Daylily Is Popular

By DAVID DeVOLL
The daylily is the most popular herbaceous perennial in Florida — probably because it can be grown in all parts of the state.
Of course, this wide adaptability is not the only reason for popularity. Daylilies are good landscaping plants, survive with a minimum of care, and have no serious insect or disease problems.

These characteristics are very beneficial for the casual gardener, but daylilies also offer many interesting challenges for the more serious and avid hobbyist. In the case of the average homeowner, propagation from seeds is relatively simple. Germination generally requires from 10 days to two weeks. Freshly harvested seed should be planted in flats or pots of sterilized sandy soil and covered with an eighth to quarter-inch of sifted soil.

It's A Small World

By FRANK JASA
County Agricultural Agent
If all the land used for farming in the United States were divided equally among U. S. families, what would be your family's share?

The answer is slightly more than 27 1/3 acres. To the city dweller or suburbanite, this would seem like room to roam. But the average farmer, accustomed to more than 383 acres, might feel a bit cramped.

About 22 of your 27 1/2 acres would be actually in your farm. A little less than nine acres of your farm would be cropland, nearly 10 would be pasture, grassland, or range. You also would have about 1 1/2 acres of woodland which you use for grazing, and 1 1/2 acres in farmstead, roads and non-farm uses.

In addition to land in your own farm, you would run livestock on about 5 1/2 acres of land rented or leased from the government. About half would be grassland, pasture and rhizome between each of the fans, and leaves should be cut back to within 4 to 6 inches of the crown. Broken roots should be trimmed off before replanting. The best time for dividing is right after flowering.

While daylilies are relatively easy to propagate and care for, the fact that they may remain in one place for from five to ten years demands careful preparation of the plant bed.

range, and the rest would be woodlands — mostly lands administered by the Forest Service.

Although your farm contains nearly 9 acres of cropland, you planted less than six acres to crop in 1970. The rest of it was in fallow, held out of production under government programs, or idle for one reason or another. You had nearly 3 1/4 acres in grain, over half of which were corn and wheat. You had over an acre in hay, and a soybean field of eight-tenths of an acre. Most other crops were on garden-sized plots.

Your herds and flocks present some puzzling biological problems. You had only one-fourth of a dairy cow but she managed to produce 2267 pounds of milk in the year. The beef cattle herd of 1.8 head dropped three-fourths of a calf, while your lone hog had a litter of 2 pigs. Only four-tenths of a sheep roamed your pasture.

Big Bicycle Race Is Set For Sunday At Airport

A 30-mile bike race and bike rodeo will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Sanford Airport under the sponsorship of the Sanford Optimist Club.

Optimist boys work chairman Gary Harrington said contestants between the ages of 7-15 will be eligible to compete and trophies will be awarded at various age levels and types of competition.

Harrington also advised that a "pick-up" service would be offered to contestants taking part in the race and rodeo.

These pickup points are Pinecrest Shopping Center, Lake Mary School and Faust Drug at First Street and Sanford Avenue, and contestants are requested to be at one of these places Sunday before race time.

Other information may be obtained by calling Harrington anytime before 4:30 p.m. at 323-0360.

Bicycle inspections have been going on at area schools this week and Harrington said all bikes taking part in the race must first pass Optimist Club inspection.

The Sunday bike activities are a part of the "Bike Safety Week" as proclaimed by Sanford Mayor Lee P. Moore and is being stressed by the Optimists as a safety on the streets and highways project.

President Silent In Calley Review

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)—President Nixon has made no move to speed military review of the life sentence given Lt. William L. Calley Jr. for murdering 22 civilians at My Lai, aides said today.

They reported the chief executive, who twice last week intervened in the Calley case, believed the review should proceed through normal channels at its deliberate pace.

At the same time, the sources said, Nixon would have no objection if the Pentagon expedited the process through such mechanical acts as providing additional stenographers to prepare the full court-martial record. It must be completed before the case can reach the first level of review—by legal officers at Ft. Benning, Ga., where Calley was tried.

John D. Ehrlichman, a top Nixon assistant, told newsmen Saturday that completing the trial record was expected to take 30 to 60 days. He declined to speculate on how many months would be involved in completing the full review.

Nixon announced Saturday he would review and act on the Calley case once it was moved through the full military review.

Calley could be declared innocent and his sentence set aside at any point in the multilevel process, which would end the matter before it reached Nixon's desk.

On Thursday, Nixon first intervened on Calley's behalf, ordering that he be released from the stockade at Ft. Benning and kept under guard at his base apartment, retaining freedom to move about the post until his fate is decided.

Bulletin

The Sanford Police Department was called to the scene of an armed robbery shortly before noon today when two colored males, armed, robbed a deliverman at the Ninth Street Tavern in Sanford.

Subjects were last seen heading east from the area, on foot and were described as approximately 6'7", slender build, and one wearing a red bandana over his head.

The other male was seen to be wearing a yellow sweater. No one was harmed in the robbery and the police advised that the amount of money stolen was unknown at The Herald's press time.

The police were continuing the investigation.

12 Jailed In Drug Raids

By BILL SCOTT
Sheriff's vice squad agents struck a heavy weekend blow against county drug activities with 12 arrests on 46 total charges on Friday night, Saturday and Sunday raids.

Striking without warning, the force, armed with warrants issued by Judge Roger Dykes and based on undercover information obtained after months of intensive investigative work, moved into all county areas in a roundup of persons suspected of being implicated in the sale or possession of either marijuana, cocaine, heroin and barbiturates.

Bonds ranging from $3,000 to upwards of $15,000 were listed for the suspects, depending upon the number of counts and the seriousness of the charges.

Three juveniles, including a 15-year-old alleged "dealer," were included in the dragnet that spread like a tight web over Seminole County in an effort by Sheriff John Polk to knockout the county drug problem.

Arrested on four counts each of sale and possession of narcotic drugs were Jerry Herndon, 20, of 2307 Yale Avenue, Sanford; Gary Adair, 18, of 1819 Paloma Avenue, Sanford, and Mike Kanady, 23, of 1416 Wayman Avenue, Longwood.

Four persons, including a 16-year-old youth and a 19-year-old female, were charged in three counts sale and possession of narcotic drugs. They included: Ronald Glen Stevens, 18, Sixth Street, Sanford; Pamela F. Sergeant, 114 West First Street, Sanford; Eddie Carl Schweickert, 18 Lake Mary, and the juvenile.

Arrested on two counts each of sale and possession of narcotic drugs were Michael T. Tatum, 21, of 512 West Second Street, Sanford, and a 16-year-old juvenile who was apprehended at an all-night Sanford restaurant used as a teenage hangout and from where Sheriff John Polk said many undercover buys were made from youths by investigators.

A 15-year-old juvenile from Mobile Manor in Longwood was called a "dealer" by one of the arresting officers who apprehended the youth from a sound sleep early Saturday on a single count of possession and sale of narcotics.

Two others, Gabriella J. Jones, 19, of 1830 Hawkins Avenue, Sanford, and Larry Barchard Poole, 30, of 3351 Orlando Drive, Sanford, also were booked on single charges of sale and possession of narcotic drugs.

Light Agenda Slated County Eyes Billboards

By MARION BETHA
The controversial matter of billboards on I-4, in which a meeting was held with representatives of the industry, will receive the attention of County Commission tomorrow when County Attorney Harold Johnson will give a report upon the removal of billboard poles on the interstate highway.

Johnson is also to give a report upon the designation schedule for the third bond fund depository. Last week the commission accepted the low bid of 5.12306 per cent on the general obligation bond for the county parks acquisition, the juvenile detention facility and mental health facility. The bonds will be sold in two separate series in a single issue to pay the costs of the above facilities.

Chairman Greg Drummond will report upon the attendance records of the various county advisory committees. These include the historical committee, agricultural committee, highway safety committee, emergency resources management committee, water control and conservation advisory committee and others. Drummond has given much impetus to attendance at these meetings by his attendance and direction.

Drummond also will give a report upon county boat ramp additions.

County Engineer William Bush will report relative to the presentation of Wekiva Springs Road right-of-way deed. Zoning Director Robert Brown will give two reports to the commission. One will outline zoning violation inspector costs. The other is a prepared ordinance which will govern residential trash and debris.

New Council Will Sit Tonite At N. Orlando

NORTH ORLANDO—Newly elected Mayor Granville Brown, as well as other officials elected in the March 16 elections, will be sworn in at a 7:30 meeting of Village Council tonight.

Prior to the ceremonies, there will be a reorganizational meeting, at which time reports will be heard from various committees.

Action will be discussed upon three requested zoning changes, three requested zoning changes, held last Monday. These include a requested change by Councilman Charles Kelley at a trailer park located south of SR 434, from R-T to C-2. The change is being initiated due to the fact that the developers failed to commence construction within the six months allotted time.

The other two changes were requested by Florida Land Company, developers in the area, from R-U to R-T on property located at SR 419 and Tuska-willa Road and from R-1 to R-11 on Ranchlands property. The latter request has received opposition from a resident of the area. John Van Espoo, who bases his objections relative to restrictive covenants.

During the regular session, Mayor Brown will make new committee appointments from among the council, and will also make administrative appointments. These include municipal judge, clerk, and building inspector.

Geneva's School Will Be Continued

By LIZ MATHEUX

GENEVA — School Supt. John Angel and School Board Chairman A. L. Keeth appeared before a gathering of concerned parents and teachers at a meeting of the Geneva School Parent-Teacher Organization.

Even though Geneva is classified as a C-5 status by the state, which means that it is ineligible for state construction funds, county funds could be utilized wherever they were available — Keeth assured the people that "this school for all practical purposes will not be closed."

Angela and Keeth assured the PTO that the "opening of the Geneva School in September is definitely in the present school plans and that the people of Geneva are uniformly alarmed by persistent false rumors."

DOROTHY WRIGHT, 26-year-old Sanford woman, was killed Sunday afternoon when the small foreign car traveling Old Geneva Road, about a mile north of SR 46, skidded on the dirt road and flipped over into the ditch.

Guilty Conscience

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—Three bent garbage cans and a cardboard box caused a minor panic in a residential neighborhood at 7 p.m. until police took care of the situation.

The garbage cans were in the middle of the street with the box tied to them. Fearing a bomb booby-trap, residents called police, who cautiously approached the cans and opened the box. Inside was $6 and a note saying it was to pay for the damage a motorist had caused to the cans.

Keeth explained the functioning of the state survey teams and he also reminded the parents that they had no cause for alarm and that other than the time when "HEW was breathing down our necks" that he did not know of an instance when the school board considered closing the present facility.

FTU Library Expanded

Uncommon dedication to the task at hand is not an uncommon virtue on the growing campus of Florida Tech. University.

In recent days, members of the FTU library staff have demonstrated this "extra something" and even more as they moved into badly-needed expansion quarters.

This eager group of Florida Tech employees rolled up their sleeves and moved 50 tons of books and equipment — themselves. This total included, among other things, 2,700 current periodicals and serials, 45,000 books, numerous desks, tables, chairs, and shelves.

The new physical arrangement in the library now places the circulation desk on the first floor of the massive FTU library building; the reference department now occupies the third floor with the offices of the technical services division. The fourth floor has become a large study area with open access to the general book collection now located there.

As a result of their hard work over the past several days, over 500 seats will now be available to the student for study research purposes. This more than doubles the former library area.

According to Lynn W. Walker, director of FTU libraries, the expansion move signals "only the beginning" of planned expansion of library services that will see the entire building devoted to instructional materials and the people who use them within the next three years.

The FTU book collection now numbers approximately 100,000 volumes and will be increased by 25,000 to 40,000 volumes each year. "Since the library is the center of academic activity on campus, students will find our expanded facilities much more conducive to research and study," said Walker.

According to Walker, the esprit de corps could not be expected as the library staff rolled up its sleeves and with the help of 10 student assistants accomplished the library expansion in a week's time. "One student discovered gravelly, noted Walker, and it cost him three stitches in the back of his head. Aside from that, the only injuries were pinched fingers, broken finger nails, sore backs and aching feet."

Are such acts described here considered unusual for FTU faculty, staff, or students? Not on your life. And particularly among members of the highly professional staff of the growing FTU Library.

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Gov. James B. Askew, secretary of Health and Rehabilitation Services, has recommended that Gov. Ronal Askew fire at least 14 Ralston Prison guards and temporarily suspend four prison administrators, the Palm Beach Post reported in Sunday's editions.

The men Askew recommends firing are those who took part in a systematic "interrogation" of 80 prisoners from the prison's Main Unit punitive segregation cells.

In a copyrighted story by staff writer Kent Pollock, the Post said the recommendations are included in a report on the institution's February disturbances.

Director Louis Wainwright, Askew submitted to the governor Friday in answer to a report by the institution's Main Unit punitive segregation cells.

Although the report has not been released publicly, the Post has learned. Askew recommends suspending R. V. Turner, assistant main unit superintendent; R. P. McLaughlin, prison inspector and investigator; Maj. I. C. McKenzie, chief custodial officer, and Don Hassard, prison superintendent.

Bax asks that the men be suspended pending further investigation into the disturbances which left about 70 inmates injured—some by gunfire and others by beatings, the Post said. Hassard already has been transferred from Ralston and is currently taking an extended sick leave.

Solons To Hear Askew

By BARBARA FRYE

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Reubin Askew is expected to bear down hard on Florida's fiscal emergency when he addresses the opening of the state legislature's regular 1971 session at noon Tuesday.

The governor spent the week-end shepherding his speech for the joint session of Senate and House. Aides said he would stress the urgency of an early vote on his proposal for a tax on corporate profits to raise $175 million in revenues to meet the fiscal crisis.

A special session of the legislature earlier this year put off statewide balancing of the corporate income tax amendment until 1972.

House Speaker Richard Petti-grew hopes to get the required three-fourths vote of House members on the measure before April 15. He considers this the deadline for getting the amendment to the state constitution on the ballot in time to bring in tax revenue this year, if approved by the voters.

Press Secretary Don Price said Askew has been encouraged by recent signs that the corporate tax amendment will fare better in the House this time than in the special session.

The governor has detected breaks in the business community's former all-out opposition to putting the matter to a vote of the people this year. Price said, and support has come from the Florida Education Association representing teachers and from the League of Women Voters.

Price said Askew's speech will include some new ideas in the area of criminal justice, but will be composed mainly of a pulling together of various proposals the governor has outlined since he took office in January. Both chambers convene at 9 a. m. Tuesday, hear the govern-

Reapportionment Goes To Court Today

MIAMI (UPI)—A suit that could plunge the state legislature into an immediate reapportionment battle goes before Federal District Judge Joe Eaton today, on the eve of the opening of the regular 1971 session.

The action was filed March 23 by Broward County residents Arthur H. Rude and Emille C. Shaw. It charges that the legislature is "malapportioned" in terms of the 1970 U. S. Census and asks for an interlocutory injunction to prevent the body from enacting any other law until it reapportions its membership to meet the "one man, one vote" principle.

Legislative leaders have expressed confidence the courts will not permit the session to become bogged down in reapportionment and expensive special elections, which could interfere with vital legislation including the July 1 deadline for enacting a new budget.

State Attorney General Robert W. Stevin planned to represent the legislature at the 5 p.m. hearing before Judge Eaton today, fighting the injunction on the grounds of the fiscal crisis it would trigger and the expense of holding special elections.

The suit contends that ideally, every state senator should represent 141,426 citizens and every House member 57,846. It says the present apportionment based on the 1960 Census has one senator for every 177,682 persons and one House member for every 77,415. The suit asks for a three-judge federal panel to decide the issue.

Stevin was expected to argue that logic and the Florida Constitution call for reapportionment to take place next year, with the seats being filled in the 1972 general election, which is the first regular election following the 1970 Census.

Indeed, Stevin already has ruled that the legislature is forbidden by the state constitution from enacting reapportionment laws until next year, although he told the legislators they could prepare the plan this year.

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—Skiirmishing is reported continuing around rebellious West Pakistan as growing resistance forces harass West Pakistan army patrols, and mounting supply problems beset the Army.

Under strong pressure to provide material aid to the independence fighters, India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi rejected demands to supply arms. But her ruling Congress party gave the freedom movement is complete moral backing.

Newsmen returning from wide areas of the neighboring provinces said roads were badly cut and Pakistani army patrols were denied freedom to move at will. Denied resistance fighters, though poorly armed, harassed small units of the West Pakistani troops, and only the larger garrisons were free from attack.

Using hit and run tactics to keep government forces at bay, the Bengali independence forces were reported maintaining pressure on West Pakistani troops while the rebels at the same time are training and organizing.

Informants said many young Indian Bengalis from Calcutta, experienced in political terrorism, have crossed the border to instruct the East Bengalis in making homemade bombs. The bombs are filled with small metal particles, use potassium chlorate detonators and are often effective.

East Pakistanis often block roads with trees or dig craters to prevent West Pakistani soldiers from getting supplies.

There will be a discussion of Unit 3, North Orlando Township, in addition. Mutual police assistance within the area municipalities will receive the consideration of council.

There will be a discussion of the ordinance for planned unit development (PUD) which has been requested by Florida Land Company. The ordinance plans to utilize the concept in Garden Apartments, single unit housing and detached housing.

Also upon the agenda is a discussion of Unit 3, North Orlando Township, in addition. Mutual police assistance within the area municipalities will receive the consideration of council.

Legislature Asked To OK Plea For Lt. Calley

Executive clemency for Lt. William Calley Jr., convicted in the My Lai massacre, by President Nixon will be requested by the Florida Legislature if it approves a resolution which will be introduced Tuesday in the State House of Representatives by Rep. William Gibson, of the Seminole-Orange County legislative delegation. The resolution follows:

House Concurrent Resolution No. . . .

A resolution requesting President Richard M. Nixon to grant executive clemency to Lieutenant William Calley, Jr.

WHEREAS, Lieutenant William Calley, Jr., United States Army fought courageously and well for America on numerous battlefields other than My Lai; and

WHEREAS, thousands of America's finest have given their lives in the defense of freedom for the people of South Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, the conventional roles of warfare have been generally disregarded throughout this tragic struggle to maintain South Vietnam's independence, and our beleaguered troops have been unjustly provoked by civilian partisans, female and juvenile, who repeatedly abandoned the traditional noncombatant role to treacherously assassinate their would be benefactors.

Casualty Figures Are Questioned Comms Attack Post Fifth Day, Repulsed

WORKHORSES and more often than not war horses of the Lantian campaign, helicopters are the vital link in the supply chain and frequently in the thick of actual fighting. Two choppers come in for a landing at a fire support base Ham Ngh.

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—North Vietnamese troops attacked a remote government outpost in the central highlands for the fifth straight day but once again were thrown back with heavy losses, South Vietnamese sources reported.

The sources claimed 267 of the enemy were killed in the assault Sunday on Fire Base 6 in the region 300 miles north of Saigon. Government losses were put at two killed and 20 wounded.

Most of the enemy casualties were inflicted by heavy artillery strikes and artillery that have pounded the area constantly since fighting broke out three early Wednesday. U.S. 132 bombers have dropped more than 100 tons of explosives around the base, trying to blunt the North Vietnamese assault.

The North Vietnamese overtook the base, while government forces, including a South Vietnamese battalion, but government forces recaptured it the next day.

South Vietnamese military sources said more than 1,800 North Vietnamese have been killed in the fighting for the artillery base, while government casualties total 70 killed and 124 wounded. Five Americans also have been killed and one is missing.

Some military observers question the casualty figures.

Israel Nixes Egypt Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ISRAELI Premier Golda Meir has rejected Egypt's offer to reopen the Suez Canal in exchange for an Israeli withdrawal from the banks of the waterway. She also reiterated her government's determination to retain the Gola Heights, Sharm el Sheikh, the Gaza Strip and the Arab sector of Jerusalem.

Addressing a national conference of her ruling Labor party Sunday night, Mrs. Meir avoided stating specific terms for reopening the waterway but repeated her offer Feb. 9 to hold talks with the Egyptians on arrangements to reopen the canal.

Sources close to the Israeli Cabinet said Jerusalem might once again put forward Defense Minister Moshe Dayan's proposal for both Israeli and Egyptian forces to pull back from the canal in conjunction with its reopening.

Sadat's proposal called for only the Israelis to withdraw, with Egyptian troops replacing them on the east bank of the canal.

Saying that April "is the month which shall decide between a solution and war," Sadat warned Israel to make a prompt reply to his proposal to risk renewed fighting.

Mrs. Meir told her party: "Anyone who proposes Israel's agreement to the opening of the canal as a lever to obtain total Israeli withdrawal from Sinai is an enemy of the State of Israel." She repeated Israel's demands for a formal peace treaty guaranteeing secure borders.

Others prior to any troop withdrawal. The U.S. Command reported that enemy sappers broke through the perimeter of the old U.S. 8th Infantry Division base at Camp Radcliff, killed two Americans, wounded two and damaged 10 vehicles.

3 Escapees Captured In Local Restaurant

By Roger Bollen

Four juvenile females, three escapees from the Ocala State Girl's School, were apprehended Sunday by Sanford Det. William Foster at a local eatery.

Det. Foster said he arrested the girls after they had slipped away from Ocala Sunday and made their way to Sanford, home of one 18-year-old just sentenced last week for drug violations.

A 18-year-old was in the company with the escapees and she was released to juvenile authorities.

The detective stated he had a tip the trio was hiding at a local hamburger place.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband never empties his pockets when he changes, and as a result he has retained two of his watches and neglected important papers that were in his wallet and ended up in my washer.

HE says I should always look through the pockets before putting anything in the machine. I say, he should have enough common sense to take care of his personal belongings, and if he is so careless and stupid as to leave things in his pockets, it's not my fault who is correct.

DEAR JUST: Not you, Lady. DEAR ABBY: Five months ago, when we got married, I was already pregnant, but we were in love and the term "have to" never entered our minds.

I am only two months from delivery now, and my mother-in-law has decided that she shouldn't send out any birth announcements either.

ABBY, my husband and I are very happy over the birth of our first child and don't see why we can't proudly tell the world about our baby when it comes.

I know most parents are busy, but if they would just sit down and write a letter every few weeks, or even a postcard, it would give me a great deal of pleasure.

DEAR ABBY: My husband never empties his pockets when he changes, and as a result he has retained two of his watches and neglected important papers that were in his wallet and ended up in my washer.

Horoscope Forecast

TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1971
GENERAL TENDENCIES: During the daytime you are able to get much of value accomplished that has to do with routines and activities of everyday life. It is an ideal time to communicate your practical ambitions to others. The evening finds most everyone with questionable judgment and apt to act too hastily, so take it easy and doublecheck all plans.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19)
 Ideal day to get much accomplished whether at home or in business affairs. You have a chance to be active in the evening where the social is concerned. Take time to improve health. Go to bed earlier than usual.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20)
 Ideal day for getting appearance at its best, then attend to social matters that please you most. Show some particular thoughtfulness to mate. Relax tonight.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)
 Putting whatever is not right back in condition, whether at home or in business, is wise. Use new appliances to assist you in this. Steer clear of serious arguments with associates.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)
 Making improvements in business or home is good in the morning. Listen to the good ideas which associates have to offer. Take the time to improve vitality.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21)
 See how to improve the appearance of surroundings during the day. Amusements are important to you tonight, but you must use care in travel. Listen to what a business expert has to suggest. Don't be extravagant.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22)
 Show that you are clever in gaining personal aims during the day, but don't start any arguments at home in the evening. Go out and meet interesting and fascinating people. Communicate.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
 You can work on a new project today that can assist you in gaining a cherished desire you have. Use care in travel and avoid trouble. Try not to be sarcastic with one you love.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
 Talk over with a good friend a project you have in mind; then work on details tonight. Avoid the social at this time. Working on personal aims brings fine results.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
 You want to become more successful and your best method for doing so is to confer with influential persons you know. Take no risks in the evening. A civic affair is best handling.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)
 You are able to start new projects and modes of operation during the day. Then take inventory of your progress tonight. Catch up with correspondence. Plan a little trip, too.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)
 Start clearing up old responsibilities so the way is clear for bigger and better activities to come. Listening to what mate to come. Listening to what mate to come. Listening to what mate to come.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20)
 If you listen carefully to what associates have to say, you come to a meeting of minds that is desirable now. Show that you approve of them and you pave the way for more success early in life. Upon reaching middle age there is the desire to take it easy and move slowly and deliberately. Any profession that has much detail connected with the work is good, since your child is a stickler for such. A fine family member here. Give right religious training.

"The stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Vaccine Now Available To Ward Off German Measles

by JANE CASSELLBERRY
Seminole County health department and the State Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services are mounting their forces as part of massive nationwide effort against an unseen foe... the measles, commonly known as German measles or "three-day measles."

Some 64,000 families in the United States bear the physical and emotional scars from the last major epidemic of rubella which occurred in 1964-65. Children born to mothers who contracted the disease during the early months of pregnancy in thousands of cases are afflicted with damage to their ears, eyes, heart or brain and many others died. This means untold human tragedy and monumental costs in dollars to individual families and the public. In an effort to avert recurrence of this tragedy, free immunization is being administered by the health department teams of nurses in elementary schools and county clinics to preschoolers as well as kindergarten through fifth grade, during the week of April 12.

All children must be immunized if the spread of German measles from children to their mothers is to be prevented. Those who prefer may obtain the vaccine from their family doctor. This is not the same as "the regular measles shot" as rubella vaccine has been available only since June, 1969. Immunization will not be given without the signed consent of parent or legal guardian.

Parents of children who have a chronic illness or who are allergic to eggs, feathers, dogs, dog dander, rabbits, or penicillin should contact their doctor first.

Schedule for immunization at county clinics is as follows for preschool children: Monday, April 12-Lake Monroe and Oviedo, 4-8 p. m., Tuesday, Midway, and Sanford Clinics, 4-6 p. m.; Wednesday, Longwood and Sanford Clinics, 4-6 p. m.

Orange County School Board Votes; Edgewater Not To Forfeit Games

by GARY TAYLOR
HERALD SPORTS EDITOR

ORLANDO—A motion that the school board of Orange County direct Mr. Kent to pay the fine and the expenses as assessed; that the school board of Orange County direct Mr. Kent to forfeit no games and take no voluntary action that would penalize either Donnie Evans or Edgewater High School outside the by-laws of the Florida High School Activities Association; and if punitive action is attempted or taken against Mr. Kent or Edgewater High School on the basis of this direction of the school board of Orange County, that injunctive relief be sought in the courts and that this injunctive relief be followed by whatever action is deemed necessary and proper by the school board's attorneys to prevent "manufactured and willed by-laws" which do not exist in the Florida High School Activities Association manual from being inflicted against Mr. Kent at Edgewater High School."

That was the motion made by school board member Lee K. Davies and passed by the Orange County School Board at a special meeting called Friday afternoon.

It came after some heated arguments between board members. William Larue, vice-chairman of the board was the only person to cast a "no" vote. Larue stated, "The rules are there and we have to enforce them." He argued, "The presence has been set, now we're to change it. I think some changes need to be made, but I don't think this is the way."

Larue, a few commented, "I think we're just blind lucky we haven't had more cases than this with all the excuses and court orders to keep students in particular schools."

Board member Stewart M. Shaffer voted "yes" only because of one phrase of the motion. The part reading, "and take no action that would penalize Donnie Evans or Edgewater High School outside the by-laws of the Florida High School Activities Association."

During the meeting, Shaffer commented, "I'm disturbed that we have members who have tried to abide by the rules. I can't comprehend why anyone would want to take a chance."

Shaffer also had these comments, "We must abide by the rules. We may not like the rules, but the rules are there. I think we are over-stepping our bounds. It is the principal's responsibility to check the eligibility lists before he signs them."

Lay was asked what steps he might take after the school board voted to have Edgewater High principal Norman Kent pay a $100 fine, but to forfeit no games as ordered. Lay commented, "I want to wait and see what the principal tells me he is or isn't going to do."

Lay cited Article 7, section 8 of the by-laws, under Executive Secretary and his powers as Sporkman was hit by a pitch from the Raiders in the first game as he batted a sparkling two-batter in his first complete game for the Raiders.

This is the fourth time that eligibility matters concerning Edgewater have come before the board this year. This is the third time the players have been declared ineligible, but the other two had the ineligibility waived by the Executive Board.

It remains to be seen what action will be taken against Edgewater if Kent refuses to forfeit the games as ordered. It could mean suspension of the school from the FISAA, meaning they could not compete in any athletic activities.

This is the fourth time that eligibility matters concerning Edgewater have come before the board this year. This is the third time the players have been declared ineligible, but the other two had the ineligibility waived by the Executive Board.

It remains to be seen what action will be taken against Edgewater if Kent refuses to forfeit the games as ordered. It could mean suspension of the school from the FISAA, meaning they could not compete in any athletic activities.

JAMES M. HIGGINBOTHAM (left to right), Superintendent of Public Instruction, Harley Tompkins, Chairman of the Board and James Markel, School Board Attorney, are shown as they study a motion during a special meeting of the Orange County School Board last Friday to discuss the case of the ineligible Edgewater football player. For complete coverage see related story and "As I See It" column on this page.

Are Florida's high school athletic programs cheating? With the recent ineligibility fiasco at Orlando's Edgewater High School, many are wondering just how the schools of the state and this school in particular are making so many "mistakes."

In referring to the most recent case involving Edgewater, Orange County School Board member Stewart M. Shaffer commented, "I'm disturbed that we have members that have tried to side by the rules. I can't comprehend why anyone could want to take a chance."

This is the third Edgewater student declared ineligible this year. A fourth was questioned but ruled eligible by Floyd Lay, Executive Secretary of the Florida High School Activities Association.

Reginald Jenkins and Clifford Williams were both declared ineligible, but both were given waivers under a hardship provision when the case went to the Executive Board.

But the board didn't waive the ineligibility of Donnie Evans, a football player and swimmer. They instead upheld the decision of Lay that he was ineligible.

The fourth case involved football player Clifford Brackins. The Sanford Herald was the first to question the boy's eligibility after it was learned that the youth and his parents were staying at an Orlando motel, located in the Edgewater district, rather than their home, located in the Winter Park High School district.

A check with the Flamingo Court, the motel where the Brackins family had taken up residence, revealed they were no longer staying there.

Maybe Law ruled it was legal for the youth to participate, even though he was living in the motel was it ethical?

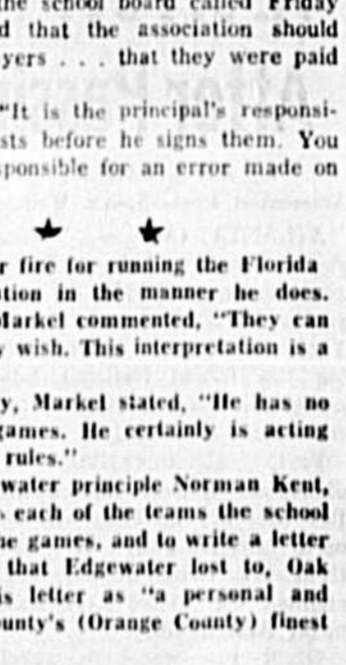

Shaffer also had these comments, "We abide by the rules. We may not like the rules, but the rules are there. I think we're over-stepping our bounds."

NORMAN KENT

LEE K. DAVIES

STEWART M. SHAFFER

Lee K. Davies, school board member, commented during a special meeting of the school board called Friday night, one member commented that the association should check on the eligibility of players... that they were paid enough money.

Shaffer's comments were, "It is the principal's responsibility to check the eligibility lists before he signs them. We can not hold the association responsible for an error made on the list."

Lay was also brought under fire for running the Florida High School Activities Association in the manner he does. School Board Attorney James Markel commented, "They can interpret the rules the way they wish. This interpretation is a rather strange one."

Commenting further on Lay, Markel stated, "He has no power to order forfeiture of games. He certainly is acting outside of the scope of these rules."

Lay wrote a letter to Edgewater principal Norman Kent, ordering him to write letters to each of the teams the school defeated in football, forfeiting the games, and to write a letter of apology to the lone school that Edgewater lost to, Oak Ridge, Markel referred to this letter as "a personal and ethical attack on one of the county's (Orange County) finest principles."

The Board passed a motion to have Kent pay a $100 fine, but not to forfeit the games as was ordered by Lay. William Larue, vice-chairman of the Board, was the only member voting "no" on the motion. The motion was made by Lee K. Davies.

This is probably the first time a school has refused to forfeit games when ordered to do so by the FISAA. I would imagine they'll end up forfeiting or Lay will do something severe, like put the school on suspension.

But maybe the athletes at the school shouldn't be made to suffer because of these "mistakes." Maybe the action should be taken against the principal, or whoever is responsible. If the principal, as an individual, had to pay a few fines, I bet there would be less "mistakes."

The time has come when high school sports is thought of as seriously as pro sports. Participation is no longer the important thing. It's winning. Sure, nobody wants to be a loser, but to go to all steps to become a winner is ridiculous.

And it's no longer winning for the players, it's winning for the coaches and the principal. This is not pointed to the school at question, but at all high schools.

OCALA—Fine pitching performances by Jeff Frankum and Skipper Senarik enabled the Seminole Jr. College Raiders to top the Central Florida Patriots 8-1 and 7-0 as they took over the lead in Division II, Florida Junior College, which held the lead up until yesterday, fell into second place as they split with St. Johns Junior College of Palatka. The Raiders play St. Johns in a double-header tomorrow in Palatka and then host the FAC Stars in a twin-bill Friday. Four division wins would almost assure the Raiders a first place finish in the conference.

Frankum was on the mound for the Raiders in the first game as he batted a sparkling two-batter in his first complete game for the Raiders.

The only run he gave up came in the bottom of the first inning when Rick Sparkman lead off with a hit and scored on a single by Joe Turnbull after a pair of doubles by Varn and Joe Turnbull. In the second inning, White and Darcil Hillinger walked, but then Senarik grounded into a double-play on a questionable call. Sparkman and Varn then slammed back-to-back RBI singles.

The Raiders scored three runs in the third inning. Booker singled and stole second. He scored on a pair of wild pitches. Foster and White walked. Foster was caught stealing at third on a "blind" call by the umpire. Hillinger then reached on a throwing error by the shortstop as White scored. Senarik helped his own cause with an RBI double. Varn led off the fourth with a triple and scored on a sacrifice fly by Bill Duncy. Booker also hit safely in the inning. The Raiders wasted a double by Turnbull in the sixth.

Varn was three for four in the second game. Turnbull and Booker had two hits each, with both of Turnbull's being doubles. Coach Jay Bergman is hopeful that Bobby Sherman will be ready to start by tomorrow against St. John's Chip Glerks, the state's leading strikeout artist, is also slated to pitch.

National Golf Tourney To Be Hosted By Edison

LEHIGH ACRES—Regional directors of the National Junior College Athletic Association have given formal approval to Edison Junior College to host the 1972 National Junior College Golf Championship at Lehigh Acres.

Confirmation of the bid's approval was announced jointly by Guy Childers, president of the National Junior College Golf Coaches Association and coach of national champion Miami-Dade North, and Dr. Kirby Abel, secretary of the association and golf coach at Italian River Junior College.

Lehigh Acres, located 12 miles east of Ft. Myers in southwest Florida, had previously been recommended for the approval of the 1971 Florida State Junior College Golf Championship, May 3-5.

The state championship will be contested by approximately 150 juniors throughout Florida and shapes up as potentially one of the most excitingly-matched tournaments in recent years.

Brevard, St. Petersburg, Chipola, Indian River and Miami-Dade North have all won tournaments on the junior college circuit throughout the state this year.

Boston, New York Favored in NHL

D. HAL ROCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Boston's awesome scoring machine spearheaded by fan-favorite Phil Esposito, and the defense-minded New York Rangers, winners of their first Vezina Trophy in 21 years, rank as the favorites today as eight National Hockey League teams ready themselves for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Esposito clinched his sensational scoring season with three more goals Sunday, increasing his season total to an unbelievable 70 goals and 76 assists for 142 points, as the Bruins blitzed their first round playoff opponent, the Montreal Canadiens, 7-2.

The Rangers nailed down their first Vezina Trophy since 1942—the first year they were eligible—for their goalie, Jacques Lemaire, who had 23 shutouts and 23 goals against in 54 games. Lemaire's 23 shutouts are the most in a single season since 1942.

Sunday's three goals gave Esposito seven hat tricks for the season, three more than any player had managed in a single season before. Derek Sanderson added two short-handed goals for the Bruins, increasing Boston's record for scoring while penalized to 23 goals.

The Rangers, meanwhile, continued to accumulate the lead in the league, clinching a 2-0 victory over the Bruins Sunday night. The Bruins' record in the playoffs is 1-1, while the Rangers are 2-0.

In Saturday's games, Montreal trimmed New York 7-2, Philadelphia edged Montreal 2-1, Boston topped Toronto 3-2, Chicago downed Detroit 4-1, St. Louis edged Pittsburgh 4-3 and Los Angeles defeated California 6-4.

The playoffs begin Wednesday with Toronto at Boston and Montreal at Boston in Eastern Division matchups and Philadelphia at Chicago and Minnesota at St. Louis in the Western Division. The best-of-seven series will begin Thursday and then switch sides.

Alvin
Wins in Play-Off

By Bob Green
Associated Press Golf Writer

Bobby Alvin is a trail-blazing little 130-pound, sandy-haired and boy appearing, looking for all the world like the drug store delivery boy.

But the ex-artillery officer, decorated four times in 16 months of Vietnam combat, Alvin proved his mettle when he banged in a birdie putt for the first hole of a sudden-death playoff and won the $200,000 first prize in the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

Alvin, who had only $5,654 prior to his victory, had a final round, two-under-par on the 7,634-yard Segefield Country Club Course, and finished with a 27.

Head Farnsworth, the third-round leader, had a 71 and Eichelberger had a 72.

Eichelberger and Farnsworth each collected $11,575 from the total purse of $196,000.

Head Farnsworth was alone in third with a 70 for 276. Veteran Terry Dill, 68, and Alvin Barber, 72, followed at 277. U.S. Open king Tony Jacklin of England had a 67 and was one of three at 278.

Lee Trevino had a final 69 of 279. Masters champ Billy Casper took a 70 for 283 and South African Gary Player, winner of the last two tour events, was far back with a 71 for 285.

The 27-year-old Eichelberger had the lead alone going to the final hole—Alvin had finished almost a half hour earlier—and set up the playoff when he bogeyed after hitting his drive deep into the woods.

That sent the three of them to the first tee for the fourth playoff of the season. Alvin drove the fairway. And all put their second shots into the fringe around the green.

Farnsworth putted first and missed.

"I kind of went to school on that one a little," Alvin said. "I had a little hill to go over, then a valley. It was about 30 feet. I just stepped up and hit it."

And he holed it, giving him a spot in the Tournament of Champions and the match play championship with a guaranteed $100,000 prize. He won't be in the Masters, which starts Thursday at Augusta, Ga.

Jupiter Pluvius Dampens Florida

Although two inches of rain fell on Seminole County Monday, there is need for more precipitation, in the opinion of David DeVoll, extension agent-vegetables for Seminole and Volusia Counties. There was sufficient rain Monday for crops for the next two weeks but more is needed to recharge ground water.

"Monday's rain was especially beneficial for citrus and lawns," said DeVoll. "since vegetable crops are irrigated."

DeVoll said Monday's precipitation brought the total to 3.5 inches for the year, far less than the 8.5-inch average for the first quarter. Rainfall for the first three months of 1970 was 16 inches. Rain that sprinkled South Florida Monday subdued fires that have blackened thousands of acres in the Everglades.

Ironically, the rain also grounded federal rain-making scientists who are trying to alleviate a seven-month drought.

Monday was "a naturally rainy day, and under those circumstances it's best to leave nature alone," said a spokesman for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

NOAA scientists hope to seed clouds with dry ice and cause heavy rains to drop on an area north of Lake Okechobee. This rainwater, they hope, will be funneled into the lake.

2 Wounded In Shootout Four Held In Robbery

VICTIM TURNS TABLES

Four bandits were captured yesterday afternoon in Goldsboro following a daring daylight robbery at Wheatland's Grocery on SR 415, just off SR 46, four miles west of Sanford.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department, the Sanford Police Department and the Florida Highway Patrol combined efforts in a chase that ended with the capture of two wounded bandits in a marshy swamp located between Bell and Lake Avenues, near Goldsboro Elementary in Sanford.

The robbery occurred at 5:19 p.m. yesterday. P. W. Wheatland, owner of the store, called the Sheriff's Department, who in turn notified the Sanford Police and the suspects headed off SR 46 onto Upsala Road.

Sheriff's Deputy Sgt. Tony Calangulo chased the get-away car, a light-colored Rambler, down Upsala and onto Country Club Road into the city limits, where the Police Department joined the chase. When Calangulo took up the chase, he was greeted by four bullets, striking his car, inches from the windshield.

When the suspects fled down Bell Avenue, adjacent to the Goldsboro School, they were met head-on by Sanford Police Sgt. Eddie Hughes.

The two vehicles crashed head-on, and the suspects tried to push the police cruiser out of their way. Failing in the attempt, three fled from the car. Hughes captured John Ashford in the car.

As they attempted to flee, Calangulo fired a single shot from his shotgun, injuring two. Lt. Mike Rutledge and officer Gary Swaim of the Sanford Police Department, along with trooper C. E. DePay Jr. of the Florida Highway Patrol, played key roles in the actual capture of the bandits in the swamps. Officer Walter Jones of the police force was also in the chase. Curtis E. Campbell and Thelias Jerome Griffin, the two who were wounded, were treated and released from the Seminole Memorial Hospital and are in the county jail. The fourth gunman, Jesse James Jones, was apprehended when he tried to claim the car, saying it was stolen. He allegedly was the driver during the robbery. All four are in custody at the Seminole County Sheriff's Department without bond.

Trial Set May 3 Not Guilty Plea By Blackburn

Harlan Blackburn, reputed Central Florida bolita kingpin, entered a plea of not guilty to two counts of conducting a lottery at arraignment in Circuit Court this morning before Judge Dominick Salfi.

The charges arose from a raid which was undertaken by Orange and Seminole Counties in May 1970. Charges were filed in Seminole County after charges in Orange County were dropped in order to keep Blackburn from going to trial on April 19 in Key West. Blackburn had been granted a change of venue to Monroe County in January.

Orange County Solicitor Rom Powell contended that the state could not receive a fair trial in Key West due to the fact that public opinion in that area views bolita as an innocuous recreation. Following the charges being dropped by Powell, they were refilled in Seminole County by State Attorney Abbott Herring.

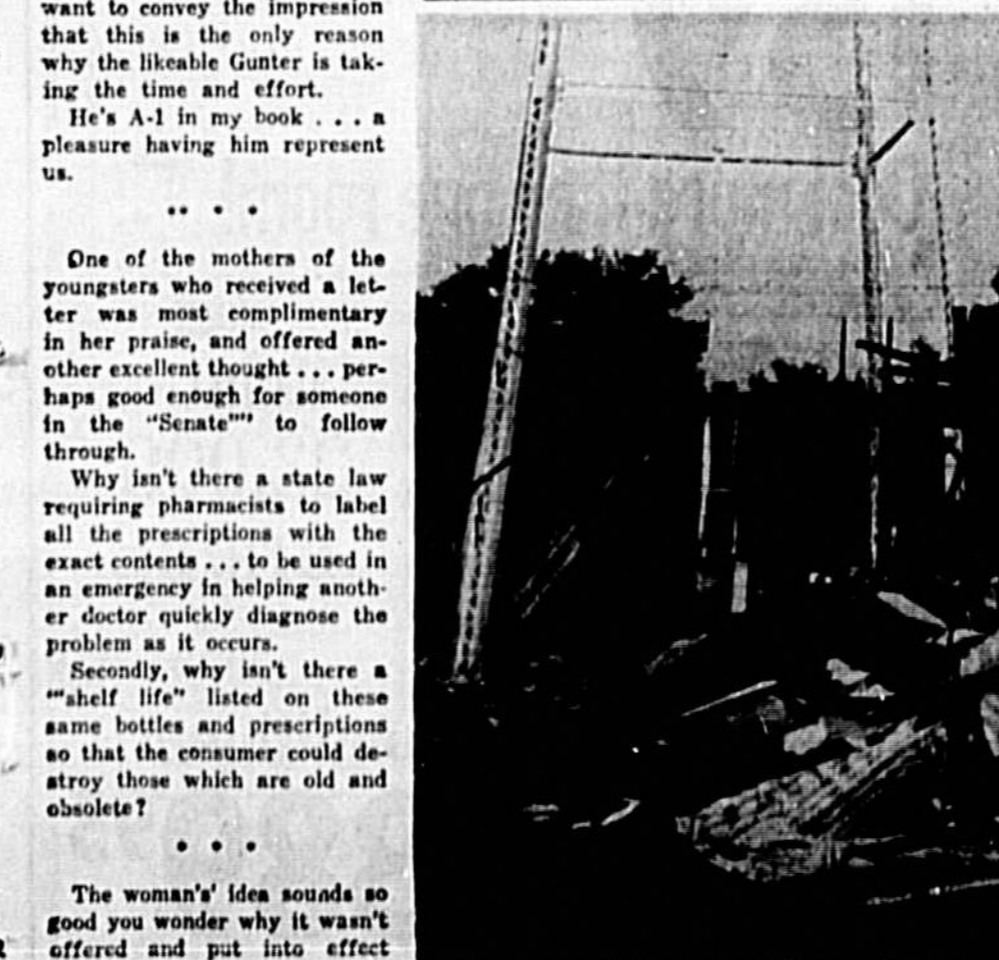

Orlando Attorney Edward Hanlon, representing Blackburn, told the court that he had received information of the hearing verbally only yesterday, to which Judge Salfi apologized for the state and said that he was "disturbed at the state not giving proper notice." Assistant State Attorney Fred Leone said that notice had been mailed to the bondsman on March 31.

Hanlon gave the court a resume of the situation stating that Judge Roger Turner had granted the change of venue to Monroe County, and that as of 4 p.m. yesterday the matter was still pending.

Hanlon cited that facts in (Continued on Pg. 12A Col. 5)

Casselberry Votes Support For Calley

By KATHY NIBLACK
CASSELBERRY — The city council voted last night to draft a resolution to the President expressing its indignation at the results of the trial of Lt. William Calley. The decision came after a suggestion by Mayor Curtis Blow, who called such a resolution the council's duty as "elected representatives of the people."

Blow also suggested the drafting of a letter, stating, "It is due time for as many government agencies as possible to draft a letter asking the President and Congress 'What is their national attitude? Is it to fight without the intention of winning? Up until lately, we have always won.' All members of the council concurred on the need for both the Calley resolution and the Mayor's suggested letter.

Lester Mandell, president of Greater Construction, was on hand last night to speak in favor of the resolution, and to show the council plans for the proposed shopping center which (Continued on Page 2A, Col. 1)
