DEMPSEY IS NOT PLANNING TO KICK ON BARRY COUNT

Manager Files A Protest But Ex-Champion Insists That He Has Had Nothing To Do With It; Going To New York

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—(INS)—Jack Dempsey, the man who almost came back to International News Service today that contrary to all reports, he did not contemplate making a protest of the decision of referee Dave Barry on Thursday night when Gene Tunney retained the heavyweight title.

"I will issue no statement to newspapers, as it has been stated," the former heavyweight champion said. "I have nothing in mind at this time as to a protest of Barry's decision and his manner of counting the seconds when I had Gene on the floor in that seventh round."

Dempsey said he probably would remain in Chicago until Monday, when he will leave for New York. He expects to spend several days in New York and then return to his home in Los Angeles. He will be accompanied east by his wife, Estelle Taylor, the screen star.

The pugilist made it plain he did not intend to engage in a controversy at this time with the Illinois Commission regarding the dispute over the count given Tunney. He did not say he would not say he would not ultimately back up his manager, Leo P. Flynn, who yesterday filed protest with the commission, but he declared the entire matter would be dropped by him, at least for the present.

Dempsey has completely recovered from cuts and bruises sustained in his fight with Tunney and was extremely cheerful today.

Tunney Is Invited To Hold Next Big Fight In Chicago On Coming Fourth Of July

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
Sports Editor

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Gene Tunney, successful defendant of his heavyweight championship title in a great fight two nights ago, will be invited by Chicago business men at noon today to return here next July 4 to meet the next man available with the championship at stake. The invitation will be extended during a luncheon at which Tunney will be the guest of the local committee of business men whose efforts resulted in bringing the Tunney-Dempsey fight to Soldiers' field on Thursday night.

The invitation, it is understood, will receive an informal acceptance from the champion, with the agreement that this acceptance can only become morally binding in the event that his opponent is a first class man.

This much Tunney made clear this morning in a conversation with an emissary of the committee. The champion's notion, as expressed on that occasion, was that only the best man would be acceptable and that that man could be determined through a series of eliminations, involving Dempsey, Jack Sharkey, Paulino and others.

"I want no set up for my next match," Tunney declared. "Get me the stand-out man in the field and the fight is yours. If Rickard can line up his candidates as he did this year, I am sure that the best man available will be the survivor and, in that case, his meeting with me would be inevitable."

Tunney was almost unmarked in spite of his strenuous seventh round with Dempsey, during which he sat on the floor, dazed, for nine and a fraction seconds, but got up in time to save his title. He dismissed with a wave of his hand Leo P. Flynn's post-bout bleat about a long count.

"I sat there and listened for nine; when I heard it, I got up," he said. "and when I got up, I beat Dempsey. That should tell the story."

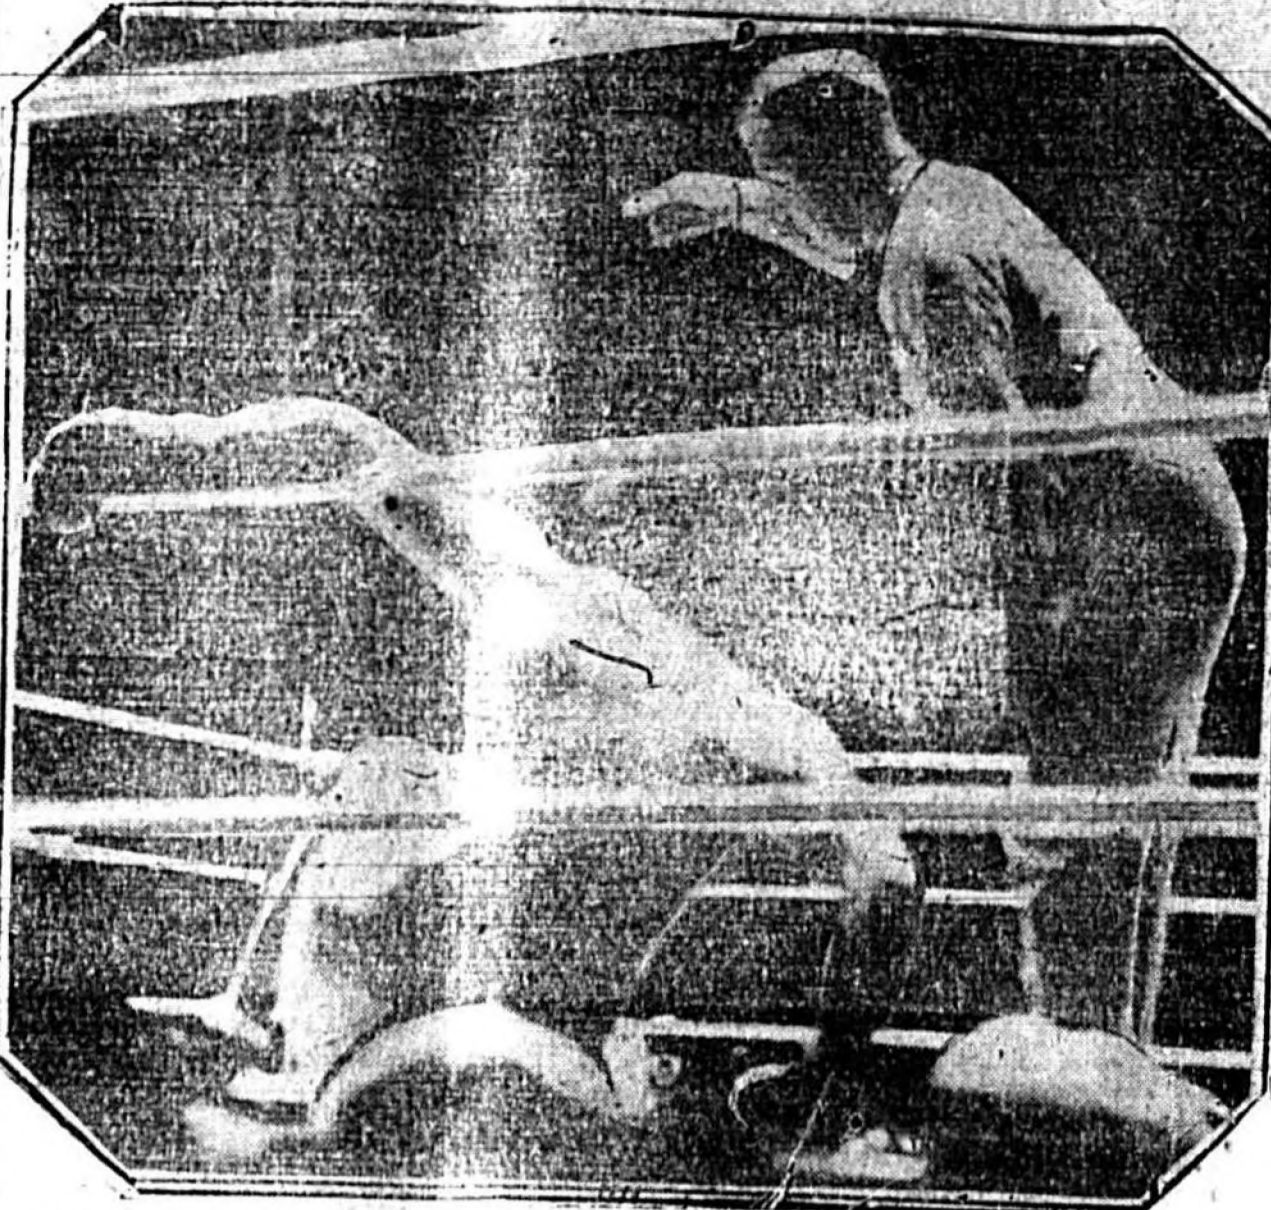

Wentworth, executive of the business men, discussed the probability of his return to Chicago next summer for another championship match. Tunney waxed eloquent about the city, its surroundings, its officials, the public and its treatment of him.

"I owe Chicago a great debt," was his parting word, "and if Chicago thinks my return would help repay that debt, I am ready to return if it is possible. The welcome I received here on my arrival will remain in my memory for life. The way I have been treated here by all with whom I have come in contact affords me another pleasant memory. I would like another episode to it."

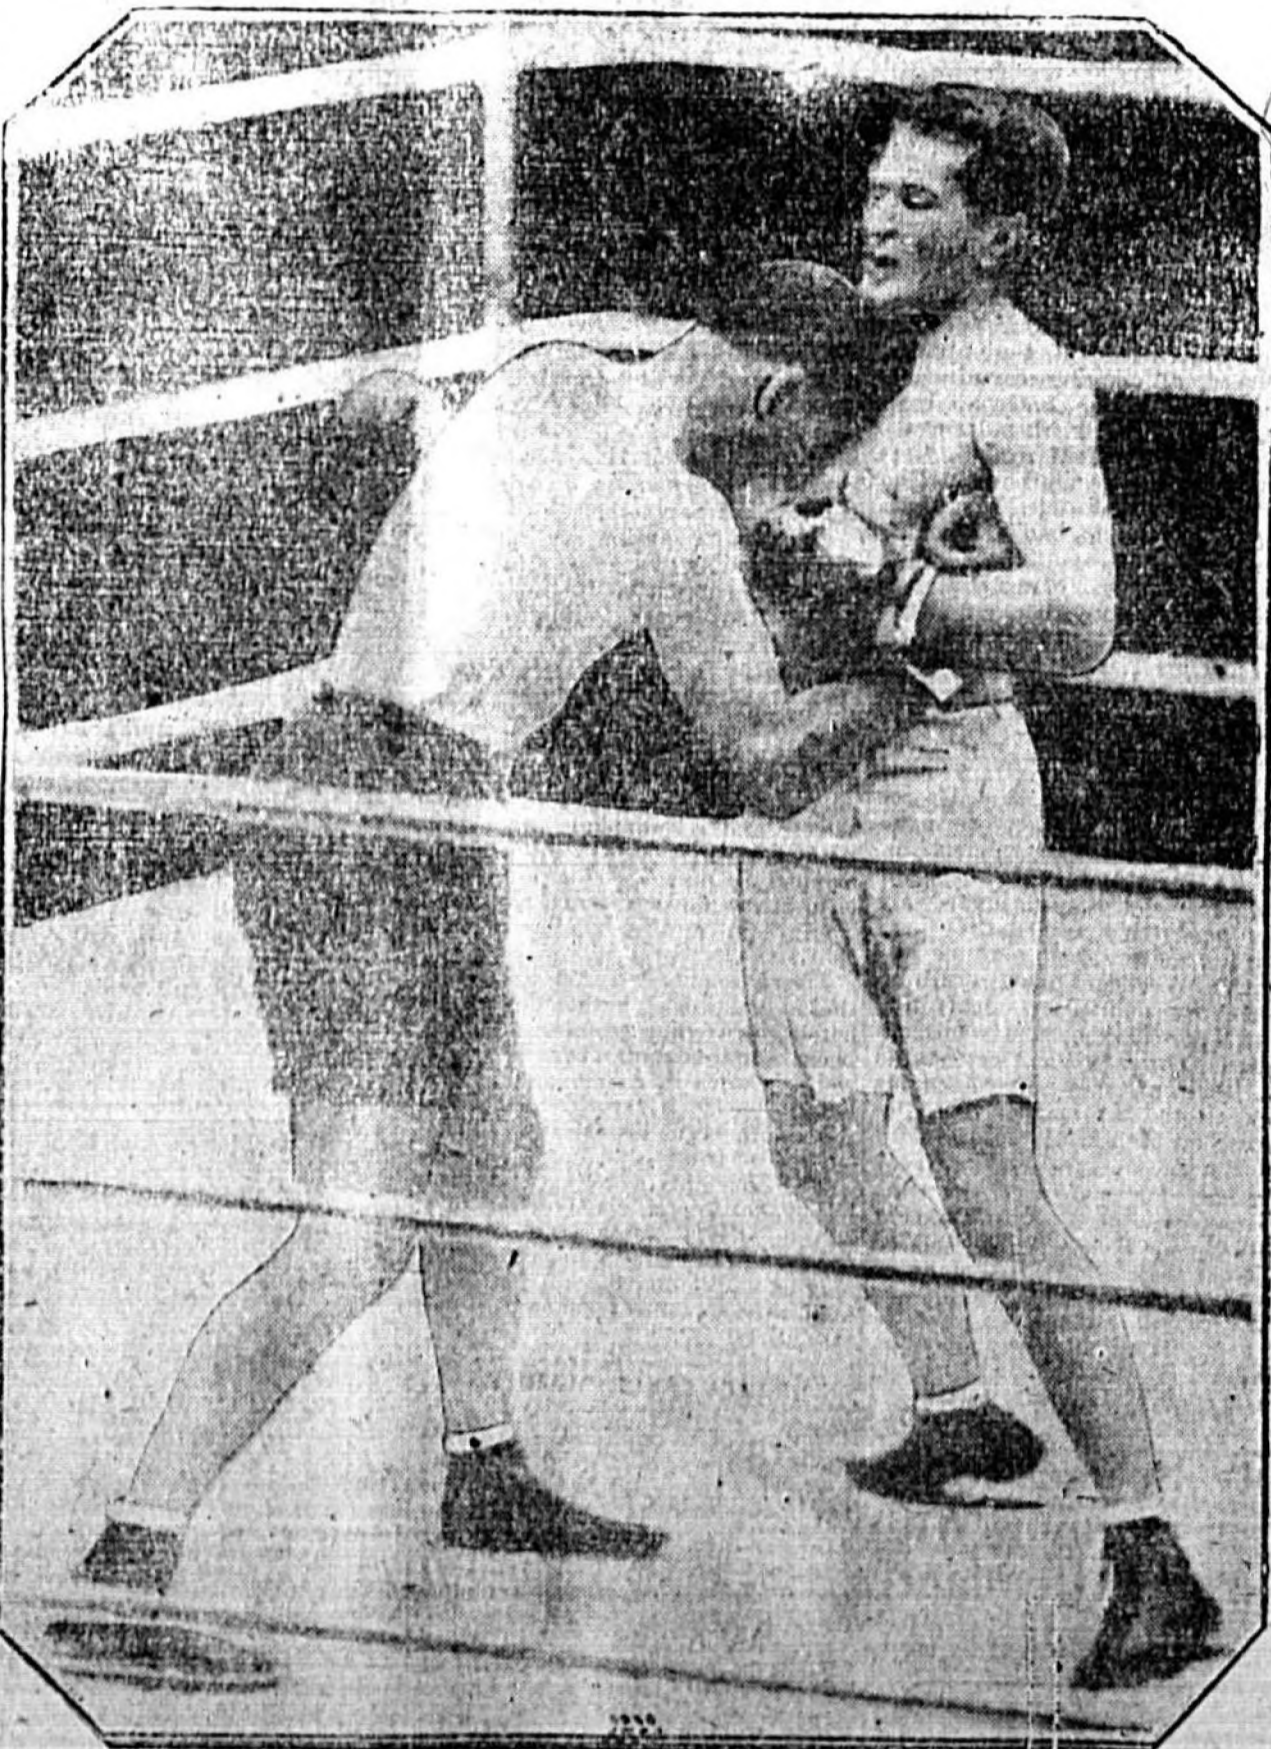

"Then, there was the handling of that great crowd last night. It was perfect. Everything was discipline and order and I think such an occasion is a tribute to the game and the real men that are in it."

Boxing Commission Refuses To Cancel Decision In Fight

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—(INS)—Gene Tunney will remain undisputed world's heavyweight boxing champion. The Illinois Boxing Commission, John C. Righelmer, chairman, announced today will not consider a protest of the decision of the Thursday night. "As far as the Commission is concerned the protest of the decision filed by Leo P. Flynn, Tunney's manager, will not be considered, as the bout was conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission. The decision as rendered by referee Dave Barry will stand."

JAPS INCREASE THEIR HOLD ON BIG PROVINCES

National Position Solidified In Manchuria Under Action Taken By Premier Tanaka

TOKIO, Sept. 21.—(INS)—Japan's new government, under Premier Tanaka has wasted no time in solidifying this country's position in Manchuria, and there is every evidence that the Seiyukai party will make Japan's hold on the Three Eastern Provinces of North China practically invulnerable before it leaves office.

Baron Shidehara, former Foreign Minister, played safe in Manchuria, because he feared giving offense to the Chinese. But Premier Tanaka, acting as his own Foreign Minister, has gone fearlessly into the business of making Manchuria an integral part of the Japanese Empire, disregarding the sensitive feelings of Chinese nationalists. And up to the present time, his policy has been fully justified, because the Chinese have ignored what he is doing.

Railway Prize
The South Manchuria railway is the agency used to extend Japan's empire into China. This railway, the prize of the Russo-Japanese war, has been developed gradually into an empire within an empire. Within its sphere of influence, it acts as a government. While this has been nominally true for some time, Premier Tanaka has decided to come out into the open, and make the railway company a government on paper as well as in fact.

He has just announced a plan, devised by his legislative experts, whereby the president of the South Manchuria railway will become a consul-general of Japan. His headquarters will be in Mukden, the capital of Chang Tso-lin, and he will represent the Japanese government directly as the power behind China's throne. In this manner Japan's sphere of influence will be extended beyond the Kwantung leased territory, where treaties give them the right of government. From this time on, a Japanese consul-general, as president of the South Manchuria railway, will be remembered that the railway, controlled by the railway, is more than a railway, controlling rich mines, prosperous manufacturing cities and millions of acres of fertile farm land. It operates schools, from kindergartens to technical universities, and establishes courts through Japan's special rights guaranteed treaty.

Colonizing Scheme
At the same time, Premier Tanaka's experts are evolving a colonization company with power equal to the South Manchuria railway, to gain further control of the rich undeveloped lands in Manchuria and Mongolia beyond the railway limits. The head of the company, too, is to be a consul-general, and will be directed in his policies by the foreign office in Tokio. It is planned to carry the fine development work accomplished in South Manchuria into North Manchuria and Mongolia.

Grid Teams Prepare Golf Stars Battle To Go Into Action For Tourney Title First Time In 1927 In Final Rounds

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 (INS)—"I still think I can whip Gene Tunney."

The words are Jack Dempsey's and they were uttered with considerable vehemence today as the battle-scarred ex-champion schooled the contention of his manager, Leo P. Flynn, that he had been counted out of the decision Thursday night in the seventh round of his championship fight with Tunney.

Dempsey declared he would file immediately a protest with the Illinois Athletic Commission. Flynn filed a protest of the decision yesterday but the commission would not entertain it because it was not signed by Dempsey.

"When Tunney fell I did go into a corner," said Jack heatedly. "The pictures show I was behind Tunney. Still the count was halted while the referee made me go into another corner, those seconds were year. Then they gave Tunney time to recover and that cost me the championship."

While Dempsey had little hope of getting the commission to alter the decision, he said he felt justified in filing the protest regarding Tunney, he said:

"Tunney is a great boxer. I don't suppose there is a better skilled man in the ring. But I can whip him. I knocked him out Thursday night and I can do it again."

Dempsey denied that his ring career is over.

"Of course," he said, "I may never get another fight. But I feel that I'm in as good condition as ever, and if a fellow will stand up and fight with me I can whip him."

Tagging All Bases

The Giants, who made it two out of three by scoring a sensational victory over Pittsburgh yesterday, tackled the Pirates for the last time today in a game that undoubtedly will make or break the New Yorkers. They are only 2-2 games behind the leaders this morning but must win the final game in order to stay in the running.

A victory for New York also would revive the drooping Cardinals, whose defeat by the Boston Braves yesterday cost them second place and left them three full games behind Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh still needs six victories in its remaining eight games. New York and St. Louis make a clean sweep. Even if the Pirates win only five out of eight, however, the Giants and Cardinals cannot afford to lose a single game.

The standing:

Pittsburgh	89	57	8 .610
New York	87	60	7 .532
St. Louis	86	60	8 .589

The Giants "pulled a Tunney" yesterday, defeating the Pirates 6 to 5, after they apparently had been knocked out. Led by Pie Traynor, who walloped a triple with the bases full, the Bugs kayoed Burt Grimes and led 5 to 0. The Giants finally got to Carmen Hill, however, and gave him the works. Lindstrom singled with the bases jammed in the seventh and in the ninth he came home with the winning run after tying the score with a triple.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (INS)—Football swings its light artillery into action today. Many of the leading eastern teams will engage in "warm-up" contests with smaller opponents, led to the slaughter to provide a Roman holiday for the big fellows.

Overwhelming victories for the more powerful teams are not a certainty, however, as some of the weaker outfits may cause upsets using the new lateral pass. Many coaches have not perfected a tight defense against this form of attack.

The University of Pennsylvania eleven, which plays Franklin Marshall today, will be watched closely by eastern fans. Penn faces the toughest schedule in the country end even in today's opener they are likely to encounter considerable opposition.

Brown's "iron men" will tackle Rhode Island state and the strong New York University eleven plays Niagara. With a weak line and only one regular, Captain Ray Barbuti, available, Syracuse opens against Hobart.

Columbia, with a backfield strengthened by the unexpected return of Hank Kumpff to college, was prepared for another hard battle with Vermont. Bethany provided the opposition for Fordham, making its first start under Major Frank Cavanaugh, formerly of Boston College coach.

CHERRY VALLEY CLUB, GARDEN CITY, N. Y., Sept. 24.—With the unexpected elimination of the two Canadian veterans, Miss Ada Mackenzie and Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser, in the semi-final round of the Women's National Golf Championship yesterday, the battle for the crown will be waged today between Miss Maureen Orcutt, of White Beeches club, New Jersey, who is just about to reach her twentieth year, and Mrs. Miriam Burns Horn, of the Millburn Country club, Kansas City, Mo., a 23-year-old smiling blonde girl.

Aside from winning district championships, neither of this pair of youthful aspirants had ever played a prominent part in a championship match of state or national dimensions until last Monday when they tied for runner-up to the medalist, Miss Mackenzie, in the qualifying round. Mrs. Horn and Miss Orcutt each scored a 78 as against Miss Mackenzie's 77, and there is no doubt as to the championship calibre of either of the two as they stand on the eve of the title round, for the motto of each has been proved by the oriel of battle.

ment directly as the power behind China's throne. In this manner Japan's sphere of influence will be extended beyond the Kwantung leased territory, where treaties give them the right of government. From this time on, a Japanese consul-general, as president of the South Manchuria railway, will be remembered that the railway, controlled by the railway, is more than a railway, controlling rich mines, prosperous manufacturing cities and millions of acres of fertile farm land. It operates schools, from kindergartens to technical universities, and establishes courts through Japan's special rights guaranteed treaty.

Colonizing Scheme
At the same time, Premier Tanaka's experts are evolving a colonization company with power equal to the South Manchuria railway, to gain further control of the rich undeveloped lands in Manchuria and Mongolia beyond the railway limits. The head of the company, too, is to be a consul-general, and will be directed in his policies by the foreign office in Tokio. It is planned to carry the fine development work accomplished in South Manchuria into North Manchuria and Mongolia.

THE HERALD'S PROGRAM: 1. Economy in city and county administration. 2. Construction of St. Johns Island.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY: MY DEFENSE AND REFUGE: The Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.

THE LANE: Some day, I think there will be people enough in Florida to pick all the blackberries.

It takes a lot of nerve to write editorials on making the City beautiful these days. Well, before this week is over we ought to know what was done with the hospital money.

"Democrats of West Endorse Al Smith," says the Times-Union. Didn't know there were any Democrats out there.

If The Herald printed all the gossip it hears, it would have to use a brand new twenty-four page press to stand the strain.

Rumor has it—and of course there may be nothing to it—that there is some wonderful poker being played these days at the Elks Club.

"Big Navy" advocates want to spend at least two hundred and fifty million on cruisers and submarines. That amount of money could do a lot for schools and hospitals in this country.

Did you notice the Tunney-Dempsey fight picture as the bottom of the sport page in The Herald Saturday night? It showed Dempsey missing a left swing which would have landed at least a foot below the belt.

Saturday President Coolidge sent a letter to Hindenburg offering condolences on the death of Gen. Maltzan, the German ambassador. Ten years ago he would have been tickled to death.

Sanford young men and women do not find it financially unwise to continue their education.

A Blessing In Disguise

Florida citizens who in recent months have viewed with some apprehension the increasing number of avowed and potential candidates for governor will find a measure of relief in a ruling of the supreme court which has decreed that members of the last legislature cannot become candidates for chief executive of Florida.

Under the supreme court's decision Senator John S. Taylor and Representative W. A. Mackenzie, who have been mentioned prominently as candidates, find themselves in a position of being unable to qualify.

While friends and supporters of these particular men may feel that the court ruling is unjust, nevertheless, it is reasonable and wise, protecting citizens of this state against any attempts of a group or combination to conspire to produce benefits for themselves.

When there are several good men seeking an office along with one or perhaps two who are undesirable, there is always that possibility that the people's very wishes may be defeated and the undesirable elected.

Already They Come

In Saturday's Herald there were at least two interviews with prominent Floridians in regard to the prospects for the coming tourist season.

And they are not alone in this opinion. The railroads are making elaborate preparations to take care of unprecedented demands for accommodations.

In the last month's issue of the Manufacturers Record more than one article bore out this theory.

To quote this publication: "During the month of July, 6,324 'out-of-state' licensed automobiles carried 26,324 tourists into Florida over the Jacksonville-St. Johns River bridge at Jacksonville.

Such information is certainly encouraging. Think of it! Over twenty-six thousand individuals coming into Florida through one gateway during the month of July.

We shall watch with interest for the report on August, September, and October, for beyond all question of doubt this number will rapidly increase until November and December will see all records shattered for winter visitors in Florida.

VOLUSIA NEXT DAYTONA BEACH NEWS-JOURNAL

Sanford has borrowed Volusia county's prosecuting officer and led the way in starting a cleanup of her banking troubles.

With similar methods and assistants, State's Attorney Joseph A. Scarlett has pledged himself to sponge the mud from Daytona Beach's sunken banks and delve to the bottom for the cause of their condition.

There is nothing inconsistent in the action of Mr. Scarlett or the governor. Mr. Scarlett seems to have remembered from the first his declaration that he would inquire quite diligently into the situation.

FEARLESSNESS FLORIDA STATE NEWS

The value of a newspaper is measured in terms of the fearlessness of its editorial policy. The paper—hewing to the line—in its battle for the people against all forms of oppression or wrong is a useful and constructive force in the community and gains even the respect of those it opposes or offends.

A vigorous newspaper exercising its rightful prerogative is the voice of the people. It speaks for them in matters which vitally concern their welfare and happiness.

Sanford young men and women do not find it financially unwise to continue their education.

Tea Ellions Surplus. For Smoking Mothers. Fought Again? Yes. Youth in Old Age.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE ended the week gaily, prices in the big speculative stocks, Steel and General Motors going up.

DR. BARBER OF Michigan says 60 in 100 babies born of mothers that smoke die before the age of two; nicotine poisoning kills them.

Years ago this writer suggested that women postpone smoking until the end of the child-bearing period. When women did not smoke or drink each child had half a chance, no matter what the father might do.

RICKARD SAYS, "THERE is a lot of money for Dempsey in the fight game yet. I will match him with a big guarantee."

One fighter, the big negro, Jack Johnson, watched that fight pensively. In his prime he could have beaten either of them, but he is black and never had much of a chance.

EDNA WALLACE HOPPER, 62 years old, looks 22 and showed a theater full of women her youth-preserving methods.

Julia Ward Howe, at 80, was as beautiful as at 18. If women would develop the inside of their skulls and let nature and time do as they will with the face and its lines, they would be happier.

WILL H. HAYS, "KING of the movies," in the Times Square theater night before, last saw Mussolini and heard him talking on the screen in New York city.

The talking picture, taken in Rome by the Fox-Case movietone, was not merely "life-like," it was life and speech, the absolutely reality.

Every Italian, every intelligent person in America will want to see that picture. You could not know Mussolini better if you went to Rome to talk with him.

THE PICTURE WITH the voice will be the picture of the future and the great industry should realize it. The voice is printed at the edge of the film, synchronization is perfect.

THE GOVERNMENT arrests Henry Sonenshine to prevent transporting pictures of the big fight from Illinois to other states. Government says such pictures are demoralizing.

What about vivid descriptions of the fight sent over the radio to 50,000,000 people. That is interstate transportation with a vengeance.

GERMAN SHIPBUILDERS promise ships that will cross in four and one-half days. They will be oil burners, extra speed will consume a terrific amount of extra fuel.

INASMUCH AS THE national government cannot see its way to establishing an air force to meet modern conditions, state governments should take the matter in their own hands to protect themselves.

Where Fear Stalks

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 26.—A mysterious poisoner, who roams the city unseen and strikes in uncanon, hidden fashion at little children, is at large in Kansas City. Mothers are having gift cany closely analyzed before they allow their children to eat it. Refreshments at parties are in many cases confined to articles that are not unwrapped from the time they are made up at the confectioners until they are ready to serve. Even fruit from trees growing in back yards is looked upon with suspicion.

Seek Crazy Woman
All of this is because someone—a woman, it is believed, mentally unbalanced by some strange hatred of children—has been going about the city trying to put into execution a wholesale poisoning scheme.

Eleven persons, most of them children, thus far have been made ill by the poison. Either because the poison doses were too small or because none of the victims ate enough to meet with serious effects, there have been no deaths. But fear grips the city.

Most of the poisonings cases have been confined to the exclusive residential district in the vicinity of 39th street and Agnes avenue. But mothers all over the city are taking precautions.

The mysterious trouble started at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rahner, where the four children found a nicely packed box of candy lying in the yard.

They ate part of it, and shortly afterward became seriously ill. A physician was called and saved their lives; then Mrs. Rahner had police analyze the candy.

In it were found poisoned grains of wheat, such as drug stores sell for the eradication of rats.

A few days later Miss Catherine Dills gave a party to her Sunday school class. During the party a messenger boy delivered a box of candy. Miss Dills, supposing that one of her guests had had the candy delivered, served it. Five girls ate of it and became very sick.

Efforts to find who sent the candy have failed.

A little later Jackie Comstock, aged 5, found a package of candy lying in his little wagon in the front yard. He ate it and became sick.

Then Mrs. R. P. Noel picked up some pears which had fallen to the ground from a pear tree in her back yard. Shortly after eating them she fell ill and had to call a doctor. Examination proved that the pears had been poisoned. How it was done and why, no one knows.

Ruth Tulper, aged 6, escaped similar trouble only because her mother had warned her not to eat any candy. The little girl found a box of chocolates in the yard of the Tulper home and took it to her mother. The mother had it analyzed and found that it had been poisoned.

In addition, some women—police believe the same one who has been distributing poisoned candy—has been trying to cause trouble in other ways.

Wives have been receiving anonymous telephone calls telling them that their husbands were out with blond stenographers. There was discord in a number of homes—until one day a woman received a call while her husband was at home with her.

The police got a number of calls

Tunney Sued

Here's Thomas M. McHale, former "social secretary" to Gene Tunney, who sued the latter for $15,000 charging breach of contract. McHale filed his suit a few days before the Tunney-Dempsey fight in Chicago.

"Lucia di Lammermoor," Martinelli, Lazzeri, Edward Johnson, Bori, Chamlee, Basiola, Rethberg, Pagi, Margery Maxwell, Yvonne Gall and Mary Lewis were among the artists heard at Ravinia this summer.

This winter in grand opera the Chicago Civic Opera company will present many of the leading artists of the world.

Mary Garden, Edith Mason, Rosa Raisa, Lenka, Pavloska, Anna Hamlin, Norena, Florence Macbeth and Monti are among the favorite women singers the company will feature in the coming season. New voices to be heard include Eleanor Elderkin, Elinor Mapp, Olga Kargau, Lucille Meul and Leone Kruse.

Among the men, Charles Hackett, beloved of Chicago especially for his singing in "Faust" last season, Rappaport, Bonelli, Rimini, Preston, Montesanto, Lamont, Tits, Schipa, Defrere, Kipinis, Mojica, Anseau and Oliveriero, all known to Chicago, have been engaged. New voices included Eugenion Sandrini and Chase Baromeo.

NEW HAVEN Conn., Sept. 26.—The motor car driver who is outside his own town and even outside his own state is the one who makes the most trouble in Connecticut, according to statistics compiled by Connecticut's motor vehicle department. Five out of six of the motorists arrested for using the ninety-foot wide Milford turnpike for a speedway and traveling up to sixty miles an hour are out-of-state folks. Two thirds of the drivers involved in holiday or weekend accidents are listed as from "out-of-town" or "out-of-state."

Incidentally a belt of highway extending from the New York state line at Port Chester, along the shore to New Haven, and northward through the center of Connecticut to Hartford gets the bulk of accidents. New Haven county gets fifty percent more accidents than any other county in the state.

School teachers in Connecticut give more years to their profession—provided they stay in it rather than use it as a stepping stone to marriage, than teachers of most states. They average thirty-eight years before they are pensioned in this state, a rate equalled by New York and Pennsylvania teachers and exceeded by those of Rhode Island and District of Columbia.

Connecticut is one of twenty-three states having a retirement system, and now has assets totaling $4,183,922 to pay pensions to 8,411 individuals. The average pension for a retired school teacher in this state is $406. Connecticut being eleventh on the list in this respect.

Motorists paid almost ten million dollars into the state's coffers in the year ending June 30, last. Registration and license fees yielded the state $3,508,238, a tax on gasoline brought $2,840,518, and the state's share of fines inflicted by the towns for violation of automobile laws came to $252,668.

Income for registration and license this year was the largest sum the state ever received from a single source. This money goes into building and maintaining roads.

Motor cars continue to put trolley cars out of the number in Connecticut. Latest to be dropped among the state's interurban electric lines is a once-popular scenic run from the "Silver City" of Meridan over the mountains to Middletown, dreaming beside the Edith Roberts and her husband, Kenneth Snook, of Los Angeles, have returned after seven months in the Fiji Islands, where they made movie subjects of the reigning cannibal king and 2000 native Australian movie interests backed the film.

Rumor Of Monopoly Of Spanish Oil Is Vigorously Denied

MADRID, Sept. 26. —(INS)—Spanish authorities today denied reports circulated in the United States and England that the Standard Oil Company and the Royal Dutch Shell Oil Company, working in harmony with the representative of the Soviet Petroleum industry, had jointly presented a bid to the Spanish government for a monopoly of the petroleum company of Spain.

This denial was issued, it was stated, to contradict reports which had appeared in American and British newspapers to the effect that the Standard and Royal Dutch Shell groups were seeking such a monopoly.

It was authoritatively stated that the Standard Oil and the Royal Dutch Shell, working in conjunction with the Compania Trans-Mediterranean presented a joint proposition which did not embody a monopoly, but relied upon state control of the industry in Spain.

However, the Soviet representative of the Russian Petroleum industry did request that his concern be granted a monopoly. This bid was presented separately though the Russian "Arnus" Bank here.

No Wedding

Wedding bells will not ring at all for W. H. Martin, 98, of Courthouse Bluffs, Ia. The bride-to-be, Mrs. Nicholas, 53, backed out at the 7 o'clock hour.

Germ Of Infantile Paralysis Is Found; Anti-Toxin Needed

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—The germ of infantile paralysis has been definitely classified thereby simplifying the task of science in its attempts to overcome the dread disease, Dr. W. L. Aycock, head of the Harvard Infantile Paralysis Commission, said today.

Dr. Aycock, one of the leaders in infantile paralysis research work, said that the main problem in combatting the disease was to find a suitable animal in connection with the manufacture of an anti-toxin.

"We cannot find a suitable animal from whose blood we may make serum to fight infantile paralysis," said Dr. Aycock. "The only animal which takes the disease and the latter's mortality is so high that it is an unsatisfactory subject. When we discover the proper animal for serum purposes, infantile paralysis will be controlled."

Dr. Aycock pointed out that somewhat similar problems confronted science when the diphtheria germ was first isolated, and finally it was found that the serum could be made from the blood of the horse.

The infantile paralysis germ is too small to be detected by the most powerful microscope, Dr. Aycock said, but its presence was proven by evidence of growth.

SERIOUS DROUGHT

MINSTER, I. hear, Faddie, they've gone dry in the village where your brother lives.

PADDIE, Dry, mon? They're parched. I just had a letter from Mike and the postage stamps was stuck on with a pin—Bawology.

TRY AND DO IT!

"I want you to sing for me in New York," said the American concert agent. "What are your terms?"

The great tenor named his fees for a series of fifty concerts, a colossal sum. The agent gasped.

"But that is three times what we pay our president!" he exclaimed.

"Well, why don't you get your president to sing for you?" was the reply. — Tid Bits.

Most of the world's jade comes from Burma.

Connecticut river of the days in Revolutionary times when it was one of the largest cities in all the land. In days when folks made the grand rounds through New England by trolley this was a favorite route. But now a forty-minute trolley ride is to be supplemented by a twenty-minute bus trip.

Not a trolley wheel has turned for months in the "Hating City" of Danbury where 40,000 people dwell. Motor buses have supplanted the trolleys so well that $5s which were left in the streets during the experimental stage of the bus operations are now being ripped out. People there insist they never want to see a trolley car again.

The New Haven railroad has connected Connecticut cities with lines as auxiliary to the steam road and even abandoned short lines in favor of buses. From York state buses are carrying Stamford to Port Chester in New York people who once rode by trolley. All in all buses are going into sparsely settled sections of the city while the large towns still have trolley with buses as feeders.

Police Are Puzzled

Thus far the police have been able to make no arrest.

Residents of the neighborhood where most of the poisonings have occurred have demanded the arrest of a certain woman living on one of their streets.

A woman who seems to be possessed by an intense dislike of children, and who drives the youngsters away whenever they wander on to her lawn.

But to date the police have nothing to connect the woman with the poisonings.

And meanwhile—the terror of the mysterious poisoner remains.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Proof of charges that the motion picture is a menace to the cultural advancement of America is claimed by enemies of screen plays, following Chicago's six days of cinema darkness because of a strike of motion picture operators.

That the city's art galleries, libraries and lecture halls were more largely patronized during the strike than ever before has been claimed. Deprived of entertainment, Chicagoans turned largely to reading and librarians report a decided increase in the number of volumes loaned during the tie-up, attackers of the cinema declare.

Radio dealers reaped a harvest during the strike. Thousands of machines were sold and investigators sent to all parts of the city by newspapers during the strike reported the movie fans in desperation dialed away the long hours in seeking entertainment.

Opponents of the screen have asserted that persons of intelligence rarely attend the movies and that had the strike endured for many weeks, movie fans, finding new joys in the library, art gallery, park and lecture hall would have ultimately been permanently weaned away from the silver sheet.

Theatre owners, however, following the suspension of the strike, reported record crowds. The followers of the stars appeared more anxious than ever to again glimpse their favorites.

Chicago's open air opera, given nightly under the trees in Ravinia, city, has just closed one of its most successful years.

During the season just ended more than sixty performances of light operas were enjoyed and in addition there were twenty-eight orchestral concerts.

"Romeo and Juliet," "La Boheme," "Faust," "Andrea Chenier," "Samson and Delilah," "L'Amore den Tre Re," "Aida," "Fra Diavolo," "A Masked Ball," "Louise," and the ever popular "Lohengrin" were produced three times each.

"Carpen," "Manon Lescaut," "Martha," "Manon," "Mignon," "Mme Butterfly," "La Navarraise," "Rigoletto," "Fedora," "La Vida Breve," "Thais," "Tosca," "Il Trovatore," and "Tales of Hoffman," were heard twice.

Single performances were given of "The Barber of Seville," and from some woman, who would not give her name, telling them that stills were being operated in the basements of certain residences. Each time the report proved false—but a great deal of inconvenience was caused.
