SEN. EDWARD KENNEDY ... Family funds mingled

Congress have voluntarily made public disclosure of their tax returns or net financial worth.

Another 25 contacted in an Associated Press survey say they are preparing to make a public accounting of their finances or are considering that step. Full public disclosure by members of Congress is not re-

House members must file with an ethics committee a form listing business interests, but the worth of those interests is kept confidential by the panel.

Senators must file with the comptroller general a copy of their federal income tax return and a list of finances not covered in the return. The information also is confidential. The Senate twice has passed legislation requiring fuller disclosure. The House, however, has acted on neither bill.

Most members who have moved on their own to disclose their finances say they did so in an attempt to restore the redibility of government, especially in light of Watergate. "Those of us who have been elected to the legislative branch can help restore credibility in government by being frank and open in all respects," says Sen. Frank E. Streaker Sparks Arrests

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) - The arrest of a streaker at a rock concert led to the arrest of about 30 persons on nearby Penscola Beach Sunday, police said. Authorities said at least three youths were injured Sunday when police moved in to break up a crowd of about 1,500 people outside a jail annex where the streaker was being held.

Escambia County sheriff's deputies said the Florida Highway Patrol and police agencies from as far as Fort Walton Beach helped quell the distrubance.
