TURKISH CAVALRY ENTERS NEUTRAL ZONE AT KANDRA MIGHT MEAN TROUBLE

ALTHO NEW AGREEMENT BARS ALL FORTIFICATIONS CAN BE BUILT

AT THE STRAITS

And That Military Operations of The British Must Cease at Once

(By The Associated Press)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—British general headquarters reports appearance of Turkish Nationalist cavalry at Kandra, in Constantinople neutral zone. Kandra is approximately 65 miles from Constantinople, near the Black Sea coast of Ismid Peninsula.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—According to a telegram from the Turkish sources in Mudania, the agreement regarding the neutral zones reached by the Allied and Turkish representatives provides that no fortification shall be constructed on either side of the Straits of Dardanelles and that military operations of the British in Turkey shall cease immediately.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—Mudania conference was reconvened at 10 o'clock this morning with Thrace the chief subject for consideration. The attitude of the Greek delegates on this question was declared to be giving conferees considerable concern.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—The Mudania conference, it is understood, will probably reach an agreement on all points of the Turkish proposals upon which M. Franklin-Bouillon secured Kemal Pasha's pledge to suspend military movements during the negotiations, with the exception of the provision relating to the occupation of the western line of the Maritza river by Allied troops. Argument on this point is still pending. The Allies have agreed to turn over Thrace to the Turkish army in thirty days.

News received last evening that M. Franklin-Bouillon, the French envoy, and Hamid Bey, nationalist representative, had decided to return to Constantinople from Mudania immediately, strengthened the hope for the successful issue of the conference.

Delegates agreed yesterday afternoon to establish a definite line of demarcation between the British and Kemal forces in the Chanak zone. The space between the opposing forces in the Chanak zone. The space between the opposing forces will be sufficient to place them out of rifle shot, thus lessening the danger of immediate conflict.

The Turkish conditions referred to in connection with the probable agreement in the Mudania conference are as follows:

- 1.—Formal guarantees concerning the evacuation of Thrace.
  - 2.—Establishment of Allied garrisons in the larger towns of Thrace.
  - 3.—Occupation of Thrace by the Turkish Nationalist gendarmerie.
  - 4.—Transfer of the civil administration of Thrace to Kemal functionaries.
  - 5.—Evacuation of Thrace within eight days by the Greek army.
  - 6.—Occupation of the westerly line of the Maritza river by Allied troops.
- Cconciliation thus far has marked the conference at Mudania. Ismet Pasha, who speaks for Mustafa Kemal Pasha, leader of the Nationalists, and also for the Angora government, has announced the government accepts the Allied proposals in principle, and he took occasion to explain at the opening of the sessions that the Turks "had no intention of creating incidents with the English."

The absence of the Greek representative from Tuesday's meeting made little difference because the matters under discussion were of a general nature and had no immediate connection with the attitude which the Greeks might assume.

At yesterday's meeting Ismet asked for a settlement of the Turkish administration of Thrace and requested that Thrace should be free from all Allied control, but he felt that at least one month would be required to effect

CARRIE NATIONS IN MOUNTAINS SMASH LIQUOR

(By The Associated Press)
CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 4.—Eight women of the little town of Moberly in Cumberland county, assumed the role of Carrie Nation, proceeded to a wildcat still in the mountains and smashed it to smithereens, says a dispatch today. The women constituted themselves into a dry squad, taking the law into their own hands, and armed with hatchets, guns, axes and other destructive weapons went into the mountains where they learned was located a still, which has been supplying their men folks with liquor and without preliminaries, smashed everything in sight.

OLD RATES AND RULES TO PREVAIL

Trainmen and Conductors sign Agreement

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—A new agreement maintaining the old rates of pay, rules and working conditions, was signed today by representatives of approximately 49 railroads and subsidiaries and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors.

The agreement which will be in effect until October, 21 1923, besides maintaining old wage levels and rules including time and one-half for overtime after eight hours, was considered by the employes organizations as favorable to them. The grievance committees of the trainmen's organization on 19 roads entering Chicago had approved the agreement before W. G. Lee, president of the Trainmen and L. E. Sheppard, president of the Conductors, affixed their signatures.

The western managers headed by W. M. Jeffers, general manager of the Union Pacific railroad were said to have been mindful of the long maintained attitude of the train service brotherhoods in living up strictly to their obligations with the roads and to have made some concessions in the progress of the negotiations which began yesterday. Under the agreement all disputes as to the rules and working conditions now pending before the labor board will be withdrawn by the roads and trainmen and conductors.

Today's agreement included the principal roads entering Chicago and traversing territory west of the Mississippi river and with agreements signed with eastern lines, approximately three-fourths of the railroad mileage of the country now has signed up with the trainmen and conductors, Mr. Lee announced. Besides those roads which actually signed the agreement today, other according to both representatives of the roads and brotherhoods, are expected to accept the same agreement.

The Herald of tomorrow will contain a writeup of the Kiwanis meeting Wednesday and a full report of the speech of Kiwanian Dumas, which was the feature of the occasion. Our Kiwanian reporter has been absent from the city—that's the reason of the delay.

TAMPA, Oct. 5.—F. P. Farris charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Lawrence Diaz and Carl Reynerson, August 13 last, when an automobile driven by Farris was wrecked, was discharged from custody yesterday at a preliminary hearing before justice of the peace.

the transfer. He also suggested that there should be an Allied force covering on the Maritza river and that a neutral zone should be created west of that river.

The Allied generals explained that the proposed administrative measures must all be subject to the approval of the governments concerned. Ismet then expressed a willingness to meet the Greeks.

SHOP STRIKE IS SETTLED ON 83 U. S. RAILROADS

STRIKE SETTLEMENTS MADE ON THE BALTIMORE PLAN

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Eighty-three railroads of the United States, operating approximately 65,000 miles and employing between 125,000 and 130,000 members of the federated shop crafts, have settled the shop crafts' strike with their system federations, according to a special bulletin sent yesterday to all members of the organization over the signature of B. M. Jewell, president. The latest additions to the settling roads were the Ft. Smith & Western, the Georgia, Florida & Alabama and the Chicago Great Western.

Replying to numerous requests for an interpretation of the Baltimore plan, upon which the strike leaders claim the settlements have been made, the circular states three reasons actuated the executives in accepting this agreement basis. It gives, first, a split in the Association of Railway Executives—one group agreeable to a settlement and the other bent on destroying these organizations; second, willingness of the liberal group to negotiate national agreements and lay down a basis for settlement on other roads; third, that no justification could be found for keeping 125,000 men on strike who return to work and assist in financing those who remained idle.

Justification for the action of the policy committee, the circular declared, is seen in the fact that thirty-one other carriers, in addition to the original fifty-two, have agreed to the Baltimore plan.

A second special circular to the membership contained in detail an interpretation of Federal Judge Wilkerson's decision on the injunction bill filed against the organization by Attorney General Daugherty. It was supplied by Donald R. Richberg, attorney for the shop crafts.

"We cannot interpret the temporary injunction, drastic as its terms are," said Mr. Richberg's opinion in part, "as in any way restraining or preventing the officers and other representatives of the shop crafts organizations from doing all in their power to maintain an orderly discipline and conduct of the lawful work of the organization, to continue to call for and to expect to receive the loyal support of each and every member, and to continue to work in harmony and with a common lawful purpose to advance the common interests of the organized shop craft employes."

Mr. Jewell, accompanied by Mr. Richberg, arrived yesterday from Washington where they conferred with Attorney General Daugherty regarding the submission of Judge Wilkerson's decision to a higher court for review. Attorney General Daugherty assured them of his co-operation insofar as it is possible for him to act, they said.

SANFORD, Oct. 5.—Florida led the country in the production of celery for the season of 1922, according to T. L. Dumas, superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad here, who has gathered statistics on the car load movement of the vegetable from the leading producing states. The Sanford section produced the greater part of Florida's yield.

The record by states as obtained by Mr. Dumas, follows: Florida, 5,493 cars; California, 5,000; Michigan, 4,648; New York, 4,327; New Jersey, 1,150; Ohio, 857; Colorado, 500; Pennsylvania 256.

Mr. Dumas said that reports reaching him led to the expectation that Sanford's 1923 crop would show an increase of about ten per cent over last season.

Instruction Sergeant Will Be in Sanford For Military Outfits

Sergeant Wingert Will Be Here Permanently to Instruct the Three Military Units of Govt.

Sergeant C. E. Wingert, of the U. S. army has arrived in the city and will be stationed here permanently to instruct the three military units of the National Guard. He will assist in the training of the men in the machine gun, hospital and band units and will also make trips to Orlando and Daytona every other week. Major Ralph Stevens intimates that this move means an armory in Sanford in the very near future and one of the best military organizations in the state. The Sanford boys have gained a fine reputation at the various encampments and the presence here of Sergeant Wingert to be with them at all times and with the fine officers they already have the Sanford military units should take on new life and energy and come forth for a great winter of training. Meet Sergeant Wingert. He is there with the goods.

CHIPLEY PAPERS ARE CONSOLIDATED

CHIPLEY, Oct. 5.—Instead of two newspapers, Chipley will have only one, as the Washington Verdict recently purchased by J. P. Mitchell and the Chipley Banner have consolidated, the paper now being known as the Chipley Banner.

Both W. W. Jones and J. P. Mitchell are well known newspaper men and Chipley business men feel the union will be a success. The new management will install modern machinery.

A news item says two men were injured when a train struck their automobile, stalled on the tracks. It seems plausible.

FLORIDA TRUCKERS AND BERRY GROWERS PLANNING FO BUMPER CROP

The truckers of Florida are looking forward to harvesting this fall winter one of their biggest crops, according to A. P. Spencer, vice-director of the Agricultural Extension Division, who has just made a tour thru one of the main trucking sections of the state. Being asked for his impression of the trip, Professor Spencer said:

"The vegetable growers of Seminole, Orange and Osceola Counties are now in their busiest season preparing to plant the usual large acreages and with some increases. There is an optimistic feeling in those sections I visited last week, September 18-19. All the available acreage about Sanford and Winter Garden is being planted as usual. The farmers are fertilizing heavily and making all preparation for bumper crops.

"At Kissimmee about a hundred and fifty acres of strawberries are now being set out in addition to large acreages of truck crops. Thru the well-organized Truck Growers' Association the Osceola truckers have purchased their plants co-operatively and are getting a reduction on their fertilizer purchases. The merchants and bankers of Kissimmee are financing those who need help. Several new people have opened up new farms and the county agent is holding the co-operative association together.

"The growers are optimistic and feel that conditions justify the preparations they are making for the production of several hundred carloads of vegetables."

If business along every line is showing the speed that the printing business is showing they should be getting along fine. The Herald had to put on two extra men this week to keep up with job work and the newspaper and Haynes & Ratliff have just shipped in a new Mele Press for fast work in the job department that will run 6,000 impressions per hour. There is no need of anyone sending their printing out of Sanford with four good job offices here to take care of it.

EVERY property owner wants a pavement on his street that is durable, smooth, sanitary, quiet and pleasing to the eye—one that will last for 25 or 30 years and not be a tax burden on the community because of the necessity for frequent and costly repairs. He is willing to pay a little more in the beginning in order to get a pavement that will not cost so much for annual maintenance and call for early replacement. He likes to see his city practice the same economy that he himself practices in buying a suit of clothes or pair of shoes.

FLORIDA LEADS THE WORLD IN CELERY PRODUCTION

Sanford is distinctly the celery center of the world. Sanford ships more vegetables under refrigeration than any other section of the world but we were not sure that Florida led the United States in the shipping of celery until we received the official information from Supt. T. L. Dumas, of the Atlantic Coast Line. We have often made this statement before and had the figures in the years gone by and we appreciate the figures below given by Capt. Dumas in the following letter:

Sanford, Fla., Sept. 27, 1922

Mr. R. J. Holly, Sanford, Fla. File 829-8
It may be interesting to you to know the celery production of the United States for the season 1922. I know that you will be gratified to learn that Florida leads the United States in celery production.

The record is as follows:

|              |            |
|--------------|------------|
| Florida      | 5,408 cars |
| California   | 5,000 cars |
| Michigan     | 4,848 cars |
| New York     | 4,327 cars |
| New Jersey   | 1,150 cars |
| Ohio         | 857 cars   |
| Colorado     | 590 cars   |
| Pennsylvania | 256 cars   |

We confidently expect a ten per cent increase in the Sanford section the coming season.

Yours truly,
T. L. DUMAS.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK—

- THAT the local newspapers have much to do with the building of a community?
- THAT if a public movement is started which means better things for a city, the newspapers co-operate and it generally wins?
- THAT if the newspapers do not help, the movement usually loses?
- THAT local newspapers are a BIG PART of every Community?
- THAT they are always working for the public good?
- THAT they seldom get the credit they deserve?
- THAT a newspaper is a business institution the same as any other business?
- THAT they have goods to sell the same as any other merchant?
- THAT their goods consist of newspapers and advertising space?
- THAT they can no more afford to give it away any more than a merchant can afford to give his stock away?
- THAT too many people try to ride the newspapers, always expecting something for nothing?
- THAT if they expect their business or their city to grow, they might as well begin to realize that WHERE YOU FIND PROSPEROUS NEWSPAPERS YOU FIND A PROSPEROUS COMMUNITY. DO YOUR SHARE TO MAKE YOURS PROSPEROUS.—E. R. Waite, Secretary Shawnee, Oklahoma, Board of Commerce.

Walker and Boyd Are Filing Church at Greenville, Miss.

Dr. Walker and P. M. Boyd, of this city, are meeting with great success in their revival services at Greenville, Miss., as the following from the Greenville paper would indicate:
"Never in the days of Greenville have the people had a more glorious day, especially to those religiously inclined, than was had in Greenville yesterday at the First Methodist Church.
"Brother Walker, who is conducting the revival now going on at that church, held five services during the day. Beginning at 9:45 he talked to the men of the Big Brother Bible Class, about 100 men being present, and the talk given this class of men made a profound and lasting impression on them and will serve to make this splendid class a bigger power for good in this community than it has ever been before.
"At 10:15 he talked to the other members of the Sunday school in such a way as to reach every mind and heart, every one present from the very youngest to the oldest giving him closest attention. Much good will result from his talk at this time.
"At the 11 o'clock service not a seat in the main auditorium or Sunday school room was vacant when the first song was announced and several did not stay on account of not being able to get seats.
"Brother Walker's sermon at this time was especially to the church members and their duty to God and their church, bringing out in a most impressive way just what this duty is, there was not a member present that did not fully realize how far short they fell from what they should be and after this great sermon an invitation was extended to all who intended to be a more devout church member to come forward and give the preacher their hand, and it seemed every man, woman and child in the house came forward.
"When on Friday, announcement was made that a meeting for men only would be held at the church Sunday afternoon, it was thought impossible to get out more than 150 men, but such a wonderful impression has Brother Walker made on the men of Greenville that the church auditorium was comfortably filled and several sitting in the Sunday school room when the service began, and at Brother Walker's request, all present members of different denominations were asked to hold up their hands and it was found that men of every creed were present, Jew and Gentile.

"Mr. Boyd's singing of that wonderful song 'Mother Macree' was sung in such a way that there was hardly a dry eye in the house when he had finished and then came Brother Walker with a sermon on 'The Perfect Man,' and never were men so impressed with how far short they fell of being perfect men. It was a sermon and service that all who attended will remember to their last days.
"Fully thirty minutes before time for the night service to begin the church was filled to its capacity and at 7:30 when the first song was announced there was not even standing room left, fully 200 people came and were unable to get in and were forced to go away.
"The most powerful sermon yet preached since Brother Walker's stay with us was his sermon at this time on 'Influence.' Never were people brought to realize more just what their every move or act meant in the lives of others and after the sermon every person in the house, it seemed, rushed forward to shake Brother Walker's and Brother Lewis' hands, so stating that they intended to live a more upright life, one that would influence others for good.
"The other churches of the city did away with their regular night services in order that their people might have the privilege of hearing Dr. Walker and their presence at these services added much to their effectiveness. Dr. Walker is not interested in winning souls to the Methodist church or any other church. He wants to win them for Jesus Christ, regardless of what church it might be their choice to line up with.
"The music at all services led by Mr. Boyd, assisted by Mr. Twilley and the splendid choir is a big feature of all services.
"Every morning at 10 o'clock and night at 7:30 this week these great meetings will take place and great crowds are expected every day this week. Come early if you want a good seat.—Committee."

RAIL SECURITIES

BUY ONLY THE LONG HAUL ROADS SAYS BABSON

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Sept. 30.—Since the settlement of the railroad strike many tips have come from Wall Street relative to the purchase of railroad securities. Relative to these recommendations Roger W. Babson today issued the following:
"There is no doubt but that the settlement of the railroad strike is favorable to general business. Owing to the coal situation, such a settlement was absolutely necessary. Moreover, it has been more or less favorable to the railroads. The wage-workers have gone back at the rates determined by the Railroad Labor Board and most of those who went out on strike are sorry that they did it. The seniority question was settled on a 50-50 basis, neither side claiming a victory. This also is well for all concerned because the railroads are now able to restore seniority rights to the good men who deserve them and to withhold them from those who do not. Wall Street is justified in sending out reports that the settlement is favorable to railroad securities.

"The settlement of the strike on the present basis should also prompt both sides to 'count ten' before another strike is precipitated. In other words, the railroad strike was expensive for both the railroads and the wage-workers. The wage-workers today realize that the railroads are stronger and better able to handle a labor situation than has been the case for many years, while the railroads have greater respect for the labor unions than they have had heretofore. All of this means that when another difference arises both sides will be anxious to patch up the difficulty before a strike is called instead of being anxious to precipitate a strike as seems to have been the case two months ago. Therefore, barring the European situation which may adversely affect all securities, I feel fairly optimistic on railroad securities. I say that the European situation may adversely affect all securities because people are liable to rush to sell their European securities and in so doing all securities will be affected, even the European war would ultimately help our industrials and indirectly our railroads.

"Railroad securities, however, must be bought with great discrimination. The time is past when all railroads are good or bad. The next few years will witness as great changes in the railroad fields as the past ten have witnessed in the traction field. Railroads have already felt the effects of pleasure automobiles, but they have not really begun yet to feel the effects of auto trucking. The trucking of goods within radius of 50 or 100 miles has only begun and this radius may readily be extended to cover 200 or 250 miles. Trans-continental systems such as the Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Southern Pacific, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and Atchison have nothing to fear from the trucks. In fact, the trucks may help them. Roads like the New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and the Southern can survive and perhaps profit under this competition. With a road such as the Boston & Maine, New Haven, Pennsylvania, Chicago & North Western, Reading and the like, this is not true. These roads are bound to suffer far more from the truck than they now think possible.

"We shall live to see great highways built by the state exclusively for truck use. Railroads are destined ultimately to lose all of their short haul business and hence the roads which are in comparatively small and compact territories are sure to suffer. The only hope for some roads such as the Boston & Maine and New Haven is to sell certain of their rights of way to the state in order that the trucks may be removed and concrete highways laid in their place. Many roads have parallel lines today under their control. The wise railroad company will develop one of these for itself and will sell the other at a good price to the state for a concrete truck highway. Frankly, I would rather take my chances with concrete securities than with railroad securities bought indiscriminately. Therefore, in taking any tips from Wall Street to buy railway securities use great discrimination to select those which cannot be adversely affected by a great development in trucking or those whose management is far-sighted enough to reduce their mileage to only such as is profitable, selling the rest for trucking highways."

Continued activity in building lines has brought general business to a dex of the Babsonchart now stands at but 5 per cent below normal—an improvement of 2 per cent since last week.

MADE GOOD TIME INDIANA TO ORLANDO

(By The Associated Press)
ORLANDO, Oct. 2.—Theodore Datson, a young man of this city, recently made an automobile trip from Shelbyville, Ind., to Orlando, a distance of more than 1,300 miles, in seventy-two hours. With a companion, Datson started south, and the motor of the car stopped only when the travelers pulled up some where to eat. Datson and his companion alternated in driving the machine moved day and night. The average speed for the journey was slightly less than twenty miles an hour.

STOLE EDITOR'S CAR AND BURNED IT UP AFTER ROBBING IT

LENSACOLA, Oct. 2.—There is weeping and wailing in the editorial sanctum of the Pensacola News, Percy S. Haynes, editor, owns or did own, a touring car. The machine was stolen from before the News office a few nights ago and later was found on the Gulf Point road near Escambia. More theft of the car would not have amounted to much, because of its recovery, but the thieves stripped it of everything removable and set fire to it. It was a total loss.

A GREAT REVIVAL

"Never in the history of our church or any other church, has a people had the privilege of hearing more spiritual and uplifting sermons than have been delivered the past week in our own church.

Great crowds are coming out both morning and night to hear Dr. S. W. Walker, pastor at Sanford, Florida, and we urge you, if you happen to be one who has not taken advantage of this wonderful opportunity to start today attending these services.

The song service led by Mr. Boyd, is a most interesting part of the services, being entered into by all present whole-heartedly.

Dr. Walker is doing the highest type of revival preaching. It is sane and sound. It is the old gospel he is giving us; yet it is up to now in its application to human life.

Dr. S. W. Walker is holding these two weeks meetings at Greenville, Miss., for Rev. E. S. Lewis, pastor of the First Methodist church there.

BIG BEREAN BROTHERHOOD HAD LARGE CLASS SUNDAY MORNING

The Big Berean Brotherhood (formerly the Boethian Class) of the First Baptist Church, was very proud of its attendance last Sunday morning.

The Brotherhood is planning to further increase their attendance by getting out a neat little card to advertise their class, and every Sunday they read the list of absentees, and each member takes one absentee to see during the week.

New officers have just been elected, and the class is planning big things.

SARASOTA MOTORCADE LIKED SANFORD PEOPLE AND ACCOMMODATIONS

The Sarasota Motorcade that passed through Sanford several days ago and the account of which appeared in the Daily Herald at the time was a great success and now that they have arrived back home Mrs. C. V. S. Wilson, the capable editor of the Sarasota Times, has the following to say about the Sanford part of the trip:

"Greatly reduced rates had been given by the hotel to the party and every one was not only made comfortable but the courtesy shown by the management in caring for those who were after midnight in arriving and seeing that each one was called early for the morning trip to DeLand made each one determine that the Seminole Hotel would be headquarters for any future visits to Sanford.

"While there was not much opportunity for seeing Sanford, a number who had been there in past years, noted the many new buildings that had been erected, the old hotel, relic of ante bellum days, had been torn down and two modern hotels erected.

"Sanford is the county seat of Seminole county, which was divided in 1913 from Orange. It is on the shores of Lake Monroe and the head of navigation for the St. Johns river line of steamers to Jacksonville, the most picturesque and romantic river in the state and the most famed of all the river trips, owing to the winding character of the St. Johns and the rich tropical growth that adorns its curves and bends.

The school lunch room will open with the bigging of the Fall term under the same efficient management which handled it so successfully last year. At the request of the School Board the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club has assumed this responsibility, and a section of Mrs. Blackman's Educational Committee is giving much time and thought to the planning and financing of the enterprise.

PAPER MANUFACTURING IN FLORIDA

The beginning of operations by the Grass Fiber Pulp and Paper Corporation at Leesburg is not only a matter of more than local interest but also of more than state interest. Locally the undertaking is one of great importance to the section in which it operates.

The concern is of interest to the state not only in making valuable a hitherto valueless product but also in setting a good example that will be followed if it proves successful.

We have high hopes that this plant will succeed so completely that it will attract attention to the profit of manufacturing in Florida.

The whole country is interested in the success of this undertaking, for the supply of pulp woods in the United States is almost exhausted and the making of paper of grass fiber furnishes to the country a new supply.

The Sanford Daily Herald is published every afternoon (except Sunday) and thoroughly covers this trading section. Advertising rates reasonable and made known on application. $2.00 per year or 15c per week.

The Daily Herald will have an announcement soon that will demonstrate the kind of paper Sanford will have in the near future. We intend to turn them over this winter.

There is not a daily paper in the county published in a city the size of Sanford that handled the ball games any better than the Herald handled them and will handle them in the future. Watch the Herald day by day. You will keep up with the world in all its phases.

The Herald is proud of the city schools and the teachers and all the men and women who are making it possible to have such fine schools here. That new addition to the High School and that splendid building being erected for the primary departments shows what kind of citizens we have here in Sanford. But folks, we hate to tell you this—you will certainly have to hurry up and build that extension to Palmetto avenue or the children will have to use boats to get to the school house.

Congratulations to the Atlantic Coast Line Railway. They are pulling the old piling at the foot of Oak avenue on the lake shore—pulling them or blowing them up with dynamite and helping to make our lake front beautiful. See that they are all blown out if you are blowing them, boys. An old snag of a piling will cause much damage to boats if they are left in the water and hidden from sight. Get them out clean.

The two newspapers at Chipley have consolidated. The article about the consolidations says that the business men of Chipley desired it. In other words the business men of Florida towns and cities are beginning to learn that one good paper is better than two papers that are struggling for an existence and burdening the business men for it is the business men who keep up the newspapers. There have been a dozen or more newspaper consolidations in the state this summer whereby several newspapers have combined to give the communities a good, first class newspaper and one that will receive the undivided support of the business interests.

An editorial in today's Herald from the Largo Sentinel and Jasper News says that the school book trust is busy now and the school books are being foisted upon the public at prices that are absolutely prohibitive and the prices are beyond all reason—in fact there is no good reason for them being this price, and no good reason for having them changed from year to year. We would like to have some of the school authorities explain the situation for the Herald does not think the books should be changed at every whim of a state superintendent or any other school official. The freshmen books last year in the high schools are obsolete this year and the pupils that bought them last year lost all the money paid for them and the books are wasted and there are other examples of this wasting of money in books. We are sending our children to public schools and we are not only paying taxes to keep these schools going but we are buying new books and other supplies each year and it is more or less of a strain upon the parents—and a big strain upon big families. If we are to have public schools let us have public schools in every sense of the word and make the expense of attending the public schools as small as possible. This is something in which we are all interested and we would like to learn something about it right now.

OUR ROAD BUILDING

Our county road building and our city road building should entail a lot of serious thinking and study over the mistakes of the past and with the idea of avoiding them in the future. Road building is not a theory now but a fact and we have enough facts from actual experience in this and other counties to save the taxpayer a lot of money. It is not only the money that is wasted in poor roads but the time it takes to fool away the people's money on poor roads while they could just as well be making good roads. We know from actual experience that if the bond money is enough to build brick roads that brick roads should be built. Brick of the right sort, laid on the right kind of foundation on a well drained road and with cement or asphalt grouting makes the best road that can be built in this part of the state. There are other parts of Florida that can make cheaper roads with other materials because they have road materials close at hand. Here we have to ship most of the materials from other localities even to the rock fillers and the right kind of clay. We note on several places in the county that the cement grouted brick roads are going to pieces. It is in the low spots usually where the engineers did not get the proper drainage when they were building the roads. Heavy rains have washed out the foundation and the roads have sunk which is the most natural thing in the world and yet the engineers evidently did not see this when they laid out the roads. We believe that the first thing and the most essential thing in road building is to get the proper drainage before the road is started. Drainage, the right sort of foundation, a good curbing if the road is to be of brick or if it is asphalt. No road material will stay where it is put unless it has a good curbing. We have had our lessons in the past in this respect but whether we have profited by these lessons remains to be seen. Good common sense in road building is necessary just as it is in other lines or endeavor. Seminole county is not alone in this experimenting in roads for all counties are very much alike.

ARE SCHOOL BOOKS TO HIGH IN PRICE

Attention is called to a charge being made by some residents of the state of Florida that the price of school books is higher than is justified. Whether this is true or not, the people are entitled to know something about the matter so that it can be looked into. If the people are being charged more in Florida for school books than they are charged for the same books in other states then something is radically wrong and the people should demand an investigation. If it is not true that higher prices are charged here than elsewhere, then this fact should be established and an ugly insinuation laid to rest.

It is charged that North Carolina pays 40 cents for a Civil Government, while Florida pays $1.40 for the same book; that a geography which Ohio pays 54 cents for, Florida has been paying 88 cents for until the text book commission recently raised the price to $1. Many people are asking why there is this difference in price, and whose pocket the difference goes into. The Jasper News makes the bold statement, "The text book commission allows the people to be robbed with the grafting of prices now being paid for school books." It further adds, "How much of this graft is going into the pockets of our state officials?"

While the Sentinel is not in a position at this time to give definite facts and figures, it is giving the charges as made and it believes that the matter should be taken up by the people and if any unfairness is being practiced or the state of Florida being charged more for text books than other states are charged, those responsible should be compelled to correct this condition. Our people are as much entitled to education as the people of any other section of the country and they should not be required to pay more to get it. Furthermore, those from other sections of the country who might come here will be very quick to note any overcharge in the matter of school books and it can reflect only to the discredit of the state.

The text book commission is coming in for a good deal of criticism owing to the charges of high prices on school books, and either the truth or falsity of the charge should be established without delay. What are the people of Largo and of Pinellas county going to do about it? What action will be the press of the state take? These are questions worthy of consideration.—Largo Sentinel.

FLORIDA'S BEST INVESTMENT.

No man succeeds who has not faith in himself. Self confidence or faith in oneself is the chief asset in character and the surest assurance of success. As with the individual so with the state.

A state may be over so rich in resources, its potential wealth may be the richest to the measure of the square mile of any state in the world and yet if the people who live there have little faith in it the rest of the world will have little faith and be shy of it. Florida wants two million more Ponce de Leons, two million more discoverers of this wonderful land of flowers, this garden spot of the continent. People go where they find other people prosperous. Florida is usually described and too often thought of as the winter playground of America. It is all that, but it is not merely that; we want it to be the great winter playground of America. It is being discovered as an equally good summer playground. Florida wants to be more than a playground because it is the work-ground that always takes first place in the minds of men as a commonwealth of importance.

It is good that Florida is a great hotel land. But we want to be also the great home land. It is for us to tell the whole world that this is the land that Ponce de Leon sought, the land that every Ponce de Leon is seeking. It is the land of homes and happiness, of prosperity and peace; it is the land where work is easy; where work itself is play, where this work-play is the builder of prosperity.

The virtues of a state may be advertised as well as the virtues of a soap. The great economic truth which the twentieth century science of commerce has established is "IT pays to advertise."

California has found it pays. California advertises more than any other state, more than any commodity the world has ever produced. That advertising has built more hotels and through those hotels has diverted hundreds of thousands of tourists into permanently invested citizens. That advertising has built homes, planted orchards, harrowed fields, standardized products, created trade and burst the bank vaults with bounty.

Florida is nearer the great markets than is California. Florida has a better year-round climate than California. Florida can, just so soon as she will to do so, do infinitely greater things than California—great state as she is—has ever done. Florida has every advantage. Nothing in Florida's history is of greater significance to her future growth or ever promised more for splendid bank deposit showings than the "advertiso-Florida conference" to be held in Orlando.

This meeting called for November 9th by a group of prominent business men of the state contemplates the launching of a state-wide co-operative campaign to advertise Florida. The men whose names are attached to the call which the Florida Development Board puts out are: Telfair Stockton, Jacksonville; Ernest L. Hill, Jacksonville, president Florida Realtors' Association; Willis M. Ball, editor of the Florida Times-Union; J. E. Ingraham, St. Augustine, vice-president of the Florida East Coast Railway; Frank B. Stoneman, editor Miami Herald; D. C. Gillett, Tampa; W. F. Stovall, publisher Tampa Tribune, and Richard Lloyd Jones, editor and vice-president of the Pensacola Journal.

Every individual, every financial institution, every bank and every corporation that can in any way profit through the promotion and development of Florida industry and enterprise and the multiplication of population should get behind an advertise-Florida campaign not with modest but with mammoth contributions. Florida should invest not less than five million dollars in this advertising campaign. It is the best investment that business in the state can make. It is the investment that will bring the greatest dividends.—Jacksonville Journal.

Seminole county is fortunate in having a county agent again and is also fortunate in having Benjamin Whitner as agent. He is a Sanford boy, a product of the Sanford High School, of the University of Florida and of experience in Sanford farming and fruit growing. He is a young man of fine moral and intellectual attainments and he should make good in his profession. The Herald always takes great pride in the Sanford boys making good and the new county agent is another instance of our boys coming into their own. The Herald has always been in favor of an agent in this county where there is so much in the fruit and vegetable and stock raising lines and we congratulate the county commissioners, the county at large and the new county agent in this great work of getting together for the things needful.

Letters Of A Florida Citrus Grower To His Nephew VIII. From Jonas Arland at Hammock Groves, Florida, to Samuel Newcomer, Bentonville, Mich. Dear Sam: Old Miss Brown has her nephew here for a visit. Yesterday she confided that she didn't now whether Willie was corrupting her parrot or the parrot was corrupting Willie; but there were evident fallings from Grace on the part of both, and she either was going to have to send Willie home or send the parrot away for the rest of Willie's stay. This along with my receipt of your letter to the effect you had been pretty strongly sold on the idea of turning your fruit over to a national marketing organization to be sold under their Pink Parrot brand is rather a coincidence. It is evident that the Pink Parrot folks have been trying to corrupt you, but I sincerely hope they have not gone very far with it. I am not inclined to underestimate them; but I would point out that they have a great many irons in the fire, so that their organization is not so large in proportion to their undertakings as one might at first think. If you decide to turn your fruit over to them, you can only help in building up prestige for the Pink Parrot brand, which belongs solely to them. If, on the contrary, you take my advice and join the Florida Citrus Exchange, you at once become part owner in the Sealdsweet trademark, which distinguishes our fruit, and no one can take the ownership away from you. The more we build up the prestige of the Sealdsweet trademark with the fruit trade, and with consumers through our national advertising, the more we are building for ourselves. Already we have done a great deal by establishing a reputation for the Sealdsweet trademark. That is best shown by figures of the auction markets where all sales are a matter of definite record. They show conclusively that in recent years we have obtained higher averages for fruit of each grade than have been obtained for all other Florida citrus fruit sold in competition with Sealdsweet. There is no doubt this same condition holds good in outside private sales markets, but we have made no claims in connection with these because sales in those markets are not a matter of definite record. They might be disputed; but no one has yet challenged the accuracy of the figures compiled from the auction markets. I believe Sealdsweet must be a better trademark with a better reputation than any other in use in Florida, also why these better prices paid for Sealdsweet? Again, the Florida Citrus Exchange is an institution of Florida growers by Florida growers, and for Florida growers. It is inseparable from Florida. Its operations benefit purely Florida growers and owners of property in Florida. The Pink Parrot folks are spread out over the country. They cannot make any special effort in behalf of Florida for that reason. If they wished, they could withdraw entirely from Florida and still not affect their total operations very much. These things are aside from the fact that the Pink Parrot organization is a commercial one operating for profit, which must be obtained somewhere between the growers and the markets. The Florida Citrus Exchange being a co-operative organization, owned by the growers whose fruit it handles, makes no profit between the growers and the markets, but returns to the producers every cent which their fruit brings, less only its very economical cost of operating. If the Florida Citrus Exchange were a small organization, it might be claimed by some that greater volume gave them a chance to obtain greater economy. However, that is not the case. The great volume which the Florida Citrus Exchange now handles enables it to make sales at very lowest cost. In fact, I believe it is generally conceded that the Exchange's selling cost is the lowest of any organization handling Florida fruits. There is nothing particularly spectacular about the Florida Citrus Exchange or its operations. It is a business organization of Florida growers. It doesn't depend for effectiveness upon any particular star, or stars. On the contrary, it is so arranged that any man, or several men, may drop out of the active handling of its affairs and the business go forward without hesitation and with unceasing effectiveness. I suggest you consider all these things carefully before you sign a Pink Parrot contract, remembering that a man's handwriting is never so bad if it cannot be read correctly after he has signed somewhere on the dotted line. Also, that from the standpoint of being able to let go when ready, it is often better to take a bull by the tail rather than by the horns. It may be well to remember that I have not gotten all my information at the Florida end of the line. I have made numbers of trips around the markets, both before I joined the Florida Citrus Exchange and since. I have the privilege of knowing some sizable fruit jobbers rather intimately. I know that the fruit trade in general is disposed to give preference to the Florida Citrus Exchange. The tendency in these days is all toward reducing the number of handlings and the number of profits on foodstuffs. Jobbers prefer to deal with the Florida Citrus Exchange because it means getting their fruit direct from the producers with no profit in between. They give the same preference to other growers' co-operative marketing organizations which have made good, and have established reputations for dependable pack and square deal. The Exchange certainly has an excellent reputation in this respect. In fact, if it were a commercial organization and did its bookkeeping in a commercial way, it would be justified in carrying this good will on its books at a good many hundred thousand dollars. While on the basis which many commercial concerns value their trademarks, Sealdsweet must be worth at least a million dollars to the Exchange growers who own it. For nearly ten years now we have been advertising Sealdsweet. Hundreds of thousands of Northern housewives have learned to value Sealdsweet oranges and grapefruit for their own sakes. They demand them from their grocers and fruit dealers, who, in turn, demand Sealdsweet from the jobbers. This definite, created demand, plus the reputation of Sealdsweet with the fruit trade is what accounts for our being able to obtain higher prices on the average for Sealdsweet than others are getting for citrus fruits under other names. I have had it figured out for me, and I am sure correctly, that during these ten years our advertising has in no way been an expense. That is, during this period we have on the average received sufficiently more for our fruit not only to pay the immediate cost of advertising, but to show us a profit as well. In addition, we have had all the advantages of stimulating demand through the increased consumption which the advertising brought. It should be remembered it is the advertising of the Florida Citrus Exchange, and that alone, which has kept the consumption of our oranges and grapefruit so stimulated that it has more than kept pace with the tremendous increase we have had in production. Right here, let me point out one big advantage we have over some other folks. A man or a woman has confidence in any brand or trademark just in proportion to the satisfactory experience with the products sold under it. There is always the possibility of someone losing confidence in Pink Parrot oranges because of some unsatisfactory experience with a Pink Parrot cantaloupe. Sealdsweet is ours. It belongs to us. Best of all, it is wholly under our own control right here in Florida; and is used only in connection with citrus fruits. The Florida Citrus Exchange has had any number of proposals put up to it from time to time from people who wanted to use Sealdsweet on jellies, marmalades or what not. They have appreciated the tremendous selling value of this well known trademark. However, the management and tangerines. I believe that policy has paid substantial dividends up to now, and will continue to pay in the future. George Hopper says that money has been important to the human family ever since the dove went out and brought the green back to Noah. I am not mental reasons; but I believe that others should consider membership in the organization on the same basis that I do my own, which is because I believe it obtains for me in the long run more money for my fruit than I could get in any other way. With best love to Etta, the youngsters and yourself, I am, as ever, Your Uncle, JONAS. This letter constitutes the fifth installment of a series. Additional ones will be published in early issues. # CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL HAVE NEW HOME IN THE NEAR FUTURE

Increasing attendance at each meeting of the Chamber of Commerce guarantees a larger number of workers from the membership of those who have been leaders in movements for the greater development of Sanford. Friday's meeting was attended by more than had attended any of the previous meetings. In addition there were five out of a majority of the chairmen of the various standing committees appear before the county commissioners at the next meeting endorsing the program and request that that body contribute $150 in order to complete Seminole county's quota.

The question of securing new headquarters for the Chamber of Commerce was again brought up. Ed. Higgins, who had previously been appointed chairman of the Special Committee to investigate suitable location for the office of the Chamber of Commerce, advised that one of the stores in the Meriwether building could be rented and recommended that this proposition be acted upon favorably. It was unanimously agreed that larger quarters were necessary for the Chamber of Commerce and accordingly it was voted to rent this location.

Lewis O'Bryan, partner of Judge Sharon, of the law firm of O'Bryan & Sharon, one of the invited guests at the meeting, was called upon by President Connelly for an address. Mr. O'Bryan spoke very flatteringly of Sanford, its wonderful possibilities and favorable mention given it whenever Florida is spoken of. Mr. O'Bryan stated that his purpose in locating in Sanford was a selfish one and he was anxious to participate in the benefits all individuals would derive from the great development which was assured here. He stated he was willing to give value received and would expect nothing more from the city than what he put into it. Mr. O'Bryan impressed those present as being a live wire and an individual who could be counted upon to assist in any movement that has for its object the making of a greater Sanford.

Resolutions were read from the Orlando Chamber of Commerce opposing the Reapportionment measure to be voted on at the next general election. Mr. Lake, as representative of Seminole county, was called on for an expression on this amendment and in his opinion the measure was a step forward and that if not accepted it would necessitate a further delay in the reapportionment of the state. It was agreed to discuss this matter further at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, at which time an effort will be made to get out the entire membership.

A letter was read from Wm. T. Donnelly, one of Sanford's greatest boosters and designer of the proposed yacht basin. Mr. Donnelly is now working out a system of river transportation which, when completed, will be submitted to the Chamber of Commerce for further action. Mr. Donnelly has had published in the Natural History Magazine, published by the American Museum of Natural History an article entitled "An Optical Phenomenon on a Florida Lake" which was prompted by the rainbows which form on Lake Monroe at sunrise, and which he had observed from his yachts during his recent visit. The article is very interesting and appears under a diagram drawn by Mr. Donnelly of the phenomenon, and the publication of this article will, without question, give a great deal of publicity to Sanford. This publication has a wide distribution.

The proposed rate increase requested by the Fourth Section Committee of Southern Carriers, and on which several hearings have been held before the Interstate Commerce Commission was discussed at some length. The secretary was instructed to secure proceedings of the last meeting held in Washington and refer them to the Traffic and Transportation Committee.

(By The Associated Press)
MASON CITY, Iowa, Oct. 2.—Lack of assurance that they be able to live in reasonable comfort after their days of service were over, was held by Rev. J. H. # BRUISED FEELINGS.

Dr. Brownlee, of the Presbyterian Church, preached on the subject of "bruises" in his sermon yesterday morning and he opened up a line of thought hitherto left closed by all except the newspapers. We have often called attention to the fact that people make themselves miserable by supposing things about the newspapers, about their friends and especially about their so-called enemies. Dr. Brownlee said so many people made themselves miserable by the fanciful slights that are enlarged upon and made from mole hills into mountains. That what are supposed to be slights are nothing more than instances of forgetfulness on the part of people who are not trying to injure anyone but who happen to forget them here and there. People can worry over some fancied slight until they become fanatical over the subject. They can have bruised feelings over all sorts of conditions and they can make themselves miserable over nothing for the rest of their lives. There should be none of these fancied wrongs in the world. Come clean with everyone and cease to make capital out of everything that tends to hurt your feelings. Anyone can have bruised feelings if they wear them out in the open ready to be bruised and on the other hand the free spoken person can save a lot of sensitive people much sorrow by curbing their sharp tongues. There is work to do along this line, Dr. Brownlee is right.

JUDGE DAVIS WAS A VISITOR AT WHITE HOUSE

WEST PALM BEACH MAN CANDI-DATE FOR JUDGE-

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Judge E. C. Davis, of West Palm Beach, who has been recommended for appointment as judge of the recently created Southern Florida district, was presented to President Harding at the White House today by Representative Wood, of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee.

The plans of the Herald in having a publicity tax that will take care of all the necessities of city and county are being followed in other counties with good results. And when a real publicity tax is levied by county and city those who have never contributed a cent for boosting Sanford will then be obliged to do their part of the advertising. It is the only fair and equitable way. Most of us have spent our money and time making people rich here in Sanford and they have never turned their hand over to help the town or themselves. You know it.

The production of motion pictures will begin in Orlando Monday says the Reporter Star. And we want to say there is no place in the whole country where any better scenes can be found than in Orange, Seminole and adjoining counties. We believe that this will in time become as great an industry in Florida as in California. Paul Gilmore said it would many years ago and we believe his dreams will some true.

Orlando has put the one hour parking act into effect again for the winter season. Remember this when you park in Orlando.

St. Augustine is said to be the oldest city in the United States and the people admit it. Man over there the other day was arrested for a murder he had committed forty-four years ago. This was probably in plenty of time according to the oldest city in the United States. However, they might have waited until the man was older.
