LEGISLATURE STARTED TODAY MANY STOPS TO BE MADE TAXATION AND REAPPORTION

CATTLE TICK, PRISON REFORM AND MULTITUDIOUS OTHER SUBJECTS

SPEAKER SETTLED

At Caucus Last Night, President of Senate in Harness and Both Houses Start

TALLAHASSEE, April 3.—The biennial session of the legislature started on its 60-day way today with stops to be made at taxation, reapportionment, cattle tick legislation, prison reform and multitudinous other subjects, which as they stack up at this time appear as being of lesser note.

With the question of a speaker for the house settled at last night's caucus, and that of president of the senate having been settled several months ago, both houses planned to devote today to organization. It has been the custom for the governor to deliver his message on the first day of the session, but Governor Hardee has decided to withhold his biennial communication until tomorrow, and he will deliver it in person. The conclusion of the governor's address is the signal for both houses to swing into action although unless the unexpected happens, they will move along slowly and cautiously for the first few days, quite possibly until the end of the week.

Speculation on the operations of the first few days centered largely in the definition of anti-administration strength. Governor Hardee pushed his entire legislative program through at the last session with a facility that marked a return to normalcy in this state as regards the executive and legislative branches of government. His staunchest friends do not look for the same amount of influence over the second session of his administration. It does not happen, they point out, in the political equation. Of course, there was some anti-administration force in the last session and it remains in the present session. It claims to have augmented its energy in the past two years, and because of its pre-session activities, has left its impress on the political observers, but the session must run along for a few days and a separator will be applied before the real strength can be determined from the noise.

The legislative hopper stood in its accustomed receptive mood. Bills were slated for introduction covering every ailment of the body politic. The women's organizations have measures drawn dealing with many needed reforms as they see them, and will have a representative on the scene throughout the session to see that they do not get lost. One of their principal claims is the abolition of hanging in favor of the electric chair. They too are in the advance ranks of the fight slated against the county convict lease system.

There will be many measures dealing with game conservation and protection of wild life. There will be still more, and considerable more talk on road building. The anti-say an effort will be made to undo some of the administration's work of the 1921 session. The full legislative program will be more definitely drawn after the delivery of the governor's message. It is believed he will point out the main highways of legislative travel.

TALLAHASSEE, April 3.—Officials were named for both houses of the 1923 legislature at the usual pre-session caucuses last night. L. D. Edge, of Lake county, was elected by acclamation as speaker and J. Ed. Stokes of Bay county, elected speaker pro tem over Ben Hill Willard, of Dade and Thomas W. Bryan, of Polk. Mr. Stokes got 40 votes, Willard 24 and Bryan 18.

On the other side of the hall, Senator T. T. Turnbull, of Monticello, was named president of the upper body and Ben H. Lindsey, of Bonifay, elected pro tem. Both were named by acclamation. These being the only names submitted. In the case of Senator Lindsey, the nomination was

WOOLWORTH CO., COME TO SANFORD HAVE TWO STORES

BIG FIVE AND TEN CENT CORPORATION RECOGNIZE SANFORD AS GROWING CITY

The Woolworth Corporation, one of the largest in the world, and the operators of the original five and ten cent stores all over the world, have recognized Sanford as one of the coming cities of the state and yesterday signed a long lease for the Hill-Newman stores on First street next to the new Puleston-Brumley building. These two stores were occupied by Brady's Jewelry Store and B. L. Perkins, who will be forced to find new quarters as the store rooms will be remodeled and put in first class shape for the occupancy of the Woolworth company as soon as possible.

The plans call for another story on the building that is now one-story and the second floors will be used by the Woolworth Company as storage rooms. The first floors will be extended back to the alley in the rear and the fronts will be remodeled into up-to-date store fronts. The stores will have ladies rest rooms and will be most modern in every respect. With these two big store rooms and the second floor the Woolworth Corporation will carry one of the largest stocks of goods of any store in the state and they have made a fifteen year lease on the building demonstrating their faith in the future of Sanford and also showing that Sanford has attracted the eye of the biggest business firms in the country and especially of the chain stores who never operate in dead towns or towns that show no signs of rapid growth.

Woman's Club Building is Being Remodelled

The Woman's Club building is being remodelled and when finished it will be one of the most modern in the state. After many plans had been suggested for the disposal of this property and going farther out and building a new building it was finally decided that the club would remodel the old building and make an entire new plan and one that would embody all the details of a new building and the location in the center of the city would be much better than going farther out.

The new plans were drawn by Architect Elton Moughton and he is now in charge of the work which is being done by Contractor Frank Lussing who expects to push the building to completion. It will be one of the antique styles of architecture as Architect Moughton had to be guided by the contour of the old building in all his plans and also being guided by the saving of as much of the old structure as possible but the plans are out of the ordinary in club buildings and the new home will be most comfortable as well as imposing and have that "different" look that is so much sought after in these days of modern construction coupled with the idea of getting back to ancient designs for club houses and dwellings.

made by Senator W. H. Malone—of Key West, and seconded by Senator W. A. Russell of Crescent City, whose name had been mentioned for the place.

The senate caucuses disposed of its work in short order and adjourned. The Rev. R. E. Hoykin of the Episcopal church of this city drew the appointment as chaplain, the assignment having been left to Senator J. T. Knabb of MacClenny. Charles A. Finley was named secretary.

The house caucus tolled until well after midnight with balloting on the various attaches. Ben A. McGinnis, of Tallahassee, was named chief clerk; Buck Lader, reading clerk; Mrs. W. R. Dorman, bill clerk, and Miss Anne Bond, refiling clerk.

EX-GOV. BROUGH AT ROTARY TODAY GAVE FINE TALK

ON THE PRECEPTS AND EXAMPLES AS SET BY ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

The Sanford Rotary Club had one of the most interesting meetings of the year today at the Hotel Valdez and there were so many visitors that a long table was arranged in the big dining room instead of in the Palm Room as formerly. Mrs. F. E. Roumillat presided at the piano and added pep to the singing and the favorite Rotary songs went over better than ever before.

The following visitors were introduced by President Thrasher after Dr. Carpenter had invoked the blessing upon the deliberations of the club:

Miss Holt, of Vincennes, Indiana; Frank Phillips, of Columbus, Miss.; Coite Hill, of Orlando; T. J. Miller, president of the Sanford Building & Loan Association; George A. DeCotte, State's Attorney; T. W. Lawson, Superintendent of Public Instruction; J. J. Dickinson, Judge of the Circuit Court; Sheriff C. M. Hand, Jas. Sharon, Municipal Judge and president of the Kiwanis Club; Major Wilson, of St. Augustine with the state board of health, and City Manager Williams.

Miss Holt was called upon by the president for a stunt and gave a pantomime of the man trying to sew on a button that was greatly enjoyed. She later on gave another production of the little boy who wants to stay home from school and gave several hundred reasons why he should stay at home. Miss Holt is one of the entertainers at the Chautauqua tent and is very clever and made a big hit with the ladies and men present.

President Thrasher called for a ringing vote of thanks to the ladies present. Mrs. Holt, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, president of the Woman's Club and Mrs. Roumillat, a Rotary Ann.

"Bill Wright" platform manager of the Chautauqua was called upon to say a few words about the Chautauqua and used the time in giving thanks to the Sanford people and those responsible for "putting the Chautauqua over the top," and said that this big event was not local but any means but would be heard all over the country wherever Chautauqua is heard.

Ex-Governor Brough, of Arkansas, was then called upon and introduced by President Thrasher as being one of the big men of the country, the "war governor" of Arkansas, serving two terms as governor and the leader in the good roads movement and one of the progressive citizens not only of the south but of the whole country.

Governor Brough is a polished gentleman of the South and the talk he gave to the Rotary and all the guests of the meeting. Governor Brough in a few minutes covered ancient, medieval and past and present history showing what the different ages stood for and brought the trend of thought down to the present time touching on the fact that in the World War "making the world safe for democracy" and making Democracy safe for the world as being the motto under which the armies of the allies fought. His wonderful explanation of what "service" means to everyone in the world was summed up in the statement that those who would be kings and queens of the world must be servants of all and real service will bring the whole world out of the darkness of ignorance and despotism into the broad light of civilization, education, service to mankind and religion for all the world.

The Herald would like to give his fine talk in full but lack of space will not permit it. Suffice to say that he won the hearts of his hearers and demonstrated that he has a message for the men and women and children of Sanford tonight.

H. C. Dulose made a motion that the Rotary club sponsor the Chautauqua for another season which was unanimously adopted.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The expulsion of S. Barton Lander from the consolidated stock exchange on charges of "obvious fraud and false pretense" was announced late yesterday.

Van O. Browne Novelty to Open Tonight's Program

Tonight at 8 o'clock, the Van Browne Novelty Company, will open the evening program at the Redpath Chautauqua tent, on the lake front opposite the court house.

Van O. Browne, widely known impersonator, piano-accompanied player, pianist and harpist, is the feature artist of the Van Browne Novelty Company, popular entertainers, whose program sparkle with life and variety, and are a genuine chautauqua achievement.

Instrumental trios are among the outstanding features of a feast of music, both classical and popular in character, presented by this versatile company. Vocal numbers, piano-accompanied selection, rag pictures, magic and illusionary art, combined with master character impersonations, in costume, by Van O. Browne, all have a prominent place among the offerings of these top-notch novelty entertainers.

Following the concert, former Governor Brough, of Arkansas, will give his scholarly and inspiring address, "America's Leadership of the World."

Berkeley having attained to high position in public life, Charles H. Brough has achieved notable scholastic honors. He holds the degree of doctor of philosophy from Johns Hopkins University, and is one of the few men who have served as governors of American commonwealths to receive this degree. He held the chair of economics and sociology in leading colleges and universities in Mississippi and Arkansas for a period of sixteen years prior to his election as governor of Arkansas, in which capacity he served for two terms. He is well known as a writer on state and national problems, and has lectured on these subjects in all parts of the United States.

The lecture which he will deliver here is a rare combination of patriotic inspiration, practical idealism and educational value, seasoned with anecdotes and pungent witticisms. His utterances burn with an intense enthusiasm that generates in every American citizen a flaming pride in the past achievements and potential powers of our country.

The Herald delivered six times a week for 15c.

BANDITS MAKE A RICH HAUL IN ST. LOUIS

OVER $50,000 KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN SECURED BY THE ROBBERS

(By The Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, April 3.—Postoffice inspectors announced that a partial check of the registered mail obtained by bandits here yesterday showed the nine stolen pouches contained at least $51,250 in negotiable bonds. It is possible a complete check will show the robbers obtained negotiable paper running into the six figures it was said.

CHAUTAUQUA PLAY WAS EXCELLENT

There was a crowded tent last night for the play, "Turn to the Right," that was given by an excellent cast. Of course the scenery is not what a theater would furnish, the stage being very small, but in the splendid portrayal of character given by the company one forgot the fact that the play was not presented in a real theater building.

The play, "Turn to the Right," is of the Hazel-Kirk type, and every one seeing it was the better for the beautiful moral lesson conveyed.

The cast was extra fine, each character being well carried out, but among all the stars Mrs. Louis James shone bright in her character of the mother whose gentle ways and loving taking for granted that "the boys" would do every right thing, was the means of saving the two crooks to become useful citizens. Matrie Grest, as "Gilly," did a fine character sketch, and he was ably seconded by Gordon Gunnis, as "Muggs," and Andrew Johnson, as "Joe Beacom" and the cantankerous "Deacon," well played by William Marsh. Ruth Mitchell made an adorable ingenue, and the two girls, Madeline Eswood and Ann Bert, were splendid examples of the heroine, "Elsie Tallinger" and her friend "Mabel Strong."

Sanitary Inspector is on His Job and is Doing Good Work

The City Commissioners are to be congratulated on the progress of the work they inaugurated to make Sanford one of the healthiest cities in the state by enforcing the sanitary ordinances now on the statute books, and enacting others when the occasion required.

They are also to be congratulated on the appointment of Sanitary Inspector Moughton who is ably discharging the duties of his office and seeing that the letter of the law is being enforced without fear or favor. The general improvement to be noted in the alleys and vacant lots since he is on the job is commendable, and it is certain that the citizens of Sanford will co-operate with Mr. Moughton in his work.

In order to eliminate the usual excuse, ignorance of the law, the Commissioners have had the sanitary ordinances printed as to prevent argument when violations are called to the attention of unintentional offenders. It is not the purpose of the Sanitary Inspector to impose any hardship on any one, but he is determined to see that the ordinances are enforced and one notification of a violation should be sufficient in all cases.

By continual co-operation from all sources the tacky sections of the city will shortly be nothing but remembrances.

Kiwanis Invites You To Attend Meeting Wednesday at Noon

Plattenburg Will Be the Guest of Honor at This Meeting

One of the features on the Chautauqua program with a strong appeal to business men is the lecture by C. H. Plattenburg, of New York, on the subject "Loyalty to Your Home Town." Plattenburg is unanimously acknowledged an authority on community building and the problems relating thereto. In Chamber of Commerce circles he is in great demand for his talks are not only inspirational but practical.

Business men in civic where he has appeared are arranging for a return engagement in order that those who did not hear him may have another opportunity.

The Kiwanis Club, of Sanford, will have Plattenburg as their guest at their weekly luncheon Wednesday. The Kiwanians have very considerably thrown the meeting open to the Rotarians, members of the Chamber of Commerce and all business men of Sanford, and it is expected that a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this wonderful speaker at that time, and will also be present at the afternoon program when his subject will be "Loyalty to Your Home Town."

The latter address will begin at 4:00 p. m. an hour believed convenient to those whose time will not permit them to attend the musical feature of the afternoon program.

The Kiwanis luncheon will be held in the dining room of the Valdez Hotel at 12:15 p. m. The cost of the luncheon is $1.00 and those desiring to attend are asked to advise S. M. Lloyd, phone 102, not later than 9:30 a. m. Wednesday.

After Plattenburg's talk it is to be hoped that there will not be the same regrets voiced as has been the case in other communities, to the effect that but a few people heard him. It would cost the organization bringing him back $100 for the lecture which can be heard at this time for a nominal sum. Everyone is asked to give this portion of the program all publicity possible so that standing room will be at a premium Wednesday afternoon.

DR. J. F. MCKINNON DIES AT RUTHERFORD, N. C.

The many friends here of Dr. J. F. McKinnon were shocked yesterday to learn of his death which occurred at Rutherford, North Carolina, on Friday of last week. His death was due to probable poisoning from eating strawberry ice cream. He was buried at Rutherford Saturday.

Dr. J. F. McKinnon was pastor of the Presbyterian church here for six years, leaving this position to accept the one of superintendent of public instruction of Orange county which he held for one term. He then was called to the pastorate of the Oakland Presbyterian church and while pastor at this church was also principal of the Sanford schools for two terms. From there he went to South Carolina where he was head of a college and was engaged in college work at the time of his death. Before coming to Sanford he was engaged in preaching and in teaching in many of the colleges in the Carolinas and was well known in those states as a prominent educator.

Dr. McKinnon was a man of high talents, was a man of fine scholarly attainments and one who held the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

JUST REMINDERS

This column will be devoted each day to set before the Sanford people some reminders so that we will not forget the many fine things Sanford has and intends to have, as there are but few of us that realize the many achievements that are taking place about us every day. And the first of these reminders is, what we think, started the good work. Much credit is due our Chamber of Commerce.

This reminder—that the Chamber of Commerce was directly responsible for the marking of a new era in Sanford—should be a reminder that it behooves every one of us to be members of the Chamber of Commerce, whether we be a merchant, professional man, farmer, banker, rail road man or a retired capitalist. By doing this we do our share towards furthering Sanford interests and consequently benefit ourselves.

With the united efforts of the members of the Chamber of Commerce Sanford can't help but go ahead and go ahead fast. That means that Sanford real-estate will be more valuable each day and it also means that the man or men that make an investment in Sanford real estate NOW will have property worth many times the amount he paid for it in less than five years from now. The person renting, should make the change NOW before real estate values that jump; the person looking for a bigger or better place than he has now, should select his favorite location now before the prices advance, the person planning to build some houses for rental purposes should select his lots now instead of letting it cost him money by waiting. No matter whether your intentions are to buy a place for a home or whether you are making an investment, you should do it NOW—the man that buys real estate now, makes a bigger and better investment than the man who waits, even a year from now.

Your mind made up to buy your next home should be this—before you consult a real estate agency whose every day practice is based on dealings. Sanford has an agent that does not work for either side, works, and works hard, for both. It is that kind of an agency guarantees you real value for money. That agency is Maxwell & Britt. And some of the following ways and bargains are some of the offerings for today and every day them mean dollars in your pocket acted upon now.

A man that is looking for a place either as an investment or a home on right away, they offer a vision property unexcelled. No investment can be found than in the Heights. These lots, all between Palmco avenue and Palmco, with Magnolia running through the center, each lot cut larger than the ordinary lot, located on the best part of Sanford, right in line with the way Sanford is growing, put ON YOUR OWN TERMS, is a buy an investment hard to beat.

A corner facing east, on Palmco avenue (lot worth $1,250) now can be purchased for $1,500 on terms. A fine lot on 4th Avenue with all the street paving and side alleys paid for and beautiful box on a place, at a bargain $1,500 on terms. Park Avenue lot, on the heights, $300.00 cash, balance terms: acre lots on First street, all these the business district, if purchased you can be had for a bargain. Three lots on Laurel avenue, a real bargain all three for $1,050.00. Several good buys left in Rose Court. And my other lots, too numerous to mention.

For the buyer of a new home, look these over. Three new homes, all large ones, on Magnolia avenue with every kind of modern convenience, one of these homes capturing the prettiest interior of any home in Sanford, and any of these threat real bargains and on easy terms. A list of houses a "foot long" can be seen at Maxwell & Britt's place and amongst them are some real bargains.

It makes no difference what your needs may be, what kind of terms you want to buy on, no matter what kind of real estate, and no matter what kind of fire or casualty insurance, you can get fixed up in the proper way by consulting

SUPPRESS THE FACTS?

The Plant City Courier printed a big strawberry, in natural red, on its first page, to celebrate the passing of the million-dollar mark by the growers of that section

The Tribune hesitates, however, to give publicity to this interesting fact; for the reason that, a few days ago, this modest editorialist had the unusual experience of being "roasted" by one of these same Plant City strawberry growers

This grower took the remarkable position that such figures should not be published, because they caused people on the outside to feel the desire to come to Florida and engage in growing strawberries or similar pursuits!

If it is not the desire of Florida to have people from other states and sections move into the state and become investors and producers, then this particular grower is entitled to credit for discovering the appalling fact

If newspapers are to suppress facts and figures of Florida's wonderful productivity, of the returns gained by thrifty farmers who till its soil, in order that new citizens and settlers may not be induced to come here—then all Florida advertising, newspaper publicity, private and public boosting and organized development work had just as well stop and stop right now

Yet, if The Tribune should come out some day with a statement that the reports of Plant City strawberry production were exaggerated, that no such quantity was shipped and no such money received for the crop, that Plant City was simply padding its facts and figures to fool the outside public—why automobiles couldn't be driven fast enough to suit the eagerness of delegations from Plant City who would speed to this office to demand a correction; and the telephones and mails would be entirely inadequate to get to the Tribune the indignant orders to "stop the paper"

But this particular grower is wrong. He has a mistaken viewpoint. The Tribune knows that the growers of Plant City do not agree with him—Tampa Tribune

TAXES MUST BE REDUCED OR ELSE—

The landslide that put the Republican party in power two years ago will slide the other way two years hence. The reason for the slide is that the Republican party promised the people some relief from taxation that taxes the poor and lets the rich slide

Protection of the farmer, just taxation, and reconciliation of labor and capital, as plank in the Democratic platform would win the 1924 presidential campaign, William Jennings Bryan said tonight in his first address on political questions since the announcement by Attorney General Daugherty that President Harding will be a candidate for re-election

Mr. Bryan said that the Harding administration had done nothing to solve the problem of labor unrest, that it had not acted out justice to the farmer

Taxation will be a vital question in the 1924 campaign, the former secretary of state said

The rich are trying to saddle their fighting against increased taxation, taxes on the poor, and the poor are the Republicans have taken 270 millions from the rich and spread it over the backs of the poor

Mr. Bryan described the republican effort to squeeze through the ship subsidy bill and how the democrats met the issue

"A program for tax legislation in the next congress tentatively agreed upon by the 'progressive bloc' of the house was made public today by Representative Frear, Republican of Wisconsin, who declared 'several measures have been drawn to meet weaknesses of the 1921 revenue law'

"The bloc, he said in a statement, will urge adoption of a constitutional amendment to bring investments in tax free securities and stock dividends within the taxing powers of the federal government, an increase in the inheritance tax and enactment of a gift tax with a retroactive tax of undistributed profits and an excess Legislation which would require the treasury to make tax records public also will be sponsored," said Mr. Frear, adding that "any proposal to enact a sales tax will meet with certain defeat"

Commenting on the need for a constitutional amendment to reach tax free holdings or stock dividends, the Wisconsin representative, who is a member of the house ways and means committee, said that single individuals often hold millions of dollars tax free, "whereas many professional men are paying far larger taxes on their personal service income," "this grossly unjust result," he added, "is due to tax evasion made possible by court decisions in this country"

"In proposing an increase of the inheritance tax, those who favor such a measure, Mr. Frear said, would grant certain credits, "where state laws overlap the federal laws on inheritance taxes. A gift tax, he declared, will be urged as servicable in preventing estate tax evasions

"By making the undistributed profits taxes retroactive, the friends of such legislation would hope, Mr. Frear stated, "to reach corporate surpluses laid aside annually and afterward distributed in stock dividends"

"Such a practice, he declared, was 'unjust to the little stockholder and is responsible for great monopolies that have absorbed all rivals through surplus profits that pay no personal income tax'

"THE LIFE WHICH IS THE BLOOD" GEN. 9-4

No Statement in All Biblical Literature Contains More of Truth, and None Has Been So Universally Neglected to the Great Detriment of the Health and Bodily Vigor of Mankind

THE BLOOD CONTAINS THE LIFE, THEREFORE THE BLOOD MUST BE KEPT PURE, IF WE WOULD BE HEALTHY

The RE-CU-MA Way Is Nature's Way

Modern civilization offers many obstacles to pure blood. In order to keep the blood pure the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels must be kept active

RE-CU-MA eliminates the impurities and poisons by Nature's method. RE-CU-MA stimulates and makes active the Kidneys—one of the most important poison eliminators of the entire body

Modern civilization renders this difficult. Our forefathers walked much. They exercised freely in the open air. We ride and do not get the exercise needed by our bodies to keep the vital organs active and at work

Our Forefathers ate whole wheat bread, the bran was there, and the bran was put there by nature to enable the intestines and bowels to properly remove the wastes and poisons

Our Forefathers raised and killed their own meat, which was fresh and full of natural juices. We eat meat filled with preservatives and kept in cold storage sometimes for months

Our Forefathers slept eight to nine hours—they retired early, but we have electric lights and our nervous systems rarely get the peaceful quiet sleep and rest they so badly need

We are not living natural but artificial lives, and as a result of this we need more medicines to assist nature to do the things that will keep us well, than at any time in the history of our race

SANFORD COUNTRY CLUB SENDS REPRESENTATIVE TO JACKSONVILLE

One of the biggest events of the year in the golfing of the State takes place at Jacksonville this week when the State championship amateurs holds forth. They tee off tomorrow, and at the start it will find the Sanford Country Club with a representative there in the form of one "Chief" Chittenden. This brings promises to be a big affair and the Jacksonville Journal has the following to say about it:

The first out-of-town entrants for the ninth annual State Amateur Golf Association tournament to be played over the Timuquana course Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday were recorded Monday morning at various hotels in the city. Delegations from Tampa and Ocala have arrived, and will put in all of Monday and Tuesday practicing on the course and be ready for turning in low qualifying scores Wednesday.

Tampa's delegation, seven strong, and which will be increased greatly here this year, and will put forth Wednesday, expects to take top ward Gordon Gibbons, former champion, as the best bet to beat out Al Ulmer, present champion, and other Mason are: Gordon Gibbons, Hobers. The delegation, quartered at the Ferriss, C. B. Murphy, Col. M. J. Gibbons, president of the Ulna Ceia Golf Club; J. C. McCabe, J. T. Swann and Henry Bolesta. The Ocala lineup consists of Clarence Camp, N. T. Davis and Frank Harris, Jr.

The entry list is far above figures of past years for the event, and with the closing date still two days off, there is every reason to look for between 200 and 300 amateurs from all parts of the state competing.

The entry fee is $3 and must be paid to Secretary Frank Rogers, 329 Laura, at the same time that the entry is filed.

Qualifying Round Wednesday.
The qualifying round will be Wednesday with match play slated to get under way Thursday. There will be a medal for the lowest qualifying scorer also runner-up. The same will be provided for all winners and runners-up in all flights.

Interest in the tournament this year has been the greatest in the history of the association, according to Secretary Rogers, whose desk is littered with correspondence relative to the tourney locally. Jacksonville has never shown as much interest, Secretary Rogers a week or so ago announced he expected to have 100 amateurs from this city alone entered in the tourney and to date the number is rapidly nearing the century mark.

Two former champions of the association, "Tub" Palmer, of Miami, and George Gibbons, of Tampa, together with Al Ulmer of this city, present champ are entered for this week's play.

Five Titles to Jax. Men.
Of the eight tournaments to date, the title has been won by Jacksonville representatives on five occasions, Ulmer copping four times and J. D. Harnett winning the other time. The other champions for the association, are T. W. Palmer, of Miami, George Gibbons, of Tampa, and W. A. Knight, of St. Augustine.

The Timuquana course is now in excellent condition and is a wonderful site for the golf sport. The clubhouse and grounds were thrown open Sunday for the first time to entrants for the approaching tourney. All entrants for the tournament will be able to practice over the course again today and Tuesday.

Par for Timuquana is 72. The record for the course is held by Al Ulmer with a 68.

A brief list of entrants to date includes Al Ulmer, Ben Hardacre, T. W. Palmer, George Gibbons, Ted Foster, Joel H. Tucker, Fred Kausor, Tommy Aycock, Julian Hardridge, B. E. Bennett, R. D. Pope, Lee Chase, Clarence Camp and others.

Champs for Meet to Date.
Past champions in order for the association, follow:
1914—A. C. Ulmer, Jacksonville.
1915—J. D. Harnett, Jacksonville.
1916—T. W. Palmer, Miami.
1917—A. C. Ulmer, Jacksonville.
1918—No tournament held.
1919—W. A. Knight, St. Augustine.
1920—George Gibbons, Tampa.
1921—A. C. Ulmer, Jacksonville.
1922—A. C. Ulmer, Jacksonville.

WRESTLING MATCH AT LAKE MARY

The Herald job department has just completed the printing of the big posters advertising the wrestling match next Thursday evening at the Lake Mary Skating Academy. The contest is between Jack Ross, who claims the championship of this state, and Ralph King, who is a western wrestler of prominence. Both men are in the pink of condition and it is expected by the promoters that the match will be one of the most hotly contested ever pulled off here.

King is the man who recently won all the falls with several of the best local talent. The admission price is small and tickets are now on sale at Bowers'. Get a ticket and help to bring clean sport to Sanford.

The reason laws were not broken so frequently in the old days was because they were not put together so darned carelessly.

Hagen-Kirkwood Win in Pinehurst Match

PINEHURST, N. C., April 3.—Walter Hagen, who added the North and South open golf championship to his string of titles here and Joe Kirkwood, his traveling partner, played against Emmett French, of Youngstown, and Alex Ross, of Detroit, on the championship course Sunday and won, 3 to 2. Kirkwood played the round in 69 or two strokes under the par total and Hagen and French took only one stroke more.

Alex Ross finished with a 73. Hagen and Kirkwood had six birdies in addition to an eagle three negotiated by Hagen on the fifth hole. French and Ross disposed of five holes under the par figures.

Beware the Garbage Pail

SOME garbage pails are inoffensive—others a disgrace. Which is yours? Depends on how you treat it. To keep it odorless and harmless demands frequent cleaning. But you can make the job easy and thorough by using Giant Lye. If you don't, flies, odors and unsafe conditions develop. Use Giant for two reasons: it's better because it distinguishes as it cleans; and cheaper, because it goes farther and costs less.

DIRECTIONS: With an old broom scour the inside of the pail with 3 tablespoons of Giant Lye dissolved in 4 quarts of hot water, rinse with clear water and dry.
