HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSO. For Saturday, July 24, 1978. ARIES (March 21-April 19) Engage in activities today that are family oriented. At the very least, invite others to your place instead of going to theirs. TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A short jaunt may be just what the doctor ordered for you today. Pick a scenic spot that you enjoy visiting. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your financial prospects look pretty nifty today. You could pick up some extra shekels in a hurry if you put your clever mind to work. CANCER (June 21-July 22) Usually, speculative situations have more size than substance, but today you may hear of something that's worth a hard second look. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Keep confidential information strictly to yourself today. This is a good day to mix business and pleasure. A client you couldn't reach from your desk may be more understanding at dinner. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your hunches are a definite plus for you today. Don't discount your splendid logic, but do heed that small inner voice. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) People are rooting for you today that you may not even be aware of. They'll take as much pride in your accomplishments as you will.

ACTH Stimulates Adrenal Cortex

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D. DEAR DR. LAMB - I have taken both cortisone and ACTH for arthritis of the arm and back. You state in your column that the ACTH stimulates your healthy adrenal cortex. How does a doctor come to this delicate conclusion without first checking the patient's adrenal cortex to see if they are healthy? What tests should be given to check a patient's adrenal cortex?

The doctor uses all the information he gets from his history and physical examination to make a preliminary judgment about his patient's health, and that includes how the endocrine glands are functioning. Sometimes he can make a definite diagnosis on the basis of the history and physical findings alone. Beyond that he uses tests.

The adrenal cortex hormones affect your body chemistry and the amount of the hormones or derivatives of these hormones in the blood or the amount eliminated in the urine can be measured.

The action of ACTH has been documented by laboratory studies in animals and in humans. When a test is done the levels of hormones or their derivatives in the blood and urine are measured. The patient takes the ACTH and the levels of the hormones and their

Teacher Group Seeks $2,900 Living Cost Increase

School Board, SEA To Square Off On Salaries Issue

By BILL CURRIE, Managing Editor. The Seminole County School Board and Seminole Education Association (SEA) will get down to the nitty-gritty of teacher salaries when they face each other at the bargaining table on Tuesday afternoon. Administration officials say they're hoping to operate the 1978-79 school year on a 'hold-the-line' budget, which includes the same $8,100 starting salary teachers received last year.

Nationwide Dragnet Out For Kidnapers Of School Children

CHOWCHILLA, Calif. (AP) - The FBI has joined a nationwide dragnet for two men wanted in the kidnaping of 26 schoolchildren and their bus driver, after a third man sought in the bizarre mass abduction case surrendered.

Restaurant At Sanford Airport Ordered Closed

By KRIS NASH, Herald Staff Writer. Two months ago at the Sanford-Central Florida Airport a woman was forced to give up her five-year-old business, an event, she says, which led to financial losses, totaling more than $15,000 and created health problems that landed her in the hospital for 10 days.

Well Since You Asked...

Q. How many of the new coaches in the National Football League this year played pro football? Has there ever been a coaching turnover as big as this one? — G.R., Cincinnati, O.

There are seven new head men: Bill Johnson, Cincinnati; Lou Holtz, New York Jets; Monte Clark, San Francisco; Hank Stram, New Orleans; Dick Vermeil, Philadelphia; John McKay, Tampa Bay; Jack Patra, Seattle. Johnson, Clark and Patra were ex-NFL players, all linemen. The class of '69 was the greatest turnout in NFL coaching annals. Eight new head coaches started the season that year, among them such hardy pilots as Chuck Noll of Pittsburgh and John Madden of Oakland.

Q. Was Dennis Shaw the Buffalo Bills first quarterback? What has become of him? — R.Z., Roseburg, Ore.

Dennis has been around awhile, but not that long. The San Diego State product was the backup quarterback for the St. Louis Cardinals, behind Jim Hart but has just announced his retirement after six seasons. The starting quarterback for the Buffalo Bills when they were organized in 1960 was Tommy O'Connell, who had once played for Cleveland.

Q. How do they figure scoring in the Olympic decathlon event? — M.K., Sacramento, Calif.

Without making it too complicated, a table of performance for each of the 10 events in the decathlon has been prepared by the IAAF (the international governing body), with 1,000 points designated for the theoretical maximum in each event, scaled on down according to distance or time achieved. Periodically, the tables have been adjusted when there has been significant progress in an event, such as the pole vault with its fiberglass whips. Bruce Jenner, top contender at Montreal and world record holder, figures his personal ultimate at 8,700 points.

Q. Recently you said you could not find the name of Gene Stevens in major league annals. He played for the Boston Red Sox in the 1950s and is co-holder of the record for most hits in one inning (11). He was best known as Ted Williams' catcher. — W.L., Osgood, Illinois, Beach, Calif.

The repeat, there is no Gene Stevens in major league annals. There is a Gene Stephens, who played from 1922 to 1964, starting out with the Boston Red Sox as his first assignment to decades. He never "beated." In answering a recent question about major leaguers whose careers spanned four different decades, I should have included the old pitcher, Jack Quinn, who was tossed then up to the plate at the venerable age of 49.

Q. Don't you think the U.S. Olympic committee should have made an exception and let Steve Williams, the world's best sprinter, compete on the team going to Montreal? — T.L., Springtown, Ohio.

It's a toughie, having a muscle pull negate four years of work. The United States is the only country in the world that selects its team on the basis of one final trial. And so I know it's right. It takes all the politics out of choosing an Olympic squad. Dr. Leroy Walker, the men's coach of the American team, argues for an amended system that would pick the team early and make Harrison Dillard one of the few who would miss the Olympics in his best event, the hurdles, because he collided with a standard, but he made the team as a sprinter and still won gold medals.

Q. Why couldn't O.J. Simpson be happy staying with the Buffalo Bills? That's where he's played all his pro career, and I think the Bills have treated him right. — D.J., Olean, N.Y.

O.J. has no grudge with the Bills' management, though it's no secret Buffalo was never his choice for a playing career. The real problem is personal — he's wife lived in Los Angeles last season, and the only way O.J. can assert domestic discipline is to move to a new town.

Q. Why have madcatlans has the American ace, Bruce Jenner, participated in? What do you think of his chances in the Olympics at Montreal? — F.M., San Jose, Calif.

The decathlon is not an event that's held every week. Since Jenner got involved with the 10-event grand slam in 1970, he estimates he has completed 25 decathlons. He has lost only one, the 1975 National AAU test, since 1972. I think he'll win at Montreal, because he has the endurance and the endurance.

Q. Can you give me the name of a one-armer who played ball for the old St. Louis Browns? I believe I played sandlot ball with him in a town named Fagus. — Sherman Gardner, Santa Ana, Calif.

Pete Gray (real name Wychner) came up to the St. Louis Browns in 1945 and played 77 games as an outfielder, hitting .218. It's unlikely he played sandlot ball in Missouri since he's a native of Nanticoke, Pa., and still lives there, as a semi-pro.

Q. Can you tell me what Will Chamberlain is doing now? Is there a chance he will play professional baseball again now that the leagues have merged? — D.L., Sterling, Colo.

"I'm into a lot of things," said Will when I ran into him at the Olympic trials — but mostly fishing. "He covered the trials for SPORT Magazine. There is almost no chance he'll play baseball again. He'll be 40 years old in August."

Q. How come when a batter hits a fly ball to the outfielder, the man on third tags up and comes home, it's called a sacrifice fly? But when a man in an infield or the batter hits a fly ball to the outfielder and the man tags up and advances, it's not called a sacrifice fly. — Jon O'Brien, Vergennes, Vt.

Because in the latter instance the batter's not really sacrificing himself. Obviously he'll be going for a base hit, but with a runner on third, a batter will frequently concentrate on getting the ball in the air so that at the very least a fly to the outfield will get the man home. Hence, sacrifice fly. There have been periods in major league baseball when the batter was not credited with a sacrifice even in such situations.

Q. Who holds the record for hitting home runs in the most major league parks? — J.L., Cincinnati, O.

It's that old Cincinnati slugger, Frank Robinson, who was given new life in his career when he shifted his home to Baltimore. Frank has hit home runs in 22 different stadiums during the course of his career — that counts old and new ball parks. Hank Aaron found the range in 30. Behind them comes Billy Williams, with 28.

Soviet Standout Has Plan

By MURRAY OLDEMAN

MONTREAL (AP) — Soviet strongman Nikolai Andrianov has it all figured.

"The secret is to avoid making mistakes," he advised. "I try to avoid making mistakes in my programs."

So does everyone else. But Andrianov is better at it than the others. The muscular, blond collected three more Olympic gymnastic gold medals Friday night to go with his previous four. He's now the Nadia Comaneci of the male gymnastic world.

He won the floor exercise, the vault and the pommel horse, and added a silver in the parallel bars and a bronze in the side horse — one of the finest showings in Olympic history.

Coming on the heels of the dramatic women's competition, it was dull stuff.

"I'm not jealous," said Andrianov, the overwhelming popularity of women's gymnastics. "People are always more interested in women than they are in men."

Andrianov is not spectacular. He turns in workmanlike performances, holds his mistakes to a minimum, and wins.

Peter Korman, a 21-year-old junior at Southern Connecticut State, didn't win but he did come in third, taking a bronze in the floor exercise. It was the first U.S. medal in men's gymnastics since 1922.

The Japanese, who won 15 of 24 gymnastics medals overall four years ago in Munich, managed only 10 of 25 here.

Head coach said a deal prior to the competition. "The first thing he said was 'If you will support our man in the floor exercise, we'll favor your team.'" Whataboutson said. "The 20-kilometer walk was the only other field on the opening day of track and field. That title, in an upset, went to Daniele Buitoni, a first Mexican ever to win an Olympic gold in track and field. He was timed in 1:11 hour, 24 minutes, 46.6 seconds.

Both Wettstone and Frank Korman was the first by an American in men's gymnastics since 1922.

Korman's medal came in floor exercise, one of three events won by the muscular, 24-year-old Russian. Andrianov won a silver and a bronze in the men's 10-meter dash and the men's javelin. Kate Schumil, Pacific Palisades, Calif., has a pending world record in the javelin.

Unser Haunting Mets; Phils Up Lead To 12

By The Associated Press

When the New York Mets made a trade earlier this week, they had no idea it would pay quick dividends.

But it did — for the Montreal Expos.

Del Unser, sent to Montreal along with Wayne Garrett last Tuesday in a swap for Pepe Mangual and Jimmy Dwyer, came right back to haunt his old team Friday night.

"I haven't hit the ball that well all season," said Unser after his solo home run in the 11th inning gave Montreal a 3-2 victory over New York.

User's blast came off Skip Lockwood and brought a deafening ovation from the 14,134 at Jarry Park. As he crossed home plate, his new teammates poured out of the dugout to congratulate him.

In the other National League game, the Cincinnati Reds beat the Atlanta Braves 3-1; the Philadelphia Phillies routed the Pittsburgh Pirates 11-1; the Chicago Cubs trimmed the St. Louis Cardinals 4-3; the San Francisco Giants blanked the Houston Astros 2-0 and the Los Angeles Dodgers turned back the San Diego Padres 5-0.

Reds 2, Braves 1. George Foster broke a tie with a two-run single in the eighth inning and right-hander Santo Amador hurled a seven-inning shutout.

Cubs 4, Cardinals 3. Pitcher Jerry Morales smacked a leadoff home run in the seventh inning, snapping a 3-0 tie and sending Chicago to St. Louis.

Phillies 11, Pirates 1. Dave Cash drilled an inside-the-park home run, two singles and batted in two runs as Philadelphia routed Pittsburgh and extended its National League East lead to 12 games—the longest of the season.

Giants 2, Astros 0. Jim Barr fired a four-hitter and Gary Matthews drove home a pair of runs with a fifth-inning single, leading San Francisco past Houston, Barr, 8-0, and two Pirate relievers for 15 hits, including Mike Schmidt's 25th home run, Philadelphia's right-hander Jim Lindberg set down the Pirates for his 12th victory in 17 decisions.

Tommy John hurled his first shutout in more than two years and Bill Buckner and Steve Yeager slugged home runs as Los Angeles beat San Diego, 6-0, scattered four hits and walked only one in pitching.

Morales' homer, his 11th of the season, came off Cards' starter Harry Rasmussen, 3-8, after Chicago led earlier in the game to overcome 1-0 and 3-1 Cardinal leads.

O'Melia actually calls Jersey City, N.J., his home but his parents reside in the southern part of Seneca County and Brian is living with them while trying to establish himself with the local fire department.

Currently tipping the scales at 202 pounds, O'Melia is that thing boxing promoters dream about — a white heavyweight who can fight.

As local matchmaker Bruce Trampler puts it, "There is no getting around it, while heavyweight can make a lot of money in boxing today, but of course, only if he can win."

"I have seen Brian fight up around New York and while he isn't in the league with Al, Foreman or Norton yet, he could be a hit down here."

"We feel all Brian needs is the proper training, and management and he can really go a long way in this business. He has been working out for almost two weeks now with our trainer, Dominick Polo, and lets just say everyone is happy the way things are progressing right now."

When O'Melia was asked about his initial reaction to Florida and the boxing program at the Sports Stadium he responded, "I like it a lot down here. It's really hot back there, the gym and I have never worked as hard as I am with Dominick but I expect to really be in great shape for my first fight here."

"I have always felt I like everything it takes to be able to beat almost anyone in the world but I have never been able to fight under the proper conditions before."

"I don't have that excuse anymore. I couldn't be happier with the way I am being treated and I am certain that I will be able to win in my first fight here."

Despite not having the "proper conditions before," O'Melia has defeated such names as Jerry Houston and Bill Carlson. Houston was undefeated and on his way to some big money fights at the O'Melia best him. Carlson was the best of the light fighters and fresh from two straight shot KO wins when he was upset by Brian last year.

O'Melia has a crowd pleasing style of walking right in and banging with both hands. This type of action has become commonplace at the Sports Stadium this year and because of it, O'Melia should be a worthwhile addition.

From the lightweight division (Frankie Santoro), to the welterweights (Vincent and Scott Clark), to the lightweights (Taco Perer, Mad Dog Rose and Gene Wells), to the light heavyweights (Mike Quarry and Savage Turner) almost every division is well represented. Up till now we haven't had a one-hundred pounder to come out and watch on a regular basis.

Now we have O'Melia and I am certain that everybody concerned will be better off because of it.

Quarry's and Vincent's opponents are yet to be named but Trampler is trying to bring someone in to challenge both of their titles. Quarry is the Southern light heavyweight champion while Vincent is the newly crowned Florida State Welterweight title holder.

Also expected to see action on this card is Casselberry's gift to the boxing world, Scott "Golden Boy" Clark. Clark has the local fight crowd all in a dither with his four impressive wins, since turning pro, at the tender age of 17, in just over two months time Clark has upset Tiger Hall, while stopping Jerry Bennett, Geddis Jones and Max Hard. His three knockouts have taken place in less than five rounds of total fighting.

Sanford's Taco Perez was to have fought Indiana's KO sensation, George Madison on this upcoming card but that bout had to be pushed back two weeks to the 17th of August because Madison claims he still hasn't properly recovered from a cut eye he received on June 8, the last time he fought Perez at the Sports Stadium.

In that contest Madison was awarded a one round KO victory after he himself was stopped in the third round.

That seems hard to believe, that means you weren't at the fight that night and the whole thing is too long and involved to go into at this time. But when Trampler finally gets Madison's name on a contract, I will explain how you can lose, win, and then lose a fight.

If you remember the story, I am certain you won't mind reading it again. It certainly was one for the books.

PHILS UP LEAD TO 12. Dave Cash drilled an inside-the-park home run, two singles and batted in two runs as Philadelphia routed Pittsburgh and extended its National League East lead to 12 games—the longest of the season.

Giants 2, Astros 0. Jim Barr fired a four-hitter and Gary Matthews drove home a pair of runs with a fifth-inning single, leading San Francisco past Houston, Barr, 8-0, and two Pirate relievers for 15 hits, including Mike Schmidt's 25th home run, Philadelphia's right-hander Jim Lindberg set down the Pirates for his 12th victory in 17 decisions.

Tommy John hurled his first shutout in more than two years and Bill Buckner and Steve Yeager slugged home runs as Los Angeles beat San Diego, 6-0, scattered four hits and walked only one in pitching.

Morales' homer, his 11th of the season, came off Cards' starter Harry Rasmussen, 3-8, after Chicago led earlier in the game to overcome 1-0 and 3-1 Cardinal leads.

O'Melia actually calls Jersey City, N.J., his home but his parents reside in the southern part of Seneca County and Brian is living with them while trying to establish himself with the local fire department.

Currently tipping the scales at 202 pounds, O'Melia is that thing boxing promoters dream about — a white heavyweight who can fight.

As local matchmaker Bruce Trampler puts it, "There is no getting around it, while heavyweight can make a lot of money in boxing today, but of course, only if he can win."

South blew both hot and cold. His first bid of just one spade was a real underbid. Still there was method in his madness. He was sure that the bidding was not going to die. His second bid of four spades was an overbid, but he wanted to be in game and was afraid that a mere three-spade bid would be dropped. He took dummy's ace of hearts and cashed the ace and king of spades. If trumps had broken it would have been all over, but West was mean enough to show out and it was up to South to find a way to hold himself to one diamond loss.

HOROSCOPE

By HERNICE REDONOL
For Sunday, July 25, 1976
ARIES (March 21-April 19) It's possible you could have a bit of a chip on your shoulder today with relatives or family members. Don't let them get to you.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Normally you have a substantial amount of patience with trying tasks, but today you could lose your cool too easily.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be careful today or you may be snowed into parting with something you're very fond of by a smooth-talking acquaintance.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you're trying to stick to a definite budget today, avoid free-spending friends whom you'll feel obligated to keep up with.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Control over certain matters important to you may slip from your hands today unless you take steps to prevent it.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Don't treat others in a condescending manner today. Being uppity doesn't become you. Those you deal with will even the score later.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Operate in accordance with your highest ideals today. You're in the spotlight. Your every action is being observed.

For Monday, July 26, 1976
ARIES (March 21-April 19) An opportunity of considerable size may present itself today. Should fortune favor you, don't let the brass ring slip from your fingers.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) There is a favorable shift in domestic conditions. It should prove to be beneficial to all and will enhance family life as a whole.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Today's bright ideas should definitely be pursued. There's a strong chance they'll lead to something very worthwhile.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your material prospects look extremely encouraging today, especially if you're involved in a venture with an ambitious associate.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) New enterprises launched today have a better-than-average chance of success. Don't be timid about taking a calculated risk.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A well-informed insider may pass some information on to you today. Follow his exact instructions for best results.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Organizational activities are favored today. Good things could come through contacts and associates. They'll have far-reaching effects.

YOUR BIRTHDAY July 25, 1976
Influential contracts that you've developed in the past will be making this year and will prove to be an immense asset. Seek activities where you can meet new people.
