

Top Defense Aides To Attend Derby

Annual Reconnaissance-Bombing Derby, scheduled next week at Sanford Naval Air Station, each year attracts many of the country's top defense officials most concerned with evaluating the Navy's air attack and reconnaissance potential, and this year is no exception.

Already indicating they will attend this year's readiness exercise are seven admirals, a general and some 20 Navy captains and Army colonels.

Among the attendees will be the top Naval air officer in both the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets.

They are Vice Adm. Paul Stroop, commander of Naval Air Force Pacific Fleet; and Vice Adm. Charles Booth II, who assumes command of Naval Air Force Atlantic Fleet Wednesday.

Also expected to attend are Vice Adm. Robert Stroh, deputy director of the Joint Strategic Target Planning Staff, Offutt AFB; Rear Adm. Robert Goldthwaite, commander of Fleet Air Jacksonville; Rear Adm. D. F. Smith Jr., chief of Naval Air Basic Training, Pensacola; Rear Adm. Forayth Massey, Strike Command chief of staff, and Rear Adm. Joseph Jaap, commander in chief of Pacific's representative for Strategic Target Planning.

In addition to providing an unusual opportunity to see the capabilities and readiness of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, the Derby, with its many social events, gives the military, defense contractors and civic leaders in the Sanford area a chance to get together.

The first social event on the week's schedule will be a barbecue the night of April 9 sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

The following afternoon a "Screen Door Open" golf meet will be held with military and civilians pairing off at Mayfair Country Club.

A reception-cocktail party, attended by an estimated 1,000 last year, will be held the evening of April 9 at Naval Air Station ballroom.

Saturday, April 10 and the final day of the exercise, an air show-open house will be held followed by a Navy Appreciation Day picnic sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The air show, the only event open to the general public, will feature aerial demonstrations by the Navy's Blue Angels, the "Flying Professor," a comedy Piper Cub act, and Sanford's own BA-5C Vigilantes and A-3B Skywarriors.

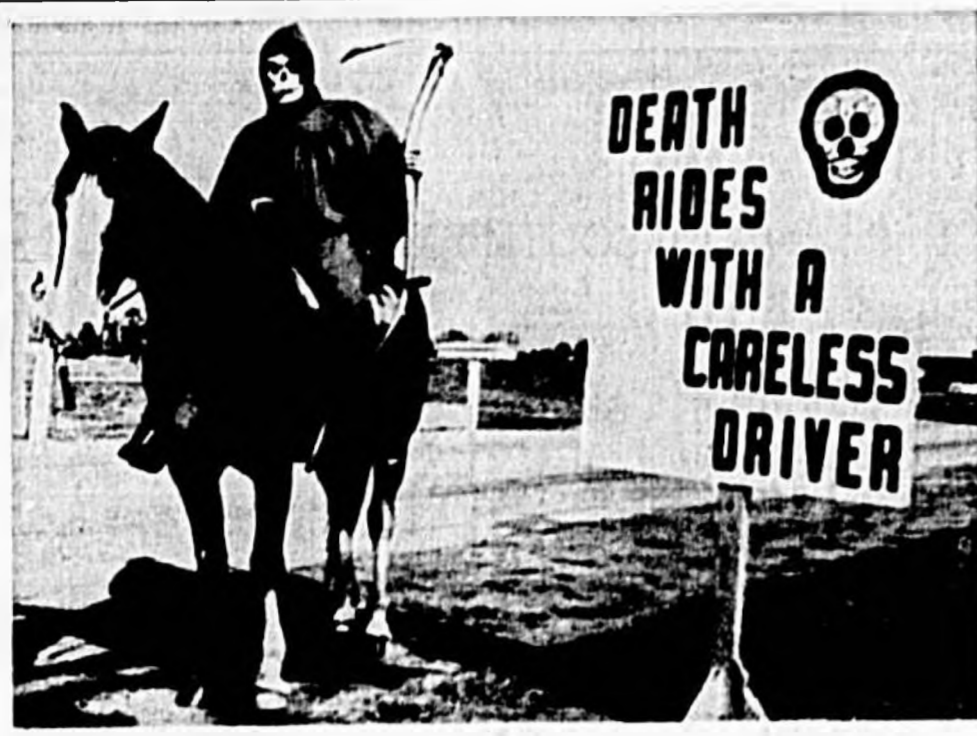

Opens Mouth

SOLIHULL, England (UPI) — Alec Worthington wrote the local governing council 18 months ago that his neighbor paid £40 more real estate tax than he did although their homes were identical.

The council notified Worthington Thursday that he was right, there had been a mistake, and would be pleased to pay £72.80 in back taxes or face a summons.

BINGO!—Sunny California is even brighter these days, thanks to the warm smile of Maria Kristen, one of the stars of a movie called "Beach Blanket Bingo."

'Mr. Death' Is Safety Reminder

The safety conscious Sanford Naval Air Station has found the "thinking man's" way of getting its point across again. The station safety program is assigned to a different department or squadron each month, with the Marine Barracks having had it for March, under the supervision of Wes Giles, ground safety officer for the station.

During the month of March, Giles provided his horse, Blaze, to assist the Marine Barracks with their safety program.

Blaze, along with his rider, R. J. Reno, a private attached to the Marine Barracks, trotted back and forth between two large signs which read "Death Rides with the Careless Driver."

The signs, placed at the entrance to the main gate facing the incoming traffic, and about one block from the gate entrance facing the outgoing traffic, called attention to the horse and its rider, dressed in a black cloak, death mask and scythe, indicating that "death does ride with the careless driver."

The idea of the horse and its rider so inspired the Florida Highway Patrol's safety officer, Sgt. Bob Kilgo, star of the weekly TV program, "It's the Law," and Channel 6's camera crew that they filmed the scene.

Also filmed for the program were scenes including Capt. C. D. Swanson, station commanding officer; the station safety council in session and a demonstration with "Jesus Annie," a rubber model used in instructing respirator, by Mrs. Peg Horner and Mrs.

Martha Kilpatrick, American Red Cross volunteers.

The safety program was featured on "It's a Law" last Saturday on channel 6.

Also appearing on the program were R. C. Wallers, EOI and W. S. Brown, EON2, petty officers in charge of the drivers training school aboard the station. This school includes 10 hours of instructions in and out of the classroom for military and their dependents.

This school is required for enlisted personnel before they can obtain a military driver's license.

The drivers training school probably is the most effective means of safety education a board the Sanford Naval Air Station, although safety lectures are given to various departments and squadrons by Kilgo and Giles.

Pre-School Child Welfare Funds Asked For Workshops

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — A Florida organization concerned with the welfare of the pre-school child plans to ask the state for money to set up workshops for day care centers.

Mrs. Clyde McIntyre, president of the Florida Association on Children-under-six, said there is a great need for kindergarten programs in schools since 52 of Florida's counties require no licenses to operate a day care center.

The licensing in Alachua, Broward, Escambia, Hillsborough, Leon, Manatee, Martin, Okaloosa, Palm Beach, Polk and Sarasota counties is handled by the county health departments.

In Duval, Duval and Orange counties, the State Department of Public Welfare is the licensing agency.

Because some day centers are not regulated, the buildings may be unsafe and in a poor neighborhood, playgrounds may not be fenced, the rooms may be dirty, poor food served and the house may have diseased pets, the State Health Department said in a recent publication.

Bad as a few of the centers are, they can sometimes be better than leaving the child at home.

The State Health Department said some children have been burned to death when they were left at home alone by working mothers and an alarming number of children do not go to school because they are kept at home to care for younger children.

'Astronautess' Jane Orbits Seminole

EDITOR'S NOTE: While the eyes of the world were on Gemini Astronauts Grissom and Young, Herald reporter Jane Casselberry was orbiting Seminole and Orange Counties in order to get a bird's eye view of Florida Forest Service operations from its fire patrol plane.

By Jane Casselberry
When Florida Forest Service air patrol pilot Ivan Walden of Leesburg made an unscheduled landing at Flying Seminole Ranch on SR 419 at Chulucota, at the request of County Ranger Al Harris he acquired a passenger . . . me.

To obtain first hand experience for an article on the Forest Service's air ground operations, I climbed aboard his Cessna 140 for the one-hour circuit of Seminole and Orange Counties.

We flew along the shore of Lake Jessup west to Apopka then south to Martin Plant and McCoy Air Force Base and east to Bithlo, taking time to check out several fires spotted enroute.

During the three worst months of the year for fires—January, February, and March—the plane is under contract to the Forest Service patrolling from 12:30 p. m. on dry days, averaging 125 hours a month.

Library Meeting Set Thursday

By Julia Bartos
A slate of nominees for officers of the Altamonte Springs Community Library Association will be presented at the group's annual meeting scheduled for 8 p. m. Thursday at the library building.

The nominating committee, Mrs. H. Graham Fuller, chairman, and Mrs. Keith Nixon and Mrs. Glenn Humes, will report and nominations also will be accepted from the floor. Plans will be discussed for the annual Silver Tea to take place in late April.

It is urged that all members of the Association attend this important meeting.

Biting Suspect

MARTINEZ, Calif. (UPI) — Otto Borfield, police chief of this northern California city, had a painful lesson on the hazards of performing his constabulary duty.

Summond to a ladies' clothing store to arrest a woman shoplifter, Borfield had just apprehended the suspect when she bit him.

Food Fiesta Scores Big

By Mrs. H. I. Johnson
A capacity "standing room only" crowd of men, women and students attended the second annual Mr. and Mrs. Creative Cooking School at the Sanford Civic Center Tuesday evening.

The group watched with mouths watering as Miss Mary Metz, "Mary Logan" of Swift and Company, prepared and displayed delectable dishes under a large overhead mirror.

Throughout the evening Miss Metz read comical poems concerning cooking, which added a note of entertainment to the cooking school.

One of the highlights was the selection of three men from the audience, J. E. Cole, Allen Kendall and John Marvin, who were each given a loaf of Vienna bread, an assortment of sandwich fillings and told to prepare sandwiches any way they desired. To the delight of the crowd each man cut his loaf of bread in a different fashion and made fancy sandwiches.

The school was opened by County Agent Cecil Tucker, who introduced Miss Myrtle Wilson, home extension service agent, who, in turn, told the audience "How To Live To Eat Or Eat To Live."

J. C. Adams, merchandising manager of Switz, one of the sponsors of the school, called attention to the sponsorship by the Florida Power and Light Company, Publix Supermarkets, The Sanford Herald, Seminole County Extension Service and Florida Power Corporation.

Ralph Bloodworth, meat supervisor for Publix, gave out numerous door prizes during the evening.

Miss Metz's first dish was a brisket boneless roast, garnished with baked potatoes, covered with sour cream, a slice of cheese and sprigs of parsley.

The "Beau Catcher" fried chicken proved a popular recipe, judging by the reaction of the audience as this dish was prepared for baking. Pieces of chicken were dipped in buttermilk, then in flour and baked for one hour.

Rich date chocolate cake also was a favorite, with dates put in the cake and a special topping of nuts and chocolate chips spread over the top before baking. This is especially effective for large parties.

Canned ham with spicy current jelly glaze, sweet and sour pot roast, garden fresh salad also were prepared and recipe booklets for all the foods shown at the school were presented to the audience.

A special recipe for teenage parties was "little pizzas," made by using canned biscuits, spread with tomato paste with small pieces of brown-and-serve sausage links and cheese.

Frank and bean boats were prepared by cutting a loaf of Vienna bread in half, adding a dressing of shredded cheese, baked beans and other ingredients then this was broiled a few minutes. After the first broiling, sliced frankfurters were placed on top, cheese squares and pickles added and then broiled again.

Beef fondue, porterhouse steaks and various kinds of sandwiches were some of the other preparations.

Those attending the school proclaimed it a "complete success" and declared they will be looking forward to another one next year.

'Vapor Trails' Scheduled Here

The Vapor Trails, a team of Navy sky divers, has been added to the cast for the air show "limaxing the Sanford Naval Air Station's six day Reconnaissance Bombing Derby on Saturday, April 10.

The Derby, one of the Navy's major training exercises, will begin Monday.

The addition of the Vapor Trails, a parachute exhibition team from the Jacksonville Naval Air Station, rounds out an air show program that already includes the Navy's famous Blue Angels flight precision team; Piper Cub aerobatic ace Dick Schram ("The Flying Professor") and air power demonstrations by Sanford-based RA-5C Vigilante and A-3B twin jet aircraft.

Take off time for the first event is 9:10 a.m. April 10. The air station gates will swing open to the public at 8 a.m.

The Vapor Trails have appeared in air shows throughout the southeastern United States and won awards in many parachute meets. They have jumped from altitudes of 2,800 to 25,000 feet, at night and into the St. Johns River and the Atlantic Ocean.

The team received its name from the multicolored trails of smoke each jumper leaves in his descent through space with each a separate attached six boots.

The Blue Angels will arrive at the air station Thursday afternoon for press interviews and a dress rehearsal before they take to the air in their super sonic F-11A Tiger Saturday.

While listing their home at the Pensacola Naval Air Station, the Angels have been "adopted" by each of the hundreds of cities they have performed in since their formation in the 1940s. The last time they appeared in Sanford during the Seminole County semi-centennial celebration in April 1963—they attracted an estimated 40,000 persons.

Schram, a scholarly looking naval reserve captain, also is accustomed to crowds. "The flying professor" has earned the applause of giant audiences at the Seattle World's Fair and practically every major air show in the nation.

The bombing Derby will get underway Monday with a weapons loading exercise for ordinance teams from each of the four competing Sanford Reconnaissance Attack Wing One squadrons.

On Tuesday the first of five major flying exercises will begin. The exercises will test the versatility of the sleek Vigilante and powerful A-3B Skywarrior and the flight crews who man them.

Airliner Dives Into Ocean, 51 Persons Dead

TANGIER, Morocco (UPI) — A Spanish airliner flying a group of Scandinavian tourists to Morocco encountered heavy fog on its landing approach today and crashed into the sea, killing 51 persons.

Two women and a man were plucked out of the water by a fishing boat and rushed to El Kouroubi Hospital in Tangier. They were reported suffering from minor injuries and shock.

A fleet of rescue vessels, mostly fishing boats, picked up 46 bodies. Five other of the 49 passengers and five crewmen were missing and presumed dead. The passengers were mostly Swedes and Danes; the air crew was Spanish.

The plane was a twin-engine Conair of the Iberian Airlines and was flying from Malaga in southern Spain to Tangier, Moroccan authorities said it reported into the Tangier tower but then failed to answer a query. Rescue operations were launched immediately.

The Conair fell into the Atlantic three miles off the North African coast near the western entrance to the Strait of Gibraltar. British, Spanish, Moroccan and U. S. planes and ships joined the search for possible survivors although officials said "there is little hope of finding any others alive."

The American planes came from the U. S. Navy base at Rota on the Spanish coast.

Spectacular Retaliation Is Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson is grimly determined to press even more fiercely the battle against the Viet Nam Reds. But he has ruled out for now any single spectacular stroke in retaliation for the bombing of the U. S. Embassy in Saigon.

The Chief Executive said that the terror bombing of the embassy—"this wanton act of ruthlessness"—only reinforced American determination to "continue and to strengthen" aid to South Viet Nam.

Administration officials said there would be an increase in U. S. air strikes on military installations in Communist North Viet Nam and stronger offensives against the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

But, for the time being, the President has ruled out any single stroke such as bombing the Red capital of Hanoi.

Johnson planned to confer today or Thursday with his ambassador to South Viet Nam, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor. He has not seen Taylor since the general arrived from Saigon for consultations Sunday.

Board Of Regents Sworn Into Office

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Haydon Burns told his new Board of Regents today to concern itself with making policy for state universities and leave the day-to-day operations of the system to the staff.

Burns said some previous boards had often cost the university system the loss of a valuable professor or department head by requiring that board action be taken on the salary before the man could be hired.

He also told the regents,

The contract calls for the replacing of approximately 10,360 square yards of concrete on the north, east and west sides of hanger 4 which houses the station aircraft control tower.

Ens. William Hilderbrand, assistant station resident officer in charge of construction, reports work is expected to begin about May 1, with completion in mid-August.

Job Seekers Get Warning

COLUMBUS, Ga. (UPI) — Police had an all-points bulletin out today for a man accused of swindling persons while pretending to give them a job.

Mrs. Effie M. Sentell told officers that she gave the man $350 "deposit" on the promise of receiving a $600 a month job. She said she answered an ad in Columbus newspapers.

She made the deposit, Mrs. Sentell said, but became suspicious and could not reach the man at his next stop in Atlanta. She said she tried to call the company, but was told it did not exist.

Mrs. Sentell said her check for $350 was cashed in Orlando, Fla.

New University Delay Opposed

TALLAHASSEE — The Legislature was urged Tuesday not to delay opening of the proposed East Central Florida University near Oviedo for an extra year.

"The need is now," John Krider, executive secretary of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, told a House appropriations sub-committee.

Krider was a member of a Central Florida delegation which appeared before the sub-committee to ask for $7 million appropriation to get the new university opened in the fall of 1968.

"The area needs this university and as quickly as possible," Krider told the committee members.

He said that $8.6 million is the minimum needed for opening the university in 1968.

"If $7 million is appropriated by this Legislature, then the balance must come from the 1967 Legislature," Krider declared.

The Central Florida delegation immediately went on the attack against a proposal by sub-committee chairman, Rep. Ralph Turlington, that the university be phased to open in the fall of 1969 instead of 1968.

Dr. J. Broward Culpepper, executive director of the Florida University Board of Regents, also was one of those protesting this suggestion.

Krider told the committee that one-fifth of the state's population is now in Central Florida and that it is one of the fastest growing areas in the nation.

The 1965 population of the area is now 800,000 with 10,000 high school graduates expected this year. By 1968, Krider said, the population will have soared to one million with 12,500 high school graduates.

The East Central Florida University would serve a nine-county area: Flagler, Volusia, Lake, Seminole, Orange, Brevard, Ocala, Indian River and St. Lucie.

A student body of 1,500 is expected when the school opens in 1968 with 2,200 the second year.

Krider said the university will need an operating budget of $258,000 for the first year and $663,000 the second.

Preliminary plans for the university will be presented to the Board of Regents at its April 9 meeting.

Cynthia Kendrick Queen Of The Ball

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
322-5746

Roy A. Allen Chapter of the III-Y-Tri-Hi-Y held its annual Red, White, and Blue Ball Friday night in the school gymnasium. The theme for the Ball was "The Enchanted Garden." The attire was, for girls, long red, white or blue gowns; boys, white coats or dark suits.

The highlights of the evening came with the crowning of Cynthia Kendrick, president of the Tri-Hi-Y, as "Queen of the Ball" by vice president of the III-Y, Elmer Brooken. The crown was a reward for collecting the highest amount of money during the March of Dimes drive.

The members are now in the process of getting ready to attend the State III-Y-Tri-Hi-Y convention at Roosevelt High School, Lake Wales. The conference theme: "Growth In Depth." Delegates will depart Friday morning via Greyhound bus for the two day conference and will return Sunday morning.

Delegates attending were chosen on the basis of a point system (members with the highest number of points) from activities performed during the school year.

A brief run-down on the schedule includes: Friday morning, registration; Friday evening the first joint session and talent show. Saturday morning: second joint assembly, group discussions, banquet, sight-seeing which includes Spook Hill. Saturday night: the highlight of the meeting will be the witnessing of "Passion Play."

An appreciation and surprise birthday party was given Sunday at First Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church. The party was given in honor of Deacon Ralford McClain.

Edward Blacksheare Jr. delivered the appreciation address. Mrs. Neda Boykins sang "Today." Little Lynette Hill presented a silver tray for over 40 years of service to the church and fellow workers of Deacon McClain. Refreshments were served. It was a gala affair.

Entries from science, mathematics and industrial arts students will be on exhibit to the public April 9-11 when the first "Science Fair" is held in the Roy Allen gymnasium, Crooms High School.

The Science Fair brings together a culminating activity of the scientific interest of our boys and girls plus "Open House" of our new school additions.

Exhibits will be judged by a panel of experienced and capable persons in the field of science.

Awards will be made in public ceremony during "Student Awards Day" in the month of June.

Plan now to attend the Science Fair and Open House on the above dates.

The spring round-up will be Thursday at Goldsboro Elementary School from 9 a. m. to 12. If you have a child who will enter first grade in September, please bring same to register. Please bring your child's birth certificate.

Pvt. Lawrence Jenkins is home on emergency leave from Germany. He is an alumnus of Crooms High School where he was a star gridder.

Clarence Walker was in town for a few days. A former resident of this city, he is a resident of Rochester, N.Y.

One of the hardest decisions the writer has to make as school attendance officer is to recommend a detention order for a child who is a habitual truant. However, every means that I know is exhausted before making such a judgment. Worst of all, the child goes to the county jail, not a detention home. Whenever a boy is committed to the Florida School for Boys, unfortunately he some times has to remain in a cell for six to eight weeks before assignment.

This is torture at its worst. Therefore, I am appealing to our county fathers to please consider a detention home because it is badly needed. And you know something? With this cause for same. The direct facility, we will have less such cause? Parents, of course. Please take this under consideration. court can get to the direct

Senators Optimistic Over Great Society

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic congressional leaders gave President Johnson an optimistic report on the status of his Great Society legislation.

At his regular weekly meeting with the leaders, Johnson was told that his Medicare program likely would reach the House floor next week and his education bill might get to the Senate floor by Tuesday.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told newsmen after the meeting that he joined with Johnson in congratulating House leaders "on the magnificent job they did" in passing the $1.3 billion elementary and secondary education bill.

Other congressional news: Voting Rights: Southerners from three states attacked the President's voting rights bill at congressional hearings. One, Louisiana political boss Leander H. Perez, charged the bill went "hand-in-glove" with a Communist conspiracy to control the Deep South.

Education: The American Council on Education endorsed the President's plan for using the principles of agricultural extension courses to meet adult education needs in urban areas. Council witnesses testified before a Senate education subcommittee.

Highways: Clarence D. Martin Jr., commerce undersecretary for transportation, told the Senate public roads subcommittee that the 41,000-mile interstate highway system is on schedule for its 1972 completion date.

Rain Cuts Short Seminole Game

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer
Rain stopped the Seminole High-Winter Park baseball game in the top of the fifth inning Tuesday.
The Seminoles were leading

2-1 going into the fifth but the Wildcats had tied it up when the rains came.

Winter Park took the lead in the first inning when John Reen singled, stole second and third and was batted home by Mike Prichard.

The Seminoles got cracking in the third inning with the aid of two errors. Jim Ervin reached first on an error and Danny Tillis got to second on a Wildcat miscue.

Pitcher Ken Johnson walked Bill Kuykendall to load the bases and another error brought Ervin home for the first Seminole score.

Johnson then gave Sanford its second run when he walked Frank Whigham to force Tillis home.

The Wildcats then began their rally in the fifth but the rain stopped the game. Four and a half innings must be completed to count as a game.

The Seminoles will go back into action Friday afternoon when they host the Bishop Moore Hornets. The Tribe also travels to Oak Ridge to face the Pioneers Saturday.

Sports Week Biggest Yet For Georgia

ATLANTA (UPI) — Next week, Georgia will have one of the biggest sports bonanzas ever enjoyed by a Southern state in a single week.
A cumulative total of about 200,000 spectators will stream across the Augusta National course for the 29th playing of the Masters golf tournament; 60,000 are expected for Sunday's Atlanta 500 stock car race; and a three-day crowd of 75,000 is the forecast for the Milwaukee Braves-Detroit Tigers baseball exhibition that opens Atlanta's new stadium.
That figures up to about $25,000 paying customers and when you put it on a cash basis, the figures are even more staggering.
The Masters crowd would be a lot larger but officials set a firm limit on the number of people they'd let in. They insist that if they just opened the gates, so many would pour through that they wouldn't be able to handle them.
A stock car turnout of 60,000 is not an unusual figure. That's about par for the Atlanta International Raceway which really couldn't handle a lot more.
As for the baseball exhibition, there's no way to compare. The largest crowd ever to attend a minor league game here was 21,000 back in the days when Atlanta was the crown prince of the minors. To get that many in Old Ponce de Leon Park, they had to use a shoehorn.

ATLANTA (UPI) — Fifty top professionals and 100 amateurs tee off today in the pro-am preliminary to the $45,000 Greater Greensboro Open golf tournament—the last stop before the Masters.
The $5,000 GGO Pro-Am preliminary gets underway at 8 a. m. EST. The last threesome leaves the first tee at 1:15 p. m.
Normally, only one pro and one amateur would team up for the event, but the format was changed this year to let teams consist of one pro and two amateurs each.
Among the top threesomes will be seven-time GGO winner Sam Snead; honorary GGO Chairman Richardson Preyer, unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor; and Jim Hickey, head football coach at the University of North Carolina.
Another team will consist of pro Gary Player, television personality Ed Sullivan and state Rep. Mark Short of Guilford County.
Former Wake Forest college golf star Arnold Palmer will team up with Wake Forest basketball Coach Bones McKinney and amateur Nick Sacristy in another threesome.
A field of 144 professionals will tee off Thursday in the first round of the GGO itself. The championship round will be played Sunday.

ATLANTA (UPI) — Terry Toole and Mike Ackerman won two events each as Lyman beat Bishop Moore and Apopka in a triangular track meet here Tuesday.
Toole won the 120 high hurdles and 180 low hurdles and Ackerman scored victories in the mile run and the 800.
The Greyhounds also took first place in the 800 relay and in the sprint medley relay.

Lyman Wins Track Meet

ATLANTA (UPI) — Manager Sam Male claims the Minnesota Twins will do better this year because not so much is expected of them.
Last year at this time a lot of baseball experts were picking the Twins to win the American League pennant. But due to a porous defense and poor relief pitching the Twins faltered and finished in a tie for sixth place with Cleveland.
"I have to be a little optimistic because this is basically the same team which finished second in 1962 and third in 1963," Male pointed out. "Also, there isn't the pressure there was last spring."
"All the pennant talk then put pressure on our players. This year there is no pennant talk, but we haven't given up any thoughts of winning it all. There is a different attitude and it's a healthy one."
But the fact remains that he has the same problems and they may be difficult to solve.
There is no doubt that the Twins have the long ball hitting it takes to win a pennant with such fence busters as Harmon Killebrew, Bob Allison, Tony Oliva, Earl Battey, Jimmie Hall and even Rich Mullins.
The Twins figure to score plenty of runs. The question is how many they will give up.
In an effort to bolster the defense, Male has switched

Twins Due To Move Up

Don Mincher, who hit 23 home runs last season as a part time player, and Gerry Kindall figure to be the reserve infielders with Frank Kostro, who hit 344 with Hall, and Hilario Valdespino, a .287 hitter at Atlanta, as the utility outfielders.
Battey will be the No. 1 catcher. He slipped to a .272 average last year with only 13 home runs and 52 RBI's.
Camilo Pascual, 15-12; James Katt, 17-11; Dick Siggman, 6-15, and Jim Grant, 14-13, are sure of starting roles and Male is counting on one of two rookies to round out the starting rotation. They are Dave Boswell, a right hander who led the Northern League in strikeouts last season with 172, and Jim Merritt, a left hander, who won 13 games at Atlanta.
The Twins relief pitching improved after they picked up Al Worthington and Johnny Klippstein and they will be in the bullpen again.

Killebrew to first base, sending Allison back to the outfield.
Killebrew did not hit for a high average last season, .370, but he led the majors in home runs with 49 and had 111 runs batted in.
Allison, who hit .287 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI's, will play left field with right occupied by Oliva, who won the league batting title in his rookie season with a .323 average, and Hall in center. Hall batted .282 last season with 25 HR's and 75 RBI's.
There is a chance Hall may go to Baltimore in a deal for second baseman Jerry Adair. The Twins are hurting at second because Bernie Allen has not recovered from a knee operation and rookie Cesar Tovar, while adequate in the field, may fall to make it with his bat.
Solo Versalovic, who hit 20 homers and batted in 64 runs, will be back at short with Hollas at third.

ATLANTA (UPI) — Lyman took the 120 high hurdles and 180 low hurdles and Ackerman scored victories in the mile run and the 800.
The Greyhounds also took first place in the 800 relay and in the sprint medley relay.

DELTONA'S 38-MEMBER fishing class waves "goodbye" at Shopping Center before boarding charter tour bus for a trip to area east coast fishing spots. Members agreed upon return that evening that similar tours be a "must" at least once each year.

38 Deltonians Complete 10-Week Course In Fishing

By Mildred Hasey
Thirty-eight Deltona residents who recently completed the 10-week adult fishing class taught by Louis Nordmann took a chartered bus tour of area east coast fishing spots as their final get-together.
Leaving from Deltona Shopping Center, the group traveled to DeFila Fish Camp at Oak Hill where members were given pointers on methods of securing competent guide service and proper equipment for fishing in this area.
From there the tour bus crossed Port Orange Causeway on down to Turtle Mound. After climbing the Mound, the fishing enthusiasts went over to beachside to hear tips on surf fishing and general seashore fisherman's behavior.
To the north, Inlet Harbor and the old lighthouse were visited after which a seafood dinner was served.
By 6:15 p. m., the "tired fishermen" reloaded the touring bus for the trip home. Group singing and conversation was led by Charles Bolles, Nordmann and Zeral Mallard, director of Adult Education in Deltona.

Members of the fishing class enjoyed singing and felt they are fortunate to be the first organized group learning words and music to the "Deltona Song," by Madeline Elliot.
Upon arrival in Deltona at 7 p. m., it was agreed that a fishing tour be sponsored at least once a year for residents of the community.

Kissimmee Edges Greyhounds 2-1

By Jim Boehm
Herald Sports Writer
Despite some fine pitching and a lot of good defensive work the Lyman Greyhounds were edged by the Kissimmee Kowboys Tuesday night, 2-1, at Kissimmee.
Mark Brewer and Steve Simpkins allowed the Kowboys only four hits and Coach Jim Payne's Greyhounds played errorless baseball but failed to mount a successful scoring outburst.
Through the Lyman team hit the ball well all night, the reps usually sailed right into one of the Kowboys' gloves. The Hounds got only four hits.
The Kowboys struck first, off Brewer in the bottom of the second, on a walk to Jim Tyner, a sacrifice and a bloop

Hope Loses $5,000 Bet On Golf Game

MIAMI (UPI) — Bob Hope and Jackie Gleason stood on the first tee in the hot sun and badgered each other Tuesday until they finally bet $5,000 on the golf game they were about to play.
Four hours later Hope made out the check to the National March of Dimes foundation.
Gleason, teamed with Doug Sanders, beat Hope, teamed with Jimmy DeMaret 8-6 over the 18 holes of the Doral Country Club Course.
"First time I ever played with a blimp," Hope said.
Gleason demanded the engraving on the trophy be changed because it listed Hope's name first.
Gleason, at 250 pounds, said he was practicing for a match with Toots Shor, the 276-pound New York restaurateur owner.
"If those two got on the same golf course you wouldn't see anything but shadows," Hope said.
"Let's go fill up the trophy and drink it," Gleason replied.

Cardinals Do It Again, Defeat Yankees 4 To 3

By Fred Down
UPI Sports Writer
The St. Louis Cardinals hope Johnny Keane enjoys dining on his own words.
Nothing personal, of course, but the world champions had that amused - confused - abused feeling when Keane left them for the New York Yankees and then announced that the team which lost the World Series "is the best team I've ever been associated with."

The teams met Tuesday for the first time since the World Series—with Keane double-doming for the Yankee dugout, of course—and, lo and behold, the Cardinals came out on top again.
It was rookie Redbird Manager Al Schoendienst who wore the look of the cat that swallowed the canary when hot-hitting rookie infielder Ed Spiezio hit a 430-foot triple in the ninth inning to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory. Bob Purkey limited the Yankees to one run for six innings but the American Leaguers tied the score with single runs in the seventh and eighth innings against Ray Washburn.

Los Angeles Dodgers strikeout king Sandy Koufax pitched a four-hitter and struck out 10 but the Chicago White Sox got three-hit pitching of their own from Bruce Howard and Greg Bello for a 2-0 triumph. It was Koufax' second consecutive nine-inning sparkler although he lost both games.

Elsewhere, Jim O'Toole pitched four-hit ball for eight innings as the Cincinnati Reds beat the Minnesota Twins 7-3. Gordy Coleman and Frank Robinson homered for the Reds. . . . The Baltimore Orioles got a big "lift" when question mark lefty Steve Barber went seven innings, the last six of which were hitless, in a 5-1 win over the Houston Astros. Barber struck out eight before giving way to Dick Hall, who fanned four more in the eighth and ninth.

Willie Stargell went on a rampage with two homers, one a grand slam, and six runs batted in to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 12-7 victory over the Washington Senators. Bob Chance hit a homer off Vern Law for the Senators, who rallied against Franklyn Bork for four runs and six hits in the ninth.

Braves Win Easily
The slugging Milwaukee Braves worked over bonus pitcher Johnny Blue Moon Odum for 10 hits and eight runs in four innings en route to a 12-3 decision over the Kansas City Athletics. Ed Mathews, Felipe Alou, Gene Oliver and Tommie Aaron had two hits each for the Braves while Ed Charles and rookie catcher Rene Lacheman homered for the Athletics.

Bob Hendley, Bob Shaw and Frank Linzy collaborated in a seven-hitter in the San Francisco Giants' 6-0 win over the Boston Red Sox. The Giants insured the victory with a four-run fifth inning in which Hendley, Matty Alou, Hal Lanier and Willie McCovey hit key singles off Earl Wilson. . . . Billy Williams' solo homer and Ernie Banks' three-run homer both off Ralph Terry, were the big blows of the Chicago Cubs' 12-9 shoot-'em-up with the Cleveland Indians at Tucson, Ariz. Banks' blow was the highlight of a six-run fifth-inning rally that gave the Cubs a 10-5 lead.

Sanford Youth On Crew Team

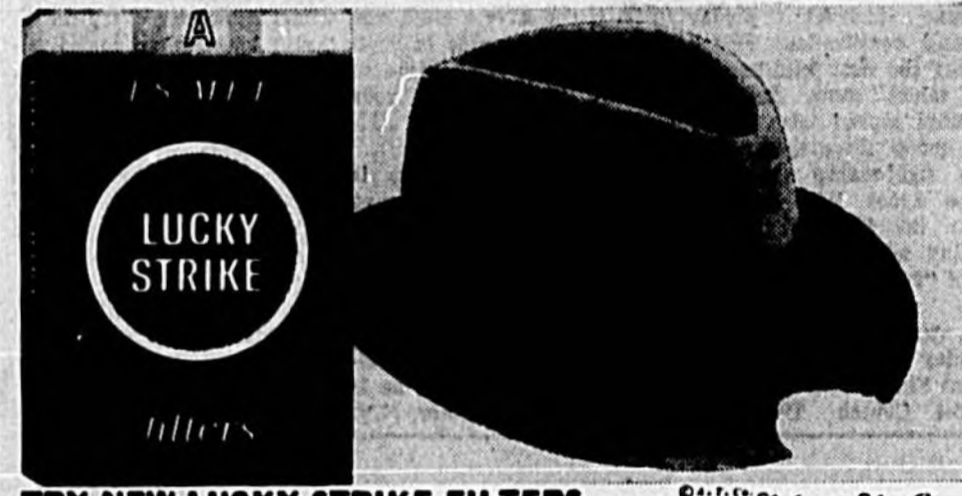

CYPRESS GARDENS (Sp.) — Five college crew teams will compete in the second annual crew regatta at Cypress Gardens on April 3.
The teams include Trinity College of Hartford, Connecticut, Purdue University of Lafayette, Indiana, Jacksonville and Tampa Universities, and Florida Southern College of Lakeland, the host for the meet.
Bob Williams, a 5'7" junior from Sanford is one of the coxswains on the Florida Southern crew team.
Competition will be in both varsity and junior varsity eight-man shells over a Henley distance of 1 mile and 5/16. The JV race is scheduled for 11:15 a. m. on Saturday and the Varsity will begin at 1:15 on the Lake Eloise course.
Last year, the Florida Southern team won the varsity event, while the JV trophy went to American University of Washington, D. C.

MIAMI (UPI) — Bob Hope and Jackie Gleason stood on the first tee in the hot sun and badgered each other Tuesday until they finally bet $5,000 on the golf game they were about to play.
Four hours later Hope made out the check to the National March of Dimes foundation.

Fishing Trip

Reservations for the April 22 deep sea fishing trip out of Daytona Beach being sponsored by the DeBarry Fishing Club should be made at earliest possible date with James Greenlee. Transportation arrangements from the DeBarry Fire Hall will be made available but cannot be completed until all reservations are in.

Presenting America's slowest fastback.

There are some new cars around with very streamlined roofs. But they are not Volkswagens. They are called fastbacks, and some of them are named after fish.
You can tell them from VWs because a VW won't go over 72 mph. (Even though the speedometer shows a wildly optimistic top speed of 90.) So you can easily break almost any speed law in the country in a VW. And you can cruise right past gas stations, repair shops and fire stores.
The VW engine may not be the fastest, but it's among the most advanced. It's made of magnesium alloy (one step better than aluminum). And it's so well machined you may never add oil between changes.
The VW engine is cooled by air, so it can never freeze up or boil over.
It won't have anything to do with water. So we saw no reason to name it after a fish.

Strikes . . . Spares

By John A. Spolaki

More and more and still more new people coming out to the lanes to try their hand at toppling those tan-tan-devils at the other end of the lanes.

Just as an example, take our Saturday night Moonlight Bowling! This past week we had over forty 'funsters' with us, and that's the correct identification. . . . FUNSTER! They're on hand for the fun of bowling and not getting too excited if they happen to leave a pin or two standing.

With such a large turn-out, we were able to award two big prizes for series, both for the gents and the ladies. And speaking of the 'charmers', Eleanor Belque and Jackie Bergstresser were tops for the gals and Bo Gazil and D. C. Conway clipped the prizes for the men.

Individual high game winners all were recipients of family size round steaks. . . . Jo Brown, Carolyn Brown, Beverly Meeks and Rose Phillips for the women and Joe Stewart, Fred Brown and Bob Sulouff for the huskies. (Gee, that Brown family really collected the loot, didn't they?)

This coming Friday, the youngsters will be competing in the Parent/Youngster League for these prizes: first place — bowling ball; second — bowling shoes and a bowling bag for the third place finish.

Speaking of finish, this is the last week for this popular league and I'm certain that we'll have another one formed for the summer season.

In addition to the prizes mentioned earlier, first through third place trophies are also being presented. This is the way it wound-up on the final night of regular competition: Tom and Rob Best won the number one position; John Sr. and Junior Kneeland came in second (and the smaller one carried his Dear Old Dad, too!); there was a tie for third between the Herbata and Richardson/Patterson team.

This past Saturday, we had quite a time making more presentations to the Saturday morning Junior League. All of these youngsters received attractive arm patches for the achievements listed behind their names: In the Santam Division (those from eight thru 12 years of age) Penelope Bernal 174 game and 432 series; Bonnie Unger 179 and 429 series; Louise Zueli 162 game and 418 series; Kevin Spolaki 209 game and 576 series.

Recognition for high games were Garry Almond 177, Scott Roche 185, Dennis Stewart 197, Patricia Terry 164, Billy Kniffin 191.

And then stepping-up to the Junior Division, these were the happy ones on Saturday: Lynn Jones 486 series, the only other girl to receive a patch was Mary Burwielc's 546 series.

The Junior-Senior boys made a good showing, as you'll see from these totals: Frank Patterson 235, Jerry Smith 230, James Wood 235, John Boggs also a 235.

Tom Petrucic had the big set, a 621 scratch total as were all of the scores reported.

Although it's still more than a month away, we'll have a special local tournament coming for you where you can match your scores against nationally known PROFESSIONALS, Tommy Tuttle for the men and OLGA GLOOR for the women.

It'll be handicapped and each week there'll be new winners with the area finals being scheduled for Winter Park Lanes. Looks real good.

Lots of application blanks available here at the lanes for all of these summer leagues now in the process of organizing. Whatever your desire, whether it be men's, women's, youngsters or mixed, all of these leagues will be starting within the next two to three weeks.

For just the briefest moment, it was Jet Lanes leading the pack in the City League but then Bob's Restaurant came bouncing back into the top slot as a result of taking all four from Wisdom Sod Service.

Lots of Big One's rolled in this league last week. Fred Hollen of Sanford Manufacturing bombed a 282, Andy Patrick of Cook's Corner had a 301, Eddie Monroe's 214, 212-695 and Pete Peterson's 201, 210/570 for Hank Kretzer 224 for Harry's Bar & Package, just to name a few.

If you'd like your youngster to have free bowling lessons, bring him out to the lanes on Saturday at 10 A.M. And if any of the adults would like a little help with their game, we have lessons for them at 11:30 on Saturday.

Our crowds continue to grow on Sundays with our Sunday Special from 11:30 A.M. 'Til 3 P.M.

Torres, Griffith Win Bouts

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jose Torres knocked Willie Pastrano of his light heavyweight throne—and possibly into retirement—just as he predicted.

Now Jose, the bull, would like a shot at middleweight champion Joey Giardello.

So, too, would welterweight champion Emilio Griffith, who successfully defended his crown Tuesday night by out-pointing Jose Stable in the first half of boxing's initial indoor title twin bill at Madison Square Garden.

But the biggest cheers of 18,112 fans, who paid a house record of $239,956 to see the bargain program, went to Torres.

The 28-year-old Puerto Rican, a 7-5 underdog, dealt Pastrano the first knockdown of his long career in the sixth round and wound up as the new king of the 175-pounders when referee John Lobianco stopped the fight at the end of the ninth round because of a lumpy bruise under Willie's left eye.

Pastrano suffered the injury in the fifth round and although it didn't appear to affect his vision, a commission doctor was concerned enough to examine it between the eighth and ninth rounds.

After Torres continued to work on the bruise in the ninth round, referee Lobianco decided to call a halt before the bell rang for the tenth.

These devilish Dodge Boys are dealing again!

L. L.'s Me Too and Miss Whirl go at it again tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club in the mid-week hot-box special.

The two great Greyhounds currently have one of the finest duels ever seen at SOCK going with the score being about even at this point.

Not to be discounted in the featured 10th race is another pup from the Hughes Kennel-Ryan's Express. The puppy hasn't beaten both Miss Whirl and L. L.'s Me Too as yet, but in his last start he finished behind L. L.'s Me Too beating out his more famous homelmate.

Winn-Dixie Co. Celebrating 46th Anniversary

Winn - Dixie, a network of modern retail supermarkets throughout the Southeast, is observing its 46th anniversary this week. From a one store beginning in Florida, Winn-Dixie has grown to a 680-store operation.

Winn - Dixie, with headquarters in Jacksonville, operates under the Winn - Dixie and Kwik Chek names in Florida and Alabama.

Stores in Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Mississippi and Louisiana operate as Winn - Dixie.

Divisional offices and warehouse distribution centers are located in Jacksonville, Miami and Tampa, Fla.; Greenville, S. C. Raleigh, N. C.; Montgomery, Ala.; New Orleans, La., and Louisville Ky.

Winn - Dixie was founded by W. M. Davis and his family in Lemon City, then a suburb of Miami. Davis, his wife and four sons, A. D. James E., Austin and Tim, operated this first store. At the time of Davis' death in 1934, 35 stores were in operation in the Miami and Tampa areas.

By 1939, the growth had spread to the greater Jacksonville area and there were 118 retail stores throughout Florida and Southern Georgia.

In 1945, the Louisville division was opened. By 1954, with opening of new stores and expansion into Alabama, a Montgomery division was established. The year 1958 took Winn - Dixie to Greenville and expansion with 117 stores in North and South Carolina.

Winn - Dixie today is a stockholder-owned corporation, on the open market, but the Davis family continues the active management participation which has contributed so importantly to Winn - Dixie's 46 year growth.

Best Food Buys For Weekend Listed By USDA

The following guide to the nation's best food buys for the weekend was prepared by the U. S. Departments of Agriculture and Interior for United Press International.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A delightful bounty of fresh fruits and vegetables awaits shoppers this weekend, according to USDA's consumer and marketing service.

Top produce buys include asparagus, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, radishes and spinach. Pleasurful fruit buys include apples, bananas, grapefruit, oranges, rhubarb and strawberries.

Among the red meats available in good supply are beef roasts, steaks, ground beef pork chops and spareribs. Broiler-fryers are good buys, with lots of canned pink salmon, fish sticks and fish portions for Lenten meals.

Deltona VFD To Show Film

By Mildred Haney
Deltona Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor showing of the old-time movie, "The Golden Age of Comedy," at 7:30 p.m. today at the Community Center. Donations will benefit the department.

The film features Harry Langdon, Ben Turpin, Will Rogers, Jean Harlow, Carol Lombard and Laurel and Hardy. Most "old-timers" in the community will remember these stars with nostalgia and will enjoy the evening of reminiscing about the "old days."

Geneva Citizens To Have Dinner

By JoAnn Hays
"Come Out and Get Acquainted" will be theme of a roast turkey dinner scheduled by the Geneva Citizens Association for 5 p.m. Saturday at the Community Hall.

Everyone attending is asked to bring a covered dish with the association to provide remainder of the meal.

Music for the event will be supplied by the Eastern Seminole Band under direction of Richard Zeller. Front end auto tags bearing the name of the community will be on sale during the evening.

There will be no charge for the meal however donations will be accepted at the door.

Oysters and Pearls

Although clams, common oysters and other two-shelled mollusks sometimes may all grow pearls, most of our gem pearls come from "pearl oysters" found mainly on America's Pacific Coast, off northern Australia, in the East Indies and in the Persian Gulf.

President's Rights Bill Hit By Southerners

The Sanford Herald
Page 8—March 31, 1965

GEORGE DABBS, principal of Bear Lake Elementary School and president-elect of Florida Education Association, advised that when he takes over the presidency in the 1966-67 year, he "intends to work in improving public school education in Florida." He adds, "We have too long been content to operate schools based on a minimum foundation program. It is time we placed the emphasis on providing a quality education program for all the children and youth of Florida."

Rev. F. J. Seddon To Be Speaker At Holy Cross

Rev. Frederick J. Seddon, distinguished missionary and now vicar of Holy Family Church in Orlando, will be the guest preacher at today's Wednesday evening Lenten service at Holy Cross Episcopal Church. The service begins at 7:15, and visitors will be welcomed.

Father Seddon is a native of Massachusetts. Upon being ordained he went to Liberia where he served for several years.

At his return to the United States he served as a missionary to the American Indians in the southwest. He came to Florida in 1963.

Fr. Seddon is married and has three children.

Lions To Install New Officers

By Jane Casselberry
The Lion's Club of Casselberry will hold a Ladies Night program and installation of officers Thursday night at the Capri Restaurant in Sanford. A social hour will begin at 6:30 p. m. and the roast beef dinner will be served at 7:30 p. m.

Officers will be installed by District Governor Claude Locke of Leesburg and Milton Freeman will serve as master of ceremonies.

Handwriting expert Alvin J. Schwenberger will present an entertaining demonstration of handwriting analysis.

Scared Youth Wins Release

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—William Schlag, 20, made a startling discovery when a drug store was locked up while he was still inside in a telephone booth.

Schlag called police. "Don't shoot me," he said. "I'm not a burglar, just get me out of here."

Samuel Heyden, the owner, was called from his home to open the door.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Southerners from three states attacked President Johnson's voting rights bill at congressional hearings.

One charged it was part of a Communist conspiracy.

Atty. Gen. Daniel R. McLeod, of South Carolina, and Rep. Armistead Selden (D-Ala.) told a House judiciary subcommittee that the bill proposed to amend the U. S. Constitution without submitting the question to the states.

Leander H. Perez, longtime political boss of Louisiana's Plaquemine Parish, testified before the Senate judiciary committee that the bill was "hand-in-glove" part of a Communist conspiracy to control the Deep South.

The short, gray-haired former state judge told the senators he was appearing as a representative of Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithen.

Perez said Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, chief author of the bill, "does not like me personally and undoubtedly will appoint a federal officer as registrar in the parish where I am president of the commission council."

Perez said the Supreme Court in 1936 had held that the Communist party's policy in the South was to "obtain the right of self-determination" for Negroes.

McLeod said the bill should be rejected because "it seeks to amend the Constitution without following constitutional procedures."

Selden took the same position. He argued that the bill would change the constitutional grant of power to the states to control voter qualifications.

McLeod denied that South Carolina discriminated against prospective Negro voters. He said that although his state provided simple and prompt remedies for anyone who claimed he had been denied registration, "no complaint has reached my office during the past 14 years."

Joseph L. Rauh Jr., counsel for the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, planned to distribute a series of proposed amendments to House and Senate members.

The proposals were approved at a workshop conference of leading Negro organizations and labor groups. They are aimed principally at penalizing anyone who intimidates Negroes seeking to vote.

Beer Drinking Brings Charge

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—Comedienne Cass Daley faces arraignment in Municipal Court on charges she contributed to the delinquency of minors by supplying them with a keg of beer.

Juvenile authorities reported that Miss Daley signed a receipt for a 15 1-5 gallon keg of beer for her 16-year-old son and his teen-aged friends.

Seventeen of the youngsters were arrested at a motel here after a juvenile officer, posing as one of the youthful guests, crashed the party.

Miss Daley's married name is Kinsella. She and her family live in a large home in this community's Bayshore Drive section.

New Record

SANTA ANA, Calif. (UPI)—Mrs. Rita Oviedo, a tavern owner, and Isaac Perez, an unemployed painter, claimed they set a world's record for non-stop pool playing — 129 hours, 45 minutes.

DOUGLAS Poston, aviation maintenance administrationman 3/cl, of RVAH-7 at Sanford Naval Air Station, has re-enlisted for six years under the Navy's incentive program for choice duty assignment. He, his wife and son reside at 89 Upsala Road.

Arts And Crafts Club Schedules Exhibition

By Mrs. John Leona
The DeBary Arts and Crafts Club will hold its annual Spring Exhibition for three weeks, beginning this Sunday with a reception and continuing through April 25. All work to be shown must be at the DeBary Mansion by Thursday of this week.
Artists may submit two paintings. Members of the crafts group may exhibit two examples of their work. The committee, however, reserves the right to limit display to one item if lack of space requires it.
Paintings must be framed and wired for hanging with attached identification forms on back. They may not be removed until after April 25.
The club's regular meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Mansion with the president, Arthur Bennett, in charge.

Teatime Or No... Train Moves On

LONDON (UPI) — The motorman and conductor left their subway train unattended at a station in East London to get some hot tea... their teapot. While they were gone, the train rolled out of the station.
"The train started to run down the gradient and ran on for 600 yards," a spokesman for the London Transport Authority reported. "When the line flattened out, the train came to a stop."
The conductor and motorman sprinted down the rails and jumped aboard.
"This kind of thing is disquieting," the spokesman said. "It is not the kind of thing we want to happen. The motorman and conductor will be closely questioned."

$4 Million Policy Issued On Man

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A life insurance company said it has issued a $4 million life insurance policy on a California executive.
The executive, who did not want his name revealed, is over 50 years old.
The annual premium on the policy, one of the largest of its kind in insurance history, is more than $200,000, the company said.

Human Values Show $$ Hike

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Chemicals in the human body are worth about $800 today, according to Charles A. Thomas, former board chairman of a chemical company.
Thomas told a stockholders meeting that body chemicals had a value of about 98 cents in the 1930s.

'Outdoorsman Of The Year'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall was presented a custom-made, gold-inlaid, double-barreled shotgun by an arms firm as its "Outdoorsman of the Year."
The company said Udall was selected as its outdoorsman for 1964 by a vote of about 4,000 outdoor writers.
An aide to the secretary said Udall likes hunting but doesn't do much of it. He predicted the gun would spend most of its time on a rack in Udall's den.

Medical News

Two Ohio physicians have heartening news for diabetic women who plan to become pregnant. If their babies are delivered early, from 14 to 21 days before term, the infants' chances of survival go up. A seven-pound infant delivered at 37 weeks, they say, has the best chance for survival.

PKU: AVERTABLE TRAGEDY

PKU—or phenylketonuria—is an error of metabolism with which hundreds of children are born each year. Unlike other birth defects, though, PKU can be treated and its effects minimized. If undetected, it can lead to severe retardation.

There are several tests for determining whether an infant has the condition. One blood test, devised by Drs. David Hais, Julian L. Berman, and Herman M. Blatis, of Northwestern University, can detect it in the newborn within 16 hours with a high degree of accuracy.

The Gamma Omega Chapter Enjoys Charming Luncheon

The first whippoorwill has been heard, the friendly fireflies are lending their warmth to the pleasant evenings, and the "Bob White" is determined not to be ignored as he boastfully announces his return.

Taking advantage of Mother Nature's gracious invitation to enjoy the spring season was the Gamma Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha when its members and guests gathered Saturday for a luncheon at Creighton's Restaurant.

Following the invocation offered by Mrs. June Brodie a delicious meal was enjoyed in the luxurious elegance of a private dining room which was illuminated by a glittering crystal chandelier that was large enough to serve a royal ballroom. Lending gaiety to the setting were the bright red chairs and linen napkins.

No formal speeches or ceremony took place. Instead the ladies relaxed and leisurely spent the afternoon just chatting and later browsing through the gift shop replete with crystal, silver and many other items to suit almost any whim or fancy.

Missing Airman Mystery Solved After 21 Years

AFTON, Wis. (UPI)—Army 2nd Lt. Robert W. Forrestal was reported missing in action in New Guinea in 1944. For 20 years, his mother prayed each night for word of her son.

She never gave up hope that one day he would be found.

The Forrestal family received a letter from the Department of the Army Tuesday.

The letter said the 28-year-old soldier had died when his plane crashed into a mountain near Madang, New Guinea, April 3, 1944.

Wreckage of the plane was found by natives last year. U. S. Air Force officials traced the plane through its serial number and finally identified Forrestal's body from dental records.

Then the letter was sent. It came too late for Forrestal's mother. She died last December.

Forrestal's body will be returned to Janesville, Wis., and buried next to her grave.

Arm Torn Off, Sewn Back On

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Surgeons at Presbyterian-University Hospital today kept close watch on Frank Roth, 43, whose arm was sewn back in place after it was torn off in an industrial accident.

The operation Tuesday took six hours, but it will be at least two days before doctors can determine if the surgery was successful.

Roth's arm was severed above the elbow when it was caught in moving machinery.

Doris E. Kinard Succumbs At 61

A native of Alachua County, he had resided in Seminole County for more than 50 years. He was a retired refrigeration engineer.

Survivors are five daughters, Mrs. Ruth Hudson, of Casselberry; Mrs. Ethel Morgan, of Sanford; Mrs. Alice Burnett, of Winter Park; Mrs. Misouri Belle Swafford, of Altamonte Springs, and Miss Virginia Cruse, of California; one brother, Grover Cruse, of Ball; 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Niblack Funeral Home, Casselberry, is in charge of arrangements.

Loud Justice

LONDON (UPI)—When a jury deliberating a case at the London sessions was heard arguing loudly, Magistrate R. E. Seaton sent an usher to quiet them. He explained, "we don't mind justice being done but we don't want it to be heard."

Funeral Notices

CRUSE, ALBERT—Funeral services for Albert Cruse, 77, who died Monday, will be conducted at 10 a. m. Tuesday at the graveside in Oaklawn Memorial Park with Rev. Joe C. Dentitt of First Baptist Church, Lake Monroe, officiating. Niblack Funeral Home, Casselberry, in charge.

KINARD, MRS. DORIS E.—Funeral services for Mrs. Doris E. Kinard, 61, who died Tuesday, will be held at 8:30 p. m. Thursday at Brison Funeral Home with Rev. Joe Dentitt of First Baptist Church, Lake Monroe, officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery. Brison Funeral Home in charge.

Burns Sees Negroes On Florida Payroll

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Negro leaders were assured of more high level state jobs for their race today.

More than that, their meeting with the governor and Cabinet members Tuesday seemed to put progress in Florida race relations on a friendly basis.

At the conclusion of an open meeting between the state officials and officers of the Florida branch of the NAACP, Gov. Haydon Burns told the Negroes:

"I want to commend you on the very able manner and pleasant atmosphere of your presentation here today. It is conducive to co-operation, understanding and improved race relations.

"I can't help but contrast it with the unfortunate circumstances in some other states and feel it is a reflection on lack of understanding of the leadership on both sides," Burns added.

The NAACP delegation, headed by state president Rutledge Pearson, of Jacksonville, and field secretary Robert Saunders, of Tampa, said it felt much progress has been made in race relations in Florida and was grateful for it.

Both sides agreed the Burns administration can not make enough changes overnight to correct all the racial inequities built up for a century.

Burns said he planned to add a Negro staff member under his office to help handle the federal government's anti-poverty program, and that he is considering hiring Negroes in other areas.

Advancing Years

TIFFIELD, England (UPI)—Ernest Palmer resigned as clerk to the parish council here because of "advancing years." Palmer is 97.

GOP Attacks Medicare

WASHINGTON (UPI)—GOP members of the House ways and means committee charged today that President Johnson's medical care program could cripple the Social Security system by loading it with a staggering debt.

They also claimed the insurance program was inadequate because it did not cover all prescribed drugs or provide for financing long illnesses. The legislation, approved by the committee last week, proposes a compulsory hospital insurance program under Social Security for persons 65 or over. This would be financed by raising payroll taxes.

It also included an optional insurance plan, which could be purchased for $13 a month, to cover doctor bills for the elderly. The government would match this contribution. The eight Republicans who voted against the program in committee aimed their biggest blasts at the Social Security-financed portion of the program.

They claimed that a GOP alternative proposal—a voluntary plan to provide hospital and medical insurance for the elderly—would do a better job at less cost. Their minority report said

WW I Veterans Hear Of SHEBA

Activities of the Seminole Hospital Eye Bank Association (SHEBA) were described by Mrs. F. E. Woodruff, president, before members of Veterans of World War I and its auxiliary in a meeting at the American Legion home.

Mrs. Woodruff described the method of procuring cornea and its care until transplanted in the blind, to give them sight.

At death of the donor, the cornea is removed within four hours, a state trooper rushes it to the eye bank at Gainesville.

Thirteen sets of eyes have gone to Gainesville from SHEBA to give sight in one eye to blind persons. When the eye bank supply is sufficiently increased, two transplants will be given to each blind person.

The suspected pilot of the NAACP vigilante, dubbed "Lt. C. G. Buzzer" by one Miami newspaper, was identified only as a 33-year-old lieutenant stationed at Sanford Naval Air Station here. He has been grounded temporarily.

The low-level sweep frightened a multitude of Coral Gables residents, who bombarded Miami and federal officials with angry phone calls and followed up with letters.

Daniel Boone Metes Justice

MCLESTER, Okla. (UPI)—Daniel Boone has a strong sense of justice.

He was on his way to work when he passed a car illegally. No officer saw it happen and there was no accident.

But when city police Judge Daniel Boone got to work he gave himself a $6 ticket.

Store Owner Baffles Thug

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—"This is a stickup and I want $150," a man with a gun said to the owner of a small variety store on the city's North Side Monday.

"We don't have that kind of money in the store," Mrs. Mildred Beyer said stoically. "I must be in the wrong place," said the robber, as he lowered his head and walked out.

Barren Soil

Dr. Webb Garrison, writing in the April issue of "Together," a Methodist magazine, makes a strong case against church-goers who can't be reached by the preacher's sermon. He says that such listeners may be at fault themselves. "Those who go away empty-handed," he declares, "reveal themselves as 'barren soil.'"

Dr. Garrison, who is author of 11 books and hundreds of articles, currently is pastor of Central Methodist Church in Evansville, Ind., and has engaged in educational work in several church-related schools. He has several ideas on how persons can contribute to effective sermons.

(1) Expect to make discoveries, (2) commit yourself to listen, (3) expect revelation, (4) let the pastor know you appreciate being challenged, and (5) try to conserve the good points in the sermon.

For their part, the ministers should study up on chapters in the psychology books which deal with the subject of defense mechanism. This automatic protection which the mind is capable of producing against the ordeal of boredom has several manifestations.

Among children, in church, for instance, the tendency is to wiggle and become restless, and parents often scold their youngsters for doing the very same thing they themselves do when subjected to ennui. Whereas members of the younger generation squirm and move around, the elders are even more impolite. They just shut off the stimuli impinging on their consciousness during a long speech and either go into pleasant reveries of day dreaming, or what is worse, go to sleep.

A long speech or sermon is the greatest cure against insomnia ever discovered. No matter how good the subject matter, a speech may be so smothered in words that it is wholly without effect. (Florida Times-Union).

Thought For Today

But they made light of it and went off, one to his farm, another to his business.—Matthew 22:5.

The million little things that drop into our hands, the small opportunities each day brings. He leaves us free to use or abuse and goes unchanging along His silent way.—Helen Keller.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Scrapbook Thelma's fascinating case and its follow-up tomorrow. For Thelma reacted much like Joe, the talented young newspaper editor. Both were enveloped by subconscious fears which then threw a monkey wrench into the smooth functioning of their bodies. For there is a strong body-mind interaction in medicine.

CASE V-451: Thelma D., aged 42, is a tense, fretful housewife.

"Dr. Crane," she said, "although I am not much overweight, I also have high blood pressure."

"My doctor gives me tranquillisers to help tone down my nerves."

"But even with them, I occasionally have a recurrence."

"So how can I help control my nerves and lead a more placid life?"

False notions can cause a prolonged form of tension.

And Thelma later admitted that she often grew panicky at the thought she was approaching the menopause.

"It scares me to death," she tearfully admitted.

"For I am crazy about my husband, so I just cannot tolerate the idea that he will no longer have any physical affection for me."

"Why?" I wonder if this basic terror may not be an underlying factor in my elevated blood pressure."

And it can be, for any constant fear, even though it lurks in the subconscious can upset your physiology remarkably.

Your fear may even be based on an entirely false premise, but if you don't know it is ungrounded, you can still tie yourself into a bundle of neurotic ailments.

An editor friend of mine, who had a fear from childhood of tuberculosis, once consulted a quack doctor who told him he was dying of TB.

"Joe," he said, "don't you have night sweats?"

Joe shook his head. "Well, you should," said this quack, "for one of your lungs is entirely eaten up by tuberculosis germs. You are living on only one lung.

"So I am making a reservation for you in my private sanitarium for tomorrow morning, and you may need to remain there at least one day and possibly two or three."

Well, Joe was a college graduate and a talented editor, then about 35 years old, so he was not a hysterical teenager.

Since he had no financial reserves, however, this hit him hard, for he had a wife and two young children.

Although his wife tried to cheer him up, he felt dejected when he went to bed at 11 p.m.

It was a cool night. Their bedroom window was open.

Yet Joe broke out in a terrific night sweat at 2 a.m. His wife had to give him dry pajamas because he had saturated the pair he was wearing.

Again Joe dropped off into fitful slumber but awakened the second time about 4 a.m., dripping with sweat.

This time his wife not only had to give him another pair of dry pajamas, but she was forced to change both the upper as well as lower sheets, which were wet with his heavy night sweat.

She finally compelled him to consult a chest specialist next day. And later, after three different sputum tests, he was pronounced completely free of tuberculosis.

So his terrific night sweats were a product of his subconscious mind, due to the negative suggestion of that quack.

Thus, your subconscious can produce weird tricks regarding your health.

Tomorrow I shall show you the exact medical results when we eliminated Thelma's underlying terror of the menopause.

For her high blood pressure was apparently like Joe's night sweats, namely, a result of fright!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

WASHINGTON SPA

Dick West's

The Lighter Side

United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — The word "ombudsman" probably doesn't mean very much to the average citizens in this country.

For that matter, it probably doesn't mean much to citizens who are above or below average either.

Until a couple of years ago, it meant nothing to me. If forced to make a guess, I would have surmised that an ombudsman was a man who looked after the ombuds.

Then I learned from Rep. Henry S. Reuss, (D-Wis.), that ombudsmen are Scandinavian officials who deal with the complaints citizens make against their governments.

If a citizen of Norway, Sweden or Denmark feels aggrieved, he can take it up with the ombudsman, who will investigate the matter and order corrective action if warranted.

Reuss proposed that "people both in and out of the government" give some thought to the possibility of adopting some form of the ombudsman system in the United States to protect individuals against bureaucratic abuses.

But as far as I can tell, nobody has been thinking about it. Which seems a pity.

Now we have before us another proposal that would involve borrowing a governmental device from another country.

A group of Republican congressmen want to amend the rules of the House so that the secretary of state could visit the floor and answer questions about U. S. foreign policy in times of crisis.

This, as you can see, would be somewhat similar to the British system under which cabinet members, who are also members, appear in the House of Commons and submit to questioning.

The GOP group didn't invite me to give some thought to their plan, as Reuss did his, but I have been thinking about it anyway. And I detect what seems to be a major flaw that might render it ineffective.

There is a very strong chance that the secretary of state may not care to appear on the floor of the House to answer questions about U. S. foreign policy in times of crisis.

"No, thanks," he might say, "I believe I'll sit this one out."

Since the House couldn't very well drag him in by the heels, so to speak, the questioning period would not be extremely fruitful.

I have to see good ideas go to waste and it occurred to me that perhaps Congress could combine the Scandinavian system with the British system, or, rather, the Reuss plan with the GOP plan.

It could create the post of ombudsman, as suggested by Reuss, and then make him available to the House for questioning.

This obviously would not please everyone concerned. But, as they say in Sweden, that's the way the ombud bounces.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) —

Full-length mirrors are being put in kindergarten classrooms in Racine, Wis. Principals have been told to order cameras to make pupil snapshots. The pictures will be put on classroom bulletin boards.

In experimental Portland, Ore., classes, teachers encourage their students to use the word "I" wherever possible.

A seventh-grade group gives major attention to discussing "Who am I? What am I? Where am I going? How can I get there?"

President Johnson's idea for having programs tailored to meet the needs of "culturally deprived" children is not new. Experiments have been going on for a number of years in several score U.S. school systems.

Interestingly, findings in some of these programs suggest the best results are produced when teaching aims are shifted back to the old-fashioned virtues—"self-reliance," "self-direction," "independence" and "personal self worth," even though the teaching methods to achieve these ends have fancier descriptions than in grandpa's day.

The techniques mentioned above are all attempts to achieve these ends.

The Racine mirrors are set up, of course, so that young children can look at themselves (many of the "deprived," they say, "for the first time"). The experimenters say this helps the youngsters "see" themselves as individuals—and incidentally "does wonders for their personal grooming."

The snapshots and the concentration on "I" are aimed at the same search for individuality and self-initiative.

In Dade County, Fla., community service awards to high school graduates provide free tuition at Miami-Dade Junior College. In return, these young people agree to lead preschool classes 2½ hours a day.

In a Boston, Mass., pilot program, "Junior" first grade classes have been organized as a halfway step between kindergarten and grade one for "slow" children.

A Cincinnati, Ohio, elementary school has added special classes in journalism, creative writing, Junior Great Books and geology taught by local citizens.

The Pyle School, Wilmington, Del., has monthly Men's Day Luncheons where business and professional men join the boys.

In South Bend, Ind., children not working up to their potential are invited to attend an evening community center where they're tutored by students from local colleges, retired teachers and other interested citizens.

In Baltimore, Md., parents are invited to small luncheon meetings, where they are shown easy, practical ways to help their children learn.

In San Francisco, Calif., parents are encouraged to take time off from work to accompany groups of young students on field trips.

Some Minnesota University students have set up a buddy system with underprivileged youngsters. They study, go to shows and attend ball games together.

These examples only scratch the surface.

Fact

The nickname "Beef-eaters," which is sometimes associated with the Yeomen of the Guard, had its origin in 1689, when Count Cosimo, grand duke of Tuscany, was in England. Writing of the size and stature of this magnificent guard, he said, "They are great eaters of beef, of which a very large ration is given them daily at the court, and they might be called 'Beef-eaters.'"

Seminole County Cancer Crusade Support Urged

All-out support for the Seminole County Cancer Crusade is urged by Mrs. R. L. Tucker, Sanford area Crusade chairman, and Charles (Bart) Gallagher, business chairman.

"This is a joint educational and fund-raising crusade," they said. It is a lifesaving defense against needless cancer deaths and a massive nationwide counter-attack to accelerate research victory over this most vicious of all diseases.

"Statistics show that one of four persons in this nation will contract cancer during their lifetime. An ugly companion fact is that based on present performance only one in every three cancer patients survives. A survival rate of 50 per cent is attainable even now with more effective public education and adequate medical checkups."

Volunteer crusaders will make a "house to house" canvass which will kick off this year on April 5.

Area captains are Meses. Charles Tetenbaum, Homer Little, R. W. Sturdivant, Albert Hickson, Georgia Price, Edwin Kennedy, W. L. Rowland, Wendell Brantley, Walter Steele, William Klinefelter, John Carlton, Joyce Crutchfield, Helen Richie, William Thomas, William Reynolds, Theodore LaTour, A. McClanahan, John Greene, W. C. President Holds Council Of War Today

Stepped-Up Blows Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson holds a top-level council on war today to hear Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor's new proposals for forcing the Vietnamese Communists to lay down their arms and negotiate.

There were strong indications the President would decide to pursue with new intensity the fight against the Viet Cong rebels in the South and the Red regime in North Viet Nam.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara were scheduled to attend the afternoon meeting at the executive mansion.

Taylor has said he will offer "definitive proposals" on U. S. policy in the Southeast Asian conflict.

Taylor's recommendations led to the President's decision to inaugurate air raids on North Viet Nam two months ago. Today he was expected to urge stepped-up attacks.

He also was believed to favor increased military supplies and money for the embattled South Vietnamese government and some increase in U. S. ground forces there.

HANOI RAID OUT
An air attack on the North Viet Nam capital of Hanoi apparently has been ruled out for the moment. High officials emphasized, however, that the city enjoyed no particular "immunity" and could come under assault eventually unless the Communist "end their aggression."

Johnson and Taylor conferred at length at the White House Wednesday night — their first meeting since the ambassador arrived Sunday from Saigon for consultations.

After a late afternoon meeting in the President's office — described by the Chief Executive as "a very profitable hour" — Taylor returned for dinner and further discussion.

Taylor said Wednesday's White House conversation was "largely general in nature." But he said he would have concrete proposals to make after meetings this morning at the State and Defense Departments.

PEACE TALKS
PARIS (UPI) — The United States told its North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) allies today President Johnson is willing to take part in Viet Nam peace talks — but only if Communist aggression ceases.

U. S. Undersecretary of State George W. Ball assured the NATO Permanent Council this remains Washington's policy.

But he said that so far the Communists have shown no readiness to negotiate themselves.

200 KILLED
SAIGON (UPI) — Reconnaissance pilots reported today they had seen the bodies of 200 Viet Cong guerrillas killed in a major battle near Da Nang.

But further south an American-led Ranger battalion narrowly escaped disaster by crawling to safety.

The battle 30 miles from the big U. S. air base at Da Nang began Wednesday when U. S. helicopters flew in about 2,000 government troops to Viet Cong bases in the area. The guerrillas apparently were caught by surprise and suffered heavy casualties.

The operations cost the lives of two U. S. Marine officers killed when three U. S. helicopters were shot down. Seventeen were wounded. Nine Vietnamese troops were reported killed, 64 wounded and 20 missing.

The battle area is about 350 miles northeast of Saigon.

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — A strike deadline in the steel industry became more significant today with management charging the United Steelworkers union (USW) with seeking "cradle to grave security." March Goes Like A Lion In Northland

NEW YORK (UPI) — The highest temperature reported to the U. S. Weather Bureau Wednesday, excluding Alaska and Hawaii, was 88 degrees at Sanford, Fla.

The low this morning was two degrees at Rome, N. Y.

Fair skies greeted April across most of the nation today although drenching showers fell along the Southeast and Pacific coasts.

March went out like a lion in the Upper Great Lakes region, dumping three inches of fresh snow from Minnesota to Michigan. The snow was falling early today.

The heavy rains in California came at the end of a very dry rainy season. Santa Barbara measured nearly 1 1/2 inches Wednesday and Long Beach reported more than an inch. Fresno picked up a half inch of rain during the night.

Nearly two-thirds of an inch fell at Vero Beach on the east Florida coast during the night. Miami received 1 1/2 inches Wednesday.

The weather bureau in its 30-day forecast issued Wednesday, predicted above normal rainfall in April west of the Continental Divide, in the Northern Plains and through the Middle and Upper Mississippi Valley to the Great Lakes region and Ohio Valley.

Driver And 'Car' Excite Raleigh

RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI) — A 78-year-old woman with a penchant for travel caused a mild sensation in Raleigh Wednesday when she went chugging through in a 1930 model A Ford.

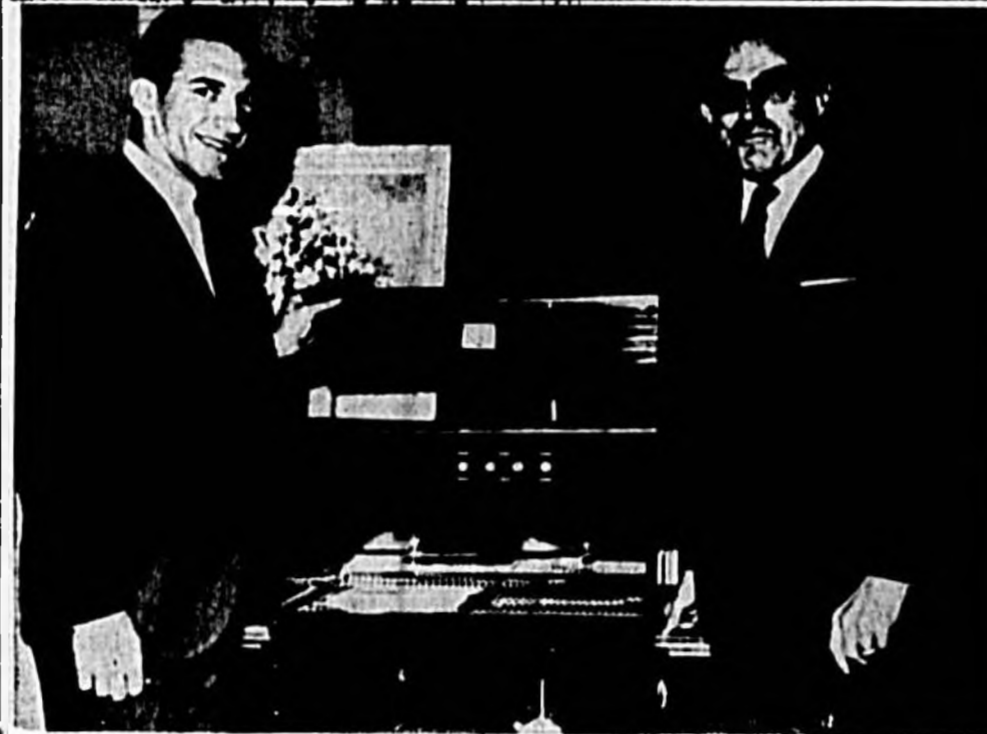

Mrs. Gertrude Dalton, tiny and white-haired, said she makes the 2,800-mile round trip from Auburn, N. Y. to Orlando, Fla., twice a year to spend the winter in the balmy climate.

With a 10-year-old cat named "Betsy Kitten" she chugs along the east coast highways at speeds of 35 or 40 miles an hour in her rumble-seated "Lizzie."

"I'll drive 40," she replied to a question, "but never 45." She explained that when traffic is heavy, she pulls off the roads to let trucks go by "because they have a schedule to meet and I don't."

For admiring crowds, she blew her "ooga" horn and told them her car had been driven 83,186 miles since she bought it new.

This, Mrs. Dalton said, was her sixth round trip.

"I'M JUST GOING ALONG, let things take their course, and see what happens." So said O. C. McBride as to future plans Wednesday afternoon when he retired as vice president with 36 years of service at Sanford Atlantic National Bank. Flag Officers To See Derby

Two highly placed Pentagon officials and the head of Atlantic coastal activities will review parts of the 11th annual Reconnaissance Bombing Derby at the Sanford Naval Air Station next week.

They will join seven other flag officers who already have announced plans to attend the six-day fleet readiness exercise.

The new additions are Vice Adm. Harold T. Deutermann, commander of the Eastern Sea Frontier, and Rear Adm. Roger W. Mehle and Norman C. Gillette. Mehle is director of strike warfare and Gillette is director of aviation operations on the staff of Adm. David L. McDonald, chief of Naval Operations.

Mehle and Gillette will arrive in Sanford from Washington next Thursday. Admiral Deutermann's travel plans are expected to be released in his New York office Friday.

The two Pentagon officers are intimately concerned with employment of Sanford-based RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance bombers, which stage from the Central Florida station to aircraft carriers of both the Atlantic and Pacific fleets. One Sanford unit, Reconnaissance Attack Squadron Five, is current operating from the carrier Ranger in the waters off Viet Nam.

Deutermann, while primarily concerned with surface operations, has air units with in his command and is expected to focus attention on the RA-5C ground support center at NAS Sanford. The native New Yorker is a 38-year veteran of the Navy. He commanded destroyers in six major Pacific campaigns in World War II.

Mehle was a fighter squadron and air group commander during World War II. In 1961-62 he commanded the carrier Saratoga, which had in its air group Sanford's Heavy Attack Squadron Nine.

Gillette, a much decorated World War II patrol bomber pilot, served as executive officer of the carrier Randolph and commanding officer of the helicopter assault carrier Thetis Bay before ascending to his current position on the CNO staff.

Among the other flag officers planning to attend the Reconnaissance Bombing Derby are commanders of naval air forces in both major fleets, Vice Adm. Paul D.

Stroop of the Pacific and Vice Adm. Charles T. Booth II, who assumed command of Atlantic air activities Wednesday.

Visiting from the Joint Strategic Target Planning Staff in Offutt AFB, Neb., will be Vice Adm. Robert J. Stroh, the deputy director, and Rear Adm. Joseph A. Jaap, Pacific Command representative.

The other flag officers are Rear Adm. Daniel F. Smith Jr., chief of Naval Air Basic Training in Pensacola, Fla.; Rear Adm. Forsyth Massey, chief of staff of the Joint Services Strike Command in MacDill AFB, Tampa, and Rear Adm. Robert Goldthwaite, commander of Fleet Air Jacksonville.

Boy, 13, Hurt By Bomb
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — A dynamite bomb exploded in the Negro section of the city early today injuring a 13-year-old boy. Other unexploded bombs were found at the homes of the mayor and the city's only councilwoman.

Police said a bomb consisting of about 15 sticks of dynamite exploded in a concrete block garage at the home of T. R. Crowell, a Negro public accountant.

Bombs were found at the home of Mayor Albert Boutwell and city Councilwoman Nina Miglianico, both considered moderates in their view toward the racial issue.

The bomb found at the side of Boutwell's fashionable two-story brick home was made of nearly 45 sticks of dynamite.

Boutwell was in Washington, D. C., attending the national mayors' conference. The bomb at his home was discovered by his son, Albert Jr.

Sponsorship Is Disclaimed
Greater Sanford Board of Trade and the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce today disclaimed any sponsorship of a "Treasure Chest" plan being sold in the area.

Officials said coupons for the Treasure Chest are being sold locally for $4 each by Parkway Studios.

Board of Trade and the Chamber said they had received many calls about the promotion. The callers said the sellers are claiming the merchants are sponsoring it.

DeWitt Mathews, chairman of the Board of Trade, advised persons to examine it carefully before purchasing coupons.

GOP Chief

Pan Am Pilots Strike Grounds World Flights

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pan American World Airways, the nation's largest international air carrier, was grounded today by a strike of its 1,528 pilots.

The Air Line Pilots Association (ALPA) called a strike against Pan Am at 7 p. m. (EST) Wednesday after negotiations became hopelessly deadlocked on issues involving working conditions.

The bargaining had gone on for 13 months without resolving the complex dispute which included pilot demands for a reduction of their 80-hour monthly flying time.

No new negotiations were scheduled. The strike grounded scheduled Pan Am flights from 16 major U. S. cities to 83 countries around the world. The line normally carries 14,000 passengers a day.

As soon as the walkout was called, the airline notified most of its 28,530 employees they were suspended for the duration.

Among the few hundred who remained at work were skeleton staffs of reservation clerks which the airline said would stay on to help passengers arrange alternative transportation.

In announcing the strike call, the ALPA said no flights would take off after the 7 p. m. deadline, although those already en route would continue to their farthest scheduled destination.

'Thumbs Down' On Labor Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz turned down again a plea to allow foreign laborers to harvest crops in Florida and other states.

"It is not my understanding that there is an obligation on the government . . . to assure a labor supply," he said in answer to a telegram to House agriculture committee chairman Harold Cooley, of North Carolina.

Driver And 'Car' Excite Raleigh

RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI) — A 78-year-old woman with a penchant for travel caused a mild sensation in Raleigh Wednesday when she went chugging through in a 1930 model A Ford.

Mrs. Gertrude Dalton, tiny and white-haired, said she makes the 2,800-mile round trip from Auburn, N. Y. to Orlando, Fla., twice a year to spend the winter in the balmy climate.

With a 10-year-old cat named "Betsy Kitten" she chugs along the east coast highways at speeds of 35 or 40 miles an hour in her rumble-seated "Lizzie."

"I'll drive 40," she replied to a question, "but never 45." She explained that when traffic is heavy, she pulls off the roads to let trucks go by "because they have a schedule to meet and I don't."

For admiring crowds, she blew her "ooga" horn and told them her car had been driven 83,186 miles since she bought it new.

This, Mrs. Dalton said, was her sixth round trip.

Gov. Burns gave the St. Johns-Indian River canal a big boost in a speech the other night at Titusville. He called it a "vital link" in the waterways system of Florida.

"During my campaign, I heartily supported the Sanford-Titusville link and I certainly urge the Canal Authority to continue its efforts to get this link completed at the same time the cross-state canal is opened.

"It is not feasible to bring freight destined for the Cape or the Southern East Coast all the way up to Jacksonville, 18 miles to the inland waterway and then down when the shorter route is possible. The same would hold true for barges headed in the other direction," he said.

Missy Belsito, 1427 Princeton, and Linda Lay, 118 Elm Avenue, are among student leaders at the University of South Florida who will be honored tonight at the fifth annual awards banquet.

The Class of 1960 Seminole High School is preparing for a reunion June 12. Still uncontacted are several classmates. They are having difficulty in locating Bruce Muirhead, Billy Harrell, Frank Crosby, Priscilla Reynolds, Janice Moss, Helen Kane, Carl Graham, Eleanor Marshall, Marjorie Hogan, Lillian Monroe, Mary Grace Brown, Lynn Harnage, Theodore Ogleby, Thelma Robinson, Anna Greer and Virginia Williams. If anyone knows the whereabouts of any of these members please call Clayda Jones (322-4690) or Helen Meriwether (322-0305), 0305).

A sidewalk connecting Sanford Avenue to the Naval Air Station is being put down this week. It runs on the south side of Onora Road.

Annual festival of the Westside Grammar School PTO will be held at the school grounds, Seventh and Elm, starting at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Maybe it's the commonest influence, but on Monday night while the Burke Family Singers were singing the Russian composer Alexia Loev's "Hoppe! Pomme!" at the high school, the Presbyterian College choir was demonstrating an over-joyous congregation at the Church of the Covenant on Glades highway with the same tongue-twisting Russian number.

But if THAT was the only Russian influence we had to worry about, we'd be lucky indeed!

New is a good time for all of us to renew our faith if it is based on Christ's sacrifice.
