From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Homer Does Some "Back-Seat Sewing!"

Homer Bentley's missus was working on her new sewing machine, when Homer comes in, draws up a chair, and starts talking. "Don't you think you're running too fast?" he says. "Slow down! Watch out! Be careful!"

When the missus finally turns with murder in her eyes, Homer says goodnaturedly: "I thought you might like a little help, dear—like you help me drive the car."

The missus can't help but burst out laughing—and they settle what might have been a quarrel over a friendly glass of beer. The missus agrees to give up back-seat driving and nagging Homer about when on the rug. Homer agrees to quit criticizing Sarah's taste for flowery hats and parsley salad.

From where I sit, the key to getting on together is meeting every issue half way—and overlooking any petty differences in taste—whether these tastes apply to beer or flowery-looking hats!

Britain Urges Emergency Act For Palestine

Creech-Jones Says There Is No Time To Reach Permanent Holy Land Solution

LAME SUCCESS, Apr. 23, (AP)—Britain urged the United Nations today to adopt emergency measures that would stop open warfare in Palestine. Arthur Creech-Jones, colonial secretary, told the special Palestine assembly, which is in session until Monday, that there was no time now to try to reach a permanent solution to the Holy Land problem.

He repeated that Britain was giving up her mandate rule May 15 and Palestine then would be under a government unless the UN acts.

Creech-Jones took no direct stand on the American suggestion for an interim trusteeship in lieu of partition. The colonial secretary said that Britain would cooperate to the fullest of her ability in carrying out any emergency measure, subject only to the fixed date of Aug. 1 for withdrawal of British troops.

A British spokesman said Creech-Jones' speech did not reflect any decisions taken by the British cabinet within the last two days. The spokesman said also that direct talks still were going on between Britain and the United States over a temporary solution.

In his long speech, Creech-Jones abandoned for the first time here the strict British hands-off policy regarding a Palestine solution. He said that partition was unrealistic unless it could be carried out with force.

"I do not think that any proposals for definite settlement could be affected unless they were backed by a very substantial means of enforcement," he said. "The only realistic solution is one which the United Nations is now obliged to aim at a more modest objective and to use all the practical means at its disposal in its present developments."

Soviets Warn Of Air Restrictions In Berlin Zones

Red General Ridicules Britain's Investigation Of Crash

BERLIN, Apr. 23, (AP)—A Russian air force general said today he believes measures will be taken to "assure the safety of Soviet planes and protect Soviet fliers" over Russian zone air corridors used by the United States, Britain and France.

General Alexandrov made the prediction after ridiculing Britain's investigation of the collision Apr. 5 of a British transport and a Russian fighter plane. He again accused the British of tampering with the wreckage—charges the British have denied.

Alexandrov spoke at a three-hour news conference. It was one of the officers to be installed.

Eighty Motorists Visit Jaycee Auto Inspection Service

"Eighty wise and prudent motorists who decided that it is better to be safe than sorry," had their automobiles given a free check by mechanics yesterday afternoon at the Jaycee Safety Lane, a marked space on Fourth Street between Park and Oak Avenues. It was reported this morning by John Henrich, Jaycee safety chairman.

Automobiles entering the first white marked space were inspected for horn, rear view mirror and glass, windshield wipers, brakes and tires.

Next came tests for steering control, front end play and bushings, and the motorist's license. Those inspected, Hugh Waters drove his Chevrolet first for inspection. Silver Fleet cars were tested.

Jaycees at work on the check-up yesterday afternoon included J. Bradley Gilman, John S. Senkirk, George Morgan, H. G. McIntosh and Jesse Lodge.

Mechanics were sent to the inspection by the following garage owners and automobile dealers: Bill Kirk; General Tractor and Equipment Co.; Heller Motor Sales; Sanford Buick Co.; Seminole County Motors; Speedy Sales and Service; and Strickland Morrison, Inc.

Worry Leaves Face Of Italians, Relaxing After Bitter Campaign

ROME, Apr. 23 (AP)—Worry has left the face of Italian politicians, talked of Spring again today. Suddenly they found it good to be alive.

Premier Alcide De Gasperi, humble and modest in victory, reflected the attitude of perhaps two-thirds of the Italian people. He told an American reporter: "I'm very, very tired. But I'm also happy. Can't you see it on my face?"

Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's Moscow-trained Communist, was not happy. He spoke for the other third of the Italian people. In his first public utterance since Communism's crushing electoral defeat, he told reporters of the Communist organ "Unita" yesterday: "The election was not free." He was bitter but bowed. Near Rome and in Naples had Trieste last night. Communists talked of "punitive expeditions," slashed at Christian Democrats, stormed police and tried to attack a church. But the rest of Italy was quiet under the warm sun

General Says Air Forces Peace Program

Emphasizes It Is No New Program Generated By Fear Of War, Uncertainties

CHICAGO, Ill., Apr. 23, (AP)—Air General Hoyt S. Vandenberg said today he is sure the people and Congress "will make an intelligent decision in regard to the future of air power."

In an address prepared for a meeting of the Executives Club here, the chief of staff-designate of the Air Force made no direct reference to the current controversy between Defense Secretary Forrestal and the Air Force over the latter's desire to expand to 70-group size.

"I want to emphasize two things applicable to any current air force proposal," Vandenberg said. "First, our program is not a new program, generated by present world uncertainties and apprehensions.

"Second, it is a peacetime program. These two facts have got slightly out of focus in recent days."

(Forrestal originally proposed that the Air Force remain at a 55-group level, but earlier this week offered a 60-group compromise for a House-approved proposal for a 70-group force. (In an address at New York (Continued on Page Two)

Canadian Floods

WINNIPEG, Man., Apr. 23 (AP)—Spring floods left hundreds of persons homeless and transportation crippled in three Canadian provinces today. The crisis stage was awaited.

Areas of Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan were affected. More than 500 families were routed from their homes in the Drumheller Valley district of Alberta. Blocks of ice weighing as much as a ton littered streets in the towns of Drumheller and Wayne. The Red River had reached a 30 year peak.

Daffone was the half-joking, half-frightened campaign slogan for 'Whiskers' or Prime Minister Stalin. Thousands of Italians had said 'Ea da venire Daffone (whiskers must come)'. Dan McCarty Leads In Support Of Florida Daily Newspapers

By Associated Press

Florida daily newspaper support of governorship candidates so far is split up four ways. Dick Cooper, Dan McCarty, W. A. Shands and Fuller Warren have received editorial backing from one or more dailies.

Only about a third of the dailies have expressed any choice whatsoever. Some still may name the candidates of their preference before the first primary election May 4, others will wait to select one of the two men who get in the runoff. Still others make it a policy never to back any candidate.

The newspaper Sun was the latest to take a stand when it endorsed Cooper Wednesday. Dan McCarty has the editorial support of the Bradenton Herald, Tampa Tribune, Daytona Beach News Journal, St. Petersburg Independent, Sanford Herald, Lakeland News Highlander and his hometown Fort Pierce News Tribune.

The Miami Daily News is behind Shands, along with his hometown Gainesville Sun. Warren is backed by the Fort Myers News Press, Miami Beach Sun-Star and St. Petersburg Times.

Some of the chain of John H. Perry papers has given an endorsement, not have the Miami Herald, Jacksonville Florida Times Union, Orlando Sentinel-Star, Tampa Times, Tallahassee Democrat, Lakeland Ledger or Sarasota Herald Tribune, among others.

Negroes' Retrial Mystery Witness Set For Monday Quizzed By Cops In Reuther Case

DETOIT, Apr. 23, (AP)—Officers whisked a mystery witness into police headquarters today as they pressed their demand for the gunman who tried to kill Walter P. Reuther.

Prosecutor James N. McNally said the witness, not identified, was the one who first gave information to police about Nelson Davis, an admitted Communist, now in custody for questioning.

McNally said the witness told police he heard Davis say he knew who shot the 40-year-old president of the CIO United Auto Workers.

Davis, 52, a negro foundry worker at the Ford Motor Co., denied that he ever made such a remark Davis was said by McNally to have signed a formal statement admitting that he was a Communist.

He emphasized, however, that he has been placed against Davis. There is conclusive evidence that he was on the job when Reuther was attacked, McNally added.

Davis was taken to police headquarters yesterday along with three other UAW members. McNally informed his attorney (Continued on Page Two)

Senate Group For Universal Service In War

American People Are Told Nation May Be Battled Field And Arsenal Next Time

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23, (AP)—A "universal service" program to make sure every American does "his proper part" if war comes again was commended to Congress today for study.

The Senate War Investigating Committee set forth the proposal in a report on industrial mobilization it says.

"The American people must realize that in another war this nation may at once become not only an arsenal but also a battlefield."

The report also says that "in the era of total war" new methods must be developed "to take our full profits out of war and preparation for war."

The study came to Congress' attention in the midst of building preparations for military defense. But there appeared to be little chance for action this session on the "universal service" legislation suggested by the committee.

The industrial mobilization document, made available to a reporter in advance of its general release, says: "The essence of total war is universal service imposed by (Continued on Page Two)

Newspaper Probe In Virginia Is Ruled Illegal

RICHMOND, Va., Apr. 23, (AP)—Attorney General J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., held today that he has no authority to investigate Richmond Newspapers, Inc. in accordance with the "Swanson resolution" of the house of delegates.

In a letter to E. Griffith Dodson, clerk of the house, Almond said a study of the resolution itself, and of laws covering authority of the attorney general, had convinced him that his office had no authority to comply with the directive.

Almond's ruling killed all possible proceedings under the resolution. Earlier this month, the State Corporation Commission held that it lacked authority to proceed with an investigation of the newspapers.

Sponsored by Delegate Sam Swanson, of Pittsylvania county, the resolution was adopted by the house of delegates on March 13 by an unrecorded vote. It directed the SCC to investigate the profits and salaries of the papers, and instructed the attorney general to investigate the papers' practices and policies "to determine if Richmond Newspapers, Inc. was in violation of monopoly laws.

The Swanson resolution followed editorial criticism of some of the legislators for adoption of a $300 per member bonus in the house of delegates and for their action on other measures.

TAFT AND STASSEN OPEN ANOTHER ROUND IN GOP PRESIDENTIAL RACE

CLEVELAND, Apr. 23 (AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft and Harold E. Stassen opened another round today in their campaigns for Ohio presidential support. Stassen, seeking 23 of the state's 53 delegates to the Republican National Convention, planned talks in the industrial centers of Akron and Canton.

Taft, halting his state tour for the time being, was to return to Cleveland for conferences and two radio appearances. Both candidates, eyeing the state's May 4 primary, have spent the past two days campaigning in Ohio.

In an address before approximately 750 in Steubenville last night, the Ohio senator again referred to Stassen's contention that he is more liberal than Taft. "I've been interested to learn that Stassen considers himself more liberal than I am," Taft said. He then asked Stassen to state this position on socialized medicine, federal aid in education and "certain public housing in slum clearance measures."

John L. Lewis, UMW Penalty Postponed On Civil Contempt

Government Seeks To End 39 Day Old CIO Meat Strike

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23, (AP)—Judge T. Alan Goldborough today postponed indefinitely any further contempt penalty against John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers Union. Goldborough accepted a government recommendation that he impose no further punishment at this time.

Assistant Attorney General Graham Morrison said no useful purpose could be accomplished by new fines against Lewis and the union now.

Last Wednesday, Goldborough fined Lewis $20,000 personally and the UMW $1,400,000 for criminal contempt of court. The contempt finding was based on their disregard of an Apr. 3 court order to stop the coal strike. There was also a finding by the judge that Lewis and the union were guilty of civil contempt.

Today's court session was for sentencing on the civil contempt charge. Morrison told Goldborough that 85 percent or more of the soft coal miners have returned to work. Therefore, Morrison said, he moved that a civil contempt sentence be put off "indefinitely." The judge agreed.

Morrison said "the government is quite happy" over the back-to-work movement in the coal fields.

The government attorney indicated that the Justice Department might request its contempt charge if there is a resumption of the walk out.

Goldborough has issued an injunction under the Taft-Hartley Labor Act. This injunction, or court order, forbids continued or renewal of the strike on grounds it would threaten the national health and safety.

Lewis' attorney, Welly K. Hopkins, agreed to Morrison's proposal that the civil contempt sentencing be put off indefinitely. He said there were more than 25 percent of coal diggers back on the job—the figure used by Morrison.

Salvation Army Personnel To Visit County, City Jails

Salvation Army officers and soldiers in this area will visit the City and County Jails Sunday on the occasion of Salvation Army Prison Sunday throughout the United States. It was announced today by Capt. E. H. Hudson, commanding officer of the Army Corps. Approximately 200,000 men and women prisoners in 1,200 penal and correctional institutions from Sing Sing to Alcatraz are expected to participate in religious exercises conducted by the Army.

Each year some 1,929 families of prisoners are helped by the Salvation Army. Capt. Hudson said. Food and clothing, furniture and even cash is given where needed and merited.

Work in the prisons consists of frequent visits to all those who wish to participate in the welfare and spiritual work of the Army. Capt. Hudson added. He estimated that only about 10 per cent, perhaps even less, of the prisoners actually have steady visitors from the outside—relatives or friends. The remainder of these men and women are forgotten and forsaken, he declared, except by the Salvation Army.

DEATH BY BLOWS
JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 23, (AP)—Mrs. Fred W. Lewis, nurse at Bolles Military School here, came to her death from blows on her head inflicted by Almon Washington, negro, a coroner's jury decided yesterday.

Mrs. Lewis, who formerly resided in the Eastern Shore section of Maryland, was killed Apr. 6. Her apartment in the school infirmary was set afire in an effort to conceal the crime.

Washington, janitor at the school, made a full confession to county officers a week later. He also pleaded guilty at a preliminary hearing when he was charged with first degree murder.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

WE STUMBLE IN THE DARKNESS, GOD'S TRUTH IS A LAMP TO OUR FEET AND A STRONG HELD IN TROUBLOUS TIMES.—S. 22:17; He drew me out of many waters.

Nathan Mayo, the veteran commissioner of agriculture, is said to have pretty active opposition in the person of Ammon McClellan. Mayo's friends had better get busy.

We are glad to see where Lieut Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts has apologized to the South for his inassable disposition. He meant no harm, he says, when he recently declared "Bilbo belt banjo-strummers are 'kid-napin' New England industries."

We have heard only one comment locally on the shooting of Walter Reuther. "Too bad it wasn't Lewis." Well, we couldn't with him any such hard luck, but it does seem that when a man begins to think himself bigger than the courts, or the government, someone ought to cut him down to size.

The Senate has passed the Tall-ellender-Wagner housing bill which is designed to build 15,000,000 new homes during the next 10 years. Under the terms of the bill anyone who wants a house can get one and the government will pay for it.

One of the latest "polls" we have seen, in which we take no more stock than the rest, shows that 50 percent of the Florida Democrats are against President Truman for re-nomination, 75 percent of the Republicans favor Harold Stassen. It also shows that Grady Burton has 48 percent of the votes for attorney general, Dick Ervin only 25 percent. So when it says that Dan McCarty is in fourth place with only 11 percent of the votes, you can take that with a grain of salt too.

Another sign of the times is the boost in New York's subway fares. Since time immemorial, or at least since the subways were built, New Yorkers have ridden them from one end of town to the other, if they wanted to, for a nickel. Then they were owned by private companies. A few years ago the city socialized this industry. In other words, the politicians took them over, and probably the people thought they would soon be riding for nothing. However, Mayor William O'Dwyer announced the other day that effective July 1, everyone will have to pay 10 cents to ride on the city's subways.

We see where Fons Hathaway, one of Florida's oldest public servants, is about to retire as director of the Florida Employment Service after reaching the age of 65. It was just 20 years ago this Spring that Hathaway and Doyle Carlton were chasing each other around this state from one end to the other blasting away with oratorical bombardments which have never been equalled in any gubernatorial contest since that time. Hathaway had previously been superintendent of schools in Duval county, and chairman of the State Road Department under Governor Martin. Since 1928 he has held a number of important appointments in state service.

Defective Automobiles

In a recent vehicle inspection campaign in Pennsylvania, a tenth of the vehicles checked were found to be defective. The finding takes on new meaning in view of the fact that vehicles registered in Pennsylvania are inspected twice a year, and must be passed as safe to remain in use.

In a six-month period, one vehicle in ten in that state became unsafe. Probably the owners of most of these vehicles were unaware of the defects until discovered by the inspection station. No one can guess how many of the defects might have escaped notice until they caused accidents.

Although more highway accidents are probably caused by defective drivers than by defective vehicles, nevertheless programs of periodic inspection of vehicles, such as that now being conducted in Sanford by the Jaycees help to reduce the number of accidents resulting from mechanical failure.

Perhaps similar inspection for drivers might also be a good idea.

Spring Floods

The spring has brought floods to some of the nation's rivers, as every year floods come to the country in one area or another.

Flood is a terrifying thing, whether it comes with the rush of a mountain freshet or the slow, unseen rise of a broad river. It takes everything in its path, ruthlessly thrusting man aside in his puny efforts to stem the rising waters, and in its wake are left ruin, famine and disease.

All of the engineering devices built to control the waters are beheld with an uncertain fear when the floods come. Will the walls hold, and are they high enough? Will the huge dams stand against the lakes piling up behind them, and what will happen if the water climbs to the tops of the gates?

Even such fears are better than the certainty of flood along streams not protected by such engineering works as man can build. Every spring flood anywhere in the land should spur the nation anew to do what it can to prevent flood by harnessing the streams.

Televising Conventions

Owners of television sets who tune into the national conventions will not see much, in the opinion of Robert S. Stephan, radio editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. The sight of a speaker at the microphone, reading from a manuscript, will not hold spectators for more than a couple of minutes, and the necessary variety will not be obtained by offering more of the same.

One way to hold eye-interest would be to encourage parades. Marching delegates with banners and the slogans of their candidates, perhaps dressed in fancy costumes or at least displaying the emblem of their candidate's state, have been occasional convention features. Party managers who want to keep televisions from tuning out might do well to organize more such parades.

It might add to the popularity of a convention as a form of radio entertainment if nominating and seconding speeches were greatly shortened. That would be all to the good, television or no television.

Italy Relaxes

(Continued From Page One) Chicago. "See what I told you," he said. "I knew we Italians still love America."

Attilio Teatini, ex-soldier waiter at the Monticello restaurant, dished up a plate of spaghetti and smiled. "It's all over now... that nightmare."

Ermanno Franchinetti, employee of an American airline, said "We've put our evacuation plan in the kebox. We had our plans all ready to fly out our employees, every one of them. Maybe we'll never have to use them now."

Bruno Pieroni, a newspaper reporter, "It's your victory, too, you know. It's our victory of good sense over bad sense," he said.

Behind the gray walls and palace guards of the Viminale, De Gasperi posed for American news-reel photographers.

"I am happy to greet all the good people of America who have been so kind to Italy and who always have had confidence in the good judgment of the Italian people," he said.

"Thank you, sir," said his news-reel interviewer as the camera still whirled. "Oka," said the premier.

MacFadden Weds 3rd Bride This Afternoon

MIAMI BEACH, Apr. 23 (AP)—Bernarr MacFadden, 79-year-old millionaire physical culturist, takes his third bride today—a 42-year-old grandmother.

MacFadden and Mrs. Jonnie Lee plan to be married at 4 P.M. in the Community Church here at a conventional ceremony performed by the Rev. John Yenches.

The reception to follow will be something else. The bride, a New York interior decorator, will cut a five-foot wedding cake made entirely of whole wheat flour and honey, and there will be carrot juice for those whose tastes run to such things. For others, traditional champagne will be served.

After a short honeymoon, MacFadden expects to resume his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor of Florida.

FRENCH MINERS

LILLE, France, Apr. 23 (AP)—The French news agency said today nearly all the 130,000 miners who struck yesterday in France's northern coal fields are back at work.

The walkout was in protest against alleged lack of safety devices in the mines. Fourteen miners were killed in a blast Monday.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

William Averell Harriman, newly appointed roving ambassador under the European Recovery Program, says there has been over emphasis on Russian strength and Western European weakness.

The former American ambassador to Moscow, who recently told a congressional committee that the Soviet Union is a "great danger to the West," holds back on its feet, there will be no need to fear pressures from the East. He is confident the Marshall Plan will succeed.

The belief that a strong Western Europe will be a bulwark against Communist aggression is, of course, the basis of the Marshall Plan. And there certainly is much to encourage the hope of success—notably the smashing defeat of the Bolsheviks in the Italian national elections.

However, we shall make a terrible mistake if we let optimism lessen our fears of Bolshevism. As Mr. Harriman has truly observed, it is a "greater menace than Hitler was"—and the Nazi dictator was within a hair's breadth of conquering Europe.

Had Hitler succeeded, then would have come the deluge, with no Noah's Ark.

So long as Communist agents and fellow-travelers continue their underground efforts to overthrow governments the world over, just so long will there be danger to free men. That's quite apart from any direct military threat toward economic recovery. This undoubtedly will be speeded up greatly as the Marshall Plan swings into action.

The period of greatest danger is likely to be during the next three or four years, until economic recovery has progressed to a point which will permit of military preparedness against aggression. While Western Europe on the whole is doing well, it is a long way from being able to equip itself with the sinews of war at this juncture. It must be remembered that quite apart from the terrible destruction by war in many countries, much of the invaded territory was stripped by Hitler. It's going to take time to repair this damage. One of the most hopeful aspects of this situation lies in a fact which isn't generally realized. This is that Great Britain, while in very bad shape economically, has managed to maintain a well balanced military striking force.

Britain's defense policy was outlined a couple of months ago in a White Paper which said that in the present situation, where the United Nations isn't yet able to enforce peace, the best deterrent to war is tangible evidence of Britain's intention and ability to withstand attack. The statement went on to say that whether it is a question of self-defense or of support of the U.N., it is necessary to maintain British forces in peacetime to deter aggression which might lead to war.

Pursuing that policy, John Bull has strengthened his air force. His Navy, which once enabled him to boast that "Britannia rules the waves," is getting back in shape. He still maintains conscription and has nearly a million men under arms, including units in various parts of the world. So John isn't in bad shape at all, in respect to his fighting forces, although obviously he would be too weak industrially to provide all the material needed to supply those forces.

Thus, all in all, Western Europe frames up exceedingly well as a barrier against Communist expansion by aggression. Russia certainly would think long and hard before challenging this coalition militarily.

CHANEY ILL. BURBANK, Calif., Apr. 23 (AP)—Actor Lon Chaney, Jr. was in serious condition at St. Joseph's Hospital today, victim of a reported overdose of sleeping tablets.

Det. Lieut. W. D. Hendricks said the 43-year-old son of the late character star took the pills at his north Hollywood home last night. Chaney's personal physician said the actor had taken several doses.

Chaney, best known for his role of Lonnie in "Of Mice and Men," is married to non-professional Patsy Fleck. He has two children by a former marriage.

PROWLING RUBS ISTANBUL, Turkey, Apr. 23 (AP)—Istanbul newspapers reported today that two foreign submarines have been seen prowling in the sea of Marmara.

There was no official comment. The papers said the submarines came from the North and slipped through narrow Bosphorus Strait unnoticed.

Taft, Stassen

Stassen said his own view was "American workmen as a whole are just as loyal, conscientious and sensible as any other group of American citizens."
He also asserted Taft favored allowing employers in some cases to obtain temporary injunctions against unions, but he believed in limiting such relief to the government.
A third difference, the 41-year-old Republican said, is their stand on industry-wide bargaining between labor and management. Stassen said he favored giving the unions this right, but Taft apparently opposed it.

Sanford To Meet G- Men Here Tonight; Lose To Saints

Senators Play Here Tomorrow Night; Locals To Invade DeLand On Sunday

Manager Myrl Hoag's Gainesville G-Men invade the Sanford Giants home confines tonight for a contest, and tomorrow night the Giants will play hosts to the Orlando Senators. Sunday the locals move to DeLand for an engagement with the Red Hats in Conrad Park and move to Leesburg on Monday night.

Manager Hal Gruber announced this morning that either John Bakelaar or Charles Spinks will handle the mound duties for tonight's contest and Buddy Lake will face the Senators tomorrow evening.

Last night the St. Augustine Saints clubbed the deliveries of Bob Marshall, Art Dunham and Jim McKenna for ten safeties and a 13 to 2 victory as righthander Hill Goodwin limited the Sanford sluggers to five well scattered singles.

Eight runs in the eighth inning by the Saints used the contest.

Daytona Beach is continuing to pace the Florida State circuit. They trimmed the Gainesville G-men last night by a 10 to 5 margin. Orlando nipped the Leesburg Pirates, 7 to 5. As the result of the Orlando and St. Augustine victories, Sanford is resting in third place in the loop standings.

Annual School Is Wanted By Florida Coaches Association

MIAMI Apr. 23 (AP)—The Florida State Coaches Association wants an annual summer coaching school, sponsored jointly by the coaches and the State High School Athletic Association.

Coaches voted at their convention here yesterday to ask the Universities of Florida and Miami to aid in establishing the school. No site was chosen.

A code of ethics was adopted and a proposal that any legislation passed or rejected by members of the Florida High School Athletic Association be tabled for three years was adopted.

In another meeting, big 10 schools clarified football schedules. Basketball coaches agreed that 12 cage games must be played with conference foes for a team to be eligible for the championship.

The conference golf, swimming and tennis tournaments will be held at St. Petersburg on the weekend of May 15, and the baseball tournament at Jacksonville.

Extra Batting Punch Is Needed To Give Tigers Or A's Winner

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the Detroit Tigers and Philadelphia Athletics had more batting punch to back up their strong pitching staffs, they and not the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox probably would be the co-favorites for the American League flag.

Take yesterday's games, for example. The Tigers got only six hits off rookie Howard Judson and Ike Pearson, yet defeated the White Sox in Chicago, 3-2. Virgil (Fire) Trucks went the route for Detroit, yielding eight hits. He walked one and allowed one extra base hit.

Currently they are leading the parade with three victories and two defeats each. And it takes to Sherlock Holmes to come up with the reason—fine pitching plus clutch hitting.

Take yesterday's games, for example. The Tigers got only six hits off rookie Howard Judson and Ike Pearson, yet defeated the White Sox in Chicago, 3-2. Virgil (Fire) Trucks went the route for Detroit, yielding eight hits. He walked one and allowed one extra base hit.

That made it only 23 hits and seven runs given up by Detroit hurlers in three games, an average of less than eight hits and about two runs per game. Hal Newhouse yielded two runs and eight hits opening day and Dizzy Trout and Stubby Overmire gave up three runs and seven hits Wednesday. The Tigers, meanwhile, accumulated only 27 hits and 12 runs themselves.

Philadelphia's pitchers have been equally effective. Joe Coleman yesterday became the first Athletics hurler to fail to go the distance, but some splendid relief pitching by Bob Savage helped the Marksmen nip the Red Sox in Boston, 5-3. Savage held the slugging Red Sox to one hit in a three-inning chore. He was credited with the victory when the A's scored two runs in the ninth as righthander Sam Leis lost Barney McCosky's fly ball in the sun.

The Red Sox could master only eight safeties off Coleman and Savage for a total of only 19 hits and nine runs in 29 innings. That's an average of six hits and three runs per game.

On the other hand, the Red Sox and Yankee pitchers have been faring badly. The Sox have used seven pitchers in three games and the Yankees six.

The National League race, as predicted, already is showing signs of turning into a free-for-all. With only four playing days gone, every club has been beaten at least once. The St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies, first likings yesterday. The Cards were edged out by the Cincinnati Reds in St. Louis, 4-3, while the Boston Braves walloped the Phils in Philadelphia, 10-4.

In the other National League games the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated the Pirates in New York, 5-3, and the Pirates shut out the Chicago Cubs in Pittsburgh, 3-0. The Yankees, St. Louis Browns, Cleveland and Washington were not scheduled.

St. Louis began as an American town of 1,000 in 1803 when President Jefferson made the Louisiana Purchase from Napoleon.

COMMENT'S SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.
Herald Sports Editor

Analyze Decisions

"It is often very helpful to analyze a play backwards when you are in doubt as to the scoring or a base hit or an error. Look at it this way: If the fielder had retired the batter, would there have been a great or unusual play? If so do not penalize the fielder with an error because he failed to make a play that would have been a sensational one. A manager's thought on that angle of play will often give you the decision in a flash," says the Manual for Official scorers published by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

The manual goes on to say, "What a player MIGHT have done does not enter into a case. You can only be guided by what the player DID do."

These are two points which are vividly brought out in the official scorer's handbook, and they are points often overlooked by Mr. Average Baseball Fan.

In making decisions, the manual says, "When in doubt about a hit-error decision, analyze the play. If the fielder had retired his mar, would it have been a great play? If so, you would not want to penalize a defense player with an error."

These are things for everyone to keep in mind when attending baseball contests at the local park, or any other park in the country.

Here in There

Jerry Silverman, 1946 and 1947 player for the Sanford Celery Reds, has gone to Vidalia, Ga., to play for the Vidalia entry in the Georgia (or Georgia State) League, a recently started league. Manager Lou Finney of the St. Petersburg Saints sent Silverman to Georgia.

High School Coach, is pitching for the Apopka team of the Lake-Orange semi-pro loop. . . . Jack McCammon is pitching for a Equis semi-pro club. . . . Johnny Tomat is working for a railroad in Savannah, Ga. He is evidently making two many greenbacks to give up the job to come back and get into a Sanford baseball uniform. . . . Seminole High diamond men will meet Lyman High of Longwood in the sub-district baseball tournament to be played here on May 20, 21 and 22. . . . Billy Tamm pitched a no-hit no-run baseball game in the Rotary League for junior baseball players on Monday afternoon. Keep up the good work, Billy. . . . Johnny Sash, former Daytona Beach Isles catcher and manager, is catching for Montgomery in the Southeastern League.

and a 10-5 victory over the G-Men; Orlando nipped out the Leesburg Pirates, 6-5; Palatka downed the Deland Red Hats, 2-1; and St. Augustine nipped the Sanford club, 13-2.

In the Saint-Giant encounter, pitcher Bill Goodwin limited the Sanford club to five hits while his mates collected 10 off three opposing moundmen.

St. Louis began as an American town of 1,000 in 1803 when President Jefferson made the Louisiana Purchase from Napoleon.

Youngsters Urged To Enter Jaycee Golf Tournament

All young people under 19 years of age are urged to enter the First Annual Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament, which will open tomorrow at the Seminole Country Club under the direction of Clyde Terwillegar, club pro.

R. F. Ganas, sports committee chairman, has been in charge of making arrangements for the tournament, and has expressed satisfaction with the co-operation received at the Seminole Country Club and with the young people, who are eligible to enter the tourney.

Two trophies will be given in the affair. The winner and the runner up will each receive the awards, Ganas declared today.

"We are attempting to increase interest in golf among the youngsters of Sanford and Seminole County and feel that this is one of the best ways in which it can be done," Ganas added.

Nashville, Mobile Meet Tonight To Set League Lead

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Nashville Vols, the preseason favorites, and Mobile, the defending champion, meet tonight in a battle for the Southern Association lead.

The Vols, winner of four straight from the Chattanooga Lookouts, after dropping the season's opener, went into first place yesterday by leading the Lookouts, 7-1. Mobile and Memphis each lost.

The Vols and the Lookouts played only seven innings to enable the former to catch a train for Mobile. Memphis dropped a 2-0 game to Little Rock, and New Orleans gave the Mobile Bears a 6-0 lead and then beat them, 10-7, in ten innings.

In the other game, Atlanta gained an even break with Birmingham in six meetings by taking the finale, 7-5, although out-hit, 13 to seven. The triumph for New Orleans and Little Rock gave them each two victories in six games with their respective opponents.

New Orleans and Memphis are tied tonight, but Chattanooga plays at Atlanta in a one-game stand, and Little Rock plays at Birmingham.

Mike Johnson, making his first start for Little Rock, held Memphis to four hits as his mates got six off Chuck Eisenmann. Bob Davis tripled and scored on an error in the second inning for the merits of victory.

Charlie Gilbert, the Nashville Giants' pitcher, hit any more home runs at Chattanooga, but had two doubles in three official trips

Clyde Terwillegar, club pro at the Seminole Country Club, announced today that he has been named pro at the Lenoir, N. C. Golf and Country Club, and will report to his new position on May 1. "I hate to leave Sanford and my many good friends here, but this is an opportunity for advancement, and I feel that I must accept it," Terwillegar declared today.

He had hit seven roundtrips off Lookout hurlers in the first four games. Lee Holloman, a rookie, held the Lookouts to three hits, all singles. The loss dropped Chattanooga into the cellar.

Atlanta was leading the Barons, 6-0, going into the last of the seventh when the home team called for two runs. Then in the eighth, after the Crackers had made it 7-2, Ralph Atkins, Baron firstbaseman, hit his third home run of the season with two on. That ended the scoring.

Mobile appeared headed for certain victory with a 6-0 lead going into the eighth, but New Orleans rallied for two runs. Then in the ninth, the Peis broke loose for five runs to take a 7-6 lead and drive Pete Wojey from the mound. The Bears used three hurlers in relief roles with Dale Mathewson being charged the loss when the Peis counted three times in the tenth inning.

AUBURN TRIPS GATORS

AUBURN, Ala., Apr. 23 (AP)—The Auburn Tigers completed a sweep of the two-game series with the Florida Gators yesterday with a 9-5 victory. Auburn took the opener, 13-1, Wednesday.

Terwillegar Is To Report On May 1; Tourneys Underway Will Be Completed

Clyde Terwillegar, golf pro at the Seminole Country Club for the past two years, announced this morning that he has been named pro at the Lenoir, N. C. Golf and Country Club of Lenoir, N. C. Acceptance of the position will be an advancement in his golf career, he added.

"I sincerely will miss the wonderful Sanford people, because they have been so cooperative in building golf interest. The Sanford Women's Golf Association, which we formed this year, resulted in a peak of 60 members."

"The number of men golfers and teenage players has increased beyond expectation. This would only have been done through fine cooperation and enthusiasm for the tournaments," Terwillegar said. "Our club membership for the men and women this year were the largest ever to be held at the Sanford club," he declared.

During his stay in Sanford, Terwillegar gave free golf instruction at the Seminole High School and had an enrollment of 125 students. A junior tournament has always been a feature of the Sanford club, and this year such a tournament will begin with the Jaycees presenting two trophies. Miss Dot Powell and Andrew Caraway are giving trophies for tournaments which are now under way.

Some of the largest professional amateur tournaments ever held at the local club were held in Sanford this year, the pro added, and many inter-city meets were staged. These extra activities were able to display the golf course to many out of town golfers and therefore build up the course play.

Terwillegar will report for his new job in Lenoir on May 1.

Sam Gardner Wins Skeet Shoot Honors

Sam Gardner scored 66 of a possible 75 points to win top honors at the Sanford Skeet Club shoot at the Municipal Airport here yesterday.

Forrestal Says 66-Group Air Force Is Best

Secretary Decides Against 70-Group Plan If Military Spending Is Limited

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26.—(AP)—Secretary Forrestal told senators today that if the defense program is left "solely to the military, they'll fortify the moon."
He said there are other things, such as the threat of inflation, which have to be considered when mapping America's armament spending program.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26. (AP)—Secretary Forrestal said today a 66-group Air Force would give the United States "the best military results it our budget is to be limited." He added he has decided military spending should be limited.

The Secretary of Defense testified to a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee in a new round of congressional hearings on the 66 vs. 70 group Air Force controversy.

Forrestal said that "as a military matter" both he and the joint chiefs of staff would support a 70-group force, but that factors other than military also must be considered.

He went on:
"After taking into account all considerations—fiscal, economic and all others, as well as military—I have reached the conclusion that an overall program for the service (continued on Page Five)

Pepper Seeks Senatorial Agricultural Group's OK For Florida Projects

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26.—(AP)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) requested the Senate Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee today to approve $255,000 for Florida projects.

In addition, he asked that $15,000,000 be added to the $60,000,000 approved by the House for making emergency seed and feed loans.

He also recommended a series of additional increases in the House-approved appropriations and requested several new items be voted by the Senate, including $219,000 for sweet potato weevil control.

Florida projects which Pepper recommended to the subcommittee follow:
A Florida livestock market news service, $5,000; eradication of wild cotton in Florida, $173,000; investigation of malarial rubber in the Dutch East Indies, with a view to establishment of natural rubber farms in Florida, $25,000; for upkeep of Ocala National Forest, $12,000; for research in glandular fungi, $20,000; for Quincy, Fla., tobacco research laboratory, $20,000.

In support of his recommendation for a $75,000,000 emergency seed and feed loan program, Pepper told the subcommittee:
"For very small farmers, the farmers home administration constitutes the only source of satisfactory credit."
Other recommendations by Pepper included:

Approve $822,000, instead of the $750,000 voted by the House, for a survey of forest resources; add $199,825 to the $3,715,166 approved by the House for timber use and sales projects; vote $95,000 for each forest and watershed management project; a project of $25,000 for inspection and quarantine of aircraft entering Southern ports from Hawaii to prevent importation of Hawaiian fruit flies, and appropriate $5,000,000 for grants to state Agricultural Experiment Stations.

He also asked the Senate to add $100,000 to forest fire control funds voted by the House; $250,000 to the appropriation for research in forest products, and $300,000 for forest roads and trails.

Firm Policy On Russia Is Urged By Charles Layng

The need for a firm policy on the part of the United States toward Soviet Russia, backed by a strong Army and Air Force, was today stressed by Charles Layng, who was introduced at the Rotary luncheon today as having served in the United States military intelligence service during both World Wars. The only argument the Russians can understand, he said, is force.

Declaring that the recent election in Italy is the first check which Soviet Russia has ever received, Mr. Layng said that the Communists there will nevertheless continue their fight, not only in Italy, but also in France and the rest of the world.
"If there were any way we could do in Russia what we did in Italy," he said, "there would be a (continued on Page Five)

Sanford Author, Hazel Higgins Gobay, Pens Novel, "Georgia Clay"

By WILLARD CONNOLLY
Another Sanford author Hazel Higgins Gobay looms brightly on the literary horizon with the publication of "Georgia Clay," a tale of simple, hard-working people in a Georgia rural environment.

The daughter of the late T. R. Higgins, well known newspaperman of Sanford, Pittsburg and Detroit, Miss Gobay first attracted her father's attention by winning the first prize in a short story contest. She later did newspaper and advertising work on the Sanford Signal, which was operated for a time by her father.
Sidney H. Gobay, her husband, is a salesman, and for eight years she traveled with him throughout the South. Their pleasant little home was in the Mayfair section of Sanford. The tubays purchased and developed a 1,000 acre ranch in Georgia, and Mrs. Gobay on return to Sanford, often told her father interesting anecdotes of their experiences there, and on occasions induced her father to visit the ranch. The Gobays now live in Jacksonville.

Becoming enthusiastic over the possibilities of a novel resulting from the Georgia setting, and thwarted in his own fiction writing ambitions by the limitations on a newspaper man's time, plus waning health, Mr. Higgins induced his daughter to write the novel. He later formed his critical attention on the novel, read it and made many valuable suggestions and corrections toward making the story in finished form.
For readers who like to hurry through a novel, the story will have but little appeal; but for those who love characters of simple and often comical type just as they live, and express themselves in their real environment, the story should have strong appeal.
The story concerns Mac and Jen MacLundin, and their brood of 12 children who abandon the struggle of share-cropping on an Alabama plantation to accept an offer to supervise and live on a cattle raising ranch in Georgia. None of the other eight men only to encounter new trials and tribulations. Romantic interest is provided when Budie, their elder daughter, falls in love with Dick Yerks, a neighbor, whose dour old father bitterly resents new comers who would fence off cattle from the "free range."
The colored folk in the tale, Miss Phyllis, Uncle Easy Do, who still has a romance in his old age, Oysterfield, lanky colored helper on the ranch, and Old Lacey, are interesting, and substantially portrayed. The book is published by Beechhurst Press of New York.

Labor Group Has Rally For Candidates

Office-Seekers Are Given All The Time They Want To Air Views On Politics

For the first time in the present political campaign, candidates for county and state offices were given all the time they wanted to speak, when they addressed a group at a rally at the Municipal Park Saturday afternoon and evening sponsored by the United Labor Political Committee. As a result, it was nightfall, and the lights of the diamond were on when the last speaker finished at about 8:00 o'clock.

The rally was efficiently planned by the labor committee, including a parade at 2:00 P. M. in which candidates in their automobiles followed the Seminole High School Band and the horsemen of the Dusty Boots Riding Association.

The parade drew a large crowd in the downtown section, and with the high stepping majorettes of the band leading, started and ended opposite the Tourist Center after a loop that included Sanford Avenue, Fifth Street, Park Avenue, and a turn to the left at the block east on First Street. B. E. Black led the band.

There were about 60 riders in the Dusty Boots group with their colorful costumes and cracking whips. Sheriff P. A. Mero in a bright red shirt, and Betty Jean Prescott were color bearers. Mrs. Roy Reiter stole the show by having her mare's little colt obediently following.
President J. W. Cook, and W. E. Varn, chairman of arrangements, provided the candidates with a canvas-covered and beautifully decorated truck. (continued on Page Eight)

1 Killed, 10 Safe In Navy Plane Accident

NEW ORLEANS, Apr. 26.—(AP)—A Navy plane carrying ten men slid to a landing last night after the co-pilot had been killed when the PBY bomber hit a group of trees near the runway at Molokai International airport.

The 20-year-old co-pilot, whose name was not announced by the Navy, died when a tree branch pierced the plane. The pilot, Lieut. (jg) Harvey M. Walden, Jr., 22, New York, credited by the Navy with doing a "mazing job" in controlling the disabled craft, received minor cuts and bruises. None of the other eight men aboard was hurt.
After striking the trees, the Navy said the bomber slid about 1,500 feet on the runway before stopping.

Oleo Forces Win Against Butter Bloc

Action Makes Virtual Certainty Of Legislation To Repeal Federal Oleo Tax

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26. (AP)—The oleo forces won a test against the butter bloc in the House today. That makes it virtually certain the House will pass legislation to end all federal taxes on oleomargarine.

The test came when the House voted to discharge its Agriculture Committee from further consideration of oleo tax repealer bills, and to plump the issue directly on the floor immediately for a showdown.

The Agriculture Committee has been pigeon-holing the repeal legislation.
Before the first test came, Chairman Hope (R-Kan.) of the Agriculture Committee and Rep. Reed (R-N.Y.) told the House the fight to remove the oleo taxes is backed by a powerful lobby.
Rep. Ellsworth Buck (R-N.Y.) replied that "the daily lobby tricked Congress" 62 years ago when the tax was put on oleomargarine.

Shortly before the issue got up on the floor, a House Armed Services Committee voted unanimously to let the Army, Navy and Air Force use oleomargarine as they see fit.
The subcommittee instructed its chairman, Rep. Anderson (R-Cal.), to draft a bill repealing laws which bar all use of margarine by the Navy and allow the Army and Air Force to use it only for cooking.
This vote came just before the House met to debate legislation repealing all federal taxes and license fees on margarine.
Anderson told reporters his bill will go directly to the full Armed Services Committee today.

Tomato Shipments Reach High Volume In State Markets

JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 26.—(Special)—Tomato shipments reached heavy volume at several Florida production centers during the last week, with Fort Pierce reporting handling 40,000 crates, and Wauchula moving 8,024 in a single day according to reports available at the weekend in Jacksonville office of Florida State Markets. Other lines of produce added substantially to the overall volume under the influence of favorable weather and other recording with the advancing season.

Carlot shipments of eggplant continued during the week from the Gulf Coast and inland areas served by the Fort Myers State Farmers' Market. Manager W. F. Nehring reported quality is good and shipments may continue for another month. Some pepper and cucumbers are also being shipped.
"Corn seems to be on the way to becoming one of the major crops another season," said the Fort Myers market manager. "One firm here shipped six cars this week, netting the grower $4 per six dozen box." Cantaloupes have been grown in a limited way in the Fort Myers area this season, and appeared on the New York market during the last week.

Manager L. Warren of the Pompano Farmers' Market reported pepper and eggplant shipments from that section will continue (continued on Page Two)

Nation's Fuel Requirements Will Create Increased Need For Coal

CINCINNATI, Apr. 26.—(AP)—The nation's fuel requirements in the coming decade will cause a rapid increase in the need for coal, Dr. John H. Yellott, told the opening session of the American Mining Congress' coal convention today.

Dr. Yellott, director of research for the locomotive development committee, Baltimore, Md., said the balance between supply and demand for coal, oil, and gas no longer exist, and predicted the consumption of petroleum would rise to more than 7,000,000 barrels daily by 1950.

He said three factors make major increases in our fuel requirements inevitable. They were: The deficiency of fluid fuels, the export of more than 3,000,000 tons of U. S. coal to meet Marshall Plan requirements in the next 12 months, and the interchangability from a chemical point of view of oil, oil and gas.
Dr. Yellott also described a gas turbine locomotive which would use pulverized coal as a fuel. The locomotive he described would operate from direct current electricity produced by the turbine.
"The direct current transmission developed for the diesel locomotive will be used and the run-

Senator Hints At Mine Workers Are Back In Coal Pits For Volunteers

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26. (AP)—Senator Wherry (R-Neb.) hinted today that Congress may try to solve the military manpower problem by voting "incentives" to volunteers—plus draft authority if the volunteers don't show up.
On the same platform—at the opening session of the United States Chamber of Commerce annual meeting—James A. Farley declared he has "no intention of playing a return engagement in politics."

Congress Would Use Draft If Sufficient Men Did Not Enlist

In an address urging business leaders to take a bigger role in public service and the guiding of government policy, the former postmaster general said:
"I have no political ambition. Let there be any misapprehension over occasional mention of my name, I want it clearly understood that I am not a candidate for any office."
Wherry, who is the acting Republican leader of the Senate, blamed most of the "world's ills" and much of the rising defense budget on "secret deals made at Quebec, Yalta, Teheran and Potsdam." And he added, on "years and years of appeasing Russia."

His answer to the "inecapable" problem of manpower for the Armed Forces came in a single brief passage. Making no mention of President Truman's proposal for Universal Military Training, Wherry said in his text: (continued on Page Five)

Dewey of New York and Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio—up against the Keystone State's favorite son, U. S. Senator Edward Martin.
None of the major contenders for the Republican presidential nomination entered Pennsylvania to campaign actively, primarily because the balloting will have no pre-convention effect on the state's delegation.
