Judge Holds Lewis Guilty Of Criminal Contempt Of Court

Goldborough Says He Will Pronounce Sentence Tomorrow; Hints At Jail Term

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19. (AP)—Justice T. Alan Goldborough today held John L. Lewis guilty of criminal contempt for not sending the striking coal miners back to the pits when ordered by the court.

The judge announced he will pronounce sentence tomorrow.

He is the same judge who fined Lewis $10,000 and gave the United Mine Workers $3,500,000 for disregarding a court stop-strike order in 1946. The Supreme Court cut the union's fine to $700,000 but let Lewis stand.

Goldborough, before adjourning court, hinted that he is at least considering a jail term for Lewis this time.

He said he did not think, because of the seriousness of the case, that it could be decided on the basis of "expediency."

When he fined Lewis in December, 1946, in the other case, the judge said he had to consider the "expediency" involved and was giving a fine instead of a jail sentence.

So his talk of not regarding "expediency" this time suggested strongly that Goldborough is thinking of a jail term for the miners' chief.

Goldborough asked the government to bring in recommendations for punishment at 10:00 A. M. tomorrow.

Goldborough said: "The court thinks there is no difficulty in deciding the evidence beyond all doubt in favor of the government and that Lewis is guilty of criminal contempt."

Later, he said that "of course the defendants also are guilty of civil contempt on a technicality," but added:

"The court doesn't emphasize the civil contempt."

This indicates the judge might impose a lighter fine on the union this time.

Goldborough said that what the court will do in the way of punishment "is being watched by every lawless element in the world—also by all decent people—to ascertain whether or not the

ICC Grants Further Freight Rate Hikes To U. S. Railroads

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19. (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today granted the railroads a further temporary freight rate increase estimated to cost the public about $300,000,000 a year.

Commission officials figured the raise will average about four percent above present rates.

The ICC last October, acting on the railroad's plan for a 30 percent advance in freight rates, authorized a temporary 10 percent increase to meet higher operating costs.

Still another 10 percent temporary increase was granted in January. The additional raise announced today will be effective until the commission passes final orders for permanent upward adjustments.

The new increase may be applied upon 10 days notice to the public.

Segregation Is Denounced At House Hearing

Civil Disobedience Slated In Protest; Quick Action On Air Forces Demanded

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19. (AP)—Grant Reynolds, a negro, told Congress today a nationwide campaign of civil disobedience has been started in protest against segregation of races within the Armed Services.

Reynolds testified before the House Armed Services Committee as national chairman of the "committee against Jim Crow in military service and training." The committee is considering a military draft bill.

He showed the committee a card saying he will not be drafted for "Jim Crow military service."

Reynolds said this is the first such card to be signed. They will be circulated nationally, he testified, and others of all races will be urged to sign them.

Besides the cards, Reynolds said, his organization has placed an order for 100,000 buttons with the inscription "Don't join a Jim Crow army."

Reynolds continued: "Upon delivery we expect to launch the sale of these buttons—outside the White House and on the steps of the Capitol. In this way, we hope to impress the mind of white America that negroes have had enough of this bi-racial scheme for another year, and that, come what may, we are withdrawing our support of her Jim Crow."

Senator Bridges (R-MD), meanwhile, urged quick action on a 70-man air force. Bridges said in a statement:

"The Senate Appropriations Committee, of which he is chairman, is prepared to act swiftly regarding Air Force defense of any other national security matter placed before us."

"I have always been an advocate of air policy as a key to any national defense program," he said.

Bridges called on the Administration and Defense Department to tell Congress immediately whatever steps are necessary "toward an adequate, balanced, overall program." He continued:

"Throughout my service in the Senate, I have urged the development and maintenance of a strictly national security program, adequate to meet any contingency. Since World

High Court Upholds Negro Vote Right In Demo Primaries

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19. (AP)—The Supreme Court in effect today upheld a decision that negroes have the right to vote in Democratic primaries in South Carolina.

That decision was returned by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond. It was announced by party officials of Richmond, S. C. They asked the Supreme Court to review and reverse the decision. They contended the Democratic Party in South Carolina is a voluntary political association which can exercise unrestricted choice of membership.

The Supreme Court announced merely that it would not review the lower court findings. The effect of this is to let the findings stand.

Attorneys said Supreme Court action upholding the decision would have widespread effect in the south.

The circuit court decision said: "No election machinery can be upheld if its purpose or effect is to deny the negro, on account of his race or color, an effective voice in the government of his country or the state or community wherein he lives."

Italian Police Hold Crowds In Check

ROME POLICE ARE SHOWN holding back a portion of the vast throngs that waited for hours for a chance to cast their votes in an election which will decide whether or not the "Iron Curtain" is likely to drop in Italy. A check of those shown a face showed that virtually all of them were eager for the opportunity to cast out the Communist threat. Some 300,000 government troops and police handled the crowds which, in Rome, were largely orderly and good natured. (International Radiophoto)

France Ready To Propose Force To Guard Jerusalem

NEW YORK, Apr. 19. (AP)—France was reported today to propose immediate creation of an emergency security force to safeguard the holy places of Jerusalem.

The first results you will hear about will be from the Senate floor, since they are expected to be completed Tuesday. Because of the system of electing senators in complex, it may take several days before the exact composition of the upper house is known.

The Italian constitution provides that a candidate must get 65 percent of the vote to be elected. If no one does, an all-ballot election must be held.

The Senate's important committee from the last session, the Committee on Governmental Organization, is expected to report on the Italian constitution proposal.

The president, as in many parliamentary governments, is primarily a ceremonial figure. He has one important function—he picks a leader to form a government.

The move is intended as an emergency step entirely apart from any general settlement of the Palestine problem which may evolve eventually.

Meanwhile, assembly delegates were puzzled by an American statement that the U. S. would not shoulder alone the responsibility for bringing forward a concrete Palestine program.

The assembly, meeting for only 27 minutes today, began by admitting the union of Burma as the 16th member of the United Nations.

Political Rally Is Held At Altamonte

No Absolute Winner Foreseen As Result Of Italy's Vote Count Today

ROME, Apr. 19. (AP)—This is designed to help Americans interpret results of the Italian election as they return in the next three days. There almost certainly will be no absolute winner. That could occur only if a single ticket should poll more than 50 percent of both the Senate and Chamber of Deputies. It is expected that a narrow victory or defeat, therefore, will depend upon the parties' relative standing in the two houses of Parliament.

The first results you will hear about will be from the Senate floor, since they are expected to be completed Tuesday. Because of the system of electing senators in complex, it may take several days before the exact composition of the upper house is known.

4 Pan-Am Nations Seek Freedom Of European Colonies

Secret Meeting Held By U. S., Chile, Argentina, Guatemala

BOGOTA, Colombia, Apr. 19. (AP)—A meeting of four nations agreed at a secret meeting last night to back the Pan-American conference to call for freedom of European colonies in the Western Hemisphere.

Attendees at the meeting were Paul Doumer of the U. S. delegation to the conference, Enrique Brindley of Chile, Enrique B. Cordero of Argentina, and Manuel Noya of Guatemala.

Argentina claims the British and French colonies. Chile and Argentina claim Antarctic territory also claimed by Britain and Guatemala claims British Honduras (Belize).

The plan is to convene the Pan-American conference at the national capital from the Colombian school building where it convened last week after the Bogota show-down was delayed. However, it is believed certain final sessions will be held in the capital at the end of this week or the beginning of next.

The new paper, El Liberal reported today eight persons had been killed and six wounded in an exchange of gunfire yesterday between soldiers and snipers. The shooting was an aftermath of the roundup of off April 9 with the announcement of Liberal Party leader Jorge Elies Gaitan.

General sessions for voting will be held tomorrow morning at the Home Military authorities have authorized liberals to hold a parade in the vicinity of the national shrine, which will be a national holiday.

Colombian constitution requires that the election be held on the day of the national holiday.

Official returns from 200 of 241 constituencies in the Milan senate constituency gave the Christian Democracy 20,528, the Popular Front 50,714, the anti-Communist Socialist 26,842, and the national liberal 10,817 parties.

Those winners will compete in the final county elimination.

British Publisher Says British Neutrality Would Endanger U. S.

NEW YORK, Apr. 19. (AP)—Lord Rothemann, British newspaper publisher, said today this nation's safety could be undermined by a serious movement for Western European neutrality, particularly British neutrality.

Lord Rothemann, who spoke at the 100th anniversary luncheon of the Associated Press in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, urged more resolute to keep alive a free press abroad. He said a lack of newspaper endangered freedom.

"The news must be reported," he said. "Ignorance, as you know better than anybody, breeds isolationism. Isolationism breeds neutrality. Look eastwards across the horizon a cloud of wishful neutrality. Today no bigger than a man's hand perhaps, but capable tomorrow of assuming menacing proportions.

"A serious movement for Western European neutrality, particularly British neutrality, could undermine the whole conception of American strength and swiftly imperil the present safety of your precarious peace and freedom.

De Gasperi's Party Takes Strong Lead In First Returns From Red Centers

ROME, Apr. 19. (AP)—Early returns in Italy's momentous election gave the Communists a long lead today for the new senate and threatened the leftist domination in the so-called "red north."

Francesco Alcide de Gasperi's Christian Democracy were ahead of the Communist-dominated Popular Front vote in Turin, Venice, and Florence, which are under Communist municipal administration. The vote-backed Christian Democracy polled in Milan, in the heart of the industrial north.

In Bologna, capital of a region often called the "Italian Kericho," the Christian Democrats trailed the Popular Front by a lead. However, two minor parties associated with the Christian Democracy pulled up enough votes to put the anti-Communist total in Bologna well ahead of the Communists.

On the basis of these returns—the first to be decisive—Premier de Gasperi described himself as "very encouraged." He avoided making any predictions, however.

Leaders were cautious about making predictions on the senate returns, because 237 elective seats would be the real barometer of the nation's feeling on Communism. A striking return on the senate election is expected late tonight or early tomorrow.

Official returns from 200 of 241 constituencies in the Milan senate constituency gave the Christian Democracy 20,528, the Popular Front 50,714, the anti-Communist Socialist 26,842, and the national liberal 10,817 parties.

Last Rites Were Held Sunday For Pfc. Bradbury

Improvised funeral services for Pfc. Charles W. Bradbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradbury, were held Sunday afternoon at Lake View Cemetery with the Rev. J. W. Manning and the Rev. Douglas C. Gentry, chaplain of Sanford High School, officiating. Burial was in the National Cemetery, Jacksonville.

Pfc. Bradbury, member of the 10th Infantry, 3rd Division, was killed in the battle of Colmar Pocket in France, Jan. 21, 1945. He has a 1943 graduate of Seminole High School and a former employee of the Shrubbs-Crate Mill.

Major members of the Legion were Earl Buschman and Joel Field, color guards were Frank Griffin and Harry Miller. The flag was folded by Ned Smith and H. B. Pope and presented to the parents by Sgt. Davis, Army scout from Atlanta, Ga.

Ballgame were Douglas Stenstrom, James A. Wright, James G. Callahan, W. P. Chapman, E. C. Moss and Ray Wright. The national fife and drum squad included M. D. Conway, Col. J. W. Rumbley, W. R. Gray, W. F. Hannon, Sgt. R. L. Moran, W. E. Brown, R. L. Brown and Porter Manning, Jr.

Chiang Re-elected To China's Presidency

NANKING, Apr. 19. (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who said he didn't want the job, was elected China's first constitutional president today with virtually dictatorial powers. He had asked instead to be named premier—but with just such slight powers.

In orderly, machine-like procedure which lacked enthusiasm the strong-willed man who has headed the government since 1928 received 2,439 votes in the national assembly.

Chu Cheng, elderly president of the Judicial Yuan (council), was given 269 votes in an obvious gesture to provide a semblance of a contest. He was in Shanghai.

Florida's Candidates For Governor Are Eyeing College Student Votes

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Florida candidates for governor are paying more attention to the college student vote than ever before.

With so many war veterans completing their educations, the state's colleges and universities have perhaps 12,000 students of college age this year.

And in them their wives and other family members, and you have a ballot strength that could mean much in a close election.

Several candidates have enthusiastic student campaign organizations on the various campuses, and the office seekers don't miss many opportunities to campaign among the students.

There is no way of telling how many college students are registered to vote. Some, particularly the married ones, will vote in the cities where they go to school. Many others will be registered in their home counties and cast absentee ballots.

It is estimated that somewhere near half the 2,500 University of Florida students are of voting age. The University of Miami has about the same proportion of adult students in its 7,400 enrollment. Florida State University has about 1,500 student voters. Several thousand more are scattered around in other colleges.

Colin English put in a bid for the University of Florida vote day before yesterday. Fuller Warren has a University of Miami talk scheduled for today, and a Dan McCarthy club at Florida State is drumming up campus interest in his general Tallahassee rival tonight.

The flooded Suwannee River forced McCarthy to cancel a speech at Clearwater today, but he made arrangements to complete the rest of his schedule on a northward swing by hopping from Dunellon to Perry, across the river, by plane.

In Clearwater last night, McCarthy expressed "firm conviction" that he will win the governorship. "Our supporters in every section of the state are numerous and daily growing in strength with a faith in the campaign that is unshakable," he said.

Basel H. Pollitt, from Miami, asked for an investigation of two convicted deaths at the (Haitian) State Prison. He called them murder. Prison records in one case he mentioned said a negro woman was shot to death while trying to escape. In the other case, the records say a white man died on the day he entered prison from a "cerebral hemorrhage due to chronic alcoholism."

W. A. Shands is campaigning in Key West today. At Fort Lauderdale last night, he expressed favor for other state provisions of separate tax fields for cities or a return to the municipalities of taxes collected from them by the state on the basis of population and amount collected.

Warren, in the middle of a week's campaign in Dade county, promised to carry on an "intelligent and extensive conservation program." He said proper protection and propagation of the nearly extinct green turtle could develop a $50,000,000 a year industry in the state.

Tom Watson continued his attack on his opponents. He again cited a 1945 letter in which he claims Warren advocated a free drink of whiskey daily, free movies, utilities and other services for veterans for a year after their discharge from the Armed Forces. Watson said McCarthy is sponsored by a "special group which is responsible for the bed-fuddled condition of the citrus industry today."

Watson also had to revise his speaking schedule for today because of the Suwannee flood.

Dick Cooper is campaigning in Wildwood, Bushnell, Dale City, Zephyrhills and Clearwater. At Wauchula yesterday he advocated state veterans' bonuses based on enlisted service, and minimum old age assistance payments of $50 a month.

English told a Junior Chamber of Commerce audience at Kissimmee Springs that "development of business and industry would be one of his principal objectives as governor. He proposed trained state personnel to obtain new industries, conduct research and expand markets."

British Neutrality

program for European recovery made no provision for newspaper aid and said:

"In this battle for freedom, our interests, American and British and Democratic everywhere are the same, and we must be united in defending them. But, in this struggle some countries are sorely handicapped in endeavoring to carry out their proper functions by a lack of newspaper."

"The issue of a free press can be snuffed out just as easily by the lack of paper as by too much censorship. A tyrannical government which wanted to suppress opinion might hesitate to attack news as its source, and yet be sold enough to attack newspaper."

He said the newspaper situation in Britain is getting worse and there is "a possibility of a reduction from four pages daily to two pages."

Lord Rothermere was introduced by Robert McLean, president of the Associated Press and president of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, who said a Democratic government encourages an informed people.

"For the danger which threatens today is not solely that of commercial interests but arises from the growing activity of governments in this field either in the creation of official agencies of information or in some countries in the subsidizing of national agencies of information."

"We cannot overlook the fact that with the best intentions in the world an agency of government is sowing nationalistic interest and as such has an axe to grind and the bias of such an axe is not always the bright blade of truth. And it is to the truth we must look to make men free."

Lord Rothermere said "The first freedom to be seized by any dictatorship is the freedom of the press."

"Every tyrant loathes it because he fears it," Lord Rothermere said. "He fears it because it is the rallying point of liberty. He does not tolerate it and therefore he seeks to kill it."

In discussing press freedom, the British publisher said:

"Not content with providing in

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE
RIGHTNESS OF OUR CAUSE
GIVES COURAGE.—De. 1:17 Ye shall not be afraid of the face of man.

Don't forget to pay your taxes, or you will have to pay us for advertising your property for sale.

We hope that the United States is not so concerned with stopping Communism in Europe that it will allow the Communists to take over the Panama Canal.

To hero-worshippers in general, to all those who believe that blood will tell, and a thoroughbred can run faster than a prairie horse, and to all who have some difficulty—in these days of Communist propaganda, which strives constantly to tear down the good, the true, and the brave and to plonk the vicious—in distinguishing between the statesman and the demagogue, we recommend the memoirs of Winston Churchill beginning in last week's Life magazine.

The mud-slinging has begun in the gubernatorial campaign. We saw some of it last week and it was pretty scurrilous. It is too bad that a campaign cannot be conducted in Florida without trying to make this state's next governor look like a dirty dog. Most of the candidates this year are pretty good fellows, above the average, we think, in decency and intelligence. We doubt if any of them would countenance a mud-slinging campaign, but they cannot control the big mouths of all of their supporters.

Don't worry about the next World War and the destruction of civilization by the atomic bomb.
Something infinitely more serious and closer to home for those who like to worry is the daily traffic accident rate. Asher Frank, Florida safety director, says there are 500 such accidents in Florida every day of the year, and that as a result of them three persons are killed and 125 injured each day. Most of these accidents could be avoided by safe and sane driving. Defective minds are more to blame, he says, than defective cars.

Another proposed bond issue failed in Tampa the other day.
Eleven million dollars would have been borrowed for improvements to public schools in Hillsborough county, and the returns showed 5,726 for the bond issue with only 877 opposed. The election, however, was invalid because the required number of freeholders (19,673) did not vote. Since it is virtually impossible for cities to borrow money under present laws, will someone tell us how schools, city streets, sewers, incinerators, sewage disposal plants, recreational facilities and other county and municipal improvements are going to be made as Florida continues to grow and expand in population and more and more real estate is taken off the tax rolls through homestead exemption?

Thousands of comic books were confiscated in Detroit the other day by the police commissioner following charges that many of them contained subversive propaganda and liberal doses of Communist doctrine. The comic book mania is a national disease. Children who catch it often do not do anything else but read comic books. We wonder if their parents ever take the time or trouble to see what they are reading, or to note what their reading is doing to their minds and attitudes. Reading a crime story may not be harmful if it is countered with at least an equal amount of character building literature, but if a person reads nothing but crime, sex, murder and plunder, is it any wonder that he has a jaundiced point of view?

Grades And Goals

Parents who are preparing their children for life, and presumably for a successful life, will be interested in the results of an investigation carried out by Dr. Frank S.
Endicott, placement director and professor of education at Northwestern University.

Speaking before a convention of the Illinois Vocational Association, he outlined conclusions reached by a study of the answers to questionnaires. These had been sent to 70 companies, among which were some of the largest corporations in the country. He admitted that in some fields, top grades were important, but the majority of employers place them low on the list of qualifications for good jobs. Personality traits, such as dependability, accuracy, co-operativeness, courtesy, and cheerfulness were listed as essential. A college student with a B average and a record of successful participation in campus activities stands a better chance of employment than does a recluse with exceptionally high grades.

In many elementary schools, the tendency is away from a rigid marking system, and toward a report card which embodies aptitudes and personality traits. The parent is informed of his child's attitude toward his fellow students and of his degree of co-operation with the teacher and with the class. This moves toward achievement of the qualifications listed by the placement director. Good grades have value as evidence of work well done. But they are not enough. Learning to get along with other people is also important.

Bogota Interruption

Delegates to the conference of the American nations have experienced a most unpleasant interlude in the Bogota uprising. But the situation provides the backdrop for a new demonstration to the other half of the world of the solidarity of the international relationship represented by the meeting.

The dealings of the American republics with each other are the outgrowth of a long period of exploration.
Over the years there have been difficulties and quarrels and not a little shooting. Out of it all has come a relationship among the leading nations of the Western Hemisphere based on a mutual search for common interests. At each meeting of the nations more of the members indicate a determination to join the search.

An uprising in Colombia has interrupted a conference, but it does not interrupt the work toward understanding and mutual aid among the American nations. The work is now too well grounded and too far advanced to be seriously affected by an unpleasant incident.

The affair at Bogota and the subsequent reorganization of the conference may help uncomprehending observers in some other parts of the world to recognize the firmness of international friendship in the New World.

Coal Settlement

On the basis of the information available to the public there seems to have been nothing accomplished in the agreement ending the coal strike which could not have been accomplished weeks or months ago and without a strike.

The pension plan agreement is a rough and hastily-drawn compromise. The circumstances surrounding its drafting do not suggest any long and exhaustive study of personnel data or actuarial tables. It leaves all the details and fine points of the projected pension system to be worked out later.

The compromise does not even represent a meeting of the minds between the United Mine Workers and the operators. It was established as a decision of the trustees of the miners' welfare fund by a two-to-one vote, with the operators still dissenting.

Why could not this unspectacular and uninspired point of negotiation have been reached without the damaging effect of a four-weeks coal strike upon the industry and commerce of the nation?

Dear Mr. Editor: Jews and Christians alike are deeply aroused by the brutal massacre of Dr. Harris Yassky, medical director of the Hadassah Hospital atop Mt. Scopus in Jerusalem. He and twelve members of his staff were murdered while going to the hospital which opens its doors to Jews and Arabs alike even during these days of bitter conflict. Arab snipers aim their bullets at ambulances and doctors' conveyances traveling the road to Mt. Scopus, even though these vehicles are clearly marked with the red star of mercy.

The world must join us in mourning the loss of this great doctor and humanitarian who recognized no difference in peoples, who just before his own death at the hands of an Arab had, by a timely operation, saved from death the son of an Arab chieftain.

We grieve for Dr. Yassky and for the hundreds of heroes who have fallen in Palestine, heroes who fought for a bit of soil they could call home. Harried and driven from Hitler Europe, the Jewish people are fighting a battle of desperation, a battle such as the colonists fought for the founding of a free home on the unjudged shores of America.

How can our country, with its heritage and glorious background of freedom and justice be so vacillating in its attitude toward Palestine?

Yes we mourn the passing of Dr. Yassky and his twelve staff members. We must also mourn the fact that we have men in high places who are willing to swap Jewish blood for Arab oil.

TALLASASSEE, Apr. 19 (Special)—Several hundred of the 4,000 students at Florida State University are pooling their political activity behind L. B. (Buck) Vocelle on the national level, hoping he will be elected a delegate to the national Democratic convention.

Vocelle, son of the state beverage director and a marine veteran of the South Pacific, has announced as an unattached delegate. He will support, he told audiences on the campus here, a candidate for president who will be acceptable to the South and one who favors state's rights. He will work for re-establishment of the two thirds rule for the convention.

The young veteran was born in Vero Beach and attended Indian River county schools until his family moved here. After his graduation from Leon high school, he enlisted in the marines and served for 14 months in the South Pacific. He returned home after his discharge and enrolled in the first co-educational year of Florida State University. He also is a member of the local National Guard infantry company.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
By RUSSELL KAY

The world first heard of Gremlins when World War II flyers reported them from the British Isles. They were the unseen mysterious little creatures that rode the planes performing a wide variety of tasks. Good Gremlins helped the pilot, mischievous ones tormented him with their pranks.
They drained the juice out of storage batteries, put dirt in the gasoline lines, jammed machine guns, short circuited wiring just for the hell of it. Anything to gum up the works, cause trouble and delay was a great sport for them. But they were not malicious. They never intend to really do any harm and when it developed that some of their pranks actually endangered the lives of flyers they would get busy to restore the situation and many a flyer will tell you that he would never have gotten back from his mission if it hadn't been for the good work of the Gremlina.

Major Holbrook Scott, who handles publicity for Rosa Allen's Reptile Institute at Silver Spring, with seventeen months of flying hours to his credit covering service in both wars and commercial flying, is probably Florida's outstanding authority on Gremlins. He claims to know just about all there is to know about the creatures.

About two and a half years ago, shortly after he became associated with Rosa Allen, he began to study the variety of products produced from rattlesnakes and he found that like the pig in the stockyard, just about everything was used but the squeal, or in this case the "hisss." and Venom extracted was used for snake-bite treatment and in serums by the medical profession.
The skin was tanned for leather and used in the manufacture of handbags, shoes, billfolds, and other items, the heads dried and cured were sold as curios and preserved for museums and private zoos. Rattles were sold as curios and often used as watch chains. The oil was in demand by manufacturers of perfumes and was also used by masseurs and athletes. The meal, processed and tinned is considered a table delicacy. The gall-bladder is preserved and sold for medical purposes and snake excrement is used for Uric Acid.

About the only thing that did not seem to have any special use was the bones. Picking up a couple of snake vertebrae Scott tossed them on the table like he would a pair of dice. One of them came to rest broadside and he noted that it had the appearance of some kind of a bird or plane.

Then Scotty got his big idea.
He'd make Gremlins out of those bits of snake bone. Experimenting, he painted them in a variety of gay colors, attached antennas made from spines and added pins to them so that they became costume jewelry. Then they were placed on display in the gift shop.

To carry the fantasy further, he wrote a history of the Grem-in which was published in pamphlet form and given to each purchaser of a Gremlin. In this brochure he told how millions of Gremlins found themselves after the war. They gathered from all parts of the world for a conference in the Everglades of Florida. Scotty, who had their confidence, was invited to attend.

He advanced the suggestion that they could do the world a real service by helping folks ward off danger. Every human he explained needs one or more Gremlins to look after him and keep him out of trouble. So the manufacture of Gremlins was begun at Silver Springs. A crew of girls were put to work painting and processing them. Fifteen hundred dozen of the little trinkets have been sold to dealers and over 2,000 to individuals over the country.

He has given names to the various types of Gremlins now being turned out. There is the Curtis, the Selfridge, the Lincoln Beachey and his latest is the Atomic, larger and with more antennae. This particular Gremlin he claims is more alert than the smaller one. It possesses the ability to see in all directions at once and can move with the speed of light.

No, Scotty doesn't depend upon his Gremlins for a living. He is still doing his publicity work for bread and butter. He was recently engaged by M. J. Ross, Republican candidate for Orlando, to handle publicity on his campaign for Congress for the Fifth District. Scott says he expects to use a flock of his King Sized Gremlins on that job.

All of his Gremlins, he says, are Republicans. He admits that there are also Democratic Gremlins, but most of them are trouble makers and he points to the present split in Democratic ranks as evidence of what troublesome Gremlins can do when they get their heads together and start something. He says candidates would do well to employ a lot of his Gremlins as watchers at the polls, especially when the votes are being counted in some north Florida counties. Maybe if Bernarr MacFadden had employed a few when he ran for the United States Senate he might have been in the second primary instead of Jerry Carter.

Otto Obuch, secretary to former pleaded guilty today to treason. It was the first treason trial since Obuch's plea came at the end of the reading of a 25-page where Urynsky, Obuch and 15 other members of the old Slovak Democratic Party are on trial, charged with plotting against the

Sanford Sweeps 3 Games Over Weekend

DeLand, Gainesville And St. Augustine Fall Before Local Baseball Combine

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, Jr., Herald Sports Editor.
The Sanford Giants emerged from their first weekend of play in the Florida State League by winning three games, while losing none. Friday night the locals captured a 6 to 5 thrilling victory from the DeLand team. Saturday afternoon, Sanford invaded Gainesville to trim the University City aggregation by an 8 to 7 margin, and yesterday at the local park the Grubermen took a 6 to 2 liff from the St. Augustine Saints.

Three victories against one defeat places the Sanfordites in second place in the loop standings, while Orlando is resting on top of the ladder by virtue of maintaining a clean slate through four contests played thus far.

In the game with the DeLand Hots, the Grubermen were enjoying a 4 to 3 lead as the Hots came to bat in the top of the final frame, but Manager Joe Vitter came in to pinch hit for Hal Stewart and rapped the ball far over the right field wall with Bill Peterson resting on first base. This placed the visitors in the lead by 5 to 4. Buddy Lake, pinch hitting for Lloyd Clifton, opened the bottom of the ninth with a three base blow to right field, and was followed by a two base knock to left by Charlie Pepio, scoring Lake and tying up the contest.

The Grubermen capped the game in the tenth when Les Boney singled through short stop, and was driven home by Leo Martie, who tripped off the left center field wall.

The Giants invaded Gainesville Saturday night for the first engagement in Harris Field and won a close 8 to 7 contest.

Yesterday Lake pitched masterful ball to win the 6 to 2 contest with the St. Augustine Saints. Sanford opened the assault on Pletcher Don Brown in the fourth inning by scoring a single marker on Eddie Rosenkrantz, and a single by Tim Tyler. The roof came tumbling down on Brown in the fifth, when the Giants tagged four balls for base knocks and scored five runs.

Lake was in serious trouble but one time. That was in the ninth inning. The bases were loaded with one man out and Lyle Judy came to the plate. Tyler, who had forced Judy to roll to Tyler at third, who executed a perfectly timed twin killing.

Tonight the locals invade Daytona Beach for a contest at City Island Park and will return to the local scene tomorrow night with the Leesburg Pirates for a single contest to start at 8:00 o'clock.

By FRANK ECK

AP Newsfeature Sports Editor ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—This Sunshine City saw its greatest round of competitive golf the day Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., shot a nine under par 63.

It was over the 6,406-yard Lakewood Country Club course in the recent $10,000 St. Petersburg Open. Now you would think that such a phenomenal score would be enough to walk off with top prize. The bantam Ben, who weighs slightly less than 150 pounds soaking wet, faded during the final two rounds and wound up tied for third place.

The talk was all about Hogan's round when veterans of the fairways put their heads together. George Scheiner, PGA tournament manager who now has full authority to disqualify, suspend or level out any golfers swinging fists instead of clubs, and Bill Cody, referee of local tournaments, looked back and came up with what they believe are the best scores for a competitive 18 holes ever posted.

They were all record 62s with Hogan, a former Texan, responsible for two of them. Ben's first 62 was in 1941 at the Sequoia Country Club course in Oakland, Calif. The following year he repeated the figure at Chicago's Ridgemoor course in the National Victory Open. Other 62s were: Johnny Farrell, at LaGrone, Miami Beach, in the late 20s.

Walter Hagen, old Bellair-Biltmore, Clearwater, Fla.

Lawson Little, Willow Springs, San Antonio, in the 1941 Texas open.

Herman Keiser, El Rio, Tucson, Ariz., in 1941.

St. Louis Cardinals. The bronzed Links veteran was asked about Johnny Farrell's 62 at LaGrone on the possibility that he might have played that day.

"Do I know about it?" shouted Gene. "Why I watched Johnny Little just after he copped the top $2,000 prize in the St. Pete Open with a 16 under par 62."

"It was on Feb. 8, 1941, my fifth wedding anniversary.

"The weather was so had that it was the only time I ever remember that fires were built at each tee to keep the golfers warm. All the golfers were overcoats, shedding them only to take a shot.

"The tournament officials met and asked if I thought we should continue. 'Well, I said, 'the course is playable because I just had a 31 on the front nine.' The officials then went into a huddle around a pot belly stove in the clubhouse and decided to continue play.

"That Willow Springs course is a long one. I recall that it was impossible to reach the greens on par five holes in two strokes. I had nine birdies, nine one-putt greens and nine pars."

Gene Sarazen, Mr. Golf to old-timers, was spotted at a table with Bob Hamman, ex-postmaster, complained of the winter tour being too tough a grind.

90 Day Greyhound Racing Season To End Here Tonight

The 90-day greyhound racing season at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club will end tonight with the running of the Au Revolt Handicap. Plans have been made to accommodate a record closing night throng.

It was announced today by Bill Mandelcorn, kennel club publicity director, that the total mutual "handle" for the season will run well ahead of last year, the only known greyhound track in the state to show an increase.

Before tonight's final program the increase was approximately $70,000 above last year and the Au Revolt is expected to result in another sizeable boost.

The Leonard Halbert kennel with a total of 69 victories for the season will wind up as top kennel. In second and third places respectively are the Floyd White and J. E. Miller kennels.

The Au Revolt program opening at 8 o'clock tonight will be surrounded with color and fanfare and an overflow Central Florida crowd is expected to join in the grand finale ceremonies.

ANNOUNCING . . . Installation of the Latest Designed Machinery in Block Making Industry

CHAPMAN & PEZOLD

Commercial & Myrtle Avenue

TO THE HOME BUILDER—

During the past two years the Block Making Industry has made great strides in the "Know How" of making blocks for your home— We are making a conscientious effort to keep abreast these advancements.

"Be Sure the blocks you buy are the best Obtainable"

Chapman & Pezold Block Plant Makes Progressive Steps

The Chapman and Pezold Block Plant, now in operation for over two years, has made rapid strides in the block business and has forged ahead in making "special" blocks for the building trade.

They now manufacture 23 different kinds of blocks, each designed to save money and time in construction. Two of these "special" type blocks, the slotted door jamb, allowing for a weather strip, and the foundation form block are Mr. Chapman's own idea and are a definite benefit to the builder. Other special type blocks, including the "U" lintel, the "vent", the "bull nose" window jamb and pilaster blocks are meeting a hearty approval of the building trade.

Mr. Chapman says he believes there will be constant improvements and innovations in the concrete block industry in the future and it is his aim to pass these benefits on to the public.

Installation of the latest designed equipment is in line with Mr. Chapman's policy of real service to his customers. The company has recently added the Asbestoline Line of waterproofing material for roofs and walls which carries an absolute 10 year guarantee. Mr. Chapman invites inspection of his plant, located at Myrtle and Commercial Avenues, at any time.

Hints To Housewives
By Isabelle S. Thursty

MUD MARKS

Mud is a familiar spring problem in most households—muddy shoes, mud-stained clothes, and mud on rugs and floors. Textile specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture offer some suggestions on removing it.

Shoes. Even though dry mud comes off shoes more easily than wet mud, the specialists advise against the common practice of letting it dry on before brushing it off. Mud stains leather, and the longer it stays on, the worse the stain is likely to be. Scrape off moist mud as promptly as possible and then wipe the leather clean with a soft cloth. Let shoes dry slowly and then polish. Mud should be wiped off leather gloves promptly.

Clothes. Scraping wet mud off clothes is likely to spread and rub into the fabric thus leaving a larger stain. Therefore, the specialists advise letting it dry, then brushing well, and sponging with clear water. Sponging with alcohol will help remove any last traces of stain. On colored material or acetate rayon, dilute the alcohol with water, using twice as much alcohol as water. Washable clothes should be soaked first Rugs. Scrape off as much of the wet mud as possible with the dull side of a knife. Allow the rest to dry and then brush off. If a stain remains, sponge with a damp cloth, providing the rug is of the type which can take moisture. (Water removes the twist from the pile of some rugs.) Floors. Wipe up mud promptly with a damp cloth and apply wax if the floor is waxed.

War II ended and Communist Russia's expansion was accelerated, I have emphasized that the need for such an air force is completely urgent.

"The international situation is critical. In the face of this ever-increasing Communist threat, the Congress has no choice but to act with dispatch on the 70-group air force plan. As a spearhead of an adequate, balanced, over-all program to secure America's position in a threatened world, there should be prompt congressional authorization of a 70-group air force."

Bridges told reporters previously there is little chance the measure providing money for a 70-group air force will get a clearance signal from his committee this week. He said the Armed Services Committee should decide first what to do with the Draft-Universal Military Training Bill it is considering.

John L. Lewis, UMW Fined On Contempt Of Court Charges

Mine Chief Is To Pay $20,000 And Union $1,400,000 As Recommended By U.S.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 20. (AP)—John L. Lewis today was fined $20,000 and his United Mine Workers $1,400,000 for contempt of a court's stop-strike order. Judge T. Alan Goldborough accepted a government recommendation for those fines, but said it had been his own inclination to send Lewis to jail. The fines are just double what the bushy-browed UMW chief and his miners had to pay after they similarly were found guilty in 1946 of contempt for ignoring a court's stop-strike order. Then Goldborough fined Lewis $10,000 and the union $3,500,000, but the Supreme Court cut the union's fine to $700,000. The fines Goldborough imposed today were only for criminal contempt. The judge granted a government motion to consider a penalty for civil contempt against Lewis and the union on Friday. Lewis and the union each were held guilty by the judge yesterday.

Legionnaires Plan Headquarters Site Bid For Sanford

Members of Campbell Loring Post 83 of the American Legion met last evening at the Legion Hut and made final plans for the presentation of Sanford's bid for permanent department headquarters. It was announced that Sanford's bid will be presented at the Legion State Convention starting Friday at Panama City, by Brig. General J. C. Hutchison. The bid includes the City's offer of the lake front site now occupied by the soft ball diamond, and in event Sanford is chosen as the location for a Legion National headquarters building, the free use of space in the City Hall for five years, pending construction. The Legion post in turn offers $6,000 cash and will maintain the grounds at the new site. Commander James Binearity announced that the Sanford delegates are to attend the convention unrepresented as to voting. Delegates from Campbell-Loring Post 83 at the convention will be: Ned Smith, J. J. Rocco, Joel Field, James Binearity, and James Wright. Alternates will be: Brig. General J. C. Hutchison, John Sauls, Chester Miller, Frank Pavlick, and Ed Monforton. One thousand bunches of celery, donated by Andrew Duda and wrapped with Sanford labels will be available at the convention.

Arab Raiders Attack Jewish Convoy Lanes

Report Says Most Of Convoy, Including Agency Executives Reached Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Apr. 20. (AP)—Arab raiders tried again today to cut the communications lifeline of Jerusalem's 100,000 Jews with the Palestine coastal belt. The Arabs attacked a Tel Aviv-to-Jerusalem convoy in which David Ben-Gurion, chairman of the Jewish Agency executive, and other agency leaders were traveling. Jewish sources reported that most of the convoy—including Ben-Gurion and the other leaders—got through to Jerusalem with more than 100 food trucks. Police said yesterday that Jews withdrew after an attack on the village of Saba, which overlooks the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv convoy route. Further down the same road, Hagannah sappers blasted an Arab filling station and four shops. Hagannah announced last night it had imposed martial law in Tiberias, after Arabs evacuated the historic city on the shores of Galilee. The Jewish militia said martial law was declared "to protect properties evacuated by Arabs and to guarantee the sanctity of Holy places, whether Christian, Moslem, or Jewish." Unidentified gunmen held up a truck carrying an estimated $80,000 in gold to a bank in Tel Aviv. The holdup occurred near the main Tel Aviv post office. The gunmen escaped. Jews abducted Maj. J. Resner, a member of the British military courts, yesterday in Jerusalem and questioned him for three hours.

Peacetime Draft Vigorously Hit At House Meeting

WASHINGTON, Apr. 20. (AP)—Senator Morse (R-Ore.) today called unification of America's military Frankenstein in a country which could destroy free economy. Morse, demanding an overhauling of the unification program, said "we may develop a military Frankenstein in this country which could destroy free economy." WASHINGTON, Apr. 20. (AP)—A peacetime draft was vigorously opposed today by the Socialist Norman Thomas. Thomas told the House Armed Services Committee such a draft would make war virtually inevitable within 10 years or more. He urged instead an American-backed program for universal disarmament under effective international control. Thomas, who has been Socialist candidate for President several times, testified as chairman of the postwar world council. He said the draft proposal is "dangerous and un-American," and added: "It ought to be axiomatic in a democracy that a president who demands to grave an increase in his power at cost to American freedom is unfit to be trusted with it. There are grave reasons to fear that consciously, or perhaps unconsciously, President Truman is trying to copy the precedent of his predecessor and to exploit a grave world situation for a continuance of personal power in an election year. The president has already shown a fondness for the military draft as a way to defeat strikes and that process will be made easier in the future by the surrender to even an emergency peacetime draft. Thomas said that even military leaders cannot agree on the Armed Force strength needed at this time. 'Let us say bluntly,' he said, 'our supposedly unified military is at once the object of laughter and immense irritation in America because it cannot agree on any program, not even on a plain statement of facts about the actual and desirable size of armies.' Thomas said a universal disarmament proposal backed by the United States 'would tend to put a reluctant Stalin on the defensive before his own people.' 'Assuming that Stalin and the Politburo would at first refuse the necessary controls for disarmament,' he said.

Farm Land Values Reach Highest Peak Since Record Level Of 1920

WASHINGTON, Apr. 20. (AP)—The war-born farm land boom has reached the dizzy heights at which the last one exploded to bring tragedy to thousands of farmers. The Agriculture Department reported today that farm land values on Mar. 1 had climbed to the record of March, 1920—a level that collapsed shortly thereafter. Spiking the current boom, the department said, is the continued high farm product prices and record farm income. Whether the present boom might collapse like the earlier one, the department did not try to forecast. The sharp break in land prices in 1920 followed a steep decline in foreign buying of American food. Officials said there are no signs now of any big drop in foreign demand. In fact, the multi-billion-dollar European Recovery Program is expected to maintain a good foreign farm product market for another year or more. Land values now average slightly more than twice those of the 1920-29 period. They gained an average of 6.8 per cent during the past year. The largest increases were reported in the wheat and range-

Coolidge Apology Sent To The South

BOSTON, Apr. 20. (AP)—Massachusetts' Lieut.-Gov. Arthur W. Coolidge today apologized to the South for his recent attack charging "Bilbo bell banjo-strummers" with "kidnapping" New England industries. Declaring "I regret the offense which my words have caused," Coolidge telegraphed U. S. Senator Olin Johnston (D-S.C.): "Bitterness is not my nature; malice was not intended. I was stirred because the program to induce Northern industries to migrate threatens the jobs of New England workers and the livelihood of businessmen."

Many Problems Of Newspapers Told At Meeting

NEW YORK, Apr. 20. (AP)—American newspaper publishers were commended today for objective news presentation despite many difficulties in the 31 months since the end of the war. The praise was voiced by Frank Walker, co-owner and publisher of the Harlequin (Pa.) Plain Speaker and Standard Sentinel. He served as chairman of the first session of the 62nd annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. Publishers had hoped with the war's end "to turn from a wartime existence to a peacetime period of expansion and better times," Walker said. "Problems, however, did not cease when the battle front was given on the battle front, and today newspapers are more beset than at any time for a long period of years. They are confronted with dissonance in their relations with some employees; they are confronted with difficult and in some cases impossible to secure the equipment."

Creation Of Rare Radioactive Element From Radium Announced

CHICAGO, Apr. 20. (AP)—Creation of radium of a rare radioactive element never seen before was announced today to the American Chemical Society. The element is actinium, element 89 in the periodic table. For nearly 50 years it's been known to exist in nature, but in amounts so tiny that it couldn't be concentrated. The final isolation of actinium in pure form was announced by Dr. French Hagemann of the Argonne National Laboratory here. It looks like lanthanum. It was made in small amounts in the atomic oven or pile by bombarding radium with neutrons. The actinium thus made has a half life of 13.5 years. That is, in 13.5 years, half of it disintegrates due to its radioactivity. Actinium is the latest of the naturally occurring elements to be isolated. Two others, francium and astatine, occur in nature but they are so highly radioactive, turning away so fast, that they may never be possible to get enough.

U.S. Offers Plan To U.N. For Palestine

LAKE SUCCESS, Apr. 20. (AP)—The United States today offered a 47-point trusteeship plan for Palestine. U. S. Chief Delegate Warren R. Austin told the special Palestine assembly's 38-nation politics committee that his government "is not prepared to act alone in this matter."

There was no commitment of American troops. The document, labeled by American spokesmen as a group of suggestions and not a formal proposal, lodged a stand on who should maintain peace in the Holy Land. Embodying most of the previous informal United States suggestions, the plan said merely that a group of nations to be selected later should defend Palestine and keep order. Delegate Warren R. Austin presented the draft plan to the assembly.

60 Year Old Mother In "Who's Who" Is "Mother Of Year"

NEW YORK, Apr. 20. (AP)—The 60-year-old mother of the largest family listed in "Who's Who in America" was named today as 1948's American Mother of the Year. She is Mrs. Helen Gattiside Hines, of Springfield, Ill., the wife of publicist Herbert W. Hines and the mother of 10 children. Mrs. Hines was named mother of the year by the American Mothers' Association of the Golden Rule Foundation. She becomes the 13th mother to hold the title. Mrs. Hines was chosen from a long list of State Mothers of the Year and several "extras" selected by the committee. She will fly to New York for her official reception at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Friday, May 7, and other events culminating on Mother's Day, May 9. Later she will preside over sessions of the American Home Institute, May 12-14. A daughter, Mrs. Marion Hines Derbamer, 37, is a secretary at Rollins College, Orlando. Nine of the 10 children were in service during the war. Selection of the mother of the year is made by a national committee headed by Mrs. Norman V. Peak. Residents of states submit nominations to state committees, which name state mothers. All are considered for the national selection.

Smashing Victory For Christian Democrats Is Indicated In Italy

Building In And Near Sanford Amounts To Over Million Dollars

ROME, Apr. 20. (AP)—Returns from Italy's crucial elections indicated today a smashing anti-Communist victory and vice Premier Giuseppe Saragat announced, "The Communists will not be admitted into Italy's new government." Saragat, head of the anti-Communist Socialists, told newsmen: "The Italian election means a re-birth of democracy in Europe. The victory of Democratic forces is a great setback to Russia and Communist plans for expansion. Italy is now a part of Western Europe and not of the Balkans." The returns from three-fourths of Italy's senatorial districts showed the anti-Communist parties two to one ahead of the Communist-led Popular Front coalition. Premier Alcide De Gasperi's American-backed Christian Democratic Party had almost half the total votes in the election test, and may yet get an absolute majority. Early returns on the chamber of deputies indicated a similar crushing defeat for the Communists. The returns raised the possibility that the anti-Communist Party had seized undisputed control of both houses of the new parliament. The interior ministry's tabulation (Continued on Page Four)

City Commission Passes Ordinance On Taxi Operation

An ordinance making additional requirements for the operation of taxicabs, was passed by the City Commission last evening at an adjourned session. Chief of Police, Roy G. Williams, said City Manager H. N. Sayer, will issue identification cards, and this ordinance will ratify the cards formerly issued. The ordinance, Mr. Sayer explained this morning, makes it unlawful to drive a taxicab or any other vehicle after two convictions for traffic violations. A permit can be revoked for one year. Appointment of a new airport manager to succeed Roy H. Browning who will leave here in May, was discussed and several applicants for the position were interviewed. The summer recreation committee was re-appointed and includes Roy Holler, J. L. Hugley, George A. Snow, Jr., Jack Rattan, Gene Tucker and Sam Martin. A "safety lane" inspection of cars on a non compulsory basis as proposed by the Jaycees was approved. This will take place Thursday and Friday afternoons and all day Saturday on Fourth Street between Park and Oak Avenue, and in co-operation with Police Chief Williams a free check of cars as to safety will be made. Roy Holler tendered his resignation as chairman of the Recreation Committee due to lack of time to attend to details but not through lack of interest, he declared. He reported that during the three months summer period more than 4,740 white children participated in the recreation provided under the joint directorship of Mrs. Nancy Brock, Herman L. Brumley and Miss Barbara Damm (Continued on Page Two)
