Locals Squeeze Out Victory In Bottom Of Tenth Inning; Levy Raps Double

By BILL HERING Hearld Sports Reporter The Sanford Giants reached into the frying pan last night and snatched out a 5-4 extra inning victory over the Lenoir Red Sox. The tiebreaking run came in the bottom half of the tenth inning. Al Neville, first man up struck out. Tom Rose drove a single to deep left field and Manager Ed Levy drew a pass forcing Rose to second, Marcel Poelker, sparkelug of the evening's play, swung on a two one pitch and drive it through shortstop scoring Rose.

Lenoir's first run came in the opening inning on a fielder's error Heim, the lead off man, rattied a ball off shortstop Neville's legs. He advanced to second when Bandy was hit by a pitched ball. San-ford pitcher Chuck Rose threw a pitch and the runners advanced; then Harris drove a deep fly to left field scoring Heim. Sanford collected two runs in the 6th inning when Dyll walked and Neville singled. Manager Levy crossed up the opposition by hit-ting a double to right field scoring both runners. The other two Sanford runs came in the 7th on two hits, one walk, one sacrifice, and a hit on an error. Two runners were left stranded.

The Sox almost won the game in the opening 9th inning when they scored three runs on a single and three walks, and a double... Diamond Dast

Washington Cinch To Stay In Cellar During '50 Season

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Apr. 11, — (P) — Only a major deal can rescue the pitcher-poor Washington Senators from another lonely sumner in the American League cellar. Oddly enough, new Manager Bucky Harris has the one pitcher both New York and Boston would like — Ray Scarborough. But one pitcher can't help Washington. What Bucky needs is bulk. The Yankees appear best prospects for a swap. They have such expendables as pitchers Fred San-ford, Don Johnson, Clarence Mar-shall and Spec Shea and at least one of their four catchers. Either first baseman Eddie Robnson of Searborough would be attractive buit to catch the Yankee

As matters stand, the Senators are sitting back waiting for the others to ask waivers and hoping to grab an attractive discard. Their mly worry is to stay above water until cutdown time comes May 18.
Harris has a fair inficid and a promising young outfield of Gil Coan, Rookie Irv Noren and Sam Mele. Noren is the ex-Brooklyn farm hand purchased from Holly-wood for $70,000 after a .330 year. He is the most attractive newcom-

Hudson's career may be ended Nobody is optimistic about his return. With Hudson out of the starting line, Harris has to lean more heavily on Scarborough Dick Weik and Joe Haynes, Robinson, a good first baseman with power at the plate, is the olid man of the infield. Al Kozar at second, Sam Dente, an improved batter, at short and Eddie Yost at hird are the others

Summing up, Washington has fair outfield and dangerously thin pitching that can wind up in disaster. Unless they pull a trade or the St. Louis Browns collapse completely, the Senators are a cinch last.

Buddy declared that the fever bit him yesterday afternoon while he was working at his gas station. "Once the bug bites", he said, "you just have to get out and play a little."

Lake exclaimed that he would have been working out earlier, but the weather hampered all his efforts. "The weather this year is exactly like it was the season I threw my arm out," he said.

Buddy, speculating on his assignment this year, said, "I'll guess I'll do more pitching than anything, but I'll he ready to fill in any spot where Manager Ed Levy needs me.

Pitcher Jack Deal who worked out with the St. Cloud club this year was sold to Sanford recently, Deal, a lefthander for Sanford last season, had a 7-11 win-loss record.

Jack Scarborough, Sanford second baseman, was given his release yesterday by Manager Ed Levy.

Mr. O. D. Farrell, owner of Farrell's package store, has four interesting photos of past Sanferd nines in his window. The first picture is of the 1937 Sanford Lookouts. Early Wynn, who started his professional career with this team, is now connected with the Cleveland Indians.

The 1939 championship Lookout squad is also in Farrell's collection. Sid Hudson who hung up a win-loss record that year of 24-4 is now playing with the Washington Senators.

Farrell also has pics of the Sanford Seminoles of 1940 and the Sanford Gionts of 1948.

In our brief span of years there have been many sporting events that will long be remembered and talked about. We've seen grid classics, championship baseball games, and record shattering track meets thus were deemed important enough to rate front page head-

We watched Louis drop Schmeling in the first round of their now-famous second meeting; we saw Al Zarlia pull in Joe DiMaggio's "sure" home run clout in the world series between the Yanks and Brooklyn, and we shouted ourselves house when the referee called the memorable fifth down against Dartmouth.

However, we'd trade all those actual occurrences for about two or possibly three mythical ones. Purely in the realm of fancy we'd like to see Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis square off against each other assuming, of course, that both men were at the top of their physical peaks. If the Manassa Mauler of 1923 were matched with the Brown Romber of 1940 the availation would not the Elivin blast the Brown Bomber of 1940 the explosion would put the Bikini blast to shame.

It would be a battle between Dempey's flailing fists and Louis' accurate jabs and hooks. We'd just like to see the fight, we wouldn't want to make book on the outcome.

want to make book on the outcome.

Secondly, and more up to date, we'd like to watch the Michigan gridiron team of 1948 play the Notre Dame squad of 1949. They came close to meeting when a group of New York writers suggested the teams play a benefit game with all proceeds being turned over to a fund. Notre Dame officials pondered the idea for two days but decided against it. The Irish have a steadfast rule that no post-season games will be played by their footballers.

Thirdly, we wonder what would have happened if the Yanks met the Boston Red Sox in last year's world series instead of the Brooklyn Dodgers. It would have been a better series. Add to that list of three a race between Man-Of-War and Seabiscuit; a 100-yard dash with Jesse Owens and Mel Parnell the only gentries, and a gold match with Hen Hogan, Sam Snead, and Bobby Jones leading the field.

There are dozens more, but we'd pick that handful And Affail.

Carpenter is not certain him-soif where the 1960 Philles will finish. He picks Brooklyn to win the pennant and believes you can put Philadelphia, St. Louis, Boston and New York in a hat and maybe come up with the next four teams in exact order.

Carpenter said the Phillies have 85 new hands in their farm system this year. Of these, maybe 11 will prove of Major League callber and only three will eventually become members of the Phillies.
The club will invest $450,000 in these youngsters and will be glad to get three of them for their own use. The other eight probably will be sold, traded or lost in the

Radio Program Designed To Keep Blind Informed Has Been Started

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK — Between braille, record players and radios, a lot been done to keep the blind informed and up to date — but there was one big gap unfilled.

That was the reasoning of young David Margolis, a young Brooklyn haver who abandoned the bar to do what he could to help the blind. Margolis, who lost his own sight during an illness 12 years ago. dreamed up a radio program.

Them he took the harness of his gentle shepherd dog Cindy, came to Canhattan and sold his idea on the spot. A couple of weeks later, the premiere of the show on a New York independent station jammed the switchboard with enthusiastic lephone calls.

Pepper Rapped At Meeting Of Sanford Group

Senator Is Branded By Washington Correspondent As No. 1 Useless American

Senator Claude Pepper was dubbed "The No. I American we can best get along without" by James R. Young, associate editor of the Anderson, S. C. Daily Mail, and former Far Castern director of the International News Service, at the final meeting of the year of tht Seminole Dinner Club held last night at the Mayfair Inn.

Mr. Young, who was introduced by President Floyd Polmer, is a director of the South Carolina Associated Press Association, a member of the Overseas Press Club of New York, the National Press Club of Washington, D. C. and is a director of the Savannah Valley Booster Association, as well as the South Carolina Scholastic Press Association.

"Several newspaper feature writers in recent weeks have drawn up lists, as a game at the press club in Washington, to determine who they would put in a cave for keeps," Mr. Young said.

"Claude Pepper is at the top of the without. Pepper, with his Hi, Cousin Nelliel' and all that guft and stuff, has been a Senate suspect on the newsmen's list for some time. "He should be put in a cave, immured there, without newa-papers, radio or television, and compelled to listen to his own
