

ARMISTICE DAY IN SANFORD PROMISES GOOD WEATHER AND GREAT BIG PROGRAM

Parade Will Be Mile Long if All Entrants Appear

CITY DECORATED

AND CARS ARE BEING PREPARED FOR THE BIG PARADE

Armistice Day is drawing near and from all indications will be one of the biggest celebrations that Sanford and Seminole County have ever put forth.

Much of the interest centers in the big parade that will be a mile or more in length if all the cars take part and the city and county are being scoured for autos and trucks and pretty girls to ride in them representing all kinds of business and all kinds of ideas and some of the floats promise to be very pretty.

Expert decorators are here on the job to decorate the cars and also to decorate the business houses, and the day will be long remembered for the fact that Sanford will be in gala attire and the citizens will have the gala spirit and are entering into the occasion as never before.

Speeches, "chow", boat races on the lake, football game, athletic stunts of all kinds will take up a very busy afternoon supplemented by the carnival and in the evening there will be dancing for the thousands at the court house and the Valdez and probably on the street if these two places fail to hold them.

Armistice Day will be some day and the soldier boys of the world war and of all other wars will be feted and shown a good time that day and it promises to live long in the memory of all the soldiers of all wars.

Instructions for the parade and cars and other events will be found in this paper. The following is the official program:

DEMOCRATS WON TWO STATES FROM REPUBLICAN CONTROL IN THE ELECTION YESTERDAY

ELECTION ECHOES FROM MANY STATES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—Unofficial returns from 205 out of 370 precincts in Louisville, indicated the election of Houston Quin, republican, as mayor of Louisville. Quin has an apparent lead of 5,000 votes over Harris, democrat.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 9.—Official returns from half of the city's precincts indicate the election of Fred Kohler, former chief of police, running for mayor on an independent republican ticket, over W. H. Fitzgerald, present republican mayor. Kohler was leading by 3,000 votes and republican and democratic party leaders said that if Kohler maintained that lead he would win by 10,000 plurality.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 9.—Samuel Lewis Shank, republican, was leading Boyd M. Ralston, democrat, his opponent, in the municipal election by 19,899, when returns from 133 of the city's 166 precincts had been tabulated. Shank's election by a majority of 20,000 votes was claimed by republican party leaders. The vote for the 133 precincts, was Shank, 49,430; Ralston, 29,531.

SCHENECTADY N. Y., Nov. 9.—George R. Lunn, democrat, was re-elected mayor of Schenectady for a fourth term. His victory was notable by the fact that it was the first time in twenty-eight years that a majority candidate has been chosen for two consecutive terms. Mayor Lunn had previously served two single terms.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Frank X. Schwab, republican, running on a platform declaring for amendment of the Valstead act to permit the sale of beer and light wines, was elected mayor of Buffalo by a majority of 2,563, over Mayor George S. Buck, also a republican.

HOUSE BREAKS ON INCOME TAX - SOME INSURGE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The breach in the ranks of house Republicans over the acceptance of the senate maximum income surtax rate of 50 per cent continued yesterday to widen.

House leaders sought to defer the fight at least until after the rewriting of the bill by the conferees gets under way, but whether negotiations to that end which were opened with the "insurgents" would be sufficient, remain to be decided.

If the negotiations started yesterday terminate without an agreement, the majority leaders plan to bring in a rule to force the bill to conference without instructions to the managers. In that event the Republican "insurgents" and the Democrats are prepared to make a fight on the rule. Looking in that, they say they still will be in a position to renew the fight when the house managers ask for instructions.

House leaders are urged to be ready to accept a compromise on the surtax rate at an increase approximately 8 per cent over the 32 per cent maximum fixed in the bill as it passed the house. Majority leaders in the senate also look forward to a compromise at around 40 per cent.

Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee said yesterday he expected the bill to be ready for the president next week.

PUBLICITY FOR ALL ARMAMENT SESSIONS

Maryland and Kentucky Changed Over in the State Elections

ALL LEGISLATURE

IN MARYLAND LOWER HOUSE AND MAJORITY OF SENATE SAFE IN DEMOCRATIC FOLD

(By The Associated Press) ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The Democrats gained twenty-two seats in the New York Assembly yesterday when they elected fifty members. Republicans, however, continue to have working majority, having carried 93 districts.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 9.—Unofficial returns from throughout the state to News-Leader indicate Trinkle, Democratic candidate for governor, was leading Henry Anderson, Republican, by nearly 60,000 votes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Two states, Maryland and Kentucky, have passed from Republican to Democratic control as the result of yesterday's elections as shown in returns available here this morning. In Maryland the entire lower house of the legislature and thirteen of the twenty-seven members of the senate were elected and believed in Baltimore early today the Democrats had secured control of the state legislature lost to the Republicans two years ago and claimed 58 of the one hundred members of the lower house and nineteen of the thirty-eight seats in the senate, with two doubtful.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Democratic candidates, headed by Mayor Hyman, made a clean sweep of the principal city and county offices in yesterday's election. Hyman received the unprecedented plurality of 417,086. Complete vote was: Hyman, 754,874; Curran, republican, running on a coalition ticket, 336,888; Panken, socialist, 83,200.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns indicate that the democrats gained many seats in the New York state assembly. The only woman member republican, was defeated by a democrat.

Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 9.—A man who has lived in Youngstown only three months, and whose platform provided for the discontinuance of the street car service and turning them over to jitney busses, and for jailing any citizen who paid taxes under the recent re-valuation, was elected mayor yesterday over candidates backed by major party organizations. He is George L. Oles, who came from the country, established his residence in a hotel and carried on an eccentric advertising campaign without the support of any particular element or organization. Other plans of his platform included the permitting of spooning in city parks under police protection; dismissing the entire police force "if it doesn't mend its ways," and promise to turn his salary over to charity. The woman vote is believed to be responsible for his election.

Traitors, Cowards and Mentally Unfit Shot by Comrades

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, former officer in army, declared in the house today while he had no substantiation of charge, he had reason to believe soldiers who wore traitors, cowards or mentally unfit were shot by their own comrades while facing the enemy. The statement was hotly denied by Representative Bulwinkle, Democrat, of North Carolina, also a former officer who declared he would not permit Johnson's statement to go unchallenged.

Lena Clarke Case Comes Up Today Before Grand Jury

ORLANDO, Nov. 8.—The Orange county grand jury, which was impaneled here today by Judge C. O. Andrews, will it is understood, begin consideration of the case of Miss Lena M. T. Clark, charged with the murder of F. A. Miltmore, here, August 1, of this year.

Miss Clarke was postmistress of West Palm Beach at the time she is said to have killed Miltmore, an Orlando restaurant keeper, in a room at a hotel in this city. Chief of Police Ed Vestal says Miss Clarke made an absolute confession of the murder of Miltmore, but the story she told the newspaper men left a hiatus between the time she and Miltmore engaged in a conversation in her room at the hotel, to which she had summoned him, and her going to the police headquarters and telling Chief Vestal that Miltmore was in the room, and that he was guilty of robbing the mail at the West Palm Beach postoffice, where he had formerly been employed. It was Miss Clarke's pistol that was found lying on the bed in the room where Miltmore's lifeless form lay on the floor. He had been shot through the heart.

The murder of Miltmore, especially under the sensational circumstances surrounding it and the prominence of the alleged murderer and her family, created more interest than any crime that has occurred in this state in recent years. The indications are that should she be indicted, as she probably will be, that the defense will enter a plea of temporary insanity.

Supporting the belief that the defense plea will be insanity, is the fact that Dr. Ralph N. Greene, of Jacksonville, former medical head of the state insane asylum and specialist on mental diseases, has paid numerous visits to Miss Clarke. It is also reported that Dr. Greene has had consultations with defense counsel. Should this plea be made the state is expected to present the testimony of Dr. H. Mason Smith, of Tampa, another specialist on mental diseases, state's attorney, Jos. H. Jones, however, refused today to admit that Dr. Mason's visits here had any connection with the Clarke case.

ROTARY CLUBS ARE HONORED BY GOVERNMENT

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE IN WAR AND PEACE ENTITLES THEM TO PLACE

Rotary is to have a prominent part in the ceremonies incident to the burial of the "Unknown American Soldier" Armistice Day.

Past International President John Poole, President of the Federal National Bank, Washington, D. C., and Ed. L. Stock, Vice-President of the Hart and Crouse Co., Washington, D. C., and Governor of the Fifth Rotary District, have been formally named to represent International Rotary on this occasion. By special invitation of the war department issued, according to Adjutant General P. C. Harris, U. S. A., as a recognition of "Rotary's distinguished service during the World War" the representatives of the organization will be given places of honor in the Amphitheater at Arlington cemetery during the ceremonies. They will also have a place in the funeral procession if they so desire.

Inasmuch as the number of seats in the Amphitheater where the ceremony is to take place is very limited, it will not be possible to accommodate any where near the crowd that will attend when the whole United States and the many representatives of foreign governments will pay tribute to America's unknown dead of the World War. In allotting seats in the Amphitheater and offering a place in the funeral procession to Rotary, the War Department stated that it did so, not only as a way of expressing its appreciation of the splendid service rendered by all Rotary Clubs during the World War, but of Rotary's present activities in promoting international friendship.

At the time of the International Rotary Convention in Edinburgh, Scotland last summer the Rotarian delegates from all over the world paid tribute to the Unknown Soldiers of Britain and France. Acting officially these delegates, while in Paris, placed a permanent bronze wreath on the tomb of the Poilu inconnu in the Place d'Etolle. The organization is at present arranging to place on November 11th a similar wreath on the grave of the unknown British soldier in Washington.

Official word has been received from the War Department granting Rotary's request to place a similar wreath on the Arlington grave of the American Unknown soldier. This ceremony will probably take place in March when about 2,000 Rotarians will be in Washington attending the convention of clubs of the Fifth Rotary district.

SANFORD LADIES ADVERTISED FLORIDA IN BROOKLYN.

The following letter from Mrs. Norma McLaughlin of the School Settlement in Brooklyn, will be interesting to her friends and those of Miss Katherine Wilke:

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 3rd. My Dear Mr. Holly:

I am taking a clipping from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle. This bazaar was a very brilliant affair, and many very beautiful booths, but none attracted our attention more than the school settlement booth, which we called "Florida Court." Thanks to Mr. Deas and several other good friends in Florida our booth looked like a typical Florida scene, grey moss, palmetto leaves, long pine and magnolia branches were everywhere. I put up 100 glasses of guava jelly and we had some of Mrs. Wakefield's delicious paper shell pecans, grapes and oranges. Tied on everything were cards marked "From Sunny Florida." People who had been in Florida begged for pieces of moss. It was a great success financially, proving what a booster you are for Florida. I thought you might be interested. I have just been made head worker here, and am working hard to make a success of the work. I have Miss Wilke as one of my assistants. Trust you and Mrs. Holly are well and prospering. With best wishes, I am, Sincerely yours,

NORMA K. McLAUGHLIN. Forget to mention that we had six young alligators. We marked one "Hip" and made $10 by letting people guess his name, 10c a guess.

The following is the clipping: "The School Social Settlement had an original Florida booth, where it sold oranges and grapefruit, guava jelly and other delicacies from the South; but its chief attraction was a tub of young alligators, of which two, fortunately very young and harmless, escaped and wandered off to investigate 'The Streets of Wonderland' on their own account."

It is hard to tell whether the sleeping porch enthusiast really likes it or is just too stubborn to confess himself licked.

President Knight Has Been Named Nat'l Councillor

For Sanford to The Chamber of Commerce of the United States

George W. Knight has been named new national councillor for the Sanford Chamber of Commerce to represent it in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The National Council of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States consists of one representative each from the more than fourteen hundred commercial and industrial organizations making up the National Chamber's membership. It serves as an advisory body to the National Chamber's Board of Directors. The Council holds a special meeting preceding the annual convention of the National Chamber, to pass on the program and to select a nominating committee. The councillors also act as chairmen of the delegations representing their organizations.

A councillor occupies a position of liaison officer between the National Chamber and his own organization on important questions.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States is the strongest commercial organization in the world. Its object is to encourage trade and commerce; increase the efficiency of American business organizations; to obtain uniformity and equity in business usages and laws and to get proper consideration and concentration of opinion on questions affecting the financial, commercial, civic and industrial interests of the country at large.

A system of referenda operated by the Chamber has met with unusual success in obtaining the viewpoint of business men on national questions. These opinions, when they point to the need of legislation or other governmental action, are transmitted to the government's executive officers and to congress by the National Chamber's headquarters in Washington.

ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER PREMEDITATED AFFAIR SAYS THE ASSASSIN.

TOKIO, Nov. 8.—The confession of Ryichi Nakoka, the assassin of Takashi Hara, the premier, shows that the killing of the premier had long been premeditated. The censorship, the officials had placed on the details of the attack on the premier and the motives for the assassination was partially lifted today.

Nakoka had been shadowing the premier, seeking a chance to stab him whenever Mr. Hara left the station. He always met with failure, however, owing to the strict police guard around the premier. In his confession Nakoka says he purchased the dagger with which he killed the premier last summer, and that since then he had awaited the right moment.

The funeral of the late Premier Hara today was of the simplest character. The ceremony at the residence was attended only by personal friends. Mayor Goto representing the city and the citizens. The services were conducted by a Buddhist priest and seven assistants after which the funeral cortege proceeded to the Selyukai headquarters.

While the body lay in state, thousands passed the bier, among them imperial representatives, princes, and arabs and ministers. Tonight the body was conveyed to a special train which started it to Morioka where the final ceremony will take place November 11.

The elder statesmen conferred at the palace today, the subject of the pretzels occupying their attention. So far as is known no decision was reported but there was full exchange of views between Marquis Satonji, Marquis Matsukata and Baron Makino.

REMOVAL OF U. S. S. IS CRIME.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Removal of a war savings stamp from the certificate upon which it was issued constitutes a crime, the supreme court holds.

The question arose in the federal district court at New York, where the government failed in its effort to convict Paul Stacks of purchasing certificates and removing the stamps. The government held that this was an alteration of a government security prohibited by the laws against counterfeiting.

 CHIROPRACTIC FOR RHEUMATISM

Many prominent and prosperous latter day health schools affirm the prevailing theory that the primary cause of any disease exists in the spine. Among these advanced schools of health, Chiropractic ranks foremost in extent of practice, professional members and lay adherents, having won the coveted place in the public esteem by results accomplished in all forms of disease and disability. Health theories are right only in proportion as they are ratified by HEALTH results.

Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuritis, Arthritis, Gout, etc., are classified as forms of rheumatism. 90% of such ailments have responded favorably to Chiropractic adjustments.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A farewell surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mitchell, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Speer, who are leaving this week to make their home in Lakeland. The evening was spent in telling jokes, music, and singing. After which, they were ushered into the dining room where a bountiful supper was served buffet style, consisting of salads, sandwiches, fruit, cake and hot chocolate. The table was beautiful, having as a center piece, a large bouquet of lovely roses. Those present to enjoy this happy occasion, were:

Mr. and Mrs. Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins, Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and family, Mesdames Ferguson, Whittle, Howell, Grow, Allen, Huntley, Marsh, Wolfe, Tills and Stemper.

The guests departed at a late hour, expressing themselves as having spent a delightful evening.

ROOF GARDEN CLUB.

The club met with Miss Viola Booth, Monday evening, on Oak avenue. This being the first meeting to be held in ten weeks, quite a little business had to be disposed of. The topic of interest for this week was the coming of Mr. LeBarge to the Temple Wednesday evening, which is being put on by the Pipe Organ Club. At the close of this entertainment, the Roof Garden Club will sell hot chocolate.

At the conclusion of the business session, a social time was enjoyed, and delightful refreshments were served.

EVEN ROMANS CATCH COLD

Those ancient Roman customs which helped its legion conquer the world and made its warriors the most hardy of all, put a decided dent in the health record of two actors doing a "Roman" scene for Bert Lytell's newest picture, "The Man Who," a Maxwell Karger production for Metro, which will show at the Star Theatre tonight.

The two extras in the traditional Roman garb with sandaled feet were supposed to typify the uselessness of shoes among the ancients. The two costumed extras started in the day feeling fine in their light attire, but something went wrong with the heating plant in the New York studios and both hardies went on the sick list with heavy colds.

CHO-CHO, THE HEALTH CLOWN,

Is Coming to Sanford Next Week Especially to See the Boys and Girls.

Do you know Cho-Cho? You never have seen him? Cho-Cho is the funniest man you ever met. He is just like a clown at the circus only you get to know him very much better and he introduces you to his best friends. You will be glad to meet Sammy Spinach, Tom Turnip and Charlie Carrot and there are Rosie Apple, Mr. Whole-Wheat Bread, and Cow-in-the-Meadow, too, who tell the boys how to be the strongest boys in the neighborhood and if the girls take his advice they will turn into the prettiest, liveliest girls in their neighborhood.

In one hand he carried a metal scales, and on the other arm, a market-basket filled with green vegetables. From the midst of this peeped a sauce-pan and a pint bottle of milk.

"Hello, children," he called as he alighted from his coach, and he tripped over an imaginary obstacle, nearly losing his hold on the market-basket. "O, Ho," says Cho-Cho, "I almost lost my dinner that time; these vegetables are precious. I eat them to make me grow big and strong." And so he started his program.

Cho-Cho's first laugh creates an atmosphere of understanding, of happiness and jollity. His reforms are as magic.

Be sure and see that all the boys and girls in your neighborhood get to hear Cho-Cho.

SPORT WORLD

ORLANDO WINS.

The local high school team journeyed over to Sanford yesterday afternoon and played a game of football with their neighbors, representing the Celery City, taking the long end of the fray with a score of 30 to 0.

Yesterday's game was hardly a fair demonstration on the part of the locals, and certainly not on the part of Sanford, for the game was played on a field which had been newly plowed, heavy and soggy, which retarded the work of the backfield, and made going hard. The condition of the ground was such that time and again it was necessary to stop play to dig the dirt and mud out of the eyes of the players after a scrimmage.

In the matter of relative strength of the teams, there was little to choose, both being pretty equal in weight, but the Sanford eleven appeared to lack condition, having to call time out repeatedly for injuries to its players, a thing which the Orlando team was not charged with during the game.

Sanford was nervous during the first two quarters of the game, seeming to lack any power to break up the Orlando plays, the local team repeatedly taking the ball right to the line, only to fail with a score by fumble or pass work, the Orlando High was able to cross the Sanford goal four times for touchdowns, kicking three out of the four goals after scores.

Tinker came into the limelight early in the game with a pretty field goal from the twenty-five yard line; and put up a clean hard game on the offense.

The Orlando attack was at all times superior to the Sanford team. Out of twenty attempts at forward passes the locals were successful in nine; while Sanford was able to place but two passes into its player's hands out of eighteen trials.

During the third and fourth quarters the Sanford team found itself and put up a determined front, fighting a clean hard battle against the odds of condition and better plays, holding the locals without a score; many times right down in the shadows of the goal. Credit is due the Sanford team for the plucky fight it put up with the large score against them, and repeated injuries to its players. Under better playing conditions it is hard to predict the score as the local high school was going well with its passes and open play.

On the defense, Hammond, Grange and Cecil gave the spectators a pretty demonstration of open field tackling, many times breaking through and throwing the runner for a loss; and put up practically a stone wall defense.

The Orlando interference was one of the features of the game, it being nearly impossible for the Sanford defense to either sift through or break it up. Crane, Harrod and William Anderson were an air-tight combination in helping the man with the ball, and contributed largely to the scoring by the "Little Golden Tornado."—Orlando Reporter-Star.

VETERAN GOES TO JAIL FOR "BUDDY"; NOW IS PENNILESS.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Nov. 9.—Penniless, Harry W. Haley, an overseas war veteran was at liberty here today under a war department order releasing him from the federal disciplinary barracks where he served five months' sentence for desertion imposed upon Thomas N. Jonts, his "buddy" and the man who saved his life while the two men were with the American expeditionary forces in France.

Haley came to the barracks under the name of "Jones," his reason for serving the sentence being that he wanted to repay part of the debt he said he owed Jones, who is said to be married and living in Canada, is being sought by federal authorities. Healey was released from the barracks without the usual railroad fare and small compensation given federal prisoners.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS ATTENTION.

All the Confederate Veterans in Seminole county are to be the guests of DeV. Howard Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy on Armistice Day, at which time a special car will be provided for them to ride in the parade, and they are to be the guests of the chapter for the day. All of them who are living in Seminole county are requested to report to Mrs. J. Nolle Tolnar, in order that their names can be filed for reference. 182-8tp

STANDARD BASKETS FOR PRODUCE MEN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—It is probable that at an early date congress will pass the Vental bill to authorize the fixing of a standard basket for fruits and vegetables. The purpose of the bill is to do away with the confusion and deception which now exists in the marketing of fruits and vegetables, due to the great number of different sizes of baskets employed. The bill, if it should become a law, will affect the manufacturers of baskets, the growers who ship their products in them, and the consumer. It would standardize three type of baskets—hampers round stave baskets, and splint baskets.

The bill would benefit the producer of the things grown in these containers, for the reason they must be assured they will not come in competition with a dishonest container and a dishonest statement of what may be a bushel or any other measure in which articles may be sold or placed upon the market. It would be of great benefit to the consumer for the reason that when he buys a bushel of potatoes or anything else sold in baskets he will know he is getting a bushel and will not be deceived. It would also benefit the manufacturer for the reason that it would reduce the number of forms which it will be necessary for him to keep on hand and would enable him to extend the territory in which he sells his goods, since all sections using these types of baskets will use the same types.

Three general principle for standardizing containers for fruits and vegetables is not a new one. Congress has already passed the standardizing containers for fruits and vegetables is not a new one. Congress has already passed the standard barrel act and the standard container act and provided standards for grape baskets, berry boxes and other small boxes for fruits and vegetables.

In Florida, California, lower South Carolina, and Georgia, where the shipping of fruit and vegetables is a big industry the bill will be closely watched.

DECORATE YOUR CAR

Many have shown their willingness to decorate cars for the parade. Mr. Yountz has your name taken from the Sanford Herald and expects you will enter your float. He will give you your position in the parade Friday morning at Sanford avenue and Tenth street. Mr. Daugherty has opened an office in the place vacated by the Popular Market in the Welaka building and you can get decorations for your car at a reasonable price and has store front decorations. If you can't enter your car, let us know. 194-4fp

LONG, DRAWN-OUT STRIKE

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Milk distributing agencies have refused to deal further with their striking drivers and have arranged to extend their deliveries under police protection. This action was taken at a mass vote after the drivers had refused to return under any but a closed shop agreement. This indicated, officials said, that the strike might be a long drawn out affair.

Armistice Day approaches on horse-back.

While the bonus bill seems to fade away in the distance.

However, Sanford intends to honor the boys Friday as never before.

And we will show them what we think of them regardless of how the government treats them.

Politics might be small this fall but politics looms large on the horizon nevertheless and the elections Tuesday will show which way the wind blows.

Kentucky still believes in politics and Benthitt county chinked up six killings before the polls opened Tuesday morning. While most of us are prone to pass up politics at this time of the year Kentucky is just getting right.

Let the Chamber of Commerce take care of your advertising. It will save you time, money and nerves and give you the best of the deal.

LET THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PROTECT YOU.

The Chamber of Commerce in any city has many duties to perform and among them might be mentioned the advertising game or in other words the solicitor who comes in from a distance every winter to get advertising on all sorts of folders, programs, hotel cards, etc. The average merchant is busy when the solicitor comes in and has but little time to talk over the proposition and in nine cases out of ten would not recognize the merits or demerits of the advertising if he had the time. Every year there are thousands of dollars spent here in Sanford by the business men with out of town schemes the greater part of the money going to the foreign representative. This paper is not making this assertion on account of any loss of advertising that might come to the paper for most of the folks that fall for this sort of advertising never advertise in the local paper but as an advocate of keeping the home money at home we do say that some kind of censorship should be maintained over the advertising proposition and the Chamber of Commerce is the proper organization to take charge of the advertising and take upon itself this additional burden with the idea of relieving the local merchant and also in cutting out the fake advertising from that which might be good. The Lakeland Telegram sums it up as follows:

"An evidence of community spirit cropped up Thursday when one of the vast invading army of dollar grabbers tried to 'put one over' on the Chamber of Commerce through the medium of unprofitable advertising. In this instance the slick individual sought to sell space on the back of a restaurant menu. Some business concerns had already 'fallen' for the smooth talk and had authorized the taking of space but later on the artist bumped up against a member of the Chamber of Commerce who demanded that the solicitor show his permit from the manager's office. Then there came the usual line of talk to the effect: 'Are you going to let the Chamber of Commerce do your thinking? Are you not yet out of the infant class and able to use your own judgment?'

HEINZ FIG PUDDING: Heat a can of Heinz Fig Pudding in boiling water for 30 minutes. The following makes a good sauce to serve with the pudding: 1 tablespoon butter; 1 scant tablespoon flour; 3 table-spoons sugar; Cinnamon to taste. When blended add slowly 1-2 cup milk and 1 cup of water. Cook until smooth. When cool pour into beaten egg. Deane Turner, Phones 497-494, WELAKA BLOCK

And a lot more of that sort of bunk eventually Mr. Slickone put in his appearance at Chamber of Commerce headquarters seeking a permit to clean up somewhere about $800 of good Lakeland money at an outlay of probably not more than $10. Unprofitable advertising was written all over the scheme and to the overlasting credit of the business man whose business was being used to put the proposition over, that gentleman flatly refused to allow his name to be used and further stated that if the menus were printed they would not appear in his restaurant. That was the sensible, patriotic and loyal thing to do; to stand by his organization for the protection of his fellows and the good name of his community. Through this one agency of the Chamber of Commerce alone thousands of dollars will be saved to the business men of Lakeland. The main thing to remember is to ask any solicitor who puts in an appearance with this outside scheme if he or she has a permit from the Chamber of Commerce. Right then and there begins the movie fade-away process! the solicitor keeps his pet scheme, the merchant his coin. A full understanding of the community spirit and its practical application will cause the promoter of unprofitable advertising to fight shy of Lakeland. Like the professional beggar, this class of people seem to know where the easy picking is to be found. Let us unite in putting up the bars so far as this community is concerned."

BONUS LEGISLATION AND ITS POLITICAL MEANING

There is something pathetic in the continued fight for bonus legislation. Republican politicians, when it was to their advantage, convinced many ex-service men that they, by reason of their participation in the war, are entitled to a bonus; and now, in power, the Republicans are opposed to the legislation which would make the bonus possible, and the Democrats, who fought the bonus idea when the Republicans were advocating it, are now going after the former advocates and demanding the immediate passage of the necessary legislation.

Hope is again high in the bosoms of ex-service men, or at least in the bosoms of many of them, which is the pathetic feature; for it is evident they have not realized the bonus is the football of national politics.

Should the Democrats win the administrative power in the next general election, it is likely the Republicans, in an effort to embarrass the administration of the opposition, will turn again and support the bonus measure, and it is also likely the Democrats will shift their position. It must be admitted bonus legislation would increase taxation in this country, and public sentiment is strongly calling for a reduction in taxes at the present time, which is the reason the administration is fighting the proposal at every turn. An increase in taxation, regardless of the reason for the increase, would be convincing propaganda against the party in the next election. The Republicans promised the impossible last November—bonus legislation and tax reduction, and any person who can figure recognizes the impossibility in the task of reconciliation in these two promises. The Democrats in Congress are leaving no stone unturned in an effort to force the Republicans' hand in this reconciliation, and it is quite evident the situation is very embarrassing to the administration leaders. This is an old political trick, however, and the ex-service man who finds revived hope in the extensive discussion of the subject is bound to be disillusioned again. The bonus is now the convenient footpiece for political screaming, nothing more.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

DEALING WITH ADVERTISERS

Readers of magazines and newspapers do not get the full benefit therefrom unless they give at least some attention to the advertisements contained therein. By overlooking them they miss much valuable information; they miss opportunities to purchase those things they need and that, eventually, they will buy without getting always those particular things they desire or at prices such as might have been possible with adequate information gained from advertisements. "They," in the preceding sentence, means you.

An advertisement, in these days, generally, and most always, carries with it a sort of a guarantee, in fact a double guarantee. First, that of the advertiser; second, that of the journal in which it is published. It is a fact that dealers, who advertise their wares, and manufacturers, including farmers, who advertise their products, are more careful of what they offer for sale, and with reference to their methods of dealing, than are those who do not advertise. First of all, they seek to establish confidence, and this they realize they can get and hold only by "square dealing." Hence they are more reliable, generally speaking, than those who do not advertise. Beyond doubt they are the more enterprising, and therefore deserve encouragement through patronage.

The other guarantee that goes with most magazine and newspaper advertisements is that of the publishers of the journals in which they appear. Reputable journals—and they are in the very large majority everywhere, now—reputable journals will not, "for love or money," accept an advertisement known to be fraudulent or from a would-be advertiser known to be unfair, or dishonest, in his dealings. Therefore, with very rare exceptions, advertisements can be relied upon, and in the comparatively few instances where those who so rely are deceived they need only to present the proofs of deception or unfair dealing on the part of the advertiser to the publisher of the publication in which appeared questionable advertising and the publisher will see to it that the right thing is done or that no more of such advertising shall be accepted. The publishers today stand for a "square deal" between their advertisers and the readers of their publications.—Farm and Live Stock Record.

GONE—AND MUST WE SAY—FORGOTTEN?

Virtually on the eve of Armistice day, at which time the President of the United States has asked that the entire country pause to pay tribute to those who gave up their lives for their country, the Senate of the United States rejected the soldier bonus bill by a vote of 38 to 28. We wonder if those senators who voted against this measure paused in their deliberations to picture the white crosses, row on row, in Flander's field that mark the graves of the men who fought for their country and made the supreme sacrifice for the sake of democracy. We wonder if any of those senators had a son in the front line trenches. We don't believe they did, because we don't believe they could have voted against the measure had they known what the dollar a day home went through. Perhaps many of those self same senators stood along the curbing and cheered "the boys in khaki" as they marched down Pennsylvania avenue with their heads thrown back, their chests expanded, and proud to know that they were answering their country's call. The boys felt that America was behind them, their America, the land of the free. We wonder what those boys who were fortunate enough to return unscathed, think now.

Is it not hypocrisy to hold celebrations on Armistice Day in memory of the victory when the entire country knows that those boys who survived have been forgotten; when newspapers say that of the thousands of idle men in New York City, dependent upon charity, two thirds of them were former service men? Wouldn't it be more appropriate for the president to appear before congress on Armistice Day and ask that the bonus bill be passed than to be at the head of a parade marching down Pennsylvania avenue with the thought uppermost in his mind that he had appeared before Congress and asked that the bonus bill be held up on account of the financial condition of the country when at the same time Congress appropriated millions for the railroads?

The general public was given to understand that the appropriation for the railroads was necessary in order to provide funds with which to carry on construction work so that the idle could be given employment, the explanation being given that Congress would not be censured for its action. It looks reasonable to assume that if the government had the power to take men from their work and place them in the army, that the same power could be used to see that these men were given their positions "when they returned. The discharged soldier instead was given a bonus of $60, enough to last him three weeks, and turned loose at a time when every industry in the country had adopted a retrenchment policy and when men applied for their old positions in a good many cases they were informed that their position had been filled. It is true that in some cases the men were taken back, but in the majority of these cases they were put back at the old rate of pay, while their more fortunate brothers were still drawing war-time salaries.

Perhaps when the President and his cabinet march down Pennsylvania avenue Friday, some of those senators who voted against the soldier bonus will stand along the curbing and hear the ex-service men, out of work out, of funds, but still loyal to their country, cheer their President and stand at attention when the colors pass and maybe it may sink in, that those ex-service men deserve a great deal more consideration than they have been shown by that body.—Lakeland Telegram.

HOME TOWN PAPER WEEK.

So many days are dedicated to special purposes now that it is not always easy to keep up with them, and whole weeks are now being set aside for the observance of certain important things. The home town paper has its chance this week, for there is a national movement to observe November 7th to 12th as Home Town Paper Week. Because the home town paper is an institution of the town quite as much as the schools and the churches, and has not always been given the support due it, the observance of Home Town Paper Week seems exceedingly appropriate. It has in it too the sentiment that belongs to Old Home Week, when from far and near there gather the sons and daughters who have gone elsewhere. Those who are unable to return can yet get their touch of home through the home town paper, and there is the link which binds the busy man and woman, the lonely boy and girl to the old home town and the deserted home nest.

EDITORIALETTES ON GOOD ENGLISH

Education teaches men to speak as they would not otherwise speak. Mend your speech a little, lest it may mar your fortunes. Speak good English and your English will speak for you. Good English is largely a matter of habit. Get the habit. Whatever is worth saying is worth saying well. Lack of words is loss of thought. Not how much we speak, but how well.

BETTER SPEECH FOR BETTER HOMES.

The home, the church, and the schools are the three educational agencies of society. All education should begin at the home. Better speech should begin there. "As the twig is bent, so is the tree inclined." As parents we owe it to our children, both by precept and by practice, to arouse in them a consciousness of speech and to incite in them a desire for improvement. The sooner begun, the sooner done. Now that the ladies are taking up a man's cigar ashes for life.

MASCOT SWEEP FLOOR FOR UNSHOD ACTOR

The many painful possibilities existing around a motion picture studio when the star has to do a series of barefoot scenes caused Bert Lytell, to create a new position during the production of "The Man Who," his latest picture, a Maxwell Karger production for Metro which will be the feature attraction at the Star Theatre today.

After involuntarily picking up some tacks and splinters in his unprotected pedal extremities, the wrathful star created the Metro mascot, Albert Sarro, known flippantly and professionally as "the studio kid" official tack-detector and on every set where Mr. Lytell appeared without his walking protectors the official tack-detector first made a keenedyed search. There was an immediate falling off in casualties.

"The Man Who" was adapted to the screen by Arthur Zellner and was photographed by Arthur Martinelli. M. P. Stauleup designed the art interiors.

Mr. Lytell's supporting cast includes Lucy Cotton, Virginia Valli, Frank Currier, Fred Warren, Mary Louise Benton, Tammany Young, Clarence Elmer, William Roselle and Frank Strayer.

WILL TALK BAND AT DELAND.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hall will leave today for DeLand, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Ball's aunt, Mrs. Lench. While at DeLand, Mr. Ball will address the DeLand Commercial Club on the subject of financing a home band. Mr. Ball is one of the best band leaders that has come to Florida in some time, and has had years of experience in directing bands and taking charge of municipal bands. Sanford is fortunate in having two such musicians as Mr. and Mrs. Ball.
