CHURCH OF GOD

There can be no harmony without you! Unless everyone joins in together, determined to make this performance on life's stage the best one possible, the result will always be sour and discordant.

Perhaps, when we take an honest look at ourselves, we discover such things as temper or prejudice, jealousy or despair standing in the way of our personal happiness. And when we are unhappy, we feel out of tune with the world.

How can these miseries be overcome? God Himself will help us, if we ask Him. It is His intention that His children live in harmony and contentment, and He will show us the way.

Bring your problem to church this Sunday, and offer it to Him in prayer. He loves you greatly. He understands you perfectly, and only He can help you to regain the song of joy that belongs in your heart.

Eighth Graders Hear Program On Computers

By Jane Canselberry William Wade, field representative for North American Aviation, spoke to the eighth grade class taught by Robert Likens at South Seminole Junior High School recently on computers and their importance to every day life.

He displayed several technieal instruments vital to everyday existance and assured the students that, though computers are a great help, they will never completely replace people in business, industry and science. He said that a computer can do 1,000 simple problems in a second.

Wade, who formerly was stationed overseas and served on the USS Saratoga for a year and a half, recently moved to Central Florida and makes his home in Lake Mary.

Too Fancy To Live In

In Hollywood, Calif., where mere grandeur is sometimes regarded as a substandard way of life, a big television star and her husband have given their children what is ecstatically described as "the world's most expensive tree house."

They had the house built for the kids in a big oak tree by a hotshot contractor, and had it done inside by their own interior decorator, who you can bet is no bum.

Now, a lot of people may think, "those lucky kids!" But no one will think that who has ever personally experienced the joy of building a REAL tree house with his own hands. A genuine tree house, as any kid knows, can't be built by a professional builder. And it sure as heck can't be decorated by a professional interior decorator. A bonaside, honest-to-gosh tree house has to be built out of a discarded packing crate or some other lovely old busted-up box that nobody else wants. It has to be fancied up with scraps of old boards and shingles and wornout leather straps for door hinges, and similar refinements.

And it has to be furnished functionally but tastefully with an old rug from the back porch that has been used for people to wipe their feet on before entering the house. And with outdated picture calendars and a beatup old chair or stool from the basement or attic, and other obiects d'art.

Then, by golly, you have yourself a tree house that IS a tree house, and not merely a highfalutin copy of the house your folks live in.

Those Hollywood kids are to be pitied, not envied. We hope that one of these days they will be lucky enough to be allowed to build their own tree house. Then they'll know how wonderful tree house living can really

STRANGER IN UNIFORM DEAR STRANGER: Some enchanted evening.

DEAR ABBY: Before my birthday an aunt of mine told my mother she was giving me money this year. She sent a money folder, the kind with a hole in it so you can see the picture on the bill. When I opened it, there was nothing inside. Now my mother says I have to write and thank my aunt for the "money." I didn't know they were coming They live quite a ways from me so I let them in. The kids were still up so I let them sit right in the living room with us all the time the boys were there. We didn't do anything wrong. Well, today, Mrs. - called me up and asked if I had any company. I didn't want to lie so I said yes. Then she said she didn't want me to baby-sit for her any more. This is the first time I ever did anything like that and I am scared stiff my mother will find out. If she does, I'll get it and she'll never trust me again. Should I tell my mother? Or should I try to forget about it?

SCARED DEAR SCARED: Tell your mother. And if you ever baby-sit again, NEV-ER let anyone visit you unless you have the approval of both the woman by whom you were hired AND your
