Approval of a 99 year lease on the Sanford golf course and club facilities to Hugh C. Whelchel and J. A. Ponder was authorized last night by the City Commission. Other actions included appointment of a Sanford Stadium Authority, the passing of a resolution stating the necessity for a local housing authority, placing of a cigarette tax ordinance on its first reading and appointing a committee to make recommendations on operation of the new swimming pool.

In their application for the golf course lease, Mr. Whelchel and Mr. Ponder stated that they desired a bill of sale for the maintenance equipment on hand, and agreed to pay $5,000 to the Sanford-Seminole Co. Inc. to apply on debts incurred in connection with recent operation of the Club.

They agreed to pay $1,500 per year for five years to the City at the rate of $300 a month from January to May inclusive, to be applied by the City to a club house building fund. At any time within the five year period they have the option to match the fund and build club house to cost not less than $10,000.

Mr. Whelchel and Mr. Ponder also were given the right to sell building sites to the extent that

Duda Expects To Ship Celery By Nov. 12

A. Duda and Sons Cooperative Association of Blavia, one of the largest individual shippers of celery in Florida, expect to start their first cargo rolling about Nov. 12, according to a recent article in The Produce News, trade paper for the industry published in New York City.

"David Earle, sales manager for the firm whose headquarters are at Oviedo," stated the Produce News, "accompanied by James Pearson, his assistant, were in town this week-end discussing the coming deal with Harry Lieberman of Heller Bros. Co., Inc., Harris who specializes in celery has probably sold enough celery so that, if the crates were placed and so on, they would start from his dinner table in Brooklyn around the world and back again."

The Duda firm ships the Danzig variety and Favor brand celery according to Mr. Earle, growing weather in the Danzig variety has been ideal, and excellent quality celery is expected. The recent hurricane did little or no damage to their celery, and they expect that the trade should be well pleased with the crop.

Causes Of Fires Are Explained At Rotary Luncheon

Former Capital Fireman Stresses Need For Greater Care

In a program arranged in cooperation with the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored Fire Prevention Week, the Sanford Rotary Club Monday night had a luncheon at the Home and Office, and looked at photographs arranged by F. J. Moughton Jr. of burned homes in Sanford showing that "it can happen here."

The Rotarians again deferred action on the City's proposal to move civic clubs from the Tourist Center to the Yacht Club pending a report from G. W. Spencer, chairman of Rotary's housing committee, on answers by the City Commission to questions submitted by the Rotary Club last week. A vote on the matter is expected next week. President George Touhy said.

Sam Martina, chairman of the program committee, announced that Congressman George Smathers of Miami, will address the Rotary Club on Oct. 24 in a program arranged by Bill Kirk, Jack Rattigan, who was in charge of today's program. Introduced by Fire Chief Mack Cleveland, who in turn introduced the speaker of the day as a former battalion chief of the Washington fire department with 30 years experience.

Truman Urges Quick Accord On Farm Bill

President Asks Bill He Can Sign But No Agreement Reached Among Democrats

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(AP)—President Truman called Democratic congressional leaders to the White House today and urged them to reach a quick agreement on the farm bill.

The congressional delegation members were silent as they strode out of the White House after an hour-long conference in Mr. Truman's office.

Differences among Mr. Truman's leadership in the Senate on farm price supports have impeded passage of a new farm measure.

Presidential Secretary Charles C. Ross told reporters afterwards that no agreement was reached at the White House parley.

"The President asked them to get together on a bill he can sign," Ross said. "He asked them to adjust their differences."

Ross would not say what sort of bill Mr. Truman would sign, however. When asked if the President would veto an anti-labor measure, he said:

Lions Club To Give Blood Donations For Blood Bank

Lions President Cliff Allen opened the weekly meeting with a request for blood donations from Lions and other Sanford citizens to replenish the dwindling supply of the County's blood bank.

"We are 18 to 19 pints overdrawn," he stated. "If 25 donors gave to give a pint each we would make up the deficit and have a supply on hand for those that might need it." The blood bank has arranged for their nurses to be at the Sanford Clinic the Oct. 28. "A donor must abstain from eating for four hours prior to the donation and no stimulants for 24 hours," he said.

Dr. Frank Quillman gave a short talk about diabetes and showed a film of the life of a diabetic person and how it need not affect normal living. Dr. Quillman explained doctors have named this week "Diabetic Week" and told of the number of diabetic cases treated in the county in all age groups.

Los Angeles City Planner Chides New York For "Sardine" Existence

CLEVELAND, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The planning director of sprawling Los Angeles wondered aloud today whether people really like living in New York.

Charles B. Bennett, speaking before the National Planning Conference of the American Society of Planning Officials, said in his prepared text:

"If there are 10,000,000 persons who enjoy living like sardines—in tenements and skyscrapers, as in New York—we can well sympathize with them. But if that's what they want, let 'em have it." The chances are that at least 9,000,000 of them would jump at the opportunity to move to less crowded surroundings if they could secure themselves of a "livelihood."

Bennett's blast at New York City came while he was chiding Mayor Moses, New York's park commissioner.

Ching Strives To End Steel, Coal Disputes

Conciliator To Meet With Lewis, Coal Owners Tomorrow; Wants Steel Talks

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The government's conciliator chief has announced he's trying to re-establish negotiations in the strike of 454,000 CIO steelworkers. John L. Lewis and coal operators also nudged by conciliation directed Cyrus Ching, plan to meet again tomorrow in the strike of 380,000 United Mine Workers.

Ching said yesterday he was setting up separate and informal conferences with leaders of the steel companies and the steelworkers in the 11-day-old strike.

In Washington, a top CIO official said the top leaders of the Farm Equipment Workers have voted to seek a merger with the United Electrical Workers' union. A few spokesmen in Chicago declined to discuss the report.

Both unions are in disfavor with CIO leaders who have accused their officials of left-wing sympathies. Some CIO officials said they expect development of a move to establish a national labor federation, with dissident CIO unions as a sub. There has been talk in CIO leadership circles of ousting the few, UMW and other unions from the CIO at the convention in Cleveland starting Oct. 31.

Two other new developments came in the labor unity movement. In St. Paul, Minn., leaders of the American Federation of Labor issued their oft-sounded invitation to the CIO that it return to the AFL fold. A consolidation drive by leaders of two operating railroad unions was into rank and file of the UMW group—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen was announced as 30,000 to 10,000 in a newspaper published by a committee of engineers favoring the consolidation. Polk Officials Oppose Pardon Of Orlando Citizen LALAHASSEE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Polk county officials entered vigorous protest today against a pardon application by E. D. Milam of Orlando who is on probation for a larceny violation.

They said they believe he still is involved in the lottery business. Milam was convicted in Polk county in 1946 and put on probation for 10 years. He paid a $3,000 fine at the same time on a larceny charge. One of his lawyers said a pardon also will be sought on the larceny charge later.

Construction In The South In September Reaches Record High

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—A new peak in the value of construction south of the Mason-Dixon line was reached in September, the manufacturers record reported today.

The September figure of $318,617,000 was a fraction of a per cent above August's $317,986,000, the previous high for the year.

However, compared with the same month in 1948, the gain amounted to more than 25 per cent.

Three-quarter year statistics on the value of the South's construction show 1949 so far as the peak of the post-war period," the Record reported.

Capt. Sides Attacks U.S. Defense Policy Based On Atomic Bombs And B-36

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—A Navy weapons expert told Congress today that Russia likely has guided missiles able to find and knock down bombers above 40,000 feet.

Capt. J. H. Sides said German rocket secrets fell into Russian hands after the war, and that it would now be "folly" to gamble U. S. security on the atom bomb and big bombers alone.

Had the war lasted a year longer, Sides said U. S. bombers would no longer have been able to fly over Germany without prohibitive losses from German anti-aircraft rockets.

These Nazi anti-aircraft developments designed to search out and destroy raiders traveling 485 miles an hour at 65,000 feet, fell into Russian hands "lock, stock and barrel," Sides said.

The Russians have had plenty of time to get them into production, he said, adding:

"Over four years have elapsed since then. It is foolhardy for us to think of an aggressor's anti-aircraft defenses now in terms of 1945 equipment."

THE NATION TODAY

By HAROLD W. WARD (For James Marlow) WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Possible expansion of the federal government's Social Security system may mean new agitation by approximately 1,800,000 railroad workers to boost their old age pension, too.

The railroaders have had a more liberal—though costlier—program since Aug. 29, 1937, when Congress enacted a special Railroad Retirement Act.

The House, by a vote of 335-14, decided last week to bring another $1,000,000,000 into the federal system and to allow the payments for an elderly couple from around $20 to $100 a month.

Under the Railroad Act, the worker who has earned $200 a month for 30 years can retire at age 60 with $144 a month.

Some critics say the government merely places an I. O. U. in the railroad retirement trust fund, and sees the money as a loan to a way that's correct.

From the railroad pension system in the retirement of employees, the government has received a special bonus U. S. Treasury bonds, paying 3 per cent interest.

Central States Whipped By Rain And Violent Winds

By ASSOCIATED PRESS A storm which brought destructive gales over the central states, killing 16 persons and causing heavy property and crop damage, moved into the Hudson Bay area today.

The violent winds, which reached a velocity of more than 100 miles an hour in some areas of the storm belt, diminished but rain fell over wide sections of the Midwest.

Temperatures moderated over the central states but the unseasonably warm weather continued over the southern states and the Atlantic coastal areas.

Rain fell today over parts of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, southern Nebraska, western Kansas and in Minnesota and North Dakota.

Damage to crops was reported heavy in Minnesota and Iowa where stands of corn awaiting harvest were flattened.

Two persons were killed in the storm in Wisconsin. The Coast guard estimated that 65 mile an hour winds caused $500,000 damage in the Chequamegon Bay area of Lake Superior.

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 11—(AP)—My first meeting with stage star Marlon Brando was not impressive. He was lying in a veterans' hospital ward, sound asleep. He awoke and said grumpily, "I'll brush my teeth and get some coffee." He crawled out of bed and lowered himself by his arms into a wheelchair.

The 25-year old sensation of "A Streetcar Named Desire" is living with paraplegics (men with the lower part of their bodies paralyzed) at Birmingham Hospital. He is preparing to portray a wounded veteran in a film called "The Men."

"You can't understand what it's like to be a paraplegic unless you have lived as one," said the actor as he was wheeled in to the hospital rest-room for coffee.

"For instance, if you or I drop a pack of cigarettes, it's a simple matter to pick them up. It isn't to a paraplegic."

Nablung Brando for the film was a catch for Producer Stanley Kramer. Dyer offers by the dozen been dangled before the young actor ever since Broadway critics first caught "Streetcar" and lauded his work.

"The film offers I get are from movie studios," explained Nablung Brando. "I would never sign with one of them. They dress you up in a tuxedo and tell you to go to the party and do that."

"I would end up like . . . a character actor waiting by the phone until the studio calls up and says I get a part playing a cannibal in a Johnny Weissmuller picture."

"That's not for me; I value my independence too much."

"I mentioned that to my pal, Montgomery Clift, has managed to preserve his independence and stay in the film."

"Yes, but Monty is the kind that will talk up to them and tell them where to go. I'd let myself get pushed around."

He seemed to "The Men" because he was impressed with Kramer's two hits, "Champion" and "Home of the Brave." But he thinks little of the general run of Hollywood product.

"Except for something like 'The Quiet One,' he said, citing a non-Hollywood U. S. film, 'I think the business turns out nothing to compare with such things as 'Bicycle Thieves,' the Italian film, 'Open City,' 'Children of Paradise,' 'Shoe Shine' and others made in Europe.'"

Brando is husky, with a sharp face that becomes good-looking as you watch him. He could probably become a movie star if he wanted to, but he appears to be unwilling to be tied down to the boiler that film fame brings.

"After two years in 'Streetcar' ('tin lung')," says he, "I bounced around France until his money ran out. 'It was a lot of fun until the last, when I was broke,' he remarked.

When he finishes the picture he'll return to New York, but not for a play. He plans to attend the new school for social research. "I got kicked out of high school when I was a sophomore, and I always wanted to go back to school," he explained.

He has no future film plans, but there are signs he is mellowing him. "You know," he said as I showed him back to his ward, "I've been in Hollywood 10 days, and this is the first time I've been pushed around." The Dusty Boots Riding Association will hold a dance Wednesday night at 9:00 o'clock at the Club House at the Municipal Airport. Carnations were first cultivated by the Greeks about 300 B. C.

Vanderbilt Fears Fighting Gator Backs In Jax. Grid Tilt Saturday

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—There's just no kidding. Football coach from warring, after meeting three tough Southeastern Conference opponents, Vanderbilt's Commodores close up against a crippled Florida whip that has been dominating in two of its three starts.

But is Vandy coach Bill Edwards relaxed and happy about the Saturday night's game here. He isn't.

"Florida has a great running attack and is potentially one of the greatest teams in the Conference. We realize what we're up against. And we're not going to be caught asleep."

"I hope our defense improves before the game. I'll have to improve to stop backs like (Chuck) Hunsinger. And, he added, his team reports Hal Griffin and John Cox have plenty of speed too.

"Edwards may feel a little better if his team doesn't have to see two of those boys—Hunsinger and Griffin. They were hurt last week's 14-14 tie with Auburn and may not play.

"Two other Florida stars, center Jimmy Keynes and guard Cliff Sutton, also are on the doubtful list.

"If everyone isn't ready, it will be a dark day," Florida coach Ray Wolf remarked sadly. "There's no doubt we're playing one of the outstanding teams of the Conference."

Vanderbilt has regular fullback Dean Davidson on the injury list. He injured a shoulder against Mississippi and will be out a week.

End Bud Curtin and Center Tommy Patterson missed the Mississippi game because of injuries and they also may not be ready yet this week.

Although Vandy is heavily favored, Florida has the better record. The Gators won two and tied one against weaker opposition. The Commodores lost to Georgia Tech and then managed wins over Alabama and Mississippi.

16th Orange Bowl Grid Classic Has Many Sideights

MIAMI, Oct. 11.—(SPECIAL)—With teams of course, not yet named for the annual Orange Bowl grid classic Jan. 2, the festival committee has packaged a particularly tasty sports dish for the 16th annual event.

In addition to the regular big time fare of horse and greyhound racing, golf, swimming and other sports, inboard and outboard racing is headed for New Year's Day with some of the country's fastest drivers signed to compete. Sailing races are in the making.

The Miami Shrine North-South College All Star football game for charity is set for Dec. 30.

Heading from tiny ripple skimmers to palatial Florida Gold Coast yachts and decorated barges, many carrying brilliant lights, the Miami Marine Regatta is scheduled for Dec. 30 in Biscayne Bay. Spectators can watch from the grounds and Bayfront Park. The annual Orange Bowl Kickoff will be staged the same day, as usual, is expected to draw large crowds of football fans at top of the stadium.

University of Pennsylvania football stars clash with the University of Miami Hurricanes on Nov. 20, with the Orange Bowl Game's selection and coronation crowned for the latter night.

The annual King Orange Jamboree, set up for New Year's Eve, is expected to draw crowds in excess of a half million. The musical fireworks spectacle and parade of the Orange Bowl between halves down and parade will wind up the festival Jan. 3 in the stadium.

Tulane Steps Up Practice Schedule For Notre Dame

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Just about everybody in the Southeastern Conference took it easy Monday with one exception—Tulane.

And small wonder. Tulane is in for a very busy week preparing for Saturday's battle with Notre Dame.

The Green Wave from New Orleans was ranked fourth in the nation in the second annual poll of sports editors, Notre Dame first. But there was more than just a mythical championship at stake. Since the Irish and the Green Wave first began their present rivalry in 1944, Notre Dame has won easily every time. The smallest margin was 26 points.

Hence Coach Henry Fricks put his boys through a brisk workout on defensive plays yesterday.

As for the leading contender to Southeastern Conference honors, the Kentucky Wildcats—they really were taking matters easy after whipping Georgia 28-0. This Saturday the Wildcats meet little Ole Miss, a headliner from their game with Southern Methodist.

Though no titles were at stake, the Conference could count on seeing some excellent football from Southeastern. Conference honors Alabama meets Tennessee and Georgia Tech meets Auburn Saturday. Georgia and Louisiana State University scrap Friday night.

Mississippi, whipped by Kentucky and Vanderbilt, is scheduled to play Boston College at Boston. Florida tackles big, tough and improving Vanderbilt.

Alabama spent Monday in sweat clothes working against Tennessee passers.

Mississippi's Rebels with plenty of offensive power present in the Vanderbilt game, worked out on improvements in defensive play.

Kentucky and Florida took football holidays but were slated to return to work today.

Coach Wally Butts put his Georgia Bulldogs through a light workout but scheduled a heavy scrimmage for today. With losses to Kentucky and North Carolina behind him, Butts wasn't an exactly happy man.

Georgia's opponent, LSU, meanwhile, were giving a sophomore end, Warren Virgots, a chance at promotion. Virgots worked out with the second eleven yesterday.

He is the man who snagged a touchdown pass in LSU's victory over Texas A & M.

At Nashville, Vanderbilt's coach Bill Edwards, pleased with his team's offensive spirit, began drills on plugging his defense.

The Rebels cut through the Vanderbilt line like a knife through hot butter last Saturday and only a hasty passing attack saved the

Yanks Need Pitchers And First Baseman; Dodgers Trim Squad

By RALPH RODEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—With the World Series now a part of baseball history, the major league teams continue building for 1950.

The reconstruction began in the final month of the season but tight pennant races in both leagues and the series took the spotlight.

No team in either league is standing pat. They can't afford to. The newly crowned champion New York Yankees are looking for pitchers (who isn't?) A first baseman and long ball hitting outfielder.

The uncertainty of the physical well-being of Tommy Hughes, Joe DiMaggio and Johnny Mize necessitates the Yanks' search for a first baseman and an outfielder who can sock with authority.

Brooklyn's national league champion Dodgers also are on the prowl for pitchers but they hope to obtain that rare commodity from their vast minor league empire.

The Dodgers also want to chop off at least six members of their championship club in order to add some of their budding minor leaguers to their reserved list.

At present the Dodgers reserve list totals 29, one less than the total 40. Unless the Dodgers can jettison part of their present crew they stand to lose some green but valued timber in baseball's annual player draft next month. The Dodgers, along with the other clubs must submit their reserve list to Commissioner A. B. Chandler by Oct. 16.

President President Branch Rickey held an informal press conference yesterday discussing future Dodger plans.

Rickey told the gathering he would like to get rid of at least a half dozen players. He refused to name the sextet but reports have outsiders Marv Mackey, Dick Whitman, Mike McCormick, a third baseman and pitcher Ralph Branca as the most likely heads to roll.

Rickey started putting his house in order at the close of the season. He called up five prize minor leaguers for an estimated $300,000 and seven players.

He sold outfielders Sam Jethroe and Bob Adair to the Boston Braves, first baseman Irv Noren to Washington and shortstop Chien Carrasquel to the Chicago White Sox.

Other deals he is fore-runner of may be forerunners of Rickey's other deals but Rickey is the winner anyway. Besides his material gains, Rickey has jacked up the reserve lists of the competitors and thus reduced the chances of drafting his players. All of the players he received have been assigned to the farm.

The Philadelphia Athletics also have been active.

Connie Mack is stocking his team with infielders. He has purchased three third basemen—Frankie Gustine, Kermit Walsh and Gene Markland. Gustine, former national leaguer, was obtained from Los Angeles. Wahl from Montreal and Markland from Buffalo. In addition, the A's swapped catcher Buddy Rosar to the Boston Red Sox for utility infielder Billy Hitchcock.

Trade rumors are ripe in every other major league city. Observers in the biggest bartering sessions believe this off season will result since the end of the war.

Here in the fast-and-beefy-Florida Gator backfield which might turn into the top four-man combination of the powerful Southeastern Conference in the game against Vanderbilt next Saturday. Halfback Charlie Hunsinger (187 pounds) was unanimous All-SEC last year and All-America potential this fall. The others of the quarter are quarterback Vic Vaccaro (205), Halfback John Cox (210) and Fullback Russell Godwin (210).

F. S. U. Undeclared In Dixie Conference

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The Dixie Conference football standings aren't going to change this week.

All teams will play non-conference opponents. So far, there have been only two intraconference games.

Florida State University, defending its 1948 championship, whipped Mississippi College 35-13 last Saturday to remain the only undefeated conference member.

The State University Hatters, who hold the other conference win over Millsaps, were defeated 10-0 last weekend by non-conference Troy (Ala.) State Teachers.

FSU will try to make it three straight this weekend here against Erskine, the only team that whipped the Seminoles last year.

State will play Milligan College at Johnson City, Tenn.

The University of Tampa, 36-13 loser to Rollins last week, will take on Abilene Christian at Tampa. Mississippi College will play Sewanee at Sewanee, Tenn.

Millsaps, which lost to Sewanee 21-12, will play Southwestern of Memphis at Jackson, Miss., and Howard will play Marion Institute at Birmingham after losing to Florence (Ala.) State Teachers, 18-6.

Football Leagues Have Record Horde Of Rookie Players

AP Newsfeature

NEW YORK—The seven clubs of the All-America Football Conference are playing the league's fourth season with an average of ten rookies per club.

However, there is a wide difference of opinion between the teams as to the value of new blood to a pro football team. As might be expected, the Cleveland Browns, three-time winners of the league championship, are standing pretty pat with their successful club. Only two newcomers craved the Cleveland roster—Tommy Thompson, the William and Mary center, and Ed Susterac, a back. And Susterac tried out for the team last year and couldn't make it.

At the other extreme are Jim Myer's Los Angeles Rams. Phelan has 20 newcomers on his roster. They are well divided among positions—three ends, three tackles, two guards, two centers, two tackles, two guards, two centers and two backs—Glenn Dobbs and Walt Clay remain from last season. Bob Hoffman, formerly with the Los Angeles Rams in the National Football League, is the 32nd player on the club. That's the league roster limit.

Buffalo boasts the next-highest total of rookies—12. The Bills, eastern division champions last year, added three ends, three guards, a center and six backs.

Three clubs have nine newcomers—Brooklyn-New York, San Francisco and Baltimore. The Yankees have last year's All-America ends, Barney Pools and Dick Rifenburg. However, Rifenburg is injured and Dan Garsa of Oregon has been added in his place. All-America end Paul Cleary of Southern California was cut from the Red Strader-coached squad. Red had too many wingbacks. A guard, a center and five backs also are with the Yankees—including Don Panciera and Gil Johnson, the quarterbacks in the Yank's T.

San Francisco, perennial runner-up in Cleveland, added line strength in his bid for the title. An end, three tackles, a guard, two centers and two tackles make up the 40ers complement of rookies.

At Baltimore, the Colts have added an end, tackle and guard, two centers and four backs.

The Chicago Hornets, whose early season form was the league's chief surprise, has eight rookies, in addition to many of the Brooklyn players of last season. Two tackles, three guards and three backs are the Hoopet newcomers. Alvin Adams, Cleveland's "Pit" Bowler star, is among the club at tallback.

That's a total of 89 rookies, almost a third of the league's 254 players.

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Earl Blaik says he and his aides put nine months work into Army's victory over Michigan last Saturday...but you wouldn't be far wrong in saying that game was won when Army beat Harvard a year ago...this writer had the privilege last winter of looking at the Harvard game pictures with Blaik and got a faint idea of what Fritz Crisler developed the sturdy Michigan 4-4 defense, based on a four-man line and four backs; Bennie Osterban continued to use it and Art Vaipen took it along to Harvard...last fall Harvard gave the Cadets all kinds of trouble in the first half with that set-up. The linemen and backs move in unexpected directions; it becomes a five or six man line or sometimes a 3-5 with no warning; secondary defenders line up three deep and whirl off in different directions. It's confusing even in slow motion pictures...but during the intermission, Blaik worked out some of the answers and Army moved on to a 20-0 victory over Harvard...by last Saturday you can be sure the Cadets have been taught how to block and where to run on almost every conceivable combination.

Boxer Near Death After 9th Round K. O.

DETROIT, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Talmadge Bussey, 26-year-old Detroit lightweight, lay near death today in the hospital where he was taken after being knocked out in the ninth round of a ring battle last night.

Bussey and Luther Rawlings of Chicago fought in the feature attraction at the Ardenia roller rink. It was scheduled for 10 rounds.

A hard left to the jaw knocked the Detroit Negro unconscious in the eighth round. The bell rang before the referee had finished counting him out, and his seconds counted him to start the ninth round.

CHILLED TOMATO SOUP Ingredients: 2 ten-ounce-half-ounce cans condensed tomato soup, 1 pint container pasteurized light sour cream, 1/4 cup cold water, 2 tablespoons cooking sherry, finely cut or chopped parsley.

Recipe for Starred Dish Follows BANANA CHIFFON SQUARE Ingredients: 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sifted cake flour, 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup almond (not olive) oil, 2 egg yolks, 3 tablespoons cold water, 1/4 cup sliced very ripe bananas (1 to 2 large or 2 small), 1/4 teaspoon vanilla, 1/4 cup cream of tartar, (1 1/2) 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar.

flour, baking powder, and salt to a medium-size mixing bowl. Make a well in the center and add the salad oil, egg yolks, water, sliced bananas, and vanilla. Beat with a spoon until there are no lumpy flour particles. Put the egg whites and cream of tartar into a large mixing bowl and beat until whites form very stiff peaks that stand straight up when beater is slowly withdrawn. (If bowl is tipped whites should not slide.) Pour the egg yolk mixture slowly over the egg whites, gently folding in with a rubber spatula or large spoon until just blended and no whites streaks or blobs remain. Do not stir. Pour into an ungreased 8-inch square cake pan and bake 55 minutes in a slow (325 F.) oven, or until the top springs back when lightly touched with fingertip. Turn upside-down at once, place corners or pan on two inverted custard cups or similar objects, and let hang free of table. When cold loosen sides from pan with spatula, and lift edge sharply on table, so cake will slide out.

Note: Slice cake in two layers, if desired, cutting through diagonally with a saw-edge knife and fill with a custard filling made from the two remaining egg yolks; frost with confectioners' frosting.

Rural Common Sense By SPIROS JOHNSON

GUERNSEY SALE SHOWS INTEREST OF FARMERS IN IMPROVING CATTLE

That Florida dairy farmers are very much interested in improving their dairy herds was well illustrated by the recent sale of registered Guernsey cattle at Marianna, Western Florida which is called a "show" dairy section, as it has been only within the past few years that considerable numbers of its farmers have given various attention to the production of milk as a source of farm income. Thus, the numbers of registered and purebred dairy cattle in the western counties are not as large as they are in other sections of the state.

The sale, Mr. Reeves avers, "was a success from the standpoint of price and, also, from the standpoint of interest shown by farmers who are just getting started in the dairy business. The average price paid for young bulls and heifers was satisfactory to all. The sale marks the beginning of good dairy cattle breeding on numerous western Florida farms."

The sale also was a clear-cut indication of the confidence with which breeders and others look to the future of Florida dairying. "Florida Guernsey Cattle Club members who consigned fine registered animals to that sale in a new dairy section showed vision and confidence in the future of dairy farming in western Florida as well as in other parts of the state."

The fact that more and more farmers are recognizing the importance of high-producing purebreds in building up their herds, the confidence shown by the breeders in consigning fine animals to the sale, and the success of the sale are definite signs of progress in Florida dairying.

The percentage of Americans who own life insurance increases as the income increases, with 46 per cent of those earning under $10,000 a year owning policies and 91 per cent of those earning $7,500 or over owning them.

Plans sometimes have a condition which is akin to human anxiety and they will and disappear suddenly.

New Technique Is Developed For Removing Adenomas From Pancreas

By FRANK CARRY
Associated Press Science Reporter
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12—(AP)—A new surgical technique for exposing the pancreas—one of the body's most important organs but also one of the most difficult to explore in time of trouble—was announced today.

Prof. Ian Aldre of the University of London reported that the operation allowed for the first time complete exposure of all surfaces of the gland.

The pancreas—mainly manufacturer of certain juices essential for digestion and also insulin for maintaining a proper control of sugar in the blood—is a gland partly hidden by the stomach. It is covered by involved anatomical structures.

Professor Aldre said the operation already had increased the opportunities for diagnosing patients suffering with a sometimes fatal condition called "hypoglycemia."

This, which might be termed the opposite of diabetes, it is a condition where the blood does not have enough sugar. It results from the development of minute adenomas on the part of the pancreas that produce insulin. These tumors cause an over-production of insulin, with the result that the sugar sugar is burned up in the blood. The brings about weakness, coma, and sometimes death.

In the past, said surgeons who heard Prof. Aldre's report to the International Society of Surgery, removal of these tumors has sometimes been incomplete because of lack of surgical technique for completely exposing all surfaces of the pancreas.

They said the technique described by Aldre was a distinct contribution to the surgery of the pancreas—not only for reaching elusive adenoma but also for the surgical attack on other diseases of the pancreas, including cancer.

The method involves no fancy tricks of surgery. Rather, it combines standard technique with a thorough knowledge of the geography of the structures covering the pancreas, doctors said.

It results, they said, in a complete exposure of the gland so that the surgeon can feel all its surfaces.

Surgeons from 40 different countries are attending the society's six-day meeting.

25 Are Killed In Train Wreck In Argentina

Nearly 100 Injured As Passenger Train Runs Into Freight

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 12—(AP)—A resort-bound passenger train crashed into a freight just outside the big President Peron terminal here late last night, killing about 25 persons and injuring nearly 100.

A police communique announced 18 dead and 66 injured were identified but admitted these figures lagged far behind the full toll.

The accident, the worst since train services were nationalized two years ago, occurred on the General Bartolome Mitre Line, a half mile out of the Peron terminal.

Most of the casualties were in the second class sections of the passenger train, which took the full front of the collision. Many of the first class sections, however, were slightly injured.

President Juan D. Peron and his wife, Evita, and cabinet ministers hurried to the scene.

The passenger train, bound for the summer resort of Tigre, had left its station seven minutes behind schedule. The freight was coming into Buenos Aires from suburban Evita station.

Wreckage was strewn over the tracks, and despite night long rescue workers, service on the line was seriously disrupted.

Railroad men said it was possible that the leading car of the electric passenger train, either because of a misread signal or defective switching, plied into the freight as the two trains were passing on a curve.

The Ministry of Transport gave no list of the dead or injured.

Unofficial counts indicated that many victims were probably Argentine nationals, most of them second class passengers.

At least three second class cars were derailed and badly smashed as they telescoped into the freight car.

Rescuers working under lights from private automobiles and with reflectors supplied by army crews, cut through the wreckage.

Many of the injured and dying were pulled from the train by other passengers, among them many of the first class section who, though not seriously injured, showed the effects of the crash. Their clothes were torn and blood was streaming down their own faces as they worked.

The rescue operation, under lights, was punctuated by cries of pain from the injured trapped in cars.

One passenger car was still pinned under the wreckage and two crews were working to free it. All of its occupants were presumed dead.

The accident was the third major one to strike Argentina in the last two weeks. An airliner carrying members of the Eva Peron Foundation who had been on a rescue mission to Ecuador crashed at Castilla, Sept. 26, killing five and injuring 10. Sixty eight persons died in the sinking of the Navy minesweeper Fuente in the Straits of Magellan. The Fuente had left Rio Galles Sept. 21 on a routine voyage to Ushuaia.

civil populations." He scornfully compared this concept of strategic air warfare to medieval "siege" operations.

Halsey, whose carrier-based airmen drummed the Pacific, said the need for immediate heavy air action from World War Two is the lack of the military body of the enemy "who would be trying to crunch his way across Europe."

"The objective of stopping and finally driving back the enemy air force can only be done by attacking the enemy's armed forces and the transport system which moves them and his supplies."

Bombing of these strategic targets, Halsey said, would stop anything—except possibly bullets from the thousands of high-flying fast fighters an aggressor has in operation.

"Strategic bombing of rear area population centers can't stop enemy ground forces, Halsey rambled on to an attentive committee.

"The mass bombing of cities can only produce delay, remote and indirect effects on the course of the war."

The weight of evidence in his own and the British bombing surveys shows this very clearly.

"These reports show that it was a mistake to believe the B-17s, or later B-29s, could, by unescorted night bombing attacks on cities, gain military advantage in proportion to their cost, or to believe that results would be directly and immediately effective."

Halsey went on to say that the lesson from the last war that stands out clearly above all others is "if you want to go anywhere in modern war, in the air, the sea, or on the land—you must have command of the air."

Command of the air won't be gained by heavy bombers, Halsey said, unless they are used to attack the enemy's air force and defeating it.

"It is gained by fighting the enemy Air Force and defeating it."

"It is gained by attacking enemy air fields and their supporting installations."

"It is gained by shooting down the enemy pilots faster than he can train them."

Most of the witnesses in the hearings have come right out and mentioned Russia as a potential foe for Halsey, in his first reference to a possible enemy, didn't he speak of Eurasia.

"It is gained by making the best way in crippling an enemy is to wreck his bridges and railroads."

"We know that Eurasia is weak in transportation," he said. "It is a thing they have the least of. It would be foolish not to use our superiority to hit the enemy where it hurts."

"I believe that there is a piece in our arsenal of weapons for the very best bombers we can get."

"I favor the use of these bombers against strategic targets of all air transportation."

Youthful Farmer Wins F.F.A. Honor At Annual Meeting

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 12—(AP)—A lanky 19-year-old youth who started a farm program with a single heifer and built up a 48-cow dairy herd has been named the star Farmer of America.

Kenneth England, Chandler, Ark., was given the award last night at the Future Farmers of America convention. It is the Future Farmers' highest honor.

Three regional star farmers also were named. They are John (Astroglino), 22, Monroe, Pa. (North Atlantic region); Robert E. Stevens, Jr., 19, Lynchburg, Va. (southern region); and Jack Halley King, 20, Dadeville, Mo. (North Central region).

The awards were made annually. At 11,000 prizes were received 1,000 each.

England began with a Jersey heifer which he obtained while in grade school. Now his herd is valued at more than $7,000 and he still is building it up.

Buildings, land, farm machinery and other livestock are included among his assets.

He has accumulated a net worth of more than $20,000 through his F. F. A. projects.

In citing England's record, J. K. Callison, Arizona director of vocational education, reported: "It has been entirely through his own efforts that the program has been advanced to its present scope. His parents are in a modest situation and are not in a position to give him the material assistance that so often characterizes the farming programs of our outstanding future farmers."

Castroglino owns 180 acres of land and rents 140 acres. His dairy herd of 51 Holsteins is valued at $9,800. Stevens farms on a 60-50 basis with his father and has major responsibility for 167 acres.

The degree of American farmer was presented also yesterday to 237 youths. The degree is for achievement in agriculture and only one member in a thousand may attain it.

Death Sentence Given Gunman For Slaying Policeman

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12—(AP)— A criminal court jury tonight found Earl D. Bircham, two-gun Tennessee, guilty of murder and fixed his punishment at death in the slaying of a policeman.

Bircham, who slew the policeman in a running gun battle here the night of Aug. 14 and wounded another policeman, appeared to accept the verdict calmly. He swallowed quickly a number of times but otherwise gave no outward indication of his feeling.

Truman Is Rebuffed As Senate Rejects Olds' Nomination

Vote On FPC Head Is 53 Against, 15 For; Compromise Farm Measure is Passed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The House today refused to accept the Senate's bill to set up a flexible system for farm price supports. It stood by its own measure, continuing the present program of 90 percent of parity for major crops. However, they hoped to negotiate with the Senate on a compromise through a House-Senate conference committee. This committee may face a rugged tug-of-war between representatives of the two bodies before any agreement is reached.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Congressional hopes of adjourning this Saturday apparently have some glimmering. Nobody could be found today who would venture a guess as to when the session that began last January (finally) will end. Even before yesterday's Senate passage of a farm bill, Democratic leaders were personal in their view of the work still remaining he didn't see how Congress could adjourn by Saturday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—A smattering of 53 to 15 defeat on the reappointment of Federal Power Commissioner Leland Olds late last night handed President Truman his third—and sharpest—Senate rebuff this year on an important nomination.

Despite the pressure of party discipline which Mr. Truman marshaled behind the nominee, the Senate refused overwhelmingly to return Olds to the Commission for a third term.

Railroad Merger Opposition Hit By ACL Attorney

ATLANTA, Oct. 13.—(AP)—An attorney argued in federal court today that chief opposition to a merger of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Florida East Coast Railroad lies in one man's bid for personal power.

Edward Bourne, special attorney for ACL, told three judges in U. S. court of Appeals for the fifth circuit that major opposition to the merger has no concern for the public or private interests involved.

Atlantic Coast Line is appealing a U. S. district court ruling which rejected an Interstate Commerce Commission plan for merging the two lines.

Edward Ball, head of the DuPont trust, is leading the DuPont trust to build up personal power in Florida, Bourne charged.

"Ball's opposition to this proposed merger is due to his craving for power.

This plan approved by the ICC would better serve the public and private interests than any other plan advanced."

Florida DuPont interests, principally the St. Joe Paper Co., have battled ACL for control of the bankrupt Florida East Coast for several years. Disposition of the FEC has been pending before the ICC and the courts since 1941, when a receivership was established.

Providing Judge Edwin E. Holmes set a two-hour limit for each side's argument. Opponents of the merger will be heard later today.

City Of Canton Abandoned By Nationalists

Red Troops Driving Down Canton-Hankow Railroad To Within 30 Miles

CANTON, China, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The main body of the Canton Nationalist Garrison fled westward tonight down the main highway. Nationalist resistance to the Communists in the entire Canton region had collapsed. A few Nationalist soldiers were still seen on the streets about 9 P. M., but they were hurrying to join units that already had left the city. No defense preparations were evident.

HONG KONG, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Telephoned reports from Canton said Nationalist forces tonight abandoned the south China city. Plans for all organized resistance ended within the provisional capital. Entry of Communist troops is now awaited.

Earlier information from Canton said troops had pulled out of Canton, but this was coupled with reports the Nationalists had been ordered north to defend the city.

New Zealand Presbyterian missionaries told an Associated Press correspondent in Canton they had heard heavy gunfire around Kung-tsun, 10 miles distant.

But there was nothing as yet to indicate whether the Nationalists were quitting the city under military pressure or whether they were attempting to reach escape corridors ahead of the swift moving Red troops.

A million Cantonese waited, tensely, nervously, for the transition period.

Communist troops last week reported driving directly down the Canton-Hankow railroad.

Eire Department Gives Exhibition At Local Schools

Pupils of all Sanford schools have had fire drills and have seen demonstrations of the new ladder truck by members of the Sanford Fire Department at the various schools.

Mr. MacNeill and E. J. Moughlin, Jr. of the Jaycees accompanied the firemen to the demonstrations which took place Monday at Seminole High School and at Crooms Academy.

Firemen who carried out the demonstration were Fire Chief M. S. Cleveland, Assistant Chief R. T. Thomas, J. T. Bennett, G. M. Harrell, and J. B. Lee.

On Tuesday the truck was taken to the Junior High School and to the Hopper Academy for colored students. Discipline at the latter school was reported to have been outstanding during the fire drill.

The South Side Primary and the Grammar School were also visited by the firemen.

All of the demonstrations students gathered in front of schools to see the automatically controlled steel ladders raised to a height of 65 feet and fireman climbed to the top.

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 a public demonstration will be given in front of the Tourist Center of the operation of the ladders, and this time the hose will be taken to the top by firemen, said Mr. MacNeill.

Children from the West Side Primary School through the Fire Department yesterday followed Assistant Chief R. T. Thomas around while he pointed out fire fighting facilities and trucks. This morning second grade negro children from the Goldenrod Primary School, accompanied by their teachers, Billy Fields and L. V. Peterson, visited the station.

C. M. Whitten, Jr., who had the highest grade of three firemen who recently took civil service tests, has been promoted to rank of lieutenant, following the recommendation to the City Commission of Fire Chief Cleveland, City Manager Clifford McElbree, and announced this morning. Lieut. Whitten and Fireman E. L. Griffith have been putting out posters throughout the city in observance of National Fire Prevention Week.

Naval Experts Testify At Washington Inquiry

AMONG NAVY EXPERTS CALLED TO TESTIFY before the House Armed Services Committee in Washington, Comdr. Eugene Tetlow (left) tells the group that "contrary to popular opinion the atom bomb is limited in its area of destruction." Holding a German R-4 rocket, Comdr. A. B. Steiger (right) testifies that the Russians have jet fighter planes which "appear to equal or better ours."

Owen J. Roberts Favors World Federation To Stop Russians

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Owen J. Roberts, retired Supreme Court Justice proposed today that the Russians deal in their tracks.

The former Justice presented the proposal in the House Foreign Affairs Committee, now hearing advocates of various ideas for a world government.

"The way to stop World War III," Roberts said, "is for the peace-loving nations, the democracies who have not fought an aggressive war in the past two generations, to join forces, so that no aggressor will dare attack us."

The North Atlantic Treaty is the first step, he told the committee, to explore the advantages of forming within the United Nations a federal union.

"That is," Roberts said, "a political, economic and defense union which we have today among our own 48 states."

"When ratification was completed by American citizens, you and I would be citizens not only of our separate American states, but of the United States of America, and would also be citizens of an Atlantic Union."

"Why would such extension of our sovereignty as citizens increase our national security?" Because, he said, "we would then find ourselves in possession of 50 percent of the world's naval power. For that is what the combined naval forces of the Atlantic Democracies represent."

"Atomic scientists in the Democratic states of the Atlantic Union could work freely together. The world's scientific resources would be enormously simplified. Of course an aggressor would dare attack such power."

Nowhere in the North Atlantic Treaty, Roberts said, is there any guarantee that such power will be called into play in event of attack.

He told the committee the decision is left in that part of the individual signatories and "surely the Kremlin is aware of the significant loophole."

Witnesses claimed powerful congressional support back of the plan for World Federation.

English Inquest To Be Held Tomorrow

An inquest into the fatal shooting of Carroll English, commercial fisherman, at a fishing camp on Lake Jesup on Oct. 3, will be conducted tomorrow morning at 9:30 A. M. at the Court House by Herbert E. Griggs, assistant State Attorney. It was announced today by W. E. Watson, justice of the peace.

Mike Dixon, 17 year old youth, who was arrested following the shooting, has been held in County Jail pending the inquest. Jurymen at the inquest will be the same group who were hastily picked by Sheriff P. A. Mero at the Legion Hut following the Legion meeting, and who viewed the body of English at the fishing camp. They are J. R. Sporkman, J. A. Benton, Fred M. Smith, J. Q. Gallaway, James J. Singletary and J. D. Cordell.

Bomber Crashes In English Fog Killing Crew

Flaming Fuel Causes Live Bomb Load To Explode Killing 12

ISLEHAM, Eng., Oct. 13.—(AP)—An American B-50 heavy bomber plowed into a fog-covered wheat field and exploded today killing 12 crew men aboard. The crash blast, heard 12 miles from the scene, shook down ceilings and smashed windows in homes here.

All those aboard the big plane, an atom-bomb-carrying version of the B-29, aircraft were killed.

A Royal Air Force rescue squadron recovered 12 bodies from the smoking twisted wreckage within two hours after the crash. A U. S. Air Force spokesman said the plane may have been carrying 11 men. Names of those aboard were not announced pending notification of next of kin.

The plane, one of the newest types in the U. S. Air Force, is designed to carry conventional bombs as well as the atom bomb. The RAF threw a guard around the wreckage to protect secret equipment.

Flaming high octane gasoline from the shattered plane set fire to big stacks of wheat straw stacked in the field. The fire spread to adjoining farm buildings. Firefighting equipment from nearby towns fought the flames.

The B-60 belonged to the 43rd Bombardment Group which flew here from its base in Tucson, Ariz. It spent the night in a field at Northampton in nearby Norfolk county for 90 days of operational training.

Witnesses said the plane burst into flame just before diving into the field. In London, U. S. Air Force headquarters said the big bomber might have been carrying five high explosive bombs on a practice mission.

The tremendous explosion which accompanied the crash was heard in Newmarket 10 miles away, and in Middleham, two miles further distant in Suffolk county. Newmarket is 60 miles northeast of London.

There was no immediate indication of the cause of the crash. An Air Force spokesman said weather in the area was foggy, with visibility of about an eighth of a mile.

Flames spread to nearby farm buildings and haystacks. Fire continued to burn for hours.

Comdr. Sutherland Killed In Airplane Accident Near Jax

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Comdr. James J. Sutherland, 38, commander of carrier air group 1 of fleet air base Jacksonville, was killed last night while taking off on a routine flight from the carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt at sea off Jacksonville.

The carrier was underway to the east of control following an accidental damage to its tail section during the takeoff when struck by another plane.

The body has not been recovered.

Comdr. Sutherland was a graduate of the Naval Academy in 1930. He was shot down by enemy fighters in 1943 over Guadalcanal after attacking enemy bombers and despite nine bullet wounds and shrapnel injuries.

He was a native of Normansville, Pa., and lived at the air station here. His widow and three children survive. His mother, Mrs. L. B. Sutherland, lives in Miami.

Comdr. Sutherland was flight training officer at the Sanford Naval Air Station following his service in the Pacific during the recent war.

STOCK MARKET
NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Buying pent up over the Columbus Day recess flooded the stock market today and pushed prices up by fractions to around 2 points.

The initial rush of orders swamped the ticker tape which fell behind for a brief period right after the opening. Thereafter, however, trading slowed its pace but continued heavy.

Activity covered almost every major group in the list, but particular favorites were rails, sweets, motors and oils.

Admiral Nimitz Says Plans Assume U. S. Is Less Ready For War Than Russia

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Admiral Louis F. Denfeld, the Navy's top officer, said today the Navy is often evasive in defense department comings that there should be no Marine Corps and no naval aviation.

The Chief of Naval Operations also told the House Armed Services Committee that there has been "improper" operation of the military-units program.

Denfeld said in a policy-making by the Joint Chiefs of Staff as the Navy's representative.

Denfeld summed up the Navy's whole case in the setting of a hat in the crowd served over defense policies.

His appearance in the witness chair supplied arguments from a long string of admirals and other high Navy officers that present defense policies are putting too much reliance on the Air Force B-36 bomber and its atomic bomb.

In the final stages of the stage for Denfeld, the Navy had put in a statement from their Annual Report to the Senate, advising that American war plans must assume "we will be in a weak state for war in its aftermath than Russia."

Denfeld had done a six-point program which had all three services. He said the Navy must make its contribution to the effort to be in a position to meet any emergency.

"The Atlantic world must not mean that two services can control a third. Up to now there have been many instances in which that has happened."

"While there is a law saying that there shall be naval aviation and that there shall be a Marine Corps, and although there have been public assurances from one service to another that there shall be Naval aviation and a Marine Corps in the event of the establishment of a two-service system, it is not true."

And naval aviation and the Marines will be "put out of business" regardless of any law that might say otherwise, he said.

On the other hand, he said, the Navy is in a position to meet any emergency. He said the Navy is in a position to meet any emergency.

One Drowns, One Is Saved As Boat Overturns In Lake

William Sawyer, 38, of the Orange River, died today in a boating accident. He was a passenger on the boat when it overturned in Lake Monroe.

The pulled boat which was outfitted by Capt. Roy C. Williams and which is kept at all times in immediate readiness for rescue duty at the station, was reported by Capt. Williams and Deputy Captain Beck Hamilton to be found sinking in the overturned boat.

If R. Fulghum of Orlando, while motoring past the tourist station on Seminole Boulevard at about 1:30 o'clock, was looking for a new boat when he reported that a cow boat had overturned and a man was holding on to it.

Fulghum notified police and Sgt. R. W. Funch, with the aid of a nearby justice of the peace and trailer out of the garage where it is kept.

When Chief Williams and Capt. Phillips arrived with the boat near the tourist station, they found Deputy Charles Beck already there and directing traffic. The boat was launched by the officers, with the aid of two men, and after considerable maneuvering they were able to rescue Hamilton, who lives at 1711 West Fourth Street.
