Annual Meeting Of C of C Told

Kick-Off Luncheon To Start Club's Light Bulb Sale

The annual Lions Club light bulb sale begins tomorrow with the kick-off luncheon held at noon at the Sanford Yacht Club, according to Dallas Loop and Tommy Stringer, co-chairmen for the local event this year.

Packaging of the light bulbs was begun yesterday as members of the Lions Club gathered at the Robson Sporting Goods warehouse. The work will be climaxed tonight and tomorrow morning when everything will be in readiness for the sale underway.

This year, the local Lions Club has provided 150 bags of light bulbs to assure themselves that they will not run out of the packages as they did last year.

A truck, loaded with bulbs, and manned by member of the local club, will be located at the intersection of First and Magnolia, next to Touchton's Drug Store, where bulbs will also be sold.

The club, at its kick-off luncheon tomorrow, will appoint team captains and teams to get the annual sale underway. The various teams will begin calling on local homes tomorrow night and they anticipate covering the entire Sanford area in the gigantic attempt to secure funds for their underprivileged children's sight conservation work.

Last year, according to Hugh Duncan, the local club's secretary, 61 eye examinations were made of underprivileged school children. 44 pairs of eye glasses were bought, he said at a cost of $971.

Funds, derived from the sale of light bulbs will also help finance the Little League Baseball team. Last year was the 10th year of the Little League team.

One hundred and forty five boys participated last year, Duncan said, at a cost to the local club of $254.

The local Lions Club also sponsored a boy to Boy's State, contributed to the flood relief in Connecticut, and bought a number of red and white canes for the blind.

The co-chairmen of the bulb sale event say "this year's sale will be the biggest ever."

Farm Bureau Will Gather Tomorrow

Tomorrow night, the Seminole County Farm Bureau will meet at the Agricultural Building at Seminole High School.

Rommer L. Carter, secretary treasurer of the local farm organization said today that a member of the Vegetable Inspection Board will be the principal speaker of the occasion.

A covered dish supper is to be served preceding the meeting. The supper gets underway at 7 o'clock with the business meeting slated for 8 o'clock.

Officers of the Seminole County Farm Bureau urge an all-out attendance for this month's meeting.

Preliminary plans and the date for the annual meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce were announced today by officials of the committee planning the event.

John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Annual Meeting Committee, said today that this year's meeting will be held Tuesday, Dec. 6.

The meeting, said Fitzpatrick, will be a banquet affair held in the Ballroom of the Mayfair Inn, beginning at 7:30 p.m. An excellent and most entertaining program, said the committee chairman, is being prepared for the occasion.

A nationally known speaker will be featured at the meeting, according to plans made today, and a well known musical group has been contacted relative to their appearing also as a part of the program.

President George Touhy will preside, Fitzpatrick said, and a report of the year's activities will be given by the immediate Past President, Earl Higginbotham.

Tickets for the annual meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will be available to the membership and their guests during the latter part of the week.

Blood Test Survey To Be Conducted Throughout County

For 17 days, the State Board of Health in cooperation with the local Seminole County Health Unit, will be looking for trouble.

The trouble that this particular survey looks for will turn up in blood tests which reveal the existence of diabetes and syphilis. A blood test survey will be conducted throughout Seminole County with a schedule that will touch every section, every community, in order to give everyone an opportunity to reveal, for himself or herself, the existence of either of these two diseases.

James Fly, in charge of the survey for Seminole County, and representing the State Board of Health of Jacksonville, said that diabetes is a serious disease which, if not treated, can lead to heart trouble, stroke, loss of feet or legs, blindness, kidney trouble and death.

With modern treatment, said Fly, it is possible for diabetes to lead normal lives. For this reason, he said, it is necessary to find those who have the disease before it has done damage to the body.

Dr. Terry Bird, head of the Seminole County Health Unit, said that this is one of the most important surveys that has come to Seminole County and he urges everyone to take advantage of the free blood test.

Dr. Bird brought out today that Florida had the 4th highest venereal disease rate in the country last year. While there has been a 49 percent reduction in reported cases of syphilis over the nation in the past five years, all cities

Subcommittee Will Hear Testimony Of Florida Mayors

Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) today announced that the Senate Subcommittee to Investigate Juvenile Delinquency expects to hear testimony from nearly 20 Florida mayors this week at a special hearing in Miami on programs initiated throughout the state to provide better opportunities for its youth.

The full-day hearing will be held in the Federal Building in Miami, beginning at ten a.m. on Wednesday, November 16.

The original date for the hearing, set by Senator Kefauver, was much earlier than the November 14 date, and due to a crowded schedule, and the conflicting Florida League of Municipalities meeting, Mayor Denver Cordell sent telegrams to Senator Kefauver stating that he would not be able to attend the conference and hearing. "With an enviable record in the curbing of juvenile delinquency, Sanford would certainly

Men At Local Navy Base Are Praised

The men of the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station and the fleet units based there are taking good care of the youngsters of Sanford.

Not one man attached to the local Navy Station has been apprehended for exceeding the 15-mile-an-hour speed limit in school zones or passing a stopped school bus this year.

The record is one to be commended and upheld, said the Sanitary weekly paper edited and published at the U. S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station here.

The paper says, "remember, a heavy penalty is invoked for not needing the slow down signs in school areas and for passing a school bus that is loading or unloading passengers."

Auxiliary Members Are Asked To Sew

Two local musicians were featured in the choral vespers service annually presented by the American Guild of Organists' Central Florida Chapter that was enthusiastically acclaimed by an overflow crowd at Knowles Memorial Chapel at Rollins College in Winter Park yesterday afternoon. The choir of 120 voices, representing nine Central Florida choirs was under the baton of Robert Hulstader, director of the conservatory, Rollins College.

The prelude was played by Jack Bookhardt, organist and choir master of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church here, and consisted of Bustimento's Pugue in A Major (Gigue) and the Concerto in A Minor by Bach and arranged by Vivivaldi.

Mrs. George Touhy played Eric Delamerla Nocturne at Twilight as the offertory. Mrs. Touhy is Minister of Music at the local First Presbyterian Church.

Members of the Chancel Choir of the First Presbyterian Church were in the mammoth choir that sang five anthems and that also included representatives of the Central Christian, and the First Methodist, Park Lake Presbyterian, First Baptist churches of Orlando; Congregational, Methodist, and Knowles Chapel of Winter Park and First Presbyterian of Kissimmee.

Various Subjects Are Heard Sunday At Local Churches

The reactions of people are many. But on Sunday, their thoughts are but of one.

Thousands, yesterday, flocked to their churches to hear pastors speak on subjects taken from the Holy Bible.

At the final service of the special series of meetings at The Christian & Missionary Alliance Church the Rev. William H. Stephens Jr. spoke on the subject "A Year and A Day." The text was found in Luke 1:11-20 and the Old Testament counterpart from Ishah at Luke 1:26-30.

American citizens traveling abroad discover that taxi drivers, waiters, hotel attendants in addition to well educated people in Italy, France and other countries speak English fluently. The American's inability to speak foreign languages contributes to the isolation of the United States in today's world.

A little more money to overcome this deficiency by introducing foreign languages into elementary grades. The system is already in operation in many cities, and now New Mexico is taking steps to make itself a bilingual state.

Under the New Mexico program, instruction in Spanish will start in the first grade for English-speaking children, and English classes will begin for Spanish-speaking children. By the time they reach fifth grade, it is assumed that they will have attained similar levels of proficiency in both languages and can continue their language classes together through the rest of their school years.

This system is designed to help preserve the Spanish cultural background of New Mexico. It will also help unite native-born children and those who come from Latin-American homes. Now these two groups are separated by a language barrier.

The program will also give the youngsters a better appreciation of the English language. Similar programs throughout the

The 70th anniversary of Rollins College was a big event with officials from Winter Park, Orlando, and Orange County attending and invited. We understand that Sanford is the original home of this fine Florida College but no mention was made of dignitaries from the founding city being invited.

From a glance at the plans for the Jaycees-Merchants Association Christmas Parade this year, this is going to be one of the most successful events ever carried out in Central Florida. It just goes to show you what working together can produce.

A new law prevents the moving of a body before examination by a medical doctor. The dead person must remain in its original position until the medical examination. We hope that Seminole County will not experience a Winter Park ordeal when the body of a negro woman was not moved for an hour and 9 minutes because of the late arrival of the examiner.

HOPPOT, Poland (U.S.)—The "nouveau riche" have taken over this Baltic resort, once the playground of Europe's nobility. These new rich see Polish Communists and certain workers.

Any Pole in private enterprise who tries to register at the Grand Hotel discovers it is full. Any Polish worker who stands well with his shop committee or the party gets room and board at low prices. The party men from Warsaw spend weekends here all year round. The luxurious Grand Hotel and its wide board has been turned into a prison for those the party leaders are detesting.

At night, the place jumps with many workers off on a spree.

What Is Authority?

President Eisenhower's recovery has been so rapid and satisfactory that it now seems unlikely that any formal delegation of his presidential authority to anyone else will be necessary. At the outset of his illness it was believed that some definition of the authority of the Vice President in the situation might have to be made—that perhaps legislation might be called for.

The fact that President Eisenhower has recovered is reason for national gratitude. Yet it would be a good idea, now, while the memory of the President's temporary inability to function is still fresh in our minds, to make certain that a situation will never occur again when there is reason to doubt what the Vice President's position really is.

In the event that a President dies in office no question of succession exists. But when the President is unable to function there is a vagueness about what must be done. This time we were fortunate. The members of the administration were able to perform their duties and keep things moving. We may not always be so fortunate.

The duties of the President are heavy and the man who must assume those duties—even temporarily—should not have his problems complicated by any doubt as to what his authority really is. Congress and leaders of the administration would do well to give this matter prompt attention.

The impressions left during American Education Week will be long-lasting ones. Students, teachers, principals, and officials went all out to show parents all that goes on within a school day.

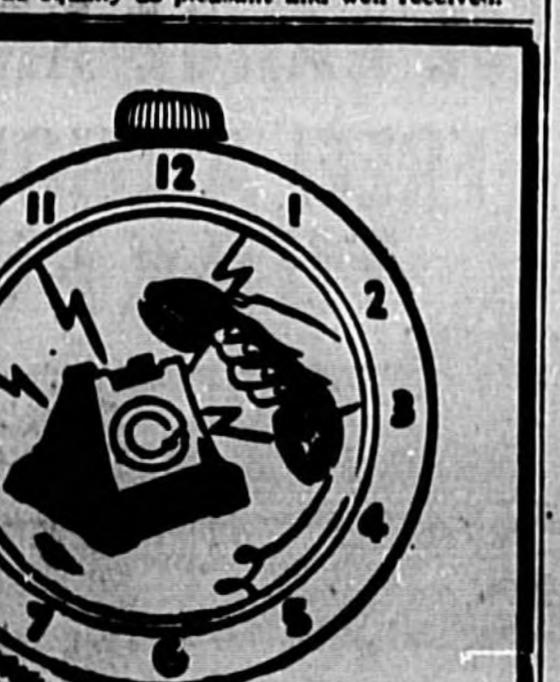

Peter Schaaf, formerly of Sanford, is becoming an ambassador of note as he sneaks here and there around the state. "Selling Tallahassee to the tourists" is a recent subject of his. It would be fine to hear Peter Schaaf tell about Sanford's advantages.

Governor Collins calls on Florida people to assist local committees and Chambers of Commerce in their endeavors to bring new industry to Florida. The Governor should also call on cities and counties to create avenues through which the effort of committees and chambers of commerce could be climaxed. It's disappointing to work hard for a project and then have it killed in its final plans.

Christmas seals will be mailed Wednesday. We hope that you will look out for yours and return your contribution as early as possible. If the percentage of contributing citizens is great enough in our county, we will have the privilege of seeing a premier showing of a Warner Brothers picture.

Two bottlenecks in the Sanford traffic system could be relieved. Parallel parking in the downtown area would allow traffic to move faster, safer, for the producing of greater revenue for our stores and business. And the parking on one side only along Sanford Avenue would relieve the congestion there. It can be done.

We notice that a part of South Melbourne has been annexed to Melbourne proper by an overwhelming vote of 880 for and 244 against. The area has immediately become a part of the city and as such is eligible for all of the benefits of the city. We believe that the annexation here would be equally as pleasant and well received.

WASHINGTON (U.S.)—The Supreme Court may have listened for the first time to arguments about racial segregation in any place—city or state—that is supported by public tax money, like a school beach, park, or playground.

It has already laid down the doctrine, giving its reasons at length, that this sort of segregation is unconstitutional; it may never again bother to give its reasons in ruling on any such case of this kind.

In any such case appealed to it from a lower federal court, the Supreme Court may simply say "affirmed" or "reversed," depending on whether the lower court has ruled in accordance with, or contrary to, the high court's doctrine.

An indication of this can be read into the way the Supreme Court handled a couple of segregation cases this week.

In any appeal to the high court from the ruling of a lower court, the lawyers on both sides state their arguments in writing. The nine justices of the Supreme Court get copies of these arguments.

The lawyers can't walk up before the justices and argue orally. It is only when the justices want more information than is contained in the written arguments that they ask the lawyers on both sides to appear in court and speak their piece.

In the 1890s the Supreme Court blessed segregation with a ruling which said Negroes could be kept out of public places reserved for whites, provided that the Negroes, while kept separate, were given public facilities equal to those of the whites. This became known as the doctrine of "Separate but Equal." For half a century no later Supreme Court knocked it down.

As a result, segregation continued in public schools and other public places throughout the South and in other states. But in 1954 the present Supreme Court unanimously wiped out the "separate but equal" doctrine in the case of public schools.

The court considered the written arguments of the lawyers in both cases but called none of them to state their cases orally. It had heard oral arguments in the school case.

The court, deciding its ruling aagainst segregation in public schools applied to segregation in other public-supported places, apparently felt it neither had to listen to more oral arguments nor explain its own position further.

So, in rulings as brief as brief as could be made, the high court did this:

It said the lower court was right in following the Supreme Court's lead by knocking out segregation in the Maryland case. It said the other lower court was wrong in ignoring the Supreme Court's lead and approving segregation on Georgia's golf links. That meant segregation on those golf links had to end.

Both cases were appealed to the Supreme Court.

Health Is What You Eat

By MERRILL N. BARNSTEIN, M.D.

HOW long should you stick with a reducing program?

Your physical appearance probably is the best clue to that. You've got to diet as long as you want to lose weight.

Better get your doctor's advice, though. He's the one to tell you how much you should lose.

Nutritional Effects

Doctors know that excess weight impairs health, weakens key organs, lessens energy and shortens life.

Yet there are many factors to be taken into consideration before you embark upon an extended reducing program. Since every one of you has individual problems, you can't be given blanket instructions. That's up to your physician.

Food is life. Whether you live well or poorly depends, to a major extent, upon what you eat.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Q. I have heard that the sulfa drugs can affect the reproductive glands of men. Is this true?

A. No. In fact, the sulfa drugs are helpful in clearing up infections of these glands when they occur in men.

SEC Linemen Deserve Praise

By MERCER BAILEY

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Linemen, the unsung heroes of many a football game, could with pride and justification take some mighty deep bows around the Southeastern Conference today.

And Louisiana State's tremendous Tigers claimed a monopoly on the farewell fellow who forced their more publicized backfield battles into secondary roles.

LSU caught Mississippi State with its injury list loaded Saturday night and upset the Maroons' title and bowl hopes by a whopping 24-7 score. And four of the five LSU touchdowns resulted from heads up play by the hard-hitting Tiger line.

Vanderbilt owed much credit for its 29-7 upset of Tulane to inspired line play, a blocked punt by Larry Frank setting up the Commodores' first touchdown.

Substitute center Frank Reeves intercepted a pass and ran it back 81 yards, setting up an Auburn field goal which proved to be the difference in the Plainsmen's 16-13 victory over Georgia.

Lineman also turned in some other good, if less spectacular, looks as Tennessee routed Florida 20-0, Georgia Tech ripped Alabama 20-2, Kentucky walloped Memphis State 41-7, and Mississippi took Houston 27-11.

Only two more football Saturdays remain in the 1955 season and Mississippi, Auburn and Georgia Tech are running 1-2-3 in the race for the championship. Ole Miss can collect its second successive crown by beating Mississippi State Nov. 27.

26. If the Rebels falter, Auburn can move into the winner's circle by beating Alabama. Should both Ole Miss and Auburn tumble, Tech and Tennessee could tie for the title if Tech beats Georgia and the Vols turn back Kentucky and Vanderbilt. Ole Miss, Auburn, Tech and Tennessee all would have to fall before Vandy could claim the crown.

An abbreviated but lively round of grid activity is on this week end's program. Alabama, still searching for a victory this season, will try its luck against the Hurricanes in Miami Friday night.

Tennessee is at Kentucky Saturday, Auburn and Clemson play in Mobile, Florida. It is at Vanderbilt and LSU goes to Arkansas. Georgia Tech, Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Tulane take the day off to rest up for traditional season ending battles with intra-state rivals.

Hottest bowl prospects in the SEC still are Ole Miss, Auburn and Georgia Tech. But Tennessee is coming up fast, thanks to its tie with Tech a week ago and the rout of Florida Saturday. Vandy is a darkhorse.

Feds Upset Seabreeze At Homecoming Game

By R. HUGH ANSLEY

Over 3000 thrilled fans were on hand to watch Seminole High roll to a successful Homecoming Friday night at Memorial Stadium as they upset powerful Daytona Seabreeze.

The extra point was the extra point.

The Sand Crabs took the return kickoff with four seconds remaining and drove for 32 yards before the halftime whistle halted the drive, and the half ended with the Feds out front 7-0.

In the second half the Feds defense turned in its finest performance of the year. The outstanding line allowed Seabreeze only 34 rushing yards for the remainder of the game. Each man on the defense did himself proud.

In the third quarter the Feds were unable to capitalize on a break in their favor when Senty Dunlop went back to punt on a fourth down. Dunlop unable to get the kick away, and the hard charging Fed line tossed him for a ten yard loss back to his own 25 yard line. A penalty moved the ball back to the 30, where the Sand Crabs dug in and held for downs.

The Sand Crabs looked strong in the first half, but their deepest penetration was halted on the Fed 20 yard line. Behind the tank-like churning of Martin Nass the Seabreeze eleven caught on fire and carried for 56 yards down to the Seminole 20, where Schirard, Gene Bass, Howard, Alfred, and Robert Carter made the fire fizz out, and the Sand Crabs lost the ball on downs. Once again the Sand Crabs sparked a drive. This time it carried all the way to the Fed 31 yard line. But that was all for Seabreeze. The Fed line bottled them up behind their own 40 yard line for the rest of the night.

The powerful squad, led by Williams, won the game in two plays, going over from one inch out.

Seabreeze was kept in their own backyard by the excellent punting of Dave Galloway. On all six of the Seminole punts, he placed the ball between the ten and twenty yard lines of the Crabs.

Highly touted Senty Dunlop was stopped cold. Nass was the only Crab bark that could do any good against the powerful Feds.

It was a terrific victory for the Feds. At the end of the game the players rushed their coaches and hoisted them to their shoulders. It was a wonderful night; the coaches had turned an injury ridden team into a machine that could have taken on anything in this section of Florida.

This win threw a new light on the Southern Division of the East Florida Conference. Seminole has shocked its way into the lead. They hold a 2-0 record for the division, and, should they trip DeLand next week, they'll come DeLand with laurels.

began to present its side of the picture to the Senate Subcommittee to Investigate Juvenile Delinquency.

Members of the Senate Committee on Juvenile Delinquency and the Florida League of Municipalities conference in Jacksonville prevent us from going," he said.

Florida Governor LeRoy Collins will represent the state, Frank Hutchison, County Judge of Bartow, who is Chairman of a special Citizens Committee on Juvenile Delinquency appointed by the Governor to study problems of the State's young people.

Mayors headed to testify before the Sub committee include

John W. Green, Winter Park;

Ben H. Hopkins, Jr., Sarasota;

Keith Kelly, Lake Wales;

G. P. Mason, Melbourne;

Morrison, Daytona Beach; Fred M. Nelson Jr., Panama City; and A. Padgett, Ft. Pierce.

Other local officials who will be on the platform include A. B. Keeler, Sheriff of Polk County; Frank Hutchison, County Judge of Bartow, who is Chairman of a special Citizens Committee on Juvenile Delinquency appointed by the Governor to study problems of the State's young people.

Music for the event will be supplied by the drum and bugle corps from Seminole High School and Capt. Joseph D. Bryant, Commander, 134th Armored Cavalry, Fort Lauderdale.

Officials at the Sanford Naval Air Station will be represented by Capt. Paul Bundy, and Mayor J. Hunter Hyer, Winter Haven, by Miss Dorothy E. Loveloy.

Testimony on the forthcoming Mayors' Hearing, Senator Kenner said:

"Florida has an outstanding record in curbing and curing Juvenile Delinquency and we must continue to do so."

The Subcommittee is anxious to hear details of these preventive and corrective measures from the officials who have the responsibility for them in each community.

That is why we have invited the mayors to appear.

"We expect to learn a great deal from them. Their testimony will make available to the national Subcommittee report which will be made available to city officials in other States throughout the country."

The "Mayors'" Hearing will be presided over by two days of testimony by individuals with a special knowledge of interstate adoption practices, as part of the committee's work.

The Subcommittee will begin its first hearing at hearings in Chicago.

During these hearings, the Subcommittee expects to hear witnesses from Alabama, California, Georgia, Kansas and New York.

Other members of the Subcommittee are: Senators Thomas C. Hendings Jr. (D-Mo.); William H. Morris, Jr., (D-N.J.); Alexander Wiley (D-Wisc.); and Fred Daniel (D-Tex.).

Here's a special and delicate secret to be revealed: Cut small candlesticks in half so you have a sawtooth effect. Scrape off the molten flesh with a metal half ruler. Alternate layers of the candle with the sawtoothed edges. Most stations will stay open during weekdays from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. to accommodate the workmen who are working on the lake.

If the ball on glass-jar jars becomes loose, remove it and lay it in each wire or pliers. Bind the wires to snap back into place.
