

What a Paradise for Sportsmen!

The superb year-round climate, one of the chief attractions of Mount Plymouth, offers the outdoor devotee recreation unequalled in Florida. No sleet, nor snow, nor blizzard to interfere with his game, whatever it may be. And not only is it true in the winter months, but in summer also the temperature is exceedingly comfortable, as many have found to their great surprise, after spending a-twelve-months here.

The club house, golf course and lake are the pivotal points of Mount Plymouth, around which the greatest activity will center. This entire development, in fact, was conceived and landscaped with those things uppermost in mind.

The magnificent club house now under construction is situated on the loftiest elevation in this highland city. From its wide verandas you behold a distant panorama of semi-tropical grandeur to be found only in this notable orange region which ships one-seventh of all citrus fruits grown in Florida.

An 18-hole golf course, laid out by one of America's foremost golf architects, will be maintained from a special fund set aside from the sale of Mount Plymouth lots. Experts who have inspected this course pronounce it one of the sportiest in the state.

Truly it is a Sportsman's Paradise, which embraces within its own city limits, as Mount Plymouth does, the full complement of outdoor pastimes—Golf, Tennis, Fishing, Swimming, Rowing, and Motoring.

Mount Plymouth

A pleasure city in every sense, is Mount Plymouth, but not discriminating in its relation to the substantial environment of business activity and home life, which also are essential to the development of any prosperous community.

A large section of Mount Plymouth skirting the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, is reserved strictly for commercial use. Stores, shops, bakeries, gas stations and every other business pursuit was well provided for by those who planned this townsite.

The residence sections are ideally located. Hundreds front on the golf course. The entire 4½ miles shore line surrounding the beautiful lake is reserved for homes and pleasure-parks fronting on a magnificent body of fresh water, already stocked with the gamest of fish—the black bass.

Values Will Enhance Rapidly

It is a foregone conclusion that investment in Mount Plymouth lots at this stage of development, will net handsome returns—if you should desire to sell. But we counsel you not to buy with that intention, but to hold—and build. You want to live in Florida, and here is the opportunity to obtain one of the most charming home-sites in the state at a very nominal sum—if secured now.

Descriptive literature will be sent on request.

State Commerce Body Is Back Of Big Program To Aid Florida Poultry Men

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 23.—So far as the Florida State Chamber of Commerce has been able to determine there is no section of Florida unsuitable for poultry raising. The climate is excellent in every section of the state, it is possible to produce green food for the birds twelve months in the year in South Florida and almost continuously in North and West Florida, and the successful conduct of a poultry farm would seem to hinge solely upon the ability of the man in charge of the business.

In Nassau county at this time is the center of the poultry industry in the state and the Everglades region, about Lake Okechobee, the State Chamber has received reports on some remarkable earnings from a few hens and now from Bay county, on the Gulf Coast, in West Florida there comes information showing what has been accomplished there in a small way.

Fred Palmer, of Lynn Haven, a little town on St. Andrews Bay near Panama City, owns four lots, one of which is his home. Two of the vacant lots he has converted into a small poultry farm, stocked with seventy full blooded Plymouth Rock fowls.

This miniature poultry farm produced enough eggs during 1925 to swell Palmer's bank account by an even $300 and during December when hens usually are supposed to be enjoying a vacation, he sold $40 worth of eggs. Palmer feeds his flock on grains, and greenstuffs produced on his own place.

W. P. Harrell, also of Lynn Haven, has become a poultry enthusiast as a result of returns from a

Governor Al Smith Stays Execution 3 Hours Before Time

OSHING, N. Y., Jan. 23.—(AP)—This was a second unexpected day of life for Ambrose Ross, sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing for the murder of Ernest Whitman, bond salesman, in a bank robbery, nearly two years ago.

A telephone message from Governor Smith in New York, three hours before the time set for his execution last night, granted him a second reprieve. On Thursday he was snatched from the chair by a court order granting a temporary stay of argument of his counsel, but his reprieve would be heard, but a further order was needed in another case. Testimony denied.

Ross had resigned himself to his "last meal," when the unexpected message came. He was talking to his sister and three brothers from behind the bars that separated him in the death house, when the telephone rang in the prison offices.

Superintendent of prison J. L. Long, recognized the voice of Governor Smith saying, "Put off the execution, I will communicate with you tomorrow morning." Two men were convicted with Ross. One has been granted a new trial. The other was sentenced to the chair, but Governor Smith on Wednesday commuted the sentence to life imprisonment.

When the First National Bank at Baltimore, Md., was held up April 4, 1924, Whitman was shot down in trying to block three bandits, who escaped with $6,000.

Navy Airmen Make Stop In Fernandina On Way Maneuvers

BERNARDINA, Fla., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Twelve of the fleet of 24 U. S. navy seaplanes, enroute to Cuban waters for war maneuvers, stopped off from Fernandina port today on the next leg of their southward journey. They were expected to reach Miami by two o'clock this afternoon.

The remaining twelve planes will leave at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, weather conditions permitting and probably will rejoin the first squadron at Key West Monday.

Arriving here with his fleet late yesterday, A. Com. Victor Horster told local officials that the Fernandina was one of the safest landing fields along the entire Atlantic seaboard.

The airmen were given a reception by the local chamber of commerce last night. Still another elaborate reception is said to be awaiting them at Miami.

It is believed that the fleet since they left Northampton on their southward journey. One seaplane became disabled at South Port, S. C. It will resume the journey as soon as repairs to the engine are completed.

The seaplanes will reach Cuban water for war maneuvers with battleships early next week.

EXCLUSIVENESS IN SPORT

Benson Springs Inn Being Operated By New Management

The Benson Springs Inn, recently opened for the tourist season at Enterprise under the management of H. S. White, owner and manager of The Colonial at Kitchawan, N. Y., is enjoying one of the most prosperous seasons of its long existence, according to reports received here from one of its patrons, who attributes the popularity of the resort to the many innovations and increased comforts put into effect by Mr. White, who has had many years of tourist hotel experience.

The Inn, which was formerly known as the "Brook House" has an interesting history dating back to the time when this section of Florida was practically a wilderness, and Sanford, just across the lake, boasted the southernmost hotel in the state.

General Grant, Joe Jefferson, Grover Cleveland and other famous characters are said to have enjoyed the hospitality of the quaint old southern mansion recently remodeled into what is described as one of the most attractive tourist resorts in this section of Florida.

The Inn is surrounded by well cultivated grounds on which are planted oranges, groves, banana trees, Australian pines and many varieties of tropical and semi-tropical shrubs and foliage.

The Clyde Line's dock and Lake Monroe are within a 100 yards of the main entrance.

Farm Department Supply Measure Is Reported In House

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Carrying an increase of nearly a million dollars for agricultural experimental stations, the annual agriculture department supply bill has been reported to the house today by the Appropriations Committee.

The measure provides for a total expenditure of $126,220,000 during the fiscal year, representing an increase of $480,000 over last year's bill, but a decrease of $9,215,000 from budget estimates.

For continuance of federal aid to states in road construction, the measure recommends appropriation of 75,000,000, which is $1,000,000 below current funds, but increasing from $4,000,000 to $5,600,000 funds for building forest roads and trails.

Two unusual features marked the bill. Authority is given the secretary of agriculture to spend $4,000,000 the trade in value of his present automobile, for purchase of a new one, while for an unexplained reason the $699,000 now allowed to the work of eradicating the cattle tick is less by $1,000,000.

Sanford-Daytona Game Is Postponed

Due to the sickness of the high school open air basketball court caused by the light shower of rain last night, the scheduled Sanford-Daytona game was postponed until some day next week according to Coach Frisbie who is in charge of the local cagers are said to be in excellent condition following their defeat of Winter Park last week, and Coach Frisbie will make use of the next few days to groom his charges for the Daytona fray, which is expected to largely determine the championship of the league.

Jacksonville Police Hold 2 Suspects Of Citra Bank Theft

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Two men were in custody of Jacksonville police today for questioning in connection with the robbing of the Citra Bank Wednesday of $5,000. The men were arrested last night by city detectives called by Herbert E. Ross, postmaster, and E. J. Killinger, superintendent of the money order division of the Jacksonville postoffice.

The postal officials trailed the men after they had been pointed out by Mrs. W. T. Dupree, wife of the Citra postmaster, and Mrs. Robert Gandy of Jacksonville, as resembling the men they had seen driving along on the highway north of the Citra postoffice in an old model touring car.

The car used by the bandits was found the day following the robbery in swamp near Micanopy.

The men gave their names as John and Clifford Jullitt. They were sentenced to five days on the city farm in municipal court this morning but were brought back to jail for questioning and to be viewed by Citra bank officials who were notified of the arrest and were reported on the way here.

Longwood Poultry Exhibit Wins First Prize In Ohio Show

Seminole county is one of the finest poultry producing sections of the United States, according to J. A. Blatline, Longwood poultryman, who has something to back up his opinion in his exhibit of Silver Wyandottes which has just been returned from Lancaster, O., where it won 12 prizes, including several firsts, in competition with 25 birds from 10 states.

Mr. Blatline was unable to accompany his exhibit in person, and his agent at Lancaster believes that had he been present to groom the birds properly following their long trip, his exhibit would have won sweepstakes in practically every class.

Some of the ribbons brought back to this county by Mr. Blatline's birds are: First, second and fourth prizes for cocks; second, fourth, sixth and seventh prizes for cockerels; eighth prize for old hen; second prize for young pen; second prize for display; first prize for best-shaped bird; first prize for best colored bird.

"The section around Longwood in Seminole county is particularly adapted to poultry raising," Mr. Blatline said, "and I am confident that a better knowledge of the opportunities offered by this region in this connection would bring about an extensive development of this industry locally."

"Seminole county will derive much publicity from an account of this exhibition that will be published in leading poultry journals of the nation," Mr. Blatline said, "and I believe that those in charge of this county's advertising campaign should stress the many advantages offered the poultryman here."

Stolen Car Is Found At Tampa

Sheriff C. M. Hand received a wire yesterday from the Tampa police department advising him that a Maxwell touring car which was stolen from Sanford last week had been recovered in that city and being for orders as to its disposition. This is the second machine stolen from this city in the past two weeks to be recovered in the Gulf city.

Sheriff Hand said that he was expecting J. M. Vickery, deputy Sheriff, to return to Sanford today with an automobile belonging to Roy Loring, which was recovered by the police of Tifton, Ga. The deputy is also bringing a negro back with him, for trial in this county, on a charge of stealing the machine.

Sanford Manor Has Fancy Court Of Arms

A coat of arms has been adopted by Sanford Manor Properties, Inc.—a gray shield on a violet background, the center in blue with a faint tracing of yellow at a border. A manor house in soft dull red gleams forth from the heart of the shield, and the lettering—Sanford Manor—done in black, tells the story. Three small pine cones clustered at the bottom center suggest the subtle aroma of the pines of the Southland.

It is the plan of the developers to provide each purchaser of a lot with stationary bearing this crest.

Cardinal Mercier Is Dead After Illness Of Several Weeks

The aged prince of the church slipped quietly into the hereafter with all of Catholic Belgium and France praying for a speedy recovery or the grace of a happy death, as the church formula has it.

He was surrounded by members of his household, the faithful clergy of his archdiocese, the papal nuncio in Brussels and a representation of King Albert, when he died.

Special masses for the illustrious dead will be celebrated throughout Belgium and France tomorrow to mark the cardinal's passing.

Already there is talk in Brussels of erecting a monument to the commemoration of the War-Time Soul of Belgium, by popular subscription.

The funeral will probably be an affair of state, with King Albert and Crown Prince Leopold among the mourners.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Uncertain price movements characterized this week's stock market, which was forced to absorb a large amount of prices selling inspired by the unexpected decision of the Federal Reserve and New York Stock Exchange authorities to give publicity to Brokers loans.

The main body of stocks failed to make much progress in either direction, but there was evidence of heavy pool liquidation in a number of speculative industrials.

Business news was generally unfavorable.

Dividend developments were favorable, U. S. East Iron Pipe stock being placed on a $10 annual basis, the Stewart-Warner speedometer rate was raised from $5 to $6, payments were resumed on construction.

Recent strength of the Frisco and Rock Island railroads shares was explained by the announcement last night that the former had acquired a substantial block of Rock Island stock, which Wall Street interpreted as a preliminary to a merger of the two properties.

Eastern Coalers turned strong to the news of the week.

Youthful Runaways Returned To Home

Charles Clark, 16, and Richard Gardner, 22, both of Avon Park, were picked up in the western outskirts of the city yesterday afternoon by Traffic Policeman Beck with who suspected the youngsters of being runaways and whose suspicions were verified after call to the chief of police in Avon Park.

The boys are said to have taken a Ford roadster belonging to Alton Clark, a brother of the elder runaway, and started on a tour of the state. When Officer Beck with picked them up they stated they were from Jacksonville and were on their way to their home in that city.

The boys spent the night in a cell at the police station and were taken back to Avon Park this morning by relatives and an officer.

Local Chamber's New Road Map Embodies Much Valuable Data

A new map prepared by the Chamber of Commerce for free distribution includes in addition to the usual information contained in road maps, copies of the Florida non-resident license exemption laws, the state speed limitations, a copy of reciprocity privileges existing between every state in the union and much other data designed to aid the motorist visiting this state for the first time.

All arterial highways are conspicuously marked, all county seats designated, and the distance from Sanford to 12 principal Florida points given.

Sanford's location is shown by a large red arrow extending across the page, and methods of reaching this city by railroad, water lines and highways are emphasized.

Copies of the map folded to pocket size may be obtained upon request at the Chamber of Commerce's office.

Many Children Given Diphtheria Inoculation

Dr. Charles Duffin, field medical officer of the State Board of Health, who returned to the city several days ago to make an examination of children given the Schick test for diphtheria, today completed the task of administering the first inoculation, of those whose tests showed a "positive" reaction, and will return to Sanford within a week to give the second dose of the immunizing treatment, according to a statement made this morning.

In commenting on the reception of the tests locally, Dr. Duffin declared that more than three-fifths of the school children in this county had been given the Schick treatment.

"I am very well pleased with the results obtained at Sanford," Dr. Duffin said, "and wish to thank the parents of children here for their co-operation in attempting to prevent the spreading of communicable diseases."

Defective Vision

Twenty-five per cent of the school children in the public schools of the United States have manifest defects of vision and symptoms of eye-strain, according to the "Eye-Sight Conservation Council of America," which has recently finished what is declared to be the most comprehensive report of its kind ever compiled.

Defective eye-sight is proving a serious handicap to education, says the report, which also points out that the influence of eye defects and eye diseases is a challenge to the civilized effort in social control. More than fourteen million school children and students enrolled in public schools, colleges and universities were examined for the survey.

In examining pupils of the graded schools, numbering some nine million, it was found that twenty-two per cent of them had defective vision. The most alarming situation, however, was found to be in institutions of higher learning. In one group of thirty-nine normal schools and colleges with a total enrollment of approximately a hundred thousand students, fifty-four thousand tests were made, showing that forty per cent suffered from poor eye-sight.

Poor eyes, we are told, induce retardation and are responsible in some measure for the backward student. The proportion of retardation found among four groups of school children with defective vision varies from sixty to eighty-five per cent. With these figures at hand, the country should rightfully be alarmed over the situation.

Perfect eye-sight is something very few of us enjoy. Still there are many of us who have good eye-sight but do not seem to appreciate it. We impair our vision by reading too long, by using poor light and in a hundred other ways strain our eyes until they are unable to perform their natural functions.

Good eye-sight is the most valuable of our senses. Everything that we can do to protect our eyes should be done. Defects are more easily corrected in childhood and for this reason thorough examinations of the eyes of children should be made from time to time. Adults, particularly business men, should guard their eyes more closely, giving them the opportunity to function under the best of conditions and allowing them sufficient rest from work that tends to strain them.

Compulsory Liability Insurance

With the ever increasing number of automobile accidents and the seemingly growing tendency on the part of drivers to be careless and reckless, we believe the time is coming when all operators of motor vehicles will be compelled to carry liability insurance to compensate those injured as a result of the acts of the operator.

There are thousands of causes of automobile accidents, especially here in Florida where the roads are narrow, and badly congested, but it is safe to say that almost all of the trouble comes from lack of responsibility on the part of some drivers and a lack of ordinary common sense on the part of others. Innocent men and women are being injured every day while property is being damaged with no recourse for reimbursement from those who cause the accidents.

A law compelling the carrying of liability insurance would result in fewer accidents, simply because people with reputations for being reckless and irresponsible would be denied the insurance. If every motor car driver was covered with such insurance the innocent victim in accidents would be somewhat protected from a financial standpoint. A law of this kind would assist the person who lives up to traffic regulations, who is careful and who respects the rights of others.

With every motorist carrying liability insurance doubtless the cost of such protection would be greatly reduced and be easily within the reach of any automobile owner. It has gotten to the point in present day motoring that it is as big a task to watch the other driver and protect ourselves against what he does with his car as it is to properly drive our own machine. Compulsory liability insurance might remedy the condition a little.

Crime News

The publication of crime news has caused much discussion as to what the attitude of newspapers should be in regard to news of this character. There are those persons who have the opinion that no mention whatever should be made of this kind of news believing that the least said about crime the better off the country is. Others think more detailed reports of crimes should find their way into the papers. It has been a much debated question.

While some good may be derived from the arguments that have been made pro and con it is doubtful if those desirous of suppressing such news will ever be able to keep it from being published. The publication that gives its readers all of the news will not leave out reports of crimes. If it did, it would be falling short of its duty and responsibility. People read newspapers to find out what the news is, what has happened throughout the world. When they pay their nickel for a paper they are entitled to know all that is going on whether it be crime news or something else.

THE LEANING TOWER OF BALTIMORE

In Baltimore, years ago, there was a shot tower that stood up in the air to a considerable height. Almost at the base of the shot tower a serious-minded German ran a saloon.

Eugene Hayes, afterwards a New York theatrical man and now in the moving picture business in California, lived in Baltimore when the shot tower stood there. One day Hayes and a friend of his found themselves in the vicinity of the shot works. Both were thirsty and both, as it happened, without funds. Hayes had an idea.

He outlined it to his companion and then they entered the saloon in a friendly argument with each other.

As Brisbane Sees It

All To The Rock Pile. A Look Alphabet. Nelly And Joe. Detroit: Solomon. By AETIUS BRISBANE. Copyright 1926, by Star Co.

CONGRESSMAN SUMMERS, earnest "dry" Republican from Washington, knows how to fix everything. He would put senators, diplomats, rich and poor violators of the prohibition law, "at work on the same rock pile." Editors would go to the rocks, not so much for drinking as for "doing more to break down respect for law, than at the antics which that ever landed on Ellis Island."

MESSRS. OCHS of the New York Times, and Noyes of the Washington Star and Dr. Barham of the Los Angeles Herald, who find it hard enough to digest weak milk and seltzer, will be startled by this news.

MR. YEN, Chinese gentleman, formerly at Yale and Princeton heads a movement to educate all Chinese, and starts as he must, with an effort to simplify the Chinese alphabet. The best he hopes to do is to cut down the number of characters to one thousand. To be really educated in China you must know at least five thousand different characters with which to write.

MR. ETHELBERT Stewart, who gathers labor statistics for the government, demands "petting parks" in public places for working men and women. "Nelly from the shoe factory, can stand a little petting in a public park by Joe from the stock yards," says the official. He thinks the law governing the parks are too puritanical.

IF SOLOMON looks down and watches Detroit he learned something last Wednesday. Mrs. Gosson, foster mother and Mr. Prabyia, real mother of four year old Mabel Irene, both wanted not pretend to cut the child in.

A MOTION picture machine and operator hidden from sight, took pictures of the two women's faces, Mrs. Gosson called it, and Mrs. Prabyia's real mother of four year old Mabel Irene, both wanted not pretend to cut the child in.

THE REPORTERS are not convinced. They say emotion is sometimes shown on the face, also that a child's real mother might be too much in earnest to display the proper waves of affection.

BECAUSE MR. Burbank is a "scientist," therefore wise, good people are disturbed that he should "see no proof whatever of the soul's immortality, nothing to indicate that when we die we go anywhere except into the ground."

A CRICKET by the railroad track sees no reason to believe that the immortal life of the human soul, the destruction of our world will not appear so dreadful.

IF YOUR faith has been shaken by the estimable agricultural scientist Burbank, you may find comfort in the words of a scientist infinitely greater, Charles Darwin. He said:

"Believing as I do that man in the distant future will be a far more perfect creature than he now is, it is intolerable to me that he should be so stupidly ignorant of the simple facts of his own history and of all other sentient beings are doomed to complete annihilation after such long continued slow progress. To those who fully admit the correctness of the theory of evolution, the destruction of our world will not appear so dreadful."

"POLITICS, TYRANNY, democracy, anarchism, philosophy, physiology, geology, history." All these are Greek words. What would our orators, "statesmen" and scientists do without them?

When Maimonides, great Hebrew scholar, sought to translate Aristotle and other Greek philosophy into Hebrew, no words existed in that language to express abstract ideas, and he had to manufacture them, giving a Hebrew form to Greek words. For these reasons, the Hebrew language is so poor.

AH! FOOD FOR THE UNDERNOURISHED

"FLASHES" ASHEVILLE CITIZEN

Genius, the world once considered, was a God-given gift which humans had not they could not acquire by their own efforts, and so when one manifested far more than usual talent in any one form he was acclaimed a genius. Such were considered Alexander the Great and Caesar and Napoleon as military men, and Shakespeare and Milton in the realm of literature.

Asked by Mr. Daniels to what he chiefly attributed his success Mr. Carnegie briefly replied, "Flashes," and seemed inclined to change the subject, but when brought back to it by his auditor, consented to explain what he meant by this seemingly inexplicable term. It seemed strange that one whose business was system exalted, whose urge to others was to work and save, should rely on mental flashes.

From my earliest recollection," said Mr. Carnegie, "when I would wake up early in the morning the flash of an idea would be in my mind, telling me something to do. I do not know how it came or where it came from, but there was the distinct and clear flash pointing to me to do a certain thing. If I followed those flashes, success always followed, and it was seldom that I did not regard them as compelling directions."

GETTING RICH TAMPA TIMES

The caddy who hunts the golf balls for John D. Rockefeller received a tip the other day, not his usual small coin but some advice on how to get rich. Certainly if any one is qualified to tell others the secret of getting money, it should be the venerable old magnate.

And here are the rules he laid down as the sure path to wealth: "Don't buy anything you don't need. Save your money. Be punctual. Form good habits. There is more than a suspicion that this caddy will be disappointed if he follows those rules and those rules only for the next 25 years. There is a suspicion that Mr. Rockefeller did not give the entire secret of wealth."

WOMEN'S SENSE OF TIME ST. AUGUSTINE RECORD

John Hopkins University submits another triumphant bit of research work. Its psychologists have solved the problem, "Why does a woman keep a man waiting?" The old explanation that women's dressing and decorating necessities are responsible is found to be inadequate. That is not the fundamental reason. The real truth of the matter, as revealed by tests of 1,024 students, half women and half men, is this:

Scientific conclusion: "Men estimate time accurately than women. We are predominantly under-estimates, implying that time really seems shorter to women than men. You can tell her that, next time she makes you wait. But it won't do any good. Women are changeable—but not by scientific means. The only use in this respect is that it tells us why we get so tired when we wait."

Paderewski To Appear In Concert At Daytona Beach On February 5

Ignaz Paderewski, the world's best known pianist, will give a concert Feb. 5 at the auditorium at Daytona Beach. This announcement will be received with much interest by music lovers throughout this section.

For over 35 years, Paderewski has held the rank of world's premier pianist—which did not prevent him, in the meantime, from occupying the place of pianist premier in his country for 10 months. Although an exceedingly modest man, Paderewski nevertheless admits that he is proud of being a self-made man.

"I owe my success in life," he is wont to state, "providing of course that you are kind enough to consider my life as successful, entirely to perseverance and hard work. Any man can succeed in what he undertakes, providing he likes his task and spends enough time and energy at it. Talent is but an instinctive attraction for the things we are doing. It is a feeling nature has given us for selecting our career and choosing what we are best fit to accomplish. As to genius, it is but an honorable appellation bestowed upon those who have succeeded in doing certain particular things better than any one else."

To students seeking his advice, Paderewski invariably replies, "If you like the work you are doing—then work, work as hard as you can and never allow yourself to be discouraged by any setback. Everything comes to him who tries hard enough."

Mrs. Stella Arrington Hostess To Members Of Book Lovers' Club

The members of the Book Lovers' Club were most pleasantly entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Stella Arrington at her home on Magnolia Avenue.

Quantities of lovely, shaggy, yellow chrysanthemums together with greenery were used with charming profusion in decorating this cozy home.

The exchange of late books and discussion of current events helped to make this an unusually enjoyable afternoon. At a late hour, the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. T. M. Puleston, served creamed chicken in patties, tomato aspic, hot rolls, coffee, ice-cream and cake.

The members enjoying the cordial hospitality of Mrs. Arrington were Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. L. P. Haran, Mrs. Mattie Pace, Mrs. Henry McLaulin, Miss Annie Hawkins, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Harry Ward, Mrs. E. P. Morse and Mrs. Roy Symmes.

Miss Vera Dickerson Wins Kiwanis Medal In Expression Contest

The expression medal contest for which has created much interest in the pupils of Miss Margaret McRae for sometime, was held on Friday evening at the Sanford High school.

The contest was postponed from last season, owing to the serious accident which befell Miss McRae last Spring. The medal was donated and presented by the Kiwanis club, and was offered to the pupil whose reading was considered the best. The judges were Mrs. Orpha Hope Grey, head of the expression department at Rollins College, Mrs. Cass and Mrs. Pope, also of Winter Park.

Much favorable comment was brought forth by the group of readings given by little Miss Vera Dickerson, the winsome young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keeley. Her selections included "The Humble Bee" and "Moo Cow Moo".

An added feature of the evening's pleasure, was the aesthetic dancing of little Miss Doris Hobart, whose dancing is most fairy-like and graceful.

Miss Pearl Robson entertained with a group of well rendered piano selections.

After much consideration, the judges decided that the medal should be awarded Miss Vera Dickerson, for her rendition of "Benefit Forgotten" (Willis), Honorable mention was given Miss Evelyn Wheeler, who read "Uncle Alex's Bad Folks" (Annie Connell).

Dr. E. D. Browne, president of the Kiwanis Club, presented the medal, and in a brief address, told of the purpose and ideals of the Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. Bell Entertains Confederate Veterans Of Sanford At Dinner

Thursday being the birthday of Gen. Ripston E. Lee, the day was appropriately celebrated when Mrs. Clifford Bell entertained the Veterans of the Civil War, who reside in Sanford at luncheon at her home on Celery Avenue.

The attractively appointed luncheon table was centered with a low mound of red, white, and blue sweet peas and tiny Confederate flags. Quantities of sweet peas and ferns were also arranged in bowls and baskets in the living and dining rooms. Marking the places of the guests were cards done in flags. At 1 o'clock a sumptuous Southern chicken dinner was served.

After luncheon the guests told stories of the war, and its pathos and yet strange happenings. Toasts were also given to their departed leader and also to their hostess.

Mr. J. M. Lord, sang a number of old songs in which the veterans joined in the choruses.

Covers were laid for J. M. Lord, J. L. Bledsoe, W. F. Mobley, Franklin Norris and J. M. Hawkins. Another veteran, Mr. King, was unable to attend on account of illness, and late in the afternoon the guests visited him in a body carrying a basket of sweet peas.

to attend the Opening of*

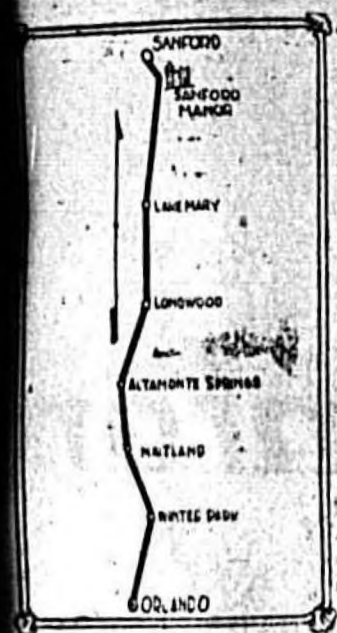

SANFORD MANOR

To our hundreds of friends already familiar with Sanford Manor, this invitation is simply a repetition. It is those not familiar with this tremendous home development, adjoining the City of Sanford, to whom we address this welcome most emphatically.

To home-hungry folks and keen investors alike, Sanford Manor holds a wealth of interest. The broader one's knowledge of Florida, the greater will be his appreciation of opportunities here. Ten thousand producing acres have justified this home community.

SANFORD MANOR PROPERTIES, INC
GEORGE J BERTMAN - PRESIDENT

Picture Story of Your Trip through SANFORD MANOR

Sanford to Sanford Manor, you will find miles of splendid paved highways; you will drive through the productive lands of Florida. Almost due north the road, through Winter Park, Maitland, Monte Springs, Longwood and Sanford. It is a beautiful drive, and you will find the famous old turnpike leading to Sanford, you face the gates of Sanford Manor, gorgeously magnificently considered by many to be the finest estate of Florida.

As you pass these imposing arches you enter the home development, the first really big project in the Sanford section. For a half mile to East and North and South you see Sanford Manor, a high tract of land, higher than any in this section, calmly awaiting the advent of homes and happiness.

Right before you, one hundred feet wide, extends Sanford Manor's White Manor Drive; offering driving and riding comfort by day, a jeweled path by night.

Lined with wide coral walks, curbing, and parkways, planted and beautified, Manor Drive will dissect the entire Sanford Manor property. It is then to extend by way of the boulevard link, on past the great new tourist hotel, Forest Lake, finest of its kind in all central Florida, along the shores of Lake Morris, past the Clyde Line Docks, the Yacht Basin and on into the business section of Sanford.

To either side, as you drive, roll Sanford Manor's pine-clad acres, uniformly high and dry. The land is ideal for homesites, healthy and picturesque, basking in the Florida sun. Possibilities seem to reflect from the ground itself, progress is seen in the trees and the full breath of advancement permeates the atmosphere.

At the eastern boundary you reach the railroad, and here a community business center is going up. Stores to fill everybody's needs will be provided, saving steps for housewives, likewise offering business opportunity to caterers to people of refinement.

Property here is at an unusually modest price level. It is simply a matter of months, however, until business lots in this section will have leaped to their true figure.

For inside about Sanford Manor, in every direction, extend the most fertile trucking acres in Florida. An inspection of this territory will be a revelation to those unfamiliar with this section. Celery, tomatoes, lettuce, cabbage, peppers, all in profusion, and from one to four bumper crops annually, spell the present and foretell the future prosperity of Sanford and Sanford Manor.

Homes are the keynote of Sanford Manor - spacious, comfortable and attractive. Homes, restful for the coming and going, developed, planning now for the years that are to come. Homeowners will find what they have long sought at Sanford Manor.

To the North, just seven miles distant, looms the skyline of Sanford, a bustling industrial and shipping center, one of the six cities in south Florida with passenger steamship service to principal Eastern ports. Sanford is progressive, commercially alive, deserving of the best to be provided in homes and home settings for its builders and residents. Sanford is young, possessed of inestimable advantages in cheap water transportation by direct water route to the coast, securely belted in and commanding a long established agricultural territory, and destined to grow no perhaps no similar city in Florida has ever grown before. Sanford Manor is proud of its mother city.

Pullman Coaches leave daily, at 9:30 A. M. and 2:00 P. M., from the corner of Jefferson and Orange, in Orlando, for Sanford Manor. From the city of Sanford, coaches leave the Valdez Hotel at 10:45 A. M. and 3:15 P. M. You are cordially invited to be our guest for a trip to Sanford Manor and return. Every courtesy will be extended you in a sincere effort to make your journey a pleasant remembrance.

DRDS NEW SOLD

though it has been only three months since the development was announced. On October 15, last, we announced Davis Shores in a special edition of the St. Augustine Record. On November 1, our fleet of dredges started pumping. On November 14, the first unit of Davis Shores was placed on sale and was immediately sold out for $18,405,000. This was an over-description of $7,137,300. Now on January 20th, we are offering the last of Davis Shores for sale. Those dates and figures back up our claim that Davis Shores is the fastest selling property in Florida. "We are speeding up our dredging, building, and beautification program to keep pace with the selling records. Our dredging contract, although it calls for a fill of 13,000,000 cubic yards of sand and shell, will be completed by October, or a month earlier than was first contemplated. "We have let to the Foundation Company of New York and Atlanta a contract for $500,000 program we have for Davis Shores in 1926. "The wonderful model of Davis Shores and St. Augustine, which Fred W. Leist is making, probably never will be used to sell a foot of Davis Shores by the D. P. Davis organization, but it will be exhibited, nevertheless, and will serve to make realtors for investors, now. It will also serve to keep in mind and show to the thousands of visitors who come to St. Augustine, what will be the ultimate development of the Ancient City and Davis Shores."

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—(P)—Declaring its implacable hostility to the entry into the League of Nations, the German Nationalist party had decided last night to submit to the Reichstag a motion demanding postponement of Germany's application for membership in the League of Nations.

Weather's funny stuff. Can't blame it for being contrary. You would be contrary if everybody cussed you.

Throughout the length and breadth of Florida new subdivisions, new developments of one kind and another,—"cities in the making" are springing up. Some have the justification of sound purpose. Others have not. One in particular, we believe, will stand out as purposeful, logical, sane. It is

Bithlo

There is nothing of happenstance in BITHLO. Its location was the natural spot for a business and community center. Intersecting arteries of travel, paying agriculture—these fundamental factors lead to the establishment of the town of BITHLO, long before Florida as a whole had attracted national attention. Even under ordinary circumstances, BITHLO would have grown and prospered. The influx of northern population, however, makes possible a progressive program undreamed of a few years ago.

With the acquisition of the entire townsite, and thousands of adjoining acres, by a strong New England group of capitalists and business men, the machinery for swift and consistent development has been set up.

Actions speak louder than words. BITHLO already has over five miles of paved streets. Business buildings and homes. A new well down 200 feet, which will furnish water to the entire townsite. Sewers and sidewalks under construction.

A regular station on the Florida East Coast's direct line to Miami. A tremendously productive back-country of truck farms and citrus groves. BITHLO is already the trading center of this rich territory.

We invite you to see BITHLO today. It is well worth seeing. It is something different from the usual investment opportunity. Call at our office and arrange for a free trip of inspection.

Railway Company's Big Acreage Plots Thrown On Market

TAMPA, Jan. 23.—Fifteen hundred acres of some of the most valuable waterfront land in South Florida has just been placed on the market by the Atlantic Land and Improvement Company, the subsidiary corporation handling lands owned by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. The tract is on the peninsula separating Tampa Bay from Old Tampa Bay, comprises more than six miles of waterfront and several small islands and extends from near Gadsden Point to more than a mile above Fort Tampa. The land is valued at $7,500,000 and is being placed on the market by a local realty concern after negotiations with the owner extending over a period of nearly

New Kind Of Earth Shock Recorded By Harvard Seismograph

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—(AP)—A new kind of earth shock, which sounded like a great explosion, and which was felt in half a dozen cities and towns of metropolitan Boston was engaging the attention of puzzled scientists today.

So far, all theories have failed to explain the origin of the series of tremors, which shook the walls and window panes in Cambridge and Somerville and was registered on the Harvard University seismograph.

Officials at the Harvard Observatory and the geology department admitted the possibility of an earthquake but looked more for news of an explosion. Professor Kirtley of the Mather pointed out, however, that if an earthquake occurred, it was strictly of local character and probably centered not more than five or ten miles from Harvard.

The shock was felt almost entirely to the northwest of Boston. The city proper felt nothing.

The tract was a part of the land grant to Henry B. Plant incident to construction of the railroad from Tampa to Fort Tampa and came into possession of the Atlantic Coast Line when it acquired the Plant System upon the death of Mr. Plant twenty-five years ago.

Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was nervous and extremely nervous."

"My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth."

"I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better."

"I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. In every way it felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine."

Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs. NC-162 For sale everywhere.

Highland Park

Opening Sale of Lots Begins On Monday Morning, Jan. 25

In previous issues of The Herald I have recounted many of the features of this superb development, features that set it apart by itself; unique, distinctive, different, but I have by no means told all my story yet. I show today the one of the beautiful "parks within a park," of the Highland Park development, which spreads out to the south just within the great main entrance, is encircled by Coronado Concourse and commands a view through the arch-way down the full length of Elm Avenue. At its northern end will stand the fountain, now under construction and costing more than $2000. As soon as I have the curbs of Coronado Concourse, which encircles it, giving me the grades to which I must conform, this park will be shaped up, the Summer House will be erected and the planting done.

The Cocos Plumosa Palm, the nearest approach for this section of the state to the splendid Royal Palm of South Florida, and the Flame Vine and Crimson Bougainvillea, among the most strikingly beautiful in the flora of this Southern Land of Flowers, will be the dominating features in planting at the Main Entrance, in Swan Oval and all along Coronado Concourse and Community Way to the Club House in Revona Park.

The deed to every lot in Highland Park will provide that when the paving (already all contracted for) has been done along the drives, I will lay the sidewalks at my own expense and do all the planting between the curb and property line. There will be a different decorative scheme worked out along each of the other drives, but all will blend together in harmony and beauty, and when Nature has done her part in bringing to perfection the work which I am doing and will continue to carry on, visitors will come from hundreds of miles away to see what we have done.

If you appreciate these things, consider what it will mean to you and your children to live in an environment such as I am working out, and what effect it will have on the value of the property.

What sort of a picture would it be possible to make if a hundred people took "a dab" at the canvas? And how can real symmetry and beauty be achieved in the development of any residential section where every lot owner takes "a dab" at the canvas, each planting according to his own ideas, if he plants at all?

And so it is with the building restrictions applying to Highland Park, in which the cost of the structure is by no means the all important factor. A six thousand dollar house might be a gem of beauty in the perfect setting of the Park itself, and a ten thousand dollar house might be an ugly blot. Or a house might in itself satisfy the most esthetic taste and yet be so badly placed on the lot it occupies or so out of harmony with the surrounding houses, or so discordant with the landscape design of its particular location, that it would adversely affect the value of all the houses in its neighborhood.

My original design of Highland Park, the lay out of its lots and drives and parks, was intended to appeal to people of discriminating taste, and that has been and will continue to be the controlling factor in its development, until my work is finished. There will be nothing "big and ugly" in Highland Park if I can help it, and with the work I am doing myself and the restrictions I am putting in the deeds, I am very sure I can.

No matter what may happen to the "boom" in Florida, and let us hope it may last for years, nothing can ever have much effect on such property as Highland Park, for in a community such as Sanford, founded on a substantial basis and not alone on climate and "hot air" with a steady and substantial growth that nothing can stop, there will always be an active demand for "gilt edge" property, close in, convenient to everything, sure to be right in the heart of this rapidly expanding town "almost before you know it", high and dry, sightly and beautiful, with every advantage and with restrictions that will always keep it free from every objectionable feature—that is HIGHLAND PARK, and all these things are nowhere else.

If you are looking for cheap stuff, the prices of lots in Highland Park will not attract you, although some sell as low as $1800. Cheap prices mean cheap people, cheap houses, cheap everything. And nothing is so hard to get rid of on a resale as cheap real estate. But if you are looking for property such as I am developing along the highest lines, property where you can establish your own home in the most delightful environment, or property for which you are sure to find a buyer if you want to sell, you will be surprised to find how low the prices are in Highland Park compared to what you get there and what you get anywhere else.

The terms are easy, one fourth cash and the balance in four equal semi-annual payments, with a full warranty deed and a title insurance policy furnished free.

Only a limited number of lots in Highland Park are for sale at this time, and when these have been sold, the property will be withdrawn from the market altogether until the streets are paved and all my development work has been completed. I have no intention of spending all the money I will spend on this development and letting the property get away from me before I can reap the benefit, and I am putting it on the market now only because I want to get building of the right kind of homes by the right kind of people started now to help along the development.

Ten states of the southeast are members of the Association. At a previous meeting, held in Atlanta, Ga., an agreement was reached as to a uniform method of assignment of both operating revenues and expenses to the states, with the exception of that covering the freight revenue.

"Amid Majestic Pines"

When Crescent Boulevard Is Completed

Plans for this boulevard are now well under way, construction will soon. Crescent Boulevard will be one of the most extensively used thoroughfares in this district. Indeed, no thoroughfare will be more needed, and especially where it intersect with Geneva Street. This intersection is in the first section of Sanford Grove.

Running through Sanford Grove, Crescent Boulevard will be a boulevard with adequate drainage and slope, beautiful terrace and lawns, in all it will furnish passer-bys an elaborate view of a most desired home-spot. The first unit that has been open to the public for the past few months soon be dotted with the dream homes of people building for permanence.

See Sanford Grove that you will understand the unusual location of the property. Have one of our representatives accompany you to the property that these distinctive features can be pointed out to you.

Advance Registration Is Encouraging Rollins College's Expansion Program

WINTER PARK, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Advance registrations for next year, 1926-27, at Rollins College, indicate that the plan of President Hamilton Holt for assembling a highly-selected student body of 400 men and 200 women as the leading factor, secondary only to the addition to his staff of ten of the most eminent educators in the country, of developing Rollins into America's "model small college of liberal arts," is a practical one and that Florida perhaps by next fall may point to Winter Park as the center of one of the great new educational achievements in the country, according to a statement issued by E. B. Cass, Registrar of the College. Only graduates of accredited high schools who present credentials of the highest moral character and records of student leadership over the preparatory period, are being considered by the entrance committee of the Rollins faculty.

Since the coming of Hamilton Holt, LL.D., to the Presidency of Rollins, this Florida institution has received continuous national recognition and thousands of inquiries have been received about the curriculum and the advantages of the small college which President Holt champions.

Present accommodations for students, provided for an enrollment of slightly over 200 boarding students, but it is expected that enlarged quarters will be constructed before the opening of the forty-second year, Sept. 20, 1926.

Rollins College, which has always drawn its enrollment from many states other than Florida, is rapidly becoming a national institution with an enrollment of even wider geographical distribution, under the leadership of Hamilton Holt, the new chief executive, whose reputation as an authority on international questions and as one of the leading publicists and educators of the country, is international in character. These facts have been drawn from statistics compiled by registration officials of Rollins College which have just been announced.

Last year 22 different states were represented in the Rollins enrollment, and statistics of that first semester enrollment of the present year, according to the entrance committee announcement, reveal the fact that this term twenty-five states are represented. New American colleges of national appeal can boast of a wider range of territory from which students are drawn. This condition is brought about, college officials are quoted as saying, due to the greatly increased interest in Florida by people in other states who are planning to make their homes in Florida. If they find educational conditions satisfactory. That the majority of students drawn from other states eventually make their permanent homes in Orange county or in other sections of Florida, is rather conclusive proof that Rollins is a potent influence in attracting to Florida a high class of home-seeker.

It is therefore ORDERED that you and each of you do and are hereby required to appear to the bill of Complaint herein filed on Monday, the 1st day of February, A. D. 1926, at the Court House in Sanford, Seminole County, Florida, and in default thereof, the fees of the Court, to be entered against you, said cause being a null and void title.

It is therefore ORDERED that this notice be published in the Sanford Herald, a newspaper published in Seminole County, Florida, once a week for four consecutive weeks, the first publication to be made on the 1st day of January, A. D. 1926.

ties, the officials maintain, and it should eventually be that the University of Florida will send representatives to these great tournaments.
"However, if we consider the handicap under which the former teams of the school have been laboring because of the poor courts, the university has made a good showing," says a statement issued from the institution.
"There is much interest shown in the sport at the different tournaments held here on the campus. The Round Robin, which is a means of choosing the best player, gives each man his rating. Number one being the best player and number two ranking second and so on. A man can challenge the man who ranks him just preceding, and if he wins he takes the place of the one challenged. The ranking first four generally compose the team."
At an adjourned meeting of the town council on Monday evening it was voted to accept the plat of the Dow subdivision. An ordinance was also passed creating the office of Sanitary Inspector for the town.
Mrs. J. Aaron Bistline on Thursday attended the tea in Orlando given by Miss Mable O'Neal and Miss Mary Branham, announcing the engagement of Miss Eve McQuarters, a teacher in the Orlando High School, to Mr. Raymond Warrilow of Winter Park.

At the Lyman school two debates were scheduled for Friday pupils of the tenth grade debate on "Which is mightier, fire or water?" and the pupils of the ninth grade speak on "Is it better to spend the winter in the north, or the south?" The Parent-Teachers' Association and the teachers in the school are invited to spend Friday evening with the Lake Mary Association.

Among prominent recent arrivals at the Orange and Black Hotel are Judge Leonard of Kentucky, former newspaper man, now judge of the races; Harry Up Yost of University of Michigan, and Dan McGuigan, of Vanderbilt University, both famous foot-ball coaches, who are stock holders in the race course.

A base ball club has been organized in Longwood with George E. LaVigne as manager and Edward Entzinger as secretary and treasurer. The team expects to join the league. A diamond is to be laid out in the town park and covered with clay to make a suitable field for the players. Contribution towards the purchase of uniforms and equipment for the club are being accepted by Edward Entzinger.

STEAMSHIP NOW PLYSON PALATKA NEW YORK ROUTE

Arrangements Completed For Direct Service Between Big Metropolis And One Of The Central Cities Of Florida

PALATKA, Jan. 23.—Arrangements were completed here this morning for the immediate establishment of a new winterment steamship line between Palatka and New York. The final plans were discussed at a meeting of members of the Palatka Chamber of Commerce and representatives of the steamship operators. A direct schedule will be inaugurated as soon as vessels can be commissioned and put into operation.

Captain A. P. Davidson, for twenty-five years an officer of the United Fruit Company and more recently vice president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, United States Shipping Board, and William F. Cole represented the operators. The new line will be known as the Palatka & New York Steamship Line. Offices will be maintained in New York and in Palatka.

The addition of the new steamship line greatly facilitates the matter of freight shipments for the entire central section of the state as well as the Palatka district. Arrangements are being made by the operators for the addition of a smaller draft vessel to carry freight from Palatka to Sanford and other St. Johns river points. The ocean going steamers will dock at Palatka and distribute freight for central Florida points via smaller vessel.

A great deal of stress is being laid on the fact that the new line is not merely an emergency step to relieve the difficulty caused by embargoes but representatives of the operators have made a thorough survey and are convinced that a permanent line is badly needed in the central section of Florida.

Sailings will be maintained twice every ten days from New York and Palatka.

Two steamers will go into service immediately and three others are available if the business warrants additions.

The steamers will be in the 3,000 deadweight ton class and will carry a crew of thirty men. A great deal of stevedoring work will be necessary at Palatka.

Docking space has been provided by the Putnam county road and bridge bond trustees and the W. A. Merryday Grain Company. The city will start within the next few weeks with the erection of new municipal docks. Money for the erection of the municipal docks has been voted and is now in bank.

MIAMI SHORES—America's Mediterranean—MIAMI SHORES

Five Highways And An Inland Waterway

Serve MIAMI SHORES

WHAT more could you ask?

The East Dixie Highway—Federal Highway—the Concourse—the West Dixie Highway—and Miami Avenue

In order to reach Miami by car or train, one must necessarily pass through MIAMI SHORES. The inland waterway passes between MIAMI SHORES LAND and MIAMI SHORES LAND.

True, Miami Avenue is not as yet completed, but the bonds have been sold and it will be rapidly constructed through to MIAMI SHORES. The Shoreland Company has paved Miami Avenue through its property, as well as the West Dixie Highway and the Grand Concourse.

If accessibility means anything to you as a potential investor—if being on the line of travel appeals to you—if the satisfaction of properly distributed main thoroughfares through a property counts for anything in your opinion—if having over 10 miles of actual waterfront is in your opinion a creator of definite and specific values, than MIAMI SHORES should certainly sell itself to you as it has to thousands of others.

Florida Power & Light Company

By consolidation and merger the Florida Power & Light Company has now succeeded to all the property and rights formerly belonging to the following Companies:

SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY
MIAMI GAS COMPANY
MIAMI ELECTRIC LIGHT & POWER CO.
MIAMI BEACH ELECTRIC COMPANY
DAYTONA PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY
ORMOND SUPPLY COMPANY
LAKELAND GAS COMPANY
ST. JOHNS ELECTRIC COMPANY
SOUTHERN HOLDING COMPANY

and certain other properties formerly owned and operated by smaller companies or individuals throughout the State.

Before these properties were united into one company each had been operated as a separate unit. Their operation as one property by Florida Power & Light Company with the various power stations connected by high voltage electric transmission lines will result in efficient and stable service on an unusually economic basis.

The territory served by the Florida Power & Light Company is growing rapidly and one of the purposes of the consolidation was to place the new Company in a position to obtain funds to provide additional facilities with which to meet the steadily increasing demands for its services.

Making Sub-Division Of Farm Lands Cause Of Light Crop, F. V. C. Claims

The development of farm lands for sub-division purposes has resulted in the 1926 celery crop being some 500 acres shorter than last season's yield according to figures compiled by officials of Florida Vegetable Corporation, who have recently completed a survey of local crop conditions.

Approximately 5,000 cars of celery will be shipped from the Sanford section this year as opposed to the 6,000 grown here last season, according to Horace Bannon, assistant sales manager of the company, but the quality of the 1926 crop is said to be far superior to that of last season's, and the light crop is expected to insure a continuing demand at consistent high prices.

"The crop in the Bradenton-Manatee section is unusually short this year," Mr. Bannon said, "in fact, I understand that not more than 500 cars will be shipped from this district during the entire season."

"Cutting is now going on locally," Mr. Bannon added, "and it is probable that 75 cars will be shipped from this district during the entire season."

REALTORS HEAR PAUL MEREDITH AT WEEKLY MEET

Official Of State Association Says Increasing Number Of Sub-Divisions Are Hurting Agricultural Development

Paul O. Meredith, executive secretary of the Florida Association of Real Estate Boards, talked before members of the Sanford Board at the luncheon meeting held today at noon in the Seminole Grill.

M. Meredith informed the members of the local board of the work being carried out by the state association, and of the various features of the national convention of realtors which was held recently in New Orleans. He stated during the course of his remarks on the national meet, that the Florida association was now the largest of any state organization in the country, having far surpassed the California and New York Boards.

In commenting on the activities of the state association, Mr. Meredith said that the state association is attempting to get local real estate boards and other civic organizations to behind a movement to further the development of the agricultural advantages of Florida.

"The great amount of acreage that has been taken off sub-divisions has placed toll of the real estate board subscribers when he joins and asked that the members of the local board use care and judgment in the selection of new members."

2 ARE CHARGED WITH ATTACK ON WOMAN IN HOTEL

Joseph Connor and E. Stoy Taken Before Grand Jury At Jacksonville And Then Transferred To County Jail

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Joseph Connor, 25, and George E. Stoy, 26, charged with criminally attacking a young married woman in a downtown hotel yesterday morning, were taken before a special Duval county grand jury Thursday. State's Attorney Charles M. Durraney, announced today. The men were transferred from the city to the county jail this morning for safe keeping.

Both men denied having seen the woman, who is said to have been identified as being the one who took her from the hotel elevator to a room rented by one of the men on the fourth floor. There the men attacked her, she said. The young woman and her husband checked out of the hotel yesterday noon to avoid notoriety, the hotel manager said.

The woman told the hotel manager that she had gone to the lobby of the hotel at 3 o'clock Sunday morning to get medicine for her husband who was ill. She had boarded the elevator to return to her room when accosted by the two men, one of whom held a revolver against her side, she told the manager that she had gone to the lobby to look her out of the elevator to a room, she said.

She screamed and disturbed hotel guests and the young woman was found pushed under the bed in the room, badly bruised. One of the men was detained at the hotel until police arrived. The other was arrested a short time later.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR DRUNKEN AUTO DRIVERS

City Commission Passes Ordinance Designed To Check Dangerous Habit 60 Days For Third Case

New Docking Plans Suggested By Hutton

City May Dredge Slips To Give Unloading Boats Safe And Protected Facilities

The passage of an ordinance making operation of an automobile by any one under the influence of liquor an offense punishable by a straight jail sentence with the option of paying a fine of $200 or 60 days in jail; the second offense featured the regular meeting of the City Commission held this afternoon.

The ordinance in its original form called for the assessment of a straight jail sentence for the first offense, but a thorough discussion of the matter resulted in the adoption of a revised form making the first offense punishable by a fine of $200 or 60 days in jail; the second offense punishable by a straight 30 day jail sentence, and the third offense punishable by a jail sentence of not less than 90 days.

New Docks Proposed

A plan for the building of a protected municipal harbor on city property near the foot of Poplar Avenue and the lake front was suggested to the City Commissioners at their regular meeting today, by Mr. Hutton, member of the Hutton Engineering and Contracting Company.

Mr. Hutton's proposal was that the city develop the property for a harbor by dredging boat slips along the lake front, and that a point near the intersection of Commercial Street, thereby connecting with rail facilities which are already in that section. One slip could be built in the near future, and as this port continues to grow other slips could be added to take care of the increasing shipping, according to Mr. Hutton.

This plan, Mr. Hutton believes, would greatly further the city's reputation as both a rail and water shipping point, and that freight from New York and other northern points could be brought to this city by water and then on to other cities ordered by rail. The plan as suggested by Mr. Hutton, received favorable comment from the commissioners and the matter was referred to the city engineer to have the city manager for study and investigation.

As proposed, the harbor would be a drawbridge type erected over the new boulevard which is to go through the western outskirts of the city, but it is said this feature would be of very little future expense to the city.

Senate Decides To Invoke Cloture On World Court Debate

Action Makes Certain That Final Vote On Tribunal Will Come Within A Few Days

Swanson Measure Helps Court Fight Consideration Of Tax Cut Bill Will Begin During This Week

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The senate invoked its drastic cloture rule today to limit debate on the World Court.

The step makes certain a final vote on the court issue within a few days, with adoption of the resolution of American adhesion to the tribunal a foregone conclusion.

The vote for cloture was 68 to 26, or five more than the necessary two-thirds.

Thirty-six Republicans and 32 Democrats voted to invoke the rule, with 18 Republicans, seven Democrats and one farmer-labor opposing it. Senators Fletcher and Trammell of Florida voted for cloture.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The Senate World Court fight cleared the showdown stage today. Cloture rule limiting debate to one hour for each senator or a mutual agreement to restrict discussion on their own account was the proposition facing leaders of the opposition to proposed American adhesion to the tribunal.

The opposition was given the first hour of today's session to continue negotiations for unanimous agreement with the certainty of failure of the negotiations would be followed immediately by a vote on the question of invoking cloture. Advocates of the rule who requested employment of the rule were confident of its adoption with more than the needed two-thirds majority.

These friends of the court expected the vote on cloture to indicate also how the chamber will line up when it gets a chance to decide whether the country will sit in the court at Geneva. They believe the substitute resolution of adhesion presented by Senator Swanson, Democrat of Virginia, proposing reservations more restrictive than the present ones, has swayed several doubtful senators to the pro-court side. Only 16 senators identified definitely with the opposition.

No matter how the cloture question is settled the Senate this week will begin consideration of the tax reduction bill. One possibility was that agreement between the two sections would include provision that the tax bill be given the right of way except when a senator chooses to discuss the court issue.

The House, meanwhile, will dispose of the naval appropriation bill and then turn to the Hagen bill, proposing establishment of a division of co-operative marketing in the Department of Agriculture. The department's appropriation bill next will be acted upon.

The House committee will continue phases of agriculture legislation, with Senate inquiry will continue into aluminum and proposed railroad consolidation.
