HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Tuesday, May 10, 1977

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Charitable impulses should be heeded today. They could take a unique twist. You could actually be the recipient rather than the giver.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) An occation could arise today where you could lend moral support to one you're fond of. Your backing could give him needed confidence.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If a friend does something outstanding today, be sincre and glowing in your praise. What you say will not soon be forgotten.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You do things with your customary flair and flourish today, but no one will be offended. You perform so well others will be envious.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your ideas are artistic and creative today -- and could also be moneymakers. Don't sit on your hands and do nothing with them.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Others are willing to give you things today because they sense, if the roles were reversed, you'd do the same for them.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Bonds with a new and valuable ally may be forged today. You might be able to do things with this person to fatten your bankbook.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Conditions are now ripe to launch that imaginative undertaking you've been contemplating. Waste no more time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) A secret admirer who has long looked at you from afar may today let you know his or her true feelings. It would come about subtly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Invite to your home one to whom you owe a social obligation, rather than taking that person out. He or she will be more flattered.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Play it cool today if something is in the offing that spells promotion or more pay. The less assertive you are, the better you'll fare.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Unlike yesterday, your material perception is really keen today. If you have an idea that could better you, by all means try it.

YOUR BIRTHDAY
May 17, 1977

You may team up in a commercial venture this year with someone you've previously known only socially. This could be based on an unusual product or idea.

Acne Condition Worries Teenager

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB -- I am a high school girl of 15 and have begun to have some pimples and I am worried. Please send me The Health Letter on acne. I've used some creams for acne but nothing seems to help. I need some help before this problem gets any worse.

DEAR READER -- As you know this is a very common problem. Unfortunately many of the things people do to treat acne actually make it worse. I don't know what kinds of creams you have been using but any cream that contains an oily base of any type should not be used. The problem is too much oil in the first place.

Acne is caused by an overproduction of an oily substance called sebum by your sebaceous glands. This results in blackheads, white heads and pimples. The pimple usually forms because of the action of special bacteria that live inside the hair shaft attached to the sebaceous gland. These bacteria break down the oil and fats forming irritating fatty acids. The fatty acids cause the inflammation.

You need help and I am sending you The Health Letter number 8-2, Acne Can Be Treated, that you requested. Others who want this information can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Just address your request to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB -- A few months ago I joined a health club where they have jogging tracks, swimming pool and a whirlpool. Sometimes I go several times a week, other times I might be a couple of weeks without going. When we joined the club we were given a program consisting of jogging a few times around the track and a series of exercises, increasing the repetitions every so often. I have just found out that I am pregnant (about five weeks) and I am wondering if it is safe to keep going to the club -- jogging and exercising. My husband and I have been wanting a child for a few years and we certainly would not want to risk a miscarriage. By the way, several of the exercises for most females are for the stomach.

DEAR READER -- How much exercise a woman should do during her pregnancy is an individual matter. A woman with a history of miscarriages might need different management than a woman who has had no such problems.

You need to be under the care of an obstetrician and let him decide what you should do for exercise and for your diet. Don't follow any fad dieta or so called health diets you may encounter in the "health club" environment. Ask your doctor about it first.

In general, healthy women who are pregnant can remain fairly active. Many doctors have their parents walk regularly to stay in fairly good shape. Delivering a baby is really an athletic event and the woman in good physical condition is able to go through childbirth with the least amount of difficulty.

Unless a woman is prone to miscarriages, moderate physical activity during pregnancy is not likely to cause problems. One of my professors of obstetrics was fond of saying that an apple is not so likely to fall from a tree until it is ripe. The application being that the biggest concern about physical activity is really as a woman approaches term and birth is imminent.

Jim: "South needs four clubs to make his slam. He has no worries or problems except if one opponent holds four or five to the queen-jack. If East holds them South will go down; if West holds them there are two safety plays available."

Oswald: "The first can be found in old books on play. It is to play dummy's ace and then to come to the South hand in order to lead the nine and let it ride. This leads to an extra trick if East holds the singleton queen or jack."

Jim: "The modern play is equally safe. It is to run the nine first. If it loses to an honor, play the ace next. This play only produces four tricks if East holds the singleton queen or jack, but it produces all five if East holds one or two small clubs. Hence, it is preferable."

WHERE POWER TO 450 HOMES WAS KNOCKED OUT THIS MORNING

Infant Falls, Mom Bends, Lights Go Out

If your lights went out around 7 this morning, blame it on Mrs. Kathy Vaught's six-month-old infant.

According to police, the infant, slipped off an auto seat and her mother, 21, of 606 Park Ave., Sanford, reached to pick her up. She lost control of her station wagon, hitting a guy wire and snapping the top of a power pole carrying high-voltage lines, police said.

Result: power to about 450 Sanford customers was interrupted for three hours. Damage was estimated at $3,000. Neither Mrs. Vaught nor her baby were injured.

Patrolman D. L. Anderson said Mrs. Vaught was charged with no driver's license and failure to have vehicle under control at Third Street and Avocado Avenue.

Anderson said Mrs. Vaught told officers she was driving east on Third Street when the baby fell onto the floorboard.

Police said high-voltage electric lines at the top of the damaged pole snapped and the live wires fell onto the street.

Scott Burns, Florida Power and Light Co. Sanford manager, said the pole carried 13,000-volt lines. Burns said power was restored to the customers just after 10 a.m.

The initial power outage also affected downtown Sanford customers, Burns said, but power feeds there were quickly switched and power restored. — BOB LLOYD

DER Chief Blasts County On Oviedo Plant Veto

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

The chief of Florida's Department of Environmental Regulation (DER) has fired off a letter blasting the Seminole County Commission for its April 26 decision not to allow the city of Orlando permission to construct a giant $40-million regional sewer facility near Oviedo.

Dated May 16, the letter was hand-carried to commissioners today by Orlando City Atty. Edgerton K. van den Berg.

"The project has been studied for several years and most of the problems associated with it have been satisfactorily resolved. Orlando, Orange County, Casselberry, Maitland and Winter Park are all negatively impacted since at present, their sewage discharges do not meet water quality standards," DER Secretary Joseph W. Landers wrote in the letter.

"The proposed project is being designed to provide one of the highest degrees of treatment in the state," Landers said.

On Monday, Williams reconfirmed his former position that Orlando needed to solve questions of polluting the Little Econlochatchee River and the question of who will manage the facility before Seminole commissioners agree to Orlando's proposal.

"The hopes of all these

governments are riding on receipt of federal financing of the facilities to reduce the burden of excessively high monthly sewer charges. This financing will not be forthcoming unless the chosen plan is essentially the most cost effective for all concerned.

"... Much time and money will be lost, as well as inflationary costs added, if this site location has to be changed," Landers said.

If the area loses federal financing, you must be aware that sewer bills will likely be excessively high for all residents of this area," Landers added.

Van den Berg said plans today were just to ask the Seminole commissioners to rehear the matter.

The site selected is 320 acres west of SR 320. The plant would have served 500,000 residents. The federal government promised to pay $30-million, with Orlando paying the remainder of project costs.

Florida House Raises Sales Tax By One Cent

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The House today voted 71-44 to increase the sales tax by one cent per dollar after supporters were able to work out a compromise which included $80 million in tax relief.

The decision which came on an amendment to the tax bill, marked a reversal from Monday's 71-45 vote against a sales tax increase with no tax relief.

It was the first official vote by either House this session supporting the sales tax hike. Passage by the House of the full tax package was expected later in the day.

Gov. Reubin Askew originally proposed the one-cent-per-dollar hike in the current four cent sales tax.

Supporters of the hike said the "finely tuned compromise" would raise $370 million in new consumer taxes and return $80 million to business interests and residential homeowners.

Tax relief elements of the package included a reduction of the inventory tax and an exemption from the sales tax of industrial purchases of energy.

The House also approved granting residential electricity users an exemption from the first 750 kilowatts on the municipal utility tax, which would be refunded to local governments, one of the elements of Gov. Reubin Askew's tax relief plan.

The House vote came after lawmakers in a series of votes today turned down proposals that would have removed more than $200 million in existing sales tax exemptions.

Voted down were extending the levy to gasoline sales, professional services and newspaper advertising.

The House tax session followed a stunning 71-45 vote Monday against a sales tax increase that did not include any tax relief for property-owners and business interests.

It left the House in a quandry over funding the $336-million deficit in its budget.

One coalition leader, Rep. Barry Kutun, D-Miami, said the group lost the initial vote because some lawmakers said they would go for the sales tax only if other tax sources were first rejected or if some of the sales tax revenues were kicked back in tax breaks.

"There was no overwhelming movement in the House for a sales tax," Kutin said. "Nobody is happy about adding to the sales tax."

The relief packages defeated on the floor ranged from $20 million for easing the inventory tax to $175 million for reducing the tax on property-owners.

Kutun said the coalition, which last week pumped millions into schools and roadbuilding, now considered tax relief acceptable if it would help get enough votes to pass a sales tax increase.

The sales tax defeat occurred after lawmakers turned down moves to raise $275 million by eliminating virtually all tax exemptions. Sales tax exemptions upheld on the floor were on gasoline sales to motorists and on newspaper and broadcast advertising. An attempt to bring an $80-million phosphate tax hike to the floor fizzled.

Three weeks ago, the House went on record in a straw vote, 48-40, as supporting a sales tax hike if budget-writers said it was needed to balance the spending bill.

In other action, the House Commerce Committee agreed to draft a bill abolishing compulsory property damage and bodily injury insurance on auto policies. Chairman John Forbes, D-Jacksonville, said it would save the average motorist about 11 per cent on his current policy.

The Senate approved a bill aimed at giving relief to 100,000 employers from soaring workmen's compensation insurance rates.

Sponsored by Sen. Kenneth MacKay, D-Ocala, the bill would limit the awards injured workers could obtain for so-called "soft-tissue" injuries such as back damage.

'The New Tax Act: What's It All About?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most taxpayers will enjoy the roses but some will feel the thorns of the 1977 Tax Reduction and Simplification Act passed by Congress and sent to President Carter.

Here is what this multibillion-dollar measure will mean to taxpayers:

— A new standard deduction for those who don't itemize. This will cut taxes an average $2.13 a week for 46 million persons and will eliminate tax liability above that withheld for 3.3 million persons. However, it will hike taxes an average $1 a week for about 2 million people who earn more than $13,750 and use this deduction.

Eighty per cent of the tax cuts will go to taxpayers with income of $15,000 or less.

— A new simplified way of figuring taxes for virtually all taxpayers. A new tax-look-up table will already have subtracted your personal exemptions, tax credits and standard deduction figures for you. Thus, taxpayers using the standard deduction will only have to write down their income and find the tax in the table — a two step process instead of the eight steps of past years. Steps for taxpayers who itemize would be reduced from eight to six. 8

— And another year of the current temporary tax cuts, plus a new bonus for the aged or blind, by continuing the general tax credit, which is subtracted directly from taxes owed, and the special earnedincome credit.

The general credit lets you cut taxes by either $35 for yourself and each dependent, or by 2 per cent of your first $9,000 of taxable income for a maximum 80 credit. In addition, the $35 alternative credit would be extended to the extra exemptions for age and for blindness.

The special earned-income credit is worth up to $400 a year for poor working families, including many who pay no tax at all.

Although major changes in the standard deduction would be retroactive to Jan. 1, 1977, meaning they would apply to all income made in the year, the payroll withholding reflecting the changes would not be adjusted until the paychecks you get beginning June 1.

$2,200 Deduction For Single Adults

The new standard deduction would be $2,200 for all single persons and for heads-of-household and $3,200 for all married couples filing joint tax returns. Presently, standard deductions range between $1,700 and $2,400 for singles and household heads and between $2,100 and $2,800 for married couples filing jointly.

The change will make it worthwhile for 6.7 million more taxpayers to use the standard deduction and will raise the percentage of taxpayers who use this deduction from 69 per cent to 77 per cent.

The tax cut will amount to $110 a year for a single person making $10,000 annually; $209 for a couple earning $12,500; and $305 for a family of four with $10,000 income.

The so-called marriage penalty feature of the standard deduction would be reduced, but not wiped out, under the new system.

Currently, because the amount of the standard deduction varies, this penalty ranges from $1,300 to $2,000. It becomes a flat $1,200 under the new system.

The marriage penalty results from the loss of one standard deduction when two taxpayers marry. Thus, using the new figures, if the couple stays single and takes the standard deductions, the man would get $2,200 and the woman would also get $2,200, for a total $4,400. If they married, they would get the one $3,200 standard deduction for couples. So, by getting married, they lose $1,200 in deductions.

In line with the standard deduction changes, the bill increases the income level at which tax returns must be filed to $2,950 (up from $2,450) for singles and household heads and to $4,700 (up from $3,600) for couples filing jointly.

The legislation also eliminates the retroactive tax hike imposed on sick pay last year. This will mean $327 million in tax relief to the million workers who got sick-pay during 1976.

Congress last October eliminated the sick pay exclusion, which allowed a worker to exclude from income -- and thus avoid paying taxes on -- up to $100 a week in sick pay from his employer. However, it made the change effective on Jan. 1, 1976, thus taxing sick pay which had previously been collected during the year. The new law simply changes the date to Jan. 1, 1977, eliminating the retroactive feature of the sick pay changes.

The legislation gives $30 million in tax relief to about 165,000 aged persons. And it allows those age 65 or over the option of claiming either the 1976 law's new elderly tax credit or prior law's retirement income credit, whichever gives a greater benefit.

The bill allows tax deductions retroactive to Jan. 1, 1976 for expenses in business use of homes for day-care of children, handicapped, or aged persons. These deductions are worth about $15 million a year.

The legislation also requires that 20 per cent of all gambling winnings over $1,000 from horse or dog racing or jai alai parimutuel pools be withheld for taxes only if the amount won is at least 300 times the amount bet. The previous law required withholding any time the winnings were over $1,000.

Auto-Train, Disney Hook Up

"The magic way to the Magic Kingdom."

That's what Auto Train will be billed as in the future, following an agreement today between the railroad company and Walt Disney World.

The agreement is considered by Auto Train officials as a major joint undertaking in which the railroad will participate officially at Walt Disney World in presenting the steam train which travels around the Magic Kingdom.

Auto Train Inc. was expected to begin promoting the event in northern communities Wednesday with a variety of advertising campaigns describing the railroad's new designation.

Auto Train officials said the campaign will indicate the railroad now is the official Disney World family train. They said prospective railroad passengers will be told how they now can travel to Sanford with their autos, then drive over to Disney World where, if they so choose, they can take advantage of several tourist package deals the railroad will offer.

Attending the agreement signing today were Eugene Kirk Garfield, president of Auto Train; and E. Cardon Walker, Walt Disney World Productions president.

IN BRIEF

Judge Quashes Class Action Suit Against DES Makers

DETROIT (AP) — A judge has told 144 women who claim they contracted cancer or suffered deformities because their mothers took the hormone DES that they cannot hold 16 drug companies jointly liable for their illnesses. Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Thomas Roumell dismissed the women's class action suit Monday, ruling that only women who could identify the specific manufacturer and the drug which made them sick could sue for damages.

Copter Crash A 'Gory Mess'

NEW YORK (AP) — The heliport atop the Pan American building was turned into a "gory mess" of "brains and ribs" after an idling helicopter tipped over and sent its whirling rotary blades slashing through passengers and onto the sidewalk 59 stories below. Five persons were killed in the accident Monday, including a woman who was hit by falling debris a block away from the skyscraper that straddles Grand Central Terminal in midtown Manhattan. At least eight others were injured.

Business 'Out Of Touch'?

NEW YORK (AP) — When consumers are asked what industries should be investigated or changed, more than a third point their fingers at food manufacturers, hospitals, the medical profession, oil producers and automakers, according to a survey made public today. Nevertheless, business leaders are "alarmingly" out of touch with their complaints, the report found.

Auto Tax Proposal Under Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration's plan to tax big inefficient cars and give rebates for small economical ones is drawing heavy fire from both Democrats and Republicans on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee. Along with the already controversial proposal for a standby gasoline tax increase, the "gas guzzler" tax and rebate plan doesn't stand "a snowball's chance in hell of passing on the floor," said Rep. William R. Cotter, D-Conn.

Work 'Right' Battle Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO may back off its push to abolish state "right-to-work" laws this year, fearing it won't be able to get the necessary votes to block a Senate filibuster. Not that labor has lost any zeal for its long-cherished objective of repealing these laws, but practical politics are bringing the goal into question.

Energy Crisis Threat Cited

WASHINGTON (AP) — Worldwide shortages of oil could begin to cripple the industrialized world by 1981 unless there are urgent moves toward conservation, an international study group says. In a study of global energy prospects up to the beginning of the next century, the panel said conservation efforts and a move by Middle East oil producers to increase production could stave off the shortages until as late as 2010.

Panel: Nuke Defenses Useless

WASHINGTON (AP) — A major nuclear conflict would destroy both the United States and the Soviet Union as great powers no matter what kind of defenses they erect, a congressional committee concludes. The Joint Committee on Defense Production declared in a report issued Monday that the much-touted Soviet civil and industrial defenses would not provide the Russian population or industry with any reliable protection against U.S. strategic forces.

Assures UAW On Jobs, Inflation Battle

Carter: 'Compete With Foreign Autos'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President Carter today promised to battle successfully against high unemployment and high inflation, pledging to take whatever steps might be needed "if the recovery should falter during the years ahead."

Carter detailed his domestic policy goals in an address prepared for the annual convention of the United Auto Workers union, which has been critical of the President's recommended taxes-and-rebate plan to persuade Americans to buy energy-efficient automobiles.

"You and I have honest differences of opinion over some aspects of my proposals," he said, but added that these differences did not cause him to "hesitate to ask for your help."

Arguring that "more efficient automobiles with a clean exhaust" are inevitable, Carter noted imported vehicles in the January-March quarter claimed a larger share of the American market than ever before.

"I can think of no more disastrous assumption for the American automobile industry than that we cannot successfully compete with foreign companies that produce and sell such cars," he said.

Carter also restated, for the first time in recent weeks, his commitment "to the phasing in of a workable national health insurance system." He said his objective is to "submit legislative proposals early next year."

In a lengthy recital, Carter ticked off six broad goals ranging from balancing the federal budget by 1981 to conducting "an open and efficient government."

Carter also told the conventioneers:

"I am unalterably opposed to fighting inflation by economic and budgetary policies which keep unemployment high and factories idle. That approach is economically ineffective and morally bankrupt. If the recovery should falter during the years ahead, I will propose the economic and budgetary measures needed to get it going again."

Later, Carter planned to make his second out-of-town effort to stay close to the voters by fielding their unrehearsed questions during a live television broadcast beamed to the Los Angeles area.

Carter planned to go from the UAW convention site to KNXT-TV in Los Angeles to take part in most of a 90-minute local program that Powell likened to the President's March 17 appearance at a "town meeting" in Clinton, Mass.

The President, due back in the White House in the early hours of Wednesday morning, was making a final stop at the Fresno farm of Charles R. Kryder, which along with others in the area benefited from recent heavy rains following a two-year drought.

Although the Kryder farm is greener because of the rains, Carter planned an aerial inspection of the area's depleted reservoirs.

Boat Dealership May Locate At Spring Hammock--Realtor

A Casselberry Realtor who is seeking to clear off 25 acres he owns in the heart of Spring Hammock disclosed today he is negotiating with out-of-town buyers who plan to construct a boat dealership adjacent to the Baird-Ray Datsun dealership fronting U.S. 17-92 on the edge of the hammock.

A.L. Seligman, whose request to the commission for permission to clear 80 per cent of the foliage off 25 acres he owns in the hammock was continued for two weeks, told reporters, after today's hearing he plans to sell two acres he owns next door to the Datsun dealership.

Seligman declined to release details of the proposed sale of the two acres — which is zoned commercial. But, he did say he hopes to close out the sale within 60 days.

The car dealership is scheduled for completion in September. County commissioners last December over rode their own professional planning staff and voted to rezone four acres from agricultural to commercial to allow the dealership to be built.

Then, environmentalists began howling about the environment, claiming the hammock is a natural water filtering system and a green belt buffer separating north and south Seminole. Their complaints prompted a moratorium, of sorts. In March, the commission voted not to allow any additional building in the hammock until the comprehensive growth plan is adopted in October.

Then Seligman on May 3 was turned down when he requested permission to clear the 25 acre tract he owns. Seligman said he wanted to raise horses and plant vegetables.

But County Atty. Joe Mount ruled Seligman's request to raise horses and vegetables did not fall into a proper category to attain permission to clear the land.

Today, Seligman challenged that ruling, contending the commission's ruling 'is a violation of his rights as a property owner. He vowed to return in two weeks.

The decision not to act today was made because Commissioner Bob French, in whose district Seligman's property lies, was absent because of illness.

Port Tenant Wins Reprieve

By MARK WEINBERG
Herald Staff Writer

Financially troubled Standard Systems Inc., was given 10 days Monday night by the Seminole County Port Authority (SCOPA) board of directors to reorganize its management structure to avoid defaulting on its financial obligations to the port.

The SCOPA board Monday night also approved an operating budget for the 1977-78 fiscal year beginning in October of $326,421, which is almost 7 per cent lower than the current year budget. The proposal must be approved by the Seminole County Commissioners.

The Winter Park-based port tenant, plagued by internal management struggles and declared in default on its subcontract to provide modular jail cells for a new Seminole County prison, owes the port $92,505.22, which the company is unable to pay.

Port Administrator Jim Ryan said he padlocked Standard's manufacturing plant May 6 because the company had fallen behind on its lease payments to the port and it would not identify its current officers.

Jim Johnson, who identified himself as the company's vice president, told the board last night he has letters of intent for two new contracts totaling $2.4 million to build dormitories for two Florida colleges.

Johnson also said Standard's difficulties with Eagle Contractors of Orlando, prime contractor for the county's new jail, would be settled this morning.

Standard has completed "70 per cent" of a $79,000 contract with Eagle to build 10 modular jail cells, Johnson said, but has not been paid by Eagle.

The county commissioners have declared Eagle in default on its contract, and Eagle has declared Standard in default of its subcontract, said Jim Fielding, Eagle's president.

Further complicating Standard's situation is the fact that the company assumed $105,000 in debts by the previous tenant of its facilities. That tenant went bankrupt before vacating the premises in 1975.

"I was the one who persuaded Standard to take over the old debts. I feel responsible for the situation. In a way I sold them into a lurch," said Johnson.

Before the vote granting Standard a 10-day extension, there was a sharp exchange between Johnson and SCOPA Attorney William C. Hutchison. "What's the sense in (Standard's) continuing if you have such great internal problems?" Hutchison asked.

Johnson did not answer directly. "I'll just have to rest on that," he said.

SCOPA board member John Kimbrough, a Seminole County Commissioner, cast the lone dissenting vote against the 10-day extension.

Projected decreases in port expenditures for debt service, use of consultants and capital outlays made it possible for SCOPA to submit a budget request for the next fiscal year almost $25,000 lower than the current year budget of $350,854, said Dennis Dolgner, Ryan's administrative assistant.

Debt service payments will be less next fiscal year because the port has finished paying for its water utility system, said Dolgner. Also, the port does not need the $18,080 in capital outlays which it budgeted in the current fiscal year.

However, for the first time in three years, the port will ask the county commissioners to provide property tax money to support the port's activities. The budget approved Monday night requests $63,921 in tax receipts from the county.

Engine Estimate

The Seminole County Port Authority Monday night directed Administrator Jim Ryan to arrange for an estimate on the diesel engine of a paddle-wheel boat the port will sell to the highest bidder.

The 50-foot boat, abandoned on port property by its former owner three years ago, is powered by a diesel engine that "may be worth up to $4,000," Ryan told the SCOPA board.

After an article in Sunday's Evening Herald detailing the port's efforts to sell the boat, Ryan received 15 inquiries and two bids of $400 and $301.

The port has spent $300 in legal fees in connection with the boat, Ryan said Monday night the port may advertise for more bids announcing a time at which the bids would be opened.

The suggestion to have the boat's power plant appraised came from William C. Hutchison, the port's attorney.

Drugs, Alcohol To Students Is Major Teacher Dismissal Cause

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Supplying students with alcohol or marijuana is the leading cause for revoking teaching certificates in Florida, according to Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington.

Turlington said Monday that a Professional Practices Council report showed 37 teaching certificates were revoked last year because of misconduct. Six were suspended for three years or less, and three were denied.

Among those revocations, Turlington said five were accused of supplying students with alcoholic beverages or marijuana, four with possession of marijuana and three with having homosexual relations with students.

Other causes for revocation of teaching certificates include having sexual relations with students of the opposite sex, lewd and lascivious assault on non-consenting adults, child molestation and murder.

The council handled 256 cases last year.

Disney World Not Under Law

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Disney World is not required to abide by state standards on major developments, Atty. Gen. Robert Shevin says.

In an opinion issued Monday for Senate Natural Resources Chairman Guy Spicola, D-Tampa, Shevin said the Division of State Planning has declared that Disney World is not covered by the law.

Spicola said officials of the Reedy Creek Improvement District, which was created by the legislature to build Disney World, had asked for the ruling because of Disney World's plans to build EPCOT, the Experimental Prototype Community of Tomorrow.

Switch Caused Blackout

MIAMI (AP) — A faulty $50 switch is being blamed for a blackout that left nearly three million people in South Florida without electric power for up to seven hours.

Although the blackout area Monday covered 15,000 square miles, authorities attibuted no deaths or injuries to the outage.

"We were lucky it was a balmy, breezy day," a Florida Power & Light spokesman said. "It helped cool off buildings and tempers. And it's a good thing it didn't happen at night."

The faulty relay switch shortcircuited, shutting down a nuclear-fueled generator at Turkey Point south of Miami at 10:12 a.m. (EDT) Monday, company officials said.

24 Deaths Predicted

TALLAHASSEE (AP) The Florida Highway Patrol predicts that 24 persons will die on the state's roads over the Memorial Day holiday.

"If our estimate should prove correct, having 24 persons killed during this period will be a tragic waste of human life," FHP Director Col. Eldridge Beach said Monday.

He said 25 persons were killed in traffice accidents last Memorial Day and 24 died the year before.

The 78-hour holiday period runs from 6 p.m. Friday, May 27, to midnight Monday, May 30.

$1,195 Goods Stolen From Geneva Home

Sheriff's deputies today were looking for a burglar who cut a screen and crawled through a window to make off with items valued at $1,915 from a residence near Geneva.

Ira Ehrlich reported stereo equipment, a camera, color television, tools and a 22-caliber rifle and 29 boxes of ammunition were missing from his residence, deputy Donald Dreggors reported.

GOLD RING TAKEN

John Snyder of W. Oregon Avenue reported to deputies that a $1,000 gold horseshoe ring was missing Monday from a table in his residence.

Sanford police reported silver coins, four stereo speakers, a necklace and 30 record albums, total value $718, were listed as missing following a burglary at the 1208 Randolph Ave. residence of Barbara Moulton.

Patrolman G. C. Reid reported the burglar apparently left a trail of clothing items from the house to an alleyway where a car was parked.

BURGLARY REPORTED

Patrolman Jack Davis reported a portable television and stereo equipment valued at $300 was missing following a burglary at the residence of Eldon Cornett, 803 Laurel Ave.

Seminole County fire units extinguished a patio blaze of undertermined origin Monday afternoon at The Springs residence of Dale Seneff, 203 Sweetgum, west of Longwood, sheriff's deputies reported. Deputy P. J. Riggins reported damage to a patio, garage wall and roof was estimated at $1,200.

Sheriff's deputy Frank J. Ambrose arrested Dennis James Roberts, 35, of Orlando, on a charge of receiving stolen property at Forest City. Bond for Roberts was set at $5,000, according to county jail records.

Roberts was arrested in connection with a pickup truck reported stolen last week at Clermont, according to sheriff's reports. John Bigelow, 40, of Clermont, told deputies he spotted his missing truck and followed it to the Hi-Acres plant at Forest City and called sheriff's deputies.

Sanford police jailed James Edward Clark, 24, of 1324½ Oleander Ave., Sanford, in lieu of $5,000 bond on a burglary charge. —BOB LLOYD

Special Election Is Set In Casselberry

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

The special election in Casselberry is officially on for June 3.

Casselberry City Council members without exception approved an ordinance on first reading Monday night setting the election and the ballot.

Freshman Councilman Carl Robertson Jr., who had been the only hold-out, voted with his colleagues to pass the ordinance, as petitioned by 17 per cent of the city's registered voters last month.

The questions on the ballot include whether or not a resolution adopted by the majority of the council granting Mayor Gerald Christensen full-time status and a salary of $17,800 annually should be repealed and secondly the form of government the people would prefer.

Currently the two forms of government to be listed on the ballot are the present form — mayor-council with provision for city manager — and a full-time mayor.

However, additional forms of government may be added to the ballot after a public hearing on the special election to take place next Monday at city hall.

The council also approved of the following, recommended by Christensen, as poll workers: Raymond Morris, Mollie Steudle, Velvet Jacobs, Charles Kaley, Gertrude Wyener, Olive Pierce, Crystal Hruby and Margaret Green.

In other business, the council:

— Heard announced that the Altamonte-Casselberry Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a forum on types of government at 7:30 p.m., June 1, at city hall.

— Adopted a resolution to be submitted to the Seminole County Board of Commissioners at 7:30 tonight listing the city's objections to the proposed county comprehensive land use plan guidelines.

The resolution lists objections to the definitions of urban areas, countywide, urban services and urban developments and says the proposal is an attempt at "unilateral manipulation of the entire land mass of Seminole County."

Also criticized is the densities included in the proposal which the resolution states are "diametrically opposed to those agreed to by the technical coordinating committee."

It "frustrates all the bona fide efforts at communications between the cities and the county," the resolution states.

Can The Chickens Buy Eggs In Store

A Casselberry woman who lives on Lake Drive will be advised by Mayor Gerald Christensen to buy her "fertile" eggs at a health store and to get rid of her dozen chickens and rooster.

The city council Monday night during workshop session considered for the second week in a row a request from Ann Wickcliffe for permission to raise the chickens on her residential property on Lake Drive for the resulting fertile yard eggs. She had submitted a letter to the city from her physician urging her to eat fresh garden vegetables and fertile eggs for her health.

Councilman Frank Schutte, who last week questioned the difference between fertile and regular eggs, said Monday night "you need a rooster" to have fertile eggs.

Christensen, acting on council's instructions, said he had surveyed neighbors in Mrs. Wickcliffe and found that nine had no objection to her chickens, one "was absolutely against the rooster."

The mayor said on the survey day Mrs. Wickcliffe wasn't at home, but a dozen chickens and a rooster were running around the yard.

He said fertile eggs can be purchased from health stores for 89 cents a dozen and suggested if council were inclined to grant Mrs. Wickcliffe's request that she be required to pen up the birds.

Councilman Donald Willson said Mrs. Wickcliffe should be required to stop violating city law by having the chickens on her premises. According to city law, the council has the discretion of granting or denying permission for chickens to be located in the city.

Christensen was told to meet with Mrs. Wickcliffe, telling her the council is not favorably disposed toward her request and report back at the next week's meeting. — DONNA ESTES

Refinance Utility Bonds, Finance Director Advises

The City of Casselberry, if it heeds the advice of its finance director, Milton Kast, will refinance some $9 million in city utility system bonds.

A workshop has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday for the council to consider its alternatives.

Kast, after giving the governing body Monday night a lecture on the national economy and its effects on the city, recommended the board consider refinancing the bonds. He said a savings of from $580,000 to $1,380,000 could be realized from refinancing.

Kast presented a number of alternative methods of refinancing, all of which were prepared and recommended by a west coast Florida financing firm, Harvey Henan.

A year ago when the city was considering refinancing the bond issue, councilmen were told that the utility system might have to be placed under under an independent authority. It was reported at the time that the membership of the authority would be allocated according to the number of city residents versus out-of-city residents being served by the system.

Currently, 60 per cent of the utility department's customers reside within the city and 40 per cent outside.

Kast said he would not recommend this alternative.

Group Wants Sidewalks

Representatives from the South Seminole Committee for Progress (SSCP) today asked the Seminole County Commission to build sidewalks at three schools to eliminate "unsafe walking conditions with which our children are faced each day."

Commission Chairman Dick Williams said the request for federal revenue sharing funds to build sidewalks at Altamonte Elementary School, Milwee Middle School and Lyman High School will be taken up at budget time next month.

In a letter to the board, SSCP President Herbert Felder Sr., said conditions on roadways "include excessive speed on the roads, railroad crossings, lakes, open ditches, no crosswalks or crossing lights, no road guards and roads and shoulders not wide enough for children to walk on."

Felder said in his letter that "according to public records, sidewalks to these schools were included in the proposed county budget of 1970, but to date nothing has been done."

Walter Meriwether, the school system's safety director, said he personally walked SR 427 between Lyman and Milwee and found that children on their way to and from school are forced at times to walk in the streets because no sidewalks or other facilities are available.

"The children are having to go on the road," Meriwether said. He said about 200 children each morning and afternoon trudge along SR 427 on the way to classes and back home.

"If we built sidewalks wherever people want them, we'd end up building sidewalks all over the place," Commissioner Harry Kwiatkowski said.

The "biggest problem," Kwiatkowski said, is lack of parental concern. He said children along that particular stretch of SR 427 dance in the street and practically refuse to get out of the way of passing cars.

"We are concerned about people, but sidewalks are not a panacea," Kwiatkowski added.

"There have been numerous accidents and one death on SR 427, the road on which two of the schools are located. The safety of our children is our number one priority," Felder said. — ED PRICKETT.

Firemen Save Residences In 10-Block Deltona Fire

By ANDY GIRARDI
Herald Correspondent

A fire which started in a densely populated area Monday spread rapidly endangering a large part of a Deltona residential area. There were no injuries or property damage.

The Deltona Volunteer Fire Department received the call at 2 p.m., Deltona Fire Chief Bob Pilkerton summoned help from both the DeBary and Spring Lakes Volunteer Departments under the mutual-aid program.

Pilkerton estimated fire damage at five to six acres of uncleared, undeveloped property. "No damage had been done to any developed property, most of the acreage burnt were undeveloped lots, many of which were up for sale by various Deltona real estate companies. At the time," Pilkerton noted.

The early afternoon fire was suspected to have started on Mattorhorn Drive. With heavy winds the fire spread in a 10 block area in less than an hour leaving nothing but charred woods.

The fire, burned its way up Mattorhorn Drive to Tivoli Drive, through the uncleared lots and onto E. Hancock Drive.

The Deltona Christian Church at 960 Normandy Blvd., between E. Hancock and Tivoli, was endangered but volunteers were able to get the fire to burn directly around the church.

Carter's Gas Tax Faces Roadblocks

President Carter is going to have to rethink his proposed new tax on gasoline if he expects it to survive as a major element of his energy program.

Mr. Carter was right in identifying America's appetite for gasoline as a prime target for energy conservation. But both in theory and in the intricate plan envisioned for redistributing the revenue it would generate, the gas tax is a poor candidate as a conservation weapon.

Congress is cool to it because of the built-in unpopularity of any highly visible new tax. The oil industry is fighting it because the administration has rejected the alternative of inducing fuel conservation by letting oil and gas prices rise through market forces. Economists are worried about its impact on inflation.

Mr. Carter would stand a chance of overcoming this resistance by selling the tax to the public as a bitter pill that must be swallowed for the sake of averting a severe energy shortage in the 1980s. Indeed, his television address two days before delivering his energy program to Congress was aimed at awakening Americans to the scope of the energy crisis and the critical importance of doing something about it.

Since then, however, the report on oil and gas reserves and new production prospects which Mr. Carter used to bolster his case has been challenged. More important, the gasoline tax itself — which could amount to 50 cents a gallon by 1985 if we don't make significant cutbacks in consumption — has emerged as something more than a facet of the energy program.

Mr. Carter would "rebate" the new revenue to the public on a formula that would give some families, especially in low income brackets, more money than they possibly could have paid out in gas tax. It's as though a ghost had risen from the $50 a person "tax rebate" Mr. Carter recently was forced to drop from his economic stimulus program.

Congressional Democrats are suggesting the tax would be more palatable if its revenue were spent on mass transit development. It might be, except that there are few feasible mass transit projects ready to absorb such a bonanza of federal funds, and motorists in communities that don't need mass transit would naturally object to paying a stiff tax for the benefit of cities that do.

The Republicans in Congress are not being unfair when they question whether the administration is not subtly letting the energy crisis run interference for its ambitions in other fields. A tax that could be producing as much as $80 billion a year by 1985 certainly would make it easier for Mr. Carter to get new social programs enacted without compromising his commitment to balancing the budget.

Higher prices for gasoline would help achieve some of Mr. Carter's conservation goals, but we have argued before that a new tax is a poor alternative to decontrol of oil and gas prices that would both raise prices and provide a stimulus for producing more fuel. The danger we see now is that the gas tax will be rejected and so will decontrol. If that happens, the rest of the President's energy program may not pack enough punch to generate a "conservation ethic" at the gas pump, which is what the country sorely needs.

A Fraud Potential

Our initial response to President Carter's proposal in March to allow election-day, polling-place registration of voters for presidential and congressional voting was one of doubt.

We pointed ou the "hazards of fraud."

Now the doubt has been reinforced by a Justice Department memorandum warning of a possible increase in fraudulent ballots under the administration's plan. The reluctance of Deputy Atty. Gen. Peter Flaherty to make copies of the memo available to congressional committees studying the Carter election reform recommendations indicates the concern of supporters over its probable impact on the lawmakers.

But the critical report was made public after Justice Department attorneys advised that it could not be withheld.

The legislators should give heed to the words of caution and drop the registration feature from the list of reform proposals.

Around

The Clock

By JANE CASSELBERRY

As National Handicap Awareness Week rolls around this year (May 16-21) there is a ray of hope for handicapped persons. They are getting bolder in asserting their rights and making the public more aware of their problems.

The barriers are slowly coming down. Artificial barriers have too long served to prevent handicapped persons from participating in everyday activities and being happy useful citizens — even more than their own physical restrictions have.

Architectural barriers that have denied many handicapped persons the use of public buildings, churches, schools, theaters and restrooms are being eliminated in public facilities because of changes in local, state and federal regulations and a new awareness among architects. Doors are being widened to accommodate wheelchairs and ramps installed at curbs and building entrances.

A local example of inaccessibility is the upstairs location of the local offices of Legal Aid oclety and Central Florida Legal Services. They are reached only by a steep staircase.

The signs bearing the familiar International Symbol of Accessibility. . . the stick figure in a wheel chair. . . turning up everywhere can be misleading. Some may dismiss the problem thinking the number of people in wheelchairs is "to small" to justify the trouble and expense. This is a misconception, however. Added accessibility also aids millions of other Americans, including the elderly, pregnant women, people carrying packages or babies, the temporarily disabled, as well as those who are blind, or amputees using crutches. This can better be understood as a necessity for millions, rather than as a "privilege" for a few.

The formidable barrier of community attitudes is also beginning to change. Recent legislation has mandated the "mainstreaming" of handicapped youngsters in to public schools, "deinstitutionalization" of severely handicapped persons into more normal community settings and "affirmative action" employment. The success of these programs hinges on public acceptance of these persons into their midst.

Longtime champion of the rights of handicapped persons and dedicated to the education of the community to accept those with physical and behavioral differences, is Mrs. Elsa Ellis of Longwood. While grateful the progress that has been made, she feels we have only scratched the service.

In 1952, Mrs. Ellis began the OUTLOOK Nashville program based on her Master's thesis. It was dedicated to involving handicapped persons in normal community activities and educating the community to accept them. It succeeded there and she brought the concept with her when she moved back to Longwood in 1970. She founded OUTLOOK Central Florida Inc., of which she is executive director. OUTLOOK has trained many youngsters and adults alike to serve as LOOKOUT volunteers to be a friend to handicapped persons in the schools, in summer recreation programs and other places.

Recreation programs are being opened to handicapped youngsters this summer for the first time with the stipulation that a LOOKOUT is available to meet their specific needs.

The problems facing handicapped boys and girls, having been "mainstreamed" by the legislature into schools, are similar to those faced by a black student minority a few years ago when integrated into white schools. They, too, must overcome ignorance, prejudice, and a lack of acceptance. "If they have at least one friend they can make it," said Mrs. Ellis. "LOOKOUTS can make a difference."

That Paper Is Pretty Expensive

It may or may not be true that nothing is deader than yesterday's news, but few things have more lives than the paper the news is printed on. Yesterday's newspaper can become tomorrow's newsprint, shopping bag, stationary, tissue, containerboard, insulation, egg carton, building material and a host of other products.

Ironically, at a time when paper mills want, and are paying top dollar for, clean bundles of old newspapers, most Americans continue to throw out their newspapers with the garbage.

Last year alone, the United states consumed 10.3 million tons of newsprint, or about 100 pounds for every man, woman and child in the country. All of it was theoretically recyclable, yet we are currently recycling a meager 20 per cent of our paper.

Groups that are aware of the demand for old newspapers are reaping healthy profits, however. Paper drives have become the principal rund-raising methods for thousands of organizations.

Boy Scouts in Chicago, for example, earned nearly $8,500 in one day in a citywide newspaper drive. A high school band in Pennsylvania financed a trip to Florida from paper drive money. A senior citizens club in New Jersey supports it extensive activities through regular newspaper collections and still has enough left over for a scholarship fund for area youths.

The Paper Stock Conservation Committee of the American Paper Institute has a how-to booklet of tips and publicity ideas for other groups who would like to do themselves, their communities and their nation a service by conducting paper drives. It's available from the committee at 260 Madison Avenue, New 1York, NY, 10019.

The nation will take a major step toward eventual universal adoption of the metric system next year when highway speed limit signs are changed from miles per hour to kilometers per hour.

Under regulations being drawn up by the Federal Highway Administration, the conversion will take place in a 90-day period ending Sept. 30, 1978, following a massive public awareness and information campaign.

Wisely, the agency has decided not to initiate a dual system, with signs showing both kilometers per hour and miles per hour. The only way to learn a foreign language is to jump in and swim without depending upon the constant support of translation, and to most Americans, metric is a foreign language.

Easing the changeover will be the fact that 1978 model cars will come equipped with metric speedometers and odometers. Older models can be converted with a transparent stick-on overlay.

Motorists will also be able to exceed the speed limit with slightly better consciences under the metric system. Since the present national speed limit of 55 m.p.h. translates into 88.5 k.p.h., the plan is to make the new limit 90 k.p.h. Other limits will also be rounded to the nearest easily recognizable number.

Union Launches Boycott

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N.C. — "Oh, mister bossman, don't you cry for me. I told you we were going to have a union, and now you see." So sang the employes at nine J.P. Stevens textile plants at Roanoke Rapids, a small industrial town in North Carolina, when they voted for the union to represent them in collective bargaining way back in the summer of 1974.

The jubilation then has turned into bitter disputation now.

Stonewalling by the company over the 32 intervening months has provoked an exasperated union into calling for a nationwide boycott of the products of J.P. Stevens, the second largest textile manufacturer in the United States.

The stakes are high. The unions are determined to recoup membership they have lost as American companies, and foreign companies investing in the United States, have been lured south of the Mason-Dixon line by, among things, the prospect of cheap, obedient non-union labor.

The midwest and the northeast of the country have a vested interest in a union victory. These heavily-unionized areas have lost jobs when companies such as shoe and textile firms from New England have migrated southward.

J.P. Stevens is one of the runaways. Founded in New England in the early 19th century, it started moving south 30 years ago and now has most of its 85 plants in Dixieland. They are most concentrated in the two states that come bottom of the national league table in the percentage of workers that are union organization. The boycotters hope that if (which is the big question) a company as hostile to the union and all its works as J.P. Stevens is forced to cave in, others will follow.

J.P. Stevens has a reputation for union-busting and poor working conditions. It has been found guilty of violations of the National Labor Relations Act 15 times. Only three of these verdicts have been reversed by appeals courts.

This has provoked the National Labor Relations Board, the impartial federal government mediator in labor disputes, into asserting that the company is waging a massive anti-union campaign, involving "unfair labor practices of unprecedented flagrancy and magnitude."

Courts have compelled the company to pay compensation totalling $1.3 million to workers it has treated unfairly, many of them union sympathizers. The union's bugging the motel telephones of union organizers: an amateur effort involving the use of paper clips and popsicle sticks. The company denies any responsibility.

Working conditions at J.P. Stevens plants are harsh. Mill hands cannot get more than a single week's holiday a year, though after five years' service they are entitled to two weeks' holiday pay. Most work a six-day week. Their wages are way below average.

Despite these discontents, the union's struggle to organize the hourly-paid workers in the labor force of 45,000 has not been a howling success.

JOHN D. LOFTON, JR.

Reverend: Practice Yourself

WASHINGTON — When he speaks to black audiences, "nobody will save us from us, for us, but us" is one of the favorite chants of the Rev. Jesse Jackson, the impressive discipline of Martin Luther King who now heads Operation PUSH (People United to Save Humanity). But the Reverend doesn't really believe this. He believes that other things will also help "save" blacks, things like quotas.

When HEW Secretary Joe Califano backed off his remarks in a New York Times interview endorsing job and college admission quotas for minorities and women, the Reverend attacked the Secretary for "waffling," for morally retreating.

As Frank Watkins, the Rev. Jackson's press secretary, explained it to me, his boss "is very much for quotas" believing that a "reasonable quota," or at least a goal, would be for every private organization in America to have the make-up of its work force and its executive force reflect the percentage of blacks in the U.S. population at large — about 10 per cent.

Fine. Then what about PUSH itself, I ask Watkins? Your organization is out to save humanity, primarily in this country, regardless of its race, creed, color or national origin, right? The humanity you are out to save in the United States is about 90 per cent white, correct? And you are a private organization, true? All of these things are fact, Watkins agrees.

Okay, I say, what is the size of the PUSH organization? Watkins says there are about 20 paid staffers in the national office in Chicago. Excellent, I say. And are 90 per cent of these people white, I ask? No, they are not, says Watkins. In fact, says, the reverse is true. The national staff is probably 90 per cent black. When I ask who is the highest ranking white within PUSH, he pauses saying he thinks the organization has a white board member, but this individual is not salaried.

But, why is this the case, I ask? If you believe that every private organization ought to reflect the make-up of blacks in the general U.S. population, why are blacks so overrepresented in PUSH?

No, no this is not our goal, says Watkins. PUSH has no such affirmative action plan in mind. But, why? Watkins explains:

"Well, what we say about the need for quotas doesn't necessarily apply in all cases." He complains that I have asked him a very "generalized-type question," then I tried to get specific, and "I reject this." He says the general principle would still apply "even if General Motors had 15 per cent black employes and Chrysler had only five per cent, if you know what I mean."

The question of PUSH and what it is doing as regards quotas is not irrelevant, however. I may quote the Bible, it says in the general epistle of James: "Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. . . For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also."

When it comes to PUSH quotas and Jesse Jackson, the Reverend is not practicing what he is preaching.

Oil Companies Ripping Off Taxpayer?

WASHINGTON — Three presidents have assigned top priority to reducing U.S. dependence on foreign oil. Yet the federal effort to cut the flow of imported oil has been an abysmal failure.

The attempt to tighten the oil valves began with Richard Nixon, who slapped stiff fees on oil imports. This was supposed to discourage overseas purchases and to encourage domestic production. It was left to the Federal Energy Administration to collect the fees.

We have documented in past columns that the program has been a total fiasco, with oil companies demanding and receiving huge refunds from the government. Now we have uncovered new evidence that the oil companies have been ripping off the taxpayers while the energy agency has looked the other way.

The fee system is in such a shambles that a confidential internal adut found: "There was no operational system to verify that companies were paying import fees on oil imports." Yet more than $560,000 in contracts had been "awarded to computerize and improve the program."

Atlantic Richfield, for example, asked for and was paid $725,000 in refunds that it didn't deserve. It took the bureaucrats two years to discover the overpayment.

Auditors recently discovered that Exxon owed $49,536 in past import fees. Despite this deficit, the energy agency paid Exxon a duplicate refund of $14,536. The collection process is so haphazard, in fact, that one oil company made out a $23 million check to an agency official instead of the U.S. Treasury.

While some of the widespread violations may be attributed to carelessness, there is evidence that some oil companies have taken advantage of the bureaucratic confusion to defraud the government.

Major Brands Distribution Company of Butte, Mont., for example, doesn't import enough oil to have to pay import fees. So the energy administrators granted the firm an exemption license in September, 1975.

But the license was improperly slipped to two other companies, which used it to import oil without paying the required fees. Detroit Edison used the bootleg license to import 56,887 barrels of oil, saving more than $35,000 in fees. Enterprise Oil and Gas brought in an additional 149,560 barrels on the same license and evaded 94,000 in fees.

A spokesman told us the Federal Energy Administration will collect the fees the two firms should have paid but will take no further action against the companies. This isn't likely to deter a practice, which agency sources claim is widespread. They tell us that millions of dollars are being lost in even more flagrant manipulations of licenses.

Footnote: none of the companies mentioned in this report would comment, except for Atlantic Richfield. A spokesman told us that the refund was an unintentional goof, that a change in the fee structure threw off the calculations.

ANGRY DICTATOR — General Anastasio Somoza, the bemedalled Nicaraguan dictator, is in high dudgeon over the insubordination of a New York Congressman.

The naughty legislator who failed to accord Somoza due respect, Rep. Edward Koch, D-N.Y., merely asked him to allow Nicaraguan newspaper publisher Pedro Joaquin Chamorro to testify before Congress.

The publisher has dared to stand up to the dictator, who has invoked a legal technicality to hold Chamorro in the country and keep him muzzled. Koch was indelicate enough to suggest to the dictator that "if Mr. Chamorro is not allowed to tiesify at this hearing, I must consider it a suppression of the truth."

Chamorro's testimony is sought to help Congress determine whether to cut off the military and economic aid Somoza collects from the United States. The dictator was offended, however, at Koch's tone.

He didn't deign to reply directly but sent a message signed by his secretary. "The President of the Republic has looked with surprise on...your note," wrote the secretary, "because of its unusual wording...Your terms are not in keepign with the rank with which the President of the Republic is invested that make him worthy of all regard and respect."

The secretary added darkly that Somoza "is lodging a formal protest over the naccustomed way of addressing the President of the Republic."

The protocol isn't clear on how secretaries to dictators should address a U.S. Congressman.

WHO'S NEWS — Assistant Agriculture Secretary J. Paul BVolduc, imbued with the new White House morality, is incensed over a chain letter circulating in his department. it is a humorous letter, started as a joke, calling for the recipients to send their wives to the top name on the letter. But Bolduc took the letter seriously and fired off a scathing memo to all the department's 11,500 employes. He warned the chain-letter recipients to forward the evidence to the Agriculture Department's records division. There, presumably, the letters will be scoured for fingerprints.

White House aide Midge Costanza speaking to 100 women executives, began teasing a lone male in the audience. "Hey look," she chirped, "he smokes the same kind of cigar as I do." When she returned to the White House, she found a cigar in her jacket pocket. Wit it was the young man's business card.

Trio Re-Elected To Women Commission

Three of the four officers of the Central Florida Commission on the Status of Women were re-elected at the commission's annual May meeting. They are Marilyn Crotty, chairman and Seminole County representative; Barbara Roper, Orange County and Joy Borgman, Osceola County. Cynthia Brubaker will be Brevard County's chairman.

Newly appointed to the Seminole County delegation is Susan Lipton of Markham Woods Road, Longwood.

"My commitment to this commission is so deep that I was happy to accept chairmanship again," said Ms. Crotty.

International Picnic

Dishes from nations around the world were prepared as part of the international picnic held by the Sanford Homemakers Club Monday in Chuluota. It followed the club's April international exploration program at which Mrs. Mitch Lassiter of Altamonte Springs discussed Japan, complete with slides. Other programs: seafood workshop Monday at Altamonte Civic Center and June 7 leadership camp at Camp McQuarrie, Ocala.

Bridge, Canasta In Sanford

The Woman's Club of Sanford social department hosted bridge and canasta May 11 at the clubhouse. High bridge winner was Mrs. Lloyd Stafford. High canasta winner was Mrs. J.E. Bolton. Screeno went to Mrs. Stanley Pierce. Hostesses were Mmes. Charles Steenworth, Clarence Redding, George McCall, J.O. Huff and W.B. Wallace.

Satellite Club Installs

Mrs. Ruth Winter will be installed May 27 as president of the Satellite Club. Sworn in as first vice president will be Mrs. Julia Harr; second v.p., Mrs. Vera Curry; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Mae Weaver; recording secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Langknecht; and chaplain, Mrs. Wyona French.

Boy Scout Award Looms

A Boy Scout from Orange or Seminole counties will be selected on the basis of achievements and community service for an all-expense trip to the Philmont Boy Scout Ranch in New Mexico by the Kiwanis Club of Central Orlando.

'Drivers' Licenses' Won

"Drivers' licenses" were awarded members of the Junior Woman's Club of Sanford in the "Bike rodeo" at Idylwilde School by Sgt. Beau Taylor of the Sheriff's Department.

Keep Them In Stitches

The idea of the Dividends was conceived as a project four year ago by a members of the Semoran Junior Woman's Club. It was found to be of such value that it was later funded by the Seminole County School Board and is now under the school system. It is also one of the most flourishing volunteer organizations in the county.

With a roster of 900 volunteers ranging in age from high school to senior citizen, Dividends are now serving as volunteers in all of the schools in the county.

Coordinating the program is Mrs. Dede Schaffner, who is always on the lookout for more interesting persons to add to her file of community resource persons who have special skills, hobbies, collections, experiences or have traveled in foreign countries.

Tutoring is provided by volunteers for students with learning problems. Those interested in helping should call 834-8211.

Dividends are teaching arts and crafts such as macrame, batik, drawing and sketching and cake decorating to special interest groups in the fifth grade each Friday for one hour at Winter Springs Elementary Schooi. The youngsters can also learn golf and tennis.

A similar program will be begun the first part of next school year at Altamonte Elementary School.

The Dividends have been featured in a film on volunteers in schools which will be shown locally for the first time at the annual volunteer recognition coffee to be held May 18 at 10 a.m. at Altamonte Springs Civic Center. The film was funded by the State Department of Education.

Certificates of appreciation will be presented to Dividend volunteers with special recognition to those with over 200 hours, and to the "volunteer of the year." — Jane Casselberry

The class will explore line drawing, form drawing, and the elements of composition and design in drawing. Drawing media used will include ink, charcoal, conte crayon, and pencil. Fee: $15.

OURSELVES

Fast Dollars Bring Grief

By The Associated Press

Money, you will be happy to know, isn't everything. In fact, if you listen to some of America's lucky-lottery millionaires, it isn't anything.

Sure, you can quit your job, move to Florida, take a trip with the wife, pay off the old bills, buy new clothes, help out Mom and Dad and Sister Sue, give to charity, pay off the old mortgage, buy a new house, invest in stocks and bonds and real estate, buy a car and pay for it in cash, hunt and fish when you want to, visit the old country, spoil the children, cement the marriage, increase the alimony and buy more lottery tickets.

"It ain't what it's cracked up to be," says Nettie Abbink of Skokie, Ill., seven months after she won $90,000 a year for 20 years in the Illinois State Lottery.

"People get jealous, your friends get jealous and Uncle Sam takes all the money," she says. "It sounds like a lot of money — all people see is a big dollar sign. It ain't worth it."

Her attitude, though a trifle extreme, mirrors the feelings of many of the lottery winners in a nationwide Associated Press survey.

Their biggest surprise after the surprise of winning was the tax bite. They found themselves hiring lawyers and accountants they never needed before.

"It's a rotten deal. There's hardly anything left to the check when the government gets through with it," says Joseph T. Bowan of Lynn, Mass.

Rowan, a retired shoe factory maintenance man, won his state's lottery in 1973 in 20 installments of $50,000 each. After federal and state taxes, he got $36,200. Now, he says, Uncle Sam is taking another $10,000 in advance payment on next year's taxes.

William E. Walker, 34, of Strasburg, Ill., was a truck driver until he won the lottery a year and a half ago. He took a leave of absence and has not returned to work.

"I never knowed what a lawyer was really," he says. "Now I'm paying $3,000 and $4,000 a year to lawyers and CPAs. Uncle Sam takes 20 per cent off the top, and the government takes a lot more in ways I never knew. . ."

Stay Out Of The Kitchen

DEAR ABBY: I am an older woman living alone in a small apartment. Sometimes a neighbor or a not-too-close friend will stop by to visit, which I appreciate. I always offer her a cup of tea. If she accepts, I turn on the TV in the living room so she can watch it while I go into the kitchen to prepare the tea.

Does she stay put in the living room and watch TV? No. She follows me into my kitchen and stands over me. I have to ask her to please move so I can open the door of the cabinet.

Abby, when I get unexpected company, there may be a few dirty dishes in my sink and the place isn't as tidy as it could be. This is very embarrassing and nerve-wracking.

Will you tell your readers to please stay out of people's kitchens unless they're invited?

WANTS TO BE ALONE

DEAR WANTS: I have the perfect solution for you. Clip this poem and tape it to the door of your kitchen:

STAY OUT OF MY KITCHEN
By Susan Sawyer

Please stay away from my kitchen
From my dishwashing, cooking and such;
You were kind to have offered to pitch in
But thanks, no, thank you so much!

Please don't think me ungracious
When I ask that you leave me alone;
For my kitchen's not any too spacious
And my routine is strictly my own.
Tell you what: You stay out of my kitchen
With its sodden, hot, lacklustre lures—
When you're here, stay out of my kitchen
And I promise to stay out of yours!

DEAR ABBY: Will you join me in nominating for "Boob of the Year" those perfectly healthy, active (and usually young) individuals who park their cars in spaces clearly marked "FOR THE HANDICAPPED?"

ANAHEIM

DEAR ANAHEIM: A "boob" is one who makes a stupid mistake. An able-bodied person who would deliberately deprive a physically handicapped person of a more convenient parking place is worse than a boob. He's an inconsiderate, selfish hog. (P.S. He's also "handicapped," he has a character deficiency.)

DEAR ABBY: I had a speaking acquaintance with an attractive but shy man for two years. He is 32 and I am 31. He has never asked me out, but whenever we met at a church doings or on the street, he seemed glad to see me.

About a year ago I got my nerve up and called him on the telephone just to talk. I couldn't get him to say much. About a month later I heard that he was joining the religious life. My heart broke.

After 10 months I heard that he was back home and had to give up the religious life because of illness. I wrote him a letter, welcoming him home, and invited him to a small party. He wrote back and declined.

I want so much to know him better. How long should I wait before I start in again? I'd give anything to get him interested in me.

INTERESTED IN HIM

DEAR INTERESTED: Give up. It takes two to tango, and apparently this man doesn't care to dance. And if he should change his mind, he'll probably want to pick his own partner.

Pet & Pit Stop's Success Secret: Food And Care

Clare Weatherspoon giving Bridgette the deluxe 'beauty treatment.' Bridgette is the devoted Pet of the Charles R. Katz family of Longwood.

The Casselberry Area of Seminole County is unique because it is the home of many different and one-of-a-kind stores and shops. One of these is the Pet and Pit Stop, located south of Seminola Boulevard on U.S. 17-92. Jerry Nash is the owner and creator of the Pet and Pit Stop idea, and currently manages the shop. The Pet and Pit Stop is also unique as it is one of the few retail outlets for the Wisconsin Brand Professional food for pets. Jerry has a complete line of pet supplies, accessories, vitamins and a grooming service.

The Wisconsin Brand of food was developed by Jerry a few years ago, designed specifically for the greyhounds. The food is a complete diet consisting of a fresh frozen meat and dry nuggets, reminiscent of Cocoa Krispies. Jerry has developed the same type of diet for Carnivores and other exotic animals in zoos, circuses and movies.

"I knew that the product was good nutritionally and wanted to make it available to family pets, primarily dogs and cats," explained Jerry. "If the product was good enough for zoological parks, and greyhounds, then it must be good enough for the average family pet."

The Wisconsin Brand of pet food is unique because it can be used in varying amounts to either add or remove pet weight. There are several different accounts of pets who simply would not eat their regular diet, but when introduced to the Wisconsin Brand fresh-frozen meat and the dry food they regained their old vigor and normal weight and size returned.

"We supply the Central Florida Zoo with food for all their carnivores; the same type food we sell for your pet," Jerry reminded. "The fresh frozen meat will keep indefinately in your freezer, and comes in convenient two and five pound packages, similar to packaged hamburger." The cost of the food is a little cheaper than the other commercially available pet foods, "and probably better for your pet," he added.

The Pet and Pit Stop has a complete grooming service, headed by Clare Weatherspoon who has been showing and grooming dogs for over 21 years. She grooms several champion poodles, and uses her expertise from the show ring to give your pet the best possible care.

"All dogs need regular grooming attention," states Clare. "Regular grooming at home, such as brushing and combing. The dogs should be taken to a professional groomer at least twice a year."

You mean poodles, chows, and the other cutsie dogs, what about Siberian Huskys, Shephards, and Collies? "They too should receive the care regularly also. This includes cleaning of the ears, clipping of the toe nails, expressing the anal glands, checking and cleaning the teeth, a bath and a parasite dip, and checking the general overall condition of the dog."

A problem of particular interest to owners of the long floppy-eared dogs, is that fungus is apt to grow in their ears, and go unchecked. It is best to check for this problem regularly. Clare can take care of this for you, and show you how to do it.

"A dog's coat is bred for, fed for, and cared for," stated Jerry, "and the Pet and Pit Stop is your one stop for complete pet care."

The Pet and Pit Stop has a complete line of pet foods, in addition to the Wisconsin Brand accessories, health aids and grooming. "We also have people food," added Jerry, "featuring milk, soft drinks, and a wide selection of cheeses and luncheon meats, and gasoline for your car."

The Pet and Pit Stop is dedicated to proper animal care and nutrition, with their complete line of pet care products, and people care products. They also contribute both their time, products and expertise to the Seminole County Humane Society.

If you have a pet problem, see Jerry or Clare at Pet and Pit Stop, 400 N. U.S. 17-92, Casselberry, or call them at 831-0310. Your pet will thank you. — ADV.

Cosper: Ceramic Tiles Are Fashionable

The above pictured staff of Tile Supply, Inc., 2501 Lee Rd., Winter Park, is ready to serve you for all your ceramic tile and maintenance needs.

Tile Supply stocks a complete line of ceramic tiles as the local distributor for Flamingo Tiles (made in Lake Wales, Fla.) and Murray Quarry Tiles. Italian and Japanese decorative tiles are also available in the company's showroom.

Tile Supply does not install tiles though does have a list of qualified contractors who will do the work.

Bill Cosper, manager, noted that ceramic tiles are "coming back in fashion" for kitchens and bathrooms — both for floors and counter tops. Back splashes — those parts of the wall behind the sink and cooking areas which are often splashed — are made "these days" of ceramic tile and are easy to clean.

One of the main reasons ceramic tile has become a decorator's tool is the color coordinated grouting. It used to be only white and now there are a variety of colors so that there is that total decorator's look about the room.

Ceramic tile, always a favorite for foyers and entry ways, is now being used there more than before.

William Simpson, Tile Supply owner, is enthusiastic about the many uses these days decorators and home owners think of in using ceramic tiles in homes and offices.

Simpson and Cosper both noted how a property value is increased with the installation of such tiles. Permanence and easy care are other assets in having it installed in your home or office.

Be sure to visit Tile Supply's showroom at 2501 Lee Rd., Winter Park, during business hours 7:30 a.m. — 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The firm sells bathroom accessories as well as stocking the tiles. Several nationally-advertised products are available.

One of the main replacement items offered are towel bars and posts (ceramic). The towel bars, Simpson said, are a much-sought after item. ADV.

Are Fast-Buck Operators Dimming Solar Energy Plan?

By MARTIN MERZER
Associated Press Writer

Solar energy's future is sunnier than ever, thanks to President Carter's dramatic presentation of the world's energy woes and Americans' desire to protect their weather-ravaged budget from higher electricity bills.

Government and industry experts in solar energy are extremely optimistic about the industry's future. But that optimism is tempered with concern that some development is moving faster than research and that fast-buck operators are entering the field.

"President Carter has recognized that solar energy is a here-and-now technology," said John Blake, executive director of the Solar Energy Industry Association (SEIA). "And he's really encouraging the country to take advantage of it."

Rhett Turnipseed, a Washington-based solar energy expert with the Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA), agreed that Carter's goal of 2½ million installations of solar energy devices by 1985 — and his proposed tax credits — have spurred the industry. An estimated 30,000 solar units are in use now.

"We're caught in the forefront of getting a program going," Turnipseed said. "The pressure is on — the heat is in the kitchen."

But Turnipseed, and other federal officials, said the high electricity bills and dwindling natural gas supplies caused by the unusually severe winter were equally important in attracting interest in solar energy.

"The biggest thing that started this rolling was the aftermath of the weather this winter," said Sanford Meschkow. He manages a federally funded telephone hotline, based in Philadelphia, which answers questions about solar energy applications.

Seven operators answer the toll-free calls from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m. Half the calls come from contractors who need problems solved, the other half comes from consumers seeking details about solar energy.

"A lot of people started waking up," he said. "We're packed pretty solidly with calls."

Officials of other solar-energy information services agree.

"We are getting orders for our booklet, 'Build Your Own Solar Water Heater,' from all parts of the country," said Bill Partington, director of Florida's Environmental Information Center in Winter Park. "...I think the country's finally getting the message."

Basically, solar energy involves capturing the sun's light, converting the light to heat and then using that heat to warm water or space. The system also can be used to provide air conditioning and make electricity, but that technology is not as well developed yet.

"While, clearly, some aspects are still in the future and can have a real impact in the country's energy position, in the near term, solar water and space heating is here," said Blake.

The typical solar water-heating unit works basically like this: Sunlight enters roof-mounted collectors, hitting a special coating and being trapped and turned into heat. Water from the storage tank is pumped through the collector and absorbs the heat. The water then is stored in the tank until it is pumped through again.

Conventional electricity still must be used to power the pump and occasionally help maintain or boost the water temperature. But experts say a solar device can cut water heating costs by 50 to 80 per cent — and water heating can account for 20 per cent of a homeowners' gas or oil bill.

Longwood Well Planned

The City of Longwood hopes to have a new well drilled and in operation within 3-4 months, but in the meantime the water crisis is still there and the prayer is for rain.

City council Monday night authorized Council Chairman J. R. Grant to begin today the quest for a one-to-two acre site for the well, chlorinator, aerator and ground storage tank and make a report to the board at a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. The preferred site is in the Longwood Hills - E. E. Williamson Road area.

Grant said today he is "hoping for donation" of the necessary land, adding it would be advantageous to owners of parcels in the west end of the city to have the new facility in their area.

He said the council has opted to construct the new facilities in the west section, the area where the majority of growth is and where future growth must be. Grant said the city will realize a savings in the long run because with a well in that area larger than usual pipes will not have to be laid, as now required.

The chairman said the crisis suffered by the city last weekend when pressure, normally at 50 to 80 pounds dropped to 10 pounds, in the water system will occur again unless the citizens cooperate by halting weekend lawn sprinkling and car washing.

"That's what hurts us," he said.

Grant estimated the cost of the new facilities at $100,000 to $125,000 and added that a slight water rate increase may be necessary to finance the expansion.

"Longwood now has the cheapest water rates in the entire county," Grant said.

He also said that the city will be searching for an engineer to draw plans for the water plant. He estimated that it would take 30 days to prepare engineering plans, but that a well could be drilled during that same time once the site for the plant is acquired. Grant said additional time then would be needed to build the related facilities.

Grant said the storage facility planned would hold 500,000 gallons of water.

Mayor Gerard Connell Monday stated his preference for a new well to be located in the western section of the city, adding that locating one adjacent to the city's present two wells and storage tank off Church Street would end up costing the city money in the long run.

He also urged citizens to curtail the use of water over the weekends.

The council, over Grant's objections, voted to settle a damage suit filed by the city dentist, Dr. Alan Guy, for $500 cash. Dr. Guy claimed his business was disrupted while water service was cut off due to the reconstruction of SR 434.

Oviedo Planner Raps 'Attitude' Of County, Plan

By STEVE DAVIS
Herald Staff Writer

Oviedo City Planner Joe Nesbit has charged Seminole County's Comprehensive Plan is "proposing to force the cost of providing countywide services on Oviedo and the other municipalities regardless of need."

In a prepared statement to the Oviedo City Council, Nesbit said the county's seven municipalities provide the majority of the tax revenue required to operate county government and the attitude on the county's part to provide countywide services will place a tremendous burden on Oviedo residents.

"County government was never intended to be in the urban services business," Nesbit added, "and since the Seminole County Commission has in the past had trouble in distinguishing between municipal and county-type services, the provision of urban services should be left to the municipalities."

Nesbit concluded the comprehensive plan "makes it obvious" that the county wants to consolidate all services under county government. "Consolidation just does not work," he said. "The public school system is a prime example. The cost to the taxpayer is higher, while the quality of education has decreased. The least government is the best government."

City councilmen approved of Nesbit's comments Monday night and will present them to the county commission at a public hearing tonight at the Seminole County Courthouse, Room 203. No formal action on the plan will be taken. However, Commission Chairman Dick Williams said a decision on the plan would be made in June.

In other business, City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. presented council with a proposed ordinance regarding possible amendments to the city's current garbage ordinance. Last month, Mayor Leon Olliff appealed for assistance in levying garbage collection fees against tenants at Ridgewood Village Apartments, allegedly in violation of the ordinance.

Olliff said due to the high turnover of tenants in the 48-unit complex, gargage was being collected "for the price of one." Some of the 19 residents had not paid their fees, Olliff said and he had received no cooperation from the complex owner.

The proposed ordinance sets forth specific penalties for apartment dwellers who become delinquent in garbage collection fees. Charges payable by the user which remain unpaid for 10 days after the due date will constitute a lien against the real property.

A.M. Jones, Oviedo water superintendent, stated the city faced no immediate water shortage, as other areas in the county. "Our wells are in good shape," he said. "There are no signs of weakening. Jones said approximately one half to three quarters of a million gallons of water were being pumped a day, which represents a 200 gallon increase over last year.

Councilmen also:

— Tabled an amendment to the city's alcoholic beverage ordinance that would allow the sale of beer and wine at the Oviedo Inn on Sundays.

— Passed a resolution authorizing the police department to apply for a grant for the purchase of a new police vehicle and equipment.

It's Playoff Time For Pony, Mustang Loopers

It is playoff time at the Five Points complex that houses the Seminole Pony Baseball League.

That is, it is playoff time for Pony and Mustang Leagues, while the Pintos and the Broncos are still a couple of weeks away.

Tonight it will be the four teams that survived Pony League — ComBank, VFW, Johnny Bolton Ford and Williams Welding.

ComBank won the National Division while VFW was the winner of the American circuit. Bolton Ford and Williams Welding were able to get into tonight's tussels by finishing second in their respective divisions.

This Saturday the second game in the best two-out-of-three set will be held in the morning.

If a third game is necessary in either of the two battles, it will be held on Sunday.

If all goes according to plan, the final three-out-of-five games playoff between the two winners will start a week from today.

The eventual winner will be recognized as Pony champ, and the winning manager will be in charge of the all-star team that will be formed in late June.

Right now, there is some consideration of a second all-star team being formed from the 10 teams that comprised this year's Pony Division. If that happens, the second place manager will head that squad.

Also in the works is a "top team" competition that will begin sometime early next month.

Regardless of the outcome of the upcoming playoffs, ComBank and VFW will represent the local league in that play.

Tonight's action will start at 5:30 with the two Casselberry teams, ComBank and Johnny Bolton Ford, squaring off.

After that, at 8:30, it will be Williams Welding out to upset the VFW nine.

In head-to-head competition this year, ComBank got past Bolton Ford on both the occasions they met, while Williams and VFW split a pair of regular season encounters.

Expected to start on the mount for ComBank is David Long, while Bolton Ford will counter with Charlie Miller.

Ray Williams figures to get the call for VFW while Williams looks to pin their hopes on the mount work of Chris Gens.

Wednesday night it will be Mustang playoff action with Sobik's meeting AFCOM as part of a tournament to find the first half winner.

Both teams, along with Dulando Screens, finished in a flat-footed tie at the end of thefirst eight games.

This necessitated a three-way playoff, with Dulando drawing a bye in the first round.

The second half, which was just completed, found Sobik's and Dulando again ending up in a tie for first place.

So, even if these two teams lose out in the playoff for the first half, they will still get a shot at winning the second half.

Geiger Counter

By LEE GEIGER

Not so with AFCOM. If it loses Wednesday, or if it should win and lose to Dulando, its season is automatically over.

Paul Alegre is expected to start off on the mound for Sobik's, while T.C. Cox will handle that job for AFCOM.

In previous meetings this season, Sobik's came out on top of AFCOM on both occasions, while Dulando won twice over Sobik's and split with the Winter Springs youngsters.

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Muhammad Ali still has some fights in his future, but with each outing the question grows over how much talent is left in the heavyweight champion.

Even Angelo Dundee, Ali's long-time trainer, found it difficult to evaluate the champ after he scored a unanimous 15-round decision Monday night over lightly regarded challenger Alfredo Evangelista of Spain.

"Is this the best he can do?" Dundee said. "Who knows? He's still a great fighter ... at 35, and still dancing like that. He was comfortable. Not breathing hard."

Like Dundee, Ali talked mostly of his ability to dance at the age of 35. No one in Ali's camp discussed his punching power, or lack of it.

The champion did most of his scoring with left jabs as he backpedaled across the ring in the Capital Centre, where a little more than a year ago he was awarded a controversial 15-round decision over Jimmy Young.

Ali weighed 221¼ for Evangelista, compared to 230 for the Young bout. But he didn't pack the punch to put away an opponent who only four times previously had only gone as many as eight rounds.

"I tried to knock him down but I couldn't do it." Ali confessed during his post-fight monologue which included a pitch for the upcoming motion picture based on his life and a needle for reporters who had previously downgraded Evangelista.

Dundee said he thought Ali made a definite effort to floor Evangelista in the eight and ninth rounds, and claimed he almost succeeded once after the challenger missed a roundhouse left.

"But the guy was awkward," Dundee said. "He covered pretty good, and Ali's not the greatest body banger in the world."

Referee Harry Cecchini scored the bout 71-65 for Ali, with judges Terry Moore and Ray Klingmeyer each giving the champion a 72-64 edge.

Evangelista, through interpreter Eddie Mafuz, said he was happy he had proven a worthy challenger, but contended he would have won had the fight been held in Spain — where the native of Uruguay has become a naturalized citizen.

Asked if he was satisified with the decision, Evangelista replied through Mafuz: "Ali is the champion and we were fighting in Maryland, so he was expecting the worst."

20 Years Ago They Went West

NEW YORK (AP) — The return of the Giants today to their homeland for a three-game series with the New York Mets was not heralded by headlines proclaiming their arrival.

But 20 years ago, when the New York Giants migrated west to San Francisco, the banner stories here were bordered in black crepe.

Horace Stoneham, the man cursed in every saloon in Manhattan when he pulled his Giants from the Polo Grounds before the 1958 season, says he does not regret breaking hearts in New York and panning for gold in San Francisco, even though the club has been a losing proposition recently.

"No sir, no regrets at all," said Stoneham by telephone from his home in Arizona, his retirement haven since selling the Giants last year. "It was the logical move at the time. It probably benefited New York, as well as the Giants."

Stoneham reasoned that the Mets — the National League replacement for the Giants and their pioneering partners, the Los Angeles Dodgers — were able to extract a new ballpark from the city, Shea Stadium.

"The Polo Grounds was an old, rickety structure," Stoneham said. "The Mets and the people of New York got a new ballpark."

Stoneham said the Giants were going to become the Minneapolis Giants before Walter O'Malley, owner of the Dodgers, suggested that the two of them search for gold dust on the West Coast.

"Mr. O'Malley said we should both move to California," Stoneham said. "My initial thought was 'no.' There were no jet planes, and I thought it might have been too far away."

But Stoneham changed his mind, and the San Francisco Giants set up shop 450 miles north of the Los Angeles Dodgers for the 1958 season. The financial returns have been mixed for the Giants, while the Dodgers have been big box office in Hollywood land.

The Dodgers have become the darlings of the movie set and the masses, drawing more than two million fans in 13 different seasons and resisting inroads on their popularity from the expansion California Angels.

Meanwhile, the Giants have stumbled at the gate, falling from a high of 1.8 million in 1960 to a low of 520,000 in 1974. The Giants, who drew 626,000 last season while losing $806,000, presently are behind last year's dismal pace in attendance.

Stoneham, however, does not think that the gold the Giants were after turned into fool's gold.

"San Francisco was a gold mine," he said. "At least it was until that other club came in."

That other club is the Oakland A's, who came to the Bay Area in 1968 and immediately proved that the town was not big enough for both of them.

In 1968, the Giants' attendance dropped from the 1.2 million of 1967 to 837,220 at breezy Candlestick Park. The A's, a novelty, did not pack in the fans either that first season, drawing only 246 more spectators than the Giants.

Since then, the A's have had three world championship teams (1972-1974) but still were unable to catch the fancy of the Bay Area residents, a hearty lot who spend much of their leisure time in outdoor recreational pursuits.

HANDSHAKE FOR WINNERS, 'GOOD TRY' FOR LOSERS

VFW Wins Regular Season Title, 7-4

VFW Post 5405 defeated Williams Welding to win the regular season championship in the Pony Division of the Seminole Pony Basenall League Monday, 7-4.

VFW, although it only had one in the seven-inning contest, collected seven runs.

Craig Watkins and Chris Gens combined to pitch a one-hitter for the losing Welders.

Carl Geiger allowed only two Welding hits, those coming from Gens and and Don Lloyd.

The teams have both qualified for the playoffs which begin tonight at Five Points Field.

George's Rolls, 12-10

Stanley Hogan rapped out three hits Monday and sparked George's to a 12-10 victory over Atlantic Bank in Sanford's Little Florida Major League.

Elsewhere in the American League, Flagship Bank of Sanford stopped Flagship Bank of Seminole, 5-2, on the two-hit pitching of Brett Von Herbulis, and American Produce Exchange defeated Seminole Petroleum, 7-5, as Alton Coleman and Robert Butcher combined for a three-hitter.

Andy Griffith backed Hogan with two hits for George's while Robert Lively scored three times. Tom Hedrick and Mike Thorman had two hits for Atlantic.

Von Herbulis also had two hits for Flagship of Sanford.

Butcher fanned 12 batters, needing relief help from Coleman for the last out of the game.

Status Quo In Metro League: Dekle's, Seaboard Victorious

The top two teams stayed there Monday night in Metro League softball at Pinehurst Park.

No. 1 Dekle's Gulf edged Lay's Gulf, 8-7, paced by two home runs by leftfielder Joe Benton.

No. 2 Seaboard Coastline easily did away with Tanquery Lounge, 16-9, with a big (six) run first inning.

Also, SCC faculty swept past Eldridge Standard, 9-4.

Benton's roundtrippers came in the fourth and sixth innings and brought home a total of four runs.

In the sixth, Benton's hit was preceeded by a triple by John Boggs that sent Donnie Anderson home from first. Then, Boggs, Carl Lee, who had walked, and Benton scored.

Top hitter for the team was Danny Hale who went 3-for-3.

Seaboard's first inning was just about all it needed to stop Tanquery, which didn't equal Seaboard's initial effort until the sixth inning.

Seaboard's six runs came on six hits, including doubles by Lloyd Wall, David RiCharde, and Ed Maisak.

Maisak was the team's leading hitter, 3-for-3, followed by Rico Peterson and Glenn Robinson, both with 3-for-4.

For Tanquery, Burnett Washington and Henry Sanders were both high with three hits apiece. Washington's tally included one home run.

Fly balls proved to be Eldridge Standard's down fall against SCC. Twelve of Eldridge's 30 batters were sent back to the dugout after falling victim to SCC's outfield.

On the other hand, SCC hit past Eldridge left and right, led by John McGraw with three base hits, Jeff Brake with two, and Joe Steffens with a single and a home run.

SOKC, Gals Softball Unbeatable Quiniela

The Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club and girls softball proved an unbeatable quiniela in the Foals softball division of the Pony Baseball League at Five Points Field.

The SOKC wrapped up the regular season championship in the 7-11 girls bracket with a 13-1 triumph over H&W Services. Denise Stevens pitched a five-hitter for the winners and clubbed a home run to aid the victory.

Casselberry defeated Casselberry No. 2 in the other game, 3-0.

Methodists, First Baptist Share Church 'A' Top Rung

First Methodist remained in a tie for first place in the Sanford Church League's A Division Saturday with a 9-3 victory over All Souls Catholic, paced by Dave Price's 3-for-3 and the Home run power of Dean Smith.

In other games, Pinecrest Baptist stopped Nazarene of Geneva, 11-10, as Lowell Evans and Don Cassidy hit home runs and Greg Rape doubled; Sanford Chirstian used the home run power of Shawn Driscoll and four hits by Ivan Johnson in a 14-13 win over Holy Cross Episcopal; Central Baptist got two home runs from Bill Shaw and stopped Oviedo First Baptist, 11-6, with Billy Griffith going 4-for-4; and Country Side Baptist and Sanford Nazarene postponed its game by mutual consent.

Bowl Gals Win, 45-2

Bowl America flexed its muscles again in the Junior girls softball league in Sanford Monday, scoring a 45-2 victory over Kader's Jewelers with Doreen Hogan, Liz Galm and Della Benton getting three hits each.

Bowl America sent 37 batters to the plate in the first inning, lending speculation to the fact Kader's might not get up before darkness set in. It was 33-0, however, when the third out was made.

Casper Injured In Car Crash

LODI, Calif. (AP) — Tight end Dave Casper of the Oakland Raiders, champions of the National Football League, was reported in satisfactory condition today with minor injuries suffered in a one-car crash that killed one person.

Wayne Shilling, 30, of Alameda, Calif. was dead on arrival Monday at Lodi Memorial Hospital, the highway patrol said.

Investigators said Shilling was driving a Porsche with Casper his passenger when he missed a curve. The car rolled off the levee into a field.

The 25-year-old Casper suffered a mild concussion and a minor wrist injury, said a nursing supervisor at the hospital.

Shilling was part owner with his father of an Oakland restaurant.

Phils Find Rotation, Solve Some Problems

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia Phillies, riding a five-game winning streak, may have found a patch to keep together the quilt they call their starting rotation.

Relying on a rotation that includes sometimes four, sometimes five pitchers, Phils Manager Danny Ozark took a long look Monday night at rookie Randy Lerch. Lerch threw seven innings, picking up his fifth victory against two losses, and worked out of some tough situations while the Phillies were beating Los Angeles 10-6.

In the fifth, Lerch found himself with none out and runners at second and third. Philadelphia led 7-5. But the gutsy rookie, a 6-foot-3 southpaw, struck out Steve Garvey, Rick Monday and Dusty Baker in succession, ending the threat.

"He just threw super pitches to those three hitters," said Phils catcher Bob Boone.

And Ozark added, "Maybe I ought to start him every fourth day instead of fifth."

The Phillies — hurt in the stretch last year by inconsistent pitching — have been going with Lerch, Steve Carlton, Larry Christenson, Wayne Twitchell and sometimes veteran Jim Kaat as starters.

Of the five, only 1972 Cy Young Award winner Carlton, 5-1, and Lerch have winning marks. The 28-year-old Twitchell is 0-3 and Kaat is 0-1. Christenson has won three and lost three.

The Phils did their damage in the third, scoring five runs, two on Garry Maddox' single. Monday homered for Los Angeles in the eighth.

In the only other National League game, the Chicago Cubs beat San Diego 9-6. In the American League, Minnesota trounced Cleveland 8-1, Boston nipped California 8-7 in 11 innings, Seattle clipped Baltimore 8-3 and Oakland downed New York 8-4.

Cubs 9, Padres 6

Gene Clines had four hits, including a two-run homer, and drove in five runs, helping the Cubs extend their winning streak to five games. Clines drove in a run with a first-inning double, homered in the third and singled in two runs in the fifth.

Twins 8, Indians 1

Geoff Zahn, 6-1, went the route, despite sitting out a 1 hour, 43 minute rain delay, and scattered seven hits in Minnesota's victory over Cleveland and the Indians' $2 million right-hander, Wayne Garland, 1-5.

Rod Carew had three hits and drove two runs in the Twins' fourth straight victory. The first-place Twins opened a two-game lead over idle Chicago in the AL West.

Red Sox 8, Angels 7

Denny Doyle singled home Dwight Evans with two out in the 11th inning, giving Boston its victory after the Red Sox had squandered a 7-3 lead in the ninth.

California sent the game into extra innings on Bobby Grich's RBI single and a bases-loaded triple by Gil Flores in the ninth.

George Scott had two solo homers for Boston, and Evans and Jim Rice also homered.

Mariners 8, Orioles 3

Lee Stanton cracked a three-run double in the seventh, and the Mariners roughed up Jim Palmer, 5-3, for three runs in the second on only two singles. Palmer yielded five walks before leaving with a 2-0 count on Ruppert Jones in the second.

Glenn Abbott, 1-4, got the victory with relief from Mike Kekich, who got the save with 3 2-3 innings of work.

A's 8, Yankees 4

Wayne Gross smacked his 10th homer, tying him for the AL lead with Chicago's Richie Zisk, and Earl Williams homered in Oakland's victory over the Yankees, who slipped to third in 5he East, a half-game behind Baltimore and Boston.

Oakland scored five runs off Ken Holtzman, 2-3, in the first inning with the help of three Yankees errors and five singles.

Rookie reliever Bob cey, 1-0, got t e victory.

Laughing 76ers Not Laughing At Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — The lighthearted Philadelphia 76ers, who joke through workouts and put on a dunk show before games, face a very unfunny situation tonight in their National Basketball Association series with the Houston Rockets.

The multi-talented Sixers, leading the series 3-1, had Houston down 17 points in the third quarter of Sunday's fifth game before the Rockets came back to win 118-115.

"Philadelphia is going to have a tough game Tuesday night," Rockets Coach Tom Nissalke said.

The Rockets, not even considered a playoff team before the regular season started, have refused to be counted out in the NBA Eastern Conference finals. A Houston victory tonight would even the series at 3-3 and force the deciding game Thursday night in Philadelphia.

"I didn't want to go out being humiliated," Rocket guard Calvin Murphy said. "Regardless of how good a team you have been throughout the season, people only remember the last game you play.

"We were on national television with millions of people watching, and I didn't want people to think we had that bad a team. I didn't want to leave that impression on the country."

The Sixers apparently got the wrong impression of the Rockets when Philadelphia took an 88-71 lead with 3½ minutes left in the third quarter. So did the Sixer fans, who gave their team a standing ovation.

"We got the big lead and it was just too easy for us," Sixer forward George McGinnis said. "We messed around and lost the lead, and then when it was time for us to get going again late in the game, we couldn't do it."

Despite Houston's uprising, Sixer forward Julius Erving isn't worried.

"You've got to be disappointed anytime you lose," said Erving, who left Sunday's game exhausted in the third quarter. "But you have to take it in stride and bounce back. We've got to go down there Tuesday.

"The coaches will make their evaluations and suggestions and we'll just try to get out and put them into practice. I'm not a worrier. I'm not going to worry myself sick over losing one game."

The eventual Eastern Conference winner will play Western Conference-champion Portland in the NBA championship series beginning Sunday.

Royal Challenges IRS TV Plan

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former Texas football Coach Darrell Royal says the federal government better not tax colleges on revenue from televised football games if college athletics are to survive.

Royal told KVUE-TV sportscaster Steve Ross Monday that the Dallas regional office of the Internal Revenue Service has declared such revenue to be unrelated to college activities and therefore not exempt from taxation.

Royal, athletic director at Texas, said the IRS also wants to tax all football tickets except those issued to students and faculty.

Most college athletic programs are "delicately balanced" between making and losing money, he said.

"If our lawmakers in Washington want us to have college athletics, they'll let us stay exempt, and if they don't, I guess they'll tax us," Royal said.

Stings Sign Striker

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Sting of the North American Soccer League announced Monday the signing of Bill Jennings, 25, a left-footed striker forward from West Ham's first division English soccer club, for the 1977 season.

Seahawks Ink Sprinter Franco

SEATTLE (AP) — The Seattle Seahawks of the National Football League have signed University of Washington sprinter Pablo Franco as a free agent, the club announced Monday.

The Seahawks also signed linebacker Fred Marston of Whitworth. He was the only player signed from the club's two-day try-out camp.

Franco, who finished third last weekend in the Pacific-8 Conference 200-meter final, will report to the Seahawks rookie orientation Friday as a wide receiver-defensive back candidate.

Barnes Benind Bars

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Marvin Barnes, former Providence College basketball player who was arrested for violating parole last year in Detroit, began a one-year jail sentence.

SCC Wins Division All Sports Honors

Seminole Community College has won the FCAA Division II all-sports championship for the ninth consecutive year.

Division II colleges include Florida JC of Jacksonville, Lake City, Sante Fe, Central Florida, St. Johns River, Daytona Beach and Valencia.

The Raiders were champions in five of the six sports for men. Along the way the basketball team posted a 12-0 division season record, the tennis team finished the season 19-0 in junior college competition, and the cross-country, track and golf teams were undefeated in division play. The baseball team finished third in the division.

SCC and Miami Dade South posted the highest overall rankings in men's athletics. SCC tennis, cross-country and track teams finished second in the state, and the golf team was third in the state behind Brevard and Broward. The track team placed third in the national indoor meet.

May 25-27 the Raiders' tennis team will compete in the national tennis tournament, and the track team will go to the national outdoor meet scheduled for May 19-22.

Sailors Sour On Uniforms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adm. James Holloway, chief of naval operations, has just about decided to recommend a return to the sailor's traditional uniform of bell bottom trousers, jumpers and little white hats.

A recent Navy poll heavily influenced Holloway's thinking on how to resolve one of the most fractious internal issues in the fleet.

That official poll confirmed less scientific but clear indications that the new uniform of coats, white shirts, black ties and peaked caps is massively unpopular in the enlisted ranks.

The new uniform became compulsory nearly two years ago.

The Navy's sampling of opinion among more than 8,500 sailors produced a vote of about 86 per cent or 87 per cent in favor of restoring the old-style uniform.

Navy officials said sailors of all ratings were polled at major bases in San Diego, Calif.; Norfolk, Va.; Charleston, S.C.; Yokusuka, Japan; Rota, Spain, and Subic Bay, the Philippines.

Detailed results are not yet available, officials said, because experts are still analyzing replies to 36 questions asked each sailor. The questions sought reasons for opinions on uniform style, as well as views on personal appearance, uniform cleaning problems and related matters.

According to present indications, Holloway may approve the old-style uniform for the five lowest enlisted ranks.

That would leave senior petty officers with the coat and tie uniform, which was a cherished badge of distinction for them before Adm. Elmo Zumwalt ordered all enlisted men to wear it.

Holloway's recommendation will go to the new Navy secretary, W. Graham Claytor Jr., who normally can be expected to ratify the admiral's judgment on a matter involving morale.

Holloway has told visitors he is not yet sure when the change back to the old style uniforms should start, although he indicated it could come as early as next year. Following a decision, the Navy would have to arrange for production of new supplies of uniforms.

The Kingston Trio: The Name's The Same, But...

By JIM HAYNES
Herald Staff Writer

Bob Shane is realistic when he talks about the reason he revived The Kingston Trio.

"I need the money," he says. "And there are worse ways of earning a buck."

After watching the Kingston Trio run through a two-hour jam session at Apple Annie's, I have to agree.

Especially when one considers a full-house of stomping, clapping and toe-tapping fans who pay five bucks a head to see the folk-singing group which soared to stardom with late fifties hits like Tom Dooley and M.T.A.

Only Shane is left from the original trio. Nick Reynolds is a rancher in Oregon and Dave Guard teaches guitar in California.

The trio started in 1957 and Guard left after four years, replaced by John Stewart. Stewart has been writing songs since the Trio's retirement in 1967. They cut 22 albums and eight retakes.

Two years ago Shane picked up Roger Bambill and Ben Schubert and ended a six-year silence. He called the group the New Kingston Trio, and recently purchased rights to the name, so new it is back to simply The Kingston Trio.

"Don't be surprised if we don't sing Tom Dooley," said Shane, learning against the bar sipping beer. "Those old songs are one of the reasons the original group broke up. I know that's what a lot of people come to hear, but really, you can only sing a song so many times."

Shane has bright plans for the group. They play concerts 34 weeks a year, leaving the rest of the year for relaxing and recording. Their first album is due for release in eight weeks. It will be titled 20th Anniversary.

After two full houses Sunday, the Trio was held over for two more shows Monday. And they plan to return to Apple Annie's for a two-week booking in August.

Using a three-man backup, the Trio isn't lacking in showmanship.

The campus humor for which they were formerly noted is still prevalent. In Sunday's afternoon performance they were at their best in the quick-tempos like It's Hard and Green Back Dollar, however, Shane proved he hadn't lost his touch with his biggest solo, Scotch And Soda.

Bambill steals the show with on-stage antics.

"I know this is a Sunday afternoon show and there are children in the audience," said Shane at the beginning of the show. "And some of our usual stuff is off-color. So, we are going to do it anyway. If we say something you don't understand, ask your kids. They will explain it."

SHANE in 1950s

Shane talked about smoking pan. "You mean pot," said Bambill. "Yeah," he came back. "That Teflon sticks to the lips."

Bambill's comeback was a warning about marijuana. "Large quantities can produce saccharin in laboratory rats."

As the Trio was concluding the show, a woman in her mid-thirties demanded they not leave until they sing 500 Miles.

They responded with a cut-down version of 142 milometers.

Shane, greying to the point most of the audience might not have recognized him except for his white pants, stripe-shirt which matched Schubert and Bambill, spent the time between shows signing autographs and lingering with his fans.

"Sure I love it," he admitted. "And if you wonder why I need the money? I have five kids between 6 and 16, and they go to private schools."

Which may explain why Shane gives a knowing smile to himself when he runs through the bit about "don't give a damn about the green back dollar... spend it fast as I can."

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Wednesday, May 18, 1977

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your prospects look very encouraging today. If there's anything you can do to strengthen your long range security, get on it.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Luck tends to favor you today, particularly where you can exercise personal control. Be sure you keep your firm hand on the tiller.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you're involved in something big, it might be wise to keep it to yourself today, even though you're anxious to share your good fortune.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) This is a fine day to deal with groups or corporations. Don't let their reputations or size intimidate you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You have more luck today dealing with the top brass, rather than with underlings. These are the people you want to get on an eyeball level with.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Start now to broaden your perspectives. You shouldn't be afraid to think in bolder terms than in the past.

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov. 22) If there's a major change you've been wanting to make, the pieces may start to fall into place today. Be alert for telltale clues.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It may be necessary today to transfer responsibility to a trusted associate. Chances are this person can handle it far better than you could.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) There's opportunity around you today in your work or career. It's not trifling — so stay on your toes.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20. Feb. 19) You could meet someone today able to provide you with a whole new range of contacts. If this person invites you somewhere, clear your schedule and go.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It is more important today how things wind up than how they start out.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You make the breaks today. All the answers you need are in your own imagination. Get that head working extra-early.

YOUR BIRTHDAY MAY 18, 1977

This year you are likely to be able to have or do things you weren't able to before — perhaps through an extra source of income.

Undetermined Chest Pains

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — For the past six or eight months, after eating a substantial meal I have been bothered with rather sharp pains in my chest, but only if I exercise too much. Even walking (unless real slow) causes the pain. By restraining all activity the pain subsides in 10 or 15 minutes. The symptoms appear about an hour after eating.

When my stomach is empty I never have this pain but I get tired much quicker than formerly. Can you tell me why I have this pain and what remedy could cure it?

I am 78 years old, 5 feet 7 and weigh 165 pounds. During my working years my weight usually averaged about 180. For five or six years I have been taking medicine for high blood pressure. For the last several years, though, my pressure is only 140 or 150 over 50 or 60. I have nitroglycerin pills but I have never taken any because I just relax and am soon OK again. Up to now I have never been a patient in any hospital nor have I ever had an operation.

DEAR READER — You probably have angina pectoris, chest pain from your heart. With your past history of high blood pressure and your age it is logical to assume that you have fatty-cholesterol deposits in the arteries to your heart, limiting the blood flow to your heart muscle. Apparently your doctors thought you had this before or they would not have given you nitroglycerin tablets.

Chest pain with exertion is one sign of heart disease. When that is the cause the pain usually goes away with rest. In the days when downtown shopping was still the mode of life, people with this problem would often stop in front of a store window and gaze at the merchandise until the pain went away.

It takes work to digest a meal. The increased work of digestion makes it easier to bring on heart pain with exercise. This applies only to people with heart disease, not normal people. In such patients, not healthy people, it is wise to avoid exertion for some time after the meal is over. To give you more information on heart pain I am sending you The Health Letter 2-10, Heart Attack, Myocardial Infraction, Angina Pectoris. Others who want this information can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it.

Some foods seem to increase the tendency of the blood to clot or sludge and this may make matters worse. These are chiefly the fatty foods. You can check this and see if you are more likely to have this effect after a meal that contains more fat.

One of the most helpful things you can do for yourself is to lose weight. Since you are not as active now as you once were it is likely that you have had a change in body composition — to more fat and less muscle. The thinner you are, short of starvation or malnutrition, the less load you will have on your heart and the better you will do. You should also be on a diet restricting fat, particularly saturated fat, and cholesterol. Smaller and more frequent meals may work better for you too but you will need to be thin.

South, a great player, had one weakness. His psychology was way below normal. He looked over dummy, wondered just why West was talking and finally decided that West was trying to protect three trumps to the queen. So, South led his king of spades at trick two. West showed out and the slam was gone to no man's land.

South demanded a ruling about West's remark. He got one quickly. It was pointed out to him that there was a correct play. That would be to play dummy's ace of spades. If both opponents followed he might try to master mind a second-round finesse, but when West showed out his problem would have been over.

Ask the Jacobys

A Texas reader wants to know if a Texan invented the "Texas" convention. The answer is "No." It was invented by Dave Carter of St. Louis, but at a Fort Worth tournament.

(Do you have a question for the experts? Write "Ask the Jacobys" care of this newspaper. The Jacobys will answer individual questions if stamped, self-addressed envelopes are enclosed. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN.)

Here is a hand that caused some great excitement in the finals of the 1936 Spingold. North and South were using the Culbertson four- and five-notrump convention. Other expert pairs disdained any four-notrump convention, although Blackwood was becoming popular in the middle West.

In any event, they reached seven spades and it was up to West to lead. He groaned and sighed: "What am I supposed to lead. They bid seven without using their convention."

Then he studied a while and finally led the four of hearts.

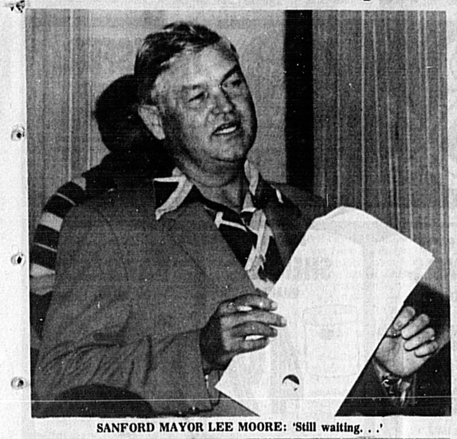
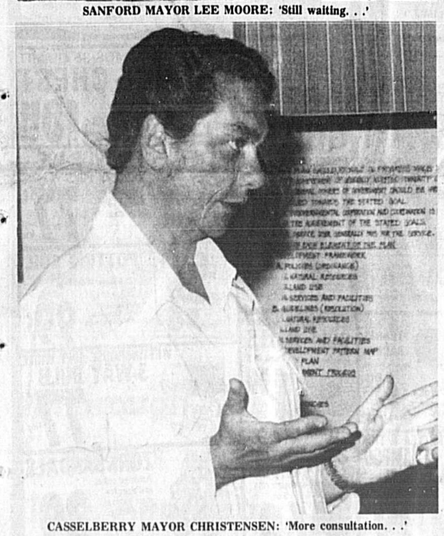
Fireworks Over Seminole:

Sparks Fly At Hearing On Comprehensive Plan



SANFORD MAYOR LEE MOORE: 'Still waiting. . .'



CASSELBERRY MAYOR CHRISTENSEN: 'More consultation. . .'

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

Officials from Seminole's cities blasted county government's proposed comprehensive plan for future growth Tuesday night during a special public hearing in which representatives from civic organizations and other non-government entities praised the plan.

The officials zeroed in on the plan's language, which some city officials contend gives the Seminole County Commission too much power.

At the same time, civic organizations and other interested parties lauded the plan as a blueprint for "organized growth" in the future.

Sanford Mayor Lee P. Moore led off by reminding commissioners of the first interlocal agreement between Sanford and the county 15 years ago. Moore said officials thought it a "grand thing" that the city and county would split a $1,500 tab for installation of a stop light.

Moore said Sanford officials still are waiting for the county to pay its share.

Moore's introduction of a resolution in opposition to the plan was followed by comments from Altamonte Springs Mayor Norman Floyd.

"We don't mind going fishing with the county, but we sure don't want to be the bait," Floyd reminded commissioners.

Alex Dickison, Sierra Club representative, called the plan a "sound growth document."

And Tom Kanelis, president of Seminole County League of Civic Associations, said the league "in principle supports elements of the plan."

Former league president Bob Brunner said he "frankly was very heartened" by the plan. He also pointed out annexations — a major fear expressed by some city officials — are exercised by cities, not county government.

City officials, for the most part, criticized the plan's "vague control methods." The reference was to the method to be used to provide and maintain countywide road and drainage systems.

County Planner Bill Kercher explained control methods include interlocal agreements between city and county, legislation approved by Seminole's legislative delegation and other modifications.

John Daniels, deputy mayor of Winter Springs, rapped the plan for its inability to explain the terms "control," "countywide" and "authority." Daniels asked for additional work sessions with the commission.

Bo Simpson of the Seminole County Board of Realtors said all 537 members opposed the plan as it now reads.

Casselberry City Atty. Kenneth McIntosh said the term "urban appears very objectionable." McIntosh also criticized the county for goofing up on advertising for the hearing. A mistake in wording prompted Commission Chairman Dick Williams to term Tuesday's session a "preliminary" session instead of a decision-making one. The actual decision by the commission on the plan is scheduled for June 7. Final adoption is set for Oct. 1.

Basically, the plan centers on dividing the county into urban and rural areas. That would mean county government would get into the business of providing urban-level services to unincorporated areas. Urban level services are about equal to those services presently provided by the cities.

City officials, also, have voiced fears of countywide consolidation and encroachment by the county on the city's functions. The encroachment aspect centers on fear that the county will control the entity responsible for provision of those services that cross both city and county boundaries.

Williams pooh-poohs the consolidation aspect because the Florida Constitution requires a referendum before city-county consolidation can be implemented.

Mrs. Susan Lipton of Longwood, a member of the Seminole County League of Civic Associations, suggested the plan should bar any new residents from moving to Seminole because water supplies are limited.

John Percy, director of county development, summed up the meeting by saying "it looks like we have opened up the lines of communication."

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN WILLIAMS: 'Big bad wolf?'

Consolidation Fears Spur Plan Opponents

By NORM OSHRIN
Herald Editor

They represented all the municipalities in Seminole County. One by one, two by two, they arose to speak. To question. To object. To challenge.

Their target: Seminole County's Comprehensive Plan. Their forum: the long-awaited public hearing on the plan.

And, if their words and actions are any gauge, that plan is in deep trouble. A lot of explanatory and pacification work is needed between now and the final October date for passage. All those weeks and hours of briefing by county spokesmen to the municipalities seem to have been a waste of time and energy.

One fear dominated the audience at Tuesday evening's public hearing at the courthouse: consolidation.

Right from the start, few would argue, this has emerged as the key stumbling block to any county plan. This was reiterated time after time Tuesday as spokesman after spokesman arose to express fears in varying terminology. But there was no doubt about what was on their minds.

For Commission Chairman Dick Williams it was like an exercise in masochism. There he was recognizing the speakers from the floor knowing the bombardment that was in store for him. He must have felt like a dart board as point after point was directed at him. "What are you trying to do to my city?" was the basic question being asked in so many words.

The evening began with usually mild-mannered Sanford Mayor Lee P. Moore recounting and recalling past usurpations and attempts at usurpations at his city by the county commission. "Here we go again," was his message to the commissioners.

Each time reference was made to the feared gobbling up by the county of some municipal function or even property, many in the crowd applauded.

Altamonte Springs Mayor Norman Floyd picked up where Chairman Williams left off in the world of fables.

Williams on May 9, in effect chiding city officials for their fears relating to the comprehensive plan, accused some of them of using the "Chicken Little technique.

"They have taken half-truths, made broad, sweeping, unrelated generalizations and are attempting to convince others of these false conclusions," Williams observed, referring specifically to the matter of countywide consolidation.

Williams noted that a 'foxy opportunist' led Chicken Little and her supporters to their

No New Programs Planned

Sanford Readies Budgets

By MARK WEINBERG
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford city department heads will submit budget estimates to City Manager W. E. Knowles by the end of this week, marking the beginning of the process of formulating a city budget for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1.

Knowles, who actually puts the budget together, says he anticipates no new programs in the coming fiscal year.

After the city manager returns Monday from a week in Tallahassee at the state legislative session, he will initiate a series of meetings with department heads to review the budget request and develop an operating budget, along with a five-year capital improvements program.

In July, Knowles will present a proposed budget to the city commission. Two months of workshops, hearings and a line-by-line review by the commission will follow.

Final adoption of the budget will take place in September.

City Finance Director Henry N. Tamm Jr. who will develop revenue estimates "within the next two weeks," said he does not know if the city's property assessment rate of 6.3 mills will have to be increased. The city this year collected $6.30 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

The property tax, which raised $907,000 this year, is one of the city's major sources of revenue. The city's utility tax accounted for $695,000 in revenue this year.

"Operating the city budget is like operating 22 businesses. The city's budget is composed of 22 separate funds, and each fund must be balanced every year," Tamm said.

This year's general fund budget was $3,742,000. The general fund was financed by the property tax, state revenue sharing funds of $794,000, a two-cent city cigarette tax which raised $135,000, refuse fees which raised $315,000 and various license and franchise fees which raised $156,000.

The general fund supports the operation of the city's departments, except the utilities department. The largest expenditures this year were for police ($978,000), public works ($898,000), fire protection ($569,000) and city insurance

Ethics Panel: JoAnn Violated The Law

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Florida Ethics Commission today unanimously ruled that JoAnn Saunders beaten in last November's general election by Rep. Richard Kelly, violated state elections law by not filing her financial disclosure statement on time last year. The commission voted to refer the case to the Leon County state attorney for possible action.

BROKEN MAIN CUTS PRESSURE

Sanford utility workers repair water main which broke this morning at third Street and Sanford Avenue. Incident made it necessary for city utility officials to lower water pressure throughout Sanford's water system. Water pressure should be restored to normal by late this afternoon, according to City Engineer Mack LaZenby. Traffic on Sanford Avenue between 3rd and 4th streets is prohibited until city workers can fill the hole they dug to repair the pipe and repave part of Sanford Avenue. LaZenby said he did not know what had caused the break. "It's an older line, and older systems are subject to (breakages)periodically."Offices in the Seminole County courthouse are closed between 11:45 a.m. and 1 p.m. because the lowered water pressure rendered the courthouse's air conditioning and toilets inoperative.
