

Murray To Cooperate In Campaign Probe

ORLANDO, Apr. 22. — (AP) — Speaker Perry Murray of the Florida house says he is ready to cooperate with the speaker-designate for the 1951 legislative session in naming a committee to investigate Gov. Warren's 1948 election campaign expenditures.

"I certainly think we need to investigate the campaign expenditures following the revelations of C. V. Griffin," Rep. Murray told the Orlando Morning Sentinel.

Rep. Murray's authority as speaker will end with the general election in November. Meanwhile at Tallahassee, Rep. H. Elliott, speaker-designate at New Year's session, has named an authority to appoint a committee.

He said he has no control over what Rep. Murray does and that he would give the matter full consideration before making any statement.

The Sentinel has urged Rep. Murray to name a committee to investigate statements by Griffin that he, Lou Wilson, Jacksonville shipyard owner, and W. J. Johnson, Miami, Tampa and Jacksonville dog track owner, had contributed a total of $492,237.18 to Warren's election campaign.

Larsen said the "most important immediate function" of the scientists attending the present congress is to guide governors and state civil defense authorities in order to prevent waste of resources and to assure "an eventually sound, adequate civil defense monitoring service."

He continued against "precipitate action" by local governing bodies in having untried monitoring instruments and added: "Some decisions still have to be made concerning the installation of monitoring services; instruments with high measuring ranges must be developed."

Larsen also urged caution on the part of the scientists in public statements. "Nothing can be more damaging to public morale than a mass of conflicting statements from recognized experts," he said.

Larsen said the "acmeing heat" which the top-level training courses were organized was not a "national emergency" but resulted from recognition of the time it would take to organize and train a sufficient number of personnel.

He suggested that the scientists attending the congress should offer their services now as "advisers to your state governors and civil defense directors."

2. Do not start the second group of courses until you have mutually agreed through your governors on an appropriate time.

3. Keep the civilian mobilization office advised of technical problems and suggestions "so that we may have a mutually beneficial exchange of ideas."

4. Offer their services now as "advisers to your state governors and civil defense directors."

The man, booked as Clarence P. Bennfield of Statesville, N. C., was ordered bound over to the grand jury in bonds totaling $10,000. He was charged with sodomy, assault and battery and malicious mischief.

The woman, Mrs. Agnes Hanson of Atlanta, was hospitalized with large body bruises, black eyes and possible internal injuries. Her condition was described as fair.

Detectives J. E. Siles and R. A. Bourne, who arrested Bennfield, said Mrs. Hanson told them this story: She met the Carolina man and accepted an invitation Saturday to go to his room for a drink.

Later, he stripped off her clothing and beat her until she could not move. She tried to escape several times, but each time he sized her, threw her to the floor and kicked her.

The detectives said Mrs. Hanson was found following an anonymous call for an ambulance. The officer, said Bennfield denied any knowledge of the hearing and said he met the woman a short time before the police arrived at the hotel.

And in Marke, Leroy McCray, 24-year-old Negro of Marke and Galesville, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with intent to murder here yesterday and was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

McCray was accused of shooting Leonard Wilson, a Marke collector who surprised him in the act of robbing a store. The incident took place several weeks ago.

National Phone

(Continued From Page One) orders to jam long distance lines. All CWA Bell employees were due to go out at 6 A. M. local time, tomorrow unless there was a last-minute settlement.

In Washington, Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said he knew of no plans for Mr. Truman to act to head off the strike.

In New York, where negotiations between the equipment workers—division 6 of the CWA—and Western Electric remained under way, a top Federal mediator reported "no change in the general picture."

The CWA claims a membership of 204,000. But union sources here say that if a strike occurs, it would last any length of time, a total of 300,000 Bell employees might go out.

The equipment workers who went on strike yesterday, joined today by 1,200 fellow workers in Texas and Oklahoma. There were no reports of picket lines, however, assuring continuation of normal public phone services today.

It was not certain how a strike would affect press association wires. It was not expected, however, that news and radio would feel any effect if the strike were short-lived.

Aside from jamming—which is illegal in some states—the installers' strike can have only a long-range effect on the public. But a general strike tomorrow would bring instant curtailment of the nation's phone services.

Only independent companies, mostly in rural areas, would be exempt. Further, the supervisory employees who would try to carry on as in past strikes might find themselves hampered by the new union tactic of mass jamming.

In case of the big walkout, the union, the American CWA, has asked all its own members as well as other sympathetic unions to be ready to swamp long distance calls can eventually swamp even the automatic dial systems.

The jamming order of the installers' union division 6 of the CWA sought to force the company and a threat of prosecution from the state's attorney in Cook County (Chicago). The division covers 43 states.

Senate Committee

Sherman said the proposed program would cost $25,000,000, of this amount $12,000,000 would be for 11,000 tons of new construction. Submarines normally range from less than 300 tons to 2,700 tons each.

The balance of $20,000,000 would go into reconstruction, including modernization of ten submarines by installation of the "snorkel," underwater breathing device.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 22. — (AP) — Senator McFarland (D-Ariz.) said today a compromise anti-gambling bill probably will be drafted because of a disagreement between the Justice Department and the Federal Communications Commission.

The two government agencies are at odds over the kind of legislation Congress should pass to control big-time gambling activities and bookmaking operations.

McFarland is chairman of a Senate Commerce subcommittee investigating the gambling-ban proposals.

"We'll probably get together on a compromise — perhaps incorporating something from both the Justice Department and the FCC bill," he told reporters.

The Justice Department proposal calls for a ban on moving gambling information across state lines.

Acheson Says U.S. Will Hold German City

Secretary Declares West Will Hold Berlin When Red Threat Is Ended

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26—(AP)—Secretary Acheson declared today the Western powers are not going to be driven out of Berlin by next month's threatened Communist demonstration.

In reply to news conference questions, the Secretary of State phrased it this way: when all the commotion is over, the Western powers will still be in the city.

Reporters had asked him about the preparations by the United States, Britain and France to meet the threatened German Communist Youth march from Eastern to Western Berlin May 27-29.

Acheson said that what the Western allies are going to do they will do, and they will not announce it beforehand.

Last weekend it was learned on the highest authority that the Western nations hope to turn back the threatened march by relatively peaceful means, such as fire hose and tear gas, but are prepared if necessary to use rifle and machine gun fire.

Acheson was told it had been proposed that the three Western Powers send a strong note to the Soviet Union.

He replied that he thought it had been made quite clear in Washington, London and Paris that the Western powers' intention to remain in Berlin is very firm indeed. He added that although steps to deal with the situation have been considered.

Also at his news conference, Acheson:

1. Disclosed the United States has "requested" the Communist Government to close down a New York City (30 West 34th St.) office which has been largely concerned with the collection of pre-paid customs duties on packages to Germany.
2. Disclosed that the U. S. Information Service in Bucharest.
3. Said that all sorts of interest have been attracted here by a (Continued on Page Three)

Teacher Says Smathers, Pepper Agree On World Government Issue

Representative Smathers and Senator Pepper both agree on one issue, "World Government," Joe McCaslin, member of the Sanford High School faculty, told members of the Lions Club yesterday noon.

Smathers, he pointed out, serves on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, and Pepper is on the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee. A total of 26 senators and 115 representatives have co-sponsored a resolution advocating World Government, he declared.

In Article 109 of the charter of the United Nations, he said, there is a clause stating that the U. N. can be revised into a Federal World Government at any time that two-thirds of the majority of the U. N. General Assembly vote for it. This can be done without putting it through the Security Council in order that there would be no veto to hold it back.

Recently spokesmen from 57 of the 60 nations of the U. N. have come out strongly advocating World Government, he stated. The two countries of the U. N. that have not come out for it are Russia and the United States.

"What about Russia?" That might be your next question," he declared. "I doubt very seriously whether anyone could answer that question. Russia says that she is reacting to the United States' opposition, and has taken the attitude of waiting to see what the United States does. She is waiting for the United States to make a move, and she is waiting to see what the United States does."

Missing Red Witness Calls Wife And A. P.

John Huber Declares He "Blacked Out" In National Capital Yesterday

NEW YORK, Apr. 26—(AP)—A man who identified himself as John Huber, missing witness in yesterday's Communist hearing, telephoned the Associated Press today and said: "I just came to myself about an hour ago. I blacked out in Washington."

In an exhausted voice he said he has been in a hospital since he was found in a rooming house in New York City. He said he had been in a rooming house in New York City and had been in a rooming house in New York City.

"I just found myself at Broadway and 48th Street. I don't know what I'm doing here."

Earlier his wife in Mount Vernon, N. Y., said she had been told by her husband, an FBI undercover agent, at 7:30 A. M. that he had been in New York City and was going to get some rest, she said.

A few minutes later he called a friend in Washington, Larry K. Kelly, Kelsey said he "had or of these 'I don't know' happened stories."

Several weeks ago Huber failed to appear at the trial of dancer Paul Draper and musician player Larry Adler, who are being held in a New York City housewife for $100,000 bail each after she alleged that they had been Communist sympathizers.

Three hours later Huber appeared, Mrs. Heister M. Coughlin, said Huber had been in treatment but did not reply to the remarks.

Huber said that he had no question that it was his wife's voice, although he was "tired and upset." He said there was no background music that would identify his wife's place.

She said he refused to say where he was. She said she had seen him in New York City, but she said she was not sure.

Huber's wife, Mrs. Joseph M. Coughlin, who is sponsoring Huber's testimony and who flew from New York to Washington, said Huber appeared to be upset at the thought of his arrest. (Continued on Page Six)

House Committee Approves Military Budget Increase

$350 Million Asked By Secretary Johnson To Tighten Up U. S. Bulwark

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26—(AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee voted today to cut in half — from 20 percent to 10 — the federal excise tax on tickets to movies and sport events. The committee took the action in approving another $210,000,000 slash in the excise tax list. This brought the total of tentatively approved cuts to $57,000,000. This is far in excess of the $100,000,000 reduction President Truman had proposed for that part of the list which the committee has considered. Mr. Truman has threatened a veto of any cutting legislation if his recommendations are ignored.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26—(AP)—The House Appropriations committee today recommended the 1951 military budget be increased by $350,000,000 asked by Secretary of Defense Johnson to tighten the nation's bulwark against Russia.

Without the additional funds, Johnson told Congress the Russian atomic explosion had come "somewhat in advance of the date we had anticipated." He said that caused a complete revision of defense plans by both the United States and the North Atlantic Pact nations.

The Secretary and members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff appeared before both Senate and House Appropriations committees to review events leading to the plea for more money.

Behind the Soviet atomic explosion, Johnson spoke of the increased strain in international relations and said:

"None of this presents a happy prospect, but the cold war is not a happy circumstance."

Johnson testified behind closed doors but later handed out a statement covering the gist of his testimony. (Continued on Page Three)

Sanford Negro Guilty Of 1st Degree Murder

G. D. Williams Faces Death In Raiford Electric Chair

G. D. Williams, a local Negro, was found guilty yesterday of murder in the first degree in the shooting of Willie Wallace, Negro night club proprietor on Dec. 26, 1949.

The verdict of the jury, which included two women jurors for the first time in a murder trial in Seminole County, carried with it no recommendation of mercy, a verdict which can mean the death penalty.

Mrs. Mayne Hodgkin, who served as foreman of the jury, handed in the verdict at 6:10 o'clock, one half hour after the jury had reached.

Mrs. A. C. Strake was the other woman juror. Judge M. B. Smith of the Circuit Court, presided. State Attorney Murray Overstreet conducted a vigorous prosecution, and was aided by Assistant State Attorney Hubert Griggs. The defense arguments were given by E. F. and Karylta Housholder.

Other members of the jury were A. C. Moore, J. E. Farin, W. H. McJawther, R. L. Hagan, George M. Jacobs, Hillman Behrens, H. M. Gleason, J. D. Miller and Ross Mobley.

The shooting took place shortly after 6:00 o'clock Dec. 26 back of the Pee Wee Grill on West Thirteenth Street which is operated by Eugene Lafair, otherwise known as Snorky.

Assistant Overstreet described the shooting as a cold-blooded affair in which Williams, lurking in the shadows near the building, shot Wallace as the latter was bending over to tie his shoelaces. It was established that during the afternoon Williams had gone to the 666 Club on the Southwest side, a place owned and operated by Wallace, had ordered a bowl of chili, and then became angry at receiving change from one dollar, claiming he had tendered a $5 bill in payment.

Britain's Labor Party Wins In Stern Vote Test

Attlee's Group Wins Narrowest Escape By 5-Vote Margin

LONDON, Apr. 26—(AP)—The Labor government stayed off by only five votes today a parliamentary defeat which would have forced it to resign.

It was Prime Minister Attlee's narrowest escape so far in the new House of Commons elected Feb. 23.

The vote came on a government proposal to double the excise tax on nappies (105 cents) to a shilling and a half (21 cents).

Although handicapped by illness in the ranks, government forces won through, 304 to 299, over the combined opposition of Winston Churchill's Conservatives and the Liberal Party.

Labour has at present an overall margin of seven votes in the House. Its closest shave previously came on Mar. 11 when it beat down by 14 votes an opposition motion of restraint on its plans to nationalize the steel industry.

A British Prime Minister defeated on any such major issue is required by this country's unwritten constitution to offer his resignation to the king.

Technically, the king then either can create a new national election or let a member of the opposition try to form a new government. In practice, he accepts the advice of the outgoing prime minister.

It was considered an odds-on proposition that Attlee would ask: (Continued on Page Three)

John Maragon Found Guilty On Two Counts

White House Visitor Can Be Imprisoned For Over 10 Years

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26—(AP)—John Maragon, who used to have friends at the White House, was convicted today of lying to Senate investigators.

A federal district court jury took one hour and 36 minutes to convict him of charges that he lied in testifying last July that he had only one bank account in Washington in 1945-46. The evidence showed he had another in Texas.

2 He had several connections with Albert Verley and Co., a Chicago importing co., when he took a temporary job with the State Department overseas in 1945.

But Maragon was cleared on one of the main counts of the indictment brought against him that he secured himself in a cover job by negotiating a business with the government and received no money for negotiations from 1945 to until the middle of last year.

One such of the two counts on which he was found guilty, Maragon could be sent to jail for as little as eight months to two years or for as long as 10 months to 10 years.

The courts rarely impose the maximum sentence.

Maragon, dressed in a dark blue suit, heard the verdict with little show of emotion.

The jury of nine men and three women got the case at 10:45 A. M. (EST) and retired to decide whether to free Maragon or find him guilty.

The government has pictured Maragon as a man who circulated around government departments representing business firms, saying he spoke for presidential military aide Harry Vaughan and (Continued on Page Eight)

Scientists Journey To Mexico To Explore Barranca De Cobre

LOS ANGELES, Apr. 26—(AP)—Only 500 miles below the U. S.-Mexico border is a great crack in the earth known as Barranca De Cobre (Copper Canyon).

Although never explored it is believed to be deeper and wider than the Grand Canyon in Arizona.

Vague reports from the area, one of the wildest and most isolated on the North American continent, say that here live real "cave dwellers," last remnants of an ancient race of men.

An expedition leaves Los Angeles today to explore this canyon of mystery. The Los Angeles County Museum and William J. Shaffer, archaeologist, are sponsoring the trip. Museum representatives on the expedition are Kenneth Sanger, curator of ethnology and mammalogy, and Robert Aris, curator of history and anthropology.

Shaffer's expedition will take into the region but has been hoped to find new species of tropical and semi-tropical birds.

The group, composed of the University of California, Los Angeles, has been expected to return to Los Angeles in about nine weeks.

Paper Publishers Confront Problem Of Raising Costs

NEW YORK, Apr. 26—(AP)—Newspaper publishers wrestled today with a tightening economic problem, but came up with no clear solutions.

Exhausting discussions at sessions of the American Newspaper Publishers Association was intensified concern over the narrowing margin between newspaper revenues and expenses.

Rising costs, and the lack of any ready-made formula for counteracting these increased costs, were cited as the chief reason for the financial difficulties.

As the price of newsprint, and other raw materials, publishers were faced with these alternatives for meeting higher costs:

Increase advertising rates, and risk loss of advertising volume.

Increase the price of newspapers, and risk losses in circulation.

Reduce personnel and departmental operating expenses through budgeting and more careful planning.

Publishers from across the nation reported that soaring costs of materials and labor, plus increased taxes, have resulted in a steady and continuing drop in profits.

Southern Memorial Day Had Its Inception Following Civil War

Southern Memorial Day, which had its inception immediately following the war between the States, was originally designated as a day for decoration of the graves of the Confederate soldiers who died in the battles of that war. A Edwin Shinkholer, city attorney, declared in a talk over Station WTRR yesterday morning.

The day was observed by special programs in schools and was marked by the closing of banks and the Bell Telephone office. Members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy accompanied Mr. Shinkholer to the station, and later visited Lakeview Cemetery to decorate the grave of the late Norman Howard, Confederate hero.

Mr. Shinkholer told the plight of the Confederate soldier after the war, who found his home in ruins, his farm devastated, stock killed, his slaves free, his barn empty, his trade destroyed, his money worthless, his social system swept away. To this was added the grave problem of establishing the status for the vast body of his liberated slaves.

"To this dark and gloomy prospect was soon to be added the shocking news of the assassination of President Lincoln," said Mr. Shinkholer. "Only time brought to our consciousness the fact that in his death we lost our great friend and intercessor, who being clearly our problem, pleaded for time and forbearance; who bore the bitter sorrow of injustice he could not prevent; who gloried not that he became our conqueror, but prayed for justice toward none and charity for all."

"Those of us today who look back with open minds to the death of Lincoln," he stated, "and the racial problem of that day may well feel that had Lincoln lived, the Southern states, in accordance with his plans, would have come into the Union with all of their former rights and privileges."

Kiss From A Vegetarian Lioness Beats Mugging By Mother-in-law

By HAL BOYLE
AUBURN, Wash. (AP)—How can you have lived until you've been kissed by a vegetarian lioness?

It WAS being mugged by a mother-in-law all hollow. There's more satirical affection in it. A lioness puts real feminine enthusiasm into her smooching.

Or at least the only lioness who ever kissed me did. She is "Little Tyke," a tawny 350-pound lady lion owned by Georges and Margaret Westbeau.

They operate Hidden Valley Ranch, a 200-acre experiment in good will between animals and human beings.

"On this ranch nothing is afraid of anything else that lives here," said Westbeau, a former medical student who operates a deep freeze locker business.

He and his wife have tried to make a small world of their own where fear has no place, a tiny oasis of love where the lioness still hops to live on to a ripe old muttonhood.

And so far they have succeeded. The big proof is Little Tyke herself. This summer she will be a full grown lioness of four years.

She is the only known live lion in the world who won't eat meat. "We got her from a zoo just before she was born," said Westbeau. "She was the only cub, and her mother had become nervous and had bitten and crushed her right front leg."

From the start she refused to take meat. Hidden Valley Ranch is a long and narrow strip, alive with flowers, lying between Green River and bordering wooded hills.

Georges and Margaret Westbeau, a chemist, and a veterinarian who shares her husband's love of animals.

And soon after that I saw a slight from the world of Biblical prophecy. Westbeau, carrying some sprigs of flowering wild currant, came strolling down from the hills. And limping at his side—marked for life by her mother's jaws—was the lioness, looking like a big, friendly Newfoundland dog.

The prize chickens and peacocks took no alarm as the lioness padded past them. She nuzzled one of the two horses in the pasture. And later in the ranch guest house she frisked with a pet coney, a toy terrier puppy, a cat and a young lamb.

How could animals so diverse in nature play together without hurt? "Where there is no fear there is no enmity," said Westbeau. "Here the only discipline is the discipline of love and freedom. And there is no reason to kill as there is no hunger."

Then he suggested I have a wrestling match with Little Tyke. The next thing I knew I was on the lawn, rolling around the grass under a 350-pound lioness, and my right arm was caught halfway to the elbow in the hot furnace of her mouth.

"Don't jerk — she'll let go," said Westbeau as I began wondering how long it would take me to learn to type with just my left hand. And she did let go.

Afterward she lay with her head in my lap. When Mrs. Westbeau brought her a hunk of fresh raw hamburger, the lioness turned her nose up at it like a chorus girl being offered an ice cream cone.

Before I left Little Tyke jumped in our car, and Georges suggested I put my arm around her. I did, feeling as if my hand were being held by a warm, friendly hand.

Neighbors would like to have Little Tyke penned more securely. They feel she will revert to jungle ways and tragedy may come to Georges or his wife. But Westbeau says stubbornly: "Where there is no fear there is no savagery."

However the experiment ends, they have created in Hidden Valley Ranch, for a short space in a troubled time, a 200-acre world without war or hunger. And if it should turn out to be only a brief truce between man, dog, peacock, horse, raccoon, lamp, cat and lioness—well, it is still worth remembering.

Inside WASHINGTON

Florida's Primary Battle | Are Alutians Expensible? | Prevailing Real Donnybrook | Possibly, in Atom War, Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—All but lost is the hue and cry of the major pre-campaign congressional battles in the red hot contest in the Florida Democratic primary where Rep. George A. Smathers is trying to wrest a Senate seat from veteran Senator Claude Pepper.

The major spotlight is on the campaigns in Ohio, where President Truman is going all out to beat Senate GOP policy leader Robert A. Taft—and Illinois, where Democratic Senate leader Scott W. Lucas is fighting for his political life against former Rep. Everett Dirksen.

However, the Florida primary, where nomination is tantamount to election, is another Truman testing ground.

Pepper is a Truman man, right down the line, as he was a Roosevelt man. Smathers, on the other hand, represents the States Rights Democrats. He opposes Mr. Truman's civil rights program and the rest of his domestic legislative proposals.

Latest reports are that Pepper may squeak through, after a shaky start.

EXPENSIBLE?—In the event of atom war are the Alutians, Alaska, expensible? In World War II the United States spent millions of dollars and many lives to protect the Alutians an military bases.

However, informed sources say, the Joint Chiefs of Staff have decided not only to shut down those bases but to let the islands go to the Soviets by default if war comes.

Their thinking, it is said, is that to hold the island bases would cost more than they would be worth, and that if Russia occupies them, it will find itself with a white elephant.

The Alutians are generally blanketed by the heaviest weather which holds air operations to a minimum.

SHOES FROM THE QUEEN—Rep. Gordon Canfield (R), New Jersey, is the proud possessor of a pair of vividly orange shoes, but he isn't going to wear them.

The shoes are the gift of Queen Juliana of the Netherlands. They are hand-made wooden jobs, and although Canfield maintains they are size nine and one-half, they look large enough to hold the family washing.

The shoes are part of a shipment of 100 pair sent a Dutch veterans' organization in Canfield's home district by the queen. Members of the organization are of Dutch descent and, unlike Canfield, they will wear the wooden shoes in next Memorial Day's parade.

Canfield is content to leave his pair hanging on the wall of his Washington office.

NO DEEM—Somewhat like the traveling man whose office was "in his hat," the legal staff of the Senate committee investigating Senator Joseph McCarthy's Communism charges has yet to set up housekeeping in Capitol Hill. It may never be necessary.

Edward F. Morgan, former FBI man and Washington attorney, explained that he has been operating from his own law office downtown in serving as chief counsel for the committee.

Morgan said there was no point in trying to establish staff quarters on the Hill, until it was known what President Truman would do about releasing loyalty files.

His point was that if the president gave the committee access to the files the staff would be doing most of its work in the downtown area where the records are kept. If the files were released to be taken to the Capitol then offices would have to be had on the Hill.

Mr. Truman did neither. He told the Loyalty Review Board to make special reviews in the cases cited by McCarthy, refusing to issue the doctrine to the committee. So presently it's a stalemate, and Morgan is still working downtown.

RAILWAY SLEEPER
R. GOON—(AP)—Alarm, when passengers when a train running between the sacred Burma city, Mandalay, and Hadya, 12 miles away, came to an abrupt halt and the engine begin to hook. They wondered if they were to be victimizing landita and rebels.

Several yards ahead, a still object lay across the track. The engine crew with the train's millitary escort, hurried forward to investigate. They found a man fast asleep. They looked him into wakefulness and demanded an explanation. He said he was a security guard on railtrack duty and must have dropped off to sleep.

A poisonous snake ate victims of its own poison without ill effect.

Not Just a Fair Deal but a SQUARE Deal for the Veterans!

It almost happened again after this war the way it did after World War One. First, a lot of speeches... then a lot of promises... and then a lot of talk, but very little action!

Yes, it almost happened that way again — and would have, too, if it hadn't been for the heroic efforts of a few men like Claude Pepper who saw to it that veterans of this war got more than just a "run around" from their government.

Here, again, is proof that Claude Pepper stands for performance — not promises — when it comes to getting things done for the plain people:

- CLAUDE PEPPER was one of the original sponsors of the G. I. Bill of Rights providing education and training, housing and business loans, and unemployment compensation for veterans of World War Two...
- CLAUDE PEPPER sponsored the bill permitting enlisted veterans to take their terminal pay in bonds or cash...
- CLAUDE PEPPER sponsored Bill S. 1393 which raised maintenance for on-the-job-training...
- CLAUDE PEPPER sponsored Bill S. 1394 which raised money for maintenance under the G. I. Bill of Rights...
- CLAUDE PEPPER sponsored amendments which increased money for veterans' hospital and medical care...

In addition Claude Pepper has sponsored, argued for, fought for, and voted for countless other veterans' bills — all designed to provide added benefits and care for both well and disabled vets.

Keep this in mind when you go to the polls on May 2nd — no man has done more for the veterans; no man has done as much for the people of Florida... as CLAUDE PEPPER.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Love is the overwhelming virtue, but we must not despise faith and hope without which life would be a wilderness without sun or stars.

In Albany, N. Y. a hunter pleads "Not Guilty" to shooting grouse out of season. "I thought it was a rabbit," he said.

Bullet holes have been found in one of those life rafts recovered from the Baltic. It now appears that the Russians not only shot down the American plane, but also machine-gunned the survivors as they floated around in life rafts.

How much is it worth to a man to get bitten by a rattlesnake? Up in Nashville, Tenn. Amos Bowers, a Negro is suing the Royal Crown Shows for $499.99 because he claimed he was bitten by a rattlesnake in the carnival's reptile pit.

Total assets of the CIO Textiles Workers' Unions of America are nearly 2 million dollars more now than they were two years ago. William Pollard, general secretary-treasurer, reports that the Union's assets on Feb. 28 were $3,812,000.

"Russia is getting ready for war on a grand scale," Kenneth DeCourcy of London editor of the Intelligence Digest said, in Sarasota the other day. "Russia is now making atom bombs at the rate of four a month".

A crowd of 40,000 persons packed historic Boston Common the other day to hear evangelist Billy Graham, the dynamic young preacher who has created a sensation throughout the South in his battle against sin and Satan.

Back To Trieste

No important government of the present day has a record of violations of agreements equaling that of the Soviet government which repeatedly attracts international attention with charges of treaty and agreement violations against the United States and other Western governments.

It is true that the provisions of the Italian treaty with respect to the Free Territory of Trieste have not been carried out. But the reason is that the Western nations have been unable to gain the co-operation of Russia in doing so.

It would appear that the diplomatic position of the United States might be more sound if we should take the initiative in laying the blame for some of the world's ills at Russia's door.

Longstreet In Politics

Georgia reports what may well be the last political campaign based directly on the glamor of the Confederacy. Mrs. James Longstreet, widow of Lee's famous lieutenant, has announced her candidacy for governor against Herman Talmadge.

When peace came Longstreet became widely unpopular by joining the Republicans, the most conspicuous Southerner to take this step.

Imports Not Disastrous

Cannot American manufacturers compete with European unless they have help from prohibitive tariffs? Paul G. Hoffman, European recovery administrator, ought to know their capabilities because for many years he was one, as head of the Studebaker Corporation.

Expenses Outrun Income

Although the disclosure was slow in coming to light, it now is understood that The Atlanta Constitution was unable to place its operations on a sound financial footing in a city of approximately 500,000 population where it encountered no competition in the morning newspaper field.

The Baltic Incident

The American reply to the Soviet protest of April 11 against an alleged violation of Latvian territory by a "B-29 type" military airplane is a counter-protest, terse and emphatic, against the Soviet Union for brutally shooting down an unarmed American reconnaissance aircraft on lawful flight over the international waters of the Baltic.

Beta Sigma Phi Honor Mrs. Maxwell

The Gamma Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi entertained Monday evening with a coffee in honor of Mrs. Margaret Maxwell, a Beta Sigma Phi representative visiting Central Florida chapter from the International office in Kansas City, Mo. The coffee was held at the home of Mrs. Hawkins, formerly sponsor of the chapter.

Colorful arrangements of Geneva daisies adorned the console and end tables in the living room. The dining table was lovely with a silver candlestick holding five yellow napkins on a white linen cloth. At one end of the table was the silver coffee service with Miss Tol Livingston pouring. Oats and nuts were also served.

While the refreshments were being enjoyed, Mrs. Maxwell told of many interesting experiences she has encountered while visiting Beta Sigma Phi chapters in various parts of the country.

Mrs. Maxwell left Monday night for Orlando where she will attend a Founder's Day dinner to be given by the Orlando chapter. She plans to return to Sanford for the next Gamma Lambda meeting to be held at the home of Miss Shirley Smith.

The program sparked with diamonds, glittering Cinderella slippers and fairy tale guests at the Yacht Club Monday evening when the Story Book League held their monthly meeting. Mrs. George Williams was assisted in presenting this program by Mrs. Lattie Rix and Mrs. J. P. Roche.

A flower arrangement reminiscent of traditional colonial mixed bouquets such as is seen in the summer in Governor's Mansion at Williamsburg, Va., or at Raleigh Tavern was the conversation topic for the evening. As was also the lace covered tea table with rainbow hued decorations and a frosty punch bowl.

Several matters of vital interest were presented and briefly discussed, then tabled because a quorum of members was not present to take action.

Teen Talk

More pen pals are making it across the sea, these days, says the International Friendship League of Boston, Mass. Home society which is sanctioned by the State Department, says it will need 10,000 official American ambassadors.

The league thinks that both the young men and women who are asked to send replies to foreign pen pals are doing a good deed.

Have you ever been a pen pal? I asked Mary Kelly and she experiences writing to pen pals. "I've had some and it's a delightful fun. She had a girl up a fine acquaintance with a girl in Seattle, Wash. and then in London, Eng. I have been carrying on a correspondence with them for years. It has up to the point where Mary likes to give and stocking sizes and the girls exchange presents of and knit wendies and other things. I never forget each one's birthdays, Christmas and Easter. Says Mary:

"Pen friendships are wonderful for lonely people. Especially during the Easter weeks. Sometimes you can just get out a letter and feel so much better. The only trouble is that occasionally it is a home-barrage. For instance, when you are a lot to do, you can't get it really written out. I can say you say whether you are really busy or not? Once when I was asked whether I was busy, I just sent the card my pen pal and let her make up her mind that I looked like it."

If all teenagers to be used to spend their money in a group of young people in San Francisco are talking about national get-together, report author Pinkham says.

Actually says Angie, state President of the Northern California Youth Council "it might be too big a proposition although there are a lot of kid groups that

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Apr. 23 (AP)—Yvonne DeCarie would like to abdicate as the undrugged queen of film fantasies and devote her life to singing.

"When the time comes," she vowed, "I want to do musical pictures altogether. If I don't get my way, I will quit the screen and do concerts."

"I've been studying for this for a long time. But I don't think I can really concentrate on my singing and work in (non-musical) pictures, too. It won't be for a few years yet."

Meanwhile the curvaceous cutting content to caper in eye-catching costumes. "I don't mind wearing clinging dresses," she remarked, "as long as the part calls for it, and it doesn't detract from the acting."

In the current "Desert Hawk" she plays a Persian princess, and the role naturally calls for some sexy outfits. "But I'd just as soon play a ragamuffin and go through the picture in the same plain dress," she claimed.

She has long sought a straight dramatic role and considers her next picture, "Tomahawk," a step in the right direction. In this one she plays an Indian girl. Her main ambition is to star in "Song of Norway."

"Actually it isn't easy to play these princess roles," she declared. "After all, you have many centuries ago. You have to drive it home, make it believable in spite of the fancy costumes and setting and strange dialogue."

Yvonne has made two trips to Europe during the past year and she smiled indulgently at the suggestion that she has boyfriends all over the world.

"There are nice men in every country," she said diplomatically. "I sometimes find them interesting, but generally speaking, they're just Americans."

Fifteen years ago in Hollywood Creighton Chaney changed his name to Lon Chaney, Jr. Rudy Vallee signed a long term contract with Warner. Shirley Temple was making "The Little Colonel" and Alvena Ray moved up from the featured player list to become a star.

At 10 in the morning, Rudy Keeler was starting in "In the Arms of a Boy." Betty Grable, a young MGM player, was on a vaudeville tour with Bert Wheeler. Ramon Novarro was washed up at MGM and ended his long contract there.

Jean Harlow was taking date invited to talk the tea box.

"What is the hardest job of evening for other people's children? The girls had different ideas about that, but mostly it boiled down to: "Parents who forget to tell you where things are. Children not wanting to go to bed. Finding something to do" and "con-

Husbands Should Go Shopping For Suit

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Now is the time to remind that husband or beau of yours to go shopping for a new spring suit. He may need some coaxing, but secretly he'll be pleased at the prospect.

If your husband is the type who allows you to go along and help him pick out his suit, here are some pointers to keep in mind, to be sure he gets his money's worth:

- 1 — Examine the fabric, to be sure it is top quality. Smooth, light-weight worsteds and sharkskin are a top choice this year for spring — especially the light-weight varieties. And a big development this year is the use of rayon and wool blends for light-weight suits that can be worn all summer in comfort.
- 2 — Select the correct cut for his build and type. If he's conservative, he probably will prefer a single-breasted sack suit with notched lapels.
- 3 — Be particular about the fit. Shoulders should follow a natural line and not look obviously padded. The sleeves should fit smoothly into the armhole without puckering. Collar and lapels should be flat and smooth, with no bunching at the back. The sleeves should be long enough to cover the wrist but show at least a half inch of shirt cuff. Average jacket length is about fingertip length. Trousers should be long enough to reach just above the instep, but not to "break" at the shoe top.

Art, Music Festival Planned At School

Only high school art work will be exhibited this year at the Art and Music Festival, which will take place at the Sanford High School on May 2 at 8 P.M. Mrs. Mildred Babcock, art supervisor announced today. After the Festival the exhibit will be moved to the Thurpe Building and will be shown with other Semiole County schools from May 15 through May 20. This is the first year that the exhibit has been on display in the business district.

Main emphasis this year has been on murals for the library and Glee Club room, Mrs. Babcock said. The murals for the library take as their theme the history of the United States and show "The Landing of the Explorers," "The Settlers," "Covered Wagon Days," "Colonial Days," and "Modern Life."

There will also be exhibits of individual students of water color, tempera, pastel, pen and ink, and other forms of art.

Buy tuna fish that is "flaked" for use in sandwiches for the lunchbox. Solid pack tuna is particularly delicious in a cream sauce when it is not broken up in pieces that are too small. Buy the fish carefully after you add it to the white sauce.

When you serve dressed eggs for lunch sprinkle a little paprika over them for color and add a sprig or two of parsley or watercress.

Missing Witness

(Continued From Page One) flying at a public hearing. He had understood it was to be at a closed session, the Senator said. Huber was to have testified in support of earlier statements made by Louis F. Budenz against Owen Lattimore, McCarthy said. Huber failed to appear yesterday when called to the stand by the Senate inquiry committee.

A search disclosed a note in his hotel room to Larry Kerley, a former FBI man who had accompanied McCarthy and Huber on the same flight.

It read: "Larry—I have gone for a haircut and I have."
Although there had been some talk of foul play, McCarthy and Kerley both said the disappearance may have been only due to Huber's nervousness about a large assembly.

The committee took no action yesterday to charge Huber with contempt of Congress in ignoring his subpoena.

Meanwhile, Dr. Bella V. Dodd, ousted Communist Party official, accused Louis Budenz of having given "dishonest testimony" to Senators investigating charges of Communism in government.

Dr. Dodd made the statements under oath to the Senate foreign relations subcommittee looking into the contents of Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that Communists and Red sympathizers have infiltrated the State Department.

She took sharp issue with the sworn testimony of Budenz, also a former Communist, that high party officials had told him Owen Lattimore was a member of a Communist cell.

Dr. Dodd said she never knew Lattimore as a Communist, a fellow traveler "or even as a friend of the party."
While Dr. Dodd spoke, Earl Browder, one time American Communist Party chief, today was subpoenaed to testify before Senate investigators what he knows about Owen Lattimore. Browder will testify at a public hearing tomorrow.

The former judge said the three spoke with a foreign accent, and that their car carried the license plate of another state but that he could not get the number.

Anderson said the assault occurred around 10 o'clock last night. He reported it to the police as quickly as he could thereafter.

He was unhurt except for the roughing up and the bump on his head resulting from the slugging, he said.

Anderson, 57, was municipal judge between 1929 and 1941 when he retired. Since then he has had his own real estate agency. He ran for sheriff once some years ago but was defeated.

He said "I have been helping Mr. Smathers for the sake of good government," in explaining that he had been passing out literature on his own without pay.

Anderson said one of his assailants held a sword of Damocles over him while the other two tore Smathers' posters off his car and removed campaign literature from inside.

After he reported the incident, police took him home.

This is the only violence reported here during the campaign in which Smathers seeks the seat now held by Senator Claude Pepper. Anderson is a bachelor.

(The Communist one month ago set up "sea crossing headquarters" at Chapu, halfway between Shanghai and Hangchow. Since Apr. 1 only persons with special passes have been allowed in the area. Russian advisors have moved into all hotels.)

Nationalist warplanes yesterday attacked 80 small craft in the Red-held section of the Chushan group. Air headquarters said many vessels were destroyed.

Meanwhile, in Jakarta, the newly born Indonesian Central government is faced with another revolt. Reliable sources in the federal capital, said separatists on the island of Ambon in east Indonesia have proclaimed an independent state of the south Moluccas. The Ambonese have long been the most loyal and fiercest fighters enrolled in the Netherlands East Indies army. This was the federal government's fourth revolt in its few months of existence and from all accounts it may prove the most stubborn.

Hong Kong, the U. S. Consulate said the American President Line's Gen. W. H. Gordon will evacuate between 800 and 1,000 foreigners Saturday from Red China.

The Gordon left Okinawa yesterday for Taku Bar, the port of Tientsin. It is scheduled to arrive there Friday.

The consulate said the evacuation will bring out about 50 State Department personnel, the last in Communist China. It also will cut in half the number of foreign stragglers in Shanghai since the Reds won that city last May.

An attempt last month to evacuate 1,600 foreigners including more than 300 Americans on the Liner Gen. W. H. Gordon was blocked by the Communists. U. S. Secretary of State Acheson said the effort cost $500,000.

In Tokyo, a Japanese who escaped recently from Russian-controlled Sakhalin was quoted today as saying the Soviets are building airfields and training pilots on that island north of Japan.

Fumio Machida told the "Nichi Shimbun" that Japanese airmen were teaching the Russians there how to fly.

Machida added: there are about 15,000 Japanese on Sakhalin "waiting a chance to return home."

Maragon

(Continued From Page One) came from the White House. The defense contended the Greek born, former Kansas City boot-lack, did nothing wrong in any dealings with government agencies. It insisted the government failed to prove he led to Senate questioners.

Federal Judge Jennings Bailey told the jurors that whether Maragon did right or wrong was not the issue — that what they had to decide was whether he committed perjury.

"The question for you to determine," Bailey said in a 25-minute talk to the jury "is whether, when he testified, he testified to facts that were not true and which he believed to be not true."

Federal Judge Jennings Bailey refused to release Maragon on bail. A U. S. marshal planned to take him to the district jail.

Maragon's lawyer, Irvin Goldstein, said he will appeal the case "as far as we can." He said a motion for a new trial might be made a week from Friday. If it is denied, Maragon could be sentenced at once.

1946 congressional race.

The affidavit was by Clifford M. Dudley who said that in 1946 he was an assistant to the late Sidney Hillman, founder of the CIO-PAC. In it, Dudley said he was sent from Washington to Miami, that George Smathers told him he would be a Liberal Democrat and a friend of Labor and the Negro people, and that he wanted the assistance, but not the endorsement of the CIO-PAC in his race against Congressman Pat Cannon. Dudley said this assistance was given and played "a substantial part" in Smathers' subsequent victory over Cannon.

"Smathers said if it became known that the CIO was working for him, he would lose support," Dudley said in the affidavit. Dudley said he was present at a meeting in Washington in 1946 when Smathers was told that he would be a Liberal Democrat and a friend of Labor and the Negro people, and that he wanted the assistance, but not the endorsement of the CIO-PAC in his race against Congressman Pat Cannon. Dudley said this assistance was given and played "a substantial part" in Smathers' subsequent victory over Cannon.

"Smathers said if it became known that the CIO was working for him, he would lose support," Dudley said in the affidavit. Dudley said he was present at a meeting in Washington in 1946 when Smathers was told that he would be a Liberal Democrat and a friend of Labor and the Negro people, and that he wanted the assistance, but not the endorsement of the CIO-PAC in his race against Congressman Pat Cannon. Dudley said this assistance was given and played "a substantial part" in Smathers' subsequent victory over Cannon.

Reputed King Of Underworld Says He Is Not Qualified To Help Senators

BRIDGETON, N. J., Apr. 27 (AP) — The State of New Jersey cracked down on the Western Union Telegram Company here today to halt the transmission of money order bets on horse races.

Nathan S. Stamler, deputy attorney general, said he would obtain a warrant for the arrest of the executive in charge of Western Union's New Jersey operations in order to plug a loophole in the state's anti-gambling laws.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27 (AP) — Frank Costello, a reputed king pin of the gambling world, testified under oath today that he is "not qualified or equipped" to give Senators information about big-time wagers in the United States.

"At the present time I'm not qualified," the Italian-born Costello said with a heavy accent.

"Why?" asked Senator McFarland (D-Ariz.).

"Maybe I don't know about it," Costello said.

The neatly-dressed Costello appeared voluntarily before a Senate Commerce subcommittee which is studying a bill designed to ban the movement of gambling information across state lines.

McFarland asked Costello if he would be in the position he is in today.

Allen was called to testify about his 1948 drive against bookmakers in which he said his force closed down 15 bookshops and 1000 bookies.

Members of the Sanford Merchants Association, their wives and guests, numbering 114 in all, enjoyed a fine barbecue and picnic at the Elks grounds last evening.

Andrew Stine had charge of the general arrangements and the Elks ground table and chairs for the occasion.

The serving line formed at about dusk and the meat cutting committee had everything ready including the succulent beef, pork and lamb, 300 pounds of which had been barbecued under the direction of W. B. Hathaway, whose mastery of this art is undisputed throughout the section.

James Lodge had charge of the serving committee which had Forrest Gatchel, John Bennett, John Pope and M. N. Cleveland who assisted by taking up the hosts. B. F. Smith and J. R. Bennett assisted in the preparation of the feast.

The work of preparing the meat for the barbecue racks at the grounds of the Elks Association took place from 11:30 A. M. to 1:30 P. M. Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Hathaway will have charge of the barbecue for the Oak Ridge Club barbecue evening, and for the Elks Club barbecue evening.

Mr. Bennett will have charge of the barbecue for the Elks Club barbecue evening.

Hutchison Says Smathers Is Best Man For Senate

Record Of Candidate In Pacific Praised By "Dixie" Veteran

J. C. Hutchison, president of J. C. Hutchison & Co., commission merchant, and assistant division commander of the 31st (Dixie) Division which served in the Pacific Theater of Operations during the recent war, in a radio broadcast last night, announced his support of George Smathers for the United States Senate.

Declaring that the time has come for every American to stand up and be counted, Mr. Hutchison expressed his concern over the international situation and the possibility of a third World War and outlined the qualifications of Mr. Smathers which make him the best choice at this time for the office of senator.

"As a veteran of both the first and second World Wars, I am becoming increasingly concerned over the danger of a third World War," Mr. Hutchison said.

The showing down of an unwarlike American plan by Soviet flippers has recently caused Secretary of State Acheson to say, "We are faced with a threat not only to our country but also to the civilization in which we live," and only last Monday President Truman warned that the Communists are preparing to sweep up the remaining free nations of Western Europe and strengthen Russia for the ultimate attack upon the United States.

In this hour of crisis it is our duty as freedom loving Americans to re-inforce our political institutions with statesmen and representatives in the halls of Congress.

Mr. Hutchison said that his own traditional way of life is not open to the slightest doubt and his concept of Americanism is above suspicion.

At Washington, Va., he said, "I am proud that Americans stand guard to night."

Declaring that George Smathers is such a man, Mr. Hutchison said that he is a pioneer North Carolina family who settled in Florida more than 30 years ago.

Mr. Hutchison was educated in the Miami public schools and the University of Florida where he was an outstanding scholar and athlete and was elected in 1906 to the University.

Mr. Hutchison is a member of the University of Florida and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Survivors include the husband and one daughter, Mrs. E. T. Simpson of Sanford; one sister, Mrs. Harry Kent, also of Sanford; and one brother, Rev. Fred Ensminger of Wadley, Ala.

Funeral services will be conducted at Erickson Funeral Home at 3:30 P. M. Saturday with Rev. Forrest Gatchel officiating. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery where the O.R.S. will have charge of the graveside service.

Dr. Ruprecht Completes Thirty Years With Experiment Station

Florida has made gigantic strides during the past 30 years in the improvement and scope of its agricultural experiment stations, Dr. R. W. Ruprecht, vice director of the Central Florida Experiment Station, pointed out today.

On Monday, Dr. Ruprecht will have completed 30 years of service with Florida agricultural experiment stations.

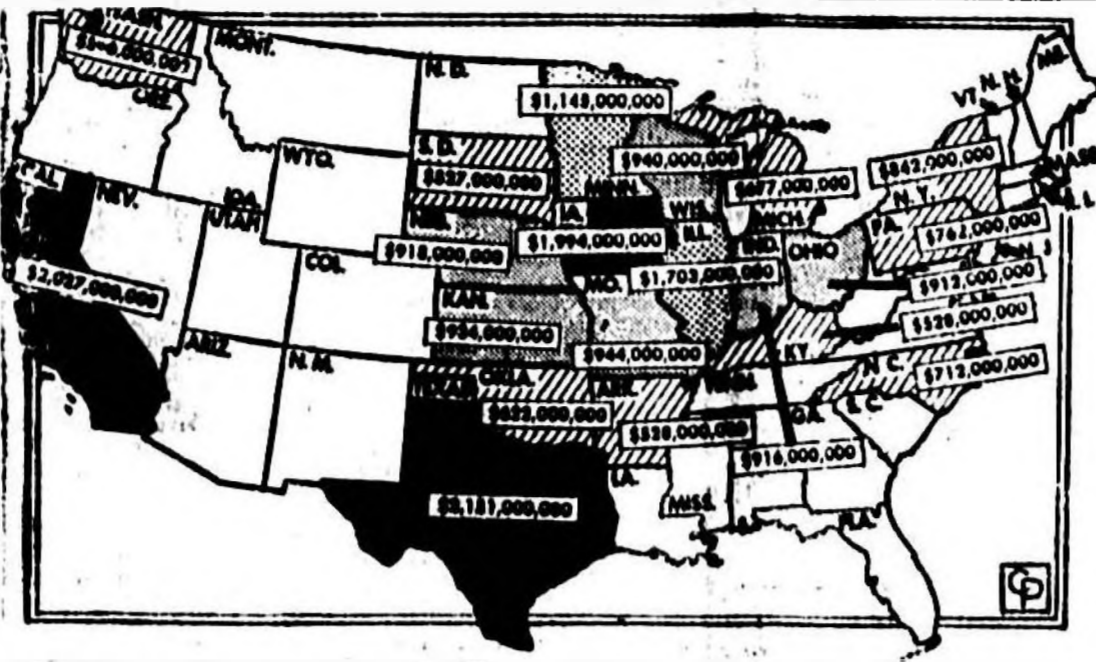

At the time of his appointment on May 1, 1920, the entire staff of the Experiment Station consisted of himself and one other scientist.

Station was with citrus, cattle and swine.

"Real beef cattle were unknown in the state then," he declared. "You had to have a good, sharp knife and a good set of molars to consume the native beef which was on the market. Fresh vegetables, except for okra, collard greens and black eyed peas were virtually unknown during the summer months."

"Faded roads were few and far between," he recalled. "Driving 40 miles in two hours was considered making good time, and if you returned from a trip of any distance without a broken spring, you were considered lucky."

Texas Takes First Place As Farm Income State

JUMPING from third in 1948 to first in 1949, Texas now leads in farm income, with $2,181,000,000, according to the Bureau of Agriculture. The farm income of other states topping $600,000,000 is indicated on map.

Tito Requests Harmony From Italy, Greece

Marshal's Speech Is New Note In Sabre Rattling World

BEograd, Yugoslavia, Apr. 27 (AP) — Premier Marshal Tito announced today Yugoslavia is ready to resume diplomatic relations with Greece and will nominate a diplomatic envoy within a few days.

At the same time, the Council passed a resolution condemning anti-Semitism and calling upon the group to stop its two-day annual convention here today.

NEW YORK, Apr. 27 (AP) — Thousands of jeering students, demanding "more pay for our teachers," marched on City Hall today but were repulsed by police.

Mounted patrolmen spurred their horses into the front ranks of the angry demonstrators, blocking their attempt for a third consecutive day to storm the office of Mayor William O'Dwyer.

The yelling, shouting youngsters converged on City Hall plaza from scores of schools through the city.

Five students were taken into custody. One was charged with juvenile delinquency after he struck a policeman and another with disorderly conduct after he threw ash barrels into a busy street.

Although Yugoslavia has quarreled bitterly with Greece in the postwar years, Tito declared the "newest developments" in Greece promised "from now on there will be possibilities to substantially improve the relations between our two countries."

Tito evidently referred to the new middle-road Greek government which has shown signs it would like to be and have a good neighbor.

Yugoslavia, before she broke with the communists, was accused of siding the Communist insurgents in Greece. Yugoslavia's quarrel with Italy is over the Adriatic territory of Trieste, which belonged to Italy before World War II.

Yugoslavia considers that it is entitled to a share of Trieste.

Council Of Christian Churches Reverses Its Civil Rights Stand

ALTOONA, Pa., Apr. 27 (AP) — The American Council of Christian Churches today passed a resolution calling upon President Truman to abandon his Civil Rights program.

The resolution declared: "The continued use of federal police power in this field has stimulated racial tensions and sectional divisions, thus supporting claims of race tensions and discrimination in the U. S. A."

"The American Council of Christian Churches believes that in reality the problem is basically spiritual and one of human relations for which the religious, educational and moral forces upon which freedom ultimately rests are responsible."

At the same time, the Council passed a resolution condemning anti-Semitism and calling upon the group to stop its two-day annual convention here today.

NEW YORK, Apr. 27 (AP) — Gordon Bradley, chairman of the Jaycee campaign committee to elect Bradley O'Hann as Florida Jaycee President, called upon all members at a luncheon today to get out and work to have Bradley elected.

Mr. Bradley said he is sending campaign literature to all the clubs in the state. "This literature," he declared, "brutely outlines Bradley's life."

"Vote 'em for O'Hann," said Mr. Bradley, "will be the campaign slogan." Florida Jaycees will meet in Jacksonville on May 15 to pick state officers.

He closed his speech by again reminding all the members present that they will have to actively support their candidate 100 per cent if they want him to win.

Red Party May Be Outlawed By Aussie Leaders

CANBERRA, Australia, Apr. 27 (AP) — Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies introduced a bill in the House of Representatives today to outlaw the Communist Party in Australia.

The sweeping measure under the Party dissolved, provides punishment for Communists who refuse to cease party activities and ban Reds from holding jobs in the government or in private firms vital to the nation's security.

Labour Party leaders, swept power in the December election, will meet May 1 to decide whether to support or oppose the bill submitted by the Liberal-Country Party coalition government.

Meanwhile, from National headquarters in Formosa came word that the invasion of Chushan Island by Chinese Communists was expected momentarily.

Nine miles off the China coast, is the key Nationalist blockade base for Shanghai. Reports from China say that the Communist Red army is massed on the island and coastal islands ready for the invasion.

Chung King-Kuo, recently said "Chushan is the gateway to Formosa. If Chushan is lost, it will mean the end of our free and liberal society."

The Chinese Communist radio, through the American broadcaster, said that the Communist Red army is massed on the island and coastal islands ready for the invasion.

While in Bangkok, Thailand, King Phumiphon, recently said "Chushan is the gateway to Formosa. If Chushan is lost, it will mean the end of our free and liberal society."

Residents who are participating in the clean-up and paint-up program sponsored by the Jaycees were today advised by Gordon Bradley, chairman of the campaign, to place trash in the usual places and alley ways, and to telephone the City Hall for men to come and pick it up.

More than 100 boys and about 12 girls listened with rapt attention this morning to J. B. Fitzgerald, agent from the Miami office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as he outlined the requirements of becoming a special agent of the FBI at a salary of $5,000 a year.

Mr. Fitzgerald was one of 30 representatives of various professions who between 10:00 o'clock and noon, spoke in the various classrooms of Seminole High School to pupils who had chosen to be informed regarding various types of work.

The students were enthusiastic over the talk, judging from their excited conversation afterwards.

Accompanying Mr. Fitzgerald here from Orlando, where he had arrived by plane from Miami, was H. W. Swinney, resident agent of the FBI with headquarters in Orlando.

Pointing out the time during the 30s when gangs of hoodlums terrorized the entire country and when there were more than 500 bank robberies a year, Mr. Fitzgerald told how the federal government had become aroused to the necessity of dealing with the Dillinger, Gage and other gangsters.

Former Party Chief Clears Lattimore; Hollywood Investigation Is Off

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27 (AP) — Earl Browder added new confusion today to the conflicting controversy of testimony in the Senate Communist investigation.

Browder contradicted previous testimony by Louis F. Budenz that Owen Lattimore belonged to a "Communist cell," and that Communist leaders agreed at a meeting in October, 1937, that Lattimore was to direct an organization of writers in putting across the idea that Chinese Communists were merely a bunch of agrarian reformers.

It was one former Communist leader's word against another's. Browder once was the head of the Communist Party in the United States but was kicked out in 1946 on the ground that he showed capitalist leanings.

Budenz, former editor of the Communist Daily Worker in New York, renounced Communism a few years ago and rejoined the Catholic Church.

Lattimore is a professor at Johns Hopkins University, rated in expert on Far Eastern affairs. He occasionally has advised the State Department on matters concerning the Orient.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) has called him a top Kremlin agent and described him as the chief architect of U. S. policy in the Far East. Lattimore has been in the East since 1945.

Florida Fashions is mailing their latest and most beautiful catalog to more than 1,000 customers, according to a report received today from Frank Shames, president of that company.

Mr. Shames, who is now in New York, reported that the mailing of the booklets began on Apr. 21 and will continue at the rate of 10,000 a day until all catalogs are sent out.

"We are especially proud of this catalog," Mr. Shames said, "because we know that we are offering to our customers sensational fashion dress values and styling that is completely unique."

The new booklet also introduces to Florida Fashions customers completely new lines of sports and beach wear. These include very colorful and attractively styled blouses, slacks, play suits, shorts, polo-shirts, and three piece beach sets.

The 30 page catalog presents 100 different styles. The preparation of the book took over three months, Mr. Shames disclosed.

"One of New York's finest commercial artists, with some of the best photographers and artists in the world, produced this book. Many of New York's most beautiful models posed for the pictures," he said.

"Behind the studio, which has a staff of over 100, the catalog also represents the work of copywriters, layout men, engravers and one of the top color-ink printers in the East. The styles presented were selected from the finest available in New York and the cream of those designed in our own Miami Studio," Mr. Shames added.

Renamed to the committee as the diocesan convention closed were the Rev. Martin Bram, rector of Holy Trinity Church, West Palm Beach, who has served as committee president.
