Senator George Says Absence Of Nationalist China At Table Should Not Prevent Peace Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today the absence of Nationalist China from the conference table should not prevent U. S. peace talks with Red China.

George, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, thus went a step further than the State Department has been willing to go, in renewing his proposal for a conference to seek a way to ease tension in the Formosa area.

The department's official position thus far has been that American representatives would not be willing to talk with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai unless Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government was represented too.

In a new development, the United States was understood yesterday to have decided against any direct talks with Red China unless the Chinese Communists come through with more conciliatory gestures than they have made so far.

George, a chief Democratic spokesman on foreign policy, said he would be willing to waive the Nationalist representation condition, at least in exploratory discussions. At Taipei, Nationalist spokesmen have said they would not parley with the Reds.

"All rights of both parties could be reserved at any conference that could be arranged," George said.

Diem Fires Officer

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Ngo Dinh Diem today fired a Binh Xuyen appointee, Lai van Sang, as director general of Vietnamese security police.

He named army Col. Nguyen Ngoc Le as Sang's successor.

The government indicated that, rather than force Sang out of the headquarters building in the center of town, he will install himself temporarily a half mile away.

Instructions will be issued to all the 5,000 or so agents in the province that henceforth they will take their orders from Le.

The premier's move brought a crisis between the government and the Binh Xuyen to a head. The Binh Xuyen, a society headed by former river pirates, has refused to withdraw its control of the police on the ground that Sang was named by Chief of State Bao Dai and only the ex-emperor could revoke the appointment. The chief of state has been living in France for more than a year.

Diem originally intended to seize police headquarters by force, but he was dissuaded by both French Gen. Paul Ely and American envoy Gen. J. Lawton Collins.

The calm which has existed in Saigon since last Friday was broken this afternoon when two national army trucks were fired on in Cho Lon, the Chinese section.

Suicide Attempt Made By Actress

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Susan Hayward, one of the movies' top box-office stars, attempted suicide early today by gulping sleeping pills.

Two detectives who had to kick in the door of her swank Sherman Oaks mansion saved her life.

The 35-year-old redhead gave warning of her intent in a hysterical call to her mother, Mrs. Ellen Marrener, 65.

Her mother telephoned police, who battered in a patio door and found the actress, clad in pajamas and a housecoat, sprawled unconsciously on the living room floor. Near her were two empty bottles of sleep-inducing medicine.

Police Det. G. W. Wilkerson said she was breathing so hard that he and his partner decided not to wait for an ambulance. They sped in a squad car to North Hollywood Receiving Hospital where a doctor pumped out her stomach.

After emergency treatment, the doctor pronounced her condition fair and said "it's just a matter of sleep it off. It was a close one. We acted on the premise that it was an overdose of sleeping pills."

Commission Votes To Vacate Property On Right-Of-Way

The City Commission voted last night to vacate the west 10 feet of the street right-of-way east of the Southwest Street and between 15th and 16th Streets in order to clear the house of Major Wheeler.

The action was taken after it was pointed out that Wheeler had constructed his home on the right-of-way and did not desire to move the dwelling back.

In other action, the Commission: 1. Tabled a request by the Selig Co. of Atlanta to be permitted to place trash receptacles, with advertising on them, on city streets. No action was taken because Carl Taylor, Orlando, company representative, was not present.

2. Approved the report of City Attorney Edwin Shiholzer on the preparation of bills for the legislature.

3. Adopted an ordinance pertaining to requested changes by the Civil Service Commission. The ordinance, which must be ratified by the legislature, provides for the expansion of the Civil Service Commission to five members; a one-year probationary period, and the opening of all examinations to department members who have had two years service.

New Jersey Builder Will Appeal Ruling

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — A New Jersey builder plans to appeal a federal court ruling that his Fort Lee housing project, which allegedly raked in huge "windfall" profits, had violated its contract with the Federal Housing Administration.

The ruling yesterday by Federal Judge Thomas F. Meany in the test case involving so-called windfall profits was described as the first of its kind against a builder.

Under the decision, the FHA can hold a meeting of stockholders of the project — known as Linwood Park, Inc. — and assume control by electing two out of three stockholders. The FHA owns all of the corporation's preferred stock.

He is survived by his widow Mrs. Huldah H. Bullard of Lake Mary six daughters, Mrs. W. P. Burke of Lake Mary; Mrs. W. F. Minshew, Lake Mary; Mrs. M. Flanck, Winter Park; Mrs. C. S. Driskell, East Point, Ga.; Mrs. A. Paulk, Douglas, Ga.; Mrs. Talma Goff, Pearson, Ga.; two sons, R. L. Bullard, Peoria, Ariz.; R. F. Bullard, Sanford; 19 grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday at Brinson Funeral Home. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

Ex-Army Ranger Admits Slaying

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — A 23-year-old former Army ranger today admitted slaying a woman in the rape-slaying of Miss Susan B. Franklin, 26, a retired school teacher.

Newport Public Safety Director Francis L. Fitzgerald said Edward J. Andrews, dishonorably discharged from the Army nine months ago for stealing a motorcycle, yesterday admitted slaying his frail neighbor.

A 14-year-old boy, who today claimed to have smashed a "one-man" counterfeiting ring, used plaster of paris molds to roll out lead sheets. The bogus coins were good enough to work in vending machines.

Two Men Connected With Firm Site Annexation Not Feasible

After hearing that a plywood plant is planned just outside Sanford, the City Commission last night recommended the proposed 62-acre site not be annexed for 10 years.

Clifford McKibbin, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce's industrial committee, said two Sanford men plan a $250,000 investment in the plant. He did not identify them.

The plant would be located east of Sanford Ave. and south of 27th St. Its products would be used for furniture making and building materials.

In hearing another request by McKibbin, the Commission learned an unauthorized sewer line has been laid on Bay Ave. The city, it was pointed out, has been sending out notices to adjoining property owners telling them they must connect to the line within 90 days.

The line was laid despite the fact that the Commission voted to eliminate the project from the sewer program as of last Feb. 21.

City Clerk Heald Sayer reported the contractor, Sullivan, Long and Hagerly of Bessemer, Ala., had not yet been paid the $3,200 cost for the line. The Commission, on motion of Commissioner John E. Under, passed a resolution withholding payment until a suitable answer is given as to why the job was done.

One of the city's bond trustees, Volie Williams Sr., said that since Oct. 1 the city had retired $123,000 worth of old bonds by buying them off the market for $96,756. The balance of the city's debt is $3,554,000, he said.

A. H. Peterson Jr. and M. L. Harborn Jr. outlined plans of the Jaycees to build a replica of Fort Mellon in the lakeside Fort Mellon Park as a tourist attraction and historic reminder to residents.

James L. Bullard Dies Yesterday In Winter Park

James L. Bullard, 82, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. Flanck of Winter Park at 2:15 p. m. Monday after a lengthy illness.

His residence is in Lake Mary and he had been visiting his daughter for about 11 days.

Born May 12, 1872 in Appling County, Ga., he had lived in Lake Mary for the past five years and prior to that time he had lived in Sanford for six years. Mr. Bullard came to Sanford from Pearson, Ga., and was a member of the Sweetwater Methodist Church in Pearson.

He is survived by his widow Mrs. Huldah H. Bullard of Lake Mary six daughters, Mrs. W. P. Burke of Lake Mary; Mrs. W. F. Minshew, Lake Mary; Mrs. M. Flanck, Winter Park; Mrs. C. S. Driskell, East Point, Ga.; Mrs. A. Paulk, Douglas, Ga.; Mrs. Talma Goff, Pearson, Ga.; two sons, R. L. Bullard, Peoria, Ariz.; R. F. Bullard, Sanford; 19 grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren.

Walter Robertson Makes Flying Visit To Quemoy Island

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — U.S. Asst. Secretary of State Walter Robertson made a surprise flying visit to the disputed offshore island of Quemoy today.

He was accompanied by Chinese Nationalist Defense Minister Yu Ta-wai, Foreign Minister George Yeh and Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, chief of the American Military Assistance Advisory Group on Formosa.

The trip was kept secret until the party returned to Formosa.

Meanwhile, hope and fear held alternate sway in official Taipei as mystery continued to surround the mission of Robertson and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff. Radford apparently did not make the flight to Quemoy. It was announced that he remained in bed with a cold at the home of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, where he and Robertson are house guests.

Nationalist uncertainties were stirred too by what seemed here to be the swing of world-reaction in favor of Red China's offer to negotiate with the United States on the Formosa question.

Young Boy Looks For Any Burglar To Try Out Alarm

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Fast! Any burglars around?

Twelve-year-old Steve Bader needs one for an experiment. He made and installed a burglar alarm in his bedroom but nobody's been around to try it out.

"There were plenty of burglars when my father was a boy. This was his room and burglars came in through the window about four times."

Bader found the plans for his alarm in a book but they were too complicated. So Steve, who wants to be an electrician, figured out a simpler version.

He fastened an "arm" to a block of wood and attached it to the door. Now, whenever the door is open, the arm triggers an old doorbell powered with two flashlight batteries.

(Incidentally, Steve's alarm doesn't protect him from window intruders.)

Glee Club To Give Operetta Tonight

Including pirates, comedians, songsters, dancing and many other acts it unfolds a story of adventure and romance.

The entire Glee Club is included in the operetta with Miss Ollie Reese White directing. "Costume and almost professional dancing and singing tend to make this one of the best operettas presented on the S. H. S. stage," she stated.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Shoemaker Named To Vice-Presidency Of Ozier-Weller

Announcement was made today of the re-organization of a local building firm, Cecil R. Ozier, president of Ozier-Weller Homes, Inc., stated that A. K. "Kay" Shoemaker Jr. is now vice-president and general manager of this firm. He will have complete charge of all the firm's operations in this area.

"Kay", a native of Sanford, attended local schools and is a graduate engineer from the University of Florida. Since graduation he has been working with all types of heavy and light construction. A veteran of the Korean campaign, he served with an Engineer Construction Battalion as a construction engineer.

With Shoemaker's engineering and architectural knowledge the firm is in a position to offer all types of architectural service. He will be happy to consult with anyone concerning plans they might have clipped from a paper, or one they had sketched. He can also advise and assist in securing VA and FHA loans, on either the firm's land, or the individual's.

In addition to custom building, both residential and business, Ozier-Weller Homes will build a number of three bedroom block and frame homes in the $9,000 bracket.

Other members of the Ozier-Weller Homes, Inc. firm will remain the same, namely, Mrs. Irma Anderson, bookkeeper, Mrs. Ruth Billinger, secretary and Bert Anderson, construction superintendent.

Merv Ozier, son of Cecil Ozier, who formerly had charge of the Ozier operations in Sanford, is now heading the land development section of his father's Illinois properties. Merv, his wife, Phyllis and daughter Melanie, are now at home at 804 Illinois Ave., Rantoul, Ill.

City Commission Okays Several Bids For Hose, Uniforms

The City Commission last night accepted bids on fire hose and summer uniforms for policemen.

W. E. Watson was low bidder on police trousers. He submitted a bid of $17 each for trousers of eight and 12 ounce material. The Yowell Co. was the other bidder on trousers. The company bid $18.30 to $30 on the various weights.

The Commission accepted Yowell's bid on uniform shirts, ties and caps. The shirts will be furnished at $3.90 each, the ties at $1, and the caps at $4.65.

B. F. Goodrich Co. was awarded the contract for two and one-half inch fire hose, at $1.70 a foot. The contract for one and one-half inch hose went to American Lanco, which bid $1.36 a foot.

A-Bomb Survivors Sue Jap Regime

TOKYO (AP) — Three survivors of the atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima in 1945 have filed suit against the Japanese government for damages. The suits are test cases.

The Japanese government waived rights for wartime damages in the peace treaty. Ryuzichi Shimoda, who lost his wife and four children, sued for 200,000 yen (about $800). Mrs. Mabe Tada, who said her husband divorced her after her face was scarred, and Hisaji Hamabe, who lost his wife and five children, sued for 200,000 yen each.

All three said they are unable to work and are destitute.

Stolen Plane Crash Takes Three Lives

VALENCIENNES, France (AP) — A Royal Air Force training plane stolen from a British station crashed about midnight on two houses at the nearby mining village of Vieq, killing three persons and seriously injuring three others.

Police said no trace of the pilot was found. He was a young RAF corporal. A ground crewman not qualified to fly military planes, he had buzzed dizzily at low levels over London for nearly three hours last night before disappearing.

The British said he had no parachute and it was believed he had died in the flaming wreckage of his plane, which destroyed one of the houses it hit.

The French dead were two little girls, 9 and 12, and a 35-year-old woman.

Grammar School Room 8 To Present Play April 28, 29

Room Eight of the Sanford Grammar School will present "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in the school auditorium on April 28 and 29 at 8 p. m.

Thursday the play will be given for the fourth and fifth grades and parents and on Friday night for the sixth graders and their parents. The public is invited to attend both performances.

The play is presented every spring for the benefit of the orphan class has sponsored for the last two years. This year they will still sponsor Vera Drees, a little German girl who has had three years of English and writes often to the class.

Miss Lucille Campbell, teacher and director, stated that the correspondence has resulted in better penmanship and a keener interest in geography and foreign languages along with a moving interest in language lessons. "The sponsorship has been almost as much benefit to the sponsors as to the little girl" she said.

Every child in the room has a part and has worked hard to put on the best performances.

Workers Scheduled To Strike Today At Atomic Center

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — About 2,000 office and production workers were scheduled to go on strike today at the sprawling Sandia base, one of the nation's major atomic centers.

In an almost unprecedented action, the Atomic Workers Division of the AFL Metal Trades Council and the AFL Office Workers Union last night rejected an offer by the President's atomic energy labor-management relations panel to review the negotiations. The two unions voted to strike immediately.

The contract between Sandia Corp., a subsidiary of Western Electric, and the two unions ended April 20. They are stalled over wages and accrued vacation schedules and the union has rejected a 20-point company package.

Kefauver Remarks On Program Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said today a White House decision to delay administration testimony on the Bricker treaty amendment "will be interpreted as cringing before a vocal segment of the Republican party."

Kefauver said a decision to postpone "for the time being" testimony from Secretary of State Dulles on the proposed constitutional amendment "was made at the White House, not in the State Department."

Victory For Man

The effectiveness of the Salk vaccine represents a major victory for mankind.

Polio has been a killer and a crippler—particularly vicious because its victims have so often been children. Now a way has been found to control it, to prevent it 80 to 90 per cent of the time and to make it less damaging in some of the instances when it cannot be prevented.

It is a victory in which we can all take pride for we have all had a share in bringing it about. Millions of people contributed their time, energy and money to make the research possible; the cumulative genius of those who sought the solution in their laboratories has produced the long sought results.

This is more than the conquest of a disease—important as that conquest is. It is an inspiring demonstration of what man can achieve when he sets high goals for himself and works steadily and unselfishly toward their realization. Man is not the creature of his environment. When moved deeply enough he can rise and alter it, make his world a better place, and safer for his children.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Come let us return unto Jehovah—Hosea 6:1—Whole nations have abandoned Jehovah, but in those lands there is no sign in the heart, no stars in the sky, no hope. Barbed wire entanglements are needed to prevent the escape of citizens. They that might bread were given a stone.

JAMES MARLOW

Sen. Bricker Makes Another Try

WASHINGTON (AP)—People with a desire to change things or let them alone—in this case the United States Constitution and the United Nations Charter—have plenty of chance in 1955 to let off steam.

In the end, probably neither document will be changed.

Once more Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) urges the Constitution be amended to limit a President's treaty-making power. Under the Constitution as it stands the Senate can block any treaty made by a President.

Nevertheless Bricker and his followers argue that somehow, somehow, a treaty which gets by the Senate will do grave damage by signing away—American rights, particularly states' rights.

Many Senate committee hearings on Bricker's proposal have been held in the past. Last year the Senate was tied in knots for weeks with debate on an amendment.

Bricker has a lot of support. He also has a lot of opposition, particularly from President Eisenhower. Last year Bricker's rigid ideas were rolled down into a mild substitute amendment offered by Sen. George (D-Ga.).

In the Senate vote even this was defeated but by a narrow squeak. The vote was 60-31, one vote less than needed to approve it. Any constitutional amendment requires a two-thirds vote of Senate and House plus approval by three-fourths of the states. So even if it had squeaked through the Senate it might have been defeated elsewhere.

Bricker does not give up easily. He's back again, demanding another vote this year. A Senate subcommittee begins hearings on his proposal this week. But Bricker's chances look poorer this year than last.

In the fall of 1955 the United Nations will decide whether to hold a conference on changing its charter which by then will be 10 years old.

This government favors such a conference. But, if it is held, any one of these five countries—The United States, Russia, Britain, France, Nationalist China—could kill with a veto any or all changes it didn't like.

Since the United States and Russia are so far apart in their thinking on how the U.N. should be used or should operate, any changes both agreed on almost certainly would be minor and not basic.

Nevertheless the State Department and the Senate, looking forward to the possibility of a conference, have been studying ideas and proposals for charter revisions.

The Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) exercises jurisdiction in 16 different sports.

Friendly Mayflower

Another Mayflower may be sailing to Plymouth, Mass., soon, but not in a spirit of defiance but as a gesture of friendship between two nations close in spirit but separated by a vast distance. The 1955-model Mayflower, an exact replica of the original, will be sent to America as a gift of the British people and as a token of appreciation for the friendship existing between the two nations.

Construction of the ship is being sponsored by a British group, Mayflower, Ltd. Most of the money needed has already been raised, and actual construction is expected to start next month. The craft, according to present plans, would sail across the ocean with a crew of British war heroes and dignitaries, accompanied by a Royal Navy escort. After touring the Atlantic Coast from Maine to Florida, it would be anchored near Plymouth Rock, where the original Mayflower, according to tradition, landed in 1620. There it would form part of the Pilgrim-type village being built by an American group, Plymouth Plantations, Inc.

There is something heart-warming in this gesture by the people of England. It can hardly draw the two nations closer together than the present alliance, dictated in part by the exigencies of current international politics, in part by common friendship and understanding, between them. Rather, it is a tangible reaffirmation of that friendship. It is a gesture not at the official, governmental level, but from people to people. It is a personal salute, deeply appreciated.

It is a reminder that time can heal deep wounds, that bitter enemies can become friendly allies. The entire world is in need of such a reminder today.

From A Small College

President Henry M. Wriston of Brown University announces his retirement as soon as his successor can be chosen. He is now 65, the age at which retirement is permitted, and has served 18 years. He has been an outstanding college executive, who has served as head of the American Association of Universities.

Before coming to Brown, Wriston was president of Lawrence College at Appleton, Wis. His successor there was Nathan M. Pusey, who last year was called to be president of Harvard University.

In view of this record, it would not be surprising if the governing corporation of Brown, when it comes to pick a new head, should take a look at the present president of Lawrence College.

People Count Themselves To Death

NEW YORK (AP)—"People count themselves to death in this life," said Louis L'Amour, declining to give his age.

With L'Amour, one of America's most prolific adventure writers, keeping his age to himself isn't a matter of vanity. It's a philosophy. "It isn't the number of years you've lived that's important," he said. "It's a mistake to measure living in terms of years. It's how you've spent the years that puts real meaning into existence."

Judged by most standards, L'Amour has had enough experience to last the ordinary man through several reincarnations.

The average adventure writer is a swivel chair dreamer who would think twice before picking a quarrel with his dentist. L'Amour not only looks like the adventure hero—he writes about—be probably could whip one of his own heroes in a fight with either fist or gun. The big 6-foot-1-inch author weighs 200 and is a judo expert as well as an authority on a desert or jungle survival. He has been a sailor, a miner, a hobo, a professional boxer—he won 24 bouts, lost 5—and an antitank combat officer in World War II.

At 15 he left his home in Jamestown, N.D., and joined a circus as the first step in a search for adventure that has carried him to almost every place in the world.

"Even then I knew I wanted to write," he recalled. "But I figured I could learn more out of school than in it. I felt I had to see life before I could write about it."

L'Amour educated himself by constant reading during his years of wandering in distant places. Slowly and painfully he also taught himself to write.

"I had 300 stories rejected before I sold my first one for $10," he recalled.

His career has now reached the jackpot stage. He has published more than 400 short stories, turned out half a dozen adventure novels, including "Hondo," made into a movie starring John Wayne, to whom he bears a strong physical resemblance. Recently he sold a magazine serial for $15,000, set down and wrote another book, "We Shape the Land," in 55 hours at the typewriter in 5 days.

"Usually I don't write that fast," he said. "But writing comes easy to me. I have written about five million words. Usually I write 4 hours every morning every day in the week.

"It makes no difference how I feel. If you feel bad, writing helps take your mind off your troubles. It doesn't make you feel any better to sit still and do nothing."

L'Amour, who never has smoked, eats candy or chews gum while he writes, and says he can write anywhere—on trains or planes, in crowded restaurants.

"The only thing that bothers me is dead silence," he said. "Some time ago I read an ad in a Hollywood paper by a writer who wanted a woman to come and merely make honey noises around the house while he worked. I can understand that. Any kind of sound is better than none when you are writing."

L'Amour, a bachelor, lives now in a midtown hotel and is about ready for man's most enduring adventure—matrimony—if he can find the right girl.

He is a specialist on Western lore, but his hobby is the study of survival.

"If you know plants, you can go alone into a desert or jungle and find enough food and water to keep alive indefinitely," he said. "A man can survive anywhere in the world, at sea or on land—except in the antarctic—if he will only use his head."

"The main enemy to anybody set down unexpectedly in a wild, uninhabited spot is his own sense

Booming Business Breeds Optimism

NEW YORK (AP)—Booming business breeds optimism. So today industrial chiefs are sticking their necks out a little farther and predicting that good times will carry over into the fall and maybe into next year.

At the same time the warning voices of the cautious are growing louder.

Bankers, for instance, admit that the building boom shows every sign of making this the biggest construction year. But they warn that if the nation over-builds, and gets too far into debt while doing it, the whole economy might be shaken.

Spreading labor strife also worries many industrial executives. Bitter strikes plague some companies in the chemical, textile, telephone, railroad and electronics fields. The threat of a work stoppage still hangs over the booming auto and steel industries.

And the more glowing the reports of increased profits and prospects of still higher earnings, the more likely labor leaders may be to raise their demands.

Students of the Detroit story point to the big backlog of orders for new cars which the auto maker has from their dealers. Production schedules are for full steam ahead for weeks to come.

But for almost every new model that takes to the highway, an older, turned-in model has gone onto a used car lot. If the approach of the top driving season brings the customers into the used car lots in volume, all will be well.

Gasoline checks are also steadily larger than a year ago. This has sparked price wars in a number of places across the land. Here, too, the approach of warm weather is awaited—and with confidence by oil producers who look for about a five per cent gain in consumption this year.

Business confidence is sparking

some supplier industries. Makers of the goods that manufacturers buy—heavy machinery, tools, parts right or down to cotton pins—are predicting that sales this year should run higher than last year by around 10 per cent.

Plans for new plant construction and purchase of new equipment are being increased as a result of the business boom.

Construction contracts so far this year have been awarded at a record rate. This should keep the building boom going for months. The amount of money lent so far this year for new homes has jumped almost a third over last year.

At the same time, the total of savings seems to be rising. Savings banks report increased deposits. Life insurance companies say sales are up 15 per cent over last year.

Judge Housholder Reports Discussion To Committee

The Children's Committee of Seminole County was called to order by the president, Herold Heckenbach April 19, with 23 members present.

The minutes of the March meeting were read and approved. Judge Ernest Housholder reported on the discussion of the County Commissioners concerning the possibility of remodeling certain rooms at the County Home for detention of juvenile delinquents. He stated that the need was drastic, and gave several recent incidents. However, due to the law limiting funds, money is lacking. A bill is to be presented to the coming legislature raising the amount allocated for juvenile court work.

Mrs. Hukla Kibbe moved that each individual, and the Children's committee write to the legislators advocating more money for the juvenile courts. The motion was unanimously passed.

Mrs. Kouth reported that a survey of the members indicated that the third Tuesday was a better day for the meeting, so the change from the third Monday of the month to the third Tuesday was settled upon.

Mrs. Ray made the suggestion that the juvenile council would be more accessible if an office and telephone were provided for him. Mrs. Williams made a motion that the Children's Committee recommend to the School Board and County Commissioners that a full time juvenile officer be provided and that he have an office and telephone. The motion was unanimously passed.

Mrs. E. J. Eubanks of the Castle Brewer Kindergarten, P-TA asked for help with supplies, games, and assistance. A committee, composed of Mrs. Gait, chairman, Miss Joyce Hietzel, Mrs. Mabel Brown, and Mrs. John Wilson, was appointed to investigate and make recommendations.

Mrs. Williams gave a resume of the booklet "The Florida Children's Commission Recommends", stressing the new laws and recommendations which will be presented at the coming legislature.

Mr. Stringer spoke of the newly organized Jaybee's, a youth group for young men from 14-21. This is a civic group sponsored by the Jaycee's. Its purpose is for betterment of the community, community projects and group leadership. Volle Williams is at present training the group in parliamentary procedure.

Garden Nook

BY SADIE B. GUT
The Sanford Garden Club of F.F.G.C.

The dailily or "Hemerocallis" is one of our best perennials since it grows in sun or part shade in average soil and thrives through hot or cold weather with a minimum of water and attention. It makes an attractive border plant, whether in flower or not, is beautiful massed in beds and is also quite effective used in shrubbery "bays" to add a touch of color to a green background.

There are varieties that bloom early, mid-season or late, that grow tall, medium or low, so that by choosing wisely you may have a bed three rows deep that will bloom all spring and summer. Many varieties are repeat bloomers giving two or three sets of bloom per season.

They come in all shades of yellow, orange and tawny reds and even with a pink, rose or lavender cast, and are often bi-color. Some bloom in the morning and close in the afternoon, some are open all day, some are twisted petals and wide petals, or with a contrasting eye zone.

Named varieties are extra choice, of course, but many seedlings have similar characteristics, are more reasonable in price, and if selected while in bloom will be highly satisfactory for all but the hobbyist. In some, the foliage goes dormant in winter, in others it remains evergreen, which is to be preferred in our mild climate.

Each flower remains open only one day but is followed by others on succeeding days. Do choose evergreen plants with well-branched flower stems or "scapes" as these produce several flowers at a time making a better display.

Early bloomers could be selected now and the summer bloomers later when they can be seen in flower, unless your nurseryman can give you information as to blooming time. Not all varieties do well in our hot climate so it is advisable to buy locally or at least from a nearby source.

They can be moved at practically any time, even in flower, but preferably in early spring or in fall, particularly if they are to be divided into divisions of one or two "fans". The roots and tops may be cut back severely, then planted in well-loosened soil at depth shown by bleach line. They respond well to peat, bone meal and sheep manure placed in the soil at planting time.

Established plants should be fertilized with a balanced fertilizer, such as 4-8-8, in spring and after each blooming period. If blooming well, they need not be divided for several years; in fact older clumps have flowers that are larger and richer in color than the newly planted divisions.

Dream Realized By Student Nurse

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Mary Smith, a new student nurse, dreamed of the day she would minister tenderly among clean, white beds.

In her excited young mind, she could see herself bending over a coughing little boy, her gentle hand pushing back the dampened hair from his forehead.

Three years later, in the crisp uniform of a registered nurse, she entered a big city hospital. Now she had her clean, white beds and the coughing boy.

But when the boy coughed it was an aide who bent over him. Mary had to scribble on charts, mix medications, prepare hypodermic needles, supervise student nurses. She had no time for nursing in the old sense.

What's more, a group of Tulane University researchers have concluded that the way Mary wanted things to be, even though she may never realize nor admit this fact.

The major conclusion of the researchers was that nurses are no longer Florence Nightingales, even though they are trained in this tradition at many nursing schools. They have become professional technicians.

The Tulane Urban Life Research Institute conducted its study at the 3,200-bed Charity Hospital in New Orleans. Institute Director John Rohrer says checks with other hospitals show the nurse situation there is typical of the nation.

Personal relations with patients, the institute found, is rarely the job of the registered nurse. One nurse wheeled a hypodermic tray from bed to bed. She either said nothing to the patients or simply commanded: "Turn over."

Of 2,432 personal bedside tasks, researchers found that nurse aides did 84.5 per cent, visitors 17.5 per cent, practical nurses 9.3 per cent and nurses 7.4 per cent. Doctors, students, orderlies and supervisors did the rest.

This was part of a strange contradiction encountered by the researchers. Nurses said in interviews that their biggest cause of dissatisfaction was the lack of personal contacts with patients. This was a role for which their training had often prepared them. But the institute found that when chances

Scientists Make Encouraging Gain

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Scientists have made an encouraging start toward drugs to protect you from H-bomb fallout or radioactivity.

And, in case you should be afflicted, they've also discovered that radiation sickness is not the incurable illness which some have thought it to be.

The truth is that several chemicals work effectively to save mice when given before exposure. None is a practical vet for humans, but they mark a beginning.

And clues have been uncovered to treatments for overcoming radiation sickness if you've been affected by fallout or X-rays from bombs.

Many people seem to think radioactivity is something entirely new, mysterious, lethal, hopeless to defend against. Some seem to shut their minds even to thinking or hearing about it.

But scientists say radioactivity is a fact of life and always has been. Our bodies are a bit radioactive and always have been.

Now we have new, more powerful sources of radioactivity to use for war or peacetime power and tools. In this regard, radioactivity is like electricity which lights our homes and which can electrify; or the wonderful, indispensable automobile which also kills 35,000 Americans a year.

Radioactivity is the new thing in A-bombs and H-bombs. Actually, it is the least lethal element in these terrible weapons. The blast and fire from such bombs are far worse.

Some 40 different chemicals show some degree of protective effect against X-rays, says Dr. Harvey M. Palt of the Atomic Energy Commission's Argonne National Laboratory, Argonne, Ill.

Glutathione, which contains cysteine, works pretty well for mice. Alcohol also gives a bit of protection, but don't excuse your cocktails as radiation medicine.

At the U.S. Air Force Radiation Laboratory, University of Chicago, John Storer and Julius M. Cox found that another chemical, papp, protects animals from killing doses of X-rays as well or better than cysteine. Papp has to be given beforehand, just as cysteine. Thus, papp, a nickname for paraminopropiophenone, also is a practical preventive for humans.

None of these protective drugs does any good if "over to mice" after they are exposed to the X-rays.

But the exciting prospect is that they protect by halting the chain reaction of damage from X-rays, before the chain reaction gets underway.

Scientists, including the University of Chicago's Dr. E. S. G. Harrison have figured that X-rays cause damage mainly by their effects on water in the body—and you are 80 per cent water.

The energy of X-rays hitting water molecules creates charged chemicals and peroxides. These can instantly inter-react detrimentally upon essential chemicals of body cells.

The experimental drugs seem to stop this reaction. Some of them—like cysteine—provide extra amounts of hydrogen atoms to soak up the dangerous chemicals released by the X-ray reaction.

Others—like papp—reduce the amount of oxygen present in the blood in body cells and thereby reduce the chance of damaging chemical reactions. The small effect from lots of alcohol in the body apparently comes from reducing the oxygen supply.

Without protection, the X-ray chain reaction can damage the blood-forming organs—such as the bone marrow and spleen—creating anemia and lack of white blood cells to combat germs. Another effect can be damage to the intestinal wall so germs may escape into the weakened body. Other effects include loss of hair, graying of hair, or changes which later bring on leukemia, the blood cancer, or cataracts.

We're gaining insight into how radiation jams up the biological system," says Dr. Palt. "If we can hit at the source, we may stop the whole chain reaction. If we do that, we can hope to top all the odd effects at the start. The way to protection against radiation is clearer now than ever before."

"Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother"

If you have not already done so, speak your everlasting love for those who did so much for you. Do it in a cemetery that allows you the priceless privilege of getting a beautiful and distinctive monument rather than in one which, for reasons of its own, restricts you to a metal marker set flush with the ground.

As the years go by you will realize that nothing keeps memories more beautifully alive than tributes spoken in words of imperishable granite or marble.

For valuable advice on how to ease the burden of a family bereavement, write for a free copy of "Planning Now for Tomorrow."

Alternate Plan Offered In Annexation Battle

Dog Tracks Receive Unexpected Trend In Capital Action

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Dog tracks which had hoped House and Senate committees would soften the administration's touch for new taxes got some unexpected reverse action yesterday.

Both groups, upped the 14 million dollar figure which Gov. Collins had recommended, the House committee adding $210,000 and the Senate committee almost $100,000.

Spokesmen for the dog tracks had asked that $339,000 be trimmed off the proposed new taxes. They asked raising to $100 the allowance for the tracks before tax deductions were made from the $25 per acre figures recommended by the administration.

The House committee by a 17-7 vote accepted a subcommittee recommendation that the state's share of the 17 per cent taken from parliamentary betting pools be increased from 5 to 7 1/2 per cent and that the allowance per race for the tracks be fixed at $100.

Collins' bill had proposed that the rate be upped from 5 to 7 per cent.

King Loses Battle In Reconsideration Of Voting Problem

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The Senate today refused to reconsider its vote passing a proposed constitutional amendment to give 18-year olds the vote in Florida.

A motion by Sen. King, Winter Haven, to reconsider the action was defeated 14-12. The measure had passed yesterday 20-10.

King said he didn't think it would be good government to subject 18-year-old high school and college students to "the possible political situation."

He said that because of immature youngsters were liable to be "used by political campaigns."

Sen. Floyd, Apalachicola, said if 18-year-olds were old enough to fight for their country they were old enough to vote.

"This country went to war because of taxation without representation. This is more than that, it is the risk of death, death itself, without representation."

Chou-En-Lai Guest Of Pres. Soekarno

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The Prime Ministers of India, Burma and Egypt left for home today as Indonesian slowly settled back to normal after the 23-nation Asian-African conference.

Of the main conference attractions, only Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai stayed on, for another two days as a guest of President Soekarno.

India's Nehru, Burma's U Nu and Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser left aboard the same plane.

Soekarno entertained Chou last night at a dinner, followed by a reception in the gardens of the presidential palace. The spectators watched Japanese dancing girls perform.

Butler Asks Demos For Reconciliation

ATLANTA (AP)—An appeal to Democrats to reconcile their differences over colonial affairs was made last night by National Party Chairman Paul Butler, but he made no reference to a major issue in the South—racial segregation.

Observing that he was addressing a dinner of the Georgia Democratic Executive Committee on Confederate Memorial Day, celebrated annually in memory of Southern soldiers who fought in the Civil War, Butler said:

"I believe all the differences that exist between the sections of our country then and now can be worked out . . ."

No Error Is Seen In Suicide Verdict

BARTON (AP)—A grand jury has reported an investigation disclosed nothing to indicate officials erred in letting Ernest Bennett, central figure in a murder for profit plot, die as a suicide.

Donnelly, a Lake Wales inventor, was found shot in death Monday by his home in a June 5 shooting after being found on hand on a charge of conspiring to kill another man.

The City Commission has offered an alternate proposal to Seminole County legislators in the city's fight to annex outlying areas.

While restating its original request for annexation authority without a referendum, the Commission pointed out in a lengthy letter:

JOHN MAGUIRE (above) will speak at the First Baptist Church Revival which is scheduled for May 1-3. Kirby Rogers of Boston University will be song leader for the event.

Festival Of Music To Be In Miami At Orange Bowl

MIAMI.—More than 40 of South Florida's finest high school bands will gather here May 27 for the annual Florida Bandmasters' convention—and Miami's first annual Festival of Music.

The youthful musicians will appear in a two-night musical spectacle at the Orange Bowl (May 28-29), competing against each other for medals and vying as units for coveted ratings within the state bandmasters' association.

A special 800-piece Florida Youth Symphony, assembled by the bandmasters, will perform each night under the direction of Paul Wakeman, America's King of Jazz.

Adding international flavor to the Festival program will be guest stars from half a dozen Latin American countries.

Performances will be presented by a 10-man marimba band from Guatemala, a quintet of folk singers and musicians from Jamaica, popular and classical singers and musicians from Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Haiti and Mexico.

An added feature of Miami's overall Festival program, May 7, will be a dual track meet between the University of Miami and Florida State University teams at the University of Miami track.

Special events will feature West Seniors of Kansas, America's champion miler, in an attempt to run a 4:30 mile; Mexico's Joe Melier, Pan American Olympic pentathlon champion, in the two-mile run and a special broad jumping event; and Argentina's Adhemar da Silva, attempting to better his own world record in a hop, step and jump exhibition.

IN PEOPLE SPEAK
IN TWO MINUTES
BIDDEFORD, Maine (AP)—It took only two minutes for 96 persons to speak their piece at a testimonial dinner last night for retired jeweler Henry Dupre. Each spoke one word in a chain-greeting to Dupre, an ardent fisherman, who was presented a gift basket full of live worms.

Pilot Club President Installed

Mrs. Harvey Swanson was installed as president of the Pilot Club in impressive ceremonies by Mrs. Ruth Scott at the Yacht Club last night. The installation service followed a chicken dinner served by Mrs. E. W. Little, Mrs. Swanson succeeds Mrs. George A. Stine as president.

Other officials installed with Mrs. Swanson included Mrs. Walter L. Carter, first vice president; Mrs. Sue E. Stevenson, second vice president; Mrs. Joel Field, recording secretary; Mrs. Nancy Brock, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Esther Riva, treasurer; Mrs. E. E. Chapman, chaplain; Mrs. M. L. Babers Jr., Mrs. Scott and Mrs. George A. Stine, sponsors. Host over dinner included Mrs. F. F. Hall, Mrs. Troy S. Ray and Mrs. V. C. McConner.

Mrs. Swanson is secretary of the Colony City Printing Company and has been a member of the Pilot Club for the past eight years. She has held the office of secretary and treasurer of the club and

Van Sang Defies Order

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Binh Xuyen Gen. Lai Van Sang today defied Premier Ngo Dinh Diem's order ousting him as head of the Surete, the national security police.

Sang said Diem had no authority to remove him since he had been appointed in the job by Viet Nam Chief of State Bao Dai, who has been living on the French Riviera for the past year. Sang, whose office controls the provincial and secret police, appealed to Bao Dai for new instructions.

The general also told all employees and guards to remain at their posts in the national Surete headquarters in the heart of Saigon.

The American-supplied premier ordered Sang to give up the post yesterday and named an army man, Col. Nguyen Ngoc Le, as the new police chief. The move came after weeks of feuding between the government and the Binh Xuyen, which is allied with the dissident Cao Dai and Hoa Hao religious sects.

The government said it would order the 5,000 security police in the provinces to take their orders from Le rather than Sang.

Special Grand Jury Called To Consider Evidence In Death

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A special grand jury has been called for Monday to consider evidence in the death of Mrs. Mary Moonen, 21, whose body was found in a Lake District alley here Saturday.

The coroner, Dr. W. G. Guthrie, said the woman died of "asphyxia by manual strangulation." He said the vital organs also were being studied for possible presence of sedatives.

Operator Injured From Explosion At Stuart Office

STUART (AP)—An explosion blew the floor of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. exchange damaged equipment today.

The lone operator on duty was slightly hurt.

The explosion at 3:30 a.m. tore a large hole in the 30-foot room which houses the exchange and blew an oil heater against the ceiling. The floor of four other rooms was cracked, but the exchange, however, continued in operation today.

Mrs. Dorothy Anderson, the only operator on duty, had just walked away from a spot near the explosion. She required treatment for shock.

Carl Fremont, Fort Pierce manager for the strike-bound Southern Bell company, said no immediate estimate of the damage was available but that one telephone was knocked out.

While she was making a quick pivot, her elbow caught Igor Youkevitch in the left eye. He fell unconscious to the stage.

However, the scene ended at that moment and the lights went out, and the audience at the Metropolitan Opera House did not notice the incident. A doctor said the dancer will be able to perform tonight.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Attorneys for Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard go to court today in an attempt to win another trial on a claim they have uncovered new evidence indicating he was wrongly convicted of killing his pregnant wife Marilyn last July 4.

The state will insist Sheppard's chief defense counsel William J. Corrigan bring in "new facts, rather than new theories based on old facts," said S. Danacene, assistant Cuyahoga County prosecutor, declared.

Corrigan said he would produce affidavits from five persons, including Dr. Paul L. Kirk, professor of criminology at the University of California.

"Dr. Kirk is the main one," Corrigan said, referring to the na-

Friendship Policy Attacked

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama was accused in the Diet today of two-faced diplomacy in his policy of maintaining close friendship with the United States while negotiating trade and diplomatic ties with Red China and Russia.

The attack came in both houses of Parliament from members of former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's Liberal conservative party, which has opposed ties with the Communists.

Hatoyama must have Liberal party support if he is to push any program through the Diet. His equally conservative Democrats hold only 185 seats in the all-powerful lower house—49 less than a majority. The Liberals hold 114.

Liberal Yoshiaki Sato told the upper house yesterday that Hatoyama's "two-faced diplomacy puts Japan in a position where she may be resented by the free world and fooled and tricked by the Communist world."

A two-story frame dwelling, an old landmark at Enterprise, burned to the ground yesterday in one of the Volusia County community's biggest fires in recent years. The loss was estimated at $10,000.

The burning house was directly across from the Methodist children's home.

Ennis F. Lowe, who purchased the house in 1914, said the loss was partly covered by insurance. All furnishings were also destroyed.

A fire truck from the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station sped to the scene and succeeded in saving adjoining property. The fire lasted for about an hour and a half. Fire Chief C. M. Whitten said.

Slocum called too for an end to strikes that cripple newspapers. He said the recent "death" of the struck Brooklyn Eagle was "shocking."

Bricker Says Plan Could Block Design

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said today his proposal to curb the executive power should be written into the Constitution to block the designs of "advocates of world government who seek to repeal the American Declaration of Independence."

Bricker said such persons seek to achieve world government in various ways, including amendment of the United Nations Charter, and he declared:

"The end result is the same—the United States would cease to be a sovereign, independent nation. When independence is destroyed, our liberties are lost. That is one of the most important reasons why we need a constitutional amendment safeguarding the power to make treaties and executive agreements."
