

MANY VIOLENT DEATHS OCCUR ON CHRISTMAS

South's Fatality List Includes 84 Persons While Figures For Other Parts Put At 103

ATLANTA, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—A rough list of at least 184 persons, accidentally killed, was provided a grim statement by the South's Christmas Twenty-seven died in automobile accidents, four of burns resulting from one of a railroad mishap and another in a hunting accident.

Nine persons were killed in a single tragedy when a train hit an automobile outside of Charlotte. Five automobile fatalities were reported in Florida, four in Alabama, three in Tennessee, two in Kentucky, and one in Virginia. Floridians killed were Sylvester Sims, of Cedar Key, and his two-year-old daughter, Myrtle; Garland McAllister, 30, son of C. P. McAllister, of Venice, killed north of Suwanee, with an unidentified man.

Springtime temperatures opened a clear through which tragedy found a heavy load in traffic and other fatalities edged into the Nation's Christmas observance. A total of 133 lives were lost.

The mild weather filled the highways of nearly every state and with few exceptions each state topped in the list of 102 automobile deaths. Burns, falls, and other incidents of the celebration swelled the fatality total.

Saddest in the list of tragedies was the collision in which seven worshippers, five in one family, returning from a midnight mass were killed near Atlanta, N. Y., when their automobile was struck by a train.

A youth taking his grandparents to a Christmas dinner in Oak Park, Ill., drove his automobile into the path of another train speeding Christmas celebrations in Chicago and the three were killed.

One celebrity, Ethel Taylor, motion picture actress and former wife of Jack Dempsey, one-time heavyweight champion, was a victim.

Mob Seeks Prison Entrance In Quest Of Police Officer

ALPHARETTA, Ga., Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Fulton and DeKalb county officers, police from Roswell and local officials late yesterday quelled a disturbance by a crowd of men seeking entrance to the Fulton county jail where Chief of Police J. E. Furr was incarcerated following the shooting of Gentle Wood.

Chief Furr was taken from the jail by the officers who kept the crowd at bay until Furr had been transported out of town by Fulton officers en route to Fulton county.

Wood was taken to an Atlanta hospital where his wounds were first regarded as serious. Hospital attendants advised, however, he was in no immediate danger.

Chief Furr said he attempted to arrest four men on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and that during the ensuing altercation several shots were fired and Wood fell. No one was said who fired the shot.

Officers said friends of Wood threatened revenge and approximately 200 persons crowded about the jail demanding that Chief Furr be released to them. The jail was not stormed, but officers here said the arrival of a mob of officers probably prevented a serious affair.

Chief Barrett, one of the four officers said he attempted to hold on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

JUST ANOTHER DAY

ATLANTA, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—The weather was another day of clear and bright weather, with temperatures in the 60's and 70's. The sun was out for most of the day, and the wind was light and variable.

Pope Urges World Union Of Churches

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—Call for a union of Protestants and Catholics the world over was issued by Pope Pius XI, today in an encyclical entitled "Lux Veritatis." The encyclical meaning "the light of truth" and dated on Christmas, commemorates the 1500th anniversary of the council of Ephesus which condemned doctrine of the nestorian patriarch of Constantinople. The pontiff addressed to protestants a paternal exhortation to follow the example of Catholics in honoring the protection of the Virgin Mary as mediator and intercessor with God and said that if it was believed Jesus Christ was God she who bore him must be called mother of God.

CHIEF OF INDIA'S 'RED SHIRT' CLAN IS UNDER ARREST

Action Taken Following Growing Unrest And Lawlessness

PESHAWAR, India, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Growing unrest and lawlessness in the northwest frontier province led to the arrest yesterday of Abdul Ghaffar Khan, chief of the "Red shirt" movement and the promulgation of three new ordinances designed to enable authorities to deal summarily with the situation.

With Abdul Ghaffar Khan, nicknamed "the frontier Gandhi" were taken his brother, Dr. Khan Sahab, Khan Sahab's son, Saad Ullah Khan and Quazi Ata Ullah, an attorney from Marrian, as well as a dozen other minor personalities. Abdul Ghaffar Khan was ordered expelled from the province. The three new ordinances give authorities wide powers to act for the maintenance of peace and security. They will be empowered to arrest, detain and control suspects.

Inventor, Educator Dies At Lake Placid

LAKE PLACID, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Dr. Melvin Dewey, internationally known educator and inventor of the decimal classification system used in libraries, died here today of cerebral hemorrhage. He celebrated his eightieth birthday Dec. 10, and friends from neighboring cities formed motorcades to pay him their respects on that occasion. Dr. Dewey came to Florida in 1928 and established a southern branch of the famous Lake Placid Club of New York which entailed considerable building program in this winter resort. His widow and two sons survive. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Big Response Made By House-Keepers To All-State Products Dinner Idea

Sanford house-keepers are responding in large numbers to the idea of serving an all-Florida products dinner on their tables on New Year's Day. Miss Mabel Wilson, home economics teacher at Seminole High School, this morning said that many house-keepers have telephoned her for further information on the dinner, and that several grocery stores proprietors have been commenting on the many inquiries their customers have made as to what they might serve on such a dinner.

Miss Wilson offered another group of sample menus which are easily made up, and expressed the hope that when New Year's Day arrives, every house-keeper in Seminole County will serve an all-Florida products dinner.

Here are Miss Wilson's menus:

JAP ADVANCE ON CHINCHOW IS POSTPONED

Reason For Letup In Operations Falls To Be Revealed By Authorities In Mukden

By GLENN BARR.
(By The Associated Press)
MUKDEN, Manchuria, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—The Japanese advance on the Walled City of Chinchow, long remaining stronghold in Chinese hands in Manchuria, appeared last night to have been postponed for the second time within a month.

Authoritative sources here it was said all columns operating against irregulars to the southwest of Mukden had been withdrawn during the day to their original stations within the South Manchuria railway zone and that immediate hostilities between the Japanese troops and the Chinese in the vicinity of Chinchow were unlikely.

The reason for the withdrawal remained obscure yesterday in Mukden where little news of the world capitals penetrates except in the form of brief press dispatches. These yesterday gave the impression that the destinies of Manchuria were being worked out for the time being, in the field of world diplomacy rather than on Manchuria's frozen plains.

Deputy Sheriff Is Killed In Attempt To Stop 'Runners'

EVERGLADES, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Sheriff Lewis J. Thorne said Deputy Sheriff L. G. Hutto, 30, fatal shot Thursday night by an unknown assailant in a motor car, died in an attempt to stop activity of rum runners.

Hutto, who was also chief of police of Everglades, was fatally wounded shortly after he left a pre-Christmas party at the home of a friend.

The sheriff said he never had statement on reports that several cases of liquor were found yesterday along the beach here, believed to have been abandoned when bootleggers were interrupted in their work by Hutto.

Thorne said marks left in the roadway near where the shooting took place indicated that Hutto jumped on the running board of an automobile in an effort to halt it. He was shot several times and his body dragged some distance down the road.

All roads leading from here were guarded last night and today, but no trace of the slayer was found.

Hutto formerly lived in Denmark, S. C., where his body will be sent for interment.

RECIPE FOR SCALLOPED EGG PLANT: Pare an eggplant and cut in two thirds inch cubes. Cook in a small quantity of boiling water until soft, then drain. Cook two tablespoons of butter with one half onion, finely chopped, until yellow, add three fourths tablespoon of finely chopped parsley and eggplant. Turn into a buttered baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake until crumbs are brown.

RECIPE FOR STUFFED PEPPERS: Eight medium green peppers; 2 1/4 cups of ground American cheese; 2 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs; 2 tablespoons minced onion; 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine; 1 teaspoon salt, and 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

White House Is Scene Of Yuletide Merriment With Real Santa Claus On Duty

YATES IS ON HAND FOR GOLF MEET SLATED SUNDAY

Hard-Driving Player Will Lead Host Of Excellent Golfers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—The President and Mrs. Hoover spent most of Christmas day acting as spokesman for a "round" Santa Claus who appeared at the White House early and then vanished as the gift deliverer has a way of doing.

Probably they explained his disappearance to young Peggy Ann Hoover and the younger Peter by pointing out that Santa has a good deal of work to do and could not linger, even at the executive mansion.

With reminders of his early morning visit however, the Hoover children were satisfied. Santa had been good to them.

He brought Peggy Ann two dolls, an electric stove and tiny cooking utensils to match and a pair of roller skates.

Peter's presents were more to masculine taste. They also included roller skates, but there the duplication of his sister's gifts ended. He got a toy airplane, a tractor and a bag of marbles.

President Hoover made the selections himself last Tuesday when he mingled with other shoppers in inspecting toys on display in downtown stores.

If Peggy and Peter had not been so excited at the sight of Santa's flowing white whiskers and his red-trimmed costume, they might have been puzzled at the similarity of his voice to that of Lawrence Reiby, one of the President's secretaries.

They were in no mood to be skeptical, however, and both treasured their gifts over his coming.

The grapes were treated the generous saint with respect, despite occasional knowing smiles. They had reason too. In the capacious bag across his shoulder, he carried presents for every member of the family—the President and First Lady, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., and their youngest son, Allan Hoover.

There was an informal family dinner at the White House in the early afternoon. Members of the cabinet and their families visited there last night for another informal dinner.

The chief subject was not problems of state but the reactions of the children to the appearance of the day's patron saint.

Many members of Congress were out of town, but whether here or back home, officialdom followed the example of the President in sipping, sipping and explaining the comings and goings of the one and only Santa.

Fire Damages Store Room At Cemetery

Damages amounting to about $2,000 were sustained in a fire which destroyed a store room owned by the Florida Funeral Home at Evergreen Cemetery on Christmas Eve. The building was almost wiped out when fire broke through the roof. It contained burial equipment, several values in tools, and four casket boxes.

Grass fire on Magnolia Avenue (Thirteenth Ave) was the only incident which needed the attention of the Sanford Fire Department. Both were controlled without difficulty.

Hawaii's Erupting Volcano Is Dimmer Following Spurt

HILLO, Hawaii, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Hawaii's "pit of ever-lasting fire" glowed more dimly today as the eruption of Kilauea volcano passed its maximum of current activity in which it gave the spectacular Christmas Eve spectacle of lava fountains and a fall of sulphur fumes.

Explaining Kilauea's outbreak, Dr. T. A. Jagger, volcanologist, said the current activity began with an earthquake Wednesday. The quake, he said, was due to an enormous gas pressure, causing an upward action. Thereafter three fountains of molten lava spouted from the crater. The first pit more than 1000 feet deep in Kilauea's crater.

FLOOD VICTIMS CAROL DESPITE THEIR TROUBLE

Convicts And Volunteers Fight To Bolster Levees Weakened By High Water

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Indignity to Christmas Day, residents of the flooded town of North East, West Virginia, have not their holly wreaths and song books as reminders of the holiday. They have only the sight of the levees which have been weakened by high water.

With a water flowing through the streets of flooded town and Sunday workers in their Christmas visit, the town is suffering as they try to hold the levees in place.

Superintendent J. W. Williams of the town authority, who rushed 200 convicts to the danger zone for levee work yesterday, said the levee in one Sunday and today would hold, although the Tullahoma levee still was being worked at the rate of two to three feet every 24 hours, while Cassidy's levee, fed by the Tullahoma, presented an additional menace to the town.

Attack On Barracks Costs Eleven Lives

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Communists stormed a regimental barracks at Copayapu, a provincial capital, at Aconcagua and 11 persons were killed in the one-day fight yesterday.

The barracks were attacked by the communists while most of the soldiers were on Christmas leave. Casualties included 10 soldiers, who returned hurriedly chased off the mob after a three-hour fight. A number of arrests were made.

The crowd included three soldiers and two women spectators.

Trade Body To Hold Important Meetings

Two important chambers of commerce meetings are scheduled to be held on Tuesday in the trade body headquarters in the city hall.

One, at 3:00 o'clock, will feature the membership committee in session, with R. A. Newman, chairman, presiding.

The other, at 7:00 o'clock, will feature the executive committee, with Harry M. Papworth, chairman, and the budget and finance committee with D. F. Haines as chairman.

Children Are Thrilled When Santa Claus Lands In Plane With Gifts

It is doubtful if the 1000 or more children of this county ever received such a thrill as they did Christmas Eve at the lakefront aviation field when, after waiting patiently for nearly an hour, they saw Santa Claus come out of the North in an airplane and make a landing right before their eyes.

He had no sooner landed than he was surrounded by hundreds of wildly excited children who rushed across the field to meet him, and from that moment until the last bag of candy had been distributed, childish hearts were thrilling almost to the breaking point.

When Santa was able to force his way through the crowd at the lakefront, he paraded up First Street to Park Avenue and then to Central Park, accompanied by about 250 white and colored children, where they were met by nearly 750 children and their parents, crowded around a huge Christmas tree where lay some 300 gifts and 1200 bags of candy and nuts.

There, Santa spent half an hour mingling with the children, young and old, patting a cheek here and giving advice there. In the meantime, members of the Sanford Elks Club, who had staged the party for the children, were busily arranging the children in groups so that the distribution of gifts and candy could be carried out with ease.

For the next half hour Santa was busy handing out gifts and candy to the 250 needy children

Several Die When Flames Burn Hotel

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—At least four persons died early today in a fire that swept the five-story new Court Hotel, one of the largest 18 apartment buildings in the city. Fire officials expressed belief that the fire started in a kitchen on the fourth floor. The fire was under control by 10:30 p. m. and all buildings were closed. Damage may reach $1,000,000. The fire was caused by a gas stove. The fire was caused by a gas stove. The fire was caused by a gas stove.

ACCIDENT AND VIOLENCE MAR CHRISTMAS DAY

Child Is In Critical Condition From Injuries In Car Crash

The condition of Roy McClelland, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gertie McClelland, who was severely injured in an automobile accident late yesterday afternoon was reported as being unchanged at noon today.

The child received deep cuts about the head and chest, and a number of other injuries, when the automobile in which she was riding, driven by Mr. McClelland and containing Mrs. McClelland and Roy McClelland, 5, was struck by a truck driven by George Moley, negro, and to have been hospitalized.

The accident occurred at 6:30 p. m. on the intersection of First Street and Lewis Street, almost in front of the West Side Grocery. Mr. McClelland and his family were returning to Sanford when they were warned by the car driven by Moley to get out of First Street on the south end and crashed into the McClelland car, turning it over on a ditch.

Sheriff J. E. McClelland, who was driving toward Sanford on a short distance back of his own car, was the first to assist the injured.

FOUR BROWN IN STORM
CANTZ, Spain, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Four holiday makers, including Capt. Luis Phevarria of the Spanish army, were drowned yesterday when a fishing boat sank in a storm off sea. A furious gale lashed the southern coast of Spain, making navigation difficult and forcing small craft to seek shelter.

REACTIONS TO BASEL REPORT ARE REVEALED

Most Nations Look On Committee Finding On Debt Matter As Step In Right Way

(By The Associated Press)
The report of the Young plan advisory committee meeting at Basel on German reparations aroused comment in capitals throughout the world. Below are the "nut-shell" reactions:

Berlin—Satisfactory, although it fell short of being a large-minded solution of the finance problem.

Paris—Not so bad as had been feared.

London—Better the outlook for the impending international conference on reparations.

Geneva—The experts did their work well, but only the governments can work out remedies when political questions dominate the international situation so completely.

Venice—At least another step in the right direction.

Washington—Despite the committee's findings, Congress has made it impossible for the administration to take any further action on debts.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—London newspapers treated the report of the Young plan advisory committee as an event of major importance. Official comment was lacking here as most members of the government are out of the city for the holidays.

The Times declared the report brightened the outlook for the year.

Veteran New York Newspaper Man Is Dead From Illness

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—(A.P.)—Charles Sumner, one of the best known of New York's veteran newspapermen, died yesterday in a hospital after a brief illness. He was 68 years old.

Sumner, who was born in New Orleans, started out to be a lawyer at the age of 14, but two years later was a reporter in Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Before beginning the New York career that lasted nearly 40 years, Sumner worked on papers in Asheville, N. C., and Philadelphia.

Then he came to New York and for years covered major trials, sports events and other assignments, working at various times for three dailies. He once said that he had witnessed 18 elections, six hangings, one lynching and one murder.

He was a friend of O. Henry and other literary celebrities and Don Marquis once dedicated a story "Demons" to him.

The title of the yarn stuck to him as a nickname. Since 1919 Sumner had been out of active work, devoting his time to writing fiction, mostly detective stories.

Longwood Birds Are Shipped To Holland
J. A. Belline, of Longwood, recognized as one of America's outstanding breeders of Silver Laced Wyandottes, Thursday afternoon announced that he had shipped a trio of the Wyandottes to Holland. They are consigned to B. Stobben, Apeldoorn, Arnhem, Arnhem, Holland.

Mr. Belline's Wyandottes have taken sweepstakes and ribbons of all kinds at such famous shows as the Cullum Poultry Show in Chicago, the Madison Square Garden Poultry Show in New York City, as well as all outstanding shows in the South.

The shipment to Holland is typical of the fame these Longwood birds have attained, as other birds have been sold to fanciers in Pretoria, South Africa; Lisbon, Australia; Buenos Aires, Argentina, and all parts of America.

TULANE MENTOR IS PESSIMISTIC AFTER WORKOUT

Declares 1st Eleven Looked Terrible In Practice With Subs

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—Dubious as to the ability of his team to uphold the pressure of the South in Rose tournament play, Coach Bernie Bierman brought 25 of his Tulane gridiron Greenies into town yesterday to make final preparations for the football game with University of Southern California on New Year's day.

"The Green Wave mentor, was pessimistic. He said that after yesterday's workout at Tucson, Ariz., that his first eleven looked 'terrible' against Southern California. He was convinced the 25 to 7 victory he had predicted for the Tulans was too optimistic.

"Unless we improve a lot over our showing and workout on route, the Tulans will beat us by a greater margin.

"Outside of the practice sessions we had a nice journey." Bierman's players were as optimistic as he was pessimistic. Capt. Jerry Dalrymple, all-American end, said "We're to beat 'em. Those two to one odds against us go too much."

Bierman's assistants, however, shared his feelings that Tulane was due to be defeated.

Ted Cox, who becomes head coach next year when the present mentor goes back to Minnesota, and Lester Lautenschlager, said the best "information we could take back after seeing Georgia defeated, 60 to 0, was advice to cancel the game."

Few of the 105 southern followers who arrived on the special with the team would accept this gloomy outlook. They figured the Green Wave wasn't making just a holiday trip but would give the Tulans a terrific battle.

Besides Willis G. Hunter, University of Southern California athletic director, the Tulane team was greeted by Hal C. Reynolds, athletic chairman of the Tournament of Roses committee, and Bill Spaulding, former Minnesota head coach and now athletic director and head coach of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Despite the early hour of the arrival, 8:30 A. M., approximately 500 persons gathered to see the team when the train arrived. Dalrymple, although not in the best of condition as a result of injuries received in the Washington State game, promised to be in top center, was hobbling on crutches because of a bad ankle and is not expected to see any action.

George Halz, sub-halfback, probably will join the team in a few days. He was left behind because of the death of his father.

Bierman surprised everyone by saying his starting lineup probably would undergo that presented by the light Georgia team. He said that while it was impossible to make a definite selection, his first team probably would be Dalrymple and Haynes, ends; Calvert, Denigley or Claggett, Upton, tackles; John Scarfle, McCormick, guards; W. P. Rodriguez, center; Dawson, quarterback; Felix, fullback; Zimmerman, Glover, halfbacks.

There is a possibility of presenting a much heavier lineup by using Charley Calhoun at guard, and Thomas Cunningham at tackle. Each weighs 210 pounds.

There also is some question as to whether Francis Payne or Glover will be Zimmerman's running mate at right half. Payne is a great ball carrier and would add materially to Tulane's much vaunted deception.

Coach Bierman put his backs end through setting up exercises, and the line worked at blocking. No defensive drill was attempted, but much time was spent on fundamentals. The practice apparently was given to preparation as an exhibition, with the real session in preparation for Southern California left for another day.

CHICK MEEHAN IS TO COACH SMALL GOTHAM COLLEGE

Former N.Y.U. Mentor Gets Berth Where Ballyhoo Is "Out"

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—John F. "Chick" Meehan, who stepped out of "big league" football at New York University and turned toward colleges where the game is played on a saner level, has found the place he was seeking.

Manhattan college, with a student body of only 1000 and no desire for more, no "ballyhooing" ambitions, no thought of building an eleven to command the attention of the nation announced yesterday that Meehan, president of the Football C. A. C. association, had accepted the post, there as director of physical education and coach of football.

He succeeds John Law, Notre Dame guard, who resigned a few days ago.

Meehan resigned at New York University after seven years of coaching in which he raised the Violets from obscurity to a place among the leading elevens of the country.

Along with Meehan's resignation came a university announcement of a policy of de-emphasis. At the same time "Chick" told the Associated Press that he would never again coach college football on a big time basis again.

"I'm through with the big gates, high pressure, terrific schedules," he said then. "I'm sick and tired of driving boys, whipping them into frenzies with everything but lashes, seeing them crack from nothing but exhaustion. That's not football, the game, I'll never be a party to that again."

Meehan yesterday, happy at the chance to carry out his new policy, planned to take over all sports at Manhattan shortly after the Christmas holidays.

"I never expected to coach again," he said, "but they read that story at Manhattan and they asked me to come there and do just that. We'll play the same teams we've always played and have three games that are 'big for us' each season.

"We'll have an extensive intramural system with emphasis on the boys playing for the fun of it. Of course we'll play to win. I could never coach a team to do otherwise. But if we lose there'll be no weeping and wailing."

Jolly Small, charged with being drunk and disorderly, pleaded guilty and was fined $7.50.

Booker T. Bradley, charged with breaking and entering, had his case transferred to county court.

Bill Hutto and Allie Carter, each charged with vagrancy, had their cases transferred to the county court.

Robert and Florrie Collins, each charged with being drunk and disorderly, pleaded guilty and were fined $7.50 each.

Jessie Campbell and Sam Sparrow, each charged with disorderly conduct, pleaded guilty and were fined $0 each.

Isaac Dover, charged with assault, pleaded not guilty, but was fined $17.50.

Sam Walters, charged with assault, pleaded guilty and was fined $25.

Henry White, charged with vagrancy, pleaded guilty and was fined $15.

Monroe Holt, charged with disorderly conduct, pleaded not guilty, but was fined $5.

J. Carter, charged with contempt of court, pleaded guilty and was fined $5.

Ralph Wight Sees Brighter Prospect For Cars In 1932

With an estimate of 49,000 automobiles which must be replaced with new cars in the very near future in the Jacksonville area in which Sanford is located, prospects for the 1932 sale of new automobiles in this territory are far brighter than at any time during the past few years.

This was the report brought back to Sanford by R. B. Wight, local Hudson and Essex dealer, who returned recently from Jacksonville where he attended a private preview of new 1932 Hudson and Essex models which, he said, established a new record for the number of advanced features.

"Hudson has the courage of its convictions and plans to maintain its huge advertising expenditures in 1932. As usual, the bulk of next year's appropriations will be expended in newspaper advertising, which in past years has been used so successfully in building up Hudson and Essex prestige and sales. For these reasons, Hudson and Essex selling organizations here and throughout the country are looking forward to a substantially increased percentage of next year's larger automobile business," Mr. Wight said.

"What can be more roinous and more unjust than to say to the surviving children of a deceased malefactor that they shall inherit their father's estate undiminished by any restitution out of it for the benefit of other children of the malefactor's victim who have been bombed or put on the spot?"

The Supreme Court handed down many other decisions yesterday, among them a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the Indian River County Commission to levy a 6 mill tax for the Indian River Mosquito Control District as requested by the district trustees.

Sheriff J. P. Davidson of Manatee county was ordered to discharge from custody Willie Cherry who was being held under a grand jury indictment charging him with "being a common and notorious thief." Ruling on habeas corpus proceedings, the court held that the indictment was in error.

The court held that a contract for purchase of oyster shells, entered into by the Duval County Commission and the Atlantic Shell Company, was valid and denied E. W. Weston's application for an injunction.

Other decisions were: Ed Hurley v. State of Florida, Walton county, affirmed in memorandum decision.

Southern Life and Health Insurance Company v. Blanche Mott, Polk county, affirmed in memorandum decision.

Warren E. Wood v. State of Florida, Taylor county, affirmed in memorandum decision.

William E. Nichols v. Millar-Lensley Supply Company, Volusia county, affirmed in memorandum decision.

Gilson P. Farrington v. Frank P. Allen, Pasco county mortgage case, reversed.

W. B. Shelby Crutchfield and others v. Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Manatee county, mortgage case, affirmed on condition.

D. S. Lovett v. R. F. and P. J. Shore, Madison county, ejectment suit, affirmed.

CRIMSON TIDE TO PLAY N.Y.U. IN '32 AT POLO GROUNDS

Game Next Year To Be Alabama's 1st Invasion Of New York

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—The Crimson Tide of the University of Alabama will roll on the Polo Grounds, New York on Oct. 28, 1932. Coach Frank Thomas announced yesterday with complete in of arrangements for a game on that date.

It will be the Tide's first bow in New York.

Thomas recently announced completion of a contract for Alabama to appear in Washington on Oct. 6, 1932, against George Washington University.

The Tide invaded the East in 1922 to trim Pennsylvania's 9-0-0 and the following year lost to Syracuse 23 to 0. Except for jousting to the Pacific coast three times, Alabama in recent years has confined its gridiron warfare to the South.

ATLANTA, Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—An all-Southern conference football schedule has been arranged for 1932 by at least two conference schools, Kentucky and Georgia Tech.

Several schools have listed seven and eight conference games in a season but Kentucky's nine-contest arrangement sets a new high. The Wildcats start off with V. M. I., rival play Sewanee, Georgia Tech, Washington and Lee, V. P. I., Alabama, Duke, Tulane and Tennessee.

There are no easy spots on the schedule and Coach Harry Gamage is ambitious enough to tackle Alabama, Duke, Tulane and Georgia Tech are prominent newcomers to the Kentucky line.

Georgia Tech's full schedule has not been announced but it also will include a post-season charity game with the University of California at Berkeley.

VOIS MAY PLAY AGGIES

Although confirmation is lacking, the Mississippi Aggies may replace Carson-Newman on Tennessee's 1932 football line up. The Volunteers also have been negotiating with Georgia and Tulane for games next fall.

Knoxville fans are clamoring for an inter-sectional game for Bob Neyland's team in 1932 and the Vols may line up an Eastern foe.

FURMAN TO MEET ARMY

Furman, beaten by Army two years ago, plans another visit to West Point next year, also will play Davis-Elkins at Greenville in its second inter-sectional skirmish. In addition to its Eastern game with Columbia, Virginia is seeking another inter-sectional opponent for 1932 to replace Harvard, Howard, successful in its game with Duquesne this year, will tackle North Dakota next fall.

MAY DROP CITADEL

The long standing Orangeburg, S. C. fair game between South Carolina and The Citadel may be passed up next year by the Gamecocks. South Carolina may play Tulane on this date.

Motor Trucks And Buses Restricted To Lighter Loads

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—The State Road Department and the State Railroad Commission yesterday announced that motor trucks and buses operating as common carriers under authority of the railroad commission will be limited to a gross load and vehicle weight of 30,000 pounds.

Heretofore the maximum weight allowed was 24,000 pounds for this type carrier and 18,000 pounds for private carriers. Florida law says the railroad commission may allow up to 24,000 pounds.

Chairman Robert W. Bentley of the road department said the weight reduction was desired upon for public safety and for protection of state highways which are worth approximately a fourth of a billion dollars.

Many state roads and bridges, particularly wooden bridges, will not continue to carry the heavier loads with safety and without serious damage to the pavements, he said.

He said road department inspectors will go on duty the first week in January to enforce the law. Violators will be arrested by deputy sheriffs on complaint of the inspectors, he added.

ditional reparations annuities, which the committee had no power to touch, but the statement that "the committee would not consider it had fully accomplished its task if it did not draw the attention of the governments to the unprecedented gravity of the crisis, the magnitude of which undoubtedly exceeds the relatively short depression" envisaged in the Young plan, to meet which the "measures of safeguard" contained therein were designed."

4. The statement that Germany is taxed to the utmost, leaving no margin for increase.

5. The assertion that Germany is likely to recover from the business depression as are other nations, "but the German problem, which is largely responsible for the growing financial paralysis of the world, calls for concentrated action which the governments alone can take."

6. The statement that the problem is world-wide and without any previous precedent parallel.

7. The declaration that "action is most urgently needed in a much wider field than Germany alone."

8. An appeal to the governments to permit the delay in dealing with the "great crisis which weighs so heavily on all alike."

These points were set forth in a summary prepared by Walter W. Stewart, the American member of the committee, and Sir Walter Layton, the British delegate. They coincided with the German extract made public earlier in the day.

While refraining from specific recommendations, the document contained stronger language than had been expected here.

Commenting on the reference to war debts, Stewart said that "in a broad way" they were contained in the communique issued last October by President Hoover and Premier Laval after their conversations in Washington.

Asked whether mention of war debts was compatible with the views of the Washington administration, Stewart said: "I think there is the same difference between the language of the report and the administration's views as there is between the views of the ratification passed by Congress and the administration's opinions."

The American delegate said he had had a free hand during the negotiations and had not since communicated with Washington nor had Washington communicated with him.

The majority of the delegates reflected disappointment that they were unable to write any definite recommendation into the report. The French and their supporters were pleased at having passed the question of what must be done over to the conference of governments that has been tentatively scheduled for some time in January.

Mellon Adds His Appeal To Speed Economic Help

derging revision yesterday, at the direction of the banking administration which inquired into the measure has the promise of prompt consideration by the Senate after the recess but there are signs of some opposition, despite strong bi-partisan support.

Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, one of the Republican independent group, yesterday called hearings to begin next week on proposals to advance millions from the treasury for direct federal relief for unemployment. That move will be severely opposed by the administration.

LaFollette also added to the red-hot melting pot a separate authority to issue $5,000,000,000 "temporarily bond issue" to be used in the immediate expansion of public works by federal, state and local governments.

Senator Norris of Nebraska, of the independent group, already has pending a bill to authorize a $5,000,000,000 bond issue for federal road construction.

Meanwhile, the Senate's special committee studying the unemployment insurance question will meet during the recess to draft a report to the Senate on this involved unemployment relief proposition.

The Democratic attitude toward proposals for direct federal aid to the unemployed has not crystallized. However, there is every indication that the major points of the emergency program advanced by President Hoover will be considered as a non-partisan basis.

Clear indications of a split have appeared among some of the members of the Senate's special committee.

Miami Beach Is In Battle Over Best Financial Report

MIAMI BEACH, Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—The publicity battle between Albany, Ga., and Milwaukee, Wis., as to municipal per capita wealth, has become a triangular affair.

Where Milwaukee showed city coffers holders $0.67 per capita, and Albany $2.50 per person in the municipal purse, Miami Beach claims a cash balance in banks to give a $72.00 per capita figure for city moneys, based on the federal census population figures of 6,400.

City Manager Claude Renshaw, admitting that the census figure is hoisted to nearly 30,000 in winter time, asserted that the $72 figure was unfair because many property owners are in the winter resident class.

From this angle, he said, the $489,024.47 cash balance for the city at the end of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, would show a $15.30 per capita figure at the rate of a 20,000 population.

During the past year, the city retired $431,000 in bonds, $160,000 of which were retired before maturity. The city now is in a position to retire all bonds maturing in 1932, Renshaw said. He continued that the past two years have seen a saving of more than $15,000 in interest through retirement of bonds before maturity. Bonds valued at $2,114,000 have been retired in the last five years.

And although the city is only 15 years old, its assets exceed liabilities by more than $4,500,000, the city manager stated.

A tax reduction of 25 per cent has been accomplished in the last five years.

Army Aviator And Private Killed In Airplane Accident

HILLINGSLEY, Ala., Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—An Army pilot and a private who had hopped a ride home on a Christmas furlough were killed eight miles from here yesterday as the ship crashed into an oak thicket.

The pilot, Lieut. Bruce A. Tyndall, 25, of Montgomery was flying to Memphis on a mission from Maxwell Field and Private William C. Newborn, 27, of the Fifty-Fourth Squadron, had been given a ride to his home at Oshtemo, Tenn. for a Christmas furlough.

Residents in the vicinity of the crash said fog and mist overcast the country at the time and the plane was heard overhead its motor missing. Witnesses said the pilot apparently was making a forced landing and crashed into the thicket. Both men were dead when help reached the plane.

Lieutenant Tyndall was an experienced pilot. He entered the Army air service from West Palm Beach, Fla., in June, 1928. He is survived by his wife, the former Elvise McKerrall of Montgomery. Officials at Maxwell Field.

However, fails to present a shred of evidence to refute the judgment of economists and other careful students of the present situation that it is necessary to bring into the markets of the country a large volume of new purchasing power if we are to overcome the present business inertia, and if we are to save ourselves from slipping deeper into the morass of depression.

California Fruit Crops Profitable On Crop

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 24.—(A.P.)—An increased production brought higher profits to California fruit growers this year (the annual summary issued by the federal and state crop reporting service said. The Christmas Spirit

Anyone who was down town Thursday night, and almost everyone was, could not help but notice the fine spirit of friendliness and goodwill which was evidenced on every hand.

This attitude which prevailed to a marked degree Thursday night and all day Friday, is easily explained without serious difficulty by the simple statement, "It's the Christmas spirit."

What a fine thing it would be for the world if this Christmas spirit could be made a permanent sort of thing which would be practiced by the people of the world every day in the year instead of only at Christmas time!

Fortunately for the world this spirit of Christmas is more and more finding wider application in the field of business, politics, and community life in general.

During the past few months we have seen an unusually large number of drives conducted for the benefit of the unemployed, or for the Red Cross, or some other charitable agency.

If this same spirit can be even further extended and developed to apply to all our problems, we believe they will continually become smaller and smaller until they fade away altogether.

Humility's Dividends

A normal human being's head rarely grows after he has reached the age of eighteen. Quite a few people forget this. Many of them subconsciously feel that they should have a larger hat than the minute they are entrusted with the least bit of authority.

In olden days many kings believed they ruled by Divine Right. They now are dust, and some of their heirs of today have tasted the dust because they considered that the king could do no wrong.

The martinet belongs with King Tut. Illusions of grandeur have led to more untimely disgraces and unhappy endings than anything else history recounts.

Humility pays dividends. Show those who trust you that you can carry authority without a loud speaker attached to your badge, and they will give you more and greater power.

There are two garments that should always fit you if you would have your fellow men regard you with esteem—your shirt and your hat.

POLITICS

MIAMI DAILY NEWS

President Hoover lays before Congress a series of recommendations for coping with the depression. He presents them as non-partisan measures to which he invites a non-partisan support.

The Republican national committee meets in Washington to arrange for the coming national convention. That, of course, is a proper partisan proceeding.

Mr. Hoover presents a program which he asks the Democrats to regard as non-partisan and as such to be made their program.

This is not, one should believe, the mark of bad faith on the part of the president, which, on the face of it, seems to be. It is a mark of that lack of teamwork between the president and his official family, which has been one of the evidences.

Secretary Hurley has been asked to do his chief a great disservice. He has drawn upon the administration the sum of $100,000 for the purpose of making a study of the situation which the administration is bound to place upon the commission.

power representations of the United States, Great Britain and France, expressing apprehension over the movement toward Chinchow, came reports that the foreign office in Tokyo had instructed its Peking legation to urge upon the Chinese evacuation of that city.

It was recalled that the previous drive toward Chinchow was halted suddenly Nov. 27 with the Japanese army half way down the Peking-Mukden railway on its way to the Walled City. At that time it was said the suggestion of landings had proceeded so rapidly that continuation of the movement was unnecessary.

The Japanese military command last night was apparently awaiting further developments before ordering a general advance which, the majority of observers here, Japanese and foreign alike, last week predicted would occur by today.

The official Japanese communiqué last night was silent on the day's developments and was entirely devoted to Thursday's fighting in the region of Tienchuang-tai and to minor operations against irregulars along the Mukden-Antung railway.

The communiqué reported a fight between Japanese and Chinese armed trains Thursday northwest of Tienchuang-tai, resulting in the flight of the Chinese. It also asserted that Chinese bodies, found when the Japanese occupied Tienchuang-tai Dec. 23, were clothed in regular army uniforms beneath civilian garb.

At Yingkou, where bitter fighting took place Thursday, all was reported quiet last night.

TOKYO, Dec. 25.—Indignation was aroused in Japanese military circles by the latest representations of the United States, Great Britain and France on the Manchurian situation and the foreign office, it was said, deplored the expressions of apprehension on the ground that they tended to aggravate the situation rather than help solve it.

Formal replies to the three communications, made to the foreign office Dec. 23, will go forward sometime today and will say, it was said in authoritative quarters, that Japan cannot alter her attitude regarding the necessity of stamping out bandit activities in South Manchuria.

The expressions of apprehension by the three powers were brought forth by reports that Japan intended to seize Chinchow, one of the chief points of the replies will be to the effect that they were based upon a misconception of the actual position.

Military attaches acting as observers for the American press were made only of condition in the immediate region of the city and not about the line of the South Manchurian railway where Japanese troops are reported to have moved.

The replies are expected to agree the point that since the Manchurian outbreak in which the Japanese army has been obliged repeatedly to exercise the right of self-defense, the Chinese administrative machinery has ceased entirely to function and that consequently the situation requires that the Japanese government itself take action against banditry.

Under no circumstances, the replies will say, will the army overstep the scope of measures unavoidable for self-defense.

The press today declared that in military circles the representations were considered an unwarranted attempt at interference. Officers of the Kwantung Army and Mukden were reported to have held a conference at which they determined to ignore all such intervention.

The Nichi Nichi and the English language Japan Times quoted Minister of War Sadao Araki as saying that "So far as the military authorities are concerned our attitude, as often announced heretofore, remains unchanged and any such interference will not affect our policy in the least."

Araki reiterated that the Imperial army in Manchuria had no other design than to suppress bandits who menaced Japanese lives and property and declared, according to the newspapers, that "Should the Chinese soldiers in Chinchow have no bandit connections, our army would never think of attacking Chinchow."

ney and a serious inundation was caused by the quick work of the snow as a result from the penitents.

Reports of some 100 men sent to the convicts when they were ordered to the levees on Christmas Day, but after the superintendent had arranged for shifts from Parchman prison where an extra large dinner was prepared, the prisoners went to work philosophically, enjoying Christmas in relay.

With the main light against further damage centered in the Glendora-Runner sections, relief workers continued to travel flooded highways in hosts to bring food and other necessities to marooned families driven to higher ground from their lowland farms where backwaters from the rivers and a series of cloudbursts flooded thousands of acres in the delta. Many farm families spent Christmas in temporary refugee camps.

There have been several reports of loss of life among negro farm tenants, but none has been confirmed. Dr. J. B. Files, of Sumner, who toured the section, said he had found no acute suffering as a result of the backwater flood. But that food shortage might present a serious situation unless the water subsides.

The section was favored with fair and fairly warm weather yesterday, giving additional hope that the Tallahatchie River could be coped with. Further rains, it was pointed out, might prove disastrous as the river, if it broke its levee at the present stage, would put Glendora and Sumner under six feet of water where backwaters reached the floors of most business houses and homes in the town several days ago.

The flood threat in North Louisiana appeared so worse yesterday.

Victim Of Bombing Trap Of Waycross Moonsliners Dies

Palatka Pastor Is Held For Shooting Operator Of Still

PALATKA, Dec. 23.—(A.P.)—The Rev. E. H. McGaha, local pastor and Putnam county probation officer is being held in jail today pending investigation into the death of John Mathe shot to death last Thursday during a raid on a liquor still near Keenwood.

Mathe died a half hour after receiving a gunshot charge in the back and made no statement regarding the shooting other than to inquire who shot him. McGaha is not a deputy sheriff or otherwise connected with that office, Sheriff R. C. Howell said.

Acting as an informer, Sheriff Howell said McGaha directed his deputies to the scene of the still operation as they approached Malone was seen to run through the woods and was shot. McGaha, accused of firing the shot, saw the gun accidentally discharged when he tripped on the underbrush.

Explosion Of Boiler Kills Engine Crew

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 23.—(A.P.)—A boiler explosion wrecked the engine of the Southern Pacific's West Coast Limited train near Richvale, Butte county, yesterday, killing Joseph Brown, engineer, and Walter T. Ridd, fireman. No passengers were injured.

Reports to railroad headquarters here said the train was proceeding southwest at about 25 miles an hour. At a point two miles west of Richvale the boiler of the engine exploded, hurling fragments outward to one-half mile.

Air brakes automatically set themselves and the string of 15 cars ground to a halt. The boiler was torn from its frame by the terrific blast.

DEMOCRATIC TAX PROGRAM IS NOW BEING PREPARED

Will Be In Direct Opposition To That Of Secretary Mellon

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—(A.P.)—A democratic tax program, directly opposing Secretary Mellon's plan to swell the number of taxpayers by nearly two million persons, is outlining itself on Capitol Hill.

It was reaffirmed emphatically Thursday by Senate and House party leaders as an elaborate defense of the administration proposal was issued from the treasury, denying that smaller incomes would supply most of the $920,000,000 new revenue desired annually.

Chairman Collier of the House Ways and Means committee, which originates all revenue laws, and Senator Harrison of Mississippi, ranking Democrat of the finance committee, minced no words on this phase of the treasury plan.

"We are not going to lower the exemptions," Collier said definitely.

Harrison was equally firm and predicted a majority of both parties would unite against such a move. Already such leading Republicans as Representatives Treadway of Massachusetts and Bacharach of New Jersey, both Ways and Means committee members, have indicated they cannot go "all the way" with Mellon.

A detailed party tax plan awaits further deliberations by the Senate and House Democratic policy committees. But a skeleton program on major policies has crystallized.

It opposes lowering present income tax exemption.

It puts the major burden of supplying more federal revenue on large incomes and inheritances, asisted by a gift tax.

It contemplates a more moderate increase than the $920,000,000 the treasury asked. Short term loans would fill out the remaining deficit, already over $1,300,000,000 this fiscal year.

It opposes any retroactive taxes and favors a permanent law rather than the temporary 2 year increase asked by Mellon.

It is against a general sales tax through a special levy on some non-essentials and amusements is receiving consideration.

Collier said employment would be a major factor in drafting a tax law on which he plans to start hearings as soon as Congress reconvenes.

"We cannot let taxes disrupt business to the extent of causing further reduction in employment," he said. "While the 1924 rates the treasury wants were easily met in prosperous times, they might be far too great a burden during the depression."

The treasury's discussion of the administration tax plan was designed to counteract contentions it placed to large a share of the burden on persons of small means. It said only $222,000,000 of the increase would fall on incomes.

Incomes under $2000, it was said, would supply but $27,000,000, while those over $10,000 would contribute $182,000,000. Of the latter sum, $155,000,000 would be supplied by incomes of $50,000 and over.

Large incomes were said to be unable to supply the needed additional revenue because of the business recession. In 1928, persons with $100,000 incomes numbered 16,000 and paid $700,000,000 in taxes; in 1930 they numbered 8,290 and paid less than $240,000,000.

The treasury said further that taxes on $100,000 incomes would be jumped from 24 to 42 percent while incomes in excess of $100,000 would be taxed almost double present rates. At the same time, the tax on the first $4000 of income would go only from 1-2 to 2 percent and on the second $4000 from 3 to 4 percent.

It contended miscellaneous taxes such as those recommended on checks, automobiles and telephone calls would not burden the taxpayers.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the caribou in the Yukon migrate twice yearly? In the Spring they migrate northward and in the Autumn they migrate southward. They always travel in large herds and not even the swiftest stream can stay their movement from one portion of the country to another. The photograph shows only a small portion of a large herd on its way across the famous Whitehorse River in the Yukon.

Banker Sees More Hope In Economic World As '32 Nears

The closing months of 1931 seem to have developed a whole new trend in the subsidies of fear and the dawning of a calmer determination to face actualities in the opinion of Col. Allan Pope, "Economic events themselves have produced this result," he said in a year-end survey prepared for the Associated Press. Colonel Pope is president of the Investment Bankers' association of America. He is also executive vice president of the First National Old Colony corporation.

"We saw the rising tide of hoarding, and then we saw the reassuring ebb in that tide," he explained. "There was a brief flight of gold from our shores, but the phenomenon was a matter of history before its effect was adversely felt."

"The National Credit corporation was brought into being and the mere knowledge that such an effective emergency machinery could be and had been created to meet a situation, was in a measure comparably as beneficial to the public mind as was the operation of the machinery itself."

"Fearfully we witnessed a persistent decline in commodity prices and then saw such important basic commodities as wheat, silver and oil find resistance points, and whatever the immediate trends may be, we know that the present maladjustments can be corrected and that we can find a solid level on which to build."

"With all of the severity and persistence of its hardships, 1931 has shown that we are neither helpless or hopeless."

"Colonel Pope said the depression enters in prices for goods and services, and explained that it was merely a part of a process of adjustment slowly traced since the war.

The short Sunday service finds some speakers of interest on religious subjects present, and a musical program is also heard.

Big Plane Forced Down When Baby Fingers Go Astray

MIAMI, Dec. 23.—(A.P.)—Curious baby fingers, tampering with a petcock on an airplane engine's gasoline line, abruptly halted a Miami-Nassau plane flight and were responsible for an accident in Miami aviation circles yesterday. It was learned today.

Fredie Stafford, pilot of a charter plane, returned here yesterday after making a forced landing on Andros Island, Bahamas, where he was carrying five passengers between Miami and Nassau. His passengers remained in Nassau where he flew after locating the engine trouble.

The pilot said he did not know the names of his passengers, but that they were Syrians from California here to spend Christmas. Customs and immigration officials said they had no record of the departure of the five, but that Stafford probably would file a report today.

Stafford reported that a child in the party wandered about the airplane during the flight from Miami to Andros and after the plane hit the Bahama island for Nassau. Shortly afterward, the engine coughed and died and Stafford landed his amphibian plane in a rocky bay at Andros Island.

He discovered his difficulty some time later, but not in time to prevent the departure from here of two airplanes which went to search for him and his plane.

Stafford said the party spent Wednesday night on Andros Island, after having received assistance from fishermen in the construction of a rude hut.

Nine Meet Instant Death When Autols Hit By Fast Train

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 23.—(A.P.)—Nine persons were killed early today when a Birmingham Special crack Southern railway crowded automobile at a grade crossing near here. The dead are John Love, filling station operator, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Holton, and their two children, aged four and two, Vaughn Holton, Dorrie Cox, Raymond Sharpe, all of the Pawtuck section and Miss Loma Cox of York, S. C. All except Miss Cox were killed instantly. She died a few minutes after reaching a hospital.

Crowded into a light touring car, the party of five men, two women, and two children were enroute to Pawtuck from a Christmas celebration here when the train, running from Birmingham to New York, struck the machine at a crossing. The occupants were hurled in every direction and fragments of the car scattered for two blocks. The fact that the touring car was traveling with its side curtains up is believed to have prevented the occupants from observing the headlights on the approaching train.

Controversy Over Rail Wages Settled

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—(A.P.)—Fred W. Sargent, president of the Northwestern railroad, said last night the wage controversy between the road and 5000 malcontented way employees has been settled.

Under the agreement, Sargent said, the employees will accede to the decision to be reached regarding proposed wage reductions for all union railway workers. The railroads have announced a cut for all union workers, and negotiations are under way between the unions and the roads.

The Northwestern announced a 15 percent reduction for maintenance of way employees several weeks ago. The workers immediately began a strike vote.
