Force Required to Crack a Nut.
The force required to crush an ordinary nut, such as one too often sees cracked between the back teeth, has been shown to be equal to a weight of more than 110 avoirdupois pounds directly applied.

Man's Duty Simple.

Old Italian Industry.
Salt has been manufactured commercially in Italy for more than two thousand five hundred years.

Greeks Practiced Palmistry.
Palmistry was practiced by the ancient Greeks.

Modern Medical Doctrines.
At a conference on hospital social work in New York City one of the speakers said that the hospital of the future must keep a record of the social histories of all patients, just as now their medical histories are kept. Rhubarb and soda, said another speaker, illustrating the necessity for psychological remedies for patients, had in one case proved useless as a cure for indigestion until the sufferer, a grief-stricken mother, was relieved from worry over an absent boy.

No Cause to Fear.
A fisherman succeeded in stealing a goose from a farmhouse by training his fish-line along the ground in sight of the goose. The goose, seeing the worm, bit at it and got caught by the hook. When caught, the man ran, pulling the bird after him. The bird, by flapping her wings, alarmed the farmer's wife, who came out to the gate, and, seeing the man running and the goose following, she exclaimed: "Don't be afraid, my good man; she won't touch you."

Lesson in Humility.
"As long as I was poor," said Brother Williams, at a revival, "I was humble enough to be thankful for what I was 'bout to receive. But one day I found $10 in de big road. After dat I went about holdin' my head so high dat I couldn't see what was befo' me. an' I fell in a dry well, an' staid dar three days, hollerin' fer folks ter pull me out. Satan hisself was once an angel in heaven, but he couldn't stand prosperity, an' look what he is now!"

Would That This Were True.
The principal authors met and formed a union for the sake of publishing a set of rules of writing. As a preliminary, they agreed that after this no hero would be permitted to flick the ashes from his cigarette or cigar. Also that no heroine shall hereafter bury her head in her hands or drop her eyes to the floor. The full set of restrictions will be announced later.—Life.

"The voice what is cryin' in the wilderness this day is advertisin' real estate—stakin' out mansions on earth; an' if the voice is only loud enough it's sure to catch the crowd."—Atlanta Constitution.

Heart Controls Life.
As the fountain from the hidden spring, so issues man's life from the secret recesses of his heart. All that he is and does is generated there. All that he will be and do will take its rise there.—James Allen.

Always Have Something to Say.
Speak not at all, in any wise, till you have somewhat to speak; care not for the reward of your speaking, but simply and with undivided mind for the truth of your speaking.—Carlyle.

The Domestic Bourgeois.
Some men's idea of keeping abreast of the times is to stay home and read the stories in the magazines when it rains on Sunday afternoons, and there isn't any ball game.—Ohio State Journal.

Electrical Thief Catcher.
A new electric thief catcher for stores consists of a button concealed under the counter, which, when pressed, closes and locks all the doors and rings a bell.

Churchyard Made Play Garden.
A church in upper Broadway, New York city, has made a play garden of its churchyard, and invites the mothers and children of the neighborhood to make themselves happy in it.

Shakespeare's Criticism.
'Tis the curse of service, preference goes by letter and affection, and not in old gradation, where each second stood heir to the first.—Shakespeare.

Causes of Mine Accidents.
Nearly half of the fatal accidents in coal mines are due to falling rock or coal, and less than one-fourth to explosions or fires.

Irreconcilable.
"However did you reconcile Adam and Mary?" "I gave them a choice bit of gossip and asked them not to repeat it to each other."

Oldtime Dinner Reproduced.
A reproduction of a ninth-century dinner has been served at a recent banquet. The menu consisted of pike cooked in oil and then pressed into a paste; a paste made of venison with millet; and a roast peacock containing a whole chicken, the chicken in turn stuffed with a pigeon, and the pigeon again stuffed with roasted eggs.

Not the Original Liberty Bell.
A correspondent of the Literary Digest avers that the famous crack in the Liberty Bell is not a crack, but only the fac-simile of a crack. His assertion is that the original bell was indeed cracked, but that the present bell is a recast from a model of the old one, with the crack filled up, though still showing the lines of the defect.

in Kentucky.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here The Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Final arrangements for the funeral services of J. Pierpont Morgan, which were held at 10 o'clock this morning at St. George's Protestant Episcopal church in Stuyvesant Square, are completed. One side of the square will be closed by the police to vehicles and kept open for those who arrive on foot.

All indications point to the utmost gravity of the pope's condition. At midnight the fever and cough were giving cause for great alarm. The impression had gained ground that the tracheal bronchitis had developed into pneumonia. While not absolutely denying this, Prof. Marchisiani said: "At the present time it could not properly be called pneumonia, but with tracheal bronchitis sometimes the lungs do not function properly. Probably the resistant and robust fiber of the holy father may overcome this danger. Meanwhile we can make the statement which must give rise to great hope, that the condition of the albuminuria has disappeared."

For the third time in his reign King Alfonso narrowly escaped being the victim of an anarchist attempt against his life Sunday. Three shots were fired at the King Sunday afternoon in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owes his escape to his own courage, quickness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff he was riding along the Calle de Alcalá, returning from the ceremony of swearing in recruits, when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the king's horse with one hand, pointing a revolver point blank with the other. The king, realizing the situation with lightning rapidity dug his spurs into his horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet, instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck the horse on the neck, but so close was it that the king's left hand glove was blackened by the powder discharge. Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground, locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously. The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm outside, and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

Miss Fish Hostess

A very delightful card party was entertained by Miss Laura Fish in her pretty home, "Sally Ray Farm," Wednesday afternoon.

The guests on arriving were served refreshing ice grape juice.

Three tables of bridge were played. The score cards were tied with dainty yellow ribbon and each was decorated with a different card, represented in a deck of cards.

The highest score was made by Mrs. A. W. Brown, who won as prize, sufficient beautiful handmade lace for a dress.

The consolation prize, a handsome tray was cut for and won by Mrs. Gertrude Keely.

After the conclusion of the games of cards, delicious refreshments in two courses were served, consisting of chicken salad, peas in patty shells, nut bread sandwiches, white bread sandwiches, cheese balls, olives and coffee; second course, orange sherbet with angel cake. The table was beautifully decorated with wreaths of wide yellow satin ribbon and violets.

Miss Fish's guests were Mrs. A. W. Brown, Mrs. J. W. Dickins, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. Ayllette Pitts, Mrs. Gertrude Keely, Miss Hawkins, Mrs. R. H. Marks, Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. Robt. Newman, Mrs. Samuel Puleston, Mrs. Kent Rosetter.

County Division Bill Will Come Before the Committee Thursday

Success Will Crown the Efforts of Seminole County Delegation at Tallahassee

LATEST WIRE FROM TALLAHASSEE

TALLAHASSEE, FLA. APR. 15th.

THE COMMITTEE ON COUNTY ORGANIZATION WILL PASS OUR BILL THURSDAY. IT WILL GO TO THE HOUSE ON THE SAME DAY AND IS SURE TO PASS BOTH THE HOUSE AND THE SENATE. UNWARRANTED ATTACKS ON BOTH SENATOR DONEGAN AND REPRESENTATIVE LAKE ARE HOTLY RESENTED IN BOTH BRANCHES OF THE LEGISLATURE. DIVISION SURE TO WIN. R. J. HOLLY.

(Special to The Herald)

Tallahassee, Fla. April 12th. There was great rejoicing in the camp of the Sanford delegation when the word came that Senator Donegan of the Nineteenth comprising Osceola and Orange counties, had expressed himself on the question of county division in Orange. Senator Donegan has withheld his decision and steadfastly refused to take sides with either party until all the facts in the case could be brought to his notice. Since coming to Tallahassee the county division question has been more or less a thorn in the flesh of the Senator and the cause of many inquiries not only from the parties directly interested but from his colleagues and to put all doubt at rest and settle inquiries the Senator on Friday wired all the Orange county papers as follows: "If the Seminole county bill passes the house I will support it in the Senate."

This proved to be a blow to the Orlando delegation for they were basing their hopes on the bill being killed in the Senate after it passed the House, and Senator Donegan's action has blasted the last hope of the anti-divisionists. It has seemed all along to the Sanford people that Orlando had but small hopes but the other holders and the office seekers and a small coterie of demagogues have been so swelled up with the idea of their importance and become so cocksure that having always had their way in county affairs that the north end of Orange could not possibly swing such an important measure as county division over them when they were looking and fighting. But the former days of Orlando's greatness have fled and the north end of Orange will now come into its own.

Representative Lake by a piece of good work had Seminole county division bill introduced on Friday and it will be taken up by the committee about Wednesday. There will be a hot fight made in the committee room, but the divisionists have the facts and they should have no trouble in convincing the committee that the bill ought to be favorably reported. Then the question will be up to the House and here also we have high hopes of being successful.

All of this will take time and worry and it may be several weeks before the question is settled and receives the Governor's signature.

Our committee has censured all wires and newspaper articles and a quiet, orderly campaign has been conducted. This will account for the lack of news from the capital appearing in The Herald. There was nothing to send except the daily grind of the House and Senate and when anything of importance happened and looked like good stuff, Mr. Foster would squelch it and Tommy Bates and Holly have nothing to do but to sit on the porch of the Leon and look wise. However we have the word of the chairman that something will break loose soon and then we will turn the tables.

(Special to The Herald)

Tallahassee, April 14.—There is a pretty county division fight on at present between Sanford and Orlando delegations here in the matter of the division of Orange county and making another county out of the northern half known as Seminole county. The division in Orange has merit and has favorably impressed the general public. Orange county embraces 1,250 square miles and the new county will only have 450 square miles, leaving the old county ample territory. The population of Orange is 19,107. The new county will have 8,500. After dividing the old county will have more population than twenty other Florida counties. The new county will have more population than seventeen other Florida counties. The new territory is ample to take care of itself as there is no bonded indebtedness on the county. ~~and the~~ ~~start~~ off under most favorable circumstances. Senator Donegan of the Nineteenth District, which embraces Osceola and Orange counties, having stated at a meeting in Orlando and Sanford that he would give his decision after hearing both sides, has sent the following telegram to the papers:

"If the division bill passes the House I will support it in the Senate."

This has greatly encouraged the divisionists of Seminole county and carried gloom into the camp of the anti-divisionists as it takes away any hope of killing the bill in the Senate.

There are about twenty citizens from Sanford here now and more coming and there also citizens from Oweida, Geneva and Longwood, all of the new territory, and they are a most enthusiastic bunch of boosters and have made a most favorable impression upon the people here and the members of the legislature. They are merchants and bankers, and business of every kind is represented among them and they are in earnest about the division, having left their homes and business to come to Tallahassee for two weeks to push county division, knowing that in division both counties will be more prosperous and contented.

DONEGAN IS FOR DIVISION—Senator From Nineteenth Defines His Position

Occupied the Position of Neutrality Until Matter Came to the State Capital

The Sanford delegation at Tallahassee are proud of their Representative and Senator. In the House Forest Lake is energetic and aggressive and is on the job all the time. He has the respect and esteem of his colleagues and every one who meets him. The two terms that Mr. Lake has been in the House have been burdensome and he has had but little chance to wear honors that were his by right. The last session he had the Sanford Heights bill that worried him for almost the entire term. Having been reported unfavorably in the House Mr. Lake gained the enviable reputation of finally winning in the House and making good. This term he has the county division bill and while there is every hope of success it keeps Lake from having clear action for his other duties. He is chairman of one of the most important committees in the House, that of City and Town Organizations. This committee last term had over fifty bills before it which gives one an idea of the amount of work cut out for our representative. He is also a member of several other important committees among them being Organized Labor, Militia and State Troops and Census and Apportionment.

Altogether Forrest Lake is the busy little bee and we are with him to a man.

Senator Donegan is serving his first term as our Senator but he is an old hand at the game, having been here before as a member of the House. Our Senator has a fine appearance and is one of the most popular men that wear the toga in the Senate. For a new Senator he has taken a remarkable amount of labor on his shoulders for he would not be content to remain idle in Tallahassee.

He has been made Chairman of the Public Land and Drainage Committee, a very important assignment, and is also a member of the Constitutional Amendment, Banking, County Organization, Organized Labor and Immigration Committees. Aside from his senatorial duties the Senator from the Nineteenth also keeps in touch with his many affairs in South Florida and keeps a stenographer busy with his voluminous mail.

In Senator Donegan the Nineteenth district has a very able representative and he is already being spoken of as a candidate for higher honors but at the present time his thoughts are centered on his own district and he is absorbed in the framing of laws that will benefit the people of Florida.

We are all proud of our Senator and he is proud of his people who are here.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain

The damage to plant No. 1 of the Florida Utilities Company formerly known as the Moore ice works, in Pensacola, as a result of the explosion Wednesday night will reach $50,000.

The formal opening of the new Augusta Memorial Hospital in St. Petersburg will take place in a few days. The hospital is a pleasing addition to the buildings of the city.

Definite steps have been taken towards the organization of a company to build an interurban trolley line between Homestead and Palm Beach.

Daytona is planning to have installed a sewerage system, and in order that it may be up to date and satisfactory, an expert was employed to investigate and report. The city will spend several hundred dollars on the preliminary work, but it is well worth while to have it begun right. When the matter is thoroughly in hand, after the expert's report is made, an election will be held and the people will express themselves on the proposed bond issue for city improvements.

"Villa Serena," the winter home of Hon. William J. Bryan, secretary of state, and Mrs. Bryan, on the Coconut Grove road one and one-half miles south of Miami will be completed within the next few weeks. The contract calls for completion by July 1, but the contractor has concentrated all his energies on the Bryan building and expects to have it completed fully six weeks before the expiration of the contract period. The main part of the structure is done, the roof is being painted and the floors are being laid, and next week work on the interior finishing will be begun.

Messrs. McIVER & McKay are pushing forward the work on the magnificent big building of the Marion County Hospital at Ocala. This work was commenced again after it had stood more than six months. There has been $6,000 expended on the building so far and all but $1,000 of this amount had been paid to the contractors. Bonds are being sold and the amount of money required to finish the building will soon be forthcoming. The plumbing and electric wiring, all concealed, has been roughed in. The work has been done well and with the best material. This does not make much of a showing but costs money. The plumbing and wiring is now all ready for the setting and placing of the fixtures.

Urging upon his hearers "respect for your superior officers, promptness in the discharge of your duties and zeal for the public good," vouching his well wishes for his successor and assuring his men of his tenderest regard, retiring Chief William D. Vincent, for thirty-two years a member of Jacksonville's police system and for fifteen years its chief, made a feeling address to the men at the regular inspection Sunday morning. The address was full of reminiscence and was delivered by Chief Vincent in connection with the leave of absence which has been granted him owing to ill health. Chief Vincent will leave, perhaps, Wednesday for Hot Springs, Ark., for a rest and treatment, provided railway conditions are such that he can get to his destination.

Buggy Collided Saturday Night

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em"
So Says Saunterer.

As I write these lines I understand from all reports that the county division question has not yet been settled. Perhaps by the time this is printed it will have passed both houses and the question that has been uppermost in the minds of the greater part of Sanford's citizens will be settled for the best.

My friends may have noticed that I have had very little to say on the division question up to date and furthermore, I do not intend to mix up with it in these columns. The editor of The Herald has handled the matter so far as the press is concerned in a way, I believe, that has met the approval of the citizens of Sanford and the new county.

I merely wish to say at this time that if the county is divided, and I have every reason to believe it will be, that I wish the new county Godspeed. I can remember no occasion when the representative men of Sanford have been so enthusiastic on any one question and have taken so much interest in any issue as they have on the question of dividing Orange county. Men in our midst who have always been lukewarm on any proposition regarding the betterment of our community and who have never seemed to take an interest in the advancement of Sanford's interests have entered this fight with an ardor and zeal that has caused me to stop and wonder. They have put up a good fight, too, and have covered every point possible and side by side, friends and enemies alike they have fought to the last ditch.

But there is, to my mind, more reason for Sanford even greater than the victory over the Orlando aggregation, greater than the fact that Sanford will now be a county seat, greater even than the fact that a portion of the rich surrounding country will now be tributary to Sanford instead of Orlando. That victory is the fact that Sanford's citizens have almost without exception joined hand in hand in this great movement and are learning to put aside all petty quarrels and jealousies and put a shoulder to the wheel, beside their neighbors and push forward in the interests of Sanford, as one man.

This is the one thing, in my mind, that Sanford has long wanted; the concerted effort on the part of her citizens. Cities rise and fall, but it will be noticed that in their rise their people, almost without exception, have banded together as one and worked and struggled together toward one goal.

Sanford's future has looked brighter to me than ever before from the time the Commercial Club was rejuvenated last summer some time and they had a rousing get-together meeting in the city hall. Ever since that time the business men and citizens have worked more in harmony than ever before and their work in the county division matter has proved that they were really in earnest about getting together.

Long live Sanford! and whether Orange county is divided or not, as I earnestly hope it will be, we are going to see rapid strides in our little city, and that quickly, if the present spirit continues to prevail among our citizens.

The truth of the old saying, "It depends upon whose ox is gored," is brought home to the Democrats of our state at this time quite forcibly in the present tariff revision.

Now I have never claimed to be a tariff student. In fact, the question of the tariff is a very deep subject and unless one has made a study of the question and knows whereof he speaks it is best perhaps to keep quiet.

The fact remains, however, that we all clamor for a reduction of the sugar, wool, beef and many other duties, but now comes a sweeping reduction on a product of our own state, that of the citrus fruits, and a howl goes up that will be heard throughout the length and breadth of the land.

The recent growing increase in the cost of living has come to a point where something must be done to relieve the situation and as producers of food and foodstuffs we will be forced to take our medicine along with the rest of the food producers.

According to Mr. Temple of the Citrus Exchange, who has made a study of the tariff question, the proposed reduction on the citrus fruit tariff is too drastic and is out of proportion to other reductions in the schedule. He states that the proposed reduction would work a hardship on the citrus industry of the state. As I stated above, I am not competent to say whether or not the proposed reduction is a hardship, but Mr. Temple is, and since he advises all growers of citrus fruits to take the matter up with their congressmen I believe it would be well to follow his advice.

If every grower in Florida will write or wire their representative in Washington protesting against the sweeping reduction and asking that they use their efforts in behalf of the citrus industry, it will no doubt prove beneficial to the state.

Sanford Gets 1914 Meet of Eastern Star

Filling the appointive officers of the chapter, installation and selecting Sanford as the next place of meeting, was the work of the final session of the Grand Chapter Order Eastern Star last Thursday at Jacksonville and the chapter was closed.

The beautiful ceremony of installation of the officers chosen was concluded, and the new grand matron, Mrs. Annabella Reed, made an address upon assuming her office. The various officers newly elected were generously besieged with flowers and presents.

Mrs. Annabella Reed, the new grand matron, received quantities of exquisite flowers as well as a valuable Eastern Star ring from her home chapter at Tampa. There were gifts also for the retiring grand patron, Elmer E. Haskell, of Palatka, and for Joseph R. Semple, grand patron of Bartow. Mrs. Franz, grand treasurer, received numerous beautiful bouquets, including a corsage bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley from the grand officers and a huge bouquet of lilies of the valley from Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Haskell.

The next annual meeting of the Grand Chapter will be held in Sanford, the second Wednesday in April, 1914.

Mr. White Remembers Sanford

White, who has just returned from the south, wishes to thank Mrs. Heater for the photograph of herself, car and friends, taken at the luncheon at Shell, Mound, near Sanford, and to add that all guests in his party greatly enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Heater and the other good people of Sanford, regarding it as one of the most delightful days of their trip, spent under exceptionally pleasant surroundings and in very delightful company."

PAPER FACTORY MANAGER HERE

Making Preparation for Installation of Machinery

Mr. G. D. Bishop, who is to manage the business of the Crown Columbia Paper Co. of this city, has returned from a trip over the state and is getting ready for the installation of the presses and other machinery for the new printing business, which bids fair to be one of the best propositions for Sanford that has come our way for some time.

The company, whose business will be for the most part that of printing orange and other fruit wrappers, expects to install about three large web presses that print from rolls of paper much on the order of the large daily papers. They will also have a large stereotyping outfit and power paper cutters to cut apart the wrappers which are printed from 12 to 16 on a single sheet of paper.

The quarters of the new factory will be the building formerly occupied by Chase & Co.'s packing house. This will give them commodious quarters, as well as facilities for loading their product direct to the cars.

At Manatee

The celery shipping season for Manatee county is now practically over. It is thought that next week will see the last crate of this toothsome vegetable go forward to the northern market.

The present season has not been as profitable as it was hoped it would be at the beginning, but still many of our growers made quite a bunch of money, and now have most of their hands set to tomatoes, which, in a small way have begun to move.

The outlook for the tomato crop is indeed bright and every indication points to this being a profitable crop.—Manatee Record.

SANFORD IS A GOOD TOWN

This information has been compiled with the view of furnishing those who may be interested in Sanford, reliable data relating to the growth of this city and environs. Great care has been exercised in getting the facts together as we would have, under the best of circumstances.

Sanford Banks: Resources (Loans, discounts, stocks and bonds: $411,147.65; Real Estate and Fixtures: 44,118.04; Due from Banks: 152,702.13; Cash on hand, in Banks and due from U.S. Treas.: 153,580.00) and Liabilities (Capital Stock: $55,000.00; Surplus: 35,000.00; Undivided profits: 19,891.88; Deposits: 651,665.94) Total: $761,547.82

A comparative statement of gross postal receipts and other business of the Sanford office for the calendar years 1902 and 1912 follows:

Table comparing 1902 and 1912 postal and business statistics: Money orders issued (2892 vs 13353, 361.7%); Money orders paid (1437 vs 6752, 370.0%); Registers dispatched (922 vs 3571, 268.2%); Registers received for delivery (861 vs 3847, 347.9%); Postal receipts ($5170.83 vs $18848.58, 265.5%); Number of clerks employed (2 vs 10, 400.0%); Amount of payrolls ($2050.00 vs $10295.21, 402.1%); No. letters received and dispatched (616,069 vs 2519,010, 417.0%)

The following itemized statement furnished by the Sanford Commercial Club covers the various lines of operations in detail.

Itemized statement of operations: 250,000 crates lettuce ($375,000); 420,000 crates celery (525,000); 25,000 bbl. Irish potatoes (125,000); 225,000 crates various (215,000); 110,000 bushels corn (99,000); 65,000 melons (21,750); 19,000 boxes citrus fruits (74,000); 2,000 tons of hay (12,150); 81,000 watermelons (12,150); Total income: $1,464,900

Some conception as to the magnitude of the above business may be gleaned from the fact that it would require 3,118 cars of a uniform capacity of 10,000 pounds each to carry the product to market. There were 2,109 acres of tiled land in cultivation during the season just closed, as well as 1,400 acres of untiled land.

DIRTY TACTICS

The receipt of the Orlando Sentinel containing an attack on Representative Lake and the members of the County Division Committee has had a bad effect for the anti-divisionists. As usual the Orlando papers are confining their attention to personal attacks on individuals and have no argument to prove that the northern half of Orange county should not be separated from the southern half. The Orlando Sentinel is the same paper that threatened Senator N. P. Bryan with the vote of 4,000 Republicans in the next election because he would not endorse a Republican for the office of Federal Judge, and the Sentinel is backed by the Orlando Board of Trade, the same body that endorsed J. M. Cheney for Judge, the candidate who was backed by the Republicans, headed by the negro, Joe Lee of Jacksonville. This attack of the Orlando Sentinel is in keeping with the policies of the Orlando papers and people who either rule or ruin.

The scurrilous attack on Representative Lake because he would not be ruled by these Ring Rule politicians and the slurs cast at the honorable Sanford citizens has called forth the commendation of not only the fair minded people of Orange county but of the members of the Florida legislature—a body of men who rebuke such dirty tactics by ignoring the source and the information.

The Orlando papers have resorted to injecting the wet and dry question in the county division issue and call the Sanford delegation the brewery crowd and similar names. Casting aspersions upon the same Sanford prominent men who assisted Orlando to remain in the dry column during the last wet and dry campaign.

Such cheap plays to the gallery might prevail in Orlando but the dignity of the legislature has been ruffled by injecting such childish chatter in the legislative assembly and the attack of the Orlando people and the Orlando papers have ruined whatever chances the anti-divisionists may have had to create a favorable impression.

Unless Orlando can bring forth a fair and square argument against county division the Florida legislature will continue to ignore them and the result of the dirty tactics employed by dirty politicians has already acted as a boom-crang and the new county is assured.

HOLLY AT TALLAHASSEE

The following from the Times-Union of Monday is evidence that the "boss" is on the job.

"R. J. Holly of Sanford, better known as 'Bob' Holly, editor of the Sanford Herald, is here, but interested in creating Seminole county. Holly has made money with his paper; there are five papers in Orlando and but one in Sanford, although Sanford is about twice the size of the antagonistic Orlando. Editor Holly has too much ability and judgement to permit others to do business in his town, and he is developing a strength that is amazing. Seminole county is ready and will be added to the state in a few days, and it has been principally due to R. J. Holly."—Times-Union Legislature Notes.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES

Both the newspapers at Kissimmee made important changes in their staffs last week.

S. J. Triplett, who was with the Valley Gazette as editor for several years and who retired to his farm about a year ago, is back again on his old job, "re-invigorated by his respite from newspaper work." He takes the place of J. H. Reece, who has acted as editor since Mr. Triplett's retirement.

The newspaper fraternity of the state will be glad to see "Trip" back again in their ranks.

E. W. Stalker, president of the Ocala Journal since its incorporation last year and who up to that time was its editor and owner, is forced to retire from the active management on account of failing health, and leaves for Alabama. At the next meeting of the stockholders a new president will be elected to fill the vacancy.
 We hope that Mr. Stalker, like Triplett, will soon be back in Florida journalism with renewed health, ready to wield his pen in the upbuilding of Florida.

PROTECT THE HOME

Representative McWilliams of St. Johns county has a bill that will make him famous. It is framed with the idea paramount of the single tax, but is much better in that it provides to exempt from taxation the home.

In other words the man of moderate means who has the home instinct strong in his bosom is now confronted with the bugbear of exorbitant taxes and often loses his home through inability to pay the same. The McWilliams bill will provide for the means of exempting the home from taxation and will be the biggest inducement in the world for the husband and head of the family to provide a secure shelter for his loved ones.

McWilliams is the people's friend.

OUR LEGISLATURE

The editor of The Herald deems it a special privilege to have been associated with the members of the present legislature and would deem himself derelict in his duty were he to fail to recognize their ability. The members are as fine a body of men as have ever graced our legislative halls. They come from every walk of life and their earnest manner of handling all matters that come before them is an indication that no freak bills will pass the sessions and none but the best of laws be placed upon the statute books when their sixty days of labor are over.

They are men who are here solely to give the people of Florida the best that is in them and in the capable hands of the members of the present session the people's interests are entirely safe.

Hats off to the 1918 Legislature.

Welaka Club Notes.

There was a very delightful musical given in the Welaka Club rooms on last Tuesday. There was only a small crowd present, but they thoroughly enjoyed the program prepared by Mrs. O. W. Brady.

Miss Jessie Stumon rendered two delightful cornet solos, "The Palms," and "Evening Star."

Mrs. Newton gave two charming little songs, "Twas April," and "Elastic Hands."

One of the most enjoyable numbers was "The Invitation to the Dance," by Mrs. R. E. Tolar. She gave an explanation of it, which added greatly to the pleasure.

Mrs. O. W. Brady, chairman of this year's Music Committee, in a little talk told the ladies that this would be her last music program, as she expected to leave Sanford the first of May. It is with great sorrow that the Welaka Club sees her go, for she has added largely to the pleasure of the Club and we hope to welcome her back next winter.

Mr. N. J. Perkins gave a little talk on the Art Exhibit to be given at the High School the last of April and asked the help of the Welaka Club.

Sanford Men at the Capital.

One of the men returning from Tallahassee last week said that upon looking around at the crowd of Sanford people there wondered if there was really anybody left in Sanford. At the time he was there the following men from Sanford and surrounding territory were lending a hand in the division fight: F. P. Forster, L. P. McCuller, Chas. Hand, P. M. Elder, T. J. Miller, Henry McLaulin, R. J. Holly, A. T. Rossiter, N. H. Garner, H. C. DuBose, D. L. Thrasher, H. E. Tolar, W. J. Hill, Joe Cameron, Geo. H. Fernald, T. K. Bates, B. F. Whitner, Sr., A. P. Connelly, E. E. Brady, W. J. Thigpen, Will Shelly, Thos. E. Wilson, F. L. Woodruff, S. Runge, J. T. McLain, P. V. Heally and E. A. Douglas.

Commission Government for Orlando.

The proposition to adopt a commission form of government for Orlando was carried Saturday by a majority of two votes. A comparatively small vote was polled and the results indicate apparent indifference on the part of many voters. The vote included the adoption of a charter prepared by a committee of citizens. There was quite an effort made to defeat the matter by some of the city officials.

Clover Club

Miss Flora Walker was hostess of the Clover Club at their regular meeting Friday afternoon. The exceedingly inclement weather prevented a full attendance of the club, there being only seven members and one visitor present. After the transaction of the business of the meeting the afternoon was pleasantly spent pasting postcard banners to be sent to the foreign missionaries for distribution. Fig Newtons, lemonade, struffed dates and candy were served by the hostess.

Temple Will Resign

At a meeting of the citrus growers of the state, to be held on April 18th at Tampa, Mr. W. C. Temple expects to tender his resignation as manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange.

Pressure is being brought to bear by the friends of the manager to let him continue in his present position but he refuses to change his position. He says "The things I hoped to do when I consented to take hold here have been accomplished and I am now ready to quit and enjoy myself, a thing I had promised my family I would do when I went out of the steel business."

"The Exchange is out of debt," says Mr. Temple. "It has a large and growing membership; it has demonstrated its good will and handles a fair per cent of the crop of the state, though by no means what it should have yet."

The resignation of Mr. Temple will mean much to the Exchange, as its members have learned to rely upon the judgment of their chief to such an extent that the news of his resignation will be received with much trepidation.

NOTED LECTURER

Rev. Henry Atkinson D. D. at Congregational Church Friday Next At the Congregational church Friday Atkinson will deliver an address on 'The Relation of a Church to Its Community.' Dr. Atkinson is a specialist on the industrial and social problems of the modern church and comes to Sanford to deliver one of his favorite talks along these lines. He has filled the pulpit of the Central Congregational Church of Atlanta, Ga., for many years, leaving that field to take up this specific work in which he is now engaged. He is said to be a strong and eloquent speaker and one of the ablest men in the Congregational ministry. A cordial invitation is extended the various denominations and people of Sanford to be present and enjoy the address.

Missionary Meeting

The regular business meeting of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held Tuesday afternoon in the church. Mrs. H. H. Chappell, president of the society presided over the meeting. After the devotional exercises the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. C. H. Smith, after which an excellent and very satisfactory report for the past quarter was made by the treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Abernathy. Reports were made by the vice president of the society who were present. After the transaction of further routine business and the appointment of committees and their chairmen, the meeting adjourned.

Presbyterian Church

Preparatory to the Evangelistic Meetings next week, Dr. Brownlee will preach on Wednesday night on "Hesitation to Attempt Personal Work" it will be a sympathetic discussion for the Christian who would like to lead souls to Christ, but who hesitates to speak to them. Friday night at 7:30 there will be a special service of prayer for the meeting. We are hoping for large congregations at each of these services.

Little Folks Recital

How wonderful it seems that the little folks and junior pupils of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson's music class have arrived at the dignity of a real public recital, in the evening—all their own, when they were the performers before a large, appreciative and interested audience. What is really more remarkable, every selection, with two exceptions were play-without notes, entirely from memory by the composed and dignified little performers who seemed perfectly at ease, although they were the cynosure of all eyes. It goes without saying that their delighted instructor was very proud of each pupil, and of course their parents and friends were equally proud. During the evening Miss Lillie Farnsworth entertained the young people with some charming stories, delightfully told.

The Lucky Sanford Minstrel The Lucky Sanford Minstrel was organized a few weeks ago by the young men of this city and on May 8th and 9th at the Star Theatre they will present to the people here for their approval one of the best performances that have ever been given by the home boys.

For the last few weeks the fellows have been rehearsing every other night and on the above dates they will give you a show that will entertain any member of your family.

This company consists of twenty of Sanford's best entertainers and after you have once heard them you would be under the impression that they are all professionals instead of amateurs. It will be a real live minstrel show from the start to finish, but there will be nothing done or said that will offend any lady or child. The first act will be the grand minstrel opening with the semi-circle consisting of fifteen of the best dancers and singers. They have special scenery for this act and this act alone is worth the price of admission. The songs and jokes will be all new and original, something that you have not heard before, for they have gone to a great deal of trouble to secure all new songs and jokes. They also have with them in the semi-circle a fine quartet that will render several selections. The six black face comedians will entertain you with songs and jokes that will cause you to laugh as you have never laughed before. After the first act will be given several good specialties and will close with a one act negro farce called, "The Black Breach of Promise Case." This alone is a show within itself, as it has ten good characters, besides those that will serve on the jury.

The proceeds of both nights will go to the Sanford Base Ball team, so this is a good way to help the ball team. Don't forget the date. Good music, good singing and good dancing.

Price of admission will be 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at Maxwell's. There will be several ladies who will help sell tickets.

The program will be published some time real soon.

To End Commission Graft

The New York Assembly by an overwhelming vote passed last week the Cole Bill providing for state regulation of the commission merchants' business. Produce commission men had their agents on hand to block the progress of the measure, but their efforts failed. The nine men who voted to kill the bill come from New York districts where there are large markets or where the commission men are particularly strong.

The fight for the measure was led by Democratic Leader Levy and Assemblyman Cole of Orleans county.

To conduct a commission merchant business under the proposed law a man will have to obtain a license from the state commissioner of agriculture and file a fidelity bond of $3,000 to safeguard the farmer from attempts to cheat him.

Many instances of rascality on the part of dishonest commission men were cited by Assemblymen from rural districts. Leader Levy said that the honest commission men were not opposed to the bill. "What objection," he asked, "can there be to a measure of this kind?"

If a man is honest he has no reason to be alarmed at state regulation.

Seeking to kill the bill by subterfuge, Assemblyman Cuvillier, championing the amendment and read a letter from the president of the Produce Exchange saying that the 2,000 members of that body were against the measure.

"You farmers," said Cuvillier, to the speakers in favor of the bill, "are glad to sell your skim milk, bad cheese and rotten potatoes to New York City people, but you make a howl when any one happens to do you."

"Foodstuffs are shipped to New York aggregating in value $150,000,000 a year," explained Assemblyman Cole. "The consumers pay $500,000,000 for these shipments. Through the elimination of dishonest practices on the part of the commission men, the consumers I estimate, will save $3,500,000. And that is where this bill affects the high cost of living."

Assemblyman J. A. Smith of Lawrence referred to the crusade of the World which led to the prosecution of several commission merchants on charges of dishonest practices. He declared that the farmer wasn't getting enough for his products and that the consumer was paying too much.

The operations of dishonest commission merchantmen were made easy, said Assemblyman Gage of Montgomery, because no capital was required to conduct the business and a quick get away could be made.

The men who voted against the bill were Caughlan, Cuvillier, Gillen, Kornobis, O'Connor Schifferdecker, Walker and Weil, Democrats, all of New York City, and Sufirin, Progressive, of New York. The measure now goes to the senate, where it will be substituted for the Roosevelt bill on third reading. It will probably be put through the house next week.

Celery Avenue Bridge

A committee from the New Smyrna Board of Trade went to DeLand Monday to meet the county commissioners in the interest of the proposed bridge at East Coast ferry, and while no definite action was taken in regard to the matter the committee is pleased with the attitude of the commissioners and have hopes that the appropriation will be made.

The committee consisted of Brunning, W. H. Newell, E. L. Greer, J. H. Hibbard and D. P. Smith.

The commissioners agreed that they would invite the Orange county commissioners and the committee from the New Smyrna Board of Trade to meet them at the site of the proposed bridge on Tuesday, May 6th, to discuss the proposition.

While some of the commissioners are not friendly to the proposition, it is understood that a majority of them are and it is believed that an appropriation for one half the cost of the bridge will be made. The commissioners certainly could not spend money for a better purpose.—New Smyrna Breeze.

ELIMINATE THAT QUESTION!

You should eliminate now the question of "Have I Enough Fire Insurance?" by making an inventory of your property and determining its present value and comparing the total with your insurance. New additions in fixtures, improvements, furniture, stock, etc., should be protected by additional Fire Insurance—have you attended to this? If not, let us talk the matter over—and, if more insurance is needed, place it in our safe companies. CHASE & CO.

To dress informally does not mean to dress carelessly—the Woodrow is a smart raised toe style that young fellows will like.

This is a happy compromise between the extreme radicalism of the usual "high toe" styles and the more conservative English custom shapes. The toe is somewhat narrow, very graceful, and is raised quite a bit at the end. The last provides ample room at the ball, or treading surface, and the spring of the sole allows comfort for the man who does quite a lot of walking. The heel is moderate in height.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here The Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

The Democratic caucus late today on the tariff took up the Underwood tariff measure, placing wool on the free list after Mr. Underwood had made a stirring appeal for the support of the caucus. An amendment offered by Representative Dies of Louisiana to place raw wool on the dutiable list was defeated.

Military and political leaders from all parts of the Mexican republic are arriving in New Orleans daily, most of them en route to Coahuila to join Governor Venustiano Carranza who has been proclaimed provisional president by various provisional presidents by various revolutionary factions, now in arms against the Huerta government.

Police captains who had charge of the men on March 3, when the suffragettes held their parade in the capital, rallied to the defense of the department today in the hearing of complaints of woman marchers. Six captains, a lieutenant and several sergeants told the same story, that they did everything possible to preserve order and protect marchers and officers and men under him did their best to carry out instructions. The captains declared that there were such crowds on the street that there was some difficulty in carrying out instructions. Several officers said there were not enough regular policemen to handle the crowds and added that the hundreds of special sworn in for the duty that day were practically useless because of lack of training and discipline and on account of the fact that they were not in uniform.

Willis Moore Fired

Washington, April 17. Prof Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau since 1895, and an appointee of the Cleveland administration, today was summarily removed from office by President Wilson. His resignation recently had been accepted to take effect July 1, but after an investigation of his alleged efforts to become Secretary of Agriculture in the present cabinet grave charges of irregularity were preferred and the President today withdrew his acceptance of the resignation, dismissing Mr. Moore.

How About Joe Lee?

Appointments of divers and sundry nature are coming from the White House daily—and Joe Lee holds his job. Collectors, postmasters, attorneys, judges are being made and unmade—and Joe Lee holds his job.

Senators and Congressmen from Florida hustle to the White House and back and tell Wilson and McAdoo that the people are howling—and Joe Lee holds his job.

High priests of the progressives orate and write and consult and suggest—and Joe Lee holds his job.

While office holders are being daily succeeded by Democrats—and Joe Lee holds his job.

A chieftain among the progressives, a stamped and accredited "original" of the Wilson clan, a white man and a Democrat, waits for the internal revenue collectorship of Florida—and Joe Lee holds his job.

Senator Donegan From the Nineteenth District is a Self Made Man

A Native of Florida who has Made Good as a Business Man and is Making Good as a Law Maker

(By D. B. POTTS)

Tallahassee, Fla., April 18th.—Big men may be classified in two grades, mentally and physically, and one senator, Arthur E. Donegan of Orange and Ocoee, measures up to both requirements, the banker-senator from Kissimmee is being felicitated daily on his capabilities and will undoubtedly leave a fine record in the Senate. In 1907, Arthur E. Donegan had a desk in the house and did effective work at that time. During the interim he has increased in favor and power and in 1913 is looking after the two southern counties in the senate.

He is chairman of the committee on public lands and drainage, one of the most important, especially so when it is remembered that the Everglades has a speaking acquaintance with Ocoee, Lake Okeechobee being located on the south end of the famous cattle county of Ocoee. The senator from the Nineteenth District is an inspiration for young men, as he started traveling upwards not more than fifteen years ago. In that time he has managed to accumulate a bank roll that would shame Rockefeller. Not satisfied with owning vast tracts of virgin acres in South Florida, the senator is president of three banks in the state. The First National Bank in St. Cloud, the State Bank of Haines City and the Citizens of Kissimmee are honored by the distinction of having the senator as their president. The Florida Life Insurance Company, together with the Florida Fire and Casualty companies recognized Mr. Donegan's ability and thus we find him on the directorates of these organizations.

Senator Donegan started as a grocery clerk and wound up as gubernatorial timber which is pretty fast traveling. While the modest and unassuming Arthur is not assisting a campaign for the governorship, numerous friends are behind the movement and it is predicted that something will transpire before Governor Trammell finishes his term. Senator Donegan has a greater "Cracker" following than perhaps any other member. Down in South Florida they swear by him but never at him. He has concealed a sentiment of popularity that is pregnant with voting possibilities. A man emanating from the masses is bound to get results when the common people are concerned. Senator Donegan has a happy faculty of getting through turbulent political times without being engaged in unbrogious detrimental to his plans. He has participated in various strenuous campaigns but has always bobbed up with a serenity that is edifying. He permeates localities with his democracy and is gaining ground every day by reason of his pure and undefiled motives.

He sold 18,000 head of Florida cattle one time and if you are good at figures, you can determine the extent of his financial acumen. Money comes to him in box cars, but the accumulation does not make a particle of difference in his plebeianism. He is the same courteous and pleasing gentleman whether he is signing a check for $500,000 or whether he is handing out a quarter to a blind man.

The chances are that Senator Donegan will have more honors after the present session and his chances are bright, for no man is better-liked and more cordially respected than the member from the Nineteenth.

BOY SCOUTS GENTLEMEN

Organization of Little Fellows Wins Merit at Celebration

During the Ponce de Leon celebration closing today the people of St. Augustine have had better opportunity than ever before to learn exactly what the Boy Scout movement amounts to. The verdict of those who have been in immediate charge of the events of the celebration is that no better movement for the boys was ever instituted—Boy scouts are manly boys—gentlemen.

The boy scouts have been in camp on the fort reservation throughout the week. And they were always at hand and willing when there was anything to be done. There was nothing of the military in the camp except what is good in the making of a man of a boy and the instilling of the patriotism in his heart which makes a good citizen. Reveille in the morning with a sunrise gun brought the stars and stripes adrift in the air over the camp and the flag descended at night with the sunset gun.

Because of the absence of a large out-of-town military force the task of policing the lines of the reservation and holding the crowds back from the arena where the great spectacles were enacted was a great one for the officers. But a word was needed and the boy scouts were ready. They were everywhere about the lines, patrolling and holding back the pressing throngs. And they did their part in so gentlemanly a manner, showing uniformly courtesy that won them the ready respect of the people and made them willingly comply with the requests to keep back.

Throughout the celebration whenever emergency arose where an errand should be speedily done and correctly done, there was always a boy scout at hand eager for the task.

Boy scouts are gentlemen. They are going to be mighty good citizens.

Here's wishing every American boy was one.—St. Augustine Record.

Hastings Shipping Potatoes

Hastings, Fla., April 17.—Twenty-eight carloads of potatoes were shipped from Hastings yesterday and probably thirty-five will move forward today. The weather is fine and the spuds are now in prime condition, being well ripened. It is estimated that fifty per cent of the Hastings crop has been shipped. Prices today are ranging from $2.25 for No. 2s to $3.75 for No. 1s. New York prices stand at $4.75 for No. 1s. Heavy rains there yesterday, last night and today have held down the retail trade, preventing better market conditions. The weather in New York today is reported the worst in years for this time of year. The western market is opening up and causing a better demand.

Four carloads were shipped from Elkton yesterday, making five from that section thus far. The growers there are just beginning to harvest.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain

Three steamships left Pensacola Saturday morning with a combined shipment of nearly four million feet of pitch pine lumber and more than a million feet of sawn timber for Lisbon, London, Liverpool and Rosario. One of the steamers carried a large amount of tar, the total quantity being nearly one thousand barrels.

The contract has been let for the erection of a thirty-five room hotel in Daytona. The time stipulated for the completion of the building is the 15th of next October, so that it will be ready for occupancy by November 1. The hotel is to be modern and moderate in price.

While driving his automobile south on Riverside avenue at what is said to have been a high rate of speed, W. A. B. Worley, a well known young man of Jacksonville, crashed into a northbound Riverside street car Tuesday night and was hurled headlong to the pavement, sustaining a fractured skull and other injuries from which he died at 11:40 o'clock at the State Sanitarium.

Plans and specifications have been drafted for the building of a concrete block edifice for the Methodist church at Fargo. Work will be started on the foundation at once and the trustees hope to have it ready for the dedication services the first Sunday in October. The building will be a modern structure in every particular and will cost about $10,000.

Revival of the hemp growing industry, started here many years ago by the original owners of the Perrine grant, is anticipated by those who are watching the situation closely, and it is felt that Cutler, left somewhat stranded when the railroad passed it by and consequently took away most of the shipping from the dock here, is about to receive new impetus and growth. It is understood that a northern company will soon close a deal for most of the property about here, and that it will be replanted and thrown on the market.

The way to make the criminal-minded understand that the law means what it says is to make it hurt and cut to the quick in its enforcement. The other day in Live Oak, an operator in the blind tiger industry, doubtless a persistent sinner who had been getting off light and despising the law accordingly, was brought up with a round turn by a fine of $500 and a chain gang term of ninety days. When he gets through with that sentence he will understand that the law means what it says.

Florida Turned Down

Washington, April 17.—Desperate efforts of the Florida representatives to increase the duties on citrus fruits specified in the Wilson-Underwood Tariff Bill failed in the house Democratic caucus this afternoon. All amendments were voted down with machine-like regularity.

Frenger in Virginia

Captain A. J. Frenger and wife arrived in the city yesterday from Florida—their first visit to Norfolk since the Jamestown Exposition. They were surprised at the material advancement the city has made in the last six years, and predict for it still greater things upon the completion of the Panama Canal. Capt. Frenger is well known to many railroad people here in Virginia, where some years ago he was with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway as conductor, but for the past fifteen years he has resided in Florida and engaged in railroad work with the transportation system of that state. Mrs. Frenger likes Norfolk and will spend the summer and fall here.—Norfolk (Va.) Dispatch.
