Dog Gone! That's The Way It Should Be For Mailman

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Oh see the dog. His name is Spot. He likes to bite. He likes to bite the postman. The postman does not like Spot. Now Spot is crying. The postman is laughing. Poor Spot.

The Post Office Department is going to spend about $90,000 to equip its letter carriers with a stinging spray repellent designed to discourage Spot and others of his belligerent breed.

The capsules, designed to be worn on the belt so that postmen can be quick on the draw, carry three-quarters of an ounce of a liquid made up of pepper extract and mineral oil.

They will be supplied to letter carriers in 6,000 cities throughout the nation by this summer, when the dog-bite season is at its peak.

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski said that the capsules will allow the beleaguered postman to squirt a "vigorous, thin jet stream" of the repellent into the face of the charging pooch.

If all goes well the attacker is supposed to tuck his tail between his legs and take off.

The postmaster general said that tests of the aerosol cartridges in four large cities had proved them 84 per cent effective.

He added that failures were usually the fault of postmen who were either not quick enough to get their weapons into action or who missed their targets completely.

Free Methodist To Show Film

"Beyond These Walls," a 20-minute, documentary sound color picture of the radio ministry of the Light and Life Hour and its speaker, Dr. Myron F. Boyd, will be shown Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Free Methodist Church, corner of Fourth Street and Laurel Avenue.

Tracing the development of the importance of Gospel radio, the film also follows the growth and outreach of the LIGHT AND LIFE HOUR broadcast as it has matured from a limited North American coverage to a worldwide ministry.

On-the-spot scenes, photographed by Dr. Boyd, show the needs in Spain, France and Iberia. The public is invited to attend.

KING AND QUEEN, Ronald Gallo and Charlotte Sanders, were crowned in ceremonies last Friday night at the annual Sweetheart Banquet of the First Baptist Church of Longwood.

Seminole Facing Great Boom Era, Says Krider

By Harry Johnson
Seminole County and Central Florida are facing the greatest boom in history.

"And," John Krider said at the Capri Restaurant meeting of the Sanford Lions Club Tuesday, "it will make the 1950s look like a normal weekend of business."

HENRY MUSE

Muse Enters 4th District Constable Race

His candidacy for constable of District 4 was announced today by Henry Luther Muse, 30, of West First Street.

Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, pointed to the Sanford-Titusville canal project as the biggest spur to the economic growth of the area.

"It's coming," he said, "I'm sure of it. In fact engineering surveys are now being conducted along the East Coast to U. S. Route 1."

The Chamber official predicted actual construction work would start in the near future and that it will be in operation in a few short years.

"Waterway traffic is increasing," Krider said, "and we are sitting in the middle of it."

He noted that only 11 miles separate Lake Monroe from the East Coast system; 30 miles to the Atlantic Ocean and its lucrative cargo transportation.

"Seminole County, since 1960, has been growing at a faster pace than the 10 biggest counties in the state," Krider declared, adding: "It is also the seventh in population density."

"The county in the late 50s 'overbuilt' with the total listed at $30 million, the speaker said. He said last year the total was about $12 million and it is now creeping up again."

The purchasing power in the county last year was set at $90 million with $10 million of that staying inside the county.

"Migration to suburban stores has been going on for the past 30 years," he said, "and we don't know how it can be stopped."

The area once was dependent upon agriculture and citrus but now, even though these are important, Krider said, "we now have diversified industry with 41 plants located in the county."

In his topic of "The Outlook for Seminole County," the speaker noted the worth of any organization is in its ability to "get things done."

"Should your Chamber of Commerce fail to do that," he added, "it should cease to exist." The same holds true for all other organizations, he said.

"Opinions are good," he declared, "but when we organize to oppose, that is a different thing."

He called for co-operation as the keynote to the continued success of the county.

"Seminole County cannot go it alone," Krider asserted. "Its borders are imaginary. We must work together."

In recalling past projects of the Chamber and other groups he noted one failure and one partial failure.

The failure was listed as the metropolitan telephone system. "We haven't accumulated enough support so we stand to lose it."

The partial failure was in not locating the state university within the county's confines. He added, however, that its location is conducive to area future students who can commute to the school.

"Had it been located in the eastern part of Orange County, or on the East Coast," he noted, "its value to our area would have been greatly reduced."

The success project and one which he said is "always at the bottom of any work undertaken in the county" was

VERNON MIZE

County Judge Won't Run For Re-Election

Decision not to seek re-election as County Judge was announced today by C. Vernon Mize Jr. His announcement follows:

"After thoughtful consideration, I have decided not to seek re-election to the office of County Judge. It is my desire to return to the practice of law at the end of this term in January, 1965."

"Serving as County Judge of Seminole County has been a rewarding experience. I have had the opportunity to become acquainted with many citizens throughout the county."

"The problems which I dealt with as County Judge and as Judge of the Juvenile Court were made easier by reason of an extremely competent staff in each office. I was very fortunate to have the excellent co-operation of the attorneys, law enforcement agencies, welfare, school and county officials."

"It has been my purpose to operate the County Judge's office in an orderly, efficient and courteous manner, keeping in mind that this office belongs to the people."

Judge Mize was appointed to the County Judge bench April 1960 to fill the unexpired term of the late Wilson Alexander. He ran unopposed for the 1961-65 term.

He is president of the Seminole County Family Counseling Service, secretary of the Seminole County Bar Association, director of Sanford Kiwanis Club, member of the official board and trustee of Grace Methodist Church, advisor to the board of directors of Seminole County Juvenile Council and was presented with the Distinguished Service Award for 1961 by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, of which he is a past director and past secretary.

FEC Controversy Back On Tracks

DAYTONA BEACH (UPI)—It's back to the courts, the picket lines and "riding shotgun" today for the three parties tangled in the bitter Florida East Coast Railway strike.

Labor secretary W. Willard Wirtz' personal attempt to get disputants in the 13-month-old strike back to the negotiating table broke down completely Tuesday.

Wirtz' envoy, assistant labor secretary James J. Reynolds, called the attempt an exercise in "complete futility."

He returned to Miami Beach to tackle other labor troubles, saying he would recommend again that the FEC be denied its fat contract to haul materials into the $213 million moon rocket launching site under construction at Cape Kennedy.

Reynolds attempted to sit down together with Ed Hall, FEC board chairman, and George Leighty, chief negotiating officer of the 11 non-operating unions that struck the railroad Jan. 23, 1963, in a dispute over wages.

Warehouse Fire Quickly Brought Under Control

City foremen, hampered by dense smoke, this morning made quick work of halting a blaze in a warehouse at Fifth Street and French Avenue, just south of the Jaycee Tourist Information Center.

Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr. said the building was engulfed in flames and smoke when his men were alerted and he could not immediately tell where the blaze started.

The alarm, sounded shortly before 9:30, sent two pieces of apparatus to the scene. Chief Cleveland said the blaze was started by a leaking heating stove in an office.

Firemen donned smoke masks to battle the blaze which broke out anew as the winds shifted. Within 20 minutes the firefighters were able to tour the inside of the structure to knock down small pockets of fire.

An old sedan parked to the west of the warehouse also caught fire and the men knocked out a windshield to get to the blaze.

The building contained a variety of items and was occupied by Sheet Metal Specialties and the owner, Drummond Roofing.

No estimate was made of the damage.

Rep. Herlong To Seek Re-Election

Congressman A. Sydney Herlong Jr. today announced he will seek re-election for a ninth term as a member of the U. S. House of Representatives as he filed qualifying papers with the office of Secretary of State.

Herlong is a high ranking member of the House ways and means committee and the only Florida Congressman ever to serve with this powerful group.

The prosecution asked the court to dismiss him "for cause."

Chief defense attorney Melvin Bell of San Francisco objected. He said he knew Texas law permitted such dismissals, but he wanted his objection in the record.

The judge obliged by having it put into the record and also obliged the prosecution by dismissing Richardson for cause.

"I could not send a man to his death," Jones said. He was dismissed for cause on a motion by the prosecution.

State Rejects 2 Ruby Veniremen

DALLAS (UPI)—Over the objections of the defense, the state quickly won dismissal of two prospective jurors at the Jack Ruby trial today because they opposed the death penalty.

J. T. Richardson, 36, a milk company purchasing agent, was called as the fifth venireman in the jury selection that started Tuesday. Richardson said he was opposed to capital punishment.

The prosecution asked the court to dismiss him "for cause."

Chief defense attorney Melvin Bell of San Francisco objected. He said he knew Texas law permitted such dismissals, but he wanted his objection in the record.

The judge obliged by having it put into the record and also obliged the prosecution by dismissing Richardson for cause.

Sanford Lodge 1851, Loyal Order of Moose, was host Saturday night at a Valentine's Dance for more than 100 members of the lodge and of Sanford Chapter 1404, Women of the Moose, and their combined guests.

Rooms in the hall were decorated throughout in the Valentine's theme and each lady attending was presented with a corsage while the men were pinned with gay heart lapel badges.

Doorprizes of a silver plated ice bucket, dinner for two, a corsage and a novelty vase, all donated by area merchants, were won by J. E. Sloan, Fred Tirrell Jr., Bob Norwood and Frank Melder. Tirrell, upon receiving his prize, presented a spontaneous collection of magic tricks bringing back many memories of his magician father, the late Fred Tirrell Sr., who for two winters was an active member of the Sanford Moose and presented many benefit shows in the area, on behalf of the lodge.

The grand project prize of $100 cash was won by Bill Evans.

Labor Leaders Favor Young Over Glenn

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — AFL-CIO leaders said today they favored Sen. Stephen Young of Ohio in his coming Democratic primary duel with astronaut John H. Glenn.

"The choice is simple," said James H. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers IUE. "Young's a helluva good senator and Glenn's a helluva good astronaut."

Union officials said the 74-year-old Young deserved organized labor's support in his re-election bid because of his liberal voting record in the Senate since his surprise election in 1958.

In contrast, the AFL-CIO leaders said, the political views of the globe-girdling Glenn are somewhat of a mystery. They concede he has wide popular appeal.

The victor in the May primary probably will face U.S. Rep. Robert A. Taft, a leading contender for the republican nomination for U.S. senator in the Buckeye State. Taft's father was a co-author of the labor-denounced Taft-Hartley law when he served in the U. S. Senate in 1947.

The White House and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy were reported to have encouraged Glenn to run for the Senate from Ohio because they admire him personally and believe he would help the Democratic ticket in November.

It's Officially Bud Wilkinson

NORMA, Okla. (UPI) — Charles N. Burman Wilkinson had his name legally changed Tuesday to just plain Bud. Most folks already called him Bud Wilkinson, the name he used while becoming the nation's most successful college football coach at the University of Oklahoma. Bud's aim now is to get voters to mark an "X" behind his name.

Wilkinson, who quit coaching and announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the U. S. Senate, was expected to file formally next week. His tenure as Sooner athletic director ends Saturday. The coach also resigned from the position of special consultant to President Johnson on the national physical fitness program.

The final step, before formally entering politics, was to change the famous nickname into a legal name that can appear on the ballot.

Youths Put Hearts In Drive

There are many youngsters in the community who are putting their hearts into the Heart Fund this year, truly living the slogan, "give, so more will live."

Hard at work are seven contestants, campaigning for their "peony votes" and the cast of the skating show, "Showboat," which will be presented prior to the coronation of the Heart Fund Queen at Melodee Skating Rink March 1.

Ingeniously, of course, help earn more for their accounts and Saturday night, Melanie Williams will style hair of her friends, both boys and girls, at the skating party if they donate their "votes" to her account.

Gail Coleman's sponsor, Future Homemakers Club, has been baking cookies, brownies, and other goodies for her cause and selling them to students at the close of the school day.

Darlene Roberts has added to her fund by sponsoring roller skating parties Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Azores Shaken By Strong Earth Tremors

LAJES AFB, Azores (UPI) — Strong earth tremors shook these mid-Atlantic islands today, continuing a series of shocks that demolished nearly 2,000 houses and set off an international rescue operation for 15,000 islanders.

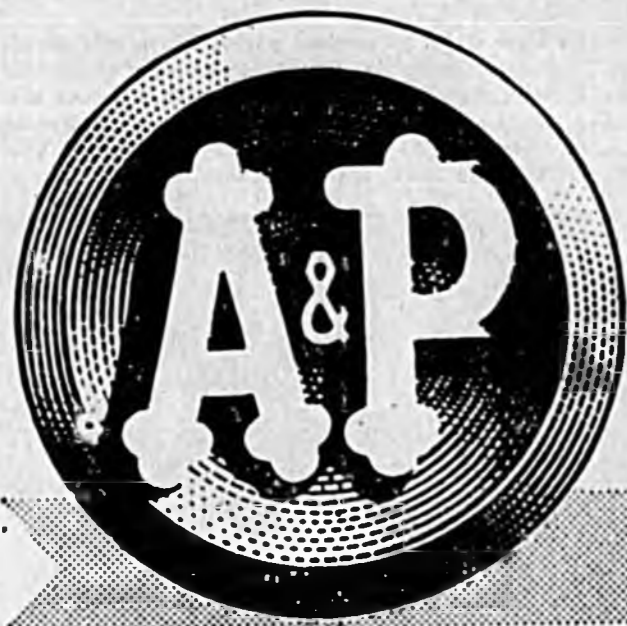

The tremors were felt shortly after midnight at this huge U.S. Air Force Base, a refueling stop for transatlantic flights about 1,200 miles southeast of Newfoundland and 800 miles west of Portugal, which owns the Azores.

No Americans were reported injured or made homeless by the quakes, which began four days ago and concentrated their force on neighboring Sao Jorge Island.

Communications with the pencil-shaped volcanic island were cut off, but officials in Lisbon said as many as 15,000 of its 20,000 inhabitants would have to be taken to safety.

Although there were no immediate reports of casualties among the islanders all but 3 of the 2,000 houses in the island's largest town, Vila das Velas, were demolished by the tremors.

George Gershwin was 26 when he completed the piano score of his "Rhapsody in Blue."

Lyman Girls Take Over

By Jane Casselberry
Never underestimate the power of a woman... especially during leap year.

Girls at Lyman High School will challenge the boys to a basketball game Saturday at 7 p. m. in the school gymnasium. Boys will be handicapped by having to wear boxing gloves.

The girls will assume a normally male prerogative by inviting the boys to a Sadie Hawkins Dance which will start after the game and continue until midnight.

Although costumes are optional, everyone is encouraged to come dressed "Dogpatch" style and there will be a prize for the couple in the most original costumes.

Both events are being sponsored by the student council.

The S. S. Oriana, largest passenger vessel ever to visit a Florida port, will dock at Port Everglades, Fort Lauderdale, Aug. 20. The ship is as tall as a 16-story building.

Russia Revising Divorce Laws

MOSCOW (UPI) - Soviet legislators today worked on a liberal new family law that will remove Stalin-era restrictions on divorce and guarantee equal rights for illegitimate children.

Franzer Nikita S. Khrushchev has no intention of returning to the early Communist laws that permitted divorce by postcard or to the view expressed by a woman Communist leader shortly after the revolution that sexual appetites should be satisfied as simply as the need for a glass of water.

What his government does plan is to cut away the red tape encumbering divorce suits here and to provide more protection for children born out of wedlock.

The plans were disclosed Sunday by O. P. Kolchins, one of the vice chairmen of the legislative committee of the Supreme Soviet or parliament. He said the 1944 family law would be repealed at "the insistence of many workers" and more liberal provisions drawn up to replace it.

Under the present law, petitioners for divorce must publish a notice in the press, which often takes more than a month to start with because of limited space. Grounds for divorce have never been specified by law and judges' discretion is wide. Court fees are virtually punitive—often $220 for each party.

The new law will eliminate the publication, the fee, and much of the courtroom delays.

Rocky's Zest (Gold) watered Down Slightly
AMHERST, Mass. (UPI)—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller came off second best in an exchange of letters with Carl A. Keyser, chairman of the Amherst Town Committee.

Keyser disclosed Thursday that he received a telegram from Rockefeller saying: "Happy and I want you to know that Asst. Atty. Gen. Don Whitehead and Rep. Bob Hahn, both of Stoughton, have agreed to head my Massachusetts campaign. We would deeply appreciate any advice and assistance you can give Don and Bob."

Keyser replied: "To Nelson A. Rockefeller: 'Dottie and I want Happy and you to know that we are already committed to Peggy and Barry. Please advise Don and Bob.'"

Out For Season
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Four-minute miler Jim Bestly, who ran a disappointing 4:13.4 mile in Saturday's Golden Gate Invitational meet here, notified National AAU officials Monday that he will not compete again during the indoor track season.

Children Tell About Smoking

HOUSTON (UPI) — "Anyone can quit smoking, but it takes a brave man to face cancer."
 This is the attitude of one of 2,000 youngsters of junior high school age who have tried smoking at least once as revealed in a survey by the Spring Independent School District.
 Of the 4,000 students interviewed, about 50 per cent had smoked.
 While only about 1 per cent of the sixth graders have smoked as many as five cigarettes, 20 per cent of the seventh and eighth graders smoked more than five and 5 per cent smoke regularly.
 More boys than girls sneaked a cigarette now and then. If the parents smoked, the youngsters were more inclined to try it.
 In addition to filling out questionnaires on their smoking habits, the students were asked to give their reasons for smoking or not smoking.
 Here are some of the reasons in their own spelling for not smoking.
 "I'm not dum."
 "Makes me through up."
 "Because they give me bad breath and anybody can tell."
 "I am elergect to tobacco."
 "Gives you cancer."
 Reasons for smoking:
 "Had one and got the habit."
 "Because I feel big."
 "I am nervos therefore I do do it. I started when I was young."

Income Tax Primer Tax Therapy For Medical Costs

By Charles W. Schoeneman
 Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
 (Third of 10 Articles)
 Sixty-five is an important age for income tax payers, for that is the dividing line for some very different rules on allowable medical care deductions.
 Naturally, you must itemize all deductions on Page 2 of your return if you are to gain the benefits of the medical ones.
 If neither you nor your wife were 65 before the end of 1963, you may deduct:
 Medical care expenses (including health insurance premiums) of yourself, wife (or husband) and other dependents to the extent these expenses exceeded three per cent of your adjusted gross income.
 All medical expenses of any father, mother, father-in-law or mother-in-law who was 65 or over before the end of 1963 and qualified as your dependent.
 If either you or your wife (or husband) were 65 or over during 1963, then you deduct all medical care expenses for both of you without subtracting three per cent of your adjusted gross income.
 There is, however, a yearly limit on the total amount you can deduct. Roughly speaking, this is $5,000 multiplied by the number of exemptions you claim—excluding the additional exemptions for old age or blindness.
 Persons under 65 are further limited: for example, if you file a joint return you are limited to $20,000 in deductions for medical care.
 What is meant by the expenses of medical care? The law says it means amounts paid for the "diagnosis, care, mitigation, treatment or prevention of disease, or for the purpose of affecting any structure or function of the body." It also means any amounts paid for accident or health insurance and for any transportation primarily for and essential to medical care. To the extent health insurance compensates for loss of earnings, premiums are not deductible.
 Not every expenditure prescribed by a physician is deductible. Not every expense for physical comfort is deductible. Personal, living and family expenses are not deductible. As the Tax Court said in one case:
 "It is not at all unusual for doctors to recommend to a patient a course of personal conduct and personal activity which, if pursued, will result in health benefits to the patient, but the expenses therefore are generally to be considered ordinary personal expenses."
 However, if an individual is in a home for the aged because he or she requires medical or nursing care, and the availability of such care is the principal reason for being there, then the entire cost of meals, lodging and medical care would be in the category of deductible medical care.
 Medicine and drugs generally qualify as deductible medical expenses, but you can only deduct them to the extent the amounts spent for them exceed one per cent of your adjusted gross income.
 (NEXT: Savings on child care expenses.)

Oviedo, Lyman Win; Seminoles Lose Tribe Opens Track Work

Courier Leads Lions In 15th Win Of Season

The Oviedo High Lions, led by Jim Courier and his 21 points, racked up their 15th win of the season Tuesday night—a 79 to 40 decision over the Mt. Dora Bible School Bulldogs.

In 20 contests this season the Lions have lost only five. The Oviedo quintet jumped into a lead about midway in the first quarter and from there they were never headed. In the first period the Lions grabbed 17 points while the Bulldogs fought for 10. In the second stanza, Oviedo added 13 points while the Bulldogs posted 15 and the Lions led at intermission 23 to 25.

The Lions tightened up their defense in the third quarter, holding the Bible school five to only a half dozen points. Meanwhile, Oviedo ran wild, piling up 30 points to enter the final frame leading 65 to 51.

The Bulldogs racked up nine points in the final chapter while Oviedo added 14 more.

Oviedo's 6-foot-4 center Beth Rook, played the final five minutes of the tilt and picked up five rebounds and a pair of points. The Lions grabbed a total of 23 rebounds and tallied on nearly 40 percent of their shots. However, after a poor shooting percentage in the first half they bounced back and nailed about 70 percent of their second half attempts at the basket. In fact, during the third quarter, when they posted 30 points, the Lions missed only two attempted shots.

The key to the Lions' win, however, was primarily due to their ability to stop high scoring Paul Holder. They defended him with a man-to-man press and prevented the Bulldogs from using their usual fast break.

The Lions rotated positions last night with most of the regulars, as well as the subs who played about half of the affair, shifting positions frequently throughout the engagement.

The Baby Lions, paced by Bobby Stewart's 20 points, scored a 50 to 30 win over the little Bulldogs in a preliminary contest.

Finley To Ask Transfer Vote

CHICAGO (UPI) — Charles O. Finley will request other American League owners to approve his request to transfer the Kansas City Athletics to Oakland, Calif., despite a ruling that the subject will not be considered at a special meeting Friday.

"I intend to bring the matter up," Finley said. "I don't know whether they can refuse to act on it if I insist on the agenda, but at least I can make them vote to show they won't consider it."

About Sports Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Frauds The Lions

Little Oviedo High School's fancy cage quintet nearly pulled one of the current hardboard season's biggest upsets last Friday night when they tried to play the role of Jack the giant killer at Orlando.

It looked as though the little Lions were about to get away with it, particularly midway in the final period when they pulled to within one point of the Evans High Trojans, seventh ranked among all of Florida's high school fives and already champions of Central Florida's mighty Metro Conference.

Evans picked up a 28 to 23 decision from the Lions in one of the most unusual high school games played around these parts in years.

During the initial quarter, for example, only two points were scored—a field goal by an Evans athlete. Oviedo was scoreless. But the Lions weren't out—at this point of the contest—to score. They were merely aiming to keep the high scoring Trojans out of shooting range and they did it pretty well with a remarkable display of ball handling, passing, dribbling and ball control.

Another unusual facet of the contest was that at no time this season had the rampaging Trojans been held to less than a dozen points in any period they'd played. It was also the first time Oviedo had ever tried to utilize this kind of strategy—and they came within a "lion's" whisker of making it work.

The Oviedo five outplayed the Trojans in every department—except scoring. They hauled in 23 rebounds. But they went into the contest with two strikes against them.

First, they were without the services of 6-foot-4 center Beth Rook. Secondly, it was one of the few times this season they were forced to fire at glass backboards. The Lions—who generally net 80 percent or better of their shots—sank only 17 percent against the Trojans. Since most of the missed shots fell short of the basket the boys blamed it on the glass backboards.

It's too bad the Lions won't have a chance to meet the Trojans on Oviedo's home court. Such a contest would be a sellout and certainly rank as the major attraction in Seminole County basketball this season.

Can He Hit, Too?

With opening of baseball season just over two weeks away, Florida's Dave Fuller believes he has found at least one boy who can hit for average against BEC pitching.

The name is familiar to Gator fans. It's Tom Shannon of Miami. The regular varsity quarterback on the Gator football eleven has been excused from spring practice by head coach Ray Graves to play baseball and it might prove to be a major addition for Fuller.

Shannon will play first base and Fuller thinks the lefty will be one of the best hitters in the conference. He has been belting practice pitching like he owns it.

Hounds Take Thriller From Bulldogs 50-48

"If at first you don't succeed, try and try again," is an old adage the Lyman High Greyhounds found to be true Tuesday night.

After dropping a four-point decision to DeLand High's Bulldogs earlier in the season and another four-point tilt to the same outfit last Friday night in the Orange Belt tourney at Leesburg, the Greyhounds again took on the Bulldogs and this time they did it.

And what a thriller it was—an overtime affair: The Greyhounds grabbed 50 to 48.

Lyman jumped into an early lead and piled up 15 points in the opening chapter while holding the Bulldogs to a mere eight. But in the second stanza, the Bulldogs chewed their way right back into the contest by getting 16 while holding Lyman to 10. Going into the third period leading the Bulldogs 23 to 24, Lyman got only eight points while DeLand picked up a dozen and the Bulldogs went ahead of the 'Hounds 36 to 33 as the two clubs entered the fourth frame.

The Greyhounds, in the home stretch, caught up with the Bulldogs. As both packs raced the clock they wound up knotted at 44-44.

In the overtime stanza Lyman grabbed four points while holding the Bulldogs to two points.

The victory didn't give the 'Hounds much of a boost in the OBC standings. They're still in third place with a record of six wins and five losses. However, the setback for DeLand threw the OBC into a two-way tie for first place. DeLand, who had led the loop all season, now has a record of nine wins against two losses. Apopka posted its ninth win of the conference season Tuesday night, beating Wildwood 58 to 46, to catch up with the Bulldogs.

Lyman Center Donnie Smith paced the 'Hounds with 20 points while Bill Tolson came through with 14. Smith sank only two field goals but he dropped 16 charity shots throughout the nets. Bob Derfus, an all-conference star, led DeLand with 13 markers.

Seminole Set For Big Swim Splash

By Linda Mitchell

The swimming season at Seminole High School is here again and Coach John Colbert recently issued a call to all students who wish to become candidates for the Tribe's swimming team.

Colbert announced that practice sessions will begin Mar. 2, and he instructed students to bring their equipment. He also warned them to bring a blanket for work-out since the weather probably will be cool at that time.

Last year when practice began most of the team's members had the shivers at the city's Municipal Pool. But Coach Colbert declares the team will swim on March 2, even if he has to break the ice.

Among the girls returning will be Delaine Johnson, Pat McGuire. Other prospective prospective tankbusters include juniors Kristie Schilke, Linda May and Rosemary Walton plus sophomores Linda DeMatto, Donna Southard, Martha Kosky, Meda Neiman and Rosemary Lacarra.

Paula Elam is following in the wake of her big brother Jack who swam breaststroke last year. The lone returning senior is Norma Whittier.

Seniors who swam last year include John Mills and Bobby Ring. Juniors included Bobby Hardrick, Jimmy Gray, Con Wilson, Buster Anderson, Andy Lyon and Gary Ganas.

A new senior swim team candidate is Terry Bucklewe. Other candidates are juniors Ross Wontenay, Elmer Avel, Ed Hubbard, Tom Michalek, Gary Renfro, and Wynn Pickelsimer.

Among the sophomores are Richard Dunn, Gary Wain, Patrick Hall, Joe Moore, C. J. Metzler, and Joe Peoples. Others were Herb Pedrick, Roy Vanlandingham, John Ange, Ronald Ogden and Mike Morton. The remaining candidates are Darryl McLain, Terry Whitten, Alan Lucas and Tim Whitten.

Hi-Nooner Teams Shift Positions

Stenstrom Really made a clean sweep against the DeBarry Debs and regained first place in the Hi-Nooners League.

Shoemaker Construction edged three close points from Joe's Laundry; Art Brown Pest Control made a clean sweep against the Acey Deucey Wives Club; the C. P. O. Wives made a clean sweep against Hunt Realty and Cook's Corner won three points from M. & R. Bar.

Mary Tomaleski, one of the DeBarry Debs, converted the 8-5-10; Jean Sheridan, Hunt Realty, the 8-7-9; and Dot Johnson the 8-10. Doris Omy and Connie Ringo picked up the 2-7 and the 3-10 fell for Dot Button, Elaine Kostival, Laura Leahy, and Meda Wilshire. Susy Reno and Meda Wilshire rolled turkeys. Mary Dougherty rolled the high game of 183, and high series went to Elaine Kostival, substituting for Southern Air, with a 479.

Winter Park Knocks Off Tribe 53-49

Perhaps the home court makes a difference. Anyway that's what the Seminoles of Sanford think after their 53 to 49 loss Tuesday night to the Wildcats of Winter Park.

Earlier in the season the Seminoles whipped the 'Cats in Sanford and they had ambitions of doing the same thing again when they traveled to Orlando Tuesday night to meet the Parkers. And at one time during the contest it appeared as though the Tribe would capture their second engagement from Winter Park.

But the Wildcats overcame a 10-point Seminoles lead and emerged on top.

In another effort, Seminoles' talented Mike Bowers faltered in his effort to overcome Bishop Moore's Gary Preisler for the Metro League's individual scoring lead. Bowers went into last night's affair with an 18.3 scoring average while Preisler boasted a 10.2 average. Preisler paced the Hornets to a 65 to 64 decision over Oak Ridge by sinking 30 points to hike his own average.

Meanwhile, Bowers grabbed only 17 in Seminoles' tilt with the Parkers.

Winter Park led Sanford 12 to 10 at the close of the first period and left the floor at intermission trailing the Seminoles 22 to 25. The third chapter ended with Seminoles still leading, 40 to 29. But in the final frame the Parkers posted 14 points while the best of Sanford quintet could gather in was nine.

Sanford's Kenny Tyrus was second high man for the Seminoles with 11 points. White of Winter Park dumped in 20 points, followed by Ebaugh and Kelly who sank 13 apiece.

Seminole captured the preliminary junior varsity contest.

Tribe Opens Track Work

By Julian Stenstrom

The Seminole High School track team has begun workouts under the direction of Coach Dick Williams in preparation for the opening of the 1964 season Saturday at Boone High School in Orlando. Williams announced that the Tribe's tracksters will participate in 15 events this Spring as a member of the Metro Conference.

Among other events, the Seminoles also will take part in the Kiwanis Relays in Orlando on Mar. 14, the State Relays on Mar. 21, the Florida Relays on March 26, the Metro Conference meet on April 22, a district meet on May 2, and a statewide meet on May 9.

In addition, the Seminoles will host the Sanford Invitational on April 4. Participating in the local attraction will be Florida Military School, Leesburg, Daytona Beach Seabreeze and Lyman.

Returning lettermen this season include Barry Barke, Buddy Lawson, Dave Noel, Earl Black, Bill Brown, Dan McCall, Len Reinhart, Denver Vodopich and Steve Clark.

In the 100 and 220-yard dashes, which Williams believes may be the squad's strongest events, he will have such experienced third-clasds as Lawson, Black and Brown. Others who are showing good promise are Lloyd Freeman, Clarence Johnson and Rick Walstrom.

Barke is Williams' only experienced specialist in the 440 event. "But he's a fine one," says the Seminole mentor. Showing promise are Eddie Griffith, Styrly Weber and Paul Leroy.

In the shot and discus events, Williams has a pair of returning lettermen—Steve Clark and Dave Noel. Also in this event is working hard and looking pretty good.

"We're in another building program from the ground up," said Williams in reference to the high jump event. "We're hopeful that Johnson, Reinhart and Leroy can come through for us."

Reinhart, Ron Davis and Paul Polgar are participating in the pole vault. "But," says Dick, "it's the same story as the high jump."

Williams has depth in the broad jump with Vodopich, Freeman, Johnson, Allen Taylor and Walstrom.

OK Tires Lead For 11th Week

In the Sandspurs Bowling League, the powerful OK Tire outfit refuses to be slowed down as they go into their 11th week as occupants of first place in the Friday night loop. They added to their strong lead by sweeping three straight from McRoberts Tire.

Howe Tire Shop maintains the second place position with a three-point win from Pryors Insurance and McRoberts Tire still retains the third slot after their losing bout with the OK Tires.

Stempers Real Estate, in winning three from Factory Paint Outlet, edged out both the Factory and Pierre Mig. teams to take over the fourth spot. St. Johns Realty set Pierre down with a three-point win and led the week's action with the high team series, a 1798.

With the number three setting the pace, Jet Inn added that count also to their winnings in a match with Mar Lou.

Individual honors for the week goes to dependable Midge Woods for her high series of 817. Midge, McRoberts' star bowler, holds the high scratch series and high game for the League season, a 876 series and 840 game.

Leading the field for St. Johns was Jane Adcock's 508-197 and teammate Jean Monroe's 173. Heading the opposition, was Edith Zeuli's 461-171. Helen Altmann was high for OK Tire with a 452-175 and close behind was teammate Dot Johnson who came through with a 450-181. Lili Donat led Jet Inn with a 481-176.

Sue Jackson was the spur for Howe Tire Shop with a good 469 series. Sue's second game, a big 504, was the high for this week's action. In the split circle, Louise Owens felled the tough 8-9-10, Jimmie Livingston came through with a 5-7 conversion and Louise Hoarford topped the 8-10.

St. James Observes Men's Day Program

By Robert B. Thomas Jr. FA 2-8784

St. James AME Church observed its Men's Day Program last Sunday. The theme was "Building Better Christian Brotherhood and Relationship—Our Major Task." Prof. R. E. Green, teacher of English at Crooms High School, brought a most challenging and, strong message. Johnell Bryant, custodian at Hopper Elementary, sang "My Task." He performed well, as usual.

Prof. Harold Boggs, the blind pianist and his singers of Clinton, Ohio, will appear at New Salem Primitive Baptist Church this Sunday at 7:30 p. m. You are asked to come out and witness this program. These artists are among the finest in the world. If you fail to attend, you will miss a real treat.

Reginald Steele, 8, son of Mrs. Ethel Steele, of 24 William Clark Court, is doing very well in school. He is a third-year pupil at the Florida School for the deaf and blind located in St. Augustine. His teacher, Sherwood Hampton, says that Reginald enjoys school and maintains his standing at the top of his class. Mrs. Steele is very proud of her son's progress and performance. We are sure that he will continue to progress, and will some day take his place in our society as a useful citizen. We are happy for you Mr. Steele.

Freddie Robinson, 22, whose wife, Joan, resides at 801 Pecan Avenue, has been promoted to sergeant at Fort Hood, Tex., where he is serving with the First Airborne Division. He is a 1960 graduate of Crooms High School.

Air Force Sergeant James (Jimmy) Jefferson, son of the late Mrs. Bernice Johnson, is spending a month on leave. He is stationed in Albuquerque, N. Mex. "I am having a most wonderful time," says Jimmy.

Mrs. Viola Frazier was feted with a surprise birthday party at her home recently. She received many gifts. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell, Robert Robinson, Cubit Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Leola Pryor, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Herring, Mrs. Leola Herring and son, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Dubose, Jerome Lockhart, of Jacksonville, Mrs. Mabel Matthews, Mildred Brooks and Alfred O'Connell of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Burke, of Orlando and Seaman Ronald Williams. According to Williams in a written statement to Mrs. Frazier "This is the first party I have ever attended."

Willie V. Graham, recreation supervisor, announces the final Midget Basketball League standings:

Team	W	L
Jets	7	1
Tigers	6	2
Hawks	4	4
Rams	2	6
Reds	1	7

The Jets won the championship by beating the Tigers 64-50. They will receive trophies. The teams will engage in a tournament at the Roy A. Allen Gymnasium Saturday beginning at 9 a. m. Trophies will be awarded to the winners.

An appeal is being made by the Crooms High PTA and principal, H. L. Douglas, to get mothers and other interested ladies to serve the high school as Gray Ladies for the school's clinic. These persons will be trained through the services of the American Red Cross. The reason for this training period is to provide better service for the sick and injured child. When this project is completed, Crooms will be the first school in our vicinity to have Gray Ladies trained by the Red Cross. A schedule for the training session will be released as soon as a sufficient number of ladies (20) have consented to train as Gray Ladies. For further information, you may contact Mrs. J. C. Ringling, chairman or Professor H. L. Douglas at Crooms.

Members of the Hi-Y Organization of CBS attended the 15th annual State Hi-Y Conference last weekend at Walter E. Harris High School, Hastings. Thirty-nine students and three advisors reported this conference to be well-planned, educational, inspirational, and enjoyable. The theme for the three-day conference "This I Believe," was discussed in eight categories. During the afternoon general assembly five of the eight group reports were given by students of Crooms. It was reported that these 39 student delegates were the leaders in each group discussion. Our children are to be commended.

Cynthia Kendrick was re-elected state historian. All delegates boarded three school buses and toured historical St. Augustine. The group attended the annual banquet with Rudolph (Bunny) Matthews, of Bethune Cookman College, as speaker; attended the Sunday morning worship service with Rev. Roger P. Fair delivering the sermon; and finally the dance after the banquet on Saturday night with music furnished by Lawrence Parker and His Honey Drippers.

Civil Rights Group Plans Chicago School Boycott Tuesday

By United Press International
Civil rights groups in Chicago plan to stage a school boycott next Tuesday to duplicate a one-day boycott last October that kept 250,000 students out of school.

Civil rights adherents said the boycott was designed to highlight de facto segregation in the city's public schools. Plans for the second boycott evolved Tuesday as more than 100 "hunger marchers" staged a demonstration in the Windy City's Loop area. Shouting "we want jobs, we want food," the demonstrators, most of them Negroes on public aid, were protesting what they consider inadequate relief allowances.

Some of the marchers threatened a sit-in demonstration at city hall but changed plans after Mayor Richard J. Daley said he would use police to clear the municipal building.

At the same time Daley promised that federal surplus food would be made available to hardship cases. There were no incidents.

In New York City, there was growing Negro support for a proposed Puerto Rican sponsored "prayer march" on city hall and the education board to protest alleged segregation in New York City schools. Organizers of the March 1 demonstration predicted "more than 100,000 persons" would participate. James E. Donovan, president of the New York City Education Board, reiterated his refusal to resign Tuesday and told his Negro critics his stand on school integration is "morally right." Donovan's plan is to eliminate de facto segregation with a little disruption to existing school patterns as possible.

Elsewhere in the nation: Montgomery, Ala. — The State Education Board Tuesday rescinded its earlier orders assuming direct control over schools in Macon County, where boycotts by white students have closed one integrated school and left only Negro students in two others.

Pine Bluff, Ark.—Youthful Negroes picketed a cafe where Negro comedian Dick Gregory and a white integration leader were arrested during a sit-in demonstration. Monroe, N. C.—Three Negroes and a white man go on trial today on charges they kidnaped a white couple during racial violence in this southern North Carolina town in 1961.

Queen Sherry Thrasher Crowned At Ball

Theme of the annual Seminole High School Glee Club ball was "Garden of the Stars," with the student lounge decorated accordingly.

Various sized stars and half moons, made of silver paper, glittered above the dance floor. A large wishing well made of red camellias and green foliage was placed near the center of the room. Cupids and red hearts were placed at various points around the walls. Each table was decorated with red camellias and white candles intermingled among ferns.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Queen of the Ball by Mrs. Bill Clause Jr. Judges for this crowning were Mrs. Wendy Johnson, Mrs. Walter Feiler, Mrs. Otis Jones and Mrs. H. L. Johnson.

Miss Sherry Thrasher, escorted by Lloyd Freeman, was crowned the Queen of the Ball. Peggy Miller, escorted by Leitner Ley, and Sue Orseno, escorted by Richard Hittell, were selected as runner-ups.

Queen Sherry was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers and her crown was made of flowers. The attendants were given gifts.

Philodendron Plants Popular In Homes

By Myrtle Wilson

Looking for a house plant that's easy to grow?

Choose a philodendron. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the philodendron grows better than most other house plants under conditions found inside most modern homes. They do well as long as they are kept warm, moderately moist, and out of direct sunlight.

Some are even resistant to cold. The philodendron seilum, for example, can withstand temperatures close to freezing. It also grows profusely. One plant displayed in a Washington, D. C., department store boasted a diameter of 15 feet.

You can buy a philodendron plant at the florist shops, supermarkets, at drugstores or dime department stores. There are many varieties. Of the most common is the philodendron oxycardium, which has heart-shaped leaves, and the philodendron pertusum, with large perforated leaves. But there are also philodendrons with cut leaves and even leaves shaped like daggers.

Usually philodendrons are grown on trellises or moss-covered poles. These plants need to be fastened to the support. You can use green, paper-covered wire for this purpose or you can get common pins.

When the plant grows to the end of the trellis, cut back the stems to force new branches. Start this new growth winding down the trellis. Increase the light and decrease the amount of water.

To get philodendron leaves to shine, wash them once a month with soap and water.

Pearson, Mrs. John D. Thomas, Mrs. Marie Wilhelm, Mrs. J.D. Woodruff, Mrs. E.W. White and Mrs. Mildred Babcock.

Another use for that wonderful nylon net. Buy several of those small sponges that come in a package. Make a case of several thicknesses of net for each sponge, allowing enough length to stitch each end together. Use in the bathroom and kitchen for a quick cleanup. Cuts down on the use of harsh cleansers on the porcelain. Use also for a soap holder as soap will not stick to the net.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I beg to differ with your reply to that mail carrier's wife who thought some of the women on his route were after him. You said that most women were interested in their MAIL, not her MAIL. Well, my son was a meter reader. He said he had to keep his eyes straight ahead every moment, being careful not to even to look sideways of the women or he would have a hard time getting out of the house. (He was 34, six-foot-three, and very good looking.) One woman, who was old enough to be his mother, was so aggressive that he reported her to the front office. They sent a detective out there to question her, and she got her claws into the detective and almost broke up his home. Must service men can tell you it doesn't pay to be too friendly to the lady of the house.

METER READER'S MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: We have been married 12 years and have 3 children. We have plenty of beds so that each of us can sleep alone now. My husband complained that he was crowded, so I changed our double bed for twin beds. Now, every night the children argue over whose turn it is to sleep with Daddy. I try to force the "each to his own bed" rule, but my husband overrides my objections with the argument that he doesn't mind. But the next morning he complains to me that the kids thrashed around and he couldn't get any rest. But the next night it's the same story. What's wrong with this picture?

DEAR ANNOYED: HIS sleepless nights are the least of what's wrong. Children should not get into the habit of sleeping with their parents.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment.

DEAR ABBY: I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone for the first time. My friend didn't take the hint. Rather, she said, "I would like to meet the girl—aren't you going to ask me to sit down?" I told her as nicely as I could that I thought it would be better if she came back the next afternoon for tea, and meet her then. She left in a huff. How could I have handled a situation like that more tactfully?

DEAR WONDERING: I think you handled an awkward situation with admirable finesse.

Highlights TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p.m. CBS. CBS Reports. "The Flight From Hollywood." If you still care about the problems facing Hollywood and the American Motion Picture industry, this is a thoughtful if somewhat sketchy analysis of the situation. Not a glamour hour, though many of filmdom's names do appear, it is almost a true sociological study. The subject and many of the participants are sufficiently interesting to make this worth catching for a non-definitive introduction to a changing condition which doesn't really affect an outsider very deeply.

9:30 p.m. CBS. The Beverly Hillbillies. Granny (Irene Ryan) gets most of the action in this episode and makes it even funnier than usual. Still determined to get Elly May (Donna Douglas) a beau, Granny teaches her "old-fashioned courtin'" but Elly May doesn't like glib bank clerk Penrod as Granny's choice. But when Lafe Crick (Peter Whitney) shows up with his eligible but stupid son, Elly and Granny share a common distaste. Jed (Buddy Ebsen) knows Granny would just as soon shoot at the Cricks as look at them. So he hides the slovenly pair until he can get Granny in a good mood. You can bet Granny goes for her gun anyway.

9:30-10 p.m. CBS. The Dick Van Dyke Show. (Part I) Quite funny but next week's conclusion is even funnier. Rose Marie is hilarious in her role of gag writer Sally Rogers. Appearing on a late show (a carbon of the "Tonight" show), she's such a hit as a guest, the emcee insists she join him as a regular feature. Trouble is Sally starts to neglect her work and Rob and Buddy (Dick Van Dyke and Morey Amsterdam) issue an ultimatum that's partly engendered by her thinly disguised jealousy of her success as a celebrity.

10-11 p.m. CBS. The Danny Kaye Show. A delightful hour without a single dull minute. English star John Mills and his equally celebrated daughter Hayley Mills are Danny's guests. Hayley joins Danny in an opening sketch in which Danny gives a hilarious portrayal of a father suddenly realizing his daughter is growing into maturity. Later, John Mills and Danny take the spotlight with a clever "Mutiny on the Bounty" satire, and the three segue into an even funnier sketch where Danny is hilarious as a French customs inspector. Midway, the team of Joe and Eddie provocatively warble "The Ox Driver's Song."

10-11 p.m. NBC. Eleventh Hour. "87 Different Kinds of Love." Give this series credit, when it casts an unfit mother, it casts the kind of unfit mother who's worth looking at. In this episode the delinquent parent, whose daughter is removed from her custody, is Diana Dors. The child, old beyond her years, is emotionally played by Jenny Maxwell. Joseph Campanella and Phyllis Love (who is not one of the 87 named in the title) play the girl's well-intentioned foster parents.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Dr. Walter Lundberg of Austin, Minn., has sent a hand that fits in perfectly with this column on trump management.

He says that his bid of four hearts was aggressive and I agree with him, but the hands fit beautifully and in spite of the 5-0 break in trumps there was no way to beat him on the line of play he adopted.

The principal features of his play were that he realized that he could never afford to lead a trump himself and that he had to bring home seven trump tricks.

He took the ace of clubs, ruffed a club, and led a diamond to dummy's nine.

This put East in the lead and he chose to lead a trump. Walter won with dummy's nine and led and ruffed another club. Now he led a diamond to dummy's ace, returned a spade to his ace in accordance with the time honored procedure of cashing his side tricks before the opponents would get a chance to ruff them.

A diamond was now ruffed by dummy's four of trumps and the last club was led from dummy. East discarded his last diamond, not that it mattered what he did. Walter ruffed with his last trump and led a spade. East had to ruff and give dummy two more trump tricks.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Don't think you're the only housewife—

Who is always clipping recipes, but never gets around to filing them.

Who's husband always wants to know what you did with anything he has misplaced.

Who's children always volunteer your services when there are cookies to be baked, chattering to be done, or somebody's house is needed for a teen-age party.

Who's indispensable labor-saving devices always seem to choose the worst possible moment for groaning and giving up.

Who always falls for the flattering words, "No one is as well qualified as you are to be the chairman of this important committee."

Who can't quite seem to share the children's happiness at the close of another school year.

Who is always thinking, "Next year things won't be so hectic—and I will have a little more time for myself."

Who finds it easier to say "we'll see," or "maybe," instead of "no" to a teen-ager who can present his case with the skill of a lawyer.

Who finds it hard to answer a husband's "Well, what have you been doing all day?" because, though you work hard trying to keep even with the housework, you rarely have any big accomplishment to mention.

Don't think you're the only housewife who fits this picture. Truly, it's typical.

Representatives Take Wait-See Stand On Ruling

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House members declined to panic today at a Supreme Court ruling which by impli-

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Rep. Fred Karl, a candidate for governor, called today for a special session of the Legislature on congressional redistricting.

caution could jeopardize most of their seats. Some reform backers even called it a welcome decision.

In a landmark 6-3 decision Monday the high court said congressional districts had to be "as nearly as practicable" equal in population. Specifically, it said those in Georgia were not and ordered a three-judge court in Atlanta to take steps to bring them in balance.

The Georgia Legislature already is hard at work on this question, under pressure of a citizens suit that claimed the ballots of voters in Atlanta are worth only a third as much as those in the state's least populous congressional district.

So the order may not have to be carried out there. But dissenting Justice John M. Harlan noted that 37 of the 50 states, with 386 of the 435 House seats, also are open to action on the ground their districts are not evenly drawn.

It was the court's first decision directly affecting the makeup of congressional districts. The first reaction of many House members who might be affected was to wait and see what, if anything, happens.

Reuther Blasts Grain Boycott

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — A union boycott that has halted loading of American wheat for Russia drew sharp criticism Monday from United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther.

Maritime labor leaders, cheered by backing from AFL-CIO President George Meany, stuck to their demands for shipment of at least half the grain in U. S. ships before canceling the boycott.

Assistant Labor Secretary James J. Reynolds worked into the early hours this morning trying to settle the dispute over the government's role in enforcing the use of American vessels. The outlook for an early agreement was not considered bright.

Meany and the AFL-CIO Maritime Trade Department said the Johnson administration had failed to carry out a pledge that 50 per cent of the wheat shipments would be made in U. S. ships employing American seamen.

Visitor Killed On St. Johns

DELAND (UPI) — An Ohio visitor was killed and two persons were injured when an outboard boat struck some floating grass in the St. Johns River and crashed into a channel marker northwest of here Monday.

Dead was Walter Hannan, 70, of Savannah, Ohio.

Mrs. Hannan was pulled from the water and hospitalized in fair condition with shock and exposure. The boat owner, Raymond Robedous, 58, of Astor, was thrown into the water but was not hurt.

Authorities said Hannan, in the bow of the boat when it struck the channel marker, apparently crashed into the buoy.

Enlightened Sea Interest

It is often said that the real world crisis in the coming decades will not be the struggle between communism and democracy but between the have and have-not nations.

The underdeveloped nations have 63 per cent of the world's population, but only 25 per cent of its food production, 16 per cent of its industrial output and 17 per cent of its income.

Foreign aid has long been a weapon used by both sides in the cold war. Since World War II, the United States has distributed nearly $98 billion to 111 countries. One-third of this has been in the form of military assistance.

The largest single chunk of U.S. aid — $29 billion — went to post-war Europe under the Marshall Plan. An additional $16 billion was spent to build up the continent's military strength.

The Communist world did not get into the aid game until 1954, but by 1961 the Red bloc nations had given $4.8 billion in aid and credits to carefully selected recipients. Another $3.4 billion from Russia and $1 billion from Red China was given to Eastern European Communist countries in the 1950s.

The East vs. West cold-war aspect of foreign aid is changing, however, as more and more nations join the list of loaners and donors. According to News Front magazine, between 1955 and 1960, 16 Western nations besides the U.S. gave $9.8 billion in economic aid.

France gives or lends an average of $950 million a year, mostly to former colonies. It has 10,000 teachers and technicians in Africa alone.

West Germany, which contributed $575 million in 1961, is third-largest aider and has committed $4.6 billion to 40 nations.

The United Kingdom, has given $2 billion in aid so far this decade, chiefly through the Colombo Plan for South Asia. Since this plan was set up in 1950, the British Commonwealth has funneled close to $14 billion into the area. (Canada, for instance, contributes $60 million a year.)

The United Nations, through its gift and loan agencies and peacekeeping missions, spent $3.4 billion between 1946 and 1961.

The World Bank, up to the same year, had loaned $6 billion to governments. Its affiliate, the International Finance Corporation, had committed $62.5 million to private companies by mid-1962.

Even the smaller nations are beginning to disburse aid on a regular basis — Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium, Norway, Portugal and even Yugoslavia. Israel, while still a recipient nation, is donating aid to African countries.

For whatever reasons it was spent, more than $110 billion has passed from have to have-nots since World War II.

This does not include the vast amounts of financial priming in the form of investments by private corporations.

The flow, of course, has not all been one way, for the prosperity of the have has been based in large part on the resources of the have-nots. The advanced nations are finding that sheer self-interest dictates that they help extend that prosperity to the poorer members of the world community.

Thought For Today

They that deny a God, destroy man's nobility; for certainly man is of kin to the beasts by his body; and, if he be not kin to God by his spirit, he is a base and ignoble creature.—Sir Francis Bacon.

This Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men.—Acts 2:23.

The blood of Jesus is sacrifice; the sweat of Jesus is toil and labor; the tears of Jesus are love and compassion. They abide as eternal symbols of God's way of meeting the needs of a lost world.—W. A. Criswell.

Who among you fears the Lord and obeys the voice of his servant, who walks in darkness and has no light, yet trusts in the name of the Lord and relies upon his God?—Isaiah 50:10.

U. S. In Maelstrom

When the British withdrew from Syria, they were left only with Cyprus as an Eastern Mediterranean base from which to move either toward the Middle East or to protect the eastern flank of NATO.

Thus, the British air and army bases on Cyprus took on a position of major importance in NATO strategic planning, along with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean and the defensive forces of Greece and Turkey.

In Cyprus's current internal difficulties, the British bear a further responsibility inasmuch as prior to Cypriot independence in 1960, the island for 82 years had been under British rule.

The United States is drawn into it as the leading power of NATO.

As in the years preceding Cypriot independence the central figure of the controversy is the bearded Greek Orthodox Archbishop Makarios who became the first president of Cyprus.

Given an island sharply divided between a Turkish Moslem minority and a Greek Orthodox population in four-to-one majority, plus a constitution which from the beginning was unworkable, Makarios nonetheless has succeeded in generating much of his own trouble.

The constitution worked out by British, Greek, Turkish and Cypriot representatives gave both the Greek majority and the Turkish minority the right of veto over such matters as taxes, defense and foreign policy and almost was a guarantee that government soon would fall into a state of paralysis, which it did.

Makarios quite rightly declared that the constitution needed some changes, but he inflamed the Turkish minority by moving to remove their veto and to abolish divided Turkish and Greek municipalities.

He further complicated the situation by declaring that enosis union with Greece was not dead, clearly indicating that he would revive the traditional ambition of Greek Orthodox leaders as quickly as he thought he could.

Cypriots, never averse to violence, brought out their guns and the shooting started. Greece, anxious that there should be no split within NATO, has preferred to remain as aloof as possible from the dispute. The Turks have warned that they will not stand by and see Turkish Cypriots slaughtered.

This is the maelstrom into which the United States now has been drawn.

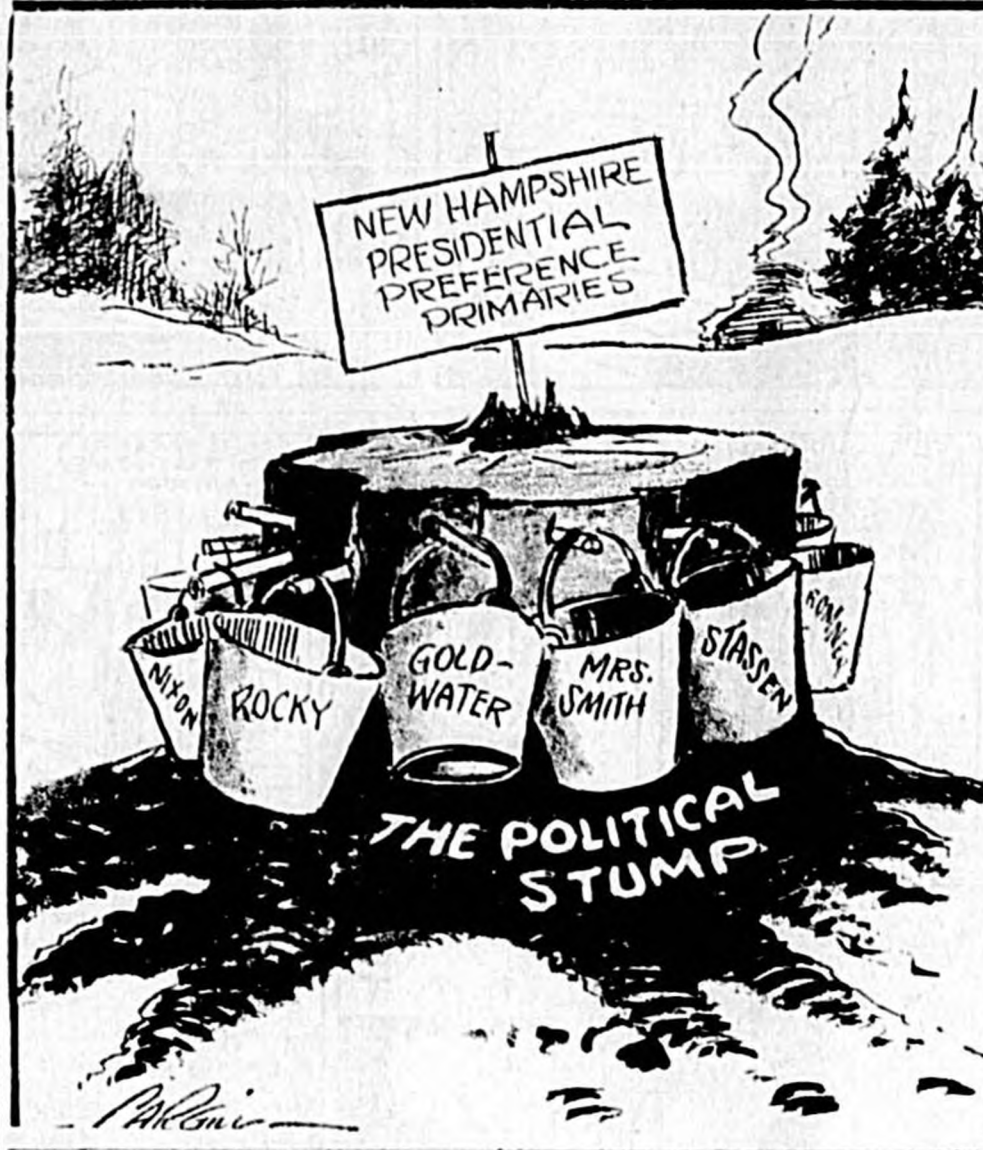

Contingent upon approval of Makarios, the U. S. has agreed to join other NATO nations in supplying troops to police the peace in Cyprus pending arbitration.

Makarios has agreed in principle but on the condition that the peace force should be answerable to the United Nations Security Council where the Soviet Union possesses a veto—a condition unacceptable either to the United States or Britain.

Russia also has dipped in its ear, siding with the Greek majority and Makarios, presumably because the strong Cypriot Communist party is confined to the Greek community. U. S. and British hopes are based on a belief that Makarios can afford neither to permit the situation to drift into all-out civil war nor into partition, both of which at the moment seem imminent possibilities.

Meanwhile, Makarios probably has lost forever what little faith the Turkish minority had in him.

HOPEFUL SHARECROPPERS OF 1964

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Luella asks some of the most common questions thrown at me when I conduct forums all over America. Letter scrapbook this case for it clarifies these puzzling terms. To carry college work, your child must usually have a "superior" rating on I. Q. tests. But don't rule out "Elbow Grease!"

CASE R-187: Luella S., aged 18, is another college freshman who asked a question during a recent forum discussion. "Dr. Crane," she began, "I am confused about the difference between a psychologist and a psychiatrist."

"And what's a psychoanalyst?"

"Furthermore, which has the lowest intelligence, an imbecile, a moron or an idiot?"

Millions of intelligent Americans get confused on these same points, so scrapbook this terse set of answers.

A psychiatrist is ALWAYS an M. D. or physician, who simply specializes in treating patients with nervous and mental troubles.

A psychologist of the teaching or clinical type may hold a Ph. D. degree.

But you readers are also psychologists even though many of you may not have had a single year of college.

For psychology is the science of behavior!

If you are normally interested in human relations, you soon can acquire a wealth of practical information about human reactions just by watching people.

Editors and salesmen and politicians and YMCA Secretaries and many smart mothers, thus have far more knowledge of Applied Psychology than many of the "ivory tower" professors on the campus.

But, officially, we designate a psychologist is a man who is earning his living either teaching the subject or serving in personnel or clinical work.

The psychoanalyst may or may not have a college degree but in the larger cities, he probably is an M. D. or a Ph. D.

Psychoanalysis really involves a technique rather than a profession, for it is a method utilized by both official psychologists as well as psychiatrists.

It involves delving into your past life, clear back into your childhood to dig out incidents that may have produced your adult fears, obsessions and other complexes.

D. Sigmund Freud, the Father of Psychoanalysis, really launched this helpful technique about 1895.

As regards mental levels of people, we regard intelligence as much like the horsepower in a motor.

You may thus have very high intelligence and yet not accomplish much in life if you don't utilize that mental horsepower.

On the contrary, a person with normal intelligence may attain great success by sheer willpower, determination and elbow grease!

Elbow grease is still a great aid to success, over and beyond your I. Q. (Intelligence Quotient) and schooling.

The idiot has the lowest level of human intelligence, equalling only a 3-year-old at best when he attains adulthood.

The imbecile is next, ranging from 3 to 7 years when grown.

The top level of these three groups among the feeble-minded, is the moron (a word coined by Dr. H. H. Goddard). At best, he may attain the mental level of an 11-year-old when grown.

Then we have a "borderline" category, plus a "Dull Normal," before we reach the "Average"; then the "Superior" and "Very Superior."

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

I would like to ask a favor and would appreciate it very much if you would provide some help. What I want to have is a few American pen friends. I did not know how to get them. The other day fortunately I was told by my friends that the best way to find one is to ask some American newspapers for the help.

I would appreciate it very much if you can let me know a few boys or girls by printing a little note in your paper so I may get some answers.

My name is Masako Notoji. My address is 1-39 Asahigaoka, Nerima-ku, Tokyo, Japan. I am a Japanese girl and am 16 years old.

I thank you for your trouble.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Medical care for the aged emerges clearly now as the top priority item on President Johnson's 1964 "must" list—after civil rights and tax reduction.

The President himself has not yet struck off such a list, as his most immediate predecessor often did. But people around him suggest that any priority tabulation would include, besides the three items already set down:

The "war on poverty" package, including some education proposals.

New authorization funds for area redevelopment.

A mass transit program.

Some kind of omnibus housing bundle.

Youth employment proposals.

New wheat legislation.

A foreign aid bill close to budget requests.

In the view of some administration men, medicare is the perfect topic to occupy the House in a big way while the Senate undertakes its long and predictably stormy struggle over civil rights.

The prescription, as indicated by the President's health message, would be the same as proposed by the late John F. Kennedy: hospital care for the aged, financed through social security taxes.

The pivot man in this matter is Democratic Rep. Wilbur Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. If Johnson somehow can gain his support, medicare will find the necessary 13 committee votes for a favorable beginning verdict. Eleven are set now.

Should these proposals continue to be mired in Ways and Means, the administration could turn back to the Senate for propulsive action.

The Senate killed medicare, 52 to 48, in midsummer of 1962. But since then the vote prospect for the administration has been improved materially by the 1962 election of Senators Birch Bayh of Indiana, Daniel Brewster of Maryland, George McGovern of South Dakota, Thomas McIntyre of New Hampshire, Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin and Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut.

The narrow defeat of medicare in 1962 thus could become a razor-thin victory in the Senate in 1964.

Support by Mills obviously would give the proposals their maximum lift in a full House vote. Prior Senate passage would perhaps be the next best thing.

Crucial southern Democratic resistance in the House to health, housing and welfare measures has not really been gauged in a major test since the great civil rights crisis broke in 1963.

At the outset of the Kennedy administration, the resistors numbered between 80 and 85. Gradually the total was whittled to between 55 and 60. On a couple of notable occasions it fell below 50.

The question today is whether a backlash response among southerners nettled over the civil rights bill could hike that figure back toward old levels. Recent House action throttling the administration's new food stamp relief plan suggested such resentment.

Medicare, if it can get to the House floor, could provide the supreme test of the present state of conservative Democratic resistance.

Short of this, the gauge must be had from House decisions on the poverty package, proposed larger urban renewal effort and other housing items, mass transit, area redevelopment, youth employment. Bills on the last three have cleared the Senate but are bogged in the House Rules Committee. Others must start from scratch.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

High Wire Act

The greatest balancing act since High Wire Blondin pranced above Niagara Falls is taking place among the top Democratic politicians in Texas with President Johnson in charge.

The President is trying to balance the 1964 Democratic ticket in Texas. The ticket will be balanced with a conservative show-in for the Democratic candidate for governor and a Democratic liberal show-in to run for the U. S. Senate.

This delicate balance between conservative and liberal Democrats could leave everybody happy or anybody less happy than they might otherwise have been. Further, it is designed to avoid Democratic primary contests for either nomination which might do damage to the party as to permit the Republicans to elect another candidate to high office in Texas.

Texas has been tending a bit toward two-party politics. Republican presidential candidates carried Texas in 1928, 1952 and 1956. Lyndon Johnson was put on the 1960 Democratic ticket by John F. Kennedy to hold the Texas electors. What else Johnson might accomplish in the South would be so much frosting on the cake.

Johnson is not likely to need any help in winning Texas' 24 electoral votes in this year's presidential election. But the balancing act he is imposing on Texas Democrats is a good hedge against unexpected trouble.

Roy McGehee reported last week from Washington, D. C. that:

"The awesome power of the White House was brought directly to bear on Democratic party chieftains in Texas to safeguard President Johnson's liberal image in other parts of the United States."

McGehee is a member of the Washington bureau of United Press International with some special responsibility for Texas news. He explained that Johnson's awesome power had been used to shivy Rep. Joe Kilgore (D-Tex.) out of this year's contest for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Kilgore would have appeared in the primary Sen. Ralph Yarborough, a liberal Democrat. Kilgore had the support of Gov. John B. Connally, a one-time aide and long time political associate of President Johnson. A Texas Democratic state head, led by conservatives Connally and Kilgore might have persuaded big city northern voters to suspect that Johnson also was tainted by southern conservatism.

Texas dispatches now relate that the President has moved to protect Connally from a primary contest with another Texas Yarborough, this one also a liberal but no relation to the senator. This Yarborough is Don who missed by a whisker defeating Connally for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination two years ago.

The President's thumb is down evidently either will get Don Yarborough out of the primary contest altogether or cut him down to bite size for Connally. Connally is regarded as a conservative by Texas liberals. Texas Republicans do not regard Connally as a bona fide conservative.

The story of the Democratic party in Texas is of angry struggle between liberals and conservatives. Each wing controls about 15 per cent of the party. They battle for the middle 50 per cent which is not absolutely committed in politics.

John F. Kennedy's visit to Texas last November was to heal the party breach. President Johnson is continuing the effort to make a deal.

Deal To Weaken Rights Bill Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Two Republican senators suspect the Johnson administration may have agreed to weaken the civil rights bill in a deal for southern support to continue excise taxes.

Sens. Thurston B. Morton, Ky., and Hugh Scott, Pa., suggested Sunday that while southern Democrats held fast during Senate debate against repeal of taxes on items such as luggage and cosmetics, southerners in the House put up little fight against the broad civil rights measure.

"We all think that means they've got a deal brewing in the Senate with the administration," Scott said in a radio and television interview. "We don't know what the deal is, but we are very suspicious that it's something to weaken the civil rights bill."

Morton added that it was the only way he could account for the fact that southern Democrats voted solidly to retain these taxes. He said that friends in the retail business had assured him they had "definite commitments" from five southern senators to vote with Republicans on repeal of the taxes during debate of the $11.8 billion tax cut bill.

Conner Puts State Fair On Probation

TAMPA (UPI) — State Agricultural Commissioner Doyle Conner issued an order putting the State Fair on probation for alleged violation of 22 state laws.

The action was taken shortly after the fair closed here Saturday night when the pirate ship Jose Gasparilla sailed out of Hillsborough Bay under a canopy of fireworks, the traditional end of the fair.

The probation order followed an investigation of the state agriculture and livestock fair committee. The committee's report said the investigation included the wounding of eight persons by a cannon during a Thursday night parade and alleged violation of state gambling laws.

Medieval Anglo-Saxons practiced crop rotation and some of their fields were planted only every three years.

SEMINOLE PLAZA

HWY. 17-92 & SR 436

CASSELBERRY, FLA.

No doubt about it. It's nice.

We're talking about the new English Estates school, Seminole County's newest educational facility.

Principal Morris Ruby Tuesday conducted us on his special 75-cent tour, complete with demonstrations. If you want to see what a school of the future looks like we suggest you attend the dedication ceremonies Tuesday night at the new plant.

Right now there's only one way to get into the site. Turn east on SR 436 from U. S. 17-92, proceed about a quarter of a mile and turn right on a new but unpaved road which takes you right to the school.

And, speaking of schools, there's probably more athletic activity going on right now at Seminole High in Sanford than at any time in the school's history. Coach Dick Williams' track team, Coach Jim McCoy's baseball squad, Coach Fred Ganas' golf team and Coach John Colbert's swimming team are preparing for the coming season. We want to see how Seminole's cheer leaders cope with this. And let's not overlook the bowling team under Coach Wren Credland.

Mrs. A. L. Hood says the Sanford Zoo still needs more trees (from six to nine feet tall) for shade and also plants. Recently we made an appeal on behalf of the zoo and the response was good. Mrs. B. Edwards, Mrs. Sandy Anderson, Mrs. Al Hunt, a Mrs. Thomas and a Mrs. Flowers are to be thanked for their assistance. Anyone having trees or plants to donate to the zoo's beautification program should phone 322-2340.

Deltona's Mackie Brothers, who are building the only Florida-style home at the New York World's Fair, have confirmations that Gov. Rockefeller of New York, Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Gov. Scranton of Pennsylvania will inspect the Mackie built home. It may only be a coincidence that New York, Michigan and Pennsylvania are among the states with the largest numbers of former residents now living in Deltona. And did you notice that all three of the governors are Republicans?

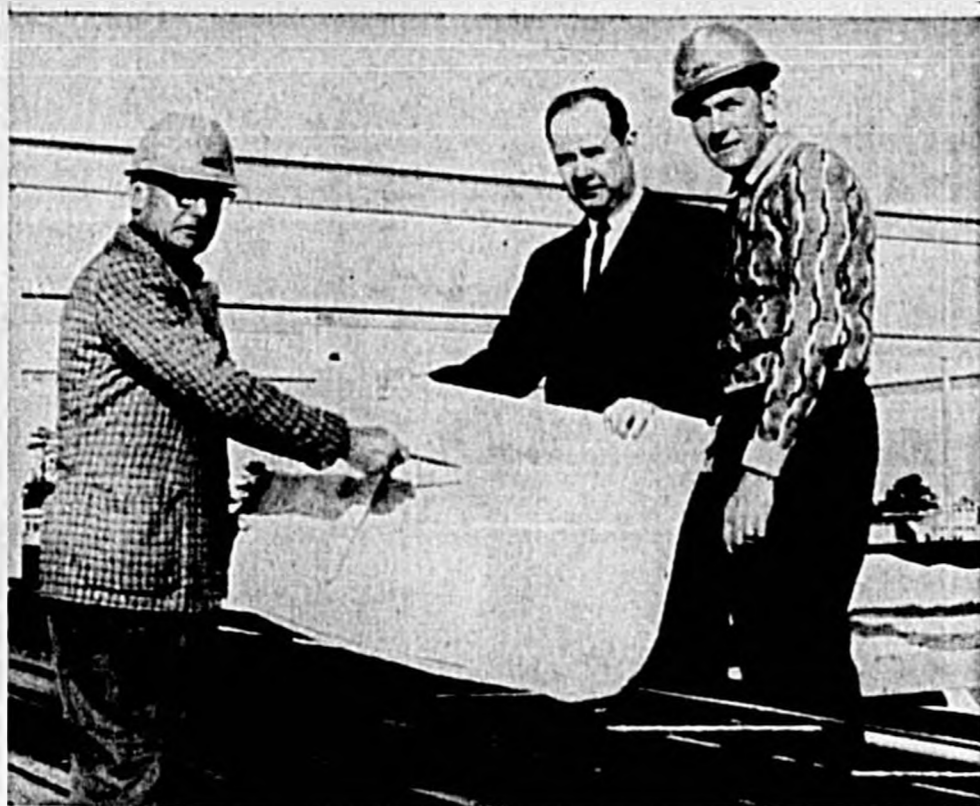

Did you know that a year ago Florida had a total of 146 airports, seaplane bases and heliports. Today it has 181 airports, five seaplane bases and five heliports for a total of 191. This means 45 new facilities — a 30.8 percent gain.

Seminole County has long been known for its production of produce. But did you know that the combined production of beef, dairy and poultry industries in this county each year adds nearly $2 million to Seminole's economy?

Another coming event is the 12th annual Swedish smorgasbord to be held at the Congregational Christian Church in Sanford this Saturday. It's being sponsored by the Ethel Root Circle and gets underway at 7 p. m.

Gubernatorial candidate Scott Kelly the other day said Gov. Bryant ought to extend the tag deadline at least 90 days due to the terrific hike in the cost of plates. He also charged Bryant with fiscal irresponsibility. We don't know if the folks in those long lines at the Courthouse today agreed with Kelly about Bryant's fiscal shortcomings but we'll bet they concurred with his idea about extending the deadline.

Today's Chuckle—When our forefathers discovered this country the Indians were running it. There were no taxes. There was no debt. The women did all the work. And our forefathers thought they could improve a system like that?

Penney's New Store To Be Much Larger

More details about the new J. C. Penney Co. department store in the Sanford Shopping Center were announced today by Charles Robinson, manager of Penney's downtown store.

Robinson said the downtown store which opened in September 1958, will close when the new shopping center store opens later this year.

Penney's new building will be six times larger than the store downtown. It will have an area of 39,600 square feet, plus a 3,800-square-foot free-standing Auto Center in the shopping center. Penney's Auto Center, one of the first in the state, will provide full car service and carry a complete selection of private-brand tires, batteries and auto accessories. These were first introduced to the United States in August, 1963, with the opening of the Penney store in Melbourne.

Shopping will be on one floor covering 36,000 square feet. A second floor will cover 3,600 square feet and will be used for offices, employe facilities and stock space.

Speaking of the new store, Robinson said: "We are pleased about this new store because it will enable Penney's to use a better quality of bringing quality merchandise and friendly service to more people in Sanford and Seminole County. Shopping at Penney's will be a pleasant and rewarding experience. This fine new store is evidence of our continued faith in the future of Sanford and Seminole County."

The interior of the store will be bright and modern colors with distinctive color schemes used throughout the store. Straight wide aisles will permit customers to shop the entire store with the greatest of ease. High ceilings will add to the effect of spaciousness.

REP. JAN Fortune announced today he will not be a candidate to succeed himself in the State Legislature from Seminole County. A Republican, Fortune was chosen in a special election last March and served in the 1963 Legislature.

Retired Police Officer Feted

Former City Police Lt. R. J. Hickson took his wife to a birthday dinner Wednesday night at the Capri Restaurant only to find himself the center of attraction.

With the help of local police officers and Mrs. Hickson, Lieutenant Hickson was honored at a surprise dinner given by the members of the department.

The officer retired Feb. 15 after 40 years as a law enforcement officer. He joined the department on April 1, 1947, and had previously served as deputy sheriff.

Thirty-four persons attended the party. Hickson was presented a watch with his name and service record inscribed by Chief Roy Williams on behalf of the department personnel.

Chief Williams praised the work of the retired officer and wished him a long tenure of retirement.

The principal speaker was Municipal Judge Kenneth W. McIntosh.

Hickson reported he planned to "take it easy" in his retirement but would drop in on the department to retain his friendship.

He and Mrs. Hickson live at 2008 Palmetto Avenue. They have three children, R. J. Jr., Paul and Mrs. Cecil Jones.

Groundbreaking TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — President Lyndon B. Johnson will participate in ground-breaking Feb. 27 for the long dreamed of cross-state barge canal.

Sens. Cleveland, Johnson To Talk

State Senators Beth Johnson, of Orange County, and Mack Cleveland, of Seminole County, will be the principal speakers tonight at an employer-employee banquet being held by the Seminole Vocational School.

The affair, honoring a number of distributive education students at Lyman High School who have been placed in positions in both Seminole and Orange counties, will be held at the Trade Winds Cafeteria at Seminole Plaza.

Distributive Education coordinator at Lyman, Lloyd Barnes, said that the employers of these students also will attend. The banquet will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Hickson reported he planned to "take it easy" in his retirement but would drop in on the department to retain his friendship.

Groundbreaking TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — President Lyndon B. Johnson will participate in ground-breaking Feb. 27 for the long dreamed of cross-state barge canal.

The ceremonies are planned near the Rodeheaver Boys Ranch, 10 miles southwest of Palatka, but no time was set immediately.

GEORGE A. Kelsey, of Oviedo, today announced his candidacy for re-election to his sixth four-year term as constable of District 3. Police chief of Oviedo for 17 years, Kelsey said that, "if elected, I will continue to serve the people to the best of my ability."

Sanford C. Of C. Organizes And Elects Officers

A. R. (Tommy) Peterson Jr., was elected president of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce at its organizational meeting Wednesday night in the County Courthouse.

An estimated 50 persons attended with 41 signing the charter and electing the following slate:

Don Bales, vice president; William Leffer Jr., secretary and Joe Baker, treasurer. Each will serve as directors with Thomas McDonald, Al Wallace, Glenn McCall Jr., Leonard Munson, George Speer Jr., Willis James, Al Doudney, Ernest Southard and Miss Dorothy Powell.

In accepting the presidency Peterson said he would offer "to cooperate with the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce in expanding industry and business in the area."

He called for the membership's assistance in making the organization a successful one which would benefit the entire community.

Bales presided as the meeting started, reading the charter and by-laws both of which were discussed in detail.

Membership qualifications also were discussed with the limitations being left to the board of directors for possible changes.

Serving on the nomination committee were Bert Chapman, Speer, Baker, Dr. Munson and Phillip Mitchell.

The officers will now sign the charter and submit it for state approval.

3 Oviedo-Slavia Schools Looted

$90 Stolen; Thieves Fail To Open Safe

Thieves using the same method of operation in most cases broke into three schools in the Oviedo-Slavia area early this morning and netted about $90 for their efforts.

In each case a glass pane was broken and doors or windows opened to gain access to the schools.

A torch was used on a safe at Oviedo Elementary and High School in an unsuccessful attempt to crack it. After wrecking the safe, they turned to a desk in the office and took about $15, according to Constable George Kelsey and Deputy Sheriff J. Q. (Slim) Gallaway.

At the Jackson Heights School they cracked a window, entered the building, jimmied a desk and made off with $75. The burglars then turned their attention on the Slavia Lutheran School. A door glass was smashed, the door opened, and the office ransacked. Nothing was taken, however.

The officers say they believe the thieves then drove to the John Jakubcin farm, ripped the locks from a gasoline tank and filled their car with gas to complete the getaway.

Constable Kelsey said it is believed the same group visited the area Monday morning and tried to break into the Seminole bar. He said they were frightened off before the burglary could be accomplished.

Kelsey reported a number of leads have been obtained in the miniature crime wave. He said the similarity in each instance points to the same gang being involved.

Seminole County school officials said today that the new English Estates school will open as soon as possible but not before March 2.

Officials said that as soon as the lines are connected to the school's plumbing system tests will be made. If they are satisfactory the definite opening date will be announced.

Meanwhile, Principal Morris Ruby announced that the dedication ceremonies would be held as scheduled Feb. 25, at 8 p. m.

Belli Puts On Show Of Anger

DALLAS (UPI) — Jack Ruby's lawyer erupted angrily in court today and twice demanded transfer of the murder trial to another city because two prospective jurors had opinions on insanity and Ruby's guilt.

Chief defense attorney Melvin Belli renewed his motion for a change of venue to any other Texas community when the state insisted on questioning a prospective juror who said he did not believe Ruby could be proved insane at the time he shot Lee Harvey Oswald.

He demanded trial in another city "where it will be apparent that we are not in the dark ages, that there is such a thing as insanity."

Planning Group Asks $70,000 For Studies

By Harry Johnson A financial spark to the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council was assured Wednesday afternoon at a Mayfair Inn meeting with top business, industry and utility representatives.

The representatives, almost to a man, promised to confer with their superiors and to obtain a total of $70,000 which will expedite expensive research now under way by the council.

The council was formed about two years ago to prepare the seven-county area for the explosive growth which is predicted within the next few short years.

The research includes, but is not limited to, water resources, economic conditions, prospective labor supply, utility provisions, air trade review, highway program, rapid transit (monorail) feasibility study, industrial resources, planning and zoning standards, industrial area development, commercial area study, market potentials, consumer survey, housing trends, and legal implementation analysis.

The meeting was conducted by Claude H. Wolfe, council chairman, who introduced the executive director, R. H. Boyle.

The director briefed the visitors on the exhaustive studies now under way and those planned for the immediate future. He noted the urgency of time in the program as surveys soon become obsolete.

Should the $70,000 not be forthcoming, he noted, it would delay the legislative phase for another two years.

A poll of the visiting delegates showed virtually 100 per cent support of the project. Each applauded the work of the council and offered to do his part in getting the necessary funds to speed it up.

Counties in the council include Seminole, Orange, Indian River, Brevard, Volusia, Ocala and Lake. Prior to the meeting the Seminole Chamber of Commerce was host at a luncheon.
