and assisting at California and Washington, came here in 1936 after one of the worst seasons in Washington State history. He installed a wide-open pro-type offense which has put the Cougars among the top passing teams in the country. He likes flankers. He shoots for the long gainers and trick stuff which sometimes can give him the edge over teams with better all-around material.

Georgia Tech Continues To Flex Muscles Via Air

United Press International Georgia Tech is continuing this week to flex its air arm, which has steadily improved this season and could be the main weapon against Alabama Saturday.

Quarterback Fred Braselton led a long passing drill Tuesday, giving the offensive team a workout on assignments and defensive units a chance to sharpen up against aerials.

Considerable attention was given to punting, also. Both the Yellow Jackets and the Crimson Tide depend heavily on this phase of the game.

Elsewhere around the Southeastern Conference, these were the reports:

Mississippi — Coach Johnny Vaught, who has a wealth of personnel on his Rebel squad made some changes in the backfield in a search for the best possible combination to send against Tennessee. The Rebels worked on offense and defense, with some light contact.

Tennessee — Three top guards — Wayne Grubb, Don Patterson and Coy Franklin — were out with injuries and are doubtful starters Saturday. Most of the practice session Tuesday was spent on defense.

Auburn — Tommy Lorino, top-flight halfback, was still out with an injury but coaches reported he might be able to do some punting against Georgia this weekend. A short scrimmage was scheduled today.

Vanderbilt — The Commodores worked on all phases of the game, with offensive and defensive scrimmages for the linemen, passing and pass defense for the backs.

Tulane — Defense and punting drills were the order of the day Tuesday. Coach Andy Pilney reported continuing improvement in the Greenie defense.

Georgia — The Bulldogs concentrated on pass defense, fearing Auburn will use its newly-developed aerial machine this weekend.

Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi State — The usual midweek drills and study of strategy being used by upcoming opponents.

Schoendienst Gets Joy, Sorrow; May Have Tuberculosis

ST. LOUIS (UPI) Joy and sorrow came back-to-back for Albert "Red" Schoendienst.

Last week the switch-hitting second baseman of the Milwaukee Braves celebrated the birth of his fourth child and his first joy. And Tuesday, just eight days later, Red learned that he may have tuberculosis.

There is, as yet, no positive diagnosis.

Dr. Raymond T. Martin, his physician, put it this way:

"There's no proof of tuberculosis yet but it's one of the possibilities. Tests so far have been inconclusive."

Martin said he notified John J. Galin, vice president and general manager of the Braves, of Schoendienst's condition after the news leaked out that he had entered St. John's Hospital for a checkup.

Concerning Schoendienst's general condition Martin said it was good other than that he appeared somewhat "run down."

Schoendienst, a Germantown, Ill., native who spent most of his playing career with the St. Louis Cardinals, will be 36 next February. Swapped to the San Francisco Giants in 1957, Red was traded to the Braves in the middle of that season.

In Milwaukee, Braves trainer, Robert "Doc" Ferguson and club physician Dr. Bruce Brewer, reported the news of Schoendienst's illness with amusement and concern.

Brewer said Red had passed a post-season physical examination although he had numerous colds during the season.

"Also he complained of soreness in the chest," Brewer said, "and we believed for a time that he might be suffering from pleurisy."

Quintet Injured, Hurricanes Worry

CORAL GABLES (UPI)—Coach Andy Gustafson says his Miami Hurricanes will be in the worst physical condition of the year when they take on Maryland in the Orange Bowl Friday night.

Three starters are definitely out of the game with injuries. They are captain Joe Mangel, the left halfback, guard Don Wallace and tackle Frank Nodding.

Two other players, fullback Frank Bouffard and end Jon Mitrovich are limping and may be sidelined Friday.

This has forced Gustafson to move three men up from the "Red Shirts," tackle James Johnson, halfback Mike Harrison and quarterback Ron Lopstonski, a punting specialist.

Pass Defense Gets Attention At FSU

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Florida State planned more work on pass defense today in preparation for their final game of the year against Florida.

The Seminoles worked out in sweat clothes Tuesday and did a lot of running to limber up from bruises in the Miami game Friday.

FSU's top ground-gainer, fullback Fred Picard, was sidelined because of a high fever. He will be out of action for several days. The only other man missing from the practice session was guard Jerry Graham, suffering from a twisted ankle.

Packer Player Hurt

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers have placed end Gary Knafelo on the injured reserve list for the rest of the season. Knafelo will undergo surgery for a pinched vertebrae in his right knee that "should make him ready for next season."

'Bump' Gives Sailor's Guide Victory

By RAY AYRES

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—A. G. (Bert) Dibb, who sold Sailor's Guide to Dr. Leon Levy of Philadelphia following the Australian horse's victory in the Washington D. C. International, today declared he would not have entered a foul claim against Tudor Era's jockey.

Tudor Era, one of the two American entries in Tuesday's classic at Laurel, finished 3 1/2 lengths ahead of Sailor's Guide but was disqualified for bumping the Australian horse on the stretch turn and placed second.

The foul claim, upheld by the stewards, was made by Howard Grant, the American rider of Sailor's Guide, against jockey Willie Harmon on Tudor Era.

However, Dibb later appeared quite surprised at Grant's action in our country, "the Australian horseman said, "the jockey is not permitted to claim foul without permission from the owner or trainer of the horse."

Official Result Delayed

"I would not have given that permission," Dibb added.

Because of Grant's foul claim, the official result of the race was held up almost a half hour while the stewards studied movies of the race and also conferred with both riders.

Satisfied that Grant's objection was justified, the stewards referred the disqualification of Tudor Era and awarded the winner's purse of $70,000 to Dibb. The Australian sportsman, who

Florida Testing Defense Patterns

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—The University of Florida was scheduled to concentrate today on working on defensive patterns to offense attack.

The game Saturday is expected to give the Gators a preview of what to expect from Florida State two weeks hence. Arkansas State Coach Hugh Taylor is a former assistant coach at FSU, and he borrowed heavily from the Seminoles' offensive style, including the "H" formation.

Tuesday, the Gators spent considerable time smoothing out their passing attack with quarterbacks Jimmy Dunn and Jim Rhyne looking sharp in their training.

VFW Lists Rules For Building Use

Several stipulations have been made by the VFW for groups considering the use of the VFW Hut on 17-92.

Many organizations have used the building and the rules have been established for protection of the property.

A $10 deposit must be made to cover janitor service and return of the key. The deposit will be returned if the Hut is cleaned, the key returned and there is no damage to the building or contents.

Any organization using the Hut must sign a form assuming responsibility for damage. Requests for use of the building should be made at least two weeks in advance, whenever possible.

Those desiring to use the VFW Hut should contact Commander James B. Gull, FA 2-4451, Quartermaster Calvin Haig, FA 2-3098, Adjutant Melvin Smith, FA 2-3362, or Trustee Bob Brown, FA 2-0411.

Judges Will Judge Christmas Parade

Judges will judge the annual Christmas parade Dec. 6. Three home-decorated floats will give the nod to winners in various categories.

Christmas Parade

On the stand will be County Judge Wilson Alexander, Circuit Court Judge Volpe Williams Jr. and City Judge Ambrose Bluff. The decisions will be difficult. The three must pick winners in several float categories, bands and marching groups. But with three such qualified experts, the judges' decisions should be final. The Christmas parade is sponsored by the Sanford-Seminole County Jaycees. Under the leadership of Parade Chairman Herbert Stenstrom, the young business and professional men of Sanford are making time for the remaining job of setting the stage. Fifteen school bands will play for the parade, with the Seminole High School majorities in their reindeer costumes leading off the show. Marching groups include the Marine Corps Color Guard and the Navy Marching Corps. Boy

Vegetable Cooling Plant Will Locate in Sanford

To Be Completed, Ready To Operate Early Next Year

Seminole County's multi-million dollar vegetable industry today received a "shot in the arm" when the Jet-Vac Cooler Co. Inc., Philadelphia, announced plans to construct a vacuum-cooling plant in Sanford.

The announcement was made by William Laffer of Laffer & Bush Engineering Consultants. Laffer said the plant would be completed and ready for operation by Jan. 15.

At a recent meeting with Jet-Vac officials, Seminole vegetable producers discussed location of such a plant here. Officials said at the meeting that a pre-cooling plant would be a "very important addition, economically" to the local vegetable industry.

The process will assure a longer life for vegetables "on the shelf," increased production of lettuce and a better price for most locally produced vegetables, officials said.

Seminole County's vegetable industry now is an $85 million a year business. Addition of the pre-cooler is expected to increase this figure considerably, according to Cecil Tucker, county agricultural agent. Erection of the plant also is expected to return lettuce production to its former important place in the vegetable industry, Tucker added.

The plant will be erected on land leased from Randall Chase. It is located just south of Seminole Boulevard, extending to Fulton Street and adjoining the newly-located Allied Chemical plant.

Julius Schaller and Harry P. Volou, president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of Jet-Vac, said land and water were the only two problems in the way of locating the plant. Chase solved the land problem, the St. Johns River will supply the water.

Schaller and Volou said they are "convinced that this plant will enrich, greatly, the economy of this area." They added that they are willing to invest $100,000 in the plant "without the first guarantee from local growers."

Laffer said the plant "will be a big asset, not only in Seminole County, but to all of Central Florida."

Tucker called the plant, "a giant step toward helping us stabilize our vegetable production in Seminole County." He added that it would enable local producers to ship a better product and to diversify crop production.

Part of the equipment for the plant is nearing completion in Charlotte, N. C., and will be shipped in the very near future, Jet-Vac officials said.

Bomb Is Exploded In Chicago School

CHICAGO (UPI) — Between 200 and 300 parents and children attending an open house at an elementary school near panicked Wednesday night when a homemade bomb exploded in the vestibule.

Damage from the black powder bomb, however, was slight. Six windows were broken and a few others cracked.

Band, Grid Fans To Be Very Busy

This will be a busy weekend for football fans and the Seminole High School band.

Tonight, grid greats, junior size, kick off activities in the annual Peanut Bowl at municipal stadium. Between halves of the battle between the Golden Eagles and Blue Raiders from Sanford Junior High, the Seminole High band will perform.

Tomorrow night, Seminole High travels to New Smyrna Beach. A caravan, led by a deputy sheriff, will leave the high school at 6:15. This exodus was planned two weeks ago, but postponed due to rain. Many Seminole supporters are expected to follow the Tribe, which is an odds-on favorite to win its first Orange Belt Conference football title. The band, of course, will be there.

On Saturday, the Seminole band will play at halftime for the University of Florida-Arkansas State game in Gainesville. It will be one of 25 participating in the Invitational Band Day program. Many Florida alumni from this area also will journey to the game. In Majorities from all over Florida, including Sanford, will give a twirling exhibition during pregame ceremonies.

The band will leave Sanford by bus Saturday morning, accompanied by Bandmaster Ernie Cowley and Mrs. and Mrs. Clay Smith. After the game the 43 students and chaperones will spend the night in Ocala.

Sunday plans include a visit to Silver Springs, and an afternoon concert when the band returns to Sanford to play for the big "Welcome Home" for VARS at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

JOHN EVANS

WILLIAM H. EVANS

Brothers Believe In 'Togetherness'

"Togetherness" is nothing new around the Lake Mary home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans. They graduated from Lowell Textile Institute, Lowell, Mass.

The brother act is a daily business for John and William Evans. They are kept busy as associate managers of The Plymouth Company, which solves problems and creates new products for the textile industry.

Both are chemists, both work in the research laboratory of the plant, the elder Evans said today. Both attended grammar school in Lake Mary. After this, however, their paths separated for a while. William attended Seminole High, graduated from Augusta Military Academy, Ft. Defiance, Va. John attended New Hampton School, New Hampton, N. H.

During World War II, William received four campaign stars for action in Normandy, Northern France, the Rhineland and Central Germany. John was a flight officer.

William is married, has five children and lives in Topshill, Mass. Brother John also is married, has one son and lives in Bowdoin, Mass.

Mrs. Camilla Bruce, Sanford, president of the association, said this morning. "The existing laws for voting were made for paper balloting. With 95 per cent of the voting now being done by machine, the laws need complete revision. The committee will attempt to solve this problem by suggesting new methods to the Florida State Legislature."

Local Man Given Promotion, Change

A former Sanford man has been named manager of the market research and product development of the Hupac Paper Co. It was announced today.

He is W. L. Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Shoemaker, Sr., Sanford. Shoemaker, with International Paper since 1955, is a graduate of Seminole High School and the University of Florida. He has been with the company at Camden, Ark.

In his new capacity, Shoemaker will be transferred to the New York headquarters of International Paper. He will supervise Hupac's sales development engineers stationed across the U. S., according to A. A. Schell, division manager, who announced the appointment.

Shoemaker is married to the former Violet Keas of New York City. They have two children, Billy and Bobby.

Bahia Band Plays At Sanford USO

The Bahia Temple Shrine Band, Orlando, gave a concert last night at the Sanford USO Club in recognition of USO Pal Day. The band was under the direction of Douglas Hill.

Enlisted men of the Sanford Naval Air Station were special guests of the Sanford Shrine Club which attended en masse. The musical program included selections from Sousa and semi-classical compositions.

Arrangements were made for USO Pal Day by Howard Sharpe, DeBary. Lee Samuel, vice chairman of the USO operating committee, was the master of ceremonies.

Scouts Will Hold Banquet Tonight

Boy Scout leaders in the St. Johns River District will meet tonight at 7:30 in the First Presbyterian Church educational building for the annual district banquet.

Principal speaker will be Judge Robert Wingfield of DeLand. New officers will be installed by Stanley Bumbly, president of the Florida Council Boy Scouts of America.

The St. Johns River District includes Seminole County and a portion of Volusia. More than 150 reservations have been made for the banquet, according to George Maffett, chairman.

Longwood Slates Candidate Rally

LONGWOOD — The Citizen's League will sponsor a town political rally Nov. 26 at 8 p. m. in the city park.

Candidate for the office of a mayor, five councilmen and a clerk and tax collector will be given three minutes to state their platforms and answer questions. The candidates will be introduced by Joseph Rogers, League president.

Reds Still Demand West Quit Berlin, But Fears Abating

BERLIN (UPI) — The official East German Communist newspaper Neues Deutschland renewed demands today the Western Allies get out of Berlin. It said the Western Allied occupation of the city could start a third world war.

But despite a new rash of threats, West Berliners' fears of a new blockade abated somewhat in the face of the backdown Wednesday by East German Premier Otto Grotewohl and West Berlin Deputy Mayor Franz Arndt said "there will be no new blockade."

The latest threat came from Hermann Matern, deputy president of the East German parliament, whose statement was printed in Neues Deutschland.

"It is necessary to point out clearly that as long as troops of the Western powers are in Berlin there exists the danger of a provocation that could start a world war," he said.

Matern, who also is member of the Communist Party Politburo, said the Western powers must withdraw to restore Berlin life to normal.

East Berlin Mayor Friedrich Ebert said the occupation regime must be eradicated in all of Berlin. He recalled that the Soviets said in 1948 that the occupation blockade that all Berlin is part of the Soviet Zone.

No one thought the danger was past forever, but the feeling was that the exposed Western outpost had gained a breathing spell for the time being.

Bomber Threatens Baptist Convention

MIAMI (UPI) — An anonymous telephone caller today warned that a bomb was set to explode in Central Baptist Church where 1,000 delegates were assembled for the Florida Baptist Convention.

The delegates, alerted to the threat, voted to stay in session. FBI and police officers searched the building while the delegates remained in their seats, but no bomb was found.

Dr. Roy Anzell, pastor of the church, said the delegates were "afraid" but he said, "I don't feel that anyone would blow up a group of Christian people in convention as we are."

The bomb threat was the 12th in Greater Miami since last Sunday. One of the earlier bomb threats was also telephoned to the Central Baptist Church.

Yo-Yo Champion In Sanford Sought

The Sanford Recreation Department will sponsor a city championship Yo-Yo contest next week.

All boys and girls of the surrounding area are eligible to compete in sectional contests held at the playgrounds of Pinecrest, Southside and Sanford Grammar schools.

The city finalist will be eligible for State finals in Fort Lauderdale, Dec. 6. More information may be obtained from schools and the recreation department. Contestants must be under 16.

Dowling Speaker At Jaycee Meeting

Robert L. Dowling Jr. of Dowling Appraisal Corp. spoke at the Sanford Seminole County Jaycees today.

Dowling outlined the fundamental plan of the tax equalization program now under way in Seminole County. Everett Harper was chairman of the luncheon.

'Rights' Probe Ordered In Arrest Of Ministers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Attorney William P. Rogers said today he has ordered a federal grand jury investigation to determine whether the arrest last month of three Negro ministers at Birmingham, Ala., violated their civil rights.

Rogers told a news conference he ordered the inquiry after Eugene Connor, commissioner of public safety at Birmingham, refused to discuss any phase of the case with the FBI.

He said Connor also had advised all members of the Birmingham police force not to discuss circumstances of the arrests with FBI agents.

The FBI moved into the case last month after receiving reports that three Montgomery ministers had been arrested at the home of Birmingham's Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth on vagrancy charges and were held for several hours.

The vagrancy charges were later dropped. Rogers said the FBI has come to the point "to all practical purposes, where it has completed its investigation."

He said that in view of what he called the open defiance by Birmingham authorities, an inquiry would get under way as soon as possible.

Rogers also said the administration is considering legislative proposals to the New Congress covering "the whole gamut" of civil rights, bombings of churches and schools, and hate literature.

He said the proposals are under "serious" consideration, but no decisions have been reached yet. He made it clear that the problems of school integration also are among proposals being mulled over. Rogers said the administration proposals on civil rights are expected to be ready before Congress convenes.

Russia Puts West In Middle Of New Cold War Squeeze

GENEVA (UPI) — Western diplomats found themselves in the middle of a massive new Soviet cold war campaign today and said they believed the Russian intention was to try to force a new summit meeting.

They were studying the stepped-up Russian offensive for possible clues to explain the tough Russian stand at Geneva that has deadlocked two East-West conferences here.

Conferences on the prevention of surprise attack and on limiting nuclear weapons tests were scheduled for today. Both are equally deadlocked.

Informed sources said the Western delegations are studying a report on the latest moves in the Moscow offensive including: Russian threats against the Western position in Berlin.

A sharp-edged propaganda drive attacking the West in vicious terms in Soviet radio broadcasts — the call for a new summit meeting in a single Soviet cold war communiqué issued Tuesday night.

And the tough, unyielding Soviet attitude in both the Geneva conferences.

Diplomats here said they were convinced all these are part and parcel of a single Soviet cold war push against the West which still is in the process of being unleashed — with the worst yet to come.

They noted the Soviets have not dropped so much as a hint of a possible summit conference in their talks, so far, possibly hoping to build up some sort of war scare that only summit talks could solve.
