MOTIVATING PRINCIPLES
"To tell our baffled business man that they must turn to Christ for help, at first sounds like futile piety. It seems about as impractical as trying to check a bank run with a prayer meeting or a stock exchange panic with a passage of scripture. To be sure, Jesus does not provide us for any economic formula or any concrete industrial program. But what he does give is motive and spirit for our work, and while that may sound vague and indirect, let us ask ourselves whether it is not our most fundamental and practical necessity. The motivating principle of modern business is the mastery of men for the getting of things. The motivating principle of the Nazarene Carpenter was the mastering of things for the service of men."

Route To Kaesong Is Littered With Debris Of Battle

By STAN CARTER

WESTERN FRONT, Korea, July 4—(Delayed by Censors)—

—A young Korean woman, her child strapped to her back and a bundle balanced on her head, trudged down the Kaesong road in no man's land.

The surrounding battlefields—Korean rice paddies—were sprinkled with Korean men and women working their fields. There was no sound of gunfire.

This scene was just a few miles south of Kaesong where United Nations and Communist forces open a cease fire conference Sunday.

Our American jeep stopped near the woman. An interpreter told her of the conference. A faint smile—almost of disbelief—fleeked across her face. Then solemnly she said:

"I hope there will be peace." To reach this no man's land you must pass through the rubble of Musan, last major town south of Kaesong and the Imjin River. The peace train, standing ready in Seoul, 23 miles to the south, must stop at Musan. Rail and highway bridges across the river were demolished long ago.

Alfred engineers have just completed a pontoon bridge across the stream so jeep can reach Kaesong. They had then worked out to build it after the Communists captured Kaesong for the cease fire talks.

This correspondent continued to the northernmost point of the Allied line north of the river. If S. bulldozers were busy smoothing out the war-torn road bed.

At the edge of no-man's land a lone sentry stood on the road next to a coil of barbed wire. A young Allied officer joined me. We continued northward another mile and a half.

All are welcome.

The regular Mid-week Prayer Meeting is held on Thursday evening at 7:45. All are invited.

Truman Note Termed Late By Mossadegh

Iranians Reject International Court Decision On Crisis; Oil May Be Cut Off

LONDON, July 9.—Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison said today Britain is "considering" asking the United Nations Security Council to order Iran to keep her hands off the British-run oil industry. Morrison told the House of Commons this course might be followed if Iran positively rejected the recommendation of the International Court of Justice to allow the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company to continue oil producing operations pending a negotiated settlement of the British-Iranian dispute. Iran announced today she was rejecting the ruling of the court—and apparently any other rulings the international court might make. However, Morrison told the house the Iranian attitude on the ruling "is still obscure." Britain has formally accepted the ruling.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman offered today to send Averell Harriman to Iran to try for a settlement of that country's oil dispute with the British government. Mr. Truman said the conflict threatens "a collapse of oil operations" which would be "a disaster." He declared the time available is running out." Harriman is foreign adviser to the President. Mr. Truman made his offer in a message to Iranian Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh. The Iranian chief wrote him two weeks ago asking American support for Iran's nationalization of its oil resources.

By ROBERT B. HEWETT
TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman sent a personal message today to Iran's Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, reportedly again urging moderation in the middle East country's oil dispute with Britain.

"A little late," was the comment by the nationalization-minded premier to U. S. Ambassador Harry F. Gandy when Gandy handed over his President's message. Gandy declined to disclose the contents of the note but other sources described it as another appeal for coolness in the dispute which threatens to close down the world's largest refinery at Abadan.

The American diplomat said Mossadegh would make public the President's message later today. Although its contents were not immediately disclosed, official quarters exhibited little hope that it would produce a last minute solution to the deadlock between Britain and Iran over nationalization of the Anglo (Continued on Page Two)

Faust Drug Store Is Reopened After Recent Renovation

Completely repainted and redecorated, the Faust Drug Store, recently purchased from J. O. Faust by Carl C. Faust of Windsor, Pa., was reopened Saturday after being closed a week.

Improvements include new soda fountain fixtures. There is a red formica top to the soda bar and a yellow front. Seats at the fountain have been increased from 10 to 14. New fluorescent light fixtures provide brighter lighting.

The kitchen has been remodeled, a new stove has been installed, and an exhaust fan now provides better ventilation.

About 75 percent of the stock of the drug store is new, and Mr. Faust. He expressed thanks for the many baskets of flowers presented by local firms for the opening.

A unique feature of wall decoration soon to be installed will be the display of large photographic enlargements of Sanford scenes, he stated this morning. These were provided by R. L. Tait.

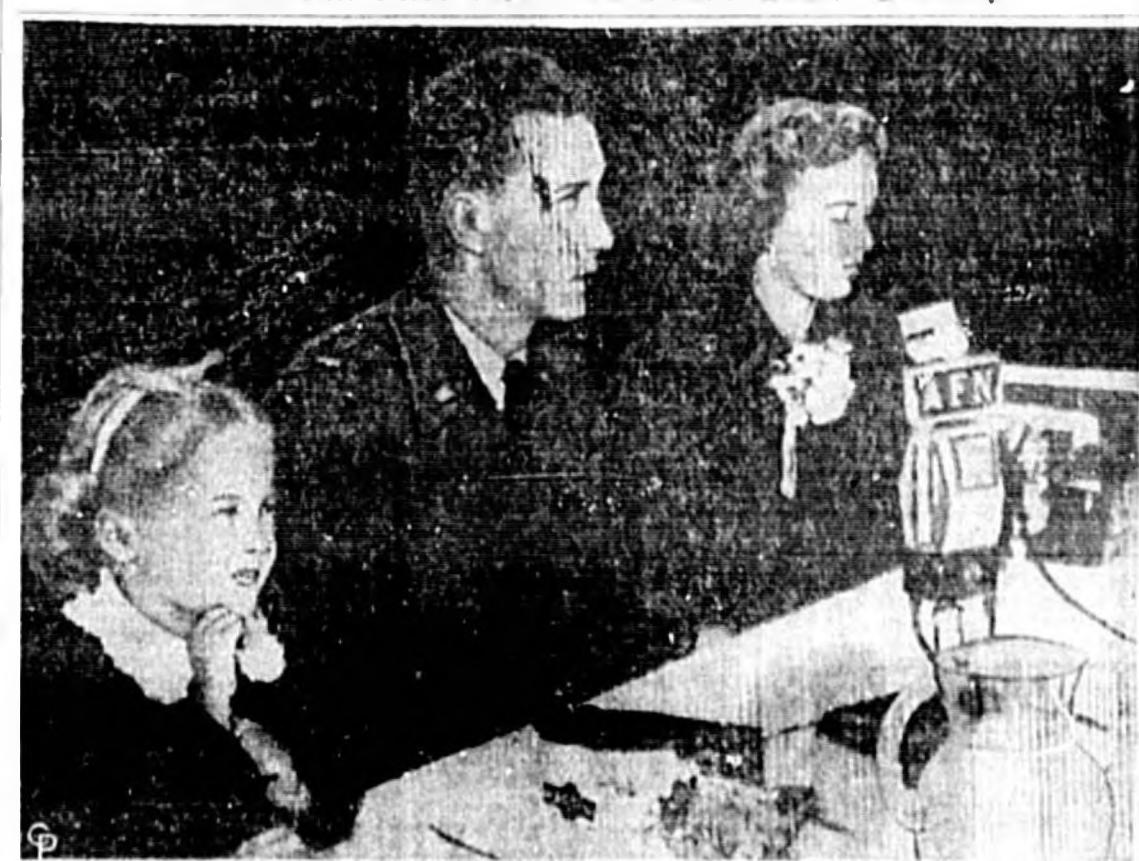

Personnel includes George F. Tait, assistant manager; Mrs. Helen Rod, fountain manager. Other employees are Margaret P. Howell, cashier; Ruby Blenstrom; Mary Lou McDonnell, Alberta Brewer, Mildred Douglas, and Evelyn Jones.

Each contained a pink quarter.

Senate Told New Tax Increase Is Aid To Inflation

Businessman Asks National Sales Levy To Balance Budget

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—A former undersecretary of the Treasury told senators today the House-passed $7,200,000,000 tax increase bill will promote inflation rather than retard it.

Roswell Mattoon, now a New York attorney, said this is true because of stiff bonus incorporation taxes and the levies on middle and upper bracket incomes.

These hikes will discourage new investment and additional production; and at the same time will cause higher prices to the consumer, since a good part of

President Asks End To State Of War With Germany

Technical Action To Have No Effect On Allied Occupation

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to end the state of war between the United States and Germany. He said that unfortunately Russia had made a final peace settlement impossible at this time.

Mr. Truman's action was part of a coordinated move by the Western Allies. The French cabinet approved a decree to the same end, although it was not clear whether it was effective immediately or must await the formation of a new cabinet in the next few days.

Britain was expected to follow suit quickly.

Three members of the British Commonwealth acting in advance—ended their state of war with the Germans. They were Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. New Zealand also announced the end of its state of war with Austria.

The main issue of major importance in the east was battle for the mind and support of the German people.

It also has some practical advantages for the Germans although it will not end the occupation by the Western Powers.

With the state of war at an end, Germany will be able to travel or do business in the United States as nationals of a friendly government rather than as enemy aliens.

Any Germans will be able to bring suits in U. S. courts. Specifically, Mr. Truman asked Congress adopt a resolution declaring the state of war with Germany shall be terminated at such date as the President prescribes.

This country has been in a state of war with Germany since

$10 Thousand Bail Set For Field On Contempt Charge

NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—Frederick Vanderbilt Field, millionaire leftwinger, posted $10,000 cash bail today for his release from jail on a contempt of court charge. The money was paid by the U. S. District Court but Field's release was postponed until the arrival of U. S. Commissioner Edward W. McNamee.

This morning, two new members of the department, R. C. Crissey and G. V. Hart received initial training under direction of Lieut. Cross in the handling of the extension ladder on the big truck, which one man can operate. Capable of extension to a height of 45 feet, the ladder can reach to the upper windows of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank Building.

New and older firemen as well, have study periods each week day, Tuesday excepted when cleaning is done. More than a year of training is required before new men may go on fire runs on their own responsibility. Locations of streets and of fire hydrants throughout the city must be thoroughly known, said Chief Cleveland.

AQUATIC THIEF
AN NUYS, Calif., July 9.—Here's a burglar who can't dry behind the ears.

The guy is Dr. Sidney G. Milford reported to police—who stole a light from the bottom of the doctor's swimming pool.

The pool was full of water at the time, the doctor said.

C. OF C. MEET
TALLAHASSEE, July 9.—William T. Cash, State Librarian who has earned a niche as one of Florida's most beloved government figures, died here yesterday.

He passed away early yesterday morning at Forsyth Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for more than a week with a heart ailment.

A former newspaper editor, State Representative, State Senator, county school superintendent, author and college instructor, he would have been 73 years of age on July 23.

Funeral services will be held in Trinity Methodist Church in Tallahassee at 2 P. M. Tuesday. Inter-Funeral Home is in charge.

SURPRISE PACKAGE
CHICAGO, July 9.—(AP)—The thief who snatched a sack of groceries from store-owner Mrs. Oken ought to be able to go into business for himself.

At the bottom of the bag, Mrs. Oken told police, was $2,000 in cash—the weak and receipts from her grocery business.

Each contained a pink quarter.

There appears to be a very severe food scarcity in many parts of China. General Communist officials who were in jail on various charges, mostly bribery or embezzlement, said famine conditions existed in nine provinces.

It is difficult to judge the condition of a big nation by what one sees in one section. But the situation, especially the food situation looked desperate. I heard the opinion expressed that if the Korean team was lasted a little longer most of China would be starving. Even prisoners were asked to contribute money to local drives for food."

Father Kennedy and John Gasser of Syracuse, N. Y., with sisters Mary Bradley of Brooklyn, Mary Boyle of Pottsville, Pa., and Marie Hall of Hong Kong were arrested in their Loating mission in Kwangtung province on charges of murdering Chinese orphans.

Father Kennedy said this was a common charge against mission-

HONG KONG, July 9.—(AP)—A Maryknoll Catholic priest said to day most of Red China's population will be starving soon if the war in Korea continues.

Father Robert Kennedy of Norwalk, Conn., and Brooklyn, who came out of Red China recently after 11 weeks in Communist jails, said he was born in Red China recently after

He said the mission opened a receiving station for abandoned children in 1930. Most of the children were unwanted girl babies, abandoned at birth and frequently dead or dying on arrival.

"There was never a chance to have more than one out of every ten," he said. "We buried the dead, and raised and educated the living."

Father Kennedy said he wanted to forget the weeks he spent in Loating jail with 60 men in a large cell, most of them "landlords and secret agents," who knew they were doomed.

He said 3,500 of the 3,600 people in Loating county had been arrested and 350 shot by the Reds by the time he and his group were led handcuffed from the jail to a riverboat for the trip to Hong Kong.

He said his Chinese cellmates

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

None do turn aside under trial
of war, panic, calamity, adversity.
This purifies the surviving saints.
I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart and hast pleasure in uprightness.—1 Chron. 29:17.

County Commissioners meet again tomorrow to give further consideration to the hours of closing for local beer parlors.
You'd think a fellow could get drunk enough by midnight to wreck his car without having to keep the place open two hours longer. And the trouble is, it isn't always the drunk that gets killed
in such wrecks.

Former British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden is coming to the United States this summer to make speeches in Denver and Chicago. It was Anthony Eden, it will be remembered, who resigned as Foreign Secretary rather than say that the Non-Intervention Policy was non-intervention in the affair of Spain when it wasn't.
Not many public men resign important positions over a matter of principle in this day and time.

Auto accidents on last week's Fourth declined under what had been expected to the lowest point in several years. And this all to the good. But to the young men who was killed on the Appalachian road when his car overturned after hitting a truck, it didn't make any difference whether the highway toll in Florida was the highest in years or the lowest. The end is just the same. It may have been "All Quiet On The Western Front,"
but it was a howling volcano to the unfortunate victim.

Lt. General Edward Almond
Tenth Corps commander in Korea
who won the Distinguished Service Cross at Inchon last fall, has been honored with an oak leaf cluster for it, as a result of his inspiring leadership during combat from May 16 to 25. While his corps was defeating three Communist armies, General Almond made six flights to the front in an unarmed plane, joined a tank column, and directed tank fire which silenced
a machinegun nest, and flew through automatic weapons fire to locate Red guns and direct their destruction. Otherwise it was a quiet Sunday.

It is no reflection upon a woman's intelligence to love cats or upon her sanity to keep them
as pets; but when she insists upon having 35 of them around the house at one time, it is grounds for divorce. So decided Judge
Harold Andrews of Newport
Rhode Island, when he freed Thomas Ows from his wife on grounds of cruelty. This was like the man who loved pancakes.
"You can't eat a man in the stomach for liking pancakes, can you?" he asked the medical examines. "Why not?", said one of them. "I like pancakes myself."
"Oh, you do?", excitedly exclaimed the other. "You must come up and see me some time.
I have a whole trunk full."

Few people ever loved the common man more than Fuller Warren when he was running for governor. Few candidates ever presumed more often that the electing would always be out if he were elected. But Warren the candidate, and Warren the governor do not set eyes to eye on anything. Now Warren the governor refuses to debate with a Miami Beach city councilman because,
to use the Governor's own words,
"he is a lightweight"—that is to say, he is a common man. It ill becomes the governor of the great state of Florida to belittle
a city councilman when we elect a man like Warren Governor of Florida, or a man like Truman President of the United States. In this modern world of ours, when technology everywhere is more or less upside down, what is a lightweight anyway?

Foolish Questions

"Let me hear the questions you ask, and I will tell what you are." If this judgment needed support, it would only be necessary to read the detailed reports of the MacArthur hearings before the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Forces Committees. Some senators asked the same question a dozen times. They could not have paid attention to the clear answers given, or perhaps they hoped that a new posing of the query would catch the witness off his guard and produce an answer out of which political capital might be made. Some seemed to have no notion as to what questions were legitimate, and what ones revealed matters that should be held under military secrecy.

For example, Secretary of State Acheson was asked what steps were being taken to wean China away from Moscow. Had he given the matter deep thought, the questioner would have realized that this was the last sort of information to make public. Acheson replied: "If we were doing something and I told you about it, it would immediately become totally ineffective. If we are not doing anything and I tell you that, then you ask, 'Why don't you do something?'"

If everyone thought over his questions before asking them, in all kinds of matters, much vain repetition would be eliminated. In such a hearing as this the questioners could have been released much sooner to carry on their regular official duties. Perhaps the pace at Washington gives too little time for deep thought.

Names Of Places

Most people would say that the United States is pretty thoroughly described from a geographical standpoint, but this notion is wrong. Many details remain to be recorded, even in as old and thickly populated commonwealths as Ohio. Dr. Hallie F. Raup, head of the Kent State University geography department, discovered that no list was available of Ohio's more than 20,000 named towns, rivers, creeks, marshes and hills. He is compiling such a list, with explanations as to the origins of the names, and ultimately will turn it over to the Department of the Interior.

It is astonishing what gaps exist in popular knowledge of such matters. Charles H. Grandgent, one-time Harvard University professor, was interested in hills not merely those in the open country but the small elevations to be found in many cities and towns. When he asked the name of a certain hill he would be told something like, "Oh, that is Spruce Street." That was not what he sought; he wanted to know the name of the hill which had presumably been climbed before a street was put through. Barely could anyone identify a particular hill in a town or city.

How much do you know about the geography of your neighborhood?

Bases Should Be Permanent

Tentative approval by the House Armed Services Committee of the allocation of some $41,232,000 for Navy projects within the State of Florida during the next fiscal year has been announced in Washington.

Among the installations affected is the Jacksonville
Naval Air Station which is slated for a nearly $10,000,000 refurbishing and enlargement. Other Naval Air Stations scheduled to receive sizeable portions of the proposed appropriation are at Sanford, Saufley Field, Whiting Field, Cecil Field, Key West, Miami and Pensacola. The Fleet Sonar Schools at Key West is also marked up for nearly $3,000,000.

The Defense Department has advanced sound enough arguments that this money is needed to complete previously approved defense plans. Combined with additional millions added by the Air Force and the Army for ports, camps and stations in Florida, this latest figure indicates a huge sum will be spent in this State to provide defense and training facilities before next July.—Times Union.

THE SANFORD HERALD, SANFORD, FLORIDASanford Forum

Mr. Holland L. Dean, Editor,
The Sanford Herald, Sanford.
Dear Mr. Dean:

To not agree with the Powers that Bechtel the handling of Sanford's affairs brands one as an "Obstructionist". To me to be an "Obstructionist" is preferable to the present "Destructionist"
way of handling the City.

It is not necessary to go back throughout the term of the member in control of Sanford to find what I term errors in their judgment. Unfortunately, their mistakes are charged to the citizens and they must pay the bill.

Let's look at the so-called "Memorial Stadium". As the father of an only son and the grandfather of my daughter's only son, both of whom made the supreme sacrifice in World War II, I object to such a thing being termed a "memorial" to them. I believe it could well be called a memorial to the lack of business judgment on the part of the three Commissioners who insisted it be built. This Stadium was being constructed to keep the Giants here. The Giants are now moving their baseball from Sanford. They say, I am told, that they never asked for a new Stadium, and yet our Commissioner, raw fit to spend this money,
with never a commitment or contract from them to stay and use it.

Just prior to the time the stadium question was agitated there was an article in the paper to the effect that no liability insurance could be obtained on the old grandstand. I have heard that an offer had been made prior to the date of the article to write such insurance, but that as that may the old grandstand was repaired for an expenditure of approximately $1,500, so that it was acceptable to the insurance companies. Next there appeared an article, credited I believe to City Manager McKibbin, condemning the old grandstand—or perhaps that was prior to the expenditure of $1,500. We then had a straw vote on the project, which the citizens were given to understand would cost $10,000 to $100,000, and the project was approved. The Memorial on Melville is the result, but the cost seems to have risen to $170,000 or $180,000. I consider this additional expenditure wholly without consideration of the best interests of Sanford and its tax payees. After the straw vote in during the Korean war broke out,
A resolution was introduced at the City Commission meeting
reading—

“ THEREFORE BE IT RE-SOLVED by the City Commission that work on the construction of the said War Memorial Stadium
in the City of Sanford be suspended until the National Production Authority releases critical material.”

Mr. Ratigan called a meeting of the board of directors and committee chairman at his home for Thursday night. He also introduced the Rev. Mark Carpenter of Fort Lauderdale, a former member of the Sanford club, who is spending a few weeks at Daytona Beach. Other visitors included Fred Baywell of Hudson, O.

Pastor Completes
St. James Windows

By J. HALL, JR.
A major triumph was witnessed at St. James on last Saturday, when the last window was completed, and put in place. Rev. Williams his top officers, and your humble writer were present. This was a beautiful sight to behold.

This success marked one of the greatest triumphs of St. James in the past six years.

Pastor, J. C. Williams, is anticipating many other plans for the growth, and progress of the church.

His coming to Sanford, and untiring efforts have already resulted in many new and profitable accomplishments.

Revival services are in progress under the direction of the Rev. Hinson, Daytona Beach.

Included:

1. A general manufacturers' excise tax at a sufficient rate to balance the budget. Food, clothing, medicine and shelter would be exempt.

2. No increases in corporate income or excess profits taxes.

The House bill proposes to raise about $2,800,000,000 annually from this source.

3. No individual income tax unless absolutely necessary.

If one is imposed, after the House formula to make the burden somewhat heavier on the lower income groups.

The NAM proposal did not meet with high favor among the senators last week.

Today's second witness, Russ Nixon of the left-wing United Electrical Workers Union, proposed that the burden of taxes be shifted away from low-income families by sharply increasing exemptions in the individual income tax.

Nixon said this would knock out about $7,000,000,000 of taxes on such families. He suggested this be made up "by adequately taxation of profits, wealthy corporations and individuals cashing in on tax-exempt loopholes."

McGill touched off a lengthy discussion by urging that the budget for the current fiscal year be cut $10,000,000,000 from the $71,600,000,000 level originally fixed by the Treasury.

The Treasury's most recent estimate cut this to $68,400,000.

Asked to specify where the cuts could be made, McGill suggested foreign economic and military aid, subsidy programs to the states for such things as highways, and loans by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and housing agencies.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said he didn't think it politically or economically feasible to cut the subsidies to states. But he said he sees room for large savings in military spending without cutting the size or effectiveness of the armed forces.

The American Farm Bureau Federation followed up with an argument that a steep tax increase is a better way to combat inflation than price and wage controls.

Warren Agrees To Conference With Senators

Florida Governor Refuses To Take Oath Before Committee On Legal Grounds

Miami, July 10.—(AP)—The Crime Commission of greater Miami today stated "one thing is obvious, Fuller Warren won't have any part of any proceedings whereby he will testify under oath." The commission, in a statement issued by Operating Director Daniel P. Sullivan, said the Governor's latest statement that his oath of office is sufficient "is a distortion of fact in an effort to justify his refusal to cause the laws to be enforced as required by his oath of office." The statement declared that Warren "refused to move his hand to release greater Miami from the grip of unknown-known racketeers" and said "Governor Warren's own investigator was a part of the movement that brought Capone gangsters into Miami."

TALLAHASSEE, July 10.—(AP)—Governor Fuller Warren today informed the U. S. Senate Crime Committee that he will not submit to its subpoena "whether it be in Washington, Florida or any other place."

The Governor renewed his previous invitation for the Crime Committee to confer with him here, but he made it plain that he expected any such conference would be on a give and take basis and that he would be bound only by the oath he took when sworn in as Governor of Florida.

In a letter to Senator Herbert R. O'Connor (D-Md.) chairman of the Crime Committee, Warren said: "I shall not surrender the sovereignty of the State of Florida by submitting to subpoena commanding the Governor of Florida to appear anywhere, whether it be in Washington, Florida or any other place."

Romeo Goumier issued a subpoena calling for Warren's appearance before the Crime Committee in Washington yesterday after the Governor twice rejected invitations to appear before the group during its hearings in Miami June 21-22.

Warren accepted service of the subpoena June 26, but later returned it to the committee, contending that under the constitutional dual sovereignty between the states and the federal government, the Senate committee had no power to force an appearance of the Governor of a sovereign state.

Senator O'Connor wrote Warren Saturday advising the Governor the committee was extending its subpoena 10 days and offering to convene the committee in Florida at a time and place mutually agreeable to hear Warren in public session.

In his letter to O'Connor to day, the Governor said: "I shall be glad to have your committee confer with me at Tallahassee on Page 48."

State Demonstration Agents Hold Meet

GAINESVILLE, July 10.—(AP)—Approximately 300 delegates to the 1951 Florida State Council of Home Demonstration Work registered today for the four-day session at the University of Florida.

The theme of the 27th annual affair is "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

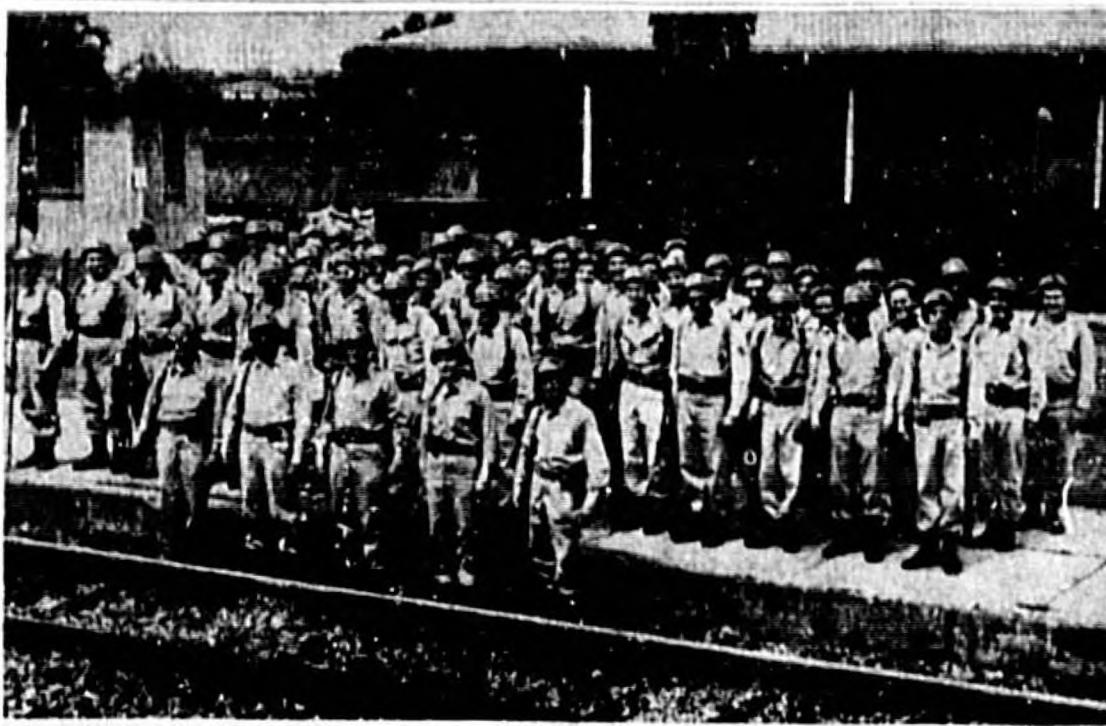

Revision of the State Council constitution is one of the main tasks facing the group, according to Miss Anna Mae Sikes, state home demonstration agent. In session from July 10-13, representatives from 35 Florida counties will also evaluate activities of the past year and outline plans for this year's work.

The report said the first six months of this year "will necessarily show heavy losses" because of delays in putting into effect recently won increased charges.

The Commission claimed that rises in wages and prices had caused the increase in transport costs and were largely responsible for the huge deficit.

It said, however, that "part of the deficit has fallen on the general taxpayer. The accrued deficit, which compares with a three-year turnover of $1,500,000 ($420,000,000), means that over the past three years transport users have received transport services at less than cost, and future users are left to make good the differences."

National Guardsmen Leave For Camp

More than 60 men and five officers of Co. I, 124th Infantry, the Florida National Guard, entrained Saturday afternoon at the Atlantic Coast Line Depot for Anniston, Ala., and two weeks of encampment and training at Fort McClellan. The men led by Capt. David Catchell, other officers in charge were Lieut. Robert Newman, Lieut. Glenn Lingle, Lieut. Jack Tinberg and T. V. Brown, warrant officer.

Wet And Dry Election Looms Over Closing Hours Of Beer Parlors

Prospects for a wet and dry election loomed in Seminole County today as the County Commission, refusing to accede to requests of beer parlors and juke joints that they be permitted to operate until 2:00 A. M. instead of having to close at midnight, indicated that the best way of settling the argument was to hold an election.

After listening for more than two hours to arguments for extending the closing hours, the Commission declined to take any action now, proposing to await the presentation of a petition calling for a wet and dry election.

Commission Chairman J. F. McClelland stated, "If a petition is presented to the Board with the required number of signatures, we will call a wet and dry election."

Tavern owners and interested citizens crowded the Commission room to capacity as Martin Segal, Orlando attorney, representing the Seminole County Tavern Owners Association, argued for an extension of the closing hours to 2:00 A. M.

Representing the Sanford Ministerial Association, which had advocated the ban on Sunday and after-midnight beer sales was Rev. A. G. Melvin, president of the Association. He declared that his group had not changed its stand against Sunday sales or midnight closing.

The wet and dry vote issue came up when Commissioner Pope declared that he did not think the Board had sufficient wisdom to determine whether the closing restrictions were right or wrong. "The problem is this," he declared, "does this county want prohibition or not. I think it is up to the people of Seminole County to vote whether they want it wet or dry."

The Rev. J. E. McKinley replied that he accepted the challenge mentioned on Page 51.

Government Owned British Railways Have Huge Deficit

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—The British Transport Commission dropped $14,100,000 ($30,000,000) running the state-owned railways, docks, long distance trucking lines and large canals in 1950, and expects to go further in the red this year.

Since the Labor government went into the transport business three years ago it has lost a total of $93,600,000 ($10,000,000), the commission's annual report disclosed tonight.

The report said the first six months of this year "will necessarily show heavy losses" because of delays in putting into effect recently won increased charges.

The Commission claimed that rises in wages and prices had caused the increase in transport costs and were largely responsible for the huge deficit.

It said, however, that "part of the deficit has fallen on the general taxpayer. The accrued deficit, which compares with a three-year turnover of $1,500,000 ($420,000,000), means that over the past three years transport users have received transport services at less than cost, and future users are left to make good the differences."

GUARD GOES OVERSEAS

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—The Army today alerted two National Guard division for movement to Europe this fall.

They are the 28th Division, originally from Pennsylvania, and the 43rd, drawn from Rhode Island, Connecticut and Vermont.

Two regular Army divisions, the 4th Infantry and the 2nd Armored started for Europe earlier this year.

The final units of the 2nd Armored Division are expected to reach Europe this month.

The 28th Division has been training at Camp Atterbury, Ind., and the 43rd at Camp Pickett, Va. Both National Guard divisions were called into federal service last fall.

INFLATION

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(AP)—If inflation is here to stay, Mickey Cohen is glad to stay.

The prosecution, arguing that Cohen should get a long term, yesterday pointed out that the gambler had evaded about $150,000 in taxes, roughly the same amount as the late Al Capone, who received an 11-year sentence.

"That was before inflation," snapped U. S. Judge Ben Harrison.

Cohen got five years and $10,000 fine.

The Commission claimed that rises in wages and prices had caused the increase in transport costs and were largely responsible for the huge deficit.

It said, however, that "part of the deficit has fallen on the general taxpayer. The accrued deficit, which compares with a three-year turnover of $1,500,000 ($420,000,000), means that over the past three years transport users have received transport services at less than cost, and future users are left to make good the differences."

The solution to the mystery is this:

The "Dixie Division" is based on 10,000 National Guardsmen from Alabama and Mississippi.

But the remainder of its men have been drawn, via the draft, from as far away as California and Washington.

Apparently it doesn't take very long before the "Yankees" become imbued with the spirit and traditions of the 31st and no Southerner exceeds their pride in the Division and all that it represents.

Fish Estate Will Be Refunded Cost Of Hospital Lot

City Is Authorized To Buy Property To Widen French Ave.

The City Commission went on record last night as agreeing to refund to the Ben Fish Estate the money, minus brokerage fees, which the estate paid the City for the hospital property at First Street and Meltonville Avenue. The sum amounting to $7,200, will be paid to the Fish Estate at the time that a contract is let for the construction of a hospital, H. N. Sayer, city clerk said this morning.

At the same time, the City will request the County to convey back to the City the deed for property in the Bel-Air Section which the City had transferred to the County for the purpose of providing a hospital site.

W. V. Bitting was seated as commissioner to fill the unexpired term of Sam Martin, who recently resigned. He will occupy this post until after a commissioner is elected in November.

Due to a Public Hearing Administration ruling that no City Commissioner may serve as a Housing Authority Commissioner, Mr. Bitting submitted his resignation as a member of the Sanford Housing Authority.

A resolution was passed authorizing the City to procure title and possession of certain lands along French Avenue. These titles will be conveyed to the State Road Department for the necessary right of way and easements pending widening the street to 82 feet. The State has approved this, as well as a market road project.

These titles include land on both sides of the street from Thirtieth Street south to Orlando Highway, and from Thirtieth Street to Seminole Boulevard. Title to two structures must be seated one a house beyond Twentieth Street and small building on North French Avenue will be sold by Mr. Sayer.

The Commission agreed to expand up to $1,500 in order to co-operate with the County in draining land on the West Side near the Cemetery. A survey of the draining needs there was

Appropriations For Department Of State Are Cut

Commerce, Judiciary

Are Also Reduced

In Economy Move

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—The House Appropriations Committee recommended today an 18 per cent cut in this year's funds for the State Department, but aimed none of the reduction directly at Secretary Acheson.

The committee recommended that the State Department be given $231,472,000 of the $285,000,000 President Truman requested. That would be a cut of $52,544,766.

This was a small percentage reduction than the committee applied to the 1952 budget of the Commerce Department, whose funds, along with those of the Justice Department and the judiciary, are carried in the same bill.

The Justice Department was allotted $100,667,000 of the $184,350,000 it requested, a cut of 19 per cent. The federal judiciary was cut from $26,009,740 to $25,918,115 a 2.2 per cent reduction. The $1,051,151,15 total in the four-agency measure was $26,510,256 less than the $1,258,296,441 the President requested. That is a reduction of about 10 percent. The committee's action, of course, is subject to approval by the House and then by the Senate.

The Commerce Department was given $612,600,000 of the $763,743,925 it wanted, a cut of 20 per cent.

The federal judiciary was cut from $26,009,740 to $25,918,115 a 2.2 per cent reduction.

The report, written by Rep. Rooney (D-N.Y.), emphasized the need for a "strong Department of State" as "essential not only to the best interests and defense of this nation but also to the maintenance and expansion of freedom throughout the world."

Mr. Rooney is chairman of the appropriations subcommittee which considered the bill.

To justify the additional activities of the department at this time, the report said the first six months of this year "will necessarily show heavy losses" because of delays in putting into effect recently won increased charges.
