

TRADE EXTENSION JOURNEYS TO TOWN OF OSCEOLA AND SAW SOMETHING

Business Men of Sanford Found a Big Asset to Seminole

WONDERFUL MILL

OSCEOLA CYPRESS COMPANY HAS GREAT INDUSTRY IN OUR COUNTY

The first trip of the Trade Extension Committee of the Chamber of Commerce was made to Osceola yesterday afternoon and was well attended and most successful. Six cars filled with business men followed the scout car over the winding trail from the Geneva-Sanford brick road to Osceola and the road was in the best condition yesterday that it has been in some time but one could easily guess the condition of this flat woods road after several hard rains. The committee was met at Osceola by Messrs. Feltner and Clark of the Osceola Cypress Co., and after an inspection of the general offices were taken to the big mill where will was built and business and the party was shown all over the main mill, watching the big cypress logs coming from the boom up the chute to the mill, rolled from the skids to the carriage and pushed through the many saws until a tree comes out at the end in the form of number one and two grades of boards, shingles and laths. All of this work that formerly was so laborious and consumed so much time in the handling is done by power at the Osceola mill and no time is wasted, every man seeming to be keyed up to his work of getting out as many feet of dressed lumber as possible in a day. Nothing is wasted at this mill even the shavings and ends being used for fuel to fire the boilers. A fine power plant is also installed and the engine room that lights the mills and the homes of the people and with an immense tank and water plant gives Osceola lights and running water and all the comforts of a big city and also gives the mill better fire protection.

The Herald has had several articles about the Osceola Cypress Co., but a few words on the new plants will be interesting. The big mills have a capacity of 100,000 feet a day of lumber, laths and shingles and have enough material at their plant and surrounding them to keep them running for fifteen years. They have some 300 people on their pay roll now and are not running to full capacity as they will when their new finishing mill is in operation. The new mill has recently been erected and is ready to operate that will manufacture flooring, sheeting, moulding, etc., and make up everything in the building material line out of cypress. In fact nothing but good cypress lumber is manufactured at the Osceola mills and it is a wonderful plant and a wonderful little city implanted in the heart of the wilderness a few years ago.

There are some very pretty homes built for the men who are operating the mills, nice business offices, a big general store where everything is neat and clean and has the appearance of doing a big business, postoffice, and other buildings. Trams cars that operate like automobiles run everywhere throughout the mammoth mill taking loads of lumber and lath and shingles here and there and the company owns and operates their own oil burning railway engines and cars and everything is right up-to-date and going good.

All that Osceola needs to make life worth living is a better road to Sanford that will allow the people out there a chance to get to town in the day time and at nights and give them a chance to shop and attend the shows and meet with the Sanford folks and this enterprising little city is entitled to the road.

Osceola is a big asset to Seminole county and would be an asset to Sanford if the folks out there could get to town over a better road.

Among those who went out yesterday were President Geo. W. Knight and Secretary Pearman, Jr., of the Chamber of Commerce; Arthur Yow, chairman of the Trade Extension Committee and the following members of the Chamber of Commerce: J. G. Ball, R. C. Hower, J. D. Davidson,

MAKES THREE MILLION DECREASE IN AMERICA'S FOREIGN TRADE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—A decrease of over three billion dollars in value of the country's foreign trade during the last fiscal year was ascribed by Commerce Department today to world-wide trade depression coming as an aftermath of the war. Lower prices rather than diminishing quantities were to a great extent responsible for the decrease in exports, the department asserted.

BREVARD COUNTY MAN PRODUCES TOMATOES WORTH $1,178 ON ACRE

COCOA, Aug. 17.—The productivity of Brevard county soil and the quality of its products have been demonstrated recently by S. A. Osteen, Lotus, Merritts Island, in producing $1,178.13 worth of tomatoes from one acre.

Mr. Osteen harvested 200 crates of tomatoes which sold for an average price of $4.83. In spite of heavy transportation and commission charges, a net return of $627.64, an average of $2.41 a crate, was realized. Shipping began the latter part of May and continued into July.

The following shows the yield, gross sales, charges and net return: Total number crates, 200; gross sales, $1,178.13; express charges, $430.90; commission, $117.50; net returns, $627.64.

The price received for these tomatoes speaks for their quality, since it is far above the average for this vegetable during May, June and July, according to County Agent K. E. Bragdon. In all ten different shipments, varying from three to sixty-six crates, were made of this crop.

Mr. Osteen was equally as successful last year.

MANY PROMINENT OFFICIALS AND U. S. ARMY OFFICERS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

In Connection With the Escape of Grover Bergdoll

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Samuel T. Ansell, former acting judge advocate general of the army and of the prisoners legal counsel, Colonel John E. Hunt, commandant of the barracks at Governor's Island and Colonel C. E. Cresson are charged with conspiracy in connection with the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll in a report signed by three of the five members of the special investigating committee filed today with the house. Characterizing Ansell as the "master mind" in the plan by which Bergdoll was released from the military prison under guard to dig up a pot of gold, the majority report recommended that he be disbarred from practicing in courts of the nation. The minority report filed at the same time held, however, that there was no testimony to support the charge that Ansell conspired to effectuate Bergdoll's escape or that his motive in having him released was improper. One Republican, Representative Lühring, of Indiana, and two Democrats, Johnson, of Kentucky, and Flood, of Virginia, signed the majority report. The minority report, signed by two Republicans, Peters, of Maine, and McArthur, of Oregon. The majority finding is the first of the many investigation reports submitted to the house since the close of the war where the Republican member joined with Democrats and enabled them the file majority views.

REPUBLICAN PARLIAMENT MAKES REPLY

Ireland Will Insist Upon Separation From England

BY PARLIAMENT AND SITUATION HAS NOT BEEN CLEARED

(By The Associated Press)

During public meetings the members heard DeValera denounce the British offer and assert Ireland would insist upon separation from England but with the exception of applause which greeted his utterances there was little to estimate the attitude of the majority of parliament toward the absolute rejection of the terms submitted by Lloyd George. Peace negotiations between the British government and the Irish Republican leaders were not mentioned during this morning's secret session of the Irish Republican parliament, it was announced officially this afternoon.

7 CHINESE HELD IN JAX AS ENTRY PROBE GOES ON.

HOW DID THEY GET HERE IS PROBLEM OF U. S. OFFICIALS

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 18.—Seven Chinese were corraled by federal officers in a barn on a farm several miles from here yesterday and bro't to Jacksonville and placed in jail pending an investigation as to how they gained entrance to this country. The Chinese were questioned by immigration officials for several hours but little information was obtained. Some of the men speak English, the officials say, but are feigning ignorance.

According to the farmer whose information to federal officers led to the arrests, five of the men came to his house Sunday and asked that they be permitted to sleep in the barn and be boarded for $1 a day. These men were followed by two more the next day.

A white man sought by officials in connection with the entrance of six other Chinese arrested at New Smyrna several days ago, after they had aroused the suspicion of a railroad conductor, has not yet been arrested. All the arrests are said to be the outgrowth of a wholesale conspiracy to smuggle orientals into the United States through Florida.

HERNANDEZ PURCHASED BY MEMPHIS CLUB

MEMPHIS, Aug. 18.—Pitcher Hernandez, of St. Petersburg, was purchased by Memphis, of the Southern Association Club, for a cash consideration. He is to report at the end of the Florida State League season.

States made net profits from Jan. 1, 1916, to Jan. 1, 1921, in round numbers, fifty billion dollars—to be exact, forty-seven billion dollars. After deducting all the taxes, they have paid since Jan. 1, 1916, income, excess profits tax and other taxes, they have a clear profit left of thirty-eight billion dollars, more than four-fifths of which was made by less than ten thousand corporations, and more than half of which was made by ten hundred and twenty-six of the big profiteering corporations, which includes the steel trust, the Bethlehem company, the Dupont companies, the various standard Oil companies, the coal combine, the wool trust, the meat packers, etc.

"Let our fellow Democrats bear in mind always that these same corporations were filling their coffers with these fabulous billions while our boys in France were spilling their blood for the protection and defense of their country. Remember, too, that not a large stockholder or officer or director of one of the rapacious corporations ever faced a German shell."

FOURTEEN DOLLARS PER BARREL, PRICE OF SWEET POTATOES

HASTINGS, Aug. 17.—Fourteen dollars per barrel was the average price received for Big Stem Jersey sweet potatoes shipped to eastern markets by the Bougebe Distributing Company.

The growing of this variety of sweet potatoes was purely an experiment, Mr. Hughes urging several farmers to try a small acreage in this variety this spring. So successful has the experiment been and so thoroughly has it demonstrated that Hastings lands will grow successfully and get to the market first another paying crop that no doubt a large acreage will be planted next spring.

The variety is a new one but matures well and early and is said to be a favorite in the eastern markets. "I am thoroughly convinced," said Mr. Bugbee, "that we can make a huge success of the Big Stem Jersey sweet potatoes, that I am going to see that a large acreage is planted next spring. While some few who planted this variety this year neglected cultivation during the Irish potato harvesting season and allowed the grass to get into them, yet made good yields."—Palatka News.

TOKIO CONSIDERS REPORT U. S. WANTS CHINA COMMISSION.

TOKIO, Aug. 16.—Reports from America that the United States may suggest control of China by an international commission, are understood to have been considered at the meeting of the Japanese cabinet yesterday.

Viscount Uchida, foreign minister, told members of the cabinet, according to the Yomi-Uri Shimbun, that if such a suggestion was made, it was a matter of grave importance upon which Japan must carefully deliberate. The newspaper says the ministers are becoming impressed with the necessity of having young and able diplomats at the Washington conference to strongly present Japan's position. Some favor the appointment of M. Slidehara, present ambassador at Washington, as chief delegate.

Japan is studying the advisability of proposing an international standing council for the guidance and development of China, says the Kokumin Shimbun. The work of this council would be based upon the idea of the powers' abandonment of spheres of influence and all other measures including extra-territoriality, which are inimical to China's complete sovereignty. The unification of North and South China also would be sought, the newspaper asserts.

DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU?

The job department of the Herald is ever ready to take on a contract, regardless of size, for commercial printing, and we want to say, right off the reel, that we don't take our hat off to anyone when it comes to getting out a good job of printing.

We have always been too modest, when speaking of what we were capable of doing in this office, and without being brazen, we have cut loose from some of our modesty, and are willing to say before the world, that even a young couple being married, after getting invitations or announcements printed at the Herald office are more successful than under any other conditions.

When taken into consideration the care and exactness that is required from printers in the Herald shop, it is generally conceded that our prices are too low to give us a profit, but speed, when mixed in equal parts with efficiency, will make it possible for us to buy our usual daily allowance of grits, even at the prices we are making.

But don't get us wrong; wedding stationery is not the only kind of printing we pride ourselves in doing. We print anything you want printed—except postage stamps and Liberty bonds—and we give you a workmanlike job at a price you are tickled to death to pay.

We do not ask for any sympathy—all we want is work—and as long as we give you more than value received, in the way of efficiency, speed and workmanship, and can give you the work at the time we agreed to give it to you, there seems to be nothing else for you to do but send it in.

Every department of this shop and office is at your command. We are here to help you prepare your copy, we will give you exactly the kind of work you want done, and will have the work ready for delivery at exactly the time you want it. We want to cooperate with you and we are asking you to cooperate with us. No man lives unto himself alone—we'd hate to try to live without you, and we want you to feel that we are a little spoke in your wheel of good fortune. Let us prove it to you. 123-3tp.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.
To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract before eating more food. Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.—Adv.

DOINGS OF COMPANY D.

Camp Johnston, Fla.

Dear Mr. Holly: Evidently some people are not very well versed on army routine. This fact became evident this morning on parade. Corp. Trubell, being one of the lazy six out of a dozen, on arriving at the parade, was ordered to run the belt line; in other words, to go through the hot oven; the technical phrase used in the college days by the Sophomores, and is today used on raw recruits.

There is a story that would go well in the case of Corp. Trubell, as told on a young man in France. An open space of fifty feet was to be covered by seven men; as there was a sniper on duty, this space had to be crossed in record time, or the man delayed in crossing may forfeit his life. This young man was the last to cross. He claims that some of the other boys made it in next to nothing, but he claims that he, himself, made it in nothing, fat, and so with Corp. Trubell. For as a railroad man would say, he almost got a hot box in his knees. Only one man had the pleasure of connecting with Trubell on his DASH.

Last night the Non Coms. decided to banquet Mess Sgt. Egan was detailed to furnish the chicken. It is claimed by eye witnesses, and some who ate the chicken, that the Sgt. must have run the bird to death. The Sgt.'s story is that he chased the bird with a pitch fork and finally unsuccessful, Sgt. Crenshaw went to the lady and begged her to give Egan the bird, which she did, rather than have him steal it. On cooking the bird, we discovered that it had blistered feet, and one singed wing, where the Sgt. had evidently connected once with the barn yard tool. Still, the boys claim they had a good meal, and there will be no need for Doc. Stevens, now Captain in the pill packer's brigade, to send his patrol for sick to Company D.

Tonight Tom Merideth, the Kentucky feather-weight, is sinking bricks for the government on guard duty, nothing can pass Tom but the wind and it has to blow around him.

Pvt. Murphy of the Canadians, is not well up on American regulations. Night before last the officer of the day called through the window at 11:15 p. m., telling the boys to pipe down. Murphy said, "who are you? And what plumbing outfit do you belong to?" The officer answered, "Officer of the Day:—Murphy, better go home and sleep, you have no business out at night." Perfect silence.

Sgt. George McLaughlin, alias Sgt. Harper, late of Wight Tire Co., has been doing service so long out on the curb for the Wight Tire, that since his being admitted into the Agony Four, has to be on the corner or something if it is only a loaf of bread before he can sing. With the aid of Sgt. Mero, Whitcomb, George, and Egan, the camp has been in chaos for the past three days as these men just discovered they could sing.

Corp. V. Smith is so light fingered that rather than have him put in the guard house for lifting anything, Capt. DeCottes has him pushing the white circles on a typewriter. Virgil seems to think because they called a machine gun bullet typewriter bullets overseas, he is a good gunner. Coming from the humorous side of camp life to the serious, we would like here to insert the following: Co. D., for the first time mounted guard tonight before a great number of Jacksonville visitors. The Colonel congratulated Captain DeCottes, saying that this guard was the snappiest and best formed guard the camp has had since the opening.

Last, but not least, Sgt. Roy Chittenden is running around here like Tarzan in the early hours of the morning gathering together the strayed and lost sheep of the company.

Yours truly,

THE BOYS.

JACKSONVILLE GAS CO. UNDER FIRE FROM CITY COMMISSIONERS.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 16.—The Jacksonville Gas Co., is under fire here and the city commissioners have employed an engineer to obtain data with a view to a possible revision of the company's rates to the consumers. The commissioners have authority under power recently vested by the legislature to fix gas rates subject to appeal to the railroad commission.

Users of the so-called quarter-meter form the bulk of the aggrieved consumers, according to the commissioners, and since the question came under consideration, they say, the complaints have literally poured in. That the consumers having these quarter meters are being "quarter-tered" beyond the family budget seems to be the burden of the complaints. In addition to the rates the quality of the gas is challenged.

One man complained to the commissioners that his wife left him in custody of a Sunday roast which cost $1.20 at the market and one dollar to prepare on the kitchen stove.

"I had to watch that roast all day and feed the meter four times before the roast was even singed," he added.

Another consumer asserted that every time he complained the company sent to him what he described as a professional arbitrator and so involved him in the intricacies of "gasology" that he felt ashamed for having complained. Still his meter consumed the quarters, he said.

The engineer in the employ of the commissioners, however, is well versed in these intricacies, they say, and beginning at the number of British thermal units contained in every thousand cubic feet, will investigate every phase of the gas system. They want to be prepared, they say, to stand before the railroad commission on any revision they might make.

The present gas rate here is given at $1.85 to $1.90 per thousand cubic feet.

GOLFING AGAIN.

Pomona, Fla., Aug. 16, 1921.

My Dear Mr. Holly: The inclosed "parody" only goes to prove that you are right. Sanford does need a golf course. This was clipped from our paper, the Danbury News. Your friend,

MRS. FRANCIS BYRONS.

The Seven Ages of Golf.

All the world's a course, And all the men and women really golfers: They have their clubs, and subs, and entrance fees, And one man in his time plays many rounds At seven different stages. First, the infant, Fuzzing and fozzling in his nurse's arms, Then th' enthusiastic schoolboy in his teens.

With shiny cleft and brassie (second hand), Who takes his early round. And then the lover Sighing like furnace o'er a bunkered ball Or fozzled putt, And then the bachelor, Full of wild oaths, and reckless like the bard Jealous of others, keen to growl and quarrel, Seeking a golfing reputation Even in the bunker's mouth. And the senior In wide round breeks and peaceful frame of mind, With beaming eyes, and bald about the pate, Full of quaint rules—and modern instances. And so he plays his part. The sixth stage comes; And now with grizzled locks and wornout irons with spectacles upon his pink proboscis, He drives, he putts, is stymied, tries to putt, While others take their knock. His withering form Goes gingerly from hole to hole, Led by his caddie. While, last scene of all, That ends the story (and my parody) Is ripe old age, still at the same old game, Sans sight, sans skill, sans luck, sans everything! —La Touche Hancock in Cartoons Magazine.

Sarasota has started the development of their water front where many new business houses will be started. They will also develop their fishing industry.

A big boom in new residences faces Fort Myers one will cost around $10,000 which has a refrigerating system of tile with a 1,000 pound ice capacity near the city.

NEW GRASS MAKES A FINE FORAGE CROP.

What is believed to be an ideal forage crop for unfertilized Florida lands has been discovered by Samuel Rogers, well known Tampan, who has a long row of the grass, growing to the height of six feet on sandy soil, at his place, 1406 Nance avenue. The grass was planted on unprepared soil last spring and has grown to its present enormous size without cultivation of any sort, according to Mr. Rogers. With one stalk to every four feet of ground, he said, a field would soon become covered with green blades.

To assure himself that the grass is suitable for cattle, Mr. Rogers experimented and found that cows would eat it in preference to commercial feed which was offered at the same time. The ideal way to serve the product to flossy is green from the field, he said, but it would be equally palatable dried and baled.

Mr. Rogers will be remembered in Tampa as the inventor of a multiple plow for the cultivation of citrus groves. The original of this invention is being tested by R. E. Olds, automobile and tractor manufacturer of Lansing, Mich., and Oldsmar.

Mr. Rogers has just returned to Tampa from Gainesville, where he conferred with horticulturists of the state experiment station at the University of Florida. He has been unable so far to learn the scientific name of his grass.

The same kind of grass can be found growing wild in almost any part of Florida, said Mr. Rogers, and therefore could be obtained for planting at no expense.

The new St. James Episcopal church have just completed their handsome edifice in Perry and will hold worship for the first time Sunday.

Take Out a Policy Against the Fly

Flies won't stay where "Sleep Insurance" is found. They can't endure its fragrant "pinney odor." A few drops around suggest moving to all insects. They lose no time in getting out. Don't be troubled with annoying, disease-carrying pests when it is so easy to be rid of them.

"Sleep Insurance" Fully Protects

Flies and mosquitoes won't tease when "Sleep Insurance" is on the job. Doesn't sting. A few drops will last for hours. Efficacious out of the bottle, but best used with a small spray. Twenty-five cents buys from any drugist a bottle large enough to last a long time. Start using "Sleep Insurance" today.

New Solution of an Old Problem

All transactions in a retail grocery business are divided into three groups, requiring three kinds of service. First, charge and delivery, this transaction is the most expensive both for the merchant and the customer, requiring as it does, telephone, bookkeeper, gas and upkeep of the truck. Second, is the customer who comes to the store, has his merchandise charged but carries his goods home with him, eliminating a part of the expense. Third, is the customer who pays cash and carries his goods home with him, thus eliminating all expense of charge and delivery.

It is self-evident that there should be some distinction between the three classes of service. Recognizing this fact I have adopted the following plan without changing prices:

- FIRST: All goods priced on a charge and delivery basis. SECOND: Customers charging goods but delivering same will be discounted 2%. THIRD: Customers paying cash for goods and delivering same will be discounted 5%.

THIS APPLIES TO ALL ORDERS OF $1.00 OR MORE EFFECTIVE MONDAY, AUGUST 22

AMBITION OF HORNSBY TO HIT AVERAGE OF .400 FOR SEASON

St. Louis Player Leads National League in Hitting.

Rogers Hornsby, the boy king of the National league batsmen in 1920 is out for a .400 year. Hornsby is again leading the league with his batting hands, and he is performing as brilliantly as ever at second with his fielding hands.

"I've got a good start this year. It has always been my ambition to pound out a season average of .400 or better. Perhaps this will be my year.

"Usually I make a poor start. I try that had pitching in the first few weeks of the spring.

"I like good pitching. Bad pitching bothers me. To my mind, you can figure a good pitcher better than a poor one. He has control. He is playing the game. He knows the game.

"I like to hit the ball on a straight line. When you hit it square it travels that way and it will usually go for extra bases. I don't think slugging is a matter of weight.

"The bat I use weighs only 42 ounces. It is easily handled. The eye counts most in connecting squarely with the ball. If you meet the ball exactly right it will travel like a bullet. If you hit it off center the ball won't travel nearly so far nor so fast.

Not a Big Man.

Hornsby is not a big man. He weighs only 165 pounds. He was twenty-five in April. He bats right-handed and has a free, easy motion when swinging.

Apparently he doesn't put much snap into his hitting, but in reality his gracefulness covers up the power he is really exerting.

The offer of $200,000 and four players, the equivalent of $300,000, made by the Giants last winter for him, has not turned the Cardinal star's head.

He plays brilliantly because he has his heart in every game and because he owns an almost perfect pair of batting and fielding hands, and a set of wonderful eyes.

OCALA, Aug. 17.—Dr. E. B. Lytle broke all local records shooting over the traps of the Belleview Gun Club at Smith Lake last Thursday, scoring 51 out of a possible 50. The man working the trap made a mistake in feeding clay pigeons into it and on one occasion the trap threw two when it was supposed to throw only one. Dr. Lytle smashed both of the targets even though the appearance of a "flock" of them was somewhat surprising. Some high scores were made at the shoot, F. E. Martin breaking 50; E. Walling, 49, and N. Mayo, 48, out of a possible 50. In a special long range event May and Walling broke fifteen and Dr. Lytle fourteen out of fifteen shots.

The Daily Herald is the advertising medium, par excellence.

The people who think it is hot and persist in saying so are the most uncomfortable.

Sanford has so many fine springs and lakes and resorts within easy riding distance that our people can stay at home and enjoy a most excellent summer.

With the Boy Scouts and the Campfire Girls, our young folks should have a most enjoyable and perfectly healthy summer. Living in Florida we should enjoy the great outdoors every month in the year.

Next Friday, August 20th, promises to be a big day and a big night in Sanford. The merchants will offer special bargains and the ladies have some great surprises in store.

A visitor to the city last week remarked that he believed that Sanford people had more real enjoyment than the inhabitants of any city that he had ever visited.

The various homes in and around Sanford are looking very pretty now, and this winter we will put on our holiday attire and keep everything in fine shape.

SENATOR FLETCHER'S GREAT SPEECH.

President Harding did well in conferring with Senator Fletcher regarding the complaints made of rates discriminating between the eastern and South Atlantic and Gulf ports.

Senator Fletcher made a speech on the floor of the senate on July 29, last in which he discussed in detail the subjects of Foreign Commerce, Transportation, Overseas Markets, and Ocean Shipping.

against the Gulf and South Atlantic ports.

He stresses the necessity of absolute fairness and justice by the government in its treatment of the various seaports of the country, and quotes the constitution as prohibiting any discrimination, and then goes on to show that such discrimination has and does now exist.

AND WHY NOT NOW?

"The old house stands like a sentinel on the bluff overlooking the river on whose broad bosom floated the wealth of Georgia and Alabama in the days when cotton was king and Apalachicola was the third port on the gulf."

In that day Tampa was a fishing village, Miami was a barren waste of glittering sands, St. Petersburg magnificent stretches of marsh and a hundred other Florida towns now boastful of commercial, industrial and resort importance were long on legend and natural beauty and short on civic significance.

In that day the masts of dozens of sea going schooners, of river steamers and fishing fleets pierced the horizon blue across the St. Johns at Palatka; the water front was a busy scene with the loading and unloading of its cargoes for shipment to all sections of the state.

Feeling secure in her supremacy Apalachicola sat still and collected her just due in trade from mariners and world importance as a port. Great rail octopuses extending their glittering antennae soon throttled the easy going ship lines on the river, bottled the port and took over the long haul.

But the former collector of customs of Florida may yet stand on the broad piazza of his wife's ancestral home and watch great cotton packets lazily chug their way to waiting steamers offshore—that day when railroads will have reached the peak of managerial extravagance and inflated stock issues and can not add the one more small margin of traffic charges to an overburdened industry.

FRYING SIZE CHICKENS FINDING LIGHT MARKET.

Notwithstanding the fact that "everybody likes a chicken" it should be noticed that there is in Ocala county an overstock, and poultry-raisers are in sore straits regarding the disposal of their stocks.

ed because of the lack of demand for their stock.

In view of this condition it would be well for all growers of poultry having an over-stock to get in touch with the county demonstration agent, Leo H. Wilson.

In any event it would be well to get in touch with the county agent, and make some arrangement by which there might be made a shipment of considerable size at some designated time.

Anyhow, when you go to a swell dinner function these times, you are not perplexed by a lot of different shaped glasses to the right of your plate.

From the manner in which he is being thumped, a hefty number of senators evidently consider Secretary Mellon's financial projects ripe for cutting.

THE WONDERFUL OAK.

To the Herald:

Yesterday I was glad to receive one of the pamphlets that the Chamber of Commerce has gotten up for distribution in advertising the advantages that "Sanford the Substantial," has and the many interesting enterprises that is in this part of Florida.

Summary of the Floating Small Talks Succinctly Arranged for Herald Readers

THE WEATHER

For Florida: Generally fair tonight and Friday.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

What did you say about the weather? Well, it is much cooler here than in 80 per cent of the cities in the United States and you can get the official figures for your information. It was 94 yesterday and promises that much for today but we seem to be thriving on it and going ahead just the same. Just a little shower would make a big difference today and Thursday afternoon always brings a rain to gladden the hearts of the boys who are getting the afternoon off:

Table with weather data: 5:40 A. M., AUGUST 18TH, Maximum 94, Minimum 69, Range 72, Barometer 30.14, Calm and clear.

SANFORD SHOE & CLO. CO., HAVE COLOR IDENTIFICATION LAMP, SAME EFFECT AS DAY

Some men are unable to get away from their business in daylight and are compelled to trust to their eyesight or to luck in buying a suit of clothes at night. They have a difficult time in determining colors and oftentimes are compelled to take a color that they do not like when they see it in daylight. The Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co., knowing this and wanting to keep abreast of the times, have installed the very latest wrinkle called the Color Identification Counter Lamp that stands 14 inches high and putting a piece of goods beneath the lamp gives you the exact color of the goods as in daylight. It is a wonderful machine and will be greatly appreciated by the many customers of the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co., who before this lamp was perfected, were obliged to pick their clothes at night with no chance to determine the colors. Go in and see this marvel of the century and remember that you can pick your colors at the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co., as well at night as you can in daytime.

MRS. FOREST LAKE BELIEVES IN ADVERTISING.

The Herald was called up early this morning and Mrs. Forest Lake informed us that a local advertisement in the want column had rented her bungalow half an hour after the Herald was on the street. Mrs. Lake had eight applications for the bungalow yesterday evening and two this morning before breakfast and she is a firm believer in the efficacy of Herald advertising. And this is only another instance of the demand for nice homes in Sanford. This city could rent 500 new homes right now if they were available and Mrs. Lake is among those enterprising citizens who are investing their money at home in Sanford property.

WILL OPEN NEW MEAT MARKET

L. C. Leonardy, who has been a resident of Daytona for many years but who is well known here, will open a new meat market at 327 Sanford avenue Saturday morning and will sell cheaper meats and sell for cash. Mr. Leonardy is also a big cattle owner and expects to bring some fine beef, mutton and pork to Sanford at very low prices. He will have a city delivery and will publish his prices every Friday and Monday in the Daily Herald. Watch his advertisements and prices.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLORIDA FOR THE WEEK ENDING AUGUST 16TH

Temperature: Temperatures averaged slightly above the normal for the section as a whole; midday temperatures were well up in the 90's in the several divisions. Precipitation: Showers fell over the several divisions, but the rainfall was below the normal over the section except the northeast, where the amounts were quite heavy on several days. The sunshine averaged above the normal, especially west of the Suwanee river. Condition of Crops: The absence of rain west of the Apalachicola river was very favorable for the development, opening, and picking of the cotton crop, which is reported to be in very good condition. Locally the condition of the crop is not so favorable in the northern portion of the belt, where weevil are more active and shedding is complained of in several counties. Marion county reports indicate that the crop is very good. Corn is being harvested in the northern and central divisions. The absence of rain was unfavorable locally for seed beds and fall truck in the central and southern division. Cane, peanuts, and sweet potatoes are doing well. Citrus trees are in splendid condition, and the fruit appears to be holding well. Much haying was done, but showers caused delay in the northern and central divisions. "Logging" has been delayed in some instances as a result of too much water in the woods. Ranges are good in most of the section.

PEYTON FORTSON DEAD.

The funeral of Payton Fortson occurred from the Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The remains were taken to Washington, Ga. Decensed had been ill for some time and died Monday at the hospital.

The most wonderful thing of this season's melon crop is that prime ripe melons are still being marketed. Heretofore after the first few weeks of the melon season no melon was thought fit to eat. Dr. T. S. Kennedy, of Eustis, has been supplying the trade with melons weighing 40 to 45 pounds, having as many as 1,000 of this size. For this reason there have been but few Georgia melons in the local market.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

TAKE A TABLESPOONFUL OF SALTS IF BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble. The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system. When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and no body can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.
