Bloomington, Ind. Mayor Named As Sanford Manager

Formal Confirmation Of Thomas Lemon's Application Expected By Commission

Thomas Lemon, former mayor and city manager of Bloomington, Ind, has been tentatively selected as city manager of Sanford, the Herald was informed today, Confirmation of his appointment is expected at the next meeting of the City Commission which has been scheduled for July 14.

Mr. Lemon who has held the combination post of mayor and city manager of Bloomington for the past four years, was until recently a wax manufacturer and visited Sanford last Sunday and Monday at which time he was formally interviewed by all city commissioners.
Pointing out that the Commission has been deliberating continuouely on the procurement of a trained and aggressive city menager for the past six months, Mayor W. A. Stemper said that the one paramount consideration that we have held all alone is that the man selected as city manager must be approved by all five commissioners without reservation,

He added that more than 60 applications have been received and that 10 or 12 have been personally Interviewed, I sat Sunday three anplicants, besides Mr. Lemon, visited Sanford and interviewed four members of the Commission at the Valdes Hotel, Mr. Cerraway was unable to see Mr. Lemon until Manday.
"The Job bas been affered to a man who all city commissioners feel is a natural for the job". Mayor Stemper said.

The other three applicants interviewed were: Leon Miner of

for the job".

Commissioner Ivey also said that Mr. Lemon was his choice as elty manager. He added that Mr. Lemon had said that he would nocept the post if it were affered to

Commissioner John Kader indicated that he was not sure that In announcing his decision, Mr. Lemon would accept the lob ingley expressed his deep appreas city manager but admitted that ciation for the valuable friend-a man has been teristively an ships he has made in Sanford, proved for the post, He also said that Mr. Lemon and Mr. White were the two most likely prospects and he added that "all of the commissioners are agreed that the man selected would be the right man for city manager of Sanford e is young and aggressive and is a family man with two sons". Commissioner Chase was noncommittal about the appointment, lish stock. His parents, Albert and but admitted that he had heard of the Bloomington, Ind. man and that the final decision would be shortly before Mr. Ingley was made at the next meeting of this (Confined On Page Two)

Library In Mexico

A library of American books, newspapers, magazines and pamphlets was established in Mexico City ten years ago by the United States. In ten years the number of books in the library has increased almost five-fold and thousands of Mexicans use the books each month. Because they do they have a better idea of their neighbors in the United

The library, named for Benjamin Franklin who was an accomplished diplomat among his other activities, is only part of a campaign to win the significant the beople Mexico. For many years there has been a degree of anti-pathy toward Americans in Mexico but our propaganda efforts are having a good effect in changing this. Movies and radio broadcasts about the United States have become so popular that some of them have been commercially sponsored by Mexican firms.

Without understanding there can be ne trust between men or between nations. The library project in Mexico and similar projects elsewhere cost money. But if it is spent carefully and helps to achieve understanding, it is well spent

Government And Weather

A wit once remarked that everybody talks about the weather but no one ever does anything about it. There is at present some question as to whether that saying is still true. Some scientists maintain that man can now manufacture weather on a large scale. Others ridicule the idea. A government committee has been set up to study the situation.

Making rain by seeding clouds with dry ice has had some measure of success. Such efforts have also provoked several controversies. In some communities some farmers raise crops which require a great deal of rain and others grow crops which can be damaged by an over-abundance of rainfall. The question arises as to whether it is permissible for the group which wishes rain to take steps to make it fall.

Since his earliest days man has made attempts to influence the weather. Almost all the primitive religious had rites and ceremonies dedicated to bringing rainfall. Now man has decided to make a scientific approach to the problem.

If the government does decide to take a hand in weather making projects, let it assign some of its best men to the tasks. They should not only know enough to come in out of the rain they make, but they should also know a good deal about sunspots which are not mere superstitions but seem to exercise a definite influence on climate.

Women In Baseball

A comely 24-year old stenographer was signed by the Harrisburg Senators baseball club, the first woman ever granted a contract in organized baseball. Her career was short-lived, however, for baseball officials ruled that the game is not for women. Some fans, male and female, regretted the decision. Others regarded it as the most judicious conclusion since Solomon handed down his findings in the famous baby case.

The women, bless them, have proved to be the equal of men in almost every field and in some areas of endeavor they have proved superior. Women's rights are not threatened by banning women from organized baseball. It is simply a way of eliminating many problems which could arise which could hurt the game.

There have been great women athletes who have managed to pursue their careers with dignity. But the baseball diamond is a rough place. With women participating the fielders might feel obliged to raise their hats each time a Traffic accidents on just five annual holidays during the past annual holidays during the past six years have taken half as many American lives as the Korean war. As to the legend that Americans are the most inventive race, the facts simply don't bear it out—at least on the battlefield. The Germans produced the best submarines, tanks and all purpose artillery guns in the last war. They put the first jet planes in the air, the first guided missiles—rockets and buzz bombs.

Our real genius has been in the field of mass production. But to-day the Russians have more and speedier jet planes in Korean akies than we have, proof that their industrial revolution has gone along perhaps as fast as their social revolution.

Recently, through arrangements with Allen Morris, publisher of The Florida Handbook, FP&L, at their own expense, published an Investor's Edition of this excellent work /1 the form of a compre-hensive 215 page guide to Florida investment opportunities which is being mailed to financiers throughout the nation.

The Investor's Guide to Florida places in a single package all the information a prospective investor would need to know about the state and its potentialities. It conlains no advertising.

McGregor Smith, president of FP&L, is possessed of an unselfish vision that over the years has contributed much to the growth and development of the entire serves only a limited area has not prevented his consistent promotion of the state as a whole. Most of the promotional material issued heneficial to the vast areas not served by the company as it is to their own territory.

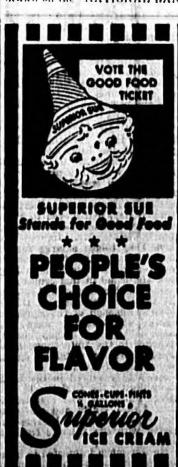

As Smith puts it, "The distrithis comprehensive book fits in with our policy of trying to help ourselves by helping Florida grow, and we feel that every dollar of outside investment capital that can be attracted to Florida likely means the building of additional customers for us."

If this capital goes to an area not served by the company, Smith doesn't mind. He is keenly aware that only the growth and develop-ment of Florida as a whole can make this a great and prosperous state.

But seeking investments for Florida is only one of the worth while activities FP&L has en gaged in during the past few years. The importance of our great tourist industry is not over-looked, and the company has played on important part in helping to create the ever-expanding summer business that is ours to-

Each year a campaign to sell Florida as a summer resort has been conducted with some of the most catchy, clever mailing pieces ever devised and employed in this promotion. Among these was a ticket to Florida printed to conform with the standard form of ticket used by railroads, bus and airlines, but each atuh advertised an outstanding attraction or sec-tion and told of the advantages offered the summer visitor.

I look for the greatest influx of summer lourists this year in Florida's history, and I believe that in some resort areas it is going to be a problem to provide accomodations for our visitors. I hope we do not make the mistake of jacking up prices to a point where they become prohibitive for the average middle class family, for this is the type of visitor we are getting. They are learning that Florida summer variations are delightful and that they can come here at this time of year and enjoy themselves at modesi rates.

These guests bring millions of lollars into the state. Treat them with courtesy and consideration, rater to them and we can look for many prosperous summer seasons in the years to come. Do your part to help bring them back, and? heir friends and neighbors with

The victory machine of the Seminole Blues continued right on last night as Sanford strugried 12 innings before edging an improved Leesburg Packer nine, 4-3, in Venetian Gardens. It was the third consecutive win for the Blues and pushed them up another notch in the Florida State League standings to sixth place.

batters, George Kenis, Paul Eskew and Dunty Rhodes opened the first inting with hits that eventually gave the Blues a 2-0 lead. Leesburg came back to go ahead by the ninth, 3-2, but the courageous Murray Byrd took his turn at bat in the ninth and drilled out a single to score Soddy Groat with the tying run. Kenis and Rhodes teamed up in the 12th on singles and the former, playing first base in place of Parise, came across the platted with what proved to be the winning run on Packer Manager Don Anderson's wild throw to third baseman Hal Long.

Press Box Patter: Parise's ejection was his first of the season. He had been the only Blue to play every inning of every game the Seminoles have played this season. After Buck Collins doubled in the 12th and went to third on Rentas' error, pitcher Jorge Rivero, playing Jorge Rivero, playing right, caught Long's fly and reeled back to fire a perfect strike to the plate that stopped Collins from scoring what would have been the tying runs. This play is what saved the game for Byrd. Sanford AB H O A Werner W. Schroeder, national committeeman from filinois, stood up and took scorching exception to a charge by Eisenhower's campaign manager, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., that the committee's award of Georgia's 17 delegates to Taft Wednesday was a steal. Schroeder was one of the 62 committee members who voted to seat the pro-Taft faction—the Eisenhower group mustered 39 votes—and he told the committee his vote was cast for the same group he sopported in three previous contests beginning in 1944.

With reference to the family connections of the Massachusetts senator, Schroeder quoted the well known lines:

The 100-member National Committee was called into seasion to iron out the latest—but not the last—Taft vs. Eisenhower 1ght to come before it. That was the sizing fight for votes in the 15 member Louisiana delegation.

Votes are what it takes—804, the exact—to win the nomination. And the latest Associated Press checkup, based on avowed and conceded delegates and those seated by the National Committee, gave Taft a 493 to 412 edge over Eisenhower at the end of Wednesday's tug-of-war.

Eisenhower's forces loudly and repeatedly declared their determination to carry to the convention floor the fights for degrees they lose before the National Committee, and the way the convention votes may give an early thord; on whether Convention itself which can rule on which of two more groups of would be delegates shall be seated. And the way the convention votes may give an early thord; on whether Eisenhower or Taft is in the lead-For all the conflict between its two top contenders, the GOP seemed to be getting somewhere on a platform for the winner to fun on.

Sen. Eugene Millikin of Colorado, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, told a reporter there will be agreement on a bilistering criticism of Truman and Roseevel policies, And John Foster Dulles, who has been taiking with both Taft and Eisenhower people, said he though as, too. Mad Pace Set By Congress To Adjourn

Hundreds Of Bills AreRushedThrough Mill Before Deadline On Saturday

By JOE HALL WASHINGTON on—The nation's lawmakers are doing their inde-pendence Day orating to each other today rather than on platforms at Fourth of July celebrations. The senators and representatives called off their holiday plans in caned off their holiday plans in order to act on bills which must be passed if Congress is to meet its final adjournment deadline Sat urday.

Literally hund-

through the congressional mili Thursday but a dozen major items still must be sent to President Truman before the 82nd Congress at the customary hour. But much of the major work remains to be done in conference committees. These will be grinding away at early hours.

Some Republicans were demand ing that adjournment come in time for them to catch late afternoon trains and planes Saturday for Chicago and their National Convention. But the Democratic leaderahip would make no promises.
