Standoff ends in death of cop killer

In the line of duty

By Vicki Belluccia
HERALD STAFF WRITER

GENEVA - The Seminole County Sheriff's deputy killed overnight in the line of duty, had been responding to a landlord tenant dispute prompted by a reclusive with a history of mental illness.

Dep. Eugene Gregory, 55, on active duty for seven years, had previously been a reserve deputy for two years and had been the owner of Gregory Lumber in Sanford.

Gregory and his wife Linda were the parents of three sons, two of whom were law enforcement officers.

His son, Travis, is with the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. Another, Destry, is employed by the Duval County Sheriff's Office.

A third son, Eugene Jr., is a pastor.

Gregory was actively involved with the Florida Sheriff's Boys Ranch where he helped troubled youth. He encouraged the young people in outdoor activities, the sheriff's office said.

Injured Deputy Sammy Olsson, who was shot in the foot, was a member of the SWAT team which responded to the scene after Gregory was killed. He had been an active member of the sheriff's office since 1981.

GENEVA - A Seminole County deputy sheriff was killed and two deputies were wounded overnight during an almost 14-hour standoff gun battle which ended with the death of the suspect shortly after 10 this morning.

Killed was Deputy Eugene Gregory, a long-time veteran with the Seminole County Sheriff's Department. Two other deputies were wounded.

The shooter was identified as Allen Singletary, 43, of Geneva. Deputies raided Singletary's home shortly after 10 a.m. this morning. Sheriff Don Estlinger said a robot unit from Orange County was sent in shortly after 8 a.m., but it did not pick up any indication of life. K-9 units were also sent in.

Finally, another team entered the residence and found Singletary hiding under a large piece of machinery. Shots were exchanged between SWAT members and Singletary, and Singletary was shot and killed at that time.

The situation started shortly after 8 p.m. Wednesday night when Singletary is said to have become involved in a landlord tenant dispute with another man at a convenience store.

Deputies managed to break up the dispute at the store after which Singletary left for his home. Deputies were called back to Singletary's residence on Ouy Court near Ocoola Road in Geneva, approximately 45 minutes later, regarding a possible continuation of the dispute. When officers arrived, shots were heard coming from the home and an emergency alert was sent to the sheriff's office.

It is when officers arrived at approximately 8:45 p.m. that the shots from the house felled Gregory and wounded the others.

During the night and early morning, SWAT team units from Seminole and Orange County as well as the Florida Highway Patrol arrived and began surrounding the structure. Police from Sanford, Oviedo and Altamonte Springs were also on hand. It was estimated that as many as 133 law enforcement officers were on hand. Special equipment had been called in during the night including a bulldozer and a military-type HumVec.

Until the final raid this morning, the last time Estlinger said officers knew for a fact that Singletary was still alive was at approximately 3 o'clock this morning, the last time shots were fired from the home. Until the SWAT raid, there had been complete silence.

Deputy Eugene Gregory, 55, has been a full time officer with the Seminole County Sheriff's Office since 1991 and served for two years as a reserve deputy prior to that time. He was one of two officers who answered the original domestic disturbance call. Singletary and the deputies exchanged gunfire for two hours during

Road humps

SEMINOLE COUNTY - The

Seminole County Board of County Commissioners has issued a press release to clarify misconceptions regarding road humps in Seminole County.

The commission, based on recommendations from a task force, voted to remove the road humps on Holliday Avenue on June 23. The statement said the action pertained only to Holliday Avenue and was brought forth because of citizen concerns over the past four years. No other communities have reportedly approached the board about removing their road humps and no other road hump removal projects are planned.

The commission stressed that this one area removal was not the beginning of a clean sweep of road humps in the county.

Stabbing

SANFORD - A reported on-going confrontation between two men led to a stabbing early Thursday at approximately 3 a.m. According to sheriff's Lieutenant Jack Cash, Joshua Jones, 43, a cab driver, answered a call to 825 Crows Bluff Lane in Sanford to pick up Rachel Barrera, 27. Upon arrival, Jones discovered Barrera was with Frederico Guerrero, 23, with whom Jones had prior conflict.

Cash said a heated argument followed and Jones attempted to leave. Before he could drive off however, Guerrero reportedly stabbed Jones in the chest with a knife while he was still in his vehicle. The wound is said to have missed Jones' heart by less than an inch. He was treated and released.

Sheriff's deputies are now searching for Guerrero, last seen wearing blue jeans and a white shirt. He is 5 feet 9 inches tall, 145 pounds, with brown eyes, and medium length straight brown hair.

When apprehended, he is expected to be charged with attempted murder.

To help provide more education about the danger of elder abuse, the Alzheimer Resource Center will sponsor a seminar entitled "I'm at the End of My Rope: The Reality of Abuse and Neglect".

This seminar will be held Wednesday, July 15 from 10 until 11:30 a.m. at the Westchester Assisted Living Facility, 558 N. Semoran Blvd., Winter Park. The seminar will feature Cathleen Mark, senior program specialist for the Department of Children and Families as the guest speaker.

You deserve due process of law

Today is the anniversary of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution. It was ratified on July 9, 1868, just three years after the end of the Civil War. Mostly, it outlines citizen rights.

If it weren't for the 19th and 26th amendments, things would certainly be different today, especially in the political arenas.

As originally presented, the 14th amendment deals with due process and equal protection under the law, election restrictions for persons involved in insurrections and several other points. It also says, generally, that except for persons involved in a rebellion against the country or found guilty of other crimes, voting in elections will be done by MALES, age 21 or older.

The 19th amendment, ratified in 1920 gave women the right to vote, and the 26th, proposed on March 23 (and ratified on July 1, 1971), lowered the voting age to 18.

Cuban crisis

In 1960, things were extremely tense in the White House. It was on July 9 in that year that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev threatened military action against the United States if an attempt were made to overthrow the Castro regime in Cuba.

Sew it up

This has really kept us in stitches for many years. Today is the birthday anniversary of Elias Howe, (born 1819) who invented the sewing machine. Similar to the origin of the 14th amendment, the machine, when first

A very young Tom Hanks introduced, was intended for the use of men only. It's not that men did all of the sewing, but they were believed to be the only ones capable of keeping it operating. Get to the heart of the matter

Here's something we don't realize happened as far back in the past as it did. Today is the anniversary of the first successful open-heart surgery. It was performed at Chicago's south side Providence Hospital by a black surgeon, Dr. Daniel Hale Williams. How long ago was it? Over a century. Dr. Williams' operation took place in 1893.

Happy birthday to you

On the present birthday list for today: actor Brian Dennehy is 60, Tom Hanks (Forrest Gump) is 42, singer Courtney Love is 33, actor Fred Savage is 22, L.A. Law and NYPD Blue actor Jimmy Smits is 40, and Orestes James (O.J.) Simpson is 51.

One other, TV host, pianist, and former anchorman for a Central Florida television station, John Tesh, is 46.

Can you guess

That's Today Is for July 9, 1998. Tomorrow, we'll discuss one of the most famous black women who ever graced our Central Florida area. It would have been her birthday. Who was she? See if you can guess. Answer tomorrow.

Distinguished educator honored at university

Special to the Herald

APOPKA - Arlie Almeida, a Music Specialist at Bear Lake Elementary School in Apopka, was honored recently as a Distinguished Educator at the University of Florida's 1998 Spring Semester Commencement. Almeida represented Seminole County in Region 3.

The University of Florida adopted the practice of recognizing outstanding K-12 building level educators from throughout the state beginning with the fall 1988 Commencement. Each fall and spring term a county from each of the 5 educational regions of the state is identified and asked to select a distinguished building-level educator representative of all of the educators in the county.

The individual selected might be a teacher, principal, counselor, or other educator at the elementary, middle or high school level. The University Commencement is an event to which the educators in elementary, middle and secondary schools of the state have a majority contribution. They have provided the foundation for the success which their students have enjoyed at the University. Consequently, they also deserve recognition and honor.

The educators are invited to participate in the University Commencement ceremony as members of the platform assembly in full academic regalia. Each educator is recognized by the President and presented the Distinguished Educator award from the University of Florida. At the conclusion of the ceremony they are invited to a reception at the President's home.

Study seeks women with severe hot flashes

Special to the Herald

Women in the Orlando area who suffer from frequent hot flashes are being sought to participate in a nationwide study of an investigational treatment for this common symptom of menopause. Women may be eligible to participate in the study if they experience multiple daily hot flashes, are between the ages of 45 and 65, have not had a menstrual period in six months, and have not had a hysterectomy.

Clinical Studies, Orlando, and Dr. George Pyke's Family Practice are two of 36 sites across the U.S. participating in a study to assess the effectiveness and safety of a hormone replacement skin patch to treat hot flashes associated with menopause. The study will involve 400 subjects nationwide, and test the effectiveness of the patch on the frequency and severity of hot flashes. The patch is a type of hormone replacement therapy (HRT) that releases a combination of estrogen and progestin, a synthetic version of progesterone.

"The best treatment for hot flashes is estrogen, but many people have concerns about risks associated with this hormone," said Wulf Utian, M.D., Ph.D., lead investigator and director, department of obstetrics and gynecology, University of California, San Diego. "The patch is a safe alternative to oral HRT."

which 40 to 50 rounds were fired.

In all, including shots emanating from the house, it is estimated that 400 rounds of ammunition have been fired in the standoff.

Ealinger said when his deputies tried to retrieve Gregory's body, they were shot at. One of the injured was Deputy Scott McLeod, 41. He was shot in the shoulder. The other deputy, Sammy Gibson, was reportedly shot in the ankle. Both were transported to Orlando Regional Medical Center, Althamonte, where they were said to be in stable condition.

Gregory was the former owner of Gregory Lumber Company on French Avenue in Sanford. He and his wife Linda had three sons. Son Travis, is with the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. His son, Destry, is a deputy with the Jacksonville Consolidated Police Department. Another son, Eugene Jr., is a pastor, located out of the area. during the incident, was the community officer assigned to the Geneva area. He, too, had been with the sheriff's office since 1981.

The killer, Alan Singeltary, attended Seminole High School.

The 43-year-old well pump repairman has had a history of mental illness, sheriff's officials said.

As a young man, the 1973 SHS graduate known to his friends as "Big Al," was active in the youth group at the First Baptist Church of Sanford and in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

In recent times he had become more of a recluse, barely known to his neighbors in the close-knit rural community.

He had been embroiled in an on-going dispute with his landlord, authorities said. Gregory had responded to other disturbances at the home involving Singeltary and the landlord, sheriff's officers said.

last 45 days.

By 8 this morning, Ealinger said officers had shot nearly 80 canisters of tear gas into Singeltary's house, but Singeltary was hiding in an area where the gas had little or no effect. They had also cut power and utilities to the home. The only comment that Singeltary made to police was a jab at the munitions of the law enforcement agencies. "Is that the best you have?" he shouted from inside the home.

Singeltary reportedly has had a history of irrational behavior, according to police officials. He was said to have been heavily armed with possibly four or more guns, several of which are automatic weapons.

Seminole County Sheriff's Office Police Information Officer Lt. Jack Cash said that neighbors described Singeltary as keeping to himself. "He likes to be left alone," said Cash.

Before the final raid of the house this morning, Ealinger commented, "It's been a valiant effort by all the people involved." Cash added that he didn't think it possible for Singeltary to escape.

Investigation into the killing of the deputy and wounding of two others, as well as the overall situation, has now been turned over the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE).

'The Lipizzan Epic' now at Flea World

Special to the Herald

SANFORD - Linda Wilson Herman's Royal Lipizzan Stallions will be featured at Flea World Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays through July 26.

The free shows are at noon and 3 p.m. The bloodlines of the Lipizzan go back thousands of years, stretching into antiquity. The finest stallions that carried Arab sheiks across the desert were their forebearers, and these horses, by a quirk of fate, happened to become native to Spain.

When Carthage established colonies on the Spanish coast, in the sixth century B.C., colonists brought with them fine horses from the orient. The great trading city of Carthage, on the northern coast of Africa, fancied fine horses, and had stables inside the walls of the city for 4,000 horses, as well as 400 war elephants.

Due to this infusion of oriental blood, Spanish horses became highly desirable to Romans, who imported them to race in the Coliseum, and draw the chariots of emperors in victory processions. This was fundamentally the Andalusian horse, a Spanish breed which exists to this day.

When the Carthaginian, Hannibal, crossed the Alps in 218 B.C., he rode ancestors of the Lipizzans beside the war elephants.

The Moors brought more fine horse blood into Spain, when they invaded Spain in the eighth century. The Arabian and Barbary horses of the Moors further improved the Spanish horse, so that by the time they were driven out, in 1492 A.D., Spain was known as the place to go for fine horses, much as Kentucky was known, a few years ago.

As long as the Moors had control of their breeding, they refused to cross their horses with the heavier breeds of Europe.

After they were driven out, however, the products of the Barbary - Arabian - Andalusian crosses were occasionally bred with the Villanos, a breed of the Pyrennes mountains, for size and strength.

This, then, was the famed "Spanish horse" which was imported to Austria, and became the foundation of the Lipizzan breed.

One of the founders of the six Lipizzan bloodlines was Pluto, born in 1765 at the Frederiksburg stud farm in Denmark.

Italy had imported Spanish horses, and founded a breeding farm. Horses bred here were called Neapolitans. They contributed also to the Lipizzan line, with two foundation sires: Conversano, born 1767, and Neapolitano, born 1790.

The Lipizzan stud itself produced the foundation sire, Favory, born 1779 and the Kladrub stud produced the stallion Maestro, born 1773.

A late infusion of Arabian blood came through the Arabian stallion Siglavy, in 1810.

During World War II, Col. Alois Podhalaky was director of the Spanish Riding School. His Lipizzans in exile performed for Patton, and Podhalaky asked his help.

The story of General George Patton, who rescued the Lipizzans of the Piber stud farm, and saved the breed, is well known to all horse lovers. Walt Disney made a movie about it, "The Miracle Of The White Stallions," a perennial favorite.

The Piber stud farm exists to this day, still supplying the Spanish Riding School with Lipizzans. You will recognize the Lipizzans which were bred there by the L on their jaw, and the imperial Hapsburg crown branded on their hip, with a P below it. Of course Lipizzans are bred in other places, too, but Piber is identified with the Lipizzan breed today, as Lipizza once was.

Lipizzans are born dark, and turned white with age, sometimes not becoming pure white until they are eight or nine, some times even later. The young ones are steel gray. They were bred for the color white because the Hapsburgs liked that color.

The Lipizzan is agile and athletic, with a willing and eager, yet quiet temperament. Although not built for speed, his powerful hind quarters and strong bone structure make him ideal for the demanding skills and mind required for the High School and "Airs Above The Ground."

The beautiful Arabian influence is strong, but the Ram-like profile of the old Spanish horse is also found. He stands 14.2 to 16 hands high, and weighs 1,000 to 1,200 pound. The life expectancy is often between 30 to 35 years, working well into their twenties.

The beauty and grace of this almost forgotten art of horsemanship, has thrilled and delighted audiences all over the world for many years, may they continue to do so for generations to come.

Flashes

ern Reserve University. This study looks at the benefits of combining estrogen with synthetic progesterone to alleviate hot flashes and reduce the risks that may come with using estrogen alone.

Menopause is the end of menstruation and fertility and results when the ovaries decrease their production of the sex hormones estrogen and progesterone. A woman is considered to have reached menopause when she has not had a menstrual period for 12 consecutive months, and there is no other biological or physiological cause.

The average age of menopause for U.S. women is 51; in the U.S. and Canada, approximately 4,000 women reach menopause every day.

The hot flash is the most common symptom of menopause and perimenopause, the three years before and after menopause. A hot flash is a sudden feeling of heat that spreads over the body, resulting from a change in the body's circulation caused by increased blood flow, a rise in temperature and an accelerated heart rate—all precipitated by falling estradiol. Hot flashes may be triggered by a hot environment, spicy or hot foods, hot drinks, alcohol, caffeine or stress. They can last from 30 seconds to several minutes and can occur any time, day or night. As many as 75 percent of menopausal women in the U.S. will experience hot flashes, 35 percent of these women describe them as "severe."

"Some women experience an occasional hot flash as they go through menopause and they consider it no big deal," Dr. Utian said. "But hot flashes are a very big deal for many women who suffer from several a day, perhaps as many as 55 or 60 a week. With this investigational study, we hope to show the effectiveness and safety of the patch in treating hot flashes so these women can get on with their lives."

Other menopause-related changes might include irregular menstrual patterns, fatigue, mood swings, vaginal dryness, fluctuations in sexual desire or response, forgetfulness and difficulty sleeping.

Participants in the study will receive free investigational medication, study-related medical treatment and financial compensation. Half of the participants will receive placebo (no active medication) patches.

For additional information on the study, call 1-800-456-6872.

Menopause Study Facts

- A nationwide clinical research study will test the effectiveness and safety of an innovative investigational estrogen/progestin (hormone replacement therapy) skin patch on the frequency and severity of moderate and severe hot flashes in menopausal women.

- The study will be conducted at 36 medical center sites in the U.S., with approximately 400 subjects participating.

- Women who experience multiple daily hot flashes may be eligible to participate if they: are between the ages of 45 and 65, have not had a period in six months and have not had a hysterectomy.

- Over a three-month course of treatment, study participants will have periodic office visits and tests designed to monitor their hot flashes at no charge, and receive financial compensation.

- Half the participants will receive placebo (no active medication) patches.

Junction took a 7-1 lead.

But Tire City answered right back in the bottom of the first inning with a two-run home run by Pitzer.

Tire City appeared like it would add the tournament trophy to the regular season championship when it scored seven runs in the bottom of the second inning. A two-run double by Stewart and a two-run sacrifice fly by Pitzer were the big blows.

The score stayed 9-2 until Pebble Junction started its rally in the fifth inning.

Coss drove in two runs in a six-run fifth inning and Molle blasted a two-run home run in a five-run sixth inning as Pebble Junction took a 13-11 lead.

Tire City had scored two runs in the fifth inning on an error and then came back to tie the game with two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning, again on the strength of an error.

Pebble Junction got their first two batters on base in the seventh inning and loaded the bases with two out, but could not score and Tire City went down in order in the bottom of the seventh inning, forcing extra innings.

In the top of the eighth inning, Joe DiBartolo singled and Coss walked before Molle put Pebble Junction ahead with a single. After an out, Mike Miller singled in a run and Molle scored when Kyle Brubaker reached on an error.

Kent Brubaker then capped the five-run uprising by tripling in two runs.

Tire City tried to answer in the bottom of the eighth inning. Bryson reached on an error and Denny Miller singled. After an out, Clark singled in a run and Sellers followed with a sacrifice fly.

But Murray then coaxed a fly ball to end the game and give Pebble Junction the trophy.

Leading Pebble Junction were Brett Molle (one home run, one single, three runs scored, three RBI), Dave Coss (two doubles, four runs scored, two RBI), Mike Miller (two singles, two runs scored, two RBI), Vic DiBartolo (two sin-

The Fire Ants finally got on the board at 8:27 of the second as Mike Anastasio scored on an assist from Eric Morin.

But that was as close as South Carolina would get as Reeves and Martens scored two more goals each in the second period to give the Surge a 7-1 halftime lead.

Orlando increased the lead to 9-1 early in the third period as Leroux and Reeves both scored.

The Fire Ants got a third period goal from Rob

Concannon, but the Surge closed the period with goals from Leroux and Aaron Balogh to make the score 11-2 entering the final period.

No one who saw last night's game should doubt it. It was 3-0 before Winter Springs recorded its first out.

Dani Daniels led off with a single, moved over on a wild pitch, and scored on Ford's single up the middle. Beck Curry walked and Inram Hernandez blasted a double to score another run. "One out later," Oviedo "scored again" on a Melissa Brown ground out and Kelly Lawton followed with a run-scoring single.

After Jessica Samuels singled, number nine hitter Tia Consoloto tripled in two runs to make it 6-0.

Ford mowed down Winter Springs in the first, then it was time for Oviedo's bats to really come to life.

Curry walked and scored on Hernandez' triple and she scored on a single from Winchester.

It got worse for Winter Springs and Oviedo led 18-0 after the second.

One bright spot for Winter Springs was pitcher Rebecca Davis who put Oviedo down in order in the third.

If Apopka can pull off the upset tonight, a winner-take-all game between Oviedo and Apopka would be played on Friday at 6 p.m. with the winner advancing to the Regional Tournament.

his team will hold their own this year, and see improvement from last year. "I think we have a little more experience and more enthusiasm toward winning," said Yates.

The Area Tournament will start at 10 a.m. on Saturday at Eastman's Park, and things could get exciting.

"I would suspect a home run derby," said assistant coach

Buddy Reynolds. The team on quite a show against Sanford on a normal size field, and will now have a fence fifty feet shorter than normal high school fields.

The team looks ready to compete, and should put on quite a show. Manager Tom Harris said all of his players look good, and "I could talk about every one of them. We've got 18 starters."

teams. Winter Springs bombed the Vipers, 18-5, then followed with a pair of wins over the Rockets, 15-4 and 14-4 to clinch the championship.

By outscoring the opposition 93-20, the Wahoos became the first team in area Little League competition to win every game on a 10-run rule.

Besides the strong pitching, Winter Springs was led by strong defense, especially from middle infielders Brandi Wisniewski and Jada Fosney, and the offensive power of Christina Oekas and Jacqueline Piercefield.

Rounding out the Wahoos are Zoey Craig, Marie Jacobowitz, Ashley Reese, Crystal Nichol, Leah Manooch, Monica Strain and Katy Wick.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I am a 71-year-old woman who has spent 25 years golfing and basking in the Florida sun. Predictably, this has caused my face to wrinkle, especially around the lips and eyes. My lipstick leaches into my lip wrinkles and this is an embarrassment for me. Can I do something to correct this?

DEAR READER: The obvious and insensitive answer to your question is: Stop wearing lipstick. However, you have better options for your sun-damaged skin.

I believe that you could be helped by a plastic surgeon. There are several treatments available, ranging from laser therapy to collagen injections. I don't know which would be best for you, but a plastic surgeon can advise you. Remember that your insurance will probably not pick up the tab, because the procedure is for cosmetic (not health) benefits. Also, remember that continued unprotected exposure to sunlight will worsen matters (even if you have surgery) and places you at added risk for more serious consequences, such as skin cancer.

To give you more information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "What You Should Know About Skin Cancer." Other readers who would like a copy should send $2 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2017, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10156. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I sent you $2 for a health report but all I got back was a list of health reports, hardly worth the money.

DEAR READER: I hope your money was refunded, because this is standard policy. At present, I offer more than 50 health reports on various diseases. Two (Impotence and The Prostate Gland) were updated this year. I do not offer health reports for all diseases. Therefore, when you send in a request for a nonexistent health report, you're sent back a menu — and your check.

I would be interested in what disorders you would like to see covered. Write to me in care of your newspaper and I will attempt to answer your needs.

WIN AT BRIDGE

It could drive you crazy

By Phillip Alder

Straight to business today. How would you play in six hearts after West has led a trump?

South opened with a strong, artificial and forcing two clubs. North gave a positive response of two spades, promising at least eight points and a good suit. Now South's jump to four hearts, when three hearts would have been forcing, guaranteed a solid suit.

This contract, which could drive someone crazy, is ideal for a computer setting.

You start by drawing trumps. Then you take the club finesse. It fails. Next you try the diamond finesse, but that loses too: one down. After asking the computer to reset the cards to trick four, you play three rounds of spades, hoping for a 3-3 split, but that doesn't work either.

The third time, you probably play three rounds of clubs, hoping West will have to win the trick and return a diamond into your ace-queen. Still no joy — West has the 13th club as a safe exit card.

The winning line is easy to spot if you've seen the theme before; otherwise, it is elusive. After drawing trumps, you should duck the first round of spades.

Suppose East switches to a diamond (his best defense). Win with the ace, play a spade to dummy's king, cash the ace, discarding a club, and ruff a spade. Return to dummy with a club to the king and jettison your last loser, the diamond queen, on the established spade six.

HOROSCOPE

Friday, July 10, 1998

In the year ahead, keep on the best of terms with people in your field. These individuals will do you the most good with the fewest number of strings attached.

CANCER (June 21-July 23) If you do business today with people you don't know well, proceed with care and don't be afraid to ask questions. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences that'll govern you in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions by mailing $2 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1758, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10156. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 23) Consider all of your alternatives before making an important decision today. What initially appears to be the quickest route might take too much time in the long run.

VIROO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23) You'll be disappointed today if you expect others to do things you could easily take care of yourself. Be self-sufficient!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Be the one who helps bring harmony to a collective endeavor. Avoid adding tension and strife.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Instead of being assertive and demanding today, use your wit and charm to make others cooperate. Pleasant words and courtesy will gain you the support you require.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 31) Even though a companion's faults will be obvious to you today, it's best not to criticize him/her in front of others. Think of how you would feel if the roles were reversed.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) An acquaintance might try to keep you from doing something that would give you an advantage today, because it's not in his/her best interests to do so.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) You may feel like the odds are against you early on today. However, if you think things over again in the late afternoon, benefits will come to light.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) A poorly-managed project will start to come under your control today. You'll be able to do better than your predecessors did.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Someone you know is a "taker" may look upon your resources today as if they were his/hers own. Put limits on your generosity.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Objectives can be accomplished today, provided you don't do things the hard way. In order to get on a roll, map out the best route ahead.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Someone might offer you advice today that's a better pill to swallow. After some thought, you'll see it's for your own good.
