KEY AND KEY MAKE BAIL IN BANK CHARGES

Charges Of Excessive Loans, Speculation Are Lodged Against Two Officials Here

Key's Bond $36,000, Key's For $15,000

Warrants Sworn Out By Examiner; Two By Individuals

Forrest Lake and A. R. Key, vice president and cashier, respectively, of the Seminole County Bank, were arrested today on bonds of $36,000 and $15,000 following an arrest late Monday afternoon on warrants charging with excessive loans to themselves in connection with operation of the institution. The bonds were for the purpose of assuring the appearance of the two men before a grand jury.

The charges against the bankers contained in nine warrants, of them against Mr. Key and the other against Mr. Lake. The president is charged with making a total of $35,780.21 in excessive loans of $188,000 in four other warrants. He is accused of violating a state law by issuing a certificate of deposit of $16,637.72 in exchange for a city of Sanford voucher was presented to the bank. Mr. Key is named in two warrants charging him with appropriating $40,922.24 of the bank's funds for his own use. The other charges against him are for excessive loans to himself in the amount of $30,000. A third warrant charges him with placing in the bank's safe party bonds in the amount of $8,000.

Judge Rowe Okeys Amos Appointment Of E. H. Ashcraft

Appointment of E. H. Ashcraft as receiver of the Seminole County Bank was confirmed today by Judge M. G. Rowe of Lyons Beach who held this position after the appointment had been presented to him by George White, state bank examiner. Mr. White appeared before Judge Rowe today following the disqualification of Judge Wallace W. Wright who yesterday had himself ineligible to sit on the case because of the fact that he was a depositor of the Seminole County Bank.

With the confirmation of the appointment, Mr. Ashcraft is now in a position to assume charge of the bank. It was stated today that the receiver, however, will not be able to come to Sanford for several days, connections in Tampa making it imperative that arrangements be made to wind up his affairs. The selection of Mr. Ashcraft was made public Monday. Comptroller Amos is quoted in Tallahassee dispatch as giving as a reason for his appointment, that fact that Mr. Ashcraft was not connected with any party and was exceptionally recommended as one best qualified to handle the difficult financial situation.

Cosgrave's Party Barely Comes Thru

DUBUIN, Sept. 20.—(INS)—President William T. Cosgrave's government party came through the general elections of last week with a bare majority of six seats in the Dail Eilreann, complete tabulation of the votes showed today. The government party and its minor supporting parties won a total of 79 seats, as against 73 for the opposition, composed of the Flannery, Labor and Communist parties.

SPECIAL SESSION OF GRAND JURY MAY PROBE BANK

Governor Martin Intervenes In Failure Of Local Institution To Request Immediate Investigation By Tribunal

Possibility that a special term of the grand jury may be called to investigate the affairs of the Seminole County Bank and the charges against Forrest Lake and A. R. Key, loomed today with a statement from Tallahassee that Governor John W. Martin has intervened in the matter. States Attorney J. A. Scarlett of DeLand, who yesterday was instrumental in securing the arrest of the two former bank officials, indicated this morning over long distance telephone that the bank probe will probably be speeded in accordance with the wishes of the Governor, but stated that in absence of definite instructions he was unable to say just when the grand jury would be summoned.

Judge Wallace W. Wright, judge of the twenty-third judicial circuit, said this morning that he is awaiting without any instructions as to summoning of the grand jury. Should Judge Wright be thus ordered, it is believed that he would issue the call, but would discontinue himself for further connection with the case on the grounds that he is a depositor of the bank.

The Florida executive, according to a report received from the state capital, has received hundreds of complaints from the state regarding the failure of the Seminole County Bank. The Governor is quoted as saying, "From information I get, there is something radically wrong. There have been enough bank failures in Florida for the people to find out the trouble." The connection of Mr. Scarlett with the case was because of the absence from Titusville of Millard Smith, state's attorney for the twenty-third judicial district. Mr. Scarlett indicated that in all probability he and Mr. Smith will receive the assistance of one of two other state's attorneys.

SITE HINTED AT FOR NEXT MEET OF DEMOCRATS

Senator Carraway Suggests That Democrats Hold Next Conyention "In Sight Of Home Of Thomas Jefferson"

Would Rededicate Party To Founder

Fear Entertained That Proposal May Not Meet With Endorsement Of East Leaders

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—An appeal to the Democratic party to hold its 1928 convention at Charlottesville, Va., "in sight of the home of Thomas Jefferson," was issued here today by Senator T. H. Carraway (D) of Arkansas. Carraway proposed the little Virginia town so the Democrats would be in the "proper atmosphere to rededicate the party to the aims and principles of Thomas Jefferson."

"The Democratic party must go back to its first principles—the Jeffersonian principles of Democracy—if it is to be victorious in the next presidential campaign," said Carraway. "If the party holds its convention at Jefferson's home, it will be a great step toward eliminating the ill-feeling and heated controversies that swept the party three years ago."

The proposal to take the convention into the south and to a small town may not receive such widespread endorsement. A dozen metropolitan cities already have made overtures for the Democratic convention but the fact that most of these cities have favorite sons may react in favor of Carraway's proposal. All the opponents of Governor Al Smith, of New York, will fight proposals to hold the convention either in New York, Chicago or in any New England city. Because of the potential candidacy of Senator Reed, leaders said there would be a similar opposition to holding the convention in St. Louis or Kansas City.

Meredith's Suggestion To Select McAdoo's Successor Against Smith, Is Unpopular

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—(INS)—The suggestion of E. T. Meredith to select a standard bearer for the 1928 presidential campaign as successor to William Gibbs McAdoo, met with opposition today among some leading Democratic spokesmen in Washington. These leaders declared Meredith's idea would start a new McAdoo-Smith war and destroy all the benefits accruing from the withdrawal of McAdoo.

"This isn't the time to prepare for war," said Senator Carraway (D) of Arkansas. "Now is the time for harmony and to name a successor to McAdoo as the principal foe of Gov. Al Smith will not promote party harmony. I still believe Gov. Smith will make the same sacrifice McAdoo made. He will realize that if he does win the nomination after a bitter struggle, such as took place in 1924, it will be an empty honor to him. I believe Smith is just as generous as McAdoo, because he offered to make this sacrifice in 1924, and I believe that he is just as generous now as he was then."

GIRL 'ORIGINATES' PLOT TO SECURE PRISON DELIVERY

Bobbed-Hair Bandit And Queen Of Underworld Brains Formed Attempt Escape From Jail Of Desperate Criminals

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 20.—(INS)—A plot to liberate all the prisoners in the Shelby county jail here was broken up by police today. Mrs. Gladys Malone, bobbed-hair bandit and alleged "queen" of an underworld gang, confessed shortly after the plot was discovered that she was the "brains" of the attempted jail delivery, which would have freed some of the most desperate criminals in the country. Search of the woman's cell in the jail hospital revealed several saws made of shoe-trees, two silver knives patterned into master keys to unlock the cell doors and a piece of steel used in sawing the bars. Plans to attempt the delivery had been under way for more than a month, according to Sheriff Knight who had been warned of the plot by a parolee named Amos. Investigation was started and it was learned that Mrs. Malone has been leaving her cell on the hospital floor each night to visit her husband on the floor below. The break had been set just before day break today, Mrs. Malone said, had not deputies interfered with the sawing operation. A parolee in the hospital window had been practically severed, and this would have enabled the prisoners to slide down ropes to the street below.

Miss Montanya Is To Be Asked About Suit

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 20.—(INS)—Juanita Montanya, Spanish dancer and film actress, today was scheduled to appear in the district attorney's office to be questioned regarding her $1,000,000 suit against Wallace Bees, noted film actor. The dancer accused Bees of attacking her and named him as the father of her unborn child. Bees returned here from a hunting trip yesterday. He made a complete denial of the assertions contained in the dancer's complaint.

WAR LEADERS JOIN PLEA FOR WORLD PEACE

Speakers At A. E. F. Convention Include Pershing, Gouraud, Foch and Many Others; Meeting Is Big Love Feast

Legionnaires Pleased At Warm Reception

French Give Vent To Tumultuous Cheering As Pershing Takes Stand For His Speech

TROCADERO PALACE, Paris, Sept. 20.—From the same platform today, three of the great military figures of the World War, General John J. Pershing, Marshal Foch and General Gouraud, military governor of Paris, joined together in a stirring plea for eternal world peace. They spoke at the second official session of the American Legion convention, a gathering that was transformed into a Franco-American love feast as World War leaders and other figures high in official life and public esteem, pledged an everlasting friendship between the two nations. The legionnaires who gathered again in the grand hall of the palace were still glowing with the warmth of the reception accorded their parade by Paris Boulevardiers yesterday, and they attended today's session prepared to manifest their appreciation for everything French. They literally took off the roof of the palace with their tumultuous cheering for the French war heroes as General Pershing, as well, and once again the excitable Parisians enjoyed the spectacle of seeing and hearing a group of 20,000 men more vehement in their enthusiasm even than themselves. Marshal Foch was the first speaker. A striking figure in his brilliant uniform, resplendent with medals and decorations, he stood smiling on the speakers' stand until the ear-splitting applause had subsided. The winning of the World War, Foch told the veterans, was due to "perfect understanding and cooperation among the allied leaders." These same qualities, he continued, would go far toward the ultimate goal of all humanity—peace, fraternity and good will. Pershing, according to reports, was the first to deliver his address to the assembled legionnaires. "As a fighting man," he declared, "we believe that war should be rendered impossible at any future time. This is the filling of the minds of thoughtful men everywhere. Men are wondering why the code of honor that prevails among individuals cannot be made to operate between governments. If stealing and lying are wrong and illegal between men, why not between nations?" Pershing was unusually warm in praising the gratitude for the magnificent reception which had been accorded the legionnaires in Paris. Marshal Foch he described as "not only a loyal friend, but a great man and a loyal friend."

Miss Nina Bremmer Of New Port Richey Wins Scholarship

WINTER PARK, Fla., Sept. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Florida State Press Scholarship (Scholarship) offered by the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce to the young woman of the county, was awarded to Miss Nina Bremmer of New Port Richey, according to C. E. McCann, chairman of the scholarship committee. Miss Bremmer won over a number of contestants. Miss Kate Ringler, recommended by the Apollo Club, and Miss Carol E. Henry, recommended by the St. Cloud Tribune, received honorable mention by the committee. Miss Katherine Hoemer of Ft. Myers received the best recommendations of any of the contestants. The afternoon was devoted to committee meetings. Next year's convention seems virtually assured for San Diego.

Mussolini Praises International News

ROME, Sept. 20.—(INS)—Premier Mussolini today received M. Koenigsberg, president of the International News Service, in private audience and congratulated Mr. Koenigsberg upon the inauguration of an International News Service report to Italian newspapers. The premier conversed cordially with Mr. Koenigsberg for 20 minutes, expressing his satisfaction and pleasure with the type of news which International News Service has been furnishing to Italian newspapers. He said he welcomed this organization as a provider of news for Italian readers.

U. S. IS READY TO INCREASE DUTIES ON FRENCH GOODS

Government Opposed To Discrimination Against American Products Under New French Tariff Schedules

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—(INS)—France was officially informed today that the United States stands ready to increase import duties on French goods unless the discrimination against American products under the new French tariff schedules is removed. This attitude was revealed in a brief note delivered to the French foreign office in Paris in reply to the French rejection of the American proposal for a most-favored-nation commercial treaty. It is understood here that if the French display a desire to continue negotiations over the tariff question, the parleys likely will be held in Washington rather than in Paris, as originally contemplated. Still hopeful of averting a bitter and costly tariff war, the American government left the door open to a possible compromise. Just what this compromise might be was not disclosed by the department, which is withholding publication of the note. Secretary Kellogg's reply did not mention section 327 of the Fordney-McCumber Tariff Act, but nevertheless it was understood, it did make plain that the United States has the authority to take retaliatory measures, even to the point of a complete embargo of French goods. Any negotiations to be held here will be for the purpose of reaching a temporary arrangement, rather than of obtaining a permanent commercial treaty. The department considers the major problem of the moment to be the need of getting immediate relief for American shippers of manufactured articles. The French tariff on this class of goods was recently increased 400 percent. When this problem has been discussed, the United States will tackle the broader question of obtaining a most-favored-nation treaty. The importance of the tariff dispute was emphasized today when President Coolidge called acting Secretary of the State Castle in to a special conference just before the cabinet meeting. The tariff dispute was precipitated when France made public the terms of its commercial treaty with Germany which Germany obtains preferential rates, which were from 50 to 400 percent lower than those accorded to American goods. England, also, was benefited by the Germany treaty, inasmuch as she has a most-favored-nation treaty with France.

Many Bidders Present At Opening Of Bids

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 20.—(INS)—Many bidders were present today at the opening of bids by the State Road Department on the 70 mile road, construction as well as two bridges and one overhead railway crossing. The road projects are on the East Coast in central and southwest Florida. The bridge project includes a 435 foot bridge across Haines Creek on road No. 2, Lake County. The railroad overpass is in Orange county on road No. 2, over the Seaboard and Atlantic Coastline Railroad.

BLISTERS ON A. E. F.

PARIS, Sept. 20.—(INS)—Fading reminders of the marching during the first A. E. F. were furnished to many Legionnaires today by the crop of blisters which they accumulated during yesterday's parade. Forty-six Legionnaires were treated at the Red Cross station at Legion headquarters today for blistered heels.

GIRL FOUND BLAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(INS)—Edna Miller, 14-year-old girl, was found slain on a vacant lot at the western end of the city today. The girl had been playing store with her friends when she was shot after 2 o'clock last night when she returned from her first work in Chicago, as a housemaid.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y.

Sept. 20.—(INS)—The class A entries New York to Spokane Air Derby started hopping off at 7 o'clock this morning. The first of the 15 to take off was a Curtiss biplane, owned by R. E. Hudson, captain of the Curtiss Airplane Company of Marysville, Mich., and piloted by R. E. Hudson. This plane was started promptly at 7 o'clock, when Captain Walter Bender, assistant operations officer at Mitchell Field and official starter for the race, dropped the Red Flag. A Yackey monoplane entered by Dr. O. Stoen of Molins, Ill., and piloted by E. M. Canball, was second to start, at exactly one minute after 7 o'clock. After that the others, up to the twelfth took off perfectly at exact one minute intervals. The twelfth and thirteenth planes jockeyed a bit for position to avoid small water holes, but started only half a minute late each. Still the red flag went up and down evenly, and the other planes took off exactly on schedule, the fifteenth starting at 7:14 o'clock. There was a slight ground delay, although experts called it a "perfect day for flying the planes all started due west, their noses pointed toward Spokane from the beginning. A slight westerly wind was blowing, and half-bearing sunlight shone on the planes as they took off. The thirteenth plane, to be the Transair plane, was piloted by J. L. O'Donnell of Whittier, California, who had as his passenger his wife, Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, a pretty blonde, 23 years old. (Continued On Page Three)

First Tragedy Occurs As "Dick" Hudson Spills Plane At Take Off This Morning

Class A Entries Arrive Cleveland

Class B Planes Leave Chicago This Morning For Montana

Twenty-five planes, 13 in class A and 12 in class B, were racing across the continent today in the great New York to Spokane Air Derby. The first tragedy in the transcontinental contest was marked up when Richard E. Hudson, pilot of Marysville, Mich., and J. Raduke, his passenger, of St. Clair, Mich., were killed in the crash of their Curtiss biplane, no. 1 in class A, near Long Valley, N. J. The ill-fated plane was the first of 15 class A planes to take off this morning from Roosevelt Field, N. Y. The class A entries began arriving at Cleveland this morning, their first stop, shortly before 9 o'clock. Other scheduled stops are Miles City, Mich.; Chicago; Aberdeen, S. D.; and Butte, Mont. Meanwhile, the 12 surviving class B planes, which took off from New York yesterday, left Chicago this morning with Glenn Davis, Mont., as their goal for today's run. They were due to stop for fuel at St. Paul, Fargo and Bismark, N. D.

Air Derby Crash Cause Of Death Of Pilot And Another

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Sept. 20.—(INS)—Richard E. Hudson, pilot and J. Raduke, passenger, of St. Clair, Mich., were killed today when their Curtiss biplane, number 1 in the class A New York to Spokane Air Derby, crashed near Long Valley, according to word received here. Hudson, whose home was Marysville, Mich., died on the way to the hospital where he was found dead in the line who ambulance doctors attended.

The plane, a Curtiss biplane, flying type wings, had been in the air for about 15 minutes when Hudson was still breathing. Raduke, his passenger, was killed when the plane crashed. Hudson's death was the first in the history of the New York to Spokane Air Derby. Hudson was engaged in flying for a year. Last year he was employed by the Curtiss Corp. of the Army Air Corps and later engaged in flying for a year. Hudson was flying for a year. Hudson was flying for a year. Hudson was flying for a year.

GAITORS POINTING FOR GAME WITH SOUTHERN TEAM

Florida Eleven Increases In Speed And Smoothness With Coaches Driving Players In Finest Training Grinds

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 19.—(Special to Herald.) Increasing each day in speed and scope, every new practice session for the University of Florida's grid machine runs smoother, faster, more powerfully, and although the curtain raiser against the Moccasins from Southern College is but a few days off, the crowds which jam Fleming field stands on September 24 are assured of seeing a Gator attack that is much more deadly, a defense more potent, than the '26 eleven exhibited the day of its debut.

Aided at the outset by having his men all in full condition following a summer of physical work, Sebring and his assistants, Bedenk and Higgins, have not wasted a minute of practice time with the result that the Gators may leave the field on the 24th with a triumph even more decisive than Florida supporters predicted earlier in the year.

Injuries have been kept at a minimum in the Gator camp due, in no small measure, to the work of Trainer John Piombo to whom each little injury is serious enough to warrant immediate attention. The majority of the graduates from the championship rat crew of last fall have not failed to show the performances that were expected of them and, for that matter, Brumbaugh and Midjekauf, ineligible last fall, give evidence in plenty of the strength which they may add to the Orange and Blue threat; in fact few Gator candidates have disappointed the University mentors so far, although the stress of the first conflict may do much to show up the weakness with which Sebring will have to contend throughout the remainder of the season.

Promoter Declares Nose Of Dempsey Melts When Warm

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Admitting that ball playing seems to have become a lost art between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, and that whatever they do and whatever they did is of very small importance anyhow, all I have to report today is that Jim Mullen, local promoter says that Dempsey has his mouth open.

The only thing important about this is that Mullen also alleges that the reason for the same is that the paraffin, the glue or whatever it is that he has in his nose, has played him false. Mullen claims that Dempsey's bulbous nose has caught up with him. He claims that Dempsey can't engage in any violent exercise without having the nose melt like an ice cream cone.

Of course, one has heard the story of Dempsey's nose due to times and oft; how it was due to spread all over his countenance in the first minute of play and how the thing would melt under pressure at any time, or none. This, however is the first expert intimation that the Dempsey nose is not what it might be or should have been or was.

Mullen, who has no interest in the show beyond the fact that he tried to get in and was found out, should have no ulterior designs on the great spectacle that is about to be offered. He would not have objected to being one of the promoters. The point is they did not ask him.

Tunney Intends To Train From Now On Away From Public

LAKE VILLA, Ill., Sept. 19.—(INS)—A double guard was posted around Gene Tunney's training grounds today as the champion prepared to spend the last three days before his fight with Jack Dempsey in seclusion. No permits were issued to visitors and Billy Gibson, the champion's manager, has it known that neither Tunney nor his staff cared to see anyone before Thursday night.

Tunney was up at 6 o'clock this morning and on the road alone, doing five miles before breakfast. This afternoon he donned the gloves after three rounds of work with the light punching bag and sparred with Billy Baddeck. No attempt was made for speed or show, the champion was boxing under order to exercise only enough to loosen the muscles.

A similar private workout is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, after that the champion will pack his sixteen ounce gloves away until he is again called upon to train in defense his title or meet the man who can take it away from him.

COEDS "KAMPUS KATS" PITTSBURGH, Kas.—Co-eds of the Pittsburgh State Teacher's College have banded together for the purpose of getting together on a lusty cheers for the home team. There are 150 girls in the school which is appropriately named the "Kampus Kats."

Dempsey Insinuates In A Public Letter That Fight In Philadelphia Was Fixed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(INS)—Characterizing Jack Dempsey's open letter to Gene Tunney in which Dempsey challenged Tunney to "tell the truth" about their fight in Philadelphia, as "vicious, foul and unsportsmanlike," Billy Gibson, manager of the heavyweight champion, went on the warpath today. Gibson declared the letter was a last-minute effort to "embarrass" the champion before the Tunney-Dempsey clash here Thursday.

The Dempsey letter asked some pertinent questions about the contract Tunney signed with Max "Boo Boo" Hoff, a Philadelphia politician, in connection with the Philadelphia Tunney - Dempsey fight.

"It's an underhanded effort by the Dempsey crowd to fluster Gene at the last minute," declared Gibson. "But it simply won't work. Dempsey can try his hardest to upset my Gene, and he will fail, just as he will fail Sept. 22, when he meets my boy in the ring."

The "open" letter, issued by Dempsey yesterday, upset sporting circles here, and intensified the ill-feeling that has been brewing between the Tunney and Dempsey camps. After first deciding to ignore the letter from the former title holder, Tunney replied with a letter saying:

"My dear Dempsey: Your open letter to me has been brought to my attention. My reaction to it is to ignore it and its evident trash completely. However, I cannot resist saying that it is a cheap appeal for public sympathy. Do you consider it sportsmanlike?" And in a postscript, the champion added: "I might add that I wrote this letter myself."

It is understood the Tunney camp has threatened to take this before the Illinois Boxing Commission when the managers of the two fighters, Gibson and Flynn, appear for final instructions Tuesday.

Gibson, though refusing to be quoted, is understood to have said that at the meeting before the State Athletic Commission he will insist that in the event either principal in the big fight commits a foul which might be construed as deliberate, the entire purse of the one committing the foul shall be held up by the commission and distributed as the commission sees fit.

The contract which Dempsey based his questions in his letter is to be used as the basis of a suit to tie up Tunney's purse, it was said. Huff is in Chicago on Wednesday, with plans to bring suit on his contract under which, in return for $20,000 paid to Billy Gibson on the night of the Philadelphia battle, he was to receive 20 per cent of Tunney's future earnings as champion.

Explains Prediction The decision, despite other elements entering the astral calculations, will be awarded the fighter in the fateful 47 degree angle. It will be from that corner that the knockout blow will emanate, and any fighter opposite will be powerless to deal a killing blow, according to Schimmack.

The private stars of the two gladiators show no superiority for either on the night of September 22, according to Schimmack. Dempsey will have a more favorable aspect than he had a year ago, he said, but otherwise would predict no winner.

Schimmack explained that Tunney is a protégé of Mercury, and as such, will be speedier, lighter and a great fighter. Dempsey, supported by the Moon, will be a hunter, slower in his actions, but an equally good fighter.

And there the astrologer leaves it. He scans the skies, makes his calculations, and plots his course, but to say definitely that one or the other of the fighters will win, is impossible, he admits.

The astrologer has spent numerous hours plotting the position of the actual bodies and interpreting them in terms of the big fight. He has mapped the life courses of the two pugilists as far back as their births, and he foresees a great battle.

Mercury Backs Champion And Moon Will Support Dempsey In Title Battle

WASHINGTON, Pa. Sept. 19.—(INS)—The winner of the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight championship battle will sit in the southeastern corner of the arena on the night of September 22. His position on the compass will read 47 degrees. The victory will be won by a knockout. This was the prediction of the stars in relation to the signs of the zodiac, Paul K. Schimmack, self-styled weather man and astrologer here says. Schimmack hesitates to predict the winner of the bout. He says the stars do not favor either of the candidates.

Gene Tunney has the support of the planet Mercury, the little speedy dem'n that circles close to the sun. Jack Dempsey will enter the ring with the backing of the moon, according to Schimmack. But the winner of the fray will have to hold down the corner to the southeast, according to Schimmack. Should the bout be held in the morning, the astrologer said, the northwest corner would be the winning side.

Hectic Political Winter In Forecast As Result Of The President's Recent Dictum

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(INS)—It promises to be a hectic political winter both in and out of Congress.

Already fuddled by President Coolidge's famous "I do not choose to run," statement, Washington is faced with a congressional session in which politics will play a paramount part. Every major legislative issue will be tested in the political crucible to determine whether it be productive of votes in the approaching presidential campaigns. It has always been so in a presidential year.

Congressional leaders are preparing to cut the legislative program to a minimum. The chief issues will be Mississippi flood relief, taxation, farm relief, Boulder Dam, and a plethora of lesser proposals. Some leaders feel they will be lucky if they get through no winner.

Schimmack explained that Tunney is a protégé of Mercury, and as such, will be speedier, lighter and a great fighter. Dempsey, supported by the Moon, will be a hunter, slower in his actions, but an equally good fighter.

And there the astrologer leaves it. He scans the skies, makes his calculations, and plots his course, but to say definitely that one or the other of the fighters will win, is impossible, he admits.

The astrologer has spent numerous hours plotting the position of the actual bodies and interpreting them in terms of the big fight. He has mapped the life courses of the two pugilists as far back as their births, and he foresees a great battle.

election cases. Observers here believe both will be denied seats. Debate on the presidential situation will fill many pages of the newspapers and the congressional record. Potential candidates are as thick as birds in the presidential woods. Republican candidates have hesitated to come into the open because of the ambiguity which still exists about the President's "withdrawal" statement. Many leaders are not convinced that Mr. Coolidge cannot be drafted although he will not campaign actively for renomination.

The Big Five The "big five" among the Republicans are Charles E. Hughes, former secretary of state; Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce; Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the House; Vice President Dawes; and Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois.

Without doubt, Governor Smith of New York is the leading Democratic candidate. Upon his ability to swing over the switch will depend his chances for nomination. He is strong with the eastern Democrats, and probably will go into convention with more delegates than he had at Madison Square Garden in 1924.

Joe Humphreys says: "Holbrook Blinn is right—Luckies are certainly good"

Noted sports announcer, talking to his son, George Cohan Humphreys, at their home in Fairhaven, New Jersey, recommends Lucky Strikes.

Holbrook Blinn, Noted Stage Star, writes:

"Each performance brings with it its attendant nervousness and I relish the opportunity for a soothing smoke while playing. During the course of 'The Play's the Thing' I am called on to smoke at frequent intervals. It is always a Lucky Strike. I know from many years' use of this cigarette that my throat is constantly protected and that it will give me the greatest enjoyment."

Holbrook Blinn

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY
THINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK:
I will meditate also of all Thy word, and talk of Thy doings; Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary; who is so great a God as our God? Psalm: 17:12, 13.

PRAYER: Lord, I would call to remembrance Thy works in the silence of the night, and commune with my heart.
Well, Amos crashed through at last.
It's still pretty hot weather, but it won't be long now.

The question now arises, "Will the receiver have anything to receive?"
Whoever loses on Thursday night, you may rest assured of this that Tex Rickard will be the winner.

And one Florida bank has failed twice.—Tampa Tribune. Another Florida bank should have failed twice, but didn't.
Mr. Ashcraft is pretty crafty, so understand, but we'll bet he'll have to use the ash before he gets through with this job.

No, we are not having hard times in Sanford, and we won't have as long as the bulkhead continues to support the folks who go down to the lake for fish.
Dodge this Taxpayer's League! They are going to keep on fooling around until they make somebody sore. Just as if it were any of their business what is done with their money.

Fool flying could be stopped by the new papers keeping news of beach stunts off the front page.—Deland News. It's the fools that people like to read about.
A former assistant attorney general of the United States says that the liquor graft in this country amounts to about twenty-five million a day. But the people elect the grafters.

Looks like Senator John W. Watson of Miami waited 'til the summer straw-beds were marked way down before he flung his into the already crowded gubernatorial ring.—Leesburg Commercial.
Many people in this country will pay a thousand dollars to see the Dempsey-Tunney fight and the same people would hunt through a pocket full of change to find a copper colored coin to put in a Church collection box.

It's difficult to think of Miami including a turtle race. Maybe, though, all races look alike in Miami—dog, horse or turtle.—Tampa Times. They all look alike down there except the human race, and that's different.
Yes, we suppose that horses have as much right to run in Florida as the heady's Beach Club, but Brad's has closed to the public and the race can't run without the public. In other words, the horses can't run without the people who can't afford to be seen.

Just read a letter referring to the editorial page as "the soul of a paper." After looking over the changes we are convinced that the changes are only half-sole.—Tampa Times. And one or two more chances to know are running around barefoot.
We can always tell how the people are feeling by looking at our circulation records. When they are a little dyspeptic, the circulation falls off; when they feel better, the circulation rises again. What makes them dyspeptic, we never can understand unless it is a little difference of opinion.

As far as The Herald has been concerned, the appointment of Ashcraft was not a bad thing. Apparently he is running honest, with some business and without extorting anything. One thing is sure, Mr. Amos would have done some such thing as to have had some of those

Why Dempsey?

Just why, we are moved to wonder, is there an evident wave of friendliness spreading over the country in behalf of that one time prime luminary of the profession of mauling, Mr. William Harrison Dempsey, called "Jack" by those who know him least. When he was champion, he was the most scorned and despised of any king who ever wore the heavy-weight crown.

Since the Philadelphia massacre, his popularity has steadily been on the increase, until now, as he is about to enter the ring in the last stage of his dramatic comeback, he has an even greater following, perhaps, than the general Marine who is the very exponent of what a first class prizefighter should be.

Dempsey has what Grantland Rice has seen fit to call the "comeback appeal." It seems that the vast majority of the human race are in the same boat with the ex-champion. They are on the decline. They are has-beens. The number of persons who are at the pinnacle of their powers or success is comparatively small. Most people, you will agree, are growing older, and as they grow older, they develop a strong tendency to slip.

So there is a sympathetic tie between them and this man Dempsey. He is a sort of personification to them, and when he enters the ring they will be cheering for him because they want to see him do what they would like to do for themselves. They want to see him "come back" exactly as they want to "comeback" themselves. It is the same trait which makes men come to the aid of the under dog.

All the past is forgotten, Dempsey's mongrel youth, his yellow war record, when as a man in perfect physical condition he avoided service. His irregular ring career, replete with fouls and unsportsmanlike acts, hitting the helpless Willard when he was down, fouling the courageous Carpenter, claiming and being accorded the title after Firpo had knocked him out of the ring, a technical knockout, the claim of a "frame-up" in the Tunney fight, the foul against Sharkey. All this is forgotten.

He is the Dempsey now who is slipping, but who has a chance to come back. And those who are slipping too, want to see him come back.

Giving The Public A Constant Message

Forbes Magazine in a recent editorial gives an interesting discussion of the possibilities of advertising and the requisites of successful advertising. The magazine reiterates the idea that advertising to be successful must be followed continually. The selling story must be told over and over again if the public's attention is to be concentrated on the idea of buying. The magazine further emphasizes the necessity for the exercise of diligence in placing the advertiser's message before the public by saying:

"The public is a peculiar thing. It is busy, indifferent and exacting, we do know, however; that:

"1. It is a fallacy that the public will automatically seek the best. It has to be educated and directed.

"2. It is a fallacy that the public knows the difference between price and value.

"3. It is a fallacy that the "public knows what it wants."

"4. It is a fallacy that the public automatically rewards enterprise and service.

"5. It is a fallacy that the public will demand over any great length of time what it is not reminded of."

The St. Petersburg Independent offers the conclusion that the two undebatable statements in the summary are that the public is "busy, indifferent and exacting" and "will not continue to demand any article of merchandise for a length of time unless reminded of it." To which the St. Petersburg paper adds that "advertising is the greatest salesman. It is unobtrusive and yet it gets its message over. And what is more important, now, under regulation of strict laws, it has to be true. So, if it is advertised it must be reliable."

It is a fact that the more an article is advertised, the larger the sales. The idea of keeping the thing before the public at all times is the only way to overcome the fact that people are busy. If you would attract busy people you must put something before them so often and so attractively that their attention is drawn from the ordinary things that occupy their minds.

THE UNLUCKY GOLFER THE FORUM

The world's unluckiest golfer has been discovered. At any rate so he himself claims—and he is none other than the famous English humorist, A. A. Milne, who tells all about his woes in the October number of the Forum magazine.

"I am the world's unluckiest golfer," he writes. "Yes, I know what you are going to say, but I don't mean what you mean. Of the ordinary bad luck which comes to us all at times, I do not complain. It is the 'rub of the green'."

"When my best drive is caught by cover, or fielded smartly by mid-cen with his foot; when I elect to run a bunker ten yards away and am most unfortunately held up by blown sand (or, as I generally call it, and my only hope of winning the hole is that my opponent shall pick up a worm which he ought to have brushed away, or

POOR SOUL MIAMI LIFE

Well, we're all broke! We know that because we were told so. Yesterday we met a friend in a Miami restaurant who owed us three dollars. He was eating a dollar steak and the side dishes won't do him any good. He was "emaciated" and about conditions. There wasn't any chance of Miami and its uncounted souls existing. These thousands of people who were turning around in cars had no money and it wouldn't be long before they ran out of gas and couldn't buy any more. It wasn't long for them and it wouldn't be long before they would be in the poor house that we haven't got.

We felt very sorry for the chap as he paid (in cash) his $4.75 bill and almost wept as he stepped into his Lincoln car and in a very downcast manner, ambled away.

Here was a typical Miamian, we said to ourselves, broke, disgusted with life and ready for the river. We were sorry for him. Where, for instance, was his next $4.75 meal coming from? He had so much to worry him. Where, as a matter of thought, was he going to get the

As Brisbane Sees It

Respectable Old Age. Wine Propaganda. Poison Gin; Needed Beer. Miami Is Ready. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE Copyright 1927 by Star Co.

ON A 1000-ACRE tract near Baltimore there will soon be shown the history of American railroad- ing from the beginning, with locomotives and cars from various epochs all in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

THE BALTIMORE AND Ohio, first in the United States, "to handle for the public, passengers and freight," reminds you that this country is gradually becoming respectably ancient.

TWO BIG STORES in New York city, Hearn's and Arnold Constable's, have just reached the respectable age of 100. And the age is less important than the marvelous improvements in 100 years.

The next step will be the flying machine, with a rearrangement of man's living habits, recasting of population centers and land values.

AMERICAN LEGION members, with their families are invited to lectures on French wines, describing their qualities, value to health, vitamin content, etc. After the lecture samples of various wines are offered, also small souvenir bottles to be carried away. Good prohibitionists will be grieved by this propaganda.

IN ITALY THE wine crop is enormous this year, and establishments for working people, who charge customers "by the hour," You pay four cents—in our money—per an hour and drink as much wine as you choose in your hour—as you hire a billiard table by the hour here.

"Four cents an hour" for wine drinking will horrify the good. But it is not as bad as the sign that once decorated English gin houses: "Here you may get drunk for a penny, dead drunk for twopenny"

YOU ARE TOLD that abundance of wine causes no drunkenness in Italy or France. Once when wine was at its cheapest, the Italians mixed it with the feed of horses and said they threw on the diet. Prohibitionists will call that more propaganda.

JAMES H. BIMSON, teacher in the Paterson, N. J., high school, aged 55, and his wife, 52, died last Saturday in Saint Joseph's hospital after drinking home-made gin.

Dr. Noval, county physician, says the gin was made of "poison alcohol." There is much drinking of such poison, and you can never be sure that it is not in the "pre-war stuff" offered by your well-meaning friend.

ALSO, REMEMBER THAT so-called "genuine beer" is usually near beer that has been "needed." Denatured alcohol is bought at gasoline stations. Some of the poison—out all—is extracted by redistilling. Then a huge syringe, with a needle point, is used to inject the alcohol into the near beer keg, through the cork or wood opening. And with such "needed beer" tens of thousands of Americans are poisoning themselves, ruining their kidneys.

Only a fool drinks bootleg liquor.

THE REST OF THE country will be glad to hear that Miami, and Florida generally, have wiped out all signs and reminders of the big wind, and are ready for another boom, with preparations made for record crowds this season.

The new boom will come, do not doubt it, and what is more important, it will stay. Florida is destined to be the winter sanitarium of millions of Americans.

A LEARNED CHRISTIAN writer thinks old-time revivalists and modern "high power converters" of the Billy Sunday type are out of date.

Real energy, genuine earnestness will never be out of date. "To convince others, be yourself convinced." To convert others, be yourself converted. Whoever lacks belief in a hell with real fire, or in a devil with a real pitchfork will not cause men to worry about the future.

DID YOU NOTICE that the question of Russian oil for which one American and one British company are fighting may be decided by the world court?

The Standard Oil Company can be trusted to take care of itself in that court or any other. But isn't it just as well that the foreign business of this nation, including our action in international matters should be not be decided by a court made up of one lone-some American and nine foreigners, whose pet name for this country is "Uncle Shylock"?

RHEUMATISM May be relieved by rational treatment—it can not be rubbed away.

Are you one of those unfortunate ones who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, commonly called rheumatism, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep? You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude. "I suffered from rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so I couldn't walk. I tried almost everything. Went to Hot Springs . . . then finally decided to try S.S.S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S.S.S. is the best." Earl C. Campbell, 115 West Main Street, Johnson City, Tenn.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause. S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Are You Really Well? For Good Health There Must Be Proper Kidney Action. DO you find yourself running down—always tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging headache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions scanty and burning in passage? Know then that these are often signs of improper kidney action. Sluggish kidneys allow acid poisons to remain in the blood and upset the whole system. If your kidneys are acting sluggishly assist them with Doan's Pills. More than 50,000 users have publicly recommended Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Tony Pitchford Hostess To The Pipe Organ Club Members

On Monday afternoon the Pipe Organ Club of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Tony Pitchford for its regular meeting.

The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Volie Williams, after which Mrs. A. Manely read a most interesting article on "Prayer."

The business session was presided over by Mrs. J. H. Colclough, the club president, and the roll call was answered with articles for the Christmas bazaar.

During the business session it was decided that the club would meet Friday with Mrs. Francis E. Bolz, to sew for a local needy family.

The hostess for the next meeting will be Mrs. Volie Williams and Mrs. M. B. Smith, and the roll call will be answered with current events.

A delicious ice course was served by the hostess late in the afternoon, and during the serving, Mrs. Robert L. Glenn, who possesses an unusually sweet soprano voice, delighted the members with a group of solos.

Members attending Monday's meeting were Mrs. Leslie Bryan, Mrs. R. H. Berg, Mrs. Francis E. Bolz, Mrs. C. A. Anderson Jr., Mrs. R. F. Cooper, Mrs. J. H. Colclough, Mrs. Robert Merriweather, Mrs. B. King's Daughters Have Enjoyable Meeting On Monday At The Church

A most enjoyable meeting of the King's Daughters Class of the Methodist Sunday School was held Monday evening at the church annex.

Miss Evelyn Edenfield, class president over the business session when the semi-annual election of officers took place resulting as follows: president, Miss Maude Carroway; vice president, Miss Nannie Brooks; secretary, Miss Louise Swain; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Lawlins.

At the conclusion of business, the meeting was turned over to Miss Alice Gooding McKim, who had charge of the program. The following numbers were presented: piano solo, Dorothy Smith; piano duet, Misses Elizabeth and Rebecca Clarke; piano selection, Miss Maude Carroway; piano solo, Miss Elizabeth Clarke; vocal solo, Dorothy Smith.

The meeting closed with a most impressive devotional exercise, which had been outlined by the conference superintendent and was led by Miss Mae Kim. The theme was "The Christian Value of Comradeship."

Misses Evelyn Edenfield and Miss Nannie Brooks, the hostesses served fruit punch and cake as refreshments.

Those present were Miss Evelyn Edenfield, Miss Nannie Brooks, Miss Florence McKay, Miss Olga Brooks, Miss Alice Gooding McKim, Miss Ethel Tillis, Mrs. W. H. Rawkins, Mrs. Porter Lansing, Miss Georgia Calhoun, Miss Louise Swain, Miss Rebecca Clarke, Miss Elizabeth Clarke, Mrs. Juanita Cameron, Miss Waldrom, Mrs. C. H. Smith and Dorothy Smith.

May McAvoy Scores A Triumph As Wild Irish Rose In Film

The charm of May McAvoy's personality glows in "Irish Hearts" with a glowing loveliness. It is the second Warner Brothers' production to be made under her new long-term contract, and her starring role is distinctly a "personality part" and fits the diminutive star like a glove.

The vivacious, sun-loving Patsy from Erin offers a character that brings out all of Miss McAvoy's radiant self. The magnetic force of her individuality has never been so strongly felt as in "Irish Hearts."

Instead of the wistful, languishing beauty of "Lady Windermere's Fan," there is a high-spirited, unconquerable Coolin with a flash in her eye and a quick retort on her pretty lips, a little "Irish-er" who is up in arms when her putience is tried to the breaking point by an intolerant employer, a faithless sweetheart, and a shiftless father.

"Irish Hearts" proves conclusively that May McAvoy has not only beauty of face and form but that inward beauty which produces the invaluable, intangible quality known as "charm." Jason Robards, Les Bates and Walter Rodgers are in the cast. Byron Haskin directed the story which was adapted by Graham Baker from a story by Melville Crossman.

"Irish Hearts" comes to the Millane Theatre today.

Baptists To Begin Study Wednesday Of Church Plans

Beginning Wednesday night of this week officers of the various departments of the First Baptist Church will begin a series of study periods which will deal with every phase of the national church organization, its accomplishments and plans for the future, together with a discussion of different activities of the local institution.

The study institute is expected to be very interesting and instructive and officers of the church board are hoping that a full attendance of the various workers will be on hand for each discussion. In addition to the 110 officers there are expected to be many of the members who will join in the study.

Consideration of the Baptist program will be taken up at the session tomorrow night. It was stated this morning by Dr. F. D. King, pastor.

Lake and Key Make Bail In Bank Charges

(Continued from page one) C. White, state bank examiner, while two others were made by K. B. McCracken against Mr. Lake, and by Mrs. Lizzie Annie Wilson against Mr. Key.

One warrant against Mr. Lake charges that the official "unlawfully and feloniously embezzled, and converted to his own use certain moneys of said Seminole County Bank, to wit the sum of $353,780.21." A similar warrant charging embezzlement in the amount of $40,992.24, was served on Mr. Key.

May McAvoy Scores A Triumph As Wild Irish Rose In Film

The charm of May McAvoy's personality glows in "Irish Hearts" with a glowing loveliness. It is the second Warner Brothers' production to be made under her new long-term contract, and her starring role is distinctly a "personality part" and fits the diminutive star like a glove.

The vivacious, sun-loving Patsy from Erin offers a character that brings out all of Miss McAvoy's radiant self. The magnetic force of her individuality has never been so strongly felt as in "Irish Hearts."

Instead of the wistful, languishing beauty of "Lady Windermere's Fan," there is a high-spirited, unconquerable Coolin with a flash in her eye and a quick retort on her pretty lips, a little "Irish-er" who is up in arms when her putience is tried to the breaking point by an intolerant employer, a faithless sweetheart, and a shiftless father.

"Irish Hearts" proves conclusively that May McAvoy has not only beauty of face and form but that inward beauty which produces the invaluable, intangible quality known as "charm." Jason Robards, Les Bates and Walter Rodgers are in the cast. Byron Haskin directed the story which was adapted by Graham Baker from a story by Melville Crossman.

"Irish Hearts" comes to the Millane Theatre today.

War Leaders Join Plea For World Peace

The communists deputy Vallant Courturier, writing in L'Humanite called the event a "stupid parade of Fascist legionnaires, methodism, rationalism, Ku Klux Klan, fordism, electric chairs and prohibition, to sound burlesque jazz before jingolists, royalists, excited women and a crowd of idlers attracted by a circus. To the legion's national fete, the people of Paris replied with a manifestation of disgust."

The populace had a somewhat kinder tone: "What cries of welcome and recognition would have been heard if the Sacco and Vanzetti crime had not been committed," the paper declared. "The heart of Paris is not there."

"There was no fete, only a ceremony," La Quotidien declared. "The heart of Paris did not beat in the official manifestations. There was curiosity but no enthusiasm. The war's victims did not die to enable the American Legion, to disrespect our grief."

The conservative press, however, went just as far in the opposite direction, praising the skies, the beauty and reverence of the spectacle. Lauding the parade as a splendid Pacific demonstration Le-Matin declared:

"It was not a legion, it was a people that Paris saw parading yesterday. It was the future we saw pass in review, for the future belongs to youth and order."

Le Petit Parisien did not spare words. "It was the most picturesque, fantastic, well-disciplined parade ever seen in Paris," the paper said.

25 Aeroplanes Continue Race Trans-Country

The two-day, 2,273 mile flight is to be made with five stops of five minutes each for refueling and one overnight stop at St. Paul, Minnesota.

Prizes for class are $10,000 for the winner, $5,000 for second place, $2,000 for third, $1,000 for fourth, and $500 for fifth prize.

The planes in today's race are more powerful than those which hopped off yesterday, and should arrive in Spokane tomorrow afternoon at about the same time as the class B planes which started yesterday.

It was said today that there may be difficulty in the non-stop class scheduled to leave here Wednesday afternoon and to arrive in Spokane late Thursday. The rules specify that at least five starters must compete. To date, but two entries in the non-stop planes are at Roosevelt field. They are two Stinson planes, the "Royal Windsor", piloted by C. S. "Duke" Schiller, with Phil Wood's brother as passenger, and the other piloted by the Stinson planes.

Major Howard C. Davidson, who has been in charge of arrangements at the end, said today that he has received no definite word from the committee to call off the race, however, and would start Stinson and marathon on schedule time. Martin Jensen, pilot of the Ryan monoplane who was forced down in Arizona while enroute here with Leo, a movie stunt lion, abroad, will be unable to participate as planned.

Enlargement U. S. Air Program Urged By Michigan Solon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. (INS)—Enlargement of the present $150,000,000 five-year army air program may soon become necessary, in the opinion of Rep. W. Frank James (Republican) of Michigan, who was chairman of the House military affairs committee made an inspection tour of the country's military defenses.

The project increase would be applied to the Canal Zone and Hawaiian defenses, the most vital spots in the defense scheme. Twice as many airplanes are needed at both places as we are now provided under the five-year program, he said.

James gave his committee credit for stimulating interest in aeronautics by passing the $150,000,000 air bill.

"The passage of the law," he said, stimulating activity among the manufacturers of airplanes.

(INS)—Leslie Miller, piloting his Englerock plane, "Spirit of St. Paul," competing in the class "B" New York to Spokane Air Derby race arrived here from Chicago at 9:56 A. M., after refueling. Miller took off at 10:01 A. M. for Fargo, N. D., his next stopping place. C. W. Meyers, in the Waco-Detroit arrived at 10:05, taking off at 10:20.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20. (INS)—The first of the class "A" planes in the transcontinental air derby from New York to Spokane, Wash., reached Chicago today. No. 4, A Laird plane, of St. Paul, piloted by C. Holman with Thomas Lane of St. Paul as passenger, reached the municipal landing field at 11:26 A. M.

The second plane, No. 6, also A Laird plane, piloted by E. E. Belknap, with Charles Dickinson, 69, Chicago as passenger, landed here at 12:10 P. M.

Tod Hyatt, Expert On Foods, To Talk Here

Tod Hyatt, lecturer on foods, will give a talk at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Sanford Electric Contracting Company, 116 Magnolia Avenue, on the "Preservation of Foods." The lecture will be held for the benefit of the women of the Episcopal Church.

Mr. Harper of the Sanford Electric Contracting Company announced today that there would be a series of lectures for several weeks, each being held on Wednesday and conducted for the benefit of the women of the various churches of Sanford.

Mr. Harper states Mr. Hyatt is an authority on this subject and a very interesting lecture is in store for those who attend.

Alfred Rabson of Orlando spent the day here Monday attending to business.

Charles Henderson who is attending Stetson University spent the week end here with relatives.

Mrs. Byron Stephens, is visiting in Ocala for a few weeks as the guest of Miss Chivalette Smith.

Mrs. J. D. Woodruff left Monday for Jacksonville where she will visit as the guest of Mrs. Dan U. Wilder.

Mrs. Robert A. Newman and Mrs. Samuel Puleston motored to Orlando Monday where they spent the day.

Clyde Booth returned to DeLand where he is a student at Stetson, after spending the week end here with his parents.

Mrs. Ollie M. Steele and son Gilmer have returned home from Washington, D. C. where they spent several weeks.

Miss Frances Hughey returned home Sunday evening from Cincinnati, Ohio where she has been spending some time.

Mrs. Charles L. Park and small son Charles Jr., are spending a few weeks at Daytona Beach as the guests of Mrs. B. B. Mills.

Miss Cleo Bridges of Miami arrived here Tuesday and is spending a few days here with her sister Miss Mildred Bridges before going to Havana.

Miss Marjorie Forrest, returned home Tuesday afternoon after having spent the summer visiting relatives at Albany, Americus and Sylvester, Ga.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Wright will be pleased to learn that she is getting along nicely after an operation Monday morning at the Fernald-Laughton hospital.

Mrs. Perry Weinberg and son Arthur Leo Weinberg, and Miss Ida Malzer of Miami arrived here Saturday from New York where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Dorothy Lovell who has been spending the past two weeks here with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Lovell, left Sunday afternoon for her home at Leesburg.

Mrs. Hugh Torrance and daughters Jane, Mary Louise and Margaret have returned home from Charlotte, N. C., where they have been spending several weeks with relatives.

Bon Ton Bridge Club Entertained Tuesday By Mrs. Ben Caswell

Delightful in every way was the lovely bridge party given Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Ben Caswell entertained members of the Bon Ton Bridge Club at her home on Magnolia Avenue.

A variety of cut flowers in the pastel tints including roses, hibiscus and anemone, were used with artistic effect in the rooms where the card tables had been arranged for play.

Progressive bridge was played during the afternoon, scores for which were kept on unusual tallies done in quaint English garden scenes. After the usual number of rounds had been played, prizes were collected and the prize awarded was a pretty orange justly deserved.

Late in the afternoon when the bridge accessories had been removed the hostess assisted by her sister Mrs. Robert J. Holly Jr., served frozen fruit salad, ribbon and iced tea.

Mrs. Caswell's guests were Mrs. W. C. Hill, Mrs. Robert J. Holly Jr., Mrs. W. W. Potter, Mrs. Joe Chittenden, Mrs. James Ridge, Mrs. Lloyd Boyle, Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, and Mrs. Floyd Palmer.

Appointed to Help Save Nation's Oil

These four oil men, photographed as they met at Colorado Springs, are members of the oil conservation board of seven members appointed to consider ways and means of cutting down the vast overproduction of petroleum. Left to right they are: L. P. St. Clair, Los Angeles, vice president of the Union Oil Co.; R. L. Welch, New York City, secretary of the American Petroleum Institute; E. W. Clark, Los Angeles, president of the American Petroleum Institute and vice president of the Sun Oil Co.; and J. Edgar Few, Dallas, Tex., president of the Sun Oil Co.

Homer P. Rainey, 31, is believed to be the youngest college president in the United States. He was born in Clarksville, Tex., worked his way through Austin College at Sherman, Tex., and through the University of Chicago, pitched professional baseball and taught cars more than had been expected by the agricultural statisticians. Only 442 cars were shipped during the season last year.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO LEVY TAX

Pursuant to Section 4 of Chapter 12416 Laws of Florida, Acts of 1927, amending Section 17 of Chapter 1121, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925, and particularly Subsection 17 (a) of said Section 4, Notice is hereby given by the Board of Commissioners of the Upper St. Johns River Navigation District through its undersigned secretary, that at a meeting of said Board to be held for that purpose in the office of said District in the City of Sanford, Seminole County, Florida, in the Ball Building, Room 3, on the 3rd day of October, 1927, at the hour of 2:30 P. M. the said Board intends under the provisions of Section 2 of said Chapter 12416 amending Section 14 of said Chapter 1121, to levy a Navigation Tax of not more than two and one-half mills for the year 1927 against the said County of Seminole, which County was the only portion of said District that, by reason of ill-treatment, ceased to pay any Navigation Tax for the year 1926, said Tax so intended to be levied to be used for the purpose of liquidating the pro rata share of said Seminole County of indebtedness incurred by said District under said Chapter 1121 creating said District.
