HOROSCOPE By BERNICE BEDE OSOL For Sunday, February 2, 1975 ARIES (March 21-April 19) Persons with whom you have strong emotional ties are most anxious now to appease your interests and aims. TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You'll be lucky today in situations that call for teamwork. Your partner will backstop anything slipping past you. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There are things you can do, if you're industrious enough, that will save you money later on. Get out the repair kit. Go to work. CANCER (June 21-July 21) It has been a trying week. You're entitled to relax and let yourself go. Arrange something that's fun with a few friends. LEO (July 22-Aug. 22) There'll be lots of activity around your house. It will be action you're comfortable with and personally enjoy. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This is not a day to stay home and stare at four walls. Get in touch with people you like. Generate something exciting. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Conditions are developing that aren't yet visible or apparent. They'll have a favorable effect on your finances. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're not the type of person who goes unnoticed. Today, you will draw even more attention than usual. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It's best for the present to keep outsiders' noses out of your business. However, family discussions will bear fruit. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You will notice today that those in your peer group will look to you for leadership. Assert yourself if you feel it's necessary. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Gratifying results await if you direct your full energies into your business. However, family disputes could be avoided. PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You're extremely competent today in helping others out around your house. Their advice you'll offer is sound and far-seeing. YOUR BIRTHDAY FEB. 2, 1975 Important goals will be achieved this year, and you are shining in the eyes of others. You'll be enhanced. Your financial prospects also look favorable — stay on target.

SPORTS Sunday Herald, Sanford, FL. Sunday, Feb. 2, 1975—18 Evans 62, Seminole 35, Dawkins 34 By CHUCK MCCLUNG Orlando Correspondent ORLANDO—The "Snakepit" is the nickname of Orlando Evans' High School gym, and Seminole became the venomous victims of the Trojans in a high school basketball game Friday night. Darryl "Dr. D." Dawkins was the King Corba in Evans' 62-35 triumph over the Trojans. The 6-10, 240-pound frame of the Trojan pivotman stood as the lone soldier in inflicting Seminole's 11th loss in 21 games. Dawkins dropped 34 markers, one less than the Tribe total, complementing his dominance of both boards. The "Dr. D." inspired Trojans advanced to a first quarter 18-4 lead. Dawkins contributed the first six points, finishing the quarter with 12. Randy Brown guided the Seminole in the first quarter, losing in six marks to keep the visitors intact with the towering Trojans. The second stanza previewed Seminole's destruction. Once again Dawkins dropped the Tribe six to increase Evans' margin to 24-14. But Seminole was scoreless until a Brown fielder broke the ice with 3:00 remaining in the quarter. The Tribe managed to score but once more in quarter, going hitless in the last two and a half minutes. Dawkins added 10 more to give the Trojans a 30-18 halftime advantage. The unbelieveable outside accuracy of Dawkins stiffed the Tribe in the first half. Dawkins connected on all shots in the first five minutes. He tossed five-of-six fielders in the first period, six-of-11 in the second in addition to two-of-four at the charity line. Seminole's John Corso, No. 22, battles for a rebound. Court Shuns NFL In Joe Kapp Ruling NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League says it is not ready to abandon the standard player contract or its recently concluded draft despite a federal court ruling in the Joe Kapp case that will keep it from appealing for perhaps a year or more. U.S. District Court Judge William T. Sweigert ruled on Friday that the NFL may not appeal the case — which declared illegal parts of the standard player contract and draft and at the Roelle Rule — until damages have been set. Sweigert set May 19 for the jury trial to decide how much money the NFL must give Kapp, and Kapp says he will ask for $10 million. That means a substantial delay in any appeal. But in the meantime, the NFL insists it will be business as usual. "From a legal standpoint, today's developments neither clarify nor advance the situation beyond the court's earlier memorandum decision," the league said here Friday. "The merits of that decision are, in our attorneys' judgment, very much in doubt." "Accordingly, we have no immediate plans for any change in our practices pending final determination of these issues, either through the judicial system or by collective bargaining between the NFL clubs and the players," a spokesman said. The decision by Sweigert indeed neither clarified nor advanced the situation, which is that the standard player contract, Roelle Rule and part of the college draft violate antitrust laws. Sweigert on Dec. 20 ruled they restricted a player's ability to freely negotiate his services. "I'm 36 now, and they took away 33, 34, 35 and 36," said Kapp, who took the Minnesota Vikings in the 1970 Super Bowl, the last game he played for the Vikings. The following year, he and the Vikes could not agree on a contract. So Kapp, who had played out the option year, signed with the Boston Patriots for $200,000 a year. The Vikings, under the Roelle Rule, got a player and a draft choice from the Patriots. Kapp played at Boston in 1970, but before the next season Roelle said Kapp had failed to sign a standard player contract, and that was it for the first quarterback. Kapp refused, quit, and tried his suit a year later. "I didn't quit pro football. I was forced out," Kapp said. MIAAMI (AP) — Peter Wright, a 23-year-old senior at Elmhurst College in Illinois, has won the five-race Star-class series for yachts here over five-time champion James Schoonmaker. The two were tied on points after the last heat Friday but Wright was given the title with a 3-2 edge over Schoonmaker, 42 of Miami, because he defeated him once during the series.

Greyhounds Trail Evans ORLANDO—Orlando Evans, not heavily-favored Lyman High School, led the Metro Conference wrestling championship going into Saturday's matches. Evans led after Friday's first round with 18 points. Lyman, which easily won the event last year winning 10 of the 12 weight classes, are at Evans' heels with 17½ points. A surprise win by Lyman's Jerry Lyman over No. 1 seed Rick Moore of Orlando Boone in the 188-pound weight class helped put Lyman into the two-way race with Evans. Human decisioner Moore 8-3. Five Lyman wrestlers pinned their opponents to advance to the second round Saturday morning. Jeff Clayton, seeded No. 1 in the 170-pound division, pinned his Oak Ridge foe in 2:47. Top seed in the 141-pound category, Lyman's Jim Horwath, rendered his opponent helpless in 3:41. Lyman's Guy Campbell pinned his opponent in 1:27 in the 135-pound group. David Lesure pinned his foe in 2:35 in the 129-pound class and Doug Peters, top seeded in the 110-pound class, pinned his challenger in 35 seconds. With the rapid pin Peters extended his dual meet win to 11-1. KISSIMMEE: Jones 6-4; Koger 7-14; McCrimmon 2-0-4; Longbrake 2-0-4; Williams 4-1-9. OVIDO: Patterson 14-17-9; Ribson 1-0-2; Browdy 4-12; Moore 1-0-2; Borowski 3-0-4; Worth 1-0-2. KISSIMMEE 14 13 10 14-55 OVIDO 14 14 8 2-12 Total Fouls: Kissimmee 6, Ovidio 13. Fouled Out: None. Cage Thriller: Ovidio Lions Top Kowboys By LEE GEIGER Herald Correspondent OVIDO—Clarence Patterson, Ovidio's Mr. Everything, played an outstanding half-court basketball game to lead the Lions to a thrilling 33-17 Friday night win over the Kissimmee Kowboys. Patterson lead all scorers with 29 points and was a demon on the offensive boards. But at the other end of the court the 6-4 senior used his unique style of man-to-man defense. Patterson constantly left his man to double team a Kowboy allowing Kissimmee several rebounds and easy shots. The Lions were forced into the man-to-man defense when Kissimmee stalled with more than two minutes left in the first half. In the first period, with Kissimmee in a man-to-man and Ovidio in a zone, the Lions jumped to their biggest lead of the night when Patterson ran off three straight baskets for a 16-0 lead. The Kowboys countered with scores by John Williams and Derrick Koger to trail by two points at the buzzer. Koger deadlocked the game 19 seconds into the second period with a driving one hander. The lead swayed back and forth the remainder of the quarter as both teams played outstanding ball. Kissimmee player-maker Willie Jones tallied the Ovidio zone twice and layed the ball off to one of his teammates late in the first half. On both occasions the Kowboys came up with easy baskets and Kissimmee took 25-24 with over three minutes to play. After rebounding a long jump shot by Eddie Browdy, the Kowboys sat on the ball until the first second when Jones hit on a base-line jump shot to give Kissimmee a three-point advantage at halftime. Kissimmee's stall continued in the third period as the Lions were forced out of their zone into a pressing man-for-man defense. Koger, Patterson's man, scored six points to give the Kowboys a six-point lead, 37-31, going into the final eight minutes. After Jones came to give the Kowboys their biggest lead of the evening, eight points, with 7:45 left in the game, Patterson led an Ovidio charge. Browdy took a perfect pass from Patterson as he tumbled to the hoop for a lay-up. It was the

Bernice Bede Orol's this week in astrology

Dear Bernice:
My daughter is pretty, very sociable and has no problem talking to boys. But she is developing a complex because, after only a couple dates, they drop her. Would her horoscope show why? Her birth date is Aug. 1, 1957.

DEAR DISTURBED:
YOUR DAUGHTER'S CHART SHOWS, THOUGH SHE IS WARM AND GRACIOUS, SHE IS ALSO QUITE EXACTING IN HER ROMANTIC IDEALS. HER DATES UNDOUBTLY PICK UP THESE VIBES AND REALIZE THEY DO NOT SATISFY THAT WHICH SHE IS SEEKING IN A COMPANION. ALSO, IT ISN'T LIKELY SHE IS AS PERMISSIVE AS SOME OF HER CONTEMPORARIES. IF SHE LOSES DATES FOR THIS REASON IT'S A SMALL LOSS. I WOULDN'T BE TOO CONCERNED. SHE'LL EVENTUALLY MEET MR. RIGHT!

BERNICE PREDICTS
AT THE BEGINNING OF THE WEEK OF FEB. 2-FEB. 8 YOU'LL FIND OTHERS WILL BECOME ANGRY THAN USUAL IF YOU FAIL TO LIVE UP TO WHAT'S EXPECTED OF YOU. DURING THIS PERIOD ON THE NATIONAL SCENE, AN UNPOPULAR LEGAL ISSUE WILL PROVOKE HOSTILE REACTIONS AND HEADLINES. MIDWEEK, A VERY BUSY CONGRESS DOES A LOT OF PAPER-SHUFFLING, LITTLE OF IT OF REAL VALUE IN DEALING WITH OUR FINANCIAL WOES. BUSINESS IS STIMULATED BY SOMETHING THAT OCCURS TOWARD THE CLOSE OF THE WEEK. IT ISN'T LIKELY LABOR WILL FIND IT SO HEARTENING.

Student's Corner
IN A HOROSCOPE WHEN MERCURY AND NEPTUNE ARE UNFAVORABLY ASPECTED YOU'LL FIND A PERSON WHO IS VAGUE AND SELF-DELUDED. THE POSSESSOR OF THIS ASPECT CAN ALSO BE CUNNING AND DECEITFUL.

YOUR BIRTHDAY...this Week and this Month

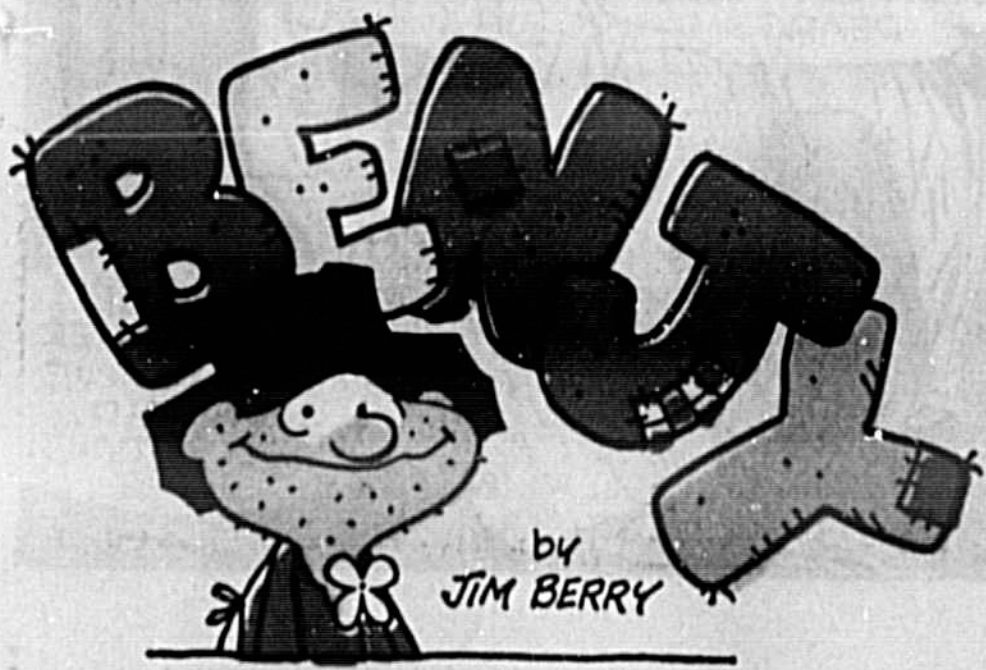

Assets:
AQUARIUS JAN. 20 FEB. 19
AQUARIANS ARE PROGRESSIVE THINKERS WHO LIKE TO DEAL WITH NEW IDEAS, REFORMS AND FUTURISTIC PROGRAMS. MANY FAMOUS INVENTORS WERE BORN WITH A STRONG AQUARIAN INFLUENCE IN THEIR CHARTS.

Future:
NEW CONTACTS THAT AQUARIANS ARE PRESENTLY MAKING WILL PLAY A MORE PERMANENT ROLE IN THEIR AFFAIRS THAN WILL BE SUSPECTED IN THE INITIAL MEETING!

Weakness:
PERSONS BORN UNDER THE SIGN OF AQUARIUS HAVE AN AIR OF DETACHMENT ABOUT THEM WHICH SOMETIMES LEADS OTHERS TO BELIEVE THEY ARE WITHOUT REAL WORTH.

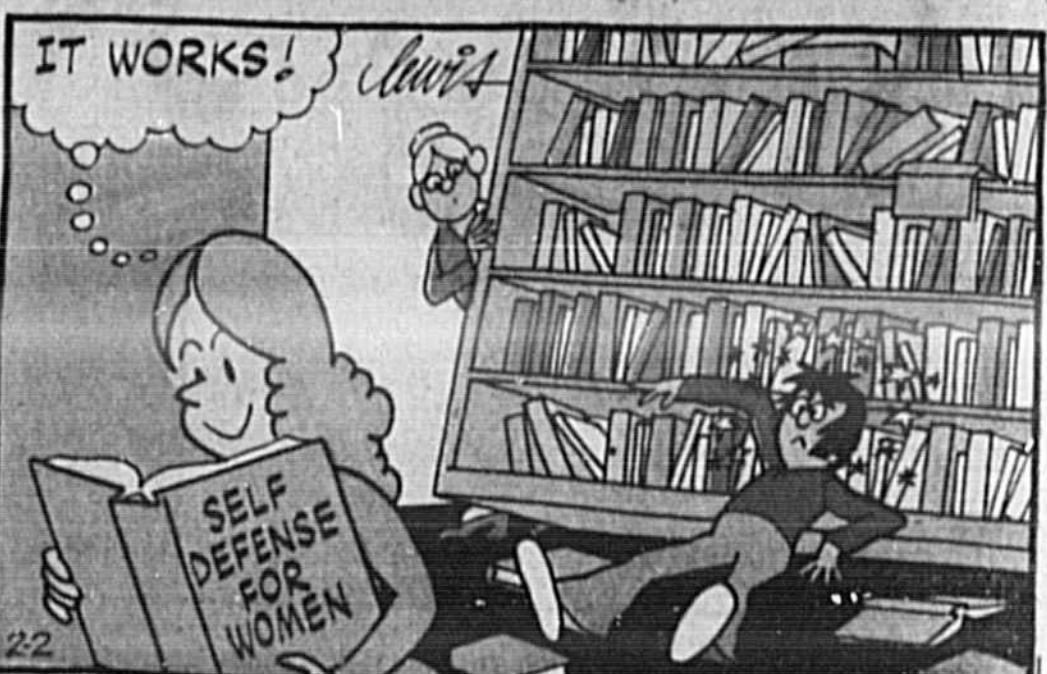

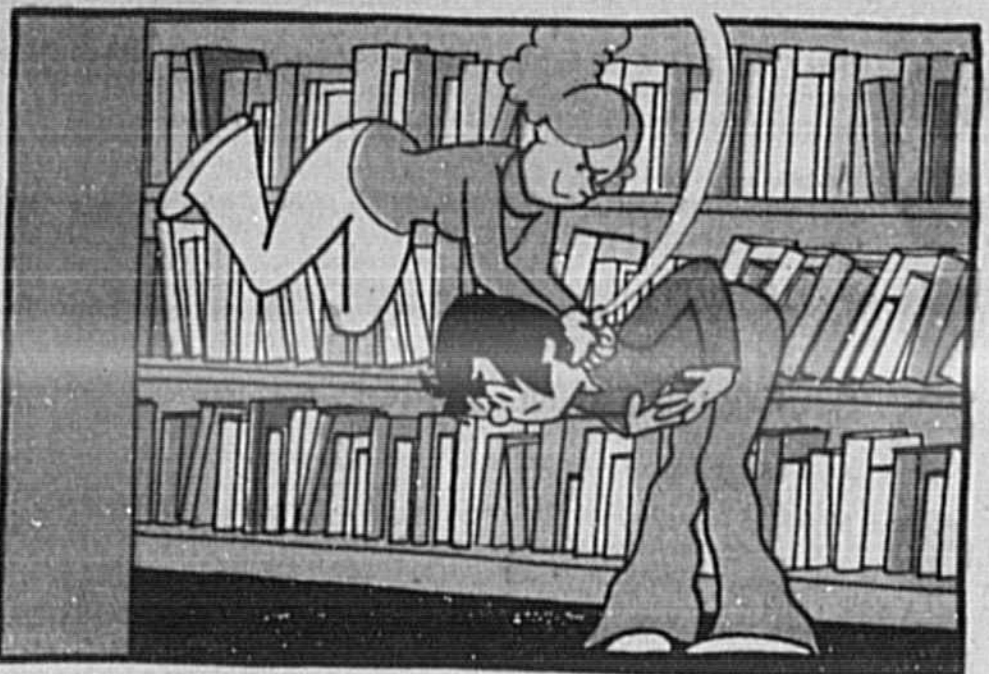

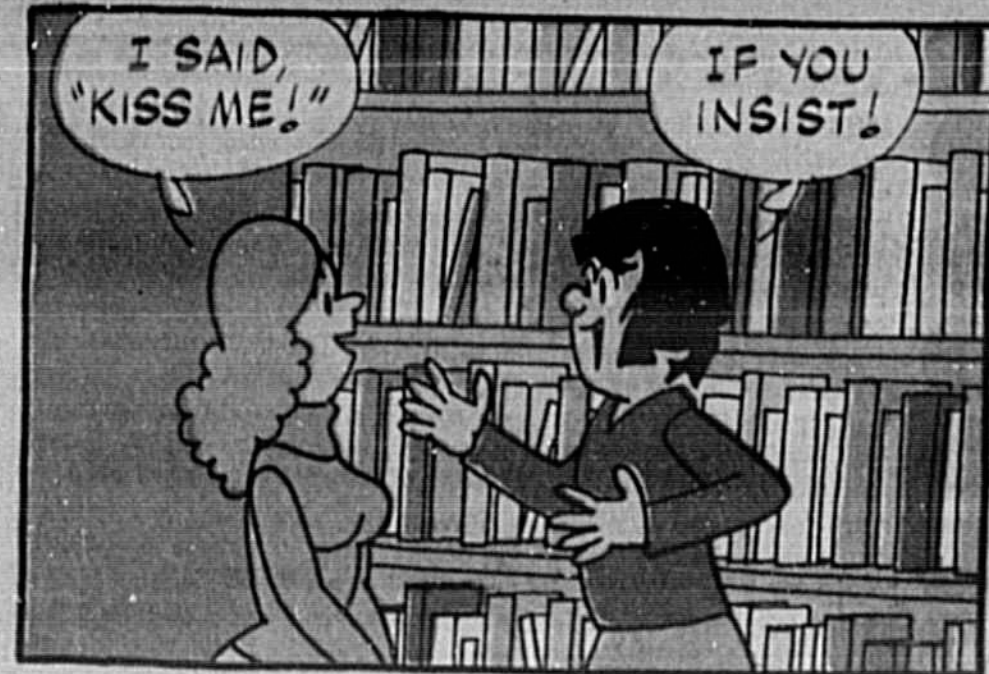

YOUR WEEK AHEAD

- ARIES (March 21-April 19) Sunday, Monday you'll benefit from shared interests. Not enough follow-through Tuesday, Wednesday, for your ideas. An unexpected break Thursday. Status shaky at week's end.
- TAURUS (April 10-May 20) You're lucky through associations Sunday, Monday. Business advantages are not fully exploited midweek. You make an unusual agreement Thursday. Keep ideas to yourself this weekend.
- GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Career benefits early in the week. Arrangements made with others midweek will not hold up. Thursday's profitable. Be watchful. Conditions generally get trickier as week closes.
- CANCER (June 21-July 22) Sunday, Monday, are socially rewarding. Tuesday, Wednesday, will be productive if you have capable help. A unique bargain Thursday. Weekend, one-to-one relationships are problematical.
- LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Sunday, Monday, favorable for family interests. Much social activity midweek, but watch extravagance. Tasks come easily Thursday. Responsibilities are more complex as week closes.
- VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Something can be made of good news early in the week. Family matters occupy your time midweek. You're very popular, Thursday, but guard your temper both Friday and Saturday.
- LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Financial conditions are favorable as week opens. Tuesday, Wednesday, plans are too scattered. Thursday's materially rewarding for family. Don't be wasteful. You get a great idea Thursday. Treat others as you'd like to be treated this weekend.
- SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Take charge Sunday, Monday. Midweek offers good material prospects, but don't be wasteful. You get a great idea Thursday. Treat others as you'd like to be treated this weekend.
- SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your interests are protected by others as week opens. Personal goals can be reached midweek if you don't procrastinate. Thursday, good for business. Tighten money belt this weekend.
- CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You'll mix well with groups Sunday, Monday. Keep financial affairs secret Tuesday, Wednesday. A new interest is awakened Thursday. Co-operation is sparse as week closes.
- AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Concentrate on major goals beginning of week. Others help you midweek, while a pal lets you down. An unexpected victory Thursday. Responsibilities hem you in Friday, Saturday.
- PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Important. Lay sound plans as week begins. Opportunity abounds midweek, but you'll have to seek it. Thursday, good news from a distance. Weekend, something you do angers friends.

THIS WEEK'S TOP PRIZE QUESTION

CARMEN RONALEZ OF PONCE, PUERTO RICO ASKS:

"WHAT IS THE SALTIER SEA?"

THE SALTIER BODY OF WATER IN THE WORLD IS THE DEAD SEA, LOCATED BETWEEN ISRAEL AND JORDAN. THE WATER IS ABOUT 25 PER CENT SALT, ABOUT SEVEN TIMES AS SALTY AS THE OCEAN. IT IS SO SALTY THAT A SWIMMER CANNOT SINK DEEPER THAN HIS ARMPITS. THE DEAD SEA IS REALLY A LAKE. IT IS CALLED 'DEAD' BECAUSE FISH CANNOT LIVE IN IT AND ONLY A FEW KINDS OF SIMPLE PLANTS CAN GROW BECAUSE OF THE SALTINESS OF THE WATER.

DEAR POLLY — When patching wallpaper you generally find the new pieces are much brighter than that which is on the wall. Put what is to be used for patching in the sun and watch carefully until it has faded as much as that on the walls. — LORI.

DEAR POLLY — To teach children to make their own beds, start at night. Show them how to fold the bedspread while it is still on the bed. Next morning the child can place the folded spread on the bed, start unfolding and find it goes into place easily and neatly. — MRS.D.K.

DEAR POLLY — Spray a bit of vegetable cooking oil on bottle caps such as on syrup, catsup, etc., after they are thoroughly washed and dried. The caps will turn with ease. No more sticking. — EVELYN.

DEAR POLLY — My Pointer is for those girls who have trouble keeping cream eye shadow on. Before putting on the cream or liquid shadow, apply powder. This solves the problem. — PAM.

DEAR POLLY — It is surprising what you can save on your food bill, if you take the recipes you plan to use that week along when you shop. This eliminates purchasing the wrong types of food and saves on buying too much. — MRS. J.L.H.

APPLY POWDER BEFORE CREAM OR LIQUID EYE SHADOW

DEAR POLLY — I needed some new tank-top blouses and sweater vests. I got a great money saving idea while looking through some old knit skirts with unique knitted waistbands. To make a top I turned a skirt upside down, leaving the waistband as a waistband, and then out of the skirt part I cut armholes and neck. After sewing up the shoulder seams, hemming the neck opening and armholes I had a nice tank top. — VOVEE.

DEAR POLLY — The directions I have read for making those floor-length, round tablecloths all omit to shrink the material (if washable) before cutting. I learned this the hard way. After I washed mine it was no longer a perfect circle. — MRS.L.V.

Goin' Places, Doin' Things

By JEAN PATTESON
Women's Editor

Nothing makes one feel quite so good, as seeing deserving persons being recognized for the good works they do in the community.

Which means there were a lot of people feeling good at the Annual Awards Dinner hosted by the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, Friday evening in the beautiful clubhouse at The Forest, Lake Mary.

When asked if he'd be attending, 1974 Chamber president Garnett White replied, "You bet—I'll be there with bells on." And that was the feeling of members and guests in general—they wouldn't have missed it for anything! With Garnett and his wife, Paulette, was current president Wayne Albert and his wife, Tracy.

Responsible for transforming the naturally attractive Forest clubhouse into a festive dream, was decorations committee chairman, Rose Southward, and her committee: Janet Martin, Jean Meyer, Eloise Collins and Peg Horner, wife of Chamber executive manager, Jack Harner.

Highlight of the evening was the awards ceremony, and highest honors, the Topper Award, was presented by Chamber past president Mack Cleveland to Dr. George H. Starke for his "long-lived loyalty and untiring efforts for community development." We add our congratulations, Doctor—you're a Topper, indeed.

School Supt. William P. (Bud) Lauer presented certificates of appreciation on behalf of the Chambers to Seminole High School principal Don Reynolds, and Jim Rowe, president of the school's Athletic Boosters Club, for their efforts in realizing the dream of a stadium at Seminole High.

Past president Harold Kastner presented organizers of the successful Farm-City Week held in downtown Sanford and the Plaza, for their hard work, including: Wendell Springfield, Cecil Tucker, Glen McCall, Stephanie Cain and Frank Jans.

Central Florida Zoological Society president Jim Ryan honored Staa Brock, Jack Hanna and Al Rosen for their untiring and ever-cheerful efforts to move the animals from the old Sanford Zoo to the new Central Florida Zoological Park.

And a Chamber director, Janice Springfield, thanked The Forest manager Bob Anderson, for helping make the awards dinner a night to remember.

The news media were thanked by Chamber Past President George Touhy, and Charlie Reese, who was instrumental in bringing the Sanford Presents concert series to the city, was thanked by John Carli, Chamber vice president.

Also attending will be Sen. John Vogt, D-Cooca, chairman of Seminole County legislative delegation, and Rep. Bob Hattaway, D-Altamonte Springs.

Finally, the Chamber of Commerce having honored so many of our community leaders, we'd like to add a word of appreciation to the Chamber for its hard work on behalf of the Greater Sanford community. It's good to know your doors are always open to all of us.

Members of the Women's Club of Sanford will be swinging into Spring, March 19, when a morning coffee and fashion show is presented at the Woman's Club on Oak Avenue. Chairman of the event is Rose Southward, who will be assisted by Betty Flamm, Dorothy Reynolds and Nora Gordon. The spring fashions to be featured will be supplied by Mary Ester's and Nora Gordon of Merle Norman Cosmetics.

Taking care of refreshments will be Florence Stenstrom with her committee: Sandra Wilson, Mildred Stemper, Peggy Conrad, Mona Jarvis and Gladys Wray.

Be prepared also for a humorous fashion show in the spring. Because that's what Johnnie Elam and Pat Foster are preparing to surprise you with. And finally, news of this springtime fashion show is brought to you by FR Persons, Annette Wing and Evelyn Kieckhefer.

Generally speaking, kings inherit their thrones, they don't run for royal office. But with the King of the Valentine Ball, things are slightly different, for it's the guy who gathers the most votes at a penny-a-vote who rules the hearts of all who attend the ball.

With less than a week to go now to this annual charity event (Feb. 8 is the day to remember for the Valentine Ball) the race is on among the county's dozen king contestants to see who will collect the most votes—hopefully hundreds of dollars worth, because all proceeds go to the Central Florida Zoo.

Royal vote-gatherers include: Dick Richburg, Florida US Bank of Seminole; Bill Brown, Atlantic National Bank of Sanford; Ken Powers, Hoyal vote-gatherers include: Harry Hoffon, Dearborn Corp.; Troy Ray Jr., Sister Club; Joe Garrett, Business and Professional Women's Club; Ed Simon, Knights of Columbus; Quiser Sagar, Metro News; Larry Blair, Jaycees; Al Bowling, Music Unlimited; John Foster, Sanford Police Dept.; and Ed Stowe, Sanford-Seminole Art Association.

Holding his own during his freshman year at East Carolina University, Greenville, and bringing honor to his hometown of Sanford, is Jeffrey Sweeney, son of Gordon and Vivienne Sweeney, who was among the 2,973 students earning places on the university's official honors lists for the past Fall quarter.

A 1974 graduate of Trinity Prep, Jeffrey is still undecided what his major will be, but is considering art, architecture or law. Right now, says Vivienne, snow skiing is uppermost on his mind.

When the Mental Health Association of Seminole County meets Monday night at 7:30 in the Altamonte Springs Civic Center, featured speaker will be Cheryl Casey, learning disabilities teacher at Idylwild Elementary School, Sanford.

Cheryl, who has a degree in Elementary Education from the University of Jacksonville and later spent time doing in-service training studying the learning disabled children, has taught in Seminole County for the past four years.

She plans to illustrate her talk on the problems facing the learning disabled child with slides. These children, says Cheryl, are not performing in accordance with their ability, usually due to perceptual problems.

JUNIORS DONATE OLYMPICS FLAG

HEARTS, ANIMALS DECORATE BALL

THANKS AGAIN, SAYS ZOO

Her Kitchen Is Off-Limits

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I read the letter in your column from the busy business woman who didn't know how to tell some of her well-meaning guests that she didn't want them in the kitchen trying to help her, and I had to send you this. It's something I saw printed in large letters, hanging at the entrance of a dear friend's kitchen. (Needless to say, we stay out of each other's kitchens now.)

Please stay away from my kitchen. From my dishwashing, cooking and such. You are kind to have offered to help me.

And I do want to thank you so much. I hope you won't think me ungracious.

When I ask that you leave me alone. For my kitchen is not very spacious. But my system is strictly my own.

So please stay out of my kitchen. It may well prevent a few wars.

And when I'm invited to your house I promise to stay out of yours! C.O.V.I.N.E.W.P.O.R.T., CAL.

DEAR C: That would be great in need. You could make your point, and gently needle your friends at the same time. Thanks for sharing.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. My granddaughter is getting married and she has asked me—her grandmother—to be her matron of honor!

Now, Abby, I am a 75-year-old, gray-haired, old lady, and have never heard of such a thing. Can you help me out and tell me if this is proper or not? Please let me honestly, do you think I would look ridiculous?

RHODE ISLANDER: Of course it's proper. Your granddaughter could not have paid you a more beautiful compliment. Accept it graciously, but let one of the other girls catch the bridal bouquet!

DEAR ABBY: I just read that letter from the man who was driving when his 16-year-old son was killed instantly in a freak accident. The father walked away with only a small cut on his nose. His wife blamed him, and she became cool and distant.

Abby, I have been through the heartache of losing a beautiful two-and-a-half-year-old daughter (our only child) when her father accidentally ran over her with a tractor. She died in my arms on the way to the hospital.

Not once did I dream of turning away from my husband when he needed me so much. We lived through that nightmare together, giving strength to each other. How that lady could continue to punish her husband on top of the punishment he is giving himself is beyond me.

She should realize that she has much to be thankful for. God spared her her husband. And God let her keep her son for 16 years. I thank God for letting me keep my daughter for two and a half years, and I thank Him for taking her without allowing her to suffer. If you think this will help that poor mother in her grief, you may print it. It was written in memory of my daughter.

L.J. BENT, ALA. DEAR ABBY: I am a nurse, working in the emergency room of a general hospital. Please tell people to put their phone numbers on the back of their car registrations or their driver's licenses.

You have no idea how difficult it can be to find a patient's phone number in a hurry when we need permission for treating someone who is unconscious, or who is a minor.

What a tremendous service you would perform if you'd print this.

R.N. IN AMBLER, PA. DEAR R.N.: Consider it done! And add your blood type and the fact that you're allergic to certain drugs—if you are.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem involving tact. I don't drive. Each week I go to a meeting with a neighbor who lives a few doors from me. Her ally chatter and vicious gossip bore me; however, it's convenient to be driven by her and I appreciate it.

She recently went on a two-month trip, and in her absence another club member offered to drive me, even though it meant going about five minutes out of her way. We have now become good friends.

My problem is how to get around to telling my neighbor that I don't need her transportation any more for these club meetings. My new friend doesn't care for her gossiping tongue either.

I'm afraid if I offend my neighbor, her vicious tongue will lash out on me.

IN A BIND DEAR IN: Don't be black-mailed. If you prefer to be driven by your new friend, simply tell your neighbor that you have transportation. How can she hurt you? People of quality pay no attention to vicious gossip. And who else matters?

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box No. 6790, L.A., Calif. 90047. Enclose stamp, self-addressed envelope, please.

Make to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 122 Lakely Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212, for Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20c) envelope.

Fun, Fellowship Fill 'The Forest'

A capacity crowd of 224 Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce members and guests filled the clubhouse of The Forest, Lake Mary, Friday night for an evening of fun and fellowship at the Annual Chamber Awards Dinner.

According to Chamber Executive Manager Jack Horner, this was the largest awards dinner the Chamber has hosted, and The Forest manager Jack Anderson agreed it was one of the largest functions ever catered at his development.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the coveted Topper Award for community service. Mack Cleveland Jr., a Chamber past president, made the award to George H. Starke, M.D., for his long-lived loyalty and untiring efforts for community development.

Certificates of appreciation were presented to many other persons for their accomplishments during 1974 in the area of community service.

Chamber president for 1974, Garnett White, and 1975 president Wayne Albert, with their wives, were among the members attending. Also present were representatives of the Chambers of Commerce for Lake Mary, Altamonte-Casselberry and DeLand.

Open House

The much delayed "open house" for the viewing of the city's first municipal building, the Fire Station-Interim City Hall, finally took place on Jan. 26 from 4 to 6 p.m. Dignitaries present were James Lormann, mayor of Longwood and his charming wife, Marcia; June Lormann, councilman from Longwood; George Perkins, Altamonte Springs councilman; Robert Koch, architect for the building; and "Hat" Hattaway, local realtor.

Representing the city of Winter Springs were Mayor Troy Filand and his wife Marilyn, Councilman and Mrs. Don Browning, Councilman and Mrs. John Daniels, Councilman Frank Durrance and Irwin Hunter, City Clerk Mary Norton, Fire Chief and Mrs. Charles Holzman and Police Chief and Mrs. John Gavoruk. Serving the refreshments of coffee, punch and cookies were Anita Gavoruk, Marilyn Pland, Lezie Browning and Mary Daniels.

A small group of interested citizens viewed the building during the two-hour open house.

Cub Scout

Cub Scout Pack 196, of the Central Florida Council of Scouting held its monthly pack meeting on Jan. 25 at the Winter Springs Community Center Association Building at the bottom of N Edgemon.

Cubmaster Lonnie Friend officiated at the awards ceremony. Recipients of the Bob Cat Badge were Scott Bowersox and Billy Pinta. Receiving Wolf Badges were Kevin Kulper, Kevin Hale, Alan Youngblood, Steven Berg and Randy Couch. A Bear Badge was awarded to Bryan Lutinski. Wolf Gold Arrows were awarded to Kevin Kulper, Shawn Mize, Kevin Hale and Steven Berg. A Bear Gold Arrow was presented to Eduardo Gamba. Kevin Kulper and Todd Johnson received Wolf Silver Arrows and Eduardo Gamba received a Bear Silver Arrow. Jeff Connor was inducted into the Webelos, and Doug Eldridge, Fred Schneider, Dick Lanza Jr., Bruce Peterson, Bob Ford, Mark Huggins and Fred Maynard all received Webelos Awards.

The annual Pack inspection followed the awards ceremony. Officiating was Al Plumber, commission member for the Central Florida Council of Scouting.

The big event of the day was the annual Pinewood Derby Race. The scouts were each given a block of wood and requested to cut and shape it into a racing car. Full rules are given to choice of color, design, and insignia.

Grand prize winner this year was Charles Maynard. Keith Friend took second place and Max Campbell won third prize.

The Winter Springs Elementary School will host a "Lite-A-Bike" program sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Winter Springs Post 5405 on Feb. 8 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The program is opened to all residents who own bikes and is not limited to children. Safety reflecting tape will be applied to the bikes to provide greater visibility on the road. All who wish may also have their identification number engraved on their bike to aid in the event of the bike being lost or stolen.

All those who participate will be served hot dogs and coffee, free of charge.

The member of the VFW and the Winter Springs Police Dept. will be on hand to assist.

Fire Volunteers
A membership drive will be soon undertaken by the Winter Springs Volunteer Fire Dept. "Although we have one of the finest volunteer organizations in the area, a city can never have too much help or training in the area of fire protection," claims Fire Chief Charles Holzman.

Ladies Enjoy Shriners Installation

By Fannetta Edwards
Herald Correspondent
In a beautiful setting in Union Hall of Stetson University, three Shrine Clubs in this area, Deltona, All States (DeBary) and DeLand, performed installation ceremonies of new officers and invited women as their guests on this special "Ladies' Night."

The Most Illustrious Potentate of Bahía Temple in Orlando, where most of the Shriners belong, and his Divan served dinner, were the installing officers. The three Shrine Clubs decided last year to hold all three installations at one time. Installed into the Deltona Club were: Gordon Leisenring, president; Henry Sprague, first vice-president; Carl Dech, second vice-president; Robert Mero, secretary and Ralph Kelp, treasurer; and to the board of governors, Rudy Westerman, Earl Langworthy, Carl Miller and H.C. Neuhaus. Officers in the All State Club included: Fred Taper, president; Art Hartung, first vice-president; Fred Kirchner, second vice-president; Ralph Gebert, secretary and Al Pollock, treasurer.

The Winter Springs Community Association held a special meeting on Jan. 24 to discuss informally plans for an upcoming dance, and ways and means to accumulate the necessary funds to complete the Recreation Building owned by the organization and on land leased by the city to that organization.

Women's Concerns: Family And Society

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Here are some quotable quotes from women during the week:
"I'm not going to defect. I'm not a criminal." Victoria Fyodorov, 28-year-old Russian actress who wants to visit her American father in Miami.
"Polls are merely a checkup over you know what you're doing." Dr. Margaret Mead, noted anthropologist, speaking at a news conference at the opening of the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in New York.
"I'd like to do social work when I stop acting. It would be rewarding and interesting. There are a lot of underprivileged people about and not enough is being done to help them." Glenda Jackson, winner of 50 acting awards, interviewed in London.
"I want to give him the normal life of a normal child."

Ms. Joshua Knoir of Tel Aviv, speaking after her son Danny was returned to her in Israel over protests from his father who lives in New York.
"All my life Hollywood has been telling me how to live my life. Getting a divorce wasn't something I wanted to do, it was something Hollywood told me to do." Actress Sue Lyons, who said in Denver she's giving up efforts to return to Hollywood and her attempt to divorce her husband, convicted murderer Cotton Adomson.

Endometriosis Her Problem

By LAWRENCE E. LAMB
Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — Please write something in your column about endometriosis. Is there danger of this re-occurring 10 years after a hysterectomy in which both ovaries were removed because of this condition? Should one take female hormone injections regularly or could this cause any endometrial implants to activate again?

DEAR READER — This is one of the more interesting diseases that affects women. It is caused by small, or not so small, areas of endometrial tissue growing in the wrong place. The endometrium is the lining tissue of the womb. This specialized tissue undergoes changes in response to a woman's menstrual cycle. It must enlarge and prepare for the implantation of the fertilized ovum in the uterine wall. If menstruation occurs during pregnancy, it does not occur.

Endometrial tissue may be transplanted outside the uterus, within the ovaries, the colon, bladder or even in distant places like the lungs. The transplanted tissue responds to the menstrual cycle in the same way it does in the uterus. It enlarges to a maximum amount just before ovulation, then degenerates if pregnancy doesn't occur.

How does the endometrial lining tissue get into the ovaries and other locations in the pelvis and abdomen? There are still disputes about this, but one factor in many cases seems to be the discharge of the endometrial tissue through the tubes of the uterus. Normally the menstrual flow is out of the cervix, but in some cases apparently the tissue and blood are forced backward or out through the open tubes of the uterus directly into the abdominal cavity.

The ends of the tube are normally open so the ovum can enter the tube after it is released from the ovary to be fertilized. If the tubes are not open, pregnancy doesn't occur.

Most of the tissue is implanted in the ovaries or in the pelvic region. It becomes attached and is really a tissue transplant. It may invade the organ it attaches to, but it is not a malignancy or cancer.

There has to be additional explanations for the implants in the lungs and areas outside the pelvis and abdominal cavity. One idea is that the tissue cells are picked up by the bloodstream or by the lymphatic system and circulated to distant spots. We know cancer cells spread this way.

What effects do these implants have? The most striking feature is pain. It can be severe. The location of the pain depends upon the location of the offending implant. It may affect the ovaries, and often does, causing pressure which causes the pain. Characteristically, the pain is just before the onset of ovulation, the time when the endometrial tissue should be at its near maximum development in the cycle.

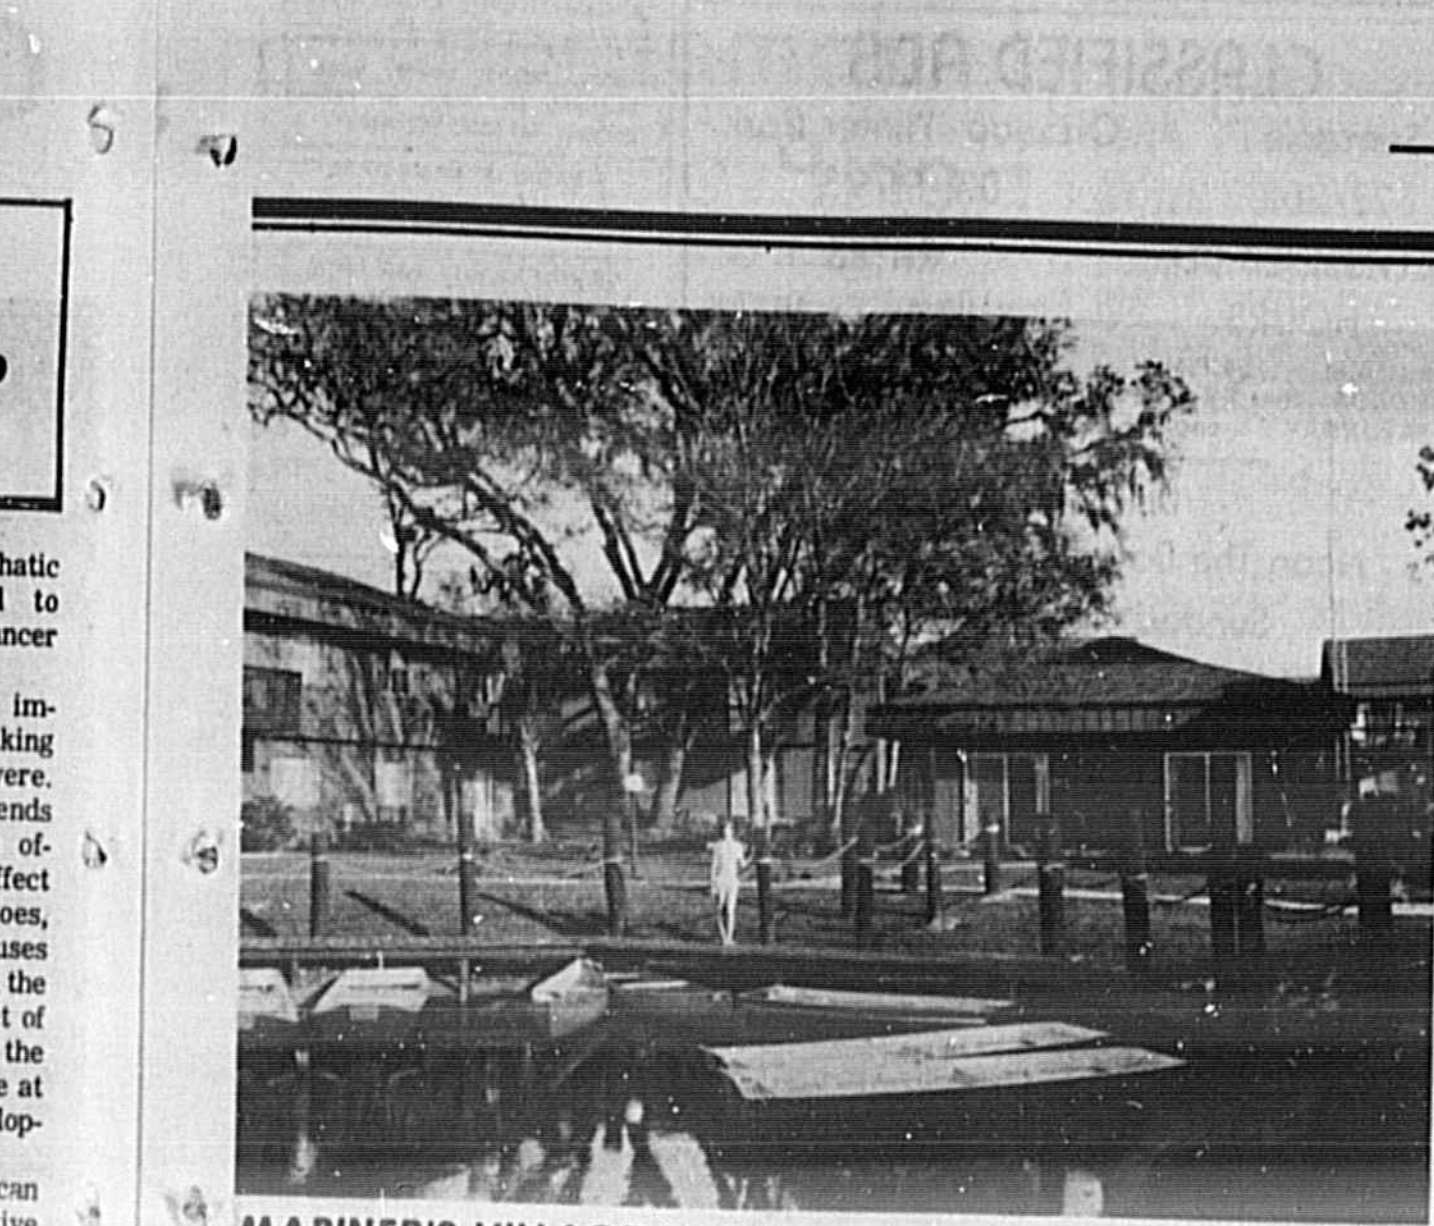

Implants in the bowel can cause intermittent obstructive symptoms and pain. If the invasion of the intestinal wall is deep enough it can cause boweling into the bowel at the time of the menstrual period. This can be separated from cancer by examining the tissue and noting this response in relation to the monthly cycle.

Invasion into the wall of the bladder can cause bladder pain above the pubic bone and also may cause periodic blood in the urine.

These are just a few of the symptoms that can be caused by the multiple variations in implants of endometrial tissue throughout the body. Painful bowel movements and painful intercourse can do and occur in some cases.

The other big symptom of endometriosis is infertility. You might think this would be from blockage of the tubes from surrounding endometrial implants. The tubes can be demonstrated to be open and still pregnancy is impossible. Of course a certain amount of ovarian destruction can occur, too.

Interestingly, women stop having symptoms of endometriosis when they are pregnant. The absence of menstruation and ovulation during a pregnancy provides relief from the problem.

Fabric Texture Major Factor

By LOUISE L. GILL
Extension Home Economics Agent
When it comes time to redecorate your home, consider the effects created by upholstery and slipcover fabrics. Color, texture and pattern of the fabric are important in the room's overall effect.

Colors set the mood. Fabrics of bright, intense colors are more stimulating than muted or grayed colors. Choose colors you like and find personally attractive; after all, you'll be living with them.

Besides changing the mood of a room, color can tie together and change the appearance of its size. If the largest pieces of furniture blend into the background, the room may seem larger. An overly large sofa will seem less conspicuous if its fabric is close in color to that of the wall.

Always think of a color in relation to its background and those colors surrounding it. A room full of colors is distracting. Instead, variety can come through using different textures or tones of a single color in the fabrics.

Fabric texture adds character to a room. For instance, consider the humbleness of denim or the elegance of silk.

Realtors: Decision Is Close County Multiple Listing Is Okayed

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Two weeks ago we predicted there was 50-50 chance of the Seminole County Board of Realtors voting to establish its own multiple listing service. We almost hit it right on the head.

The organization, by a slim one-and-a-half vote margin, voted to set up its own MLS. It should be under way, officials tell us, about the first week in April. The Board is signing a contract with Real Estate Computers, Inc., Fort Lauderdale, to publish the weekly MLS printout book. The lower east coast publishing house is headed by Fritz Gale, former Central Florida Realtor and well known author of a number of books and other publications dealing with real estate.

The Seminole County Board is now the 15th largest board of 77 affiliated with the Florida Association of Realtors and is the only board this large without its own multiple listing service. Heretofore, Seminole County based Realtors and Realtor-Associates have been utilizing the multiple listing service operated as a subsidiary of the Orlando-Winter Park Board of Realtors.

The Veterans Administration has announced that any veteran who has also qualified for and received an eligibility certificate, even though he has used it on one or more previous occasions, is now eligible to use it again with any compelling reason, that is provided he has been relieved of any responsibility on a previously VA guaranteed mortgage.

Up until now a veteran could only be authorized to use his VA eligibility certificate on another home provided there was a compelling reason such as a job transfer, medical reasons, etc. The compelling reason provision has been eliminated.

The veteran must, however, obtain a satisfaction on the VA guaranteed mortgage. There is one exception. Should he sell his present home by mortgage assumption the veteran can be relieved of any mortgage responsibility provided the purchaser can meet VA "qualification" requirements relating to adequate income, area stability, job stability and an acceptable credit rating.

Finally, under the FHA-VET program, even if a veteran has already used his eligibility, can purchase a home with an FHA insured mortgage for only $200 down on the first $25,000 and 20 per cent of the next $10,000 and 20 per cent of the remainder. However, pre-pays may also be included in the down payment thereby permitting the buyer a higher mortgage amount.

Let's suppose that Harry and Harriet Homeowner put their home on the market and Bill Broker, a local Realtor, finds a buyer for it. The contract, executed by Bill and Betty Buyer and the Homeowners calls for a termite inspection. Broker calls for ABC Exterminating Company to make an inspection. ABC finds what it determines to be evidence of action termite

County Expected To Move Closer To Owning Utilities

County Commissioners are expected to give their approval tomorrow to ordinances that will significantly enhance their move towards a unified regional utility system.

If a housing development is planned outside an area already served by an existing "certified" utility, the developer will be responsible for installing the water and sewer systems — which he would then deed over to the county under the ordinances.

The systems would then be tied into a nearby private utility plant by a "master meter." The plant would supply water and process the raw sewage, the county will pay the private firm, and the customers will then pay the county. The county will maintain and inspect the new system.

The developers, according to Utility Control Director Bill Dale, will eventually be reimbursed with utilities revenue for their construction of the donated system.

As another phase of the move towards a county-owned system, the commissioners have okayed the purchase of Consumer Utilities and Indian Hills Utilities, and have been negotiating with Eagle Utilities for purchase.

Besides unifying and consolidating 21 individual private utility operations in the county, a county-owned system — facilitating the regulation and control of these systems — should eventually offer better service to the customer, at lower rates.

When the county gets ready to expand and improve any system, it will have the advantage of access to federal funds that will support up to 75 per cent of that expansion cost.

According to Dale, validation hearings for the bonds to purchase Consumer and Indian Hills will have to be set, and — barring any law suits — the bonds will have to be approved before the two systems can be officially purchased.

At utility work sessions with the County Commissioners in the past, Dale has pointed out that the Board can expect "requests for rate increases from all firms operating in the county." While a county-owned system would not actually reduce rates, it would keep them from increasing at the schedule that they currently follow, Dale said.

NOTE: Rebates on Chrysler cars are available only during certain time periods. An extra $100 may be rebated if specified competitive makes are traded in for a Chrysler product.

The lure of $200 to $600 cash rebates for new car buyers drew a record number of shoppers and buyers onto Seminole County showroom floors over the weekend.

"Saturday, we must have sold nine automobiles. This is the first time we've sold nine automobiles in months and months. Things are gonna get better," said Skip Kellogg, president of Clark-Chrysler Plymouth in Casselberry.

The good news was echoed by other new car dealers. Listen to Paul Powell, the general sales manager at Joe Creamons Inc. in Sanford:

"We had the best weekend in 18 months. We had a fantastic weekend. We couldn't even take care of shoppers with eight salesmen."

Dealers seem elated — at least for the time being — over the sales rebate programs instituted by the major manufacturers to try and offset a 23-per cent low recorded in the first 10 days of January.

Around the nation, the rebate seems to be working equally as well — with sales rebounding by 41 per cent during the Jan. 11-30 reporting period.

All told, sales trailed year-ago figures by 15.4 per cent — a marked improvement from recent months when they have slumped by whopping 25 to 35 per cent margins.

The rebate dose, dealers say, just may have been the needed medicine to get the American public back into the new car buying cycle, but the big question now is will the rebates end after Feb. 28, the date beyond which none of the four plans is scheduled to extend.

According to Lou Lucchetti, sales manager at Jack Prosser Ford, the rebate "has turned it around, but how long it will last no one knows."

Lucchetti said his salesmen sold about 30 cars over the weekend, picking up sales at the facility "quite a bit."

Kellogg feels the Big Four may extend the rebate program because of "the tremendous number of lookers and buyers" who are flooding showroom floors.

A spokesman at Jim Lash Chrysler Plymouth Inc. said it's "doing a lot of good. We've got a lot of traffic on it. It's doing real well."

It was reportedly much the same at Bob Dance Dodge in Sanford, where a spokesman said weekend business was "good, real good."

Powell said auto companies still are "dummys" not to extend it. Chrysler started the rebates rolling, with General Motors, American Motors and Ford following close behind.

Each firm's rules vary slightly, but the big push is on small cars that have been the slowest sellers during a depressed market.

Buyers are promised refund checks of $200 to $600 — depending on the model — direct from the factory on a wide variety of car lines.

And the buyers, dealers report, are biting.

Fire Station Reconstruction Bids To Be Discussed Today

By MICKEY LOCHRIDGE
 Herald Staff Writer

Bids for reconstruction of the fire station on French Avenue at 14th Street will be discussed today during the 4 p.m. meeting of the Sanford City Commission.

William S. Brumley Jr., is low bidder at a cost of $63,877. Brumley's bid for the project has been recommended to the Commission by City Manager Warren "Pete" Knowles.

The next two lowest bids came from Jostco Engineering and Construction Company at $63,987; and Shoemaker Construction Company at $65,625.

A total of 11 construction firms bid on the reconstruction project.

Commissioners also will discuss a report on the Housing and Urban Development Block Grant Seminar, which was held in Jacksonville on Jan. 30.

City Attorney Vernon Mize will discuss a proposal to initiate the local option section of the collective bargaining bill.

Longwood Council Seeks County Aid

By DONNA ESTES

LONGWOOD—City Council, at a brief "emergency meeting" this morning, voted to request six employees in the federally-sponsored program to put to work persons who are either unemployed or on welfare.

Mayor James R. Lormann was to turn in the city's request to the Seminole County Commission this morning. Pay scales plus fringe benefit costs work on installing drainage lines and water pipe.

The city has had nearly $10,000 in drainage pipe stockpiled for more than 18 months since city consulting engineers estimated costs under contract for installation of $33,000 to upwards of $110,000.

Some money has been budgeted from federal revenue sharing funds for the installation.

Expected to be given priority among drainage projects is the Land Avenue area which floods severely after every rainfall.

Council member June Lormann was absent from the meeting, but Mayor James R. Lormann said she favored asking for a grader operator, a back hoe operator, three vacancies exist in the police department the city would have great difficulty in hiring a complete customer service banking, the only one of its kind in Sanford.

Motorcyclist Leads Police Merry Chase

SR-46 in the Paola area west of Sanford was observed two motorcycles racing at a high rate of speed.

Nickle said he gave pursuit with blue lights and siren on SR-41-B, SR-46A, Rhinehart Road, Lake Mary Boulevard, Interstate Four and finally SR-44.

Deputies said other sheriff's and Altamonte Springs Police units were unable to intercept the motorcycles.

Officers said one motorcycle got away, but Nickle reported he finally stopped the motorcycle ridden by Graham at SR-434 and Meadowfield Lane west of 14. Nickle said at one point in the pursuit the motorcycle was traveling in excess of 100 miles an hour in a posted 45 mile an hour speed zone.

Sheriff's Detective Sgt. William Hogan jailed a Sanford man on a sexual battery charge in connection with the Saturday rape of a 48-year-old woman in a wooded area of Southwest Road at Sanford.

Being held today without bond in County Jail at Sanford was James Edward Knight, 20, of 1804 W. 15th St., Sanford.

The woman told investigators she was raped early Saturday morning by a young man who jumped from behind a utility pole and ripped off her undergarments.

In other weekend arrests, Jackie Kyle Stewart, 26, of 102 Wilkins Circle, Sanford, was jailed without bond on a charge of violation of probation.

Second Suspect Sought

Orange County sheriff's investigators were reported searching today for a second suspect in the stabbing slaying early Saturday of an Altamonte Springs man.

Sheriff's spokesman Richard King said Oakley Andrews, 24, of Altamonte Springs, died of three stab wounds in the chest following what officers believe was an argument between two groups of 15 to 20 men in the parking lot at Day's Inn, McCoy Road, Orlando.

Deputies have arrested one suspect, Robert Feriend of Grand Haven, Mich., on a first degree murder charge. Feriend, 35, was being held without bond today in Orange County Jail at Orlando.

King said the dead man's home address in Altamonte Springs was not immediately available.
