Christmas Parade Marches Thursday Eve

PERCY WHITE (left), Jack Bushor (center) and R. E. Sweat (right) are seeking support in their bids for election to the two open seats on the Longwood City Council. White, who is completing his first term on the board and is presently serving as council chairman, plans to "continue working for all the citizens to the best of my ability." He also has served as mayor uro tem for the past four months and as city judge. Bushor served formerly as chief of police for a year and is campaigning for a "civic center to get the youth off the streets, an expanded paving program and a clean-up program for the city." "Harmony of the council" is the theme of Sweat's campaign. He has resided in the city for 10 years and is a retired section foreman for the Atlantic Coastline Railroad.

ROBERT ROGERS (left), Charles Robinson (center) and Charles Milner (right) are campaigning for the two open seats on the Altamonte Springs Town Council. Rogers, incumbent councilman for Ward 3, is a local builder and has served on the board for ten months. Robinson will be elected unopposed to the ward 4 seat. By DOYLE CONNEL Commissioner of Agriculture TALLAHASSEE- (Special to The Sanford Herald)- Southa favorite dish with those who visit our state as well as with hose of us who reside here. This is a well proven fact since Florida consumes more chicken than any other state in the This was again brought to my attention very vividly as I was glancing over the Division of Inspection's report for the bien nium which ended June 30, The total per capita consump tion of poultry in the United States for that two-year period was 40.8 pounds while we in this state consumed 47.2 pounds per capital. We have led the nation for several years now.

With this well above the average consumption of poultry, one might conclude that Florida is among the top poaltry-producing states in America. Unfortunately, this is not the case at all, but the picture for the most Post 183 and Auxiliary Unit of of the November meeting.

An elegantly decorated lobby will be the scene of the champagne hour which begins at 7 p.m. and the doors of the great hall will be opened at 8 for a full four course dinner.

Dancing by candlelight will follow at 9 to the quicken tempo of the latest sound in American music, that of the Mexican Mariachi band. Yet, requests and old favorites will be played by Jim Downing and his sixpiece Renegade Brass. To add merriment and color, the orchestra members will change later in the evening from tuxedos to their gay Mexican costumes.

The decorating chairman, Mrs. James V. Stowell, of Genneva, has been appointed by Frank Mebane Jr., the general chairman. Mrs. Stowell has assembled a talented and creative committee of Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Volie Williams Jr., Mrs. William Yelinek, Mrs. Earl Weldon, Mrs. G. Miss Ellen Carter Guest Of Honor

At Bridal Fete

The spacious home of Mrs Paul Smith on Lake Mary Boulevard was the setting recently for a bridal shower honoring bride-elect, Miss Ellen Carter. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bruce Humphrey and Mrs. Walter Allender.

Humorous games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Joe Meisch and Mrs. Clyde Stinson, who in turn gave them to Miss Carter.

The dining table was decorated with a blue parasol carrying out a shower theme. Delicious refreshments of party sweets, punch, mints and nuts were served by the hostesses. Many beautiful and useful
