

Autopsy Report Reveals Man Shot Through Heart

SUSIE DAVIS

While a Sanford construction worker was shot four times with a .22 caliber gun, the bullet which struck him in the back and pierced his heart killed him, according to the county medical examiner's autopsy results today.

"He was hit twice in the back and one of those bullets went through his heart," said Dr. G.V. Garay, Seminole County coroner, concerning Tuesday's shooting victim, Byron Brooks, 21, of 850 W. First St.

"The other two bullets hit him in the belly, grazing him, but they didn't enter his body," Dr. Garay said.

"They apparently ricocheted off a car or something that he was standing near when he was shot."

Meanwhile, Susie Mae Davis, 23, of 1410 Williams Ave., Sanford, has been charged with the first-degree murder in connection with Brooks' death after witnesses told police they saw a woman, described as Miss Davis, gun Brooks down at an apartment complex construction site Tuesday morning.

Miss Davis was scheduled to appear before County Judge Harold F. Johnson in a bond hearing at 1:30 p.m. today. She was being held in the county jail this morning.

According to police, the shooting was the result of an apparent lover's quarrel between Miss Davis and Brooks, who reportedly had lived together until he moved out of their home Sunday. Police said they do not know why the couple split nor what prompted Tuesday's fatal incident.

Police also said that the previously released address for Miss Davis of 108 Olive Ave. was taken from her driver's license and was determined to be incorrect.

According to eye-witnesses, a woman drove onto the Sanford Landing Apartments site at 1801 W. First St. Tuesday, got out of her car and began shooting at Brooks, a carpeting laborer and helper while also shouting to him, "You lied on me. You lied." After shooting at him at least twice as she faced him, witnesses said she chased Brooks when he tried to flee, firing the .22 caliber pistol sending bullets into Brooks' body. Brooks fell to the ground and attempted to crawl away with the woman still shooting at him, witnesses said.

When the woman walked back to her car and started to drive away, construction foreman Keith King, 39, of Lake Mary, jumped into his pickup truck and rammed her vehicle on the construction site in an attempt to stop her, police said.

King reportedly jumped out of his vehicle, armed with a gun, approached the woman and told her to "get out of the car without a gun or I'll kill you."

Moments later, police and rescue personnel arrived at the shooting site, arrested Miss Davis and attempted, without success, to revive Brooks.

According to police, the shooting was the result of an apparent lover's quarrel between Miss Davis and Brooks, who reportedly had lived together until he moved out of their home Sunday.

Brooks was pronounced dead on arrival at Central Florida Regional Hospital.

"Mr. King was pretty brave to do what he did," said Sgt. Herb Shea, assistant to Police Chief Ben Butler. "But while it turned out good in this case, the tables could have turned on him and she could have reacted in a way that might have resulted in further injury. Nonetheless, Mr. King is to be commended for his actions. He acted very quickly."

Seminole-Brevard State Attorney Douglas Cheshire is expected to impanel a grand jury to consider the facts surrounding the first-degree murder charges against Miss Davis as early as next week, said W.J. Patterson, executive director of Cheshire's Sanford office.

"In first-degree murder cases, a grand jury has to bring an indictment for the charge to stay," Patterson said.

Patterson said that the case has not yet been assigned to a prosecutor but added he expects one of his three division heads to handle the case.

Group And Pastor Both Win Hearing

By MICHAEL BEILA

A disgruntled homeowners group and a minister seeking a tax exemption have won victories of sorts with the Seminole County commissioners.

Commissioner Barbara Christensen requested a new hearing for proposed changes in the master plan of Foxwood planned unit development near Forest City. Mrs. Christensen said several questions relating to the changes were not adequately addressed in a hearing Aug. 17.

Commissioners Tuesday voted 3-2 to allow the developers of the development to construct condominiums on a 5-acre tract that had previously been zoned for a church. The board also approved zoning to allow commercial buildings to locate in a 5.6-acre tract previously designed for offices.

At that time, Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff said the change set a dangerous precedent by changing the density approved in a planned unit development. If changes in density of the PUDs are permitted there is no sense establishing them as PUDs, he said.

The issue had been hotly debated by a group of residents who said they would not have moved into Foxwood if the changes which are being considered had existed then.

Mrs. Christensen said Tuesday the density issue had not been addressed completely by county staff members who reviewed the proposal. She also said a site plan should be submitted before the changes are considered.

"I feel residents need to see a basic concept of a plan," Mrs. Christensen said. She was one of three commissioners who voted to allow the changes. The vote to set a new hearing on the plan was 4-1 with Commissioner Robert Sturm voting against it.

No date was set for the hearing. Commissioners also agreed to set a hearing for the Rev. John Book, who wants an exemption from $180 in annual assessments in the Floridahaven Lighting District.

Book, minister of the Northside Church of Christ near Longwood, has fought with county officials for about three years claiming the church has an exemption from taxes.

The county has taken the position that exemption only applies to ad valorem taxes, not special fees assessed for special services, such as lighting districts or road improvements.

Assistant County Attorney Robert McMillan said Book had come to the wrong place if he was seeking a tax exemption.

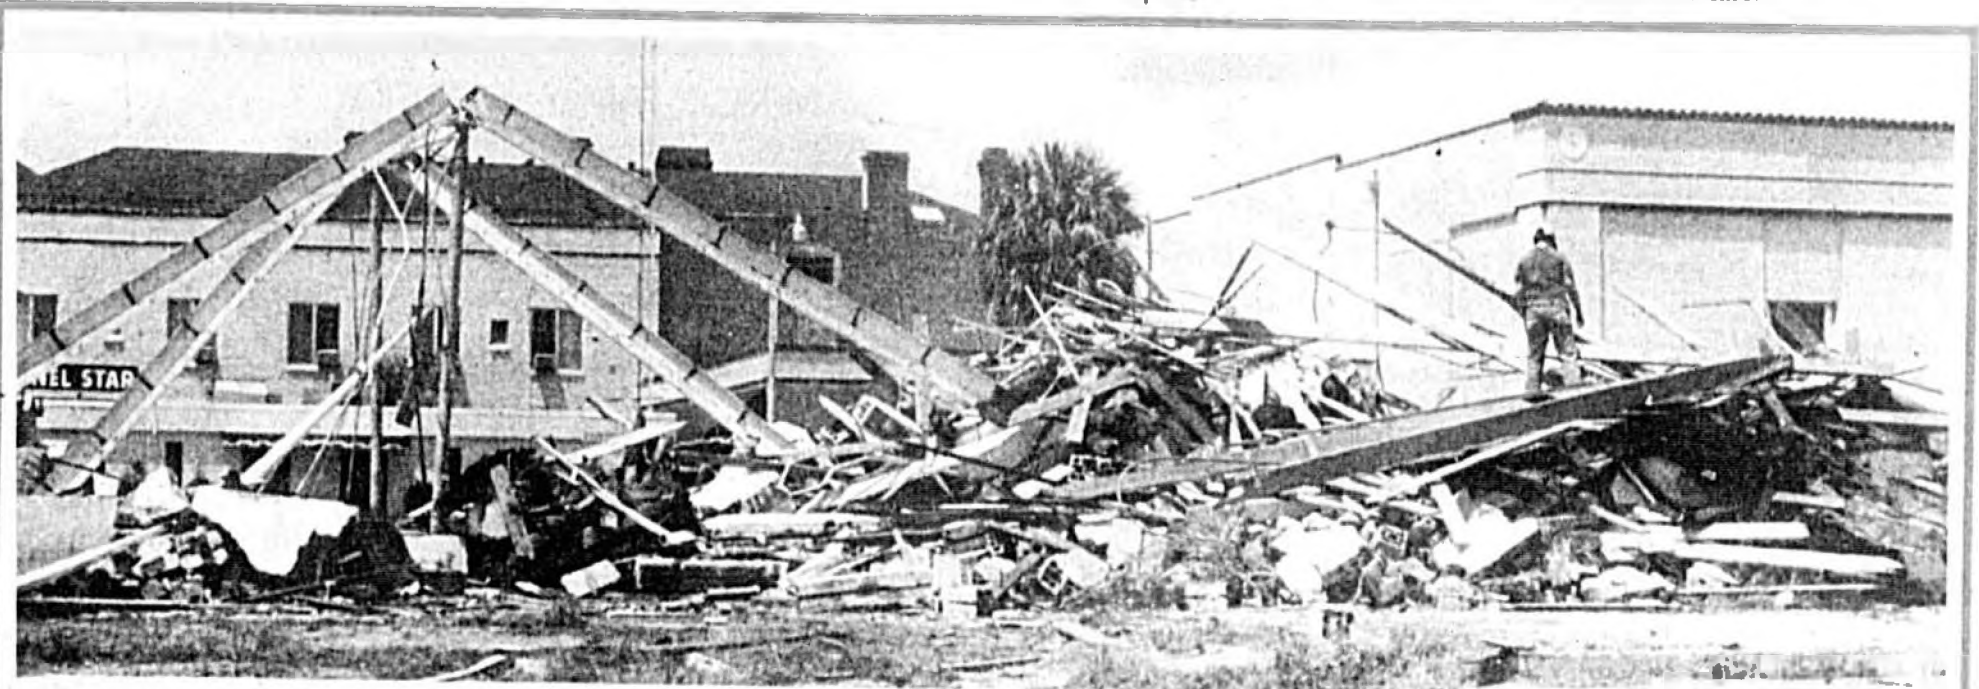

"This board has no constitutional jurisdiction to deal with tax exemptions. That has to be taken up with the property appraiser's office," he said.

But Book said he had been to the property appraiser's office "several times. They told me to come see you."

"I'm here because the tax office said here is where it would be done," Book said. "I don't want to go to court. You don't have time to go to court."

Commissioner Sandra Glenn said she had talked with neighbors of the church who said they had no objection to removing the church from the tax district but wanted the light adjacent to the church to remain.

The commissioners voted 4-1, with Sturm opposed, to set up a public hearing to consider removing the church from the lighting district. No hearing date was set.

HISTORICAL STATION DOWNED

A piece of local history became a memory Tuesday when the old Pure Oil Service station on Park Avenue in Sanford was torn down. The site will be the home of a new ComBank office and is a block south of the Seminole County Courthouse. The service station dates back to the 1930s when it dispensed gasoline to celery farmers in Seminole County.

According to some local historians, the station also was the only place in the area where tires could be purchased during the rationing days of World War II. The station existed on the site until 1978. The Hurricane Battery Shop took over the building in 1980 and closed in 1981.

Miss Florida Medical Examiners' Dispute Ended

A dispute between medical examiners over Miss Florida, Deanna Pitman's sobriety the night her car struck a mailbox near Altamonte Springs has apparently ended.

Dr. Sara Irrgang said she has spoken with Dr. Thomas Hegert, chief medical examiner for District 9, which covers Seminole, Orange and Osceola counties and the differences have been ironed out.

Dr. Irrgang is an assistant medical examiner for Seminole County.

Dr. G.V. Garay agreed that much controversy had been made out of a minor disagreement.

Garay, county medical examiner for Seminole County, said today he doubted that Miss Pitman had had only three glasses of wine the evening of the wreck. "In my personal opinion, she had more than three glasses of wine."

That testimony was presented by Miss Pitman's boyfriend, Kenneth Kirchman, not by Dr. Irrgang, who also testified on Miss Pitman's behalf.

Garay re-emphasized that he had not been privy to the information on which Dr. Irrgang based her conclusion that Miss Pitman was not drunk when the accident occurred on July 16.

Garay said he was misquoted in several newspaper articles attacking Dr. Irrgang's testimony. He said the matter now is settled.

Dr. Irrgang testified in Miss Pitman's trial that a blood test given to Miss Pitman at the Seminole County Jail following her arrest showed her blood alcohol content was above the legally drunk limit of .10 percent. But that test was taken about two hours after the accident when the alcohol was, according to Dr. Irrgang, nearing its highest level of concentration.

She said the alcohol had taken about four hours to be absorbed into Miss Pitman's bloodstream because she had eaten a meal with it.

The food slowed the absorption rate, she said.

Dr. Hegert agreed with Dr. Irrgang's conclusion. He said the delay in the absorption rate after a meal like the one Miss

Pitman had is not unusual.

Hegert said Dr. Irrgang's assessment of a videotape made of Miss Pitman shortly after she was taken to the jail also was accurate. He has not seen the tape but said if Miss Pitman did not show signs of being drunk on the tape as Dr. Irrgang testified, she was probably not drunk when the accident occurred.

Based upon Dr. Irrgang's testimony, Assistant State Attorney Alan Robinson dropped the driving under the influence of alcohol charge which had been filed against Miss Pitman. Miss Pitman, the reigning Miss Florida, will compete in the Miss America pageant in early September. The Apopka native won the Miss Florida title as Miss Sanford.

Dr. Irrgang said, "As far as I'm concerned, it's over except for the bad publicity and the letters."

Dr. Irrgang said she has received several letters criticizing her as a result of a newspaper article last week which quoted five pathologists from around the state, who had not seen the evidence in the case, as saying Miss Pitman was drunk when the accident occurred and that Dr. Irrgang's testimony was wrong.

Last minute details of the fund-raising fun day at Monroe Marina to help the family of a five-year-old Orlando boy stricken with cancer are discussed by Tony Libertore, who is heading the effort, and Debbie Towns, coordinator. Libertore has set a goal of $37,000 to remove a lien from the family's home.

Help Anthony Fight Cancer Saturday

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

A fund-raising benefit will be held at the Monroe Marina Saturday to financially assist the parents of a five-year-old Orlando boy, stricken with cancer.

A Lake Mary businessman and Sanford resident has planned the "day of fun" to raise $37,000 the parents need to pay for their son's past medical expenses, so the state will take over payment of his future medical care.

A lien has been filed against the 8831 Scioto Court, Orlando, home of Dave and Lisa Rosehart for the $37,000 in unpaid medical expenses by the Orlando Regional Medical Center.

Anthony Rosehart, 5, has a rare form of cancer, known as "Burkitt's Lymphoma", that attacks the lymph glands.

Tony Libertore, a Lake Mary businessman and Sanford resident, brought the family's plight to the city's attention.

Sanford Mayor Lee P. Moore, with support from the City Commission Monday, proclaimed Saturday "Anthony Rosehart Day" and encouraged city residents to attend the special day's events scheduled from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Libertore said among the fun events scheduled for the day are boat rides by Marina employees; hot-air balloon rides from Rosie O'Grady's, foot races, bicycle and skate board competitions, hot dogs and food donated by McDonald's and cold drinks from Coca Cola.

All funds raised will go toward the debt, he said.

He said at 11 a.m. Saturday Mayor Moore will give the boy a key to the city and ride a boat with him on Lake Monroe.

Local automobile dealers are donating the use of an air-conditioned motor home for Anthony's comfort.

Sanford Fire Chief William Gailey will have his department's huge boot on hand to hold donations. The department has a large boot it uses in fund-raising activities. Lake Mary Fire Chief Jim Orioles also will participate.

During the day, prizes will be awarded from Walt Disney World, Sea World and many other businesses, Libertore said.

Libertore heard about the boy's illness and the Rosehart Family's problems with the medical expenses a few weeks ago. He said it caused him to flash-back to his own youth when he was also stricken with cancer. Because of expensive medical treatments, he said his father lost the family home only three weeks after his mother died.

"I looked at my son and a neighbor boy and thought either of those boys could have been stricken like little Anthony is. And I decided to do something," Libertore said.

He said he immediately pledged 5 percent of his corporation's profits to a trust fund for the boy and has since decided to pledge 100 percent of the profits earned from

AT&T Breakup To Reshape All U.S. Phone Service

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The process of dismantling American Telephone & Telegraph Co. is under way — a move that will reshape the nation's communications network and telephone service for every consumer.

U.S. District Judge Harold Greene Tuesday placed his stamp of approval on the agreement that opens the way for AT&T to spin off its 22 local operating companies within 18 months, and for the first time to enter lucrative new markets such as data processing.

AT&T spokesman Pic Wagner said the court-ordered divestiture "by itself should have no effect on local rates."

Long-distance rates are expected to remain stable or even drop because of competition from AT&T's new rivals such as MCI, a long-distance phone line competitor.

Nigh Wins In Oklahoma

United Press International
Oklahoma Gov. George Nigh won the Democratic nomination with ease Tuesday for a chance to become the state's first two-term governor, while Alaska's state House Speaker Tom Fink moved ahead of U. Gov. Terry Miller in that state's GOP gubernatorial primary.

With 55 percent of the votes counted, the arch-conservative Fink had 20,761 votes, or 30.9 percent, to Miller's 18,584, or 27 percent. Miller, a moderate, had taken an early lead in the contest although he trailed Fink in polls the day before the election.

On the Democratic side, attorney Steve Comper of Fairbanks maintained a slight lead with 10,694 votes, or 15.9 percent, against 10,307 votes, or 15.3 percent, for hotel businessman Steve Sheffield of Anchorage. Former U. Gov. Fred Boucher was a distant third.

Marijuana Granny Guilty

HOUSTON (UPI) — Despite a defense lawyer who dropped to his knees and begged for an acquittal, a jury of six men and six women found an 82-year-old great-grandmother guilty of growing marijuana in her vegetable garden.

Laura Ethel Clark, who argued she did not know the weeds growing alongside her tomatoes were marijuana, Tuesday was convicted of felony possession of 9 pounds of pot and ordered to serve two years' unsupervised probation.

"I'm surprised," Mrs. Clark said. "As many nice letters as I've gotten from people, I'm surprised." Asked how it felt to be a convicted felon at 82, she replied, "I don't like it one bit."

Town Cold To Soviets

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (UPI) — The City Council again told Moscow "nyet," voting not to lift a ban barring Soviet diplomats from using the town's beaches, tennis courts and golf course.

Mayor Alan Parente said the council voted, 5-1, Tuesday to retain the ban until the chief elements of a settlement are agreed on.

The dissenting vote came from Councilman Donald De Riggio, who has always contended the mini-Cold War is a waste of time.

"We can compete very well with the Russians militarily, economically, scientifically and surveillance-wise, but we can't compete with them in the area of petty nastiness," he said.

WEATHER

At least six tornadoes swarmed across Illinois and Indiana and thunderstorms roared through the nation's breadbasket, triggering a traffic accident that killed two elderly women and destroying crops ready for harvest.

Three tornadoes were flung from the clouds over east-central Illinois and another three twisters romped through central Indiana damaging houses and uprooting trees Tuesday.

Three tornadoes were flung from the clouds over east-central Illinois and another three twisters romped through central Indiana damaging houses and uprooting trees Tuesday.

Another storm system in the Southwest touched off flash flooding in Yuma County, Ariz., and damaged a bridge near Gallup in western Nev. Mexico.

Two elderly women from Iowa were killed on a rain-slick Illinois highway and at least three other injuries were blamed on the quick-brewing storms that doused some communities with more than 4 inches of water.

A tornado hugged the ground for about two minutes in Tipton, Ind., but authorities said it caused no injuries and there were no reports of structural damage.

"It went across the north edge of the town," said Tipton County Sheriff Richard Brankle. "We're a small town. It took about two minutes."

"We had a lot of power lines down and an unbelievable number of tree limbs," he added.

Pelting rain and winds to 60 mph blew across western Illinois and tracked rapidly to central Illinois, where 2 inches of rain hit Peoria in 90 minutes, 3 inches fell on Pekin, and 4½ deluged Washington.

The fierce winds leveled fields ripe with wheat had promised to be record corn and soybean crops.

Sign Changes Coming

Sanford Political Law To Be Enforced

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

As much as the Sanford City Commission sympathizes with the plight of general election candidates who cannot, according to city law, erect campaign signs until 30 days before the election, that law will be enforced until it is changed.

Mayor Lee P. Moore made the statement today after the Sanford City Commission Monday night unanimously instructed City Attorney Bill Colbert to prepare an amendment to change the law.

But Colbert said today the amendment will probably be considered at the Sept. 13 City Commission meeting and then finally adopted on Sept. 27.

The change will give general election candidates only six days more to have their signs displayed than the current law.

The only way the commission could adopt an ordinance sooner would be to call a special meeting on the matter, Colbert said while state law permits adoption of an emergency ordinance, the political sign matter could not be considered "a life threatening situation." It's not a bona fide emergency, he said.

City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles recommended the law be changed, saying it is inequitable.

The city law permits candidates with primary opposition to erect signs 30 days prior to the primary and then to leave them up until the general election. The law forbids candidates with general election opposition to erect signs until 30 days prior to the November election.

Thus if a candidate is unopposed in his party's primary contest, he may have a sign up for only 30 days while his opponent who has a primary contest may have his signs posted up to 90 days.

Commissioner David Farr Monday night noted that a change in the ordinance will be of no value to general election candidates this year because of time requirements for adopting an ordinance. Colbert suggested that the city might not enforce the ordinance during the period of time necessary to officially change the law.

But two questions came up today: how can the city issue a sign permit to a candidate prior to the time allowed in city law; and if a candidate put up signs without the required permits, and an opposing candidate complained what would the city's building office do.

"The city will not give sign permits in violation of the law," Colbert said today and Mayor Moore agreed.

"We recognize we have an inequitable situation here," Moore said, "and we recognize the procedures we must go through to amend an ordinance."

The state law requires cities to read proposed ordinances at two separate city commission meetings and to advertise the ordinance prior to adoption.

By using the regular schedule for adopting an ordinance, Moore noted the primary will be long past and "we'll be pushing the general election."

City Building Official Gary Winn said today while violation of the sign ordinance calls for a penalty of fines up to $500 and or 30 days in jail, the city has never had to go that far in enforcing the law.

When political signs are erected in violation of the law, Winn said the candidate involved is notified to take the signs down. If the candidate doesn't respond to the order, the city takes down large signs and takes them to the city shop on Fulton Street. Smaller signs are kept in Winn's office, until claimed.

Winn said his department's two field inspectors often notice sign violations while performing other duties. And other times political opponents report the violator.

Civic Center In Good Shape

Repairs from the April hail storms are completed and the Sanford Civic Center is back in good shape.

Acting City Manager Steve Harriett reports $72,351 was spent on the repairs and nearly 75 percent of that sum is being reimbursed from insurance.

Among the improvements are: new stage floor, new stage curtains and drapes, new sound system, carpet replaced in dressings rooms, glass replacement, sunshine grids replaced or repaired, three pool tables recovered and piano damage repaired.

In addition the roof was replaced.

The Civic Center received severe damage in the April storm, but city crews in makeshift repairs kept the center open

FLORIDA

IN BRIEF

Taxes And Crime Biggest Problems Of Floridians

ORLANDO (UPI) — The biggest problems facing Floridians statewide are taxes and crime, according to a joint copyright television poll.

The survey showed taxes and crime are the most important issues to Florida voters.

Of the 540 registered voters questioned, 11.4 percent said taxes is the No. 1 problem, while 11.1 percent said crime is the biggest issue.

Unemployment was third at 9.2 percent, followed by the economy at 8.8, the influx of refugees at 7.9, drugs at 3.3 and inflation at 3.1. Floridians said education (1.1 percent), social security (0.9 percent) and housing (0.1) were not much of a problem across the state.

Crime was the No. 1 problem in South Florida at 19.7 percent, while taxes only garnered 9.8 percent. More than 1 out of 8 people in central Florida called taxes the most important issue — more than double the figure for crime.

Man Killed In Fall

ORMOND BEACH (UPI) — One construction worker remained in critical condition early today and another in serious condition after suffering injuries in a six-story accidental fall from a suspension bridge over the Halifax River that killed a third man.

The injured workers, Paul Damon, 50, and Harold Davis, 32, both were rushed to Halifax Medical Center in Daytona Beach after the accident.

Damon, of no known address, was in serious condition early today. Davis was in critical condition after surgery late Tuesday night.

Police identified the dead worker as Thomas Cook, 28, of Hastings. He was killed instantly when he fell and struck a barge loaded with cement pillars used in the construction project, officers said.

A fourth man working with the three on a platform hoisted next to the bridge by a crane saved himself by grabbing a nearby cable when the wooden platform suddenly broke.

Teachers Talks Go On

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Contract negotiations between school board officials and teacher union representatives will continue today as the two sides try to resolve the issues of class size and teachers' salaries.

The Broward County School Board officials and Classroom Teachers Association representatives met until nearly 1 a.m. today at the Holiday Inn in Plantation, reaching agreement on only minor issues. They are set to resume talks at 5:30 p.m. today at the hotel.

Wieners, Garbage For Commissioners

It was wieners and garbage at the Sanford City Commission meeting.

The commission agreed to let an Altamonte Springs company go into the "Wieners on Wheels" business at two city sites for a six-week trial period, but tabled action on a recommendation from City Manager W. E. "Pete" Knowles to stop city garbage collections on holidays.

Jack Kaplan, manager of "Wieners on Wheels" asked permission to set up mobile units to sell hot dogs and other foods on private property at the Texaco Station at the northeast corner of 25th Street and French Avenue and at the state employment office at Second and French.

He said the carts would be in service from 10:30 to 3:30 Monday through Saturday at the Texaco station and from 9 to 5 Monday through Friday at the employment office.

Kaplan had to get from the commission a waiver of the ordinance calling for such carts to be moved every two hours. Commissioner David Farr asked for the trial period, saying renewal of the waiver will be based on the number of complaints the city receives.

Kaplan said the mobile units were built according to state and Seminole County standards. Kaplan was told to submit to the city letters of permission from property owners or leaseholders for the carts to be operated at the two sites.

The waiver will expire Sept. 30.

The proposed change in garbage collections was tabled. Knowles recommended the city policy be changed so no garbage collections will be made on holidays. He said allowing refuse workers to have holidays off and allowing them to catch-up collections over the next two regular pick-ups after holidays would save the city $5,919.23 in overtime annually.

Acting City Manager Steve Harriett said many households do not put their garbage out for collection on holidays anyway, adding the garbage dump the city uses is not open on holidays either.

Commissioner Milton Smith said he liked the idea of saving money if people can be told exactly when their garbage will be picked up.

But Farr said with a $2 million budget the city won't miss the $6,000 a year and halting the holiday collections could work an inconvenience on citizens and on the effort to keep the city clean.

It was noted city employees are off Thanksgiving Day and the day after thus the Thursday collection would be delayed until Monday, meaning a pile-up of garbage for several days.

That's when the commission voted unanimously to table the idea.

...Day Of Fun Planned For Cancer Victim

residential customers. He also has set up a trust account for the donations at AmeriFirst Federal Savings & Loan at 444 Curry Ford Road, Orlando.

On a sign in front of his Lake Mary business is posted the following message: "Help five-year-old Anthony Rosehart Battle Cancer. Call 323-1829."

Liberatore said he has hired a special secretary to take incoming telephone calls about Anthony.

Liberatore's firm refurbishes bathroom tiles.

"I'm not saying we are going to beat cancer Saturday. But I hope it will help Anthony live to play his first baseball game, kiss a little girl on his first date, and someday have a son of his own," Liberatore said.

He said Sanford officials and businessmen have responded marvelously to his pleas. "Now, I think it's about time that Orlando got off its hind end and does something for its homefolk," he said.

Mrs. Rosehart said Anthony came home from the hospital Monday after his latest chemotherapy treatment. He has to go back to the doctor, Thursday, but hopefully he can be at Saturday's event, she said.

She said she applied for state assistance through the Children's Medical Service. And while the state agency workers gave her no hope that financial help with the medical expenses would be forthcoming, both U.S. Rep. Bill Nelson, D-Melbourne, and Sen. Pop Dick Batchelor, D-Orlando, wrote letters to the state urging approval of the request.

Within days the state aid was approved. "I think the state must have called the hospital and found future bills are going to be enormous," she said.

But before the state will pay, the back bills must be paid, said Mrs. Rosehart. And those bills total $37,000.

When the Rosehart's new son, 31-month-old Christopher was two weeks old, Mrs. Rosehart noticed that Anthony was sleeping all the time and wouldn't eat. Then he began vomiting. "The doctors finally found a mass in his stomach and treatment began," she said.

The family's hospitalization insurance has paid only a very small portion of the bills, Mrs. Rosehart said.

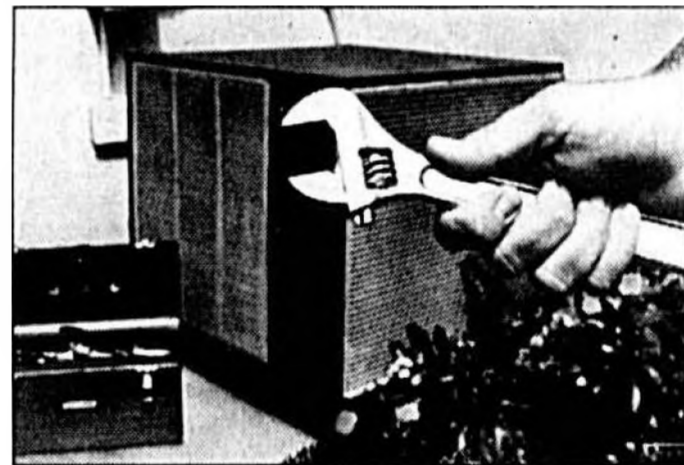

The savings from her husband's job as a freight truck driver soon vanished and the debt climbed to $37,000, she said.

"The doctors say Anthony is responding well to the chemotherapy," Mrs. Rosehart said.

FPL will actually pay you to conserve electricity four ways:

Our Cooling & Heating Incentive. FPL will pay up to several hundred dollars towards the cost of having an older, inefficient air conditioning system or heat pump replaced with a qualifying high efficiency system.

Our Ceiling Insulation Incentive. FPL will pay up to $300 towards the cost of having ceiling insulation installed.

Our Water Heating Incentive. FPL will pay up to several hundred dollars towards the cost of having an inefficient water heater modified or replaced with a solar water heater, water heating heat pump or heat recovery system.

Our Solar Film Incentive. FPL will pay up to $150 towards the cost of having solar-reflective film installed.

To qualify for the last three incentives, work must first be recommended by an FPL Home Energy Audit.

Will everyone benefit from Watt-Wise incentives? Yes.

These incentives are less costly than the oil necessary to generate the electricity wasted by inefficient homes. Every 600 kilowatt-hours of electricity not used is a barrel of oil no one has to pay for. This also helps us postpone the building of expensive power plants. The less oil we use, and the less new building we have to do, the more we can help hold the line on everyone's electric bill.

For more information on how to qualify or to arrange for a Home Energy Audit, send us the coupon or call the Watt-Wise Line at 1-800-432-6563.

The Watt-Wise Products Program. Another way we're working hard at being the kind of power company you want.

I'd like more information on the following Watt-Wise incentives:

- Ceiling Insulation
- Water Heating
- Solar Film

Australian Bank Scandal Now Linked To CIA

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Australian authorities are hotly pursuing a 2-year-old suicide and banking bankruptcy case, tracking down reports of drug deals, swindles and CIA involvement in the affair.

Businessman Frank Nugan, 37, was found shot dead in his Mercedes Benz near a sheep-grazing area west of Sydney in January 1980. A coroner ruled the shot was self-inflicted.

His death triggered the bankruptcy of Nugan Hand Ltd., a private banking concern that had a number of high-ranking former U.S. military and intelligence officials on its payroll.

Nugan was chairman of a group of companies affiliated with Nugan Hand that reportedly handled $1 billion annually for its clients.

Chasing Suspects: Community Heroes

Maybe there's something for all of us to learn. Maybe what happened in Miami the other day and in Sanford Tuesday contains a possible solution to crime.

We refer to the acts of Mark Kram and Ernest Hammett in Miami and Keith King of Lake Mary in the Sanford incident.

What these gentlemen have in common is that they participated in the apprehension of suspects involved in separate shootings. In the shooting in Miami eight persons were killed by a crazed gunman brandishing a shotgun. He walked into a welding and machine shop and began firing indiscriminately at employees, killing eight of them.

In the Sanford incident, a woman drove onto a construction site, got out of her car and pumped a man full of bullets as horrified co-workers looked on. The man later died at Central Florida Regional Hospital.

In the Miami shooting, Kram and Hammett chased after the murder suspect in their car. The suspect had hopped aboard a bicycle and was pedaling away when the two men crashed into him with their car. They had also fired several shots and police now say the murder suspect probably died of a gunshot wound from the bullet found in his body during an autopsy.

In the Sanford case, King jumped into his pickup truck and pursued the female murder suspect as she attempted to drive away from the construction site. King drove his pickup truck around a front-end loader whose driver tried to stop the fleeing woman's car. She had driven her car around one side of the front-end loader, King drove his pickup around the other side, then rammed the woman's car broadside to stop her.

When he got out, he pulled a gun on the woman and told her to get out of the car without a gun, or he would kill her. She complied. Later, police found two guns in the woman's car.

King, Kram and Hammett are to be commended by the citizens in their communities. What they did was courageous and dangerous.

And they might just be what the community needs to serve as a warning to other criminals that in addition to police, conscientious citizens have to be reckoned with.

In Miami, police are saying that Kram and Hammett probably did the community a favor and that no charges will be filed against them because they were attempting to conduct a citizens' arrest during commission of a felony. In Sanford, police are saying King is a hero. We agree.

The Dade County state attorney's office said even though Kram and Hammett won't be charged, others who might think they can go around killing people suspected of committing a crime should be warned that could be dangerous.

That, of course, is vigilantism and contrary to dealing with social problems on an orderly basis—through the law and law enforcement.

BERRY'S WORLD

"Lyn, you're going to have to spruce up a bit. Somehow, you keep reminding me of the unemployment figures!"

If you are a central Florida business, community or government leader, chances are very good that you will soon find an invitation in your mailbox.

No, it's not to my birthday party but it's announcing another event of perhaps equal importance.

This week, Gov. Bob Graham is sending out invitations to more than 300 people in Seminole and surrounding counties requesting their attendance at the Central Florida regional 1982 Governor's Challenge Conference.

The conference will focus on creative crime control methods and through it, Graham is seeking direct resident participation in developing policies at the state and local levels to address the crime problem in Florida.

The conference is slated for Sept. 30 through Oct. 1 at the Expo Centre, 500 W. Livingston St., Orlando.

The conference is sponsored by a variety of area groups and organizations, assembled by the Orlando Crime Prevention Commission, and is funded by a $5,000 grant from the Florida Endowment for the Humanities to the University of Central Florida. Cynthia J. Hutchinson of the University's College of Extended Studies, is serving as conference director.

Among those expected to be invited to the conference are area educators, law enforcement officials, legislative delegates, corrections administrators, judicial officials, media personnel, and business, professional, religious, civic, minority and cultural leaders from Seminole, Brevard, Lake, Orange, Osceola and Volusia counties. Commission workers are awaiting confirmations of those who plan to attend before releasing the names of those people invited.

After participants have compiled their list of recommendations with other regional recommendations at a statewide conference in Tallahassee this fall, a final list of policy recommendations will be sent to Graham for action.

Also, additional meetings are scheduled to be held in 25 Florida communities to present the recommended policies for local adoption. A television program is also slated to be produced in an effort to better inform the public of all recommendations to be presented to Graham.

Dog Days Of Summer

The more things change, the more they stay the same. If the liberal gurus of the media are to be believed, America is in the throes of an economic and political revolution the likes of which have not been seen since the New Deal. While the New Deal is justly viewed as a revolution, the counterrevolution of the early 1980s is beginning to look like an unsuccessful automobile commercial, full of puffery and tough talk but no record of achievement.

One has only to look again at the problem of monopoly labor unions to throw into bold relief the failure of this Administration and this Congress to do what must be done. The fate of S. 1408, a military construction authorization bill passed during this Congress, is instructive on this point. The original bill contained an experimental waiver of Davis-Bacon Act compliance in federally-funded military construction projects. Such a waiver would have saved developers several hundred million dollars in construction overhead, revitalized one of this nation's sickest industries, and increased employment opportunities all across America. Most importantly, the waiver would have provided empirical evidence for those who claim that huge savings would have resulted.

Unfortunately, David Stockman, Director of the Office of Management and Budget and spokesman for the Administration, sent an 11th-hour letter to the floor of the Senate when S. 1408 was up for a vote, in effect, asking that the waiver from Davis-Bacon be killed. It is said that politics makes strange bedfellows and this is a good example. The waiver was first attacked on the Senate floor by the Jackson-Kennedy amendment, one designed to remove the waiver from the bill. It was followed by the Stockman letter which embarrassed the waiver's Senate leaders, Nickles and Thurmond, conservative members of the President's own party. Proponents of the Jackson-Kennedy amendment to remove the waiver were able to demonstrate to the members that Senators Nickles and Thurmond lacked the support of the administration for their campaign. This was particularly nefarious because the administration had, up until this Stockman letter, promised to remain silent on the issue.

Supporters of the Administration's misdeed were quick to point out that candidate Reagan had promised not to call for the repeal of Davis-Bacon; that his word was at stake. They reminded us that the Department of Labor (known in some circles as the Department of Monopoly Labor Unions) was putting the final touches on administrative changes in the Davis-Bacon Act regulations which would remove most of the worst features of the Act.

And there the matter stood until just recently. Now comes Federal Judge Harold Greene to enjoin the Labor Department from promulgating the new Davis-Bacon Act regulations designed to reduce building costs by $600 million per year. In a 17-page decision, Judge Greene concludes that the Union Plaintiffs (AFL-CIO's building and construction trade department) had demonstrated "a substantial likelihood that they will prevail on the merits" of their case.

Judge Greene bases his decision on his review of the law, its legislative history and "long and consistent administrative practice prior to the issuance of the new regulations." He excoriates Labor Secretary Raymond Donovan for failing "to show that earlier understanding of the statute was wrong, or that experience has proved it to be defective."

Central America Bomb May Go Off

WASHINGTON — Central America is a powder keg that could explode within the next few months. The impact could make El Salvador's civil war seem like a backfiring automobile.

The timebomb is Nicaragua, and the principal combatants would be the leftist Sandinista regime in Managua and their opponents in exile in neighboring Honduras. They have already had numerous bloody clashes.

There is grave danger these skirmishes could precipitate open conflict between Honduras and Nicaragua. The Honduran forces, armed with U.S. equipment, probably would have a military edge over the Sandinistas.

Nicaragua therefore might call on Cuba for help. The appearance of Cuban soldiers would be countered by increasing U.S. involvement. The Cubans, of course, rely on the Soviet Union for armaments. This could bring a confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union.

A principal catalyst in this explosive equation is Jose Francisco Cardenal, leader of the anti-Sandinista Nicaraguan Democratic Force. He is a former Nicaraguan businessman, popularly known as "Chicano," who organized opposition to the late dictator Anastasio Somoza. After Somoza's overthrow three years ago, Cardenal served briefly as vice president of the Sandinistas' Council of State.

In an interview with my associate Jon Lee Anderson, Cardenal said he quit his council post and took up arms in exile because "Marxist-Leninist elements had begun to monopolize what was supposed to be a council representative of all sectors of Nicaraguan society."

He said his force, which is already conducting guerrilla operations inside Nicaragua, is composed of patriots who want to rid their homeland of its Communist rulers.

Cardenal admitted that his troops include former members of Somoza's detested National Guard. "We take anyone who comes to us as a Nicaraguan ready to fight," he explained. "We have ex-Guards men, sure — just like we have ex-Sandinistas."

The short, stocky exile leader, prematurely gray in his mid-40s, said he has 2,000 to 3,000 active fighters operating within Nicaragua's northern province, and claimed, "We have eight to ten thousand more waiting for the word inside Nicaragua. They are under training and waiting for the arms we shall get to them."

Cardenal says his guerrillas have modern weapons, including machineguns, bazookas and shoulder-held guided-missile launchers. He hopes to have surface-to-air missiles soon.

"One doesn't negotiate with the communists," he declared. "You don't win a war by talking — you win it by killing, and that is what we are doing, every day, inside Nicaragua. We will triumph, too. We will have Managua in six months."

How can he be so confident? There are whispers that Cardenal is the principal beneficiary of the reported $19 million in covert CIA funds that President Reagan approved to destabilize Nicaragua.

DON GRAFF

Arms And The Myth...

The administration is making a considerable effort to expose a myth — that the United States is the world's leading arms dealer.

The State Department is out with a report putting the Soviet Union in that position. It does this by dismissing as misleading the conventional method of measuring arms deliveries — dollar value. Instead, it calculates in weapons systems — that is, a tank, a supersonic fighter, a surface-to-air missile.

On this basis, the Soviets lead hands down, having supplied Third World nations that are the focus of the report with 71,000 major systems in the decade 1972-81, compared with an American total of 44,000.

As James L. Buckley, under secretary of state for the arms business, explains it, the dollar figures don't tell the whole story. American military deals with other nations differ significantly in that they include arrangements for training, construction, maintenance, support services and other types of assistance that "have little directly to do with the transfer of arms."

Such transactions must be broken out to get the true balance of arms. To show how it works, one of the report's tables gives the value of Soviet arms agreements with the Third World during the decade in question as $42.56 billion in constant 1972 dollars. The figures given for the United States are $35.21 billion for weapons, $12.23 billion for military construction and $32.49 billion for other. The table does not provide the U.S. total, but it is $79.93 billion.

Now let's look at how the systems system works. Still using the 1972-81 period, Third World clients received 13,220 tanks and self-propelled guns from the Soviets compared with a total of 7,440 in equivalent American machinery. In supersonic aircraft it was 3,705 Soviet and 1,540 American. And in major surface warships, 46 Soviet and 103 American.

Neither do we. For one thing, a great deal of disbelief must be suspended in adding up a 155 mm howitzer, a guided-missile frigate and a helicopter to come up with a total that has any meaning outside the State Department.

For another, what makes that same State Department think that U.S.-financed airfield construction in Honduras is any less military significant than those Soviet tanks across the border in Nicaragua? Or U.S. training of Salvadoran troops in Georgia than the Cubans' Kalishnikovs? Or maintenance for Saudi Arabia's $8.5 billion worth of AWACS planes than Syria's Soviet missile batteries? And for yet another, even taking the figures on arms trafficking — both systems and dollar breakdowns — used by the Reagan administration at face value, it has its predecessor to thank in considerable part for the apparent American restraint in comparison to the Soviets.

As the Center for Defense Information, one of the non-government arms evaluators generically dismissed in the State Department report as off the mark, observed in a study released earlier this year, the Carter administration made a deliberate effort to restrict arms transfer according to the seriousness of the military threat to a recipient nation, its ability to afford and absorb U.S. weapons and its human rights record.

The Carter people still ended up selling $55 billion worth of lethal hardware — $40 billion of it to the Third World — during their four years, but it might have been billions more. All the signs are that the policy of restraint has been reversed.

Cardenal denies this. "We'll take money from any democratic institution or agency," he said. "We need the U.S. government to help us with political pressure. The CIA could help us by relaying information back to Washington. But their direct involvement would hurt more than help us because of their bad reputation in Latin America."

He would not specify the amounts and sources of his arms supplies, other than "several Latin American countries." Sandinista diplomats in Washington say Cardenal — and other exile groups — are getting their arms and funds directly from the Honduran military.

A Honduran official in Washington insisted that his country is taking a neutral position between the contending Nicaraguan groups. "But Nicaragua is trying to provoke a war," the diplomat said. "There have been a series of violations of our territory."

Then he added an ominous warning: "If we are attacked, we'll attack." And the chain reaction would begin.

Women's Club Vandalized; Children's Food Stolen

Someone broke 13 windows at the Sanford Women's Club building, at 309 S. Oak Ave., after throwing rocks through the glass panes, causing about $350 damage.

Police said the vandals struck between 11:30 a.m. Aug. 17 and 5 p.m. Monday.

About $100 worth of food was stolen from the Child Day Care center, at Airport Blvd. and 22nd St., between 6 p.m. Friday and 6:15 a.m. Monday.

Police said the thieves entered the center through the office door and stole chopped beef, bacon, bologna, hot dogs, milk, cereal, sausages, cube steaks, stew beef, hamburger patties and veal patties.

Police continue their search today for a second suspect in Tuesday's armed robbery of an Apopka bank while one suspect, arrested shortly after the incident, said he robbed the same bank in June.

Judson Gambles, 29, of Orlando, was arrested at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday and is being held in the Orange County jail today without bond in connection with Tuesday's armed robbery of the Southeast National Bank in Apopka.

Gambles was arrested in a wooded area between the bank and Lil' General food store on West Orange Blossom Trail while the second suspect escaped in a car which was later found wrecked on Apopka-Vineland Road. Deputies combed the area with police dogs, vehicles and helicopters in search of the elusive suspect but have been unsuccessful in locating him.

Police said two armed men walked into the bank at about 11:20 a.m. and one indicated to a teller he wanted to open an account.

Action Reports

While in the process of opening the account, one man allegedly jumped up, grabbed the bank manager, held a .38-caliber handgun on him and announced that it was a holdup. The gunman ordered bank employees to open the vault and the two men took an undisclosed amount of money.

When Gambles was arrested, police said he was armed with a .38-caliber handgun found in a sock in his right hand.

Meanwhile, police said the robbery suspect told them he robbed the same bank on June 4.

JEWELRY STOLEN FROM HOME

About $625 worth of jewelry was stolen from a Sanford man's home between 7:30 p.m. Friday and 6 p.m. Sunday.

James Milano, 49, told police the thieves entered his home after prying open a garage door, and took three rings and two brooches from a jewelry box in the master bedroom.

SEAFOOD SWIPED

About $1,500 worth of seafood was stolen from a flea market vendor's trailer between 8 p.m. Aug. 16 and 1 p.m. Thursday.

Frederick Jacobson, owner of Capt. J. Seafood at Flea World, U.S. 17-92, Sanford, told police someone broke into his trailer and seafood freezer and stole shrimp, scallops, frog legs, oysters, lobster, fish and snow crab, valued at about $1,500.

STEREO, STEAKS STOLEN

A stereo system, two clock radios, a combination television, radio and cassette recorder unit, and 10 steaks were stolen from a Sanford woman's home between 8:10 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Friday. Sherilyn J. Brinson, 37, of 1800 W. Fourth St., told police the thieves entered her home through a window and stole the items valued at about $1,025.

CAMPGROUND BURGLARS STRIKE

A 61-year-old woman told deputies she awoke at 4:40 a.m. Monday to find a young man standing at her bed, staring at her.

When Patti J. Crosby of Green Acres Campground, Lot 182, off Forest City Road, screamed, the man hit her in the head with a porcelain duck statue and fled with her purse containing $10 cash and personal papers, deputies said.

Ms. Crosby reportedly ran to a nearby trailer and notified deputies of the assault and robbery. Paramedics treated her for a cut on her ear.

Deputies said the thief entered Ms. Crosby's trailer with the use of a key which was found in the door's lock.

Meanwhile, Cynthia H. Stairs, 28, of Green Acres Campground, Lot 256, told deputies she awoke at 12:30 a.m. Monday when she felt her trailer swaying. When she looked out the window, she saw a man hanging upside down from the trailer's roof and staring at her.

Ms. Stairs told deputies she ran from the trailer got into her car and tried to locate the man who she thought had fled but was unable to find him.

Deputies said Ms. Stairs then contacted a neighbor to inquire if they saw the man and while she was talking with the neighbor, she saw the man leaving her home through the front door.

Ms. Stairs chased the intruder to the rear of the campground where he climbed over a fence and fled, deputies said. Nothing was reported stolen from the trailer.

TEENS CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

Two Altamonte Springs teenagers were charged with burglary after Altamonte Springs police happened upon a business in that city that had been broken into and saw two youths fleeing the area.

Police said they discovered a window had been broken at the Arden Zinn Dance Studio at 291 E. Altamonte Drive at about 11:30 p.m. Sunday and, upon investigation, heard someone running through a nearby wooded area. Police pursued the fleeing youths requesting additional police units to respond and wait for the suspected thieves to run out of the wooded area.

Police said they saw two boys running out of the wooded area and stopped them in connection with the recent burglary.

Shawn Quinton Fields, 18, of 1627 E. State Road 436 and Anthony Thomas Ray, 18, of 101 E. Altamonte Drive, of the Monterey North Apartments, were charged with burglary to an unoccupied building and held in the county jail under $5,000 bond each.

Down, 4-0, Braves Rebound To Batter Carlton, 9-7

ATLANTA (UPI) — Down 4-0 to Steve Carlton before they even came to bat, the Atlanta Braves didn't like the odds on extending their winning streak to six games.

"There's no pitcher in the league that I would rather face less than Steve when he is on," said slugger Bob Horner. "I wouldn't want to see the percentages on teams coming back to beat him when he's up 4-0."

But for the third straight game, Carlton was not "on" Tuesday night.

And the Braves, behind the booming bats of Jerry Royster, Dale Murphy and Horner, roared back to take a 9-7 victory over Philadelphia to maintain their .008 edge over Los Angeles in the National League West.

The Dodgers defeated NL West Division leader St. Louis 5-2, leaving the second-place Phillies, who have lost three out of their last four, three games behind in that division.

"Tonight, Steve was hanging some pitches and we were taking advantage of his mistakes," said Horner, who hit his 25th homer and a double and scored three runs. "I've seen him throw a lot better."

The game figured to be a duel between a pair of all-stars — Carlton and Phil Niekro — but Niekro struggled all night with his knuckleball as well.

"I hung quite a few of them," said the 43-year-old Atlanta ace, who pitched into the ninth before giving way to Gene Garber, who earned his 24th save. "I was off and on. One or two innings I would have a good knuckler but then it would leave me."

Philadelphia got four runs off Niekro, 12-3, in the first on a two-run single by Bo Diaz and Garry Maddox's two-run homer. But the Braves cut the gap to 4-2 on solo homers by Royster in the first and Horner in the third.

Then they knocked out Carlton, 16-9, with a six-run fourth that included Murphy's 31st homer — a two-run shot — and an RBI triple by slumping catcher Bruce Benedict.

Ivan DeJesus hit a three-run homer in the sixth to reduce Atlanta's lead to 8-7, but the Braves added an insurance run later in the inning on an RBI single by Glenn Hubbard.

"I wasn't the one hour, 35 minute game you would expect with Carlton and Niekro going," said Atlanta manager Joe Torre.

Carlton seemed to have trouble getting his breaking ball over and Niekro just had a couple of bad innings. But I was pleased with the way we went up there aggressively down 4-0. The bats came alive."

Third baseman Mike Schmidt, who was held hitless in four trips, said the Phils have not been getting any breaks on their marathon 14-game road trip which wraps up tonight. They have won five of 13 games thus far.

"I think once September comes around the percentages will even out and we'll get some breaks," said Schmidt. "I don't think St. Louis has been on the road since the all-star game. They are going to see whether they can play out there."

Philadelphia manager Pat Corrales, noting Carlton was getting his pitches up in the strike zone, said the loss "just goes to show you in this ballpark a four-run lead isn't worth anything. You never have enough runs here."

"It's like I told the players, it's not going to be peaches and cream the rest of the way. He (Carlton) is human, too, and he's going to have his dry spells. He had one earlier in the year. He'll bounce back — we all will."

The Braves wrap up 10-game homestand tonight with Pascual Perez (0-2) facing the Phils' Dick Ruthven (9-10). They start a nine-game road trip in New York Friday that will also include stops in Philadelphia and Montreal.

Murphy's two RBIs boosted his league-leading total to 91, breaking his career high of 89 set in 1980.

McBroom-Hunter 1-2 Punch Stocks Lyman

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Lyman boys' cross country coach David Huggins doesn't put much faith in this season's preseason 4A poll which lists his Greyhounds eighth.

"We could be 80th or we could win it all," laughed Huggins, who is entering his 12th year at Lyman. "But I don't put much stock in those polls."

Huggins does, however, put stock in his Greyhounds. And, this junior-dominated group is loaded. "This year and the next should be pretty good," admitted Huggins. "We should be able to run with anybody."

Which is what the 'Hounds did last year. Lyman won the Five Star Conference meet, captured the Seminole County meet, took sixth in a tough district and placed 10th in the state.

Lyman loses three runners from last year. Graduated are co-captain Craig Stapleton and Brett Stockdale. Another fine senior from last year, Adam Demino, was tragically killed in a motorcycle accident.

The returnees, nevertheless, are first class. Junior Doug McBroom was a consistent high finisher last year. His best time is 15:48 over the three-mile course and Huggins sees McBroom cutting more than a few seconds from that number.

"Doug should be able to run in the low 15's," Huggins predicted. "If he does, then he could make all state this year."

Cross Country

Right behind McBroom is another junior, Brian Hunter. Hunter's best time is 16:01. Huggins believes he can cut that figure into the mid-15's.

"Doug and Brian are out 1-2 punch," said Huggins. "But Carl Schmalmaack and Marc Overbay shouldn't be too far behind them."

Overbay is a junior while Schmalmaack is just a sophomore. Number five man will be Jon Nattale with Lane Anthony and Bishop Moore's junior transfer, Jim Fellicetti, completing the top seven for Saturday's Summerline Seminole Cross Country Jambooree.

While Huggins returns a potent 1-2 punch, girls coach Joe Laughlin says his two best — Susie Bringardner and Dawn Bender — graduate.

Bringardner received a cross country scholarship to the University of Central Florida.

Laughlin returns four lettermen headed by senior Angie Dillelo. She ran a 12:59 last year and was the Lady Greyhounds number three performer. Dillelo is joined by senior Donna Kilbourne, junior Lori Ford and junior Vaun Tschieder, sister of Lyman's fine offensive lineman Chris Tschieder.

"We won't have the really strong runners like last year which pulled away," points out Laughlin. "But we'll have more of a 'pack' run."

Laughlin is encouraged by the track accomplishments of Kilbourne and Ford. "They both had good years in track last spring," he said. "Vaun has really worked hard since last year, too."

Laughlin ran competitively for Lake Brantley and graduated in 1975. He just graduated from UCF and is in his third year as Greyhound girls' coach.

Lyman was second in the conference last year and also added a third in the county meet. The Greyhounds wound up sixth in the district, but were minus Bringardner, who was ailing.

For a repeat performance, the 'Hounds

Senior Bennett Returns To Lead FSU Track Team

ALICE BENNETT
... Seminole sprinter

Once a Seminole—always a Seminole. For seven straight years now, Sanford's Alice Bennett has been running track for the Seminoles. Three years at Seminole High and, starting with the upcoming season four years at Florida State University.

In three years at the Tallahassee campus, Bennett has established herself as a leader on the Seminoles' track and field team. As a sophomore, she was on two FSU national championship relay teams.

And last season, the ex-Seminole High standout qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the long jump and as a member of the 400 meter relay team. Her best jump in the 1982 spring season was 20-0 1/2. Bennett's personal best is a 20-4 1/2 which she set during the 1981 season.

The Florida State 400 meter relay team turned in the second and third fastest times in country last season. At the Penn Relays in Philadelphia, the relay team turned in a time of 44.34 for first place and lowered that time to 44.19 in a first place finish at the Pacific Coast Invitational at Berkeley, California.

County Profile

During the 1982 indoor season, Bennett was a member of the 880 year relay team that finished second in the country. Florida State finished fourth as a team.

Bennett was also a member of the FSU team that finished third in the nation at the 1981 outdoor nationals.

Bennett was a three-sport star in her days at Seminole High. She played volleyball, basketball and ran track.

O-Twins Lose To Savannah; Jax Within 1 1/2 Games

Baseball

SAVANNAH, Ga. — There was some bad news for the Orlando Twins here Tuesday night, but in a different state the Twins got some good news.

While Savannah knocked off the Twins, 5-2, Charlotte split a doubleheader with Jacksonville at Charlotte. The result is Orlando remains 1 1/2 games ahead of Jacksonville in the Southern League's East Division with only a few weeks left in the regular season.

Sam Arrington went the distance and was tagged with the loss for Orlando while Ken Clay picked up the victory for Savannah. Arrington's record evened out at 7-7, while Clay upped his record to 2-4.

Joe Acker picked up the save for Savannah.

Dave Meier, Mark Funderburk and Ken Foster each contributed two hits to the eight-hit Orlando attack. Steve Bockhorn and Mark Hayes had two hits each for Savannah.

Orlando and Savannah will square off again tonight as will Jacksonville and Charlotte.

Cribbs Flies Buffalo Corral, Claims He's Free Agent

United Press International

Buffalo Bills' All-Pro running back Joe Cribbs has fled the corral.

Cribbs proclaimed himself a free agent after negotiations to restructure his contract failed and says he is accepting offers from other NFL teams, a Buffalo newspaper reported Tuesday.

In a telephone conversation with the Buffalo Evening News from Sulligent, Ala., Cribbs said to feel he has "every right to go out and seek employment from other teams."

The newspaper said Gerald Tochman, a St. Louis attorney representing both Cribbs and his agent, Jerry Argovitz, contends there has been a "material breach" of Cribbs' contract, which allows him to become a free agent.

The Bills refused to renegotiate after the July 15 deadline, when the collective bargaining agreement between the league and the NFL Players Association expired. The Bills maintain a resumption of talks would leave them open to an unfair labor practice charge by the union.

And Jim Miller of the NFL Management Council said, "there is no NFL team that is going to bid for Joe Cribbs."

"There are 28 teams in the NFL, and all follow the same rules, and those rules say Joe Cribbs still has two years to go on his contract with the Buffalo Bills," he said.

In other news: —Ken Stabler agreed to become the backup quarterback for the New Orleans Saints after becoming a free agent when he was released by Houston before training camp began this year. He was given the go-ahead to sign with an NFL team following an investigation into claims he associated with gamblers.

—The New York Jets placed six players on injured reserve, including offensive lineman Reggie McElroy, linebacker Mark Jerue, and waived two others.

—Cornerback Roland Lawrence and eight other players were waived by Atlanta. The Falcons also placed three players on injured reserve, while running back Eddie Meyers of Navy was put on military reserve.

—Baltimore cut 21 players, including wide receiver Dave Shula, son of Miami Dolphins' Coach Don Shula.

—Miami activated wide receiver Nat Moore, fullback Woody Bennett and reserve cornerback Eddie Taylor. Starting cornerback Don McNeal also began work Tuesday for the first time after injuring his ribs Aug. 6.

—Pittsburgh released two rookies and placed three players on the injured reserve list. The Steelers cut tight end Mike Hirn, a ninth-round draft choice out of Central Michigan, and wide receiver Billy Evans, a free agent out of West Virginia.

—Cleveland cut wide receiver Ron McCall and running back Phil Blatcher. The Browns also said backup fullback Cleo Miller was admitted to a hospital for tests Monday night after complaining of a severe headache. There was no immediate indication of the cause of the headaches.

—Green Bay placed three players, including wide receiver Fred Nixon, on injured reserve.

—Philadelphia put seven players on injured reserve and added two others to the nonfootball-related injury list.

—Washington placed ninth-round draft pick Ken Coffey, a defensive back, on injured reserve.

Kotar Fighting For Life

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI) — Doug Kotar, former running back for the New York Giants, fought hard for every yard during his eight years in the NFL. Now he's fighting for his life.

Kotar, 31, the fourth-leading rusher in Giants' history behind Alex Webster, Ron Johnson and Frank Gifford, underwent an eight-hour operation Tuesday for the removal of a brain tumor. But, doctors were unable to remove it because it was too close to "vital areas" of his brain.

At the Giants' afternoon practice at Pace University in Pleasantville, N.Y., Coach Ray Perkins asked the team to gather on the field and kneel in prayer.

Many on the team, when first told of Kotar's condition last Saturday after an exhibition game, wept openly in the locker room.

"It all happened so fast," said linebacker Brian Kelley.

"He was a player who meant a lot to the Giants," said Perkins, who with Kelley visited Kotar Monday. "Over eight years, some of them lean ones, he was a good player. And as far as I'm concerned, even though he's retired, he's still one of us."

A biopsy of the tumor was taken at University Hospital and doctors are awaiting results to determine if the tumor is malignant. Dr. Kim Sloan, the orthopedic specialist retained by the Giants who assisted in Tuesday's operation, said the results would be available "in two or three days." But, he added, the tumor "didn't look good."

"Surgery was done for a suspected tumor and a tumor was found," Sloan said. "Final diagnosis will not be for two or three days until pathology slides are returned. It did not look like a good tumor — it looked ... bad. It was not removed because it was too close to vital areas of the brain, near what we would consider the command center of the brain."

Sloan said treatment — possibly radiation, chemotherapy or antibiotics — would depend on the biopsy results.

Before the operation, Sloan described Kotar as "naturally, very scared."

The 5-foot-11, 205-pound back was a runner who consistently gave second and third efforts.

Kotar, who played halfback and fullback, retired July 23 with 3,380 yards.

Henderson Nabs 116, 117; Buckner's 4 Hits Rip Giants

On the verge of breaking Lou Brock's record, Rickey Henderson is getting more attention these days for the bases he fails to steal.

Henderson swiped two bases in the first inning of Oakland's 3-0 victory over Detroit Tuesday, leaving him one short of Brock's record of 118 set in 1974. But an unsuccessful attempt in the eighth inning prompted two ejections and an angry prediction from Tigers' Manager Sparky Anderson.

"The integrity of the game has been tainted," said Anderson. "Fred Stanley got picked off intentionally. I guarantee he's going to get the biggest fine ever assessed. This was worse than the Black Sox scandal."

Stanley, trying to give Henderson an opportunity to tie or break Brock's record, led off the eighth with a walk and Henderson followed with a single, advancing Stanley to second.

Stanley then appeared to intentionally wander off second, where he became an easy out, thus leaving the base empty for Henderson to steal. Henderson tried, but was called out by umpire Durwood Merrill. Television replays showed Henderson beat the tag by shortstop Alan Trammell.

"He doesn't know what he's talking about," Oakland Manager Billy Martin said of Anderson. "I had the doubtless sign on Stanley did not get picked off on purpose."

Following the eighth inning, Martin and Dwayne Murphy were ejected from the game for continuing the argument on the call at second base.

Bill Buckner of the Chicago Cubs has been the hottest batter in the NL during the month of August and the San Francisco Giants can testify to that.

After knocking out a perfect 1-for-4 against the Giants Monday, Buckner drove in four runs, including three with a homer that capped a five-run second inning, to lead the Cubs to an 8-4 victory over the Giants Tuesday and hand San Francisco its fourth straight loss.

Buckner, who also singled in a run in the seventh to increase his August production to 31 RBI, now has driven in 85 runs for the year and raised his batting average to .307.

He also hit into two double plays Tuesday, but didn't complain.

Piniella - One Way Or Another He Gets There

NEW YORK (UPI) - By the end of the week, this Saturday to be exact, Lou Piniella will be Jack Benny's age - 39. He isn't fighting that, he's accepting it. In doing so, he's having one of his better years, occasionally wondering what he's going to do when he's all through.

George Steinbrenner has a warm spot for Piniella. He likes him.

"Maybe not as much as he used to," laughs the "Yankees" impulsive, sometimes impetuous outfielder and designated hitter. "I've sounded off a few times."

Piniella needn't be concerned about that. Actions speak louder than words and Steinbrenner showed how he felt about him with that fine three-year contract he gave him this past winter.

Piniella was only looking for a two-year contract and Steinbrenner gave him one for three years in a package totaling better than $1 million. It was a reward for the eight years of splendid service Piniella had given the Yankees since they got him from Kansas City in 1973 for Lindy McDaniel.

More than likely, Clyde King will go back into the front office some time this winter. That will mean the Yankees will have still another manager and although Piniella's name is obligingly offered as a candidate by various writers now and then, I don't get that idea from the Yankees themselves.

Still, there is a possibility Piniella might be sounded out about managing some day, maybe by another club, and it struck me he might be interested somewhere down the road.

"Yeah, I probably would be," he said. "I know the game of baseball. And I've

CORRECTION

In the Sunday Edition of The Evening Herald, it was erroneously reported that about $2,500 worth of damage was caused to a 1977 Ford pickup owned by William E. Welch, 23, of Orange City, after the vehicle reportedly crashed into the Lil' Champ convenience store along Mellonville Ave., Sanford, at 10:39 a.m. Thursday. The incorrect information was contained in a police report.

However, the store incurred in excess of $2,500 worth of damage and minor damage was caused to the vehicle after the brakes on the vehicle apparently malfunctioned. No injuries were reported.

Let's Talk Frankly About Dollars And Cents

Like anyone else, a funeral director has to make ends meet. He has facilities to maintain, cars to buy, salaries to provide and, of course, taxes to pay.

This means he must have a strong business sense. He must keep expenses within reason so as to keep his prices within every family's means. As we do.

Morgue Policy Tightened

A dispute last week between surviving family members and a Sanford funeral director has resulted in the tightening of regulations' enforcement for releasing a body from the Seminole County morgue.

Dr. G.V. Garay, Seminole County medical examiner, said Tuesday he is now requiring written authorization from the family before a body is released from the morgue to a funeral home.

Previously, he said, oral authorization over the telephone by the family was accepted. But as a result of the dispute last week over the body of Vincent Foster, written authorization will be steadfastly required, he said.

Foster, 29, was killed Aug. 13 when the wall of a West First Street building he was helping to demolish collapsed. Following an autopsy, the body of Mr. Foster was released to the Browns' Paradise Memorial Chapel on Aug. 15 at the request of Lela Dellafield, the mother of Foster's three children. Later when Mrs. Dellafield and other family members wanted the body turned over to Wilson-Eichelberger Mortuary for funeral services and burial arrangements, funeral director Robert L. Brown refused.

After a state investigator was sent to look into the case, Brown relinquished the body at 9 p.m. Friday to Wilson-Eichelberger for burial

Cook Of The Week

'Working Gal' File Turns Up Quick One-Dish Meals

By LOU CHILDERS
Herald Correspondent

In choosing recipes to be featured this week, Betty Caspers of Chuluota dug deep into her "working gal" file to come up with some good one-dish meals.

When she returns to her job as attendance clerk at the Pinar Elementary School next week, Betty says she will rely a lot on meals centered around the likes of Cornbread Casserole, Tuna Templer and Eggplant Casserole — all of which require about 30 minutes baking, and not too much preparation time.

"I am what you would probably call a basic cook," says Betty, "and my husband, Don, seems to enjoy my cooking that way."

Betty sometimes gets recipes from friends and says she is not one to experiment much, but once in a while she adds a few touches of her own — like the shredded cheddar cheese found in the Tuna Templer.

"Probably everyone has a recipe they use for meatloaf," according to Betty, "but, I discovered one that is super." Her version of this great all-American main course includes the addition of a small grated potato, and all sides of the loaf are browned in a skillet before baking, which she says "seals in most of the juices."

Betty has three daughters, Rhonda of Altamonte Springs, Brenda and Linda both of Centuria, Ill., the town where Betty took flying lessons and her solo flight in 1970.

Since then, she has pretty much had her feet on the ground — mostly in Central Florida, settling in Chuluota two years ago when her husband, Don, assumed the pastorate of the Chuluota Community Church.

Betty says besides cooking, she enjoys gardening, raising African violets, crocheting, knitting — and her two grandsons.

CORNBREAD CASSEROLE

2 packages of cornbread mix (small boxes)
1 can of creamed corn
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
8 oz. cheddar cheese, shredded
1 medium onion, chopped
Mix cornbread according to directions. Add creamed corn, brown ground beef and drain. Put half of cornbread mixture in large oblong pan (greased), then sprinkle ground beef, cheese and onion on top. Cover with rest of cornbread mixture. Bake in 350 degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

TUNA TEMPLER

1/2 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons butter
1 can cream of onion soup
1 soup can of milk
1 can tuna
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
1/4 cup buttered bread crumbs
1 cup elbow noodles

Saute celery and onion in butter. Add soup, milk, flaked tuna and cheese. Cook noodles and drain. Add cooked noodles to the tuna mixture and bake in 350 degree oven for 20 to 30 minutes. For a crunchy top, add bread crumbs on top, and a little extra cheese before baking.

EGGPLANT CASSEROLE

1 small eggplant
1 box (small) round crackers, crushed
1 can cream of mushroom soup
8 oz. cheddar cheese, grated
Peel and slice eggplant 1/4-inch thick. Bring water to a boil, adding 1 teaspoon salt. Gently parboil the eggplant, cooking about 2 minutes. Remove and place in buttered casserole. Top with a layer of cheese, and crackers. Repeat layering, and pour soup over entire casserole. Bake 30 minutes in a 350 degree oven.

MEATLOAF

1 pound ground beef

Woman Panics Outside Of Home

DEAR ABBY: If I weren't a Christian with three young children to raise, I would have ended my life. I am in my 30s, divorced and on welfare because I am unable to leave my house to go to work. I am normal in every other respect, but I panic when I get more than a block away from home. I haven't been to a movie or out for dinner for over two years. I'm attractive, but I gave up dating two years ago because it was hard to explain to a man that I was too terrified to leave my house.

Dear Abby

spaces." I joined a support group, but all I got from it was the comfort of knowing there are a lot of other people with the same problem.

My total income from welfare is $770 a month, and it's a miracle we even make it through the month. I want more than anything in the world to get well so I can get a job and take care of my children. Is there any hope for me?

DESPERATE IN L.A.
DEAR DESPERATE: Yes. Write to the New Beginning Foundation. It's a non-profit, charitable corporation formed to help agoraphobics. It offers a step-by-step program designed to rehabilitate people who suffer anxiety attacks when they leave the security of their homes. There are no drugs, medical deep analysis involved. It's a self-help program that begins by playing cassettes at home.

I have investigated this organization and found it to be legitimate, sincere and effective. Many who have been treated by this method have reported excellent results. Write to: New Beginning Foundation, 1551 North Western Ave., Suite 229, Los Angeles, Calif. 90027. Please enclose a long, stamped self-addressed envelope. And please write to me in six months and give me a progress report. I care.

DEAR ABBY: I just finished reading your new book and I loved it. I forced myself to read the chapter title, "Smoking the Bore," but it's the best thing that ever happened to me. I haven't given up smoking yet, but you'll be credited when I do. I've cut down on the number of cigarettes, and by reading that chapter every night I think I can finally quit.

Oh, about the chapter on divorce, I agree. The kids should try to see their parents' side of it. Their mom and pop have lived most of their lives for their kids. Now it's time they (the parents) started living for themselves. Everybody will be happier. So, kids with divorced parents, take this advice from a 16-year-old kid who's been there. Give mom and dad a break.

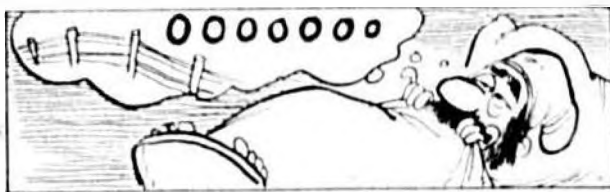

CORY BRINDLE

DEAR CORY: Your letter made my day. Thanks for writing.

DEAR ABBY: About sex: What you do in private can affect your whole personality. If you do something perverted with another consenting adult, it can twist your character, damage your personality, warp your morals and scar your soul. What you do in private can hurt you and everyone around you.

Please, get off the "anything goes" routine. BILL IN PORT ORCHARD, WASH.

DEAR BILL: If my "anything goes" disturbs you, tell me what you think does "go." In the meantime, I fail to see how anything done privately by two consenting adults can twist, damage, warp or scar them. Or hurt anyone around them.

There were no sheep in America before 1540.

No Fuss Curried Fruit Side Dish

Busy Americans are cutting down on the number of side dishes they prepare and serve at home. This is due to lack of kitchen time and also a desire to cut down on the amount of food eaten, and hopefully cut calories.

As a result, each meal requires a special dish that is easy-to-prepare, while avoiding a repetitive and dull menu.

Sauces, relishes, jams and curries fill this role perfectly. A curried fruit, for example, goes well with meat or poultry dishes.

CURRIED FRUIT

- 1 package (11 ounces) dried mixed fruit
- 1/4 cup water
- 3 tablespoons margarine
- 1-3 cup dark corn syrup
- 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 teaspoons curry powder

Place dried mixed fruit in top of large double boiler. Pour water over fruit. Cover; cook over boiling water about 25 minutes or until fruit is tender. In 2-quart saucepan melt margarine over medium heat. Stir in fruit and return to boil, stirring to coat fruit with syrup. Serve warm as a meat accompaniment. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 1 1/2 cups.

Note: Curried fruit may be stored in covered container in refrigerator and heated just before serving.

Baked Berry Treats

There's nothing like biting into a fresh-from-the-oven muffin and finding those juicy purple nuggets inside.

Deep purple and bubbly fresh blueberry pie is a perfectly scrumptious dessert topped with a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Blueberry Crisp is a snap to prepare—just top fresh berries with a mixture of graham cracker crumbs, brown sugar and spices and bake.

- BLUE RIBBON MUFFINS
- 2 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
 - 3 tablespoons brown sugar
 - 3 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 egg
 - 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1 cup fresh blueberries
 - 2 tablespoons granulated sugar

In large bowl mix together flour, brown sugar, baking powder and salt. In small bowl beat together egg, melted butter and milk; add all at once to flour mixture and stir until dry ingredients are moistened. Stir in blueberries. Spoon into greased 2 1/2 inch muffin cups and sprinkle with granulated sugar. Bake in 425 degree oven 20 to 25 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Serve warm. Makes: 12 muffins.

- BLUEBERRY GLACE PIE
- 1 quart fresh blueberries, divided
 - 3/4 cup water
 - 3/4 cup granulated sugar
 - 3 tablespoons cornstarch
 - 3 tablespoons fresh orange juice, divided
 - 1 8 ounce package, cream cheese, softened
 - 1 baked 9-inch pie shell
 - vanilla ice cream or whipped cream

In saucepan, add 1 cup of the blueberries and water; simmer for 3 to 4 minutes. Combine sugar and cornstarch and add to the simmering fruit. Stir constantly until the syrup is thickened and clear. Stir in one tablespoon orange juice. Beat cream cheese until fluffy. Add remaining 2 tablespoons orange juice and blend well. Spread mixture on bottom of the baked shell. Cover with remaining berries. Pour the cooked fruit mixture over the berries. Chill thoroughly before serving. Serve with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream. Makes: 1 9-inch pie.

- FRESH BAKED BLUEBERRY CRISP
- 1 cup graham cracker crumbs
 - 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
 - 3/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
 - 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
 - 1/8 teaspoon ground cloves
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 4 cups (2 pints) fresh blueberries

Combine graham cracker crumbs and butter. Press 1-3 cup crumbs into a 1 1/2 quart baking dish. In small bowl, stir together sugar, cinnamon, salt, nutmeg and cloves; add vanilla. Spoon half the blueberries over the crumbs. Sprinkle with half the sugar mixture. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup crumbs. Cover. Bake in 350 degree oven 40 minutes. Uncover. Increase oven to 400 degrees and bake 10 minutes longer. Cool to room temperature. Serve with whipped cream, if desired. Makes: 6 to 8 servings.

Stuffed Chicken From The Grill

Food cooked in aluminum foil over charcoal takes on a special flavoring.

For a change of pace from the summer menu of barbecued chicken, try stuffing boned chicken thighs with a cornbread mixture. Place them in foil packages and top them with orange slices and jellied cranberry sauce before sealing the foil.

Serve with roasted ears of corn and zucchini, tomatoes and scallions, also "char-coaled" in foil.

STUFFED CHICKEN THIGHS

1 package (8 ounces) cornbread stuffing mix

12 chicken thighs

6 naval orange slices

1 can (8 ounces) jellied cranberry sauce sliced into six 1/2-inch slices

Heavy duty foil

thigh bone and remove. Sprinkle chicken with salt and pepper. Stuff thighs and fasten skin edges with toothpicks. Place orange slices and cranberry sauce over stuffed thighs. Place thighs on individual sheets of heavy-duty foil. Seal. Place sealed bundles 8 inches above gray coals and cook for 30 to 35 minutes, turning bundles every 10 minutes. Serve with roasted ears of corn and foil-baked zucchini. Tomatoes and scallions can also be added. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 servings.

Better, So More?

No-Bake Cheese Cakes

More than ever, "free" time has become a scarce resource. With the majority of both adult members in a family working full or part time and sharing household responsibilities, time to spend with family and friends is limited. Recent surveys show that while people have little available time they desire to spend most of it showing their loved ones that they care. Busy people can increase available time while keeping quality and "home-made" style in their entertaining with no-bake cheese cake.

Create a cheese cake masterpiece — with little effort. Packaged with its own graham cracker crumbs for the pie crust and cheese cake filling, just mix up crumb crust and put in pie plate, add milk to filling, whip up and pour into pie shell within minutes, dessert is ready to serve or to freeze (up to two weeks) until ready for use. It's that simple!

There are at least 101 different ways to prepare no-bake cheese cake. Imagination is the only limit. Consider smooth n' creamy Broadway Style Cheese Cake. The velvety soft filling, made with a combination of milk, cream and cream cheese, is flavored with a hint of orange and lemon peel.

The next time guests visit for afternoon tea, after dinner dessert, or late night snack, serve delicious, easy-to-prepare cheese cake. Also, this dessert makes a wonderful gift when invited for dinner at a friend's home. Bring it along on picnics or packed in lunch for work or school.

For special occasions or no occasion at all — cheese cake is always a welcomed sight.

INDIVIDUAL CHEESE CAKES

1 package no-bake cheese cake

3 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup margarine, melted
1 teaspoon honey
1 1/2 cups milk
Flake coconut, toasted
9 maraschino cherries

Combine graham cracker crumbs, sugar, melted margarine and honey. Press crumb mixture firmly against sides and bottom of individual tart shells or muffin tins. Refrigerate crust for 15 minutes.

Pour milk into large mixing bowl. Add no-bake cheese cake filling. Beat at low speed with electric mixer or rotary beater until blended. Beat at medium speed 3 minutes longer, scraping sides of bowl occasionally. Spoon mixture into prepared crusts. Sprinkle with flaked coconut and top each with a maraschino cherry. Chill at least 1 hour before serving. Yield: 9 servings.

STRAWBERRY-MALT CHEESE CAKE

1 package no-bake cheese cake

5 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup margarine, melted
1 cup milk
2 packages (3 ounces each) cream cheese, softened
One-third cup instant malted milk powder
1 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Combine graham cracker crumbs, sugar and melted margarine. Using a fork, press crumb mixture firmly against sides and bottom of an 8 or 9-inch pie plate.

Pour milk into large mixing bowl. Add softened cream cheese, no-bake cheese cake filling, and malted milk powder. Beat at low speed with electric mixer or rotary beater until blended. Beat at medium speed 3 minutes longer, scraping sides of bowl occasionally. Spoon mixture into prepared crust.

Mix sour cream, remaining sugar and vanilla; spread over top of cheese cake. Chill at least 1 hour. Just before serving decorate with fresh strawberries. Yield: one 8 or 9-inch pie.

Colorful Fruits Create A Taste Of The Rainbow

Reminiscent of a rainbow, colorful fruits are now at their peak of abundance and flavor.

Enjoy their pleasing appearance, contrasting textures and nutritional benefits with this array of creative recipes in every course from soup to salad through dessert.

For openers, begin with a cold creamy fruit soup. California nectarines star in this quickly blended and mildly curried Senegalese Soup. The main course, a Giant Skewered Mixed Grill, contains both beef and lamb plus sausages and chicken wings seasoned with an herb butter basting. Accompany this with an artfully arranged fruit and vegetable salad platter. Potato slices, red onion rings and slender green beans are marinated in a tangy mustard vinaigrette served on a bed of frilly lettuce and surrounded by wedges of golden ripe California peaches and tart-sweet plums.

Dessert is showy fruit torte with Bartlett pears and colorful plums adorning the top of a sponge or yellow cake and glazed with peach or apricot preserves. Whipped cream piped vertically makes a decorative border. An alternative dessert, not pictured, could be sliced fresh peaches or nectarines topped with fluffy Sherry Cloud Sauce and sprinkled with Praline Lace.

The beverage of choice to serve at this summer buffet is iced tea, everyone's favorite refresher. Its clean, fresh taste goes equally well with main course entrees and desserts. And because iced tea is not sweet and noncarbonated, it's truly a thirst quenching drink. Make up a big pitcherful so guests can have seconds or thirds.

If these recipes have you inspired, you'll want to order an entire colorful 48-page recipe booklet featuring imaginative cooking with fresh California Bartlett pears, plums, peaches and nectarines. Send $1.00 to "A Taste of the Rainbow," P.O. Box 255627, Sacramento, Calif. 95865.

GIANT SKEWERED MIXED GRILL

- 1 pound beef top round or sirloin
- 1 pound lean lamb or 2 pounds beef
- 4 green peppers
- 12 green onions, trimmed
- ¾ pound sausage, halved if large
- 6 chicken wings, baked in 400 degree oven for 20 minutes

Herb Butter Baste: Combine ¼ cup butter, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 teaspoon rosemary (crumbled), 1 teaspoon sage (crumbled), ¼ teaspoon salt and 1 large clove garlic (minced) in a saucepan. Stir over medium heat until butter is melted. Place mixture on grill to keep warm while cooking meat.

SENEGALESE SOUP

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1½ teaspoons curry powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- ½ cup chopped celery
- 2 small or 1 large nectarines, cubed
- 2 cans (14½-ounce size) regular strength chicken broth
- ½ cup plain yogurt
- ½ cup half-and-half
- ¼ cup sliced almonds, toasted (for garnish)
- 1 fresh nectarine, thinly sliced (for garnish)

Melt butter in large saucepan. Add curry powder, salt, onion, celery and nectarine cubes. Sauté 2 or 3 minutes or until onion is tender. Add broth and bring to boil. Gently boil 5 minutes. Cool. Turn into electric blender container and whirl until smooth. If preferred, press through a sieve into a bowl. Stir in yogurt and half-and-half. Chill thoroughly. Serve with toasted sliced almonds and additional sliced nectarines on top. Dollop with yogurt. Makes 1½ quarts; six 1-cup servings.

FRUIT WITH SHERRY CLOUD SAUCE

- 4 egg yolks
- ½ cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- ¾ cup dry sherry
- 1 cup whipping cream
- 4 cups sliced fresh peaches or nectarines
- Praline Lace (optional)

Beat together egg yolks, 6 tablespoons sugar and cornstarch in top of double boiler. Whisk in sherry. Place over simmering water and cook stirring constantly until thickened, about 1½ minutes. Cool and chill. Whip 1 cup whipping cream with remaining 2 tablespoons sugar and fold into cooled sherry mixture. Divide fruit among 6 dessert dishes. Dollop fruit with sauce and sprinkle with Praline Lace if desired. Makes 6 servings.

Praline Lace: Generously butter a rimless, 14x17-inch baking sheet with about 1½ tablespoons butter. Sprinkle with ½ cup brown sugar (packed) leaving a 1-inch border on all sides.

Broil 6 inches from heat watching carefully and turning pan to prevent burning, 3 minutes or until sugar is bubbling. Cool. Loosen lace with a spatula and break into pieces. Store in an airtight container.

GERMAN FRUIT TORTE

- 1¼ cups flour
- ½ cup powdered sugar
- 10 tablespoons butter
- 1 cup sieved apricot or peach preserves
- Spongecake or 1 (10-inch) layer yellow cake
- 3 tablespoons kirsch (optional)
- 2 or 3 fresh plums, cut into wedges
- 2 or 3 fresh Bartlett pears, sliced
- 1 cup whipping cream

For pastry base, combine flour and 5 tablespoons powdered sugar in a bowl. Cut in butter to make fine crumbs. Pat mixture into bottom of a 10-inch cake pan with removable bottom. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 25 minutes or until light golden. Cool on rack and gently remove from pan. Place on cake plate. Brush with ¼ cup sieved preserves. Top base with layer of spongecake. Sprinkle cake with kirsch. Arrange fruit on cake and brush with remaining ¼ cup preserves, coating all cut surfaces of pears thoroughly. Beat cream with remaining 3 tablespoons powdered sugar until stiff. Spoon into pastry bag fitted with star tip. Pipe cream vertically on sides of cake and around fruit to form a border.

Spongecake: Beat 2 egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in ¼ teaspoon salt and ½ cup granulated sugar. Beat until stiff peaks form. In a separate bowl beat 2 egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Beat in 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Fold in egg white mixture and ½ cup flour. Pour into a buttered, brown paper-lined 10-inch cake pan or springform pan. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 25 minutes or until center springs back when touched. Cool. Peel off paper.

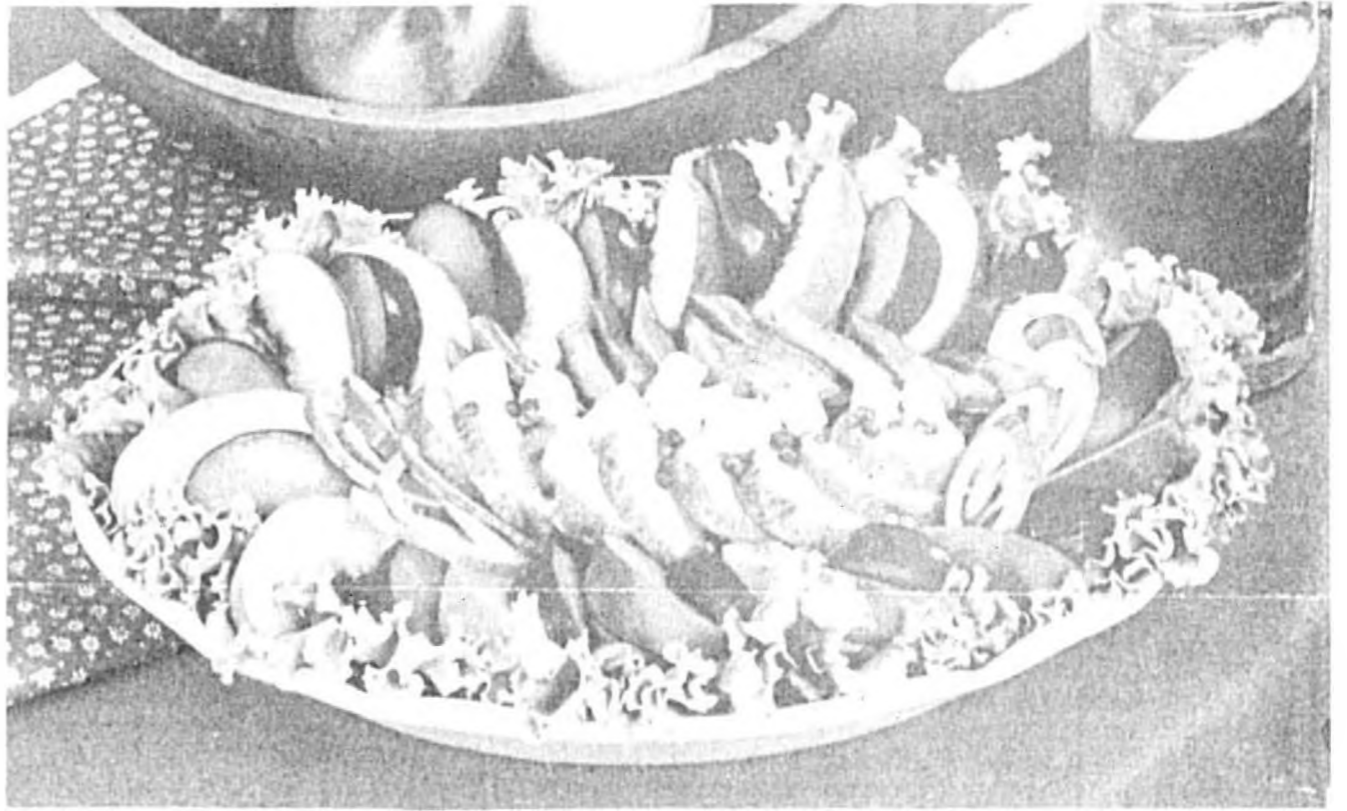

ORIENTAL PORK WITH NECTARINES

- 1 pound lean pork
- 2 medium fresh nectarines, sliced
- 1 green pepper, cut into 1-inch cubes
- 1 large clove garlic, minced
- 2 beef bouillon cubes
- 2 tablespoons plum jam
- 2 tablespoons red white vinegar

- One-third cup water
- 2 teaspoons cornstarch
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon grated fresh ginger root (optional)
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- Hot cooked rice

Cut pork into 2-by-½-inch strips. Cut nectarines and vegetables as directed. Mash bouillon cubes with jam in a small bowl. Mix in vinegar, water, cornstarch, chili powder and ginger. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in skillet until hot. Add half the pork and cook over high heat, turning occasionally with spatula, until browned, about 2 minutes. Lift pork with spatula from pan onto plate. Repeat with the other half of the pork.

Heat remaining 1 tablespoon oil in skillet. Add green pepper, onion and garlic. Stir-fry over high heat for 3 or 4 minutes or until tender-crisp. Return pork to pan. Add cornstarch mixture and nectarines. Cook, stirring, over high heat until sauce is thickened and mixture is hot. Serve over rice. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

Artfully arranged fruit and vegetable salad platter accompanies meal.

Hot Dog

Delicious Versions Of America's Favorite

With more mothers working today than ever before, kids can help their parents at mealtime by making quick, easy and economical entrees with America's favorite — the hot dog.

Kids will soon discover the delicious versatility of hot dogs by combining nutritious hot dog toppings such as crushed pineapple, refried beans, bacon, chopped zucchini, sauerkraut, cheeses and various sauces. For a tasty change of pace from the usual bun, children can roll franks into crepes or pancakes coated with syrup or warmed apple sauce.

Youngsters will watch with amazement as hot dogs curl into circular shapes after being cut at 1/2-inch intervals and heated. When placed on toasted English muffins, these round dogs will be served up proudly by kids in the Franks Benedict style — topped with poached eggs and hollandaise or cheese sauce.

To perk up instant soups with flavor and additional nutrients, add sliced or chopped frankfurters. Just two hot dogs supply one-third of a child's daily requirement of protein along with iron, thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, phosphorous, zinc, Vitamin C, Vitamin B6 and Vitamin B12.

HAWG DAWG

Cook a strip of bacon until done but not crisp. Wrap it around a hot dog and put in a bun. To microwave, wrap in a paper towel, heat in microwave oven for about 2 minutes, just until heated through. To bake, wrap in aluminum foil; bake in oven at 400 degrees F for about 5 minutes.

BARBARA'S WILD DOG

Heat a hot dog your favorite way. Place in a bun and load it with your choice of chopped sweet and hot peppers, shredded cheese, chopped onion, sweet relish, sliced pickles, chopped tomato, sliced zucchini. Top the works with a spread made of 1 tablespoon mayonnaise mixed with 1 teaspoon catsup and 1/2 teaspoon mustard.

KEITH'S MEXICAN VERSION OF A CALIFORNIA HOT DOG

Toast the hot dog bun and immediately top with a slice of process American cheese. Spread with refried beans or mashed barbecued beans. Add the heated hot dog. Top with orange slices or sections.

CHINESE NEW YEAR FRANKS

Heat a frankfurter your favorite way. Serve on toasted bun with a sauce made of half Chinese mustard and half sweet-and-sour sauce. Garnish with crisp noodles, bean sprouts or alfalfa.

HALF A DOG SOUP

Slice or chop half a hot dog. Stir into instant soup along with the heated water.

GARDNER'S DELIGHTFUL DOGS

Wrap a hot dog in a slice of Swiss cheese. Place in a bun. Have chopped zucchini, mixed with crushed pineapple, ready. To microwave, wrap in paper towel; heat in microwave oven for about 2 minutes, just until cheese melts. To bake, wrap in aluminum foil; bake in oven at 400 degrees F for about 5 minutes. Unwrap at once and top with pineapple mixture.

Slash a hot dog at 1/2-inch intervals, cutting almost through. Curl the hot dog on top of a pineapple slice and put on half a toasted English muffin. Top with chopped zucchini and shredded hot pepper cheese. Broil until cheese bubbles.

FRANKS BENEDICT

Mix together equal amounts of taco sauce and process cheese spread. Spread over a corn tortilla. Split a frankfurter lengthwise and set on top. Broil or microwave until frank begins to curl 3 to 5 minutes in the broiler or 1 to 2 minutes in the microwave oven. Sprinkle with choice of chopped onion, green pepper, tomato, lettuce, chili or jalapeno peppers. Roll up tortilla and enjoy.

Note: Try one serving in a counter-top broiler oven.

CHEEZY DOG

Combine 2 tablespoons process cheese spread with 1/4 cup baking mix or biscuit mix for each hot dog (use 1-1/4 cups process cheese spread and 2-1/2 cups buttermilk baking mix for 10 hot dogs). Stir until well blended and crumbly. Mold about 1-3/4 cup around each hot dog to cover completely. Deep fry in hot fat at 360 degrees F until golden brown, 2 to 3 minutes. Or bake at 425 degrees F until golden brown, about 10 minutes. Serve with corn relish as a "dunk."

Note: Bake just one in a counter-top oven; reduce temperature to 400 degrees F.

Method: In foil or on a stick
Approximate Time: 45 min.
10 apples
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup nuts
1 stick butter or margarine
10 marshmallows
dates and coconut, if desired
cinnamon
Core and fill apple with brown sugar, raisins, nuts, dates, coconut, cinnamon, etc. Hole may be plugged with butter. Wrap in foil and bake on coals. When tender, toast a marshmallow and put it on top of the whole or sliced apple.

MOCK ANGEL FOOD CAKE

Serves: 10
Method: On a stick
Approximate Time: 10 min.
1 small loaf unsliced day-old French bread or frankfurter rolls
1 can sweetened condensed milk
1/2 cup shredded coconut
Trim crusts off bread. Cut into slices 3/4 inch thick, then into strips 3/4 inch wide and about 2 inches long. Pierce with stick. Dip, not to soak, strips into sweetened condensed milk and roll in dry shredded coconut. Toast over coals as you would marshmallows.

TALL STORY DOG

Make a pancake 10 to 12 inches in diameter, remove to platter and spread with honey butter. Wrap the pancake around a heated weiner and eat.

Honey Butter: In a small bowl stir together 1/2 cup butter or margarine (softened) and 1 tablespoon honey until well blended. Refrigerate leftovers in covered container. Makes 1/2 cup.

SHAGGY DOG

What's a shaggy dog in the Wiener World? A hot dog topped with sauerkraut or cole slaw.

LE FRANCAISE DOG

How do you make a French hot dog? Wrap in a crepe and serve hot with warmed apple pie filling or chunky apple sauce.

RING-TAIL DOG

Can you put rings around a hot dog? Just separate a slice of red onion into rings and slip over a hot wiener. Place on a toasted bun and serve with slices of cucumber.

Kids can easily prepare Gardner's Delightful Dogs, Nacho Franks or Chinese New Year Franks.

Peachy Summer Desserts

Peaches, nectarines and apricots must be harvested when mature because they do not ripen after picking. A rosy blush does not indicate ripeness or flavor.

The fruit should have a fruity aroma and be creamy or yellow behind the blush and yield to slight pressure.

Avoid greenish or hard fruit, which will rot rather than ripen. These recipes for peaches can be used interchangeably with nectarines and apricots.

FRESH PEACH PIE:

- 1/4 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup whole wheat flake cereal, slightly crushed
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Toss peaches with lemon juice, stir in sugars, flour and cinnamon. Turn into pie shell. Set pie on wax paper in oven. Microwave 100 percent power 7-13 minutes or until bubbly in center. Melt butter in medium bowl 100 percent power 40-50 seconds. Mix in brown sugar. Add remaining ingredients

Pasta, cheese and vegetables combine for tasty meatless meals.

Main-Dish Vegetable Casseroles

Meatless meals offer a great variety of dishes and fit into anyone's budget.

A variety of meal alternatives provide essential protein and include eggs, cheese, pasta, rice and legumes (dry peas and beans). For easier cleanup, spray baking dishes, casseroles or frypans with a no-stick cooking spray that is low in calories and adds no cholesterol to cooking.

In addition to cheese and pasta, meatless meals lend themselves to the use of such vegetables as broccoli and zucchini, onion and mushrooms.

VEGETARIAN LASAGNE:
No-stick cooking spray
2 small zucchini, quartered lengthwise, then sliced (about 1 1/2 pound)
1 small onion, chopped
1/4 pound small mushrooms, sliced
1/2 teaspoon Italian seasoning
1/2 pound lasagne (12 pieces)
1 jar (16 ounces) meatless spaghetti sauce
1 container (16 ounces) creamy cottage cheese
1/2 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 350-degrees. Spray a large skillet with no-stick cooking spray according to directions; heat over low heat. Add Zucchini, onion, mushrooms and Italian seasoning; saute until vegetables are crisp tender, stirring often. Remove skillet from heat.

Cook lasagne as label directs. Drain; rinse with cold water; pat dry with paper towels. Spray a 12-by-8-by-2-inch baking dish with cooking spray. Put 3 to 4 tablespoons spaghetti sauce in bottom of dish. Place 4 lasagne lengthwise in dish, overlapping to fit. Spread with half of the cottage cheese, 1-3rd of the vegetable mixture, 2 tablespoons of the Parmesan cheese and 1-3rd of the remaining sauce. Repeat, ending the last layer with noodles, vegetables, sauce and remaining Parmesan.

Cover and bake for 20 minutes. Uncover; bake 15 minutes more or until lightly browned on top. Let lasagne stand 20 minutes before serving. Calories per serving: 242. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 8 servings.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL
For Thursday, August 26, 1982

YOUR BIRTHDAY
August 26, 1982
You could be rather lucky this coming year through relatives or family members. Keep on the very best of terms with all of your kith and kin.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
Domestic relations could be rather fragile today, so be very careful how you treat family members. Coming on too strong or being too demanding could shatter the peace. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the seasons following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph, Mail #1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
Be wary of tendencies today to prejudge events negatively. If you see yourself as a loser, there's a strong possibility that you'll be one.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
Be hopeful regarding your future earnings, but also be careful not to spend that which you do not have in hand. Live within your present means.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Be extremely tactful today with persons who are in authority positions. They have the upper hand, not you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
It will prove unwise at this time to discuss your plans with others. Wait until all of the kinks are ironed out before you talk about them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)
Be on your guard today, or you may be drawn into another's complicated affairs. This is not the day to pry into situations which are none of your business.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
Be aware of the views and opinions of others today, but by the same token don't be overly influenced by what they have to say. Use your own judgment as well.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Guard against tendencies today to criticize others for things which they are trying to do and about which you know little.

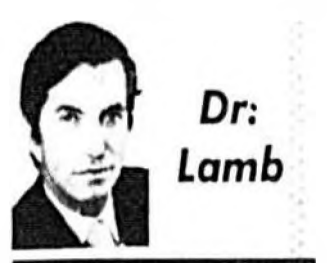

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
Think twice before becoming involved in something today which is managed by another, yet which could cost you personally if it went awry.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
This is not a good day to bring up issues on which you and your mate take opposite positions. Instead of resolving things, you could make them worse.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
Attitude is all-important today where your work is concerned. Don't look upon what you have to do as being distasteful, or it truly will be.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
This is one of those days when you may not manage your resources as wisely as you should. If you let your extravagant whims get the upper hand, you'll be sorry.

Reader Has Lost Too Much Weight

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB—A few months ago I lost a large amount of unwanted weight. I'm 17 years old, 5 feet 11 and went from 205 to my present weight of 124 pounds in about two-and-a-half months, simply by will power and lots of exercise. The problem I have now is loose flabby skin, which looks worse than the excess weight did. Of course, flabby skin is not a health hazard but it looks bad.

I feel as if I have accomplished nothing by losing all that unhealthy weight. I guess if I had lost it through a health program slowly instead of all at once maybe the loose skin would have tightened as I lost.

I'm still on a program of daily exercise but that doesn't seem to help. Can you give me some suggestions on what can tighten it up? Will sit-ups help? What about a body belt?

DEAR READER—What a mistake. Most young men do not want to be too skinny. At your height you are grossly underweight. Skin is stuffed with your body and that includes muscles, not just fat. Your dietary and exercise program must have caused you to lose about a pound of tissue a day. You probably lost about 10 pounds of water, leaving about 70 pounds in 10 weeks.

Notice I said tissue, not just fat. With that rapid weight loss, even though you exercised, you must have used both muscle tissue and fat tissue for energy. That is dangerous.

Exercise usually helps to prevent loss of muscle while you are dieting but if you overdo both your diet and exercise you must have calories to run your body, and part of them will come from using your muscle tissue for energy.

Your exercise program will not restore your muscles if you remain on a diet that doesn't provide enough calories to free up the protein you're eating to grow muscle tissue. Anytime a person fails to consume enough calories the protein in the diet will be used for calories of energy rather than building body protein such as muscle protein. You can develop a protein deficiency that way.

My suggestion is simple. Get back on a decent balanced diet that enables you to gain muscle mass from your exercise. And you need to read The Health Letter number 16-2, Dangerous Dieting, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB—My greetings of peace. I am writing on behalf of "A Right for Health" and we would like to know what effects artificial air (air conditioners) have on the human body over a period of time, when the body is surrounded 24 hours a day without proper ventilation.

DEAR READER—Before buildings and houses began being "sealed" to conserve energy there was enough "leakage" of air to be sure in most instances that there was adequate ventilation, in terms of supplying oxygen and eliminating pollutants that build up. Now there is an increase of environmental hazards inside buildings.

Just cooling air will not be harmful if there are no pollutants unless a person has cold sensitivity reactions. But fungus-type organisms can grow in air conditioners. That includes car air conditioners. And they grow in humidifiers, particularly central ones that contain warm air. These can be inhaled and cause a form of pneumonia and other respiratory symptoms. That is why air conditioners and humidifiers must be kept clean and free of standing water.

WIN AT BRIDGE

that four hearts is not going to make

Rubber bridge players would probably rebid to four hearts to score the honors, but at match point duplicate, North decided to put his partner in four spades.

The play was short and sweet for declarer. West started with the king and queen of diamonds and continued with the ace of clubs. He had his three tricks and South had the remaining 10.

Proper defense would have upset declarer's apple cart. It is simple enough if you study all four hands.

West starts with the king of diamonds. Then he cashes his ace of clubs before continuing with the diamond queen.

Now it is up to East to cooperate. He must overtake that queen in order to lead a third diamond. West will ruff with the six spot to force an honor from dummy and East will have established a trump trick with his jack-10-deuce.

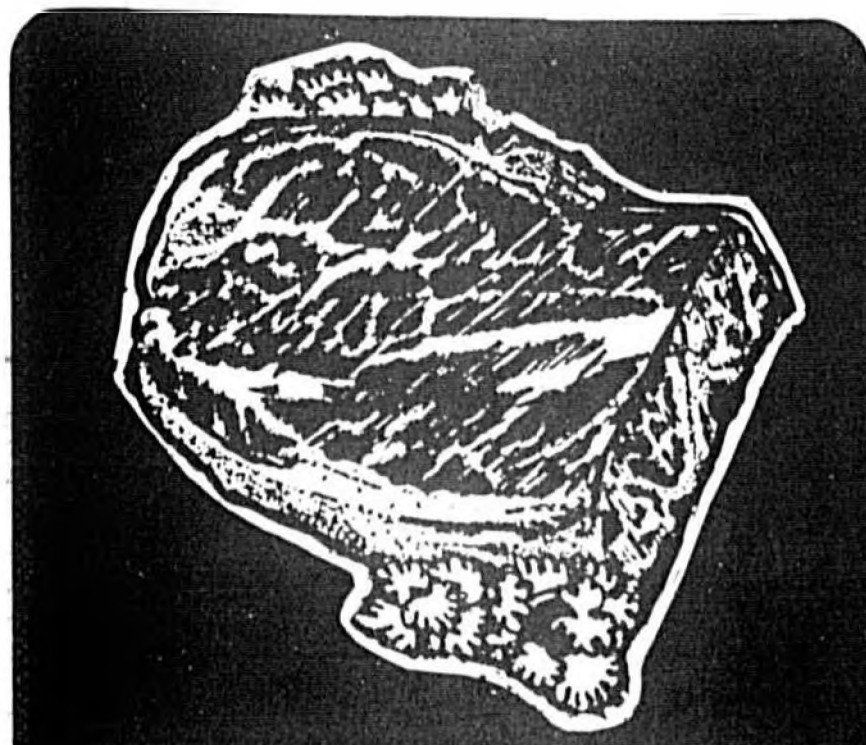

A simple uppercot, but only made possible if West takes his ace of clubs before leading the second diamond. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)
