Booster Club Slates Dance, 'Ball For All'

A different kind of dance which will include parents and other adults as well as students will be held in the Seminole High School Cafeteria April 25th, under the sponsorship of the Seminole Boosters Club. The dance which has been entitled, "A Ball for All" is under the direction of Cdr. R. G. Gleason, chairman of the fund raising committee. The purpose of the big dance is to provide fun for everyone as well as financial support for the activities conducted by the Boosters in support of the athletic program at SHS. All kinds of dance contests are slated, with door prizes and entertainment also scheduled. Dancers will have an opportunity to vie for prizes as the best in the following contests: Waltz, Charleston, Jitterbug, Foxtrot, Big Apple, Hully-Gully, Twist and Rock and Roll. Students may pay at the door and adults are urged to write for tickets to Cdr. R. G. Gleason at 115 Coleman Circle, prior to April 18th.

'Paper Pledge' Not Enough, Russia Told

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States warned today it will not submit its own security and that of the free world to a "paper pledge" that Russia will never again test nuclear weapons.

The "motivation for developing new weapons which the U.S.S.R. to break its self-imposed pledge not to be the first state to resume nuclear tests would well lead it to attempt the clandestine violation of a nuclear test ban treaty," chief U. S. delegate Arthur H. Dean warned.

Dean told the 17-nation disarmament conference the U. S. and British governments have made one concession after another in an attempt to meet Soviet fears that an inspected nuclear test ban treaty would be used as cover for espionage.

"There has not been the slightest demonstration of Soviet good will or flexibility," Dean went on. "On the contrary, the Soviet Union has made evident, by its conduct last fall, just how much it values the conduct of tests for the development of new weapons."

He read into the record Monday's joint appeal to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev by President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to reconsider and accept the principle of international verification of a test ban treaty.

"There is no further appeal which I can make here to my Soviet colleagues," Dean said, "beyond my oft-repeated plea for them to show some reasonableness, flexibility and political sense."

Say It With Flowers Federation Seeks Recognition

With an eye toward recognition from the State Federation of Garden Clubs, the Sanford Federation, under the direction of Civic Beautification Committee Chairman, Mrs. A. K. Shoemaker Jr., set about this week to enhance and landscape the controversial triangle at 10th St. and Park Ave.

In a letter to City Manager W. E. Knowles, a detailed landscaping plan was sketched out for the planting and received approval. City crews worked Friday and Monday preparing the designed planting beds and bringing in topsoil.

Tuesday, four members of the Sanford Federation, Mrs. Eric Vilhen, president; Mrs. D. K. Dorman, president-elect; Mrs. A. W. Epps Jr. and Mrs. Shoemaker set to work to carry out their landscaping plan, with the assistance of city crews.

The main landscaping plan includes three beds, north, south and center. The north bed contains juniper pfitz, juniper holly, day lilies and abelia grandiflora.

The south bed has juniper pfitz, day lilies and several annuals. The center bed contains a European fan palm, raphidophora indica, pyracantha, Sagu palms, Spanish bayonet, Yucca gloriosa, shore juniper, juniper pfitz, century plant, succulents, and callistemon rigidus.

Brown river gravel has been spread over the beds of the low-growing, low-maintenance plants, which have been carefully chosen to grow and bloom with the least amount of care and watering.

6-Laning Of 46 Half Completed
Conversion of approximately four miles of State Road 46 from a two-lane to a six-lane facility near Sanford is 50 per cent complete, the State Road Department announced today.

A. Max Brewer of Tusculum, Road Board member for District Five, said the $294,000 project extends from Interstate Route 4 eastward 3.8 miles to intersect with U. S. Highway 17-92 (French Avenue) in Sanford.

Work on the project includes clearing, grading and paving plus constructing drainage structures curbs and gutters.

San Marco contracting Company of St. Augustine started work on the project last July.

When completed, the improved facility will provide a multi-lane access route between the rapidly-developing Interstate super-highway and U. S. 17-92.

100 Million Box Citrus Crop Forecast

LAKELAND (UPI) — For the second time in history Florida citrus growers were faced today with a federal forecast of more than 100 million boxes of oranges.

The U. S. Agriculture Department increased its estimate of the Florida orange crop Tuesday from 100 million to 101 million boxes. It was the largest estimate in history except for the 102-million box estimate at the outset of the 1957-58 crop.

The 102-million box estimate, however, never materialized because the freezing winter of 1957-58 cut the actual pickoff to 82.5 million boxes.

The 101-million box crop would be eight million boxes more than the record Florida orange harvest of 1956-57.

NAS Man Hurt Badly In Crash
A Sanford Navy man was seriously injured at 3:15 this morning when his 1958 model car rammed into the rear of a 1950 model on Hwy. 17-92 at Casselberry, State Trooper J. L. Sikes reported today.

He is Frank S. Meider, VAH-1. The driver of the other car was Raymond Zahn, an Air Force man, 7117 Autumn Vale Dr., Orlando.

Meider is in Orange Memorial Hospital in Orlando with severe facial injuries including a broken upper jaw. Zahn was not hurt.

Both cars were total losses, Sikes said.

Steel Price Raise Probed
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A surprising 54 per cent increase in steel prices triggered two antitrust investigations today and was expected to draw a strong attack from President Kennedy.

Pattern-setting U. S. Steel Corp. announced the increase in Pittsburgh Wednesday night just five days after signing a new labor contract that calls for a one-year wage freeze and additional fringe benefits.

Justice Department and Senate investigators were ordered to begin investigating possible price fixing if similar increases are put into effect by other "big steel" firms.

Kennedy, who has hailed the wage agreement as non-inflationary, was ready to assault U. S. Steel's latest move in "strong terms," an administration source said.

The President was scheduled to hold a nationally televised news conference this afternoon and was certain to be questioned about the price boost.

Board OKs Retirement Plan Also

The Seminole Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees Tuesday voted a "compromise" six percent across the board pay raise for all nurses in an effort to halt competitive bidding from surrounding hospitals.

The raise will go into effect May 1 and also includes a retirement participation program with the hospital paying two percent and the personnel the same amount.

At first, Hospital Administrator Bob Besserer proposed an eight percent across the board pay raise bringing the basic pay of hospital nurses from $275 to $300.

However, the majority of the board was "cool" to the idea calling it too "big a raise at this time and the start of a vicious circle."

Besserer cited figures that neighboring hospitals in Orange and Volusia counties were paying better salaries to their nurses, emphasizing that Seminole was in danger of losing its top quality staff because of competitive bidding between hospitals.

The administrator declared that New Smyrna has a new wing at its hospital but can't open it because of the lack of nursing personnel.

"We don't want to be faced with this when we open our new wing," Besserer declared.

The six percent pay hike will mean an approximate addition of $15 per month bringing the salaries of general duty nurses to around $290.

Raises are also included for head nurses, supervisors, operating room technicians and supervisors. It does not include any raises for aides and clerks.

However, the retirement plan includes all help at the hospital.

The pay raise will add more than $12,000 to the budget while the retirement program will add another $15,000.

In citing the need for better salaries, Besserer declared that the hospital had already lost some six nurses recently to other hospitals and "it is extremely difficult to fill their vacancies unless we increase salaries."

"We have to have some nurses when we open that new wing," Besserer repeated over and over again. He added that the hospital is now short staffed as far as nurses were concerned and that some of the help had volunteered to work a six-day week now.

Demo Squabble Laid To Gains By Florida GOP
ORLANDO (UPI)—Increasing strength of the Florida GOP is the reason behind a squabble between Gov. Farris Bryant and State Democratic Chairman James M. Milligan of Orlando, two local Republican leaders charged Tuesday.

Milligan Monday night denounced a proposal by Bryant that the party hire a full-time, paid executive director, which apparently would seriously encroach on Milligan's duties, Milligan said that he had forged the party into an effective organization for the first time in Florida.

City Worker's Firing Reduced To Suspension

The Civil Service Board in a four and a half hour hearing at City Hall Tuesday night, mitigated the sentence of "dismissal" of city employee Emory Lee to a "30 day suspension without pay."

The board specified that at the end of that time Lee was to be reinstated with full pay and seniority.

This verdict was immediately challenged by City Manager W. E. Knowles who stated that Lee had already received workman's compensation pay for three years.

"You're just re-instating him with a month's paid vacation," Knowles said.

The board stated that it was unaware of this fact, and after a good deal of controversy over legal and technical points, it was agreed by Lee to waive the workman's compensation pay. Lee was slated to appear in the City Manager's office today to sign the waiver.

Lee, an employee of the city for 11 years, had compiled a heavy record of neglect of duty and incompetence according to testimony by Public Works Superintendent Sid Richard, Supervisor Robert Kelly and City Manager W. E. Knowles, who all took the stand in defense of the city's firing of Lee.

Attorney Mack Cleveland presided as chairman of the Civil Service Board, which consisted of Dr. Vincent Roberts, Denver Cordell, Al Lee, Henry Moore and Major William Bristol.

Knowles, Kelly and Richard testified that Lee had been repeatedly reprimanded for negligence, traffic violations and failing to obey orders, and Mrs. Betty Noyes public works secretary, was called to the stand to testify that so many complaints came from the section of the city where Lee was assigned to pick up trash and garbage that a file was kept on complaints with the results that Lee's route received more complaints than the other three routes put together.

The specific incident which precipitated the firing was an accident on 10th St. near the telephone office, when Lee struck a parked car as he came out of an alley, which the Public Works office contended was not on his prescribed route. He also was accused of driving into the telephone equipment yard, instead of opening a gate with a key and picking up the garbage from the alley. Also that he failed to report the accident to the Public Works

Office and to the Supervisor.

Lee's defense was that he was never specifically ordered to follow any prescribed route, and assumed that he could drive any direction at his own discretion and that a telephone employee told him it was all right to drive into the yard.

Lee also declared that he had never been informed that he was to report accidents to three different persons, and assumed that the shop foreman would report it.

In answer to charges of neglect of duty, and the numerous complaints of missed pick-ups, Lee blamed his crew, whom he said was made up of elderly Negroes, both of whom were disabled and in poor health. He insisted that complaints were called in by people who put their cans out after he had gone by or placed them where they were obscured by weeds and bushes.

The Civil Service Board based its verdict on the following statement as summarized in a motion by Dr. Vincent Roberts, and seconded by Henry Moore.

"In view of the evidence, we do not feel that Lee is free of guilt and he has admitted being in the wrong. However other factors are involved in his adequately understanding his duties thoroughly. Therefore we move that the sentence be mitigated from dismissal to suspension without pay for 30 days from the date of discharge March 29 to April 30, 1962."

McClellan Threatens Summer Long Probe Into Profits By Contractors

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. John L. McClellan said today he would keep his investigations subcommittee in session all summer if necessary to determine why a defense contractor claimed profits of $1,325,000 on work to which he contributed $3,300.

For the fourth day, the Arkansas Democrat recalled executives of the Douglas Aircraft Co. to testify about alleged profit pyramiding on components for the Nike anti-aircraft missile, which Douglas had subcontracted to other firms.

Douglas and his aides will be asked about a report by the Air Force auditor general which was put into the hearing record at a stormy session Tuesday.

The audit said Douglas was unreasonable in asking for a 9 per cent profit—$1,325,000—on 1,032 launcher-loaders manufactured by a Douglas subcontractor, Consolidated Western Steel Co.

Douglas' own contribution to the components cost $3,300, the auditors said. And on these "in house" costs, they said, Douglas wanted to bill the government another 10 per cent profit.

Thomas E. Nunnally, one of McClellan's investigators, said Douglas' claimed profits were "redetermined" downward from $1,325,000 to $1,211,771.

The aircraft company president insisted throughout the hearing that the alleged profits really were "fees" against which many costs of doing business had to be applied.

He convinced Sen. Carl T. Curtis, (R-Neb.), but not McClellan. "I'm going to get this thing in perspective," McClellan said. "We are going to do it if it takes all summer."

McClellan introduced the Pentagon audit report after Douglas sought to explain that the subcommittee was confounding profits with fees paid for managing a part of the missile program.

His company's 17-year-total of fees came to $63.9 million, Douglas said, but his profits were only $29.8 million. He said Pentagon procurement practices did not allow him to claim as production expenses the cost of borrowing money, amortization of emergency facilities, advertising and miscellaneous expenses.

"We agree that we earned less on work we subcontracted to Consolidated Western Steel and to Fruehauf Trailer Co.—and we say that we earned it," Douglas testified.

"We say that you cannot meaningfully adduce what fees we were paid on those subcontracts; and we argue that our total fee on the entire Nike job is what counts—and that that was reasonable."

Officials watched closely to see how the walkout would affect the city's public schools.

The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) ordered picket lines to be set up early today at the city's 810 elementary, junior and senior high schools. But the big question to be decided is how effectively would the strike snarl classroom activity of one million students.

The UFT, which claims a membership of 15,000 is the elected bargaining agent for the city's 40,000 public school teachers. The union voted in favor of the strike, which had been threatened for the past two weeks at a mass meeting Tuesday night.

Teachers Union Calls For Strike In New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—Thousands of disgruntled teachers in the nation's largest school system go on strike today for higher salaries.

Officials watched closely to see how the walkout would affect the city's public schools. The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) ordered picket lines to be set up early today at the city's 810 elementary, junior and senior high schools. But the big question to be decided is how effectively would the strike snarl classroom activity of one million students.

USDA To Add 13 Monitoring Sets

Ben Wiggins and John Winter of the Seminole Soil Conservation District recently attended a radiological training course for monitoring radiation and radio-active fallout at the University of Florida in Gainesville.

This course, under the supervision of USDA Soil Conservation Service will result in the immediate establishment of 13 monitoring stations in northeast and central Florida for agriculture.

"It is not intended that this announcement should alarm anyone," said Jim Hammett, State Conservationist for the Service in Florida. "The training course just completed for 22 of our employees assigned to Soil Conservation Districts from Jacksonville to Orlando is simply a part of the orderly development of USDA's national preparedness program. The program is designed for radiological defense as it affects livestock, crops, meat and poultry, agricultural waters and agriculture generally."

Instructors for the course were C. C. Lewis, State Soil Scientist and E. D. Holcombe, Woodland Conservationist. Both men are graduates of the CIJ National School for Instructors for Radiological Monitoring. "The establishment of the 13 new stations will make a total of 33 agricultural monitoring stations now operational in Florida," Lewis said. "These stations will give assistance to local, state and national civil defense authorities."

The regular meeting of the County School Board has been moved to Tuesday, April 17, instead of Thursday, it was announced today.

This change in schedule is due to the absence of Superintendent R. T. Milwee, who is in Washington, D. C. studying the program for promoting an educational television station in central Florida.

Business Briefs

The South is justly famous for its magnificent annual display of azaleas, camellias, rhododendrons and gardenias. They just naturally love the southern U. S., but even in this favored area these plants need special care.

Most important, as the blooming period ends and the growing period sets in, is the feeding program. A carefully composed plant food that meets the special desires of these plants for a soil on the acid side is essential.

The most difficult problem to solve is a balanced plant food that releases the minor elements—especially iron—so the plants are able to absorb them. Otherwise you get a yellowing of the foliage, a progressive decline in health, and eventual death if corrective steps are not taken.

Ortho Liquid Azalea and Camellia Food is specifically designed for acid-loving plants, including rhododendrons and gardenias. It has a chelating agent, which has a triggering effect, that makes the iron and certain other minerals in the soil readily available and "greens" the plants up nicely.

If love is blind, you name a better eye-opener than marriage.

Yates Suffers Chicago Setback

CHICAGO (UPI)—Returns from Illinois' first-of-the-year primary gave Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen an unexpected bonus and his Democratic opponent, Rep. Sidney R. Yates, a surprise setback today.

Dirksen, a wise and wily veteran of Illinois political wars, and Yates, the hand-picked protégé of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, both coasted to senatorial nominations as expected in Tuesday's first major primary of 1962.

But a man who campaigns in an Uncle Sam suit whose middle name is legally "America First" dimmed Yates' showing.

Lar (America First) Daly, a Chicago jobber who habitually runs and loses in Illinois elections, took more than 20 per cent of the Democratic primary vote away from Yates. Most of his unlooked-for total was collected in Chicago, where Yates has been a congressman for seven years and where the power of Mayor Daley is supposed to be unquestioned.

Reports from 8,163 of Illinois' 10,346 precincts, including 4,343 in Cook County Chicago, gave Yates 481,907 votes to 128,318 for Daley. With virtually all of the Chicago votes, in Yates' and Daley's Cook County totals were 308,095 to 128,520. Dirksen in 8,412 precincts amassed 462,340 votes to 80,338 for Chicago attorney Harlan D. Jones, a political unknown. The organized orator from Pekin, Ill., had 104,649 votes to 30,759 for Jones in 4,261 Cook County precincts.

As if Daley hadn't done enough to Daley, the mayor suffered a personal and bitter setback on his home grounds.

The mayor, regarded in Illinois as unquestioned kingpin of the Democrats, had staked his heart and prestige on passage of a $60-million urban renewal bond issue. With Daley at the throttle, the bonds were expected to be powered through by a 3-1 margin.

But returns showed today that each of the proposed bond issues was being defeated. An apparent taxpayers' revolt brought out the heaviest Chicago vote turnout for an off-year primary in 20 years. Thousands of Chicagoans—some estimates ran as high as 150,000—passed up the party ballots but took their picks on the bond issue.

Out Of Style

LONDON (UPI)—Guess what's going out in style. Sleep.

Dr. Mangalore Pal said today after 37 years of research, that modern man is slowly breaking the habit of sleep imposed on him by his ancient ancestors.

"By the year 2,000 most of us may only need about three hours," said Dr. Pal, who is consulting psychiatrist at Belmont Hospital Neurosis Center.

"As it is we have been cutting down the length of time spent in bed even within this century. Eight hours a night is just an old wives tale. There are many people around the world who may do with three or four or five hours without any ill effects."

Back in the days of the saber tooth tigers, primitive man slept through the hours of darkness. He had to—it wasn't safe to leave the cave.

Then came the discovery of fire," said Dr. Pal, "and prehistoric man found he could do some work in the cave at night. Right then we began to cut down on our hours of sleep. The candle, the oil lamp and the electric light accelerated the process. Then came radio and the movie and television."

"There is now so much to do at night that we are not as anxious as we used to be to go to sleep. In fact our brains are more active, our bodies better fed and as we keep pace with modern times we need and want less and less sleep."

Dr. Pal did some of his research in air raid shelters during the war and he found that people who had only four or five hours sleep a night for weeks on end during the German bombings of London were no worse for it.

"Most wartime leaders like Sir Winston Churchill also slept only a few hours a night," he said. "Dr. Pal says that people who 'can't get up in the morning' ought to try an after-lunch siesta of half or three-quarters of an hour, such as Churchill takes. "This sleeping by installments prevents the accumulation of fatigue," he said. Dr. Pal believes anyone can throw away his sleeping pills and doze off within 15 minutes if he will learn this one word lesson: Relax.

Price Hike For 1963 Cars?

DETROIT (UPI) — The auto industry, handed a $90 million bill for higher steel prices, is expected to pass it on to the American consumer next fall by raising the price of 1963 model cars, by perhaps $50.

Demos Laugh Off Talkathon Republicans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House Republicans said today that there was so much wrong with the Kennedy administration it might take them all night to detail its errors.

Administration leaders recommended giving the Republicans all the rope they could use.

Quarterbacks of the Republican effort, Reps. Craig Hosmer and James B. Utt, both from California, said they expected few Democrats and certainly not all House Republicans to sit through the whole show.

But Young Republican Clubs promised to try to keep the public galleries full.

An advance look at the remarks to be made by some of the 50 or more speakers showed the GOP faulting the New Frontier for everything from "gagging" the military to "propagandizing" the public.

Other congressional news: White: The Senate Judiciary Committee summoned Deputy Atty. Gen. Byron R. White to testify on his nomination to the Supreme Court. The committee, with little or no opposition, was expected to recommend Senate confirmation of the former Rhodes scholar and football star to replace retired Associate Justice Charles Whittaker.

Marine: The House Merchant Marine Committee called Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges, Maritime Administrator Donald W. Alexander and other federal officials to "give an accounting" of their stewardship of merchant shipping.

The Hamiltons and their children, three-year-old Star, four-year-old Bobby and six-year-old Dawn, recently moved to Casselberry making their home at 100 N. Dixie Hwy., plan to open a business in the town.

Titans Acquire 2

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Titans of the American Football League have acquired end Paul Miller and fullback Jack Johnson from the Dallas Texans in exchange for the rights to Curt Merz, a former University of Iowa end.

The list price of 1962 model cars, however, is not expected to be affected by the $6 per ton steel increase announced Tuesday night by U. S. Steel Corp.

That was the unofficial consensus in the industry. Officially, the five big carmakers began studying the unexpected steel price hike.

One industry executive commented privately that, "We're very unhappy. The steel price increase is unwarranted."

Industry sources said no boost in car prices is likely during the 1962 model run because the industry historically announces a basic price each year and sticks to it until new models come out.

In addition, carmakers already have an average one-month stockpile of steel—an inventory built up as insurance against a possible steel strike. This steel was purchased at the old price.

The industry has not had a general across-the-board increase since 1958—the time of the last major steel hike. Then prices went up about 2 per cent, or $50 on a $2,500 car, an average that may be matched this year.

The industry uses upwards of 15 million tons of steel a year for cars, trucks, other transportation vehicles, and spare parts. Between one and two tons of steel are used in cars.

Thus, the steel hike would mean a 16-12 basic increase in car costs. But the total bill would be $90 million. Besides, steel is usually a bellwether for other industries providing auto materials. So the car unit cost could be higher than $12.

The auto industry, which increased prices steadily from 1956 through 1959 models, actually reported a slight decline last year, even though it signed a new wage contract for 65,000 workers.

Increased labor costs, cited as one reason for the steel increase, could also be a factor in car-pricing policies for 1963 models.

Summing it up, one industry expert said, "There probably won't be any increase now but I don't see how we can avoid it next year."

M. C. E. Benton Sr., 78, died at the Seminole Memorial Hospital at 9:10 a.m. Tuesday. He was born Oct. 6, 1883 at Louisville, Ala. He made his home at 511 Celery Ave. and had lived in Sanford for 41 years. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World, Camp No. 65 of Sanford and Knights of Pythias. He was a retired stock dealer.

Survivors are five sons, Herbert, J. L., Morris, Kenneth, and Edgar; five grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday at Brison Funeral Home with Dr. W. P. Brooks Jr., officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

Hard To Upset

The widely held idea that nearly all state legislatures apportion their seats on a basis of population rather than area representation just does not hold up.

This notion is being drummed on continuously in the excited stir of response to the Supreme Court's reapportionment decision.

Yet review of the constitutional setup in the 50 states shows:

In only 13 of the 50 are state senators chosen on a strictly population footing. Many states elect their senators on a fixed area basis. Many others employ varying mixtures of area and population representation.

Still more of a surprise is the fact that in just 11 states is sent apportionment in the lower house on a purely population basis. In all the others, some kind of limitation exists which produces an area-population mixture.

These facts make curious reading in the light of comment by some politicians, supposedly a minority in number, that resistance to sweeping new apportionment on a population basis possibly would take the form of a "constitutional amendment plan."

Since such a system, in varying degrees, already exists in almost four-fifths of the states, it could be added in relatively few, though perhaps strengthened in many.

Certainly there is little disposition in the states to alter legislatures markedly toward a broader population representation, even where changes do take place in accord with the law.

This is particularly true at the state Senate level. As of last October, 21 of 50 states had taken some reapportionment steps in accord with 1960 census figures, but in only five of the 21 did the action change the setup in both Senate and House.

In a University of Virginia study of the problem, scholars Paul T. David and Ralph Elsenberg say the evidence now in hand suggests little improvement as a result of this flurry of post-1960 activity. Relatively few seats have been shifted.

Action which accomplishes little is one kind of roadblock. Yet on this issue a bigger roadblock—heavy use of area rather than population representation—already seems to be in place. Moreover, it is deeply embedded in state constitutions in many states.

Those who oppose a differently balanced representation appear, however, to be without new moves for area plans.

Those who want change on the big scale appear to have a job of state constitutional reform on their hands.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Betty Furness invited me to take part in one of her 90-minute TV shows in New York and asked me to answer questions from viewers as to how the I.B.M. machine matches unmarried people. Notice the problems we have at the Home Office of the Interfaith Educational Foundation.

CASE 1-488: Tamara B., aged 22, is an attractive school teacher. When I was on the Betty Furness TV panel recently, a group of girls seated behind the panel constantly received incoming phone calls.

Since I was invited to talk about the use of the I.B.M. electronic machine at the Scientific Foundation, a flood of calls came in from viewers, for the show ran an hour and a half.

"Dr. Crane," Tamara telephoned, "you say you have far more men up to the age of 25 than women."

"If that is the case, wouldn't the I.B.M. machine be able to match every young woman with a suitable man?"

No, for our I.B.M. machine pays no attention to the vast number of registrants but looks solely for those who match each other on 10 basic points.

For example, just suppose we have 1,000 unmarried men and 1,000 unmarried women, all aged 25.

On first glance, it would seem that we could produce 1,000 matches.

But think again. Because of the heavy cigaret advertising nowadays, many young women are stumped into thinking they will be more desirable if they smoke.

Yet just of our men definitely veto our introducing them to a woman who smokes.

Suppose, therefore, that 500 of the 1,000 girls use cigarets, and just imagine that all 1,000 of the men forbid our matching them with a tobacco user.

That one factor would thus eliminate 500 girls from the list.

Blast May Delay Cape Testings

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—The explosion of an Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile on its launching pad Monday may result in a serious delay in the military rocket's testing program here.

The reason: The Air Force is getting strapped for firing pads.

The giant Atlas, an advanced F model, was destroyed almost instantly in the boilercase touched off by an explosion in its engines just as the countdown reached zero.

The blast, which sent a mushroom-shaped ball of smoke and flame soaring hundreds of feet, also caused heavy damage to launching pad No. 11. An exact estimate was not available immediately, but sources said the destruction was "extensive."

The rocket was an updated model of an Atlas that launched a new satellite—either a Sidas or a Samos "spy-in-the-sky"—into orbit from California earlier Monday.

To The Editor

Dear Sir:

"Around the Clock" on April 5, cited some figures on Sanford taxes that are understandable only possibly to the writer of the article.

Figures, both anatomical and numerical are known to have been manipulated. So for the "Statistical Mangled," having obtained from County records the assessed taxable valuation of Sanford for County taxes, I have computed the amounts for each of the County funds levied by the Board of County Commissioners. Also the amounts levied by the School Board.

The 1959 taxable valuation for Sanford of $28,583,495 at a 6.0 mill levy produced $178,500.96 in tax revenue of which the General Fund at 1.88 mills was $35,240.79; Fines and Forfeiture Fund at 0.70 mill was $20,568.44; Interest and Sinking Fund at 0.65 mill was $19,099.27; Hospital Fund at 0.65 mill was $19,099.27; Board of Health Fund at 0.12 mill was $3,526.01, and the Road and Bridge Fund at 2.0 mills was $58,767.00 of which $28,343.50 was by law returned in Sanford for maintenance of streets. This being the only amount returnable.

For the same year, the School Board levy of 5.0 mills produced $146,917.47. A grand total of $322,218.43 county tax at 11.0 mills.

The taxable valuation of Sanford by County was approximately 10 percent of entire county valuation.

The 1960 taxable valuation for Sanford of $34,499,240 at a 6.0 mill levy produced $206,995.76 of which the General Fund at 2.47 mills was $85,213.23; Fines and Forfeiture Fund at 0.60 mill was $20,568.44; Interest and Sinking Fund at 0.37 mill was $12,784.74; Hospital Fund at 0.37 mill was $19,684.60; Board of Health Fund at 0.12 mill was $4,139.91 and the Road and Bridge Fund at 1.87 mill was $64,513.68 of which $32,256.64 was returned to Sanford.

This tax was paid by citizens of Seminole County and tourists from 48 states and Canada.

Yours very truly,
Veron W. Dunn
P.S. Pardon me for mentioning it but—$8,306,379 percent of the $1,000,000 Road Bond Issue went to West 1st St. and Sanford Ave. The remainder supplemented by $123,378.89 from Secondary Road funds was for the two other projects—S.R. 427 from Orange County Line to S.R. 438 in Allamore Springs and Econlockhatchee R 1 v e r Bridge.

P.P.S. I am not a candidate for re-election or election to any office.

As for the 3th, 6th and 7th cent gas and fuel tax for Seminole County administered by the State Board of Administration, a report dated Feb. 21, 1962 by a committee composed of Hon. Gordon V. Frederick, Hon. Mack N. Cleveland, Jr. and County Engineer W. C. Bliss, Jr., shows totals available of the 3th, 6th cent for fiscal year 1959-60 of $364,000 and 1960-61 of $367,000 including interest. While the 7th cent totals were $189,200 and $179,700 respectively for the same years.

It's 'Skid Lid,' Old Boy, Y'Know

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—That peculiar language known as "Canavalese" is getting a distinct British flavor during current preparations to launch the world's first international satellite.

American scientists wear "hard hats" around the launching pads. Not so the British: they call them "kid lids"—derived, apparently, from an English law requiring motorcycle riders to wear similar headgear for safety purposes.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Kennedy administration hopes that the present Congress can enact this year any appreciable parts of the omnibus transportation message and legislation which the President has just sent to the Capitol. Now seem, all too optimistic.

Thirty-two major programs are recommended. Each is a highly complex subject on which rail, air, highway and water carriers will have different views. Congressional Commerce Committees will want to hold extensive hearings. Lobbying by carrier and transportation users will be intense and affected labor unions also will have their say.

On top of this the President is setting up six new cabinet-level or interagency committees to make studies on various phases of a new unified American transportation policy. It will take some months for them to make their reports. The President will then have to make new recommendations to Congress.

One request is for a new census of transportation. That can't be made overnight, but it is a necessary basis on which the new policies must be made. In another case Civil Aeronautics Board is given until June 30, 1963, to prepare a schedule for elimination of subsidies to domestic airlines.

The more realistic appraisal being made in Washington is that while some of the simpler parts of the new Kennedy transportation policy may be approved before Congress goes home to campaign for the November elections, the bulk of the longer-range programs will have to be held over till next year. This is the way the 1961 tax program is being handled—in 1962.

The disadvantage of this delay is that it will be a new Congress convening next January and every reform program not enacted this year will have to be presented as new business in 1963. So, if a substantial part of the Kennedy program is made effective before 1963, it will be fast work.

After all, the chaotic patchwork of inconsistent and often obsolete legislation and regulation" which the President wants to change has been 30 years in the making and can't be unmade overnight or even in a few months.

There is no denying however, that President Kennedy's approach to the transportation problem is sweeping and courageous. It is the first time that a president has tried to solve all of America's transportation crises in one message.

The President avoids the easy answer of trying to set up a new cabinet-level department of transportation and dumping all the problems in its lap. The same old regulatory agencies are to be kept in business— Interstate Commerce Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board, Maritime Commission, with Housing and Home Finance Agency involved in urban transportation problems. But they will now be expected to work with greater co-ordination while the Department of Justice protects the public interest.

The basic objective of national transportation policy is stated by the President as "fast, safe and economical services needed in a growing and changing economy." This can be achieved, he says, "by continued reliance on unsubsidized, privately owned facilities operating under the incentive of private profit and the checks of maximum competition." In other words, no government ownership and considerably less regulation.

Owners and managers of the various means of transportation will cheer those words, but the references to transportation labor policies may not be so well received. The President admits that "an overall reduction in manpower requirements in transportation is not inevitable." He declares that "collective bargaining in the transportation industry must promote efficiency." This is offering candy to both sides at once. The effects of automation are recognized and featherbedding must be reduced, but transportation labor is going to be taken care of.

Elsewhere in the message, in dealing with the problems caused by railroad or airline mergers, the President says "affected workers should be given the assistance to make any necessary adjustments caused by the merger." That is interpreted to mean the works— unemployment pay, retraining and dismissal pay or pensions.

Ernest Macklin Dies Here At 80

Mr. Ernest Macklin, 80, died at Seminole Memorial Hospital Monday night following a short illness.

A retired stationary engineer for the Eastman Kodak Co. in the camera works division where he worked for 34 years, he came to Sanford one year ago from Rochester, N. Y. to make his home at 1210 E. Randolph St. He was a native of Bournemouth, England.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Minnie B. Macklin of Sanford; a son, James E. Macklin of Rochester and two brothers, Frank and Albert Macklin, both living in England.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. today at Brinson Funeral Home with Rev. Grover C. Sewell Jr. officiating. Burial will be in the White Haven Memorial Park in Rochester.

Lions Club Takes Stand On Morals

The Sanford Lions Club today has gone on record as being opposed to the display and sale of obscene and salacious reading material and the showing of morally objectionable movies, in action taken at their Tuesday meeting.

The Club took this action after hearing a report from Lions Club President Jim Lee, who attended the Governor's Conference with state law enforcement officers, counselors and the Parole Commission, the Sheriff's Bureau, the Division of Correction and the State Department of Education.

The key point of the conference, Lee said, was that action must be taken at the local level. The two-fold program would strengthen the enforcement of existing laws and develop a program of prevention.

In the Sanford Lions Club's election of officers for the new year beginning in July, Jack Stempor was voted in as president-elect with George Hughes, Howard Hood and George DeMatteo, 1st, 2nd and 3rd vice-presidents in that order.

Treasurer will be Jack Morrison, Tail Twister, Don Cahill and Lion Tamer, Eugene Gilmarin. New one year directors are Cecil Carlton and Tom Albert with Jim Singletary and Ben Wade to serve as two year directors.

The group also appointed three voting delegates to attend the state convention in Jacksonville on May 17th. Secretary Hugh Duncan will be a candidate for District Governor in the convention elections.

Teachers Study New Trends In Education

Mrs. Wilma Morgan, Sanford teacher, was named president-elect of the Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary teacher's sorority at their banquet held recently at the Capri Restaurant.

Two other Seminole County teachers, Mrs. Ruth Carlton and Mrs. Margaret Gott, were named recording secretary and corresponding secretary, respectively.

The program symposium was highlighted by the appearance of two speakers, Miss Alice Van Cleef of DeLand Junior High and Eugene Bunker, professor of art at Stetson University.

Miss Van Cleef spoke on new trends in science and Bunker outlined new trends in art. The entire program covered an exploration of newest advances in science, drama, art and manufactured products.

The table decorations were artfully arranged to carry out the theme of the symposium.

Employment Figures Revealed

Florida State Employment service figures released by Joseph M. Foy show that agricultural employment rose by 600 workers in February, while non-agricultural employment picked up 100 workers.

The figures for unemployment remained approximately the same as February of 1961, balanced out by the continuous influx of workers from other states coming into Florida.

Workers in contract construction picked up about 100 workers, while wholesale trade dropped by about the same number.

Harvesting and shipping of spring vegetable crops accounted for the upswing in agricultural employment.

Lyman Socks Oviedo 13 - 11 In 'Wild' Contest

By Sanford Herald Page 6—Wed. Apr. 11, '62

By Jack Trim
Looks like the gusty weather may be putting on soon and I think I picked a clue to things to come Monday while talking to Nick Pfeiff, second place winner in the annual Outdoors Contest.

Nick was looking over his prize at Robson's Sporting Goods, and chose a fly fishing outfit instead of the spinning tackle offered as the award. Trying the rod for zip, he sort of mumbled: "My wife won't get any yard work out of me for awhile."

Boaters ought to ease up into Ponce deLeon Springs and see the changes taking place there. No miracles have occurred, but the place is improved and was busy Tuesday with skin divers in the springs and boaters lazing around on their way back to the river.

Lee Norwood, the crew cut impresario at the Springs now, is going after the visiting boaters and has some attractive events lined up to entertain them.

Next one is the Ponce De-

Leon Springs Water Festival April 28-29 and there'll be a waterborne procession from Whitehair Bridge near DeLand to the Springs to start the festivities.

All Case of Lake Mary and some of the ham radio-bodies will be along the river again this year to pass reports on the progress of the speedsters in the annual St. Johns River Outboard Marathon.

The hams, who frequently do good jobs in emergencies as well as in having fun, will set up a radio net work and give the positions of the race leaders as they fly down the river to Jacksonville and back to Sanford.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary also will have contact along the way to help keep officials and spectators on the Sanford end well informed about the race while the drivers are pouring on the coal.

Officials of the marathon are working up some added entertainment for the race May 6 and hope to increase public interest in the event as well as driver participation.

Ogden, Caolo, Barnes Pace Bat Attack

By Ronnie Broadway
Herald Sports Editor

One-hit pitching by Butch Riser and the hitting of Chuck Ogden, Mike Caolo, and Steve Barnes enabled the Sanford Seminoles to coast to their fifth straight baseball win as they defeated the Wildwood Wildcats by the score of 10-2 Tuesday.

Riser pitched perfect ball until the sixth inning

Seminole High School Track Meet Here Today

Seminole High School track fans will get their first chance to see the Seminoles thin in action when the team hosts its first meet of the season this afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

Coch J. Pigot feels that his boys have a pretty good chance of coming home first in the meet. They have lost once to the Yellow Jackets, and have defeated them one time. With the addition of speedster Don Harvey, the Seminoles have a fine chance of doing the job in almost every meet. Leesburg has a fine athlete in the person of a fellow named Axford, who is a fine all around track man. The Seminoles will be out in an attempt to break some school records in today's meet and with the times that have been showing up as of late, they may very well do just that.

Bubba Davis, another fellow who has developed into a fine broad jumper, will be jumping for Sanford this afternoon, and he has come close to twenty feet several times. David Malin has broken his own record in the pole vault with a jump of 11 feet. Irluan Grier has broken the school record for the low hurdles, lowering the record from 16.9 to 16.4.

STRIKING PROSPECT

By Ronnie Broadway
Herald Sports Editor

Cosch Jim Payne saw his Lyman baseballers get revenge from the Oviedo Lions Tuesday afternoon as the Greyhounds came out on top by the score of 13-11 in a really wild and wooly game. There were a total of 24 hits in the game!

Lyman now stands 8-2 for the season after the win. Both teams used their supply of pitchers in what turned out to be a hitting duel. Roy Lisk, winning pitcher for Lyman really had a field day, as he was not only winning pitcher, but also collected two hits, both tremendous home runs. Jim Courier was the losing hurler.

Oviedo took a first inning lead of 1-0 but Lyman came back in the bottom of the inning with three hits, including Lisk's fifth homer of the season, which sailed some 375 feet. Lyman led 3-1. Oviedo went ahead again in the second, 4-1, on two walks and three hits. They then added two in the third to go ahead 6-3. Donnie Smith relieved Lyman starter Gene Griffin.

Lyman added a tally in the third to make the score 6-4 in favor of Oviedo. They then took the lead in the fourth inning as they rallied for three runs and went ahead 7-6 on a single by catcher Rick McCanna and Lisk's sixth home run of the year, a booming 400 foot drive over the wall.

Oviedo retook the lead in the fifth by an 8-7 score. A home run by John Courier with one on enabled the runs. Oviedo added three more in their half of the sixth on three hits and a walk, raising the score to 11-7. Things looked bad for Lyman, but the never-say-die Greyhounds came up with four walks and four hits in the sixth to score six big runs and regain the lead, 13-11. Lisk, who had relieved Smith in the sixth, held the Lions scoreless in the seventh inning to sew up the game for the 'Hounds.

Swissan of Oviedo went four-for-four in the game, while the Lions' Viles had two doubles in five trips to the plate.

Hounds Gain Victory As Lisk Stars

By Ronnie Broadway
Herald Sports Editor

Amid all that noisy cannoning by the likes of Bob Clemente, Wally Post, Gino Cimoli and the Yankees' famed "M and M boys," the shots that rang loudest in the major leagues Tuesday were fired by the new Colts 45 and two-gun Roman Mejias.

The Houston Colts introduced major league baseball to the land of the Alamo and Mejias shot off a double-barréled salute in the form of a pair of three-run homers that made it an easy five-hit, 11-2 conquest for Bobby Shantz over the Chicago Cubs.

And speaking of shoot-'em-ups, Roger Maris, Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron each blasted a home run to help power the world champion New York Yankees to a 7-6 opening victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Whitely Ford started the game for the Yankees and Luis Arroyo saved it in the ninth. As one wise-guy put it upon leaving Yankee Stadium, "It was just like watching an old television movie on the late show."

While the homer-hitters decided most of the games on the first big program of the 1962 season, there were three brilliant shutout pitching jobs, by Dick Donovan of the Cleveland Indians, Juan Marichal of the San Francisco Giants and Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The biggest crowd of the day showed up at Los Angeles, where 52,564 watched Wally Post's three-run seventh-inning homer spoil the Dodgers' debut in their new Chavez Ravine Stadium, 6-5. In other National League games, Bob Clemente, the major league's leading hitter in 1961, hit the first grand slam homer of this season to help Friend and the Pirates blank the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-0, and the Giants beat Warren Spahn and the Milwaukee Braves, also 6-0.

Donovan pitched a five-hit shutout in the sixth, held the Boston Red Sox, 4-0; Gino Cimoli's three-run homer gave the Kansas City Athletics a 4-2 win over the Minnesota Twins; and Sherman Lollar's ninth-inning single drove in the Chicago White Sox' winning run in a 2-1 triumph over

Here We Go Again; Maris Bangs Homer

By United Press International

The scheduled debut of the New York Mets against the Cardinals at night in St. Louis was rained out. The Washington Senators and Detroit Tigers were idle.

Three ex-Pirates helped the Cubs 45 beat the Cubs before a disappointingly small crowd of 25,271 at Houston's temporary new ballpark.

Mejias hit a three-run homer in the third inning off Chicago starter Don Cardwell and repeated in the eighth inning against Al Lary to drive in six runs for the day. Catcher Hal Smith also hit a Houston homer.

Shantz, who has not been a regular starter since he won 24 games for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1962, had a shut-out until Ernie Banks hit the 29th homer of his career for the Cubs in the seventh.

Post's three-run homer off lefty Johnny Podres in the seventh inning broke a 2-2 tie and earned the Reds their win over the Dodgers. Bob Purkey got the victory, although Bill Henry saved it by pitching the Reds out of a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the eighth.

Areitio Puts On One Man Show In Exciting Eighth

The largest night crowd of the season was treated to a card of eleven games Tuesday night at the Orlando Seminole Fronton that had them limp from excitement by the end of the last contest.

The featured eighth game was a one man show with Areitio demonstrating that consistency is a jewel that wins games by coming up with two points in each of the three frames to completely baffles the opposition.

Asliga put on a great effort to catch and overcame the winner but could garner only four points, part of which was a run of three straight and Sagas' vaunted power did him no good as Areitio parried with fine placements and carrom shots off the wall. Sagas finished in show with three points.

The last game of the evening was a thriller from the start, with post five, Astiga and Iriarte, setting off to a five point lead before Uria and Aguilera, in post four could get started. By the time the third frame came around both teams were tied up and had to play off the game point. It was Astiga and Iriarte that made the grade and post four came in place money. Post three, Aldaz and Manuel, took show position.

Tonight's card at the fronton will provide another action packed evening for the fans. The house happily pushed nearly $38,000 through the wickets to demonstrate their faith in their choices.

Crooms Defeats Cocoa, 13-3

Crooms baseball team racked up its third win of the early baseball season by defeating Monroe High of Cocoa by a score of 13-3.

Winning pitcher was rookie Andrew (Dudley) James. Dudley held Cocoa in check until the sixth inning then gave way to Croom's Ace, Wesley Boston, who completed the contest.

In other baseball contests this year, Crooms defeated Titusville 6 to 0. In that game, Boston hurled a no-hit game.

Girl Softball Loop Planned

A softball league is being organized by the women and girls of the Church of Latter Day Saints on Park Avenue and all girls 12 years and older in Sanford and the surrounding area who are interested in playing softball are asked to meet at Fort Mellon Park this Saturday at 2 p. m.

Chairman of the organizing committee is Mrs. Henry Farmer, who asks anyone interested in the sport to call FA 2-6778 or FA 2-9140 for further information.

Mrs. Farmer said that after the league is organized and under way social activities will be included in the program.

Hunsaker Takes First Big Step Toward Bout Recovery

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (UPI)—Tunney Hunsaker, who suffered a critical brain injury in a heavyweight fight last Friday, has taken the first step toward recovery.

The 200-pound former police chief was removed from the critical list Tuesday at Bluefield Sanitarium. However, his doctor said Hunsaker's condition is still serious.

Hunsaker was knocked out by Joe (Shotgun) Sheldon of Cleveland in a fight at Beckley, W. Va. There were only seven seconds remaining in the 10th and final round of the bout. Hunsaker was revived but collapsed in his corner.

He was rushed here for emergency surgery to relieve pressure on the brain and underwent a similar operation Sunday night.

Hunsaker received $165 for the fight. To help ease the financial burden of medical bills, the Blekley Sportsmen's Club has begun a drive to collect funds for the fighter and his family.

Lyman Vocalist To Enter State Contests

By Jane Casselberry
Mrs. Dorothea Benson of Lyman School's Music Dept. said Monday that she was very gratified with the performances turned in by her students at Saturday's district contests held at Edgewater High in Orlando.

Lemmie Hoover, 17-year-old Lyman senior, received an excellent rating for his rendition of "Holy City." He now becomes eligible to compete in state contests which are to take place on April 27 and 28 in Daytona Beach. He was accompanied by Jacqueline Waddle at the piano.

George Lewis, 18-year-old senior, received a rating of excellent for his piano performance of the first movement of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata."

The High School Ensemble, made up of Darlene Shea, Dawn Barnes, Gloria Lovell, Lemmie Hoover and Larry Hill, earned a rating of excellent.

The High School Choralaires received a mixed rating of one excellent and two goods and the Junior High Chorus received favorable comment from the judges.

The soloist and ensemble will entertain for the Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce on Thursday night, along with soloists from the Lyman Band.

Irish "Boycott"
The word "boycott" first was used in Ireland and was derived from the name of Capt. Charles C. Boycott. For refusing, in 1880, to receive rents at figures fixed by tenants, Captain Boycott's life was threatened, his servants compelled to leave his service, his fences torn down, his letters intercepted and his food supplies interfered with, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Miss Mary Eileen Myers Marries Edward Eric Nelson

Miss Mary Eileen Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Garris Myers and Edward Eric Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Nelson of Sepulveda, Calif., were married April 1, at 4 p.m. at the First Methodist Church, Sanford.

Rev. John T. Adams Jr. officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, mums, stock, smilax and fern.

Mrs. Ben E. Wiggins, organist, presented a program of wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Ashby Jones, soloist, who sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pale beige suit, with matching accessories, short veil and carried a white Bible, topped with a lavender orchid with ribbon streamers.

Miss Vicki Ferguson, maid of honor, wore a light blue suit with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of blue mums.

Morgan and serving as ushers were Ray Johnson and Gerald G. Myers Jr.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in McKinley Hall which was decorated with pink and white floral arrangements.

Mrs. R. L. McKnight and Miss Evis Dooney served the cake; Mrs. Ted Williams and Miss Leslie Jones presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. Paul Morgan kept the bride's book.

Floating hostesses were Mrs. Charles Clemmer and Miss Linda Williams.

and will reside at 109 West Ninth Street, while the groom is stationed at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Out of town guests included Mrs. B. P. Myers, Branchville, S. C., grandmother of the bride.

Catholic Women Plan Egg Hunt

The All Souls Catholic Women's Club held its monthly meeting at the Parish Social Hall.

Mrs. John Kolarik, vice-president, gave a report on the recent Deane meeting held at the Cherry Plaza Hotel in Orlando. Mrs. Theodore La Tour gave her report on the success of the St. Patrick's Day Card Party and a check for the proceeds was presented to Mrs. Angelo Constantine so that she could purchase the needed equipment for the school cafeteria.

Plans were formulated for the annual Communion Breakfast and installation of new officers to be held on Sunday, May 6, in the Parish Hall. Mrs. Constantine, assisted by Mrs. John Purdy and Mrs. Leo Nordstrom, will be chairman for this event. Further details will be published at a later date.

Mrs. Kolarik volunteered for the chairmanship of the annual Easter egg hunt for the parish children (preschool through the third grade) to be held on Easter Sunday on the parish grounds. Details will appear in the parish bulletin.

The following ladies were elected to be the new officers for the year: Mrs. Robert Hauman, president; Miss Sara Warren Esterby, vice president; Mrs. Robert La Fila, treasurer; Mrs. Theodore Michels, recording secretary, and Mrs. Frank Donahoe, corresponding secretary.

It was voted to send Miss Edie Krygier and Mrs. Robert Hauman as delegates to the Diocesan Council Convention at the Daytona Plaza Hotel, Daytona Beach, May 7 through 10.

Mrs. Helen Fritts' name was drawn for the "Attendance Jackpot" but as she was not present, the jackpot carries over until next month.

Girls 4-H Club Makes Plans For Dress Revue

The Sanford Girls 4-H Club met Saturday afternoon at the Home Demonstration Center.

In the absence of the president, Linda King presided over the meeting.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I live in an apartment building where people are very friendly. It's the kind of place where they just walk in if your door isn't locked and nobody thinks a thing of it. There is a man living here who works a different shift from his wife. He seems to have a lot of time of his hands and likes to visit with me. (I am married, and don't work out.) This man loves to tell me about his "personal affairs" with other women. I can't figure out whether he is asking me for advice or what. I know his wife and like her. I would rather not hear all this stuff. How can I cut him off without insulting him?

STUMPED BUT (OOD DEAR STUMPED: Go ahead and insult him! Tell him you are not interested in his private affairs, don't approve of his behavior, and do not want to hear about it. Men who behave this way usually have plans for their listeners. And lock your door!

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to you about a dear friend of mine. She was married at 18, has been married three years and has had three babies already. Her husband says he would love to have a baby every year but, Abby, how long can she last?

up? She is a lovely girl, but she has no help with her house or the babies and it is making an old woman out of her before her time. What should she do? This is between you and me.
A DEAR FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: You are mistaken. It is between your friend and her husband.

DEAR ABBY: I happen to be married to an extremely handsome man who is 12 years younger than I. From time to time I get anonymous phone calls from women who call to tell me that my husband is seeing someone else. There is never anything to it, because I have had him followed. How can I discourage these anonymous telephone callers?
TIRED OF IT

DEAR TIRED: Say, "If you cannot give me your father's name, please give me your mother's."

DEAR ABBY: If there is a reader somewhere who has caught her husband being unfaithful and has forgiven him and has since had a happy marriage, would you please ask her to tell her story? I need it so desperately now. She doesn't have a sign, she doesn't have a sign.

The rest of this week's series will be taken from "Contract Bridge Made Simple," by Daniel J. O'Neil. This book is for students, but I don't want any of my expert readers to feel that the hands are too simple.

Mr. O'Neil points out that there is a proper time and place for all plays. Usually declarer should draw trumps as soon as possible but on other occasions he will have more important things to do first. South wins the opening spade lead in his own hand and notes that he will have to lose three aces come what may. He also will want to draw trumps in order to stop potential ruffs, but he should note that if he plays a trump at trick two the defense will get the lead and play a second spade whereupon he will have to lose a spade besides the three aces. How can he stop this? He must plan to get rid of that spade loser and he has an easy way to do it. At trick two he should lead a diamond toward dummy. This will immediately establish three diamond tricks. He will only need one because he only has one losing spade. Then he will be able to draw trumps and claim his contract.

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

Remember way back when if a hostess wanted you for dinner at seven she said "seven" without any hemming or hawing?

That made things simple for everyone—hostess and guests alike. The hostess knew she could serve dinner any minute she liked after seven o'clock—for the guest invited for seven knew that meant he should arrive about five minutes before the hour, certainly not a minute after.

But then came the casual approach to entertaining and women got afraid of naming a definite hour in a definite manner.

So hostesses started saying "sevenish" with its hint of time being completely unimportant. Or if they didn't use that word they would say, "Oh, around seven, I guess" or "Seven, if you can't make it then—but don't rush."

It all sounded so casual and easy—this open-handed way with time, this "let's not take this party too seriously" approach to entertaining.

But in reality it has proved anything but simple. The hostess who blithely says "sevenish" is fretting inwardly by eight when several of her guests still haven't arrived. And the guests invited to a large party are never quite sure just what a hostess means by sevenish. Some hostesses expect guests to know that sevenish means seven. Others are so used to having guests take sevenish for seven-thirty or a quarter-of-eight that a guest arriving at seven would probably find her hostess frantically waving her hands to dry her nail polish and explaining that the host was in the shower.

Yes, the casual approach to time is a bit confusing and puts no one at ease—hostess or guest. So what's wrong with dropping the "ish" from the hour when we extend an invitation?

Honestly, this home has been on the market for a couple of weeks and should have sold the first day because it is outstanding in both value and comfort. On 2 lots with shade, central heat, 2 bedrooms, fireplace, dining room . . . at $9,000.00 it's a bargain. Requires about $3400.00 down, $60.44 Mo.
3 BEDROOM - 2 BATH
This FHA owned home priced at only $13,000.00, with $1000 down, $168 monthly, we believe is the outstanding FHA resale in the area.

Choral Vespers Scheduled For Presbyterian

Choral Vespers for Holy Week is the theme around which the annual all music service for Easter is woven this year by the Chancel choir of the First Presbyterian Church. The hour of worship will be at 5 p.m. next Sunday, April 15.

In the telling of the passion, death and resurrection of Christ, the choir of 27 will sing 11 anthems. Mrs. George Touhy, minister of music, will direct.

The preludes will be Come Blessed Death (Bach) and Communion (Purvis) and the other organ selection that will be played by Mrs. Touhy will be Abide, O Dearest Jesus (Roger).

The Rev. Grover Sewell Jr. and the Rev. Thomas Makin invite all who wish to join the congregation for this service commemorating one of the years of Christian faith.

The choir members who will take part in the 60 minutes of worship are soprano Mmes. James Coleman, Harry Eichelberger, Frank Gore, David Lapham, James Meriwether, Charles Wilke and Joan Wilke.

Also sitos Mmes. Al Case, Eugene Estridge 3rd, Harris Folds, Roy Mann, Rayburn Milwee, Joseph Orsano, Rudy Sloan, Leon Walker. The basses are Warren Adams, Robert Crumley, Donald Howard, David Lapham, Clifford McKibbin, James Meriwether, Charles Mottrison.

Tenors taking part are David Berrien, Robert Brown, Al Case, Walter Gielow, George Touhy.

War Council Set On Steel Boost

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A major administration war council to plan the government's fight against the steel price increase was called today at the White House.

Weather Front: Snow, Hail, Rain

By United Press International
A late spring storm covered the northern plains with up to nine inches of snow early today. Violent Dixie thunderstorms spawned king-size hail stones and a tornado.

A small tornado dipped down on a chicken farm near Canton, Ga., early today. Hail the size of baseballs was reported near Castor, La. Overton, Tex., measured hail three inches in diameter. Hail the size of hen eggs was reported at Stringer, Miss., and in northern and central Alabama. A blanket of hail 2 1/2 inches deep covered the ground at Longview, Tex.

Hatteras, N. C., had 3.12 inches of rain in six hours and Tupelo, Miss., had seven inches in 24 hours. The six-hour rainfall total at Jackson, Miss., was 3.36 inches, two inches of it in a single hour.

Hospital Fires 2 In Beating

ARCADIA (UPI)—Two attendants and probably a third will be dismissed from the State Mental Hospital staff in connection with the alleged beating of a critically-injured patient.

The announcement was made Wednesday by Dr. C. H. Adair, superintendent of the hospital. The two men accused of beating up 57-year-old Nathan Webster of Belle Glade, will be discharged, Adair said. Another attendant who may have witnessed the incident but did not report it, "will probably be discharged."

The two attendants, identified as L. D. Strickland, 28, and Wilson Whiddon, 21, both of Arcadia, were arrested Wednesday night and charged with assault and battery. They were jailed in lieu of $500 bond each.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republicans who kept the House up half the night assailing what they called an administration "snow job" claimed today their effort was highly successful. Democrats shot back that GOP "spring thaw" looked to them more like a frost.

Rep. Roman C. Pucinski, D-Ill., one of about two score Democrats who swarmed out the GOP oratorical assault, contended the barrage of criticism showed that "the John Birchers" had made a "significant dent" in the leadership of the Republican party.

Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okl., another season-ender, said he was glad the Republicans had their full say, and was happy they had out a fairly full gallery to sit through it.

"After hearing what they did, a lot of those folks will probably see the light and turn Democrat," Edmondson said.

The unusual nighttime show was staged by a 15-man GOP group operating independently in Turkey, the Navy announced Wednesday.

Jail was aboard the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga, on duty in the Mediterranean with the Sixth Fleet. The cause of the crash was not known.

combating the Reds and a "no budget" policy in not producing the B70 bomber.

The President was assailed for debasing the dollar and accused of planning never to pay off the national debt. His foreign trade bill was called a low blow at domestic producers.

His school aid plan was assailed as a bogus cure for an ailment that no longer exists.

In the face of all that, the Republicans said, Kennedy has so bamboozled the public and intimidated the press that his errors at home and abroad have gone unrevealed.

By midnight everybody was tired and there was general agreement that the point, whatever it was, had been made. With only seven of their scheduled 16 main orations out of the way, the Republicans at 12:07 a. m. said they would leave the rest for another day.

Americanism Awards Given

Winner of this year's American Legion Americanism award at Sanford Junior High School was Helen Mann, ninth grader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mann of Sanford.

In a tie for second place were two other ninth graders, Kathy Cammack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Cammack of Geneva and Charles Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gleason of Sanford.

The awards, $10 for first place and $5 for each of the second place winners, were presented by Americanism Chairman Mrs. Bea Newsome, at ceremonies held in the Sanford Junior High School auditorium Tuesday as part of a program on Americanism.

The theme of the essays was "What I Believe" and the awards were given by the American Legion Auxiliary Post 53. Mrs. T. A. Stiles, past president of the auxiliary, was also present.

Tampa Cigar Firm To Move

TAMPA (UPI)—The Tampa Cigar Company announced today it would move its plant to Evanville, Ind., May 1.

The move, a result of the shortage of Cuban tobacco, will leave 100 cigar industry workers unemployed.

Company president Charles Stieh said two or three top officials will move with the firm. The rest of the employees will be laid off.

At the same time, Gradiann and Co., announced it will begin production of a blend cigar in an effort to combat the shortage of Cuban leaf.

First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. has bought from the Kilgore Seed Co. the latter's former place of business at W. First Street and Myrtle Ave.

According to President E. C. Harper Sr., the local thrift organization became interested in the property because it adjoins the parking lot of First Federal and the 30 x 114 space can easily be added to the area for patrons' cars as the added space is needed. This may not be for a few years, but it was deemed wise to provide for this future contingency, Harper said.

In the meantime, it is possible that the new owner will rent or lease the building until the time arrives to demolish it to convert the plot into parking space, it was said.

First Federal moved into its present quarters in December, 1960, and since that time has added to its parking area to the north and east of the building. This new lot will join it on the east and provide frontage not only on W. First Street but also on Myrtle Avenue.

County Puts New Controls On Selling

The County Zoning Board Wednesday night clamped down on the selling of alcoholic beverages in the county by amending the zoning ordinance prohibiting their sale for consumption on the premises from establishments 1,000 feet from all churches and schools.

Final approval of the zoning board's ruling will come before the County Commission at its meeting Tuesday.

The new amendment would control the location of beer and wine businesses from locating too close to churches and schools.

In other business, during the meeting, the zoning board denied a request to enlarge a commercial area at Geneva because of various protests by people in the area.

The board refused to rezone an area commercial at the corner of Bear Lake Rd. and SR 138 because of protests.

Terrorists Kill French Officer

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—Terrorists shot and killed a French army intelligence major as he returned to his home on the edge of the Bab el Ourd quarter here Wednesday night, a military communique announced today.

The killing was another in the acts of violence still sweeping Algeria.

The major was Marcel Bourgogne, married with four children. The communique said he was hit by several bullets and died shortly afterward in a hospital.

Eyewitnesses said a young European gunman was waiting for Bourgogne as he returned home and fired several shots at him before escaping in a waiting car.

The Franco-Moslem provisional executive governing Algeria on its road to independence today completed the taking over of its portfolios despite desperate attempts of the outlawed Secret Army Organization (OAS) to upset the cease-fire.

Stock Behavior Causes Worry

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks opened irregularly lower in moderate trading today with steel shares soft.

Whatever the reasons for the market's disappointing behavior Wednesday, it worried market technicians greatly. These observers are now much less sure than before that the market's month-long declining trend can be contained at the January low point.

With nationwide reaction to the steel price increase so mixed brokerage opinion was divided about what would happen in the market today. Some said inflation fears would send it higher, others that President Kennedy's braising attack on the steel industry would produce sharp selling.

Board Ruling Assailed

Sanford supervisory personnel have requested City Manager W. E. Knowles to look into the possibility of appealing the recent Civil Service ruling on mitigating the dismissal of a city employe to the Circuit Court, the Herald learned today.

Knowles, who called the ruling "not warranted" said he will discuss the situation with City Attorney William Hutchison before any action is taken.

If action is taken, Knowles probably will ask the City Commission at its next regular meeting for authority to take the case to the higher court.

A recent state law prohibits the city commission from ruling on the case. The civil service board had asked that the state law be changed. The legislation was introduced by State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. who is present chairman of the civil service board.

Tuesday night, after a five-hour session, the civil service board mitigated the sentence of dismissal of city employe Emory Lee to a 30 day suspension without pay.

The board specified that at the end of that time Lee was to be reinstated with full pay and seniority.

Knowles said there was a heavy record of neglect of duty and incompetence on Lee and "the civil service board failed to recognize this."

"Department heads feel how do you protect the taxpayers unless you get rid of the dead wood," the city manager declared.

Clay Departure Puzzles Berlin

BERLIN (UPI)—Berliners today were confused, saddened and shocked by Gen. Lucius D. Clay's forthcoming resignation as President Kennedy's personal representative here.

They disagreed on its meaning. Some thought it reflected an easing of the Berlin crisis. Others considered it a completion of Clay's mission to boost morale.

The view also was expressed that the hero of the 1948-49 Berlin blockade was being shoved aside because Washington no longer wanted to take a strong stand with the Russians.

Many took at face value the statement that the retired general simply wished to return to private life.

But all agreed that Washington handled the resignation announcement awkwardly and opened the way for talk of an American backdown.

East German Communists said just that. The official party newspaper, Neues Deutschland said if Clay's arrival here in September was symbolic of an American hard policy of Berlin his recall was symbolic of a soft policy.

With nationwide reaction to the steel price increase so mixed brokerage opinion was divided about what would happen in the market today. Some said inflation fears would send it higher, others that President Kennedy's braising attack on the steel industry would produce sharp selling.

GOP Bloc Blasts Away At Administration In Set-to

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republicans who kept the House up half the night assailing what they called an administration "snow job" claimed today their effort was highly successful. Democrats shot back that GOP "spring thaw" looked to them more like a frost.

Rep. Roman C. Pucinski, D-Ill., one of about two score Democrats who swarmed out the GOP oratorical assault, contended the barrage of criticism showed that "the John Birchers" had made a "significant dent" in the leadership of the Republican party.

Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okl., another season-ender, said he was glad the Republicans had their full say, and was happy they had out a fairly full gallery to sit through it.

"After hearing what they did, a lot of those folks will probably see the light and turn Democrat," Edmondson said.

The unusual nighttime show was staged by a 15-man GOP group operating independently in Turkey, the Navy announced Wednesday.
