EDITORIAL COMMENT

Crackdown Ordered

The County Commission is to be commended for its action Tuesday in ordering a crackdown on all speed

The board, working on the suggestion by Commissioner James P. Avery, asked that all law enforcement officers around county schools "crackdown hard" on violators speeding in school zones."

We agree with Avery that if this enforcement is not carried out, statistics at the end of the year will not be

Work is expected to start sometime next year and according to Bliss, will mean delay of some of the projects placed on top priority by the commission.

Earlier in the year, the Altamonte Town Council urged the commission to take action on the road. Preliminary cost estimates were around $100,000.

The work will include a portion of the road in Altamonte Springs of 1,800 feet.

Police Found Shot In Fern Park

A 39-year-old Maitland man wanted by Orlando police for passing worthless checks was found in his auto in Fera Park Thursday night suffering from a self-inflicted shotgun wound, the sheriff's office reported.

Deputy Mike Connor identified the man as Ward Lee Taylor who was found slumped in the back seat of his car across the street from the Prairie Lake Baptist Church.

Taylor died enroute to Seminole Memorial Hospital at approximately 10:40 p.m. Connor reported that he found the man in the back seat of his car with a shotgun next to him.

when found, shouted at him "Let me die, let me die." Taylor has a long criminal record, according to the sheriff's office, including arrests for auto theft and transportation of a stoben vehicle over the state line.

Deputies said that Orlando poice were looking for Taylor for passing some $1,400 in worthless
