George Missing Man In Senate

By RAYMOND LARR
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The missing man in the Senate these days is Walter F. George, the former Democratic senator from Georgia. If George were still in the Senate and backing the Eisenhower administration's Middle East resolution it would have traveled a smoother course.

When George supported the administration on a foreign policy issue it could count on safe and speedy endorsement. Similarly the Truman administration used to depend in its early years on the support of the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg R-Mich.

Two years ago President Eisenhower went before Congress to ask for a blank check to use U. S. forces in defense of Formosa. The Senate passed that resolution, basically narrower in scope than the pending Middle East measure, by a vote of 85 to 3 on Jan. 28, 1955.

Strong Support
It had George's strong support. Then, too, perhaps, the new Democratic majority in the Senate was reluctant at that time to lay itself open to charges it was rocking the boat on foreign policy.

The Democrats have not been so sensitive this year. Mr. Eisenhower went before Congress eight weeks ago last Saturday with the Middle East "doctrine" that he deemed too urgent to wait for his State of the Union Message.

The House has passed the "doctrine" but the Senate, after lengthy committee hearings, is now entering its third week of debate with the final vote only now in sight—by Tuesday night if Senate leaders' predictions come true.

George, who did not seek reelection last year and now has a desk in the State Department, is not on the Senate floor like a stern patriarch silencing opponents.

However, his absence alone has not accounted for the administration troubles. The administration never persuaded the Senate the Middle East resolution carried the same urgency the Formosa plan had two years ago.

Still Smarting
Furthermore, Senate Democrats are still smarting under the part the Middle East crisis apparently played in enlarging President Eisenhower's election majority last fall. And they have complained repeatedly that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was less than frank in explaining what the proposed doctrine would do.

They also were annoyed because they first learned from their newspapers that a new policy was being framed.

Meanwhile, the GOP side of the Senate was not knocking itself out in an attempt to achieve an early

Colored News Agent To Conduct Course On Making Out Tax Return

An opportunity for colored adults to learn how to prepare their own income tax returns will be sponsored by the Seminole County Adult Education Program.

A United States Government Internal Revenue Agent from the Orlando Office will conduct a course for adults on how to prepare an income tax return beginning Tuesday, Mar. 19. This will be an opportunity for all colored adults to learn how to prepare their own income tax correctly. Any adult may attend this informative class. Classes will be conducted for three successive nights, Mar. 19, 20, and 21. Classes will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. and end at 9:30 p.m.

vote on the Middle East measure.

Finally, there were misgivings in the Senate over the Israeli troop withdrawal issue, which would not be met directly by the Middle East resolution. When it appeared for a time the administration might support punitive measures against Israel, a majority of the Senate seemed lined up in opposition to such drastic steps.

The sum of these factors frustrated the administration's bid for a quick demonstration of unity between Congress and the White House.

Ike Invited To Navy Appreciation Day

Other High Officials Are Asked

"If it's worth putting on it's worth being the biggest day that Sanford has ever had," said Mayor David Gatchel who was appointed Chairman of the Invitation Committee for Navy Appreciation Day to be held in Sanford Mar. 30.

Heading the list of those to be invited to the affair are President and Mrs. Eisenhower, Vice President Richard Nixon, Presidential Aide Sherman Adams, Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas, Under Secretary of the Navy Thomas S. Gates Jr. and other high Navy officials, Gatchel announced at the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon yesterday.

Jaycee President G. Andrew Speer told the Jaycee group that Harry Cannel and Garfield Willets had been named co-chairmen of the gigantic event.

Chaplain Arnold Lauds Red Cross For Aid To Navy

Chaplain C. L. Arnold of the Sanford Naval Air Station says: "The officers and enlisted men of the United States Navy have come to recognize that the American Red Cross is a friend that sticks closer than a brother". As a chaplain who works close with people who have trouble, "I know what the American Red Cross does for men in the Navy", he said. "I have experienced nothing but admiration for the cooperation which exists between our men and the field workers of the Red Cross. I have never had any problem to face but that the Red Cross was willing to give assistance," commented chaplain Arnold.

Particularly important to the personnel of the Navy is the service rendered to men who are away from home and who receive distressing home news. It is very comforting to know that we have a friendly organization which will step in and give us a first-hand report of the actual condition of our loved ones," said the Chaplain.

Men of the Navy have their financial problems, as everyone does, and for some reason emergencies seem to catch up with our men when they are broke. The American Red Cross is again our friend he said, and (Continued on Page Four)

President Expected In State Next Week To Combat Lingering Cold

Top News In Brief

TALLAHASSEE — Members of the House and Senate appropriations committees continued their check of state institutions today to find out how much money the various agencies will have to spend in the next biennium.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld formally notified the United Nations General Assembly today that Israel has complied with the U. N. order to withdraw from Egypt.

WASHINGTON — A cordial House reception appeared likely today for the administration's request to raise the cost of mailing a first class letter from three to four cents. But its fate appeared to doubt at the hands of the Senate which killed similar legislation last year.

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the United Nations Emergency Force, indicated today in Cairo a hitch had developed in Israel's withdrawal from Sharm el Sheikh. Burns said his forces were to take over the Agaba Gulf shore from Israeli forces today. But there was a possibility the Israelis may have to remove their equipment Saturday.

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower probably will go to Florida about the middle of next week for sun and exercise to combat a lingering head cold and cough, the White House said today.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said Mr. Eisenhower hopes and expects to be in Florida five or six days before going to Bermuda March 20 for his scheduled conference with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

The conference with Macmillan opens Mar. 21, and Hagerty said he expects the President to fly to Bermuda directly from Florida Mar. 20.

Both Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are out of the country, and Mr. Eisenhower does not want to be far from Washington by air.

Because of this, Hagerty said the President will not go to Arizona or any other western vacation site. Hagerty then said the President expects to go to Florida next week.

Light Snowfall Seen Near Milton

ATLANTA — Snow blanketed large areas of the South today and flakes fell as far south as northern Florida. At least two deaths were attributed to wintry conditions.

North Carolina's western mountain felt was covered by the snow. A light snowfall of the winter, means a six inches in some places.

Parts of Tennessee were covered by up to four inches of snow. A light snowfall was reported near Milton, Fla., just below the Alabama border, as the flakes melted as they hit the ground. Sub-freezing temperatures were predicted for northern Florida tonight.

At Birmingham, Ala., Richard Edgar Smith, 55, was killed when his car skidded into a freight train during a snowfall. Near Nashville, Tenn., William R. Whitsett was killed when his car apparently skidded into a stone pillar off a slick highway.

Snow flurries fell over northern Georgia this morning. Colder weather was in prospect for the entire Southeast.

Weather

Clearing and colder tonight with chance of frost. Low 31 to 33 Saturday morning; fair and a little warmer in the afternoon.

Red Cross Drive Has Slow Start

Less than $300 has been turned in toward the $10,000 goal for the fund campaign of the Seminole County Chapter of the American Red Cross, said the Rev. Fred Ensminger, publicity chairman for the campaign, this morning.

That isn't a very good start toward the campaign which is now five days old, he said. If funds continued to come in, throughout the month, the same percentage-wise, we would raise less than 20 per cent of our expected budget goal," he said.

The Rev. Ensminger pointed out that already more than 300 hours of work have been expended on the campaign so far. That includes the organizational meeting, the kickoff breakfast, distribution of kits, the film being shown in the local theatre, and radio announcements, he said.

"We have about 300 people involved in voluntary work in this year's campaign," the Rev. Ensminger said this morning. "and we're fully aware that many reports have not been received up to this moment."

Of the less than $300 already turned in, two of the contributions are of $50 denomination and four of them are $25, it was disclosed. Actual amount turned in is $275.

The Seminole County Chapter of the American Red Cross wants to raise its entire quota this year in order to meet its tremendous budget of the coming year. The organization is faced with a gigantic task of taking care of the needs of many service men and the area as well as do its part in disaster and community work, officials of the organization said.

Egypt Opens Suez To Small Ships

CAIRO — Egypt opened the Suez Canal today to small ships 500 tons or under and prepared to speed clearance of the entire waterway when the last Israeli troops leave Sharm el Sheikh.

British and French ships were included in the order by Egypt's Suez Canal Authority, but it appeared that Israeli vessels were excluded automatically as they have been since 1948.

The canal authority was expected to give the clearance go ahead to Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, in charge of U. N. salvage operations, within a few hours after the last Israeli troops leave Sharm el Sheikh.

Well-informed sources in Cairo said the Suez would continue to be barred to Israeli shipping and that Egypt was determined to prevent Israeli shipping from passing through the Straits of Tiran, the 800-yard wide entrance to the Gulf of Aqaba. Sharm el Sheikh controls the Straits of Tiran.

WHAT A BIG BOOK!

Of course the Bible is big. Not only in size... but in the endless depth of the messages to man.

God never intended the Bible to be studied without help. When an Ethiopian official centuries ago wrestled with a passage from Isaiah, God sent the evangelist, Philip, to meet the man's chariot, climb aboard, and explain the text's reference to the crucifixion of Christ.

Explaining and applying God's Word are still two of the major aims of the Church. Every sermon, every lesson, every discussion topic your church offers is intended to focus your attention on the timeless truths of Scripture and help you thread them into the pattern of your life.

Cherish your Bible... read it regularly... and let your Church guide you to the richness of its message.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible, daily.

Conring The News

BY VIRGINIA CONN

The board of the Officer's club vote on sponsoring the Wives Club met Thursday morning at Dornell Killeline's house. Dornell is the president, in case new members (and we have many) are not aware. The purpose of the meeting was a discussion of plans for the fashion show to be presented the twenty-first of March at the Mayfair Inn. Dessert and coffee will be served in the ball room at one o'clock, followed by the show featuring clothes by Mary-Esther, and modeled by representatives from each squadron and unit. The models have not yet been chosen, and will be announced at a later date. Polly Savage will be the narrator and co-ordinator. Mike Stone has kindly consented to train the models, and Polly Brubaker and Mary Muntz will be in charge of decorations. Admission will be $2.50, and members are urged to bring guests to see the latest in spring fashions. Officers attending the meeting were: Katie Jackson, Mallie Barlow, Julia Anderson, Marge Martin, Etie Williams, Katie Cummins, and Joan Fellini.

The Station Wives Club had a coffee at the B.O.Q. Thursday morning. Corrine George and Carol Cook were hostesses. The members were served coffee and sweet rolls. New officers were announced as follows: Corrine George, president; Jane Polts, treasurer; Dot Leary, hospitality; Lee Cunningham, publicity; Mary McGuire and Carolyn Hayden were introduced as new members. Dorothy Dohne ask that the

Woman's Club Plans Meetings

Several announcements were made yesterday at the Sanford Women's Club luncheon about coming events.

The Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs is sponsoring a brunch March 29 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Sanford Women's Club Building. The purpose of the brunch is to raise money for the Scholarship Fund, to be used by teachers that need to further their education. Plans are now being completed for a style show with fashions being furnished by the Mary-Esther shop.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

An announcement was also made concerning the March 13 meeting, Miss Iris Davenport, editor of one of the leading Women's Dept. magazines. She is sponsored by the Home Demonstration Department and will be the guest speaker. The Club feels very fortunate in being able to bring this distinguished personality to Sanford.

The members were reminded of the meeting Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Sanford Home Demonstration Center. The program will be on "stretching the food dollar by using a 'master mix'".

Now Hear This!

By JACKY FENWICK

I guess this is what is known as "one of those days"! I have a lot of little notes, but nothing seems to tie together, and it's so hard to get started. But, to quote another old cliché, "the show must go on".

With last Wednesday, (Ash Wednesday), being the official start of the Lenten Season, Rev. Richard Lyons, rector of All Souls (Catholic) Church, in Sanford, conducted the Rosary service and distributed ashes, at an 11:45 A.M. service at the Naval Air Station Chapel. This 11:45 A.M. Rosary will be conducted every day, during Lent, and it is sincerely hoped that all Navy personnel, and dependents of the Catholic faith, will take advantage of this and attend these services.

We now have a "Sea-Be" at the Air Station! This is a note worthy because he's the first one ever stationed here, at least since the reopening of the base. He is Construction Driver 3-C Herald Thomas, and we hope he won't be lonely as "one of a kind".

Another new arrival "aboard" the station last Wednesday was Eugene B. Compton, (Air Control 1-C), who transferred here from duty aboard the U.S.S. Boxer. (Like to have a chance to talk to him as we have a very good friend on that same ship.) Mr. Compton is married and the father of three children. The family is now residing at 1224 Randolph St. He'll be a member of the G.C.A. Team at the base.

One bit of bad news, (depending on how you look at it,) is that the "snack bar" we used to enjoy at the base pool will be no more! It will now be located at the Lake Golden Recreation Area. So, for those who prefer the pool to the lake, a few "side trips" for your "snacks" will be necessary!!

Understand that V.A.H. 11's "All Hands party, held last Tuesday, March 5, at the Lake Golden Recreation Area, turned out to be quite an affair!! "Nuff said! But, a lively time was had by all!

Included in Wednesday's "Plan of the Day", at the Air Station, was a note to the effect that Capt. J. P. Blackburn's Labrador Retriever, (dog, that last had strayed or was lost. Fortunately, the dog was located quite soon, and the amusing part to this story is that it took another Captain to find him!! Capt. R. W. Jackson, the commanding officer of the Air Station, was the one who accomplished it. He found the dog near Five Points on 17-92.

Have to make a correction about something I said last week or was it the beginning of this week?? Well, I made an announcement that the E. M. Club was having a St. Patrick's Dance on Saturday, March 16. That wasn't a "boo-boo" when I wrote it, but due to circumstances beyond anyone's control, the dance will be held on Friday, March 15. And I dare anyone to change the date again!! (If they do, they won't be able to call it a St. Patrick's Day Dance!!) By circumstances, I mean the band they wanted wasn't available for Saturday!!

One thing I do want to get in today concerns the hours for the base movie. I hope not too many of you had the same confusing experience I did in regard to the time. We nonchalantly arrived at approximately 7:00 P.M., only to have the show end a half hour after we sat down!! The explanation being that they are now having two shows nightly: one at 6:00, and the other at 8:00! This is for week nights only. The matinees will still be at 2:00!

Frederick Clevering Gives Talk On Bible At March 6 Meet

Enterprise

By HELEN SNODGRASS

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the All Saints Episcopal Church was held at the Parish House Wednesday Mar. 6, preceded by the regular board meeting. Mrs. Arthur Willgoose presided over both meetings and during the business session, the delegates were selected to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of South Florida Diocese to be held in Daytona Beach, at the Princess Isabella Hotel, May 7-8 and 9. Arthur Willgoose was chosen as delegate and Mrs. Carl Barthman as alternate.

Mr. Frederick Clevering, a former reference librarian at the Teachers College at Ypsilanti, Michigan now making his home in De Bary, was the guest speaker and gave a most interesting and educational talk on the English Bible, illustrating his points with different types of Bibles, and even some very early Bibles. Refreshments served by Mrs. Robert Elmers and assisted by Mrs. Carl Barthman and Miss Harriet Condit and Mrs. Robert Cox.

Line oven racks beneath "spilly" foods with aluminum foil. Saves cleanup time. Never cover over bottom.

Saturdays and Sundays. With the evening shows on those days starting at 7:00 P. M. (It was going to use 1900, 2000, and 1900, but since I have to start counting the hours off mentally to tell time that way, (after all the years I've been a Navy wife,) I figured there would be lots of others in the same "boat", so I used "English"!)

Guess I let the words run away with me today, after saying I had trouble getting started! One last reminder that ALL news will be gratefully received if you'll just call me at 1766-R. Got my new phone book today so I'll have to be sure and remember to change my number after next week.

Grammar School 4-H Club Meet Held March 6

The Grammar School 4-H Club met Wednesday to discuss biscuit making. They talked about cleanliness and cooking and decided it was better to mix the dough with a spoon than the hands. The group also learned to make chocolate milk.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Zebley of Glen Riddle, Pa., have been visiting in Sanford. Mrs. Zebley, the former Helen L. Terwilliger is the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thurston and Mrs. J. E. Terwilliger Sr. of Sanford and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Terwilliger of Chester, Pa.

Mrs. O. T. Pearson returned Monday from a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Pearson and children of Hialeah. She also met with her son, Robert Pearson of Arlington, Texas who talked with engineering students at the University of Florida and Georgia Tech. Mrs. Pearson then stopped in Miami to visit relatives and Mrs. Perry Stone who is recuperating from surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Raulerson of Kalamazoo, Mich. have arrived to help Dr. J. C. Gibbs celebrate his 101 birthday on Mar. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Slawter returned Sunday from High Point, N. C. where they had been called due to the illness and death of Mr. Slawter's father. He would have been ninety years old Apr. 9.

The members were reminded of the meeting Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Sanford Home Demonstration Center. The program will be on "stretching the food dollar by using a 'master mix'".

Golden Circle Makes Final Plans For "Contest"

The Golden Circle Class held its monthly meeting in the Educational Building of the First Baptist Church, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Bob Landreth, president presided over the meeting and also gave a very inspiring devotional. This was followed by a sentence prayer.

A sunrise offering was taken and a great deal of discussion was held concerning ways and means of creating new interest and building a stronger class with final plans for a "contest" to begin soon.

During a brief social period, homemade cake, nuts and cubes were served to those attending by Mrs. Landreth.

Laws Should Be Made, Enforced To Keep Sport Of Boating Safe

Sanford is still in the midst of a boating boom—just as all America is feeling at the moment. More and more of us are discovering that few pleasures compare with that of getting out on the open water in anything from a canoe to a power cruiser. It is estimated that more than 25 million Americans did some boating this summer.

There is one facet of this boating boom that gets too little attention in most parts of the country. The more boats, the more water traffic; the more water traffic, the greater the chance of accidents. Few states have adequate laws to regulate boating, and even fewer states enforce the laws they do have.

This is a situation that should be corrected. Boating is fun, but it is also hazardous, especially if anarchy rules the waves. The laws need not be so restrictive that they spoil the sport. On the contrary, good laws that set up far and sensible regulations cuts accidents and at the same time makes boating more fun for everybody.

With the rapid influx of boats in Florida waters, the speed of many of them increasing with more powerful motors, skimmer lines, and lighter bodies, skimmer over waters and streams seeking pleasures innumerable for their occupants.

It's the dare-devillishness in the most of us to want to do the things that possibly aren't just the best things to do.

Dare say, however, that anyone would meaningfully do something that would hurt another—good sportsmen—the kind that you find in the boats along the streams and around the lakes of Florida—just don't do things like that intentionally.

So there are restrictions—and we should be happy that they exist or that they should exist.

Boating is fun—and we want to keep it that way.

Medical Education Week

Medical Education Week is coming. It will be given a well-deserved national celebration during the April 21-27 period. Its purpose is to develop a better public understanding of what is going on in the all-important field of medical education, to explain the problems and to inspire greater public support of the medical schools.

In this connection some more or less widely held misconceptions concerning medical education should be dispelled. One of these is that the medical schools have not been keeping up with our population growth and that, as a result, a serious shortage of doctors exist or is impending. Actually, since 1940, both medical school enrollments and graduations have each increased more than 84 per cent, as against a population growth of some 27.5 per cent. For seven straight academic years the schools have established new high records in enrollments and graduations, and still another record is in the making this year.

One problem has been in the geographic distribution of doctors. There was a lack of balance here. Some years ago the American Medical Association recognized this situation and went to work on it. And so successful has been that work that, according to authorities, more doctors are in search of communities in which to practice than there are communities seeking doctors.

During Medical Education Week we will all have a chance to learn the facts—to separate truth from myth. We should all take advantage of it.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS—Saturday, Mar. 23 was set for the benefit ham supper for the Altamonte Springs Civic Club. It was decided at a meeting of the club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Allen Forard, chairman of the supper announced the menu and price of tickets at $1.25 for adults and 50c for children.

Mrs. L. C. Nichols of Maitland gave a most interesting and informative demonstration on flower arranging and corsage making. She was introduced by Mrs. C. O. Knox, immediate past president.

Hostesses for the day were the Meses, T. L. Gorman, Edith Brown, N. B. Choate and Leslie Winters.

CASH AND CARRY PRIZE
LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Captain W. M. Dickey, commander of U. S. Naval support units at the South Pole, Thursday wired an offer to donate the consolation prize in the first national gin rummy tournament being played here. Capt. Dickey said the only requirement was that the winner would have to come to the Antarctic and pick up the prize, an iceberg nearly 25 miles long, 10 miles wide and 100 feet above water.

In the making said "We need a lot of people to do it and to make arrangements for a howling success."

"We have already received approximately $1,000 and still need an additional $500," said Cannel. He told the Jaycees that plans which are now being forwarded will mean feeding nearly 5,000 people.

Cannel announced committee assignments which include: Bob Cruikshank, chairman; M. L. Harris, Jr., secretary; Art Harris, arrangements committee; Don Howard, food committee; Ambrose Oliff, publicity; and Ed Hunt, car giveaway.

Mayor Gatchel named other high officials of the Navy and State who are to be invited to Sanford for the event. He said Gov. LeRoy Collins and his entire Cabinet will be invited as well as the entire roster of State Senators and Representatives. In addition, he said, "We are going to ask the commanding officers of the Sixth Naval District to be here as well as the top officers from Jacksonville Naval Air Station." Also to be asked to attend will be G. Harold Alexander, Republican Committee Chairman of Florida, officials of the Florida Power and Light Co., the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. and officials of the Glen T. Martin Co. "We want to show these people what kind of a welcome that we can throw out here," he said.

"Of course we hope that every one we invite will come to the Seminole County Navy Appreciation Day," Mayor Gatchel said. Cannel displayed Naval Appreciation Day banners that have been printed and which will be distributed throughout the area.

"We need the cooperation of every person in the Jaycees and many from outside of our organization," Cannel said.

Band Ensembles, Solos To Be Heard At Mayfair Inn

In preparation for the solo and ensemble contest to be held in Apopka on Mar. 15, several of the Seminole High School Band members will present an instrumental recital of solos and ensembles at the Mayfair on Monday, Mar. 11.

The following selections of a total of fifteen will be played at the Mayfair Recital:

A clarinet quartet, "With Gay Spirit," played by Pauline Rans, Irma Corley, Sue Ann Toney and Bill Chisolm; a flute solo "Whirlwind," played by Thomas Bower; clarinet solo, "Nocturne," played by Sue Ann Toney; bassoon solo, "Premier," played by Bill Chisolm; clarinet solo, "Adagio," played by Pauline Rans.

Harrison Smith will play, "Enchantress," an alto saxophone solo; Barry St. John, "The Dutchess," a tenor saxophone solo; Wallace Fred Pope Jr., "Invocation," a baritone saxophone solo and then Dick Rountree will join the three to play a saxophone quartet titled "Der Freischütz."

Accompanists for the program will be Captain J. D. Stone, Paul Rans and Grace Dugger.

added, "Only their generous loans or gifts make it possible for Navy men to get home in many of these instances."

"I could tell for hours of the benefits we receive. I would summarize it by saying a friend sticks with you under all conditions. In war or peace the officers and men of the United States Navy know that the American Red Cross is there. We appreciate this and are deeply grateful for it," said Chaplain Arnold.

In view of the above tribute it is interesting to know that Mrs. Mary D. Knox, Executive Secretary of the Seminole County Chapter of the Red Cross reported to the Sanford Woman's Club on Wednesday that from 3/5 to 3/4 of the time of the local Red Cross Chapter was spent in the service of the Naval base here.

She said, "The public, being so interested in the retention of the Naval Base here, will naturally be active in supporting the Red Cross campaign now in progress."

We've practically lost our agriculture and now we should point, in the future, to something beside this one economy, he stated.

"I'm very optimistic now," Krider said, "We can really battle for the base now and I feel better each day that goes by in my belief that the base will stay in Sanford."

Telling the Jaycees about technical surveys, feasibility reports, and other data necessary to be secured for the report and proposal to be submitted to the Navy, Krider again commented on the cooperative effort that is being made to retain the Sanford Naval Air Station in Seminole County. "It is something that has done more for the county than anything else that has happened here," he said.

Krider was introduced to the Jaycees by president G. Andrew Speer.

Following John Krider's talk before the Jaycees, a resolution requesting the Navy to retain the Naval Air Station in Sanford was approved unanimously by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, and signed by each Jaycee attending the meeting.

The resolution was drawn up by Tommy McDonald who read the document to the membership before asking for its approval.

Letters To The Editor

The Editor Sanford Herald Dear Sir:

It is now one month after the Gasparilla Pirate Festival has ended and I have just settled down to reading all the news clips from Florida papers. I want to thank you for the many news stories carried by your paper, not only in connection with the Seminole High School Band's appearance in the Gasparilla PARADE OF THE PIRATES, but on all features of the pirate festival week.

The Seminole Band was a very distinguished component of the parade. The girls' costumes were particularly effective.

Unfortunately for all bands desiring to participate, the growth of South Florida and the increase in the number of school bands has made it necessary for us to put a top limit on the parade of 30 bands each year. This means that we must adopt a policy of rotation and it may be that Seminole will not be in our lineup again until 1959.

But I did want you to know that the people of Sanford can be very proud of the appearance of the Seminole High School Band.

Sincerely, J. R. Michler Managing Director

Capt. Arnold Williams and Patrolman Carl Dodson of the Sanford Police Department received the call to the scene of the argument and scuffle shortly before 7 o'clock last night at the 13th St. Negro beer parlor.

Jackson was pronounced dead at the hospital at approximately 7:30, said Galloway.

A warrant is being issued by Justice of the Peace W. Hugh Duncan charging the 15-year-old youth with murder. He will be committed to the Juvenile Court for further investigation and action by Judge Ernest Hourholder.

A hearing will possibly be held early next week, according to the Judge.

In the meantime, Anthony Miller will be held in the Seminole County Jail as soon as he is turned over to the county authorities by the City.

It is possible that Grand Jury action and an indictment might be handed down at the next session.

Big Crowd Expected To See 'Hypnotic Marvels' Tomorrow

"Hypnotic Can Be Fun, and I make it my business to prove it."

The program is devoted to hypnotism. The stage is set for the demonstrations which follow after the Doctor explains the facts of the mind to the audience.

Following this are preliminary tests, directed will power, rapid induction and a baffling demonstration of sensory control of taste, smell, and other senses, while in a state of trance.

Dr. Greene, master hypnotist, not only astounds all who attend one of his performances, but his clever wit and understanding, and his outstanding sense of humor contribute to audience enjoyment, even when he gets everybody into the act by a thrilling demonstration of relaxation where he uses nearly the entire audience.

Some of the mirth provoking demonstrations include placing a subject in an ordinary chair which is not wired electrically—not treated with heat radiation of any form, yet at the sound of a specific word spoken by the Doctor, the subject is forced to rise from his seat. Another laugh-provoking scene is one where he becomes impossible for a hypnotized subject to keep shoes on her feet, except when they are reversed, with the right shoe on the left foot and vice versa.

Because of the recent nationwide interest in "The Bridge of the Gods," the scene called, "In the Long, Long Ago," is one the audience particularly enjoys. Here an experiment into age regression is used with proper subjects, occasionally one will be taken back for a glimpse into this little-known realm of the mind.

Indications are that there will be a packed house at Hypnotic Marvels tomorrow night.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS—Mrs. Lawrence Swofford was guest of honor Tuesday night when the ladies of the First Baptist Church entertained with a shower at the home of Mrs. Harold V. Nelson.

The traditional pink and blue theme was carried out in floral decorations and in the refreshments. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Swofford.

Present were, in addition to Mrs. Swofford and Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. L. E. Mann and daughter, Ginger, Mrs. Robert S. Bradford, Mrs. L. T. Bryan, Mrs. Clifford Wells, Mrs. Eldred Whilden, Mrs. R. Bates, Mrs. Fred Hoag, Mrs. Beulah Bailey and Mrs. Paul Middleton.

Navy, Coast Guard Investigators Seek Cause Of Collision

NEW CASTLE, Del. — Navy and Coast Guard investigators delved today into causes of a collision that sent a Navy-owned gasoline tanker to explosive death on the Delaware River carrying down 10 men with her.

The 10 men aboard the Mission San Francisco when she was rammed by the Liberian freighter Elina II were missing and presumed dead. Among them were the Mission's captain, William Allen, 54, of Galveston, Tex., and a pilot, Capt. Ralph Smith of New York.

Thirty-five other men on the tanker and the 23-member crew of the freighter were saved.

A team of investigators and a salvage supervisor were sent by the Navy to the scene and the Coast Guard questioned some of the survivors in Philadelphia. The Coast Guard said a three-man Marine board will investigate the collision at a hearing in Philadelphia Monday. Testimony will be taken and recommendations sent to Washington.

Dulles Resumes Trip To Australia For SEATO Meet

HONOLULU — U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles resumed his flight today to Australia, where he will attend a meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization SEATO.

Dulles took off at 9:35 p. m. EST 2:55 a. m. EST after spending the day at the home of Adm. Felix B. Stump, commander-in-chief of Pacific naval forces.

Aides said Dulles spent Thursday reading and sunning himself at the beach. He flew here from Washington, with a stop at Travis Air Force Base near San Francisco.

Dulles' plane is expected to arrive in Canberra about 3 p. m. Saturday.

On arriving in Hawaii Thursday, the secretary issued a statement saying that Hawaii "is absolutely in no danger from radioactive fallout" from the forthcoming British atomic tests on Christmas Island.

"Gods" Hold Banquet At SHS

The Latin Club held its annual banquet last night in the Seminole High School Auditorium. This year the banquet was given by Jupiter, Angelo Compain and Juno, Wanda Gilbert, in honor of Neptune, Bill Benowky, and Athena, Eris Kratzert, the theme, being, "A Meeting of the Gods."

Each second year student portrayed a god and was dressed in a costume of Roman or Greek origin and carried an attribute of the god. The slaves, first year students, served chicken with all the trimmings, eaten Roman style and obeyed every command of their "masters."

After the dishes were carried away, Jupiter demanded that the entertainment begin. Slave dances, gladiatorial combat, vocal solos and a fashion show highlighted the evening.

The students surprised their teacher, Mrs. Boyd Coleman with a gift that expressed their appreciation for her help in making the banquet possible.

The "banquet hall" was beautifully decorated with fern, spring flowers, twined around make-believe white columns and surrounding imaginative fish pools. White couches and pillows of assorted colors completed the supine lounging.

Mrs. Coleman stated, "The students certainly put forth their best efforts to make this one of JACK SCHWARTZ, Bill Sheffield, 293 Holly Ave., Sanford, and Carl Hubbell, director of the New York Giants Farm System, cast discerning eyes over Thursday's practice session of the Dallas Eagles, Class AA baseballers of the Texas League, who will open the exhibition free to Sanford and Seminole County public against Houston Sunday afternoon at 2 p.

Exhibition Season Opens Sunday

The Dallas Eagles will open their exhibition season Sunday afternoon in Memorial Stadium before an anticipated capacity crowd anxious to see the return of a big time professional team in the home field after an absence of three years.

Enthusiasm over the coming spring training program snowballed after Carl Hubbell, head of the fabulous New York Giant Farm System, announced that there would be no gate admission this year to any of the afternoon exhibition games of either the Dallas Eagles or the Minneapolis Millers.

Dallas opens their exhibition season against Houston, another Class AA Texas League team, after what has been termed "A fine week of rapid progress in the training program."

Gomez May Be Delt To Redlegs

By UNITED PRESS
Ruben Gomez' failure to report to the New York Giants' training base renewed speculation yesterday that he may be delted off to the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The Giants made it plain that they are fed up with the Senor's annual spring game of "hills and seek" when club President Horace Stoneham threatened a sliding scale of fines for every day he is absent from the Phoenix, Ariz., training base. Stoneham made that announcement Wednesday after sending Gomez a cable in San Juan, P. R., demanding an explanation.

The Giants, meanwhile, are chafing over the heavy slugging of 26-year old Hank Sauer in their intra-squad games. Sauer, the team's possible No. 4 hitter, walked his third homer of the spring in Wednesday's game and has knocked in a total of 11 runs in three contests.

Rain and wet grounds hobbled Florida training program for a fourth straight day, but St. Louis General Manager Frank Lane came up with a new center-field prospect in infielder Eddie Mikala. The former Chicago Cub goes into competition with Chuck Harman, Bobby Gene Smith and Bobby Del Greco for the position which could make or break the Cardinals' pennant hopes.

At Tucson, Ariz., 26-game winner Early Wynn and Bob Lemon turned in strong three-inning performances in their first spring outings for the Cleveland Indians. Hero of the intra-squad game, however, was Dick Brown, a high school battermate of Herb Score who hit a two-run seventh-inning homer off rookie Gary Bell to give his squad a 7-4 victory.

Leadership Key To Successful Recreation Program

By Hugh Analey
After the enthusiastic meeting earlier in the week of Seminole High School P-TA, much conversation on the streets, in the homes, and in the lounging minutes have turned to the topic, "How can we in Seminole County try to meet the actual needs of our teenagers in the recreational field?"

Everywhere someone drops a pearl of wisdom, and it boils down to two things. Sanford and Seminole County needs, desperately needs, leadership in the proposed husband-and-wife team that is to resume the helm and the fortunes of the recreational system. The other is a gymnasium where a great diversity of activities that would include a program fitted to the age group from six to 60.

Cities are everywhere adopting a recreational program that runs year 'round. Some of the programs are a success, some are not. The majority of voiced opinion so far is that it rests in the hands of that couple that must assume the leadership and guidance of the program.

The proposed budget is $8,000 for the couple—that isn't much money for the calibre couple needed to fill the needs of this county. For in this county the couple will assume the responsibilities of County Recreational Coordinator.

The qualifications are stern. The couple must combine the artistic, the musical, and the athletic characteristics along with the very vital leadership qualities. But that isn't enough. The couple must be Christian in philosophy.

Ask the ministers how they feel and they will, in the main, tell you that the best way to ruin a recreation program is to have "secular" Bible quilters at the head. Christian philosophy is far from that. It is an attitude that applies every thought, every action, to the universal necessity of the golden rule.

And then, the couple must be young, energetic, and attractive alike to both the boys and the girls.

The key to the situation is in the hands of the people. The minds of their children are at stake. The couple needed in Sanford to fill the tremendous job can be had. Salary is not the only thing that is important.

For a couple that is learned, qualified, and possessing a wide range of interests can be obtained by this city if the people voice enough interest, express themselves, and their desires in choice, and let it be known that the salary is flexible. That as the program grows, so will the salary.

The greatest thing for confronting an aspiring couple is a challenge—and that is exactly what we, the people of Sanford and Seminole County, can make this job into.

The youth of the city is in the hands of one couple—who could love humanity and children, and not accept such a challenge?

What couple possessing the almost unique qualities that will enable them to bring out the artist, creator, musician, and rough-and-tumble lad with that honest American mischievousness and normal need for release of energy wouldn't be proud to take on this enormous job? That is, if they were approached, recommended, or have it made known that the hours of work and sleepless nights of planning would be appreciated.

With the best leadership in the recreational department and the future of a possible gymnasium and the proposed Civic Center that will bring culture, conventions, and assemblies to Sanford we can have, will have, one of the best all around programs of any county in the state.

Seminoles Work Hard Preparing For Season Opener On March 19

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—With Granny Hamner it's a matter of control—of the nerves, the heart and the fast ball.

Granny at the age of 30 is trying to carve out a new career in the major leagues. After nine years as a regular infielder with the Philadelphia Phillies a soreness in the "extra arm" ruined his stretch and he's trying to make it as a pitcher.

"I fear the worst and hope for the best," he says.

The odds, strangely enough, are both with him and against him. Men with strong throwing arms have made it before. Made it big, too. But, strangely enough, those who were successful all switched at age 26.

Look at the classic examples: Ducky Walters, Bob Lemon, Saul Rogovin and Jack Harshman. They all were four years younger than Hamner when they made the leap and those four years could spell the difference.

Could Be Tragic
Hamner's could be a tragic case. One of the aging "Whiz Kids" who carried the Phillies to their pennant in 1950, he pulled a tendon in his non-throwing arm two years ago. It failed to respond to treatment and he went under the knife in November of 1955. But the arm never recovered.

"It didn't bother my throwing," he explains. "But I couldn't swing at the plate any more and I couldn't stretch far and low with my glove hand."

Last season he hit only .224. Meanwhile, to his dismay, balls he used to come up with were slipping under his glove or eluding his desperate lunge. But the sharp eyes of Coach Denny Bengough gave him a chance at a new career.

Ball That Moved
Bengough had noticed previously that the first baseman always had trouble handling Hamner's throws. The reason, on investigation, proved to be the fact that Granny threw a ball which "moved."

His throws to first hopped or sailed.

"It looks like it's pitching or nothing for me," Hamner admits today. "Learning control is the big thing and I seem to be doing pretty well with a fast ball, a slider and a knuckler. But I also have to admit that my curve ball isn't too good."

But he's trying, with the desperation of a man who has no place else to go.

The second in a series of practice games got underway this afternoon with an intra-squad game of the Sanford Seminoles.

Baseball coach Dave Laude said this morning that he would send his charges, particularly his two hurlers, through progressively stiffer workouts as he began an accelerated training regimen in preparation for the season opener March 19 against Winter Park.

Laude said he would give his hurlers special assignments in running and speed exercises to ready them for the rough season ahead. Ken McMurray and Eddie Barbour are presently the only two mounders in the Seminole camp and Laude voiced concern for the relief department.

"If one of the boys blow up during a game and we have to send in the other pitcher early in the game we will face a blank wall for the rest of the game for that all important reserve insurance," Laude said. "Not only that, but we'll have to overwork the relief pitcher when the games follow in close succession."

Laude continued to praise the control of both McMurray and Barbour. "They are both cool, deliberate, and steady," he said, "but they will have to gradually work for more speed." Laude also said that his team would be in much better shape with another pitcher on the staff.

"The enthusiasm is wonderful," Laude remarked. "That's the most outstanding thing right now. The boys are working hard, they know that no position on the team is sewed up, and they are sincerely trying to improve enough to make the starting team."

"It's just a shame that we don't have the facilities for an A and B team this year," Andy Bracken, Seminole High School principal said. "The whole team seems to be trying hard to improve and we want every one of the boys to stay out all season."

Fred Ganss, athletic director of Seminole, said, "The attitude of the team is what we need here to boost our athletic program. The boys are working hard, they are building a team attitude, and they want a winning team."

This sort of attitude is what the Seminole administrative and athletic branches have been working toward all year, and as the school year has progressed, so has the attitude goal.

This year the Sanford Seminoles will field a young, inexperienced, and building team. But as a nucleus it will have fine leadership.

Human Roadblock
DETROIT (AP)—Daniel Dodson, 32, was ticketed by police Tuesday for picking the wrong place to attempt to talk to his estranged wife, Opal, 24. Officers said Mrs. Dodson was driving to work when her husband jumped in front of her car and refused to move. He was ticketed for obstructing traffic.

OFF THE CUFF
FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Paul Shaw, 28, gave Allen County sheriff's deputies the "slip" in a very literal way. Shaw, who is 6-foot-2 and weighs only 142 pounds, was being transferred from the jailhouse to the courthouse Monday for sentencing on burglary charges when he slipped out of his handcuffs and escaped.

The two leading candidates for low man for the Seminoles are captain Edwin Jenkins of Jacksonville, who holds the Tallahassee course record, and Bunk Berry of Tallahassee.

Jenkins holds the course standard of 62 for the Capital City Country Club, and he has done it twice. He and Billy Shelton were seasonal low scorers for the Tribe last year, with a 27.1 average.

Berry finished second in the recent George Washington Tournament here, missing the title by the bare margin of a missed short putt.

Florida has lost its ace of last year, Florida PGA champ Dave Ragan, by graduation. The key to the Gators' scoring chances is Bob McCoy, currently their number one man.

The Gators have had one match thus far this season, losing to Rollins.

The other leading Seminole scorers include Harry Shoemaker, the national left-handed champion, Bob Shave, Bill Shelton, Bob Shuman and Jack Vegkie.

160 Top Golfers Are Playing In Pensacola Open; Hebert Enters

PENSACOLA, Fla.—Some 160 of the nation's top golfers battled March winds yesterday in the opening round of the $15,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

Cool and cloudy weather, with a chance of occasional showers throughout the four-day, 72-hole tournament, made the old, experienced tourney players the favorites over young hopefuls for the $2,000 top prize money. Young Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill., who walked off with top honors last year, has been touring the 6,450-yard par 72 course through the week in attempts to repeat the triumph which lifted him to golfing prominence.

Jimmy Demaret of Klamath Falls, N. Y., who took top prize money in the Baton Rouge tournament last week, was the only current tourney winner who was a doubtful starter.

Other season winners hoping to add to their laurels included Jay Hebert of Woodmere, N. Y., winner of both the Bing Crosby Invitational and the Texas Open; Ed Fergol, Clinton, Mo., winner of the recent Callenite Open at Tijuana, Mexico; Billy Casper Jr., Palm City, Calif., winner of the Phoenix, Ariz., Open; and Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa., who won the Houston Open.

Agriculture News

This week, Mar. 24, is National 4-H Club Week. For many people, the 4-H is an institution that needs no special week to make its presence and usefulness known. To newcomers and those not acquainted with 4-H, this week may be an eye opener as emphasis is placed upon the 4-H Club program and the accomplishments of our 4-H Club girls and boys.

The theme this year is "Improving Family and Community Living." To some 37,230 4-H Club boys and girls in Florida and over 2,000,000 4-H Clubbers in the nation, this week will seem familiar because every week of the year the 4-H Club stresses family improvement and learning to be a better citizen in the community in which we live.

Florida club members have interested themselves not only in the farm and home demonstrations that feature their work, but have taken an interest in community improvement programs a way to earn the highest commendation from local officials, chambers of commerce, and local leaders of civic campaigns.

It is, however, in the field of improvement on the farm and in homes that the members of the largest rural youth organization in the world have shown what young people can do when their efforts are unified for definite aims. The State Agricultural Extension Service gives figures to show marked results in poultry raising, forestry, cattle, field crops, gardening, home improvement, and community progress. Another feature of 4-H Club work has been the study of modern farm machinery, and its safer operation. Because 4-H boys know what a tractor will do and what it is not supposed to do, there will be fewer accidents on the farm.

The 4-H Club program in Seminole County has developed and increased rapidly this year. The girls' membership jumped to over 225 members enrolled in some 14 clubs. Even in the boys' Club program which was just started this year, the enrollment is 183 members and eight different clubs. Each club elects its own officers, learns preliminary procedure, and democratically runs its own programs.

There are a number of activities, shows, and contests that 4-Hers can enter. Seminole County 4-Hers have found their way into a number of these events this year and have made their presence known. In our local activities 4-Hers have enjoyed such things as organizing the County 4-H Club Councils, annual County-wide Christmas Party, and a trip to the State Fair in Tampa. Each Saturday some group of 4-Hers takes charge of a radio program over WTLR. Then there are local club parties, planned and carried out by the club members themselves. Along the activity line, plans are being made for future activities this summer for Short Course and 4-H Club Camp at Camp McQuarrie near Astor Park.

Seminole County 4-H Club boys have shown in a county, two district and a state level show to date. Carl Stubbins, Carlton Prevatt, and Jerry Fore took part in the Seminole, Orange County Beef Show in January. Carl came out on top and represented Seminole County in the District Beef Show in Kissimmee. Owen Cammack showed in the District Dairy Show and also in the State Dairy Show in Orlando. Bruce Packard and Joe Battle gave a demonstration on Beekeeping in connection with Seminole County Day at the Central Florida Fair.

There are numerous contests for 4-H Club boys and girls. This week Seminole County girls will be competing in the various district contests. The boys' competition in such contests as Reading Lamp, Public Speaking, and Tractor Operators will be later in the spring. In all of these contests, shows, and activities, the boys and girls are learning to live up to their Club motto of "Making the Best Better."

This week in Seminole County our 4-H Club boys and girls are increasing their energy on their projects and are gaining more knowledge about them to pave the way for another successful year. Through these projects and their club activities, these boys and girls are training to become the next generation's leaders.

To these, our industrious youth, we pay tribute this week. We also pay tribute to the local club leaders for their contribution to the success of the program, and in lending of their time and talent to the development of our boys and girls.

Feature Starting Sunday At Ritz Is Filmed At Pensacola Base

At Pensacola, on the grounds of the United States Navy's largest shore-based command, Hollywood recently turned back the clock more than 35 years to bring to the screen the story of one of the great heroes of naval aviation.

The picture is M-G-M's "The Wings of Eagles," starting Sun. at the Ritz, starring John Wayne, Dan Dailey and Maureen O'Hara. The setting is a corner of the original site of the birthplace of naval aviation, unchanged in appearance since World War I despite the addition of hundreds of new naval buildings outside its iron gates and the extension of its boundaries by thousands of acres.

Cement seaplane ramps, corrugated tin hangers, wooden and stuccoed one-story barracks, narrow gauge railroad tracks and brick walls remain untouched by the progress of the jet age, crew of 92 persons. Previously though now used by the Navy only for storage, supply and athletic housing. These buildings and facilities, however, were the center of naval aviation activity in 1919, the time in which the scenes filmed for "The Wings of Eagles" took place.

The picture, directed by four-time Academy Award-winner John Ford and produced by Charles Schnee, tells the story of Frank (Spig) Wead, a pioneer in naval aviation, who was later to become a successful author, playwright and screen writer, and who conceived a battle plan which helped turn the tide of World War II in the Pacific.

It was at Pensacola that Wead began his naval aviation career, and the opening portion of the picture was filmed here during the ten-day location of a cast and the company had filmed the end of the picture aboard the aircraft carrier USS Philippine Sea, one-hundred miles off the Pacific Coast.

While able to reproduce the past as far as environment was concerned, the studio had to insure its own air and ground transportation authentically. Six N-9 seaplanes were constructed. They were duplicates of those flown by Wead when he established and broke several of the early seaplane distance, endurance and speed records. Aircraft construction expert and stunt flier, Paul Mantz, was commissioned to do the job.

Mantz files for the picture, too, performing such hair-raising stunts as piloting a seaplane through a hanger, crashing through trees and ultimately heading for a crash dive into a swimming pool.

'King, Four Queens', Western Story, To Play At Drive-In

The lusty and provocative yarn of a gay scoundrel's adventures in a western ghost town inhabited by four trigger-happy, man-hungry women. "The King and Four Queens" filmed in CinemaScope and De Luxe color opens Sunday at the Movieland Ride-In Theatre.

Clark Gable is co-starred as the King of the title, and his four some of Queens including Eleanor Parker, Jean Willes, Barbara Nichols and Sara Shane. The supporting cast is headed by Roy Roberts, Arthur Shields and Jay C. Flippen. Jo Van Fleet is also starred.

"The King and Four Queens" from a screenplay by Margaret Fitts and Richard Alan Simmons and Raul Walsh, directed, Lucien Ballard was chief photographer, and the musical score was composed by Alex North. It was filmed on location in the rugged mountain country near St. George, Utah.

Number One Queen of Gable's harem in "The King and Four Queens" is Eleanor Parker, one of Hollywood's best and most versatile actresses, and two-time Academy Award nominee. Lovely Sara Shane is, another of the Queens and a dainty soft-spoken vixen she is. Her most recent films were "The Magnificent Obsession" and "Three Bad Sisters."

Two of Hollywood's fastest-rising young actresses, Jean Willes and Barbara Nichols, are seen in "The King and Four Queens" as the remaining two-fourths of Gable's female retinue. Jo Van Fleet plays an angry mother-in-law.

CHAPTER 17

THE lights were on in our living room when I got home. As I went through the vestibule, I played "shave-and-a-haircut" on our bell. When I got to our landing, Steve was standing in the doorway. There was a look of warning on his face. He took me in his arms and gave me the least satisfactory kiss of our career.

"Bolling," he whispered. "In-side."

He stepped back from me and said loudly, heartily, "How's your cousin Marie?"

"Improving," I said. "The swelling's gone down."

We walked into our living room. Detective Lieutenant Bolling put a beer down on our coffee table, rose and greeted me. I was disappointed in the way he looked. He looked fine, not the least bit worried. Apparently this was a policeman without any pressing worries at all, including the capture of the Walzer.

"The swelling's gone down?" he said to me.

"What? Oh, Cousin Marie. Yes, perceptibly. Thank you."

"Steve says she has anemia. I didn't know there was ever any swelling involved in anemia."

"You're quite right, there isn't. Cousin Marie got in a fight with her doctor and he belted her one in the eye."

"You're kidding," Bolling said. "Yea, stop kidding, Connie."

Steve said, "Bolling was in the neighborhood and he just dropped in."

"Lovely. Anytime you're in the neighborhood, Mr. Bolling, just drop in."

"Thanks."

"Any news about the Walzers?"

"He was seen tonight in a joint in the Village, the Feather Club."

"No!" I said. "Really?"

"Yea, we got a description of him from a Crescent pupil who was there, name of Kipp. Wendell Kipp. The bartender saw him, too, and a waiter and a couple of other people."

"What was he doing, the Walzer?"

"Annoying some blonde."

"Any blonde?" I said, "who would frequent the Feather Club could hardly be annoyed." I had to ask the question and I did, bravely. "What does the Walzer look like?"

"Well, this Kipp didn't give much of a description. He didn't impress me as the type that ever noticed very accurately what a man looked like. Then he was still pretty sure by the slugging the Walzer handed him. His description didn't tally very well with the other people's descriptions."

"What," I asked, "was his description?"

"He said he was a big man, powerfully built."

Steve smiled, rather proudly, pleased.

"Almost ape-like," Bolling said. "Ape-like?" There was a trace of indignation in Steve's voice which, fortunately, Bolling missed. "You can't believe this Kipp. He's probably some about the Walzer knocking him down."

"Yea, well, Kipp said he had a low forehead and very long arms."

Steve's indignation was boiling into anger. I spoke quickly. "What did the other people say about him?"

"The bartender said he was an ordinary guy, dark, maybe six feet."

Steve was somewhat mollified. "A waitress said he was good looking."

Steve was smiling again.

"Well, anyway," Bolling said, "the description doesn't help us much. But that doesn't bother me. When we round up the last of Anita Farrell's pupils, then I'll be able to name the Walzer."

The telephone rang. Steve answered it. It was for Bolling.

The detective's back was toward me and his voice was muffled. It was too difficult to eavesdrop and I soon gave it up. But I did gather that the call was coming from Bolling's partner, Hankins, at the Crescent School of Dancing. There was some problem about who should take over somebody else's assignment.

When Bolling had got things straightened out, he turned back to us. "As I was saying, I'll be able to name the Walzer when we round up the last of Miss Farrell's pupils."

"Yea," I said. "Of course you will, won't you?"

"Only one guy we haven't located yet. A Ralph Tolley."

Silently, I asked Heaven to be kind to Ralph Tolley; he was one of nature's noblemen.

Aloud I said, "But you'll find him soon, I'm sure."

"We're getting close. And when we get hold of this Tolley, then we'll know. We got every one of Anita Farrell's lessons accounted for except seven o'clock Wednesday... the Walzer's time. Now, like I told you before, if this Tolley is the Walzer he won't say he was seven o'clock Wednesday. He'll pick some other time, for instance, Steve's time... three o'clock Saturday. Then if Tolley isn't the Walzer, Steve is."

Normal Drop Seen In February Sales Tax Collections

TALLAHASSEE 47.—Sales tax collections during February, based on January sales, showed a "normal drop" from the big Christmas season shopping period but were 17.37 per cent ahead of February last year.

Comptroller Ray Green reported the sales tax yielded $9,031,991 last month, a decrease of more than $1,262,000 from the previous month but an increase of $1,349,946 over February of 1956.

Green said signs of increase in tourist business indicate a "very encouraging" report for March.

Sales tax collections for the first eight months of the current fiscal year now total $63,648,339, about 18.35 per cent more than for the same period in the previous year.

Gasoline tax collections for February amounted to $8,968,822, an increase of $238,743 over January and $945,495 over February 1956. Gasoline taxes for the fiscal year so far total $63,548,286, an increase of $6,372,417 over the first eight months of the last fiscal year.

TEACHERS PAID LESS THAN BABYSITTERS

DETROIT—Teachers in Detroit get less pay per child than the average babysitter, says School Superintendent Samuel M. Brownell.

Teachers are paid at the rate of 15 cents an hour for each of 35 pupils, Brownell said, assuming the works at least six hours a day during a school year of 190 days for a total of $6,000.

"When you hire a babysitter," Brownell added, "you pay considerably more for a person of less skill and training."

CHURCH WITHIN CHURCH

SPRING HILL, W. Va.—The Church of God congregation has built a church within a church. A brick structure, was built over the old one without a service being missed.

Quotes From News

By UNITED PRESS

WASHINGTON: Secretary of State John Foster Dulles referring to the basic U. S. policy concerning the efforts of Harold Connolly, U. S. Olympic hammer champion, to marry Olga Fikotova, Communist Czechoslovakia's Olympic discus champion:

"We believe in romance."

NEW YORK: John O'Connell, 36-year-old ex-paratrooper and bit actor pulled to safety from the 69th floor of the RCA Building, blaming his lack of success as an actor for the reason he contemplated ending his life:

"I had the door slammed in my face for the last time today."

Israel Foreign Minister Golda Meir on her country's troop withdrawal from Gaza and Aqaba areas:

"We must be absolutely certain that Egypt in no form can come back to the Gaza Strip."

ACCRA, Ghana: Premier Kwame Nkrumah declaring his country's independence in a ceremony as Ghana's black stars and stripes replaced the British Union Jack in front of the House of Parliament:

"When day dawns, we shall have left behind the chains of imperialism and colonialism which hitherto have bound us to Britain."

Need For Resolutions Stressed By Krider

Probers Shocked At Suggested Way To Plug News Leaks

WASHINGTON (U-P) — House investigators demanded an explanation today of what they called "shocking" features in a Defense Department report on how to plug military news leaks.

A House Government Operations subcommittee headed by Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) summoned members of the so-called Coolidge Committee to testify about Defense Department information policies.

The Coolidge Committee, headed by Boston lawyer Charles A. Coolidge, reported Nov. 8 on a survey of Pentagon secrecy policies.

Moss said his subcommittee was particularly concerned about one "distant" and "shocking" recommendation made by the Coolidge group. This urged that a newsmen be called before a grand jury, if necessary, to uncover his source of any "leak" which "obviously gravely damages the security of the nation."

Moss said his subcommittee has far found that most leaks resulted from military efforts to "manage the news" rather than from a newsmen's attempt to "misuse security information."

He said in a statement that he would urge the Coolidge Committee to elaborate on its recommendations and give "specific examples" of any leaks damaging to national security.

Moss said his group agrees with some of the Coolidge findings, such as one that too much information is put under secrecy wraps by the Pentagon.

But he said other recommendations "appear to go far beyond what is desirable or necessary."

$500 Damage Seen In Wreck; Driver's Condition Critical

A 32-year-old Sanford Negro was taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital early yesterday morning in critical condition when his 1949 Plymouth Sedan went out of control and sheared two power poles five feet from their base.

The accident occurred at approximately 4 a. m. yesterday just one mile east of Sanford near Sipes Ave. on State Road 415.

Ernest Jenkins of 814 Cypress Ave., a taxi driver was traveling west at an apparent high rate of speed, said Florida Highway Patrolman Gene Coffman, when in some manner the driver lost control of his car to smash into the two power poles.

The car was a total loss, said Coffman, with a property damage of $500. Damage to the power poles was estimated at $200.

"There were no skid marks, no tire tracks, or any other evidence that might lead us to what might have caused the automobile to leave the highway and leap five feet into the air to crash into the wood poles shearing them off cleanly," Patrolman Coffman said.

"The steering wheel was crushed with the Negro man's body," so forceful was the impact said Coffman.

Jenkins received fractures of the right upper and lower jaw, right cheek bone and nose. His teeth were also smashed.

Investigation into the accident is being continued, said the Patrolman.

CofC Directors Urged To Attend Important Session

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night at 8 p. m. in the Educational Building on East Commercial Ave.

MISS IRIS DAVENPORT

Magazine Editor To Talk Wednesday At Kiwanis Club

Miss Iris Davenport, Editor of the Woman's Department of Farm and Ranch Magazine, will speak in Sanford Wednesday at the noon luncheon meeting of the Sanford Kiwanis Club and again at the Women's Club at 2 o'clock. The public is invited to hear Miss Davenport speak at the Women's Club.

Miss Davenport is probably the best-known woman in the South. She will speak on "You Are Important."

In a poll among 1,000,000 southern clubwomen conducted by an Atlanta, Ga., newspaper and the Atlanta Women's Chamber of Commerce in 1948, Miss Davenport was named one of the nation's six most outstanding women born in the South.

She is a guest in Sanford of Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent and is being sponsored by the Home Demonstration Council.

In addition to being a welcome guest in over 1,300,000 Southern homes each month through the pages of Farm and Ranch Magazine, she travels an average of 30,000 miles a year; her guest appearance on radio and TV reach an estimated three million people.

Bostwick To Give Account

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners will hear a report on the survey that points to Sanford as the "Wholesale Distributing Center for Central Florida."

W. M. Bostwick, engineer of Daytona Beach, who completed the economic survey for the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at the request of the Florida Power and Light Co. will attend tonight's meeting of the Board of Commissioners to evaluate the 48-page report.

Also attending the meeting will be John Krider, former City Commissioner and now a member of the Board of County Commissioners and Manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. It is expected that a number of citizens interested in the survey will also attend the meeting.

The report which points to the ultimate building of a Docks and Terminals project is expected to be received with favor by the Board of Commissioners and in turn be approved for further and immediate study.

Docks and Terminals, which have long been known as the most important project for the further growth and development of Sanford and Central Florida, have been studied and recommended to the City on several occasions.

The discussion and report will probably consume the first 90 minutes of tomorrow night's meeting with a lengthy agenda to follow. Eleven items appear on the agenda for discussion and action.

One of the controversial issues to again appear on the agenda and come before the Board of Sanford City Commissioners concern the use of alleys in downtown.

Burial will be in Oaklawn Memorial Park.

SHS Freshman Boy Killed In Accident

One of the most promising undergraduates in football at Seminole High School was pronounced dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital following an accident on State Road 415, near Osteen.

James Sanford Peterson, Jr., son of J. S. Peterson Sr., Osteen, was killed shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a 1953 Willys Jeep turned over on him as he attempted a sharp turn and failed to make it.

The Jeep, according to Florida Highway Patrol Trooper T. Mark Mack, did not leave the highway, as apparently traveling at a high rate of speed, the youth attempted to turn back into the old road at a barrier, and turned over.

Trooper Mack said the boy was coming south on the new construction and started to turn and go back to Osteen on the old

School Committee Proposes Raise In Auto Tag Costs

The governor's school construction committee has proposed a raise in automobile tag costs and a $29,905,400 state appropriation for a joint state-county school building program.

The committee, at its final meeting, voted to recommend its program to Gov. LeRoy Collins who will decide whether it should be laid before the Legislature. A 30 to 50 per cent increase in the cost of car tags would revert to the counties to match state funds for school construction.

Last year the total tag sales, according to Tax Collector John Galloway, came to $377,707.90. Should the increase be made on the basis of last year's Seminole County tag sales a 30 per cent increase in tag costs would result in a return to Seminole County of $125,902.63 and a 50 per cent increase would revert $189,853.98 back to the county for school construction with matching funds from the state.

This year, Tax Collector Galloway said that estimated tag sales would come to $460,000. The increase would bring revenue back to the county for school construction amount to $153,333 based on a 30 per cent increased tag cost and $230,000 based on the 50 per cent increase.

Statewide, a 50 per cent increase would yield more than 18 million dollars above current tag revenues.

The committee previously had agreed to ask for $20,603,400 from any surplus funds left at the end of this biennium.

The council voted 40 to one in favor of raising car tag costs to "reestablish local sources of revenue" with which to match state funds. The state would be called on for $200 per pupil.

Mar. 10-16 Is Scout Week Here

Girl Scout Week will be observed in Sanford the week of Mar. 10-16 to commemorate the 45th birthday of the nationwide organization.

Mayor David Gatchel, this morning, issued a proclamation, naming the week to observe the birthday and urged fathers of Girl Scouts to "join their daughters in the theme" "Girl Scouting is a Family Affair."

Mayor Gatchel said in his proclamation that "for many years the Girl Scouts of America have helped others by living up to their Promise and Laws and have grown into women of consequence and character."

The Girl Scouts of America, in Sanford, have in their first triumphant year as members of the Citrus Council, Girl Scouts of America and have dedicated themselves to helping in this community," he said.
