By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has decided to fight a Senate-passed limit of $3,000 on government farm payments by going all-out for $5,000 and I think they will, Poage said Thursday night. His comments followed Wednesday's Senate vote for an Agriculture Department appropriations bill rider limiting to $3,000 the amount of government farm payments an individual could collect per year. There is no limit under present farm programs, which are due to expire this year. Poage said he is opposed to huge payments—some more than $1 million each—as evidence that farm programs help big operators at the expense of small farmers. The House has twice in recent years approved a $3,000 limit, only to have it upset in legisla-

Unlike Washington And New York No Crime In Moscow

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles by R. H. and A. M. Haskell concerning their recent trip to Scandinavia and Russia. As our Florida place headed for its landing in Leningrad, the captain warned us not to think something was wrong when the plane vibrated and jumped on the runway. It was just that the surface was rough, he explained. It was a good thing we had been told, otherwise I would have believed the plane was falling apart. This was our introduction to Russian rough surfaces. All the streets and highways were to travel were poor by American standards and the runway on which we were to land was almost as bad as the one on which we had just landed. Our plane came to a halt about a quarter mile from the terminal building and we were crowded in to buses, which thumped up to the customs and immigration building. In checking back over my notes, I see it took us three and a half hours from the time our plane touched down to arrival in our room at the hotel. Not more than 25 minutes of this could have been consumed in transport. The airport to the hotel, the rest was taken up by the never-ending Russian wait. The airport provided our first direct contact with Intourist. After passing through customs, which didn't require opening any of our bags, listing all money and jewelry we had with us, and showing our vaccination certificates we saw a little man with a list in his hand. At this time we were most anxious to get away from the airport and begin seeing Russia. We were on his list under something that didn't look at all like Haskell as there had been, as there was usually to be, some error in translating the letters into Russian script. This man from Intourist informed us we would shortly be taken by taxi from the airport to the hotel. Since Haskell wasn't taxi, but finally we were. On our way we saw almost uncountable numbers of apartments built on the outer fringes of the city. Further in there were masses of apartments built in the last few years, mostly showing varying degrees of beginning delapidation and signs of apparent sloppy workmanship when came to trim, windows and balconies. The Sovietkai hotel, where we were to stay, looked like a fine Miami Beach resort. On the interior the lobby was almost unfurnished, much of the trim had never been put in place or had fallen off in its one year of operation. The elevators, when they were running, didn't land quite at floor level, our toilet seat was loose and in general the hotel was just plain dirty. We checked in with Intourist in the lobby and found that one seemed to do a complete job. One woman assigned us to a room. Another gave us our key. Since we had not had a chance to get Russian money at the airport we wanted to get a ticket for dinner. We arranged the ice cream, incidentally.

Before going to Russia we had been told that the longest time in Copenhagen told me that when he had been in Moscow the shortest time in which he had been able to get dinner was two and a half hours. We beat his record. We were able to get a plate of cold meat and a dish of ice cream in one hour. The ice cream, incidentally.

Other car makers couldn't match the car. They still can't match the price.

Faircloth Is Expected To Break Deadlock

By RICH OPPEL
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth apparently will break a deadlock over running mates among Democratic governor candidates today when he plans to officially qualify for the race. However, there was no clear indication late Sunday why the 49-year-old cabinet officer had chosen for lieutenant governor. An aide confirmed that a running mate had been selected. "I'm not saying. No hints, nothing," said Richard Knight, Faircloth's press aide. It long has been speculated Faircloth would name either State Sen. Reubin Askew or former State Sen. Randolph Hodges, a former State Senate president, who is now director of the Natural Resources Department. Askew could not be reached for comment and Hodges said he would be out of town when Faircloth makes the announcement, attending a Port Walton Beach meeting. "I haven't seen Mr. Faircloth in a week," Hodges added. Askew, if there were any chance he would be Faircloth's lieutenant, Hodges declared. "I'm still saying no." Although neither Askew nor Faircloth could be contacted, another gubernatorial candidate, Democratic Duval County Mayor Chuck Hill, said he was sure the Pensacola legislator would not be anybody's lieutenant governor. "Reubin is running for governor," said Hill. "I haven't seen Mr. Faircloth in a week," Hodges added. Askew, if there were any chance he would be Faircloth's lieutenant, Hodges declared. Sanford Airport Readies As Economic Star

Sanford Airport, its present capacities and its future possibilities, is now in the spotlight. It was not there when the vigorous, informed and out-spoken W. Frank Wilkinson, Executive Airlines southern regional vice president stepped down from his plane and started to give the airport the once-over.

His visit was an exploratory one as his airplane was an experimental one as his airport was an experimental one. He was not there when the vigorous, informed and out-spoken W. Frank Wilkinson, Executive Airlines southern regional vice president stepped down from his plane and started to give the airport the once-over.

Thanks for this goes not only to the airport but to the fact that Wilkinson and his countrymen were competent craftsmen who cut costs and speeded the time for fulfillment.

Wilkinson visit, shows that the time of preparation by the community as a whole, just as the laborious preparation of the airport, is over.

Once In Our Life

Editor, Herald: For once in our lives we have made plans to meet the need of low-income people during emergency cases, where food and medical services can be convenient and easily available to those who really need help.

About That Letter

Editor, Herald: Why doesn't someone, anyone, please read the letter written by the SCA elective director, why does the Herald and County Commission continue to repeat that the emergency food and medical services program is a study to document the need for a county food stamp program? This is simply not true.

At Least 2

Editor, Herald: It seems that there are at least two County Commissioners who feel that they have inherited the right to make all decisions where our dollars are spent. I say our dollars because I am speaking as a taxpayer.

Worried

Editor, Herald: We are worried. The County Commission does not begin to understand our problems and needs. How can it ask anyone to cancel the emergency food and medical program as badly as we need it?

Hungry Children

Editor, Herald: In the Emergency Food and Medical Services Program, they are trying to help many hungry children without food when no work is in sight for the mother. Many people cannot eat as they should because of illness.

Nine Die In Head-on Collision

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Nine young rock fans crammed into a red Mustang early Saturday morning and headed north across the Golden Gate Bridge for a pop music festival in San Rafael. In the opposite direction, Robert A. Symons, 25, paid his way across the bridge. The Mustang was hurled 200 feet. Nine persons were killed—six of the young rock fans, Symons and the two secretaries. It was San Francisco's worst traffic accident.

"I heard a noise like a jet," said Symons. "The Mustang was hurtling toward me. I was thrown out of control, and hit this other car. It exploded. Not in flames, but just flew apart." The Mustang was not mangled, the bodies had to be cut out with torches.

In the Mustang, which carried 10 for sale—$925 offer, were five young men and four teenage girls. Patrolmen said Albert Urea, 19, of San Francisco, was driving below the speed limit.

The victims included both drivers, Mary Doherty, 22, and Lynn Feldman, 23, the secretaries in the Porsche; and Deborah Abraham, 16, a high school student; Samuel L. Adams Jr., 20, a City College student; Francesca Almasia, 17; Alma Lee, 18; and Donna Spanos, 17, all recent high school graduates who were riding in the Mustang.

Surviving were three San Francisco young men who had been in the Mustang: John Summer, 19, who suffered brain injuries and plus a broken leg, ankle and collar bone, in critical condition; Carl Campbell, 21, in serious condition with abdominal injuries; and Laurence Lucas, 17, in fair condition with a broken leg.

Spiro Pessimistic On Peace Talks At Paris

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew says there is little hope President Nixon's new ambassador to the Paris peace talks will be successful as long as Hanoi demands nothing short of "the flat abandonment of South Vietnam."

While pessimistic about Ambassador David K. E. Bruce's immediate chances when he takes over as chief U.S. negotiator at the talks next month, the vice president, in an interview with the Associated Press, forecast an eventual settlement from the ceasefire.

"I don't think that statement that since the Cambodian cause obviously it is a point of great comfort to the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong to find that there are people in high elective offices who question the war spread immediately before the Cambodian incursion because of the belligerent action of the North Vietnamese in attempting to seal off a corridor to the sea, subsequent to Sihanouk's leaving the country and a new government coming into control."

And I think that when you look at the Cambodian situation you must never forget that there'd be no war in Cambodia had there not been 40,000 North Vietnamese troops illegally in that country utilizing the sanctuaries as a base from which they could launch attacks on South Vietnamese and American soldiers in South Vietnam.

Q: Is it politically feasible, possible, at this point, to reverse course if necessary and send more Americans into Vietnam?
A: Not only is it politically unfeasible, but it is directly contrary to the President's announced policy withdrawing troops from Vietnam, a policy which he has successfully been carrying out and in which he has met every commitment that he has made thus far.

CONSIDER THIS — Young fellow, the psychiatrist think they can tell something about your nature by the kind of woman you prefer. If you go for long-legged girls, you are thought to be exceedingly shy. If you like particularly full-breasted women, you are known to be ambitious. If you prefer small girls, you are said to be a kindly sort who likes to be helpful. Such were the preliminary conclusions reached in a study at the University of Illinois. Research continues.

HOW WOULD YOU like to own a pet vulp? Neither would I. But a Chicago pet store operator sells approximately one vulp per month to private citizens throughout the U.S. . . . CERTAIN MEN develop touchbacks every time their wives get pregnant. So says a British medical expert. But he can't explain why.

GROWTH — Another reason your face doesn't look the same as it looked when you were a youngster is this. The upper part starts growing when you're 15, but the lower part doesn't. Consider that. You rarely see a lad who appears strong of jaw and jaw. It takes time.

Pelicans Get Help In Brevard

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — While men at the Cape Kennedy missile complex rush to conquer space, seven bird lovers slash in knee-deep mud at a nearby island in a race to save 2,200 pelicans from extinction.

The Indian River Audubon Society is planning red mangrove seedlings to build up Hall Island and give the pelicans a sanctuary against two of their destroyers—vandalism and cruelty.

"We're hoping that by protecting the island, we can keep them going until a law gets rid of DDT," said Karl Eichorn, society president.

DDT in fish causes the pelican to lay thin-shelled, easily cracked eggs, said Eichorn, and their numbers are dwindling rapidly.

"There are no pelicans in Louisiana at all anymore, and it used to be the state bird," he said. "The California population has had almost no young for a couple of years."

"Some conservationists predict Florida's hardy pelican population will disappear within the next ten years, he said.

"Youthful pranksters, thoughtless fishermen and boaters are not helping matters any, he said. Youths break eggs, shoot the birds and scare the young so that they leave their nest before they can fly or fish for their food, Eichorn said.

Tight Control Bid On Arms Spending

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Armed Services Committee will recommend tight new controls on the way the Pentagon pays defense contractors carrying the financially risky road research, sources say.

These sources, close to the committee's work, calculate the changes could mean a $100 million cut in funds for private industry research, which last year cost at least $750 million for running IRAD, BAP and OTE.

Those aren't railroads. The initials stand for Independent Research and Development, Bid and Proposal and Other Technical Effort—the three categories of the Pentagon's program covering reimbursement for private technical effort expenses.

Although no one knows for certain where the road leads under the program, it may be the expense of a company undertaking research largely at its own initiative rather than under terms of direct contracts with the Defense Department.

The committee will recommend the Pentagon negotiate advance agreements with all contractors, including IRAD, BAP and OTE payments during the previous fiscal year.

There will be no major boost in the number of individual negotiations because the dual of contractors covered under the new provision would be about 50—roughly as many as under current advance agreements.

The new arrangements would cover all three categories—not just IRAD, which Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., calls "a back door boondoggle."

Breathtaking

...but it doesn't have the Gold Medallion.

Modern women would rather move to an all-electric Gold Medallion home. And enjoy the up-to-date luxury of a flameless electric range, water heater, reverse-cycle air conditioning. And at least two other major electric appliances, plus Ample Light for Living, and Full Housepower Wiring.

The Gold Medallion home is more than breathtaking...it's all electric! Which means carefree living. And it's more economical too.

Wedding Announcements

Wynne-Faye

Beverly Wynne and James Faye exchanged wedding vows, July 11, 1970, in the Altendale United Methodist Church of St. Petersburg. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend M. M. Gibbs and R. E. Rutland, Sr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wynne, 5226 Huntington St., NE, St. Petersburg. Mr. and Mrs. Lenore E. Faye, Sanford, are parents of the groom.

MRS. JAMES FAY

MRS. SPENCER CLYDE WHITEHEAD

The church was decorated with standard baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums against a background of candlelight. A program of wedding music was presented by Mr. Marvin Tashman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of imported organza designed on Empire lines with a high neck and bishop sleeves. Delicate silk thread embroidery with plait through satin ribbon enhanced the front and back of her gown which flowed into a chapel sweep. Her elbow-length veil of Illusion was held by a cap of matching Venetian lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, feather mums, and baby's breath set in white tulle and streamers.

Miss Louise Wynne, bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a golden yellow sheer voile floor length dress styled along Empire lines. The sleeveless bodice had a high neck, the line trimmed with white embroidery. The hem of the full skirt had a wide border of the same embroidery. She wore a yellow garden hat and carried a white basket filled with a variety of Spring flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Terry Ann Fay, groom's sister, and Miss Joy Alexander. Their gowns, hats and flowers were identical to the honor attendants.

Miss Kelly Fay, groom's sister, was flower girl and carried a basket of white flowers. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of white roses, baby's breath and white carnations.

Thomas Fay served his brother as best man. Michael Fay, groom's brother, Bill Wynne, Jr., and Mrs. Wynne, the bride's brothers, and Steve Clendinning were ushers.

The home of the bride's parents was decorated with white gladioli and Spring flowers for the reception. Misses Judy Cole and Judy Wilson served at a table decorated with ferns, Spring flowers and bows. A nosegay of Spring flowers adorned the table where Miss Melanie Hurt, Sanford, attended the bride.

For their wedding trip to the Bahamas, Mrs. Fay wore a gray knit suit trimmed with white. Her accessories and corsage were also white.

THE 1960 CLASS PROPHECY of Seminole High School predicted that Ronnie Lindsey and Kay Ivey, couple at left, would marry, and also Linda Parker and Bill Reck, right. The prophecy came to pass and they were the only two couples in the class to marry classmates.

Ragsdale-Whitehead

Miss Janet Aileen Ragsdale and Spencer Clyde Whitehead were united in Holy Matrimony July 10, 1970, at 8 p.m., First Baptist Church of Longwood. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lucilla Ragsdale, 1040 N. Kentucky Ave., Winter Park, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Whitehead, 241 E. Main St., Longwood.

Rev. Jack Lindsey was the officiating clergyman at the candlelight double ring ceremony before the altar accented with a profusion of potted and pedestal baskets of yellow and white gladi, mums and greenery.

Mrs. L. C. Walker, organist, presented a program of special selections and accompanied Mrs. Carroll Scott, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. Malcolm C. Ragsdale of Houston, Texas, the bride chose for her vows a formal gown of imported organza gown, fashioned along the Empire silhouette. A panel of hand-clipped Alencon lace highlighted the front of the gown with the same lace repeated on the sleeves.

A lace Camello headpiece secured her French Illusion veil and sweeping train, both framed with a border of ivory trim. She carried a white Bible centered with a cascading arrangement of white roses, carnations and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Nancy Whitehead, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as maid of honor wearing a floor-length ivory gown and carrying two long-stemmed yellow roses.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Alan Diebold of Lake Mary. Her gown and flowers were identical to the honor attendant's.

The bridegroom's father served his son as best man and ushers were Ray Penoff of North Orlando, and Charles Ragsdale, the bride's brother from Winter Park.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ragsdale chose an elegant knit ensemble with white accessories. Mrs. Whitehead, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink knit dress with beige accents. The mothers and aunts of double white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the church social hall was the reception site for the reception and pouring of the bride and groom's champagne. Mrs. Earl Leftwich, Mrs. Boyd Hitchcock and Miss Linda Dowell.

For her going-away outfit, the bride wore a gold and white double knit suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following a wedding trip to Long Florida Gulf Coast and on to the Smoky Mountains, the bride and groom will make their home at 10 E. Evergreen St., Longwood.

Dear Abby:

DEAR REVEREND: I appreciate your offer to help Helen. And heaven help YOU with the mail you are likely to receive after this.

DEAR ABBY: I was once in Helen's shoes. A more devoted Roman Catholic would have been hard to find. Then I fell in love with a beautiful Protestant, the son of a minister, yet I was torn between him and my church.

Then it occurred to me that my church is changing so rapidly. What happened to the "No-Meat-On-Friday" church? How about St. Christopher who is no longer a saint? And nuns who, with the blessings of the church, wear mini skirts and boots? And the pressure to permit priests to marry could conceivably win out in time. Now I'm wondering what will happen if she gives up the man she loves to some other woman, and the church decides a month (or a year) later that Roman Catholics MAY marry divorced non-Catholics?

Because I married a non-Catholic and practice birth control, I cannot go to confession or receive communion. I have not been back to the Catholic church because according to them I am living in mortal sin and shall surely go to hell. If I sound bitter, maybe it's because I am. But I am the only good Catholic they have lost.

I gave up my church for this wonderful man, but I did NOT give up my God. NO REGRETS IN CALIFORNIA

DEAR REVEREND: I appreciate your offer to help Helen. And heaven help YOU with the mail you are likely to receive after this.

DEAR ABBY: I was once in Helen's shoes. A more devoted Roman Catholic would have been hard to find. Then I fell in love with a beautiful Protestant, the son of a minister, yet I was torn between him and my church.

Then it occurred to me that my church is changing so rapidly. What happened to the "No-Meat-On-Friday" church? How about St. Christopher who is no longer a saint? And nuns who, with the blessings of the church, wear mini skirts and boots? And the pressure to permit priests to marry could conceivably win out in time. Now I'm wondering what will happen if she gives up the man she loves to some other woman, and the church decides a month (or a year) later that Roman Catholics MAY marry divorced non-Catholics?

Because I married a non-Catholic and practice birth control, I cannot go to confession or receive communion. I have not been back to the Catholic church because according to them I am living in mortal sin and shall surely go to hell. If I sound bitter, maybe it's because I am. But I am the only good Catholic they have lost.

I gave up my church for this wonderful man, but I did NOT give up my God. NO REGRETS IN CALIFORNIA

Horoscope Forecast

TUESDAY, JULY 15, 1970 GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is a fine day and evening for you to put everything of a basic nature into excellent shape — whether it has to do with your health, family, property and possessions which require your attention. Practical businessmen are in a fine mood to go along with ideas you present to them.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Now that you have the information you need, engage in discussions with allies. Plan more intelligent operations for the future. Evening is then fine for the emotional side of life. Be happy.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Straighten out those policy matters with partners early in the day. Come to a perfect agreement with them. You have an opportunity to make other happy. Take advantage of it and be happier yourself as well.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Be sure to handle money wisely. If you have an abundance in the near future, instead of advice to scrimp so much. Talk to your banker with financial experts. Follow their advice.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Reinforce your position in social activities. Be more popular. Study how others are successful in dealing with others. Emulate them to a certain extent, without impairing your own personality.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can launch new and interesting plans today but you have to be somewhat secretive about them. Look to experts for information you need. They are willing to release it at this time. Be clever.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Follow through on social affairs that really intrigue you. New contacts can play an excellent role in your life in the future. Show that you have determination and will.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are able to convince a big "big" to support some civic or career idea that could benefit many people. Be sure you have good credit rating. Take time to visit friends in the evening.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Attend to personal affairs today for which you have had little time lately. Get yourself in fine physical condition; you then make a better impression on others. You will accomplish more, too.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Obtain information from others confidentially so that you know where you stand and where you are headed. One who admires you is your best source of information. Avoid one who has a trick up his sleeve tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Listen to the ideas of a good friend who thinks big, and you can advance more quickly in the future. Put that plan to work that makes you a bigwig in social circles. Extend your area of influence.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Try not to let bigwig domo who expects much of you and you find your reputation soars. Find the right appliances that bring more efficiency.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) With all those ideas in your head, be sure you push only those that are practical and sure-fire. Have more faith today in that far-seeing person. Stop being such a Doubting Thomas.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who never waste a day anything unless the task can be brought to a successful conclusion. Give the right ethical training since this mind could be just as determined to do the wrong things as the right. The fruit of research, investigation, government are all fine here. Don't pamper this child too much or stubbornness may develop. Encourage to participate in sports.

"The Stars Impel" what you do not compel. What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

U. S. Will Support Israel With Arms

By KENETH J. FREED
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has sharply in- creased its shipments to Egypt in the last few days, according to a State Department official. The State Department's chief Middle East expert noted Sunday the offensive nature of the landing ships, but refused to say whether the use of any possible Egyptian crossing for the Suez Canal against Israeli positions.

Sinco, while repeating administration determination to prevent a shift of the Mideast military balance in favor of the Arab states, refused again to say whether a decision has been made to sell additional war planes to Israel.

However, he went on, "The President has made it very clear that we intend to support the security of Israel and I think that you can take that as a fact."

Sinco spoke on the NBC interview program "Meet the Press."

Sinco's cautious, if ambiguous, statement on the plane sale came as it was learned the administration has agreed to re- lease F4 Phantom fighter-bombers Israel has lost recently to Arab anti-aircraft gun, and missiles.

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Cambodian forces had the west and north of Phnom Penh today while allied forces claimed more than 400 North Vietnamese killed in five days of attacks near Khe Sanh, in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

A Cambodian military spokesman said a relief force of U.S.-trained mercenaries was battling an estimated 1,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong who on Saturday overran the mountain resort of Kiri Rom, 50 miles west of Phnom Penh.

The spokesman claimed at least 30 of the enemy were killed in fighting Sunday and said the only government casualties reported were 24 wounded Saturday and Sunday.

During the night, the spokesman said, South Vietnamese A7 gunships attacked suspected enemy weapons today and the enemy force hit the Cambodian troops with mortar and infantry attacks.

With Rom sits atop a 2,000-foot mountain and before the war was a playground of the wealthy seeking a cool climate. The town itself appears to have no military significance.

The spokesman also reported that an enemy raiding party broke through government defenses at the Long Vek munitions depot 20 miles north of Phnom Penh, but a government counterattack pushed it out. No casualties were reported on either side.

The government says it stripped the sprawling arsenal when Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces began a buildup in the area several weeks ago.

In South Vietnam, government forces reported killing 33 North Vietnamese troops in scattered clashes and finding 36 more bodies in the fifth day of fighting near Khe Sanh.

Allied officers believe their forces may have wiped out the equivalent of a full-strength North Vietnamese battalion—about 600 men—around the abandoned U.S. Marine base.

The report today brought the total enemy casualties to 417 killed and five captured since the first contact was made last Wednesday by helicopter gunships of the U.S. 1st Airborne Division.

It was the biggest enemy casualty toll in a single battle-field action in Vietnam in months.

In Saigon today, a grenade exploded under the car of Phnom Penh, secretary general of the National Assembly's lower house. A guard readying the car to drive to his office and a maid cleaning the vehicle were wounded. The car was in his home at the time and was not hurt.

The 29-year-old representative was considered a strongly pro-government politician until he announced his opposition recently to a broad economic and fiscal reform program proposed by the government.

Huntley Speaks Out

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chet Huntley says President Nixon is shallow and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew is appealing to base elements. Nixon frightens him. Agnew makes him resentful.

"I've been with Nixon socially," the retiring NBC newscaster said in an interview with Life magazine. "I've traveled with him in his private plane. I've seen him under many conditions.

"The shallowness of the man overwhelms me; the fact that he is President frightens me," said Huntley who retires Aug. 1 after 14 years on the Huntley-Brinkley Report.

Huntley, who is returning to his home state of Montana, said "Spiro Agnew is appealing to the most base of elements. All the networks broke their asses putting his famous Des Moines speech on television. We almost created him, for God's sake . . . I resent being lumped in with his Eastern establishment effete intellectuals. I've had more cow manure on my boots than he ever thought about."

Of the presidents he has met, "I think I liked LBJ best. He was kind to me. As insufferable as he could be, he was a gracious and funny man at ease. I never tried to argue with him. I just kept filling his glass with Scotch and we talked about breeding Herefords. I'm going down to his ranch someday and sell him a bull."

He said "covering the astronauts was an exercise in boredom. The networks all got trapped. Most networks are dull as hell, nice guys, mechanics. The only ones who had a mind of their own didn't last long."

Why is Huntley retiring at 57? "I'm not running away from things, I'm running away to think. Maybe where there's clarity of air, there's clarity of thought."

DEDICATORY ceremony was held for the new flag pole at Silver Lake Boy Scout camp by various local groups Saturday. The American and Florida flags (above) were donated by American Legion Post 53. BRIGHTON, Barbados (AP) — A 120-foot, 10-ton trans-Atlantic crossing that says proves the Egyptians could have crossed the Atlantic, could have crossed the Atlantic, said Thor Heyerdahl and his seven international crewmen planned to haul their waterlogged papyrus boat Ra II out of Brighton's harbor today prior to shipping it back to Europe.

Vets Needed In Guard, Reserves

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon is considering special cash bonuses to lure young military veterans into the National Guard and the reserves.

Officials declined to say how big such bonuses might be, but one authority said "they'd be enough for a young fella to make a down payment on a car."

Some key authorities believe bonuses, along with other benefits, may be necessary to keep the guard and reserve at full strength as draft calls decline.

Officials also view this approach—never before tried with the reserves—as a way to build up the combat readiness of the backup forces by attracting men with service experience.

If approved, the bonuses would be offered only to what are called "prior service personnel" for both enlistment and re-enlistment in the guard or reserve.

Legislation would be required to authorize such payments.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has stressed his belief that the nation's nearly one million man guard-reserve strength will become increasingly important.

The proposed enlistment-re-enlistment bonus would be paid out of funds now used to train the youths who now spend only a few months on active duty and the rest of their obligation to the

Osteen Bridge Cost Outlined In 4 Plans

By CHARNER LEONE

Edward Mueller, secretary of the Florida Dept. of Transportation, noted four alternate plans that might be implemented in construction of a new Osteen bridge on SR 415 over the St. Johns River.

Alternate A: At a length of 2,300 feet, a 45-foot vertical clearance and a 125-foot horizontal clearance, the total cost of the bridge would be $1,636,000. The cost of the right-of-way would come from county or city funds, he said.

Alternate B: (Which incidentally, was the plan in 1961 as it was set for construction in the 71-72 budget). At a length of 1,800 feet, a 25-foot vertical clearance, and the same horizontal clearance the bridge would cost, including the approach, a total of $919,000.

Alternate C: With a 65-foot clearance and the same scheme as in Alternate B, the bridge would cost $2,259,000.

Alternate D, otherwise called the "compromise": Calls for a 25-foot clearance for that vital vertical depth. The construction would include a plan for future use of the underlying St. Johns River as a canal. In the compromise, Mueller noted that the middle of the bridge could be removed and a special span added to allow the required clearance. A draw bridge could be added at a cost of $450,000 if the St. Johns-Indian River Canal becomes a reality, said Mueller. Total cost of the compromise is $2,569,000, he said.

The type of bridge to be built will be determined by conferences with the U. S. Corps of Engineers and the U. S. Coast Guard, said the head of the DOT. The preliminary work for this preliminary work are in the 1970-71 budget.

"The last step is to let the construction contracts and get to work," he said cheerfully.

The work can be accomplished in 8-14 months, he noted.

Seminole Told To Integrate

He left his office at Wheeler Fertilizer Company to rush to the board office.

Douglas Stenstrom, board attorney, told The Herald the federal court would hold an Aug. 1 hearing on whatever plan is submitted to Judge McRae at Jacksonville.

The order served on Angel bore the signatures of John Mitchell, U.S. attorney general, and J. Lee Leonard, assistant attorney general for civil rights, as well as Judge McRae's.

The board at its Thursday meeting discussed receipt of a letter from Leonard which seemed to indicate the U.S. Justice Department's preference for a Seminole County through the State Education Department to work out an acceptable integration plan and the board agreed to pursue this request but when Angel called Tallahassee the following day to report the board's action, he was told by an aide in Commissioner Pippin Christian's office that a suit was being filed against Seminole and five other counties by the Justice Department that very day.

In the order served this morning, the county was accused of operating a dual (separate) black and white school system but a final U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare appeal of a ruling by the board has not shown this to be true and a final HEW ruling was not expected until some time in August.

Legislation would be required to authorize such payments.

Citizens Increases

The Citizens Bank of Oviedo in its statement issued for the close of business July 20, showed a jump of $3,349,926.26 in deposits over that date a year ago, or a total of $8,011,122.06. Loans and discounts listed, $4,342,931.22, or a $2,004,576.40 increase over last year.

L. H. Webb, executive vice president of operations, related the growth of the bank during the past year to new business, the new high school, and influx of FTU personnel and their families to the area.

Total resources listed were $9,678,719.52; liabilities, $6,672,710.22; and capital accounts, $9,258,167.64.

Other moves under consideration to make guard-reserve service more attractive involve increased health benefits, educational incentive programs, insurance, and a revised retirement system.

Nicklaus Takes British Open In 18-Hole Sunday Playoff

By JOHN FARROW, Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Let's give Jack full credit," said a disappointed Doug Sanders after losing the prestigious British Open Golf Championship by one stroke to Jack Nicklaus.

Nicklaus, the same Golden Bear, countered Sunday's 18-hole playoff. "How lucky can you get? I never expected to be here now. Doug had it all wrapped up on the final hole Saturday. Then he missed that short putt."

Just as the 18th was the crucial hole Saturday at the end of the regulation 72 holes, so it was again Sunday.

Sanders missed a four-foot putt on the 18th green of historic St. Andrews Old Course, birchplace of the game, on Saturday, forcing Sunday's 18-hole playoff. Dapper Doug, in a pronounced victory drought, named a three-footer at 18 Sunday for a birdie.

But it was for naught. Big Jack canned a seven-footer, also for a birdie, and it gave him a one-shot victory and his second British Open championship.

"I'm in a good position on the 18th. Jack is at the back of the green and in what could be tough grass."

"So, I'm thinking if I get a birdie and he gets a five, then I'm the champion. But Jack being the champion he is, he chipped out and got the birdie."

The 36-year-old Nicklaus, describing his winning putt, said: "I almost hit it before I

Little League Tournament Tonight - Ft. Mellon Park

By GARY TAYLOR, Herald Sports Writer

The climax of a long little league season gets underway tonight with the beginning of all-star competition. The district four, sub-district tournament opens tonight at Sanford's Fort Mellon Park, with nine teams battling for a berth in the district's finals Saturday night in Leesburg.

Sanford will field two teams, both the American League and the National League. Other teams competing in the Sanford tournament are Clermont, Tavares and St. Cloud.

In the sub-district tournament in Leesburg, there will be two League teams, Groveland and six teams from Ocala competing for the berth in the final.

At 6 p.m. tonight, in the first game of the tournament, the Sanford Nationals will take on Tavares. In the 8 p.m. game tonight, St. Cloud will meet the Ormond Beach Nationals. This is a single elimination tournament.

Tomorrow night at 6 p.m., the Ormond Beach American battle Clermont, and then at 8 p.m., the Sanford Americans take on the Kissimmee Nationals. If both of the Sanford teams were to win their respective games, they would meet each other at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Members of the two Sanford squads are selected from the six teams in each league. Members of the National League squad and their teams are: Robert Smith, Joe Baker, Gary Harrell and David Walls, Eric Federal, Clark Gallagher and Glenn Gowlin, Railroads; Claude Bewlicke, Jeff Dai, Curtis Wolf and Ron Mason, Tavares; John Bank, Tom Hollingsworth, Nick Merzo and Jimmy Smith, Sanford; Lincoln Mercury, Jimmy Brodie, Chase and Mike Fitzgerald, Jack Prosser Ford.

There will be no admission charge to these games and Sanford Recreation Department director Jim Jernigan invites everyone out to cheer the locals on to victory.

Turf Club Closes Early

After losing approximately $700,000 in less than three months of racing, the Seminole Turf Club has decided to call it quits for the remainder of the season.

The decision to close for the remainder of the season, came following a meeting with the state racing commission. The move was predicted in today's Herald and was announced Friday night.

Last Thursday, Seminole Turf Club president Gary Smith told the Herald that turf club officials would go before the racing commission the next day to ask a cancellation of a previously sought for and granted extension.

Originally the turf club would have shut down after August 1. But they sought an extension until mid-September, which was granted. When asked if the turf club would definitely be open till August 1, Smith stated, "I wouldn't say that." After the Friday meeting, he announced that they would close after next Saturday (July 18).

It has been a disappointing year for the turf club as they have been losing money nightly. The $100,000 mutual handle needed for them to break even, has been reached only a score or two times.

Much time and money went into converting the old Seminole Downs into the present Seminole Turf Club. You can be assured that they will be open next year. Many feel that within a few years, horse racing will establish on and the track will prosper.

Beginning September 1, Seminole will start operations as a winter training center for yearlings. Stables at the track will remain open until August 1, giving the thoroughbred owner ample time to set future plans.

Beman's Not Just Happy; He's Elated Over Win

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A confident Denise Beman with a smile that lit up the field in Milwaukee because of the warm weather and a chance to get in more practice.

"I was happy about my decision before," he said Sunday, after winning the $110,000 Greater Milwaukee Open golf tournament. "Now I'm elated."

The 25-year-old Beman fired a 15-under-par 276 to capture the $22,000 first place check at four under par what proved to be an unbeatable lead. He was one over on the back nine, taking a bogey on the 16th.

"I really changed my tactics after the turn," Beman said. "I was being more conservative."

It was only the second victory for Beman on the PGA tour, with the first coming in last year's Texas Open.

The Bethesda, Md., golfer, who became pro four years ago, turned in his final round of 69 with sparkling iron play.

He blasted out a trap on the first hole to within 15 feet of the pin. And, until he made the turn, it was one of his longest putts of the day.

On two, he hit a four iron to within six feet. The same distance he left a wedge's shot on the fourth hole. On No. 9, he rifled a two iron to within five feet of the flag.

Pitcher Feeling Bad

Tony C. Boots Cleveland's Lasher

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN, Associated Press Sports Writer

Tony Congiario and Billy Congiario both hit Fred Lasher Sunday and it was debatable which of the brothers made the Cleveland pitcher feel worse.

Tony C. charged Lasher after being struck on the left arm by a pitch in the first inning of Sunday's nightcap. He kicked Lasher in the hip—the hurtler got a tetanus shot for a small spike wound—and punched him in the nose before being thrown out of the game.

Ultimately for Lasher, umpire Hank Soar let him stick around and Billy C. hit a home run in the second inning that started the Boston Red Sox to an 8-2 victory. They also won the opener 6-2.

"I couldn't think of anything else to go and get him," said Tony C., who was nearly blinded when struck in the face by Jack Hamilton in August 1967 and last year's return to action after the season. "There was nothing else I could do."

Sunday's outburst was an aftermath of a July 4 game in which Lasher knocked Congiario down with a pitch and then was quoted as saying, "Tell Tony C. he better be a little careful the next time he gets hit because he just may get a little jammed."

"He surprised me twice," Lasher said Sunday. "First, Tony surprised me when he came out to the mound. So I got ready for him. But then he surprised me with that kick. Before I could do anything, Carl Yastrzemski grabbed me and pinned my arms to my side."

Soar absolved Lasher of deliberately throwing at Congiario. "The pitch was inside, but it wasn't thrown at Tony," the umpire said.

Tom Satriano and John Kennedy also homered for the Red Sox in the nightcap while Tony C. and Rico Petracci connected in the first game. Duke Sims, Tony Horton and Ted Uhlender cracked home runs for the Indians, who fell into last place in the game.

The Yankees fell seven games behind Baltimore when Washington rocketed Met Stadium for five runs in the first two innings and breezed behind Jim Hanman. Del Unser stroked a

All-Star Managers Name Starting Hurlers Today

By DICK COUCH, Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP)—A battery of National League's biggest guns, led by hometown bowlers Tony Perez and John Bench, should put American League pitching and the fences of Riverfront Stadium to a severe test in Tuesday night's 41st All-Star Game.

National League Manager Gil Hodges and American League skipper Earl Weaver were to announce their starting pitchers for the mid-season classic today, and it was anticipated that right-handers Tom Seaver, 14-5, of Palmer's New York Mets and Jim Palmer, 12-6, of Weaver's Baltimore Orioles would be named the opposing starting pitchers.

The other NL all-stars are first baseman Biele Allen of St. Louis, second baseman Glenn Beckert and shortstop Don Beckert of the Chicago Cubs, third baseman Perez and catcher Bench of Cincinnati and outfielders Hank Aaron and Rico Petracci of Atlanta and Willie Mays of San Francisco.

Starting for the AL will be first baseman Boog Powell and second baseman Dave Johnson of Baltimore, shortstop Luis Aparicio of Chicago White Sox, third baseman Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota, catcher Bill Freehan of Detroit and outfielders Carl Yastrzemski of Boston, Frank Howard of Washington and Frank Robinson of the Orioles.

In some ways it's as good as a sports car.

A sports car should have bucket seats like we do.

A sports car should have a four-speed stick shift like we do.

And, any sports car worth its stripes should have front brakes. And four-wheel independent suspension, like we do.

But unlike most sports cars, we have a rear-mounted air-cooled engine like the Porsche.

We have fuel injection instead of a carburetor like the Alfa Romeo and the Mercedes-Benz.

Of course, our car isn't as fast as a sports car.

But then, it isn't exactly a fast car. It has a roomy rear seat like a sedan. It holds more luggage than most sports cars.

And, it offers air conditioning. And a fully automatic transmission.

By now we think we've made our points.

Washington State Has A Bleak Economic Outlook

BY PAUL WELLS
Associated Press Writer
SEATTLE (AP) — Few spots glowed brighter on the nation's economic map in 1969 than Washington state. Now a scant two years later, few are bleak.

This is particularly true in the Seattle area, home of Boeing Co., world's largest builder of commercial jetliners.

For four months the state has had the highest unemployment rate in the country, according to the national average. June unemployment exceeded 110,000 out of a statewide work force of 1.1 million. The seasonally adjusted rate was 8.6 per cent. A year ago it was 7.2 per cent.

But in the Seattle metropolitan area, where 1.6 million of the state's 3.3 million residents live, things were worse.

Economists and Mayor Wes Uhlman believe the unemployment rate may climb from its present 10 per cent to 15-17 per cent during the winter, pushing the number of jobless to around 110,000.

Already King County (Seattle) has more than 100,000 out of a population of 1.1 million on welfare in some form or another, Uhlman said. "That figure will increase as those drawing unemployment compensation use up their benefits."

What went wrong with the state's economy into a critical tailspin? Boeing, mainly.

Its unexpected sharp cutbacks, forced by declining jetliner sales and failure to win the supersonic manned bomber and other U.S. government contracts, have been particularly traumatic.

As Washington's largest single employer, Boeing has been the state's prosperity weather-vane.

The state's second biggest industry, lumber and wood products, also has been in the doldrums because of the depressed housing market. Employment dropped from 66,800 in March 1969 to 62,600 in May 1970. Agriculture, the state's third main industry, has been weak except for livestock.

School Bus Swapping Is Seen

North And South Whites And Blacks May Be Exchanged

By HILL SCOTT
Faced with a South Seminole black and white students predominantly North Seminole black schools and the return of north county blacks to the south may be the plan now being prepared by a three-man team of desegregationists from the U. S. Education Department.

This is one measure being considered in an effort to strip immediate investigation of alternative desegregation plans drawn up by the school board, but never implemented.

After receiving all available information, the trio returned to the regional Atlanta office to devise a plan for presentation to the board later this week, probably Friday, since according to an order from U.S. Judge William A. Miller, the team must present an acceptable plan to the court on or before July 20.

The local board does not have to approve the federalized plan, but must submit its own acceptable plan by July 24 for review by the court on Aug. 1.

The Herald has learned that the U.S. Justice Dept. is heavily on the pairing of certain black and white schools in order to bring maximum integration.

There are 60 blacks in either Bear Lake or Lake Mary Elementary schools and it could be that some form of bus swapping at one school and 3-5 at the other.

Another plan would make Croome an all-black grade 4-5 school for Sanford. This in effect being a pairing of Seminole High and Croome High. All Seminole and Croome High, black and white students in grades 1-3, would attend double sessions at Seminole High School.

There is little doubt that Croome will be situated as a 3-5 grade facility when school starts Aug. 31.

The school board will meet at 3 p.m. today to discuss the court attention with Douglas Stenstrom, board attorney.

Exile Invasion Planned

BY MATTHEW T. KENNY
MIAMI (UPI) — A worldwide count of Cuban refugees who might serve in a new expeditionary force against the Fidel Castro regime will be launched next Monday, exile leader Jose De La Torre said today.

His announcement came as U. S. authorities disclosed they intercepted two Cuban exile boats loaded with arms off the Florida coast last Tuesday. The boats apparently were headed for a rendezvous with anti-Castro Alpha 66 exile forces inside Cuba.

The boat capture, which resulted in the arrest of two of the five men aboard, as a demonstration of the U. S. military crackdown on refugees trying to topple the Castro regime.

Torres, a 66-year-old retired Cuban executive who now is naturalized U. S. citizen, said all interested exiles will be asked to fill out a five-page form detailing their personal and political backgrounds and listing their military experience or qualifications.

Once the census is completed in about two months, it will be computerized "somewhere abroad," he said. Torres declined to say if the census is the first step in preparation of a new invasion of Cuba.

More than 100,000 of the five-page census forms have already been prepared, and more are being assembled, he said. The forms will be distributed to delegates in all major U. S. cities with large exile populations and to most Latin countries and Spain.

Torres has previously stated that he is working for the "liberation of Cuba by any means" and he has come under violent attack by premier Fidel Castro.

Sanford Airport Close To Red Ink

The balance of payments at Sanford Airport is getting close to the red ink mark. This was revealed during last night's City Commission meeting after a list of past due accounts involving several lessees of airport property was delivered to the commission by City Manager W. E. Knowles. Knowles received the list earlier from J. S. (Red) Cleveland, airport manager, which listed several airport firms with a combined indebtedness of $12,012.93.

Among those delinquent accounts are Uni-panel, Durrell Garment Company, Andrews Graphic and others whose names have not been revealed.

Also, it is known that several financially up-to-date firms are indicating leaving airport for other locations.

Mid State Fiber Glass is reported ready to move its airport operation back to downtown Sanford. Street site and Country Fair is also on the verge of leaving.

Reports have been circulating that another airport firm is also ready to cease airport operations but this has so far proved to be just a rumor.

It is possible that the in-the-black operation of the airport leasing may eventually lead to some red ink on the city books but Cleveland discounts this possibility. "It will never happen," Cleveland said when questioned about the situation today by The Herald.

Commissioner Thomas McDonald last night observed, if the airport operation is in the red now it would soon return to the black.

United States Faces Perilous Times

County Landfill Hassle Continues

By MARION BETHEA
Tempers flared this morning at a meeting of Seminole County Commissioners relative to the use of the Occoala airfield property as the county's central sanitary landfill.

Prior to the meeting, Chairman John Alexander read a report from Ardeman and Associates stating that on the basis of test borings and geology, the use of the site was satisfactory, would not be harmful to adjacent bodies of water such as Lake Harney and that any sewage would be purified by force reaching aquifers.

Leon Handley of the Orlando law firm of Gurney, Gurney and Handley, appeared and stated that he was representing taxpayers who were only aware of the matter for 12 days after it had been advertised for public hearing at the planning and zoning board.

The adamant Handley said, "It appears there has been a considerable amount of work done on which the public has not been informed. The people's business should be known by the people."

He went on to say that the site encompassed a thousand acres which was a valuable asset to the county and could be used for a better purpose than "tying it up for the rest of this century as landfill."

Handley went on to say that the county must build a first rate road to the site because of the large trucks necessary to transport refuse.

"And that the taxpayers had a right to know the specifics of the proposal," Handley requested additional time for study and again implied a violation of the "sunshine statute."

The attorney said, "We can get time if we have to by the unpleasant method of going to court." (He requested 90 days for additional study.)

CHAIRMAN IRRITATED
Alexander replied to Handley's accusations, saying, "I take offense to your remarks that the county has violated the sunshine law. Not one part or parcel has been done other than county meetings for the taxpayers to know."

Commissioner Greg Drummond injected that there had been considerable publicity in the press and that since Handley is an out-of-county resident he had not received county newspapers. Alexander continued along this line saying there is nothing new in the program which had been proposed as long as a year ago under the county's arthropod control program.

Drummond continued that the contention that the industry could be utilized for property was a fallacy and would disregard tri-county studies of land use. Drummond said, "You don't put industry out in the sticks away from railroads, etc."

Handley countered this remark by citing the Martin Development in Orlando, a 311,000-acre site located "in the middle of the sticks." To which Drummond retorted, that in relation to the county (Orange) this was not in the middle of the sticks, since the turnpike and I-4 were then in the planning stages.

HANDLEY PLEADS
Handley again made his plea for time with a notation that the plans were first made known on July 2, but Alexander, in swift repatriate said that adjacent property owners had been apprised of the county's intention and that no bona fide record.

Candidate Warns Of Mid East

By FRED VAN PELT
These are times of peril for the United States," warned Farris Bryant before noon today at a breakfast in his honor at the House of Steak. Bryant, candidate for the U. S. Senate seat being vacated by Spessard Holland.

While praising the American fighting men in Southeast Asia, the former governor of Florida said that "Cambodia is not now the major issue in our foreign relations," adding that "the Mid East situation should be of N.I. importance to the administration and to the United States Senate."

Charging that the Copper-Church amendment and the repeal of the Tonkin Gulf resolutions "weakened efforts and past history," former Governor Bryant declared:

"The Senate should start today debating what this nation will do when and if Soviet air planes piloted by Soviet pilots attempt to control the air space over Iran."

When that happens, President Nixon will not have time, Bryant continued, to call Senator Fulbright or Senator Scott or Senator Javits and say, " fellows, what should I do now?" He will have to determine immediately what to do with the "Missiles" (deployed in the Mediterranean Sea).

"The Senate," he said, "needs to discuss the Middle East and tell Nixon now what it feels he should do if and when that time comes because he will have no more than 15 minutes to make a decision."

Outlining his qualifications to serve in the U. S. Senate, Bryant touched on his service in the Florida House of Representatives (speaker, 1953-54) and governor of Florida in 1961-65.

He served as White House liaison with state governors in 1966-67, was director of the Office of Emergency Planning, 1966-67; member of the National Security Council, 1966-67; member of the Florida House of Representatives (1961-65).
