Ike Will Prepare American People To Meet Russia's Challenge

By HERRMAN SMITH
 United Press White House Writer
 WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower returns today from the crucial NATO summit conference in Paris to prepare the American people for the sacrifices that will be necessary to meet Russia's challenge to a missile-tipped world.

The President, described as "bearing around like a rocket" after a jam-packed week of talks with NATO leaders, was expected to arrive here in his plane, the Columbine III, this morning. He will plunge immediately into the job of translating decisions made in Paris into action and formulating plans for a reported massive defense buildup that may spell increased taxes for Americans.

Eisenhower also faced a barrage of criticism from Democratic congressional leaders who said the NATO talks had not accomplished enough. The Democrats are demanding a total reappraisal of U. S. foreign policy.

One of the Chief Executive's first tasks was the swearing in of Sumner G. Whittier as the new Veterans Administration head. An appointment that touched off reports of a pay slash in vets benefits to pay for the stepped-up missile output.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said Thursday night that the nation could look for "vigorous old guard onslaught against all the programs in this country which affect human welfare." He said the Republicans "are going to be too busy trying to clean up or cover up the missile mess" to worry about domestic progress.

Eisenhower will report to the nation on the NATO conference and other vital matters on a nationwide radio and television hook-up. It is not known whether he will comment on the NATO summit. Gaither Committee was presented to the security Council Nov. 7.

The Washington Post and Times Herald disclosure that the Gaither report, compiled by top national leaders after six months of study, was so pessimistic in regard to the state of the nation's defenses that Eisenhower "was fearful that publication . . . would panic the American people into going off in all directions at once."

Disaster Plea Made For 5-County Area

AL HARRIS, AIA
 Architect Opening Office In Sanford

A decision to declare the five-county area of Central Florida a disaster area because of freeze losses to citrus groves will be made by Monday or Tuesday, Congressman A. S. "Syd" Herlong said this morning in Melbourne. He will plunge immediately into the job of translating decisions made in Paris into action and formulating plans for a reported massive defense buildup that may spell increased taxes for Americans.

Other twisters hit the communities of Elkville, Ill., near tornado-blasted Murphysboro, and Waltonville, Ill., near Mount Vernon which also suffered earlier tornado damage. The twisters Thursday night caused minor damage. Murphysboro, the hardest hit by the rare late December twisters, reported nine known dead. National Guard officials earlier had reported two additional unidentified victims, but local authorities said that report apparently stemmed from communications difficulties.

Other tornado victims included one each at Mount Vernon and Sunfield, Ill., and at Farmington, Mo. In Washington, the government announced it has designated six counties in Missouri and five in Illinois as disaster areas as a result of the widespread tornado damage.

In Murphysboro, Sheriff Howard Cheatham said 178 were injured in the storm. Two of the injured continued in critical condition. "There's no telling how much damage is done," Cheatham said Thursday night. He said between 100 and 150 homes were demolished and at least that many more damaged. About 300 persons were homeless.

THE PROPOSED KIRK BUILDING to be located at the corner of Commercial and Hood Avenues. William L. Kirk announced the proposed building through Al Harris, AIA, architect. Kirk stated that construction will get underway in approximately 45 days. (Staff Photo)

Kirk Reveals Plans For Proposed Building

A proposed store and office building in downtown Sanford has been announced by William L. Kirk. To be known as the Kirk Building, it will be located at the corner of Commercial and Hood Avenues.

Hal Harris, AIA, a newcomer to Sanford, is the architect for the proposed construction. The building will be two stories in height, with a total floor area of 16,000 square feet, and of completely fire-proof construction. Practically the only wood in the building of any consequence will be the doors. Framing will be all steel, with concrete block walls, concrete floors and a gypsum slab roof.

An unusual feature of the new building will be the central breezeway-arcade, which will tie the two halves of the building together with a fibre-glass-roofed walkway which will provide the inside offices with light, air, and a pleasant outlook enhanced by a series of wrought-iron-trilled brick planters.

Access to the second floor will be by means of two reinforced concrete stairs flanked by wrought-iron railings. These stairs will be strategically placed at the east and west entrances, which are themselves defined by antique brick piers. The entrance-way will be spanned by a tasteful header grille of "elemental ornaments."

Center of attraction is actually what the building will be in the downtown area, since, in the words of Al. A. "Fats" Yelvington, the city's building inspector, "The Kirk Building will be the biggest thing that's hit Sanford in half a century."

Mrs. William L. Kirk, on first seeing the rendering in the Architect's office, exclaimed "It leaves me breathless!" Kirk said this morning that construction of the new downtown store and office building is expected to get underway in about 45 days.

The three day freeze damaged millions of dollars worth of citrus and winter vegetable crops in the counties. Collins said he had just been informed of approval of the loans by Rep. Syd Herlong of Leesburg, who also was at the civic club gathering.

The governor praised the Florida congressional delegation for the "wonderful job" they are doing and said the successful plea for agriculture loans "is just another example of what our congressmen are doing for Florida."

After winding up his two-day tour of the Central Florida east coast, Collins and Mrs. Collins began the long drive back to Tallahassee Thursday night. The governor explained that Mrs. Collins had promised their young daughter, Darby, she would be on hand for a school Christmas function today.

The governor in speeches here and at Eau Gallie praised the communities in the area for their growth and for supporting the influx of scientists and technicians connected with the missile tests at Cape Canaveral.

1,000 Persons Left Homeless By Twisters

United Press Staff Correspondent
 Authorities in three states today faced the mammoth job of clearing away the ugly scars of tornadoic devastation in the wake of two days of death-dealing twisters that left more than 1,000 persons homeless.

At least 14 persons were known dead in the weather onslaught across Arkansas, Illinois and Missouri, and more than 200 persons were injured.

A fresh outbreak of tornadoic violence Thursday night swept southwest Arkansas and southern Illinois, following up a wave of twisters the night before that spread heavy destruction in downstate Illinois and Missouri.

Two Negro women were killed Thursday night in a tornado near Waldo, Ark., and several persons were injured. The Red Cross declared the district a disaster area.

Several Others Reported

Chief Yarbrough Retires After 27 Years With Navy

Aviation Ordnanceman Chief H. A. YARBROUGH retired today after 27 years naval service. He was honored at traditional retirement ceremony at quarters this morning.

Mrs. Yarbrough witnessed the ceremony with a "deep feeling of pride" as the Commanding Officer, Cdr. E. B. Dower commended the Chief on his faithful service to duty.

As a part of the retirement ceremony Chief Yarbrough inspected personnel in the company of Cdr. Dower, Commanding Officer of Heavy Attack Training Unit.

The chief petty officers of HATU presented Yarbrough with a watch and two chickens. "The chickens to serve as a safety factor in case his plans for the future weren't as profitable as anticipated," a spokesman for the chief petty officers' group said.

Chief Yarbrough has been a mainstay of the HATU's duty office since reporting from Attack Squadron 34. Although the physical features of the duty office will remain unchanged, the countenance of the "old salt" will be missing.

During the Chief's naval career he has served aboard 11 ships, including the first aircraft carrier, the USS Langley, and a coal burner, the USS Kittler.

His years of devoted service have found him recipient of the following medals and awards: (Continued on Page 10)

Monday Deadline Set For Lighting Contest Entries

Sanford is taking on an air of "twinkling lights" as local homeowners join in the Joyce Christmas Lighting Contest.

With the deadline for entries set for noon Monday, local Christmas lighting is being entered into the contest with a flood of both telephone and written entries coming into the Joyce Information Booth.

Dave Thrasher, Joyce Christmas Lighting Contest chairman, said "I'm delighted with the number of entries we are receiving."

Judges are looking over the entries as they come in each night. There are four divisions in the residential Christmas Lighting competition. Entries are chosen one of three categories for residential lighting. However, all entries are entered into the overall division.

The winner in each division receives a $25 U.S. Savings Bond and the runnerup will receive 10 silver dollars.

Savings Bonds are contributed by The Florida Power and Light Company, Florida State Bank, Sanford Atlantic National Bank and The Sanford Herald.

Silver dollars for the runnerup prizes are contributed by the Sanford-Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Commercial Christmas Lighting, which is one division, is a competition in which the store or business judged "top" winner receives the Florida Power and Light Company's traveling trophy.

Rotarians To Sing Christmas Carols At Monday Meet

Sanford Rotarians, at their regular weekly meeting next Monday noon at the Yacht Club, will, for a short period of time, "put all worldly thought and cares aside and sing Christmas Carols."

There will be no long speeches, no entertainment of any kind, just a simple program of songs of the Christmas Season with Harry Kewell at the piano and Charlie Morrison as the song leader. Club President Myron A. (Mike) Reek will call the attention of the members to the death of fellow member Charles C. (Charlie) Wagner this week and ask them to observe a moment of silence in respect to his memory.

21 Counties Eligible For Emergency Loans

MELBOURNE (UP)—Farmers in 21 Florida counties are eligible for emergency loans from the federal government to help overcome crop losses suffered in last week's big freeze.

Gov. LeRoy Collins disclosed in a speech to the Rotary Club here Thursday night the Agriculture Department had approved the loans to farmers.

The announcement of the disaster loans came at the same time from the USDA. The department said the Florida designation lasts through next June 30.

The counties involved are: Broward, Charlotte, Collier, Dade, De Soto, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Highlands, Hillsborough, Indian River, Lee, Manatee, Martin, Okeechobee, Osceola, Palm Beach, Pinellas, Polk, Sarasota, and St. Lucia.

The three day freeze damaged millions of dollars worth of citrus and winter vegetable crops in the counties. Collins said he had just been informed of approval of the loans by Rep. Syd Herlong of Leesburg, who also was at the civic club gathering.

SHS Seeks County Championship Tonight

By Jerry Covington
 The flashy Sanford Seminoles made it 6 out of 7 here Thursday night by defeating a very aggressive Oviedo Lion team by a score of 68-65. The Seminoles held a ten point lead at the half but big Carl Fabry and Andy Duda roared back to tie it up at the end of the fourth quarter and it took a three minute overtime for the Seminoles to come out on top. By defeating the Lions, the Seminoles will play Lyman tonight for the county championship.

This was a very impressive win as the Oviedo team has long dominated the cage glory in the county. Sparked by "Spider McCoy" in the second period the Seminoles took a good lead. McCoy started to fire from the outside and the ball hit nothing but the bottom of the net. He piled up 15 points in the first half and hit 4 more for the night to run his total to 19.

Oviedo played a very tight defense under the basket but it didn't take McCoy long to loosen it up. Big Carl Fabry, who was great on the boards and in the scoring department kept the crowd on its toes with his wonderful play. He hit 24 points for the losers and Fabry and Andy Duda roared back to tie it up at the end of the fourth quarter and it took a three minute overtime for the Seminoles to come out on top. By defeating the Lions, the Seminoles will play Lyman tonight for the county championship.

job of ball handling and were very impressive on defense. While Fabry dominated the rebounding for the entire night, Joe High and Mike Tammy came through enough to give the Seminoles a victory. Ken McMurray also contributed to the local cause with his work under the basket and his ball handling.

This was one of the best basketball games to be seen here in Sanford in many a year. The Seminoles have worked hard and it seems to be paying off at last. After many lean years the hopes are beginning to come alive as they are sporting their best record since 1937. The Seminoles will be against the Iyman Grayhounds here tonight in an effort to gain their first tourney victory. They defeated the Grayhounds last week and should be rated as slight favorites to be the champs of the county. The Sanford Herald will award the trophy tonight for the team that is victorious. Plan to come up to Seminole High School tonight for some topnotch basketball—a thing that has been very scarce around here for so long.

CANDLE IN THE NIGHT

Simplest, humblest gleam of light . . . yet it rolls back the shadows. And striking the new-fallen snow, it casts a dazzling halo upon boughs of pine and holly.

Like a candle in the night Christmas rolls back the shadows of time, and touching the life of man, gives an aura of peace and good will to every day and deed.

It was truly the simplest and humblest event in history, this birth of a child in a stable. But from it shines "the true Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." And to live in that Light, to reflect it upon the world around us: this is peace and good will.

Like a candle in the night the Church beckons us to the gleam of its ageless Truth. And as we come to live by the Church's teaching, our faith will roll back the shadows for those around us.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Weevils Growing 'Fat, Vigorous'

MEMPHIS (UP) — all weevils are growing "fat and vigorous" off cotton made to bloom earlier and last longer through improved production practices, Dr. H. G. Johnston says.

Johnston told the beltwide cotton production conference that such practices as irrigation and increased fertilization cause rapid fruiting and extend the growing period late into the season.

"This furnishes an abundant food supply for boll weevils going into hibernation," the National Cotton Council executive said. "And it means they are well fed, fat, vigorous and in better condition to survive the winter."

Weevils Increase
Johnston said U. S. Department of Agriculture studies at Tallulah, La., show about 2½ times as many live weevils emerged in the spring during the last 10 years as in the 10-year period before that.

He urged farmers to use early stalk destruction practices as well as chemical controls to keep boll weevils in check.

Dr. H. Brooks James of North Carolina State College called for two cotton programs instead of one.

"One would promote a freer allocation of resources, efficient cotton production and permit cotton to compete with other fibers and with foreign cotton," James explained.

"The second program would be designed to take care of the small cotton farmers. This program should not depend upon the pricing mechanism to accomplish its objectives."

Irrigation Praised
Dr. Grady Crowe of Stoneville, Miss., said supplemental irrigation is reducing production uncertainties in humid areas.

Crowe cited research figures showing that in a three-year test in Alabama, non-irrigated cotton yield varied 35 per cent while irrigated cotton varied only 7 per cent.

James B. Dick, also of Stoneville, said research studies showed a 73 per cent yield increase in the "plant four, skip four" planting method. He also pointed out that skip row planting helps in weed control and that there are benefits from allowing the land to lie idle.

TERMITES SPOIL HOLIDAY
HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Actress Peggy Webber, her husband and their two small children will spend Christmas in a motel. They sold their house several days ago and were ready to move into another home when it was found termites had moved in first. They couldn't move back to their old house, and the deal on the second one has been cancelled. "And we're not going to find another house on such short notice," she said.

Music Of Christmas Tells The Christmas Story In Carols

And so, the Christmas Season comes once more.

And with it the music which has become such an integral part of the season we cannot visualize a Yuletide holiday without the carols and songs which live in our hearts throughout the year.

The story of Christmas is one which covers a multitude of characteristics from humility to deity. The music of the season does the same.

There is no more humble place than Jesus' birthplace, the lowly stable. "Away in the manger, no crib for a bed, the little Lord Jesus lay down his sweet head . . ."

And once the presence of the wee Babe was known, the multitude of angels caroled their message to poor shepherds as they kept watch over their herds.

"Hark! The Herald Angels sing, Glory to the newborn King; peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled . . ."

"It came upon the midnight clear, the glorious song of old; from angels bending near the earth to touch their harps of gold . . ."

So the shepherds and the Wise Men turned their faces to the sky and saw the Star in the East.

"Star of wonder, star of light, star with royal beauty bright, Westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light . . ."

And, as they set forth to seek the Babe who was born in the City of David, the potentates were prone to identify themselves, thus adding prestige to the pilgrimage destined for a lowly stable.

"We Three Kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we travel afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star . . ."

Traveling over the warm sands of the desert with a hush of just-before-dawn darkness all about them, the pilgrims looked afar and saw the first tell-tale glimmer of lights in the humble little town of Bethlehem.

"O, little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie; above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by . . ."

Then, drawing nigh, the wise men and shepherds get a glimpse of the dazzling beauty of Virgin Mother and her Babe.

"Silent night, holy night; Son of God, love's pure light; radiant beams from Thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus Lord at Thy birth . . . Jesus, Lord at Thy birth . . ."

Once they had seen the Christ Child, they all marveled down through the ages to commemorate His birth with joyful thanksgiving.

"Joy to the world, the Lord is come; let earth receive her King; let every heart prepare Him room, and Heaven and nature sing . . ."

"Come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem; come and behold Him, born the King of angels . . ."

And thus, the wondrous night fulfilled God's promise that His Son would be born in the City of David.

The charge has been handed to all men and women, who this Christmas should pause and ponder these lines which close a famous carol:

"For, lo! The days are hastening on, by prophet bards foretold, when with the ever-circling years, comes 'round the page of gold; when peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendor fling; and the whole world send back the song which now the angels sing."

Why Insurance Costs Must Go Up

Insurance costs are going up—a fact which provides one more example of how inflation and other dollar-depreciating forces come straight home to us all.

The "why" of the matter can be simply explained.

Since 1950, for instance, the cost of building materials and labor have advanced more than 37 per cent, according to the government-issued Construction Review. This means that every time a fire occurs the cost of making the necessary repairs is far greater than it used to be. Thus, fire insurance rates that once were adequate are no longer so, and rate increases are unavoidable.

Missile Discussion Curious

By LYLE C. WILSON

United Press Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON (UP)—There is an Alice in Wonderland quality about the missile discussion, at least to the extent that it becomes curious and curiouser.

Dr. Werner Von Braun, for example, revealed under congressional questioning that orders to proceed with a major missile project had not been followed up with an allotment of money with which to get going.

The proceed order came about a fortnight ago and was widely publicized. What purpose the order and the attending publicity might have had is not evident, unless it was intended to quiet the voters' anxiety about the missile program and national security.

Interesting, too, was a sequence of statements made by William M. Holaday, the Pentagon missile chief. A bit more than a week ago Holaday told a New York audience that the United States could put satellites into orbit, like a Sputnik, "whenever we want to."

A New Intergovernmental Commission last Friday and Holaday appeared before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee. Under questioning Holaday put his own interpretation on "whenever we want to." The United States couldn't put a satellite in orbit tomorrow, for example. The missile chief said it would take time to assemble the component parts of the launching missile.

It developed that the only substance behind Holaday's brave statement in New York was that there do exist at Cape Canaveral, Fla., rockets capable of putting a satellite into orbit. Holaday's testimony seemed a bit optimistic to the questioning senators.

Like the order to proceed given to Dr. Von Braun, Holaday's New York speech was part sugar pill and there is some congressional clamor now to replace him in the missile job. Whatever may have been the motive behind the foregoing incidents, very few if any persons would believe or suggest that there was anything other than the utmost sincerity in President Eisenhower's best-publicized pronouncement on the missile-satellite issue.

Apprehension Not Raised

made in on Oct. 9, five days after the Soviet Union launched Sputnik the first. To a news conference question, the President responded that the successful

Foreign News Commentary

By CHARLES H. MCCANN

United Press Staff Correspondent West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has emerged as the key man at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting in Paris.

It is clear that no big decisions can be made at the 15 nation conference without Adenauer's full approval.

The ramrod-straight old man—will be 82 years old on Jan. 9—is the most forceful figure at the conference table.

And he speaks for Europe's most prosperous, and potentially most powerful country.

Adenauer set the tone for the NATO meeting right at its start. President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had gone to Paris thinking of the establishment of missile bases in Western Europe as the chief issue.

But Adenauer put first the question of trying to find out just what measure of sincerity, if any, there may be in Soviet Russia's "peace offensive"—the letters which Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin addressed, in advance of the NATO meeting, to its leaders and to the leaders of all countries which belong to the United Nations.

Adenauer suggested that the NATO countries use normal diplomatic channels to sound out the Soviet government on any specific ideas it might have for East-West talks to ease the cold war tension.

Dispatches from Paris soon began to say that an agreement along the lines of Adenauer's proposal was being worked out.

Adenauer said in his speech at the opening business meeting that, pending any possible agreement with Russia, the Allies "must be equipped with advanced weapons equalling those of our potential enemy."

The United States wants to establish in western European countries bases for intercontinental range ballistic missiles and stock them with missiles.

An Agreement On Missiles
The Paris dispatches say some kind of an agreement on missiles is being worked out.

But undoubtedly the sounding out of Russia will come first in carrying out of any agreement.

Adenauer shares the misgivings of some of the smaller NATO allies on the advisability of establishing bases equipped with weapons which would be used if a big scale nuclear war broke out. Russia has warned repeatedly that these bases would be prime targets.

Behind Adenauer's line of policy in the Paris meeting is his No. 1 objective in life—the reunification of Germany.

Obviously, reunification lies far in the future. Russia will not, in fact it can not, agree to reunification until the whole European picture has changed. To Russia, Communist East Germany is both a springboard for an invasion of western Europe and a buffer against an invasion of Eastern Europe.

But every move that Adenauer makes in foreign affairs is made with eventual reunification in mind.

Refreshments of a variety of cookies and cool-aid were served to the following Brownies: Joan Shaffer, Susan White, Mary Margaret Reynolds, Janet Lewis, Mary Ann McInnis, Dixie Holmes, Kathy Todd, Gail Gatchel, Cynthia Kinure, Melissa Drake, Joyce Jones, Karla McNair, Diana Huskin, Mary Rae Hite and to Mrs. Berta Conn, Assistant Leader.

Girl Scout Troop 263 which is the fly-up troop at All Souls School has had a full program of activities since their first meeting early in the fall. These girls have been busy working on the Second Class badge requirements for Intermediate Girl Scouts. At the last meeting in October Kathy Bauer flew up from Brownie to Intermediate rank at an impressive ceremony.

Early in November a cookout was held at the home of one of the troop members, Caroline Lemming, when several of the mothers from the troop committee furnished a beautiful cookout menu. The troop committee for Troop 263 is comprised of Mrs. R. Lellis, Mrs. L. R. Bauer, Mrs. E. H. Lemming, Mrs. D. Canning, Mrs. R. F. May and Mrs. W. Johnson.

Like most other Seminole County Girl Scout Troops, Troop 263 will curtail meetings until after the Christmas and New Year holidays with a Christmas program and party on December 17 to which the mothers have been invited. Mrs. S. F. Durand is leader of the troop with Mrs. E. Kendall as her co-leader.

Girl Scout Troop 212 under the leadership of Mrs. Marg Hoop combined with Mrs. Betts Linker's Brownie Troop 233 on Tuesday to spread Christmas cheer at the Seminole County Home south of Sanford. In addition to individual gifts which the girls presented to the residents of the Home, Troop 212 gave them a living Christmas tree which can be planted outdoors after serving as decoration for the holiday season. Mrs. Sally White and Mrs. Wills Prokosh accompanied the girls of Troop 233. Scout Troop 212 was accompanied by Mrs. Marg Hoop, Mrs. Marie Mitchell, assistant leader, and Mrs. Harry Kanell.

Intermediate Scout Troop, as yet unnumbered, composed of girls in the Pinecrest area and under the leadership of Mrs. Jackie Austin, met on Monday, Dec. 18, at the Lake Genevieve home of assistant leader, Mrs. Louise Drebert. The occasion was a Christmas party highlighted by dinner served around the Christmas tree. The girls exchanged small gifts and the program consisted of games and the singing of Christmas carols. The Christmas project of Girl Scout Troop 10 has been the making of colorful and engaging toys

Conning The News

By VIRGINIA CONN, Society Editor

All male golfers who are members are asked to remember the tournament Sunday at the Mayfair Country Club. This one will be a Santa Claus tournament and in order to enter members must have a toy costing not less than one dollar. The toys will be given to needy children. A bring your own steak dinner will follow at the club. President Levy has been confined to his bed, and the publicity has sadly suffered—for this we apologize. Hope that John will be well enough to come out and play on Sunday.

Year-End Crop Report Given

WASHINGTON.—UP—American farms turned out a bumper crop in 1957 on the smallest total acreage planted or grown since 1919.

The Agriculture Department's year-end crop report said the 1957 crop matched the record production of 1956 and 1948 and set an all-time yield per acre.

Feed grains and forage had a big year. The corn crop at 3,402,632,000 bushels was the third largest in history.

Oats production was much larger than in 1956. Sorghum grain more than doubled any previous output.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT W. LORD

Mr. And Mrs. Robert W. Lord Celebrate 54 Years Together

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lord, South Sanford Ave. will celebrate their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary on December 20. Mr. and Mrs. Lord are the parents of ten children. Mrs. Edna Heebler, Sanford, John, Tampa, Mrs. May Javil Ely, Minnesota, Mrs. Nellie Fryer, Sanford, Sgt. Joseph B. of Augusta, Ga., Raymond, Sanford, Frank of Mystic, Conn. Jerry of Sanford, Mrs. Kathryn Gilstrap of Sanford and Mrs. Alyce Rogers, Grand Rapids, Michigan. The Lords have 20 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Robert W. Lord and Bessie Lee Hoard were engaged in December 1902. The second week in January 1903, he visited her at her home in Waco, Florida, and on this occasion he asked her father and mother for her hand in marriage and received a favorable reply. The next day he was to leave for home and Bessie walked down to the gate with him. There they talked for sometime. Then he left for home. That night he wrote the following poem entitled:

PARTING AT THE GATE
On the fourteenth of January,
As the sun shone clear and bright,
And the wind blew away the clouds
Which had gathered through the night,
Two lovers stood beside the gate
In the little village of Waco,
Now their hearts were not so light.

For soon he must go,
Now these lovers hearts were touched,
On that spot that seemed so sore,
As they talked of future days
When parting would be no more,
And the love that they bestowed
Seemed to sparkle in their eyes,
For they loved each other with
A love that never dies.

She is the sweetest girl on earth,
The very pride of his soul,
But the bell of parting
To these lovers soon must fall,
Thus they stood with steadfast eyes,
Hers were brown, his were blue
And she said "My dearest, boy,
I will ever to you be true."

Then the tears sprang in her eyes and came rolling down her cheeks,
And told him of her love
Which no human tongue can speak.
Then he turned to leave her,
Like a soldier with his sword,
And parted from the girl he loved
His own sweet Bessie Hoard.

On December 20, 1903 Robert Lord and Bessie Hoard were married.
On December 20, 1953 on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary he wrote the following poem and dedicated it to his wife.
FIFTY YEARS WITH BESSIE
Fifty years with you, my dear
How time does slip away,
Seems only yesterday to me
But this is our Golden Wedding Day.
You're not as pretty as you were

This we all can see,
But the life that you have lived
Makes you so sweet to me.
Your hair has turned to silver
And has only a trace of gold
But the sweetest thing to me,
My dear,
Is that you love me when I'm old.

Our children, how they listened
To the lullabies you have sung,
All this happened years ago
In the days when they were young.

We have come a long way together
From where life seemed all aglow
But today you are just the same to me
As you were fifty years ago.
Down the stream of life together
We are sailing, side by side
Hoping someday we will anchor in Heaven, where we will abide.
Now I'd give all this world
Yes, and another world too
Just to be able to live
Another fifty years with you.
Robert W. Lord

Fidelis Class Gives Linens For Needy

The Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Verna Messenger. Group three served as hostesses. Mrs. Messenger presided in the absence of the President. The meeting was opened with a prayer after which the minutes were read and a financial report given by the acting secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Ruby M. Davis. All debts outstanding were requested paid immediately.

Instead of the usual Christmas Gift exchange between members, gifts of linen were brought by the members for a needy family. The devotional was given by Mrs. Ruby Wade. Her talk was based on Scripture taken from the book of Luke. Her theme was in keeping with the Christmas season. This was followed by prayer by Mrs. Bessie Davis.

Following this portion of the program a social hour was enjoyed by the following members: Mrs. Ruby Register, Mrs. Ruby Wade, Mrs. Evelyn Gunter, Mrs. Allen Cooper, Mrs. Annie Mae Sheppard, Mrs. Ruby M. Davis, Miss Lorene Franklin, Mrs. Tristie Whitaker, Mrs. Lourine Messenger, a visitor, Miss Kate Hellman and the teacher, Mrs. Ruth Gatehel. The class presented Mrs. Gatehel with a Christmas gift. Refreshments of strawberry shortcake and coffee were enjoyed.

During the remainder of the afternoon members enjoyed a Christmas party. The table was beautifully decorated. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. E. Benedict, hostess, assisted by Mr. M. H. Billingsley. A humorous recitation was given by Mrs. Laura Hall, entitled "St. Nick Visits the Sales Girl." Carols were sung and the grab bag produced many amusing gifts.

The next meeting will be held on January 16 at the home of Mrs. Laura Hall. The Arctic tern probably sees more daylight than any other creature. The world's greatest traveler, it nests each summer in the North Polar region, then flies some 11,000 miles to Antarctica for another nightless summer.

Kansas City Team Improving

EDITORS NOTE: This is the 10th of 16 dispatches on the off-season outlook of each major league team for 1958, written by the managers of each club.

By HARRY CRAFT
Arizona For The United Press
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kansas City, I believe, will be a definitely stronger American League contender next summer than last when we climbed out of the cellar in the final weeks, leaving Washington in eighth place. We're setting our sights on solid improvement, and if you insist on being specific, say sixth place; maybe a notch or two higher. Frankly, I'm counting on an improved team for three reasons. One, I believe our Detroit trade helped, even though we released Billy Martin reluctantly. I think another thing working in our favor this year is our rookie crop. Pitcher Walt Craddock, the International League pennant-winner, Mike Baxes, from the same Buffalo team, should help substantially.

Lops Off Years

The third factor I'm counting on is one I'd likely get some arguments on. Batted down, I'd say several of our top players simply had "off" seasons in 1957, among them Vic Power, Billy Hunter, Bob Cev.

I figure Hal Smith, Frank House and Harry Chitt will give us fine catching, the first two sharing most of the work. In the infield, Power looks solid at first base, and Lopez will get a thorough trial at third.

Joe DeMaestri, an American League all-star, should handle shortstop in good style. Second base might be called our Wide-open infield slot.

Woody Held, who I put second to Jim Piersall and nobody else in centerfield, should be improved and he's looked great already. Bill Tuttle, in from Detroit, looks like our rightfielder. Cers, Bob Martyn, Jim Small and others will fight for the left-field job in our plans right now.

Pitching Has Gaps
Our pitching has some gaps, but together doesn't look too bad. Jack Urban and Ray Terry should be ready for solid seasons after early seasoning.

I'd like a good lefthander for the bullpen to go with righthanders Virgil Trucks and Tom Gorman. George Brunet and Harry Taylor, both up from Little Rock, are apparently the best of the rookie crop aside from Craddock. Former Detroit pitcher Duke Maas should help us and I'm counting on Arnold Portocarrero for some good work after a fine showing in the late weeks of 1957. Overall we need help in a couple of places and it's quite possible we'll make another trade or so before the season opens.

NAVY DRILLS SLATED
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Navy's football team, which plays Rice in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day, will go through two more practice sessions here before departing on Christmas leave. The Tars were drilled for two hours Tuesday by coach Eddie Erdelatz, who stressed offensive pass plays and pass protection. The team will regroup in Dallas on Dec. 26.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Coach Jess Neely plans to dismiss his Rice football team on Dec. 23 for a two-day Christmas holiday before regrouping on Dec. 26. Neely said the Owls will work out in Municipal Stadium on Dec. 26-28 to avoid conflict with the Southwest Conference Basketball Tournament.

Casanova Optimistic About Rose Bowl

EDITORS NOTE: This is the fourth of 16 dispatches on the football bowl teams. The dispatches will cover the teams in the Gator, Orange, Rose, Sugar and Cotton Bowls.

By HOWARD APFLEGATE
United Press Sports Writer
EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Coach Len Casanova of the University of Oregon football team, who has never lost a bowl game, has said over and over this season: "these kids continue to amaze me."

But Casanova probably would be the least amazed should Oregon upset Ohio State in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. Although the coach knows he is up against the national champion he sounds optimistic.

"If we show the spirit of some previous games in which we have been underdogs, there is more than a good chance of victory. I would even say there is a likelihood of victory," he said.

Oregon The Underdog
Despite the coach's optimism, Oregon will go into the game at least a two-touchdown underdog in what some have called a "mismatch."

Spirit has been a major factor at Oregon this year. The Ducks, picked to finish as low as seventh place in the PCC, wound up as co-champions with Oregon State, despite losing two of their last three games.

Oregon's overall record was 7-3. Its three losses were only by a total of 13 points—6-3 to Pittsburgh, 13-6 to Washington and 10-7 to Oregon State.

The Ducks boast a stout defense and speed. It doesn't have sheer power and has been outweighted most of the time. The line averages 293 pounds and the backfield 178.

The stars include Jim Shanley and Jack Morris, a pair of senior backs who take turns running and blocking for each other. Some call speedy Shanley the most underrated halfback in the nation. He is exceptionally hard to bring down.

Mondale Heads Line
Up front, the stalwart of the line is Harry Mondale, a 5-8 guard who weighs 196 pounds and is called "fireplug" by his mates. He's one of the few remaining four-year lettermen in college football, having played when freshmen were eligible and then going into service.

The surprise of the team has been Jack Crabtree, the senior quarterback in his first year as a regular. He completed 50 per cent of his passes and has developed into a fine signal caller.

Oregon has a top-flight pass receiver in end Ron Stover.

It will be Oregon's first Rose Bowl appearance since 1920 when it lost to Harvard 7-6. The only other time Oregon played at Pasadena was in 1917 when the Ducks beat Pennsylvania 14-0. In 1919, Oregon went to the Cotton Bowl when Norm Van Brocklin was its star and lost 21-13 to Southern Methodist.

FSU Grid Team's '57 Statistics

TALLAHASSEE—Florida State's 1957 Seminoles finished among national leaders in four individual and three team categories in final major-league football statistics released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Senior right halfback Stan Dobson ranked second nationally in total yardage on kickoff returns. Dobson returned 19 kickoffs for 300 yards and a 20.5-yard average. Utah State's Curtis was far out front with 685 yards on 23 returns.

Junior left half Bobby Renn finished 12th in punting, after ranking in the top 10—once as high as third—six weeks in a row. Renn moved up a notch from his 1956 ranking of 13th by averaging 40.4 yards on 35 punts. Punting king Dave Sherer of SMU averaged 45 yards on 36 punts.

Senior Bob Nellums, voted FSU's most valuable player by his teammates, ranked 26th in pass receiving. Shifting from end to fullback in mid-season, Penacola's Nellums caught 21 passes for 217 yards and two touchdowns.

The Seminoles set a school record for most opponents' fumbles recovered the past season and it gained from a third-place tie with Wyoming in that department. Both FSU and Wyoming recovered 26 enemy fumbles. Only Brigham Young (32) and Holy Cross (27) recovered more.

Florida State finished 11th among point-after-touchdown leaders, with 21 of 20 attempts. Missouri's 21 of 21 was tops.

Junior Johnny Sheppard, Seminole PAT specialist, would have ranked 10th, percentage-wise, had he kicked more times. The 1956

Duplicate engraved silver cigarette boxes were awarded Wednesday to the tying winners of the Navy Wives tournament at the Sanford Woman's Golf Association luncheon at the Mayfair Country Club. The winners were Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. W. K. McRobert.

Today's Sports Parade

NEW YORK (AP)—They came up today with an All-America football team which makes the rest of them look like child's play.

This one is, actually. And it has to have 14 members because they couldn't separate the little men from the boys.

It's the annual Pop Warner kids' All-America team selected from 100,000 small fry football players across the nation.

The team, announced by Yale coach Jordan Oliver as head coach, is made up of the following players:

point-after percentage leader, Sheppard connected on 12 of 15 attempts the past season. Thanks to Renn's long-distance boots, the Seminoles ranked 13th in team punting with a 38-yard average on 47 punts. Team punting champion was Utah State, which punted 43 times for a 40.1-yard average.

Girl Will Have Joyous Christmas

HILLBROOK, N. J. (UP)— A 13-year-old French-Canadian girl will have a musical "Joyous Noel" because she pinned a wish to a Christmas tree.

The Hillbrook rescue squad, which annually buys 6,000 Christmas trees from Canada to sell for the holiday season, reported it had found an "open letter" from Jeannine Fontaine of Lambton, Que., tacked to one of the trees.

Jeannine, a ninth-grader, said she worshipped music, but her parents could not afford to buy her an instrument. The note was written in French on one side and broken English on the other. It said:

"Dear unknown,
"How much I should love you, but since it is impossible I do not sing only my name.
"I am in ninth year. I am 13 years old. I worship the music, but my parents have not the riches for to get me the necessary instruments, and I should live some happy days in distracting music with my musical guitar or yet a accordion.
"Excuse me, if I do some faults. I begin to study on English. Then I wish you a happy year 1958.
"A young French,
"Jeannine Fontaine."

The rescue squad promptly bought a guitar and promised to send several other musical instruments to Jeannine, along with a letter answering her plaintive note.

DEATH BLAME FIXED

LONDON (AP)— A coroner's jury has returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of a senior scientist who was killed at a British research station last Wednesday. The jury ruled Tuesday that Douglas Whittaker, 59, died of "primary metabolic failure" after a fire broke out in a small furnace at the Atherston Research Laboratories, 10 miles northwest of London. The jury said "there appears to be no evidence of any negligence."

The term "faun" is used to describe the young of rabbits, caribou, mule deer, white-tailed deer, fad deer and antelope.

Central High Not As Peaceable As It Looks

LITTLE ROCK REVISITED
 LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UP)—An outsider, strolling through the quiet corridors of Central High School while classes are in session, finds it difficult to understand why troops are still needed to guard the nine Negro children enrolled in the school by federal court order.

But when you talk to the white and Negro students and their parents, to school authorities and military officials, you learn that Central High is not as peaceable as it looks.

A relentless campaign is being conducted in Little Rock to make life so miserable for the Negro students that they will abandon the attempt at integration and "voluntarily" return to Little Rock's all-Negro high school.

School gossip holds that this campaign is well-organized, and that its leaders are a group of "very tough kids" who wear a sort of uniform of light blue jeans and black leather jackets. These "black jacket boys" are said to have "taken an oath to get" the Negroes.

Trouble Makers

Authorities question the existence of such a gang. But they acknowledge that there are about 300 white students—roughly 10 per cent of the student body—who seem determined to make as much trouble for the Negroes as they can get away with. Most of them are from the 15- to 18 age bracket and are from predominantly lower income families. Many have parents who are actively identified with segregation groups.

The majority of the white students either ignore the Negro students altogether, or treat them with a sort of detached civility. A few have gone out of their way to make friendly gestures, such as sitting with a Negro student in the cafeteria.

But they have paid a high price for these gestures, in the form of ostracism and threats from teenage segregationists. Both white and Negro students report a recent tendency for friendly-minded white students to be very discreet about any open displays of good will.

There has been only one serious incident of physical violence in recent weeks. A Negro boy, Jefferson Thomas, was knocked down by a white boy in a corridor.

Hidden Protests

Negro students say—and white students confirm—that most of the day-to-day heckling is of a less obvious type: A kick in the shins while passing a desk, an elbow in the ribs coming out of assembly, the "silent treatment" in home rooms, a wet towel barrage in a steamy shower room, a dead fly tossed onto a luncheon tray, a hastily displayed pocket knife, and a muttered warning to "remember the Till boy."

Some Negro leaders charge that school authorities invite hoodlum acts by failing to enforce strict discipline. They speak bitterly of cases in which white students were punished lightly, or not at all, for attacks on Negro students.

School officials deny any laxity in discipline. They point out that it is well-nigh impossible, even with troops in the building, to detect every hostile that may take place in a building which has miles of corridors and 2,000 students flowing through them. In many cases, disciplinary authorities are confronted with situations in which it is "one child's word against another" with no eyewitnesses.

While moderates believe that school officials are doing the best they can in a very difficult situation, they credit Supt. of Schools Virgil T. Blossom with great courage and fair-mindedness in coping with conflicting pressures from Negro leaders who demand sterner disciplinary measures and from segregation groups who

'57 Could Be Called 'Year Of War Eagles'

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a number of year-end dispatches on news and feature developments in the South in 1957, written by United Press staff correspondents.

By WILLIAM TUCKER
 United Press Sports Writer

ATLANTA (UP)—If we went by the old Chinese custom of naming years after animals, 1957 would have to be marked down in the South as the "year of the War Eagle."

It was also the year that a tornado did something that baseballs and hard-headed outfielders had been unable to do in 20 seasons. It knocked down the controversial right-field fence at Nashville's Sulphur Dell.

And in a freshman football game, Georgia Tech scored a touchdown on a forward pass when it was Georgia's ball by simply appropriating the ball-snapping privilege. But the play was called back and the fence will be rebuilt.

No single sports accomplishment ranks with the perfect football record posted by Alabama Polytechnic Institute. API, better known as Auburn, goes by such nicknames as "Tigers" or "Plainsmen."

Bottom to Top
 Auburn's rallying cry is "War Eagle," recalling an obscure old bird that was a campus pet back in the dim past, according to one legend. Another is that the cry was named for the eagle on the ROTC or "war" hats worn by Auburn men.

In his six seasons as coach, Ralph Jordan elevated Auburn from an 8-10 record to a mark of 10-0, winning national acclaim and completing Auburn's first unblemished season since 1913. It also was Auburn's first Southeastern Conference crown.

"War Eagle" rose from the "horns of Auburn men scattered across the globe. As one of the better known technical colleges, Auburn has sent hundreds of its graduates into key defense jobs at home and abroad.

Auburn had no easy time of it. The total margin of four of its Southeastern Conference victories was 22 points—less than a touchdown a game. None of the four opponents scored and not a point was scored all season against Auburn's first line of defense when the Plainsmen had to hold. End Jimmy Phillips of Alexander City, Ala., won All-America acclaim for his feats on offense and defense.

President Reported Ready To Push 'Crash' Program In Congress

By WILLIAM E. HOWARD
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower today was reported ready to push a "crash" program in Congress to speed up the development of ballistic missiles quickly in strategic NATO countries.

Previously set for mid-1958 for placing Intermediate Range Ballistic Missiles IRBMs in defensive positions against Russia. NATO military chiefs agreed this week, the sources revealed, to basing IRBMs in Britain, Turkey, France and The Netherlands in that order of priority.

But defense experts questioned how much the deadline could be advanced, even if funds were made available immediately.

The President, who kept his schedule clean of appointments today, was preparing his report to the nation Monday night on the decisions made at the NATO meeting. He may shed more light then on missile-base plans.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said in Madrid he had discussed with Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco in an "intimate" NATO report Friday "the possibility of missiles being brought to Europe."

Dulles Due Back
Paris sources indicated Dulles was due back in Washington this afternoon. Paris sources indicated Dulles may have been sounding out Franco. They said the United States was considering negotiating with Spain for setting up American missile bases, although Spain is not a NATO member.

No price tag was placed by sources here on the reported Eisenhower plan to hurry up the European missile bases. But they said that, under the plan, missiles would be given as direct U.S. aid to the four nations, with this country helping financially in constructing the bases.

Americans were given a somber tip-off Friday that the drive to checkmate Russia's missile might be going to cost plenty—and practically erase any faint hopes of a tax reduction next year. Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy said the President would ask for about one billion dollars more for defense in a supplemental appropriation for this fiscal year, which ends June 30, 1958. It would be in addition to an expected increase of about 2 billion dollars in the 1959 defense budget.

Weather
Generally fair and mild through Sunday.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Leaders of the National Education Assn. NEA predicted today Congress will approve a part of their request for a $1,100,000,000 program for federal support of public schools.

The five-point legislative program, which the nation's largest educational organization will lay before Congress when it reconvenes next month, carries an immediate price tag of $1,100,000,000 a year. It calls for a steady increase in federal contributions over the next five years, leveling off at $4,500,000,000 a year.

But it is known that President Eisenhower's staff is working on a much more limited program of federal aid to education, totaling about 250 million dollars a year.

A two-week session of Circuit Court was completed Friday with 15 cases disposed of either by a plea of guilty or trial by jury.

The NEA said federal grants of $25 per school age child should be distributed to the states strictly on the basis of population.

Walter Woolley pled guilty to a charge of aggravated assault and was sentenced to a term of six months to five years.

James Robert Johnson pled guilty to charges of grand larceny. The court ordered a presentence investigation.

The statewide observance will be sponsored locally by both the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and the Sanford-Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce.

It is a statewide effort to show the general public and visitors to Florida just "how courteous" people here really are, Raborn said. He pointed out that during the week there will be various activities to point up courtesy on the part of every citizen, "and it will certainly behoove everyone to be right on their toes for goodness knows who the committee members will be."
