

STEPS TAKEN TO STOP EVIL OF HOARDING

Hoover Calls Conference For Purpose Of Helping Unload Unproductive Sums

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Seeking to tap a supply of hoarded dollars estimated at $1,500,000,000, President Hoover yesterday issued a sudden call for a national conference of civil leaders to help unload this huge pile of unproductive money.

The chief executive's announcement—setting the meeting time at 10 o'clock Saturday morning—spoke of the creation of a "national organization" to direct hidden sums "into the channels of economic life."

Leaders here hailed the move as the first major objective by the administration against hoarded funds. The president himself, analyzing in terse phrase what he considers the evils of the practice, indicated a belief that retention of the hidden $1,500,000,000 to commerce might mean a credit expansion of as much as $10,000,000,000. He said:

"Every dollar hoarded means a destruction of from five to 10 dollars of credit. Credit is the blood stream of our economic life. Restriction or destruction of credit cripples the revival and expansion of agriculture, industry and employment."

Celery And Salt To Be Sold At Bus, Railway Stations

Celery hearts of a high quality and flavor, plus a small bag of salt, will be offered for sale at all bus and train passengers entering Sanford, beginning Friday of this week. The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the plan, and will have an official representative in charge of all sales.

The trade body has also designated two booths on roads leading into Sanford from which information will be distributed free to all motorists. Celery will also be sold at these booths, one of which is located at Monroe corner, operated by G. E. Atkinson; the other located at the intersection of French Avenue and the Sanford-Orlando highway, south of the city.

Mr. Atkinson has been operating an attractive fruit and vegetable stand at the Monroe corner since last August. He is equipped to handle 500 crates of oranges daily, and during the past month he has sent out over 400 crates of celery. He has loaded four full trucks of oranges, and on practically every truck-load of citrus there has been placed three or four crates of celery, offering an additional outlet and wider distribution for this county's chief agricultural product.

The trade body has erected an electrically lighted sign over this booth, with an arrow directing traffic toward Orlando via Sanford, over State Road Number Three.

Mr. C. E. Dean, proprietor of the Sanford Young filling station, has agreed to handle celery hearts and distribute information to all motorists entering or leaving Sanford, in that vicinity.

The Chamber of Commerce celery committee urges all motorists to take celery hearts, either in a small bag, or in a small box, and to give them to the person who is to be the beneficiary of the celery.

2 Solons Die Within Hour Of Each Other

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Representatives Percy Quinn, Mississippi, and Samuel Rutherford, Georgia, died within less than an hour of each other here today. Quinn was a veteran of almost 20 years in the House. He had been ill more than a month. Rutherford dropped dead while shaving in his hotel. He had been a member since 1925. Both were Democrats. Their deaths were the first since Huey Long, Louisiana, took the oath of office a week ago to give Congress its full membership for the first time this session and brought the present House standing to 218 Democrats to 213 Republicans, one farmer laborer, and three vacancies. Quinn was one of the most colorful members of the House and was chairman of the military affairs committee. Rutherford was chairman of the elections committee.

MELLON NAMED AMBASSADOR TO GREAT BRITAIN

Head Of U.S. Treasury Accepts Appointment By President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Ogden Mills, under secretary of the Treasury, was chosen today by President Hoover to succeed Andrew Mellon as head of the nation's financial department. A little later it was said authoritatively that Arthur Ballantine, assistant secretary of the Treasury, would succeed Mills as under secretary.

The rapid shift was due to the appointment of Mills to the important post of ambassador to Great Britain succeeding Charles Dawes, president of the Reconstruction Corporation just when the changes will become effective were not announced. The appointment of Mellon as ambassador to Great Britain was termed a (Continued on Page Three)

PLATFORM OF ROOSEVELT IS TAKING SHAPE

Virtually Completed With Stand On War Debt, League, Tariff In Recent Address

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Governor Roosevelt's personal platform, upon which he will rest his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination was largely completed by his declarations on the League of Nations, war debts and the tariff.

When he asserted in a speech to the New York state senate that he was opposed to the United States participating in the League, he answered a question that has puzzled politicians since Roosevelt was projected into the presidential picture a year and a half ago.

Roosevelt has not since the fall of 1930 declared himself on prohibition but nothing has occurred since then to indicate he has changed his mind. During the gubernatorial campaign of that year he said federal prohibition should be repealed and a new amendment enacted to restore liquor control to the states.

In a letter to United States Senator Wagner, keynoter of the 1930 State Democratic convention, the governor asserted that not only should the states be given control, but that there should be "definite recognition of the extension of home rule to the lower subdivisions of government, a recognition of the states' right."

Weekly Luncheon Held Wednesday By Kiwanis Club

Members of the Sanford Kiwanis Club met for their weekly luncheon yesterday and heard E. F. Housholder, as the main speaker on the program, discuss Sanford's local problems. Following Mr. Housholder's talk, Al Rothwell, of the Winter Park Kiwanis Club, extended an invitation from that club that Sanford and Winter Park stage an inter-club meeting on Mar. 21, in the Orange County city. It was referred to the Inter-Club committee.

Present at the luncheon were: Kiwanians P. S. Lamson, V. A. Speer, J. L. Marenzeller, J. G. Leonard, C. R. Mason, H. W. Rucker, S. F. Doughty, Karl Lehmann, Howard Overlin, E. B. Randall, Jr., Jno D. ## Business College To Be Opened In Sanford

The American Business Colleges, with a record of 15 years of successful operation of high class commercial schools, and schools in several Florida cities, expect to open a modern, fully equipped business college in Sanford within a few days.

Just as soon as a sufficient number of contracts can be secured, a regular resident school, taught by graduate commercial teachers, with both day and night sessions, will be opened, as a permanent institution.

In order to secure a nucleus of 25 students which are necessary for the opening of the school, 10 free scholarships are offered to acceptable students. Details as to the awarding of the scholarships, valued as high as $75 each, can be secured from a representative of the college, who will be at the Chamber of Commerce offices, City Hall, until 6 o'clock tonight.

Friendly Folks

A Little Chat With The Secretary Of The Seminole County Chamber Of Commerce

She had recently come to Sanford from another and a larger city in Florida. She had been raised in a large city in the middle west and she knew folks and communities might well. Before she had been in Sanford two weeks, she said, "I like this little city because of the friendliness of its people. They are most cordial folks. They greet a stranger with a friendly attitude and make you feel they want you, too, to enjoy their city."

"The clerks in the stores are courteous and obliging, if they don't have exactly what you want they try to get it for you. They make you feel they appreciate your patronage and want to merit it."

It is a fine thing for a city to get such a reputation. It is worth dollars and cents to the stores whose employees merit it and it is worth much more than dollars and cents to the pride and satisfaction it brings of service well rendered.

Service with a smile is a well practiced slogan by many stores in this community and they are the ones that do the business.

Folks enjoy trading with a store whose owners and employees seem to appreciate the customer.

STATE'S DOCTOR SAYS RUTH JUDD ISN'T DEMENTED

PHOENIX, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Dr. J. D. Maudlin, Maricopa county physician, testified at the Winnie Judd murder trial today that she told him she did not and could not have remembered the body of her victim. He testified he "would say she was sane" when she is alleged to have killed Agnes Lellol and Hedvig Samuelson, her friends. Miss Samuelson's body was discovered when both bodies were found in baggage in a Los Angeles station.

SUNKEN ENGLISH SUB IS LOCATED AFTER LONG HUNT

PORTLAND, England, Feb. 4.—The steel hull of the British submarine M-2, sunk off the coast of Norway, was located today after a long hunt. The wreckage of many vessels on the floor of Dead Man's Bay. Wrecks of the British Navy, including back and forth in a funeral procession over the tomb of the disaster, located the missing submarine in 100 feet of water after seven days of fruitless search.

The M-2 was found alongside a German U-boat, one of the great U-boat craft of Britain's foe in the World War, which had been sunk more than a dozen years. The German craft was covered with barnacles, the divers reported.

Lifting ladders were unrolled to the point, 58 miles off Portland Hill, where the submarine sank "stern first" during the exercise in the English Channel. Again divers went down into water where they had repeatedly searched for the M-2 and this time they reported its discovery.

The annual convention of the Churches of God of Florida will open at the Church of God, Geneva and Sanford avenues tonight at 7:30 o'clock when the Rev. W. I. Campbell, pastor of the church, will deliver a welcoming address. Approximately 200 out-of-town delegates from all sections of Florida are said to be here, with at least 100 more expected before the convention closes next Sunday night.

Plant Enthusiast Is Visitor To Sanford

Mrs. Hubert Buckley, of Rushin, Fla., whose husband is said to be one of Florida's foremost horticulturists, was in Sanford yesterday, visiting Mrs. Henry Wright, of the Sanford Garden Club, and gathering specimens of rare and unusual plants.

She and Mrs. Wright later visited Geneva and the home of Mrs. E. C. Carlet and Prof. T. L. Munn, where several samples of plants were secured, as well as some data on recent findings of Mr. Munn.

Mrs. Buckley is at present engaged in promoting the interests of the Meyer Lemon, a new variety which he is endeavoring to produce in Florida. He is a vegetable horticulturist.

LEAGUE ASKED TO AID CHINESE IN MANCHURIA

China Wants Its Rich Province Included In Plan To Settle Sino-Jap Conflict

GENEVA, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—The rich province of Manchuria, pushed into the background by the recent dramatic events in Shanghai and Nanking, was thrust forward again yesterday when the Chinese demanded that the great powers and the League include it in their concerted plan to settle the Sino-Japanese conflict.

Tokyo's opposition to any such action was registered with Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the League by Tameo Matsudaira, Japanese ambassador at London, and Nantake Sato, Tokyo's spokesman at the League.

They said the peace program submitted to Japan by the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy could be applied only to the Shanghai situation.

It was learned the British government and presumably the American government—intended that the powers' intervention scheme should seek the ultimate (Continued on Page Five)

American Women And Children Are Sent From Nanking

NANKING, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Thirty-six American women and children were evacuated from Nanking yesterday aboard the British steamer Woonung, which will take them to Shanghai. British women and children also were aboard.

Other members of the American colony will be taken out of Nanking on the United States destroyer Sloop, now anchored off the Nanking docks.

Foreign business men and missionaries declined to remain in the city for the present. The American consulate did not advise its nationals to get out of the city but offered assistance to all who desired it. The British consular authorities warned that British women and children should be taken to places of safety.

Sir Miles Lampson, British minister to China, was expected to leave Nanking. He has been at Tientsin and his return here was delayed by heavy troop movements on the Tientsin-Pukow railway. It was understood urgent instruction that he proceed to Shanghai awaited him here.

Among those evacuated on the steamer Woonung were the families of employees of the American International Export Company, the Texaco Oil Company and the British-American Tobacco Company.

Fruit Men To Visit Experiment Station

A motorcade of approximately 10 cars, bearing Seminole County citrus growers, will leave Lyman School, Longwood, Friday morning, Feb. 12, at 10:00 o'clock for a day's visit at the Lake Alfred Citrus Experiment station. The motorcade is sponsored by the Longwood and Geneva Citrus Evening Classes, and Alex E. Johnson and C. E. Dawson, county vocational agriculture teachers, will head the delegation.

All citrus growers in the county who are interested in improving conditions on their properties, are urged to join with the group. Luncheon will be had at Lake Alfred, following which the afternoon will be spent in an inspection of the station, and several model orange groves nearby. It is the intention of the sponsors to have all persons back in Sanford by sundown.

Japs Agree To Stop Attacks If Chinese Cease Hostile Acts

At Same Time Japanese Forces Launch Renewed Onslaught In Chapei District

(By The Associated Press) Japan informed the United States and the Great Britain powers with whom she is co-operating to end hostilities in the Far East that Japanese forces will stop hostile acts if the Chinese "immediately and completely cease their disturbing activities."

Almost at the same time the notification was given the ambassadors at Tokyo. Japanese blue jackets in Shanghai renewed a slashing attack on the Chinese Chapel area and the Chinese appeared to be holding their own.

Meantime America and Great Britain again protested to Japan against the use of the international settlement at Shanghai as a base for operations. For at Woonung withstood another terrible bombardment from Japanese warships but neither side appeared to have gained any important advantage.

Three hundred marines were landed at Shanghai from the United States cruiser Houston. A full division of the Japanese army will be sent to Shanghai to replace the blue jackets. Japanese headquarters were busy directing the intricate street fighting and synchronizing by radio the attacks by airplane bombers. Chinese resistance was too great, however, and the Japanese forces gained little.

Foreign Minister Kenkichi Yoshida said this morning that Japan could not agree to the power suggestions in their present form, and that he was making counter-proposals.

The particular cause of the difficulty is the fifth item of the plan. This item provides for settlement of all outstanding controversies between China and Japan in the spirit of the Brand-Kellogg pact and the League of Nations resolution of Dec. 9, which set up a commission of five neutrals to investigate the conflict.

The foreign minister declared that Japan never could agree to outside intervention in Sino-Japanese negotiations. This was in line with his statement yesterday that "refusal to permit any third (Continued on Page Four)

Gandhi's Son Puts Love Of Country Ahead Of Romance

NEW DELHI, India, Feb. 4.—(A.P.)—Caught between love and duty, Devi Das, youngest son of the Mahatma Gandhi, has chosen duty in preference to a beautiful 19-year-old bride.

Inspired here Tuesday in the government's drastic drive on Indian nationalists, Devi Das made a deliberate decision to court arrest for civil disobedience, it became known. Simultaneously was revealed his romance with the charming daughter of C. R. Rajagopalachari, one of his father's closest friends and longtime president of the Indian national congress.

The marriage of the young couple was arranged a few hours before the mahatma was imprisoned at Poona. The widowed old leader gave Devi Das in marriage before he was whisked to jail, and the ceremony was to have come about at the earliest possible moment.

Faced with the knowledge that a warrant was out for his arrest, and knowing full well that flight to the northwestern frontier trouble spots would mean immediate detention, young Gandhi attempted to make the flight. He was promptly seized and played in jail making the fourth member of the national family who has suffered imprisonment in the renewal of civil disobedience.

PHILIP PERKINS, TOOMER WIN 1ST ROUND MATCHES

Two Sanford Entries Advance In Play On St. Augustine Links

ST. AUGUSTINE, Feb. 3.—Philip Perkins, former British amateur golf champion and Jack Toomer, Jacksonville star, who won the medal in the qualifying round of the national championship of Clob Champions, won their matches handily in the first round yesterday but most of the other winners had real struggles in their collective hands.

As a matter of fact even Perkins was rather hard pressed to win, for he came to the seventeenth hole all even with Commander Patton, former South Carolina State star, in succession to obtain a victory. Perkins, around in 75, was always in command of the situation but Patton deserves great credit for his excellent fight.

Among the results that were figured as upsets were the victory of G. W. Spencer of Sanford over L. L. Merrill of Maine and Florida University by one up, the defeat of Tom Somerville by J. T. Wood of New York state, the defeat of Sam Freeth of New York by Don Rocelli of New Britain, Conn., and the defeat of Gray Singleton by F. Lemaistre.

All of these matches were close and well played. These Spencer brothers appear to be very big indeed. G. W. conquered Merrill on the last green by dropping a 35-footer while Merrill missed a short putt. James was always in the lead in his match with Stanton Harbour of Arcola, N. Y.

Jack Ryerson was hard pressed to beat H. A. Henderson on the last hole and Cushman's win over Caldwell Thomas of Troy, N. Y., by 2 and 1 was also rated as an upset.

The four previous winners of this tournament Tom Wingate, Carl Dann, Howard Tryon and Perkins are still in and apparently will eventually meet in the late rounds. Toomer, who is favored as a likely winner, continues to play fine golf. He will have a real match on his hands today as will the others.

Beginning with today's round there should be plenty of fireworks in this tournament. Among the matches which seem likely to provide plenty of thrills for today are Lansell v. Dann, Rocelli v. Mitchell, Tryon v. Wilson and Toomer v. Lemaistre.

Sunken English Sub Is Located After Long Hunt

at the scene reported back to the admiralty, but it has not yet been decided whether to raise the 1930-ton underwater craft. The divers continued their investigation in an effort to disclose the cause of its sinking.

The M-2 had actually been located earlier in the day, but the officers on the destroyer could not be sure of the identification of the craft they had found. There are many wrecks on the floor of Dead Man's Bay near Portland, where countless ships went down during the World War.

True, and again during the search for the M-2, which sank Jan. 26, the rescue vessel had reported the finding of "submarine," but each time the divers went down they reported that the debris—sounding apparatus and dragging lines—had merely come in contact with old wrecks.

It was not until 10:30 o'clock last night, after the naval officers aboard destroyers at the scene of work, confirmed identification of the M-2. There were 8 men and officers, and two members of the crew of the M-2, which sank Jan. 26, the rescue vessel had reported the finding of "submarine," but each time the divers went down they reported that the debris—sounding apparatus and dragging lines—had merely come in contact with old wrecks.

Long ago the admiralty had officially announced that all hope for rescue of the crew alive was gone. It was estimated that they lived possibly two days trapped in the steel coffin on the ocean floor after the submarine was disabled and sank, providing the crew was not damaged in sinking.

After that, naval experts said, they must have suffocated.

Apparently some as yet unexplained tragedy occurred on the M-2 as all of the men aboard were equipped with the Davis "safety" long apparatus, which is designed to permit men to escape from a sunken submarine. So far as is

Mellon Named Ambassador To Great Britain

"great initial pardon" by Representative Patman, of Texas, sponsor of impeachment charges against the Treasury head, "You can't impeach him if he leaves office but while he continues as secretary I intend to push my charges," Patman said.

President Hoover offered him the London portfolio, leaving in mind Mellon's familiarity with the nation's financial and other aspects of international economic relations with which he will deal.

Serving through troublous times, Mellon has seen the object of praise of the highest order and criticism and denunciation as well. The latter reached a climax in the recent issue of Representative Patman, Democrat, Texas, to impeach the Treasury head. His resolution to bring this about was the subject of recent hearings before the House Judiciary Committee. The proposals is now in the hands of known, none of them attempted to reach the surface with the apparatus, possibly because the ship turned over and blocked the hatch ways.

The M-2 was located close to the spot where the captain of the ship, Crown of Denmark reported he saw flames a week ago yesterday.

It was considered a tragedy that rescue ships were cruising over the spot within a few hours after the M-2 was reported missing and that, within 21 hours, after the ship went down, divers inspected two weeks within a quarter of a mile of the sunken submarine. At that time the men in the M-2 might have been alive and there was still hope for their rescue.

a sub committee. He came into the cabinet on Mar. 1, 1921, under the appointment from President Harding, and has continued in office under three presidents. He has also served longer than any other cabinet officer except Albert Gallatin, who held the office from 1801 to 1813, and James Wilson, who held it from 1801 to 1813.

Mellon came to the Treasury from the presidency of the Mellon National Bank at Pittsburgh, Pa., which he piloted to a position of leading importance in the financial affairs of the nation.

As secretary he translated the government's financial policy. During his term the national debt was reduced from $26,000,000,000 to $17,000,000,000. He has been a constant advocate of reduced taxation.

For years there have been recurring rumors that Mellon will resign. Time and again he has said there was no truth in them.

The post at London was left vacant by the resignation of Charles G. Dawes, who has since become the president of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Jap Gold Holdings Seen Diminishing

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Japan's present gold holdings are estimated at $100,000,000. It was sold in Wall Street banking circles recently, according to The Associated Press, thus raising the question of how well prepared for war she might be financially.

Three months ago her reserves were $271,000,000, but since the end of November Japan had shipped large amounts of the metal, especially to the United States. This reduction in the volume of gold in the nation, it is pointed out, partly explains recent weakness in the Japanese currency, and, now off the gold basis. What part of the loss may have been offset by imports from China and India is not known here.

Only 'live days' stand between the merry-makers and the final and climaxing days of the revelry. Next Tuesday, Mardi Gras Day, the city's entire population of half a million persons and several thousand winter vacationers and carnival visitors will break into wild commotion and merriment. General masking will be in effect. Rex, Comus and Proteus, the Kings of Misrule, will be crowned during the ceremonies of the day.

Last night the Krewé of Mystery spent "a Night on the Moon" in a spectacular ball and tableau pageant. The scene was laid in a garden on the moon where Cupid reunited lovers of history and fiction. Miss Marjorie Stale reigned as Venus over the affair.
