Mrs. E. A. Kaune of St. Louis is only 23 and she's been married only a couple of weeks, but she's one of the leading real estate women of the country.

Test of sentiment of various leaders indicates neither side is disposed to resume soon the negotiations broken off August 4 in Atlantic City.

Since the break at the seashore both operators and miners have entrenched themselves in their announced opposition to each other.

With the outlook unsettled, the anthracite coal trade and public are reported to be taking emergency precautions.

Work at the mines is proceeding at top speed, work comes in, in order to store up every extra pound of coal possible in advance of any untoward developments a fortnight hence.

Meanwhile fleets of retail coal trucks rushing bulging loads to householders cellars and to the local pockets of large industrial users are reported familiar sights.

By working out electrically-timed photographic apparatus, the Bureau of Standards has been enabled to take a new series of photographs of rifle bullets, and time the release of gas and sound waves from the weapons used.

STRIKE LOOMS AMONG MINERS OF ANTHRACITE

Public Will Know In 2 Weeks Whether It Will Be Made To Suffer Interruption Of Its Coal Supply For Winter

Operators And Miners Still At Loggerheads

Neither Side Seems Disposed To Resume Parley Which Was Broken Off August 22

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—Only two weeks remain before the country is to know definitely whether it again is to suffer interruption of its supply of hard coal for winter stove and furnace by a suspension in the 828 hard coal mines in northeastern Pennsylvania on the part of the 15,000 mine workers.

Test of sentiment of various leaders indicates neither side is disposed to resume soon the negotiations broken off August 4 in Atlantic City.

Since the break at the seashore both operators and miners have entrenched themselves in their announced opposition to each other.

Letter From Vivian Speer Shows Value Of Publicity That Sanford Is Receiving

That Sanford is receiving valuable publicity and that the resources and advantages of this city are becoming a common topic of conversation among many of the large business men of this country as the result of the recent Chamber of Commerce membership campaign, is further expressed in a letter received by the secretary of the trade body from Vivian Speer, who at present is in New York with his father, G. A. Speer, purchasing fall and winter goods for their establishment here.

Mr. Speer also sent a number of clippings from New York newspapers which carried stories of Sanford's great success in the forward movement, some of which have already been mentioned. He writes of one article that appeared in the New York Sun, though very small, was mentioned to him about 20 times by New York business men. The letter in part follows:

"One item, I had worked in the Sun, you will notice is very small and yet we have had 15 or 20 men mention it to us when they found that we were from Sanford. It shows how they are combing the papers for any mention of Florida. All want to know if we have had our boom, and I tell them that we have had only a steady and substantial growth and that if they invest now they will get in on the ground floor."

"It is very hard to get down to business and buy merchandise, because everyone wants to talk real estate. It will probably take us two weeks longer than usual to attend to our business on this account."

"We are buying stock for a city of 20,000 people this season and are planning to come back in January for more. A satisfied customer builds a store and likewise a town, a city and a state."

"Coming up on the Cherokee with 446 passengers we heard only one squawk, and he was a fellow who claimed to have a home in Hollywood, Calif., that cost him $200,000. He can't sell it now for $20,000 and he blames Florida for it. One squawk out of 446 persons. That's what I call satisfied customers, for Florida."

ELECTION FIGHT CLEVELAND FIRM IS SLATED TO GO TO SENATE BODY

Sanford May Be Selected As Site For Big Butter Distributing Firm; The Low Rates Said to Be Favorable

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP) So close is the contest between Senator Brookhart, Iowa, and Daniel F. Steak, his Democratic opponent, who is backed by the regular Republicans of Iowa, that title to the contested senate seat will not be established until the senate committee on privileges and elections meets, probably early in December, after congress convenes.

The official recount of the ballots in the last senatorial election in Iowa is now three-quarters finished, but while Steak has a paper lead of 12,583 it is partly because the strong Brookhart district have not yet been counted. Steak's representatives have challenged 10 words of 2,000 votes previously recorded for Brookhart, while his counsel has taken exception to only about one-third as many counted for Steak.

So Steak's present lead of 52,583 only represents uncontested votes cast in 50 of the state's 99 counties. In 22 counties voting machines were used. The results in these 22 counties gave Brookhart a strong lead.

In the recount so far, Steak has made some gains but not enough to upset Brookhart's final tally which was approximately 1,200. If the senate committee should rule out the contested Brookhart ballots it would mean victory for Steak, but this outcome is regarded as highly unlikely. Unless there is a change in Republican policy or some upset yet to be developed in the count, Brookhart will emerge the winner and to his seat.

Republican leaders favor seating Brookhart, fearing that to oust him would precipitate a new insurgent revolt in 1926 that might cost Senator Cummins his seat. Moreover, the Democrats are cool toward Steak because, while nominally a Democrat, he was in reality the regular Republican candidate.

Canada, U.S. Want To Suppress Smuggling

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 17.—(AP) Suppression of smuggling along the Canadian boundary will be further discussed at the conference to be held shortly in Washington by representatives of the United States and Canadian Governments. It will endeavor to agree on identical regulations to govern their respective agents along the border. The American delegation will be headed by Assistant Secretary Andrews of the Treasury. The exact date has not been determined. Regulations will be designed to make effective terms of the treaty into on June 6.

INSTITUTE OF POLITICS OPENS FOR LAST WEEK

Saturday's Address of Rear Admiral Harry M. D. Hooper Commendation For Rebuke Directed Toward Dissenters

French Banker Will Be Speaker Tonight

Round Table On International Justice To Be Held Tuesday; Discuss Disarmament

WILLIAMSTON, Mass., Aug. 17.—(AP) The Institute of Politics is now entering the final week of its sessions, Sunday's speech of Rear Admiral Harry M. D. Hooper, U. S. N., retired, in which he criticized the attitude of certain members of the institute or applauding criticisms of American policy by foreign visitors now addressing the institute, has been widely commented upon.

There is a widespread feeling that the admiral's rebuke was merited.

Prof. George H. Blakelee of Clark university, who is conducting the open conference of the United States, is expected to provide an opportunity in his remaining two conferences to discuss the phases of American policy which have not yet been dwelt on fully, and on which part of the controversy hinges.

The program for Monday includes the evening lecture by Robert Mason French, banker and director of the Credit Lyonnaise who will discuss the inflation of the French currency, post war inflation in general and possible currency reforms.

Other meetings scheduled for tomorrow are the round table on International Justice, which will be conducted by Dr. Jesse S. Reeves, professor of political science in the University of Wisconsin; the round table on Mineral Resources as a New Environment Factor in World Affairs, led by Dr. Charles K. Leith of the University of Wisconsin; the round table on Outstanding Problems in Inter-American Relations, conducted by Dr. Leo S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union; and the round table on Some Political Problems in Contemporary Europe under Dr. Bernadotte Sammit, of the University of Chicago.

Feature of the Day The outstanding event of the day probably will prove to be the open conference on The British Commonwealth, under the leadership of Lionel Curtis of Oxford University, who is also of the British colonial office. This meeting will be addressed by Sir Robert Borden, former prime minister of Canada, who arrived at the institute today. Dr. Duncan McArthur, professor of colonial and Canadian history at Queens university, Kingston, Canada, also will speak.

A special open conference on disarmament has been scheduled for Wednesday, under the leadership of Maj. Gen. Sir Frederick Sir Frederick has been conducting a round table on The Limitations of Armaments during the past three weeks, but the meetings have not been open to all members now attending the institute. This special Wednesday conference, however, will permit the general to present his conclusions in a public session.

A change has been made in the program of the evening lectures. Senator Antonio Cippico of Italy has arranged to deliver his final lecture on The Mediterranean Area and Italy on Wednesday evening.

South Carolinians Speak Favorably Of Florida Cities

R. B. Beal, secretary and E. L. Jackson, president, of the Spartanburg, S. C., Chamber of Commerce were in Sanford Sunday on a tour through Florida conducting a personal investigation of conditions now existing in this state, announced the secretary of the local trade body this morning.

It is their intention to get first hand information concerning the great development that has started in Florida and the great influx of people into this state from all parts of the United States. Real estate conditions especially are being investigated by the South Carolina men.

They have formed a very favorable impression of Sanford and other cities of Florida, it is declared, and are well pleased and enthused with the progress and development of all sections of the state.

The personal investigation was prompted by the general talk about Florida which is heard throughout South Carolina and the desire of the Spartanburg Chamber of Commerce to supply the residents of that city with first hand information.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW LAUNDRY TO START THIS WEEK

Contract Awarded; Ground To Be Broken In Day Or So; R. L. Christenberry Is Manager, Vice-resident Firm

Contract for the new Sanford Laundry has been awarded and ground will be broken construction of the plant early this week, according to an announcement this morning by R. L. Christenberry, vice-president of the company.

The structure will cover a ground space of 120 by 83 feet and will be built of hollow tile and brick and especially adapted to its purpose, it is stated. The laundry will be ready for operation about Dec. 1.

The new laundry is it declared, will supply a long felt need in this city because of the absence of a local plant of that kind during the past several years. Owners of the proposed establishment recently stated that they believe the Sanford field deserving of a local laundry and that it is their intention to give this city a first class plant.

The lot of the company is 117 by 264 feet. It is bordered on the north by Third Street, on the south by Fourth Street, on the west by Cedar Avenue and on the east by a 15 foot alley.

Mr. Burman, president of the corporation is formerly of Cleveland, O., but for the past six years has been connected with the Orlando Steam Laundry. He is also owner of the San Juan Hotel of that city. Mr. Christenberry came to Sanford from Atlanta and for the past four years has operated the Seminole Steam Laundry Company in this city. Mr. Wingfall was formerly of Charleston, S. C., but for the past 13 years has been in the laundry business in Orlando.

Other appointments on the faculty will be announced at an early date.

HANCE SLAYER ESCAPES FROM MUNCIE POLICE

Officers Unsuccessful In Several Attempts To Get Anderson To Recent Killing

New Eye-Witness To Crime Is Found

Wolfe Alibi Becomes Tangled As He Tries To Secure Freedom

MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 17.—A. P.—Several squads of Muncie police and members of the sheriff's force who late Sunday received a "hot tip" that George (Dutch) Anderson, named by Ben Hance in a dying statement as the slayer of himself and his wife, in a farm house near Hartford City, returned last night without Anderson.

Early several squads of police in command of Chief of Police Randolph and Chief of Detectives Fred Luckett, armed with riot guns, left headquarters for a farm half way between here and Hartford City, Ind., where Anderson was reported to be in hiding. Arriving at the farm the officers cautiously closed in on the place but found that Anderson, who has been sought for more than a year by federal authorities following his escape from the Atlanta penitentiary, had evaded the dragnet they spread for him.

Throughout the day officers ran down numerous "tips" and took time to collect additional evidence against Anderson and Charles "Old Arm" Wolfe, who also was named in Hance's dying statement as a companion of Anderson.

Anderson, a pal of Gerald Chapman, notorious mail robber, gunman and jail breaker, has been sought by department of justice agents and private detectives ever since they escaped together from Atlanta.

Chapman is now held in the Connecticut state prison under death sentence for the murder of a New Britain, Conn., police officer during the robbery of a mercantile establishment in that city.

Chief of Police Randolph announced he had obtained the names of additional witnesses to the Hance murder and they will be called to testify at the coroner's inquest Monday.

One of these witnesses, L. E. Bellows, an Indianapolis attorney, is the man at whom Anderson fired twice when the lawyer stopped his automobile a few yards behind the slayer's car and started to step from the machine to investigate the sound of two shots.

Wolfe is still held awaiting the result of a coroner's investigation. His attorney, John O'Neil, stated he would not make a statement until tomorrow.

To date, O'Neil said, he had succeeded in establishing a perfect alibi for the man who is accused of being a member of the murderer's party.

The lawyer declared his client talked to a prominent Muncie man in this city just 15 minutes before the slaying occurred, pointing out that it would have been impossible for Wolfe to have reached the scene of the shooting in that length of time.

In the face of this statement is the positive identification of Wolfe by at least two prominent Yorktown men, who declared he was seen in that city just 15 minutes before the shooting. It is less than six miles from Yorktown to the scene of the slaying.

Charles Wolfe, Anderson's accomplice, is held in the county jail under bond of $100,000. He refused to answer questions put to him by officers, although he has been grilled almost constantly since he was captured several hours after the shooting.

Again The Consumer Pays

When the people of Sanford were told they were to have a reduced electric light and power rate, the impression was given that there would be no strings tied to it. But recent happenings seem to add a new phase to the situation...

Mayor Lake says that no mention was made, at the time the reduced rates were accepted by the City Commission, of the plan to assess an additional ten per cent on those bills that were not paid the first ten days of the month...

According to the city attorney the power company is within its legal rights in assessing an additional ten per cent charge as long as the total bill does not exceed the maximum allowed by the franchise. And so the people of Sanford have no redress. They must quietly submit to the extra charge if they fail to pay their bills by the tenth...

Preserve Them For Future Generations

Niagara Falls are committing suicide! So says Secretary Hoover who predicts that within the next thirty or forty years the natural beauty of this great wonder of the world will have been destroyed unless means are taken to check the destructive process now going on.

According to Mr. Hoover the falls are rapidly wearing away in the center and after that portion of the rock has been worn down the great volume of water would simply go rushing down as it does now through the gorge, but with the scenic grandeur of the falls destroyed.

A modest amount of engineering work, in the opinion of the secretary, would maintain the scenic value of the falls and preserve them in much their present condition for a long time. But if this is not done they will, at the present rate of working back, be gone in another generation.

Doubtless Mr. Hoover knows what he is talking about. If what he says is true, no time should be lost in taking whatever steps are necessary and whatever measures can be put into operation to preserve for future generations the scenic wonders of the world's greatest waterfalls.

MY FAVORITE STORIES

By IRVIN S. COBB

The Prize Smell of the Circus: Harry Dickson, the writer, probably knows as much about the Southern Negro as any white man can ever expect to know. But even so, in his search for local color and quaint lines with which to illuminate his stories, he constantly strikes a new angle of thought...

Uncle Jim, with his shoes off, sat on the lowermost step of the porch easing his tired feet. "Uncle Jim," said Dickson, "I'm afraid you haven't enjoyed your trip very much."

"Well, sub, my eyes beheld so much dat it seem lak my tongue forgot to wag. "Oh, that was it? Well, of all the things you've seen today what impressed you most?"

"All of it 'pressed me—from de start to de finish." "Yes, I know, but there must have been some one thing that stands out in your mind above all the others—something that seemed to you more amazing than anything else. Think the whole day over, now, and see if you can tell me what that thing is."

"Well, sub, Mist' Dickson," said Uncle Jim, after a period of reflection, "ef it comes down to just one thing, I'd say de thing which beat me de hardest was dat air beast which dey calls de camel. Uh, uh-h-h—dat camel!"

"Why the camel particularly?" asked Dickson. "Mist' Dickson," said Jim, "he's got such a noble smell!"

In the middle of the following summer Ringling Brothers came along with their show. Dickson sent Uncle Jim to see it in Vicksburg at daylight on a certain morning. He met Uncle Jim at the train.

That day was probably the most crowded day and the most eventful in Uncle Jim's entire life. His patron took him up into the yards to see the circus unload from the cars, and took him thence to the show lot to watch the raising of the tents. Under escort of Dickson, the old Negro saw the street parade, the afternoon performance, and the side show and heard the concert. He saw it all—menagerie, got such a noble smell!"

A GREAT COME-BACK

Providence News

William M. Johnston, the doughy little California tennis star, has accomplished a great comeback. Last year he had to yield second place in the national tennis ranking in the honor of representing America in the Davis Cup contest.

It took Johnston five sets to win over Richards in the first of their annual matches, arranged by the Davis Cup committee, to decide the question of supremacy. In the second match he won in straight sets. That happened yesterday, and without a doubt, it was not Richards' best day. No day could be when the youngster was failing with his service. But in the first match Richards played marvellous tennis, yet not marvellous enough.

It is our belief that with either Johnston or Richards partnering Tilden, the Davis Cup would be safe in this country for another year. The form, however, makes the prospect doubly reassuring, for Johnston is a past master of strategy on the courts. There will be natural sympathy with Richards in defeat, but he is young and ought to have many years of triumph ahead. Certainly there is admiration for him in the example of Johnston's comeback.

Kemal's Divorce: The Voodoo Price List. The Will to Kill. A Road to Venice. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1925)

KEMAL PASHA divorces the young wife that brought him a dowry of a million dollars. The lady wears riding breeches and no veil. Turks think a wife should wear a veil and no riding breeches. The divorce was simple, Kemal Pasha, Dictator of Turkey, simply said "You're divorced," and that settled it.

IT SEEMS abrupt and cruel, but it's an improvement on old Turkish methods. When the Sultan ruled where Kemal rules now, this was his method when a wife displeased him: The wife suddenly saw standing before her a tall, black eunuch, holding a bowstring, and she knew what was coming. There was nothing to do but scream a little, kneel down, and allow the eunuch to tighten the cord around her neck, strangling her to death. Her body was put in a sack, thrown into the Bosphorus and that divorce was complete.

IN TURKEY, as in Russia and elsewhere on the earth, things are bad enough. But if you look back a few years you find that they were much worse, which is encouraging.

ATLANTIC CITY police have seized the price list of a colored gentleman practicing as a voodoo doctor. Love powders, "wishing dust," charms and incantations at high prices were sold, and said to produce excellent results.

You can buy from that voodoo doctor dust made from the ankle of a black cat for $500. "Easy life powder" for $100. Many white men would be glad to buy some of that. Of course, the voodoo powder made from the marrow of King Solomon's bones was very rare, costing $1,000.

The voodoo man sold many "bringing back powders," guaranteed to make a wandering husband or wife come back and behave. There was a demand also for "tying down" powders to keep the lady of your affections contented.

BEFORE YOU despise your colored brother and his voodoo doctor, consider a white lady known to her customers as the "Rev." Margaret Mortlock.

This lady sold no powders, but information direct from spirit land. Mr. Max Philips, manufacturer of shirts and collars, got advice from relatives that have "gone beyond."

W. K. REEME, Kansas City insurance man, wrote threatening to kill Secretary Mellon because he was dissatisfied with the latter's enforcement of the prohibition laws.

That statement has been back of many murders before and since. Ravallack killed Henry the Fourth victim illogically.

Mr. Reeme, probably "justifying" his plan to commit murder, says: "It is better to obey God than man."

IT WAS a blow to romance when steam cars began running from the mainland across the marshes of Venice.

Then came noisy gas boats on the canals, competing with gondolas. And now an automobile road is to connect Venice with Padua.

Nothing much will be left except to put in one of our large modern machines to suck up the mud and sand, fill up the canals, lay cobblestones, and bring in taxis.

Voltaire said the oldest title of nobility in all Europe was a Venetian title inherited from one of the original criminals hiding in the marshes. This saying annoyed many nobles, probably because it was true.

Weds Jacksonville Man Saturday

Florence Mero, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mero, the bride of James M. Jackson in a lovely home wedding of Percy A. Mero Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Mero will make their future home in Jacksonville.

O-JACKSON WEDDING IS LOVELY EVENT OF SATURDAY EVENING

Attractive new home of Mr. Percy A. Mero in Mayfair lane of a lovely wedding evening at eight o'clock Florence Adelle Mero the bride of James Mero of Jacksonville, the honeymoon being performed by E. D. Brownlee, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Her dress of exquisite pink radium combined with feathery trim, transformed the bride into a veritable flower of the living room where the wedding was held. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mero, and Mrs. P. A. Mero and Mrs. C. R. Kirtley.

In the dining room where the wedding colors of pink and green prevailed, the refreshment table was covered with a handsome cloth and centered with a silver basket filled with pink roses. At either end were silver candelsticks holding unshaded pink tapers. Pink and white brick cream and angel food cake were served by Misses LeClaire Jones, Francis Dutton, Sara Evelyn Williams and Dorothy Mero.

Later in the evening the happy couple left in their car for their wedding trip, keeping their destination a secret. Prior to their departure the bride threw her bouquet which was caught by Miss Sarah Evelyn Williams.

Mrs. Jackson is traveling in a chic costume of poudre blue crepe, combined with grey georgette elaborately embroidered in blue and metallic threads. Her smart hat is grey felt with a motif of poudre blue at one side, with coat, shoes and other accessories to match.

The bride is the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mero, who have made this their home for the past five years, coming here from Washington, D.C. She is a graduate of Sanford High School and is a favorite among a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Jackson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jackson, formerly of Brunswick, Ga., but now of Miami. He holds a responsible position with the Postal Telegraph Company of Jacksonville and has a score of friends both here and throughout the state who join in wishing him and his charming bride every future happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will make their home in Jacksonville for the present but hope in the near future to return to Sanford to make this their home.

Those going are asked to meet at the church at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night from where the league will leave in a body for the lake. A big time is promised and all the members of the league and their friends are urged to attend.

League Plans Supper Tuesday

Color Epworth League of Methodist church will combine swimming party and supper picnic at a lake on Tuesday night.

Hewitt Holds Sanford To Three Hits While St. Pete Gets 12; Win Game 9 To 1

Singles By Dumas and Myers Are Responsible for Only Run Made by Celery-Peds; Kelly Is Wild In Pinches

Saints Go On A Big Rampage In Second

"Sunshine City" Lads Win 4 Out of Six Contests During Sanford During Past Week

Hewitt held the Celery-Peds to three hits in Saturday's game while the Saints gathered 12 singles off Kelly and romped away with the third game of the series by a score of 9 to 1, winning four out of six contests during the week.

Kelly was wild in the pinches during the early part of the game and St. Petersburg batters bunched hits off him to score most of the runs. Several walks and one error also figured in the scoring.

Until the seventh inning it looked as if Hewitt would pitch a no hit, but he gave up a home run to Frabie hit safely and in the ninth inning Dumas singled, advanced to second on an out and scored on another single by Myers. Brown was the first and the last man up for the Saints in the winning inning. Consecutive singles by Brown, Doyle and Barnes scored the Saints in the eighth inning. Frabie hit a sacrifice fly to left field and Mitchell doubled to score Hewitt and the Browns flew out to center field.

The Saints scored one run in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. In the fourth block single and went to second on a sacrifice by Hewitt. Allen grounded out and Messner walked. On a play for Messner, who stole second, Block stole home for the seventh run of the game.

In the fifth frame doubles by Doyle and Cox resulted in the next score. In the sixth inning, Allen struck out. Messner singled, stole second and went to third on a bad throw. Cox scored on a sacrifice fly to left field by Mitchell. Brown doubled again in this inning and two men walked but no further scoring was done. The Saints secured two more hits in the eighth inning but again failed to get a run across.

Last six Sanford batters reached first during the game and only one of those got any further, that being Dumas when Frabie grounded to ninth. Kelly grounded out and Dumas singled to stop, went to second when Frabie grounded out, pitched to first, and scored in Myers single by short. McQueen flew out to center field, ending the game.

PERFECT GAME IS HURLED BY CRAIG AGAINST TAMPA

Veteran Lakeland Pitcher In Rare Form Saturday, Turning In First No-Hit, No-run Contest of the Season

LAKELAND, Aug. 17.—Red Craig pitched the first perfect game in the Florida State League here Saturday when he shut the Smokers out without a hit and won 5 to 0.

Craig was in masterful form, allowing only four Smokers to reach first base, three of them receiving a walk, and the fourth being hit by a pitched ball. Only one was able to get beyond first base. Small walking and going to second base were the only errors. The Highlanders gave Craig excellent support and pounded Swanson in the early innings to take an early lead. Their run in the first came as a result of a walk and a triple and a sacrifice. In the third inning a triple, a triple and three singles accounted for two runs.

The victory gave the Highlanders five games out of the seven played this week with the Smokers in the early innings to take an early lead. The shutout was the second in two days and constituted the ninth of twenty-four in which the Smokers failed to score a run beginning with the second game of the doubleheader last Thursday.

McCoys' Keeps Old Folks Feeling Young

Try This New Cod Liver Oil Preparation To Increase Your Strength, Vitality and Endurance.

Money Back If It Doesn't Help You.

Why should any old person let feebleness overwhelm them in these enlightened days? Surely everyone knows by this time that Cod Liver Oil contains more vitamins than anything else on earth and that it is the most powerful of all the world.

Any physician will tell you that you'll like to take McCoys' Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—they suggest cod liver oil capsules, but take as easily and are so helpful old people.

Why not try bringing years of age or again—why not grow stronger in body, in mind, in vitality? Why not take McCoys' Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and drop years from your age in 30 days? We believe that a 30 days treatment will make you feel years younger. Will pay $1500 cash, balance in monthly payments. Price must be reasonable. P. O. Box 124, Sanford, Fla.
