Southern Bell Is Helping Our Community's Continual Growth

The announcement today of the start of construction of the new building in Sanford is another expression of faith in the growth of Sanford and Seminole County.

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, this morning, broke ground at the corner of 9th Street and Laurel Avenue for the construction of their new telephone exchange here that will ultimately cost a million dollars.

This expression of faith in Sanford's growth and continued prosperity also gives impetus at the completion of the new exchange and installation of equipment, the latest type of number 5 Crossbar automatic switching equipment. The equipment, according to officials of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, will also include a switchboard equipped for handling long distance calls. Eventually, calls from long distance calls themselves will be going through operators.

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company engineers and experts have been working months and years toward the completion of plans for the new Sanford telephone exchange. Their surveys of the economic trend for Sanford and Seminole County community.

The telephone exchange will be located on Laurel Avenue between 9th and 10th Streets. A two story building, it will house all of the communication equipment and the personnel for the operation and supervision of the million dollar plant.

By August 4th of this year, according to estimated time for the completion, the building will be in readiness for the tremendous job of installing the new switchboards and other equipment.

The estimated date according to the officials of Southern Bell Telephone Company, for the beginning of service is March 17, 1957.

It takes the faith of such concerns as Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company to make Sanford big and prosperous. The start of the construction of the building for their new exchange in Sanford is another big step forward in the progress that we have all seen started.

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company marches along with Sanford in its determined growth.

When the new exchange is completed, we will be second to none when it comes to the comparison of communication services. For, we must realize, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company looks not only at the service for today, but to service in the years to come, sometimes to the extent of surveying the possibilities of Sanford's growth 50 years hence.

British Are On Spending Spree

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The British are taking another fling at that most unpopular of governmental activities—trying to curb the public's spending spree.

Whenever Washington tried to do this in 1933 and again in 1935—there were loud cries of pain. The Bank of England has upped its interest rate to 5 1/2 per cent when money gets dear and scarce, businessmen (especially the smaller ones) are likely to go slow, and consumers are supposed to find it harder and costlier to buy on time.

In the United States, by comparison, the Federal Reserve Bank's rate for lending to the banks in your community is 3 1/2 per cent. The American money managers raised it to that level last fall when the spending spree was worrying them.

Bankers here said there was little evidence that tighter money put any crimp in consumer buying, especially on-the-cuff buying. This went right on increasing. But the tighter credit situation drew fire as slowing down the home building industry. Some small businessmen complained.

By putting its interest rate at 5 1/2 per cent—highest in 24 years—the Bank of England will win no popularity contests with British businessmen. They have been complaining loudly since the rate was raised to 4 1/2 per cent a year ago.

Other countries in the far flung sterling area may also soon feel the effects.

The reason the British government is trying to halt the boom there is that with rising wages the British people have been on a buying kick such as the island has never known. The postwar generation has also discovered the joys of installment buying.

The British public has been buying up consumer goods the government would like to see exported. Her imports have been rising much faster than her income from exports. As a result, the gold and dollar reserves of the sterling area dropped by 642 million dollars last year. The British trade gap ran up a further deficit of $207,700,000 last month.

Prices and wages keep rising in England. Full employment makes it hard for the government to halt the inflation spiral. Nearly eight million British women are working, making up more than a third of the labor force.

The British government has tried curbs on installment buying—and reaped loud protests from workers trying to raise their standards of living. One other device the British workers trying to raise their standards of living.

might try would be the return to import controls, which the British have been relaxing. Such controls are usually aimed at dollar goods, to save England's dwindling supply.

Such a move by the British would add fuel to the tariff and foreign aid battles brewing in the American Congress.

Successors' Merchandise Is Same

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Stalin's one-time junior partners have shifted from a moon-odd-man to a sunny-boy policy. They waited for the head of the firm to die so they could put new ideas into the business to attract customers.

The merchandise is the same: World communism. But Stalin's successors in the Kremlin clearly explained this week there is a profound difference between him and them on how to bring about world communism.

Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party boss, did the talking for the new Kremlin leaders. He addressed a meeting of the party faithful but knew his words would be carried around the world.

Stalin was rigid and certainly in his last years unimaginative. Khrushchev gave his only modification for communism.

Subversion and war were the instruments. The best example is his letting loose the Korean War. He hints, as he never shows since Stalin's death and as Khrushchev showed in his speech, exhibit a vitality, imagination and patience which seemed far beyond the old man.

Examples: They tried to patch up their quarrel with Marshal Tito; they toured Asia, a trip which was a big success. They've promised help to backward countries; they've begun to drive a wedge between the West and the Middle East, an area which, although close to Russia, the West almost dreamily seemed to think was out of bounds for the Communists; and they have the United States still trying to figure out how to say no to their offer of a 20 year treaty of friendship.

This is the new Russian policy as laid down by Khrushchev: They've thrown aside the idea that forcible overthrow is necessary.

They'll be patient. Backward countries they'll try to win over by friendly acts and help. In Democratic countries which are weak or divided they'll try to take over by winning a majority in the Parliament, even if they have to do it by building a "united front" with any non-Communists who'll play along with them.

That seems a reasonable explanation of why the Russians talk so much about wanting peace. They can do a lot of communistic, easy hope, while there is peace. But Khrushchev doesn't suggest every country can be taken peacefully.

For the big countries, like the United States, Khrushchev seems to think revolution will be necessary. Without naming the United States, he put it this way: "There is not the shadow of a doubt that for a number of capitalist countries the overthrow of the bourgeois dictatorship by force . . . is inevitable."

In the meantime he suggests co-existence. It is customary in this country to reject, and perhaps forget what the Russians say as propaganda—when they talk rather quietly as Khrushchev did. He rattled no swords.

But if you were a European who had misgivings about this country or an Asian who had no reason to love the United States, the Khrushchev speech might influence you in Russia's favor.

It was a shrewd, frank, and, in its way, a brilliant speech. Khrushchev speech might influence because of their imagination and flexibility, look like far more dangerous foes than Stalin ever was.

Lion Will Have To Find New Room

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Animal Regulation Commission has informed John Stammers he may no longer keep King, 20-month-old African lion, in his apartment.

Stammers, 37, who plans to become a lion tamer, also was informed his lion had to stop standing around the block with the lion on a leash.

"At home he has his own bed, but on odd nights he usually sleeps in with me," Stammers said.

Two Tons Big
(In the Buick SPECIAL — and you really ought to try it!)

It's the one that's going to town in a BIG way!
And you'll know what we mean when you take its measure — by any yardstick you choose.

By the pound and inch, it's the biggest bundle of high-powered action and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Sedan.

By the dollar sign, it's a value so big that Buick actually gives away more in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

But not till you've put this 1956 Buick SPECIAL to the road can you know what a big-time performer it really is.

You'll know it by the instant response and purring might of a 265-cubic-inch V8 engine that's been looted to top goals of power and compression.

You'll know it by the back-sway action of a new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* that steps up getaway and gas mileage in normal situations — and means to full-power acceleration for a needed safety-surge when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

You'll know it by your complete mastery of a big car that handles like a dream — steers like a wish — and rides like a cloud in the blue.

210 — that's the word for this Buick SPECIAL . . .

210 — coming, going, or standing still . . .

210 — in its stretch-out roominess — in its sweeping beauty — in its solid steadiness . . .

210, most of all, in the way it makes your money talk . . .

Come in — soon — and let this Buick speak for itself. We think you'll find it sweet listening.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional on model cars that are on Special.

Engagement Is Today Revealed Of Virginia Langiotti, G. Pope

MISS LANGIOTTI

The engagement of Miss Virginia Langiotti, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Langiotti and the late Eddie Langiotti, to Gerald LaMont Pope, Parachute Rigging Co., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Pope of Fayetteville, N. C. is being announced today.

Miss Langiotti attended Sanford schools and will graduate from Seminole High in June.

Mr. Pope graduated from the Edwards Military Institute in Salem, N. C. He served four years in the U.S. Army Paratroopers at Fort Bragg, N. C. He then enlisted in the navy and is at present attached to VAHS at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Plans for the wedding will be announced at a later date.

Auxiliary Closes Charter Friday Night At Maitland

CASSI BERRY, the auxiliary of the Professional Service Representatives Association of Orange County, organized Sept. 23, 1955, closed its charter with sixteen signers Friday night. The first regular meeting of the auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Pempeck, Maitland.

Officers of the auxiliary are Mrs. Jack Harris, president; Mrs. Don Giese, vice-president; Mrs. Raymond Morris, Cassiberry secretary-treasurer.

Standing committees appointed for one year are: Project, Mrs. Giese, chairman; Mrs. Stanley E. Gray and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall; Program, Mrs. Pempeck and Mrs. Willis Wells, also of Maitland; and Sunshine, Mrs. Kenneth L. Berry.

The auxiliary has selected the Eccleston-Gallahan Memorial Hospital for Crippled Children as its main project for the year. An assortment of soft toys and clothing has been supplied by the auxiliary and at present the members are making a supply of stuffed animals.

Charter members also include Mrs. L. F. Kilgore, Mrs. Tom Mayo, Mrs. John Carter, Mrs. Al Beane, Mrs. R. E. Altman, Winter Park; Mrs. S. A. Medley, Pinecastle and Mrs. Fred A. Yeager, Cassiberry.

"marriages will cost ten cents." During the day, races and contests will be held and prizes will be awarded to the winners. To climax the occasion, the student council will sponsor a "Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae Dance."

Valentine Motif Is Carried Out By Eastern Stars

The past matrons and past patrons were honored at the meeting of Seminoles Chapter No. 2, O.E.S., held in the Masonic Hall, Feb. 16. Members and visitors were presented with red pin-on hearts upon arrival.

The valentine motif was carried out in all the decorations, from the tall baskets of red and white gladioli in the Chapter Room to the small trees blooming with miniature valentines on the serving table in the dining room. Centered between the valentine trees was a lazy Susan, each compartment featuring a colored heart cut-out, filled with nuts and heart shaped candies. The napkins carried out the theme and valentines were strewn the length of the side tables. Even the cake was decorated with red icing hearts.

Twenty one past matrons and four past patrons were introduced, given a warm welcome and presented with gifts by Mrs. Mary Alice Wyatt, Worthy Matron. Mrs. Robert Cole sang a tribute to the tune of "Always."

The past matrons in turn honored the Worthy Matron. Representing the twelve months of the year, they pledged their allegiance and loyalty for the coming year. She was presented with a basket to hold her gifts and a calendar to keep track of her busy days.

February presented a musical valentine that "ground" out a labored "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." April brought flowers; July a flag. August presented a vacation complete with miniature touring car and map of Florida.

A toy turkey provided the Thanksgiving feast and December brought good wishes.

Mrs. J. T. McLain, president of Past Matrons Club, presented a gift from the club to complete the courtesy, but found behind her a small poster in the form of Mrs. Joe Corley representing Feb. 29. She presented the Worthy Matron with one extra day in which to complete all the work she has planned, and sang "Beautiful Star Friend" in her honor.

The evening was saddened by the reading of resolutions and draping of the Charter in memory of Mrs. Pearl Babbitt Ross and J. B. Lyles.

Happy Birthday was sung to those members celebrating February as their natal month.

Use a slotted spoon when you are removing poached eggs from the water in which they were cooked; then be sure to tilt the spoon, holding one side of it against the poaching pan, to allow extra water to drain. The aim is to drain the egg extra well so the toast you put it on will stay crisp.

Add chili powder to canned stewed tomatoes for extra zip.

Limelight On Lyman

BY ROBERT CRUMP

Here's another Lyman Senior to tell you some of the activities that have been going on around Lyman for the past week. As mentioned before, sports are about the most popular subject down here, so you'll hear about that.

Last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday the boys basketball team held its C.F.C. tournament games. The Titusville game was a rough-played game with Lyman leading with the highest point lead. Titusville was hot early in the game but was unable to regain their lead.

With Miller and Hopkins playing superb defensive ball and Farina scoring from the outside, they took the lead having four and one-half minutes in the second period and held on the rest of the way. Our game with Umatilla was won 70-50. Miller got high honors in this game when his fine shooting got us 22 points. Both Lemons and Hopkins did fine rebounding.

Now it was our chance to try for the C.F.C. title against Oviedo. The teams couldn't break the halftime deadlock of 22-22 an Oviedo did, and won over Lyman 61-42. Lyman ended the tournament as runner-up in Oviedo's championship. Ralph Farina and Ken Miller were chosen among the 19 outstanding players. Donald Stevens got honorable mention. We want to congratulate the whole team for the fine work that they did.

Mrs. Webster's Fifth grade gave an assembly program Thursday for the fifth, sixth and seventh grades. It was a short "skit" followed by a musical program.

The Sophomores have the school paper rolling along quite nicely now. The staff of the paper got together to pick a name from those submitted. Chosen was "The Lyman Pup" submitted by Phyllis Creamer. The sale of the new paper started this morning and, I hope, will continue through the year.

The Juniors are working on their play. This list of the cast of characters has been selected and is as follows:

Ma Rand, Lynn Joyce, David Stinson, Bill Siegrist, Tommy Blanton, Robert MacLeod, Robert Farmer, Galen Judy, Audrey Dudley, Judy Hines, Janelle Hiltcheck, Lorena Holley, Carol Hughes, Donna Lou Barnes, Susie, Diana Rouben, Barbara Deper; The title of the play that they selected is "You Can't Kiss Caroline."

The Lyman seniors have sent letters to other seniors asking them some of the privileges that they have at their school. They have gotten three replies; one

"Old South" Is Theme Of Annual Junior-Senior Prom Friday Night

BY SANDRA BERG

In a flurry of ruffles and full skirts the annual Seminole High School Junior-Senior Prom was held in the ballroom of the Mayfair Inn Friday night starting at 9 p.m.

"The Old South" was used as a theme with decorations effectively carrying out, in a "true southern tradition," the desired effect.

Arches bloomed from all corners of the room while at one end was a "southern" fish pool complete with goldfish. Tropical plants and blooming flowers flanked the pool which was surrounded with rocks. On the waters of the pool, flowers floated and a silver bottom reflected the spotlight, which highlighted it.

The columns which support the balcony were transferred into "Southern" columns by means of garlands of fern which were twisted around them. On both sides, while the band was in the middle, were typical southern garden scenes complete with white wrought iron tables and benches, lighted lamps, and tropical plants. Enclosing the scenes were white picket fences.

Singing against a background of a scene of an 1800 southern plantation painted on a huge wall picture from St. Cloud, and the others from Groveland and Tavares. They are still waiting for the others and hope to make our school life more interesting.

and illuminated by green lights, were three darkies. One plucked away gently on a guitar string an old southern tune. Darkies also gave out the programs for the night as the guests arrived.

With music being furnished by "The Starlighters" pretty young Misses, escorted by "true southern gentlemen," danced and swayed in an array of formal "all the colors of the rainbow."

Officers of both classes, led by principal H. E. Morris, opened the event with the traditional "Grand March."

During the intermission punch and cookies were served after which a Mint Julep Hour was held, led by Frank Melane, Mrs. Ida Mae King and Kenny McGranahan. Games were played and a lemon dance held which left the students "laughing and full of good spirit."

Officers of the senior class include Jimmy Owen, president; Sandra Peterson, vice-president; Mary Virginia Robinson, secretary; Don Lee, treasurer and Barbara Smith, chaplain. Sponsors are Miss Rebecca Stevens, Miss Ethel Riser, Robert Harris and George Habbs.

Junior officers are J. D. Stone, president; Mary Grace Hobby, vice president; Gail Smith, secretary; Henry Casan, treasurer; and Bobby Little, Chaplain. Sponsors are Mrs. Boyd Coleman, E. W. Christensen, Carl Kettles, Fred Ganax and Ernest Cowley.

Mrs. R. F. Cole Heads Study Course At WSCS Meeting

Mrs. R. F. Cole, chairman of missionary education and service, was in charge of the study class held by the WSCS Thursday at McKinley Hall.

The subject was, "To Combine Our Efforts for A 'Lasting Peace'—a symposium. Taking part were Mrs. J. C. Davis, Mrs. O. E. White, Mrs. Byron Easterday, Mrs. Byron Smith, Mrs. N. V. Farmer and Mrs. L. McKnight.

Mrs. Harry Dick gave the devotional. Committees—assistant Mrs. Cole were, music, Mrs. Arthur Beckwith, Mrs. Ashley Jones, Mrs. W. W. Tye and Mrs. Robert Bennett; worship center and flowers, Mrs. R. U. Hutchings; lunch, Mrs. G. B. Hudson and Mrs. M. E. Baker; and nurses, Mrs. White.

Approximately 35 attended on all agreed, "It was a most interesting program."

Rev., Mrs. Fisher Guests Of Class; Review Is Given

The Woman's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church met last week at the home of Mrs. F. E. Bolz, 101 Park Ave. Co-hostesses were Mrs. J. B. Fields, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. R. P. Cully.

The new co-pastor, the Rev. Fred B. Fisher and Mrs. Fisher, were guests of the class. Mrs. Fields, president, presided over the meeting and expressed her appreciation to the Rev. and Mrs. Fisher for their presence.

Mrs. Grace Bishop gave the devotional, reading parts of Psalm 32, a song of blessedness, after which the Rev. Fisher led in prayer. By request from Mrs. Fields, the Rev. Fisher gave a short review of his Sunday morning sermon, "The Fine Art of Being A Nobody."

The officers of the class were called on for their reports. New and old business was discussed and taken care of after which Mrs. Fields read a poem on three lands of prayer. The Rev. Fisher closed the business meeting with prayer.

Mrs. F. E. Bolz, social chairman, had charge of the social hour which was in keeping with Valentines Day. The Rev. and Mrs. Fisher were asked to read an interesting and amusing article on Valentines and each member was given anecdotes to read aloud.

The hostesses, wearing attractive Valentine aprons, served ice cream, cake decorated with red hearts and coffee to members and guests present. During the refreshment hour, the Rev. Fisher and Mrs. Bolz each played several piano selections.

Present were Mrs. Nell Wade, Mrs. Grace Bishop, Mrs. Emma Garner, Mrs. B. Johnson, Mrs. J. B. Fields, Mrs. J. T. Newby, Mrs. F. E. Bolz, Mrs. C. P. Henderson, Mrs. G. S. Selman, Mrs. A. B. Lovejoy.

Mrs. C. R. Kiefer, Mrs. Volle Williams, Mrs. R. B. Beck, Mrs. C. P. Cully, Mrs. S. A. B. Wilkinson, guests, the Rev. and Mrs.

Many Local Farmers Have Filed Returns

Many Seminole County farmers have already filed tax returns for 1954 calendar year. Paul K. Weaver, District Manager, Social Security Administration, Orlando, announced today. "This year for the first time they have paid self-employment tax for social security protection," Mr. Weaver emphasized that all farmers who netted $400 or more in 1953 from farming must file these returns by April 15, 1954. Proper tax returns and advice concerning taxes can be obtained from the District Director of Internal Revenue, Jacksonville.

Mr. Weaver explained, "This social security credit will mean much to farm families. Suppose we take the case of a young and prosperous farmer with a wife and child. His earnings up to $4200 a year are taxable for social security. In the event he should die soon after the close of his second crop year under maximum of $4200 in both years, the widow and small child would receive a monthly benefit of $162.50."

"Few farmers make $4200 a year," Mr. Weaver continued. "Let us consider an instance where the farmer makes $1200 a year on an average. At that rate he can qualify for $55 per month when he is 65. His wife, after reaching 65, may qualify for $37.50 per month, or a total of $92.50 for the two. If a farmer who makes $1200 each year (two crop years is the minimum requirement) after 1954 should die, survived by a widow and two young children, $92.50 could be paid them every month, terminating when the youngest child reaches 18. Payments to the widow could continue until she reaches 65."

G. W. Spencer III Dies Unexpectedly

Garland Wesley Spencer III, 21-year-old son of the late Sanford Attorney G. W. Spencer, died Saturday at approximately noon.

The young Spencer was found Saturday, shortly after noon, by his mother who noticed that his car, a recently purchased station wagon, was in the driveway.

Only three weeks ago, the 21-year-old youth took his own life in an attic closet adjoining a room which he occupied.

There were no indications, according to Coroner W. Hugh Duncan, for the suicide act. Death was set at approximately noon.

Young Spencer had just returned from a fishing trip and was making plans to return to school following his discharge from the armed forces.

Investigating officers included Sheriff Denver Cordell, Constable J. Q. Galloway, Police Chief Roy G. Williams and Coroner W. Hugh Duncan.

Spencer was a member of the First Methodist Church, a student at the University of Florida, and a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

He is survived by his step-mother, Mrs. Ula S. Spencer and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shipp.

Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. today at Brison Funeral Home with the Rev. Milton H. Wyatt officiating. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Palbearers were Jack Schirrad, George Harden, Billy Pritchett, Bill Jennings, W. C. Jennings, Bobby Morris, George Herndon and Joe McClung.

MISS AGNES EVANS

Agnes Evans To Give Concert March 18

The Celery City Beauticians' Club, Unit 46, Orange Blossom Beauticians' Association, will present Miss Agnes Evans, lyric soprano, in a concert at 8:30 p. m. Sunday, March 18, in the auditorium of Croombs Academy High School, Sanford, Florida.

Miss Evans is a graduate of Croombs Academy High School, where she studied piano with Mrs. Katherine Holly, director of public school music. She was a leading soprano in the high school glee club. When a senior at Croombs Academy she won the annual oratorical scholarship of the Florida State World War I Veterans' Association.

A graduate of Florida A&M University at Tallahassee, she was a member of the university choir for four years at the end of which time she was awarded an honor pin for meritorious service. In addition to her major studies, she studied piano and held outstanding offices in many university student organizations.

While on the staff of Boston University General Alumni Association to earn money to continue her education at Boston University, Miss Evans was persuaded to study voice rather than piano. She is currently being coached by the noted soprano, Dr. Mabel Parkes Friswell of Boston.

Miss Evans has sung in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and her native Pennsylvania. She is finishing her fourth season as a regular member of the Harvard Church choir in Brookline, Massachusetts, under the direction of the eminent organist E. Power Biggs. A Bach authority who is frequently heard on CBS. She has sung under the direction of the noted Dr. Francis Snow and Dr. Max Miller of Boston University and next summer will be a soloist with the cast of the Operetta Wing, Boston Chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, in their production of "The Gondoliers" at the Manomet Playhouse on Cape Cod. Her program in Sanford will include "Elsa's Traum" from Lohengrin by Wagner; "Lo Hear the Gentle Lark" by Bishop, and "Just Come from the Fountain," a spiritual arranged by Boatner. Buckner Gamby will be the accompanist. Those attending are asked to please obey the ushers.

In addition to being a member of Harvard Church Choir and the Operetta Wing, she is president of Loreliars, a federated business girls' chorus, Order of Eastern Star, and Lambda Delta Pi Legal Society.

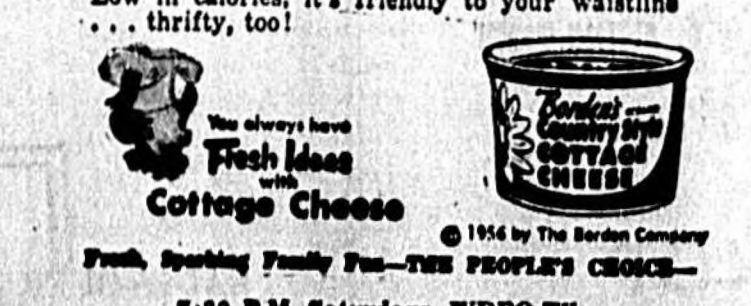

Miss Evans is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knowles and Mrs. Magnolia E. Daniels, all of Sanford.

"Our Lord Jesus Christ used the parable of the Prodigal Son to give us an example of what we as members of society, should do with our Black Sheep. In the 1954 years since He came on this earth to save the sinner, we still require the prodigal from our Prodigal Sons. We have never learned to kill the Fatted Calf.

"The only two improvements we have made in the last thousand years has come in the last 75 years. Two plans of treatment: Parole and Probation. They are very much alike, and few people bother to learn the difference. Yet to the man who gets into trouble, there is a vital difference.

"Parole is the release of a man from Prison after he has served a part of his sentence. While Probation is granted by the Court without sending a man to Prison. "Parole is based on one primary fact: That every man who goes to prison will eventually be released, with the exception of the few who are electrocuted and the few who die of natural causes.

"Probation is just what the word implies: The giving of another chance. However, in our system in Florida we also have a work program set up, a home plan, and a great deal of work done on the community to accept him. It is based on the fact that to some people, particularly the "first offender," the act of being arrested and being put in jail, along with being written up in the newspaper is punishment to the point where sentence to a prison simply is not needed to straighten out the individual.

"In our program of Parole and Probation in Florida, we are not so much interested in the crime that has been committed. We are interested in the man who committed the crime. This Human Being who came into conflict with the law.

"There are four questions I am frequently asked. I will try to answer these, and if you have others, I will be happy to try to answer them.

"1. How does a prisoner make application for Parole? "The answer is: That he does not make application. The law requires that the Parole Commission consider every person convicted of a felony and sentenced to the prison. For this reason we have an officer stationed at the Prison. The incoming prisoner is given a chance to tell his side of the offense, his own version of his personal history and background, and this material is developed into a report for the Commission. This Institutional Report is sent out to the field for verification, correction, and addition. The Commission then reviews these reports and determines a date at which time they will further go into the case. When that time arrives, the Commission goes to the Prison, interviews the prisoner, and if they feel he can adjust "outside" he is given employment forms which he sends in his family in order that they might help him to secure employment. When employment is obtained it is then verified by the Field Staff. With all of this information at hand the Commission then determines if they will grant Parole.

"2. How does a person apply for Probation? "The answer is: He does not apply. If the Judge feels that he would like to know more about a man who has been convicted in his Court, he refers the case to the Supervisor who then makes a Pre-Sentence Report, which is a legal, criminal, and social history of the case. From this report the Judge then decides if he wishes to grant Probation.

"3. Does it work? "Since December 1941, the Florida Parole Commission has released on parole from our prisons 3,877 men and women. Of this number 92, or about 2 percent, have failed, and we have had to return them to the prison. To me, it would better to say that 27 out of 100 have made good, and gone on to become useful citizens of this great state.

"4. Does it Pay? Is another question I am frequently asked. "In 1953 the cost to the taxpayer of Florida for the study and supervision of 2633 people was $26,000.00. The cost to the Prison to keep 2,633 persons in the prison for this year, based on the most conservative figures, would have been $900,000.00, a savings in penitence."

forms which he sends in his family in order that they might help him to secure employment. When employment is obtained it is then verified by the Field Staff. With all of this information at hand the Commission then determines if they will grant Parole.

Traffic Tied Up At Intersection By 3-Car Accident

Traffic was tied up at the intersection of 27th Street and Highway 17-92 at 7 o'clock last night by a three-car collision.

Six were injured with four of the injured treated at the Seminole Memorial Hospital, the other two at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station dispensary.

According to a report by Florida Highway Patrol Trooper T. Mark Mack, a 1948 Buick Convertible, traveling north at approximately 25 miles per hour, was hit in the front end and damaged an approximated $300.

The Buick was driven by 28-year-old Joseph M. Clement of Flint, Mich. who was accompanied by his wife Lois, 25, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman of Lake Bluff, Ill.

1958 Chevrolet, driven by William E. Dyson, 27, 9500 W. Laurel Ave. and attached to the SNAAS. Dyson, headed south, had stopped to make a left turn, was hit in the rear and driven into the Buick. Damage to the Chevrolet was estimated at $300.

Donald Albert Watts, 27, of Orlando, driving a 1951 Ford Convertible, smashed into the Chevrolet, damaging his own car an estimated $150.

Mrs. Lois Clement, 25, suffered shock and was treated at the Seminole Memorial Hospital as was Mrs. Robert Hoffman who also received possible fractured ribs.

Dyson and his wife Ann were both taken in the dispensary at SNAAS for checkup. Donald Watts was treated at the local hospital for minor injuries to the head. A passenger in Watt's car, Raymond Lee McPherson, 22, of Orlando, was also treated for shock and minor contusions to head and legs.

Trooper T. Mark Mack said that charges of Reckless Driving willful and wanton will be preferred against Donald Watts. Assisting Trooper Mack in the directing a traffic were Deputy Sheriffs Ed Pratt and John Bennett.

money alone of $640,000 or one year.

"The Parole Commission since 1911 has saved the taxpayers of Florida the necessity of constructing another major prison.

"There are still a number of people who do not believe in Parole or Probation. If you are one of that number, I can only say to you, read again the story of the Prodigal Son, or better still the Parable used by the Master:

"Which of you having an hundred sheep and one is lost, will not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness and go in search of the one... for I say unto you there is Joy in Heaven over one sinner who repenteth more than over ninety and nine persons who need no repentance."

Government

(Continued From Page One) his cross-examination on the purchase of a TV set and a gift of a lot from his father in Ashburn, Ga. Hobby had not testified in regard to the lot as a gift, explaining that he understood the government attorney to mean "gifts of money." There was also lengthy cross-examination in routine questioning regarding the method of withdrawing money from the sheriff's office and the method he pursued in the payment of his debts.

In the transaction surrounding the purchase of a lot in Ashburn, Ga., Hobby stated that his father bought the lot for him and that at no time did he "peel off 45 one hundred dollar bills in payment for it."

The suspended sheriff also denied seeing Andy Evans shoot at the Long boys in the vicinity of Annette's, a 17-00 tavern, when called there to investigate a fight. Hobby said, "Evans fired two shots in the air in an attempt to stop the Long boys who had run from the place as we approached."

Hobby, in his final testimony related how the transfer of automobiles, his personal property was made to his successor, J. Denzac Cordell on his appointment to the Seminole County Sheriff's office by Governor Leroy Collins.

There was no indication at the noon recess today who would be called next to the witness stand by the defense.

Grading, Paving 81 Pct. Complete

$97.3 million in road construction projects were underway in the state during January, according to a monthly progress report issued today by Wilbur E. Jones, Chairman of the State Road Department.

In addition to the $97,344,000 of projects already under construction, Chairman Jones said that bids were received for $2,044,000 in new construction. During the month contracts were formally awarded for road construction totaling $5,509,000, white work completed and accepted by the Department in the period amounted to $3,809,000.

William H. Dial of Orlando, Road Board member from the Fifth District, reported that construction under 38 contracts in the 12 counties comprising this district accounted for $17,553,930 of the state total.

The grading and paving of French Avenue in Sanford (2.802 miles on State Route 15-000) was reported 81 per cent complete.

STUNNED HORSE, Mont. (AP) — To build a mountain highway, a creek was gulledd into a culvert but it was too steep for spawning trout to make the grade up Flathead River's South Fork. Steps were built along the 138-foot culvert for the trout to climb. Five series of three sheet metal blocks in each series provided slack water, from which the trout can leap.

Social & Personal Activities

Vespers at DeBary Church
Laura Platt Brown who is holding a series of Vesper organ recitals in the new DeBary Baptist Church, states that their featured artist this Sunday will be Miss Nancy Wilson, the well known blind singer. Vespers will begin at 4 p.m. on Sunday.

Episcopal Church
Women's Auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal church announce that they will hold a Post-Lenten card party at the Civic center on Saturday, April 7. Mrs. Everett Waite will be chairman assisted by Mrs. Carl Smarling, Mrs. Raymond Swett, Mrs. Earl Pickford, Mrs. Harold Lynch, Mrs. George Perry, and Mrs. William Nye.

Inhalator Available
Edward J. Healy, Fire Chief of the Volunteer Firemen's Assn. reports that the new Scott Demand Inhalator is available for use in DeBary and the following men will be available to administer oxygen as needed at the dates given: Bernard Savage and Gaston Vrosby, Feb. 11-18; Chris Butler and Ed Healy from the 18 to the 25; G. Gibbs and Chas Schneider, from the 25 to March 3; Ewald Michelson and Harry Sellers, from Mar. 3 to 10; George Landwehr and Joseph Mehan, from the 10 to the 17; David Runkel and James Genov, from the 17 to the 24.

Vice President Addresses Club
Mrs. Clarence L. Menser, second vice president of the Florida state federation of Women's clubs, was guest speaker at the Plantation Estates Women's club Wednesday at the luncheon meeting in the mansion.

Mrs. Menser reported on the national convention in Philadelphia where 3,000 clubwomen listened to notables, among them General Romulo and Adlai Stevenson. General Romulo's talk on world conditions as he had learned them at United Nations was by far the most informative, according to Mrs. Menser.

Three hundred and fifty clubwomen toured Europe, their focal point being the International convention in Geneva, Switzerland.

"In Geneva," stated Mrs. Menser, "comic strips and books are slowly appearing but with scant welcome. They must be strictly censored before printing. This was encouraging to us since at Philadelphia we had gone on record as wishing strong checking of all comic books for our children here."

The ladies visited Austria, Germany, Italy, France and England, causing much public attention at a Gondola party in Venice where they were serenaded and entertained by the enthusiastic Italians.

Mrs. David Runkel, president, announced that the club would hold a Carnival on Friday, April 12, which would lay to rest any superstition and also entertain all of DeBary. "Special attention will be given husbands in making this a splendid feast," she stated, "and they will be included in our invitation to the DeBary Women's club and also in the Orange city clubwomen's invitations."

An ovation was tendered Mrs. Charles Wagner to whom a bouquet had been sent by the Sanford Rotary club in observance of her 21 birthday. Mrs. Wagner is a great-grandmother.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By STANLEY

BACK-ROAD FOLKS - ALL ABOARD FOR SPRING PRACTICE

For a special treat, make your youngsters a Tit-Tat-Toe Cake. Use a cake mix, if you like, baking in a two round eight-inch layer pans. When the cake is cool fill and frost it with a fluffy white icing. Then make a tit-tat-toe design on top of the cake, using long gumdrops of one color, cut in halves lengthwise to make each line. Make the 'X's' with long gumdrops of different colors, cut in halves lengthwise and crosswise. Use round gumdrops rings to make the 'O's'. There's more than one way to bake, pan-try or broil it.

Mrs. Randall Chase Uses Spiritual Life As Theme Of Talk

Mrs. Randall Chase, educational counselor, stressed the importance of strengthening and increasing our spiritual life, especially during Lent by reading various books—the Bible, Bishop Scott's book and the rich heritage to be found in the Prayer Book, at the St. Agnes chapter meeting at her home in Belleair.

The meeting was opened with the Collect for Ash Wednesday, followed by the Auxiliary Prayer and the United Thank Offering Prayer.

Mrs. Hawkins Connelly, chairman of St. Agnes, then presented the various matters which had been brought up at the board meeting. The group voted its willingness to help the Vestry with the expense of redecorating the Parish House, if the other chapters agree.

She announced that Mrs. Harry Cushing, Mrs. Raymond Key and Mrs. Randall Chase had been asked to act as a nominating committee for the new auxiliary officers. They, and the new Vestry will be installed March 18. Each Monday during Lent, at 8:30, Father Zimmerman will talk on the Drama of Redemption.

Mrs. Connelly told of a gift of draperies for the Parish House windows, given and to be installed by Mrs. Frank Mebane Jr. Also, some electrical kitchen equipment was offered to be used in the small Parish House apartment.

An invitation was repeated from Mrs. Cushing, asking the St. Agnes group to join the St. Catherine's chapter in giving a luncheon soon after Easter, to be followed by a book review. This was met with unanimous approval.

At the conclusion of the business, a delightful social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Deane Turner poured tea and Mrs. Howard Brewster presided at the coffee service. Sandwiches and tea cakes were served by Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Frank Mebane Jr., co-hostess and Laura Chase.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. Deane Turner, Mrs. W. T. Jackson, Mrs. Howard Brewster, Mrs. Allen Jones, Mrs. W. Morrison, Mrs. George Shipp, Mrs. A. W. Zimmerman, Mrs. R. W. Ruprecht, Mrs. Helen DeWitt, Mrs. Floyd Palmer, Mrs.

Mebane, Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Lay, a visitor from Kewanee, Ill.

Grated lemon or orange rind or both—can do wonders for canned applesauce. Add the citrus rind, too, when you are preparing the applesauce at home; stir it in, after cooking the apples, when you add the sugar.

There were 198 cases disposed of in County Court Monday on the monthly Plea Day.

Starting with the coming May primaries, Seminole County will follow the trend of Florida and nation from the hand-written ballot to voting machines.

Following up a previous appearance before the Commissioners, J. T. Landon, sales representative for the Shoup Voting Machine Co., outlined numerous advantages of voting machines.

"The Shoup machine is absolutely fire-proof and heavily insured by Lloyds of London against fraud and tampering," Landon said.

Based on these findings Landon's estimate for Seminole County was a minimum of 12 machines.
