Well and King, who killed McLeary, are sentenced to Death Chair on Nov. 21

Wh Confessed To the Murder

Set Date So As to Give Them Time to Repent for Crime

WESTERFIELD, S. C., Sept. 24.—Following a swiftly running trial replete with dramatic moments, Mortimer M. and Frank Harrell, given death sentences Tuesday in court for the murder of Maj. Samuel H. McLeary, United States army officer, July 2, which they both admitted in signed confessions.

Mr. C. C. Featherstone, presiding judge, set Nov. 21 as the day they should be electrocuted in the state penitentiary at Columbia, giving them ample time to repent of "most horrible" crime and to find their peace with their Maker.

McLeary, who was made a martyr by the crime for which he was tried, was not in the room when sentence was pronounced by the state, and was absent throughout the proceedings.

Widow Breaks Down
Mrs. McLeary was dressed in deep mourning and at times could not restrain her grief, breaking into sobs as some development in the trial touched closely to the memory of her late husband.

McLeary's sister, Mrs. McLeary Kramer, a sister-in-law, was present throughout the trial, and at times broke down and sobbed for mercy to both him and his companion, he attempted to take the entire burden of the crime upon his own shoulders.

Harrell Not at Hand
Well, he admitted, was not at hand when he fired two bullets into the army officer's head with effect, but was back at the jail, in the two had been given a reprieve by the officer.

Murder Not Planned
Throughout his story he maintained that the murder of Major McLeary was not planned in advance. After they had forced the man into the woods, he declared, he did not intend to kill him, but to tie him up with a tow rope which was in the rear of the car.

EXPECT BIGGEST DRIVE OF CHINA WAR BEGIN SOON

New Kiangsu Offensive Reported Begun Against Chekiang Troops Near Taingpu District, 20 Miles Shanghai

SIANGHAI, Sept. 24.—While guns of both the Chekiang and Kiangsu armies west of this city remained silent this morning the Lungwa headquarters of Chekiang force expected their opponents to make the heaviest drive of the war tonight and tomorrow on the front between Liubo and Yangtze River and Kiangpu beyond the Shanghai-Nanking Railway.

A new Kiangsu offensive early Wednesday was reported started against the Chekiang troops defending Shanghai in the district adjacent to Taingpu, about 20 miles west of Shanghai.

Unconfirmed reports also were received that Kiangsu agents had blown out two bridges on the Shanghai-Hangchow railway between Shanghai and Kashing. Refusal of military authorities to permit observers to approach the fighting lines made confirmation of such reports extremely difficult.

Chang Captures Chaoyang, TOKIO, Sept. 24.—Gen. Chang Tso-Lin's army captured Chaoyang, a town in northern Chihli province at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, according to a dispatch received here today from Mukden, quoting a communique from Gen. Chang's headquarters.

The communique said that Gen. Chang's forces took 600 Peking prisoners in the battle and captured six field guns, eight machine guns, 2,000 rifles and other stores.

The Chihli troops were reported in retreat toward Chienchang, 15 miles south of the Manchurian-Chihli border.

Take Defense Precautions, SIANGHAI, Sept. 24.—The lull in China's civil war continued Tuesday with only the taking of further precautions and threatened labor troubles to break into monotony of the dragging hostilities.

Bridges on the Shanghai-Changow railway between Changow and Kashing were blown up today by soldiers remaining faithful to Lu Yung Hsiang, commander of the Chekiang armies, thus cutting off all communication with the territory around Hangchow and outward, which last week revolted against the rule of General Lu.

The bulk of the rolling stock previously had been moved north of Kashing, coincident with the flight of General Lu from Hangchow to Shanghai, after the revolt started. An irregular train schedule was being maintained on the line today as far as Kashing, which still is in the defense chief's territory.

The Kiangnan arsenal at Lungwa, which has been working night and day to supply the defense forces with ammunition, worked only part of today. Some labor trouble had developed, it was said, and a general strike was threatened.

On the actual fighting front, west of the city there was little to report. The fighting lines were unchanged on all fronts and firing was confined for the most part to an occasional artillery demonstration.

MEANS SAYS HE WILL NOT TALK ANY MORE NOW

Star Witness in Wheeler's Investigation Will Have Nothing to Say Regarding Alleged Repudiation of Story

Asserts There Are Angles to His Work

Will Furnish Information To Committee Members if No Meeting is Held very Soon

CONCORD, N. C., Sept. 24.—Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent and star witness for the Wheeler senatorial committee investigating the deputation of justice, Tuesday night issued a statement declaring that he would have nothing further to say in connection with his testimony before the committee, and its alleged repudiation in a statement issued by Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, until he ascertained whether the committee would be called in special session in the near future.

"Many Angles." The former investigator asserted that there were many angles to his work which could not be discussed "at this time." He declared, however, if no meeting of the committee was called, he would be glad to furnish any of its members such information and facts as he claimed were in his possession.

Means arrived here Monday night and spent the greater portion of Tuesday in conference with his local attorney. He refused to make any statement. This afternoon he submitted to a lengthy questioning concerning the testimony which he gave before the Wheeler committee and his alleged repudiation as issued by H. M. Daugherty. He, however, until the close of the interview, refused to make any statement for publication.

When shown an Associated Press dispatch Tuesday afternoon from Washington charging him with repudiation of his income tax he showed no surprise but declared he had nothing to say concerning the charges.

The impression which Means conveyed to newspapermen Tuesday afternoon was that he would not make public the alleged sensational facts he claims to have in connection with the department of justice investigation, unless some member of the committee requests such action. He declared repeatedly that he would have absolutely nothing to say until he had ascertained the sentiments of the committee members towards a special session to hear his further testimony.

Means' Statement. Following is the statement he issued Tuesday afternoon: "As previously stated, there are various angles to my work as an investigator which can not be discussed at this time and until I..."

Braxton Preparing For Gathering Of Waterways' Data

Word has been received here by the Chamber of Commerce that J. M. Braxton is preparing to start on the collection of statistics and information to be used with the request to the United States engineers for the improvement of the St. Johns River from Jacksonville to Sanford and the canal from the upper St. Johns to the Indian River.

Mr. Braxton has stated that he thinks it desirable that he should have committees from the DeLand and Sanford Chambers of Commerce and from the Central Florida Waterways Traffic League with whom he can discuss the different phases of the situation as they arise. He said that any action he takes should be with the approval of those who are paying for his employment.

It was learned that Mr. Braxton will be at Orlando on Thursday, Sept. 25, where he expects to address members of the Chamber of Commerce of that city on waterways, in the interest of the proposed St. Johns River improvement.

Mr. Braxton further stated that he is planning to be in Sanford on Friday of this week and has asked that arrangements be made for him to address the local Chamber of Commerce at its noon luncheon. He will speak to the DeLand trade body in the evening, he said.

Mr. Braxton pointed out that he believes the Florida Citrus Exchange can be of great help in securing government assistance in the improvement of the St. Johns River to Sanford. He says further that he believes the exchange is much concerned with securing cheaper and more transportation facilities.

It was learned from the offices of the Chamber of Commerce here today that L. C. Edwards, president of the Florida Citrus Exchange has been asked to speak to the body at its meeting Friday in conjunction with the waterway program as it will be presented. Mr. Braxton states that he thinks it will be of mutual advantage if Mr. Edwards will speak here at that time.

3 Days Remain Before End Of Second Period Herald's Big Salesmanship Contest

REVEREND HIGHT IS TRANSFERRED; SEE MOB ATTACK

On Saturday Night Second Big Reduction in Strength of Votes will be Made; Contestants Urged to Prepare

Ladies Visit Buick Garage; See Prizes

Big Upset in Dope Expected After Count of Ballots at 10 O'Clock Saturday Night

Only three days remain before the close of the second period of The Herald's Salesmanship Campaign. Saturday night ends the second period and then comes another reduction of votes. Workers should be sure to secure all promised subscriptions before the close at 10 o'clock Saturday night.

There is plenty of time to win but all ladies should remember that every little bit counts. Time is flying past and before anyone realizes it the contest will be nearing the end when prizes will be awarded to the successful ones. Just one will ride in the Buick, just one will wear the Edison, just one will take home the fifty dollars and only one the twenty-five dollars.

Several of the ladies have visited the Buick garage and report that they got quite a bit of inspiration from looking over the First Prize. Others have visited The Diamond Palace and Historian's Piano Co., and report that they were inspired with a look at the diamond ring and the Edison. They all felt more like work and are going to strive harder to take one of the handsome prizes home.

Every week so far has shown that the dope was not altogether right. Each week has brought out a new leader so everyone is anxious to see the standing of the contestants Saturday. The Herald feels that the race is so close that any one of the contestants could jump in the lead in a single day. Contestants should have in mind that in order to win they can't slow up but must keep on right to the close. The prize will be won by the most consistent worker, the one who keeps the pace right to the finish. Reports should be made regularly and at the same time workers may be able to get some valuable information which would aid them materially.

Every home and business here in Sanford and Seminole county should be solicited and all should be ready to take the contest by the reins. A wonderful field and should not stop until the whole territory is thoroughly covered. Salesmanship counts and the ladies will find that they are becoming more and more efficient every day.

The schedule of votes will be reduced again Saturday, which marks the close of this period, and beginning next week subscriptions will not count for as much. All are urged to make this week their banner week. Only three more days are left in which to take advantage of the big count. The one who has heard during the contest that she has a great advantage over those who have heard down on the job.

The Herald office will remain open Saturday night until 10 o'clock in order to take care of those who obtain subscriptions late in the day. Contestants should not fail to turn in everything Saturday night as the count of votes is so much larger this week than it...

Sanford Kiwanis Ball Team Is Ready To Cross Bats With Titusville Club

Manager E. F. Lane of the Sanford Kiwanis baseball club revealed to a representative of The Herald this morning that final arrangements have been made for a game with Titusville and that it will be called at the new municipal athletic field at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

It was said that although the Sanford players have not played for the past several weeks, they are in trim for the game tomorrow and that Titusville is going to get a good drubbing. Members of the team point out their line of five consecutive victories and the single defeat at the end and declare that they do not intend to lose another game this season.

The local team has beat Orlando two games, Leesburg two games and Plant City one, having lost the last game played to the Plant City club. Upon this record as a basis, the team is claiming the Kiwanis championship of the state and is playing these last games to definitely settle the issue.

SANFORD MOST SUBSTANTIAL, SAYS SENATOR

Duncan U. Fletcher Declares Backlands of This City Are Wealthiest in State; Possibilities are Unlimited

Davis Stands a Good Chance of Election

Present Administration Most Corrupt in History of the United States, He Declares

"In my observation of Florida cities, I have found that Sanford is probably the most substantial in the entire state," declared Senator Duncan U. Fletcher to a representative of The Herald Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Fletcher spoke at great length on Sanford's wonderful back country. He stated that in no other section of Florida is there a city situated among such rich farming lands and with such a wealth of resources as is the "Celery City."

With its substantial growth and continued progress and development, he said, Sanford is bound to become some day as great a tourist center and winter resort as it is a farming section. He stated that there are immeasurable resources which, when developed, will make Sanford one of the greatest cities in the state.

Here principally in the interest of the improvement of the St. Johns River to Sanford and the proposed canal from some upper point in the river to the Indian river, Mr. Fletcher further stated that the waterway, when completed, will offer unlimited possibilities for Sanford.

There is practically no limit to the commercial development of this city, he said.

Davis Has Good Chance. "If John W. Davis is not elected president in the coming election," declared Mr. Fletcher, "it will be a direct indication that the people of the United States have arrived at a point where they do not care whether or not there is corruption in their government. I do not believe that the people have come to that point yet, and if they haven't, Davis will be elected. The outcome of the presidential election in November will show the stand of the people, however."

Mr. Fletcher further outlined at length the corruption of the present administration and stated what he believed was simple proof of his statements. Never in the history of the United States has the government been so corrupt as at present, he said.

In the administration of Taft, stated the senator, corruption was unsearched in the Department of the Interior. That, however, was in just one department. In the Harding-Coolidge administration, he said, there are the Veterans Bureau, the Treasury Department, the Navy Department, the Department of Justice, and the State Department.

Kiwanians Observe Safety Week With Talks On Subject

Safety week was fittingly observed at the noonday luncheon of the Kiwanis club held at the Montezuma Hotel today. Addresses by R. J. Holly, president of the Rotary club and C. H. Page of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad were on the subject of safety.

Mr. Holly urged automobile drivers to use care in the way in which they operated their automobiles and brought out the fact that frequently the pedestrian is to blame for some of the serious accidents which occur. He also pointed out that the driver should know the traffic rules and observe them. Mr. Holly spoke briefly but brought out many forceful points as to the advisability of practicing safety, not only during the present week, but all the time.

In opening his address Mr. Page commended the Kiwanis club for sponsoring the special week on Safety. In addition to giving statistics regarding grade-crossing accidents he urged that the people support the movement for the enactment of a law making it a necessity for motorists to stop their cars before crossing a railroad. This, he said, would result in fewer accidents. Mr. Page said the time was coming when the schools would have instruction on safety and when the matter would be continually stressed by theaters, churches and civic organizations.

It was announced at the luncheon that the Kiwanis baseball club would play the Titusville Kiwanis club at the city athletic park Thursday afternoon and that a week from Thursday a baseball game will be played at Lakeland between the Sanford and Brooksville clubs, for the championship of the state.

Forrest Lake told of the success of the bond election and of the support given the movement by the progressive citizens and civic clubs of the city. There was a large attendance at the meeting.

Davis Returning to Stump Will Hit at Present Corruption

WALSH REPORTS GOOD PROSPECTS FOR LOCAL CROPS

Declared if Plan Initiated During Last Season Followed This Year, He Sees No Reason for Unsuccessful Crop

Harry L. Walsh, sales manager of the Florida Vegetable Corporation, who has recently returned from an extended visit to the various large eastern and northern markets, declared to a representative of The Herald this morning that "if the Sanford celery crop is handled again during the coming season as it was last spring, with the co-operation of the banks and the marketing organizations of this city, I have no reason why it will not be a huge success."

"Last season," said Mr. Walsh, "the Sanford section was practically the only one in the entire country that made a success of its vegetable crop and that was possible only through the efforts of the banks and marketing institutions which did a great deal to stabilize the market. In February it seemed that the growers in this section were whipped. When the season was over, practically every one of them had been successful."

High Grades Desired. Mr. Walsh stressed the fact that the northern markets desire the highest grades of celery obtainable. In nearly every instance, he said, where good celery is shipped, it is sold at a profit to the grower, the commission merchant or middle man and the retail merchant.

In some cases growers have misrepresented their crops, Mr. Walsh stated. They ship crates in which there are supposed to be 18 stalks. The merchant that buys the crate expects to find exactly 48 stalks and if the count is short, there is going to be a kick. He further pointed out that in several of the northern states there are laws against such misrepresentation and that it will pay the Sanford growers to be careful in the count of their stalks.

Some of the largest buyers of celery have declared, Mr. Walsh stated, that they are pleased with the Sanford shipments of last year. With the northern merchants satisfied, he further said, there should be more reason than ever for the Sanford celery, finding a stable market throughout the coming season.

The New York and Michigan crops, it was learned, are much better than usual this year but the prices for the vegetable are not as good as the growers there had hoped for. The coming presidential election, said Mr. Walsh, is probably doing more to hurt the market than anything else.

The New York celery, he believes, will be the largest competitor of the local crop this season. It is almost certain that a large quantity of New York celery will be stored to be thrown on the market during the holidays. That means, he said, that the Florida celery, which at that time will be of an inferior quality, will hardly find a place in the market.

The celery crop of northern California, stated Mr. Walsh, will probably not be as great a competitor of the Florida crop as will the New York celery. The California crop is much smaller than usual. The Michigan crop about the same as last year, and the New York crop is about 800 acres larger than in 1923, it was learned.

In conclusion Mr. Walsh declared that if the Sanford growers will again enter heartily into the plan adopted here last season for the marketing of their celery, they will in all probability have another successful year while if they abandon the plan of cooperation, the market will become flooded and unstable prices will result.

GRAIN DEALERS HEAR QUINN TALK ON MINORITIES

Says Strongly Organized Minorities Are Exercising Virtual Blackmail; No Fewer Than 500 of These Bodies

CINCINNATI, Sept. 22.—Strongly organized minorities are "practicing virtual blackmail on members of congress," Secretary Charles Quinn of the Grain Dealers National Association, declared in his annual report to the convention today. "It is said on good authority there are no fewer than 500 of these organized minorities," the speaker said, "with offices and lobbyists in Washington. This situation must be remedied if we are not to go the way of other countries that have changed parliamentary government to dictatorships."

Proponents of the McNary-Haugen bill were classed by the speaker as one of these minorities. "The weapon they used to compel congressmen to support the measure was the threat of defeat at the polls next election. It was blackmail. There was no attempt to convince the lawmakers the proposed act was sound. Instead, the proponents frankly admitted the bill's economic weaknesses."

"The farm bloc," Mr. Quinn asserted, "raised the cry of orderly marketing, which appealed to the masses unfamiliar with the slow and natural evolution of grain distributing in this country. With this demand for so-called orderly marketing through co-operation, there grew like mushrooms various schemes to pool grain and hold it for higher prices."

"And then there were added to the farm bloc minority in congress representatives from some of the wheat pools. They had been holding grain at a loss to their members, and to recoup these losses they promoted the economically unsound export corporation bill. For a time it appeared that they would force congress to embark on this socialistic scheme. It was a most striking example of the work of organized minorities."

Such methods, the speaker added, were contrary to sound principles of government. They are, as he said, a demand for investigations which merely create press sensations and cause the public to suspect various industries. "There were 64 live chickens going on in the United States senate in 1922," Mr. Quinn declared, "but not more than six resulted in reports that reached the public. Great mischief was done to business, nevertheless. Suspicion was created and the seeds of envy, malice and distrust were sown. These are the things that are undermining democracy. The work of energetic minorities is gradually substituting the American form of government into a government of classes."

Matthews Winner Florida Seminary Scholarship 1924

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 23.—The East Florida Seminary Gater scholarship has been awarded this year to Walter B. Matthews, of Trenton, Alachua county. It is announced by Maj. W. L. Floyd, representing the scholarship committee.

The fund to maintain this scholarship was started three years ago at a reunion of the former students of the old East Florida Seminary, long located in Gainesville, and numbering among its graduates many men and women now prominent as Florida citizens. It was in honor of Col. E. P. Cater who for more than twenty years so successfully superintended the destinies of the institution. Walter Matthews, who is the first to receive this scholarship, is a graduate of the Trenton High school, class of '24, and made a splendid record as a student. The securing of the scholarship makes it possible for him to realize his ambition to attend college; and he has entered as a freshman in the school of pharmacy. His worth as a student will determine whether he will receive the scholarship through his four-year course. Matthews promises beginning one year after graduation to gradually repay the amount given him so that another student may receive the benefit of the fund, and by repetitions of this plan it is proposed to make the fund perpetual.

MRS. SWEETIN IS IMPLICATED WITH MINISTER IN PLOT

Mrs. Sweetin, who has maintained that she knew nothing of the manner in which her husband was poisoned, denied when questioned yesterday by the state's attorney there was anything wrong in relations between her and the minister and that he treated her any differently from any other women of the little congregation. In the meantime a third death entered into the investigation, that of a high school girl of Centerville, Ill., who is said to have died of ptomaine poison three years ago. This was the cause of the death of Mrs. Hight and Sweetin as found originally by the coroner. A picture of this girl was found in the clergyman's home at Centerville, but he insists that he did not recall the girl's name.

Feeling bitter against the minister, it was reported late today, was bitter, this prompted the sheriff to swear in special deputies for the protection of the prisoner. It was reported here this afternoon that threats had been made against him in his own congregation.

In the waning hours of the night, State's Attorney Thompson, who until then calmly questioned the prisoner, began reading passages from the Bible, which the latter frequently had used in the pulpit.

HAYES INSISTS HILL VIOLATED WHISKEY LAWS

In each instance, definite progressive action has been advised and in the first instance it was the view of both departments that the argument process would, in the circumstances be the most fruitful of result. In the last instance, that of the manufacture of cider, skilful chemists were promptly dispatched to test his cider and samples were deposited with the department of justice, and a definite course of action is agreed upon by the two departments, the character of which I am not yet at liberty to speak. That Mr. Hill has violated the statute in both instances, there can be no doubt.

U. S. RESIDENTS OF PALESTINE ARE SERVED BY COURT

Americans Are Accorded Privileges Over and Above Citizens and Subjects of Countries in League of Nations

JERUSALEM, Sept. 23.—Citizens of the United States living in Palestine are accorded privileges over and above those of citizens and subjects of states who are members of the League of Nations. This is true now pending American ratification of the British mandate for Palestine, but will probably come to be the case after the United States government will have signed the convention recognizing the mandate. The convention, it is believed, will secure for Americans the same rights as fall to subjects of states who are League members, but no more. The status of Americans in Palestine will then probably be the same as in Syria, to the French mandate for which the United States was reported recently to have agreed.

For the present Americans here enjoy the rights of capitulations which, before the dismemberment of the Turkish empire, all great powers insisted on maintaining for their citizens. America has not renounced its capitulatory rights in Palestine, and the American consul is the only one holding court and trying cases between American residents. The position of the American consular court in Jerusalem is a little vague, because it runs parallel with the British system of justice now in force. The British government, however, is not known to have raised any objection to the existence of the consular court. The Palestine authorities have even gone out of their way to effect judgments made by the consular court. An American sentenced to prison by the consular court may be locked up in a Palestine jail.

United States Consul Oscar S. Hoyer, having received no instructions to the contrary, continues to sit in judgment over American residents who get into trouble, but he is not sure how long this condition will continue.

WORLD FLIERS BACK AGAIN AT SANTA MONICA

(Continued from Page 1) rushed into his mother's arms. "My boy, my wonderful boy!" she whispered, as she kissed the flight commander repeatedly. Smith's father, reaching the only spot on the aviator's face that was not being smothered with kisses by his wife, reached his arm around both and planted a resounding smack on his boy's right ear. It was more than Lieut. Smith could stand, but he did not give vent to his feelings. The man noted throughout the American air service for his steel nerve, his stoical demeanor in the face of greatest danger, wept.

Mrs. Harding greets her son. Another mother wept too for joy at the home-coming of a globe armer. She was Mrs. Harding, mother of Lieut. Harding, chief pilot and mechanic with Lieut. Johnson.

"God bless you," she said, as she flung her arms around her boy's neck. Despite the triple patrol of "shock troops," marine and cavalry, Col. Frank Lahn, an officer in charge of the ninth corps area, who flew here from San Francisco to greet the aviators, and Major Fitzgerald had a difficult time fighting their way to the flag draped receiving stand. Lieut. Nelson Ogden Harding, Arnold, Wade and Smith, the fliers and their mechanics with their relatives, and members of the reception committee, finally were grouped together for the official welcome.

CORRECTION Through error it was stated in Monday's Herald that the Seminary Baptist Association would meet at the local Baptist Church today and Wednesday. The attention of the public is called to the fact that this meeting will be held at the Oviedo Baptist Church instead.

Another Political Party Will Begin In Orlando Saturday

ORLANDO, Sept. 23.—Another political party will come into being here next Saturday, according to announcements that have been made by committeemen in charge of arrangements for a meeting called for this city Sept. 27. Principles of the proposed organization, which is expected to take permanent form at the gathering, will be similar to those set forth by the Conference for Progressive Political Action, held in Cleveland, O., July 4, this year.

According to A. B. Grout, of Tampa, delegates are to be sent to the meeting from all parts of the state. These will include three delegates each from each local business men's club, union, co-operative society and political club, if independent, and one delegate each from local organized labor central bodies, building trades council, central organization of farm labor unions, and county or congressional district organizations.

Among matters to come up at the meeting will be the naming of candidates for president and vice-president, it is expected. "The time has arrived when the progressive voters of the state of Florida, regardless of past affiliations, whether they be Democratic, Republican, Socialist, Prohibitionist, get together and exert their combined influence for the cause of humanity," said Mr. Grout in speaking of the new party.

He declared the Democratic party of Florida exists only in name, and that it was demonstrated by the Republican and Democratic conventions that vested interests control both of those parties.

GIANTS' HOPES RAISE WITH WIN OVER PIRATES

Hold on Lead is Strengthened; Superb Pitching of "Dazzy" Vance Does Not Stop Onslaught of Cubs and Dodgers; Red Sox Drop Behind; Cards Trim Phillies

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Playing like champions in spite of a crippled line-up the New York Giants decisively vanquished Pittsburgh Tuesday, 5 to 1, in the first game of the series. A crowd of 30,000 persons thronged to a world-wide pitch-enthusiasm saw the McGraw men strengthen their hold on the top and deal a stunning blow to Pirates pennant hopes.

The triumph put the Giants two and a half games ahead of Pittsburgh which now cannot go into the lead over its victorious rival in the remaining games of the series to-day and Thursday. As Brooklyn was beaten by Chicago, McGraw increased his margin over the second place Robins a full game.

Behind the brilliant twirling of Hugh McQuillan, the Giants played with the sort of dash and spirit that has carried them to three pennants in a row and has brought their present lead to three and a half games.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 24.—"Dazzy" Vance fanned 11 men and held Chicago to four hits Tuesday, but three of them were home runs and those spelled defeat for Brooklyn by a score of 5 to 4 in ten innings.

Grantham got two of the circuit's best in the second inning. Grant came up after Vance had walked Adams and Heath and reaped his long drive. With the score tied, Hardesty opened the tenth with a liner that bounded into the left bleachers, scoring the winning run.

The Dodgers bunched two doubles and two singles off Keen in the first inning for three runs but thereafter they were kept away from the plate by brilliant fielding in the eighth when the score was tied. Four all-Johnston's, Griffith's sacrifice and Stock's hit. What made three double counts in the eighth in the scoring, catches of liners by Grantham and Adams saving Keen in critical time.

It was Chicago's first victory of the season over Vance and his 11th defeat. The Yankees were made off Vance in nine innings, Chicago 03 000 000 1-5 4-0 Brooklyn 300 000 01-1-10 2-0 Keen and Hardesty, Vance, Reuther and DeBerry, Taylor.

SENATORS WIN HECTIC BATTLE FROM CHICAGO

White Sox Start Off in Lead But Griffen Rally in Third and Fourth For 7 Counters; Yankees Troupe Indiana; Tigers Beat Boston for Fifth Straight Win

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Washington leads off the Yankees Tuesday, 7 to 6, while their pennant rival, the Chicago White Sox, retained their lead by two games. The game was hard fought; the league leaders fought every inch of the way. After Chicago had taken the lead, Charley Robertson suddenly weakened and Washington took the lead in the third by hitting with errors by Davis and Faulk. They continued to go ahead, though Ted Blankenship took up the burden and Washington was able to retain only one hit of him.

The cold weather began to tell on McGraw and he was replaced by Marberry. The big right hander was unsteady when he took up the pitching burden for the Senators in the seventh, and the White Sox scored two runs and threatened to go ahead. Marberry out-pitched the local cat men with sensational fielding pulled Marberry out of the holes.

The setting of orris was one of the outstanding features in the Senators' attack.

Score by innings: Washington 001 300 000-7 10 Chicago 000 000 000-6 13-2 McGraw, Marberry and Robertson, Blankenship and Krause.

New York 8; Cleveland 2
CLEVELAND, Sept. 24.—Cleveland could not hit Shawkey when hits were needed and New York won, 8 to 2.

Georgia Tech, famed for its lightning jump-shifts, will play its third game with Notre Dame on Oct. 1 in the annual game at the University of Illinois. Notre Dame defeated the Georgia Tech last year, they could not keep their lead in the game last year.

On Nov. 8, the Florida "Gators" will take another long journey, going to West Point for a try at the Army. With Florida's great team of last year, which outplayed the soldiers for a large part of the season, it is a battle royal.

The battle of the giants will be on Nov. 22, when Vanderbilt, last year's Southern champion, and the Golden Bears, rated as one of the strongest teams in the Midwest, will meet in the "Big Game" at the University of Michigan, a team which has won the championship twice and was tied for last season. The only score in the other game being a lone field goal which the Wolverines registered last year. The Vanderbilt-Michigan game, coming near the end of the season, will have even results in the history of the sport.

The Florida "Aligators" who meet Yale at New Haven, the best of the inter-sectional games, will have the Southeastern University and Mississippi A. M. taking on Washington University of St. Louis.
