When I watch the stone mason at his trade... then I'm sure I can shape a stone. If... I had the right tools! If... I could apply just the right driving force!

But my stone always splinters, shatters. It should be easier to shape the future. Tomorrow seems so formless, so pliable.

Yet there are so many tools. Which to use? So many kinds of force, of power. Which will shape, not destroy, my hopes?

I am realizing fast that the vital tools must be spiritual. My Church is training me to understand, to use them.

And centuries of Christian heritage convince me that the driving force ought to be spiritual. A Power that flows from God... is grasped by faith... and in the reverent hands of dedicated men will shape—rather than shatter—tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. These are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

On the local scene — A man carrying a watering bucket and diligently pouring the fluid on grass growing between cracks of the sidewalk.

The Herald got a pat on the back Friday when City Manager Pete Knowles called to tell us the city had just sold the 291st dog license. This was the grand total of the entire calendar year in 1963. "Last year at this time we had only sold 187 licenses," said Pete. He gives recent Herald stories and pictures the credit for the increase. Thanks, Pete. It's nice to get a rose now and then.

For a long while, plans had been in the works to hold a program on citrus grove irrigation. The dry season was upon the area. The meeting was called for last Thursday night. It was held. Mother Nature apparently didn't like people messing with her ball-wick. She dumped tons of water on the area scant hours before the meeting started. And has given almost daily encores since.

They sweated for hours the other morning on a brand new car parked at Park and First. The owner couldn't find the keys to the vehicle. And the doors were locked. After a multitude of methods were tried, the car was unlocked and a mighty harrassed driver got behind the wheel. His thoughts are discreetly censored here.

There's at least one good Samaritan on West First Street. Seems many employ-ees including those at The Herk-park their cars on Myrtle Avenue near the ACL tracks. When it rains, the man leaves his work and closes all the car windows in the parking area. From each of us: Thanks.

C. D. Perry who lives out Lake Harney way has a rather unusual sign posted in his yard. It reads "Perry-dise."

The Herald's general manager, Frank Volitoline, and his family were all packed, raring to go on their annual vacation. They were to leave Saturday for the North. Frank walked into Publisher Walter A. Gielow's office Friday afternoon and, in a not-too-happy voice was heard to say: "I'll see you Monday. Our daughter's got the mumps."

Feel like calling Japan? You can, more easily now. The first telephone cable between the United States and Japan has been placed in operation. It's the longest ever laid—stretches 5,300 miles. The new cable was designed by Bell Telephone Laboratories.

Memo to underage youths: Police are on the lookout for those who use phony identifications to obtain alcoholic beverages. Deputies arrested three the other night and they're now free on $100 bond pending legal action.

Sanford, via City Manager Pete Knowles, got a pictorial plug in the monthly publication of the "Florida Municipal Record." Pete was elected vice president of the Florida City Manager's Association at the Clearwater convention. The June issue shows him along with other officers during a break in convention bust.

Keep next Saturday open if you like having fun — safe fun. The Lions Club is all set for its annual Fun Fair on the lakefront. It'll offer a full day and part of the evening of fun for all and will be climaxed by spectacular fireworks that night.

Discussing the ringing of the "freedom bells" for the Fourth of July, Mayor A. L. Wilson suggested trying out the city's new sirens. "But be sure to give it plenty of publicity, lest people think World War III has started," he urged the press.

North Orlando Controversy Reaches Court

By Julian Grinstead
Mrs. Mona Grinstead, a member of North Orlando's Town Council, has sworn out a warrant charging Mrs. Betty Rhodes, wife of Councilman Arthur Rhodes, also of North Orlando, with violating Florida Statute 838.11, a law which prohibits "Publications which tend to expose persons to hatred, contempt, or ridicule."
Mrs. Grinstead's warrant, The Herald has learned, is directed to the publishing and distribution of the "Informant," a controversial publication distributed by mail, allegedly by Mrs. Rhodes, in the North Orlando area.
The warrant was issued by Seminole County Judge Vernon Mize and served on Mrs. Rhodes by Chief Deputy James Singletary. Since Judge Mize was the official who issued the warrant, he is now required by law to conduct a public hearing to determine if there is sufficient evidence to hold Mrs. Rhodes for trial.
Judge Mize said that such an offense is a misdemeanor. He has not yet set a date for the hearing. He declared that he had not exercised any particular bias in this case since he was in hopes that the parties involved might settle the matter between them and that the warrant could be withdrawn.
The Herald asked Mrs. Grinstead if there was any possibility that she would drop the charges.
After conferring with her attorney, Carroll A. Burke, Mrs. Grinstead declared:
"I'm sorry, I cannot drop the charges."
The Herald also contacted Mrs. Rhodes and asked if she wished to make a statement.
"My attorney," she replied, "has instructed me not to discuss this matter with anyone." Her attorney is Kenneth W. McIntosh.
The statute under which the warrant was issued provides that it shall be unlawful to print, publish or distribute any material which tends to expose an individual or group to "hatred, ridicule or obloquy," unless the true name and post office address of the person or organization is clearly printed or written on the material.
It also provides that any one convicted of violating the statute may be fined up to $500, or confined to the county jail for not more than 90 days, or both.
The "Informant" was published and distributed several times in the North Orlando area and identified only by a return address listed as P. O. Box 23, Casselberry, Fla.

OFF TO CAMP were these boys and girls, members of local 4-H Clubs. They left this morning for a week of training and recreation at Camp McQuarrie. Theme of the camp is "Civil Defense." Classes on recreation, wildlife, swimming and foods will be included during the weeklong stay. Shown above are Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration agent, Susan Wirlick, Mary Ann Burton, Beth Bethen, Bonnie Gandy, Beth Taylor, Charlene Baker, Richard O'Dell and Bill Heim. (Herald Photo)

Jacksonville Banker's Son Found Slain

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The son of a prominent bank vice president was apparently murdered here last night and his body dumped on remote Seminole Beach, police said today.
Detective Chief J. C. Patrick said the body of Glenn L. Monroe was found early today by three women strolling along the beach. Police said Monroe had been shot twice, once in the back and once in the head. Seminole Beach is about 22 miles south of Jacksonville. Patrick said Monroe's wallet and car were missing.
His body was found dressed only in a sports shirt and a pair of black Bermuda walking shorts. He wore a 1963 University of Florida fraternity ring with his initials on it.
Patrick said the 23-year-old man was last seen by three friends at a downtown Jacksonville hotel at about 10:30 last night.
The detective added it appeared Monroe was shot elsewhere and brought to the beach.
Monroe was a recent graduate of the University of Florida and Patrick said the man had planned to leave next week for a teaching post in New Jersey.

Capt. Ware Retires At NAS Ceremonies

Capt. Robert M. Ware, commanding officer of Sanford Naval Air Station, retired this afternoon in special ceremonies at the naval base.
He is succeeded by Capt. Chandler W. Swanson who arrived at the station earlier this month.
Capt. Ware is completing 27 years of Navy duty. He is a 1937 graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis.
He was honored at a Capri Restaurant luncheon this noon and sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. An estimated 100 persons from throughout the county in addition to top-ranking Navy officials took part.
Capt. Ware plans to move to the Pensacola area to make his home.
He is succeeded by Capt. Chandler W. Swanson who arrived at the station earlier this month.
Capt. Ware is completing 27 years of Navy duty. He is a 1937 graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis.
He was honored at a Capri Restaurant luncheon this noon and sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. An estimated 100 persons from throughout the county in addition to top-ranking Navy officials took part.
Capt. Ware plans to move to the Pensacola area to make his home.

CAPT. SWANSON

3 Inches Of Rain Dumped On Sanford

A thunderstorm dumped about three inches of water on the Sanford area Sunday afternoon, caused a rash of accidents and upset the boat of two men sailing in Lake Monroe near the bandshell.
The heavy onslaught of rain struck the area in midafternoon and started traffic which Sheriff J. L. Hobbs described as "unusually heavy."
Radio communications were knocked out at the sheriff's department with the equipment unable to receive but not send. This condition existed for about four hours and communications were restored at about 9 p. m.
The power failure was blamed on lightning hitting the antenna.
Two Orlando brothers, Gene Joaly, 24, and Don Joaly, 22, were spilled in the lake during the brunt of the storm when their sailboat capsized near the bandshell. Neither were hurt.
Police said a rash of minor accidents were reported although no one suffered major injuries.
The rainfall lasted slightly more than an hour and was accompanied by severe winds, thunderclaps and lightning.

Ancient Fort Found At Cape

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Two foreign powers may have built fortifications in America's space center, but no one here is worried about it.
The Florida Anthropological Society says it has found what may be the remains of an ill-fated French fort and the foundation of an old Spanish sentinel station. Both are centuries old.
At the site of the French fort, researchers have found the remains of a ship under construction, old cannon wheels, several gold pieces, many Indian burial mounds and a well-preserved skeleton.
The fort apparently was built about 1565, the year Ponce de Leon founded St. Augustine.
At the Spanish sentinel station, the anthropologists have found a camp believed left by sailors of an armada that sailed from Cuba in 1715 and was swept onto the cape.

U. S. Warned By Red China

TOYKO (UPI) — Communist China warned today it will not simply "fold its arms" if the United States invades Communist North Viet Nam.
Peking's Ta Kung Pao (Great Fairness Newspaper) gave the warning in an editorial broadcast from Peking by the New China News Agency and monitored in Tokyo.
It said, "adjacent as it is to Indochina, and a signatory of the Geneva agreements, China will in no case fold its arms to see the Geneva agreements consigned to the dust bin, and allow the flames of war to spread to its side."
"The U. S. administration would be woefully mistaken if it deludes itself into thinking that it could do whatever it pleased in Indochina."
"No agonizing reappraisal could be of any help then if it does not wake up to the reality now."

Search Renewed In Mississippi

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (UPI) — U. S. sailors resumed the search today for three missing civil rights workers and police set up a roadblock to question local residents for some clue to their fate.
The three vanished a week ago and one state game warden participating in the massive hunt said "about 60 per cent of the people" in this rural area believe the three youths met foul play.
"About 40 per cent don't know what to believe," the warden said.

Swim Peaceful At St. Augustine

ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI) — A mixed group of about 40 civil rights demonstrators swam at this historic city's public beach today under tight guard by police who waded into the water with them.
The integrationists, four white men and the rest Negroes, played in the pounding surf for about 20 minutes without incident while police kept back about 10 young white men who attempted to keep the demonstrators out of the ocean.
It marked the first time that violence has not broken out when integrationists have attempted to use the beach which was formerly reserved for white swimmers.
Civil rights leaders said they might announce today the formation of a tracial committee to end the racial strife which has split this east coast city with violence and bloodshed.

Scranton Goes To Carolina

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (UPI) — Gov. William Scranton arrived here today to begin his second foray into southern Goldwater country in a bid to block off the Arizona senator's drive toward the GOP presidential nomination.
The Pennsylvania governor landed in a chartered plane at 8:30 a.m. EST and was met by a cheering crowd of about 300 persons.
He went into a closed meeting with a group of North Carolina delegates to the GOP National Convention.

Lodge May Ask Ike's Help For Scranton

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Henry Cabot Lodge hinted strongly today that he will try to enlist former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's help on behalf of Gov. William Scranton's GOP presidential bid.
Lodge's resignation as ambassador to Saigon became effective when he completed a 40-minute report late this morning to President Johnson at the White House.
Then as a private citizen, Lodge held a highly unusual news conference in which he talked Republican politics at some length in the cabinet room of a Democratic president.
Upon his return from Saigon this morning, Lodge rapped out at Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., by urging that Republicans nominate candidates "who are not impulsive."
Lodge told White House newsmen that he resigned and left Saigon earlier than he originally had intended for one primary purpose — to help win the GOP nomination for Scranton.
As he escorted Lodge to the news conference, President Johnson said: "We hate to see you leave but we understand your reasons and we're thankful for the good job you have done."

Lodge Reports To President

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson summoned outgoing Ambassador to Viet Nam Henry Cabot Lodge to a final report on the war in Viet Nam.
In advance of the meeting, Lodge told newsmen he felt the situation was improving in Viet Nam but warned that "no victory has been achieved yet." Nor did he foresee one soon, Lodge said.
A solution to the problems in Viet Nam is extremely complicated, he said. "You can't do it in time to take the 5:15 train home."
But Lodge, who is resigning to help Gov. William Scranton's campaign for the GOP presidential nomination, said we've had some favorable developments in the past few days." He said for the first time "people are not feeding the Viet Cong Communists" in South Viet Nam. He did not specify how widespread the development was but said it was significant in a situation which "essentially is a contest to see who can win the people over."

Miss Florida Begins Reign

SARASOTA (UPI) — Priscilla Joan Schnaar of Hollywood began her work-a-day reign as Miss Florida Monday under the guidance of the development commission and the watchful eye of Miss Florida Pageant official cameras.
The 17-year-old beauty won the pageant Saturday night, defeating 31 other contestants. Miss Schnaar, who weighs 115 pounds, stands five-foot-seven and at 34-22½-35, began a week of publicity work and modeling that is aimed at making her a winner at this year's Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N. J.

Driver Charged

A motorist identified as Willie Bubose of 810 E. Seventh St. was charged after his car allegedly struck another vehicle parked at 801 Elm Ave. and owned by Violet Clark of that address.
City police say Bubose was arrested at 6:38 p. m. Sunday and charged with failure to report and accident and driving while intoxicated.

DeBary Bank Sets Opening Wednesday

By Mrs. Adam Miller
Doors of the new First National Bank of DeBary will open for business Wednesday. Located on Highway 17-92 in the heart of the community, building for the new facility is of modern construction, contains two vault areas and three private rooms for safety deposit boxes, has a loan department with entrance on the main floor and an upper conference room with a seating capacity of approximately 16 persons which will be available for use by community organizations.

Officers of the bank are Albert J. Gowan, chairman of the board; Newell E. Hawkins, president; Samuel E. Feron, vice president and Mitchell Monroe Morris, formerly associated with the Commercial Bank in Panama City, who was elected vice president and cashier at a meeting of the directors last Thursday.

Youth Trying To Make Good 2-Cent Boast

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., (UPI)—A 18-year-old Racine, Wis., youth said that for two cents he would go to California. He is on his way today with that amount in his pocket.

Albuquerque police arrested the youth, Larry B. Whitton, Wednesday for vagrancy as a "suspicious person."

He told police Judge Harry Robins he was on his way to California when he was picked up.

"Can you make it on two cents?" Robins asked Whitton. "That's all you had on you when the policeman arrested you."

"You bet I can," Whitton said.

Robins released the youth and Whitton headed west with high hopes and two pennies.

Longwood Dog Licenses Due

By Donna Estes
Deadline for the new 1964-65 dog licenses in the City of Longwood is July 1.

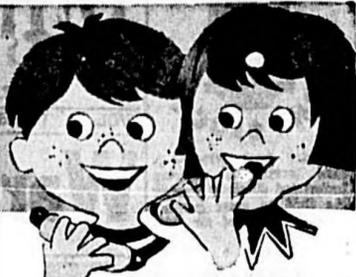

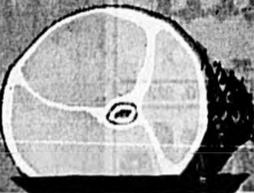

Licenses may be purchased at City Hall from Mrs. Onnie Shomate, clerk, during the regular office hours for a fee of $1 for males and spayed females and $2 for unspayed females.

Those applying for license must be able to show proof of inoculation since Jan. 1 of this year. Failure to have license may result in fines not exceeding $300 or four months imprisonment, or both.

Five Nations Appeal For Laos Cease-Fire

LONDON (UPI) — The United States, Britain, Canada, Thailand and South Viet Nam appealed urgently today for a cease-fire in Laos.

Appeal Made To Get Students Summer Jobs

An appeal for help had been received at The Herald from YES, Youth Employment Service, which seeks to find summer jobs for high school and college students of the county.

In a telephone conversation with The Herald, Miss Paulette Normand said that YES has on file 241 applications of both boys and girls from Lyman, Seminole High, Crooms High and various colleges, all seeking any kind of full or part time employment, many of them needing to earn money for college and some seeking to earn a living.

"We have sent out circulars to business houses of the county, asking for jobs for these applicants, but the response has been very poor," said Miss Normand.

"We had hoped to be able to find more employment, but since not enough is forthcoming from businesses, perhaps private citizens, or individuals have work that needs to be done. We would appreciate anyone who has any kind of work available getting in touch with us as soon as possible. The telephone number here is 322-8966," she said.

Legal Notice

Two copies of each claim or demand shall be in writing, and shall state the place of residence and post office address of the claimant, and shall be sworn to by the claimant, his agent, or attorney and accompanied by a filing fee of one dollar and such claim or demand not so filed shall be void.

all positions they seized in the past five months in that South-east Asian nation.

A five-nation communique issued in London and Vietnamese also demanded that Communist North Vietnamese forces get out of Laos. It said there was "undisputable evidence" the North Vietnamese Communists were involved along with the Laotian Pathet Lao forces in the Red assaults in Laos.

The communique also said "there is firm evidence of the systematic use of Lao territory by the North Vietnamese for the infiltration of men and arms in South Viet Nam, and demanded a halt to such action."

It said the North Vietnamese support for the Pathet Lao Communists has taken the form of "fighting cadres as well as extensive logistics support."

Good Sportsmanship

On the night of June 20, four Sanford boys were participating on the Seminole Swim Association's relay team in a meet at Leesburg's Venetian Garden Pool. Some 30 swim groups from all parts of Florida were entered in the various events.

In this particular relay event, the four local youngsters were swimming in lane No. 1. There was no doubt about the keen competition. But during the race one of the Sanford boys failed to touch the end of the pool as he reversed his directions for the next lap. He swam to the other end of the pool where the next member of the relay team resumed the race.

The fault was not detected by the umpire at the end of the pool where the infraction occurred.

When the race was terminated the results of the event announced, the local relay team was named fourth place winner. The team members received their ribbons immediately.

Upon being presented the awards, the four-man team approached the association's coach, Miss Emma Spencer. They told her of the fault and that they felt the team should be disqualified. Miss Spencer wisely advised the boys that whether or not they reported the infraction would be a decision they themselves would have to make.

At the termination of the meet, the four Seminole boys — voluntarily, and of their own accord, approached the judges and declared to them that they felt the team should be disqualified.

The referee responsible for officiating at this particular end of the pool stated that he did not detect the fault and that since it was an error on his part he could not declare the fault and therefore could not disqualify the team.

At this point, the official went to the public address announcer and asked to be able to make a statement over the PA systems.

He declared that he was pleased to be able to congratulate the four members of the boys relay team of the Seminole Swim Association for their honesty and integrity in declaring their fault voluntarily. He made this announcement publicly, and said he felt proud to be associated in an event where such as this had taken place. He congratulated the members of the Sanford team and the spectators gave the local boys a standing ovation.

Dr. C. F. Brooke Smith, a Sanford physician, who informed The Herald of this incident, said that this honorable, moral and courageous act left a greater impression upon him, his wife and their children — who are members of the Seminole Swim Association — than any words could convey.

The Herald joins the Smith family in expressing all of Seminole County's pride in the fact that there are young people such as these four boys in our community.

Finally, let it not be forgotten that not only the four lads should be congratulated, but also their parents. Without the proper type of training and guidance it is likely that this story never would have been told.

Thought For Today

For the love of money is the root of all evils; it is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced their hearts with many pangs.—1 Timothy 6:10.

Money is not required to buy one's necessity of the soul.—Henry David Thoreau.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

U.S. Recognizes Reality

UPI Foreign News Analyst Dr. Francis Duvalier took his oath of office as lifetime president of Haiti this week to the beat of wooden bongos, and if he cast a sardonic eye in the direction of Washington there was reason for it.

Since May of 1961, stopping only short of armed intervention, the United States has missed few opportunities to express its displeasure with Duvalier's anti-democratic regime.

By its silence, the United States this week gave tacit recognition to reality.

In the rain-soaked streets of Port Au Prince, Haiti's capital, dancers performed to the music of flutes and the jungle drums in officially proclaimed "popular rejoicing."

Duvalier's 10,000-man blue-uniformed militia, marching in close-order drill, provided positive proof of who was the man in charge.

It was not that the United States loved Duvalier more or that his rule was any less oppressive.

It was the proven fact that Duvalier had survived not only U.S. pressures, but two outside invasion attempts and terrorism at home as well. And no successor was in sight.

Duvalier, a 57-year-old doctor-turned-dictator, came to office in 1957 in an election which his opponents even then declared was fraudulent.

In 1961, with two years still to go, he entered his name upon a legislative election list and announced that the results had elected him to office for six more years. On Sunday, June 14 of this year, Haiti's voters were called upon once more to cast ballots which only one in 10 could read.

It was to ratify a new constitution which named Duvalier president for life.

Duvalier rules over a French speaking nation of around four million persons. It once was so rich that it supplied half the income of French King Louis XIV but now is so poor that its average annual consumption per person is figured at around $8.

At the root of Duvalier's power is his 10,000-man militia which Haitians call "ton ton macoute," or, translated from the Creole, "bogy-men."

The name is not without meaning for the "bogy-men" have the power to maim, torture or kill almost without question. They also have the power to collect "voluntary" contributions from peasants and terrified businessmen.

Over the ignorant peasant, Duvalier wields a special power for his own reported knowledge of the magic of voodoo.

Into Haiti from 1946 to mid-1962, the United States poured around $100 million in outright grants and loans. It was a bottomless well. In 1962 all there was to show for it was a small dam, some road repair and some progress in eliminating the tropical yaws.

For the United States the problem was a familiar one. It could continue its pressures against Duvalier, including the continued elimination of U.S. aid. But at the same time it also would contribute to the misery of the Haitian people.

This is the reality which the United States has accepted.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — In the final struggle for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, some politicians are counting possible electoral votes as carefully as they tot up delegate votes.

With Sen. Barry Goldwater so strongly fixed that he can now lose the nomination only by stumbling badly or by suffering an improbable raid on his delegates by Pennsylvania's William W. Scranton, a big question is:

How does Goldwater propose to put together an electoral victory over President Lyndon Johnson in November? It will require 270 electoral votes to win the presidency.

Barbs

By Hal Cochran
An office picnic is where the elderly men get hot dogs in the three-legged race.

When a youngster gets caught in a lie he has a hard time getting out — to play.

If the average child doesn't get the bathroom towel dirty he hasn't washed his face and hands.

We admire people who are forgiving instead of always getting.

A teen-age rock-and-roller had to leave a dance because of the pain when she twisted her back. She just couldn't shake it off.

You'll see a lot of red this summer on folks foolish enough to lie out in the sun too long.

Be ready with a medicine and bandage. Mom, if you have a real young son. He's sure to get stone bruises or stub a toe when he goes bare-foot.

What a chance you take when you tear down a street in your car while the city is tearing it up.

When you go away on a vacation for a little change that's what you wind up with when you get back home.

It isn't as hard for most people to get up on Saturday and Sunday morning because they don't have to.

In the days before Kennedy's assassination, Goldwater backers used to circulate a tally sheet suggesting that Barry could roll up 311, or 41 more than needed. They no longer talk in such terms.

Their old total included, of course, all 128 electoral votes for the 11-state Old South. But today it is the Old Lyndon South, and only the most optimistic Goldwater men seriously talk of winning more than a handful of southern states.

Even if Goldwater managed to win all but Johnson's Texas (25 votes), Georgia (13), which never has gone Republican, and North Carolina (13), he would pull only 78 from that territory.

The senator is admittedly strong in the 8-state mountain area but the total electoral votes there is a meager 33. And Johnson is also strong in this region and might well break off at least half that total. In 1960 Kennedy picked up New Mexico and Nevada.

The pre-assassination Goldwater tally sheet showed the senator winning only Ohio (26) and Illinois (26) of the northern Big Six industrial states. Later his supporters also laid claim to California's 40 votes, New York (43), Pennsylvania (29), Michigan (21) were assumed as likely to be lost.

With Johnson in the White House, most political observers right now would underscore the earlier Goldwater estimate of his slim chances in the industrial Northeast—including potent New Jersey and Massachusetts with 31 votes between them.

Johnson's top political aides say, in fact, that the President's only real big state worries are Illinois and Ohio if Goldwater is the GOP nominee. Democratic concern in these states seems related more to party organizational troubles than to high estimates of Goldwater's strength. Goldwater people speak hopefully of California. But independent appraisers now give it to Johnson by landslide proportions. The White House thinks California and New York are in the best shape of all the big ones for next November.

When Scranton aides had a socializing session with Goldwater spokesmen late one night at the Cleveland Governors Conference, the two groups ran through an electoral vote count. Scranton men were curious as to how the senator planned to build a fall victory. Later, a Scranton aide said:

"Frankly, in their count, they stopped at Indiana on their way east."

This account seems slightly fuzzy, since Goldwater's managers always have claimed Ohio, which went for Richard Nixon in 1960 by 278,000.

Goldwater, of course, does look hopefully toward such other midwestern states as Wisconsin, Iowa, the Dakotas, Kansas, and Minnesota, and the five border states of Oklahoma, Kentucky, West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware.

Yet, again, few impartial judges believe the senator has any hope of so clean a sweep of these states as would be necessary to offset Johnson's apparent strength in many sectors.

Goldwater's strategists have their hands full this month in persuading Republican delegates to San Francisco that the President's strength can be overcome in the states with decisive electoral votes.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE T-407: Ariene J., aged 22, is a college senior. "Dr. Crane," she began, "I am majoring in Home Economics, so I am doubly interested in cooking."

"Last week you mentioned that the taste of food is not just due to the taste buds on the tongue."

"You said the nose is even more important. So could you outline in more detail just what is meant by the flavor of foods?"

"At first glance, the average person thinks that flavor and taste of foods are limited to the tongue."

"But the taste buds contribute only a minor part to what we popularly call 'taste.'"

"For example, smell, touch, temperature and pain, as well as vision and sometimes hearing also enter into flavor of foods."

"For example, last week I showed you that if your nostrils are completely plugged you can't tell the difference between sliced onion and raw apple."

"Nor can you distinguish between cinnamon and flour. For the four taste qualities of the tongue give us only salt, sweet, sour and bitter. Yet the flavor of food is far more complex than being a salty taste, etc."

"Touch" also enters in for you can tell the difference between skimmed milk vs. half-and-half, just by the tactile sense, for the tip of the tongue is a superb organ of touch."

Temperature is another component of taste, for warm ice cream certainly loses much of its taste, doesn't it? And cold coffee does likewise.

Many foods thus lack zest unless they are piping hot, while others must be biting cold.

Even pain is involved, for many people relish hot sauce on their steak or demand horse radish, red peppers, etc. Unless their food thus burns their mouth to the point of pain, it doesn't taste right.

And vision likewise enters into our food tastes, for if you blindfold yourself, you will find that food loses some of its apparent flavor.

Smokers thus report far less pleasure if they are blindfolded.

Even our ears indirectly contribute to our enjoyment of some foods, for the tinkle of ice in a glass increases our enjoyment of cold beverages, such as iced tea and the soft drinks.

We popularly think the tongue is the sole criterion of the flavor of food, but it plays only a minor role.

For fried chicken would affect only the taste buds that register salt, yet fried chicken is much more than a matter of salt, isn't it?

Watermelon, too, is much more than a matter of sugar. In fact, if we cut a watermelon and see that the inside is white or only pink, we already know we shall not relish its so-called "taste."

And the first bite of cantaloupe, if hard or "green," also causes us to say it doesn't taste good, yet that is largely the feel or tactile sense that prejudices our enjoyment.

When you teen-agers go to college, therefore, take some psychology courses just to widen your knowledge of human nature, for it makes life far more interesting.

Dick West's

The Lighter Side

United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — There is nothing to being a bureaucrat, actually. Anyone can do it. Or so says Rep. Otis G. Pike, a New York Democrat and philosopher.

After spending nearly two terms in Congress, Pike has come to the conclusion that "the decision-making process is no different in Washington than it is in Podunk."

It just seems different because the bureaucrats speak a different language, he recently explained to his constituents.

"Takes a simple little old non-controversial issue like deciding whom to marry," Pike said. If such a decision were made on the federal level, the results would be something like this:

A man would ask himself, "Is she the one for me?" In the government, on the other hand, the question would be, "Is it a part of the administration's program?"

A woman considering matrimony would say to herself, "Tom is nice, but then so are Dick and Harry." The government would say, "We need a lot more research and development on this item before we can go into procurement."

As the courtship grows warmer, the man says, "She is so lovely and glamorous that I don't care whether she can cook."

In the same situation, the government would say, "This product is so superior that we'd like to negotiate a contract rather than put it out to competitive bidding."

But then the prospective bridegroom begins to have some second thoughts. He asks himself, "Can I afford her."

The governmental equivalent would be, "Will the bureau of the budget approve?"

The girl also begins to have doubts. She asks herself, "What will my family say?" Translated into government jargon, that question would be, "What effect will this have in November?"

"Statistics shows that one out of every five marriages end in divorce," Pike added. "Washington, too, makes the right decisions about 80 percent of the time."

I would like to commend Pike for his brilliant observations and also to point out that the similarity between Podunk and Washington likewise includes Congress.

If decisions on getting married were made by Congress, I think it might go something like this:

Girl — "I wonder how many wedding presents we will get?"

Congress — "When does the public works bill come up for a vote?"

Man — "Let's just have a small wedding."

Congress — "Let's do this in executive session."

Girl — "I hope we can go abroad on our honeymoon."

Congress — "As soon as we adjourn, I have a nice fat junket lined up."

Troubleshooter Johnson Takes Over In Saigon

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI)—Troubleshooter U. Alexis Johnson went to work today as No. 2 man in America's most crucial diplomatic post: South Viet Nam.

Johnson, the new U. S. deputy ambassador, promised on arrival Sunday that he and the new ambassador, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, will devote their "total energies" to saving South Viet Nam from Communist rule.

Johnson, 55, the top-ranking career man in the State Department, is a veteran at face-to-face dealings with the Communists.

He is a former ambassador to Czechoslovakia and he opened the unofficial ambassadorial-level talks with the Chinese Communists in 1955 that are continuing today.

His chief, Taylor, who was chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, will arrive later. Johnson came here hours before the departure of U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Thinking Out Loud

The Monday wash!

John "Chris" Patrick, former athletic trainer at Furman University has been retained to serve as a full time assistant trainer at Florida State University.

It's now official that Tiny Lund of Cross, S.C., and Paul Goldsmith of Munster, Ind., are entries in the sixth annual running of the "Firecracker 400" at Daytona International Speedway of July 4th. Both will be driving '64 Plymouths sponsored by Ron-Sun Chrysler-Plymouth of Sanford.

By the way, Speedway officials are anticipating a crowd of 45,000 to fill the stands and the infield when the Firecracker gets under way at 10 a.m. on the Fourth.

A national campaign to wipe out a major cause of boating accidents has been launched by the Outboard Boating Club of America. Called Operation Boat Capacity, the drive is designed to combat overloading of pleasure craft by posting capacity tags on boats which do not bear them. Improper loading is considered a major factor in boat accidents primarily because the boat owner or operator does not know the capacity of his craft.

Remembered in Mississippi as a standout defensive back, Florida's new assistant football coach, Billy Kinard, is the sixth-leading pass receiver in Rebel gridiron history.

John Griffin, head coach of the Orlando Bronco, has announced the signing of a star-studded roster of players for the 1964 Southern Football League campaign which opens Aug. 1, at the Tangerine Bowl, when Orlando tangles with Tuscaloosa. Apparently the Bronco will operate as a non-profit organization this year since it has been announced that all profits will go to Florida Sanitarium and Hospital.

Pat Lary, non-professional publicist—but nevertheless a good one—for the Senior Men's Golf Association at Mid-Florida Country Club, calls in to say that the group has suspended operations until Oct. 1st. "The weather is too hot for 18 holes for some of us," explains Pat. "Then, too, we've got a bunch on vacations—short ones and long ones, vacations, that is," he continues. "We'll get under way again about Oct. 1."

Local youngsters interested in learning some of the finer points of basketball might like to know that the annual cage school conducted at Stetson University by Hatter coach Glen Wilks will be held July 20-25 at DeLand. Boys between the ages of 12 through 19 will be accepted. The program consists of individual instruction, offensive and defensive, team and league play. You can get more information by writing to Wilks at Stetson.

The sport of boating cost Americans nearly $2.8 billion during 1963.

Elks-Shrine, Navy-Hunt Open City Playoffs Tonight

Junior League Series Set For City Stadium

The City's Little League championship will be decided this week when the Navy, champions of the City Recreation Department's Little American League tangle in a best two-out-of-three series with the Little National League's titleholders, The Hunt Lincoln-Mercury Comets.

The first contest of the series is scheduled to get under way this evening at Fort Mellon Park. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

Jim Jernigan, director of the City Recreation Department, will make appropriate league awards to Navy and Hunt, and their respective players, during pre-game festivities slated just prior to tonight's opener.

The Comets are expected to send ace fireballer Skip Senkarik to the hill to oppose the Navy's Scott Harris. Senkarik sports an unblemished record of 10 wins against no setbacks while Harris has posted a record of seven wins against a lone loss.

It very well could be the old story of the best offense clashing with the best defense.

Hunt has tallied over 100 more runs than its opposition during the current season. They scored 174 times against 72 for their opponents. The Sailors, however, averaged 13 runs per tilt, limited its opponents to an tops in both loops. Hunt has league play. Rufus will prope in both leagues. It remains to be seen what the Navy's power hitters will do against the hurling of Senkarik.

Navy's Walt Jordan and Fredie Turman each have eluded seven homers and Andy Rufus has six to his credit. Jordan and Turman are clubbing the ball at a .515 clip while Rufus hit at the amazing pace of .602. Navy has one of the best hurling corps in either of the Little Leagues.

Rufus has posted a record of five and one, Harris has his seven and one, Ray Milwood was three and one and Jordan was four and two in league play. Rufus will probably get the pitching chores assigned to him for Tuesday's game.

Hunt has both the league's top hitter and top hurler in Senkarik. He's also the top home run producer with 10. Steve Hitchcock (5-3) will probably start for the Comets Tuesday evening. Another big hitter is Bubba Park with a .519.

A third game, if necessary, is scheduled for Thursday night. The public is invited by the City Recreation Department to attend.

Giants Shutout Dodgers, 1-0, To Climb Back Into NL Lead

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD
UPI Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants are back in first place today, thanks to a sore-armed pitcher who cast his lot with the best bullpen staff in the National League.

The pitcher is left-hander Billy O'Dell, who recently shuffled off the Giants' roster after encountering arm miseries.

In his last three rescue efforts, O'Dell has registered one win and two saves, including a spectacular ninth-inning job Sunday when he retired three consecutive Los Angeles Dodger batters with the bases loaded to preserve a 1-0 victory for rookie sensation Ron Harbel and boost the Giants into first place for the first time in two weeks.

Harris To Meet Senkarik; Game At Ft. Mellon

The stage is set for a best two-out-of-three series between the first half champions of the City Recreation Department's Junior Boys League — the Elks — and the second half titleholders — the Shrine.

The series opens at 7:30 tonight when the two clubs square off against each other at Sanford's Memorial Stadium.

The Shrine will take an overall record of 17 wins and seven losses in the affair while the Elks sport a seasonal mark of 16 wins and seven losses.

The Shrine is expected to send Ron Dudley to the hill tonight and he will probably oppose Gary Maples or Chris Akers. Dudley has a mound record of five wins and one loss while Maples' record is seven victories against three losses and Akers' mark is four triumphs against three setbacks.

The Shrine will have in its line-up all stars Steve Leach, Dudley, Billy Gracey and Mike Long. Dudley is the club's top platoon, winding up the regular season's play with an even 4:00 mark. He also had the league's only home run of the season. Leach — who will probably get the mound assignment for the Shrine Tuesday evening — is seven and one on the hill and .313 at the plate.

BARBARA COOPER CLACK of the Cypress Gardens Ski Team made a clean sweep of the recent Florida State Open Water Ski Championships. In doing so, she broke two existing National records. The first record was in Women's trick competition, where she compiled over 2800 points for a new National record. The second was when she became the first woman to jump 100 feet, breaking her old National record by 4 feet. She also won the Women's slalom event.

Bankers Only Team To Whip Navy Twice

The Bankers of Sanford Atlantic emerged as the only team in the City Recreation Department Little American League to whip the champion-ship Navy nine twice during the regular season.

The Bankers posted their second win over the Sailors Saturday morning when they racked up a 13 to 11 victory.

Sanford Atlantic was down 3 to 4 in the last half of the third when they pushed over seven runs to hand the Navy its fifth loss of the year.

Mike Rudd was the winning pitcher as the Bankers turned in a fine team effort in the curtain closer. Andy Rufus, Fredie Turman and Scott Harris all hit for the distance for the championship Navy nine but their efforts for a victory over the Bankers did not prevail.

The world-famous army 'Jeep' vehicle started it all. Then came the evolutionary changes. Sensible changes. Like more ground clearance. Stronger suspension. Weather proof tops. Fun changes. Like pink and white striped upholstery. Fringed sunroof tops. Lively colors. A sports roadster. A station wagon — rugged, durable, designed for work and play.

Turn the ignition key. You've got an overhead cam engine purring for you. The only one in any American production car. Try that steering. Power. The brakes. Power again. The transmission. It's automatic. Feel that ride. Pure luxury.

And the 'Jeep' heart and spirit are still there. Pull one simple lever and you're in 'Jeep' 4-wheel drive. Then there's hardly a hill that can keep you down... hardly a mud hole that can bog you down. In fact, there's scarcely any driving situation that can get you down. You're free to go anywhere with the traction to pull you through.

Longwood Prepares For Its Biggest Fourth Celebration

 Claude Layo, chief of the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department and general chairman of the organization's fourth annual Fourth of July Fiesta, said today that this year's celebration promises to be the biggest and best ever.

Social Security Pay In County At $4 Million

Seminole County's 5,262 persons who draw Social Security checks each month enrich the economy by $317,994 a month and nearly $4 million a year.

These facts were revealed by Julius Clark, field representative of the Social Security Administration, speaking to members at the Jaycees at their noon luncheon meeting Thursday at the Civic Center.

Clark described the categories of persons who are eligible for Social Security payments including regular retirement age, the disabled, widows, dependent children, and dependent parents.

At the present time there are 19 million beneficiaries drawing $15 billion a year, Clark said.

"One person out of every 14 is now getting a monthly social security check and by the end of 1964 it will be one out of every 10," Clark said.

The state of Florida received about $2 billion a year from tourism, Clark pointed out, but noted that Social Security beneficiaries in the state receive a total of $652,800,000, or better than half a billion dollars.

"Almost all of this money, at least 99 per cent of it, goes right back into circulation, as people on Social Security generally live on a tight budget and spend it on the necessities of life," Clark pointed out.

"The maximum one person can draw is $127 a month, with a maximum of $254 for a widow and dependent children. While the benefits seem low, no taxes are paid on Social Security and no one can take it away from you. Recipients are allowed to earn up to $1,200 a year in addition into their benefits, and it doesn't matter how much other money you have in the bank or in income, as long as you don't work for it after you start drawing Social Security," Clark explained.

Layo reports that the fireworks display alone will be the most spectacular ever seen in Seminole County and will last more than an hour being set off as fast as three men can operate.

Concession stands and food and drink booths for the event, held at Reker's Field west of Longwood on Sanlando Springs Drive (SR 436), will be open to the public at 6 p. m. Thursday and Friday.

Contestants in the Miss Flame of Seminole County beauty contest will be judged in bathing suits Friday at 7 p. m. Points of competition will be based on poise, beauty and personality. Judges will be Richard Blankenbecker of Orlando, second vice president of the Florida State Firemen's Association; Jim Davis of Mt. Dora, district six vice president and Mrs. Jim Smith, past president and current vice president of the Orlando Auxiliary.

Activities on Saturday will begin at 10 a. m. with a parade forming at Longwood Elementary School. Individuals and organizations wishing to participate are asked to contact Layo as soon as possible or to report to him at the school no later than 9:30 a. m. on the day of the parade.

Routes of march will be from the school on Orange Avenue to Grant Street; from Grant Street to Church Street; from Church Street to E. Lake Avenue; from E. Lake Avenue to Sanlando Springs Drive and on Sanlando Springs Drive to the Reiter Field fairgrounds.

The parade will be led by the South Seminole Summer Recreation Band.

Largest exhibition hall in the U.S. is the New York Coliseum, opened in 1956 at Columbus Circle, New York City.

Prizes will be awarded to the best appearing fire truck, the most attractively decorated car and the most original float as well as in a number of other categories.

Finals of the Miss Flame contest, in formal evening gowns, will be held at 4:30 p. m. Winner will receive a rhinestone tiara, an engraved trophy, a bouquet of roses and a trip to Jacksonville next May to represent Seminole County in the Miss Flame of Florida contest to be held during the Florida State Firemen's Convention. First and second runner-up will receive trophies and corsages.

Other attractions will include a greased pig contest with the winner keeping the pig if he can catch it. As far as can be determined, last year's pig still is running.

A greased pole contest also is planned as well as 20 booths featuring games of skill and delicious foods including the firemen's famous fried chicken.

Donation prizes valued at more than $500 will be awarded at regular intervals throughout the day and will include a 17-inch portable television set and a bicycle. Another day-long activity will be an auction with Russell Grant, prominent Longwood businessman, as auctioneer.

Climaxing the entire three-day celebration will be the gigantic and thrilling fireworks display.

Mr. And Mrs. J. A. Bistline Observe Golden Anniversary

By Donna Estes
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bistline of Sanlando Springs Drive, Longwood, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary

In the presence of a few close friends and relatives at their home Thursday, June 25. In addition they enjoyed a card shower received from their many friends throughout the county and Longwood area.

Mr. Bistline was born in Germantown, Pa., but has lived for 53 years in Longwood where he met and married his wife. He was a member of the Seminole County School Board for 18 years and of the Longwood City Council for 20 years.

He has retired from raising squash for commercial purposes and now devotes his time to his orange grove, raising silver Wyandotte show chickens and serving as an elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Sanford.

Mrs. Bistline is a rarely in the City of Longwood, having been born and reared there. She is the only living charter member of the Longwood Civic League, is a former PTA president and is an alumna of Rollins College. Until recently her greatest hobby has been gardening.

The couple advises that a long and good marriage demands hard work, devotion to one another and patience.

They have two sons, J. A. Bistline Jr. of Scotia, N. Y., and F. W. Bistline of Longwood, and six grandchildren.

MR. AND MRS. J. A. BISTLINE of Longwood, observed their 50th wedding anniversary on June 25, with a few close friends at home.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK PIETROPINTO of Grande Vista, DeBary, celebrated their 37th wedding anniversary on Friday, June 19 with a quiet dinner at the DeBary Restaurant.

Mrs. Rutledge Pray Shows Colorful Rug Collection

By Mrs. Adam Muller
Mrs. Rutledge P. Pray of DeBary has in her collection of old hooked rugs which she brought to DeBary when she closed her home in Maine, rugs which were copied from old glass stained windows.

One of her favorites is done with two hearts, which she purchased years ago from a woman who said the small heart stood for her daughter lost in death and the larger heart, with a deep, dark streak running through it, recalled her husband's tragic death.

Mrs. Pray spent over 40 years collecting these rugs. Some of the more beautiful ones were accepted by the Smithsonian Institute. The group of rugs brought to DeBary after the sale to the institute include an early "Waldoboro" on a linen base and several Early Frost designs.

Mrs. Pray tells how the homemakers in years past in New England used heavy lobster pot twine, knitted on large needles, with bits of many colored woolen pieces resulting in most colorful and useful rugs, proving that scraps of material need not be wasted.

Mrs. Pray told this reporter that she traveled from town to town instructing the women in arts and crafts, and it was at Birch Harbor, Me., that many of these rugs were made, proving that thrift often is the mother of invention.

Other hookers in DeBary who have made lovely rugs are Mrs. Henry Lasher, who did the "Marlborough" rug, a 34 inch round rug in shades of green and rust. Mrs. Lasher has finished floral design rugs and several in geometric designs. Her pansy rug is brilliant in its coloring.

Mrs. Robert Henderson has her floors in their home covered with her hooking. In her living room she has beautiful Orientals that she lavished plenty of love and time doing. In her bedroom a lovely floral design rug, and small rugs compliment the large ones in every room.

Mrs. Wesley Farmer, wife of the publisher of the new weekly paper, has finished many beautiful rugs. And last but not forgotten, Mrs. Adam Muller has made many rugs for her home in Long Island, N. Y. Her two grandsons, Robert and Paul, sit nightly watching TV on a rug fashioned from four wooden soldiers, cannon and all and several Early American designed rugs for hall, bedroom and living room.

Mrs. Ralph Bedient, a former instructor on weaving and rug hooking from New York State, has hand hooked rugs on display in her home in DeBary. Her daughter Barbara is also an avid rug hooker. Mrs. Earl Innis has been hooking rugs and many other DeBary housewives have done a rug or two. This old art of rug hooking is being revived again in America.

Edward Levys Enjoy Graduation With Vacation

By Julia Hartos

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Levy of Oakland Estates recently returned from Hendersonville, North Carolina, where they attended the graduation of their son, Edward Jr., from Brevard Junior College in Brevard, North Carolina.

Edward finished his courses last January and has been attending Stetson University since then, but had to return to Brevard for the formal Graduation exercises.

While in their home town of Hendersonville, Mr. and Mrs. Levy enjoyed visits with their many friends.

Edward Jr. is employed in Washington, D. C. for the summer and will return to Stetson in the fall.

Mrs. Fran Dane Hosts Shower For Mrs. Griffith

By Maryann Miles

Mrs. Walt Griffith of Forest City was honor guest at a baby shower recently at the home of Mrs. Fran Dane on W. Lake Brantley Road with Mrs. Sue Bradford serving as co-hostess.

A beautiful arrangement of red roses centered the serving table and the honoree received an assortment of gifts for the new heir.

Delicious refreshments were served to the Meses, Betty Brannon, Lil Young, Grace Seebrecht, Jo Brookover, Leo Cameron, Jean Klingler, Jimmy McClelland, Helen Mitchell and Jeri Rigby.

The Seminole Chapter OES Has Final Season Meeting

Seminole Chapter No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, held its last meeting before vacation Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple with 33 members and visitors present.

The Robert Morris picnic will be held on the last Wednesday of August at the camp of Mrs. L. E. Estes, Worthy Matron. Dr. Robert Morris, as every Star knows, was the founder of the Order.

Mrs. Joe Leinhardt, District Chairman for the Eastern Star Magazine, called on the subscribers to tell what part of the magazine they enjoyed most or found most helpful. By the time all had reported, the magazine had been thoroughly covered.

The Worthy Matron read the names of our shut-ins and asked whether members would be interested in presenting them with subscriptions to the magazine. The response was heartening and immediate. Mrs. J. J. Nicholson, Mrs. W. E. Causey, Mrs. L. E. Estes, Miss Ann Muir, Mrs. Kathleen Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Blackman each subscribed, so that all the shut-ins of the Chapter will be able at home to keep up with the programs of their own and other Chapters in the State.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our 12-year-old son took our power lawn mower to his aunt's house, which is near us. He told her that her lawn needed cutting and he would be glad to cut it. She asked how much he charged, and he said he wouldn't charge her anything. She told him to go ahead. (They have close to one acre.) Just as he was finishing, his uncle came home and asked our boy if he had been paid for the job yet. He said he wasn't charging anything. Then his uncle FORCED two dollars on our son. This evening, the wife called me and said she thought it was pretty cheap of our son to accept the two dollars for a job he agreed to do for nothing. Then she reminded me for the fiftieth time of all the clothes her son had outgrown and she had given me for our son. What do you make of this? How should it be handled?

DEAR BURNED: Auntie is "pretty cheap." And should she again offer you hand-me-downs, suggest that she make the Salvation Army of Good Will Industries the objects of her generosity.

DEAR ABBY: Years ago my father was also faced with the problem of having the neighbor's chickens wander into our yard. This is how he solved it. He pierced tiny holes in dry corn kernels. Then, using a fine silk sewing thread, just long enough to reach the chicken's craw, he threaded each kernel of corn and attached a note to the other end of the thread. It read: "PLEASE KEEP ME HOME. I FEEL FOOLISH!"

This didn't hurt the chickens, but they did look mighty silly walking around with those messages hanging from their beaks. The chickens never visited us again, and relations with our neighbors remained friendly.

DEAR L. S. H.: And therein lies a moral: Never underestimate the power of corn.

DEAR ABBY: Back in 1905 my mother thought up a good way to keep the neighbor's chickens out of our yard. She soaked bread crusts in Dad's corn liquor (much to his displeasure) and she scattered these crusts around our yard, where the chickens visited daily. The chickens came over as usual, ate their fill and promptly passed out just like humans all over our yard. My mother went out, plucked them up and threw them back into their owners' yard. When the neighbors saw their chickens lying there like dead, they got the hint. No more chickens for mother. It was much cheaper than calling a lawyer, too.

EDNA
CONFIDENTIAL LETTER TO "DEDICATED PARENTS" IN SEATTLE: I regret that you misunderstood my reply to "Heartbreak." I did not, and would not, advocate automatic institutionalizing all mentally retarded. Nor did I imply that all mentally retarded are "dangerous."

Of America's 5 1/2 million retarded, only 210,000 are in institutions. Many are able to live happy, useful lives at home. Efforts are being made to educate parents of retarded children as to the nature of retardation, how it differs from mental illness, how limited the life of the retarded child will be, and how to help the child accept these limitations. I hope that parents and neighbors of retarded children will write to the National Association for Retarded Children, 888 Park Avenue S., New York, for information concerning this vital problem. It is free.

Highlights

7:30-9:30 p. m. NBC Monday Night Movie. "The Wreck of the Mary Deare" (color) (rerun) Gary Cooper and Charlton Heston star in this 1959 release of the Hammond Lines best-seller, ably assisted by such guest stars as Michael Redgrave, Emyln Williams and Alexander Knox. Heston plays a salvager who boards a ship set after and abandoned by the crew only to find Cooper deliberately wrecking it. This leads to court where the truth about the Mary Deare is brought out.

8:30-9:30 p. m. CBS. Vacation Playhouse. "Papa G!" Very enjoyable with a good balance of comedy and pathos. Dan Dailey is very good as an Army sergeant in Korea who is drawn to two Korean war orphans. When he gets his orders to return home, he reluctantly prepares a parting with the orphans. However they don't give up that easily. Knowing a married soldier can take orphans back with him, the youngsters present him with a choice from two eligible Korean matrons.

8:30-10 p. m. ABC. Wagon Train. "The Blocker Story" (rerun) Joan Blondell plays Ma Blocker, the head of a gang of outlaws. Miss Blondell is a revelation as the mistressmind of the great wagon train robbery.

TV Time Previews

8:30-9:30 p. m. CBS. The Danny Thomas Show. (rerun) This episode was filmed in Rome. Danny (Danny Thomas) is weary of sightseeing and doesn't even mind when a handsome Italian (Massimo Serato) volunteers to guide Kathy (Marjorie Lord). Danny, however, fumes when Kathy seems taken by the gallant Italian's manners and prepares for battle till he realizes he should develop some manners of his own.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Edgar Kaplan of New York has temporarily forsaken the Kaplan-Sheinwald system to produce a fine book on both bidding and play. He does not show the East-West cards in today's hand in order to discuss what should go through declarer's mind as he plays the hand.

To start with, declarer will play the queen of hearts from dummy. It may hold, but it doesn't. Now declarer has two losing hearts in his own hand and one in dummy. He has to lose the one in dummy, but he can ruff out his own last heart so he leads a heart right back.

An opponent wins and leads a trump. Declarer wins in his own hand and ruffs his last heart with dummy's jack of spades. There is no point ruffing low and risking an overruff.

Now declarer has to go after the club suit, but first he should play trumps to avoid a possible ruff.

Three leads exhaust the adverse trumps, and finally declarer is ready for the club suit. Of course, he could lead a diamond to the ace and ruff a diamond, but that play would be pointless. His trumps are sure tricks anyway.

So South leads a club toward dummy. West follows and the ace is played from dummy.

East follows also and a club is led from dummy. If West shows out South will have to lose two club tricks, but his contract will be safe. Actually East plays the king and South winds up making an overtrick at his four spade contract.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Men experience much more self-esteem when they get engaged than women do, according to a recent study by Dr. Bruce Sklarow of the George Washington University School of Medicine.

For never again will the girl on whose finger a young man puts an engagement ring work so hard to build him up as she does from the moment she decides she is going to marry him until the moment when he finally "persuades" her to be his wife.

It's then that a girl really makes a man feel like a king. She listens to his opinions with respect. She laughs at his jokes with delight. She assures him that all of his dreams for the future are a sure thing, and makes him feel strong, handsome, daring, intelligent and witty. At long last he feels he has found someone who understands him and appreciates his uniqueness as a person.

So he puts a ring on the girl's finger—and his self-esteem hits a new and beautiful high.

Let him enjoy the feeling to the utmost, for never again will the girl work quite so hard to build up his ego.

Once that engagement ring feels secure and the wedding plans are set, the girl will start to relax a little. When

Our Teachers—free to think...free to teach!

*****

Under a system of independent school boards, free from the oppression of Socialist dictatorships, our teachers are at liberty to provide our children—on every scholastic level from pre-school to Ph.D.—with the most powerful weapon against tyranny ever known: education.

"Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Truth is the most independent of qualities. It cannot be dictated. It cannot be changed. It cannot be propagandized, party line, bureaucratic or partisan. It can only be... truth.

We salute the teachers of Florida and the nation. By bringing truth to young people today, these dedicated men and women are strengthening our nation's freedom for tomorrow... and forever!

Our system of education is responsible in great part for the economic we enjoy, the strength we maintain, the individuality we have fought to preserve.

This freedom of individual initiative and enterprise that helps keep America powerful has also made it possible for the nation's investor-owned, taxpayer electric power companies to achieve world leadership.

Today, Florida Power and Light Company is accelerating its already phenomenal rate of expansion to meet the skyrocketing demand for increased power. We hope, through even more outstanding performance, to encourage the trend in America today which proposes more freedom for private enterprise so that industry may serve our Country even more efficiently.

Geneva Gems

By Mrs. Joe E. Mathieux
The Geneva Historical and Genealogical Society recently held an executive meeting at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Whiting in Geneva for the purpose of naming committees to organize summer projects. Attending were Mrs. Whiting, president; Elizabeth Davis Oldham, vice president; Rhodia Culpepper Ward, president-elect; Lee Combs, secretary, and Sue Harrison Torres, treasurer.

Miss Loretta Lee Gallin was honored recently at a lingerie shower held at the home of Mrs. Billy Gracey in Sanford.

Summer finds many of our Geneva neighbors going in a number of directions to pursue further educations, vocations, etc. — a very lucky man indeed is Mickey Whiting, son of Mrs. Lorraine Whiting who flew by jet to New York City to visit his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kraftson. Mrs. Kraftson is the former Ginny Yarrow. While there Mickey will visit the World's Fair. Hey, fun, Mickey, we'll see you in the fall.

While Mickey is busy "funning in New York," Mom (Lorraine) is in Tallahassee for summer classes.

Want to hear something fabulous? — Mrs. Minnie Stone went to the beach with son, J. D., daughters, Pat and Lillian and grandchildren, Timmy and Tammy Kennard. Modern medicine is surely wonderful, praise be!

Speaking of praise be — let's not forget to give thanks humbly for these blessed rains. We are sometimes prone to take such blessings for granted.

Good news and a pleasant addition to our community. Pat Stone Vinson will make her home in Geneva with her mother and dad while Bill is overseas for the next year. Welcome home, Pat.

Young Miss Sandy Ford is visiting here from St. Petersburg with her dad and family for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kretzer and granddaughter, Cindy Harrison, are visiting in Deatur, Ill., for several weeks.

Ed Putnam, in Geneva to get his automobile, will return to Fort Wayne, Ind., until the fall. Making the trip home with him was his grandson.

Mrs. Ina Bell's daughter, Annette, and family are visiting here from Alabama for a while.

Mrs. Ethel Thomas is home from the hospital and her sister, Mrs. Lula Moran, of Jacksonville, is here to look after her while she is recuperating.

I hear that Mrs. Bertha Lindsey is convalescing at DeBary Manor and is progressing beautifully.

Geneva surely has her share of teachers, retired and active. Some are away at summer school and some are like my teacher (my Joe), cleaning yards!

Want a chuckle? The other morning Mrs. Kitty Wells Allen went out to get the paper and some Joker had moved the "for sale" sign from Bill's house to her front yard. She took it good naturedly and all enjoyed a good laugh.

This must be "Be Good to Mathieux Week." Oliver and little Liz sent us a meas of fresh fish and brother-in-law, Orle, gave us some sea bass then gave us 25 pounds of new potatoes and vine ripened tomatoes. All were delicious.

Mrs. Jack Brown and daughter, Betty Ann, of Richmond, Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kettering, Mrs. Brown's parents. Their visit was saddened, somewhat, because Aunt Nellie (Mrs. Jackson) is confined to Seminole Memorial Hospital with a kidney ailment.

Sunday we went to the beach and I must say, I'm glad Joe can't see so well any more. These new bathing suits, WOW!

I always did believe that some day Geneva would blossom forth and today she is beginning to bud. We now have a fire department made up of volunteer workers. Meetings are held at 7:30 p.m. each Tuesday at the Geneva Grocery. We also are getting a fresh water system for the Lake Harney area.

Let us pause for a moment and extend sincere sympathy to the family of W. M. Holloway and W. B. Clancy in their recent bereavements. Also to Mrs. Calvin Oldham in the loss of her brother, John Davis.

Oops, is my face red. I almost forgot one of the nicest things in the "be good to Mathieux week." Pearl and Lester Harper gave us two big jugs of orange blossom honey. Lester certainly is busy making a new driveway and working on general repairs around the place.

In closing, let me quote these words from the scrapbook of my late dear friend, Mrs. Gertrude Hoeschner: "The art of being happy lies in the enjoyment of little things."

A P.S. to ask all the Geneva folks to offer extra prayers for Mrs. McGill who is still seriously ill at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Latest 'Miss Flame' Entries Announced

By Donna Estes
Three new entries for the Miss Flame of Seminole County beauty contest, the Misses Pat Grimsley, Pat Caldwell and Lillian Hicks, were announced today by Carl Lomier, contest chairman. The contest is being sponsored by the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department and will take place during the firemen's annual Fourth of July Fiesta, July 2-4.

Miss Grimsley, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Grimsley of 114 Woodland Drive, Sanford, will represent the Sanford Naval Air Station Fire Department. She is 5 feet, 4 inches tall, measures 35-24-35 and likes horserback riding and swimming as hobbies.

Miss Caldwell, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Caldwell of Oviedo, will be one of the entries representing the Oviedo Fire Department. She is 5 feet, 7 inches tall, measures 34-24-34 and likes to swim and skate.

Miss Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hicks of 36 Lormann Circle N., Longwood, will be another representative of the Longwood department. She is 5 feet, 4 inches tall, measures 34-24½-36, is 19 years old and likes fishing, swimming, skating and horserback riding. Contestants will be judged in bathing suits on Friday evening and finals, in formal evening dress, will be on Saturday.

Recreation At Pinecrest Set

The summer recreation program at the Pinecrest School for this week includes the following activities:

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, ceramics; Thursday and Friday, arts and crafts. This program will be followed the next three weeks with special instruction available for the younger age groups.

On the dance program Monday is folk dancing; Tuesday, acrobatics and tumbling; Wednesday, tap; Thursday, baton and Friday, ballet and creative dance. Each day is divided into three age groups to accommodate the large number of participants.

The entire week will be climaxed Friday with a watermelon cutting. All students aged 6 to 14 who live in the Pinecrest area are urged to come to the school and register so that they may participate.

I will not be responsible for any debts incurred by anyone other than myself.

Auto Scratched By Fire Truck

An automobile was scratched slightly Thursday night when a fire department aerial truck was returning to the station following its response to a false alarm at Southwest Road and 15th Street.

A police accident report shows the truck, driven by Ernest B. Wright, was turning right on W. 15th Street when a culvert gave way and the right front of the truck went down.

Wright attempted to back the vehicle out of the trap and the ladder on the truck scraped a car operated by Lonzo Lee Blake of the Sanford Naval Air Station. Damage was estimated at only $20, police reported.

A crumpled, yellowed copy of the February 26, 1917 Florida Metropolis, a Jacksonville newspaper (courtesy of F. D. Scott) provides many interesting news items.

A banner front page headline announced President Woodrow Wilson's decision on "armed neutrality," his plans to provide American merchant ships with guns and says that the U. S. "desires peace, but there is something greater than peace and that is protection of our sovereign rights."

German subs were sinking Dutch and English ships and detaining American ships in foreign ports. Large cities in the U. S. were plagued with food shortages and prices were sky-rocketing.

"The Bad Boy," "The Telephone Belle" and "The Scarlet Letter" were playing at downtown Jacksonville theaters and the Vaudeville Theatre on Bay St. advertised admission prices at five cents.

The Chuluota Company of Seminole County had an ad in the Jacksonville paper extolling "winter home locations in rolling pine woods country, also good land suitable for farming, stock, trucking and citrus."

In an editorial the New York City Board of Health blamed the housewife for the high prices of food, saying she failed to "practice economy" and urging "judicious buying." "Buy rice, instead of potatoes," the board advised housewives.

You could purchase a round trip ticket to Washington, D. C. on the Atlantic Coastline for $25 or a steamship ticket on the Clyde Line to New York from Jacksonville, first class for $24.90. You could go from Sanford (the southern terminus) to Jacksonville on the Clyde line for $4.65.

Madras shirts for men were advertised at Levy's for $1.50 and a new six room frame house on an acre of land for $1,000.

Someone posted a reward for the return of a lost corral and land was selling at $6 an acre. Around Palm Beach prices were beginning to rise to as much as $10 an acre.

One of the most startling news items in the 1917 newspaper was from the poll-blotter, which showed that 16 persons had been arrested in 1916 for "speeding in autos," and 1,204 person for "careless and reckless driving."

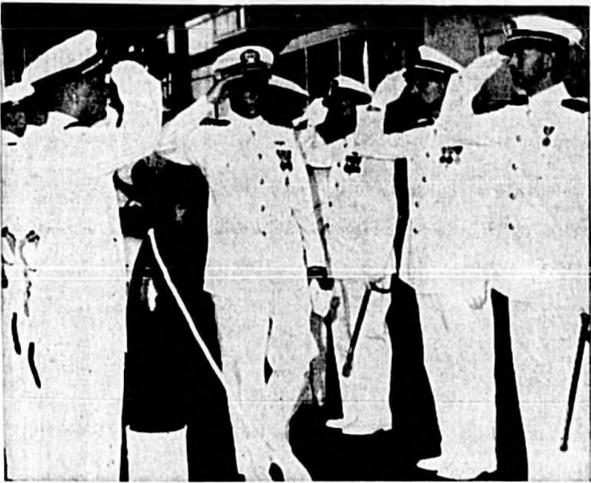

A car wash to benefit the Marching Seminoles, the 8115 Band, will be held Wednesday at Dekle's Gulf Service on South French Avenue and Thompson's Phillip's 66 Service on Celery Avenue. Tickets are on sale at Wieboldt's Camera Shop or from any band member. The wash begins at 9 a.m. and will continue until approximately 10 p.m.

It's business as usual at the County Engineer's office today despite the fact that the department's chief, Bill Bush, is in New York State for a two-week vacation. One of the items on Bush's agenda, naturally, is to take in the World's Fair.

The bathtub was invented in 1850 and the telephone in 1875. Had you been living in 1850 you could have sat in the bathtub for 25 years without the phone ringing once.

CAPT. ROBERT M. WARE LEAVES STATION ... piped over side' in retirement ceremony

REAR ADMIRAL GOLDTHWAITE GIVES CERTIFICATE ... commendation offered SNAS commanding officer

CAPT. AND MRS. WARE ... open Navy League gift

Ware Honored By Officials At Luncheon

Sanford and Seminole County officials paid glowing tribute to Capt. and Mrs. Robert M. Ware Monday at a Capri Restaurant luncheon prior to his retirement from the Navy. A barrage of gifts were heaped on the popular former commanding officer of Sanford Naval Air Station and his wife and official resolutions were read from city and county governing agencies.

Resolutions were also read from the Seminole Chamber of Commerce's Armed Forces Committee and the Central Florida Council of the Navy League. Participating were Karlisle Housholder, Seminole Chamber president; James P. Avery Jr., County Commission chairman; Mayor A. L. Wilson of Sanford, Sen. Mark N. Cleveland Jr., Dr. Vincent Holbert, Armed Forces Committee member, and Andrew Carraway of the Navy League.

An estimated 75 persons took part in the tribute to the retiring captain and his wife. Also greeted was Ware's successor, Capt. Chandler W. Swanson. Ware recalled the pleasant memories he has had while in charge of the local base and cited the friendliness of the community — one which he said he at first thought a "gimmick" but soon learned the attitude was "a genuine, unique one."

Avery Assails Road Budget

Disappointment in Seminole County's share of the 1964-65 state Road Department budget was registered today by James P. Avery, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners. Seminole County's share of the $491 million budget is $1.4 million.

"I am disappointed that the State Road Department does not recognize the facts as they exist," Avery said. He said that for the past several years Seminole County has received from $1.1 to $1.4 million of primary and secondary funds.

"But these amounts," he added, "have been based on facts and figures as they existed when we had a population of 24,000. Today we have a population estimated at 72,000."

He declared, "We in Seminole have had a tremendous population explosion which has made a huge impact on our highway and road system." He also pointed to industrial developments plus the location of the East Central Florida University on the county's southern boundary. "In view of these developments which have added much to the growth of Seminole County," Avery said, "I believe they justify an increase in road department funds."

RETIRING PRESIDENT Bill Hemphill was honored by the Rotary Club Monday as new president, Richard Deas, (right) takes over. Installing officer was former Lt. Gov. Ken Wacker of Winter Park. Hemphill, left, holds resolution of appreciation presented to him for his exemplary service to the club.

Retiring Head Of Rotary Club Is Honored

A resolution of appreciation was presented to Bill Hemphill, retiring president of Rotary Club, Monday by his fellow club members, commending him for his real and progressive leadership during his tenure of office.

"He more than any other member has been the exemplification of the Rotary idea," the resolution stated. Hemphill was especially commended for the community service program which was carried out this year in furnishing the pediatrics wing of the hospital.

Presentation and reading of the resolution was made by former president Ben Wiggins. Richard Deas was installed as new president by former Lt. Gov. Kenneth Wacker of Winter Park, a former Sanfordite. Other officers include M. L. "Sonny" Raborn as vice president, Walter Haynes as treasurer; Dr. R. W. Huprecht as secretary with Ron Dycus as assistant secretary.

Members of the board of directors are Robert Crumley, Charles Robinson and Ben Howland. Speaker Ken Wacker challenged Rotarians to strengthen their Rotary ideals, for "not one of us measures up to our full potential."

Picture Story

The Sanford Herald ran off a "special edition" of a full page of pictures for Capt. Robert M. Ware Monday and presented it to persons attending a luncheon in his honor at the Capri Restaurant.

It proved to have such effect on those getting it that it is re-run in today's regular edition. The interesting photographic account of Capt. Ware's Navy life at Sanford Naval Air Station can be seen on Page 5 today.

Probe Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Warren Commission wants the FBI to "fully investigate the publication of the Lee Harvey Oswald diary."

Engines Fail; Upper Stage Loses Speed

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—America's Atlas-Centaur moon rocket, plagued by troubles for more than three years, failed a critical test today for its role next year as a trillblazer for manned moon landings.

The high energy Centaur upper stage, scheduled to soar into a high orbit to prove its ability in moon missions, plunged instead to a fiery death over the south Atlantic off the coast of Africa.

Scientists said the two hydrogen fueled engines on the experimental rocket shut down two minutes early and the upper stage, which carried no payload, failed to reach the speed needed to send it whirling about the globe.

It was the second failure in three attempts for the Atlas-Centaur, a silver white rocket that thundered aloft almost flawlessly and flew a perfect course for eight minutes.

The failure was a blow to the nation's plans to use the Atlas-Centaur combination to send a project surveyor lunar lander to the moon next year to look for later manned landings.

The 112-foot rocket blasted toward space at 9:04 a. m. EST, and optimistic scientists said all looked good for the first eight minutes.

The mood of the rocket center quickly changed to gloom when loudspeakers announced that the Centaur stage's two hydrogen-fueled engines had quit two minutes early.

The injured were picked up by vessels at the scene and transferred to two Coast Guard and three oil company helicopters and flown to Lakewood Hospital in Morgan City.

Two Coast Guard cutters, including the Point Young out of Grand Isle, La., and a Navy vessel, the Yukon, were at the scene.

Hundreds Pay Tribute To Retiring Captain

It's Mister Robert M. Ware as of today. Each also holds the Navy Cross, Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal.

Capt. Swanson is married to the former Miss Ruth Fowler Sargeant. Both are from Montclair, N. J. They have three daughters, Elizabeth, Pamela and Marilyn.

Banker Found Stabbed To Death At Home

MIAMI (UPI)—Financier Jacques Mossler was found stabbed to death in his island luxury apartment on Key Biscayne today and sheriff's officers began an intensive investigation to find his killer.

The 60-year-old banker with extensive financial interests in Miami, Houston, Chicago and South Bend, Ind., lay dead from one stab wound on the left side of his chest. No murder weapon was found immediately.

Mossler's adopted daughter, Rita Johnson, 20, found the body when she returned to the apartment about 4:45 a.m. EST, investigators said. The only sign of disorder in the plush, cooperative apartment in the newly-built governor's lodge, was a torn window drape near where the body lay in the living room.

Five Men At SNAS Retire

Retirement ceremonies were held today at the Sanford Naval Air Station for five men who have a total of 135 years of naval service.

They are Capt. Robert M. Ware, retiring commanding officer, 27 years; Lt. Cdr. Clark H. Crain, 21 years; Charles S. Kener, chief aviation structural mechanic, 34 years; Bramlett A. Madden, chief aviation structural mechanic, 30 years; and James L. Davis, chief aviation mechanic's mate, 23 years.

Grocer Robbed In Forest City

The manager of the U-Tote-Em store in Forest City was robbed of an undisclosed sum of money shortly after 10 p. m. Monday by four Negroes, one of whom brandished a blue, long-barreled revolver.

The bandit wore a pillow case with eye and mouth slits while his accomplices wore handkerchiefs over their faces, the store manager, Philip G. Hendricks, told sheriff's deputies.

Police said Hendricks was locked in the store by the robbers.
