FBI finds bank robbery suspect in Philadelphia

The suspect in a bank rob-bery at the First Union Bank at Hunt Club Corners (SR 436 and Hunt Club Blvd) on Thursday, August 3rd is now in custody in the John E. Polk Correctional Facility (Seminole Rocky White (dob 3-14-76). He was captured August 14th

County Jail). He's iden-

Philadelphia by the FBI. A law enforcement source in Philadelphia apparently saw White with a large amount of money in his possession from the First Union Bank and notified authorities.

White has since been transferred back to Seminole County (September 6th) as a federal inunate housed at the Seminole County Jail.

On the date of the First Union Bank robbery, the suspect arrived at the bank under the county Jail. under the guise of opening a commercial account.

After sitting down in the office of a clerk who opens new accounts, the suspect lifted his shirt and showed the bank employee a large handgun that was tucked into his belt

He also showed the employee an Arm and Hammer Baking Soda box that had wires running out of the top. The box was in a leather bag the suspect car-ried into the bank. He told the employee he was pre-pared to kill her and every-one clae, and asked her to take him to the safe.

The suspect took money and made the tellers lie on the floor of the safe while he escaped.

White is also a suspect in the January 31st and March 27th hold-ups of banks in Altamonte Springs.

Lake Mary sticks with cable company

By Michelle Jerla Managing Editor

LAKE MARY -- Time Warner's presence in the city is not a monopoly, say Lake Mary officials.

With that in mind, City Commission approved on first reading a franchise agreement with Time Warner Communications. Last month, the vote on renewing the agreement was rescheduled after several residents complained about the increase in rates and alleged monopoly the cable company has in the Commission says it can't change rates; suggests satellites as an option

"I've gotten several calls about this," Commissioner Gary Brender said. "People say it is a monopoly. But, the non-exclusive agreement with the franchise means it is not a monopoly."

According to Brender, any business can come into the city and set up a cable system. However, he said he was doubtful any company would be willing to spend the money to do so.

"It would cost $5 million to $6 million to develop cable competition in the mar-ket," he said." The odds someone coming into a limited market like us and lay-ing down $5 million to $6 million are Brender said there is also competition in the market, including digital dish television and BellSouth Direct.

Last month, two residents told Commission their cable bills almost doubled following Time Warner's recent upgrades to Lake Mary's cable system. Deputy Mayor Thom Greene said he also received several calls about the increased

Atlantis takes off for space station mission

The Space Shuttle Atlantis lifts off from Launch Pad 39A at 8:45 a.m. Friday. It was the first time since 1998 the shuttle launched on echedule. The shuttle is carrying seven astronauts and more than 2 tons of cargo for a mission to stock the international space station. The crew should dock at the apace station at NASA officials expect the crew to take five days to unload supplies and prepare the space station for long-term residency. Astronauts are echeduled to man the space station in November.

Geneva woman arrested for child neglect

From Staff Reports

The Seminole County
Sheriff's Office is investigating an incident in Geneva an infant almost drown.

Just before 2 p.m. Friday, deputies were called to 1085 Tomen Point for a near drowning involving a 10-month-old boy in a bath tub.

His mother, 19-year-old Rebecca Ann Fallon, told authorities she put her child in the tub, started the water, and left him for 3 to 4 minutes. She said she returned to find the infant floating face-down and turning purple.

Fallon called 911 and received CPR instructions over the telephone. The baby began breath-

The child was transported by emergency personnel to Central Florida Regional Medical Center in Sanford, where he went into respiratory distress shortly after arriving. He was airlifted to Arnold Palmer Hospital for Women and Children in Orlando.

Investigators Steve McElya and Pete Brenenstuhl, who handie child abuse and neglect cases for the Sheriff's Office, were called in. They interviewed the child's mother and learned the tub was nearly filled to the top with water when the child was found.

"When we started BoatUS.com four years ago, our goal was to become the Internet's home port for boaters. I think it's fair to say that we are succeeding in that attempt, as more and more boaters flock BoatUS.com for everything from weather forecasts to marine bottom paint," said David Pilvelait, director of Internet Operations for BoatU.S.

BoatUS.com, recreational boaters' home port, adds new services for boaters

Special to the Herald

As the boating season got fully underway this summer, more recreational boaters spent more time online at BoatUS.com. Internet's home port for boaters, than ever before. 327,000 people visited the site in June. and they stayed for a record 22 minutes at a BoatUS.com is the Web site of BoatU.S., with 515,000 members the nation's largest organization of recreational boaters.

The most popular stop at BoatUS.com is the BoatU.S. Online Store, which has one of the largest selections of boating equipment and accessories offline.

The store recently received 4-1/2 out of 5 stars by BizRate.com, the online customer estisfaction rating site, which reported,

"Overall, the BoatU.S. Online Store has the most complete selection of products for the boater and boat-related activities that can be found anywhere (on the Webj, and at prices that are competitive."

For online shoppers who may need help at 3 a.m., the BoatUS.com online store has customer service representatives available 24 hours a day, seven days a week to answer questions and help with online ordering.

And for bargain hunters, there's a new online clearance outlet at BoatUS.com, with big savings on over-stocks, discontinued items and closeouts.

Another extremely popular site at BoatdS.com is the Clubhouse, where more than 135,000 boatera raft up cach month. They can take part in several live cha-trooms or post messages on a number of different topics, including boat repairs, fishing, travel and anchor-E Geommendations and problems with and praises for différent

By Dean Smith SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - Get your och's and ash's ready, the big boys are coming back to town.

For the fourth consecutive year the ASA/USA (Ameteur Softball Association of America/USA Softball) will bring its Men's Super Slow Pitch National Championship Tournament to Historic Sanford Memorial Stadium and local fans will again be treated to some amazing feats by the best slow pitch softball players and teams in the world.

This year's double-climination event will take place from Thursday, September 14th through Sunday, September

Last year, Chase/Team Easton from Wilmington, North Carolina came out on top, surviving a winner-take all game with top-seeded Team TPS to claim the 1999 ASA/USA Softball Men's Super Slow Pitch National Championship title.

Chase/Team Easton also claimed the second leg of the Grand Slam (NSA, ISA, ASA, USSSA) by winning the ISA championship at Winter Haven.

HOROSCOPES

Your Birthday
Saturday, Sept. 9, 2000
In the year ahead there are indications that you will be able to gain in some manner through an event engineered by another person. Stay on good terms with another person. Stay on good terms with everyone you encounter.

VIRCO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Persistence is what will pay off in spades today, but it might require some patience on your part, as well. If you feel you have a worthy objective you're pursuing, stay the course. Trying to patch up a broken rothance? LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You're in an especially favorable cycle today where friends, social contacts and family can all be relied upon. Don't be afraid to place your trust in their hands.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Shifting conditions tend to work to your ultimate advantage today and that includes even those changes in ugurated by others. No matter what, you could be the one who profits the most.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Because you're more likely today to balance all the facts and measure them against lessons you've learned in the past, you're not apt to make any faulty decisions today.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Improvements are possible today in both your usual mode of earnings and any secondary sources. Make your moves while financial aspects are trending your way.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Peb. 19) Even when it calls for you to be firm, you'll still be remarkably fair when dealing with others today. This makes you popular in both the work place and social sphere.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Just because someone turns up the heat today, it isn't likely you'll get out of the kitchen. This staying power brings you your greatest successes at this time.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Any serious matters that need to be discussed today should be done with much thought and patience. Permanent solutions can be found when reason abounds.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A hard fought victory can be scored today with long-lasting, favorable material effects, so continue to focus all your effort on just such a pursuit.

continue to focus all your effort on just such a pursuit.

GEMINI (May 21-june 20) Something to which you're exposed today can serve to your personal advantage for some time if you're are attentive and retain what you learn.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Someone who teets indebted to you may take steps, today to try to even the score a bit. This might come in way of an invitation or a gift of some kind.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A handshake or a written agreement is only as good as the intent of the parties involved. Today, chances are you'll be dealing with someone as trustworthy as yourself.

Concerned that the Heart of Florida United Way might withhold $300,000 to the Boy Scouts because the Scouts refuse to allow gay scout leaders, Book was urging citizens to contribute directly to the Boy Scouts.

Long active in civic crusades in both Seminole and Orange counties, Book made a stop in Sanford on Thursday to get more people involved in what he calls a "very serious" mission. In the past Book has protested abortion clinics and crusaded against Seminole County's adult entertainment businesses

"The Supreme Court ruled in favor of the Boy Scouts," Book said. "Now we get what amounts to a subtle form of extortion from United Way. We want all concerned citizens to contact the Heart of Florida United Way. We want them to

'Laetare' means rejoicing with heavenly gifts

By Russ White Staff Writer

SANFORD — There are rosaries, medals, statues, holy cards, crucifixes, books, Bibles, candles, CDs, tapes, white gloves for bell ringers and scores of angels at a heavenly shop just off Sanford a Magnolia Square.

It is named Lactare, a Latin word that means to rejoice or be joyful. One priest said, joyfully, Lactare Sunday during the Lenten season is so named because most of Lent is over. "It's a kick up your heels kind of rejoicing," he said. Lactare — was begun three years ago by Dolores Romano who says she feels her religious goods shop came from a calling from God.

"We look at this as a mission rather than a business."

Romano said. "We aren't here to make money. We hope to provide inspiration and bring joy to our clients."

Romano is joined at Lactare each day by her widowed mother, Pam Fortunato. They came to Central Florida from Long Island, N.Y.

There's religious music playing from the business office near the sales desk. It may be from chanting monks or singing nuns. The two women are Catholics, parishioners at All Souls Church in Sanford, The shop includes gifts for those who may not be

Pam Fortunato said the shop is busiest before Christmas and whenever there are First Communion celebrations. "Mary is the most popular of our statues, medals, holy cards," she said. "Many, many people make daily devotions to Mary. If they can't find what they want, we order it for

Fortunato said many who visit the shop are taken by the "Laughing Jesus" holy cards and pictures at Lactare. "One of the priests at All Souls -Father Al — gives the holy cards to children."

Recently, Fortunato said she bought a St. Lucy medal for her nephew who was undergoing eye surgery. "St. Lucy is the patron saint for eye doc-tors," she said.

"We have people who say they can't leave, that they are so comfortable in the store," Romano said. "We have a reading area in the side room. It's almost like a chapel."

The young woman who appeared recently on the loday" show was understandably nervous. Several days before, while dusting under the bed in her Manhattan apartment, she felt something

At first, she thought it was a piece of that bubble-like, plastic wrapping material. But when she stuck her hand further under the bed, she pulled out the skin of a six-foot boa constrictor. She hadn't been in the bedroom, or even in the apartment, since.

If I'd had a chance to talk to this woman, I would have told her that there was no cause for alithm. I am not that there was no cause for alithm. I am not thinked for postering exceptional collings, but I once wrapped a she foot boa constrictor around my neck.

While some snakes are poisonous and dangerous, many — like my friend Vicki — are gen-tie and make good pets. Vicki's handler at the zoo maintains that serpents have been unfairly depicted as loathsome creatures ever since the days of Adam and Eve, when a serpent was said to have tempted Eve to sin in the Garden of Today, in parts of the South, there are snake religions. The trick is to test your faith by proving the truth of the Bible passage (Mark 16:18) that quotes Jesus as saying, "They shall take up scrpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them."

The snake cults got their start in the early 1930 in Kentucky, when a self-ordained preacher named K.D. Browning began teaching that those who had faith could pick up serpents and not be hurt — even if they were

People came trekking to his church (a converted pool hall) across 10 to 15 miles of mountain paths. They would bring baskets of food for meetings that lasted well into the night,
The wooded hillsides would resound with shouting, hand clapping and singing. When the crowd got sufficiently worked up, boxes of snakes were brought into the church and placed on a table in front of the fanatical, jerking cultists.

The people wound the snakes around their necks and tossed them to each other. Some took off their shoes and tread on the snakes barefooted. When snake handling lost its thrill, the worshippers resorted to drinking strychnine.

Why did Jesus tell his followers they could pick up snakes with impunity and drink poison without harming themselves?
Most scholars doubt he ever said the words attributed to him in Mark's Gospel. They contend that these words were added years later, when the Christian Church was undergoing perse-

Many scholars believe that the snake-poison passage was inserted to give courage to the persecuted Christians of the first century. It would assure them that their faith would make them immune to all harm.

Ever since early Biblical times, the serpent has been asso-ciated with Satan and thought to be half demonic. If Christians could pick up snakes and not be hurt, this would be proof of a certain power over demonic forces and add new converts to the Christian religion.

With the snake handlers of Appalachia today, the screent is devil to be overcome. The rituals are warm-ups for the day Christians will have to meet "the big devil."

As one snake handler says,
"How are you going to overcome a big devil if you can't overcome a little snake?"

Myeloma is a progressive disorder

HI LO W HI LO W

DEAR DR. GOTT: My father, age 57, has just been diagnosed with myeloma. What can he look for in the future?

DEAR READER: Multiple myeloma is a progressive blood cancer that affects plasma cells, a blood element vital to the manufacture of proteins that help combat infection. In most cases, plasma cells - lably and produce excessive amounts of abnormal immunoglobulin protein. As these cells proliferate, they eat away sections of bone, leading to spotty areas of weakened bone that cause pain. As the levels of immunoglobulins rise, the proteins poison the kidneys. Thus, myeloma inevitably causes kidney damage and eventual renal failure. This may,

Dr. Peter Gott

(because the over-abundant plasma cells crowd out the red corpuscles), susceptibility to infection (due to disordered protein production), enlargement of the liver and spicen, excess blood calcium levels (secondary to bone destruction), weakness, malaise, and fatigue.

The diagnosis is made by bone-marrow examination and special protein analysis of urine and blood.

Early ("indolent") myeloma does not require treatment. However, as the disorder progresses, chemotherapy - with drugs such as prednisone and cyclophosphamide - may be necessary to retard the uncontrolled growth of plasma cells. With treatment, most myeloma patients can lead comfortable, independent lives for years.

DEAR DR. GOTT: After suffering for months with intestinal gas and frequent diarrhea, I was hospitalized for a painful twisted intestine. Fortunately, I did not need surgery. My doctor indicated that the condition could return (because there is no therapy for it) but that tests showed I had no cancer. Should I see a specialist? I'm worried.

DEAR READER: Yes, you should. Torsion (twisting) of the bowel is an unusual and serious affliction that causes severe abdominal cramping. If the torsion doesn't resolve with medical therapy, surgery may be necessary.

However, I gather from your question that the cause of your bloating and diarrhea is not yet clear. You could, for example, be suffering from irritable bowel syndrome or, worse, excessive peristalsis — a condition marked by over-active intestinal spasms, leading to gas, diarrhea and (sometimes) bowel torsion. If your intestinal contractions are especially forceful, they could put you at risk for another attack of torsion, as well as cause other problems, such as maldigestion. By diagnosing and treating the cause of your be able to relieve your symptoms and remove your apprehension about the future. To give you related information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "Irritable Bowel Syndrome." Other readers who would like a copy should send $2 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2017, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10156. Be sure to mention the title.

Generous praise gives kids the confidence to be winners

DEAR ABBY: I am a teacher with more than 25 years invested in the lives of young people. You stress that parents need to provide their children ..... with sex education because this is what will help them the most to make informed choices. May 1 present some pearls of wisdom from my experience and observations in working with youth?

Do all that you possibly can to help your children feel successful. Be their greatest Abby fans. Encourage them to participate in activities that challenge and enrich them. Be generous with praise, both for efforts and accomplishments. Take time to write them special notes and look for cards to give them that contain messages of love and pride. (I still treasure the note my mother wrote to me when she felt she had neglected to acknowledge my hardworking efforts.) Do things together. Hug them. Hug them again. The care and effort you extend to your children, in helping them build strong self-esteem, will generate huge dividends in the form of and young adults.

1 can still hear my 30-yearold nepnew telling us that as a child he always felt like a "good person" because we always told them what good healthy, wholesome choices

when they become teen-agers kids they were. He became a

STILL TEACHING AND TELLING THEM THEY'RE TERRIFIC

> DEAR STILL TEACHING: Thank you for a terrific letter. I hope parents will take your message to heart. I was touched by the notepaper upon which your letter was written. Printed on it was: "GOALS. No one can predict to what heights you can soar until you spread your wings." How

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I both have full-time jobs. Whenever I suggest that he help out more, his reply is always, "I do what I can."

Abby, if I had that attitude, our dog would be five years dead and the two cats multiplied to 400. The roof would have caved in on all the dust bunnies, a sink of dirty dishes and matching orange crates. Food in the refrigerator would be green and moldy with no way to cook it because of a broken stove. Utility companies would have turned off the power (but we'd still get a breeze through the broken window). Children's services would have arrested us for neglect, I'd still be wearing my college wardrobe, and my smile would reveal no teeth.

I've decided to throw myself a party. I'm inviting the veterinarian, roofer, appliance salesman, landscaper, but not my husband. He is finally going to have to do something — like call an attorney. Sadly, however, he won't be left regretting his lack of familial duty. His mother will rescue her "baby boy"

Women: Take a lesson from someone who's been there. Find out just what it is he CAN do before buying a wedding dress!

FINALLY FREE

DEAR FINALLY FREE: I am reminded of that old song, "It's So Nice to Have a Man Around the House." I'm sorry that yours failed to live up to your expectations.

In fairness, women should not automatically expect men to fix a roof (or a cat). However, if necessary, they should be able to call someone who can, and schedule an appointment.

Abby shares her favorite recipes in two booklets: 'Abby's Favorite Recipes" and "Abby's More Favorite Recipes."
