France Clamps Down On Algerian Rebs

PARIS (UPI)—The government imposed new and tougher police measures today to combat a growing wave of terrorism by Algerian nationalist underground agents in France.

The new measures followed a fresh outbreak of Muslim nationalist shootings and sabotage attempts over the weekend that included the slaying of two French soldiers on the streets of Paris. Gunmen from the Algerian underground (FLN) also opened fire Monday night on a big state-owned electric generating plant just outside Lyons and a gasoline supply depot at Marseilles.

 "It was the worst thing I have ever seen. The woman who was trapped kept screaming, 'Help... Help... Please, help me. Help. Please, somebody help me!'"

The FLN's campaign of terrorism on the mainland already has brought such strict security measures as the day and night guarding of gasoline dumps by combat-armed soldiers, massive identity checks of North Africans in Paris and an unofficial curfew for Algerians in the French capital.

Informed sources said these new steps have now been ordered or are in the making:
 —Top ranking police officials will be transferred from areas where there are no Algerians to temporary duty to Paris and other key cities.
 —French army officers and non-commissioned officers may soon be authorized to carry sidearms when off duty and in uniform to protect themselves against FLN gunmen.

—North African dock workers, of which there are many in France, may shortly be barred from work in the major ports.
 —Tight security measures at all commercial airports, especially those with airlines flying between France and North Africa.

Prisons To Ban Solitary Confinement

By BARBARA FRYE
United Press International
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Florida prison officials were under orders today to destroy the long-used solitary confinement "sweat boxes" for troublemakers at the state's 36 convict road camps.

Road Chairman Joe Grotegut said Monday the primitive cells would be replaced by modern custody cells in which unruly convicts will be held until they can be returned to the state prison at Raiford.

Grotegut said he issued the order because the problem prisoners now can be handled "by other means."

Grotegut, who became road chairman in June after serving as assistant to Gov. LeRoy Collins, acted after a newspaper (the Tampa Tribune) disclosed that a teen-age convict at the Moore Haven Road Camp was held in a sweat box for 26 days and nights.

The sweat boxes are about three feet wide and six feet long and are ventilated by holes at the top. Long enough for most to stretch out in, the cells have no water or toilet facilities.

Grotegut did not criticize the handling of unruly prisoners in the past. He said prison authorities have done the best they could with the facilities they had available.

"However, we have reached the point where disciplinary problems in the road prisons can be handled by means other than solitary confinement cells which may be described as sweat boxes," Grotegut said. He added he had the approval of Collins and state Penal Director R. O. Culver in ordering the cells destroyed.

He said he and Collins had believed the sweat boxes were abandoned two years ago. The state will pay about $80,000, or about $2,000 each, for the new detention cells, Grotegut said.

Grotegut said it was necessary to maintain discipline "efficiently and humanely without resort to outmoded methods," and that if an unruly prisoner is found working with a road crew he will be returned promptly to Raiford.

"I am satisfied the steps to be taken throughout the system will minimize such troubles in the future," he said.

Official Says Adams Out As Eisenhower Assistant

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—An administration official said today that Sherman Adams for all practical purposes has left the White House staff and is not expected to return to work as the assistant to President Eisenhower.

Marshals Prepared To Enforce Orders Of Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department prepared today to mobilize U.S. Marshals to enforce integration at Little Rock's Central High School if the Supreme Court so orders and local peace officers cannot cope with mob violence.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers late Tuesday made this clear when he disclosed he had written the city manager of Little Rock, Ark., that "careful plans should be made now by responsible officials to prevent disorder or violence in the event" of a Supreme Court order for integration.

Adams left this week for a fishing trip in New England. The administration figure told United Press International. "I think the question of a resignation is over and done with—I don't believe he's coming back."

"If this official's information was correct—and there was every reason to believe it was—all that remained was the formality of a White House announcement of Adams' resignation."

Adams' decision to leave has been in the making since the House investigation of favors extended to his good friend, Bernard Goldfine, the Boston textile tycoon.

The vacation White House at Newport, R.I., said "It is just true" that Adams has resigned. It acted in response to a New Hampshire newspaper report that a Washington source said Adams had quit.

"There has been no resignation in any shape, form or manner submitted by Gov. Adams," Press Secretary James A. Hagerity said.

Result of Election: If there was any doubt in Adams' mind about leaving, it was, according to officials who should know, resolved by the Maine election where the Adams-Goldfine affair may have been a factor in the startling Democratic victory.

The Democratic victory in Maine caused hard-pressed Republican candidates elsewhere to renew their cries that Adams should go.

At the White House here, Associate Press Secretary Ann Woodson said "no one is aware of a resignation." But the pointed out that any hard news would have to come from Newport.

Rogers' letters were viewed as an apparent indirect effort by the government to assure "chaos" on the board's brief that the legislative and executive branches of the federal government "have displayed little willingness to assist" in integration.

Rogers, in the letter to Dean Daulton, Little Rock city manager, said that "the Department of Justice and its representatives in Little Rock, the United States Marshals and the Little Rock police are ready to cooperate fully with the city of Little Rock and the Little Rock police within the limits of our respective responsibilities."

He said the Justice Department had made arrangements for the temporary expansion of the present staff of the U.S. marshals' office.

School Bonds Approved; Gatchel, Dunn Winners

Seminole Will Get Funds Needed For New Construction

Seminole County voters yesterday gave overwhelming approval to a $3,200,000 school bond issue.

A total of 6,430 freeholders cast ballots in the election. The official canvass today revealed that 3,823 voted for the bonds, 607 against them. A total vote of 4,437 was needed for a valid election.

R. T. Milwee, county superintendent, today expressed "sincere appreciation on behalf of the county school system and myself" for passage of the issue.

"With adequate facilities, we will be in a position to provide the best education possible for our children," Milwee said.

The bond issue will make possible construction and renovation of 18 schools. The money will be used to build a new senior high school in Sanford, new elementary schools in Southwest Sanford, Casselberry and Longwood. Additional classrooms, facilities and renovations will modernize Sanford Junior High (present School in Longwood, Lake Mary School, Ovidio High School, Crossroads Academy, Midway Elementary School, Rosewood School, Ovidio Elementary, Sanford Grammar, Southside Primary, Sanford West Side Primary, Geneva Elementary, Lake Monroe Elementary and Wilson Elementary.

Two sites for proposed Junior high schools will be bought. Residents of Seminole County have been assured by the school board that funds will be used only for these projects, and not for increased salaries or non-essential equipment.

Enrollment in Seminole County has increased 71.4% for white and 23.2% for Negro children during the past five years. Three schools in the county are in double sessions. Rapid growth of population and a lack of funds for improvement or construction made the school bonds a necessity. The bond issue failed in an election last year when too few freeholders went to the polls.

Segregation Stand Gives Holland Big Victory

MIAMI (UPI)—A strong stand for segregation carried Sen. Spessard Holland to a thumping Florida Democratic primary victory today over Claude Pepper, seeking return to the U.S. Senate as a "Dixie liberal."

Returns from 1,879 of the state's 1,888 precincts gave Holland 399,427 votes to 315,605 for Pepper. The primary landslide by more than 80,000 votes assured the whitehead, 66-year-old Holland, a staunch member of the South's conservative congressional bloc.

Holland's victory came at the end of a strenuous campaign that ranged the full 700-mile length of Florida and cost the two candidates a total of more than $500,000. Pepper admitted that Holland's appeals to segregationists and his charges that Pepper had been "mullin'" toward communism while in the Senate were the telling blows in the races.

Bridge Requested On St. John's Here

A new railroad bridge may span the St. John's River just west of the present highway bridge. John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, announced today that an application for the building of the span has been received from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

Since the bridge will span a navigable channel, approval must first be granted from the Corps of Engineers. The new bridge would be a bascule span, opening in 15 minutes. The present bridge must swing out to open.

Pepper had counted heavily on big population centers and particularly in the western "panhandle" but he compiled a sizeable margin only in the Miami area where Duval County voters—more than 50,000 less than expected—gave him a 21,000 majority.

Holland's home stamping grounds of Central Florida gave him a rousing runoff. Polk County cast a 7,500-vote margin for the winner and Orange (Orlando) went for Holland 3-1 by 19,000 votes.

Cleveland Scores Smashing Victory In Reelection Bid

Two veteran members of the Seminole County Commission yesterday failed in their bids for fourth terms. The only other incumbent with opposition in the primary election swept every box in the county to win handily.

R. C. Dadd and F. A. Dyson, both ending 12 years on the board, lost by narrow margins, but Mack Cleveland Jr., seeking his third term in the House of Representatives, piled up about a 4-1 margin over F. E. Brady, former member of the House and ex-sheriff of Seminole County.

Adlai Flays U. S. Foreign Policy As 'Clumsy, Erratic'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Adlai E. Stevenson, returning from a three-month tour of 13 European countries, including Russia, characterized United States' foreign policy today as "clumsy, erratic and self-righteous."

Stevenson said he found little "neutralist sentiment" in Europe but "an undertone of grave anxiety about the conflict between the East and the West." He said there was too much tendency to look to the United States for leadership and blame the United States for everything that goes wrong.

He said the defense of Formosa is "a solemn United States obligation" but declined to say whether he felt that defense should include going to war over the Quemoy and Matsu islands.

The former Democratic presidential candidate said he believed Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's latest letter to President Eisenhower was written primarily for the benefit of Russian-Chinese relations.

Stevenson said he planned to "be as active as possible" in Democratic campaigns this fall. He said his only present commitment is to speak in California at the end of this month for Edmund Brown, who is running for governor against Sen. William F. Knowland.

The first professional book for teachers, published in 1957, was called "Lectures on Schoolkeeping."

Florist Suggests Flowers To Russia

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Anyone you'd like to send flowers to in Moscow?
 Jack Dobson of Glasgow, Scotland, told a meeting of officials of Interflora, an association of 22,000 florists who service customers by cable, that Moscow has a "substantial number" of retail florists.
 He said the group hopes to recruit the Soviet florists as members of the organization so its service will be "truly universal."

More Rallies, Voter Questioning Of County Candidates Suggested

Officials of the Longwood Citizens League have suggested that the Democratic Executive Committee of Seminole County is in need of reorganization. So have a few citizens who attended the only committee-sponsored rally leading up to the primary election yesterday.

Now that the election is over, Democratic Party officials of Seminole County might give serious consideration to the complaints of some party members. It would seem that such consideration might prevent future disharmony.

Biggest objections to the manner in which the Democratic Executive Committee supervised the campaign were: only one "authorized" rally was held, and voters were not permitted to question candidates.

It appears that voters have legitimate "gripes" on both points. First, one rally in Seminole County is not sufficient for the voters to have the opportunity to hear what the candidates have to say; secondly, such a system gives complete protection to candidates for office. The voter has little or no recourse. It is impossible for individual voters to contact all of the candidates and ask questions.

The Herald would suggest that the Democratic Executive Committee consider one rally in each of the county's precincts. If this would be too expensive, or too time-consuming, the committee might consider sponsoring five or six rallies in the heavily populated areas of the county. This would give more voters a chance to hear what the candidates have to say.

The Herald also would suggest that voters be given the opportunity to ask questions of office seekers. How else can the voters get answers. In some cases, a politician talks enough about his proposed program or his record to answer these questions. In other cases, much of this information must be solicited by the audience.

Of course, candidates would be running the risk of personal embarrassment should they submit to questions. Some of this might be unjustified. But, based on the experiences at the Longwood rally, the probability of "argument" with candidates is relatively small.

Candidates should be willing to run the risk of having "pointed" questions thrown at them. After all, the money they spend when in office belongs to the people asking the questions. So does that money that they pocket at the end of every month. Too, those offices belong to the people. This is something that some candidates remember only at election time.

Subsidy Requested

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) called Monday night for a subsidy program to improve the health, welfare and education of the nation's "real wealth"—its children. Neuberger wrote in Parents magazine that "sponsors of children's legislation are frequently too modest and timid in their demands."

Clown Not Clowning

NEW YORK (UPI) — A clown skater fell into the audience Sunday night during the Ed Sullivan television program. The skater, Fred Trinker, 41, of Milton, Mass., suffered a wrenched right shoulder, and a spectator, Mrs. Emma Balgeher, of Jersey City, N.J., was given first aid treatment for an arm injury.

Conning The News

By Virginia Conn, Herald Staff Writer

There are some things these days that offset the terrible September heat. Naturally, air conditioning is one of them. But tonight I'm referring to the particularly beautiful sunsets we have in Florida. The sky is swept with pink and silver clouds, set off by gathering thunder heads framed in gold. Very nice!

At this writing we are not sure of the outcome of the school bond election, but feel quite certain that the freeholders turned out in style to vote for approval. The crowds at the polls today were enthusiastic and optimistic. However, they remembered the fiasco last year when too few went to the polls to pass the badly needed bond. Today they were warning each other against spreading positive rumors, lest someone who had not voted think he was expendable.

If the bond issue goes through, the citizens of Seminole County should feel proud that they worked together for the success of such a worthy cause. Those with the interests of Seminole County's children, their future and the potential business good schools can bring, spearheaded the endeavor. Others were swept up in the need for help. They turned to the job of calling voters, writing voters and talking their heads off in favor of the bond.

The number of citizens to be commended is tremendous. Perhaps they may never be known publicly, but when new schools are built, they will take satisfaction in knowing that they had a large share in the education and safety of Seminole County children.

Every few months here in Sanford we are bombarded with complaints about the planes from the Naval Air Station. Recently there have been more than usual. Every few months, of course, another squadron prepares to leave for the Mediterranean area.

Many words have been written on this subject. It is hard to believe that anyone would go beyond the normal griping stage in complaining about the frankly loud and irritating scream of jets at night. Most people don't say a word. If the pilots could not practice night flying the chances of their landing on a carrier, small as it can be in an ocean, would be very slim. If they could not reach the carrier there would be little point in the fleet protecting our country. If we did not have the protection of the fleet and other equally noisy Air Force planes, we would not be allowed the privilege of complaining.

There are so many angles to the argument that it is impossible to name them all. But our safety, the safety of the men who fly the planes, and the necessity for efficient aircraft make the noise necessary. Too bad the people who can't stand the noise can't be on a carrier for ten months, away from home and family. Perhaps then the occasional drone of a plane at home would not sound so bad.

Sanford stood up in arms when the Naval Air Station was going to be closed. Let him who wants quiet all night and all day, and who can do without any of the Navy's large payroll—move somewhere else. That is, if he can find a place in our air-minded country that does not hear sound from the sky. That sound above means peace. When quiet reigns for long perhaps the next sound will rain bombs. No pun meant by that last remark, either.

Cy and Jean Flitton left Sanford today for duty in Whiddy Island, one of Sanford's most ardent admirers. Cy and Jean will be missed as much as we know they will this town. It was sad to see the house on Fifteenth St. empty of furniture. But just as most Navy people who have been happy here do—they will come back some day. At least, we hope so.

Girl's Teeth Tell Age, Judge Avers

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—Want to be sure your girl isn't lying about her age? Look at her teeth.

Criminal Court Judge L. A. Grayson recommended this method of judging your girl's age Monday during the trial of Vernon Alfred, 36, a truck driver.

Alfred had been charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old girl. He explained to the judge that he thought the girl, a nurse's aide, was older.

"Didn't you look at her teeth?" the judge inquired. "You can tell her age from her teeth. Like a horse."

Alfred drew 90 days in jail.

Reporter Visits Quemoy, Sees War

By CHARLES SMITH, United Press International

BIG QUEMOY (UPI) — I arrived on Big Quemooy Island today and promptly saw the war I'd been chasing through the Formosa Strait for two weeks.

Our Nationalist Chinese transport plane was turned back by Communist MIGs once today, but we successfully landed through artillery fire on the second try.

I flew to Big Quemooy from Taipei with Charles Lowe of United Press International, Movietone News, Fred Waters and Gene Kramer of the Associated Press and Tsao Chih-yueh of the Nationalist Central News Agency.

Our plane landed on an emergency strip along a sandy beach amid a flurry of artillery fire from Red guns. The shells sent up geysers of sand. But nobody was hit.

Hit Ground Running

Shells landed a few hundred yards down the beach from where our plane stopped. When the plane taxied to a stop we hit the beach running and headed for the cover of some sandy hills 300 yards inland.

With us were 20 high ranking army officers including three Nationalist generals.

The Communists have knocked out the regular landing strip here with their shelling and the emergency strip was set up along the beach for just such a landing.

We left Taipei around 4:30 a.m. today and were to have reached Quemooy two hours later. But 20 minutes from the heavily bombed island our plane was ordered to return because Soviet-built jets were in the Quemooy skies.

We landed at Makung, the major city in the Pescadores off the west coast of Formosa and took off a few hours later when permission was received to try it again.

Different After Week

I spent three days on Big Quemooy last week after escaping through a running night sea battle on a small landing boat. It was a little more spine tingling this time — the knowledge a bombardment was under way.

Shells seemed to be coming in all over the island. I could see the ones on the beach near our plane land with great bursts of sand and smoke.

The bombardment was heavier than any I lived through on Big Quemooy last week but we escaped unhurt. So did the plane. It flew back to Taipei.

Last week there was difficulty in finding the war. We could hear it but were unable to see it. We could see the results and know it was the real thing. Today we flew right into it.

Power plants in New York State produced 40,900,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity in 1957.

MRS. ALBERT EDWIN ROGERS (Photo by Bergstrom)

Couple United In Home Rites

Friday afternoon at 4:30 Miss Joan Hughey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Irving Hughey, became the bride of Albert Edwin Rogers, son of Mrs. Roy Clyde Brown of Jacksonville and Mr. Albert Landford Rogers of Miami.

The impressive double ring ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. T. C. O'Steen, pastor of the First Methodist Church, solemnized the marriage against a background of ferns, white gladioli, chrysanthemums and asters.

Musical for the wedding was pre-recorded and played during the ceremony by tape recorder. Mrs. Robert Bennett was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Albert Hickson, the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She entered the room in a halcyon length gown of shantung lace, draped over satin and net. The bodice bodice featured a high neckline with fan face outlining the sheer yoke. Long sleeves tapered to points over her wrists. A cap of seed pearls held in place her veil of finger-tip illusion. She carried a white Billie topped with a bouquet of white lace over chiffon, complemented by white accessories. Her carriage was of white carnations.

Maid of honor, Miss Janice Laxen, wore a dress of white nylon with a bodice and skirt embroidered in pastel flowers. A pink cummerbund encircled the waist and formed a large bow in the back. Miss Laxen carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Merle Dale Hyde was best man. The mother of the bride wore a beige shadow nylon dress with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom's mother chose a blue chiffon with bodice of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hughey home. The large table was overlaid with a white linen.

Ginger Is Feminist

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ginger Rogers turns out to be a feminist as well as an actress.

It is time, says the blonde star, that the nation caught up with the times and granted equal rights to women.

"Equal pay for equal work, and especially equal opportunity. Why shouldn't women have these things?" said Miss Rogers, who once won a movie Oscar for her characterization of a working girl named "Kitty Foyle."

Miss Rogers climbs on the bandwagon with the business and professional women's clubs and other women's groups who have tried for years to get equal rights legislation enacted. Measures to guarantee them are offered consistently in Congress, but none has ever gotten out of committee.

Willing to Help

The H and PW hopes to get such a bill introduced in the next session. And Miss Rogers said in an interview she's willing to offer any help she can.

She said the equal opportunity bill is as real as the motion picture industry.

"I'm sure, they let us women act," she said. "But how many women directors or producers can you name? They'll let a woman drive a cab, but not operate a camera."

"And why is there no woman on the stock exchange?"

"Keeping a woman back because she is a woman is ridiculous," Miss Rogers said. "Ideas have no gender. I'm just as capable of thinking as a man. Why just because the idea comes from a woman does it get turned down?"

Excuses Exceptionally Fast

The actress conceded there are many exceptions, that numerous women have succeeded in spite of the "double standard." "But they're looked on as oddities," she said. "Why all the to-do when a woman becomes an ambassador?"

"Sometimes," she continued, "it is difficult for a man to recognize a woman's ability. It's sort of like the old fight between the North and the South. The war is over, but the battle is still on."

But men alone are not to blame. "Both sexes are guilty of the oppression," she said. "Haven't you heard women tearing down other women who get ahead... they do it with a real viciousness. They seem to think, 'If I can't, why should she?'"

The actress came to New York from her Hollywood home to plan details of her first television show this fall, an hour long variety show Oct. 15 on CBS.

Veal Cutlets Have Sunny Italian Flavor

Any well-rounded menu plan should include a veal dish of some type. One that is particularly good and one that you're sure to try again is veal cutlets-Italiane.

The recipe is actually quite economical. Veal ground steak is the most cut used. Even though veal is young beef, it is best braised. Being also mild in flavor, the Italian-type sauce adds the final flavor complement to this recipe.

Veal cutlets Italiane is a casserole dish, and when it comes from the oven, you'll know that it's bound to receive approval.

1 1/2 pounds veal round steak, cut 1/4 inch thick
1/2 cup flour
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 cans (15 1/2 ounces each) macaroni in cheese sauce
1 can (16 ounces) tomatoes, drained
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 teaspoon oregano
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1/2 teaspoon salt
dash of pepper

Cut veal steak into 4 cutlets, and pound approximately 1/2 inch thick. Dredge cutlets in flour and brown slowly in lard or drippings. Spoon contents of 1 can of macaroni and cheese into a greased 2-quart baking dish. Top with 1/2 of tomatoes. Combine onion, oregano and garlic salt. Sprinkle 1/2 the onion mixture over the tomatoes. Repeat layers. Top with veal cutlets and season meat with salt and pepper. Cover tightly and bake in a slow oven (300° F.) for 45 minutes. Remove cover and continue cooking 15 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

Pirates Whip Giants Twice

By PHAD DOWN
United Press International
 The Pittsburgh Pirates can't seem to catch the front-running Milwaukee Braves but they're vigilantly assured today of their best finish in 14 years.

Danny Murtagh's surprising new just about clinched second place in the National League Tuesday night when they beat the San Francisco Giants, 4-3 and 3-1, on late-inning hits by Frank Thomas and Ted Kluszewski. That gave the Pirates a 4½-game lead over the third-place Giants and put them in a position where a .500 pace in their last 14 games will clinch second place. The Pirates have finished as high as second only twice in the last 20 years—in 1933 when they blew the pennant in the last week of the season and in 1944 when they trailed the St. Louis Cardinals by 14 games.

Maseroski Homers
 The Pirates won the first game, a contest suspended since July 27, when Thomas singled home Roberto Clemente in the eighth inning.

Republicans Say Adams Should Resign

By JOHN A. GOLDBRITZ
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican strategists declared privately today Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams should resign to prevent more Maine-type landslides for Democrats.

One GOP source high in the party told United Press International the defeat of incumbent Republican Sen. Frederick G. Payne by Gov. Edmund G. Muskie in the Maine senatorial election has proved the political liabilities of the Bernard Goldfine case in which Adams was a figure.

Payne, like Adams, acknowledged receiving favors from Goldfine, a millionaire textile tycoon from Boston.

The argument advanced in some GOP circles was that Adams should not subject other Republican candidates to the similar—if indirect—handicap by keeping his important administration post. Meanwhile, there were these reasons to the Democrats' newspaper of the Maine "early bird" election:

Democratic Party Chairman Paul M. Butler said the Formosa "mess" helped the Democrats. But Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told a news conference he did not think foreign policy played a part, because "our foreign policy in all its essential aspects has been and will be bipartisan."

California's Democratic gubernatorial candidate Edmund G. (Pat) Brown predicted "the tide that began Monday in Maine will sweep all the way across the nation."

Chairman Andrew F. Schoopel (R-Kan.) of the Senate GOP campaign committee said he did not see Maine pointing to a national trend.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson conceded the Republicans took a "pretty bad beating" in the Maine election but he refused to see the Democratic victory as a "weathervane."

Equipment Added To Lake Gem Park

The Recreation Department announces the Lake Gem Park, south of the city, is being renovated and additional equipment added.

Under the supervision of Park Superintendent Jim Dunn and Recreation Director Ronald Perry, Lake Gem Park has been cleaned and playground apparatus and picnic facilities installed.

It also planned to clean out Lake Gem and to stock it for the young fishermen of the area.

This face-lifting project is part of a long range plan to improve the city's park-playground facilities.

Court Hearing Delay Request

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Counsel for the Little Rock School Board told the Supreme Court today that a delay in integrating Central High School there would be consistent with the court's own "carefully conceived philosophy of deliberation."

Gov. Faubus Hints School Will Close Rather Than Mix

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that he expects the Supreme Court to hand down an adverse decision in the Little Rock case because the NAACP has gotten just about everything it asked for from the Supreme Court.

He said he does not think he will violate a federal injunction imposed upon him last fall if he orders Central closed.

"That is matter that should be taken up with lawyers," he said, after a pause. "I don't think so."

Faubus held a news conference before the Supreme Court met to decide whether Central must open Monday segregated or integrated.

Escorted Convoy Breaks Reds' Quemoy Blockade

Decision On Peace Rests With Reds, Official Declares

ABOARD U.S.S. MIDWAY OFF FORMOSA (UPI)—The commander of the U. S. 7th Fleet said today it is entirely up to Peking whether a shooting war breaks out in the Formosa Strait between the United States and Red China.

Vice Adm. William Beakley, commander of the mighty naval force assigned to protect Formosa, said "there is no reason for contact between us unless they take naval action against our force."

Beakley, in an interview with United Press International, also said: "The Chinese Communists do not have the naval strength to invade the Pescadore or Formosa and they will not have the strength for some time to come."

The present situation in the area appears to have greater political than military significance. A typhoon bearing down on the Formosa area might force the 7th Fleet to re-deploy, but the typhoon should hinder the Chinese Communists as much as the Americans.

The 7th Fleet has at least three types of jet fighters that are better than the Russian-made MiG-17s opposite Formosa.

The fleet is at its greatest strength since the Korean War with 125 ships including five aircraft carriers and 85,000 men.

There is no contact either in the air or on the sea between U. S. and Chinese Communist forces.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said the Communists hurled more than 37,000 shells at all the Quemoy islands during and after the convoy unloading operation. The total set a one-day record in the small war.

The American ships did not cross the invisible three-mile offshore line drawn by the U. S. government to keep them out of range of Communist artillery fire.

Deputy Chief Inspector Edward W. Byrnes, who has conducted the investigation, said police would continue to "dig and dig because we have to corroborate or destroy this boy's statement so that everybody will be satisfied."

"We are not satisfied completely," he added.
