

Wednesday Declared 'Celebration Of Citizen' Day

Seminole Schools Open Bicentennial Week

By Richard Whittaker Herald Staff Writer

It is expected that most of Seminole County's 43,006 students will be in front of a television set Wednesday when President Reagan leads the nation's schools in the pledge of allegiance during a national broadcast to honor the bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution.

The broadcast is scheduled to begin a 1 p.m. over WFTV, Channel 9, and will also feature former Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren Burger, who will read and explain the preamble to the Constitution to students and others watching.

Many schools' officials in this district say they are including the braodcast. which will also be aired by radio stations around the country, in their plans to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the document. The school system will begin a five-year period honoring both the Constitution and the Bill of Rights today. The celebration will last through 1991.

The Seminole County School Board passed a resolution in August declaring Sept. 16 as a "Celebration of Citizen" day in district schools. According to the resolution, it will reflect the board's support for the country's commitment to universal freedom and self-government. It also states the nation's educators have traditionally been responsible for teaching the meaning, rights and privileges of the Constitution.

The resolution called for the board to establish a system of patriotic education in the district's five-year comprehensive plan as a priority. This is intended to help promote an understanding of the development of the Constitution among students. Other aims of the resolution passed by the board include supporting the goals of civic competence and responsibility.

Jim Elliott, coordinator of social studies for Seminole County schools, said plans to honor the Constitution will be more than just a celebration. "We're going to actually root patriotic education into the school curriculum," he said.

Many individual schools around the county are planning their own events to observe the Constitution's anniversary. as well as inserting activities into their classrooms.

At Lake Mary High School, 10th graders will study Constitutions from Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett will recommend to the city commissioners today that parking spaces be blocked off for the county's bookmobile while the library in Sanford is closed.

The recommendation will be made at the 7 p.m. meeting of the City Commission in the commission room of City Hall.

The library will be closed Sept. 19-Oct. 31 while employees move books, shelves and other material to the new library building on Palmetto Avenue, just behind the present library building

'In view of the services provided by the library and taking into consideration how much the citizens of Sanford depend on those services. I will certainly recommend to the city commission that space be made available to accomodate the bookmobile," Harriett said.

The request is for parking spaces on Palmetto Avenue, between the alley and First

Proposal To Amend Ordinance On Tonight's Agenda

Longwood Makes County Sewer Hook-Up Priority

Pope's Surprise, Sanctuary Support

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) - Pope John Paul II dropped the first surprise of his U.S. tour with words of support for the sanctuary movement, praising its "courage and generosity" in sheltering illegal aliens fleeing civil wars in Central America.

The pope, who also refused to budge from his position on divorce and the integrity of the family, was to fly west to Arizona today at the midpoint of his nine-city U.S. tour. He began his day by being awakened by mariachi singers at 6 a.m. and had an 8:30 a.m. flight for Arizona. His itinerary included a meeting with about 16,000 Indians and an evening mass in Sun Devil Stadium at Arizona State University.

At a mass for 300,000 people in a barren field outside San Antonio Sunday, the pontilf stopped short of a direct call for law-breaking by members of the 5-year-old sanctuary movement, some of whom have run afout of federal immigration rules, but he praised their "compassion in the face of complex human, social and political realities.

The most moving moment of the Polish-born pontiff's grueling Sunday came near its end, when he met 1,000 citizens of Panna Maria, the nation's first Polish community, 60 miles from San Antonio. They sang "Mary, the Queen of Poland" at exactly 9 p.m., when it traditionally is sung each night in Poland.

"I had tears in my eyes. I never dreamed this would happen," said Adrian Wiartrek. "He held iny hand."

"I said 'God bless you,' and he said. 'You are very welcome," whispered Mary Januszewski. "That's all I could say. I started crying, I'm so elated, I just can't talk."

John Paul is intensifying his message of firmness for the Catholic family.

He went to Our Lady of Guadalupe church in the San Antonio barrio Sunday night to tell parishioners in Spanish that the church will not sanction "trial marriages, civil marriages, common-law marriages and divorce."

"We cannot invent the faith as we go along," the pope said. "We must receive it in and from the universal community of faith, the church to whom Christ himself has entrusted a teaching office under the guidance of the spirit of truth."

Part of the teaching, John Paul said, is the importance of the sacrament of marriage, which "forms the stable basis of the whole Christian community."

The pope also turned recruiter Sunday, urging more Hispanics to consider the religious life both in his sermon at mass and at the parish meeting.

"I am happy to know that the number of Hispanic priests and men and women religious is growing," he said. "But many more are needed. Christ needs Hispanic laborers for the great harvest of the Hispanic community and the whole church."

The crowd that gathered for mass was the largest the pope has seen so far in his second tour of the United States, which entered its fifth day today. But the pitiless sun and the lack of shade took a heavy toll. Three hundred people were treated at Red Cross first-aid stations in the field for heat-related problems, but the most serious trouble arose when the mass was over.

It was the largest crowd the pope has seen so far on his 10-day, nine-city tour, and 38 people were rushed to hospitals, three in critical condition and most suffering heat stroke or heat prostration. Most of the trouble developed when the multitude tried to leave the remote field.

The throng flooded onto the two roads serving the mass site, 15 miles outside San Antonio, until

Tax Fund Projects Listed

Longwood and Oviedo city leaders have listed projects to be completed with a possible Onecent sales tax that Seminole County voters will be asked to approive Nov. 3. but leaders of neither city are counting on the money.

Ron Waller, city manager of Longwood, said that city's five projects were listed in no particular priority. The city listed the purchase of land for and construction of a city hall. civic center, public works complex, fire station, and parks.

"All are city needs but we have no plans for financing them, in fact there have been no discussions on how to finance them," he says.

Waller says he wouldn't try to predict whether voters will approve the new tax. "I think the vote will be close." he says.

Oviedo only listed a municipal complex as its proposed use of its share of the proceeds from a to be replaced soon, and the city manager, says the complex is planned to include a new city hall, police and fire stations. He says all are needed by the city. but no financing for such a complex has been discussed.

Winter Springs Mayor John Torcaso says that city's top priorities for its share of the money would be a civic center. water and sewer service im-provements, and possibly an additional fire station.

The old city hall is now being used as a senior citizen center. and Torcaso says the facility is not large enough. He says the city wants to either add on to the present building or, if it can find a suitable site, build a new civic center.

From television surveys of many of the plastic sewer pipes now in place, the mayor says it is clear many of them will have

MIAMI (UPI) - A group of souvenir hunters waiting to receive chrysanthemums that decorated the altar where Pope John Paul II celebrated mass began throwing chairs when church volunteers did not hand them out fast enough. police said.

"It got very ugly at one point." Metro-Dade Police spokeswoman Lucy Fitts said of Sunday's incident. "The volunteers from the archdiocese were trying to do their best to distribute the papal flowers, but then some people decided they didn't like waiting so long so they started

The growth of the city will probably necessitate a third fire station within the next five years also, he says.

However, Mayor Torcaso says he doubts if voters are willing to add to their tax burden. He points to recent voter approvals of higher taxes for five new libraries, a one-year penny sales tax to pay for a new jail, and a $105 million bond issue to build schools.

Those favorable votes have been cited by county commissioners as evidence that Seminole County citizens will vote to tax themselves if they are convinced of the need. However, Torcaso says he thinks the majority of citizens think they have voted in anough new taxes and will refuse another one. -Brad Church

COUNTY IN BRIEF Newly Proposed Zoning Category Gets Its Advisory Committee

Members of an advisory committee to consider a new "suburban estates planned unit development" zoning category were appointed by county commissioners.

The new zoning category, which was discussed during recent hearings on the county's update of the comprehensive land management plan, would allow cluster housing.

The proposed new zoning category would allow a maximum of two house on three acres of land. The present suburban estates zoning sets a minimum lot size of one acre. The proposed new zoning also would allow clustered housing, which would permit a higher density on part of the development as long as the average density of the development remained two houses per three acres.

The higher density housing allowance is favored by developers in the western part of the county and is strongly opposed by residents in the Lake Markham Road and Sylvan Lakes areas.

Each commissioner appointed two members of the advisory committee. Those appointed are: Drew Evans and Mike Jones, appointed by Barabara Christensen; Bill Kercher and Rudy Sloan, appointed by Bob Sturm: Richard Williams and James A. Stelling, appointed by Fred Streetman: Roger Neiswender and Cliff Guillet appointed by Sandra Glenn; and Frank Shelton and Carolyn Nurick. appointed by Bill Kirchhoff.

Road Panel Almost Complete

All but two of the 24 members of the Road Impact Fee Citizens' Advisory Committee were appointed, including eight people who previously served on the citizens' review committee before the ordinance was adopted last April. The citizens' advisory committee is charged with reviewing the impact fee and recommending changes to the commissioners at their annual review, as required by the ordinance.

The advisory committee was to be made up of the 17 members of the original review committee, plus one person to be appointed by each city government in the county. However, nine of the original members declined the appointment, so the commissioners appointed replacements.

Members who served on the original committee are Leslie M. Gross, Howard Pomp, Howard B. Leikowitz, William R. Holmes, Mike Hattaway, Roger Neiswender, Bill Miller and Dan Bushrui. The nine new members appointed are Bill Stoller, Susan Michalek. Gib Edmonds. Paul D. Jess. William B. Burns., Robert McKee, Bob Boardman, Dean Jennings and C.Q. "Lee" Voorhees.

Appointments to the committee have so far been made by all cities except Altamonte Springs and Winter Springs. They are Kim Hackett, Lake Mary; Richard Barber, Oviedo; William Thompson, Longwood; Robert Ross, Sanford; and Adolph Voge, Casselberry.

Fees OK'd for Midway School

The use of school impact fees for improved access to Midway Elementary School was approved by the commissioners. The project includes paving and drainage of Right Way Avenue from State Road 46 to the south property boundary of the school, and construction of right turn lanes on SR 46 at Right Way Avenue.

Engineering and construction will be performed by the county department of public works or will be contracted out by that department.

The impact fees which will pay for the project were collected by the county from developers of Planned Unit Developments. Such developers were also required to pay

Researcher In A Dog House

Gary Strobel, a Montana State University Dutch elm disease researcher who injected a genetically altered bacteria into 14 trees, is in the doghouse with federal regulators and his academic peers for failing to consult them first. Unconstrained genetic tinkering could lead to environmental disaster, it's feared. While we suppose there are risks, Strobel's civil disobedience makes the point that scientific progress isn't possible without risks, either.

Strobel has been attempting to genetically alter a naturally occurring organism that emits an antibiotic that may be useful against Dutch elm disease. If the organism can be induced to produce the antibiotic at a higher level, a practical solution may be at hand for getting this destructive blight under control before it entirely eliminates the lovely elm tree.

Strobel found an isolated stand of 14 small elm trees, infected them with Dutch elm disease and loaded them with his super organism. He says he sprayed insecticides all around the trees to arrest any spread of the Dutch elm infestation.

Strobel called the EPA to talk to officials about his experiment eight days before he injected the trees, and wrote them a letter three days before. He concedes that he didn't wait for clearance, however. Moreover, he ignored his university's requirement that such experiments be given peer review by the bio-safety committee.

Local journalists and citizens were enraged. There is no Dutch elm disease in Bozeman, where Strobel infected the trees, although the infestation is present in other Montana communities. Strobel said the whole issue "got out of hand and could have been settled quietly." However, he made that difficult by pleading "civil disobedience." in the Henry David Thoreau manner, on grounds that bureaucratic barriers to science are too onerous.

Strobel's punishment was a scolding from the EPA and a requirement that, for the next year, he have a co-sponsor for any further experiments. His colleagues at Montana State have also been pressured into debating sanctions. Before everybody is through with him. Strobel is likely to find it difficult to

Jesse Jackson's Problems And Prospects

By Arnold Sawislak UPI Senior Editor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Jesse Jackson has announced he will run for president and he starts with the highest approval rating of any other declared candidate for the Democratic nomination.

For what it is worth — and some politicians would say about as much as a case of typhoid that makes Jackson the front-runner. That does not mean, however, that he is the favorite to win the nomination.

There are at least two big reasons to reserve judgment on Jackson's chances.

The first is that he is black. The country may have made a lot of progress in some areas since the Kerner Report spoke of a racially divided U.S. society, but politicians are not convinced yet that a black candidate, however qualified, can win a major party presidential nomination, let alone a national election.

So, just as John F. Kennedy had to prove to the skeptics that a Roman Catholic could be elected president, Jackson will have to demonstrate that a black can be nominated.

DICK WEST

You Hear Discreet Old News

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Although former Sen. Gary Hart apparently has taken himself out of the 1988 presidential race at least twice, by actual count, opinions persist that the newest Senate office building stands as a monument to senatorial indiscretion.

Nothing could be farther from the truth.

It may be that the building was named for a former Democratic senator — but that Hart came from Michigan rather than Colorado. Furthermore, there was a difference in their leave-taking.

Sen. Philip Hart, for whom the building was named, presumably died involuntarily in 1976, whereas Gary Hart voluntarily did not seek re-election about 10 years later.

There also was a matter of esteem of their colleagues.

All senators. Philip and Gary Hart included, customarily refer to each other as "distinguished," but there is evidence Philip Hart was genuinely beloved by his fellows.

Anyway, they were fond enough of him to name the newest Senate office building in his honor, the older structures being named for Sens. Richard Russell, D-Ga., and Everett Dirksen, R-III.

no record honor befalling Gary Hart, just as there is no record that Philip Hart ever ran for president. I remember when there was only one Senate office building, as opposed to two on the House side. The senatorial building was known far and wide by its initials, which may have been among the reasons two other buildings were constructed. Lest you feel too sorry for overcrowded House members, however, be advised that they now have three office buildings also. Of course, there are more of them. Likewise be advised that Philip and Gary were by no means the only Harts to serve in Congress. There have been about a dozen but mostly they were representatives. and hence had no chance of having a Senate office building named in their honor. There has been at least one other senator of that name, Thomas Hart, R-Conn., who was appointed in the 1940s to fill an unexpired term. But he only served a year or so, which presumably wasn't long enough to have a Senate office building named in his honor. If mistakes were make in constructing the Hart Building, they were more of an engineering variety than the kind Gary Hart admitted were made when he spent a Saturday night here with a woman other than his wife.

Jackson's task almost surely is tougher than Kennedy's. Catholic Al Smith already had won a nomination in 1928, and Kennedy worked hard to assure voters that he would not impose his religious beliefs on the presidency.

Jackson's "Rainbow Coalition" campaign is designed to broaden the racial base of his support. But he cannot change the color of his skin and that, when all the euphemisms are skimmed off, is the prejudice he has to deal with.

There are at present only seven statewideelected black public officials in the United States, and that denotes progress toward color blind politics. But the last two blacks who had major party nominations for governor — Democrat Tom Bradley in California and Republican Bill Lucas in Michigan — were defeated.

In truth, the best recent test of a black candidate in major league politics probably was Jackson's campaign for the nomination four years ago when he did far better than anyone predicted.

Jackson's second problem is that he is by far the most liberal Democrat in the lield both on domestic issues and foreign policy.

He is trying to put together a latter-day Franklin D. Roosevelt coalition of minorities, blue collar workers and farmers, and many of his proposals are regarded as leaning left at a time when many of the other Democratic candidates are moving toward the right of the political spectrum.

That could make Jackson's domestic proposals the prime target for the half dozen other Democratic hopefuls, giving them license to gang up on the front-runner and, as has happened before in both parties, combine to shoot down a high-flying campaign.

Jackson also has a far more swashbuckling approach to foreign affairs and diplomacy than other candidates. His ideas for dealing with communist countries and the Third World give his opponents another area to attack Jackson as a dangerous radical.

Jackson's standing in the early polls demonstrates that at the minimum he has overcome the big political problem of establishing positive name recognition.

Small Firms' Demise

WASHINGTON: There's a deep and profound difference of opinion in the country as to the economic future of the United States. The prosperity and well-being of entire states depend on which view prevails. On August 25. The Wall Street Journal presented the transnational view of the American economy. It published a lengthy article by Prof. Peter F. Drucker entitled "The Transnational Economy."

Prof. Drucker's view was summed up in the first paragraph of his article. He said: "To maintain a leadership role in any one developed country a business — whether large neutralism — a distancing of economic activity from the national interest.

Dr. Drucker fails to mention the high cost of creating a transnational economy. It would mean the end of an era in which companies had a feeling of responsibility to the country where they were chartered and from whom they benefited throughout their existence. It would mean that transnational companies didn't have a special state in Pennsylvania or Missouri. Texas or North Carolina. If work could be done more prolitably in Spain or Talwan. India or Ireland, then investment would be directed to

Gypsy Health Declines

SCIENCE WORLD

By Jan Ziegler UPI Science Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gypsies, the subject of romantic lore for centuries, are dying early of the same modern diseases that afflict the rest of the population — but at much higher rates, scientists say.

Gypsies appear particularly prone to high blood pressure, diabetes and heart disease, a new study shows. A majority smoke cigarettes and are obese.

Bad health habits and heredity are to blame, as is true in the general population. But instead of stemming from the hazards of modern living, the Gypsies' health habits can be traced to ancient tradition.

Gypsies are believed to have originated in northern India, migrating west around 1000 AD and spreading over Europe by 1600. They remain a tightly knit society with a strict cultural code, distinctive language similar to Hindi and hardly ever marry outside their race.

There are no reliable estimates of how many there are in the United States, since many manage to evade census takers.

The study, from Massachusetts General Hospital and Harvard Medical School, both in Boston, analyzed medical histories of 58 Gypsies in the Boston area. Thirty-nine were related, and 15 more were connected by marriage to the family. A whopping 73 percent had high blood pressure, 67 percent had high levels of cholesterol and 46 percent had type 2 diabetes, the kind that appears in adulthood and is related to obesity. High levels of certain fats in the bloodstream, an indication of possible or active hearcent.

The incident, however, raises the whole question of bureaucratic supervision over scientific research. The genetic scientists, particularly, are bedeviled by bio-Luddites who think every experiment threatens to unleash uncontrollable organisms that will sweep the Earth and do more damage than the biblical locusts. Further, bureaucrats have little to gain by taking risks, so they often drag their feet on regulatory decisions.

John A. Moore, the assistant EPA administrator responsible for pesticides and toxicology, says Strobel's experiment would have been allowed to go forward without delay. He notes that in the last 15 months there have been 15 applications for experiments with genetically altered material, and 12 have been allowed to proceed without permits. Two required permits and only one was refused.

But the punishment of Strobel seems harsh. The weight of the federal government seems entirely out of proportion to the "crime" involved. Nobody questions the safety of Strobel's experiement, only that he violated paper work requirements. The public has a legitimate interest in safeguarding itself from irresponsible scientists, but it also has an interest in encouraging innovation. The Strobel case suggests a need for a rethinking of how these two objectives can be better met.

BERRY'S WORLD

I DON'T LIKE TO JUDGE PEOPLE BY THE WAY THEY LOOK, BUT IN YOUR CASE ...

or small — increasingly has to attain and hold leadership positions in all developed markets worldwide." He went on to say that a company "has to be able to do research, to design to develop, to engineer and to manufacture in any part of the developed world, and to export from any developed country to any other. It has to go transnational." It's obvious that Prof. Drucker also believes that a transnational company must be prepared to have its manufacturing and assembly work done in low-cost, underdeveloped countries.

Many American companies are moving this direction. Hundreds of companies have moved production offshore, shutting down U.S. plants in the process. It's also clear that the transnational companies that Dr. Drucker hails are companies that haven't any special commitment to the United States. They see themselves as entities without any obligation to adhere to the U.S. national interest.

Dr. Drucker's article plainly shows that he regards economic change as isolated from the political will of the nation involved — the will of the people, that is. It strikes this commentator as absurd to believe that Americans will tolerate, let alone praise or promote, what amounts to a kind of economic those countries.

The transnational shift would be a shift away from creating wealth in or for the United States or providing employment for Americans - or adding to the strength of America. This proposal, then, is a proposal that American business and industry end its commitment to the American people. Obviously, the majority of American businessmen don't want to feel that way. They are Americans first. And they surely know that any shift to transnationalism would incur a massive outpouring of public resentment and opposition.

The other view of the American economy is a national view, a belief that American business and industry are a vital part of our social and political system and exist to serve the interest of all Americans through free enterprise in the United States. This view can be summed up as business and industry organized and directed by Americans, located in America, manned by Americans, and viewed as serving American communities.

Prof. Drucker talks about companies of all sizes participating in the transnational economy, but it's clear that small and medium size business in the United States wouldn't play a significant role in such a system. In comparison, one in four people in the general population suffers high blood pressure. There are no figures for cholesterol levels. Type 2 diabetes, which can be treated with drugs and diet, is believed to afflict more than 9 million, or 4 percent of Americans.

Although it was possible the high rates were due to Gypsies' custom of marrying within extended families, the researchers found their conclusions borne out when they analyzed 19 other Gypsies unrelated to the study family. They also found a study showing high rates of vascular disease and death in a Gypsy group in California.

Fourteen members of the group had died around the age of 48. Local Gypsy leaders thought their average lifespan was about 55 years, the report said.

Now, You Can Send Message To Moscow

By Jack Anderson And Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON - If you could send a message to Moscow - a message that would be read by 40 million Russians - what would you like to say?

It is now possible for you to address the Russian people, to offer your ideas on how to improve Soviet-American relations, to get off your chest any feelings you may wish to communicate to the Soviet Union.

Here's how this remarkable opportunity has become possible: At a Soviet-American conference at Chautauqua N.Y. in August, we proposed an exchange of ideas between the Soviet and American people. We offered to turn over our column once a month to Soviet commentator Vladimir Posner if he would arrange for Soviet newspapers to give us equal space each month. We agreed to invite the people themselves to express their views, to speak out, to say whatever they wish — free of censorship, reproach or retallation.

This is no contest, so there are no rules. It will be a dialogue between people of good will, a free exchange of ideas to promote better understanding, an exercise in citizens' diplomacy. Please keep your statements short and pertinent; there simply won't be enough space for lengthy essays.

Mail your statements to Jack Anderson, Post Office Box 2300, Washington, D.C., 20013. Sorry, we don't have the staff to acknowledge each statement: you will have to watch the column for the results. It is also understood, of course, that we have the right to publish your comments, in whole or in part.

You are free to write whatever is on your 'mind. You can explain American values or denounce Soviet values. But we would like this to be a constructive dialogue. We won't achieve better relations with abrasive words and a belligerent attitude. We can't expect to make lasting friendships with a cudgel.

Clearly, tension exists between Moscow and Washington. Some day we hope to report that all Soviet-American differences have been resolved and that the millennium has dawned. But at the moment, this is wishful thinking. Unpleasant news still unsettles our lives. Unwelcome shapes and shadows still lie on the horizon.

Yet we cannot afford to become sour and cynical. This leads to mistrust and disillusion, which can cause bitterness and hopelessness. We must have faith in the future and be willing to keep on trying. So let us raise our sights, lest they drift ever lower.

The Soviet leader, Mikhail

Gorbachev, is attempting to restructure and revitalize the Soviet system. He has introduced new initiatives, new attitudes, new thinking inside the Soviet Union. Part of the new way is the new openness — the Soviets call it "glasnost" — which has made this exchange of ideas possible.

Perhaps Americans, too, could profit by taking a new look at themselves. There are problems bubbling up all around us. Yet there is a reluctance to change our profligate ways, to revamp our outmoded methods, to reverse our stubborn thinking, to get off the downhill racer. We hold tenactously to past ways and old views, not because they're still the best, but because they are familiar and comfortable.

So let us begin, why not, by considering a new approach to Soviet-American relations.

NATION IN BRIEF CIA Official Linked To Scandal. Now Forced To Retire

WASHINGTON (UPI) - CIA counterterrorism chief Duane Clarridge, a figure in the Iran-Contra scandal, is among a handful of agency officials being forced into retirement as part of a house cleaning by new boss William Webster, U.S. intelligence sources say.

Speaking to United Press International on the condition of anonymity, the sources said Webster and other senior CIA officials were "dissatisfied" with Clarridge's lack of candor in his 1984 and 1986 testimony before the House and Senate intelligence committees about the agency's role in Central America.

One source said parts of Clarridge's testimony, on subjects including the CIA's mining of Nicaraguan harbors and a manual encouraging the assassination of Nicaraguan village officials "were found in-house not to be accurate."

Strike Talks Now Ford's Job 1

DEARBORN, Mich. (UPI) - Most of Ford Motor Co.'s 104,000 union workers had their picket signs inked and mounted for a possible walkout at midnight tonight over some "very serious" differences on the issue of job security.

"Our patience is obviously wearing thin as the clock ticks away," United Auto Workers President Owen Bieber told reporters during a briefing Sunday night at Ford's headquarters in Dearborn.

The UAW's 23-member executive board met Sunday for about 35 minutes at a hotel near Ford headquarters to get a report on the talks from Bieber. No details were immediately available as bargainers quickly returned to the negotiating table.

Siamese Twins Moving

BALTIMORE (UPI) - Siamese twins who were surgically separated more than a week ago began stirring from a chemically induced coma by moving their arms and legs. but doctors said the big test comes in several days when the boys are fully awake.

"The process of waking them up from the coma will allow doctors for the first time to see if there are any neurological problems." said Dr. Randall Wetzell, director of pediatric anesthesiology at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Doctors began bringing 7-month-old Patrick and Benjamin Binder out of a coma during the weekend by reducing their barbiturate dosage, hospital spokeswoman Joann Rogers said Sunday. She was not able to say exactly when the process began.

West Fire War Enters Third Week

United Press International

Firefighters today entered the third week of their battle against the forest and range fires that have ravaged vast areas of the West, and said if they get some help from the weather they should have them contained in a few days.

Ray Schaaf of the U.S. Forest Service said Sunday that cooler temperatures and higher humidity would help thousands of firelighters get a handle on the last of the major lightning-caused fires that have charred more than 1,000 square miles in California and Oregon.

Two Haitian Boats Intercepted

MIAMI (UPI) - Two Haitian sailboats were intercepted by the Royal Bahamian Defence Force early today about 450 miles southeast of Great Inagua, a Coast Guard spokesman said.

Both boats were between 25 and 35 feet long. One carried 105 people. The number of passengers on the other was unknown, said Petty Officer Luis Diaz.

The Coast Guard cutter Alert. which had accompanied back to Haiti a sailboat intercepted by the defense force Saturday, was diverted to Great Inagua with Immigration and Naturalization Service officials on board.

Diaz said the Haitians probably would be sent back to Inagua.

Lt. Gov. Bobby Brantley will speak at the event, at which all other local industries will be recognized, according to Dave Farr, executive director of the chamber.

"It's great to see and be a part of state-wide recognition of our local businesses." Farr said. "We hope to have representatives of all of our local industries present at the luncheon so we can show them how much we appreciate their contribution to Sanford."

Tickets for the Friday luncheon, to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Building in Sanford, are $10 and are available at the chamber office.

DeBerg's 5 TDs Pump Up Bucs

TAMPA (UPI) - While Tampa Bay fans fantasized about the exploits of Vinny Testaverde. Steve DeBerg pumped iron.

When DeBerg and the Buccaneers had finished their 48-10 rout of Atlanta in Sunday's season opener, only one player from either team failed to get into the game ... Vinny Testaverde.

DeBerg, at 33 the oldest player on the club, opened Tampa Bay's new era under Coach Ray Perkins with five touchdown passes in the most decisive triumph in Buccaneers history.

"The single biggest difference in this game today was Coach Perkins," said DeBerg, an 11year veteran who underwent a rigorous off-season conditioning program in his attempt to hold off Testaverde for the starting job. "Perkins had a fantastic game plan. I've never really trained like I have this year. I lifted weights this year and it made me a better quarterback." A Tampa Stadium crowd of 51.250 booed as players from both teams met at midfield for a solidarity handshake following the coin toss. NFL players have selected Sept. 22 as a strike date if no new collective bargaining agreement is reached.

Marion Campbell, beginning his second stint as Atlanta coach after a 10-year absence, winced from the sidelines as the Falcons were buried by a team coming off consecutive 2-14 seasons. In setting a club scoring record. the Buccaneers inflicted the worst beating on Atlanta since a 59-0 loss to the Rams in 1976.

"We make no excuses and I accept full responsibility for this one." Campbell said. "We have to build off of this. If we can't get mad after something like this. you can't get mad. They beat us badly on third-down plays and DeBerg did a helluva job."

Despite a mediocre rushing attack, the Buccaneers were successful on their first nine third-down situations as DeBerg dissected Atlanta's 3-4 defense, which ranked sixth in the league last season. Perkins, who left the Giants following the '82 season to become head coach at the University of Alabama, saw DeBerg stake Tampa Bay to a 27-3 halftime lead with four TD passes. Last week, Perkins picked DeBerg to start ahead of Testaverde, the Heisman Trophy

Giants-Bears' Clash: Just Another Game?

CHICAGO (UPI)-The New York Glants lost their season opener in 1986 in a Monday-night game to the Dallas Cowboys and finished the year with a victory in Super Bowl XXI.

The Giants fell to Dallas 31-28 and some doubted New York would reach the playoffs. The team responded by winning 17 of their next 18 games, concluding the stretch with a victory over the Denver Broncos in the Super Bowl.

Tonight, the Giants begin their defense of the crown against the Chicago Bears, winners of Super Bowl XX. The game will be televised by Orlando's WFTV-9 at 9 p.m.

Chicago was in a similar position last year with most experts pegging them as favorites to win another Super Bowl. Chicago got off to a fast 7-0 start and wound up with a 14-2 record, but fell to the Washington Redskins in its first playoff game.

Both sides are saying the hype for the matchup is overdone and are insisting - publicly at least - it's just another game.

"Look, they lost their first game last year and didn't collapse," says Bears' Coach Mike Ditka. "What do you want us to do?" The Giants would seem to have several advantages in the game.

Near-Perfect 'Noles Crush Astronaut Stiff Defenders Cash In Goal-Line Stand To Preserve Shutout

By Sam Cook

Herald Sports Editor

Coach Roger Beathard called Seminole's first-quarter goal-line stand the "turning point" in Saturday night's season-opening 28-0 prep football victory over Titusville Astronaut.

Ironically, the young man who made it possible never stepped onto the field when a fired-up Seminole defense repulsed four attempts by the War Eagles inside the 3-yard line to preserve its first shutout.

Brandon Cash, a light end who also plays on the kickoff team, turned in a very special play Saturday night which set the stage for four more special efforts.

Seminole had just taken a 7-0 lead on a Jeff Blake to Dwight Brinson nine-yard scoring pass. J.J. Partlow's kickoff was fielded by Octavius Wooten who cut toward the left sideline. Three 'Noles appeared to have him boxed in at the 25-yard line, but he broke free and broke into a sprint for the goal posts.

Wooten had a three-step lead on most of the Seminoles and appeared headed for a sure TD. Cash, nevertheless, never gave up the chase. The speedy sophomore finally corraled Wooten at the 5-yard line and jerked him down at the 3-yard line.

"We had a breakdown on our kicking team." Beathard said. "But we got a great effort from one of our sophomores (Cash). That was a great, great tand. It was the turning point whole ball game." It was a play which almost never came. "Last week, Brandon wanted to go down to the junior varsity because he didn't feel like he was part of the team." Defensive coordinator Bill Zetss said. "Well, he's sure part of the team now."

Blake, Jones Follow Line For 28 Points To Snap 7-Year Jinx

By Sam Cook Herald Sports Editor

Potential, a word which has haunted the Seminole coaching staff for five weeks now, was finally fulfilled in dramatic fashion Saturday.

The Fighting Seminoles, playing as near to opening-game perfection as their namesakes at Custer's Last Stand, massacred Titusville Astronaut and snapped a seven-year jinx Saturday night with a 28-0 victory over the traditionrich War Eagles before 3,001 fans at Seminole Stadium.

The victory was a successful debut for interimcoach Roger Beathard and also was the first over Astronaut, the state's winningiest football program, after seven successive setbacks.

The game was played Saturday night after lightning forced its postponement Friday evening.

"Well, I don't believe we could have draw it up any better," Beathard, who succeeded Dave Mosure last June, said. "All three phases special teams, offense and defense - dtd a great job tonight."

Ollensively, potential was more than realized by quarterback Jeff Blake, halfback Jerod Jones. all the receivers and the Tribe's most-maligned area of seasons past — the offensive line.

 Senior Blake, who missed last season while recovering from a broken leg, showed off his high-powered rifle with 9 completions in 13 attempts for 141 yards and a touchdown. He carried three times for eight yards and another SCOPP. "The first time I threw the ball I felt in the groove." Blake said. "It was like magic. It was supposed to be tradition that we tose, but we proved tradition and theory wrong tonight." Junior Jones, who missed last season with a broken ankle, rushed for 50 yards on eight carries. The 185-bound powderkeg also returned a punt 80 yards for Seminole's second touchdown. • Wide receivers Dwight Brinson (three catches), Terrance Eady (three) and Jerry Governali (one) joined tight ends Brandon Cash (one) and Eugene Byam (one) to give the 'Noles the most-balanced receiving corps ever. Veteran guards Wilton Hooks and Kevin Straub along with center Randy "Pork" Bryant joined newcomers Paul Newell and Brian Revels. to control the line of scrimmage. Sean Boudreau and Paul Kitner also helped out. Seminole's offense looked crisp from start to finish. Blake, whose plays were mixed perfectly by offensive coordinator/father Emory Blake, guided the Tribe on a 10-play, 60-yard march for the first score.

Properly inspired by the sophomore's made dash, Seminole's defenders immediately cashed in by snuffing four Astronaut running threats and dampening the visitors' spirits in the process.

On first down, four 'Noles met Hubert Williams and held him for no gain. On second down, fullback Tom Walls powered for two yards to the Seminole 1. An encroachment penalty before third down nudged the ball precariously closer.

The tip of the ball was almost on the goal line," All-State linebacker Earnie "Sackman" Lewis said. "But when you get on the goal line, something comes out. People go a little stronger than they normally would. We didn't go back one time, we just took it to them, took it to them."

Two defenders, in particular who "took it to them." were monsterback Ron Blake and safety Leonard Lucas.

On third down. Blake shot a gap and stood up Walls for no gain. "We were in a 6-5 goal line where everybody shoots a gap." Blake said. "I was free on that one (third down) because the tight end split out. I held him (Walls) up and the rest of the linebackers just piled in."

On fourth down. Williams tried off tackle but Lucas drilled him short of the goal line to preserve the lead. "Leonard didn't wait, he got on him right away," Blake said.

'That goal-line stand fired us up." Cornerback "Nasty Nick" Casiello said. "They were trying to take our adrenaline away from us but we just stiffened our backs and came through."

Linebacker Bernard Burke agreed. "It took a lot out of them," he said. "That dude (Wooten) ran a pretty good run, but this defense wanted to play some real ball tonight."

The GLS was the first of many stellar efforts by the Seminoles. With eight starters returning from a defense which allowed less than 10 points a game last year, Saturday's performance came as no surprise to Zeiss.

"We're real proud of the defense but if anybody thinks they can get big-headed, they won't after Monday's practice," he said. "We're just going to work that much harder."

Seminole limited the War Eagles to 99 yards rushing, thanks to 12 tackles for losses. Lewis, Ron Cox and Ralph Hardy combined for half the sacks. Astronaut, which had not lost to the Tribein seven previous encounters, mustered just 36 yards through the air and none in the second half.

The 'Noles also forced four fumbles, three of which they recovered. Ardine Daniels, Burke and Hardy all popped on loose footballs. Paul Newell, Lucas and Hardy applied the hits to relieve the pigskins from the ball carriers.

Daniels and Newell, Seminole two defensive ends, combined on the first one to stop a War Eagle drive at the Seminole 14 with just 2:20 left in the second quarter.

"All I saw was the lake man coming at me and the tackle blocking down." Newell said about an option left by QB Jones. "I just grabbed him and

Newcomers Pave Way For Brantley

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

LAKE MARY - Lake Brantley's Lady Patriots figured to be strong with a number of returning standouts, but, Saturday morning, it was a pair of newcomers that paved the way as coach Mary Littlebrant's team took first place in the Lake Mary Opener.

Sophomore Beth Schaefer and freshman Joyce Tullis finished second and fourth. respectively, as the 10th-ranked (Class 4A) Lady Patriots broke Lake Howell's four-year stranglehold on Seminole County girls cross country. Brantley finished with a team score of 48 compared to 54 for ninth-ranked Lake Howell.

I expected good things out of Beth (Schaefer) and Joyce (Tullis) but this was a complete surprise," Littlebrant said. "The three runners in the top 10 and veterans on the team can do better than they did and, if they do, this could be our year.' In the boys division Saturday, defending Class 3A State Champion Orlando Bishop Moore was too strong for the rest of the field as the Hornets finished with a team score of 38. Lake Mary's Rams turned in a strong performance in finishing second at 59 while Lake Howell was third (86). Lyman fourth (91) and Seminole High took fifth (125).

The next meet for Seminole County cross country teams will be Thursday afternoon's Edgewater Invitational at the University of Central Florida.

The Lake Brantley girls placed all seven of its varsity squad finished in the top 22. Schaefer, in her first cross country meet. was the first Lady Patriot to finish as she came in second with a time of 13:09.

"I was almost going to run junior varsity today but 1 told coach (Littlebrant) I wanted to run varsity and she took a chance on me," Schaefer said. "I was really nervous for the race and my goal was just to finish. I was really surprised to finish that high.

Tullis was one of three freshman to finish in the top 10 as she came in fourth with a time of 13:21.5. Junior Heather Camino gave Lake Brantley an impressive top three as she came in ninth with a time of 13:52.6. Following Camino in the top five were senior Dee Deeker (18th at Brinson, a junior, opened and closed the drive. His kickoff return of 27 yards set up the field position and his nine-yard pass from Blake accounted for the TD. J.J. Partlow, perfect on all four extra-point kicks, split the uprights at 5:31 of the first quarter for a 7-0 edge.

"The cornerback was playing me deep and cheating to the inside," Brinson said about the down and out pattern. "I just ran toward the post and then the corner."

The two big gainers on the drive were an 18-yard strike from Blake to Eady and a 14-yard dash on a counter play by flanker Governali to the Astronaut 8-yard line.

"Wilton Hooks got the key block." Governali said. "I just came around the corner, he hit his man up and it was wide open."

Seminole's most exhilarating touchdown was its second when Jones broke away from four tacklers at his 25-yard line and outraced the rest of the War Eagles to complete the 80-yard punt return.

"It was punt return right," Jones said, "I saw that I could fake them out, so I went up the middle, threw some moves. When I got to the right, the wall was there."

"You ask for 100 percent second effort and that was picture perfect." Beathard said about Jones. "Jerod is our big-play threat. He can break a tackle and go all the way."

Seminole's third score was its most advantageous. Following an Ardine Daniels' fumble recovery at the Seminole 26 with 2:08 left in the half. Blake moved the Tribe 74 yards in just six plays and 1:20. Blake hit Brinson with a 25-yarder and Governali with a 15-yarder to the Astronaut 1. Jones powered behind a block from fullback Curtis Rudolph for the score.

Rudolph, who rumbled for 81 yards on 10 carries, was lavish in his praise of the line. "Our line fired out hard all night." the three-year varsity starter said. "We ran right behind them all night and that's why we ran up the

Dead Heat: 20 Games Decide For Tigers, Jays

United Press International In the next 20 games the Detroit Tigers and Toronto Blue Jays will meet seven times and probably decide the American League East pennant.

The Tigers and Blue Jays are tied for first in the AL East with 85-57 records. Detroit scored four times in the ninth inning Sunday to defeat Milwaukee 5-1, while the Blue Jays were beaten 8-5 by the New York Yankees to create the first-place tie.

"I'm guessing you've got to win 14 and lose six," Detroit Manager Sparky Anderson said of his team's remaining 20 games. "I don't know what's going to happen."

Detroit and Toronto meet for a four-game set at Exhibition Stadium starting Sept. 24. They finish the season in Detroit for three-game series.

"We'll take two out of three from anybody, especially the Yankees because they're a good team." Toronto Manager Jimy Williams said. "They hit the ball, they sure did."

The Blue Jays were stopped by Charles Hudson and Neil Allen, a pair of pitchers who have had their share of problems this season. Allen was discarded by the Chicago White Sox after going 0-7 with a 7.07 ERA earlier this year. He gave up one hit in 3 1-3 innings of relie Sunday.

"He likes it here." New Yorl Manager Lou Piniella said o Allen. "I wished they'd released him sooner."

Hudson, 10-6, earned the wir with 4 2-3 innings of two-hit relief. The right-hander was demoted to Columbus of the International League during the first half of the season.

Craig: Celebration On Hold For Giants¹

United Press International Roger Craig. managing a team that last won a division title in 1971, refuses to allow the San Francisco Giants to celebrate their six-game lead in the National League West.

"We're playing exceptionally well in all phases of the game and we're going out there every day with a lot of emotion." Craig said Sunday after the Giants beat second-place Cincinnati for the second day in a row with a 6-1 triumph. "It's a great feeling. but it's not over yet. Nobody's going to give it to us."

San Francisco starter Mike LaCoss, 12-10, limited the Reds to four hits and one run over 5 1-3 innings. Craig Lefferts kept the Reds hitless for two-thirds of an inning and Don Robinson gave up only two hits over the final three innings to earn his 17th save.

"We're playing like a champi-onship club." Craig said. Cincinnati starter Tom Browning, 7-12, yielded seven hits and four runs over 6 2-3 innings to take the loss.

The Giants scored three times in the seventh to seize a 5-1 advantage. Jose Uribe reached on a fielder's choice and pinchhitter Dave Henderson drew a walk from Browning. Pinchhitter Harry Spilman singled off reliever Frank Williams to score Uribe and Kevin Mitchell followed with a two-run double to left.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh routed Philadelphia 6-1. Los Angeles defeated Atlanta 6-2. Chicago stopped Montreal 5-2. New York held off St. Louis 4-2, and San Diego trounced Houston 10-2.

In the American League. It was: New York 8. Toronto 5: Minnesota 7, Cleveland 3 (10 innings): Kansas City 6. Oakland 5: Texas 8, California 2: Chicago 2. Seattle 0: Detroit 5. Milwaukee 1: and Baltimore at Boston was rained out.

Martina Rips Graf; Men's Finale Today

NEW YORK (UPI) - Ivan Lendl and Martina Navratilova seek triples of a different type today at the rain-delayed U.S. Open.

Lendl faces Mats Wilander in a bid his third consecutive Open men's singles crown while Navratilova looks for the women's doubles and mixed doubles titles to go with the singles championship she won Saturday.

Heavy rain Sunday forced the postponement of all action at the National Tennis Center. The men's final will be played at 2 p.m. EDT and Navratilova's doubles match with partner Pam Shriver opens the day's action at 10 a.m.

Top-seeded Lendl and No. 3 Wilander last met in the final of the French Open, which Lendl won in four sets on Wilander's favorite surface, clay. Overall, Lendl leads 11-6 in head-to-head meetings and has won the last four times they have played.

"Wilander is not going to help you," Lendl said. "You are going to have to work for every point and if you don't play well and make them, he is going to win."

Wilander is playing more aggressively this year on the hard courts of the Open, occasionally mixing in a rush to the net with his usual steady baseline play. It has helped him reach the final for the first time.

"I always feel every time I come to the French Open I have a chance of winning," the 23-year-old Swede said. "Here I never really felt like that. I think this might be it. I have a chance tomorrow to win, but also I think it's important for upcoming years because I got to the final once and I think that's going to help.

Lendl has yet to drop a set at this year's Open in advancing to the final for the sixth successive time. He can become the first man since Neale Fraser in 1960 to win the Open without losing a Lendl, 27, says his game has become much better since he won his first Open title in 1985.

"I am two years older. I have two years more experience of being there, I'm a little bit stronger, a bit quicker and I am two years improved as a tennis player," the world's top-ranked player said.

Lendl and Wilander will soon be neighbors. Lendl has been living in Greenwich, Conn., for several years and Wilander is constructing a house there.

Navratilova is attempting to become the first woman since Billie Jean King at Wimbledon in 1973 to win three titles in the same Grand Slam event. The world's second-ranked player downed No. 1 Steffi Graf in two sets to win her fourth Open singles title in five years.

Navratilova and Shriver, the top-seeded team, are heavily favored to capture their fourth Open doubles title when they play the fifth-seeded team of Kathy Jordan and Elizabeth Smylle.

Navratilova is paired with Emilio Sanchez in the mixed doubles and the top-seeded duo faces No. 2 Betsy Nagelsen and Paul Annacone in the final.

This marks the first time since 1969 that the men's final was postponed. That year, after a helicopter helped dry the court at Forest Hills. Rod Laver completed his second Grand Slam sweep by beating Tony Roche.

Winter Park's 3-D Backfield Rolls Past Rams

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

EA-Sanford Herald, Sanford, Fl.

LAKE MARY - Lake Mary's Rams showed some offensive flare Saturday night but the Rams' defense could not contain the Winter Park powderkeg as the Wildcats roared to a 28-7 opening night victory before 4,501 fans at Don T. Reynolds Stadium.

The opener was played Saturday after dangerous lightning forced the cancellation of Friday's game. The bad weather returned to Lake Mary in the third quarter Saturday night and washed away any hopes of a Ram comeback.

"I felt like I was played a dirty trick on," Lake Mary coach Harry Nelson said. "The weather and turn of events was a dirty trick.

"I thought if we played a perfect game with the crowd we would have had on Friday, it would have been a closer game."

Lake Mary, which had a sixgame regular season winning streak snapped, opens play in Seminole Athletic Conference and District 5A-4 play Friday at Lake Brantley, Winter Park also opens Metro Conference and district play Friday as it takes on Orlando Oak Ridge.

Both offenses moved the ball well Saturday as Winter Park amassed 305 total yards (269 on the ground) and Lake Mary racked up 289 total yards. Junior quarterback Carlos Hartsfield completed 9 of 17 passed for 168 yards while senior receiver Sheldon Richards had a big night with six catches for 141 yards. Senior running back John Curry led the Rams' ground game with 80 yards on 11 carries.

Scott Wilson, a keg of nails in football armor, led the Winter Park attack with 119 yards on 16 carries and he also scored two touchdowns. Bruising fullback Ed Simmons ran for 103 yards and also caught a pass for a TD while quarterback Robbie Gergley ran the offense well and contributed 33 yards rushing and 36 passing. The rugged offensive line of Marty Miller, Ryon Roberts, Clint Moles, David Scherer, Darrell Davis, Dough Shone and Fred Salva wore down the smaller Lake Mary defense.

"In both the spring and fall jamborees we had sustained scoring drives so we knew the offensive line and backfield were Jelling." Winter Park coach Larry Gergley said. "We're three dimensional in the backfield so vou can't key on any one person. We have a good passing and option attack as well so I felt we would be able to move the ball."

It was Lake Mary, though, that flashed its big play potential in the early going. After Curry ran for 11 yards on the second play from scrimmage. Hartsfield looked deep for Richards. The Winter Park defensive back jumped too soon to tap the ball away and Richards pulled it in and sprinted into the end zone to complete a 61-yard touchdown pass. Eric Birle's extra point gave Lake Mary a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game.

"Lake Mary has some game breaking athletes and I think they'll score a lot of points this year," Gergley said. "Our defense is young and inexperienced and just needs to get in but they got better as the game went on."

Winter Park was not fazed by Lake Mary's quick strike. though, as the Wildcats came right back with a 67-yard scoring drive on their first possession. Wilson carried seven times for 41 yards on the drive. including a five-yard touchdown run on fourth and goal. Eric Oettl's point after tied the score at 7-7 with 4:59 left in the first quarter.

"We have more polse than to let an early score demoralize us." Gergley said. "We didn't panic after they scored and just said it's our turn now."

Lake Mary came up with some more big plays on its next possession and drove into Winter Park territory when a Hartsfield pass was deflected two times and intercepted by Erin McGuire. Winter Park also stalled on its next possession but punter Larry Cornell unloaded a 58-yard punt to get the 'Cats out of trouble.

Curry immediately put Lake Mary in scoring position as he yards on just seven plays to bolted 40 yards on second down push its lead to 21.7. Simmons' some games. The kids in the to give the Rams a first down at secondary haven't played before the Winter Park 31. Lake Mary got as close as the 19 when Winter Park's Jarret Bule broke through on a blitz and sacked Hartsfield for an eight-yard loss. Birle then attempted a 44-yard field goal but came up short.

"I've never had so many big plays work and only score one touchdown," Nelson said.

Winter Park then put together its second long scoring drive of the half. Quarterback Gergley played a big role in the drive as he ran for gains of 14 and 23 yards and completed 3 of 3 passes. Gergley's third pass of the drive ended up in the hands of Simmons who was wide open in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown reception. Oettl added the conversion as Winter Park took a 14-7 lead with 3:48 left in the half.

Robble handled the offense well," coach Gergley said of his signal-calling son. "He threw some good passes, ran the optional well and didn't turn the ball over."

Winter Park took the second half kickoff and marched 73

21 yard run opened the drive while Wilson had gains of 13 and 20 yards and Shawn Beauford capped off the drive with a four-yard touchdown run.

Lake Mary threatend on its next possession as it drove to the Winter Park 11. The big play was a Richards fumble recovery and run of 34 yards. The drive ended though when Ray Williams fumbled inside the Winter Park 10 and Bule recovered for the Wildcats.

Soon after the Lake Mary turnover, the rain started coming down. Winter Park took advantage of the poor playing conditions to score its final touchdown. Early in the fourth quarter. Lake Mary was in punt formation when the slippery ball got away from punter Stacy Leddon and Winter Park recovered at the Lake Mary four. Wilson scored on the next play and David Hord added the extra point to make the final 28-7.

"It's a typical Gergley ballclub." Nelson said of Winter Park. "They are very sound and physical and they stick with their plan even if they get down United Press International FOXBORO, Mass. - New England cornerback Ronnie Lippett wanted to make a simple hit. He settled for a rain-slick ball in his arms and the gamewinning touchdown.

LaForest, Questionable

Call Carry Blue Darters

Past Lake Howell, 27-20

nightmare continues. Coming into Saturday night's the Howell 34. the Darters high school football between Apopka and Lake Howell, the Silver Hawks were looking to avenge their only setback last season, a 10-7 decision to the Blue Darters.

Different year, same result.

The Darters used a 215-yard passing performance by quarterback Dan LaForest en route to an exciting 27-20 come-from-behind victory over No. 6-ranked Lake Howell before 3,500 fans at Lake Howell High.

The game had no bearing on conference or district standings. Howell will start its Seminole Athlectic Conference play this Friday when it travels to De-Land.

game's outcome. After Howell running back Cornel Rigby's scored what amounted to be the winning touchdown. Cedric Robinson's one-yard touchdown run gave Apopka an Insurmountable 27-14 lead with just 1.25 to play.

Lake Howell came back when quarterback Jeff Neace hit flanker Jack Derington with a 25-yard scoring toss with 25 seconds to play. The Hawks had an opportunity to get the ball back but Erik Bird's onside kick attempt was unsuccessful.

"I can't tell you how frustrated I am right now," Howell guard Ken Joseph said. "I hope that if we make the playoffs, we play them."

Howell got out of the gate One play loomed crucial to the quickly as it scored on its first possession. After Apopka's opening drive ended on a missed four-yard touchdown jaunt with field goal, the Hawks 37 seconds left in the third orchestrated a 12-play, 80-yard quarter gave the Hawks a 14-13 drive that milked over six lead. Apopka took advantage of minutes off the clock. Smith was what coach Mike Bisceglia said responsible for 60 of the varids on four carries. The march was capped when on third-and-12. Bisceglia sent in a draw play to Smith. Smith took the draw and darted into the endzone for a 25-yard touchdown run to give Howell a 7-01cad. Apopka came right back, however, when the Darters marched 80 yards in seven plays. The big play of the drive came when LaForest hooked up with wide receiver Gavin Jones on a 46yard screen pass. Jones led all receivers with 145 vards on five catches. The drive ended when LaForest hit Dewey Varner with disturbed Bisceglia said after the a seven-yard tourchdown pass. The Howell secondary tipped the ball once again, but unfortunately for Lake Howell, it fell right into the hands of Varner. Apopka took the lead with 18 seconds left in the half when LaForest put the lid on a fiveplay, 55-yard drive with a onevard quarterback sneak for a touchdown. The PAT was no good to give Apopka a 13-7 halftime cushion. Howell took advantage of an Apopka turnover to reclaim the lead. LaForest fumbled, and Howell's Greg Astle, who recorded a pair of sacks, recovered the loose ball at the Apopka 35. Rigby, who was held in check as he picked up 35 yards on 11 carries, capped the eight-play, 35-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run. Bird's PAT gave Howell a short-lived 14-13 edge.

LaForest dropped back to pass and was picked off by Howell linebacker John Schultz. Schultz weaved his way through the Darters for an apparent 37-yard touchdown return. The officials, however, ruled that there was an illegal block before the interception occurred, which was upsetting to Bisceglia who thought the flag went down prior. to the interception, before Lake Howell had the ball and could clip on the play.

And neither could Schultz. "I was so happy when I scored, but I saw a flag and figured that there was a clip on the return." Schultz said. "But when they gave Apopka the ball back. I couldn't believe it."

The penalty gave Apopka a first down and the opportunistic Blue Darters took advantage of the break as they engineered a six-play, 65-yard touchdown drive. The drive was capped when LaForest hit wide receiver Anthony Ray with a 25-yard touchdown pass. The pass was defected by a Howell defender. but right into the awaiting arms. of Ray.

Williams Leads Skins' Win: Branch Scores First NFL TD

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Washington Redskins, a team all too aware of the fragility of quarterbacks, last season signed veteran Doug Williams from the defunct USFL as insurance for quarterback Jay Schroeder.

The policy paid off in full Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Schroeder sustained a sprained right shoulder when he was hit by Philadelphia defensive end Reggie White while releasing the ball on Washington's second possession of the game. Coach Joe Gibbs said Schroeder could miss several weeks.

Williams then came off the bench to throw for 272 yards and connected on two touchdown passes to Art Monk to spark a 34-24 victory over NFC East rival Philadelphia in the season opener.

Sanford's Reggie Branch, who is used primarily as a blocking back and special teams performer, scored his first NFL touchdown in the third period. Branch, a 1981 Seminole High graduate, powered across from one yard out.

Earnhardt Has Bad Afternoon, But Still Captures Wrangler 400

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) - Dale Earnhardt, winner of all six NASCAR races on short tracks this season, wants the site of two of his victories lengthened.

"It was a pretty bad day," Earnhardt said after winning the Wrangler 400 Sunday for his 11th triumph in 22 Winston Cup races and second at Richmond Fairgrounds Raceway this year. "I'll be real happy to see that new track bullt."

The race was slowed by 12 caution flags because of accidents and halted once for 20 minutes to repair a guardrail and clean up an oil slick. The .542-mile oval is scheduled to be converted to three-quarters of a mile.

'We were all alipping and sliding." Earnhardt said. "I came pretty close (to an accident) several times. It's tough to race here and not rub paint."

Earnhardt continued his 1987 mastery on short tracks. capturing the lead for good on the 245th lap and outdueling Darrell Waltrip.

Thirteen lead changes among seven drivers were registered during the 216.8-mile race.

Players To Submit New Pact

HERNDON, Va. (UPI) - The NFL Players Association today is preparing to submit a new contract offer to league management one day after the two sides expressed disappointment with their longest bargaining session to date.

Union executive director Gene Upshaw said the talks. aimed at reaching a new three-year contract before the players' Sept. 22 strike deadline, will resume Tuesday with the formal presentation of the new players' offer.

Upshaw said the forthcoming proposal "will go a long way in the direction of a settlement."

Negotiating teams from the union and the NFL Management Council, the bargaining arm for the owners of the league's 28 teams, met for 6 1/2 hours Sunday at a hotel about 30 miles outside Washington.

Gators Push Home Opener Victory Streak To 16 Games

United Press International GAINESVILLE - The Florida Gators have just passed through the independent spectrum. Following a 31-4 loss to Miami (Fla.) in the season opener, the Gators responded with a 52-0 rout of Tulsa Saturday, extending their home opener unbeaten streak to 16 games.

Florida outgained the Golden Hurricane 536-163 and freshman tailback Emmitt Smith broke the game open with two second-quarter touchdowns. including a 66-yard burst.

"Last week we just weren't having fun on the football field." said Florida's Kerv in Bell, who completed 11 of 14 passes for 148 yards and a touchdown. 'We wanted so much to go down there and beat Miami, we got caught up in the pressure and the hype and were walking on eggs.

The Gators, who play Alabama in Birmingham on Saturday, built a 24-0 halftime lead despite yards, suffering two sacks, two four turnovers. After Robert McGinty's 35-yard field goal in the first period, Smith darted up the middle, broke to the left sidelines at midfield and outsprinted safety Chris Briscoe for a 66-yard TD run. Smith finished with 109 yards in just 10 carries.

"It just opened up," said Smith, who finished his high school career at Pensacola Escambia as the No. 3 rusher inprep history. "I was surprised at the big hole. We needed to win this game today. It would have been difficult to go to practice with two losses and going up against a team like Alabama next week."

Emmitt Smith and Wayne Williams added 1-yard TD runs, Cedric Smith scored from 5 yards out and James Massey concluded the scoring with an 8-yard run. Tight end Walter Odom caught an 11-yard pass from Bell and reserve Pepe Lescano threw a 38-yard TD to Odom's backup. Mark McGriff.

"It doesn't shock me to go out there and lose 52-0 to Florida." said Tulsa's rookie coach. George Henshaw, off to an 0-2 start. "With the kind of athletes Florida had, it didn't surprise me. It might have surprised some of our players."

Freshman T.J. Rubley, who passed for 386 yards in Tulsa's 39-28 loss to Oklahoma State. was pressured throughout by Florida's aggressive line. Rubley completed 10 of 24 passes for 99 interceptions and two fumbles.

This loss to Florida is rock bottom," said Rubley after Tulsa was limited to seven first downs. "It's frustrating because I know we have a great offense no matter what we showed out there today.

Elsewhere, No. 11 Florida State beat East Carolina, 44-3, as tailback Sammie Smith ran for 244 yards. Smith had gallops of 83, 52 and 21 yards.

Minister Believes Services Of Church Should Be Free

DEAR ABBY: This concerns the minister who felt left out because he was not paid for having officiated at a wedding. as were the photographer, florist. organist and caterer. He could not understand why he was expected to perform the mar-riage service for free. He asked advice from other ministers.

I have been an Episcopal (Anglican) priest for 28 years, and have never charged for solemnizing a wedding (or any other ministration). Indeed, I have always told couples that I had no fee, expected none and wanted none.

My reason? Officiating at weddings, baptisms, funerals, etc. is what my parish pays me to do. Requesting or accepting fees in addition to my salary (not large, but adequate) is, I believe, morally wrong, as my ministra-tiona are part of God's free gift to us all.

When a person insisted on giving me a money gift for my services, 1 put the money into my discretionary fund to help the poor and others in need. Yours faithfully,

THE REV. JOHN L. WOLFF. BENIOR CHAPLAIN, THE MISSION TO SEAMEN. PUSAN, EOREA

DEAR CHAPLAIN: I received

many letters from clergypeople who shared your feeling about accepting money for services. Here's one from a couple who were pleased to know where they stood before standing at the altar

DEAR ABBY: Listen to this: When my husband and I went for our first meeting with our minister, at the close of our appointment, we were handed an envelope. Inside was a "statement" that read:

1. Minister and use of church: 6350

2. Clean-up following ceremony: $25.

3. Organist: $35.

4. Soloist: $25.

To be paid one week prior to wedding. This may be hard for some people to swallow, but at least they know what everything is going to cost. LIZ AND BILL.

rial Day weekend, we had a family picnic. The sun was shining, kids were running around, a softball game was being played in the backyard. and you could smell the chicken cooking on the grill. Then, all of a sudden, a 76-year-old aunt who was sitting at the picnic table gasped for breath and passed out. She had had a heart attack!

Everybody panicked, but, thank God, my nephew, Michael Bruns, who is a Boy Scout, knew how to give CPR, so while everybody else stood around in a daze, this 15-year-old kid saived a woman's life. Of course we called the paramedics, but at least someone knew what to do before they arrived.

After that ordeal, my husband and I decided to learn CPR. We had thought about it, but like so many others, we never got around to it.

If you publish this, it might wake up a few readers. DEBBIE GALLANT.

Robert H. Bork Supreme Court Nominee

WASHINGTON (UPI) Supreme Court nominee Robert Heron Bork is a big man with a scraggly beard. hearty laugh and quick wit. He smokes and cats too much, habits that have his 6-foot frame carrying 220 pounds centered on his waistline

He also has a view of the Constitution that makes liberals fear for 30 years of hard-won legal precedent and conservatives cheer that their day has finally arrived at the court of last resort. He once espoused socialism but law school and maturity moved him along to where he is now, the standard-bearer of the kind of right-wing law that President Reagan and Attorney General Edwin Meese hope will be the administration's legacy.

Indeed, it is the law, both practically and philosophically. that has placed Bork at what his critics see as a crucial point in the court's history - a point where the old guard that has given the country desegregation, legal abortion and ended prayer in public school may be toppled with the appointment of one man.

"There's a lot of things you can do in the law. I've done about half so far." Bork said. "I chose it originally as a kid because I saw people who were working in routine jobs and I didn't like the idea and I thought law would provide intellectual interest (and) as long as I lived, there would always be something new. And there is. You never get to the end of it."

Whether that end comes may be up to presidential candidate and Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Joseph Biden, D-Del., who has made Bork's defeat a top priority.

Hearings on the nomination begin Sept. 10 10 a senate controlled by the Democrats who have much to lose. Power groups in the Democrats' base constituency - blacks, liberal women and unlons - have begun a widespread, wellfunded and multifaceted campaign to defeat Bork and have made no secret they will remember who votes for him. The right has countered with the White House issuing a more than 80-page briefing book designed to portray Bork as a moderate in the mold of retired Justice Lewis Powell, the man he would replace on the court. Biden recently responded with his own report that concluded Bork is anything but a moderate. Bork himself has granted a series of interviews to news organizations, including UPI, that are low on substance and high on public relations.

On Sept. 9, the White House issued what was planned to be a triumphant announcement of the American Bar Association's endorsement of Bork as "well-qualified." But it soon turned sour as It became known that four of the 15 panelists said Bork was "not qualified" and one voted the middle ranking of "not opposed." The split was the biggest division on the influential panel since 1969 when it vuted 8-4 in favor of Nixon appointee Clement Haynsworth, who was rejected by the Senate. Even William Rehnquist's controversial elevation to be chief justice received unanimous support as did the nomination of G. Harrold Carswell, who the Senate also re-Jected.

Biden Immediately labeled the split significant but White House spokesman Marlin Fitzwater sald Biden was "grasping at straws." Bork's path to the brink of history began in Pittsburgh. He was born March 1, 1927. the only child of Harry and Elizabeth Bork. His father was a purchasing agent for a steel mill and his mother a schoolteacher. He grew up in the suburb of Ben Avon, a town of 2,000 on the Ohio River, 5 miles northwest of Pit-plying slam interest. South's jump to slam in his seven-card suit was a good thrust. Unfortunately, here we have a high-level bid followed by low-level play.

Declarer won dummy's club ace and ruffed a club. Next came a low spade, but no guess could succeed against the strong holding in the East hand. Declarer ruffed the club return, played K-A of diamonds and ruffed his small diamond with dummy's two of hearts. Unfortunately the third diamond was overruffed by East.
