State Road Board Is Asked To Support Gas Tax Addition

3 Groups Discuss Code Problems Right-Of-Way,

"We would like to see eliminated from the Road Code everything but primary and secondary roads," Wilbur Jones, chairman of the State Road Board, told a group of county commissioners yesterday as discussions were opened on the controversial 66-foot right-of-way and other changes in the code.

The Sanford meeting has set two precedents. It was the first time that three groups have sat down together to discuss mutual problems—the Road Board, County Commissioners, and Municipalities.

Another precedent came in that the meeting is the second in the history of the present board which has been held outside of Tallahassee. One other meeting was held in Clearwater.

Representatives of the County Commissioners Association and of the Florida Municipal Association attended the Mayfair Inn meeting to discuss the road code problems and ways and means of procuring additional funds for rights of ways.

Ross Stanton, resident engineer for the board, said "In preparing the original road code they just took everything with the name in it and put it in."

"What I am suggesting," he said, "is that we take everything out that pertains to county roads—which will include the 66-foot controversy."

The State Road Board yesterday received an appeal for support in the adding of an additional cent tax on gasoline.

Stirling Hall, Executive Secretary of the Florida Municipal Association, said "More and more we're coming to realize in Florida that we're going to have to work together to solve our problems."

Hall made the statement as the Road Board, the County Commissioners Association, and the association of Municipalities sat down together to discuss changes in the road code and a possible solution for getting more funds for the purchase of rights of way and moving utilities.

"When it comes to roads, bridges and rights of way—whether they are in the municipality or in the county, it is impossible to keep them apart," said Hall.

Hall explained that he was carrying his own opinion over his association would not meet until next week in Jacksonville to formulate its plans for legislative action.

"Different counties have acted in different ways with municipalities he said, 'generally speaking funds have been so limited that they have limited their thinking.'"

"There are over 30 cities in Florida, and regardless of their size, rules promulgated will have to apply to all," commented the executive director of the municipal association.

"The last thing people want are more taxes—but in the final analysis, the purchase of right of way is essential."

The last thing people want are more taxes—but in the final analysis, the purchase of right of way is essential."

The Sanford Fire Department received a call for an explosion and fire at the City Hall last night.

After they arrived it was found to be a false alarm.

WELCOME

ANSWER THIS QUESTION

Am I My Brother's Keeper?

Those words do come from the Bible. And they have sometimes been quoted to justify a man's lack of concern for the welfare of others.

When we quote Scripture we must be careful WHOM we are quoting!

It was Cain, the first murderer, who asked that biting question. God had said, "Where is Abel, thy brother?" And Cain was trying to escape the consequences of his crime.

Each of us is responsible for his brother's welfare. That is the very reason this feature is appearing in your newspaper.

You and your family need the spiritual resources our churches offer. In whichever Christian congregation you select there are waiting to welcome you many men and women and young people whose faith has taught them a deep concern for their brothers.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Great Ability, Character Come From Long Disciplinary Training

Much of the juvenile and adult delinquency in the world today is due to two things—substitution of desire for discipline and psychology for religion.

When children are allowed to do what they want to do instead of being inspired by ideals, led by example, and, where necessary, by loving and firm discipline, to do what they ought to do, they are less likely to overcome bad habits and to form new and better ones. The child is a bundle of primitive instincts that seek expression on the animal level. If permitted to do as he desires he will develop his personality on that plane of existence. On the other hand, if constrained by the example of those whom he admires, reinforced by long discipline where necessary, he will be helped immensely to overcome his primitive nature and to develop the poise, dignity and personality which we associate with cultural and Christian values. It has been said that every year we are inundated with a new wave of little barbarians whom we must civilize during the next four years or our culture will be lost.

If one lets himself go he will slide to the bottom. It requires effort and discipline to climb upward. If the beginner in music took the path of least resistance he would play simple easy pieces and never become a great artist. If firmness and discipline are called into play in the practice of exercises and scales over a long period of time, he may become a virtuoso.

Great ability, great character and great accomplishments follow long disciplinary training. We need all the help we can get to enable us to put forth the effort required to be useful, constructive men and women. To expect a child to reach the heights merely by following his desires, and without the aid of example and discipline lovingly administered by parents and teachers, is to expect the impossible.

Those of us who have reached adult years still need to discipline ourselves with all the means at our command to make the most of life. Psychology mobilizes the opinions and wisdom of men to help us but our Christian religion brings to bear the wisdom and power of God to aid our efforts to become worthy, useful men and women. One may fall or fail to put forth maximum effort if he is accountable only to men, whereas realizing that he must report to God he is more likely to strive valiantly to achieve the highest destiny within his grasp.

To help conquer the animal propensities within us we need "this saith the Lord" and "thou shalt not."

Transportation Policy

Congress is at work, and this is a good time to recall that the Republican and Democratic platforms, while they disagree greatly on most issues, are in virtually total agreement on one: transportation policy.

The Republican platform states: "We shall continue to advocate the maintenance and expansion of a strong, efficient, privately owned and operated and soundly financed system of transportation that will serve the needs of our nation under regulatory policies that will enable each carrier to realize its inherent advantages and its full competitive capabilities."

The Democratic platform states: "The public and national interest require the development and maintenance, under the competitive free enterprise system, of a strong efficient and financially sound system of common carrier transportation by water, highway, rail and air, with each mode through sound and intelligent exercise of regulatory powers, enabled to realize its advantages and to reflect its full competitive capabilities."

A carrier cannot now realize these inherent advantages and competitive capabilities — for the reason many regulatory laws and policies were established in another age, when railroads had a near-monopoly of the business, and are now obsolete and oppressive. The Republicans control the executive branch of the government, the Democrats the legislative branch. Let them make good on their excellent transportation platforms.

would read "shall consist of those roads so designated by resolution of the county commissions and approved by the State Road Board."

Changes in the road code would also include a provision that "no road be approved by the board with a width less than 66 feet except parallel pairs which may be 50 feet."

However, County Commissioners brought up the question of existing roads and their width in which Wilbur Jones answered "Then it might be a good idea to say that no new roads shall be established unless it shall be 66 feet in width."

County Commissioners agreed. One problem was definitely ironed out—a problem that has been confronting county commissioners statewide—when Stanton was asked "Would that apply to subdivisions?" Stanton said "That's not our problem—they're not our roads." Relative to budget changes during a budget year, Stanton suggested the present road code be changed and a provision "be made to allow a county to come in by resolution and substitute one project for another up to a total of 25 percent of the amount originally budgeted."

"We should add a cent to the cost of gasoline and these funds should be earmarked for street and highway purposes only," Hall emphatically stated.

Hall said "There are roads now that won't be built in the present planning. It is a problem that affects not one city but affects them all."

SHS Cagers To Play In Elk's Benefit Game Tuesday

Denver Cordell, chairman of Sanford Elk's Basketball Committee, announced this morning that Seminole High School would participate in a benefit basketball game Tuesday night at 8 o'clock to be played in the local high school gym.

The Seminoles will face "tough" New Smyrna Beach for the event, which is the third game of an annual event to stimulate interest in Seminole High School's basketball activities.

Each team has a victory to its credit and Coach Bud Layer voiced optimism that the Seminoles would make a good showing for the benefit occasion.

The Seminoles are constantly improving and I believe they are adopting the winning attitude. It takes a long time to convince a team that they can win if they want to badly enough, but I believe the boys are beginning to come around," he said.

Church Music Workshop Here Monday, Tuesday

A Church Music Workshop for the churches in the Sanford area will be conducted by the General Extension Division of Florida, University of Florida, at the First Methodist Church, Sanford, Feb. 13 and 14, 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

It is open to Pastors, Ministers of Music, Choir Directors, Organists, Members of Choirs and Choruses, and others who have a vital interest in promoting and participating in the music program of the local church.

Dr. James R. Houghton, Professor of Church Music at Boston University and consultant in church music to several national church denominations, will lead the workshop instruction. In addition to being nationally and internationally known for his choral leadership and his deep interest in church music, Dr. Houghton has given concerts at the Metropolitan of New York City.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the Workshop are the following: "Music and the Worship Service"; "Analyzing the Music Needs of Your Church"; "The Church-wide Music Survey"; "The Mechanics of Church Music Organization"; "The Graded Choir Program"; and "Church Music Education."

During the last half hour of the Tuesday evening session, Dr. Houghton, accompanied by Mrs. Albert Hickson at the organ, will sing as many numbers as time permits. This part of the program will be open to the public.

A fee of one dollar will be charged each enrollee to partially offset expenses of the Workshop.

Keep These Rules If Taking Medicine

By HERMAN M. BUNDISEN, M.D.

MOST of you probably have taken medicine of one form or another on and on for years. Some medicines become weaker and some stronger if left in an open container. 7—Close the container immediately after taking the medicine. Some medicines become weaker and some stronger if left in an open container. 8—Don't pour medicine back into the bottle once it has been removed. It might contaminate the entire preparation.

At any rate, virtually all of you have had quite a bit of experience taking medicine yourself or giving it to your family. 9—Don't interchange covers or tops of medicine bottles. You might use the wrong medicine by mistake sometime by identifying it by its cover.

10—Keep all medicine out of the reach of children. These rules are easy to follow. They really take little effort and they might prevent a serious accident.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
L. F.: What causes cold sores? What can I do about them?

Answer: The exact cause for cold sores, scientifically known as herpes labialis, is not known. They commonly occur following colds and such diseases as pneumonia, malaria or meningitis.

It has been found that one treatment with X-ray will tend to help prevent the recurrence of this condition. However, if the herpes have already formed, the use of such preparations as sprays, ointments or a bland ointment such as Lanolin's paste may be helpful.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM GARNETT WHITE

Miss Reba Paulette Cason Weds Garnett White Valentine's Day

Miss Reba Paulette Cason became the bride of William Garnett White last night in a candle light, double ring ceremony at the Central Baptist Church. Miss Cason is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cason and Mr. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. White. The Rev. J. W. Parham officiated as the couple exchanged vows in front of an altar decorated with palms, gladioli, and ferns. Mrs. B. D. Griens played traditional wedding music and accompanied David Hester as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown which featured a basque bodice of white rose-point, hand-clipped lace over satin and a portrait neckline edged in applied lace flowers and seed pearls. The lace sleeve came to points over her hands and a bouffant skirt of net and tulle, fashioned over satin, terminated in a chapel train. A finger tipped veil of illusion fell from a tiara of lace and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of red roses topped a white bible.

Mrs. Gerald Covington was matron of honor and the only attendant. Her gown also floor length was red crystalite over taffeta, and featured a flared skirt with a portrait neckline. A combination of red crystalite and taffeta made up the head piece. She carried a nosegay of red and white roses.

Gerald Covington served as best man. Ushers were Henry Cason, brother of the bride and Clark Messler.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cason chose a gown of pale blue crystalite to set off her orchid corsage. Mrs. White's gown was gray lace over pink taffeta. Her corsage was also an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. The Valentine theme was carried out by red and white snapdragons mingled with fern surrounding candles on the bride's table. Those assisting in the reception were Mrs. J. W. Parham, Mrs. C. K. Ellis, Mrs. James DeBrine, Mrs. A. D. Maddox, Mrs. A. C. Cleveland, Mrs. Billy Howard, Mrs. Lynwood Whalley, Miss Patty Walker, Miss Joni Saunders and Miss Janette Kinlaw. For their wedding trip

McKibbin Paces Jr. High Five To 39-19 Win

Alex McKibbin paced the fired up Sanford Junior High cage quintet to resumption of an earlier defeat at the hands of DeLand Junior High yesterday afternoon as the high-flying Sanford Juniors dumped the baby Bulldogs solidly, 39-19.

In a previous meeting the Sanford Juniors went to DeLand somewhat overconfident and left the courts with a double overtime, stinging two-point defeat on their hands.

They have been looking forward to another meeting with the baby Bulldogs since that time. Coach Howard Gordie praised his charges for giving out a "tremendous team effort" to completely outclass the Bulldogs.

McKibbin scored 18 points for the "revenge" victors while Al Allen's eight points was the best DeLand effort.

And Away we go! Commodore Joe Nicholas said last night at the last special meeting of the Sanford Boat and Ski Club prior to big time racing coming to Sanford Sunday afternoon in the form of the Sanford Outboard Regatta.

Sanford number five on the Florida Grapfruit Circuit, will draw a maximum winter entry list as the greatest boat racing drivers of the nation flock to the Land of Sunshine to let the warm waters of Florida spray them in the face as they slip across the water with less than six inches of their boat touching the waves while they attempt to set new records by spinning from 60 miles per hour and up.

Not since the 1930's has Florida fielded such entries as this year. Boat racing has latched onto the lives of the leisure men of the nation, and Florida is feeling the winter impact. The best will be in Sanford Sunday afternoon, vying for the Sanford Herald Victory Trophy, $50 prize money for each boat of the six race event, each race comprised of two heats, and those all-important points that go toward the Colonel Green $7,000 Trophy that will be presented to the high point man at the end of the circuit tour.

At least two multi-millionaires will bring their fabulous equipment to Lake Monroe this weekend. Wild Bill Tenny, multi-millionaire playboy from Minneapolis, Minn., and world record holder of Class C Hydroplane (the flying clip) racing, will throw his record on the line in the calm waters north of Sanford on 17-92, on the approach to the St. Johns River Bridge.

Millionaire oil man H. B. Marioneaux of Shreveport, La., will bring to Sanford the most amazing assemblage of water powered machinery during the races. Bob McGinty, professional driver extraordinary from Corpus Christi, Tex., will chauffeur Marioneaux's equipment in every class except C Service Runabout. Marioneaux not only brings about six hydro and a runabout but carries two engines for each class, numbering a dozen, plus two pit stoves and master mechanic H. Allen Smith of Shreveport, who keeps the fabulous equipment running. McGinty held two national titles last year and has two going into 1967.

Intestinal fortitude challenging money will also be in Sanford as the speed dardevil himself, Hubert Entrop, from Seattle, Wash., foams up the spray with his famous "Monkey On A Stick Hydroplane" that exceeds 80 mph and requires less than three inches of water to race in. Entrop was the hands-down winner of the national "Free-For-All" Championship in 1956.

National and former national title holders will flock into Sanford starting tomorrow and will probably be testing the water currents over the racing course tomorrow afternoon.

Some of the other entries are: Bud and Ethel Wiget, husband and wife team from Concord, Calif. Bud holds a "F" outboard record of 79 miles per hour for record of 79 miles per hour for one mile and C and B racing runabout records. Ethel is the blonde bombshell of outboard racing.

Ralph "Rough Rider" Dowling of Cleveland, O. Champion of Ohio and last year's Grapfruit Circuit in "C" Service Runabout. Hap Owens, of Bedford, Ind., former national "F" hydro champion.

Charley Watson, Florida high point pro driver for 1956. Jack Maypole, five times national champion from Oak Park, Ill., and his son Jumpin' Johnny Maypole. Jack has been a national figure in outboard racing for 30 years.

Don Baldacini, of Miami, currently the best outboard driver in Florida; four times national and winner of 150 trophies in hydroplane and runabout competition.

Al Holub, class F hydroplane champion of the Middle West, from Berryville, Ill.

The high point man in the Middle West for class C racing runabout, Ted Brinkman, of Springfield, Ind., will also be here.

One of the toughest competitors in the country will make a short trip to Sanford from Orlando for the event, George Taylor of Orlando is one of the most versatile

SOME OF THE ARTICLES that will be auctioned to the highest bidder at the Seminole Chiefs Club sponsored Fish Fry and Auction tomorrow night, beginning at 6:30, at the Farmer's Auction Mart on 17-92 just south of Sanford. All proceeds from the auction will go toward financing junior high football at the local schools. Larry Jones and H. H. Collier will be the auctioneers.

Baseball Team Gets Down To Serious Training Monday

Dave Laude, head baseball mentor for the Sanford Seminoles, said this morning that his charges would get down to serious training in fundamentals beginning Monday.

Practice in this, the first, week of baseball has been limited primarily to running, retrieving, and catching, in an effort to whip the Seminoles into early top physical conditioning.

Laude told his entire group that there were only 15 uniforms to be issued. I want each of you to work hard to earn a uniform in the next week or two," he told the group. "But don't get discouraged if you don't earn a uniform right away. Many of you lack experience and the only way you can get it is through hard work, strict training, and dogged determination. I want you to stay out for baseball, every one of you, even if you never earn a uniform this year."

Laude told the group that any member who earned a uniform would have to surrender it if another boy who did not have one showed more improvement and desire to play than he did.

A small disappointing group of only 12 candidates showed for the first day of practice last Monday, but since the initial day of training the group has grown to sixteen and is expected to expand even more when basketball season is over.

Candidates out for training at the present time are: Brantley Schirard; catcher and second base. Ronnie Russ; pitcher and short stop. Eddie Barbour; pitcher and third base.

Doyle Corley; second base. Vernon Kirk; third base. Jack Stotaky; outfield. Dave Bramlett; short stop.

racers on the water today. The Orlandoan will be entering in the A, B, and C hydroplane, plus C runabout races.

The Sanford Outboard Regatta will be covered both pictorially and editorially by the three leading boat magazines in the nation, Boat Sport, Outboard and Motorboating. In addition, 500 feet of color film will be taken of the event and used as promotional material for Sanford and Seminole County.

Racing gets underway at one p. m. and are scheduled to be completed by around four p. m. An estimated crowd of 3,000 is expected to line the shores of Lake Monroe to watch the all free event.

The highly contested game was a Seminole County Junior High Basketball League contest.

Constantine was high man for winning All Ovals with only five points and the high man for the game and losing Slavia, Arndt, could muster only six points.

The game was played on Slavia Court yesterday afternoon.

Johnny Yeakle; outfield. Ken Kosack; outfield. Al Stanley; first base. Brooks Adams; outfield. Jimmy Edge; outfield. Bob Slubbing; catcher. Ricky Roth; outfield. David Wilson; outfield. Bobby Willis; outfield. Charles Kirk; outfield. Candidates expected to go out when basketball season is completed are: Ken McMurray. Cecil Dandridge. Johnny Barley. Mike Davis.

Conring The News

BY VIRGINIA CONN

The Officers' Wives Club held a lovely luncheon at the Mayfair on Thursday. Cocktails were served in the Bamboo Room, and luncheon in the Bateau Room. The horseshoe shaped table was decorated with three beautiful arrangements of white cypripediums and burgandy snapdragons, given to the club by the Sanford Flower Shop. Members of the Wives Club board acted as hostesses. Mary Muntz, the vice president presided. Mary had prepared little biographies of new members, which served to introduce them. These were mimeographed and passed around for members to keep. Attending the luncheon were Ruth Arnold, Julie Anderson, Mollie Barlow, Katie Cummins, Pat Todd, Mary Muntz, Jean Filton, Jean Fowler, Pat Wansan, Anita Hadden, Gerry Hauerperger, Marge Hill Spook Hook, Betty Lemos (they just received orders to Washington), Mary Libbey, Marge Martin, Marly Millsaps, Ruth Norvell, Rita Bauer, Lee Cummins, Kay Dwyer, Mac Edwards, Joan Fellini, Sandy Ortmann, Ida Radtke, Hazel Rowell, Sophie Rubel, Virginia Shaffer, Judy Smith, Mike Stone, Ann Wymmy, Ruth Tully, Evie Williams, Ida B. Wilson, Joan Weigle, Arlene Baker, and Phillis Graham. The vignettes concerned Arlene Baker, Lee Cunningham, Ann Tanny, and Gerry Hauerperger. Visiting Doris Francisco is her father, George Schumacher of Albany, N. Y. Mr. Schumacher is recuperating from an operation, and his doctor could recommend no better care than a couple of months in the Florida sunshine.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Sage Sr., of Columbus, O. are visiting John and Harriet Williams in their little Venice home. The Sages are Harriet's parents and Dr. Sage is particularly enjoying the golf course.

One of the heroes of Den Two is Bob Hadden, who invited all the club Schouts in this den to star gaze at his home last Friday night. Bob told them all about the stars, pointed them out, and then served the boys refreshments. At the same time Anita was very busy pushing around in the high floor Polaris.

The news that the present Naval Air Station will be closed in two to six years came as quite a blow to some—and to the rest the very fact that another site than Osceola was being considered was a definite shock. It is inconceivable that the navy should pull out of Sanford entirely, since besides upsetting the civilian economy the navy personnel would suffer great financial loss, as a great many, more than in any other community with which I am familiar, have bought their own homes. From where would come the buyers for these potentially empty homes, or would Sanford become a city of women and children with no visitors as husbands. Housing is plentiful here, and good. The schools are extremely adequate, and our children have found real homes in Sanford, after much wandering over the country. At navy, we cannot write to our Congressman and complain or protest—it isn't done. But, you, civil-

Father Duval More Popular Than Elvis With French Youths

PARIS UP —The contortions of Elvis (The Pelvis) Presley have left jazz-loving French teenagers cold but the "hants" of another guitar player have them rolling in the aisles.

He doesn't writhe or rock and roll. His style is cut in normal fashion. His songs are written by himself or are folk songs and negro spirituals.

Instead of a sporty cool and slacks, he wears a black robe and white Roman collar. And instead of buying Cadillacs he gives away every cent he makes.

That is because Jesuit priest Aime Duval has taken a vow of poverty and turns his mushrooming millions in to his religious order.

Father Duval started strumming his guitar in the Bistrot of Dijon six years ago. His songs were straight and simple. His following grew.

He made a record of "Seigneur, Mon Ami" Lord My Friend. It sold a preposterous 45,000 copies. Since then the singing priest has made at least three public appearances a week.

The United States may soon hear the crooning priest if his order gives permission.

And he has one talent which El-

Cotton Use Is Expected To Hit All-Time High

WASHINGTON (UP) — World cotton consumption is expected to hit an all-time high of over 39 million bales this season, according to the international cotton advisory committee.

This would slightly exceed production and reduce carry-over supplies for the first time since 1949-50 season, the committee said.

The committee said that while cotton consumption is expected to decline by some 200,000 bales or more in the United States this season, "significant increases" are expected in most other non-Communist countries.

Increases particularly are expected in Japan, India, France, Italy and Western Germany. U.S. consumption is expected to be slightly under 9 million bales, compared with 9.2 million in the 1956-57 season.

Citrus Estimate For State In '57 Shows Increase

WASHINGTON UP —The new monthly citrus estimate from the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicates Florida will produce more than 47 per cent of the nation's 1956-57 orange crop.

The department estimated that the orange crop, including tangerines, will equal 130 million boxes. The estimate for Florida was 64 million boxes.

The report said the crop will be nearly one per cent higher than last year and 17 per cent above average.

The early and mid-season crop of oranges was estimated at 70.8 million boxes, two million more than last season. This estimate is down 200,000 boxes from last month because of a reduction in the Texas crop.

The larger crop was estimated at 5 million boxes, up 300,000 from last season.

Grapefruit production should total 43 million boxes, a drop from last year of slightly more than 2 million.

The Crop Reporting Board also said the California lemon crop, estimated at 13.6 million boxes is 8 per cent greater than last year and 3 per cent above the average.

Florida's harvest of early and mid-season oranges reached an all-time high during January. In California rain broke a drought of several months' duration last month and the benefits of the moisture more than offset damage from cold weather.

The Texas citrus area received "some moisture" in late January but not enough to help the fruit "to any appreciable extent." Orange production by states: California 36.5 million boxes; Florida 64 million boxes; Texas 1.7 million; Arizona 1.3 million; Louisiana 115,000.

Increases particularly are expected in Japan, India, France, Italy and Western Germany. U.S. consumption is expected to be slightly under 9 million bales, compared with 9.2 million in the 1956-57 season.

be a new addition to the Wood family, so I've decided to await his or her arrival at home. Everyone has been very kind and helpful to me these past six months since I first came to work for the Herald, and I trust that all will be equally kind and helpful to my successor, Miss Ginger Jones, whom many of you may already know. Ginger plans to write a column similar to this one, but she would like to start out fresh with a brand new title, so "Between You 'n Me" is retiring along with me.

Now, from what "scuttlebutt" I've heard, the title of Ginger's column should prove as peppy and delightful as the material contained therein, so be sure to watch for it.

One thing I've made up my mind to do when I'm a lady of leisure again, is buy up and sew some of those lovely materials all the stores are featuring now. I don't think there were ever as many pretty pastel cottons and gay prints as are to be seen now. And the lovely shoes, hats and bags make you want to start right in planning your Easter outfit though it's still over two months away.

I've kind of gotten behind with my new arrivals list, so I'll put in twice as many today, and maybe Ginger will keep you a little better posted on your new neighbors: new residents at 1224 Forest Dr. are Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Fleischman and their daughter age four-and-a-half. They hail from Lockport, N. Y. and Mr. Fleischman is in the Navy. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Patrick and their 18 month-old son moved here recently from Piedmont, Ala. They make their home at 412 Rosalia Dr., and Mr. Patrick is an electrical technician for the Florida Power and Light Co. Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Phillips, of Effingham, Ill. are recent arrivals who make their home at 301 Ninth St. They have two children, a boy, 10, and a girl, three. Mr. Phillips is a chief in the Navy. Another Navy man is F. P. Skeen, who with his wife and 14-month-old daughter, lives at 3016 Park Ave. The Skeens are from Pound, Va.

the stores are featuring now. I don't think there were ever as many pretty pastel cottons and gay prints as are to be seen now. And the lovely shoes, hats and bags make you want to start right in planning your Easter outfit though it's still over two months away.

I've kind of gotten behind with my new arrivals list, so I'll put in twice as many today, and maybe Ginger will keep you a little better posted on your new neighbors: new residents at 1224 Forest Dr. are Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Fleischman and their daughter age four-and-a-half. They hail from Lockport, N. Y. and Mr. Fleischman is in the Navy. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Patrick and their 18 month-old son moved here recently from Piedmont, Ala. They make their home at 412 Rosalia Dr., and Mr. Patrick is an electrical technician for the Florida Power and Light Co. Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Phillips, of Effingham, Ill. are recent arrivals who make their home at 301 Ninth St. They have two children, a boy, 10, and a girl, three. Mr. Phillips is a chief in the Navy. Another Navy man is F. P. Skeen, who with his wife and 14-month-old daughter, lives at 3016 Park Ave. The Skeens are from Pound, Va.

Audrey Hepburn and Mel Ferrer, as Tolstoy's immortal Natasha and Prince Andrei, join Henry Fonda to portray the top starring roles in the mammoth VistaVision, Technicolor production of "War and Peace," opening Sunday at the Ritz Theatre. The filmization of Tolstoy's monumental novel of Napoleon's invasion of Russia was directed by King Vidor.

'War, Peace' Film Of Tolstoy Novel

"War and Peace" is a huge motion picture in far more than mere length. The three-hour, twenty-eight-minute filmization of the great Tolstoy novel, which has its local premiere Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, is as tremendous in conception and execution as life itself—a mammoth panorama that encompasses the entire gamut of human personality, human endeavor and the supra-human obstacles. Nature sets up to their fulfillment. There has never been in the history of movie making a more courageous venture nor a greater reward in film artistry and entertainment.

Paramount's "War and Peace" towers among the greatest motion pictures of our time. A tremendous cast, both in size and quality, people this vast tale of the Napoleonic invasions of Russia with a host of unforgettable characters. In Tolstoy's three pivotal roles, Audrey Hepburn is enchanting as the child-woman Natasha, Rosalind Russell is superb as the aristocratic Pierre Bezukhov, and Mel Ferrer cuts a brilliant new shape for himself as the cynical and tragic Prince Andrei Bolkonsky. The trio provides portraits of rare range and depth.

Co-starring in a gallery of superb performances are Vittorio Gassman, Herbert Lom, Oscar Homolka, Anita Ekberg and John Mills, with Helmut Dantine, Barry Jones, Italian beauties Anna Maria Ferron and Milly Vitale, and a handsome newcomer, young Jeremy Brett.

Actually, the film is a dozen interwoven stories, with a triple love theme that will bring uncounted catches to your throat, and an adventure story with the inexorable power of the march of History. Told through the eyes of the charming Rostov family, it pursues two interlocking paths. One is that of the Rostovs, Bezukhovs, Bolkonskys and the lesser characters whose lives are upheaved and totally changed by the Little Corsican's monstrous ambition. Between Austerlitz and Berezina lie seven years, 1805-1812, and the destruction of a glittering and glamorous world of ease, luxury, carousal and gay irresponsibility, pictured in photographic splendor that often surpasses museum painting.

As Czarist nobility marches off to war and grows up, so does Miss Hepburn's Natasha, from innocent girlhood to married but lovely womanhood, and in those seven years unfolds a love story you will never forget.

The other story line follows the path of Napoleon and his Grande Armee from Austerlitz, through bloody Borodino, the burning of Moscow, the retreat from the holocaust through the brutal winter, and the final blow at Berezina that sent the French army stumbling back to Paris.

The VistaVision, Technicolor filming of these stupendous military operations is impressive and exciting beyond words. The spectacle of thousands of troops sneaked out across the snow covered steps as far as the eye can see is one of the most awe-some sights in movie history.

The Battle of Borodino, with the massed, colorfully uniformed dragons and grenadiers of Napoleon charging into the mouths of the Russian cannon and the muskets of the hussars, beggars description. Director King Vidor and producer Dino DeLaurentis, using as many as 18,000 troops and extraordinary camera techniques, have created vistas of towering magnificence and recreated for all time a Monumental moment in history.

EDITOR: Hugh F. McKean, president of Rollins College, above, will serve as editor of the Animated Magazine Sunday, Feb. 20 when it is presented for the 30th time on the Rollins campus. This year's magazine has a true international flavor. Among the speakers are Mgr. Bela Varga, leader of the Hungarians in exile, Saba Hahachy, member of three Egyptian cabinets, and Yoo Chin Yang, Korean Ambassador to the U. S. and five others. Admission is free, but a few reserved seats are available at $1 each.

Funds Sought To Aid Political Battle For NAS

'On Scene' Man To Go To Capitol

Merchants and business people of Sanford acted in unison Saturday morning at a called meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

More than $8,500 was raised within minutes when a fund was proposed to send a man to Washington to be "on the scene and to get all details concerning the Sanford Naval Air Station and proposed plans for its expansion."

Fifty-one merchants and businessmen contributed to the fund with the City of Sanford after a special meeting held in the City Managers Office while businessmen were contributing, pledge $2,000 to the fund.

Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager told the members attending the meeting that "The bid for the Naval Air Station, Sixth District has boiled down to a political battle."

"The bid for the proposed site for the new station, expected to be one of the largest on the east coast, has ceased to be a bid on the basis of resources and feasibility reports," he said.

"We have everything in Seminole County that the Navy needs for its new base," Krider said to the members of the Chamber of Commerce who filled the City Commission room to overflowing.

He told the group that "The Navy owns 1,300 acres of land in the Osceola area now; we have the weather and we have the kind of city that the Navy likes; and now we have to meet our competitors on their own ground."

Laying the facts before the Chamber of Commerce members, J. Bradley Odum said "It takes money to fight the kind of battle John Krider is talking about and we've got to furnish it."

"If the Navy base moves from Seminole County, we are the ones (Continued on Page 4)

Big Crowd Watches Boat Regatta Here Sunday Afternoon

Up to 10,000 people saw the first annual Boat Regatta staged at Sanford under the auspices of the Sanford Boat and Ski Club yesterday.

Thousands of automobiles lined the highway between Sanford and Lake Monroe Bridge and traffic was the heaviest ever experienced along this section of 17-92. Cars from practically every county in the state were seen parked along the highway.

Weeds along the lakefront prevented hundreds from securing a good vantage point to view the boat races which furnished a number of exceptional thrills never before seen in this area.

Loudspeakers were not sufficient strength to keep the huge audience informed of the races and the participants in each heat of the race. However, most spectators expressed their delight in having the races in the Sanford area and were eagerly attempting to determine the names of each racer.

The New York Giants Dormitory on Mellonville Ave. adjacent to the Sanford Memorial Baseball Stadium will be thrown open to visitors next Sunday afternoon between the hours of 1 and 5 in the afternoon.

Local citizens will have an opportunity to view the huge building constructed here to house the Farm System teams during their spring training.

The building, which has been completely furnished, has reached the final stages of being made ready to receive the hopeful baseball players needs only the final touches.

First group of local citizens to see the modern dormitory building will be the Sanford Kiwanis Club. The local Kiwanis Club group will hold its weekly luncheon meeting there. Host for the occasion will be New York Giants' Farm System Director Carl Hubbell who will direct Kiwanis Club members through the building.

Also on hand for the occasion both Wednesday and Sunday will be Paul Kruse, Steward, whose responsibility it is to house, feed and take care of the welfare of the farm system baseball players while they are here during the training season.

Surrounding the building are the baseball diamonds and training facilities. Using baseball diamonds in the Sanford Memorial Baseball Stadium area others are already constructed to provide training areas for the entire group of players and teams coming to Sanford for Spring Training.

The New York Giants Dormitory Building is the first portion of the expansion program gotten underway by the owners of the Mayfair Inn and the Mayfair Inn Country Club.

Already nearing completion is the Mayfair Inn Annex in which ten rooms were completed last week to house members of the State Road Board during their visit to Sanford Thursday, Friday and Saturday. (Continued on Page 4)

Request To Make Park Ave. Alternate Route Turned Down

Park Ave., in Sanford, will not be an alternate route for State Road 15-600 (U. S. 17-92) according to action taken at the State Road Board meeting held here in Sanford last weekend.

Portions of the local highway, used as detours during the construction of French Ave. have been placed with new construction and will be turned over to the City of Sanford for maintenance in the future.

Mid-East Situation Expected To Cut Ike's Vacation Short

THOMASVILLE, Ga., (UP) — President Eisenhower, expected to cut short his vacation because of the Middle East situation, conferred again by telephone with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today.

The President put aside hunting and golf so as to keep unusually close contact with the international situation.

Asked about a report carried today by the United Press that the President might fly back to Washington Tuesday, press secretary James Hagerty said, "I don't know when we are going back. As of now there has been no decision and I'll let you know the minute I know."

Hagerty also was asked about Mr. Eisenhower's noticeable cough that has been lingering for several days.

"He still has a little cough but he seems to be getting along very well—he seems to be improving each day," Hagerty said.

The secretary said he assumed that Dulles told Mr. Eisenhower that Abba Eban, the Israeli ambassador to the United States, had returned to his home country for consultation about developments.

Hagerty denied flatly that there was any current plan for Mr. Eisenhower to appear in person before the United Nations General Assembly in connection with the Middle East crisis. But he said the chief executive and Dulles were now discussing possible "further action" by the United States in the U.N.

18-Year-Old Charged With Armed Robbery

An 18-year-old youth was being held this morning at the Sanford Police Department charged with armed robbery.

The filling station holdup of the Colonial Oil Company filling station on French Ave. near the Sanford Farmer's Market area occurred shortly before 1:15 a. m. this morning.

David Steer DeRiemer, operator of the filling station, was held up at the point of a 32-caliber revolver, hit in the head, and then locked in the station's restroom. DeRiemer, though shocked from the blow on the head, was able to pry open the restroom's screen window, forced himself out of the (Continued on Page Four)

Cruiser, Auto Crash At Intersection

A Sanford Police Department patrol car was declared a "total loss" Saturday night after it had turned over at least one and a half times to slam into a power pole at the intersection of South and Park Ave. and 25th St. at the Pig 'N' Whistle.

The driver, Patrolman Carl C. Dodson, escaped with only a minor injury to his left hand when the top of the car, a Ford police cruiser, was completely smashed in.

Two cars were involved in the collision which occurred shortly before midnight Saturday. Sanford Police Chief Roy G. Williams and Captain Arnold Williams were on hand conducting the investigation of the smashup, which is said to have occurred while Dodson was chasing a speeding car through the intersection controlled by a stop light.

Phillip N. Davis, a 34-year-old railroad man was traveling west on 25th St. at a speed, he said, was between 15 and 20 miles an hour. "I had the green light," Davis said, "and was following another car through the traffic light which I had noticed was green."

Davis said that his car windows were up and he did not hear or see approaching red lights and siren.

Dodson, it was reported, had his red light blinking and his siren open as he chased the speeder north on Park Ave. "The speeder," said Chief Williams, "got away."

Damage to the 1956 Ford automobile was estimated at $800 and $1,500 damages were estimated to the police cruiser. The wrecked patrol car had been selected by H. N. Sayer, Director of Finance for the City, as a utility car for his use.

The two cars collided underneath the traffic signal light at the intersection. However, the Ford passenger car moved only to the opposite side of the street while the police car was rolled into the power pole. Only the pole kept the police car from continuing to roll and possible further damage.

Patrolman Dodson was alone in the police car at the time of the accident.

Charges, if any, are pending a complete investigation of the accident, said Chief Williams this morning.
