Jackson, Miss., Paper Suspends

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — The Jackson Times, an afternoon and Sunday morning news paper which would have been seven years old Feb. 28, ceased publication today.

Its demise left in Jackson the afternoon Jackson Daily News and the morning Clarion-Ledger, published jointly by the Mississippi Publishers Corp.

H. E. Dumas Milner, president of the State Times Publishing Corp., made the announcement of the suspension of the State Times to its employees.

"Inasmuch as a vast majority of the advertisers continued to decrease their advertising in the State Times, the decision has been made to close the newspaper and discontinue its publication," Milner said.

Milner said the newspaper's equipment and circulation list had been sold to Mississippi Publishers Corp.

Cosmos May End 'Racial Bars'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Intellectual Cosmos Club, spurned by President Kennedy because it turned down a Negro's membership application, has resolved that exclusion because of race is against its principles.

The resolution is not binding on the club's admissions committee, but spokesman Ernest K. Lindley said members hoped the committee would take the hint and drop any racial bars.

The resolution passed overwhelmingly Monday night, Lindley said. At the same time, members chose five new members of the admissions committee. It could not immediately be determined what effect the new members might have on its policies.

The recent furor over the club's policies came after a deputy assistant secretary of state, Carl T. Rowan, a Negro, was denied membership.

Hoffa Case Delayed Again

ORLANDO (UPI) — The mail fraud case of James H. Hoffa, which has been dragging along since Dec. 7, 1960, was delayed again Monday.

U. S. District Judge Joseph Lieb granted the defense a continuation of a hearing from Feb. 26 to March 12. The continuation was to allow a defense attorney to finish some court cases at Miami.

At the same time, U. S. attorneys formally asked Lieb to set a trial date. That will be ruled on later.

Thomas Jefferson and Martin Van Buren were the only two U. S. presidents who had previously been vice president and secretary of state.

Nova Council Formed • Seminole Development Set

By LARRY VERSHEL
Have you all noticed the improvements of the city's appearance with the bandshell torn down?

Republicans will start an extensive vote registration drive soon in the county. . . A high ranking GOP member here told us Wednesday that there will be GOP opposition for the two county commission posts as well as for the legislature this year.

Nobody asked me but, how come no one says anything about teachers paying taxes but as soon as one wants to run for political office . . . Oh, no!

Did you know there are six teachers now serving in the state legislature?

Seen at the Nova Impact meeting at Patrick Air Force Base Wednesday were County Commissioners James P. Avery, Ted Williams, Vernon Dunn, Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider, School Official Stewart Gatchel and developer Hibbard Casselberry.

Sen. Bernard Parrish will be the featured speaker at the Jaycee banquet Jan. 27.

Accidents to city employees have fallen sharply since the city started making its men wear those colorful helmets.

City Manager W. E. Knowles went up to Starke Tuesday and purchased $3,290 of supplies for $221. . . Pele strikes a hard bargain.

Juvenile Official C. E. McCord tells us that juvenile delinquency was up in 1961 as compared to 1960. "More detection," says McCord.

Since the Sunshine Committee of the Chamber of Commerce did such a bang-up job, how about the chamber forming a flu committee?

Fiscal Agent Loomis Leedy has the flu bug and had to cancel his conference with Knowles on the financing of a sewage treatment plant.

Did you know that the new 20 month old chimp at the zoo has its own heater? The city looked after its own during the cold snap.

County Commission meets tonight in the courthouse with the medical examiners and legislative delegation on strong laws regarding autopsies.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Did you know that the Panama Canal on the Pacific side is not less than 41 feet deep and 45 feet deep on the Atlantic? How about that?

City Manager W. E. Knowles stressed today that the city did not deny the swimming team the use of the city pool. Quite the contrary, said Mr. Knowles. He added that the city would provide the pool if the school would provide or cover the operating cost. Estimated cost—$2,200.

Look for a hassle Monday night at the City Commission meeting on the proposed rezoning of French Ave. from 18th St. to 24th Place. . . Some property owners are up in arms over the proposed cutting down of commercial zoning.

Six Counties To Join In Area Survey

A Regional Planning Council for the six-county Nova area was set up Wednesday at a meeting of the governors of the Joint Community Impact Coordinating Committee at Patrick Air Force Base.

Attending the meeting with delegations from the other five counties was one from Seminole County which included John Krider, representing the Chamber of Commerce; Stewart Gatchel, representing the county's schools; Jim Avery, Ted Williams and Vernon Dunn, representing the County Commission, and Hibbard Casselberry from the town of Casselberry.

The Planning Council will conduct a survey for comprehensive planning which encompasses the whole six-county area. It will cover all phases of planning for the moon shot project and will be done on an area-wide basis, according to Krider.

An existing state law provides the means for setting up the Council. As a first step commissioners from each county pledged that a resolution appointing two members to the Council would be adopted. Then each county would agree to share the cost of a land use survey according to its population. The survey is estimated to cost $150,000.

The second step would be the hiring of engineers to prepare the survey on land use. An offer of a cash grant from the regional office of the Housing and Home Finance Agency at Atlanta was made by a representative from the office, Leo Zuber. He said his office is prepared to make a cash award under the urban planning assistance program.

The Planning Council must apply to the HIFA through the Florida Development Commission and the federal Government will assume two-thirds of the cost.

On the basis of a cost of $150,000 the area would assume one-third of this amount. Broken down into counties it would mean that Seminole's share would be $4,570; Brevard $9,300; Orange, $21,850; Volusia, $10,400; Indian River, $2,140, and Osceola, $1,590.

South Seminole Still Raided
Deputies, state beverage agents and other law enforcement groups raided an illegal whiskey operation in South Seminole early this morning, Sheriff J. L. Hobby reported.

Sheriff Hobby said that approximately 25 gallons of illegal whiskey was confiscated from a two-story house near the Weatherfield section of the county.

Arrested and charged with operating a still were Donald Perry of Oakland Hills and a man named Williams from Wheeling, W. Va.

The first name of the Williams man was not known.

Theft Ring Smashed

2 Boys Held, Arsenal Of 25 Guns Seized

The Sheriff's Office has uncovered a large burglary ring operating in Seminole and Orange Counties and has arrested two Negro juveniles in connection with the theft of some 25 assorted weapons.

The Sheriff's Office said that the juveniles were picked up in Altamonte Springs after they were found displaying some weapons in a reckless manner, according to Sheriff J. L. Hobby.

After deputies became suspicious, further checking revealed that the guns were stolen from Bumby's in Orlando.

The deputies also found out that the youths also burglarized Jerigan's Clothing store in South Seminole and had stolen a large assortment of clothing including jackets, sweaters, pants which have been recovered.

The sheriff's office is continuing the investigation to determine if any other persons were connected with the crime.

Testifies Dirt Substituted For Mortar

DELAND (UPI)—The state called more school officials today to testify in a trial of seven partners in a Jacksonville architectural and engineering firm accused of providing insufficient supervision on three Volusia County school projects.

The men, partners in the firm of Reynolds, Smith and Hill, are charged with grand larceny. The defense contends the firm provided all the supervision called for in the contract.

Park Allison of New Smyrna Beach, a brick mason who worked for a subcontractor on the Volusia projects for about a month last January and February, testified Wednesday he saw dirt instead of mortar being put into wall cavities on the projects. He was a state witness.

The defense said in its opening statement it would try to prove the firm was sabotaged by subcontractors. County School Planner Robert G. Graf testified that major construction defects were found at all three schools under construction, and that 20 wall panels at Deland High had to be torn down and rebuilt.

Record Budget Sent Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy today sent Congress a $92.5 billion budget for the 1963 fiscal year—the biggest ever in peacetime—but said he still hoped to eke out a "modest" $500 million surplus.

He called it a blueprint for a national "growth and strength."

Kennedy's first complete budget called for repeal of the 10 per cent tax on train and bus travel, and a 1-cent increase on both regular letter and air mail stamps. Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon said the administration also hoped to cut income taxes early in 1963.

Initial congressional reaction to the budget generally followed party lines. Republicans rapped it as another pattern for big spending and scoffed at the forecast of a surplus, but most Democrats praised it as a model of fiscal responsibility.

The new budget assumed that the Berlin crisis would be over by the end of June and that the nation's economy would expand steadily and fairly briskly for at least 18 months.

Unless those assumptions are realized, Kennedy's projected surplus could be wiped out.

Congress also could upset it by rejecting proposed revenue plans or fixing higher price tags for some programs.

Next Texas Crop May Be Lost
LAKELAND (UPI)—The Florida Citrus Commission was told Wednesday that freeze damage to Texas citrus trees is so severe the region might not be able to produce a crop next season.

At the same time, the commission adopted a regulation intended to make dealers and buyers mindful that oranges and grapefruit come from Florida.

The commission heard written reports from Gene Winn, general manager of Texas Citrus Mutual, and Bob Boyd, Texas deputy commissioner of agriculture. They said 25 per cent of the trees in the lower Rio Grande Valley were killed, most of them under four years old. But they said many of those not killed were severely damaged and may not be able to produce next season.

Midwest Caught In Deep-Freeze

By United Press International
Winter made a deep freeze out of the already suffering Midwest today, dropping temperatures to arctic-like temperatures, dotting the Rockies with sporadic snow and threatening to chill the East.

Snow was predicted for northern sections of Tennessee today.

Kennedy picked Apalachicola River channel improvement as another of the nation's construction starts and asked $500,000 for the project.

He picked the navigation project at Baker's Haulover Inlet as one of 22 Army Engineer planning starts and requested $15,000.

The budget also asked congressional approval of eight preliminary studies to determine whether they should be undertaken by the Army Engineers.

Rusk Explains Congo Policy
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United States supported UN intervention in the Congo because the alternative "would have been violence and chaos and a ready-made opportunity for Soviet exploitation which the United States would have been compelled to counter."

Rusk told a closed meeting of the Senate foreign relations sub-committee on African affairs that there was "no reasonable evidence that secession is the will of the majority of the population of any province involved."

The new Dominican military-civilian junta, trying to restore order in the perennially troubled Caribbean nation, decreed harsh penalties on strikers today.

He requested $18.3 billion to run the armed forces in the year starting July 1—a boost of $1.45 billion over this year.

Kennedy Asks $205,000 For Florida Canal

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy asked Congress today for $205,000 to start the work of turning the Miami harbor into a deeper and bigger port.

The President, in his fiscal 1963 budget message, also asked Congress to provide $205,000 more for planning on the cross-Florida barge canal and the customary $13.5 million for additional work on the Central and South Florida Flood Control project.

For the whole state, Kennedy asked $21,247,500, slightly more than the $20,499,600 requested last year.

The Miami harbor, a $4,050,000 navigation project, was one of 43 construction starts requested by Kennedy.

Despite some congressional pressure last year for a construction start on the cross-Florida barge canal, the President chose to ask for additional planning money but none for the start of actual work on the channel between the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic coast.

Kennedy picked Apalachicola River channel improvement as another of the nation's construction starts and asked $500,000 for the project.

He picked the navigation project at Baker's Haulover Inlet as one of 22 Army Engineer planning starts and requested $15,000.

United Effort To Plan For Nova Urged

Former State Senator Douglas Stenstrom today rolled up his sleeves, and unrolled a massive eight-year development program for Seminole County calling for a united effort by "public minded citizens to eliminate sectionalism as we have little time left for the amazing growth of this area."

Stenstrom, who emphasized that he was "just not talking," had accepted the leadership of the Long Range Planning Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and said "if I get nothing done, I'll just get out."

He added: "The only means of accomplishing this long-range program is through the Chamber of Commerce."

The former state senator reported that the newly organized development committee will hold its first meeting at 6:30 p. m. Jan. 29 to discuss a concrete long range road program for the county.

He added that in the not too distant future committees will be formed to work on schools, public health, ways of combating crime, road beautification, water and traffic safety.

"This is no pipe dream," Stenstrom said, adding that "we can no longer sit on the sidelines. Some constructive effort is needed."

"If we are going to grow, and there is no doubt, that this county will more than double in size by 1970, citizens outside public life, meaning J. Q. Public, must work together. I hope to have from 300 to 400 people on these committees in a few years."

"There are two kinds of growth—orderly and disorderly. . . We must choose now. I'm going to holler and keep on hollering and let me say I'm not seeking public office in the spring, but we all must realize we are only 18 miles from the Nova project."

"We are right in the middle of the biggest development in the country and we can't just sit by."

"Planning, planning and more planning is needed," he said.

Stenstrom said that one of the major items he hopes to accomplish at the initial meeting of the group set for the Mayfair on Jan. 29 is to make officials aware of the need to acquire rights of way for SR 46 to Mims "immediately."

Stenstrom appealed out that "we all know that the road must be four lanes. If we wait any longer, the acquiring the rights of way will be unbelievable. We must start now," he said.

Better Late Than...

A local fisherman received an airmail letter last week that gave him the shock of his life, along with a heart-warming glow.

Enclosed in the letter, which was postmarked Richmond, Ky., was a check for $161 and a note saying:

"Dear Mac:
"This in payment of the bill that my father owed at your store over 40 years ago..."

The letter was signed by Gordon McKeehan of 836 W. Main St. in Richmond.

H. P. MacArthur, who operates a drink stand at Mac's Fish Camp near the Osteen bridge, remembers the man who sent the money, but he never expected to receive payment after all these years.

More than 30 years ago, MacArthur left Dalton, Ga., where he had run a general store for many years. A kind-hearted soul, during the depression years, Mac, as he was called, let the people who traded with him run up bills for food and merchandise amounting to over $10,000, he figures.

He recalls that one day, many years after he left Dalton, he sat in his chair down on Sanford Ave. one day, with the bills owed to him for so long, and with a sigh of resignation, tore them all up and threw them away, writing it off to experience and hard times.

Since he received the letter with the check in it, MacArthur has written to McKeehan, thanking him for the money and asking after his health and family. McKeehan replied, inviting MacArthur to come up and see him and enclosing a colored snapshot of himself, showing a middle-aged man standing in a field.

Interested in this recall of the old days MacArthur plans to communicate further with McKeehan and hopes to receive news of the people he used to know in Georgia.

Mrs. H. L. Johnson

Hello again. What a week this has been. So much sickness everywhere. The schools have been heavily hit. Glad to hear that Cent Wheatland has returned to school after being ill for quite a while. Those reported on the still ill list are Grace Ann Spivey, Lynn Crabtree. Those able to go back to school are Pat and Alex Seabo, Jan Stripling, Linda Stapler, Forrestine Allison, Jewel and David Kelly, Jack Spivey, Terry and Larry Watson, and the latest report is Mrs. Leon Keel is also ill. So you kiddies buckle down and catch up on those back lessons. Its good to see you out again. * * *

This was kind of cute, a second grader told me the other day, Mrs. Johnson I don't think I will come to school tomorrow. I asked him why and he said "Because I've got HALF of the flu". * * *

Jackie Goodman is county head of the Crippled Children's Assn. and it is time for their Easter seal drive. Her group made some wonderful plans so you all be sure and go out all the way when you are called upon. It will help some crippled child or person in some way. * * * Red Cross First Aid Class was started last Tuesday evening at the Monroe School. This will be held for five weeks, one night a week. I sure wanted to attend but because of another commitment I could not. Its a very interesting and certainly needed course by everyone because after all you never know when you will need to revive a drowning person, some one who has been burned or maybe cut real bad. And the course is free, all that is required for you to get is a first aid book. * * *

glad that they could do this small favor for you. * * * The Lake Monroe Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a Dress Revue next Thursday evening at the HD Center in town. Elmer Wontoney of Yovella will talk on the newest fates Disappointed Prints and there will be models wearing dresses made from these prints. A musical entertainment by members of the High School Glee Club will also be a high light of the evening.

Mrs. Madeline Coveney is clothing chairman and will be assisted by Lucille Fitzgerald and myself. Lenora Andrews is in charge of refreshments. This affair will start at 7:50 p. m. and is open to the public. So you all come. * * *

So glad to see old friends Kay and Jim Thomson Sunday. They had come in from Key West where Jim is stationed with the Navy. They will have their home here and when Jim retires in July they will come back here to live. The three boys Jim, Scott and Craig will be glad because they will be spending their time out as Ride-A-Whites riding their horse. * * * Happy Birthday to my little granddaughter Carol who turned two last Sunday. * * * I will sure be glad when the state department gets through with the paving of these roads. The Paola road is simply terrible. Its getting harder every day to get over it. If you don't watch out one of their trucks will run over you. There are five buses that have to use the road every day. * * *

I was noticing the flower farm of Mr. Dekles the other day. He has a good variety of mixing flowers. The weather the past few days must have helped them. Wasn't it like Spring Monday and Tuesday? But we know it can't last so get out your coats again. Oh well it was wonderful while it lasted. It kind of made the ladies want to start spring cleaning. But just think, one of these days IT WILL be spring.

Here is our thought this week:
A Christian let
A MIND through which Christ thinks;
A HEART through which Christ loves;
A VOICE through which Christ speaks;
A HAND through which Christ helps.

Lively Historians

This country has never been extravagant in admiration of its scholars, nor has it accorded them the high status their counterparts in other lands generally achieve.

The popular attitude here includes, of course, our historians. They are ordinarily thought of as a musing crowd who spend their days putting down their writings with an underbrush of footnotes, pronouncing dry judgments on events long forgotten.

Some of them unquestionably fit this picture. But, as freshly illustrated by the busy year-end meeting of the American Historical Assn., many historians do not.

Their written and spoken outpourings compare very favorably with the best stuff you can find anywhere these days in the talk market.

Ranging over many times and places, they argue their points with a sharpness and clarity that should make most politicians blush. When they choose to cut each other up in rebuttals, they do so with a polite, dispassionate candor which men in public life seldom manage.

Howard Jay Graham, a Guggenheim Fellow and a foremost authority on United States constitutional history, compressed into 25 minutes a lifetime of digging into the background and meaning of the famous 14th amendment dealing with due process of law and equal protection of the law.

His subtle, pungent, well-turned phrasing makes the cliché-ridden dialogue of the average television drama seem like a loose string of dull beads. And some of our senators can spout for four hours without producing as many nuggets of real fact and thought as Professor Graham rubs together in just a few sentences.

John W. Gardner, in his book, "Excellence," argues not only for our recognition of good scholars as men of quality, meriting high respect. He contends that they frequently can—and do—perform skillfully in government, business and other practical fields.

Familiarly, we hear "practical" critics of scholars in government say scornfully that "they never met a payroll." Perhaps not. But they may have done something better. They may have met ideas—and grappled successfully with them.

Far from being a musty lot, historians at the best are a valuable potential source of practical leadership.

And with all their own admitted faults and frailties, they remain a free society's main hope of sorting out some semblance of truth from the conflict and chaos of men's affairs.

Peter Edson

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA)—According to all the pronouncements which Republican leaders are now putting out, there's a great surge of conservatism sweeping the country. Even youth in the colleges is supposed to have gone rah-rah reactionary in protest against intellectual liberalism.

If these things are so, then it would be interesting to know where the Gallup Poll got the statistics reported in its most recent public opinion survey.

Letters

Dear Sir:
At Seminole High School we believe that our students should consciously be aware of the role they are to play in life upon completion of their formal education. In order to set tentative goals and plan toward their attainment it certainly seems that our students could benefit from the advice and counsel of successful people in their field.

For this reason, "Career Day" is one of the highlights of our school enrichment program. This year was certainly no exception. Career Day was one of the finest ever conducted here at Seminole High, and its success was due largely to our consultants who came at their own expense and gave their time to provide this valuable experience for our entire student body.

The faculty and students would like to extend heartfelt appreciation for your fine contribution to this program. Thank you for being with us. We hope you will visit us again.
Sincerely,
A. J. Bracken, Principal

What it shows is that 43 per cent of the people now think that the Democratic party can do a better job in handling the most important problems facing the country.

Only 18 per cent of the people are reported as thinking that the Republicans could do a better job.

This is not taken to indicate any transcontinental tidal wave of conservatism. So where is it?

This poll, of course, leaves 43 per cent who have no opinion on the subject or who think there are no differences between the abilities of the two major parties. If all 43 per cent should suddenly decide that the Republicans could do the better job, then the balance would be tipped 57 per cent Republican, 43 Democratic.

But if the 43 per cent who don't know are eliminated, as Dr. Gallup does, then the ratio becomes 74 per cent favoring the Democrats, 26 per cent the Republicans.

"What's Rhino Talk for 'Giddap'?"

Dick West Says:

Make Your Own Acid Test

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A day ago I developed a sinus condition of the type described in leading medical journals as "really a pip."

Not wishing to offend anybody, but the experience has led me to revise my thinking a bit as regards the practice of medicine on television.

I am not, I should make clear, alluding to Ben Casey or Young Dr. Kildare, or even old Dr. Gillespie. Everyone knows those guys are just play acting.

I refer to the sincere, dedicated professional looking types who deliver the TV commercials. Some time ago I began letting them prescribe for my ailments and I gave up going to doctors.

This worked out fairly well because my ailments generally were of the kind euphemistically described as "over-indulgence in food and drink." These attacks were diagnosed over the airwaves as "excess acidity."

My TV medical advisers offered a choice of two remedies, one a fizzy water produced by dropping a tablet into a glass and the other a fizzy water produced by dropping some crystals into a glass.

A few trial-and-error experiments clearly showed that I responded better to the crystals.

With the onset of my sinus attack, I turned on the magic box to see what might relieve the most annoying symptom, which is a headache. Almost immediately I became confused.

One commercial stated unequivocally that doctors recommend a combination of ingredients to blot out the pounding of hammers, the ringing of bells and the flashing of lightning in human head.

But another commercial averred just as positively that most doctors themselves take aspirin.

Obviously I needed to consult a specialist, so I began turning the knob in search of commercials that prescribed medication designed exclusively for sinus trouble.

I found a number of them, including one that promised to relieve congestion in all eight sinus passages. Unfortunately, however, the brand names all sounded so much alike I was unable to remember which was which.

CRUSADES for CHRIST CHAPEL

121 Commercial St. (Opposite Fla. State Bank)

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE L-416: Arch Reynolds, aged about 61, lives on the farm adjacent to our summer home in Indiana.

He asked me to address his district meeting of Veterans of World War I.

"Tell us what we can do," he said, "to help protect our country."

So I urged them to place patriotism ahead of party, as they did in 1917 when they were fighting men, and try to inject more "horse sense" into politics.

Instead of waiting till 1964 to find out which candidates will be foisted on us for presidential nominees, we should pick them now and groom them for office.

"We voters send only 539 elected officials to Washington," I said.

"They include 437 U. S. Representatives, 100 U. S. Senators, plus 1 President and 1 Vice-President."

"Yet a recent report listed the civilian employees of the federal government as numbering 2,377,684. And that doesn't include the millions in military service."

"Since we sent only 539 to Washington, subtract those 539 from the 2,377,684 and that leaves 2,377,145 payrollers we voters did NOT elect. They are bureaucrats!"

"Where'd all those 2,377,145 'taxeaters' come from? Well, they are appointees of appointees, maybe 10 to 20 steps down the line. "So you and I who are taxpayers instead of taxeaters, should rise up and demand less bureaucratic regimentation of our country."

Pick Taxpayer

Most of us Americans work for our living, whether in factories, offices, stores or farms. We are taxpayers.

But those millions of federal civilian employees are professional "taxeaters."

They are on our backs, consuming our taxes, and then trying to further regiment us farmers, union workers and business or professional people who are out on the real firing line of life.

So it is time all patriotic

Democrats and Republicans began to wake up.

Let's stop picking "taxeaters" as our candidates! Instead, let's nominate men who know from experience how hard it is for us taxpayers to eke out a living.

Now—
Ford frees you forever
from the expense and bother of frequent car servicing.
Twice-a-year maintenance is here—and only the cars from Ford have it!

In a new Ford Galaxie or Fairlane, the odometer rolls off a long 6,000 miles between every service stop. Compare this with other '62 cars and here's what you'll find: many cars still have to check in for service every 1,000 miles; some every 2,000 miles; others every 4,000 miles. Only the cars from Ford need service only twice a year, or every 6,000 miles.

When you own a '62 Galaxie or Fairlane, you don't have to drive with one eye on the odometer to make sure you're not forgetting an oil change or a grease job or other servicing. Ford's twice-a-year maintenance saves you time, saves you money. Just one stop every 6,000 miles takes care of servicing. You'll go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications, 2 years or 30,000 miles without changing engine coolant-antifreeze. Brakes adjust themselves.

Why buy a service headache when Ford is ready with the cure? See your Ford Dealer—and see how close Ford has come to the fill-it-and-forget-it car!

Coaches Feted At Banquet

Lyman High football coaches Bill Proctor and Buck Metts were presented with Coaching Appreciation Awards Tuesday at the Longwood Boosters' Club's Annual Sports Banquet honoring the Lyman High football team.

Presentation of the awards was made by Booster Club President Joe Pavelchek as the club recognized the coaches and team that gave Lyman High the most outstanding gridiron year in the school's history.

Guest speaker for the sports banquet was Coach Tommy Owens, Head Football Coach at Eustis High School. A former gridiron star at Florida State University, Owens fielded a team for Eustis that achieved the finest record in 15 years for the Bulldogs.

Owens' speech for the evening centered around the theme of football and its importance on American youth. He cited the sport as character building and as providing a group purpose for the nation's younger generation.

A small group of Longwood parents of the members of the teams, the Lyman coaching staff and special guests were present for the athletic organization's annual banquet.

An opening informal address was given by Lyman High Principal Ralph Diggs. He expressed his appreciation to the varsity gridder for the record achieved in 1961, and introduced the guest speaker for the evening.

Subsequent to the banquet.

films of the game which gave Lyman High its tenth victory of the season at the Tangelo Bowl in Eustis were shown. Proctor narrated at the film showing.

Groat, Snider Sign Pacts; Look For Good Year

United Press International One took a cut and one took the same money as last season but both look forward to 1962 as a year of vindication.

Dick Groat, the National League's "Most Valuable Player" of 1960, conceded "1961 was a bad year" and accepted a nominal cut from general manager Joe Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates to about $27,000.

Duke Snider, admitting "I haven't shown my neighbors a good season yet," signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers at no loss in pay and looked forward to a new lease on his baseball life in the Dodgers' new Chavez Ravine stadium.

Each is a key man in the 1962 fortunes of his team.

Groat, the inspirational leader of 1960, is being relied upon by the Pirates to return to the form that catapulted him into one of the game's top stars. Snider, the last of the old Brooklyn stars still playing with the Dodgers in Los Angeles, is recognized as a possible answer to the team's lack of long-range firepower.

"I was bad last year," admitted Groat. "I didn't play the baseball that I'm capable of playing. There is no explanation. I just want to forget the nightmare 1961 season. Maybe it just was one of those things. I'm looking forward to the 1962 season to return to my 1960 form. I've written 1961 off the calendar."

Snider, who signed for between $30,000 and $35,000, admitted it's been one frustration after another since the Dodgers transferred from Brooklyn to his home diggings in Los Angeles but speculated that the new home of the Dodgers would enable him to show his true power.

Opposing the record holder tonight will be Mary McLain, Polish Runner, I'll Take Him, Refuel, Boots Wallace, Wonder and Topeka Rose.

Bud Holland's Boots Wallace rates as the winningest entry with four firsts in the bag. He recently triumphed successively in Grades D, C, B and A. I'll Take Him and Refuel were on top in their last outings.

This is Ladies' Night and all women are invited to watch the 10-race program free.

2 Coaches Get Reprimand

NEW YORK (UPI)—NYU basketball coach Lou Rossini and referee Lou Bender each received an official reprimand today for their public argument over the officiating in the NYU-St. Joseph's game on Jan. 6.

"The argument was ill-advised and unfortunate," said Asa S. Bushnell, chairman of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

"All coaches and officials should realize that public airing of differences or dissatisfactions can only damage college basketball."

Bushnell added that the statements of both men "should have been addressed, not to the newspapers, but to the ECAC office."

Youth Grabs Jai-Alai Spotlight

Another youngster of the Jai Alai wars came through Wednesday at Orlando-Seminole Jai Alai Fronton with the feature win of the evening.

Echaniz, 19 years old and playing the fastest game in this country for first time this year was a conquering hero from post position one in the eighth game, 6 point affair and returned a crazy array of mutual figures such as, 7.00 win, 10.60 place, and 5.80 show.

NCAA Okays 4 Rule Changes

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—There will be four changes in the rules of college football next fall, most of them minor, but there will be no change in the substitution rule.

The NCAA football rules committee, which wound up its three-day annual meeting Wednesday night at the Monte Carlo Hotel, also added one rule change for high school teams and eight "recommendations"—expressions of committee opinion which do not carry the force of rules.

One of the rule changes and five of the recommendations were aimed at cutting down player injuries, an increasing source of concern to the colleges and high schools.

The principal safety-oriented recommendations called on the colleges to fit their players with protective mouthpieces, and asked that the NCAA injuries committee undertake a study of football equipment.

Some articles of equipment, notably face masks and plastic helmets, have been criticized as potentially dangerous by medical groups and other observers of the game.

About the only rule change which might materially alter football strategy next fall is one which will permit punting teams to down a kick within their opponents' 10-yard line.

Formerly, if the kicking team downed a punt within that area, it was declared a touchback and the ball was brought out to the 20-yard line.

Other changes reduced the penalty for an illegal shift from 15 to 5 yards, making it the same as for illegal motion; increased from 5 to 15 yards the penalty for a defensive player kicking a forward pass or a place kick held by an opponent; added language to the rule prohibiting blows with "the flat, extended forearm, elbow, or locked hands."

Just about every big name of the current crop of touring professionals is competing here, led by Masters champ Gary Player, British Open king Arnold Palmer, Litteral Open winner Gene Littler and PGA champion Jerry Barber.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Officials of the Palm Springs Golf Tournament announced Wednesday that Sam Snead has entered the $50,000 event scheduled for Jan. 31-Feb. 4.

Party Given At Peppermint Lounge

Miss Brenda Brown was guest of honor Saturday night at a Twist Party given in celebration of her 15th birthday.

The social hall of the Fleet Reserve Home on Seminole Blvd. was gaily decorated in red and white to imitate the famous Peppermint Lounge in New York City where the twist dance started with Joey Dee and the Starlighters.

Carrying the theme further, a recording of music made at the lounge by the famous band was played during the evening. Streamers of red and white crepe paper, were swagged gracefully from the chandeliers which were hung with huge clusters of multi-hued balloons, from all corners of the room.

Behind the refreshment table, red and white panels hung under the sign, "Peppermint Lounge." Peppermint candy sticks were given to the guests as favors and part of the refreshments.

Other refreshments were assorted soft drinks, cake, cookies, peanuts, potato chips and mints.

Tables were set up all around the dance floor with red candles to light the scene and confetti sprinkled all over everything. A roaring fire in the fireplace at the FRA Hall added to the enjoyment of the guests, who danced to recorded music.

Later, Brenda opened a great mound of gifts brought in her by the following friends:

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: How do you pick a "best man" for a wedding? I always thought the best man should be the groom's best friend. My son grew up with a certain young man in this town, and those boys were like brothers. That fellow was in my home as much as he was in his own. He is getting married and I know my son felt hurt when he wasn't asked to be best man. The "bride" asked her fiancé to ask her brother (whom he doesn't even KNOW) to be best man because he is six feet two and will look better in the bridal party than my son, who is five feet six. Can you beat that? I'd like your comments. VERY VERY HURT

DEAR VERY: A man who lets his bride select his best man is starting down the aisle on the wrong foot. Look for a double-ring ceremony—one for HER finger, the other for HIS nose.

DEAR ABBY: The other night my husband and I went to a party. The daughter of a very respected couple in town consented to baby-sit for us. We paid her the standard sitter's wages.

Imagine my annoyance when I returned home and found that this teen-ager had spent the evening looking through my drawers, closets, correspondence, bank statements and other personal items.

The children were well taken care of Abby, and nothing was missing. But I would like to know what makes a child from a good home behave like a sneak and peeping Tom the minute she is left alone in another person's home.

UTTERLY FLABBERGASTED

DEAR UTTERLY: A combination of curiosity and immaturity causes people to snoop. This weakness is not limited to teen-agers. Many adults are similarly afflicted.

DEAR ABBY: I snore very loudly. My husband has become used to it and he wakes me up only when it is so loud it shakes the bed. That hasn't happened very often.

My daughter, who lives in another city, is going to have a baby real soon, so I am going down to be with her. She has never been able to stand my snoring. Her house is small, and even sleeping in the next room doesn't help, as I am told the people next door have heard me snore. What shall I do? I can't stay awake all night. And I don't want to keep my daughter up. If I get a room somewhere my daughter's feelings will be hurt.

HEAVY SNORER

DEAR SNORER: See an eye, ear, nose and throat doctor. Perhaps you have an obstruction that can be corrected. If not, I recommend beeswax ear plugs for those within hearing distance of your trumpeting.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

North's jump to six spades represented one of those intuitive bids which sometimes works and sometimes doesn't. East and West were both bidding hearts and North believed South ought to have some high diamonds.

The intuition worked all right, but only because South combined very accurate card reading with a little bit of luck.

West opened the eight of hearts. South ruffed in dummy, led a trump to his king, ruffed another heart, led a second trump, ruffed his last heart and proceeded to play two more rounds of trumps.

At this point South was down to one trump, three diamonds and two clubs. West and North held two diamonds and four clubs each.

Now came the card reading. East had passed originally. He could not hold ace-king of hearts and ace of diamonds, therefore West held the remaining ace.

South led his last trump. Now came the luck. West could not afford to let a club go and discarded the queen of diamonds. South let the small club go from dummy and led a low diamond. West had to play the ace and South had his slam.

Where did the luck come in? If East had held the four clubs South could not have made the hand.

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

Labor Secretary Goldberg's mail bag is heavy these days with letters suggesting ways to cure unemployment. The idea that crops up most often is that in families where the husband has a full time job his wife shouldn't be allowed to work.

The only thing working wives would need to do to prove what a lame-brain idea this is would be to stage a week's "appreciation strike."

If all the married women in the country whose husbands have full time jobs ever decided to take a week's "vacation"—all at the same time—the country would be in real mess.

For while the majority of working wives aren't holding down executive positions, an awful lot of them are making it possible for the nation's executives to look good.

Being settled in her home life, the working wife is usually settled in her job, too. And so she stays with one boss or one firm long enough to make herself—if not indispensable—at least mighty important to the running of the office she works in.

Everybody knows what happens in a home when the woman of the house has to be away for awhile. All the thousand and one little things that a housewife does routinely just don't get done, and living becomes pretty makeshift.

Let the married working women of the country all step out of their jobs for a week—and office routine wouldn't fare much better.

And that's just part of the story. Think what a recession we would have if all the two-income families suddenly became one-income families. The working wife in most families isn't tucking her pay check away in a savings account. It's going to buy all the things that give work to men—homes, automobiles, furniture, appliances and all sorts of things the family couldn't have on one pay check.

Men—there is good advice for the years in Ruth Millet's

American buffalo rub against trees to relieve itching skin and insect bites, awaiting their turn where trees are scarce.

Death Certificate Law Planned

WEATHER: Cloudy through Saturday. High today, 75-80. Low tonight, 60-65. VOL. 63 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 FRI., JAN. 19, 1962 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO 370

Would Spell Out Authority For Doctors

State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr., said Thursday night that "lack of cooperation" was the blame for reported disharmony between doctors and law enforcement officers. He called for "better communications" between the two groups at a two hour session set up to discuss proposed legislation governing the signing of death certificates in the county.

Cleveland said he would give serious consideration to introducing a special act patterned after Orange County that only doctors can sign death certificates but until "we get this act and the County Commission studies all the ramifications, some simple ground rules could be worked out between the medical examiners and peace justices to avoid any hassles," Cleveland urged.

The meeting was called by the County Commission after the board of medical examiners threatened to resign because "their job was useless," according to Dr. Edward Stoner.

Attending the meeting were various peace justices, County Prosecutor Karlisle Householder, County Judge Vernon Mize, Sheriff J. L. Hobby, Chief Deputy Jim Singletary, Sen. Bernard Parrish, doctors Vincent Roberts, Leonard Munson, Stoner, the commission, and State's Attorney Arthur Stead.

Dr. Munson briefly discussed the reason for the "discontent" of the examiners and touched on a case of a Negro who died recently and a doctor who refused to sign the death certificate because he had been "perplexed" as to the cause of death.

The woman was buried with a temporary death certificate signed by a peace justice.

Stead answered the doctors regarding any foul play in the case with these words: "No one suggested any criminal act and until this office feels an autopsy is necessary, we would be violating our oath if we ordered one."

County Judge Vernon Mize, backed up the doctors saying that a special act is needed giving the doctors authority. He said that on some occasions when he was called out to act as coroner, he "felt foolish putting my name on a death certificate."

Cleveland emphasized that a change of laws would not necessarily solve anything unless there was better cooperation between the different agencies.

Doctors felt that they should have charge of bodies and have the authority to call for an autopsy if one were needed.

The doctors, led by Roberts, contended that the examiners had never charged a fee for their service and would not call an autopsy "every time, but only when we felt it was a necessity."

Citizens' Shots Nip Bank Holdup

ACCOKEEK, Md. (UPI)—Two grim men rode in to rob the bank at Accokeek Thursday. They wound up face down in the dust under the guns of the irate citizenry.

The only considerable departure from the usual script was that the men charged with the robbery were, by profession, used car salesmen, and rode in cars instead of on horses.

They walked into the bank while two telephone repairmen, Richard L. Knowles, 24, and Howard McClanahan, 25, were cashing their paychecks. As the two repairmen walked out, they saw one of the strangers slip a gun out of his pocket.

Knowles dashed next door to Robert Perry's hardware store and McClanahan leaped into their truck to block the robber's exit with it. Perry slammed a brace of shells into a double-barreled shotgun and tossed it to Knowles. Knowles sprinted out the back door in time to spot the two men riding off in a car.

He let fly with both barrels. The charge ripped away two windows of the car and wounded the driver. The car crashed into the truck that McClanahan had driven into its path.

Both holdup men leaped out of the car, and one of them heaved a pillow case full of money into a trash can as he raced off.

But then Perry dashed up with another shotgun and a pistol and the two subjects flopped to the ground without a word.

Police identified them as Carroll Hall, 23, and William Dodson, 23, both of Warrenton, Va. They said the pillow case held $10,500 in cash. Carlton Dodson, a first cousin of William, was arrested later, police said. Hall suffered a minor shoulder wound.

Santo Domingo Back On Track

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U. S. plans for aid to the Dominican Republic were expected to go forward today following collapse of a two-day right wing coup and restoration of the moderate government.

State Department officials expressed cautious gratification over the return to power of the ruling council of state. The council had been ousted Tuesday night by a predominantly military junta headed by Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarria.

The State Department Wednesday strongly condemned the Rodriguez coup and hinted it would withhold recognition, cancel planned economic aid and possibly revoke the recent lifting of sanctions against the Dominican Republic.

U. S. officials hesitated, in such a turbulent nation, to label the counter coup a final victory.
