President In Challenge To Old Guard Defies Critics And Warns Of War Menace

Message Seen As An Invitation For Rank And File Of G. O. P. To Follow

Intrenched Greed Told To 'Head In'

Secretary Ickes Defends Taxing Plan Of Administration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—

At no time in the four and a half centuries of modern civilization in the Americas has there existed a greater spirit of mutual understanding, of common helpfulness, and of devotion to the ideals of self-government.

In the United States, as in the world at large, popular opinion is at war with a power-seeking minority.

You, the members of the legislative branch, and I, the executive, contended for and established a new relationship between government and people.

After thirty-four months of work we contemplate a fairly rounded whole. We have returned the control of the federal government to the City of Washington.

To be sure, in so doing, we have invited battle. We have earned the hatred of entrenched greed. . . . They seek the restoration of their selfish power. They offer to lead us back around the same old corner into the same old dreary street.

They steal the livery of great national constitutional ideals to serve discredited special interests.

They seek—this minority in business and finance—to control legitimate and highly honored business associations; they engage in vast propaganda to spread fear and discord among the people—they would "gang up" against the people's liberties.

Let action be positive and not negative. . . . Let them propose to this Congress the complete repeal of these measures. . . . The way is open in the Congress of the United States for an expression of opinion by yeas and nays.

Their weapon is the weapon of fear. . . . Let these challenges be met.

The carrying out of the laws of the United States enacted by the Congress requires protection until final adjudication by the highest tribunal of the land. The Congress has the right and can find the means to protect its own prerogatives.

Based on existing laws it is my belief that no new taxes, over and above the present taxes, are advisable or necessary.

We can look forward to a reduction in the number of those citizens who are in need. Therefore, also we can anticipate a reduction in our appropriations for relief.

Highlights Of President's Message To The Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Here are highlights of President Roosevelt's message to Congress:

The temper and the purpose of the rulers of many of the great populations in Europe and in Asia, have not pointed the way either to peace or to goodwill among men.

A point has been reached where the people of the Americas must take cognizance of the growing ill-will, of marked trends toward aggression, of increasing armaments, of shortening tempers—a situation which has in it many of the elements that lead to the tragedy of general war.

The United States and the rest of the Americas can play but one role: Through a well-ordered neutrality to do nothing to encourage the contest, through adequate defense to save ourselves from embroilment and attack, and through explicit and all legitimate encouragement and assistance to persuade other nations to return to the ways of peace and good-will.

I suggested in the Spring of 1935 that eighty-five or ninety percent of all the people in the world were content with the territorial limits of their respective nations and were willing further to reduce their armed forces if every other nation in the world would agree to do likewise.

That is equally true today and it is even more true today that world peace and world goodwill are blocked by only ten or fifteen percent of the world's population.

I recognize that these words which I have chosen with deliberation will not prove popular in any nation that chooses to fit this shoe to its foot.

Such sentiments, however, will find sympathy and understanding in those nations where the people themselves are honestly desirous of peace and must constantly align themselves on one side or the other in the kaleidoscope jockeying for position characteristic of European and Asiatic relations today.

Efforts to reduce armies have thus far not only failed but have been met by vastly increased armaments on land and in the air. Even efforts to continue the existing limits into the years to come show little current success.

Among the nations of the great Western Hemisphere the policy of the good neighbor is happily prevailed.

Congress Is Asked To Protect Nation From Autocrats At Home And Abroad

Orders Advance On New Deal Foes

Restoration Of Selfish Power Sought By Greed, He Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—

Mr. Roosevelt demanded a "well-ordered neutrality" and an "adequate national defense," and then, slapping as critics of the New Deal in a manner almost unprecedented for an annual message, the President denounced what he called "entrenched greed"—which he said was seeking to "undo the work of the National Government."

"I recommend to Congress that we advance that which we do not retreat," he said.

Although the President made no names in his attack on "entrenched greed," he called foreign and domestic autocrats, there was no mistaking the sharpness of his attack on the New Deal's critics. In his references, some observers thought he made guarded reference to the American Liberty League, but this remained a matter of speculation.

The President's audience, filled with the thought of a bitter political campaign ahead, applauded his address with applause. As he entered, the applause, given by loud yells and stamping, lasted, two minutes.

The President spoke from reading clerk's desk, before a group of Senators and members of the cabinet and the press, who were seated in front of him. He spoke in a low, gravelly voice, his words filled the rest of the chamber. He spoke in measured, pausing now and then for effect.

Of domestic problems, the nation was approaching a balanced budget; that was the message of the President's address.

Death Beckons H. R. Stevens, Civic Leader

Decedent Was Mayor And Rotary Head, And With Railroad Since Early Youth

H. R. Stevens, prominent in the civic life of the community for the last 30 years, died this morning in his home on Park Avenue following an illness of several months. Recently he had been improving in health and was able to attend last Tuesday's meeting of the Rotary Club, and his death today therefore came as a shock to his friends.

Funeral arrangements are being withheld pending the arrival late this afternoon of the decedent's son, Dr. Ralph Stevens, of St. Petersburg.

Italian Bombs Hit American Field Hospital

Ethiopia Wants Commission To Place Blame For Cruelty In Warring Zones

ADIS ABABA, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Bombardment of an American field hospital at Dargah by Italian airplanes was reported today as Fascists renewed their assault from the air on Ethiopian positions. The message to Dr. F. A. Lamba, head of the Ethiopian Red Cross, gave no details of the bombing.

The government today announced the death of a Swedish Red Cross worker wounded last Monday by Italian bombs at Dole.

Inquiry Board Asked

GENEVA, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Ethiopia officially asked the League of Nations today to send a commission of inquiry to the African battlefields to investigate war conditions and establish responsibility for "war cruelty." The Ethiopian communication created a sensation here as it seemingly created a new "war" in the world.

On Embargo Possible

LONDON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Belief that the League of Nations would decide on an oil embargo against Italy if the United States restricted exports of oil as war material was generally held by London observers today. Newspapers commenting on the Roosevelt message agreed its consequences will be far-reaching. British officials declined to comment, except to deny that British and American had exchanged views on oil sanctions.

Push Neutrality Act

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Senate Democratic leaders determined today to push neutrality legislation to quick passage. Finding was the Administration plan proposing epochal changes in America's historic policies toward warring nations. Urged personally by the President last night, Senate Leader Robinson said this afternoon a joint meeting of Democratic steering and policy committees had been determined to expedite the neutrality program.

Republican Leader Tells Papworth He Will Study Canal

"You may be sure that every possible effort will be made to investigate the entire undertaking," Senator Vandenberg, from Michigan, Republican leader, writes H. M. Papworth, president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, in reply to a letter by Mr. Papworth as to the construction of the cross-state canal. The senator's letter was received today, and in it he said that Mr. Papworth's "viewpoint will not be forgotten by this committee." Stating that he appreciated the Senator's letter of Dec. 13, Senator Vandenberg said that "the present status of the Florida canal is indefensible."

New Cold Wave Is Sweeping North Floods In South

(By The Associated Press)

A new cold wave swept into the Middle West today, bringing snow to Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, but weather observers said it would not affect the southeast appreciably. Huron, South Dakota, had six below zero, and Winnipeg, Canada, 13 below. Rivers in Georgia, Alabama, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and West Virginia were out of their banks.

Flood warnings were issued today for Bloomington and River Junction, Florida, in the lower reaches of the Chattahoochee River, which, fed by abnormal rains and melting snow, has been in flood stage from West Virginia, Georgia, to Atlanta for some time. A 25-foot stage was reported for Bloomington where the river was out of its banks 10 feet. The river is expected to continue rising.

Secretary Ickes Defends Taxing Plan Of Administration

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Secretary Ickes today accused critics of Roosevelt tax legislation of advocating "soak the poor" program. "Our millionaires want the surtax on great incomes reduced or even abolished, and sales taxes imposed by their heads," Ickes said, addressing the Rochester City Club. "Now every one's capsule of honest thinking knows that a sales tax is a graduated income tax in essence. It is a heavy tax upon those least able to pay."

A new theory, advanced by the wealthy, the interior secretary said, is to make the "under-income" pay and pay the rich and prosperous have arrogantly come to regard as peculiarly their own.

Intrenched Greed Told To 'Head In'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Political leaders today interpreted President Roosevelt's message as inviting the Republican rank and file to follow him. Senator Nye, Republican, North Dakota, called it "A challenge to the old guard in the Republican party." Roosevelt's reference to having "earned the hatred of entrenched greed" prompted some Democrats to say he was aiming at the American Liberty League Representative Mearns Maverick, Texas, Democrat, said the address told the "Liberty League, the National Association of Manufacturers, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and all the other hungry corporations that get fat off the government where to head in."

Accepting the President's challenge to New Deal critics, Frank Knox, Republican presidential possibility, today offered a seven point program he said was a positive alternative for present policies. It included immediate drastic reduction of government expenses, sound currency, balancing of the federal budget, unemployment and old age insurance under State laws, removal of the government from private enterprise, opposition to agricultural policies, and strict enforcement of anti-trust laws.

The drive for the C. of C. has generally been held in January.

Deferring the campaign will be set by the board of directors of the trade body at the regular meeting.

From President Roosevelt's address last night on the

President's Budget Message Omits Relief Expenditures

1937 Deficit Of Over One Billion Dollars Foreseen Without Relief Expenditures

Message On Relief To Be Promised Later

Concession Made To Opposition On Balance Budget

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—A Treasury deficit exceeding $1,000,000,000 without counting unestimated new relief costs, was forecast to Congress by President Roosevelt today for next fiscal year.

Unprecedentedly, his withdrawal of the complete budget estimates as to how much the government would spend in the 12 months beginning next July 1. For the present he listed $6,733,000,000 but said that later reports for work relief money would be forthcoming.

He gave notice that next week's deficit and public debt would be reduced accordingly. Just before the President forwarded a federal budget to the end of 1936-37 of $8,201,438,777.

It would be a new all-time high. There was not the slightest hint of any readiness to meet the deficit from the appropriations bill immediately balanced.

Flooded Rivers Cause Losses In French Lowlands

PARIS, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Rivers through France, swollen by torrential rains, continue to destroy millions of francs' worth of property and to flood thousands of acres.

The Breton marshlands, traversed by the Vendee River, are almost all under water. The floods in this region have reached the height of the great disaster of 1910, the worst in French history.

The Loire River and the Seine, flood-control authorities warned yesterday, are still rising and will not reach their maximum level until Tuesday. Villages on the banks of these and other rivers already have been invaded by the swirling floodwaters, which is raising crops and destroying other property.

Greatest damage has been done in the farming region about the Breton marshes, where the tides from the sea have augmented the flood water and inundated about 25,000 acres.

France Finds Plot To Send Arms To Italy

France dug into a suspected plot to divert 3,000 army rifles and machine guns to Italy today while Italian war planes kept up a persistent and widespread bombing campaign in Ethiopia. The missing carloads of arms was found to have been routed mysteriously to a French port where, authorities said, it could easily have been placed aboard a ship.

Confused reports on the death of a second Swedish Red Cross worker as the result of the Dolo bombing a week ago has reached the British foreign office from its legation at Addis Ababa. Because of a similarity of names it was thought possible only one Swede had been fatally wounded as previously reported.

Related reports of hard fighting came out of southern Ethiopia as Great Britain began reinforcing its African military position. Air bombing, in which several hospitals and Red Cross units have been struck or destroyed, is being resorted to on both northern and southern fronts in an attempt by the Italians to halt the advance of the defenders, Ethiopian authorities said.

In the Mediterranean Great Britain used commercial liners to carry troops to British ports near areas of the greatest uneasiness.

Party Leaders Ask Democrats To Big Dinner

Holly and Wilkinson Hope For Crowd At Jackson Day Affair In Mayfair Hotel

Older Democrats, as well as those who belong to the Young Democrats Club of Seminole County, are urged by party leaders to attend the Andrew Jackson Dinner in the Mayfair Hotel in Sanford at 8 o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 8.

R. J. Holly, chairman of the Seminole County Executive Committee, and N. A. B. Wilkinson, Seminole County member of the State Executive Committee, both stated today that they hope for an unusually large attendance at the dinner. The affair is not simply for young Democrats, but is for the older Democrats as well, they said. Republicans will also be welcomed, they added.

J. Alex Sharon, chairman of the ticket sales committee for the Young Democrats Club, asks early purchasing of tickets so the hotel management will know how many to prepare for.

All those attending the Jackson Day dinner will be asked to sign a parchment scroll which will be forwarded to President Roosevelt. Carrying the word "testimonial" at the top, the parchment also have the following statement: "We, the undersigned members of Florida's Democratic party, in attendance at the Jackson Day dinner at Sanford, Florida, on Jan. 8th, 1936, do hereby evidence our loyalty to our Chief-President Franklin D. Roosevelt in his campaign for re-election to the presidency of our country."

It was also announced by State Chairman B. P. Misset that a beautiful photograph, autographed by the President, will be awarded to the Young Democratic Club having the largest proportional attendance at their dinner. The picture, 15 by 21 inches in dimensions, will become the permanent possession of the club winning the attendance contest. Acknowledged as leaders thus far in the advance ticket sale were the clubs at Gainesville, Jacksonville, and Tallahassee, with Ocala, Lakefield, Daytona Beach and Orlando making determined efforts to overhaul the leaders.

Raymer Maguire of Orlando will be the main speaker at the Jackson Day dinner in Sanford, and President Roosevelt's address opening his 1936 campaign for re-election will be broadcast.

'Jafsie' Decides Not To Appear On Lecture Platform

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(AP)—John F. Condon announced last night he had cancelled scheduled stage appearances to deliver talks on law enforcement, because of what he called an erroneous impression he was exploiting the Lindbergh case in which he had been a prominent figure.

The 75-year-old "Jafsie" said he had been led to cancel engagements in New York and several other cities by a realization that his motives were misinterpreted.

"My inner feelings prompt me to refrain from giving an opportunity to anyone to place any such interpretation upon my actions in making these appearances," he said in an interview.

Five Counties Have Orlando Fair Space

Seminole, Ocochee, Brevard, Alachua and Marion counties have arranged for exhibit space at the Central Florida Fair in Orlando of Feb. 12-22, Secretary C. T. Bickford of the fair announces. In addition to these five counties, Secretary Karl Lehmann of the Lake county chamber of commerce has promised a display of products of that county, and Orange county will also exhibit products.

The exhibit committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will meet next Thursday afternoon to make further plans for the display of Seminole County products.

The 1936 provision list, containing exhibits worth total $7,000, is out of the press and copies are ready for distribution. Requests should be mailed to Central Florida Fair, Orlando.

John F. Condon of Pittsburgh is expected to be the main attraction of the fair.

Story That Liberty League Is Sponsoring Canal Fight Is Ridiculous, Says Schmah

The story appearing in the local weekly newspaper to the effect that the Central & South Florida Water Conservation Committee is sponsored by the Liberty League with headquarters in New York, according to Gus Schmah, chairman of the finance committee of the water conservationists, "wholly ridiculous."

"This committee originally was set up by the long established Seminole County Agricultural Association, and I was put in charge of finances by that organization. That group of farmers is distinctly non-partisan and non-political, which fact is thoroughly understood in Seminole County," Gus Schmah continued. "Originally the committee acted because of the fears created by an official statement by our State Geologist based upon years of study of our water situation. These fears were confirmed by a statement from the U. S. Geological Survey. We asked for an investigation of the geological situation and assurance of the safety of our water supplies in event the canal should be dug. To date we are greatly disappointed at the failure to obtain a thorough investigation by disinterested and qualified experts. For reasons earlier made public, we cannot accept the recent report claiming no damage will result put out from Ocala which has approval neither of the U. S. Engineers Corps nor of the U. S. Geological Survey.

"The charge that our activities have been founded by the Liberty League is clearly ridiculous. I am familiar with every penny of the money that has been donated to our cause, and the sources from which it came. One hundred percent of that money has come from men actually engaged in farming (Continued On Page Two)

Brady Announces His Hatls In Ring For Legislature

F. E. Brady, former sheriff of Seminole County and a member of the State Legislature, announced his candidacy for re-election to the Legislature in Group No. 1 Saturday afternoon. In making his announcement Mr. Brady said that when he returned from the legislative session last year, he had firmly resolved never to enter politics again, but that conditions have so changed since then he has finally decided to offer for re-election.

"I believe that some member of the Legislature should go back," Mr. Brady stated, "because of the very fact of his having served in the last session. There will be but few members who can go back and I believe that my standing is such in my home county that I will be re-elected."

"I promise the people of Seminole County," Mr. Brady continued, "that at the coming session, if I am re-elected I am going to show the people of my County some of the real things that take place in the Legislature. My platform in full will be announced to the people at a later date."

"At the time I would like to add that I want to see a Seminole County man go to the State Senate. This county will be practically 24 years old by the time the past Legislature convenes, and we have never had a senator from this county. I feel that it is our time to have a senator. Our policies and principles have been dictated by other counties up in this time because of our having a senator from another county."

Farm Relief Plan Of New Deal Knocked Out By 6-3 Vote Of High Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The AAA met the fate of NRA today in the U. S. Supreme Court. In a momentous six to three decision the tribunal killed the extraordinary New Deal relief plan under which over one billion dollars has been paid to men of the soil since May, 1933, Justice Roberts gravely read the majority opinion.

The act even as amended last August was held to be an invasion of states' rights and its taxes beyond the "general welfare" clause of the Constitution on which the government relied. Justices Stone, Brandeis and Cardozo dissented.

The Administrative planned councils at once to meet without None disputed the tremendous potential effect on the presidential campaign. Senator McNary, Republican leader, immediately projected his twice-voted plan to make the tariff effective on the farming communities.

The ruling appeared likely to doom other farm legislation, such as the Bankhead Cotton Act, the Kerr-Smith Tobacco Act, and the Warren Potato Law. These were compulsory laws.

If farm legislation were voided said Roberts today, it would be possible for Congress "to regulate industry in its most notorious forms." The plan, he said, was not in essence voluntary. "It had compulsory purpose," the opinion declared.

Secretary Wallace had no comment on learning of the decision. Two vital sections of AAA (Continued On Page Two)
